Residents blast lighting charge on major roads

By Sandra Armbruster editor

Westland city council members and administrators got an earful Thursday night at a public hearing called to discuss an assessment for major road lighting. If approved, it would be the first such assessment in the city's histo-

"Our intention is to listen to your comments," said Robert Matzo, city assessor, after explaining the administration's proposal.

An angry, noisy crowd of about 100 people responded by criticizing everything from Detroit Edison rate hikes to city taxes. Members of the audience applauded speakers who opposed the assessment and heckled city officials.

"What most of us are here to say is that you're talking lights, but basically we're talking taxes. We're taxed to death," said Joe Farkas, 179 S. John

"Do you understand? We can't take any more taxes or assessments."

EARLIER MATZO had told the atdience that no new street lights were being proposed.

"We're here to advise you on what we think you should be assessed," he

"My suggestion to you is to take the lights out," responded Farkas.

Noting that many homes on Cascade have been broken into, Pamela Goslin said she doesn't "want to pay for something that doesn't do the job." She suggested that smaller bulbs be placed in the fixtures to save money.

Matzo explained that the current proposal is nearly the same as one proposed by the administration of Mayor Thomas Taylor in 1981. Property owners on streets which historically have been designated as major roads, would be assessed at 50 percent of the cost of lighting those roads. That cost amounted to $246,000 last year.

Those roads include such obvious ones as Wayne and Ford as well as others that are primarily residential such as Cherry Hill, John Hix, Avondale, Wildwood, Hunter and Cowan.

Only property owners where lights now exist would be assessed. Those who have property bordered by major and residential streets would pay an assessment according to the street on which the property fronted.

PROPERTY owners would be assessed at 54 cents per front foot. In 1981, Taylor proposed the assessment be 50 cents per front foot.

"Property owners on local roads pay 100 percent of the cost," noted Matzo.

That works out equitably (with a 50 percent assessment for major road lighting) because the cost of major road lighting is far more expensive."

Cost of lighting on local roads is based on the number of lights and the number of buildable units in the area. There are 92 lighting districts for local roads. Matzo said there probably would be only one district for major roads.

He said the typical bill for lighting on a local road would range from $30-$35 for a 60-foot lot. The owner of the same size lot on a major road would pay $32.50 for lighting under the proposal.

Mehl sald that property owners on local roads paid $565,000 for lights, with the general fund paying out an additional $175,000.

In the past, the cost of major road lighting has come out of the city's general fund, Matzo said. He said that cuts in services and personnel due to budget problems prompted the revival of the assessment idea;

IF APPROVED by the council, the assessment would be for a one year period. Matzo said that the cost of local roads wouldn't be increasing this year, but cautioned that Edison was requesting two rate increases totaling 28.2 percent during the coming year.

"We'll have a lot more to talk about a year from now," he said. "I hope costs don't go out of sight because that affects all of us."

Bob Baldwin, a representative of Detroit Edison, told the audience that the city is billed at a flat rate for all street lights except four. He said that Edison still wants people who see lights on during the day to call so that the problem can be corrected.

In addition to the cost of electricity for the lights, Baldwin told the group that the assessment also covers the amortized cost of installation, maintenance and equipment.

Councilwoman Nancy Neal noted that some street lights in Norwayne had been installed in the 1940s, but Baldwin said the costs would still be amortized 40-some years later. He said he would provide the city with the formula. Cost of electricty depends on the type and size of the light, Baldwin continued. He told Richard LeBlanc, who lives on Canyon Drive at Carlson, that lights in his neighborhood cost $240 per

Why not turn out every other light?" asked LeBlanc. Matzo said that city officials would listen to all proposals.

When George and Sue Frantz had urea-formaldehyde foam insulation (UFFI) installed in their Westland home four years ago, they thought they would be saving energy.

grass roots organization, Citizens Engaged in Removal of Toxic Substances (CERTS) asked the Westland City Council last month to set aside $20,000 in previous years' Block Grant funds for the testing of homes for UFFI, and another $20,000 to be contributed to a medical clinic that would determine the effects of UFFI on families. Clinton Township and Warren have agreed to fund similar programs, CERTS mem-

The Westland council approved the use of $20,000 for home testing at its July 18 meeting. The money will be taken from about $400,000 in block grant funds that was reprogrammed.

IT WILL TAKE three or four months before home testing will be available in Westland, according to CERTS representative Ken Rynk. In the meantime, residents interested in the testing may contact Community Development Programs Director Gene UFFI is made when urea-formaldehyde based resin, a foaming agent, and compressed gas are fed into foaming equipment. The product, which looks and feels like shaving cream, is pumped through a hose and into the wall cavity, where it becomes firm.

An estimated 70,000 homeowners in Michigan and almost 500,000 in the country insulated with UFFI, most of them after the early 1970s, according to the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission.

THE COMMISSION banned UFFI in August 1982, saying the substance caused eye, nose and throat irritation, nausea, headaches and dizziness to some people. The severity of the illnesses ranged from short-ferm discomfort to serious impairment, the panel said.

Also, in some cases, exposure to formaldehyde gas has caused asthma and chronic respiratory problems and worsened existing respiratory illnesses, according to the commission. It said formaldehyde exposure is a cancer risk for humans.

Friends mourn Gerard McGrath, an advocate of special education

Gerard McGrath special education advocate

Gerard McGrath, who served as a member of the Wayne-Westland Board of Education for 15 years, died July 18 at the age of 67.

A board member from 1964 to 1979, Mr. McGrath is probably best known for his interest in special education. A special education center in Wayne was named in his honor.

A close friend of Mr. McGrath, Assistant Superintendent Dr. Dennis O'Nelll, described him as a "fantastic person" and added that the "whole community" as well as the school district had benefited from Mr. McGrath's

"Although special education for the physically and mentally handicapped is what he was most concerned with, he also had a super sensitivity for kids and the entire program," O'Neill said.

"He was a strong advocate of athletics and pushed for girls' sports," O'Neill continued, adding that Mr. McGrath also brought his philosophy of equal educational opportunities to the district.

MR. McGRATH also was active in St. Mary and St. Richard Catholic churches. He founded the Dads Club at St. Mary.

A graduate of Holy Redeemer High School, Mr. McGrath attended Michigan State University. He was a veteran of World War II.

A longtime resident of Westland, Mr. McGrath and his wife, Marcella, had celebrated their 48th wedding anniversary on July 16. After retiring from Detroit Edison, the McGraths alternated living between homes in northern Michigan and Florida.

Services for McGrath were held Wednesday in St. Richard Catholic Church with the Rev. Andrew Nicara officiating. Burial was in Cadillac Memorial Gardens West, and arrangements were by Uhts Funeral Home.

Besides his wife, Mr. McGrath is survived by two daughters, Elizabeth and . Deborah; four sons, James, Edward, Terrence and Kevin; four sisters, Ruth Solano, Virginia Kelly, Sister Joan McGrath and Peggy George; 16 grand-whereabouts of the notices called the Observer and city hall last week to find out. Turns out the fault is not that of city officials.

The county was late in producing the bills, and ours were done incorrectly," explained Robert Matzo, city assessor. "They computed a 1 percent administrative fee on the city portion of the bill. Traditionally, it's only been calculated on the portion that we act as collecting agents for."

Matzo said it took time to have the bills reprinted, which the county did without charging the city, Officials received the new version on July 15.

Taxpayers will have at least until Aug. 15 to pay their due. The city treasurer is expected to ask the city council. at its Aug. 1 meeting for a delay, without penalty or interest, until Aug. 31.

GORDON R. WHITTAKER

Pvt. Gordon R. Whittaker, son of Murray L. and Betty R. Whittaker of Westland, has completed one station unit training (OSUT) at the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga.

Whittaker is a 1977 graduate of Churchill High School.

OSUT is a 12-week period that combines basic combat training and advanced individual training.

Whittaker's training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, land mine warfare, field communications and combat operations. Completion of this course qualifies him as a light weapons infantryman and as an indirect fire crewman.

. He was taught to perform all rifle and mortar squad duties.

JAMES R. BARKER

Navy Builder Seaman Recruit James R. Barker, son of Marion L. Barker of Westland and Norman R. Barker of Detroit, has completed recruit training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

During the eight-week training cycle, Barker studied general military subjects designed to prepare him for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic occupational fields.

Included in his studies were seamanship, close-order drill, Naval history and first aid. Personnel who complete this course of instruction are eligible for three hours of college credit in physical education and

DONNIE G. PHIPPS JR.

Marine Lance Cpl. Donnie G. Phipps Jr., son of Shirly A. Erickson of Westland, is currently serving as part of the multi-national peacekeeping force in Beirut, Lebanon.

He is a member of 1st Battalion, 8th Marine Regiment, 24th Marine Amphiblous Unit, Camp Lejeune, N.C. Marines were first ordered to the war-torn nation in June 1982 to participate in the evacuation of American citizens and foreign nationals. They returned to Lebanon in August 1982 to supervise the evacuation of the PLO, and in September 1982 as part of the multinational peacekeeping force.

RICHARD A. URBAN

Navy Aviation Machinist's Mate 2nd Class Richard A. Urban, son of Norma Wade of Westland, recently returned from a deployment to the western Pacific and Indian Ocean.

Urban is a crew member aboard Tactical Electronic Warfare Squadron 133 (VAQ 133), embarked aboard the nuclear-powered aircraft carrier U.S.S.

His squadron participated in several major training exercises, including "Team Spirit 83," an extensive U.S. and Republic of Korea training exercise. More than 19,000 U.S. Seventh Fleet and 16,000 Republic of Korea Navy and Marine Corps personnel participated in the exercise.

Port visits were made to the Republic of the Philippines, Singapore, Kenya, Australia and Japan.

Family blames ills on home insulation

"Many families (with UFFI) are forced from their homes for a period of time," Berkley resident Susan Carlson, CERTS president, told the city council last month. "Families suffer as high as 75 percent loss of property values."

"Licensed appraisers wouldn't even come out here," Frantz sald. "Our home was appraised at $59,000. One appraiser who finally did come out said, in its present state, we could sell it for $16,000 or $18,000."

Westland's Board of Review has granted 20 percent reductions in assessments to homeowners who show proof that their homes contain UFFI, according to Helen Kraft of the assessor's office.

"We have been guided somewhat by various associations and by the state," she said. "Until there is a definite determination by a higher court, we just figure that 20 percent was a fair reduction from what we had heard of it."

HOMEOWNERS still face the question of how to remove UFFI. The cost of the process can range from $8,000 to $20,000, depending on the construction of the home, CERTS estimates.

George Frantz, a 38-year-old electrician, has been removing the foam himself after work, wearing a special mask and goggles, Sue Frantz said. She said the company that installed the foam. never returned the family's calls, and, the $5,000 estimate for removing the foam was too expensive.

But the testing by the city is a first step, CERTS members say. They said:

only one organization in the tri-county.

area, located in Troy, does the testing. "Testing is very expensive. It can cost $400 to $600," Rynk said. "Butthere's a chance that with the city. doing testing in quantities, it should cost $150."

CERTS representatives urged the Westland council to work for federal? reimbursements for UFFI homeowners and to make sure city building inspectors and firefighters know about the substance.

"We've run across a few people who". have it in their homes and don't want to admit it." Sue Frantz said. "It's as if, ifthey don't think about it, it'll go away. But it's a big problem.

"I get angry. I think of a lot of things that I can't really do. I try to ride a bike around the block with my kids, and I can't. It shouldn't be that way."

Other uses for the reprogrammed Block Grant funds approved by the council last week are $240,000 for expansion of the Friendship Center. $55,000 for Central City Park development, 344,000 for Whittier School and $20,000 for contingencles.

Tinkham revives with programs for adults

Tinkham Elementary School, closed

proved the reopening last Monday by a 4-3 vote after about two hours of discussion on the issue before a small audlence. Voting against the move were trustees Fred Warmbier, Dave Moranty and Dewey Combs.

Administrators broke down opera-to pay for its operation.

Assistant Superintendent Dr. Dennis O'Nelll said that one program moving into Tinkham would have had to be relocated. The extension program used four classrooms at Hamilton Elementary, O'Nelli said, and those classrooms now will be occupied by Tinkham students.

Use of Tinkham also will allow expansion of current programs as well as new programs operated for the courts how existing programs could be made and the mental health department. O'Neili said that alternative and Indian Education programs now at Nankin— Mills will remain there.

> TINKHAM AREA residents expressed concerns about programming, traffic patterns and hours of operation. O'Neill said that while as many as 300 people may be using the school, they'll "never be there at the same time." He said that many students would be part time and many not attend every day.

Transportation from group homes will be provided by the agency running the home, O'Nelll said.

He added that no programs are now scheduled for evening use of the school, and he said that few are expected to use it at night.

In earlier discussion on Tinkham, administrators said that keeping Tinkham open for use would prevent it from becoming an eyesore and discourage vandalism as experienced at another closed school, Tonquish.

REPRESENTING business owners in the com-bone in the gums can help make them fit more comfortably. This includes whatever tooth roots can be saved. They act just like pillings do in supporting a building. Sometimes metal attachments are made for dentures and roots, so they can connect together. Or a thinble-shaped metal cover is attached to the root, designed so that it fits into the denture for additional support. Saving the roots helps in other ways. Some people lose their sense of feel when their teeth are closed because they've lost all of their roots and surrounding nerve fibers. When some roots are retained, they keep this sense of touch when their teeth are in contact.

There is another advantage; it helps prevent further loss of bone by reducing wear on the jawbone itself. Because of this stronger support, the dentures not only fit better, they tend to last longer before they have to be refitted.

Just like whole teeth, however, the health of the roots must be maintained as long as possible. This makes regular checkups even more Important for denture wearers whose roots have been saved.

Trash or treasure?

Junkyards reincarnate old cars

By Mary Klemic staff writer

Vehicles and shells of vehicles, some propped up with a gaping space where a front tire had been, stood silent watch at Westgate Auto one hot summer afternoon. A worker tossed a radiator to one side as a young man walked by, carrying a windshield.

Inside the office at the Westland business, 156 S. Newburgh, it was cool but bustling. Manager Art Proia answered a barrage of questions from walk-in and phone-in callers, while he spent a few minutes with a visitor.

"Do you have a brake rubber for a '73 Monte Carlo?" "Do you have a carburetor for a '74 Cutlass?" "Are there red bucket seats for a '74 Firebird?"

THE OLD SAYING that beauty is in the eye of the beholder could apply to junkyards. One person's tired-out auto that is brought to a salvage company could be another's answer to a prayer.

Local junkyards manage to keep up with customer demands these days. But there doesn't seem to be a definite answer concerning what effect the economy has on the business.

"You'll see the well-dressed businessman come in and buy a starter for his car, go out and put it on," said Barbara Taylor, owner of Worldwide Auto and Truck Salvage, 510 S. Newburgh, Westland. "When the economy was good, I'm sure he would have taken it to a deal-

Worldwide has been in business one year. A different answer came from a representative of Westgate Auto, which has been in operation for 19 years.

'It's worse (with a bad economy)," Proia commented. "When things get" good, everything's good. Hard times hiteverybody."

"People don't have money to buy anything," said Dan Wild, manager of the 13-year-old Bill Wild Auto Salvage Co., 39223 Maple in Wayne. "But then, a lot of people are holding onto older cars and we get parts."

SALVAGE businesses see a little of almost everything, most of it old.

"We get everything, from A to Z, the whole shot," Proia said. "Any auto part form of life," Proia said.

that's necessary."

"We have older vehicles, 1977 and older," Taylor said. "Cars and pickup trucks and vans, some foreign cars."

"We have the older stuff, 1975, 1976 on down, except foreign cars," Wild said. "We've had some things that are different. Someone brought us an old tractor, for instance, an Allis-Chalmers from the 1940s. And people have brought in cars they put together themselves. We have a Dodge van with an old VW top."

At Westgate Auto, the "fast-moving" or most-in-demand parts - carbone tors and radiators, for example - are taken out and inventoried. The cars are stacked in the back, and scrapped in the following months. The business won't accept a car without a title.

"KNOWING what you've got, what you have out there, is important." Proia said.

There isn't a typical customer who buys or sells the items.

bin for used doors. AA takes ACTION on car thefts

Stolen car claims have become a $54 million problem for the Automobile Club of Michigan's Insurance Group, and the club would like some AC-TION taken.

This bus has made its final exit from service and now is a holding

_ ACTION is just what the AAA has provided in the form of a new project which club officials hope will help solve the mushrooming problem of automobile theft in Michigan.

Under ACTION (Arrest Car Thieves in Our Neighborhood), vehicle identification numbers (VINs) will be etched into the glass parts of members' and non-members' cars. The etching is free. So identified, the autos may be less desirable to car thieves and the "chop shop" operators who specialize in breaking down expensive autos into salable parts.

"I definitely think it will help," said Sgt. David Klinebriel of the Westland Police Department. "If they buy a door that's got a serial number on it, the glass will have to go.

"They'll have to grind off the number, which distorts the glass or replace it, which costs in excess of $100. So it's not profitable to sell," he continued. We had it done to a patrol car. It's very nice, very neat, and takes only four or five minutes." PERSONNEL at AAA claim and branch offices across the state, including the one on Wayne Road shith of Cherry Hill, began etching VINs into members' auto glass last week, said Tyronne White, an assistant manager who heads the program at the Wayne-Westland branch. He said the program is set to run for an indefinite period.

Etching will take place in Westland for members from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Thursday, and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturdays, although the branch isn't open for other business. Members must show their AAA membership card.

Etching will be done for non-members from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 20 at any branch

"White said that it now takes about 10 minutes for the process, but that he expects the time to shorten in time to etch the windows of a car. Eventually, White said he expects area service clubs to become involved in the project.

Etching cannot be done if it is raining or the temperature is over 85 degrees.

THE PROGRAM was outlined at a recent meeting with local police officials.

Stolen car claims for the Auto Club skyrocketed 50 percent last year over 1981, with our members losing 14,289 vehicles to thieves," said a AAA spokesman.
In certain areas, we paid out more dollars for comprehensive — fire, theft and vandalism — than we did for collision," he said. "That's not the way

Klinebriel said that since January, Westland has recorded 50 more stolen cars than last year. Last year the city recorded a total of 457 cars, motorcycles and trucks stolen. He expects that figure to top

The city has a recovery rate of 46.8 percent, according to Klinebriel. Of the 214 vehicles recovered last year, about 50 percent had some parts missing. The other 50 percent were totally stripped, according to Klinebriel.

The vehicles that the city doesn't recover are stripped, the hulks turned over to a scrap yard and run through a shredder at a cost of $25-$50. Klinebriel said that none of the junkyards in Westland have that kind of equipment, but the police watch for stolen goods which pass through the area. According to AAA, the VINs, usually found on a metal strip on top of the dashboard on the drivers' side, will be etched with an acid cream into the windshield on the lower left side, on the lower left of the rear window and on both side windows.

T-tops, removable glass tops on expensive cars like Corvettes and Pontiac Fierbirds, would also be marked.

As a warning to thieves, small stickers explaining the markings would then be placed on the inside

According to Westland police, 50 perstolen this year will be stripped of parts before being found,

The AAA's ACTION program includes several other features and proposals. They are: • A requirement that salvage yards provide vehicle identification numbers for any major parts provided. • An inspection of higher-value vehicles before insuring them to make sure they're in the hands of

• A toll-free number (1-800-222-5677) for persons to report car thieves and chop shop operations to police. Tipsters can qualify for up to a $10,000

EACH YEAR, according to AAA, insurance companies pay out $220 million to Michigan residents whose automobiles have been stolen.

AAA, the largest auto insurer in the state, compensated its members $54 million last year for stolen autos. According to the company's statistics, AAA members in Michigan lost 14,289 vehicles to thieves in 1982, a 50 percent increase over 1981.

Shopping centers, theaters, restaurants, office buildings and apartment parking lots are spots from which cars and car parts are most often stolen, police officials warn.

A thief can be in a large parking lot and not appear out of place as he would in a single family residential area where neighbors know who owns which car. In addition to the etching, car owners can take other measures to guard against theft. Police suggest parking in a well-lighted area and advising the parking lot attendant (if there is one) of where you have parked so he can keep a watch on the vehicle. Anti-theft devices, such as gasoline and ignition shut-offs and alarms, are also sold. Two common-sense anti-theft steps which, surprisingly, people often fail to do are locking the car and taking the keys.

Police - and thieves - carry devices which aid in getting into locked cars. AAA will also lend etching tools to members so they may engrave their vehicle VIN on all saleable, metal parts. A TOLL-FREE statewide hotline, 1-800-AAA-

LOSS, will be available to tipsters to qualify for AAA's rewards. Tipsters may also mail information to: ACTION, Automobile Club of Michigan, P.O. Box 6006, Dearborn 48121. Tipsters will be of-

A $1,000 reward will be paid to anyone who provides information to police which leads to the arrest and prosecution of those involved in the theft of a AAA member's car, boat or property from a

Up to $10,000 will be given for information leading to the arrest and conviction of chop shop operators or an organized crime theft ring member.

The Michigan Court of Appeals ruled Monday that there is no limit on the number of group homes for the mentally ill the state can establish in a com-

The ruling reversed a 1982 decision by Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Victor Baum, who ruled that it was unlawful to place the mentally ill in such Baum's ruling had been in favor of Canton Township in one of the points of its lawsuit against the state Department of Social Services (DSS).

The lawsuit, filed by Canton in 1981, said the township was unhappy with the number of group homes being established in township subdivisons, particularly those containing the mentally ill.

Monday's ruling was a unanimous decision from a three-judge panel that included Myron Walls, Roman Gribbs and visiting judge Meyer Warshawsky.

Canton Supervisor James Poole said in a prepared statement that he was "very disappointed with the decision." After talking with attorneys, Poole said Canton can appeal the decision to

said he will take this to the township board of truses meeting Tuesday. Until then, Poole said he would "continue to work with Sen. (William) Faust (D-Westland) on the bill to limit the number (of group homes) in each community.' These homes, which are subsidized by the DSS, can house up to six persons who are aged, developmentally disabled, physically handicapped, emotionally disabled or mentally ill. Group homes hope to give individualized care to patients and help ease them back into the community.

Canton officials said that the township had 10 foster care homes and applications for another five, while other surrounding communities had less.

The panel said Canton did not show "that the facilities . . . would, by virtue of their allegedly 'exorbitant' number, overburden the community's resources or cause undue harm to its population."

The appeals court also pointed out that 15 group homes would make up .09 percent of all Canton households, and their residents, which would number 90, would make up only 0.19 percent of the local population.

Township clerk John Flodin said that he was disappointed by the decision and "to an extent" surprised.

""The law is a funny thing," he said. "I don't know (if Canton will appeal the decision). I certainly think the board has to make that decision. It will be expensive, but it does seem that Canton has a disproportionate amount of these Antonio Sieira of the Michigan Department of Mental Health said he was pleased with the appeals court ruling. "Anything that confirms the right of an individual to live where he so chooses, I'm for," he said. In Baum's decision in favor of Canton, Baum wrote that it was "unlawful to use such homes for persons who are mentally ill."

The homes being used are in areas zoned for single-family residences.

THE FATIGUE OF ARTHRITIS -PART TWO

Last week's column brought to your attention that extreme fatigue is an unanticipated accompaniment to arthritis. This week's discussion will consider ways to fight this enemy, which like a saboteur, acts to disrupt your plans and expectations

Your basic defense is rest, what rheumatologists call "articular rest." That means you should stop accall "articular rest." That means you should stop activities before excessive strain and accompanying fatigue develop. You need to plan your day so that such periods are a regular part of your schedule.

Equally important is taking your medicine as prescribed. Forgetting a dose lowers its level below what is effective; taking more than what is directed can lead to the risk of drug toxicity.

Finally, you must persevere. Your best efforts may fall and leave you feeling trapped by fatigue. At such times, if possible, have a good cry and begin again to plan the next day carefully.

Fatigue is part of arthritis. What it causes you to lose in physical strength, you need to make up with a

Union's charge against Lucas is clouding the hospital issue

IT DOESN'T bother me that the president of the biggest Wayne County employees union calls our County Executive William Lucas and his staff "conservative, fat-cat cronies" with talents only for "cutting, slashing, selling, closing and losing money.'

That's union rhetoric. It goes with the territory.

More bothersome, however, is that James Glass of Council 25 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) considers the Lucas crew "inept." A manager can take it if the help considers him a tight-fisted s.o.b., but it's another matter when they think he doesn't know his

Richard

A union which thinks the boss is stupid could make a serious miscalculation that can be disruptive to the workplace and to public services. In other words, some extremely nasty times are ahead in this county.

IN A TIME of 15 percent unemployment and declining tax base, Bill Lucas couldn't have made himself look worse if he had appointed a 15-member commission on How to Make the New County Executive Look Pom-

The chauffeur. The twin inaugural balls. The big salaries for his top staff. The many jobs for his former sheriff's department friends. The TV set backdrop for his conference room. The TV monitoring equipment. The non-salary legal fees for Dennis Nystrom. the conservative Oakland County Republican who wants to collect a $269,000 legal fee for his unsuccessful handling of the deputies' lavoff case. The lack of face-to-face meetings with the County Commission. And so on, and

The giant University of Michigan is at nearby Ann Arbor and Eastern Michigan University and Cleary Business College are in Ypsilanti. Washtenaw Community College, Jackson Community College and Concordia Lutheran College are are also near at hand.

"The Imperial Executive" — I borrow the term from a commissioner - could look bad at any time in history, and looks excruciatingly bad now.

Even those of us who weren't enthused about Lucas' candidacy want him to succeed - for the good of public services and for the good name of the county home rule system.

THE PURPOSE here is not to dump on Lucas — AFSCME is handling that. Rather, it is to put the Wayne County General Hospital (WCGH) story into perspective.

A big chunk of the county deficit is the subsidy we taxpayers are pumping into WCGH. The Westland hospital has a host of problems having to do with low occupancy and state reimbursements, but one of the chief problems is that AFSCME members are taking home as much as 50 percent more in wages and benefits as workers in comparable hospi-

Try to tell that to the workers and win contract concessions when their union leader is telling them not only that Lucas is a conservative fat cat but inept.

If he doesn't get concessions, Lucas talks of a) selling and b) leasing WCGH to a private company or c) closing it. Closing is unlikely, despite the impression Commissioner Kay Beard gives.

A PRIVATE company would not have an AFSCME labor contract to deal with. Many of the 1,125 county hospital employees undoubtedly would find jobs with the new owner/operator, but not at AFSCME wages. Sale or lease are very real possibilities. Lucas says so, and I believe him.

But do the AFSCME folks believe? If they dismiss new ownership as an inept bargaining bluff by an inept imperial executive, well, we could have a bitter labor mess and a prolonged court case on our hands.

Not to mention another deficit and a nervous bunch of hospital patients.

Learning parents' lessons

NOT ALL the lessons that The Stroller learned as he traveled along life's highway are those he was taught Oftimes those that have proved most helpful were those that were taught at his mother's knee or in quiet chats with his father.

The Stroller, who had to leave school after attending attending high school only three months, often recalled the teachings of his mother as he moved along in the passing years.

One of the most valuable lessons she taught him came shortly after his father passed away.

WE HAD been a tight-knit little family and now the leader was gone and mother faced the gigantic problem of carrying on without him.

On this particular morning, she called the children into the little kitchen and, sitting at the table, she spoke with bit of a choked voice: "You children must make up your minds now that you can't have what other children have." Then, she said: "But there can be a lot of enjoyment in the world if you only make the most of what you've

She waited a few seconds, then said that we should never look over the fence to see what other folks have, never be jealous and never pity ourselves for the position we found ourselves in. And things will work out all right, she said.

Those were wise words and The Stroller has followed them through the years. And he seems to have done quite well doing so.

AND OFTIMES the wise teachings of his father come to mind. One of his first business lessons came one night during the major league baseball season. In the days before radio broadcast the scores, we received the scores by telephone in our little lunch counter, and then posted them on a blackboard for our customers to see.

It was common practice then for the men of the town to take a walk downtown to get the scores and to enjoy a piece of pie and a glass of milk.

One evening The Stroller wrote the scores down on the blackboard and put the board just outside where all the world could see. Quick as a flash father came to the door, grabbed the blackboard and took it inside. He said: "We'll never sell any pie or milk with the scores hanging outside." It was a wise lesson and the blackboard never was placed outside again.

ON ANOTHER occasion The Stroller's father sent him alone to the county fair a few miles away in the city. He was given full instructions as to where to get the street car for the return ride home and the time he was expected.

After an enjoyable day at the fair, he took the street car at the appointed time and returned just as he was told.

He sat down with his father to tell. him about the big day, handed him all the "gifts" he had received at the various stands and recounted the fun he had all through the day. When he had finished talking, father asked, "What did you bring home for your sisters? Don't tell me you are going to be a selfish boy."

THE STROLLER swallowed hard and almost cried for he had nothing for his sisters.

But he learned a lesson. Later in life, in any trip he ever took he made sure he would have a gift of some kind for his sisters, and after that for his wife who was sitting at home.

These are the kind of lessons one isn't taught in school and, oftimes, they are the most important in life.

Vacation: a time for kids to learn

By Harriet Hartman staff writer

Harriet Hartman, a reading specialist, gives clues on teaching children during family vacations.

Because a summer vacation is an excellent time to broaden a child's horizons and to increase his/her experience base, thought should be given to how to capitalize on the learning opportunity.

When planning a trip, use maps and tour books to show your child where you are going. Be sure to name the places you will be visiting — the cities, states, landmarks.

So many youngsters describe going "up north" but cannot name Lake Michigan or the Mackinac Bridge. For further enrichment, visit the library for fiction or non-fiction books that tell a story about the area.

PLAN ONE OR TWO projects that can be ongoing during the entire trip.

Set up a notebook or purchase a trip book in which your child keeps a log of mileage, expenditures, places visited and other details. This can be done with or without your assistance. Consider buying your child an inexpensive instamatic camera. Taking pictures and keeping track of sites can be interesting and worthwhile.

Time spent traveling in a car or in a train or plane can include play-andlearn games such as cards, Scrabble and backgammon.

Word search, crosswords, "Yes and Know," and other activity books help pass the time and provide practice in basic skills.

Reading aloud is another important activity that everyone can enjoy. On longer trips introduce such classics as "Black Beauty," "Huck Finn," "Lassie," "Old Yeller," and "The Little Prince."

SHORT STORIES of high interest such as the works of O'Henry or Edgar Allen Poe will keep everyone's attention. For a light touch, "Where the Sidewalk Ends" and "A Light in the Attic" by Shel Silverstein will provide hours of entertainment.

Traveling also can be used to teach daily living skills. Give your child a trip allowance. Determine a specific amount that he/she can have to spend as he/she chooses for souvenirs, snacks, and other items. With this arrangement, your child has to plan and make spending decisions. In addition, he/she may gain a better understanding of the value of money. A side benefit for you is that the kids will not be constantly bugging you for money.

The most important thing to do throughout the entire trip is to talk about what is happening. Explain where you are, describe what you are; seeing, highlight what is taking place." Then, when your child returns to school in the fall, these experiences will carry over into this formal setting and make learning much more meaningful.

Regents approved a request to increase U-M undergraduate student fees from $764 per semester to $833 per semester (full-time, in-state).

Graduate fees also will increase from $814 to $887 (full-time, in-state). In addition, undergraduate students students electing 15 hours or more will pay an additional $39 per semester-based on a reorganization of the fee structure approved by regents earlier this year. The 9-percent increase corresponds to a 9.5-percent increase for U-M's Ann crease for U-M's Flint campus.

Arbor campus and an 8.6-percent in-that the increase in student fees will generate $643,000 in new revenue for the 1983-84 fiscal year.

Coupled with an expected 8.5-percent increase in state appropriations (generating $854,000 in new revenues), the student-fee increase will produce funding in order to "catch up" on critical program needs, they said.

Chancellor William A. Jenkins told regents that the state made a "praiseworthy attempt to restore some financial health to public higher education. But those in government, the press and the public who expected the institutions to be able to freeze tuition because of the appropriation simply do not comprehend how our financial support has been decimated during the past three

"Seven executive orders (budget re-U-M ADMINISTRATORS anticipate duction and delays in funding) and considerable loss of interest, through delayed release of funds, plus the increased cost of nearly everything to run a campus cannot be overcome by a single 8.5-percent increase," Jenkins

THE CHANCELLOR said a primary task will be to continue the trend begun this year of reducing the rate of increasing costs for tuition.

"We must do whatever we can to persuade our legislators that too much of the cost of their education (48.7 percent for 1983-84) has been passed on to students," Jenkins said.

"The traditional pattern of 33 percent student, 67 percent state appropriation is far more desirable, and it is a target which all of us must aim for. With those proportions we would not have had to increase tuition this year.

We probably could have lowered it," the Chancellor added.

Jenkins said that the additional revenue will allow U-M-D to pay faculty and staff an average 5-percent salary increase, the same as the other two U-M campuses. This is at a level approximating the annual inflation rate, be

A number of other high priority items will receive "catch-up" funds, including the library's book acquisition budget, modest purchases of new equipment, minor rehabilitation projects on the physical plant and the "Phasing in" of campus support for academic computing services, the U-M-D chief executive officer said.

The budget according to Jenkins, also includes an 18-percent, or $75,000, increase in student financial aid.

Automotive engineering :

WSU has new degree program

Wayne State University will introduce a new interdisciplinary master's degree program in automotive engineering this fall. It was designed with the help of Ford Motor Co. engineers. Costs of the program were underwritten by the No. 2 automaker. Courses will be taught both at WSU and at Ford. The new interdisciplinary master of science degree in electronics and computer control systems was approved by the WSU Board of Governors last week.

ASSOCIATE DEAN of Engineering Edward Fisher said the program was worked out with Ford to help industry meet the increasing technology chalenges of foreign competition.

"America's engineering workface has not been trained in computer-based technology," said Fisher. "Even engineers out of school only a few years were trained for what is not antiquated technology, particularly with respect to computer applications.

"This program, which was worked out with the help of people in the industry, will provide the upgrading and retraining which is necessary today," Fisher said.

In addition to the new master's program, a "Software Design Certificate" program has been developed. It will provide intensive computer software and hardware experience for mechanical engineers who work in the area of vehicle electronics and controls.

WSU faculty participating are from the Departments of Computer Science, Computer Engineering and Mechanical Engineering.

THE ONLY engineering program of its kind offered in southeastern Michlgan, the new certificate and master's degree programs will have access to Ford computer systems. The deans of the Colleges of Engineering and Liberal Arts, and the Graduate Council, have approved the program. Dean of Liberal Arts Wallace Williams said the program "represents exactly the kind of important contribution this university can make to the task of retraining the technical personnell of the surrounding industrial com-

SUMMERTIME...AND THE GRILLING IS EASY

Serve Wild Rice Tomato Salad Stars and Simply Special Wild Rice Salad with succulent duckling, for an easy, elegant barbecue. Even cleanup is hassle-free, thanks to the unique One Touch system now found on Weber Barbecue Kettles, that sweeps away accumulated ashes without a mess.

Everyone loves a barbecue, and when the weather's warm, most everything tastes better cooked over the coals. At the start of the season the standard items are paraded out to sizzle temptingly on the grill, but as the summer barbecue days wear on, enthusiasm for these predictable menus wears

This year when you light up the coals, expand your barbecue horizons with succulent duckling and elegant Oriental Long Grain and Wild Rice accompaniments. They're far from the usual barbecue fare, but just as easy to serve.

Duckling has always been a popular restaurant menu choice, so it's no wonder that at-home use of duckling is becoming more widespread. Cooks everywhere are discovering its pleasing affordablity, versatility, and ease of preparation.

Duckling can grill outdoors virtually unwatched for the greater part of its cooking time, if it's cooked in a barbecue kettle. With the cover in place, flames cannot flare, and the charcoal burns evenly. The duckling cooks quickly, without turning, and comes out moist, tender, and with a fantastic flavor. Because duckling requires so little preparation before grilling in a covered barbecue kettle, serving it is almost like a day off

Always the preferred accompaniment for duckling, long grain and wild rice provides a welcome menu addition to any barbecue meal. Serve prepared according to package directions, or combined with seasonal vegetables for a great-tasting side dish to be kept warm on the grill. For a very new special-effect menu enhancer, Original Long Grain and Wild Rice is unequalled as the starting point for cool, refreshing, make-ahead salads. The 23 carefully selected herbs and spices which have made this rice mix so popular as a hot accompaniment are just as flavorful when chilled for a savory salad. Teamed with crunchy, colorful vegetables and a light dressing, the chewy, nutty-flavored wild rice-long grain white rice combination provides an exciting new-dimension salad experience year 'round.

When duckling is on the barbecue menu, plan ahead to grill an extra one for a "trendy" duckling-long grain and wild rice salad later in the week. Try it one of two ways, as you prefer: use the meat from a whole duckling, or serve only the meaty breasts from the grill, saving the remainder of two ducklings for the salad. Either way, Wildly Delicious Duckling Salad is sure to enhance your reputation as a creative cook, and no one need know what a breeze it was to prepare.

But lem'n limes aren't selling 2-tone fruit a perfect blend

When I first saw the two-tone fruit piled high in a grocery bin several years ago, I was momentarily stunned. I picked up a couple, looked them over like a new toy, glanced at the sign in disbellef, dropped them and walked on.

Unfortunately, Herman Lucerne has had that kind of luck trying to win over the public to his - freak of nature.

In 1971, the South Florida grower stumbled on the fruit in the rotting tangle of a lemon patch in the research area where he was attempting to develop a lime with an extended shelf life.

Lucerne walked over to what he believed was a healthy, deep green, Persian lime tree. "But when I cut one of the limes open, it had the texture of a CLOSER EXAMINATION revealed that the roots of a "rough lemon" tree and the lime tree had fused, trying to survive drought conditions that had decimated much of the citrus crop.

The lem'n lime was born. Lucerne air-grafted 100 new plants from the mother tree and began cultivating them. "It was amazing. The cuttings started to bloom and some bore fruit the first year.

"We have a hearty, thin-skinned fruit that is much juicler than either a lemon or a lime." Lucetne explains. "The lem'n lime can be used in place of either fruit and the taste is very similar to the lime.

However, the lem'n lime is not as tart as a lime nor as sour as a lemon.

Since Lucerne was granted a patent in 1973, the patch to success has been clogged with thorns.

A DEAL with a major soft drink company to purchase 100,000 cuttings to promote its lemonlime drink fell through. Dreams of steady markets in major U.S. cities failed to materialize. Without those major markets, for the last several years much of the lem'n limes were unpicked, preventing many new buds from maturing properly on 500

Most lem'n limes are sold outside Florida because, according to merchandizer Nick Turmes Jr., "produce people here say it looks like the lime since they can't see any real difference, why try it. "It's rather funny. We sell so many to New York and even Japan.'

The fruit also is shipped to buyers in Texas, Colorado, Ohio, Massachusetts, Mississipi and Canada. But Lucerne isn't giving up. "We need several more years under commercial conditions to be sure what they'll do."

Consumers unable to purchase lem'n limes can do a little blending on their own, thanks to the faithful lemon and the prolific lime.

When the heat's on, cool off with rich, robust coffee . . . on ice. Nothing beats the summer heat like a cold, tail glass of iced coffee. It's tasty, refreshing and, enjoyed "basic black," is also low in calories. Furthermore, it's easy to make,

Whether you choose brewed or instant coffee, the secret to full-bodied iced coffee is to make it stronger than you normally do for hot coffee. For ground coffee, brew it double strength, using 2 tablespoons of coffee and 1/4 measuring cup (6 fl. oz.) of fresh water for each serving. Pour the hot coffee into tall icefilled glasses.

For delicious instant iced coffee, put one rounded teaspoon of instant coffee in the bottom of a tall glass. Using a small amount from one cup of cold water, dissolve the coffee rest of the water, stirring well. Add of the day or night.

It's summertime and the livin' is ice and cream and sugar, if desired.

GRANDPARENTS Martin and Ralph Sitler of Livonia hit the jackpot on July 14 when two sons' wives had babies the same day but at different hospitals. Melissa Anne's parents are Cynthia and Thomas Sitler of Canton. The other proud grandparents are Danilla and Howard Vaughn of Livonia. The second delivery was Ralph Allan Sitler III, son of Jean and Raiph Sitler of Sterling Heights. Grandparents on that side of the family are Irene and the late Charles Lawson of Redford. The two additions put the number of grandchildren for the Sitlers at seven. Melissa was born in St. Mary's in Livonia; Ralph Alian was

Mom-daughter combo a magnetic force

By Dan Vecchioni staff writer

The office of the president of Storch Products Co. of Livonia boasts many of the amenities one expects to find in the working area of the owner of a successful manufacturing firm.

Double-doors open onto a large room dominated by an oversized desk. Couches line parts of two walls. Curtains hide a window that, when opened, provides a view of the inside of the

Then there is the sign. As in other offices, it carries a witty message reflecting the sentiments of the office occupant. It reads: "Sure God created man before woman but then you always make a rough draft before the final masterpiece."

The message is the only concession that Ruth Storch, president, and her daughter, Marge Papora, vice president, make to their sex.

The two Livonia residents otherwise shrug off any possibility that being women in a man's field -- in their case, the manufacture and sale of magnetic assemblies for industrial use -- has been a handicap.

"This field is just like the construction field; it's primarily men. But I can't see any problems we've had being women," Storch said. And with that she is ready to go on to other topics of dis-

THE TWO WOMEN have been assoclated with the business since 1952. when it was founded by Storch's husband. When he died in 1960, they took

"I took business and bookkeeping courses in high school, but that was it."

Papora said. "But I grew up with this business. I haven't done anything else."

"We just picked it up," said Storch, who is also a grandmother. "We handle all the office work, but if I have to I can go out there (into the plant) and make the magnets."

The magnets are their product, and they keep the two women and 21 workers employed. At the Storch plant, in an industrial park near Plymouth and Levan, raw magnets are mounted into assemblies of various sizes and shapes and then sold to customers throughout the country.

While the automotive and plastics industries have provided most of the firm's customer base, the magnets have found their way into some unusual uses, Papora said.

"We had one customer put magnets in the stomachs of his cows," she said. "That way, metals that the cows ate along with their food would be attracted to the magnets and not be absorbed into the areas used for meat."

The company has had five locations - all in the Detroit area - since its inception. Storch and Papora moved it to Livonia in 1970 to be closer to home. In addition, the firm had a branch office in Chicago that since has been sold.

"ORIGINALLY, THE Detroit area was a good area for us," Papora said. "But the decline in the automotive industry has changed that. Still, we're at the tail end of things. When everyone else slumped, we went down, but not?

The responsibilities of managing and operating a successful business have not distorted the basic mother and daughter relationship that Storch and Papora enjoy.

"Since we see each other five days a week at work, we don't shop together on weekends," Papora said. "But we don't like to shop anyway. Otherwise, we have the same relationship others have."

Like other business owners, the problem faced by the two women is being able to take time off.

"It's hard for me to take vacations," Papora said. "This place is not my entire life, but it's hard to delegate work. But then that's a problem everyone else has."

"I've always been a worker," Storch said. "I'm here everyday. But it's not as tough for me to get away as it is for Marge. I'm interested in sports and I've a vacation planned. Actually, I should have retired a long time ago."

If and when Storch does retire, plans are to keep the business in the family. One of Papora's children — a son, 15 — already has been sweeping floors and working with magnets and, according to Storch, will take over one day.

When he does, one of his first actions. may be to take down the sign that currently hangs in his grandmother's off-

Indoors, the Rochester herbalist Colleen Dodt keeps herbs and flowers hanging to dry or in woven baskets much like women have done down through the ages to prepare beauty potions.

ries discovered that certain herbs, roots, and berry juices could be used to make them more attractive and desir-

Cleopatra is credited with the discovery of kohl and henna. Catherine de Medici was known for her use of floral fragrances; Anne Boleyn for her musk scents, and Marie Antoinette earned points for creating tinted face powder and mouches (beauty marks).

Whether these famous women actually invented these items is doubtful. They probably had a staff of alchemists in the background devising all sorts of potions and products, because these were wealthy women who could afford the luxury of a private beauty staff.

Beauty and health are far from new topics. They were a major concern and responsibility of ladies of the 16th century when every lady of the manor house or castle had an herb garden, not for a hobby or to show off to the local garden club, but for the serious business of creating a better quality of life.

It was the duty of a proper housewife to make potpourri, sweet bags and pomanders. After all, before proper sanitation equipment was installed, castles and cottages needed the clean fresh fragrance of flowers and the masking odor of herbs and spices. A rose jar was usually kept in the best room and when stirred, the fragrance of the contents would permeate the room. Rose petals and lavendar were also put into bags and placed in closets or fitted on the backs of chairs.

INTEREST IN the art of beauty through herbs has experienced a major resurgence in the past several years. One area advocate of natural beautyproducts is Colleen Dodt of Rochester, who said her dream is to live a 16thcentury life. To turn her fantasy into reality she turned to her herb and flower beds from which she creates an entire range of beauty products for her-self and friends.

"I became interested in the natural approach to things when I had my daughter four years ago," she explained. "Making my own cosmetics and decoming an nervalist was an extension of wanting the very best for my child. I wanted a natural existence for myself, too.

Our hot summer

But have you ever spent a summer in Florida?"

That was the question everyone asked my husband and me after we decided to retire and move to our home in the South.

No, we hadn't, we had to admit. Vacation time always was limited, and we never were willing to give up our coldweather respite. And yes, we agreed, all retirement advice recommends trying out the area in its worst weather before deciding to live there.

But we wanted to move sooner rather than later, and we weren't anxlous to be maintaining two homes. Given our dislike of northern winter, we thought we were ready to take on southern summer.

NOW HALFWAY through the hot season in Florida, we're more knowledgeable and experencing no re-

It's a lot easier, we're definitely agreed, to turn on an air conditioner to beat the heat than it is to shovel out a driveway and then navigate snowy Dealing with summer in the South, we think often of the comment made by a new acquaintance soon after we arrive here. "In the North," she said, "you don't spend a lot of time outside when it's really cold, and in the South you don't stay out when it's really hot.

So we've learned it's pretty easy to adjust when the mercury climbs over 90 just about every day. Our key is always cooler than the mainland, and if a good breeze is blowing off the gulf we open doors and windows and let it blow through. If not, we close up and use the air conditioning.

In either case, we aim to stay inside. during the hot hours. The beach is for tourists until after 5 p.m. this time of

WE WERE surprised — I can't imagine why — to find that the condominium swimming pools were getting pretty warm. We joked a bit with other residents about carrying down a supply of ice cubes. But what we do is swim first thing in the morning when the water is cooler.

Biking and tennis are curtailed, but there will be opportunity later for them. Year around, we're way ahead

Because Florida is geared for hot weather, we figured we're more comfortable here than we would have been in the 90-degree heat we keep hearing about in Michigan.

Indeed, Florida is hot in summer. But any problems with its heat melts fast when we think of those snowshov-

Dem chief charges firm aided recall

A state investigator is probing charges by an area Democratic leader that a Sterling Heights company illegally helped the committee trying to recall Gov. James J. Blanchard.

Charges were filed by Donald F. Tucker, chairman of the 18th Congressional District Democratic Committee. He is a Birmingham resident with law offices in Southfield.

He named Detroit Plastic Molding Co. of Sterling Heights in the complaint. James A. Breen, company attorney, said, "We have not seen a copy of it, nor has anyone here in our offices. Until we have an opportunity to see it and review it, we wouldn't want to comment on it."

Tucker charged the company illegally solicited funds for a political committee from impermissible sources, failed to register under the campaign finance act, coerced employees and made illegal "in-kind" contributions through use of its payroll records.

WEBSTER BUELL, director of the compliance division in the Michigan Department of State, said staff investigator Ann Corgan had been assigned the complaint.

"This is the only one that has arisen out of the recall movement," said Buell, who said his office has largely cleaned up its backlog of cases from the 1982 election.

dence of a violation of the act. If there is evidence of a violation of the act. If there appears to be a violation, he said, conciliation is attempted. If conciliation is impossible, the case would go to an informal hearing before a departmental hearing officer.

Finally, Secretary of State Richard Austin would determine whether the case should be referred to Attorney General Frank Kelley for prosecution. Punishments could range from jail and a $1,000 fine to civil penalties, but Buell declined to classify the Tucker charges until an investigation is complete.

TUCKER'S CHARGES arose from a letter the company sent to employees saying that Blanchard recall petitions, which "you should be interested in signing," would be circulated in the plants. It cited Blanchard's successful effort to raise the personal income tax to 6.35 from 4.6 percent.

The letter said the company was "enclosing a pledge for those of you who can make this pledge of $250" to the Recall Blanchard Committee. The pledge card was on stationery of Detroit Plastic Molding Co.

Tucker's statement charged:

"The language, its format and method of presentment tends to be coercive, creates at least the allusion (sic) and fear that contribution and support is a condition of employment or the fear of financial reprisal or job discrimination for failure to contribute, especially since the employee knows that his or her employer will know who and how much each contributed or did not contribute."

Oakland University has classes all over

Beginning Sept. 6, Oakland University credit courses will be available in Beverly Hills, Pontiac, Royal Oak, Sterling Heights, West Bloomfield and Southfield

Classes include accounting, economics, mathematics, philosophy, political science, management, sociology, anthropology, journalism, computer science, rhetoric, art, English, statistics, art history and studio art.

A schedule of fall semester classes may be obtained by calling the OU extension program at 377-4010.

During the fall semester, students may take extension classes for one time without admission to the university by registering in the classroom at the first session. Students not admitted, as well as those admitted to the university, pay tuition and purchase books the first night class.

Oakland tries to upset SEMTA's transit cart

By Tim Richard staff writer

Key Oakland County commissioners are unhappy with the political terms of a public transit plan being offered by the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMTA).

"We don't have an agreement," Commissioner Lillian Moffitt, R-Bloomfield, said repeatedly last week as the county board's planning and building committee decided to delay action on the so-called "transit service agreement.

Moffitt got the committee to delay action until Thursday, Aug. 11, so that she could try to draft a new agreement.

THE DISAGREEMENT between the Oakland County and SEMTA boards could undermine the fate of SEMTA's 1990 transit plan, with its light rail corridor on Woodward, and the regional operating tax increase needed to run it.

The Oakland board on March 31 demanded the SEMTA board agree to an election prior to Aug. 1, 1984, before acquiring any right of way for the light rail line. The Oakland board also demanded an effective veto power over the project, saying the light rail plan shouldn't even be started if Oakland voters failed to approve the operating tax increase.

In a second resolution, the Oakland board gave the SEMTA board until July 12 to agree to those terms.

BUT THE SEMTA board, thinking it was agreeing to Oakland's terms, passed a modified resolution which disappointed Moffitt. The SEMTA resolution, introduced by JoAnn Soronen of Farmington Hills,

"In the event the referendum does not pass in Oakland County, right-of-way acquisition or construction of the light rail shall not begin in Oakland County, nor shall operating monies from Oakland Countu be used to operate light rail in the other three jurisdictions" (italics added).

John Peterson, former Oakland commissioner who now sits on the SEMTA board, told the county committee, "Mrs. Soronen thought what she did was what you endorsed." And he added, "It may or may not be what you wanted.". It wasn't.

"THE SEMTA board did not sign our transit agreement, so we don't have an agreement," Moffitt said. "I would like to see the language clarified."

Mossitt's unhappiness is crucial. In their attitude toward the seven-county SEMTA board, Oakland commissioners are split into three camps:

• A pro-regional, pro-SEMTA element, consisting largely of Democratic members. Typical is Commissioner James Doyon, D-Madison Heights, who thought the SEMTA resolution satisfied Oakland's demands and voted against delaying action on it.

• A vehemently anti-SEMTA element, consisting largely of northern Republican members who would just as soon withdraw from SEMTA. Said Commissloner Roy Rewold, R-Rochester, whose district includes the northeastern townships: "The more I see this, the more I think we shouldn't get into it."

• Middle-of-the-roaders, such as Moffitt, who favor public transportation but are wary that Oakland's tax base may be drained to benefit Detroit. The group holds the balance of power in Oakland. Moffitt's position is especially important because other commissioners see her as very close to - some even say a puppet of - County Executive Daniel T. Murphy. In 1978, Murphy vetoed a board resolution to quit SEMTA.

MEANWHILE, House and Senate conferees in Congress were expected to approve $45 million for SEMTA capital plans.

This would be sufficient for SEMTA'S downtown Detroit people mover, according to Marvin Meltzer, SEMTA's liaison with local governments, "but not enough to start the light rail."

Meltzer said he understood Oakland's position to be that it didn't want to reach "a point of no return" - that is, it doesn't want to see a light rail line begun until an operating tax is approved by voters, preferably prior to next April 1.

In one respect, Meltzer said, SEMTA was unable to grant Oakland's wish - it can't, on its own authority, call a tax-increase election.

The disagreement could undermine the fate of SEMTA's 1990 transit plan, with its light rail corridor on Woodward, and the regional operating tax increase needed to run it.

Herbalist grows her own natural cosmetics

"So I did research and was totally captivated by the feminine quality of making my own cosmetics the way women have done for centuries. In fact, I'm just duplicating what most high priced beauty companies are making, except I don't need to add preservatives to give my products a shelf life."

To demonstrate her point, Dodt produced bottles of well-known brand name cosmetics and showed all the listed ingredients which are also grown in her garden.

"See what I mean?" she remarked with a smile of satisfaction.

Talk then turned to her beauty routine. "I use rose petals in every room of the house to keep the air fragrant. My weekly facial is an astringent made from rose vinegar and lavendar. My powder is from ground up flower buds and arrowroots. I can't stand store stuff, so I grow almost everything in my garden." Dodt's knowledge of history and its relation to herbs and flowers is remarkable. Every flower had it's own meaning in the 16th century," she said. "If lovers were not permitted to speak they gave each other a flower to indicate their feelings. A lily meant purity, a mullien reflected love, marjoram indicted happiness, borage meant courage. In fact, before a knight would go into battle he would eat a salad of borage and catnip to keep his bravery con-

DODT LOVES to show off her garden. Behind her home individual sections are neatly laid out with wood and straw dividers just as they would have been in medieval times. One section is reserved for lemon herbs - lemon verbena and lemon geraniums. Another secton is titled Scarborough fair parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme. There is also a plot for lavendars and roses. Many of the plants have names that are strange to the novice, including lambs ears, whose leaves are soft and were used as medieval band-aids. Also angelica, a plant that is so named because it was believed to have cured one of the plagues.

- Colleen Dodt

When people heard about Dodt's expertise she willingly allowed herself to be pressed into service. The Woman's National Farm and Garden Club of Rochester snatched her as their exclusive herbalist. Presently, she is working on designs for the centerpieces of their organization's annual fall luncheon at Meadowbrook Hall. She also teaches an herb class at the Rochester Community School and gives many private tours of her garden.

During the course of the interview the phone rang. The call came from a woman from San Francisco, asking for advice on her own herb garden.

Dodt is always making her garden better. Her next project is to create a garden of the sun signs. Each zodiac sign will have its area with plants at-

"A Leo should have sun herbs like marigold, camomile and sunflowers." she said. "A Libra would have strawberries, violets, thyme and white

She expects, she said, this project will be completed next year, and she will dedicate the winter to doing the research.

Dodt proudly displays a shelf on which are her handmade cosmetics: A jar of powder, a deodorant of lavendar vinegar, a hair rinse of lemon grass and sage (which covers gray) and a special jar of bath crystals made from carnations.

Dodt advises potential herbalists never to throw away flowers. Remove the petals just before a full bloom to create your own potpourri, she said. She presents several of her own versions to smell. All are a delightful combination of flowers and spices such as cinnamon and ginger.

Colleen Dodt has the simple, well-scrubbed beauty characteristic of someone who loves nature. Her clear skin might have inspired a character in the "Canterbury Tales." Plus, she brings a different and charming viewpoint to the present day experience of cosmetics. The concept is refreshing, intriguing and so romantic.

Defense wins for Livonia Adray, 1-0

By Bred Emons staff writer

One simple move could be the determining factor in Livonia Adray claiming its fifth straight Livonia Collegiate baseball crown.

Livonia virtually eliminated Redford-Westland Adray from first-place contention with a 1-0 victory Wednesday night at Ford Field.

The win gives Livonia, winner of 10 straight, a 19-5-1 record. RWA, meanwhile, slipped to 15-8-3 with five games remaining on the regular-season sched-

Coach Ron Hellier said the "big change" in the team's turnabout "was moving our infield around."

Hellier's new alignment finds Don Dombey at third base, Randy Baringer at shortstop and Pete Rose at second

"We were struggling up the middle," Hellier said. "We had Baringer at second and Dombey at short. Rose was doing a good job at third, but they were all shortstops, so we decided to make a

"Dombey likes third better, anyway, but Rose never played second before. But he's coming around."

SINCE the move. Livonia has turned seven double plays, Hellier said.

And defense was the name of the game in the win over RWA as pitcher Greg Kuzia allowed only one hit, a second-inning single to Jim Zentgraf, in 61/2 innings of work to gain the victory. RWA threatened to tie the game in the bottom of the seventh when Kuzia walked John Hetkowski and Pat Sipple.

Hellier, however, countered by going to the bullpen as fireballer John Recker answered the call with one out.

The hard-throwing right-hander from Farmington, bound for the University of New Mexico, struck out Carl Ruffino for the second out and then walked Tony DeMare to load the bases. He then got Phil Shaller on an force out (short to second) to end the ball game.

It was his fifth save of the year."

LARRY PETROWSKI, who allowed just five hits in seven innings of work. was the losing pitcher.

Livonia scored the game's only run in the first when lead-off man John De-Pillo singled and later scored on a wild pitch.

Hellier hopes to keep his team tuned up for the double-elimination playoffs, which begin Sunday at Ford Field.

"We wish the playoffs were now," Hellier said. "What you have to be concerned about is when you start the playoffs, it's a new season. Even the fourth-place team has a chance, and everybody is shooting for the top team."

MNB trims Wendy's

Shortstop Dean Fracassi went 3-for-3 worked three innings before giving way and Clint Scollard added two hits as to Pat Contway, who finished up. The Michigan National Bank upended Ann Arbor Wendy's, 5-1, in a Livonia Collegiate Baseball League (LCBL) game last week.

MNB evened its season record to 12-12-2 and virtually assured itself of the fourth and final LCBL playoff spot.

Redford Class A ruled by Rugger's

By C.J. Risak

staff writer

Gary Otton knew his Rugger's Pub softball team was on the brink.

"We had a good nucleus," Otton said. "We just needed four or five ballplayers."

"So Otton went out last winter and got his players. And with them came what Otton wanted: a first-place finish in the Redford Township Class A Men's Softball League, which they clinched last Wednesday with a 4-3 triumph over

The new players — outfielders Gary Davidson and Tom Smetana, catcher Tom Maloney and outfielder-catcher Brian Duda - together with Mike Brazzil, who joined the team late last season, provided help where Rugger's

They really strengthened our defense in the outfield," Otton, the team's manager and shortstop, said. "They're all solid hitters who have come up with the clutch hits when we need them."

ONE OTHER CHANGE paid handsome dividends for Rugger's: switching Rich Jaskot, previously an outfielder,

"This is the first year he has been used consistently as a pitcher," Otton said. "He was never looked upon as a pitcher before."

Jaskot hasn't been just an adequate hurler; in his two tournament appearances he was named tourney MVP. Rugger's has won both.

The first title came in the second Redford Township Season Opening Tournament at Claude Allison Field April 22-24. Thirty-two teams entered, and Rugger's won its first five games to reach the finals. The Gangsters beat Rugger's, 5-1, to force a second game in the double-elimination format.

"We just weren't concentrating well in that (loss)," Otton said. The team proved it in the finals, beating the Gangsters 25-3 for the championship.

softball

THAT CONVINCED Otton of his team's talent.

"Even before the opening tournament, we had a few practices and I could tell we had a better team than "In the tournament, everything came together. All the pieces of the puzzle fell into place."

Following the tourney title, Rugger's strung together nine straight wins before falling, 10-3, to Bench Pub. On Wednesday, Rugger's had to beat Bench for the outright league crown. Their one-run win gave them the title with an 11-1 league mark and a 22-2 overall record. In their two previous seasons, Rugger's rang up 7-5 records.

Rugger's also entered and won the 24-team Miller High Lite Tournament at Claude Allison Field July 15-17. Otton said that tournament "seemed stronger than the first," but Rugger's was unbeaten in five contests, clinching the tourney title with a 5-2 win over General Oil in the finals.

JASKOT'S PITCHING and some solid hitting have been big parts of Rugger's success. But Otton thought defense made the difference.

"The defense is the strongest part of this team," the manager said. "It always seems to be there, while the offense can come and go."

Before this season, the infield was solid with the likes of Pat Klimek at first, Dennis Ernst at second, Otton at short, Dan Lagasse at third or behind the plate, and Chuck Stefanson, Dennis Phillips, Walt Duda and Scott Bruce at any number of positions. The new additions helped Rugger's turn the corner.

So now what? Otton is looking forward to moving his team up to Class AA next year. One challenge met; another beckons.

Field support lifts Haynes in no-hitter

Crowe, behind the no-hit pitching of Bill Haynes, clinched third place in the Livonia Connie Mack baseball circuit with a 3-0 win Thursday night over Ste-

Three other Mack games were called off and rescheduled for Saturday, including the first-place battle between O'Connor Co. and the Angels (results will appear in Thursday's Observer).

Haynes, a hard-throwing right-hander, struck out 12 and walked five in nohitting Stevenson.

Outfielder Jim Lasota made a diving catch on a ball off the bat of Tom Mueller in the seventh inning to preserve Hayne's no-hitter. Crowe scored all three of its runs in the second inning. Lasota opened with a single, took second on a wild pitch, stole third and scored on an error by the catcher. Larry Barbarich then walked and later scored on Tim Ford's single. Ford moved up on a passed ball, wild pitch and eventually crossed the plate on another wild pitch. Mike LaFrance, who allowed just five hits, was the losing pitcher.

By clinching third place, Crowe will compete Monday, Aug. 8, in the Michigan Recreation and Parks Association (MRPA) Class D tourney in Livonia.

UPSETS WERE prevalent in Connie Mack play early last week, as both the Angels and Crowe suffered setbacks. The Angels failed to hold a one-run lead when Eagle Manufacturing scored a run in the bottom of the fifth to forge a 3-3 tie at Ford Field. And Crowe was victimized in a seventh-inning rally by Griffin's, losing by a 3-2 count at Livonia Stevenson.

Eagle took advantage of some sloppy Angel play to jump to an early lead with two runs in the second inning. Dan Sitko and Greg Wludyka each scampered home as Eagle scored twice on three walks and two errors. The Angels knotted it with two runs in the third, then took the lead with another in the fifth as the game neared the mandatory time limit of two hours.

But Dave Pennington tripled to leftcenter field and reached home with the game-tying run on a suicide squeeze bunt by Sitko during the Eagles' last turn at bat in the bottom of the fifth.

Pennington, Matt Cross and Mike Hachigian got the only base hits for Eagle. Duane Lloyd started, surrendering two Angel runs. Greg Lapshan took over in the fifth and allowed the final Angel score.

GRIFFIN'S PUSHED across the game-winning run against Crowe in the top of the seventh as Ron Ambrose singled and raced home on Ken McDade's

The game-winning hit was McDade's second of the contest. In the opening inning, he singled and later stole home on a delayed double-steal.

Crowe tied it in the third on Jim Prokes' single and Jim Lasota's triple. But Griffin's surged ahead on its next at bat in the seesaw battle as Pat Tavolacci walked, was sacrified to second and came home on Rick Treharne's sin-

Crowe tied it again in the bottom of the fourth. Prokes, who had three hits in the game, singled and later scored on a groundout.

Blaine Anderson recorded the win for Griffin's, going the distance and scattering 10 hits and two walks while striking out six. Mark Ziomek absorbed the loss, surrendering six hits and two walks. He fanned six. Trehorne also had two hits for Griffin's.

Earlier in the week, Griffin's was awarded a 4-0 victory over P&P Medical on a forfeit.

RU-West 7 mounts pressure on Elks

West 7 is back in the Redford-Adray Connie Mack playoff picture after earning a 2-2 tie last week with Bishop Borgess.

The first-place Canton Elks, sporting a 15-3 record going into weekend action, have already clinched one post-season berth.

West 7, comprised of Redford Union players, moved into second place with a 10-6-1 record, one point ahead of the Salem Elks (10-4), who must play seven games before the season ends on Tuesday. RU, meanwhile, has four games to play before Tuesday.

The second-place playoff berth will be determined by points. (A team gets two points for a win and one for a tie). RU and Borgess battled to a standoff after time limit halted the contest after eight innings.

PITCHER Keith Manus went the distance for RU. He allowed just four hits, while striking out eight. He allowed two walks.

Borgess' Fred Portillo was equally as sharp. He scattered five hits, walked four and fanned 10. RU sent the game into extra innings when shortstop Dennis Bushart grounded out with the bases loaded in the seventh inning. He drove in West 7's other run earlier with an RBI single.

Bushart is the team's leading hitter at .400. Right behind is teammate Don Taylor, a second baseman, who collected two of RU's five Tom McKay, exectuive secretary of the association will be in charge of the schools and urges all new secretaries to make it a point to attend. At these schools, the secretaries will be given their supplies for the season.

THE CLIMAX to the annual Champions of Champions tournament, one of the largest in the city, is now being reached at Cherry Hill Lanes.

This is the event in which the three top teams from each league are eligible. They have been aiming for this event since the start of the season.

With 188 teams qualified to bid for the big prizes, the final squad will be on the lanes on Sunday.

The City Council finds that signs and other visual outdoor advertising are necessary to the commerce, health, safety, and general welfare of the residents of the city. Further, it finds that failure to regulate their size, location, and construction may lead to poor identification of individual businesses, deterioration of the business and residential areas of the city, intensification of the conflicts between different types of land use, reduction in the effectiveness of traffic-control devices, and safety hazards to pedes-(Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77) The purpose of this chapter is to regulate signs and outdoor advertising in a manner which will minimize their harmful effects while permitting latitude for creative and effective advertising and identification. To achieve this purpose, this chapter has the following objectives:

(A) To prevent the placement of signs in a manner that will conceal or obscure signs or adjacent (B) To keep the number of signs and sign messages at the level reasonably necessary to identify a

(C) To keep signs within a reasonable scale with respect to the buildings to which they relate;
(D) To prevent off-premises signs from conflicting with business, residential, and public land uses; (E) To keep an area adjacent to streets clear of signs which might obstruct or distract the view of

(F) To reduce the visual and physical obstructions to motorists entering or leaving streets. (Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77)

153.03

For the purposes of this chapter the following definitions shall apply unless the context clearly indicates or requires a different meaning. "ADVERTISING SIGN" A sign which directs attention to a business, activity, or commodity not conducted or sold on the premises.

"AREA OF SIGN" The sum total of all exterior surfaces of a sign measured in square feet and including the entire display area and any framing areas surrounding the display area. In the case of irregularly shaped signs, the area shall be the surface area of one or more rectangles, triangles, circles, semicircles, or cylinders which include the entire display and framing area, as defined by the imaginary.

"BILLBOARD" The board, panel, tablet, or other surface on which the display is affixed or painted. "BUILDING INSPECTOR" Any one of the inspectors of the Building Division of the city.
"BUSINESS SIGN" A sign which directs attention to a business or activity conducted on the premises or to commodities sold or manufactured on the premises.

PERMIT ISSUED IF APPLICATION IN ORDER

PERMIT ISSUED IF APPLICATION IN ORDER

It shall be the duty of the Building Inspector, upon the filling of an application for an erection permit, to examine such plans, specifications, and other data and the premises upon which it is proposed to erect the sign or other advertising structure. If it shall appear that the proposed sign structure is in compliance with all the requirements of this chapter except, in the case of existing signs, as modified by the nonconforming sign provisions and in compliance with all other laws and ordinances of the city, he shall then issue the erection permit. If the work authorized under an erection permit has not been completed within six mooths after date of issuance, the permit shall become null and void.

Where a sign application is subject to interpretation because of unusual circumstances or extraordinary conditions, the Building Inspector may request the assistance of the sign review committee of the Planning Commission. The decision of the sign review committee is advisory to the Building Inspector.

All rights and privileges acquired under the provisions of this chapter or any amendment thereto are mere licenses revocable at any time by the Building Inspector for cause, and all such permits shall contain this provision. The Building Inspector is authorized and empowered to revoke any permit issued by him upon failure of the holder thereof to comply with any provision of this chapter. A hearing on the revocation shall be held, if written request is made, by the Zoning Board of Appeals for the purpose of determining if the revocation of the permit was justified. (Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77)

153.15 ANNUAL INSPECTION

The Building Inspector shall inspect annually, and at such other times as he deems necessary, each sign regulated by this chapter for the purpose of ascertaining whether the same is secure or insecure, and whether it is in need of renewal, repair, or painting. If the sign does not pass the inspection, the Building Inspector shall not renew the permit but shall revoke the permit and order the sign removed as provided in 8.

(Ord. 77-018, passed 7-15-77)

UNSAFÉ AND UNLAWFUL SIGNS If the Building Inspector shall find that any sign regulated herein is unsafe or insecure, is a menace to the public, or has been constructed or erected, or is being maintained in violation of the provisions of this chapter, he shall give written police stating the specific violations to the permittee. If the permittee this chapter, he shall give written notice stating the specific violations to the permittee, it are permittee falls to remove or after the structure so as to comply with the standards berein set forth within 30 days after the notice, or within 3 days in the case of a temporary sign, the sign may be removed or aftered to comply by the Building Inspector at the expense of the permittee or owner of the property upon which it is located. The permittee has a right of appeal to the Zoning Board of Appeals. The Building Inspector shall refuse to issue a permit to any permittee or owner who refuses to pay costs so assessed. The Building Inspector may cause any sign which is an immediate peril to persons or property to be removed summarily and without notice at the expense of the permittee or owner of the property upon which it is located. (Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77)

153.17 OBSOLETE SIGNS

Any sign existing which no longer advertises a bona fide business conducted, or a product sold or produced on the premises, shall be taken down and removed by the owner, agent, or person having the beneficial use of the building or structure upon which the sign may be found, within 30 days after written notification from the Building Inspector. Upon fallure to comply with the notice within the time specified in such order, the Building Inspector is authorized to cause removal of the sign, and any expense incident thereto shall be paid by the owner of the property, building, or structure on which the sign is located. (Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77)

(A) Permits Every applicant, before being granted a permit bereunder, shall pay to the City Treasurer a permit fee, established by separate ordinance, and sufficient to meet established costs. Every permit issued bereunder shall be issued for a period of one year.

(B) Annual Inspection. The Owner of every sign will pay as a part of the business license an inspection fee, established by separate ordinance, and sufficient to meet the expense of the inspection. If a sign is approved, the permit shall be renewed without further charge. No additional inspection fee shall be charged except where new, additional or modified signs are installed.

153.19 NONCONFORMING SIGNS Every sign in existence by August 13, 1977, which violates or does not conform to the provisions bereof shall be removed, or altered, or replaced so as to conform with the provisions of this chapter within five years of August 15, 1977, provided there is no change in use or ownership during this time. When there is a change in use or ownership, all signs shall be made to conform with the provisions of this chapter. In addition, any sign violating the safety provisions of this chapter or located or placed upon the public right-of-way shall be immediately removed. If the owner does not remove signs, as provided in this section, within 30 days of the date required, the sign may be removed by the Building Inspector at the expense of the owner of the sign or the owner of the property on which it is located.

(Ord. 77-018, passed 8-18-77)

(Ord. 77-016, passed 8-18-77)

Except where specific provision is otherwise made for appeals to the provisions of this chapter, the Zoning Board of Appeals shall be empowered to hear appeals to the provisions of this chapter according to the procedures established by the Zoning Code. The Board may vary the requirements of this chapter in cases where strict application of the provisions hereof will result in practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship that would deprive the owner of reasonable use of land or building. No such variance or modification of the provisions of this chapter shall be granted unless it appears beyond a reasonable doubt that the following facts and conditions exist.

(A) There are exceptional or extraordinary circumstances or conditions applicable to the property involved or to the present or intended use of the property that do not apply generally to other properties or class of uses in the same district or zone.

(B) The variance is necessary, for the preservation and enjoyment of a substantial property right ossessed by other property in the same zone and vicinity.

(C) The granting of the variance or modification will not be materially detrimental to the public welfare or materially injurious to the property or improvements in the zone or district in which the property is located.

(D) The granting of the variance will not adversely affect the purpose or objectives of the master plan (Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77)

* The total frontage on all major thoroughfares may be included in determiningfrontage for this purpose. (Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77) * Regardless of areas allowed above in (B), by lot area, the total equare foot area of all signs on any site shall not exceed?- square feet. 153.41 SIZE OF SIGNS

In addition to a limitation on the total area of signs, the size of any individual sign shall be limited in the following way;
(A) Ground signs. One bundred square feet maximum for a single face, a total of 200 square feet maximum for signs of 2 or more faces; (B) Wall signs. One hundred squace feet maximum;

(C) Roof signs. Fifty square feet maximum for a single face, a total of 100 square feet maximum for signs of 2 or more faces, (D) Projecting signs and marquees. Twenty-five square feet maximum for a single face, a total of $6 square feet maximum for signs of 2 or more faces. (Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77)

SIZE, HEIGHT, NUMBER, PLACEMENT, AND MESSAGE THICKNESS LIMITATION; PROJECTING SIGNS AND WALL SIGNS The distance measured between the principal faces of any projecting sign shall not exceed 18 inches. No wall sign shall have a greater thickness than 18 inches measured from the wall to which it is attached to the outer surface.

(Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77) No sign shall exceed the beight limitation established for the appropriate zoning district in the Zoning

Cross-reference Zoning Code, see Ch. 161

(Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77)

(A) Ground signs. No more than one ground sign may be erected accessory to any single building or structure, regardless of the number of separate parties, tenants, or uses contained therein. However, when any single building or structure is located on a parcel of land having 200 feet or more of frontage on one street, it may have ground signs. (B) Ground signs, roof signs, and projecting signs and marquees. No ground sign, roof sign, or projecting sign or marquee shall be erected within 20 feet from any other sign of one of these types. This provision, however, shall not deny any place of business one sign of the desired type provided all other requirements of this chapter are met by such proposed sign.

(C) (I) Number of op-premise advertising signs. In the case of through lots, lots beld under one ownership fronting on two public streets or a public street and public or private common area parking, the number of signs shall be determined as though the lots were held by separate owners. In the case of a corner lot situated on two or more public streets, signs may be permitted on each street in accord with this chapter, except that only one groundpole sign is permitted on a corner lot.

(3) Each parcel of land, other than a corner lot or through lot, shall not be permitted more than one sign of any function category permitted by this section, except that when more than one ground floor business or usage may have the number of signs permitted. Each business occupying other than the ground floor shall be entitled to one additional business or identification sign. A commercial or business center, however, shall be permitted only one ground pole sign. However, there shall be allowed any number of identification wall signs as long as the aggregate total area of the signs do not exceed the total allowable for the largest wall sign permitted on the premises.

(3) One identification category sign is permitted on the alternate entrance to business establish-(D) (1) Neutral line sign control. Where office, industrial, or commercial uses are developed as a single unit or center all sign regulations apply within a specific neutral line only. This line is established by the Planning Commission during the site plan review and approval. The neutral line refers to a maximum width within a vertical dimension on the face of all structures within which all signage is restricted. This dimension will be established by the Commission price to the fite Review hearing. A list of the approved Neutral Lines by street shall be maintained by the Building Department and available

(2) The same limitation as to size and area of specific signs are still determined by 63 133,40 and (3) Existing developments of a similar nature under rehabilitation or renewal and subject to site plan approval also will fall under this regulation. (4) In situations where commercial, office, or industrial properties frost on public rights-of-way opposite residential area and the business frontage does not provide general public access, this chapter will not apply and only limited information signs will be permitted.

(Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77; Am. Ord. 82-037, passed 7-6-83)

193.45 LOCATION UPON BUILDING.

No sign shall cover wholly or partially any wall opening nor shall it be erected, relocated, or maintained so as to prevent free ingress to or egress from any door, window, or fire escape.

(Ord. 17-016, passed 8-18-17)

Where see through materials on the surface of a building are used as a part of the sign any visual material attached to the front or rear surface or within 12" of the inside surface, will count toward the calculated sign area of the site (with the exception of Price and Item Signs). Materials not attached to see through surfaces (interior) will be considered part of store interior display areas. At no time will sign coverage exceed more than 50% of the window (visual) area.

Signs shall be so located that they do not interfere with ingress or egress to the property or to any aisleway or required parking space. In no case shall a sign be located in an aisleway or required parking

(Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77) 153.47 LOCATION ON PUBLIC RIGHT-OF-WAY No sign or its supporting structure may be placed upon, constructed upon, or have any contact with any public right-of-way with the exception that, the City Council may authorize signs to be affixed to benches, bus stop shelters, trash receptacles, and other public conveniences which have been approved for placement upon the public right-of-way by the City Council. The city shall have the authority to remove any sign placed in violation of this provision and the owner of the sign shall pay to the city the sum of $15.00 plus removal costs. If any sign is not claimed within $0 days, it shall be destroyed.

(Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77) PROJECTION INTO PUBLIC RIGHT-OF-WAY No sign shall project into the public right-of-way except in the Ct, Ct, Ch, PD, and Mt some. No sign shall project more than eight feet into the public right-of-way nor over any portion of the public right-of-way used for vehicular traffic. The lower edge of any sign projecting into the public right-of-way shall be ten feet or more above the ground level. (Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77)

SIGNS NOT TO CONSTITUTE TRAFFIC HAZARD No sign shall be erected at the intersection of any streets in such a manner as to obstruct free and clear vision, or at any location where, by reason of the position, shape, or color, it may interfere with, obstruct the view of, or be confused with any authorized traffic sign, signal, or device, or which makes use of the words "STOP," "LOOK," "DRIVE-IN," "DANGER," or any other word, phrase, symbol, or character in such a manner as to interfere with, mislead, or confuse traffic. (Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77)

MESSAGE PERMITTED

The message of any sign shall be limited in the following ways:

(A) Real estate. Permitted in all zoning districts; (B) Business. Permitted in all soning districts, providing it relates to a business or activity legally existing upon the premises;
(C) Advertising. Permitted in C3 and M1 zoning district with the approval of the Zoning Board of

151.51 OBSCENE MATTER PROEIBITED It shall be unlawful for any person to display upon any sign or other advertising device any obscene, (Ord, 77-018, passed 8-15-77)

TEMPORARY SIGNS
PERMITS REQUIRED

The Building Inspector may Issue a permit for the following types of signs: (A) On-premise signs. Permits are required to erect any temporary sign exceeding eight square feet in size, when such temporary sign is to be erected and located on the premises of any public, charitable, or religious institution making application.

(B) Off-premises signs.

(1) A permit shall be obtained prior to installation of any temporary non-electrical signs and/or posters, pennants, ribbons, or streamers, which are to be erected and located off the premises of any public, charitable, or religious institutions making application, for periods not to exceed two weeks in any calendar year, for the promotion of a special event. A list of all temporary signs and/or display locations and a description of the temporary signs and/or displays to be used, shall be submitted at the

(2) The temporary signs and/or displays shall be fastened and secured in compliance with S133.57, so that they will not be blown and scattered to adjoining properties. The temporary signs and/or displays shall be removed upon the termination of the promotion or the expiration of the permit.

(Ord. 77-018, passed 8-18-77; Am. Ord. 78-018, passed 10-16-78) 153.56 DISPLAY PERIOD

Cloth or canvag signs, pennants, or banners shall be erected for a period not to exceed two weeks in any six month period. All other temporary signs may be displayed for not in excess of three months in any calendar year. Signs shall be removed promptly at the end of the display period. (Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77)

CONSTRUCTION

(A) Material Combustible material may be used for temporary signs. (B) Bracing, anchorage, and support. Every temporary sign shall be attached to a building or other supporting structure with wire or steel cables, bails, acrews, or other metal fasteners. No strings, ropes, or wood slats for anchorage or support purposes shall be permitted. (Ord. 17-016, passed 9-15-77)

SIZE OF TEMPORARY SIGN

No temporary sign may have a single face greater than 32 square feet in area nor a total surface area (Ord. 77-016, passed 8-18-77; Am. Ord. 82-001, passed 1-4-81)

Where interior signs are attached to or within 19" of the inside of see through purfaces in any business area, they shall be classified as permanent signs and the area of the sign calculated toward the total allowable signage; (except for Price and Rem signs).

COMPLIANCE WITH OTHER REGULATIONS Temporary signs shall comply with all applicable provisions of this chapter with the exception of provisions that are explicitly covered in SSISX

(Ord. 17-016, passed 8-18-77)

Any person violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and apon conviction thereof shall be fined a minimum of $30.00, but not more than $300.00 or by imprisonment in jail not exceeding 30 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each day the violation is committed, or permitted to continue, shall constitute a separate offense and shall be punishable as such hereunder. (Ord. 77-016, passed 8-15-77)

Tom Lee recreates '50s sound with Big Daddy

By Ethel Simmons staff writer

RECORDING an album done in nostalgic '50s style was a lot of fun for singer/songwriter Tom Lee, a former Bloomfield Hills resident.

Lee usually records his own songs and says, then, "You leave your blood on the page." But with other members of the California-based band, Big Daddy, he found it a real pleasure to sing and play on the album "Big Daddy! What Really Happened to the Band of '59."

A '50s rock band, Big Daddy was asked by Rhino records to do an album of the oldies. Lee and the guys took the suggestion one step further - and have recorded contemporary song hits in the groovy style of-30 years ago.

To top it off, "We took all the ballads and made them rockers," Lee said. "We took all the rockers and made them ballads."

SONGS ON the album that has been getting airplay locally include "I Write the Songs," "Bette Davis Eyes," "Super Freak," "Star Wars." "Whip It" and "Ebony and Ivory."

On the flip side, the selections are "You Don't Bring Me Flowers," "Hit Me with Your Best Shot,"

"The Rose," "Just What I Needed," "Hotel California" and "Eye of the Tiger."

Lee, who sings bass, does vocals and back-up guitar on the album. He's featured on the vocals for-"Ebony and Ivory" and "Eye of the Tiger."

Before joining Big Daddy, Lee was in a band called Citizens, whose gigs included opening for the Dooble Brothers in 1981 in Charlevoix. Since going out to California, Lee has been singing as a solo and duo and recording with Big Daddy, the band he joined some six months ago.

One of Lee's songs that has just been published is called "I'm Just an Automobile." Of the publishers, he said, "Their job is to get it (the song) to a star. The pie is split one half to the publisher, one half writers' royalties."

DESCRIBING "I'm Just an Automobile," the songwriter said, "It's about a guy who gets transformed into a car. It's kind of a new wave song."

Lee received important recognition as a composer when his song "One of the Americans" was runner-up, in 1981, in the Top 40 category at the American Song Festival, an international competi-

Lee was married in May to Wanda Van den Ende, who also is from Bloomfield Hills. His wife is a photographer and a seamstress, who used to work for a Rochester dress designer. They live in Van Nuys, Calif.

THE GUY with the most beautiful body in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area is Marcos Zartari, 26, an attorney from Birmingham. Zartari, who competed for his title in a Bloomfield Body Beautiful contest at the Kingsley Inn, weighed in at 205 pounds on his six-foot one-inch frame.

Runner-up in the contest was Michael Bouchard, 27, a policeman from the Birmingham-Bloomfield area. He's six foot one and weighs 170 pounds.

A team challenge also was offered in the contest. The Hamilton Place Athletic Club beat out the Franklin Racquet Club/Nautilus for the trophy.

Judges for the contest were members of the allwomen Kingsley Club, a group organized by the Kingsley Inn for professional and business women.

TROY PLAYERS has announced its three-play season for 1983-84. The Neil Simon comedy "Plaza Suite" will open the season in the fall, the musical "Pajama Game" follows in mid-winter and the drama "Inherit the Wind" closes the season in the spring.

The group's board of directors is accepting applications to direct the shows. Tickets for the new season of plays are $11.50. Troy Players also is offering an early-bird special for annual memberships, which are $16 until Aug. 20, or $20 thereafter. Anyone who wants to join up may call 879-1285 for information about a membership party at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 20.

The community theater group is looking not only for actors but for stagehands and individuals who want to learn how to direct and produce plays.

For more information write Troy Players, P.O. Box 284, Troy 48099.

FORMER BIRMINGHAM resident Paul Stookey will be back in town during August, when the ever-popular trio Peter, Paul and Mary plays

Aug. 19 at Pine Knob. Tickets are $12 for the pavillon, $9 for lawn. Other performers coming to the music theater in Clarkston during August include Willie Nelson, who plays Aug. 1-4; Roberta Flack and Peabo Bryson, Aug. 5; James Taylor, Aug. 6-7; Loverboy and special guest Quiet Riot, Aug. 8-9; Gordon Lightfoot, Aug. 10; Talking Heads, Aug. 11; James Brown Soul Revue, Aug. 13; and the Animals, Aug. 14. The plot of "Staying Alive" is sort of a Rocky on Broadway, with John Travolta playing dancer Tony Manero, who gets his big break in a New York show.

the movies

Louise Snider

Muscled Travolta energizes scene in 'Staying Alive'

It took six years and a walk across the Brooklyn Bridge for Tony Manero to make the change from a no-future disco dancer to an unemployed, but hopeful, Broadway hoofer.

In "Staying Alive" (PG), the sequel to the immensely successful Saturday Night Fever," John Travolta resumes his role with some changes.

Sylvester Stallone directed the movie and worked with Travolta to give him a beefcake image. Lest anyone miss it, the camera moves in for a lot of close-ups of Travolta flexing his biceps, pectorals and (last shot in the film) gluteus maximus.

Stallone's fascination with photographing male muscle works to the detriment of the dance scenes. He gives us a lot of quick cuts using medium shots and some close-ups. What we should be seeing is the choreography — the whole figure and its relationship to others, with just a few close-ups for interest.

STALLONE'S IMPRINT also marks the story itself which he wrote with Norman Wexler. "Saturday Night Fever" offered more than Travolta's good looks and exciting dancing. It had an extra dimension of depth in the social fabric it unveiled. It developed Tony's environment with his Italian-American home, his dead-end job and blue-collar friends.

That extra dimension is missing in "Staying Alive." The story has the Stallone simplicity stamp. It's Rocky on Broadway. Rocky wanted his shot at a title bout; Tony wants his shot at the lead in a Broadway show.

The only complication of plot - if you can call it that - is whether Tony will act decently toward the humble dancer who loves him or whether he will dump her for the snooty lead dancer in the show (who, we know, is using him.)

The groupies are still after Tony, but now we see a change in Tony's attitude toward women. He still is a strutting, swaggering hunk, but Manhattan has shaved a little off the macho edge. He "respects" women.

The two he respects the most are Cynthia Rhodes who plays his girlfriend and Finola Hughes who plays the prima dancer. These two newcomers are both very good, very credible.

NOT AS MUCH can be said for the music, except for the title song. Much of the music was written by Stallone's brother, Frank, who also has a small part in the movie. Neither his music nor his performance are worth a second thought.

What "Staying Alive" does have to offer is a lot of energy and a lot of dancing. It culminates in a spectacular finale with a long dance sequence called "Satan's Alley." Again, it is photographed with too many quick cuts and medium shots. The emphasis was given to special effects, with electric flashes of light, whip-like snaps and bursts of fire. The idea is a passage through hell that ends with an ascent to heaven. Anyone but Stallone would be embarassed by such a hairy cliche.

He overcomes this deficiency and others by creating and maintaining a supercharged atmosphere of excitement throughout the film. What emerges from this is Travolta's sexy charm and the high-energy, hard-driving dancing with its very physical message.

In the sequel to "Saturday Night Fever," newcomer Cynthis Rhodes is the Broadway gypsy dancer whose rival for Manero's affection is the show's prima ballering.

what's at the movies

ATOR (PG). Epic adventure of myth, legend and magic starring Miles O'Keefe in the title role, with Sabrina Siani and Ritza Brown.

-CLASS (R). Romantic comedy about a young man who has an affair with an older woman who turns out to be his best friend's mother. Jacqueline Bisset, Cliff Robertson and Rob Lowe star.

COUP DE TORCHON (A CLEAN SLATE). Academy-Award nominee for best foreign-language film. Bertrand Tavernier directed comedy starring Philippe Noiret and Isabell Huppert.

FLASHDANCE (R). A determined young woman works as a welder by day and a dancer by night. Movie doesn't make too much sense but the dancing makes a terrific impact.
