NEED A JOB? If you're retired and have a background in heating, cooling, architecture or engineering, the city of Westland needs your expertise. Under a program called Westland Energy Savings for Tomorrow, the Michigan Energy Administration will be paying eight persons $7.50 an hour to perform energy analyses on small businesses and industries in the city.

The energy audit, which is a free service for businesses and industries, will take three to eight hours to perform. Energy auditors will work with business owners to provide suggestions on low-cost energy conservation measures.

After a three-day training seminar, auditors set their own schedules, working as many or as few hours as they wish. Dale Farland, city planning director, said they can even take a vacation.

Despite that flexibility, Farland said the city is having trouble finding eight qualified people. If you're interested, call her at 721-6000.

THREE STUDENTS from St. Raphael School in Garden City have been named local winners in the 14th annual America & Me essay contest sponsored by Farm Bureau Insurance Group.

The winners were first place, Jim Roggenbeck of Garden City; second place, Kim Holman of Westland; and third place, Jennifer Sarasozo of Canton.

The top 10 winners in the state will be honored at a Lansing banquet and will receive plaques and U.S. savings bonds.

ON GUARD! Students at Willwood School got the point when the University of Michigan fencing team, including Shella Leers of Westland, paid a visit to the school recently.

The team put on two presentations. Students in the early elementary grades saw a skit about Sir Arthur and Sir William, who saved kindergarten teacher, Barbara Saum, from the evil knights.

Besides performing several bouts, the team explained to both groups the role of fencing as a sport and the clothing needed. The team included foil, epee and saber fencers.

YOU'VE probably heard of the PTL Club, but have you heard about the WST Club? We hadn't until student Elsa Dupree, secretary, wrote to tell us that the Willwood Social Thinkers (WST) Club was performing a play called "The Trials of Tillie." The play, Lisa said, is about health and is part of a class at school.

"We enjoy being a club and learning all kinds of lessons independently," said Lisa, who also stars in the play in the role of Tillie. Other players included Kyna Morgan, Jeremy Banks, Michelle Henry and Dori Haaglund.

NEED HELP with your taxes? Help is available for seniors from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. through April 15 at the Whittier Center, 28550 Ann Arbor Trail. Except for Wednesdays, the AARP Chapter 1642 will be on hand to prepare all forms.

A private tax consultant will be available 1:30-4 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Senior Friendship Center, 37095 Marquette, to help those 60 and older, disabled or retired with all tax forms. Fee is $10 for those with a taxable income of $7,500 for a single person or $10,000 for a couple.

Police lift Hines signs to prevent park trouble

By Maurie Walker
staff writer

With the early spring weather, Hines Drive, a constant headache for police departments, is getting a close look by police agencies in Westland and Plymouth.

Although there have been no reports of physical problems along the drive area, parking already is becoming a worry.

To get a jump on the expected crowds along the Westland strip from Inkster to Joy roads, Westland police temporarily have removed the parallel parking signs.

In addition, police have closed the driveway that leads from Hines into the nature center.

"We are going to patrol the area very heavily and insist on strict enforcement of the non-parking areas," Inspector Fred Dansby of the Westland Police Department said.

"We want people to enjoy the park area, but we aren't going to put up with any troublemakers," he added.

summer after several incidents near the nature center, which had become a congregation area.

At that time, Westland put some 15-20 cars on the road, patrolling heavily in the busy hours.

"We intend to do the same thing this year," Dansby added.

During the past warm days, more and more cars have been drifting to the parkway, again causing traffic problems.

THE CITY OF Plymouth Police Department reported that an estimated 800 people have been gathering in the Haggerty field area in Plymouth Township, causing overcrowding. Many cars have been parked illegally.

Plymouth police have closed off the driveway of the park north of Haggerty to prevent traffic problems. This also was done last year.

Chief Carl Berry of Plymouth said they will strictly enforce the parking laws, as is the case with Westland police.

"We intend to patrol our portion of the parkway heavily until the sheriff steps up its patrol around May 16," Berry said.

During the busy season last year, Plymouth closed off one section of the drive for one night due to large gathering around the Haggerty field area.

Berry had said earlier he was afraid the sheriff's patrol will come too late.

"My concern is that they're going to be down there after the problems start," he added.

Sheriff Loren Pittman has said some 19 deputies will patrol Hines Park from May 16 until Oct. 20.

Last year Westland, Plymouth and Livonia police were forced to patrol the 17-mile park which runs through seven western Wayne County communities.

Pittman has a $316,000 budget for park patrol this year.

"We're now in the process of gearing up to go into the park," Pittman said.

HINES PARK has been the scene of many problems over the past few years. These problems have included, in addition to illegal parking and crowds, drinking, drugs and some incidents of shooting.

There have been battles between civilians and police, especially with sheriff's deputies who in the past had carried the majority of patrols.

Police are hoping that by putting in restrictions and exposure early, they will solve problems before they start.

Pittman has said that if he senses problems starting in the park, he won't hesitate to ask the county executive (William Lucas) to go in early.

There has been talk that Pittman hopes to open the Hines Park mini-station at Newburgh Road.

The mini-station allows deputies more time for patrol since arrested violators can be taken there rather than downtown.

Both Dansby and Berry are hoping the deputies can return to the park in force, thus easing the burden on their departments.

This squirrel will do anything for a peanut — even take it from the mouth of Jason Whitfield, 9, a student at Hayes Elementary School. Jason's father, Jim Whitfield, discovered the courageous squirrel by accident. "It flipped me out," he said. Whitfield found that the squirrel would take a peanut from his mouth, running up his leg to perform the feat. Grabbing a camera, he managed to take this shot of the squirrel in a repeat performance with his son.

Mayor hosts first town hall meeting

Westland Mayor Charles Pickering will host the city's first town hall meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the Bailey Center behind city hall on Ford Road.

Pickering said he hopes the meeting will provide an opportunity for "better communication between citizens and government that I think is important."

Main topics for the meeting this week will be the financial condition of the city and the status of cable television preparations. After the presentations, time will be set aside for "two-way communications in an orderly fashion."

Moderating the evening will be Al Allen, president of the Westland Jaycees. Questions will be written on cards and screened to make sure they are "appropriate within reason and not repetitious," according to the mayor.

"The thing I want to avoid is political rhetoric between myself and citizens," Pickering explained. "This is not to be a political rally, but an open discussion on concerns of the citizens; myself and the council."

Pickering added that the meeting is an administrative endeavor, not one initiated by the council, although council members are welcome to participate. Members of his administration will be present.

Crisis committee views city finances

Westland now has a 12-member "blue ribbon financial crisis task force" helping to guide the city through its immediate cash problems. The committee was appointed recently by council President Thomas Artley.

The committee will provide "an outside, independent viewpoint as to what needs to be done to solve the city's financial crisis," Artley said. He added that the committee would help to allay differences between the council and the mayor.

"It was a feeling of myself, as well as many members of the city council, that because of the deep division in this community, such a task force was needed to lead in the fight to work out a solution," Artley continued.

ARTLEY HAS given the committee three goals, with a final deadline for resolution and disbanding on June 15. The new committee must:

• Decide by March 15 how serious is the city's budget deficit.

• Develop a comprehensive course of action by April 15 to resolve the problem. "A coalition needs to be developed involving all the major factions in the city," Artley said.

• Work to get agreements among the various civic, political and labor groups necessary to implement their crisis plan. Deadline is May 15 with implementation immediately in the new budget.

After that, the council will "take standby authority to resolve any unsolved issues," Artley said.

MEMBERS OF the committee are the Rev. Jack Spitz; Dick Honker and Tommy Cingolani, branch managers at the National Bank of Detroit; John Baracy, assistant superintendent for business with the Wayne-Westland school district; Willie Young, owner of Bill's Print Shop; Glenn Shaw, a former city councilman and city assessor who now is owner of Wayne County Assessor's Corporation.

Also on the committee are Dennis Fassett, former newspaper and cable television executive; Tom Presnell, former Wayne County commissioner; Mike Gorman, Canton Township finance director, who declined taking a similar position in Westland; Dick Griffin, owner of Woodcrest Villa; Vincent Petitpre, now 15th District Democratic Club president but a former member of the Wayne-Westland School Board, former Taylor school superintendent and former grants director for the city; and Charles McIlhergy, a local businessman.

MAYOR CHARLES Pickering said last week that he was still reviewing the committee plan of Artley's. He said he favored the ideas of bridging the communication gap between himself and the council as well as having the committee go through the budget process.

"The main thing that concerns me is that if the committee is to be a tool, then I should have been notified who makes up the committee. I should have had a chance to suggest some member," Pickering said.

His other concerns include clarification of the committee's goals, how the process will work and not wanting "to see another party to go through for the budget."

"I think it's important that there be direct communication between myself and the council," he added.

Pickering said that the concept of a committee he plans to name is different.

"THE GOAL for the committee is not only to consider short-range problems but long-range goals that will enable us to stabilize our financial condition," Pickering said, adding that those goals will include projections for revenue and expenditure.

He said he hopes the committee will be able to suggest improvements in revenue projections by considering millage rates, property values and project how the cash flow can be improved.

Pickering said he expects to name the committee within several weeks. It will serve for an indefinite period of time.

Jury finds Simonds guilty

By Bill Casper
staff writer

A 22-year-old Westland man has been found guilty of first-degree murder in the stabbing death of a woman pharmacist in a Revco drug store last March.

A Wayne County Circuit jury reached the verdict against Kenneth W. Simonds Friday after about two hours of deliberations.

Simonds, a 1978 graduate of Livonia's Franklin High School, was also found guilty of assault with intent to commit murder for stabbing a 19-year-old woman clerk in the same incident.

In reaching the verdict, the jury rejected an insanity defense put forward by Simonds' defense attorney. The jury also rejected another possible verdict of guilty but mentally ill.

Simonds is scheduled to be sentenced March 14 by Judge Michael Stacey, who presided over the nine-day trial.

Family stars in documentary on Ford worker

By Sandra Armbruster
editor

You ought to be in pictures. That's what the folks at Ford's Wayne Assembly Plant told Tom Molesky.

Molesky wasn't so sure. "I panicked because I didn't know what was going on," said Molesky, a Westland resident who is a repairman at the facility.

What was going on was a TV documentary called "American Professionals" that was filmed at the plant last February. The film features a week in the life of Molesky and his family.

Of the 73 repairmen at the plant, Molesky was chosen because they "wanted an area where they could move around with mikes and cameras."

"I work on both sides of the car so there was more room to show what goes on with a car," Molesky explained.

BEFORE THE shooting started, Molesky was interviewed, which he said helped put him at ease. During the shooting, there was "nothing special going on. There were no put-ons. It was a normal routine," according to Molesky, who has worked at the plant for the last 15 years after arriving from Pennsylvania in search of a job.

Molesky likes his work, says the benefits are fantastic and the pay is good. "The only thing that's bad is the economy is down, and people are buying foreign cars," said Molesky, who recently purchased an '82 Granada. "You never hear a thing about Japanese cars being recalled. It's all hushed up."

"Maybe I'm prejudiced, but I don't like it. They (foreign auto makers) are in the plants constantly taking pictures. We show them how to make cars."

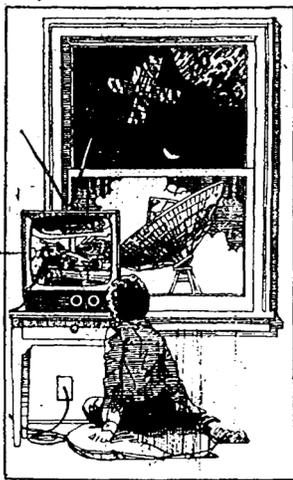

What does Molesky actually do? You name it, and if it needs fixing, Molesky will be around. Those repairs cover everything from electrical systems to loose seats and carpeting, kinked hoses and, well, you get the picture.

The film crew spent three days filming at the plant in early February followed by more than a day at the Mole-sky home.

Molesky's wife, Sharon, was "OK until the last 15 minutes when they interviewed her as a wife in the kitchen. She was leery, but she pulled through fine," he said.

ALSO UNDER the lights were the Mole-sky's two children, Jeffrey, 11, and Kimberly, 9, who attend Stottlemeyer Elementary School. The Mole-skys, who have lived in the city for nine years, are expecting another child in September.

"They (film crews) wanted to see a sit-down dinner. They filmed my wife preparing dinner and setting the table," Mole-sky said, adding that it was "hard eating with a camera and mike in the face."

After a while, the family became accustomed to being watched and fell into its "normal conversation," Mole-sky said.

How did the kids take all the star-dom?

"They kind of went for it," Mole-sky said.

He said a school outing to Skateland - West was filmed by the crew.

"Kimberly kept saying, 'Dad, they have the camera on me.' After awhile a crew member said they were going to call it the 'Kimberly Show.' She skates all the time and never sits down."

The program will be shown at 7:30 p.m. Monday on WTBS. Unfortunately, most Westland residents won't be able to see it. The Ted Turner station is carried only on cable television, which Westland doesn't have yet.

So TV viewers will have to find a friend in a neighboring community with cable, or do what the Mole-skys are doing.

"I rented a motel room in Wayne (which has cable)," Mole-sky said. "I'm taking my wife over there with the in-laws and the children."

Dems lack votes in Senate for income tax hike plan

By Carol Azizian
staff writer

Gov. James Blanchard will face stiff opposition in the state Senate over his proposed 38-percent state income tax increase.

He'll face an uphill battle with the 18 Republican senators who have vowed to fight a two-bill package approved by the state House last week. A key provision calls for reducing the tax rate as the state's unemployment rate falls.

And it appears that the unanimous support Blanchard would need in the Democratic caucus isn't there. Some of the bare majority of 20 Democrats oppose the House bill, which goes before the Senate Finance Committee Wednesday.

"If this (House) bill came to the floor right now, I would vote no," said Sen. Patrick McCollough, D-DeARBORN. Sen. Gilbert DiNello, D-East Detroit, said much the same thing.

SENATORS FROM both political parties admit it's unlikely the tax package approved by the House will survive in its present form.

The House passed it 59-51 Wednesday. All yes votes came from Democrats. Four Democrats (none local) joined all 47 Republicans in opposing it.

In the Senate, the loudest objections are coming from Republicans.

They criticize the tax hike as excessive, arguing that the state needs no more than a two-year tax increase to eliminate a projected budget deficit of $900 million.

"To call this tax package temporary because it is tied to a 9-percent unemployment trigger is a sham and a deliberate attempt to mislead the public," said Sen. R. Robert Geake, R-Northville.

"Any tax increase that tends to restrict incentives for businesses to either locate or remain in Michigan, thus providing (no incentive) for job creation, should not be tied to unemployment levels," said Geake, whose district includes Livonia, Plymouth, Redford and Canton.

THE HOUSE bill would boost the personal income tax rate from the current 4.6 percent to 6.35 percent, retroactive to Jan. 1.

The tax rate would remain at that level until the state's unemployment rate - averaged over six months - dropped to at least 12.25 percent. For each 0.75 percent dip in the jobless rate, the income tax would decline by 0.1 percent.

When the unemployment rate falls to 9 percent or less, the tax hike would expire, and the rate would revert to the current 4.6 percent.

"This bill - simply a variation of Governor's Blanchard's proposal - would set off a period of excessive growth in state government," Geake said.

The tax increase would raise $1.05 billion during a full calendar year and $787 million in the remainder of this fiscal year.

That would represent a 25-percent increase in the growth rate of state expenditures, Geake said. Under the House bill, general fund expenditures will rise from the current level of $4.7 billion to almost $7.5 billion in fiscal 1987, he said.

REPUBLICANS WILL attempt to make "substantive changes in this tax scheme so that at the very least the governor is able to saddle taxpayers with something less than his proposal on a temporary basis," said Sen. Doug Cruce, R-Troy.

Cruce already has introduced a bill to prevent the state from spending revenues from a tax increase once the unemployment rate - averaged over three months - dropped to 12 percent or lower.

Cruce's bill, now before the Senate Finance Committee, would increase payments into the state's "rainy day fund" and automatically trigger tax rebates once the fund reached about $1 billion.

But Cruce and other Republicans say they're hard pressed to come up with alternatives to the House bill because the governor has, so far, refused to release 1984 budget figures.

Sen. Richard Fessler, R-Union Lake, argued Republicans can't seriously discuss alternatives to the House proposal until they know what the governor intends to do with the money.

"It's a case of the cart before the horse," said Fessler, whose district includes Birmingham-Bloomfield and West Bloomfield. "He (Blanchard) is out trying to sell a tax package, but he's never given us his budget proposition."

SOME DEMOCRATS also say they'd like to know more about government spending once the fiscal crisis is alleviated.

"I'd like to get some commitment from the governor that we won't incur a whole new set of debts once we get our fiscal house in order," said Sen. McCollough, whose district includes Garden City.

"I won't just sign a blank check for a tax increase."

McCollough expects several alternatives to be considered in the Senate, including one requiring the tax increase to go into effect in June rather than Jan. 1 of this year.

"We may also be able to make further cuts, possibly in revenue sharing funds to local governments," he said.

The Democratic senator criticized Republicans for "playing partisan politics with a serious issue."

"I'M DISTRESSED Republicans feel they need to do nothing about the problem," McCollough said. "The only direction they're getting seems to be from their standard bearer (Dick Headlee), who says 'Let the state go bankrupt.'"

Meeting airs cable plan

PICKERING SAID he hopes to meet at least quarterly, possibly more often if interest and demand is apparent. Meetings will be open to residents from throughout the city, but location of the meeting will change, allowing easier access to people in all areas of the city.

Topics for future meetings will be chosen by a two-way process from administrators and residents.

"If we allow them to present their ideas, it will be effective and last for some time," said Pickering.

For this meeting, however, Pickering said he will outline the history of the city's financial condition, how it is being approached to stabilize it, levels of employee numbers, growth of property values and use of operating mileage.

Pickering and his staff also will explain the process being used to select a cable television company and give a tentative timeline that projects having a company selected by the end of the summer.

Views on Dental Health

Philip Meizels D.D.S., P.C.

COSMETIC CONTOURING
Dentistry has several techniques it can use to improve the appearance of the teeth. One of these, cosmetic contouring, is one of the most dramatic yet simplest and least expensive ways of improving a smile. It involves the reshaping of teeth to make them more esthetically appealing.
A patient, for example, may have long pointed canines (eye teeth) that distort the smile. By simply rounding off the pointed edges, the smile becomes balanced and normal. The chewing edges of a woman's teeth may wear down and become jagged and square. Smoothing and rounding them will restore the softness and femininity to her smile.
Before restorations are designed, it is important for the dentist to get an overview of the mouth. Teeth that are extruded or crowded should be cosmetically contoured and the crowns then shaped to conform to a more esthetic environment. Shaping a crown properly is paramount to a pleasing appearance. The shape is what the eye notices first. If the patient has a corresponding natural tooth, duplicating that shape gives the best results.

Future voters grow in Flower's civics class

By Teri Banas
staff writer

At any time during the school year, students from Harry Flower's Churchill High civics class can be found monitoring the workings of the local judicial system, observing the operation of the district school board or following the decision-making process of the local city council.

As members of Flower's government class, they're required to attend the public meetings, get involved in civic affairs, and augment their book learning with practical insight into government.

By now, the students' presence in the halls of justice or board rooms of elected officials is so familiar that they often receive a public welcome from the folks who are the subject of their scrutiny.

"The thing that makes it worthwhile is that these kids do get involved," Flower said. "And I'm not just telling them something. They're physically getting involved in the process, going out and finding out something on their own. They're learning by doing."

FLOWER, at 6 feet 7 inches tall, is a striking presence, whether at the chalkboard or walking through clusters of students in the hallways at Churchill. Above all, he's a staunch defender of the U.S. political process, and an unofficial spokesman for participatory democracy.

"To me, local government is something people should look at. It's unique. And it definitely works, if people care," said Flower, 58.

"Somehow, some way, we've got to get rid of the idea that you can't change city hall. You can. You just got to get involved."

To some, the students' time spent out of the classroom can be an eye-opener with immediate revelations of how government works, or it can be tedious and just plain boring.

"The first thing I learned (after attending a session of the Livonia City Council) is that no one in the city pays any attention," senior Gary Farquhar said. "We were the only ones there. It was depressing."

FARQUHAR'S LESSON from the experience was summed up in this comment. "If you say you don't have a voice (in government), it's because you're really not trying."

Some students found the government meetings confusing, unless they had prior knowledge into the actions.

"The council meeting was hard to follow. They'd say 'aye, aye,' and then move on to something else," student Susan Bielis said.

One student noted that the officials often referred to background "briefings" which the audience members did not share.

Leslie French, another Churchill senior, said she just "couldn't hear" what was being discussed.

Flower, who said the complaint is typical of the Livonia City Hall auditorium, advises his students to sit within the first four rows of the auditorium, because "acoustically, it's for the birds."

In addition, he said students have difficulty hearing comments made by Livonia school board members, often because they fail to speak into their microphones and because the board's "horseshoe-shape table" doesn't lend itself to voice projection into the audience.

SOME STUDENTS expressed surprise with what they characterized as an unexpected casualness in government proceedings, often marked by joking among the elected officials.

In addition to the Livonia and Westland city councils, who represent the students who attend Churchill, the students also sit in at meetings of the Livonia, Wayne-Westland, Clarenceville school boards, as well as those in other surrounding communities such as Farmington and Plymouth-Canton.

In addition, the students are required (as outlined in a five-page class requirement hand-out) to report on the operations of the court system, read newspapers ("They're just overwhelmed by what they find out in newspapers," Flower said), and become involved in a political campaign. Classroom speakers have included elected state senators and representatives, as well as local members of planning commissions.

For Bielis, who said she may be interested in a career in law, a visit to the Westland District Court was the most memorable. "It was neat. I got to meet the judge in his chambers afterward and got the inside scoop on what was going on." During Bielis' visit, she witnessed three young adults sentenced to 90 days in prison. "That was scary, seeing kids my own age put away."

FRENCH, who visited Livonia's District Court, got a lesson in how slowly the wheels of justice turn when she spent more than an hour waiting for the court session to begin.

"I wish we got the chance to do what Susan did (visit with the judge), but it was late, and we had to get back to class."

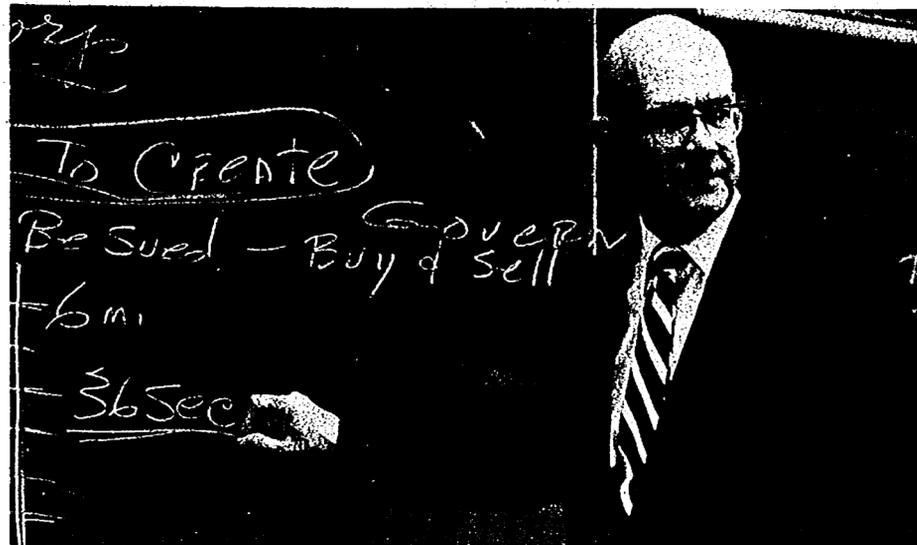

At the start of the semester, Flower said most students are stunned by the complexity of solving community problems. An example he gives is the issue of requesting a traffic signal.

"They're amazed at the different agencies and levels of government involved, how it involves Detroit Edison, the road commission, the state, the local planning commission, the safety department and local budget. They just think someone puts up a stop, and it's there."

Flower thinks it's important that student learn about the intricacies in local government, because it has the most impact on daily life.

"It's important to know what restrictions there are on building, if you need a permit, how taxes are figured out, and chances to appeal them."

"They learn to understand that anything we have here in Livonia or Westland is because people asked for it. People make government work."

Jury rejects Simonds lawyer's insanity defense

Under Michigan law, Simonds will receive an automatic sentence of life imprisonment.

TESTIMONY indicated that Simonds, a security guard and theft investigator for Revco Discount Drug stores, was allowed in the store at W. Chicago and Telegraph shortly after the 9 p.m. closing on March 17, 1982.

Clerk Ann Ceane said Simonds had been in the store the previous night without incident.

According to Ceane, Simonds attempted to molest her and, when she struggled, stabbed her in the chest and struck her with beer bottles. Pharmacist Elise Rouhier, 25, who apparently came to Ceane's aid, was stabbed and slashed repeatedly.

Rouhier, pregnant at the time, underwent unsuccessful emergency surgery at Garden City Osteopathic Hospital. An assistant medical examiner testified that a main artery in her neck had been severed and this probably caused instant death.

Simonds was represented by well-known criminal attorney Neil Fink. Fink did not dispute that Simonds stabbed the two women, but he claimed that Simonds was insane at the time. The attorney declined to comment on the trial or verdict.

HERBERT ROBERTS, assistant Wayne County Prosecutor, said the case went to the jury shortly before 3 p.m. Thursday.

"It appeared as though they (jury members) were ready to deliver a verdict late Thursday afternoon, but they couldn't reach a decision and Judge Stacey sent them home at about 4:30," Roberts said. "They resumed deliberation Friday at 9:30 a.m. and reached a verdict about 20 minutes later."

"The jury members were intelligent and I believe they reached the proper verdict based on the facts of the case and the law," Roberts said.

Roberts said he relied on the testimony of Dr. Steven Bank, an examiner Center for Forensic Psychiatry in Ypsilanti, where Simonds was given psychiatric evaluations.

"Dr. Bank testified that the defendant was not mentally ill or insane at the time of the incident," Roberts said. "He made a very thorough examination and submitted an 11 1/2-page report."

TESTIFYING for the defense were psychiatrists Dr. Joel Dreyer and Dr. Emanuel Tanay and psychologist Dr. Douglas Schooler. Fink called Simonds' wife, mother, father and aunt to describe Simonds' behavior just after the attack, said Redford police detective Sgt. John Crete.

Some 15 witnesses testified for the prosecution—including Ceane, the key witness, and the slain woman's husband, Dr. Charles Rouhier, an emergency room staff physician at Oakwood Hospital in Dearborn.

According to Ceane's accounts of the incident:

Simonds came into the store and began asking questions about stolen cigarettes. After a while, he asked Ceane to go into the restroom and to close the door while he talked to Rouhier.

After a while, he asked Rouhier to go to the restroom while he talked to Ceane. When Rouhier was in the restroom, Ceane said Simonds reached for her breast and she pushed his hand away.

Simonds then pulled a folding knife from one of his pockets, opened it and stabbed Ceane once in the chest while she screamed and fought him.

ROUHIER CAME out of the restroom and Simonds grabbed her, stabbing her in the stomach.

Ceane screamed that the other woman was pregnant and Simonds allowed the women to go to a phone to call for help. But before Rouhier could complete a phone call, he pulled the telephone from the wall.

Simonds then grabbed Ceane and as she struggled, he knocked her to the ground. She said he smashed two full beer bottles over her head as she lay on the floor motionless.

The guard returned to Rouhier, who was lying face up on the floor, and began slashing her with a box cutter, she said.

Simonds ran out a back door when a woman came to the front door of the drug store. The woman told police she had been dining at the Harbor House restaurant next door when she heard screams and went to the store to investigate.

Redford police arrested Simonds at Wayne County General Hospital in Westland that night. His mother had taken him to the hospital after he became ill, according to police.

In the attack, Ceane suffered the stab wound plus a broken nose and jaw and cuts to her hand.

Veterans of the Vietnam War were honored with a proclamation by VFW Post Commander Robert Stanger, Junior Vice Commander Donald Cowan, auxiliary President Helen Stevens and Senior Vice Commander Sam Thomas. Also on hand for the occasion were the mayor and other VFW district dignitaries.

Memories prompt a tribute

By Maurie Walker
staff writer

Vietnam veterans, often forgotten and ignored, in spite of their sacrifices, are going to have a permanent monument honoring them in Westland.

Four Vietnam veterans have formed the Westland Vietnam Veterans Association to raise funds for a memorial to be dedicated to all Vietnam veterans, living and dead.

The memorial, scheduled to be unveiled on Memorial Day 1984, will be erected on land between the Westland City Hall and the Bailey Recreation Center.

The four veterans who formed the group are: Mike Golden, chairman; Councilman Ken Mehl, who is vice chairman and will oversee publicity and fund raising; Mike Wagner, treasurer; and Dave Siggins, who is secretary and will oversee the concept design and construction of the monument.

Approval for erecting the monument on city property was given by the city council just recently.

The association has applied to Lansing for incorporation as a non-profit group.

Mehl said the men have been discussing forming the association for two years.

"NORMALLY A monument is to honor just those who died in combat. We wanted to have one that would pay tribute to the living Vietnam veterans as well," he said.

Fund raising for the memorial is now under way.

"We are shooting for $50,000 for the monument and landscaping around it," Mehl said. "We are hoping to reach this goal by fall."

Golden, past commander of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9885 in Westland, is going to contact all VFW posts in Michigan seeking contributions. Other veteran's organizations will also be asked for contributions.

"We are going to contact business people, civic clubs and seek support of residents to help us realize this goal," Mehl added.

"We are 99 percent sure there is nothing like this in Michigan. We are hoping to have Westland stand out in recognition of all Vietnam veterans."

Donations may be made out to Westland Vietnam Veterans Association and be sent to Councilman Ken Mehl, 36601 Ford Road, Westland 48185.

Recreation staff has activities for handicapped

The Tri-City Therapeutic Recreation group has a busy program planned for March and April.

Events are planned for all ages and disabilities and all activities are accessible by wheelchair.

A play, "Steal Away Home," ideal for young and old alike, is available Saturday March 12, a Tri-City Therapeutic spokeswoman said.

The play is about the escape of two young slaves through the underground railroad.

The bus will leave Bailey Recreation Center, on Ford between-Wayne Road and Newburgh, for Wayne State University at 12:30 p.m. and return around 5:30 p.m. Price is $3.50 and includes ticket and transportation.

Interested persons must preregister and pay in advance at Wayne Community Center, Howe at Annapolis. Registration deadline is Thursday, March 10. Limit is 25 persons.

A St. Patrick's Day dance will be 7:30-10 p.m. Friday, March 18 at Wayne Community Center. Music and refreshments will be served. Fee is 25 cents at the door.

A movie night at Quo Vadis, on Wayne Road north of Warren Road, will be March 24. Price is $2 for the movie.

An evening at Farrell's Ice Cream Parlor, Telegraph north of I-96, will be 7-9 p.m. Thursday, April 7.

Cost is $2.50 per person with preregistration required by April 5 at the Wayne Community Center.

A SPRING DANCE will be held at the Wayne Community Center Friday, April 15. Cost is 25 cents per person. Music and refreshments will be provided.

The Tri-City Therapeutic Recreation Program, in cooperation with the Eastern Seal Society, will have a trip to Toronto May 6-8. Price of $159 per person, based on double occupancy, includes roundtrip transportation by train, two nights lodging at the Sheraton Centre, hotel taxes and tips, hotel baggage handling, breakfast voucher Saturday and Sunday, transportation to the Ontario Center and admission to the Center.

Payment schedule calls for $35 with reservation due March 28 with the balance due April 4. A cancellation fee of $25 will be charged after April 13 if no suitable replacement is found.

Regular activities in the program including bowling, swimming, a sports program and winter and summer outdoor sports.

There is bowling every Wednesday at Westland Bowl, Wayne Road north of Ford, for the mentally impaired. Bowling is 4-5:30 p.m. at a fee of $1 for two games.

Bowling for the physically handicapped is 10 a.m. to noon Thursdays at Westland Bowl. Fee is $1 for two games. Coaching and adaptive equipment (ramps and blind rails) are available.

Bowling is run in cooperation with Wayne-Westland Continuing Education department.

SWIMMING FOR the physically disabled, which includes blind and hearing impaired, is 7-8:15 p.m. Mondays at the Tim Dyer pool on Marquette between Wayne and Newburgh.

The pool is heated and accessible. This swimming program is available to the physically disabled and family members of all ages.

On Tuesdays, 7-8:30 p.m., there is swimming for the mentally impaired at Garden City Community Pool, 6500 Middlebelt, adjacent to Garden City High School.

Life jackets and inner tubes are available. Swimmers are asked to bring their own swim suit and a towel. Basic swim lessons and assistance from Therapeutic Recreation staff is available.

For emotionally impaired adults, especially those in foster care homes, there is swimming Tuesdays 3-5 p.m.

at the Dyer pool through the Wayne-Westland Continuing Education department.

A sports program for the physically disabled is 10 a.m. to noon Saturdays at the Bailey Center.

This program includes weightlifting, soccer, basketball, cerebral palsy sports and wheelchair-games training. It is open to male and female players.

A SATURDAY surprise for the physically disabled and mentally impaired, ages 4-12, will be 10 a.m. to noon at the Bailey Center. The program is sponsored by the Westland Parks and Recreation Department.

Register at the Center. The program is limited to 20 persons. Brothers and sisters may take part.

A new program is Great Lakes handicap sports for the blind, amputee and paraplegic.

This program was designed for the handicapped to experience activities they may never have experienced or thought were impossible to participate in because of confinement or difficulties with movement.

The program includes winter and summer sports such as snow skiing, water skiing, swimming and canoeing, with long-range plans to include white water rafting.

Interested persons may contact Dennis Mitchell at 425-4035.

Handicapped can get help

Physically and emotionally handicapped persons can take advantage of a program sponsored by the recreation departments of Garden City, Westland and Wayne.

Most programs are held at the Bailey Recreation Center in Westland.

Staffers for the program, called Tri-City Therapeutic, may be reached at 722-7620.

PROPER FOOT WEAR — A RHEUMATOLOGIST'S VIEW

Though it may incur the wrath of the fashion community, this column will present a rheumatologist's view of what constitutes suitable footwear.

The typical woman's shoe includes most of the undesirable features possible to design into footwear. The high heel places all of the body's weight onto a narrow area in the back of the foot. The slant of the high heel shoe then transfers that weight onto another small area—the 2nd and 3rd metatarsal head; this distribution of weight also places a strain on the back. The streamlined top of the shoe, narrowing down to a point, crowds the toes while the hard, shell like covering over the toes causes further compression. The result is to cramp the toes in a way ideal to the development of bunions and crooked toes.

The ideal shoe for men or women starts with a heel and sole at least a half-inch thick and so constructed as to form a continuous strip from the back of the heel to the tip of the sole. The top part of the shoe should be sufficiently wide to permit the toes to spread apart. The covering over the foot needs to be soft and pliant in order to avoid rubbing abrasively against the bony edges of the first and last toes. Roots, Hushpuppies and Wallabee shoes are made with these constructs in mind.

If you have no back, foot or ankle problem, you can disregard these comments. If you do have arthritis in these joints, please take the above advice seriously. Dr. Weiss welcomes questions from readers, please address your inquiries to his office.

$2,500,000.00

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF GARDEN CITY COUNTY OF WAYNE,
STATE OF MICHIGAN

TAX ANTICIPATION NOTES
(General Obligation Limited Tax)

SEALED BIDS for the purchase of tax anticipation notes of School District of the City of Garden City, County of Wayne, Michigan of the par value of $2,500,000.00 will be received by the undersigned at 1313 Radcliff Street, Garden City, Michigan 48135 until 4:00 o'clock P.M., E.S.T. Time, on the 14 day of March, 1983 at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read.

NOTE DETAILS, INTEREST RATE, PAYING AGENT, AND DENOMINATIONS: The notes will be dated March 18, 1983 and will mature September 30, 1983 and will bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding 10% per annum. Both principal and interest will be payable at a bank or trust company located in the State of Michigan to be designated by the original purchaser of the notes which paying agent qualifies as such under the Statutes of the State of Michigan or of the Federal Government, subject to the approval of the School District, with paying agent fees, if any, to be paid by the purchaser of the notes. Denominations and form of notes to be at the option of the purchaser. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such notes must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

PRIOR REDEMPTION: The notes shall not be subject to redemption prior to maturity.

AWARD OF NOTES: For the purpose of awarding the notes the interest cost of each bid will be computed on a 360 day month basis by determining, at the rate or rates bid, the total dollar value of all interest on the notes from March 18, 1983 (Here insert the sale date or the date of the notes whichever is later) to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. Bids may include calculation of interest cost based upon the above computation but the calculation shall be subject to verification by the municipality based upon the rate or rates bid. The notes will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest dollar interest cost to the municipality. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the notes or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

SECURITY: The loan is in anticipation of the Operating portion of the School Tax for the fiscal year July 1, 1983 to June 30, 1984 which tax is due and payable July 1, 1983. The School District has pledged to establish a special fund to be used solely to pay the principal and interest on the notes when due, and has pledged to set aside in said fund an amount sufficient to repay the principal and interest on the notes when due. A portion of each dollar of taxes remaining to be collected for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1983 shall be set aside in an amount not less than 15% of the percentage that the principal amount of the notes bears to the amount of taxes to be levied and to be collected for operating expenses, anticipated delinquency in collections being taken into account, until the amount so set aside is sufficient for payment of the notes.

In addition, the notes will be a General Obligation of the School District and if tax collections are insufficient to pay the notes when due, the School District has pledged to use any and all other resources available for payment of said notes. The School District does not have the power to levy taxes for the payment of the notes in excess of its constitutional and statutory tax rate limit.

ADDITIONAL BORROWING: The School District reserves the right to issue additional notes of equal standing with the notes of this issue to meet current operating and payroll expenses.

GOOD FAITH: A certified or cashier's check in the amount of 3% of the par value of the notes, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid is accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the notes. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned.

LEGAL OPINION, DELIVERY OF NOTES: Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of the purchaser's attorney approving the legality of the notes to be secured at the purchaser's expense. The purchaser shall furnish notes ready for execution at his expense. Notes will be delivered at a place to be agreed upon with the purchaser within 14 days from award of bid.

THE RIGHT IS RESERVED TO REJECT ANY OR ALL BIDS.

ENVELOPES containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Notes."

Anorexia nervosa: slim isn't beautiful

FROM OUTWARD appearances, she's a typical suburban housewife.

She lives in a ranch house with a husband and two children. She's active in school, civic and church affairs and can be seen herding her children in and out of the family station wagon.

But look a little closer. Her appearance is fashionably slight, maybe too slight. Her face is often red, as if she has just returned after some vigorous exercise in the cold.

Those who know her well seldom see her eat. She has taken the fitness craze to an extreme. It's exercise class every day. After that, she's out jogging 10 miles a day.

This woman is suffering from anorexia nervosa. It's a condition where people (95 percent are female) starve themselves in order to keep their bodies slender.

Singer Karen Carpenter, who died a few weeks ago at the age of 32, was suffering from this disease.

Although it is usually associated with teen-age girls, the illness often occurs in women who are older. And it's deadly, with a 15-21 percent mortality rate, according to the American Psychiatric Association. Treatment takes years and requires numerous hospital stays.

ANOREXIA NERVOSA occurs at relatively higher rates in the suburbs. "It is seen in upper middle class suburbs as opposed to central cities," said Dr. Charles Goss, a psychiatrist with Botsford General Hospital in Farmington.

"Young women who are overly concerned about their outward appearances may get the disease. This is more likely to occur in the suburbs."

Females suffering from anorexia strive for illusive perfection. Typically, a sufferer is a high-achiever and energetic young woman. Often she comes from a closely-knit family which emphasizes accomplishing goals.

Those suffering from anorexia eat little. When required to eat, they feel guilty. They try to get rid of what they have eaten through induced vomiting, use of laxatives and excessive exercise. The result is starvation.

Dr. Goss estimates that one out of every 250 girls between 12 and 18 years of age suffer from it.

THIS ILLNESS is both a psychiatric and biological disorder.

"The person views her body as fat, when in fact it may be malnourished," said Dr. David Fachnie of the division of metabolic diseases at Henry Ford Hospital.

"The body then goes through many changes," Dr. Fachnie said. "Typically, the woman stops having her monthly period before she begins to lose weight."

The remedy for anorexia is complex. As suggested by the 15-21 percent mortality rate, therapy is often not successful. Many times a "cured" patient ends up living her life in isolation as a chronic invalid.

Botsford's Dr. Goss says many of his psychiatrist cohorts refuse to treat any more cases. "The therapist has to be directive and active in treating the patient," he said. "Sometimes even after the psychiatrist understands a patient and the patient intellectually knows how to cure herself, she is not able to change. That makes it so frustrating."

Suburban pioneer recalls good ol' days

THE CRISP yellow pages of history tell the story of the many surprises the '49ers encountered in their invasion of the west in search of gold.

They were not the only ones who got surprised on a venture that took them from the crowded neighborhoods of the city to the wide-open spaces in search of room and fresh air.

The Stroller and his lady now enjoy many a laugh as to what happened after our friends talked us, in 1938, into purchasing two acres of an abandoned farm five miles outside Detroit in what was Livonia Township. The acres were in a wooded area and looked very attractive. But there was a hitch.

The weeds had not been cultivated in years, and the weeds were more than three feet high.

"WHAT CAN we do about them?" we asked our friend. He smiled and said, "Dig up $100 and don't ask any questions." Luckily, we had it and left for home in a state of wonderment. A week later came the surprise.

When we visited to watch our home being built, our friend took us for a walk back to the acres. There was a sight for sore eyes.

The weeds had been cut, the ground plowed and furrowed, and 100 fruit trees planted, along with 500 feet of grapes along the lot line.

"Now you can raise fruit and possibly make a living," our friend smiled.

"Next," he said, "you will have to arrange for a wind-break so the gusts won't blow the fruit from the trees."

We thought he was talking about a canvas curtain. Instead he arranged for a row of Chinese elm trees that grew faster than the fruit trees. Today they are more than 20 feet tall.

NEXT CAME one of the farmers from the area. "Planning to cittyfy the place?" he asked.

When we told him we were just going to live there and try to make it nice, he countered, "You'll never have a lawn with all those trees. You'll have to take half of them out." And he kindly marked them.

Down came 18 young trees, making possible a lawn the full extent of the area between the gravel road and our new home.

"As the fruit trees grew, so again did the weeds. A neighboring farmer graciously came over and plowed again. After several seasons, he came to the back door and informed us with a sigh that he couldn't do it any more.

"The place looks like hell," he said, "because I can't get close enough to the trees."

"Just let the weeds come, but cut them often," he advised, "and it won't be long until you have nice grass all the way to the end of the acreage."

AND THAT IS exactly what happened. Now The Stroller and the lady of our home can look out the kitchen window and see lawn for more than 600 feet, and more than 100 feet from the front window to the road.

Talk about surprises and thrills — we had them in pioneering in the wide-open spaces of what was a series of abandoned farms in a built-up suburb. It sure was fun — and educational.

Ray Gribbs' alumni group makes good

AT THE time, one national publication sniffed at him as a "pistol-packing sheriff." Another wrote him off as "a competent, complacent bureaucrat." And it's true he stayed around only one term as mayor of Detroit.

But Roman S. Gribbs deserves a better shake from history than that, and only recently is one of Gribbs' major contributions coming to light. As mayor from 1969-73, Ray Gribbs gave some of the best-known names in public administration their first major jobs.

He was careful in his selection of administrators, so it's probably no accident that some have attained further fame.

Gribbs jumped from Wayne County sheriff to mayor, then left the post to become a circuit judge. Last November, the voters elected him to the state Court of Appeals.

HERE ARE some of the Gribbs Alumni Association:

• Phillip Jourdan, director of management and budget in Gov. Blanchard's administration, former chief of staff to Congressman William Brodhead. "He was my press secretary. I needed someone 24 hours a day, and there he was going to law school," Gribbs said with a laugh.

• Ron Thayer, director of personnel in Blanchard's office. Under Gribbs, he was secretary to the Health Commission, secretary to the Department of Transportation and a fund-raiser.

• John Amberger, executive director of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments. He administered the Detroit House of Correction for Gribbs.

• William Lucas, Wayne County executive. As sheriff, Gribbs brought in Lucas from the Detroit FBI office, and Lucas succeeded him as sheriff when Gribbs became mayor. While Lucas has yet to prove himself as a leader and administrator, there is no doubt the public thinks well of him.

• Michael Glusac, vice president for public affairs of Chrysler Corp., former executive director of SEMCOG. He was Gribbs' corporation counsel (city attorney).

SO WHAT were Gribbs' guiding principles? I cornered him at a semi-social gathering recently.

Of another mayor, Gribbs said, "With him, it's personal loyalty first, party loyalty second and administrative ability third."

"I put administrative ability first. I relied on friends for advice, but I also went out to 'head hunters.'

DID YOU KNOW that one of the University of Michigan's most beloved alumni, J. Fred Lawton, who wrote the university's marching song, "Varsity," was shipwrecked with his family when he was only 1 1/2 years old? Lawton's family, traveling to England from the United States, got into a lifeboat just as the ship they were on went to the bottom. The family found an island and spent 11 days on it before they were rescued. As an adult, Lawton made 34 untoward trips across the ocean.

East Meets West: Chinese Cooking American Style

In China, where there are more people to feed than in any other country in the world, there has always been a respect for food. Good food symbolizes good luck and prosperity, a cure for ills and an omen of good things to come.

The Chinese make the very most of what food they have, even down to the smallest morsels of meat or poultry, sometimes combining them with fruits, vegetables, noodles and, of course, rice. They plan their combinations so that various foods exchange flavors and textures in appealing ways. When they prepare a roast duck or rack of ribs, they are careful to seal in juices and flavor.

Perhaps it is America's own growing awareness of the value of good food that has caused such an interest in oriental cooking. Chinese cooking classes have sprung up all over the country, and many American food products have made the Chinese connection. Among the American classic ingredients that have a happy place in Chinese cuisine is corn syrup. It adds body and a smooth consistency to sauces, helps to blend flavors and causes glazes to adhere better to meats, helping to seal in moisture and flavor.

The makers of Karo corn syrup have adapted a number of Chinese meat and poultry recipes for the American palate. They are all authentic in their origins, but have been developed to suit American kitchens and cooking traditions. They include oriental ingredients prepared American style as well as American ingredients given an oriental touch. East meets West.

Red Cooked Pork with Pineapple

- 1 can (20 oz) pineapple slices in own juice
- 3/4 cup light or dark corn syrup
- 1/3 cup soy sauce
- 1/3 cup thinly sliced green onions
- 1 1/2 tablespoons minced ginger root
- 3 cloves garlic, minced or pressed
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1 (2 lb) boneless pork roast

Drain pineapple; reserve 3/4 cup juice. In medium bowl stir together corn syrup, reserved juice, soy sauce, green onions, ginger, garlic and mustard. Add pork roast; turn to coat well. Cover; refrigerate at least 6 hours, turning occasionally. Drain; reserve marinade. Place pork on rack in foil-lined roasting pan. Roast in 375°F oven, brushing frequently with 1 cup of the reserved marinade, about 1 1/2 hours or until temperature on meat thermometer reaches 170°F. Serve with Pineapple Sauce; garnish with pineapple slices. Serves 4 to 6.

Pineapple Sauce: In small saucepan bring 1 cup reserved marinade to boil. In small bowl stir together 1 tablespoon corn starch and 2 tablespoons water until smooth. Stir into reserved marinade. Stirring constantly, bring to boil over medium heat and boil 1 minute. Add 4 pineapple slices and heat until pineapple is hot and glazed. Makes about 1 cup sauce.

Tangerine Beef

- 1/4 cup dark corn syrup
- 2 tablespoons soy sauce
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1 pound beef flank or top round steak, thinly sliced diagonally
- 1 tablespoon corn starch
- 1/2 cup cool beef broth
- 1/4 cup dry sherry
- 2 tablespoons corn oil
- 1/4 cup slivered tangerine peel
- 1 clove garlic, minced or pressed
- 1 cup tangerine sections, membranes removed (about 5 tangerines) or mandarin orange sections
- 1 green pepper, cut in thin strips (1 cup)

In medium bowl stir together corn syrup, soy sauce and pepper. Add beef; toss to coat evenly. In small bowl stir together corn starch, broth and sherry until smooth; set aside. In large skillet or wok heat corn oil over medium-high heat. Add tangerine peel and garlic; stir fry 30 seconds. Add beef, one half at a time; stir fry 2 to 3 minutes or until browned. Return beef to skillet. Restir corn starch mixture; stir into beef. Stirring constantly, bring to boil over medium heat and boil 1 minute. Stir in tangerines and green pepper until heated through. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Plum Spareribs

- 2 sides (about 4 lbs) spareribs
- 1 can (16 oz) purple plums
- 1/3 cup light or dark corn syrup
- 2 tablespoons soy sauce
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 1 small onion, cut in chunks
- 1 clove garlic

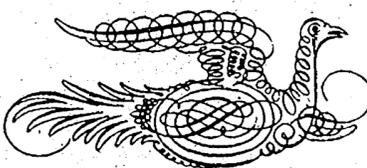

Sprinkle ribs with salt and pepper. Place in large saucepot; add water to cover. Bring to boil. Reduce heat; cover and simmer about 45 minutes or until tender. Drain plums; reserve syrup. Pit plums. Place plums, reserved syrup, corn syrup, soy sauce, vinegar, onion and garlic in blender container; cover. Blend on high speed 30 seconds or until smooth. Drain ribs well. Brush with sauce. Broil or grill 6 inches from source of heat, turning and basting frequently, about 20 minutes or until browned. To serve, cut into one-rib pieces. If desired, heat remaining sauce and serve with ribs. Serves 4 to 6.

Jeweled Chicken

- 1 can (8-oz) pineapple chunks in own juice
- 1/4 cup light or dark corn syrup
- 3 tablespoons vinegar
- 2 tablespoons soy sauce
- 1 teaspoon minced ginger root or 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
- 2 tablespoons corn oil
- 2 whole broiler-fryer chicken breasts, halved
- 1 tablespoon corn starch
- 2 tablespoons water
- 1 1/2 cups assorted fruits, such as sliced peaches or plums, grapes, orange sections or pear chunks
- 2 green onions, cut in 1-inch pieces (about 1/4 cup)

Drain pineapple, reserving juice in small bowl. To juice in bowl stir in corn syrup, vinegar, soy sauce and ginger. In large skillet heat corn oil over medium-high heat. Add chicken. Brown well on all sides, about 15 minutes. Pour off excess fat. Add corn syrup mixture. Cover and simmer 10 to 15 minutes or until chicken is fork-tender. Remove to serving platter; keep warm. Stir together corn starch and water until smooth. Stir into liquid in skillet. Stirring constantly, bring to boil over medium heat and boil 1 minute. Stir in pineapple chunks, assorted fruits and green onions; cook about 1 minute or until heated through. Spoon around chicken. If desired, serve over rice. Makes 4 servings.

Stir-Fry Sea and Sky

- (Not Shown)
- 2 tablespoons corn starch
 - 1/2 cup cool chicken broth or bouillon
 - 1/4 cup light or dark corn syrup
 - 1/4 cup soy sauce
 - 3 tablespoons red wine vinegar
 - 4 tablespoons corn oil, divided
 - 1 clove garlic, minced or pressed
 - 1/4 to 1/2 teaspoon crushed dried red pepper
 - 1 pound boned, skinned chicken breasts, cut in thin strips
 - 1/2 pound large shrimp, cleaned, deveined, cut in half lengthwise
 - 1/4 pound mushrooms, sliced (about 1 cup)
 - 1/4 pound snow peas or green beans, trimmed, halved (about 1 cup)
 - 1 small sweet red pepper, cut in thin strips (about 1/2 cup)
 - 1/2 cup sliced water chestnuts
 - 1/2 cup sliced bamboo shoots

In small bowl stir together corn starch, broth, corn syrup, soy sauce and vinegar until smooth. In large skillet or wok heat 2 tablespoons of the corn oil over medium-high heat. Add garlic and crushed dried red pepper; stir fry 30 seconds. Add chicken; stir fry 1 to 2 minutes or until chicken turns white. Remove. Add shrimp; stir fry 1 minute or until pink. Remove. Heat remaining 2 tablespoons corn oil. Add mushrooms and snow peas; stir fry 1 minute. Add red pepper, water chestnuts and bamboo shoots; stir fry 1 minute longer. Restir corn starch mixture; add to skillet. Stirring constantly, bring to boil over medium heat and boil 1 minute. Stir in chicken and shrimp until heated through. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Stir-Fry Chicken: Follow recipe for Stir-Fry Sea and Sky. Omit shrimp. Use 1 1/2 pounds of boneless skinless chicken breasts, cut into thin strips.

Winter Garden Chicken

- (Not Shown)
- 1 tablespoon corn starch
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1 egg, lightly beaten
 - 1 pound boneless, skinless chicken breasts, cut in 1-inch cubes
 - 1 1/2 teaspoons corn starch
 - 1/4 cup cool chicken bouillon or broth
 - 1/4 cup light or dark corn syrup
 - 1/4 cup catsup
 - 1 quart (about) corn oil
 - 1/2 cup unsifted flour
 - 3 tablespoons corn oil
 - 1 pound fresh spinach, cleaned, torn (about 16 cups)
 - 2 tablespoons thinly sliced green onions
 - 1/4 teaspoon crushed dried red pepper

In medium bowl stir together 1 tablespoon corn starch, salt and egg until smooth. Add chicken; toss to coat well. In small bowl stir together 1 1/2 teaspoons corn starch, broth, corn syrup and catsup until smooth. Pour 1 quart corn oil into heavy 3-quart saucepan, filling no more than 1/3 full. Heat over medium heat to 375°F. Dredge chicken cubes in flour; shake off excess. Fry, a few pieces at a time, 2 minutes or until golden brown and crisp. Drain on paper towels. In large skillet or wok heat 3 tablespoons corn oil over medium-high heat. Add spinach, about 1/2 at a time; stir fry 1 minute. With slotted spoon, remove to serving platter. Add green onions and pepper; stir fry 30 seconds. Restir corn starch mixture; add to skillet. Stirring constantly, bring to boil over medium heat and boil 1 minute. Add chicken; toss to coat evenly. Spoon over spinach. Makes 4 servings.

You can solve the souffle mystery

There is a sense of mystery about the souffle. While the instructions at first glance appear complicated, there is an unencumbering flow to the actual preparation if certain sensible steps are followed.

Those steps include:
Refrigerating the prepared dish at least 30 minutes to help the hot souffle rise straight up!
Handling the egg whites very carefully. If overbeaten, they lose much of their air along with the glistening, firm peaks. When folding the warm souffle base into the beaten whites, avoid being too thorough because it's better to have a few unblended patches than a souffle that won't rise.
Placing the souffle dish on a heated baking sheet so the souffle starts to cook at the bottom as well as the top. Remember the less time a souffle cooks, the more creamy the center.
Serving the souffle at once. The elegant dish waits for no one. Puncture the top with a serving spoon and fork, held back to back and straight up, gently spreading the souffle apart for each portion.

While Parmesan souffle goes well with onion sauce, it retains that distinctive flavor even when eaten cold the next day.

PARMESAN SOUFFLE

- 4 tbsp. butter
- 3/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 5 eggs, separated
- 3 tsp. all-purpose flour
- 1 cup milk
- 1/4 tsp. salt

- 1/4 tsp. white pepper
- Pinch each cayenne pepper, nutmeg

Rub 1 1/4-quart souffle dish or round, tall casserole with 1 tablespoon softened butter and evenly coat with 2 tablespoons Parmesan. Refrigerate dish at least 30 minutes. Allow egg whites to warm to room temperature in large mixing bowl. Place baking sheet in oven and preheat at 400 degrees 15 minutes.

Place remaining butter, cut in bits, in heavy saucepan, melt on low heat and remove. Vigorously stir in flour, tablespoon at a time, with wooden spoon until mixture is smooth. Gradually pour in milk and beat with whisk. Set pan on medium heat, bring to boil, whisking, lower heat couple notches, simmer 2 minutes and remove. Quickly whisk in egg yolks, gradually add remaining cheese, whisking, add rest of ingredients and mix thoroughly with wooden spoon until smooth. Beat egg whites with electric mixer until they hold firm. Vigorously whisk about 1 cup whites into warm souffle base. Using rubber spatula, scrape souffle base over remaining whites and gently combine, folding mixture while rotating bowl.

Pour mixture into prepared dish, place in center of baking sheet and reduce oven to 375 degrees. Bake 25 to 30 minutes, when souffle puffs and is lightly browned. Serve at once. Serves 4.

ONION SAUCE

- 5 tbsp. butter, cut in bits
- 3 tsp. all-purpose flour
- 1 envelope dried onion soup mix
- 2 cups milk

Slowly heat butter in medium saucepan until almost melted and remove. Stir in flour, tablespoon at a time, and soup mix. Gradually stir in milk. Bring to boil on medium heat, occasionally stirring, reduce heat couple notches and simmer 1 minute. Makes about 2 cups. Pass sauce at table with souffle. Refrigerate leftover sauce for future use.

CORRECTION: To make reservations for the luncheon and fashion show sponsored by the Women's Organization of the Scandinavian Symphony Orchestra, call Avis Rupp at 522-2580. The event will be Friday, March 11, in Farmington Hills Country Club.

MARY Brockman, 37027 Norene, Westland, was a winner at the 16th annual Detroit Camper and Travel Trailer Show for her entry in the recipe contest that was part of this year's festivities. Her entry was "Mary's Own Fruit Salad" and for people on the go, here is the recipe:

10-12 large, ripe sliced bananas; 4 large oranges, cut up; 1 can (20 oz.) no-sugar pineapple, drained, but save juice; 1 8-oz. frozen concentrated orange juice (do not add water). Mix all ingredients, except pineapple juice. Add pineapple juice as needed for desired thickness, keeping in mind that the mixture thickens as it sits.

BEECH LANES in Redford Township is one of 24 bowling centers participating in the Bowl for Breath to raise funds to combat cystic fibrosis. Area residents of all ages and levels of skill — including non-bowlers — are urged to participate. Call the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation at 552-9816 for more information. Prizes are awarded for the number of sponsors signed up, not for the score of the game. Sponsors pledge a certain amount of money for each point scored.

TREAT your winter-weary horse to a new spring look at the Wayne County 4-H horse and pony new and used tack sale from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday, March 19, at the Wayne County Extension Center, 5454 Venoy Road in Wayne. Space is available for selling trailers as well as a "sell your horse" poster section. For more information, call Ellen Rees at 782-5809.

U-M CENTER for Continuing Education of Women (CEW) is offering an assertiveness training for women graduate students. Students will have the opportunity to learn skills for improved communications with advisors, professions, colleagues and students in a supportive group setting. The group will meet for five weeks, March 16 through April 13; 3:15-4:45 p.m. on Wednesday afternoons at the center, 350 S. Thayer. Contact CEW at 763-1353 for information and registration.

HISTORIC Moross House in Detroit will be center for spring craft classes sponsored by the Detroit Garden Center. Some of them include: March 9, wicker wall basket with silk and dried flowers, by Sue Abbot; March 16, calico cinnamon ball, by Leona Lienau; March 23, egg basket, by Dottie Vickland; April 6, reverse painting on glass, by Betty Haynes; April 13, cooking using herbs with little or no salt, by Caroline Jamison. Classes are held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Bring a brown bag lunch. Registration is $5 for non-members for each class; kits are extra. Call 259-8383 for reservations and a list of materials to bring. Moross House, the oldest brick dwelling in Detroit, is at 1460 E. Jefferson at Rloppelle. It's a fine example of modified Greek Revival architecture done in the 1850s.

Griffiths sees women victimized by economy

By Wayne Peal
staff writer

All workers face diminished wages regardless of the economy, but women are threatened most, said Lt. Gov. Martha Griffiths.

That was the theme of the keynote address she delivered at a recent women's workshop for the American Association of University Women.

Griffiths, 71, served in the U.S. House of Representatives for 20 years before becoming lieutenant governor. She became the first woman appointed to the House Ways and Means Committee and the Joint Economic Committee.

"There is a deindustrialization of America. Everybody's going to come out of this with lower wages," Griffiths said.

She added that the trend is particularly threatening to women workers because their present wages lag behind those of their men counterparts.

"Women still earn 59 cents for every dollar earned by a man doing a similar job," she said.

Despite the public perception of advancement, Griffiths said women have far to go before reaching equality under the law and in the job market.

Defeat of the Equal Rights Amendment left women unequal under the law said Griffiths, who originally sponsored the amendment during her tenure in the House.

"IF LAWYERS tell you women are equal under law, e's what you ask them," Griffiths advised her audience. "If we had a 15th Amendment, which provided the right to vote regardless of race or color, why did we need a 19th Amendment (to extend the right to women)?"

Women should monitor court decisions, particularly with regard to divorce cases, to learn how far equality under the law extends, the lieutenant governor said.

One young couple, Griffiths said, had an agreement by which the husband would invest his earnings and the wife would use hers for household expenses.

"After a few years, they divorced. He got to keep the investments. What do you think she received?" Griffiths said.

"I think we need groups of women watching the courts to see exactly whether 'friend-of-the-court' is actually the enemy of women."

In the job market, women are underpaid in traditional jobs and both underpaid and under-represented in jobs being created through computer technology, Griffiths said.

She advised her audience to ensure that their daughters, as well as their sons, gain exposure to the new technology; but, she said women have more to gain than job skills.

"THE REAL answer is that pay for women is going to go up," she said.

In seeking equality, women have been neither as aggressive nor as organized as they could be according to Griffiths.

"What has been the problem all these years? Women have never spoken up," she said.

When women did speak up in support of the ERA, they lacked the political savvy necessary to pass that amendment.

"There weren't enough women involved with it who had political experience," the lieutenant governor said.

Even though she was there to talk about women, there was one woman she declined to comment about — Sister Agnes Mary Mansour.

"I'll talk about anything you want but I have absolutely no comment whatsoever on Sister Agnes Mary Mansour," Griffiths told reporters.

Mansour was appointed by Gov. James Blanchard to direct the state's Department of Social Services. The appointment, has run into difficulty, however, following a request for her resignation from Archbishop Edmund Szoka of Detroit.

Trauma: divorce after age 60

Divorce is never easy. But for women past 60, it is a trauma compounded by shame, isolation and a profound sense of failure.

"These are women who grew up with different values, who saw marriage as a lifelong commitment," explains University of Michigan psychotherapist Barbara C. Cain. "While divorce has become an accepted fact of life for most of the population, there is still a strong self-imposed stigma for older women."

Divorce among the elderly is an increasing but largely hidden social phenomenon, Cain writes in a recent issue of the New York Times Magazine. The U.S. divorce rate, the highest in the Western world, now stands at one million annually. An estimated 100,000 per year involve couples 35 and over. But the effects of late-life divorce, overwhelmingly initiated by husbands, are vastly different for the women past 60 than for her younger counterpart.

"When my daughter divorced at 33, she was heartbroken, but it was not the end of the world for her," remarks one of the women Cain interviewed. "She still had her children, a good job and a ton of divorced friends who 'celebrated' the end of her marriage."

"When I was left at 64, the children were grown and scattered. I had no job, less than no confidence, and I did not know one woman my age who was similarly dumped."

A FREE GARDENING SEMINAR will be featured in the monthly Lifestyle Seminar 10-11 a.m. Tuesday, March 15, at Westland Shopping Center.

Its focus will be "RX for Spring Planting," and guest speaker will be Avery-Delo, president of the Tri Town Gardening Club. The meeting will convene in the Community Auditorium located in Westland's newly renovated Emporium. A complimentary continental breakfast will be served.

The seminar is free, but reservations are necessary. Call 425-5001.

Delo has been an avid gardener for years. He has his own greenhouse, orchard and 2 1/2-acre garden located in Taylor. He has served as president of the Tri Town Garden Club in the past and actively is involved with the Wayne County Extension Service.

A self-taught gardener, he has been on the board of directors for the Southeast Dahlia Society and the Michigan Dahlia Society.

A LOW-COST PROGRAM FOR LANDOWNERS wishing to prevent soil erosion by planting trees will be available again this year. The seedling sale is sponsored by the Wayne County Soil Conservation District and the Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service.

Divorce after 60 is a loss and an insult

ISOLATION IS only one of a mass of problems faced by the elderly divorcee, reports Cain, senior clinical supervisor of interns at U-M's Psychological Clinic.

"Disengaging from a 40-year partnership is a tall order. For most of these women, marriage was a career, their primary identity. Thus they have lost not only a husband but a sense of purpose.

"They belong to a generation committed to altruism, not narcissism; to stoicism, not hedonism; to constancy, not transiency," Cain said. "They believed that self-sacrifice, self-discipline and endless devotion would bring them their just rewards. Suddenly the values that had governed their lives were turned upside down."

The financial consequences can be devastating, Cain says. The majority of women past 60 have not worked outside the home in the past four decades. Not only will many of them be cut off from their former husband's private retirement pensions, but they can also be left unprotected by medical insurance until they reach 64 and become eligible for Medicare.

"Divorcees who are solely dependent upon their former husband's Social Security benefits are denied those benefits if the husband chooses not to retire until age 70. When the husband does retire, the ex-wife's benefits only amount to one-third of the total sum shared as a married couple," Cain adds.

OFTEN WORSE are the emotional consequences, Cain notes. A self-imposed stigma led one woman to resign her 15-year post as a Sunday School teacher, expecting that she would be fired. (She was mistaken and was persuaded to continue.) Another became a virtual recluse to avoid the gossip she imagined her new status had generated.

Bewildered, each searched for reasons. "What he wanted, I did," one woman recalled. "He wanted blintzes, I made blintzes. He wanted help in the store, I helped in the store. How does he say 'thank you'? He lies, he cheats, and for an encore, he defects."

Some of the women openly said that their husbands' death would have been more merciful than his desertion, Cain reports. "Death is at least immediate and publicly announced. Divorce is a long, drawn-out, ambiguous process that takes months, if not years, to become final. And there is always the imputation of blame, the feeling that if they had acted differently, if they had been smarter, or thinner, or more attractive, it may have somehow been preventable.

"Divorce among the elderly, after all, occurs simultaneously with another stressful phenomenon, the aging process, which does out its own brand of infirmities and indignities," Cain points out. "Self-esteem has already been diminished by the onset of creaking joints and sagging jowls."

"It's a double whammy," one woman observed. "You're too old to start over, and too young to toss it in." There are no primers for surviving late-life divorce, but Cain believes one source of help lies in support groups like Divorce after 60, founded by Patty Clare, which meets bi-monthly at U-M's Turner Geriatric Clinic. Only one of a few such organizations nationwide, the group strongly advocated taking problems out with someone early on and getting advice on the legalities involved. "The women repeatedly insisted that a trustworthy confidant was essential to sorting out the host of contradictory thoughts and feelings that are generated," Cain says.

"What worked best for most is what worked once. They coped by turning to past pleasures they enjoyed independent of their husbands, such as quilting and gardening. They serve as volunteer tutors or become more active in church groups.

"The family, the keystone of their lives, continues to bolster them. Typically, the adult children rally round the divorced parent while struggling with allegiances to both," she found.

"When asked what they would advise other women their age on the brink of divorce, the women in the Ann Arbor support group responded unanimously, 'Do everything you can to prevent it. Talk to each other. Get help. Leave no stone unturned. If everything fails, then bite the bullet.

"Divorce after 60 is not only a loss, but an insult," Cain observes. "As such, it requires a long period of recovery. The tough breed of survivors in the Ann Arbor group have turned what for many of them was at first a profound humiliation into a triumph of the spirit."

Dudley Moore slows down his frantic onscreen pace in the role of a psychiatrist who falls in love with his patient in the satiric comedy "Lovesick."

the movies

Louise Snider

'Lovesick' laughs at mixed-up world 'shrinks' inhabit

For a professional physician who died in 1939, Sigmund Freud does seem to pop up in movies looking exceptionally dapper and at ease.

In "The Seven Per Cent Solution," he treated Sherlock Holmes and helped him solve a mysterious disappearance. In "Lovesick" (PG), Freud's spirit materializes as the conscience and mentor of Dr. Saul Benjamin (Dudley Moore), a psychoanalyst who falls in love with his patient.

Benjamin is suffering from a case of the blahs. His wife, his patients, his life generally — everything is blah. When a beautiful new patient (Elizabeth McGovern) enters his office and reveals her anxieties and fantasies, he does some fantasizing of his own.

Freud steps in to chide him and guide him, but does Benjamin listen? No. He dumps his wife and shocks his colleagues by moving in with his patient.

WE NOTE THAT there is more fantasy in this set than in the amorous doctor's head. His patient, a young playwright newly arrived in New York, is living in a split-level apartment worthy of an Arab potentate.

"Lovesick" was written by Marshall Brickman, who used to co-author scripts with Woody Allen ("Manhattan," "Annie Hall," "Sleeper").

Brickman, however, has not been impressive as a solo writer. "Simon" was his previous film, and "Lovesick" limps along without any driving energy. This might be the fault of Brickman, the director, as much as Brickman, the writer.

Audiences looking for the charged-up Dudley Moore of "Arthur" or "10" won't find him here. "Lovesick" doesn't have the physical comedy and sight gags of these earlier films. Also, Moore is subdued to the point of being comatose.

The best lines in the movie go to Freud, played by Alec Guinness in a charming and witty manner. McGovern is lovely, bright and vulnerable-looking as the patient. It is not a very demanding role, but she does have one good, spunky scene in which she and Benjamin argue. All his male chauvinist attitudes emerge as he carries on about his shirts not being ironed.

More than anything else, one gets the impression that "Lovesick" is Brickman's vehicle for sticking it to the psychiatric profession. The story goes off in various directions. What remains constant is the satire directed against psychoanalysts.

BENJAMIN'S COLLEAGUES are upset about more than a violation of professional ethics. When he opens a free walk-in clinic in a poor neighborhood and returns $8,000 to a patient because he couldn't help her, they are really scandalized. None of these acts endears him to his peers. In fact, the presence of so many peers prompts Freud to remark that whenever intended psychoanalysis is to be a profession.

Among the other psychiatrists, there are vivid individual characterizations created by Wallace Shawn, Alan King, John Huston and Selma Diamond. Each adds a different and interesting inflection to the humor.

However, it is all rather sly, as if Brickman is writing for an "in" group. The result is discrete satire, with special but limited appeal.

Elizabeth McGovern plays the young playwright-patient to whom the married psychiatrist is instantly attracted.

what's at the movies

BEST FRIENDS (PG). When marriage comes in the door, friendship goes out the window in this romantic comedy with Burt Reynolds and Goldie Hawn as a couple of screenwriters who work well together until they get married.

CREEPSHOW (R). Film of terrifying tales and creepy monsters directed by George Romero from a screenplay by Stephen King.

THE ENTITY (R). Barbara Hershey stars as a woman who experiences the terror of an unknown presence intent on possessing both her body and her.

48 HOURS (R). Action drama with comic flair features Nick Nolte and Eddie Murphy as a white cop and a black con who are forced to work together to track down two killers.

FRANCES (R). Powerful drama with Jessica Lange as Frances Farmer, the film actress whose independence and radical views led to a tragic downfall.

GANDHI (PG). Epic film about Mahatma Gandhi, political and spiritual leader who led movement for Indian independence from Britain. Magnificent performance by Ben Kingsley as Gandhi.

THE MAN FROM SNOWY RIVER (PG). Handsome adventure film from Australia presents mountain boy's passage into manhood. Kirk Douglas plays double role as two feuding brothers. Newcomer Tom Burlinson has title role.

SOPHIE'S CHOICE (R). Beautifully acted and photographed film based on William Styron's novel of a Polish immigrant (Meryl Streep), her volatile lover (Kevin Kline) and a young Southern writer (Peter MacNicol) whom they befriend.

THE STING II (PG). Jackie Gleason and Mac Davis are a couple of con men involved in the biggest scam of their careers. Movie also features Oliver Reed and Karl Malden.

TOOTSIE (PG). Offbeat comedy with Dustin Hoffman as a struggling New York actor who can't get a job until he dresses as a woman to audition for a role in a soap opera.

TREASURE OF THE FOUR CROWNS (PG). A quest to recover an ancient treasure leads to action and adventure in 3-D spectacle starring Tony Anthony, Ana Obregon and Gene Quintano.

THE VERDICT (R). Strong role for Paul Newman as a cynical down-and-out Boston attorney who takes on an "impossible" malpractice suit.

WITHOUT A TRACE (PG). Suspenseful drama of a mother and a police detective engaging in a relentless search for the woman's missing son. Kate Nelligan, Judd Hirsch, David Dukes and Stockard Channing are featured.

Shamrocks sharp, romp to quarters

By Brad Emons
staff writer

Detroit Catholic Central rolled in the state hockey quarterfinal by outskating defending regional and state champion Trenton, 6-0, Saturday night before 11,000 fans at Wyandotte Yack Arena.

The Shamrocks, sporting an 18-5-2 record, will meet Ann Arbor Pioneer (9-13-2) at 7 p.m. Wednesday at Yack. After a scoreless first period the Shamrocks exploded for three goals in the middle stanza. The first came at 2:14 when sophomore Scott Bozyk smacked in a rebound on a shot from teammate Mike Cannon, who broke in all alone on the Trenton net.

Three minutes later, Scott Summers score to make it 2-0 and Dave Morse put Trenton in a hole by scoring an unassisted, short-handed goal with 26 seconds to go in the period.

Morse's goal came after the Shamrocks had killed two successive penalties.

Trenton, which finished 14-7-3, was content to throw bruising body checks, but CC thwarted the Trojans' hitting with finesse.

"We can hit if we have to, but we'd rather keep the puck off the net," said CC coach John Gumbleton. "We try to be a fore-checking team and if we lose that, we back-check."

In the final period, CC kept up its attack as defenseman Mike Kelly and forward Jeff Steffes accounted for the other goals.

Goalie John Bebes, ejected in the third period for not wearing a mouth guard, and Brian Vella combined for the shutout. They stopped 18 Trenton shots.

"I had confidence we could win, but I didn't think we'd shut them out," Gumbleton said. "They (Trenton) couldn't get a shot on goal really, even when we were short-handed."

"Morse is our spark plug and Summers is playing well. Summers' attitude has been great."

CC ADVANCED to the regional final with a 5-2 win Thursday night over Livonia Bentley.

Summers and Morse both scored in the first period to give the Shamrocks a 2-0 advantage. In the second period, Dave Moore scored for Bentley, but Steffes answered with a goal of his own.

Eric Socia and Cannon added insurance goals for CC in the final period, offsetting John LaDuke's late goal.

The Shamrock defense was strong as Bebes had to stop only 11 shots. Bentley bowed out of the tourney with a 12-10-2 record.

TRENTON, meanwhile, continued its tourney jinx over Livonia Stevenson, a second-place team in the Suburban Prep Hockey League (SPHL). Stevenson was eliminated by Trenton in last year's regional final. Tom Mates scored twice, propelling Trenton to a 7-4 semifinal win over the Spartans, who finished the year with a 15-7-1 mark.

Stevenson enjoyed a 2-1 first period advantage on goals by Dave Cox at 10:13 and Al Buchanan at 7:40.

But the Trojans ripped off three consecutive goals in the second period followed by three more in the final period.

Cox tallied three of Stevenson's four goals. Forward E.J. Perrault, the SPHL scoring champ, closed out his career with three assists.

Salem strength beats Spartans in final test

By C.J. Risak
staff writer

It wasn't a sparkling effort by a member of Plymouth Salem's starting five that enabled the Rocks to subdue Livonia Stevenson, 67-60, Saturday to capture the Western Lakes Activities Association (WLAA) title at Salem.

Credit for this win can be found by looking to the left of Rock coach Fred Thomann, to the members of the bench.

As foul problems mounted on both sides in the early stages of the second half, it was apparent that the win would not be forthcoming from the starters of either team. This victory would have to come from somewhere down the benches of either Stevenson or Salem.

Salem's bench won.

THE TRIUMPH made the Rocks the first-ever WLAA basketball champions. Both Stevenson and Salem came into the contest with 17-2 overall records and 14-1 league marks. The only WLAA losses on their records came in games against each other.

Salem won the rubber game of the match. "What it came down to was our eight against their five," said Thomann. "It seems everyone we went to on the bench contributed."

basketball

"You can't lose your No. 1 and 2 scorers and win — unless you have good players to go to."

One good player to go to for Salem was John Cohen. The 6-foot-4 senior tri-captain was summoned from his seat when starter Dave Houle picked up his fourth personal with 8:06 left in the third quarter. Cohen responded with 16 points, all in the last two quarters.

STEVENSON, MEANWHILE, did not fare as well. Starting forward Curt Ullstrom fouled out early in the third quarter and center Bob Sluka followed him to the sidelines less than two minutes later. Guard Pete Rose drew his fourth personal with 2:03 left in the third and coach George Van Wagoner sat him down until the fourth quarter.

"If I had to do it again, I might have gone with him all the way," said Van Wagoner about his decision to pull Rose. "But they hit the free throws (Salem was 23 of 28 from the line to 18 of 25 for Stevenson) and boarded well."

"And who hit for them? He (Cohen) probably hasn't had a game like this all year."

Glenn Medalle and Houle fouled out in the fourth quarter, but Thomann got solid performances from Rick Berberet, Erich Hartnett and Cohen.

THE GAME WAS a seesaw battle of scoring streaks, with Salem scoring six straight, then Stevenson answering with six in a row. A seven-point Rock streak gave them a 16-10 lead after one quarter, but the Spartans tied it up with an 8-2 skein in the second quarter. Tom Domako's shot at the buzzer enabled Stevenson to take a 28-27 halftime lead.

Salem recaptured the lead with an 8-0 burst to end the third period (46-43) and held onto it the rest of the way. Stevenson had its chances, closing to within one twice in the last quarter and to within two once. But two Salem mini-streaks, one of five points and one of six, clinched it for the Rocks.

Domako topped Stevenson with 19 points. Gary Mexicotte finished with 13 and Rose tallied 11. Houle had 15 for Salem, Marvin Zurek scored 11 and Medalle and Matt Broderick netted 10 apiece.

CC upset bid falls painfully short

Southwestern's Antoine Joubert makes sure CC's Mike Maléske is whistled for the game's final foul.

Southwestern grabs City crown, 53-52

By Brad Emons
staff writer

The verdict is in. Those who feared Detroit Catholic Central would get blown out by Detroit Southwestern and All-American Antoine (The Judge) Joubert were wrong. The Shamrocks had their chances Friday night but came up just short in the Operation-Friendship basketball final, 53-52, before 9,837 fans at Cobo Arena.

CC had the crowd buzzing in the first half, building a 35-28 halftime lead behind the play of 6-foot-8 center Mike Maléske, point-guard Stan Heath and heady sophomore John McIntyre. The trio controlled the tempo of the game and had the Prospectors confused.

Joubert, the 6-5 senior with all the press clippings, shot miserably for two quarters, making just three of 14 shots.

But in the third quarter CC went stone cold, going scoreless for almost a four-minute stretch at the outset of the period. Southwestern — outscored — the Shamrocks, 16-7 to take a one-point lead heading into the final quarter.

THE PROSPECTORS held a slim advantage through much of the fourth quarter until Tom Malone sank two free throws with 2:53 left to make the count 50-all.

The two teams followed by trading turnovers.

Heath then fouled Southwestern center Clarence Jones with 1:48 to play. The 6-7 junior hit one-of-two shots at the line to give his team a 51-50 advantage.

CC missed two attempts near the 4:10 mark and Southwestern regained possession. The Prospectors worked the clock, only to have Joubert throw up an off-balance shot at the 17-second mark which caromed off the glass and into CC's hands.

The Shamrocks, however, failed to convert a layup on the trip down the floor and were forced to foul Joubert, who sank two free throws with eight seconds remaining. Heath then drove the length of the floor and scored six seconds later, but the Shamrocks couldn't stop the clock. They ran out of timeouts.

JOUBERT, complaining of a bad thumb, led all scorers with 21 points. He was just five of 23 from the floor, but made up for that at the line, hitting 11 of 14. Jones added 19 points.

McIntyre, who upstaged The Judge at times during the proceedings, scored 15 points. Maléske led CC 17 and also grabbed 14 rebounds. Heath chipped in with eight.

"We had some good shots in the second half that we didn't convert and we missed some free throws; that didn't help," said CC coach Bernie Holowicki, whose team finished the regular season at 16-3.

"THE TEAM played sky-high and we thought maybe it was our night," he added. "This was a dream chance to play them. They feel down, but they have nothing to be ashamed of."

"We came here to win. We weren't going to back off and we didn't."

Southwestern bothered CC somewhat with its pressure full-court defense in the second half.

"The defense," said Southwestern coach Perry Watson, "that's what won it for us. That's always been our cornerstone."

"They dug down in. That's what's nice about winning the championship."

The Prospectors, the state's No. 1 ranked Class A team, will enter tournament play with a 19-1 record.

For every moment worth a memory

March Madness kicks off

I've heard it before by cohorts in the sports business about basketball in western Wayne County.

It's the "so-so Northwest Suburban League" or the "not-so-hot" Western Lakes Activities Association.

But you heard it first: Some teams from this area are going to surprise a few people in the state basketball tournament. The Madness begins tonight.

There won't be any state champions from this group, but you can bet they'll be a few surprises.

Remember 1980 when Livonia Stevenson opened 1979 state Class A champ Detroit Mackenzie in the regional? Or how about last season when Plymouth Salem took Detroit Southwestern to the wire?

The basketball in this area, like Rodney Dangerfield, deserves some respect. It will earn it in the next two weeks.

Here is a rundown of every team in our coverage area and its chances of advancing (in order):

● PLYMOUTH SALEM (18-2) — Coach Fred Thomann has his team ready to go. They're doing exactly what he wants. This team will do some serious damage.

● CATHOLIC CENTRAL (16-3) — Hosting your own district is a big help with likes of Redford Thurston, Detroit Henry Ford and Detroit Redford challenging. No weak links in the starting lineup and good sixth man.

● REDFORD THURSTON (18-2) — Big obstacle is district tourney with CC. Needs fan support and a healthy Jim Weiss. This team blew out Ecorse, which beat Highland Park. A formidable threat.

● LIVONIA STEVENSON (17-3) — A team with size and speed that plays according to the opposition. The Spartans are a good transition team and coach George Van Wagoner has been on the tourney trail before.

● LIVONIA FRANKLIN (11-9) — The Patriots are hot. They've won six straight and got a good draw in the Churchill district. Could pull an upset if they stay out of foul trouble — their bench is questionable.

● WESTLAND JOHN GLENN (13-7) — This team blew out Dearborn Fordson and is capable of winning the Salem district. The Rockets have size (6-foot-8 Paul Grazulis) and a good backcourt (Greg Gill and Mike Baydarian). They must play smart to win.

● GARDEN CITY (14-6) — Nobody should underestimate the Cougars and the job coach Bob Dropp has done. They scrap and never quit. They beat Stevenson early in the season.

● BISHOP BORGESS (11-9) — The Spartans are hosting their own district for the first time, and the field is murderous: Mackenzie, red-hot Fordson, Cody (with Vernon Carr) and Chadsey

(with high-scoring junior Demetrius Gore). The Spartans lost by only two last week to highly regarded Detroit DePorres. Forward Lewis Scott is starting to get some help. Joe Gregory and Gary Dzizek have been improving.

● PLYMOUTH CANTON (10-10) — A small team with a lot of heart. But the Chiefs haven't played well of late and meet Glenn Wednesday night. Coach Dave Van Wagoner has been known to pull some surprises.

● LIVONIA BENTLEY (9-11) — A team with a front line averaging 6-foot-6 inches that hasn't really jelled this season. They could be a year away, but had Salem on the ropes earlier this season and let them off. Getting past Stevenson is a chore.

● LIVONIA CHURCHILL (12-8) — The Chargers drew Stevenson in the first round of district (tonight) after losing to the Spartans twice already this season. The Chargers really haven't won a big game this season, although they won the Western Division of the W.L.A.A.

● REDFORD ST. AGATHA (7-12) — How about Detroit Country Day in the first round of the district? The Aggies have some talent in 6-foot-5 senior forward Joe White, but not enough to get by the swarming Yellow Jackets.

● LIVONIA CLARENCEVILLE (5-14) — The Trojans have a chance tonight against host Novi (Class B district), but getting past Benedictine, Renaissance or Royal Oak Shrine is a tall order.

● REDFORD UNION (0-20) — It's wait until next year for the Panthers, who have yet to win a game. In an interesting sidelight to tonight's district opener with CC, coach Bill Foley returns to his old stomping grounds (he coached CC to the state title in 1960). Rumors have it that he will retire after tonight's game.

Churchill bounces back

Livonia Churchill's basketball team had a meeting after its loss in the Western Lakes Activities Association (W.L.A.A.) tournament semifinals to Livonia Stevenson last Tuesday.

"We had a good talk after that game," said Charger coach Don Albertson. "And the kids did what they talked about."

What they did was start fast and never change gears in burying Northville, 75-42, Thursday at Churchill.

The Chargers, normally a deliberate-style team, opened with a full-court press and caught the Mustangs by surprise. Craig Hunter turned Northville miscues into Churchill baskets, scoring the first six points as the Chargers raced to a 10-0 lead. By half-time, it was 35-20 and after three quarters Churchill led, 55-29.

John Merner topped the Charger assault with 17 points. Hunter finished with 12, Steve Judawikis had 11 and John Gryzbek and Doug Kluccevek added eight apiece. Steve Frellick led Northville (10-10) with eight.

HW BISHOP GALLAGHER 66 REDFORD ST. AGATHA 58

The Aggies missed the front end on a pair of one-and-one free throw chances late in the game and it cost them Thursday at Gallagher.

The score was 55-50 in the fourth quarter when St. Agatha went to the line twice and missed. Gallagher (15-5) pulled away after that.

Joe White and Pat Haran each had 20 points for the Aggies (7-12) and White nabbed 13 rebounds. Dave Grunpenhoff's 14 points was high for Gallagher.

PLY. CANTON 59 LIVONIA BENTLEY 57

The Bulldogs led by 12 with six minutes to play, but collapsed in losing to Plymouth Canton for the third time this season Thursday at Canton.

Ron Rienas (nine points) and Mark Bennett (seven) led the Chief fourth-quarter comeback. Bennett finished with 20 and Rienas had 16.

Jim Thorderson led Bentley (9-11) with 16 points. Dan Hayes collected 12 and John Turner had 11.

GARDEN CITY 82 SOUTHGATE 63

Scott McCloskey and Tom Ferrell combined for 44 points to lead the Cougars to their 14th triumph in 20 games Friday at home against Southgate.

Garden City blew it open with a 24-8 second quarter scoring spree, with Ferrell responsible for 10 of those points. Craig Dimaya added 14 points for the winners, while Greg Graff pumped in 24 for Southgate.

ANN ARBOR HURON 66 WSLD. JOHN GLENN 63

A 30-point fourth quarter wasn't enough to overtake host team Ann Arbor Huron as the Rockets dropped their season finale Friday to finish the regular campaign at 13-7.

Todd Jennings' 13 points was high for Glenn, which trailed by eight going into the final quarter. Paul Grazulis netted 12 and Greg Gill, Mike Baydarian and Jeff Hawley each contributed eight.

MELVINDALE 47 CLARENCEVILLE 36

Livonia Clarenceville finally started clicking from the outside in the fourth quarter as Larry Weigand and Tim Spencer each scored 10 points, but it was too little too late Friday at Melvindale.

Spencer finished with 16 points and Weigand bagged 14. Paul Bargardi's 11 topped Melvindale. Clarenceville finished the regular season at 5-14.

Seniors key Chargers; Temple spikers advance

Six seniors went out in style Thursday as Livonia Churchill closed out its regular season Thursday with a 15-0, 13-15, 15-2 volleyball win over visiting Farmington Harrison.

Churchill, playing before a Parents Night crowd, finished Western Lakes play at 12-1 and 23-6-3 overall.

Coach Mike Hughes used seniors Cindy and Teri Evans, Cindy Cox, Judy Braisted, Sue Trembath, Beth Wesman to post its first shutout of the year in the first game.

The Churchill coach then substituted freely the rest of the game.

REDFORD TEMPLE CHRISTIAN raised its season record to 14-5 overall by winning three matches in the Michigan Athletic Association of Christian Schools (MAACS) tournament last week.

The Crusaders met Genesee Christian for the championship Friday night at Faith Davison (results will appear in Thursday's Observer).

In the first round, Jodi Gaynor led Temple to a 15-0, 15-4 triumph over Oxford Christian. Teammate Stacie Strague was the hero in a 15-2, 15-12 second-round victory over Ypsilanti Cavalry.

Wendy Ruddock and Patti Nott then propelled Temple into the championship match with a 15-6, 15-2 win over Jackson Christian.

Both Lisa Vande Giessen and Wendy Ruddock both were named to the All-State team.
