MONROE Elementary School PTA is donating $716 to the district for a duplicating machine to be used at the school. The Wayne-Westland district no longer offers matching funds for such donations.

NEARLY 450 members of the Wayne-Westland Community Schools senior adult club gathered in the John Glenn High cafeteria last Wednesday for a Halloween party that included dinner, birthday celebrations and awards for costumes.

The category of most original went to Gerry and Mike Nagy who were dressed as Mickey and Minnie Mouse. Judged the funniest was Leona Blee as the coupon lady. The prettiest was Vera Urban as Mae West. George Brackney was the scariest dressed as the broom stick lady. The category of most unusual went to Alberta Fribee as a pumpkin.

Entertainment was by the Canton Senior Kitchen Band.

Prosecutor says board 'retreat' would violate law

A proposed "retreat" for members of the Wayne-Westland Board of Education and the district's cabinet administrators may be rescheduled near the city.

Responding to a complaint filed by the Observer, Wayne County Prosecutor John O'Hair said Friday that his office would "arrange a meeting with (district attorney) Stewart Slatkin to reschedule the meeting within Westland." O'Hair added that they would seek a meeting location that would be "geographically convenient to the people of Wayne-Westland."

The district had scheduled a three-day meeting, which was called a "retreat," for last weekend at the Kellogg Center of Michigan State University in East Lansing. The location is a distance of about 80 miles from the boundaries of the district, which includes a portion of Canton Township.

Topics for the meeting included a review of all union contracts, and a discussion of summer tax collection and the district's building and site reserve account.

However, board member Mat McCusker was hospitalized for tests Tuesday evening, and the meeting was cancelled. As of Friday afternoon, McCusker was expected to be hospitalized for an additional three or four days for further testing.

Dr. Dennis O'Neill, deputy superintendent for instruction, said that the meeting would be rescheduled for the weekend of Feb. 10 at the Kellogg Center.

IN ITS COMPLAINT, the Observer claimed that the "retreat" would violate provisions of the state's Open Meetings Act which require that meetings "be held in a place available to the general public."

Citing "the distance Wayne-Westland residents would have to travel, plus the expense of an extended stay in Lansing," the Observer said that the meeting's location "unfairly deters their (residents') attendance."

O'Hair said that "research my staff has done shows that the meeting would be in violation of the Open Meetings Act."

He added that his staff would try to seek the district's "compliance without litigation" during a meeting with Slatkin.

"We'll do what we can," he said.

O'Neill said that a copy of the complaint was being sent to Slatkin for his review and response. He said that Slatkin would then give the district his recommendation. He added that the district had been advised by its attorney that the meeting complied with the act as long as those portions outside of discussions on negotiations were open to the public.

"Personally, I feel that if we get word that the meeting is a violation, then we will not do it," said Rev. W. James LeDuc, board president, on Friday.

Earlier in the week, LeDuc had said that the board's intention was not to deter the public from attending.

"This wasn't to avoid the press or the community," LeDuc said. "We were trying to give the board a chance (to meet) apart from the normal pressures they have as individuals. It was never to avoid public scrutiny."

"We believe in the act and intend to follow it."

The snake has all the lines

Broadway playwright Jean Kerr's funny story "The Snake Has All the Lines" comes to mind as Michigan State University drama student Steven Weller transforms Pat Sopa into a snake-like

Cable proposal wins favorable review

By Mary Klemic
staff writer

Continental Cablevision's proposal for Westland's cable television franchise, the only application received by the city, has received good marks from Westland's cable-TV consultant.

A report from the consultant, Carl Pinielck of Telecommunications Management Corp., said the fact that Westland received only one proposal "need not be taken as an indication that the quality of the proposal may be inferior.

"The general conclusion is that the Continental proposal . . . meets or exceeds the request for proposal (RFP) requirements, and therefore must be considered acceptable on its own merits," the report read. "In addition, the proposal is generally comparable to those recently received by other communities under competitive conditions."

PUBLIC HEARINGS on the proposal and a review by the Westland City Council will take place before a decision is made. A copy of the proposal will be available at the Wayne-Westland library and at the Plymouth road branch of the Livonia library.

Westland representatives will tour Continental's facilities in Southfield at 7:30 p.m. Monday. The company's proposal for Westland will be discussed at a public hearing scheduled for 8 p.m.

Thursday in the council chambers.

Pinielck evaluated the proposal by comparing it against the RFP requirements and against other proposals made recently in the Detroit area. Continental Cablevision is the 10th largest cable company in the nation.

Continental's proposal "meets or exceeds" most of the RFP requirements, according to Pinielck's evaluation. One of the areas that needs to be clarified, Pinielck said, concerned Continental's commitment of $120,000 to purchase character generators and equipment. Pinielck recommended that the city confirm that this commitment includes not less than 10 character generators, made available to all community users, as required in the RFP.

REGARDING ANOTHER RFP requirement, Pinielck recommended that

Well, it wasn't the Great Pumpkin, but youngsters at Garden City Osteopathic Hospital did get a visit from a pumpkin lady and other good goblins from the Wayne-Westland branch of the Automobile Club of Michigan. Enjoying some pre-Halloween festivities last Friday were Clifford Cunningham, 9, of Inkster, Karla Rickert and Eleanor Lohr of Westland, 15-month-old Jason Smith, Marianne Howell of Garden City and Robert Remer, 2, of Detroit.

Police offer tips for safe Halloween

By Mary Klemic
staff writer

Parents can help their young trick-or-treaters have a fun, safe Halloween, Westland police say.

"Good parental guidance is the main thing," Westland Police Lt. James Hornkohl said. "A lot of people drive their children to different areas and just drop them off. That's not a good practice."

Parents who are concerned about Halloween trick-or-treating can have their youngsters participate in an alternative, such as the "Halloween Haunt" sponsored by the Westland parks and recreation department, in cooperation with the Westland Jaycees.

The Halloween Haunt will take place 6:30-8:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 31 at Central City Park near the Westland City Hall. It will feature pumpkins, candy, cider, doughnuts, movie and a trip to a "haunted trail." Admission is $1.50 for age 13 and older, and 75 cents for age

Lawrie takes helm at new elementary

Peter Lawrie, assistant principal at Adams Junior High School, has been appointed principal at Vandenberg Elementary School, effective Nov. 14. He will succeed John Dascenzo, who is retiring Nov. 11.

Lawrie, 44, previously had served as assistant principal at Lincoln Elementary and Marshall Junior High School. He taught for 12 years at Vandenberg and Jefferson schools.

In addition to his present assignments at Adams, Lawrie is chairperson of the Wayne-Westland School District's Outdoor Education Committee and the Camping Committee. Lawrie is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history and a master's degree in school administration. He attended Wayne State University and Michigan State University. A Livonia resident, he is married and has two children.

"Mr. Lawrie is an extremely energetic, hardworking and dedicated professional who will bring excellent organization and enthusiasm to this new assignment," said Timothy Dyer, Wayne-Westland School Superintendent.

26 women seek title as city's junior miss

Twenty-six young women from three area high schools will compete for the title of 1984's Wayne-Westland Junior Miss on Nov. 18.

Rehearsals have started for the program, which will be held at 7 p.m. at the Wayne Memorial High School auditorium, Glenwood at Fourth.

The program winner will receive a $500 cash scholarship to the college of her choice, along with a $100 scholarship donated by Mayor Charles Pickering. Other scholarship donations, such as that from the Westland Senior Citizen Club, are being gathered.

As in past programs, 35 percent of the judging will be based on the judges' interview, 20 percent on creative and performing arts and 15 percent each on scholastic achievement, physical fitness based on a group routine and poise and appearance based on a group routine.

This year's contestants are, from Wayne Memorial High School: Vicki Bertschinger, Holly Blockman, Georgette Webber, Dawn White, Kiti Ton, Crizlyn Rabina, Charlene Atkinson, Laura Simon, Sandra Abram, Elizabeth Arthur, Barbara Ingalls and Pam Johns.

Also, from John Glenn High School: Linda Woldrick, Teresa Altizer, Dawn Smithpeters, Dorcas Killenbeck, Robin Fogarty, Anne West, Lisa Lyons, Kimberly Franke, Andrea Swanson, Patricia Santos, Sheri Buckley, Cynthia Short and Donna Czubaj. Also, Melanie Miller from Franklin High School.

Groups plan scary fun for all ages

The Halloween spirit will be in abundance in Westland this year, as the city prepares to celebrate that holiday in special ways.

A "Halloween on Ice" celebration is scheduled for 7-10 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 29, at the Westland Multipurpose Arena, 6210 N. Wildwood.

The festivities will include free prizes, games and special characters on ice. Admission is $1.75 for children and $3 for adults. For more information, call the arena at 729-4560.

THE PARKS and recreation department, in conjunction with Westland Jaycees, will sponsor a "Halloween Haunt" from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 31 at Central City Park.

Draculas, bats, witches and ghosts will be on hand to haunt visitors as they walk down the "Path of Adventure." Participants may share in the spirit of goblins, scarecrows and frightful black cats as they squeamishly attempt to pass the "Great Pumpkin" to safety. In addition, there will be pumpkins, candy, cider, donuts and even a ghastly movie.

Pre-registration is required for the Halloween Haunt. Children age 8 and younger must be accompanied by a parent. Registration will take place between 8:30 a.m. and 9 p.m. Monday through Sunday at the Bailey Recreation Center, 36651 Ford Road, behind the Westland City Hall.

The registration fee is 75 cents for those 12 years old and younger, and $1.50 for those age 13 and older. The fee includes the trip to the haunted trail, movie, cider and doughnuts. Candy and pumpkins may be found along the trail. For more information, call the Bailey Center at 722-7620.

The Central City Park Nature Trail is located at the back of the Civic Center Complex, west of city hall.

THE HANDICAPPED will be offered a safe evening of fun on Halloween through the joint efforts of the Tri-City Therapeutic Recreation Program and Westworld Family Entertainment Center. The free event is open to the physically disabled and the mentally impaired at Westworld, on Merriman north of Warren.

Disabled youngsters ages three through 12 are being encouraged to dress up for the event from 5-8:30 p.m. The Westworld staff is constructing a group of houses inside the facility that youngsters may go to for trick or treating. They'll also see a magic show, listen to music and have refreshments.

Brothers and sisters are welcome to attend.

Then from 7:30-10 p.m. those disabled persons ages 13 and older will have a chance for dancing with a disc jockey in attendance, refreshments and surprises. Prizes will be awarded for the scariest, funniest and most original costumes.

For more information, call 722-7620.

EVER BEEN SCARED by just walking through a dark forest? A group of Westland youths will again sponsor a haunted woods this year from 7:30-9:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday at 6710 Farmington Road.

And, lest we forget the grownup set, Singles Depot is having a Halloween dance at 9 p.m. Oct. 29 at Something Nice, 8701 Inkster in Westland.

12 and younger. Registration is required. More information is available from the Bailey Recreation Center, 722-7620.

WEARING MASKS, wigs and beards can be fun, but only if they don't block a child's vision. Light colors or reflective tape should be used on costumes and bags so children can be seen at night. The costumes should be designed so youngsters can walk without tripping or entangling their feet.

Very young children should begin their Halloween rounds earlier in the evening and should be accompanied by their parents. Youngsters begin their door-to-door calls around 6 p.m., according to Hornkohl.

Parents should examine the items the children bring home. "A few" cases of doctored candy are found every year in Westland, Hornkohl said.

"If there's any unwrapped stuff, throw it away," he said.

Any suspicious-looking "treats" may be brought to Westland Lock and Key, 35665 Ford Road, two blocks west of Wayne Road 7:30-10 p.m. Oct. 31. The shop will check candy with metal detectors, free of charge, at that time.

Halloween candy also will be checked with metal detectors by Wayne County Sheriff's deputies 7-10 p.m. at McDonald's Restaurant, Merriman and Van Born roads, and at the Hines Park mini station at Hines Drive and Newburgh.

THE EASTER Seal Society, in conjunction with WJBK-TV and five businesses, is sponsoring a "Safe Halloween" program. This program provides tamper-proof treats in the form of coupons redeemable for actual products. Coupon books, each containing seven coupons, are on sale now through Oct. 31 at Hardees, Pizza Hut, 7-Eleven stores, Sanders Ice Cream and Tubby's Sub Shops around the area.

Easter Seals and the National Safety Council offer parents the following tips for Halloween safety:

- Before children leave, discuss with them what route they plan to follow and when they will return. Know who will supervise younger children, and what companions will accompany older children.

- Youngsters should stop only at houses or apartment buildings that are well lit, and only in familiar neighborhoods.

- Carrying flashlights will help children see better and be seen more clearly.

- Children should walk on sidewalks, not streets, and cross busy streets at intersections or crosswalks. They should look both ways before crossing, wait for proper traffic signals when crossing and avoid running out between parked cars. If there are no sidewalks, they should walk on the left side of the road, facing traffic.

Hearing airs TV plans

Westland ask the company to clarify the channel capacity that would be dedicated for public use.

Comparing Continental's proposal with three recent cable-TV proposals in the area, Pilnick said Continental offers more satellite services to Westland than were offered to the other three communities. He said that Continental's offered institutional network capacity is less than that of the other three proposals.

The cable company proposals studied were Metrovision in Livonia, Booth in Bloomfield Township and Continental in Oak Park.

"Each of those communities will receive a separate, dedicated institutional network compared to the shared residential/institutional network proposed for Westland," the report read.

"However, it is noted that 24 bi-directional channels for institutional users may be more than sufficient for Westland's foreseeable future."

"On its own merits, the proposal appears attractive, and would result in a state-of-the-art system for the City of Westland," the report concluded.

REGARDING THE RFP requirements, Continental's proposal offers two studios, one exclusively for public access use and one for shared public access/local origination use, Pilnick said.

Continental provides several different projections for its 10-year capital expenditures for the cable system in its proposal, including expenditures of $9.9 million, $15.3 million and $15 million, Pilnick said. He recommended that the company explain the inconsistencies.

Spiked fuel found at area stations

By Teri Banas
staff writer

The state Attorney General's Office has cited 12 suburban Detroit gasoline stations with selling methanol spiked fuel to customers without labeling the products.

Among the service stations, most independently owned, were stations in Redford Township, Livonia, Westland, Southfield, Troy, Pontiac, Madison Heights and Roseville.

The firms received notice of the improper action last Wednesday and have been given 10 days to comply with requests to label their gasoline in lieu of legal action by the office's consumer protection division, said Mark Goldman, an assistant attorney general in the office's consumer protection division.

The action followed a summer-long cooperative investigation of 22 Michigan gas stations by attorney general Frank Kelley's office and the Michigan Department of Agriculture (MDA). MDA officials took more than 385 samples and tested them from the affected service stations.

In Redford Township, two samples were taken from the '76 Dandy Seven Mile Station at Inkster on Aug. 15. Reports showed that almost 10 percent of the unleaded gasoline tested was comprised of an alcohol mix of methanol and tert-butyl alcohol.

Corporate officers with the Troy-based Dandy Oil Co. were unavailable for comment Friday.

The investigation was prompted by complaints from consumers, auto dealer repair shops and the Service Station Dealers Association of Michigan, Goldman said.

"THE sale of methanol laced gasoline can cause significant problems for the motorists," Kelley said in his announcement issued Thursday. "One dealer advised us that a car's fuel pump can be affected to the point that the vehicle is inoperative. Another was concerned about vapor lock conditions in the vehicle's fuel injection system."

"Methanol contamination can also create problems with carburetor parts and even the fuel tank," he added. "Some of these conditions if they occur when the car is being driven in traffic could well result in accidents and injuries."

Among the stations cited in this area are: the '76 Dandy Seven Mile station at Inkster in Redford Township, the Thrifty Station Inc. at 15574 Middlebelt in Livonia and the '76 Union Station at 31425 Ann Arbor Trail in Westland. In Oakland County, the stations include Ben's Quality Service at 28945 Greenfield in Southfield and MidState Petroleum at 2017 Livernois in Troy.

'The sale of methanol-laced gasoline can cause significant problems for the motorists.'

— Frank Kelley,
state attorney general

"There is just one reason for knowingly selling gasoline that contains methanol — unmitigated greed," Kelley said. "Methanol costs about 50-55 cents per gallon compared to about $1.55-$1.75 per gallon for ethanol. Every gallon of methanol used to dilute gasoline means larger profit margins and illegal competition advantages over law abiding gas dealers. And for the consumer, it means not getting value for one's money and potential problems."

ACCORDING to Goldman, Michigan law does not prohibit the sale of alcohol-spiked gasoline but it is required that stations notify the public when such a mixture is sold. Currently, there are no state provisions for the sale of alcohol-fuel, he said, but there is a proposed house bill which would set state Department of Agriculture standards over it, he said.

Goldman identified most of the firms as independently owned that sell off brand name fuels.

"We believe the mixing was done either at a depot or in the tank truck making the delivery," he said. "We don't believe it was mixed on the premise."

In some cases, he said, the alcohol content was high even so that "it was not fit for use."

Widow vows to continue legal battle

By Joanne Maliszewski
staff writer

When Agnes Leasure talks about the three-bedroom mobile home she bought from a Farmington Hills dealer after her husband's death a couple of years ago, she gets tired.

Less than 90 days after the Canton Township resident moved from Westland and settled into her new mobile home, she discovered that the 1981 model she bought for $18,000 in cash, actually is a 1979 model that then retailed for $12,900.

Leasure says she was misled and cheated of about $4,000 when she bought the unit from Matt Rauker, owner of Little Valley Mobile Home Sales on Eight Mile. The title and bill of sale both say she bought a 1981 Liberty mobile home, Leasure said, and she might never have known otherwise if the home hadn't immediately needed repairs. "They issued me a wrong title," said Leasure, who lives in the West Point Manor mobile home park on Old Michigan Avenue. "I don't understand why if this business (Little Valley) is ethical, would they let this happen to me."

Rauker, however, claims the fault lies solely with the Liberty mobile home manufacturers.

"WE'RE TRYING to get them to take care of it," Rauker said. "This is the manufacturer's fault, definitely."

"We went by the invoice," Rauker said, adding that Liberty said the mobile home was a 1981 model. The only other way to determine a unit's model year is by the manufacturer's stamp on the inside of the mobile home's utility closet.

And that's how Leasure discovered she had bought a 1979 model. Leasure says she stumbled across the manufacturer's stamp after she had to pay for repairs that generally are covered by warranty. Leasure also claims that the invoice didn't list any date.

"I wouldn't have done so much checking if they had done the warranty work," Leasure, referring to Little Valley Mobile Home Sales.

Rauker, however, claims "I did the warranty (repairs) for her," adding he also had the mobile home moved to her current address the day she brought in the $18,000. "I moved the guys from another job to move her in the same day."

But Leasure's discovery of the manufacturer's stamp in late 1981 began a two-year struggle and shuffle between state agencies, the state attorney general's office, the state Mobile Home Commission and the Oakland County Circuit Court.

Donald Baumhart of Ypsilanti, Leasure's third attorney, is pressing for a resolution of her problems. Following the advice of an Oakland County Circuit Court mediation panel, Baumhart and Leasure have filed a lawsuit against Rauker and Liberty mobile home manufacturers in 47th District Court, claiming "misrepresentation amounting to fraud."

"WE'RE ALLEGING that in July 1981, Mrs. Leasure purchased a mobile home represented as a 1981 model and it was a 1979 or 1980 model," Baumhart said. "Mrs. Leasure tried to rescind the contract but that was not acceptable to Little Valley Mobile (Home Sales)."

"They (the mobile home dealership) never formally offered to do anything. She originally asked for rescission and they said no. Nothing has been satisfactory to them."

The still unscheduled hearing in district court is the latest rung on a long ladder of actions taken by Leasure, Baumhart said. She began her fight in December 1981 by calling the Mobile Home Commission, "the watchdog agency over mobile home dealers," in Lansing. After an investigation, the commission issued a notarized affidavit saying Leasure's home is a 1979 model. The commission, however, decided not to follow through with a number of charges against the mobile home dealership and boiled it down to a "technical charge" for issuing a 1981 title when it should have been a 1979 title, Baumhart said.

"When they have had a hearing on the matter they've just had the Little Valley with them," the attorney said, indicating Leasure was never asked to testify.

Besides the Mobile Home Commission, however, Leasure also contacted several state representatives including Sandy Brotherton, as well as the state attorney general's office.

Although Baumhart said the attorney general's office is seeking to revoke Rauker's license, Leasure's lawsuit in 47th District Court is a separate matter. And even though an attorney general's spokeswoman said the attorney who is handling the case was not available for comment, Leasure's predicament is well-known in the department because it has become so confusing.

Angel Reddy (left) and Kelly Leon help keep the giggles coming during the John Glenn High School production of "A Haunting We Will Go."

Cast of Glenn High thriller to keep audience giggling

Casting is complete for John Glenn's first theater production of the year, and the play chosen — "A Haunting We Will Go" — fits the season.

Lois Tobin, director, said she is impressed with the talent selected for this comedy/mystery play. She added that the play is certain to keep the audience guessing, as well as giggling.

The plot revolves around Norma, a successful television producer, played by Kim Capen. She is determined to fulfill a childhood dare: To spend the night alone in the haunted Three Sisters Inn. Norma is accompanied by her agent, Moe (Sean Robinson), and her assistant, Ginny (Dorcas Killingbeck).

Ginny's desire to break into the producing field will make her stop at nothing. But how far will she go? And who — or what — is haunting the Three Sisters Inn? Will Norma make it through the night?

Well, you can satisfy your curiosity by viewing the production at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Nov. 11 and 12 in Glenn's auditorium, on Marquette west of Wayne Road. Tickets may be purchased at the door, at the school or from any member of the cast.

Judge dismisses criminal sex charges against minister, son

By Mary Klemic
staff writer

First-degree criminal sexual conduct charges against a Westland minister and his son have been dismissed by a Wayne County Circuit Court judge.

The Rev. Oscar L. Holloway and his son, Johnny L. Holloway, both from Westland, had been charged with cases involving Johnny L. Holloway's 10-year-old daughter. Oscar L. Holloway is pastor of the Westland Community Church of God. Johnny L. Holloway, 32, is a member of a religious vocal group, the Holloway Family Singers.

A trial date of Oct. 20 had been scheduled. But on Sept. 23, Judge Charles Kaufman granted a motion that the case be dismissed because the prosecution was unable to present dates when the incidents allegedly took place. The motion to quash the case was made by defense attorney Marvin Blake.

"The prosecution charged criminal sexual conduct, but couldn't tell us when the crime was supposed to have occurred," Blake said. "They have to specify a date within certain boundaries, and they weren't able to do that."

"They said, 'We think it occurred between June and September,' or something of that sort," he said. "If I were charged with that, I would like to know when it occurred so I could determine where I was on that day."

THE INCIDENTS involving the girl and the elder Holloway, 58, allegedly took place between December 1981 and March 1982 in his home, according to police reports. Police reports said that those involving Johnny L. Holloway and his daughter allegedly occurred during the summer of 1980 in her home.

"The defendants both had asserted their innocence from the beginning," Blake said. "Unless the prosecutor was able to do better, there was no way the law would have the defendants go ahead in the trial."

As a result of the allegations, Johnny L. Holloway's wife divorced him and changed her name. She said last week that she would like to leave the area and "start over fresh."

"I am definitely disappointed because I feel I put (the children) through a lot," she said. "At least she (the daughter) knows I fought for her. I went to bat for her."

"I guess we have to fight," she said. "We have to go to court or this is just telling these people 'There are no consequences for your actions.'"

"It had to be worth it. At least I saved my children."

The case was dismissed on a Friday, but Westland police weren't notified about the dismissal until the following Tuesday, according to Westland Police Officer Laura Moore. Wayne County Assistant Prosecutor Robert Healey said police generally "aren't on hand" for such motions.

More people buy GM cars and trucks. And when they're ready to buy again, more of them buy another GM car or truck. Because we're doing what it takes to keep customers coming back.

Nobody test-drives as many cars as many miles under as many different, tough conditions as GM.

Nobody goes to greater lengths to design for beauty, comfort and durability inside and out.

Nobody performs as much safety-related research and testing as GM.

Nobody uses more advanced electronics in their cars than the company that created them for the 747.

Nobody has as many employees involved in Quality of Work Life programs as GM.

And nobody but GM can say all that. Because we believe in taking the extra time, giving the extra effort and paying attention to every detail. That's what it takes to provide the kind of quality that leads more people to buy GM cars and trucks than any other kind. And why GM owners are the most loyal on the road.

That's the GM commitment to excellence.

Chevrolet • Pontiac • Oldsmobile • Buick • Cadillac • GMC Truck

In the ultimate test of quality, people choose GM.

Let's get it together. Buckle up.

Nobody sweats the details like GM.

Jobless reservist finds work in Army

A former Garden City High School dropout and U.S. Army reservist has proven that unemployment need not keep a good man down.

In the months since he was laid off from a steel fabricating job, reservist and Vietnam infantry veteran Richard Yopek has:

- Returned to high school and earned, not an equivalency certificate, but an actual high school diploma.
- Started his own business, making outdoor furniture.
- Been promoted to the rank of Specialist 4 by his reserve unit, the 300th Military Police Command, based in Inkster.

He and his wife Barbara and their three children, Michelle, 15; Angela, 13; and Jim, 12, live in Dearborn Heights.

Ironically, he began college long before getting his high school diploma at East High School last spring. In 1975-78, he took welding and fabricating courses at Washtenaw Community College in Ann Arbor. He plans to return there to finish an associate's degree.

Yopek's military career began with three years in the Army in 1965-68. He served in Hawaii and South Vietnam as well as in the states.

In Vietnam, although he held an administrative specialty post, he was assigned as an infantryman in the 25th Infantry Division at CuChi in 1968.

He earned the Combat Infantry Badge and received the Purple Heart for battle wounds.

He didn't return to the military until 1982, when he joined the 300th. When asked why he came back in after so many years away, he cites several factors.

"Duty, the retirement pension, and the chance to earn the part-time pay after I lost my job," he said.

HE HAD NO way then of knowing that part-time service would eventually lead back to full-time soldiering.

But, national leaders trying to beef up U.S. military power at reasonable cost are devoting substantially more money to the reserves.

Studies show one of the best and fastest ways to improve Reserve unit readiness is to hire more full-time soldiers and civilian employees to run the units between drills.

Thus more active-duty "slots" are now opening up for unit members who have proven their ability in part-time service.

Yopek is also active in several outdoor-oriented organizations, serving as assistant Webelos leader, committee member and transportation coordinator for Cub Scout Pack/Boy Scout Troop 1153 in Dearborn Heights; as a National Rifle Association firearms instructor and public education representative; and as a hunting safety instructor for the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

VFWS sponsors scholarship

"My Role in Upholding Our Constitution" is this year's topic for the Voice of Democracy Scholarship Program sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary.

Garden City High School students are preparing for the Nov. 18 competition organized locally by VFW Post 7575.

Students are asked to write and tape a three-five-minute broadcast script expressing their views on the topic.

YOPEK WAS picked for the three-year tour based on his performance at weekend drills and on short-term active-duty stints. He is an administrative specialist handling mail, distribution, forms, publications, rosters, and other duties for the G-1 (personnel) and adjutant general (administrative) staff sections of the five-state command.

Despite his new full-time reserve job, Yopek will continue making wooden picnic tables, swings and other yard furniture as a sideline. Besides selling to individuals, he supplies furnishings to a Dearborn patio contractor and has been invited to display his wares at Detroit's 1984 Cobo Hall Builders Show.

Yopek's military career began with three years in the Army in 1965-68. He served in Hawaii and South Vietnam as well as in the states.

Cat is sought

Rusty, a large cat who has been a pet to a Garden City family for three years, is the target of a community search by its owner. The cat was reported stolen from a yard on Garden at Bridge Wednesday night. Sharon Beaudette said a $50 reward is being offered "with no questions asked" of the person returning it. The cat has freckles around the eyes, nose and mouth, and had a tan harness. Persons with information about the cat can call Beaudette at 525-3889.

Family life film series under way

"Focus on the Family," a seven-part series on family life, is about halfway through its seven-week run.

It is held on consecutive Thursday nights under the co-sponsorship of the Garden City PTA Council and Garden City Pastors' Association.

The series, which began three weeks ago, is free with films shown at 7:30 p.m. Thursdays through Nov. 17 at the Radcliff Center Library, 1751 Radcliff, south of Ford.

Producing the series is James Dobson, an associate professor of pediatrics at the University of Southern California and author of several books on parenting and family life. Dobson is a staff member of Children's Hospital, Los Angeles.

Each film lasts about one hour. Following is the balance of the schedule:

- Oct. 27, "Preparing for Adolescence — The Origins of Self-Doubt," Nov. 3, "Preparing for Adolescence — Peer Pressure and Sexuality," Nov. 10, "What Wives Wish their Husbands Knew About Women — The Lonely Housewife," and Nov. 17, "What Wives Wish Their Husbands Knew about Women — Money, Sex and Children."

The popular series has been viewed by thousands of parents and educators nationwide and offers excellent insights into modern family dynamics, a school spokeswoman said.

Fire damaged cleaned out

The clean-up of a fire-gutted store on Ford west of Middlebelt was nearly completed last week. The health and beauty aids store owned by Al Nash was destroyed by a fire Oct. 6, causing an estimated $200,000 in damages to the building and contents. A fire repair contractor was shoveling out the fire-damaged merchandise into a dumpster to be carted away. As the signs in the background indicate, Nash is open to sell cigarettes and Michigan lottery tickets. He plans to have the store reopened for normal business in December.

School officials tell lawmakers how education can be improved

By Kathy Parrish
staff writer.

Michigan legislators are looking for ways schools can offer more education at less cost.

And area educators — who will have to work with the results — didn't miss a chance to offer opinions.

A public hearing Friday on the efficiency and cost effectiveness of the kindergarten-12 system brought out several school superintendents from Oakland and Wayne counties. Teachers, school board members and parents also spoke at the three-hour session in Wayne County Intermediate School District.

Issues ran the gamut from school financing and teacher certification to preventing recall of board members and combining driver's training with a health course covering alcohol and sex education.

"We appreciate the generosity extended to those of us who work in the day-to-day education of Michigan children," said Wayne-Westland Superintendent Timothy Dyer, among those who offered suggestions to the legislators.

PART OF A special study on providing better educational services in a more cost effective manner, the hearing was the second this month sponsored by the Michigan House of Representatives' Ad Hoc Committee on Michigan's K-12 Education system.

The sessions started in Petoskey Oct. 14 and are also scheduled for Muskegon, Oct. 24; Port Huron, Oct. 28; Lansing, Oct. 31; and Bay City, Nov. 14.

Members of the 14 member House committee, which includes Rep. Justice Barnes, D-Westland, are looking at ways to promote cooperative efforts among school districts. Also being considered are financial incentives to encourage districts to streamline services and ways to reduce financial disparities between districts.

"We want to find out how we can help you be more effective in delivering an educational system to our children," explained Rep. William R. Keith, D-Garden City, who co-chaired the proceeding with Rep. James E. O'Neill Jr., D-Saginaw.

MOST SPEAKERS asked attention be given to school financing, which depends a great deal on the wealth of each school district. Several lamented what they see as inadequate state aid.

"Issues facing education are complex and do not lend themselves to a quick fix," said Livonia Supt. George Garver, who urged reduced class size and a statewide priority on early education through the third grade.

"The presence of dollars does not guarantee quality. But the absence of dollars can guarantee mediocrity or worse," Garver said.

Farmington Supt. Lewis Schulman asked legislators to examine carefully the funding process. "Restore proper educational funding to the state of Michigan," Schulman said.

Speakers commented on current controversial issues such as teacher certification, statewide comprehension tests for children, and teacher reassignment after cutbacks.

RECALLS ARE a concern for Wayne County Intermediate District Supt. William Simmons. He said that only 45 percent of the county's 258 board members are serving their second terms.

"A number of us are very concerned about the matter of recall of school board members. We think that's the reason there is such a turnover of school board members in this county," he said.

South Redford Supt. Jan Jacobs asked legislators to consider "What is actually happening to individual students in Michigan schools?"

"What really is happening in classrooms between teachers and students is much more relevant than an issue like extending the school year — which is a pig in a poke, because who can pay for it anyway?"

Some districts, which have a greater number of economically or disadvantaged students, carry even more of a burden. They are required by the state to offer special education, bi-lingual and other programs to upgrade these youth.

'Issues facing education are complex and do not lend themselves to a quick fix. The presence of dollars does not guarantee quality. But the absence of dollars can guarantee mediocrity or worse.'

Adult ed Parents get a taste of school life

Marie Chesney

APARENT-TEEN conversation often goes something like this:
"How was school today?"
"OK."
"What did you do?"
"Nothing much."
"Anything going on I should know about?"
"No."
If you believe that, you'd swear kids spent their schoolday in the twilight zone, doing nothing.

ABOUT 700 Franklin High School parents — myself among them — got the chance Tuesday night to get some tips on how to help their child excel in school.

The tips came not from an administrative study or from an educator's thesis but straight from the mouths of those closest to the classroom — the teachers themselves.

At the school's annual parents' night, teachers stood in front of the classroom and told parents what they expected from the youths who sat in their classroom every school day. We parents spent 10 minutes in each of their child's classes, sitting like students and following our children's schedule from classroom to classroom.

To each new group which filed in, the teachers ran over their list of classroom dos and don'ts, their expectations, the type of tests they gave. They explained in detail what was important to them when it came time to pass out a grade.

Some parents took lots of notes and perhaps had a rap session later with their child. Most went home with at least a few questions, and maybe even a word of advice or two.

UNLESS YOU HAVE one of those teen-agers who talk and talk and talk, most of what the teachers said came as a wild surprise to the parents.

Funny, we parents didn't remember hearing about the TV programs our children were supposed to watch, the special projects just about due, the stack of compositions already graded but never brought home or the essay test which half the class flunked.

But then comes that night of reckoning — the night just before the first report cards go out when, at parents' night, teachers tell it like it really is. "Did you see those 10-12 compositions they already did?" asked English teacher Larry LeBlanc. Some parents nodded yes. Most just sat there, staring blankly. LeBlanc went on to tell of the eight to 10 short stories and three novels already read in his classes.

Science teacher John Mehock threw out words I haven't heard since my own college days — osmosis, diffusion, cell structure.

I felt ignorant, even envious, after listening to world history teacher Margarete Olson. Her students — my son included — were learning the history of countries I never studied but which are crucial in today's world: China, Japan, India, and nations in Africa.

Algebra teacher George Calder startled all of us when he announced, "Your child should be doing homework four days out of five. And if there is no homework, then they should study something they're having trouble with."

THE CLIMAX of the evening came when the teachers ticked off ways students could come out on top in that particular subject.

For LeBlanc, it was reading slowly for details and not just rushing through. "Get them to slow down, take time to think, savor what the writer has to say," he urged.

For Mehock, it was taking notes, lots of notes. "A science class has a bigger vocabulary than a foreign language. They should study their notes each night," he said.

For Olson, it was learning how to answer an essay question, learning how to answer the question asked.

For Calder, it was students' simply trying to solve a problem. "I walk around the room to see if students have attempted their work," he said. "I

ARTWORK BY MARVIN TEEPLES

At Franklin High School's parents' night, the classrooms got taken over by parents who came to find out just what goes on behind those halloved walls. Standing in front of his blackboard and armed with pamphlets to hand out, mathematics teacher George Calder unraveled some of the mysteries. Oh yes, those signs do hang on the algebra teacher's wall.

don't grade on whether they're right or wrong, but did they try? They don't have to have the right answer if they have blobs of work there. I can give them the extra help they need. But when they show me a blank sheet of paper and say they worked for three hours..."

THE ROAD to knowledge, and to good grades, can change from teacher to teacher and from subject to subject. And for both teacher and subject, there are many roads to follow.

On Tuesday night, some 400 Franklin students got an edge in working their way through that oftentimes confusing maze.

Another 1,200 parents, representing some 1,500 students, stayed home. Their children got no such edge.

That was a shame.

roll call report

House keeps pork barrel; 20 water projects flowing

Here's how area members of Congress were recorded on major roll call votes in the days before the Columbus Day recess.

HOUSE

PORK BARREL. The House rejected, 133 for and 271 against, an amendment to deny money for 20 of 43 water projects contained in a $119 million appropriations bill (HR 3958) that pay for fiscal 1984 work by the Army corps of Engineers and the Bureau of Reclamation.

Backers complained that the 20 projects have not been authorized by the House. In the Congressional funding sequence, the authorization or justification of an outlay is supposed to come before appropriation of the money.

Also, they cited Administration opposition to the projects. And they said any appropriation should await action on a "user's fee" proposal to charge a share of public works costs to those who directly benefit from the project.

Foes of the amendment called the 20 navigation and flood control projects vital and said it was time to pay for them now that a four-year moratorium on public works starts apparently has been lifted.

Members voting no wanted to appropriate money for the 20 unauthorized water projects.

Voting yes: Dennis Hertel, D-Detroit, Sander Levin, D-Southfield and William Broomfield, R-Birmingham.

Voting no: Carl Pursell, R-Plymouth and William Ford, D-Taylor.

AMTRAK. The house rejected, 151 for and 198 against, an amendment permitting Amtrak to discharge its $800 million-plus obligation to the federal government by issuing preferred stock to the Department of Transportation, which is offered during debate on a bill (HR 3648) to authorize $730 million in fiscal 1984 subsidies for Amtrak, the quasi-public corporation that runs most of the nation's passenger trains.

Members voting yes wanted Amtrak to get out of default by issuing stock to the Department of Transportation.

Voting yes: Hertel, Ford and Levin.
Voting no: Broomfield.
Not voting: Pursell.

SENATE

TOBACCO. By a vote of 57 for and 33 against, the Senate tabled (killed) an amendment to eliminate the federal tobacco program, which protects growers with price supports, marketing quotas and competition-limiting acreage allotments.

The amendment was offered to a wide-ranging dairy and tobacco bill (S 1529) that later was passed. The House is working on similar legislation.

Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., who favored killing the amendment, said: "Tobacco is a vital contributor to the health of our economy. We must stand behind the program and reject any changes that are designed to weaken or restrict it."

Howard Metzenbaum, D-Ohio, who sponsored the amendment, called for returning tobacco to free enterprise and said the government has a "wildly inconsistent policy of actively discouraging smoking while at the very same time promoting the production of tobacco."

Senators voting yes wanted to retain the federal tobacco program.

Carl Levin D and Donald Riegle both voted no.

MILK. By a vote of 56 for and 37 against, the Senate tabled (killed) an amendment to prevent creation of a "diversion" program that would reduce milk surpluses by paying dairy farmers to cut production.

Sponsors said their amendment was a better way to cut surpluses and the large federal expenditures they cause. It called in part for sharply lowering (from $13.10 to $11.60 per hundredweight) the dairy price support that is an incentive to produce.

The Senate subsequently passed a bill that attracts surpluses by paying farmers up to $10 per hundredweight for milk they do not produce. The bill also lowers price supports slightly (by 50 cents per hundredweight) below their current $13.10 level.

The cost to taxpayers of dairy price supports has risen from $4 billion in 1980 to $23 billion in 1983.

Senators voting yes wanted to cut milk surpluses by paying farmers to reduce production.
Levin and Riegle both voted yes.

NIGHT CRAMPS
A problem that plagues a number of people is being awakened from sleep by leg cramps. Investigation has revealed that these pains are not due to poor blood supply or irritation of the involved muscles.
Night cramps are the result of insufficient deep sleep, called Stage IV, or R.E.M. sleep. Relaxation of muscles occurs in Stage IV sleep. In contrast, in Stage III sleep the muscles are in a state of tension, and prolonged time at this sleep level causes muscle cramps. An abrupt awakening to stop this pain becomes necessary when the body, for unknown reasons, cannot relax muscles by reaching R.E.M. sleep.
Treatment of night cramps consists of medicine able to encourage R.E.M. sleep. Certain drugs used to treat depression, when taken at night, are effective for this purpose. Anyone suffering from night cramps should seek medical aid, therapy is possible, safe, and reliable.

Bowlers to help cancer campaign

Local bowlers will help the American Cancer Society "Bowl Down Cancer" at Town-n-Country Lanes in Westland Saturday to Sunday, Nov. 6.

The weeklong fund-raising event, sponsored by the bowling center and the Central Wayne Unit of the ACS, is part of a statewide effort.

Cash prizes for winning bowlers will be offered at the state level. Area merchants are donating local prizes.

All leagues bowling at Town-n-Country will be asked to participate. To enroll in the Bowl Down, league members will be asked to donate $1 to ACS on their regular bowling night during that week.

Using a handicap system to "equalize" bowling expertise, the participants will compete for high scores to win prizes, an ACS spokeswoman said.

The big winner will be the American Cancer Society which will use the proceeds to benefit cancer research, offset local service and education programs.

The central-Wayne unit of the American Cancer Society serves Garden City, Westland, Wayne and Inkster from its office at 6227 Inkster Road, Garden City.

The spokeswoman said those interested may contact the office at 425-6830 for information on the fundraiser, on volunteer opportunities and for information on the services offered by the organization.

A Halloween Cake For All Ages

Halloween is one of the happiest days of the year for children, particularly when it is capped by a gathering of family and friends. This year, plan to meet for an extra-special treat of Jack-O'-Lantern Cake, a centerpiece dessert that will disappear like magic.

The Jack-O'-Lantern Cake is a treasure trove of treats — with candy baked inside as well as tumbling out. Its zesty taste results from crushed sour orange hard candies that also give it a light orange color. Two bundt pans are required to create the perfect pumpkin shape. The cakes are trimmed slightly of their rounded tops, stacked inverted so the bases face each other, and then iced with a gay pumpkin-hued buttercream frosting.

The center "well" of the cake is filled with confections, a charming way to reflect the tradition of the holiday. Cider or a simple punch made festive by adding sparkling club soda provides the perfect liquid refreshment.

An informal party is right in keeping with the "Meet 'n Treat" program urged by the National Confectioners Association for more than ten years. The program encourages parents to accompany their children on treating rounds, observing safety rules outlined by the NCA and the National Safety Council, and then climax the day's celebration with family, neighborhood or community parties.

The party can be kept very simple — no more than just a sharing of the "goodies" as parents watch — or it can be a full-scale production, featuring haunted house recreations and dinner. The point is to experience the sharing of an occasion with one another, which will insure that everyone has a truly happy Halloween.

Jack-O'-Lantern Cake

- | | |
|--|---|
| 4 1/2 cups unsifted all-purpose flour | 1 tablespoon orange extract |
| 3 1/4 teaspoons baking powder | 6 large eggs, at room temperature |
| 1/2 teaspoon baking soda | 1 3/4 cups milk |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | 3/4 cup finely crushed extra sour orange hard candies (6-ounce package) |
| 1 1/2 cups butter or margarine, softened at room temperature | Assorted candy for decoration |
| 2 cups sugar | |

Sift together flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt. In a large bowl cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add orange extract. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Alternately add milk with dry ingredients to creamed mixture. Blend well. Stir in crushed candies. Grease two 10-inch bundt cake pans. Preheat oven to 350°F. Divide batter between two prepared pans and bake 40 to 45 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center of cake comes out clean. Cool 15 minutes in pan. Turn out onto cooling racks. Cool completely. With a sharp knife trim bottom of cakes so they lie flat. Invert one cake flat side up; frost with Orange Frosting*, place remaining cake on top so two flat surfaces are together; frost outside of cake. Decorate with licorice sticks and fill center with assorted Halloween candies. YIELD: 20 to 30 servings.

*Orange Frosting

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1/2 cup (1 stick) butter or margarine, softened | 4 cups confectioners' sugar (1-pound box) |
| 1 egg | 1 to 2 tablespoons milk |
| 1/2 teaspoon orange extract | Yellow and red food coloring |

Beat butter until light. Beat in egg and orange extract. Gradually stir in sugar. If necessary, add milk until frosting is of spreading consistency. Stir in yellow and red food coloring to make frosting orange. Use to frost Jack-O'-Lantern Cake.

- Look in all directions before crossing the street
- Obey all traffic signals
- Always walk — never run — across streets
- Walk on the sidewalks, not in the road

No tricks to find in these party treats

Capture the look of autumn with colorful arrangements of dried leaves and flowers, with a bowl of big red apples, a spray of Indian corn on the door and pumpkins everywhere. Then, capture the season's flavor with a fresh new pumpkin dessert. Made with whipped topping, the dessert has a nutty graham cracker crust topped with a pumpkin-spiced, creamy mixture of marshmallow, cream, pumpkin, gelatin and whipped topping. Frozen topping — right from the freezer — blended with orange juice makes another great treat for ghosts, goblins and other Halloween revelers.

FLUFFY PUMPKIN DESSERT
 1 cup graham cracker crumbs
 1/4 cup margarine, melted
 1/4 cup finely chopped nuts
 2 tbsp sugar
 2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
 1/2 cup cold water
 1 cup milk
 1 7-oz jar marshmallow creme
 1 16-oz can pumpkin
 1 1/2 tsp pumpkin pie spice
 1/4 tsp salt

1 8-oz container (3 cups) whipped topping, thawed

Combine crumbs, margarine, nuts and sugar; press onto bottom of 9-inch square pan. Bake at 350°, 10 minutes. Cool.

Soften gelatin in water; stir over low heat until dissolved. Add milk. Cool. Combine marshmallow creme, pumpkin and seasonings, mixing with wire whisk or electric mixer until blended. Chill until thickened but not set; fold in 2 cups whipped topping. Pour over crust; chill until firm. Top with remaining whipped topping. 6-8 servings.

DREAMY ORANGE SHAKES

1/2 cup orange-flavored drink or pure 100-percent unsweetened pasteurized orange juice
 1 8-oz container (3 cups) frozen whipped topping

Cut frozen whipped topping into pieces. Place orange juice and whipped topping in blender container. Cover; process on high speed until well blended. 2 cups.

Because of the sauce

These enchiladas a favorite

The daily bread of Mexico is more than a passing fancy in this country, thanks to Texas and California. Mexican cooking is in today and the tortilla is as important to it as the crepe is in the French kitchen.

One of the tastiest creations is the enchilada, a corn tortilla briefly fried in oil or lard, wrapped around a filling of beef, pork, chicken or cheese and onion, then topped with a sprinkling of cheese or onion or both or a sauce.

Frankly, I found the enchiladas in Central and Southern Mexico less to my liking. I'll never forget the chicken enchiladas I didn't enjoy in Tarco, the Silver City. They were much too dry, the chicken wasn't chopped fine enough and missing was the melted cheese topping.

My wife's favorite is cheese and onion enchiladas, topped with a little beanless chili and melted cheese. She makes them regularly and I gorge myself.

with oil, heat on medium and fry tortillas one at a time until limp, 5 seconds per side, and drain. Spoon chicken mixture on each tortilla, roll up and place seam down in 2-quart casserole in one layer. Cover with foil and bake in 350-degree oven 30 minutes. Pour on sour cream sauce and top with cheese; return to oven couple minutes to melt cheese. Serves 4-6.

SOUR CREAM SAUCE
 1 cup tomatoes and green chilies
 1 container (8 oz.) sour cream
 1/2 tsp. salt
 1/2 tsp. ground coriander

Blend all ingredients in electric mixer until smooth. Heat in small saucepan, but do not boil.

Carve a pumpkin for dinner

Pumpkins, although traditionally used to carve into Jack-O-Lanterns or bake into pies, make a surprisingly good vegetable to eat.

The Oakland County Cooperative Extension Service recommends selecting pumpkins which are heavy for their size and which have rinds that are smooth and free from spots. Pumpkins will keep 2 to 3 months if stored at 50-55° with 70-75 percent humidity.

Prepare by cutting in half, removing seeds and stringy portions. Save seeds for toasting.

To cook in water: cut halves into small pieces, then pare. Add pumpkin to small amount of boiling water and cover. Simmer gently for 25-30 minutes or until tender. Drain well and put through sieve or blender.

Bake by cutting pumpkin in halves or quarters. Remove seeds. Place cut side down in a shallow pan and bake in a 350° oven for 1 hour or until pumpkin becomes tender and begins to fall apart. When cool enough to handle scrape the pulp from the shell and put through a sieve or blender.

Freeze by cooling and packing into airtight freezer jars or plastic containers, leaving 1/2-inch head space. Seal and freeze. 1 1/2 to 2 cups of pumpkin will make one 9-inch pie.

If you're planning a Halloween party as a safe alternative to trick or treating, but are having a hard time finding appropriate recipes, here are two treats — fluffy pumpkin dessert and dreamy orange shakes — to add to your menu.

Serve by seasoning with butter, salt and pepper.

TOASTED PUMPKIN SEEDS

Separate seeds from stringy fiber (choose mature, well-filled seeds). Thoroughly dry seeds at room temperature. Melt 1 tbsp butter or margarine in a jelly roll pan (or other shallow pan with sides) in a 425° oven. Add one cup of seeds and shake to coat with melted butter. Stir frequently until lightly browned. The time required will be from 15 to 20 minutes depending on the dryness of the seeds. Season with salt. Cool. Store in covered jar.

CHICKEN ENCHILADAS

1/2 cup tomatoes and green chilies
 1 1/2 (3 oz.) cream cheese, softened
 1 tsp salt
 2 cups finely chopped cooked chicken
 1 green onion, finely chopped
 Cooking oil
 12 corn tortillas
 Sour cream sauce, heated
 1 cup shredded medium sharp Cheddar cheese

Combine tomatoes and chilies, cream cheese and salt in mixing bowl; stir in chicken and onion. Line skillet

Dressing old as salad

Salad dressings have a long and interesting history, dating back to ancient times. The Babylonians used oils and vinegar to dress greens, and the Chinese have used soy sauce for possibly 50 centuries. Romans used salt to bring out the flavor of the herbs they preferred.

In fact the very word "salad" comes from the Roman word for salt, "sal." In Latin, salads were called "herbes salatae" salted herbs, which became "salad" in English.

Almost everybody is familiar with oil and vinegar and the mayonnaise-based dressings, such as Thousand Island. Made from foods commonly found in the kitchen, you can mix them yourself or buy them bottled. To get even fresher flavor, use one of the packaged dressing mixes. These are convenient and easy to make, just add milk and mayonnaise. Each of the many flavors contains different herbs, spices and cheeses, adding to the delicate flavors so complimentary to salad greens.

Face painting has become popular with Halloween masqueraders. Here, Michigan State University theater major Steven Weiler makes up Pat Sapo of Livonia as a snake. Many area costume shops now offer the services of artists. It's a lot safer than masks — and a lot cooler.

Ghoulish business

Spooked costume shops eager for eerie events

IT'S SPOOKY to think about it, but a lot of weirdos are hanging out hereabouts and they have yet to be unmasked.

But that fateful day — Halloween — is coming, to be sure. And at midnight Oct. 31, all the devilish excitement will be nothing more than a fading apparition. Originally, it was known variously as All Saints Day, or All Hallows Day or Hallowmass Day. Now it's simply known as Halloween.

Originally a religious observance, today's Halloween has nothing to do with a religious feast. Instead, it has evolved into costumes, disguises, jack-o-lanterns, and, of course, trick or treating.

It's the one day of the year you can be anything you want to be and local costume shops are ready to help get the perfect outfit together.

ONE OF NEWER shops is the Costume Gallery at 10910 Farmington Road in Sheldon Center in Livonia. In addition to a variety of costumes and accessories, the shop will offer the services of a makeup artist, but an appointment is necessary. The shop in Sheldon Center will be open 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily this week, but will be closed on Sunday.

Most of the gallery costumes are individually sewn for the shop by a seamstress, according to gallery owner Greg Allen. The quality is better, he said.

LaPointe's Formal Wear and Costumes at 33259 Ford Road in Garden City also offers a full line of rental costumes and accessories for adults.

Makeup artist Bill Cathbert takes appointments as well as walk-ins for those who desire an even more authentic look. The most popular — as well as the most difficult — is the werewolf look.

LAPOINTE'S HOURS are Monday, Thursday and Friday, noon to 8:30 p.m.; Tuesday and Wednesday, noon to 5 p.m.; Saturday hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The shop is closed Sunday.

Bea's Costume Creations in Garden City aims to be a one-stop shop for the entire family's needs. After Halloween, she'll go back to providing costumes for skaters, dancers and gymnasts.

In other related Halloween happenings, a real "monster" will make his appearance at Seven Mile and Farmington roads shopping center on Oct. 28, passing out candy to children.

And just in time for Halloween, Henry Ford Hospital's Health Care

You can be anyone you want to at this fun time of the year and no one — not even your hairdresser — will be able to guess. Try being Old Hag (left), Bashful, Einstein or Bandit. Realism, however, has its price — often in the $20-plus range.

Hotline (876-7100) is offering tips on poison prevention and emergency treatment in case of poisoning. The Hotline is a taped message which runs 24 hours a day.

It has nothing to do, however, with the common Halloween malady popularly known as "poltergeist dyspepsia."

That's a ghoulish stomach ache brought on by too many treats taken too quickly. A little moderation is the best prevention.

Gumbleton to address group

Area Lutherans and Catholics will gather at Holy Cross Evangelical Lutheran Church, 30650 Six Mile Road, Livonia on Friday to hear the Auxiliary Bishop of Detroit, Thomas J. Gumbleton speak on the theme, "My Peace Is My Gift to You." Gumbleton was one of the authors of the Catholic bishops' "Pastoral Letter on Peace and Justice."

The ecumenical venture, sponsored by area Lutheran and Roman Catholic churches, will begin with a fellowship meal at 6:30 p.m. Gumbleton's address will be followed by a worship service.

The event is open to the public. To make a dinner reservation, call 472-1414. Suggested donation is $5 per person.

By G's, he's a silver-tongued orator

This week I am going to change my format and give you the handwriting of someone who is well known in the area. I will supply only one small clue and I would like you to guess who the mystery writer is. He is a talk show host on a popular radio station which daily invites you to "talk to me."

This is the handwriting of a man who was born with a silver tongue. Never is he at a loss for words or ideas. This is revealed by g's that look like figure 8's and f's that have backturned lower loops.

Complementing this fluency is a vivid imagination. Life with this man would never be dull. This imagination is shown by many inflated loops, both as to length and width, also many high i dots.

A sensuous nature with emphasis on the beauty of the outdoors is suggested by printed capitals and his use of a wide nibbed pen.

A dynamic personality with contagious enthusiasm soars on those long and often upturned t bars.

HERE IS A MAN who can enjoy the company of others and can also be comfortable relaxing alone. Right slant, combination of both full lower loops and some that are sticks tell us this.

Now add the showmanship of his large, embellished signature and we see a talk show host who can put it all together in a very interesting and charismatic manner.

Just in case you haven't guessed him, let me introduce you to Kevin Joyce. Recently, I was featured on his radio show "What's My Line." I was so favorably Impressed with his talents and charm that I asked him if he would be willing to share a sample of his handwriting for my column readers.

How to cage a retiree

I learned at a recent mission study meeting that on the island of Tonga in the South Pacific, Christmas Day marks the opening of the women's basketball season.

Each village, the speaker said, fields several teams of women at various age levels. They use rush baskets instead of the steel and cord ones we know, and they play an extremely strenuous game. They compete several times a week during their season, walking to neighboring villages for the contests.

This news made an addition to the rather small store of information I keep stashed regarding life on South Pacific islands. It also convinced me I wouldn't do very well, retired or not, if I had to live on Tonga.

BACK IN THE happily-almost-forgotten days when I had to go to gym classes, I didn't care for girls' basketball any more than I did for the other team sports that kept messing up my school life.

When I moved on to mainly spectator sports, I concentrated on the baseball, football and hockey I really enjoy. I almost forgot about basketball except when my wire service job required me to edit a story about cagers.

And then I met the guy with whom I was to share my watching of athletic contests and the rest of my life as well.

I still remember my amazement when Joe commented on an early date that in Illinois, where he comes from, major newspapers print full box scores on all high school basketball games. There were, and still are, an awful lot of those games in basketball country.

Joe saw nothing astonishing about this full treatment of the prep sport, and I learned that he took his basketball seriously.

HE STILL DOES. In 30-plus years of marriage, our entertainment has included many cage games, one in his home stadium and the rest on television and radio.

Of course we also take in other sports, live, and recorded. With baseball games, my interest is right up there with his. Ditto college football. Pro football I can take or leave, but I have to agree it gets pretty exciting, especially with big plays televised so well.

I also enjoy, for varying interest-span periods, the golf and tennis matches that find their way to our screen.

But basketball. I try, I really do, but the games always seem long and the season longer. I always have the feeling that the only important action in each game comes in the last few seconds, which, of course, always last 10 minutes. And each spring, just when I'm sure the basketball season is over, playoffs keep going and going.

THE COMING season should be interesting. Joe has noted that, with more time to watch and more television channels coming in, basketball should be available every night. What's more, he'll be able to see those Illinois high school tournament games on the Chicago cable channel.

I guess I'll start giving thanks for football. And for not living in a village on Tonga.

Churchill shocks top-ranked Hawks

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

John Stoltisadas will forever remember this day.

The Farmington Harrison football program will not soon forget it either.

They will remember a cold, rainy Saturday afternoon in late October when a 1-5 Livonia Churchill team rode into Farmington Hills and defeated the previously unbeaten defending Class A state champion Harrison team, 13-12.

DAN DEAN/staff photographer

Bob Foust, one of the Churchill co-captains, helped engineer Saturday's upset over Farmington Harrison, the state's top-ranked Class A team.

Thus, Harrison's victory streak ended at 29 games. Thus, Churchill won the biggest game of its history. Thus, a lot of Hawk hearts were broken.

"I don't know what to say," said a jubilant Churchill coach Ken Kaestner. "I love the kids. They came to practice Monday believing they could do it and they did it. I just love 'em."

Stoltisadas, a junior quarterback, was a force both offensively and defensively for the Chargers. He moved Miller wasn't going to see much duty offensively because of a hyperextended knee. But, after Churchill came out smoking, Herrington altered his plans. Miller ended up with 138 yards rushing.

"We had to use him. After the interception, you could see Churchill was fired up," Herrington said.

With Miller doing most of the work, Harrison went 80 yards in 12 plays, capping the drive with Miller's two-yard TD run. David Quarles, however, hooked the extra point try to the left, and Churchill led 7-6.

That's how the half ended. And Harrison was fortunate to be behind by only a point. Twice late in the half Churchill had the ball deep in Hawk territory, once after a Bob Wasczenski punt was partially blocked and again after a Miller fumble. The Hawk defense, however, stiffened and a 23-yard field goal attempt by Matt Wiljanen missed the mark.

Harrison had a 73-yard Gliniski-to-Wasczenski TD pass nullified by an illegal motion penalty.

Harrison went ahead 12-7 on a one-yard Miller plunge late in the third quarter. However, Gliniski's two-point conversion pass to Miller was off target.

That set the stage for Stoltisadas.

With 8:10 left in the game, Churchill got the ball on its 20-yard line. Stoltisadas, mixing passes and runs like a seasoned pro, soon had the ball deep in Hawk territory. In the drive, he hit three passes good for 44 yards. A 15-yarder to back Robert Foust gave the Chargers a first-and-goal at the Hawk 1. Three plays later, Stoltisadas ran it in. The score was 13-12. Chargers after a missed two-point try.

'The pleasing thing was that we were down 12-7 and we had to drive and we drove it.'

— Ken Kaestner
Churchill coach

the ball effectively against a stingy Hawk defense, passing for 94 yards and scoring both Charger touchdowns. He was also all over the field defensively.

"Churchill was very fired up and they had an excellent game plan," said Harrison coach John Herrington. "Their quarterback tore us apart."

HARRISON KNEW it was in for a game from the start. On a third down-and-15 play on Harrison's first possession, Hawk quarterback Scott Gliniski threw a sideline pass that was picked off by Stoltisadas. He ran down the right sideline 40 yards for the touchdown.

After Greg Bond's extra point, Churchill led 7-0.

Harrison's all-state halfback John

DAN DEAN/staff photographer

Churchill coach Ken Kaestner has had some big wins, but maybe none bigger than Saturday.

Harrison, with 3:04 remaining, tried four straight passes and missed each time. Stoltisadas, roving the secondary like a center fielder, was in on each miss.

BUT HARRISON got a big break. With 2:10 left, Jerry Elzen fell on a Charger fumble at the Hawk 19. Harrison then moved the ball to the 50. On a first down play, Gliniski fumbled the snap and the Chargers recovered.

The Churchill sidelines exploded in merriment. David slew Gollath.

The loss virtually knocks the Hawks out of the state playoff picture. They remain the Western Lakes Athletic Association Western Division champs. They will take on Walled Lake Central (6-1) Friday night at Central for the WLAA title.

Harrison defensive coach Bob Sutter put things in proper perspective in the locker room afterwards.

"This is part of life, men," he said. "It's not the nice part. You are going to feel this hurt for a long time. But part of life is living and coming back. We've got to come back next week and show we can overcome this."

Franklin aborts Rocket title launch

football

Livonia Franklin, led by the Drabicki brothers and a stingy defense, played spoiler Friday night with a 14-11 upset of Northwest Suburban League (NSL) football leader Westland John Glenn.

The visiting Patriots broke a two-game losing streak and helped North Farmington gain a share of the crown with Glenn as the two teams finished with 4-1 league records.

Franklin dominated the first half and scored first when senior Rob Drabicki, coming in on a safety blitz, picked off a pitch intended for Tony Boles and raced 28 yards for a touchdown. Larry Patzsch's extra point then made it 7-0.

But Glenn got on the board later in the quarter when Chris Piazza booted a 28-yard field goal.

In the second quarter, sophomore quarterback Dave Drabicki hit brother Rob with a 15-yard scoring pass and Patzsch's kick made it 14-3.

The young Drabicki, throwing out of the shotgun attack, completed 13 of 23 passes for 139 yards and rushed for 57 more, his best effort of the season.

THE PATRIOTS threatened to score again right before the half, but Glenn intercepted a Drabicki pass at its own four to stop the threat.

Franklin marched inside the Glenn 30 twice in third quarter, but failed to score.

Glenn cut the lead to three in the final period after intercepting a Patriot pass at the 35.

Quarterback Jeff Hawley scored on a one-yard sneak and hit tight end Jeff Melxner on a two-point conversion pass to bring the count to 14-11.

The Rockets threatened in the final minute, but Rob Drabicki made a diving interception grab in the end zone with 19 seconds left to end the suspense.

Hawley hit 11 of 28 passes for 157 yards, but was intercepted three times as John Lee and Tim Gabel also gained credit for pick-offs.

Glenn's vaunted running attack was held to 93 yards by Franklin's interior line, led by 6-foot-1, 240-pound tackle Doug Kroll.

TOM FORCHIONE was the leading North Farmington rusher with 58 yards. Boles, the highly-regarded sophomore, was held to 22, but had one long TD run called back in the first half because of a clipping penalty.

"We took a different approach after we took a stomping last week (by RU 26-12)," said Franklin coach Armand Vigna. "It was a matter of pride. I told the kids we were going to have some fun and we came out with a good week of practice."

"I feel we're a better football team than our record (3-4) indicates."

North shares NSL crown

North Farmington gained a share of the Northwest Suburban League football title Friday night with a 20-13 triumph over Garden City.

The Raiders finished league play at 4-1 and got some unexpected help when Livonia Franklin upset previously unbeaten Westland John Glenn, 14-11.

North used a balanced attack to top the stingy Cougars.

After GC quarterback John Romano hit Jeff Krischano with a 72-yard TD pass in the second quarter, North came back on Eric Engel's 49-yard TD toss to Scott Draper.

But with only six seconds to go until halftime, GC scored again to take a 13-6 lead when defensive end Charlie Wasczenski raced 71 yards after blocking a field goal try at the Cougar 29.

Blazers fall in 'Round 2'

By Brad Emons
staff writer

The sign on the door read: SOLD OUT, NO TICKETS.

The 1,100 fans fortunate to get in witnessed another classic battle as Farmington Hills Our Lady of Mercy won round No. 2 and all but clinched the Central Division girls' basketball title with a 54-49 victory over Livonia Ladywood.

The jam-packed crowd at Birmingham Brother Rice saw the Marlins pull out the victory with a solid stretch drive.

Terri Ford's free throw with only 10 seconds remaining gave Mercy a three-point advantage and the victory.

"You have to look at the experience these kids have," said Larry Baker, coach of the defending Class A state champs. "They're tournament tested and have been under the pressure."

"I thought our balance did it tonight."

MERCY LED 30-23 at halftime, but trailed 41-36 at the outset of the fourth quarter as Ladywood point-guard Emily Wagner made one of her many steals and followed in with a layup.

But Mercy's Annette Ruggiero countered with a pair of critical jumpers just off the free throw line to put the Marlins back on top.

The Blazers, except for a 16-foot jumper by Wagner, went cold during the final three minutes of play.

The dry spell was all Mercy needed as Ruggiero and center Mary Rosowski each registered key shots to keep Ladywood at bay.

Sarah Basford, Ruggiero and Rosowski each scored 12 points for the winners.

Wagner, marvelous as usual, and Char Govan netted 19 and 16 points, respectively in a losing cause.

"OBVIOUSLY one of the keys is the difference we were down — seven at halftime," said Ladywood coach Ed Kavanaugh. "And on some crucial possessions we didn't score."

"We also did not get our quota of offensive rebounds. In the first half we just gave up too many."

Baker said defense played an important role in the win.

"There were many factors but I thought Sarah Basford played outstanding defense," he said. "She had to take Govan early and Wagner late. That's a tough job because those two are All-Staters."

"She's just not an offensive player anymore, but now is one of our better defensive players and she takes pride in it."

Mercy, 11-2 overall, holds a one game lead over Ladywood (11-2, 6-2) in the division with two games remaining.

BOTH COACHES realize there could be another meeting down the road, most likely in the Catholic League playoffs.

"Number three is yet to come," said Baker. "It has become a series."

"Maybe we should play 4-of-7," Kavanaugh, meanwhile, looked at the loss philosophically.

"The situation with my team going into this season is that we had only two players with varsity experience and to be 11-2 at this point — the Catholic League playoffs are coming up and we still have a shot," he said. "This is not the end of Ladywood's season by any means."

"This is two of the state's better teams competing. Our goal coming into the new set-up was to challenge for the division and we definitely did that."

How does Sunday, Nov. 13, at Calihan Hall sound?

Stevenson swimmers crack marks again

Mary Schoenle set a school record and Sherrie Sudek won two events as Livonia Stevenson dunked Farmington High Thursday in a Western Lakes Athletic Association swim meet, 117-55.

Schoenle's record-setting performance was a 54.5 in the 100-yard freestyle. She also took a first in the 100-backstroke with a 1:03.9.

Sudek captured the 60-freestyle (25.9) and the 500-freestyle (6:12.6). Sherrie's sister, Maureen Sudek, won the 200-free with a 2:06.9.

The Spartans also won both relays. The 200-medley relay team — Sherry Sudek, Schoenle, Sheila Taormina and Julie Quinlan — swam a 1:35.8, and the 400-free relay team — Maureen Sudek, Carolyn Schwedt, Colleen Sullivan and Kathy Sullivan — swam a 4:05.3.

Other winners for Stevenson were: Kathy Sullivan in the 200-individual medley (2:30.0), and Taormina in the 100-breaststroke (1:13.4).

Stevenson is now 6-3 overall.

LIVONIA CHURCHILL outswam Redford Thurston 100-70 Tuesday to improve its record to 2-6 overall.

Gayle Gorgas and Kendra James each won two events for the Chargers. Gorgas won the 200-IM with a 2:23.4 and the 100-breaststroke in 1:13.0. James won the 100-freestyle in 1:01.5 and the 100-backstroke in 1:08.0.

Karin Sedestrom won the 100-butterfly for the Chargers with a 1:17.7.

RU harriers steady

The cross country picture in the Northwest Suburban League became a lot clearer last Thursday as front-running Redford Union and second-place North Farmington scored big wins.

Redford Union (6-0), by virtue of its 19-36 win over Livonia Franklin, assured itself of first place in the dual meet season.

North (4-1), with its 27-30 win against Westland John Glenn, will finish in second place.

If North wins the NSL meet Tuesday, it will share the league championship with RU. If the Panthers win, the championship will be their outright.

RU'S VICTORY over Franklin was its 15th straight league dual meet victory. That streak extends over three years.

David Adkins was the meet's individual winner. He ran a time of 15:36 at Lola Valley.

Franklin's Gerry McDougall ran second with a 16:29. The next Patriot to finish was John Mondro (16:54) — in seventh place.

Eric Buchanan (16:31) placed third, Eric Ross (16:43) placed fourth, Craig Bilinski (16:47) placed fifth, and David Jachim (16:52) placed sixth for the Panthers.

Speaking of RU streaks: the Panther junior varsity cross country team has won 25 consecutive league dual meets spanning five years.

Redford Union girls also won, defeating Franklin 18-47. Denise Durrer (19:24) and Janis Bilinski (19:35) placed one and two for the Panthers.

Melny Mogilski (20:45), Kathy Adams (20:48), and Jennifer Rutenbar (20:51) finished 4, 5, and 6 for RU.

NORTH FARMINGTON surrendered first place to Glenn's Jay Hunt (16:21), but came on to take four of the next five spots to win the meet.

Mike Roffi, who kicked the extra point to make it 13-6, set up the play when he picked up the ball, raced 10 yards and then tossed a lateral to Wasczenski.

NORTH, however, took control in the third quarter, scoring twice on a 37-yard run by senior Ken Goss, followed by a four-yard jaunt by Tom Spahn. The final TD was set up when GC botched the snap off the punt with North recovering at the Cougar 13.

After the bad break (Wasczenski's TD) the kids came back and showed a lot of poise in the second half," said North coach Jim O'Leary. "And Ken (Goss) just ran beautifully."

North outgained GC in total yardage (352-88) and first downs (11-5). The Cougars were a minus-25 on the ground.

Goss led all rushers with 127 yards in 21 carries. Engel, meanwhile, hit six of 16 passes for 140 yards.

North is now 4-3 overall, while GC slipped to 2-5.

Regina trips Borgess '5'

Considering Harper Woods Regina is the third best team in the Catholic Central Division. Considering that Regina was coming in fresh off its stunning upset of state-ranked Class B power Ladywood on Tuesday. And considering Bishop Borgess had won just one game all year.

Well, the Spartans' 59-41 loss to Regina last Thursday wasn't all that bad.

"Their inside game hurt us," said Borgess coach Denise Zatkoff. "But, we played much better than the score would indicate. It was an eight-point game most of the way. We lost 65-33 to them the first time, so we've really improved. We gave them a game."

Lisa Boucher led the Spartans with 18 points and Nancy Rzepka chipped in with 11. Jolynn Schneider led Regina with 18 points (14 in the first half), and Janice Scherer scored 17.

Borgess (1-12, 1-8 in league play) now has the unenviable task of closing out its season against first place Our Lady of Mercy on Tuesday and second place Ladywood on Thursday.

HOLY REDEEMER 48, ST. AGATHA 34: The young Aggies are learning how to compete in the tough Catholic League, but the lessons are being learned the hard way.

St. Agatha trailed by three points entering the final quarter, but could score just one basket and three foul shots the rest of the way. Detroit Holy Redeemer outscored the Aggies, 17-5 in that final stanza.

"I started a real young team tonight," said Aggie coach Jim Murphy. "I started two freshmen, two sophomores and a junior. They just wore down in the fourth quarter. They (Redeemer) outplayed us."

Sue Relcha led St. Agatha with 10 points. Dee Dadabbo had 19 and Linda Tennant 16 for Redeemer.

The Aggies are now 2-10 on the season.

Bentley takes impressive prerregional win over CC

By Paul King
special writer

Jeff Wilkinson recorded his seventh shutout of the season as Livonia Bentley upset Redford Catholic Central 2-0 in state pre-regional boys soccer action Friday afternoon.

The win enables the Bulldogs (9-3-4) to advance to regional semifinal play against crosstown rival Livonia Churchill.

After a scoreless first half, Bentley took the lead for good when Keith Archambault poked in a loose ball in the CC crease. Dennis Patchett drew the only assist on the goal six minutes into the second half. Just four minutes later, however, the Bulldogs would have some insurance, courtesy of Patchett.

The junior netted his 15th goal of the season when he beat CC goalie Pat Stocker with a penalty kick. Meanwhile, the CC offense was stagnated as the Shamrocks could muster only 10 shots for the game at Wilkinson.

The Bulldogs kept the pressure on Stocker most of the afternoon especially in the second half, when they peppered him with 16 of their 21 total shots.

The loss ended the season for the Shamrocks, which finished at 10-4-3.

NOTRE DAME 3, GARDEN CITY 1: The Irish used two goals by Matt Bergtold to beat Garden City and advance to regional semifinal play.

The Cougars, in only their second year of varsity soccer, finished the season with a fine 13-2-0 mark.

The Irish, which did all their scoring in opening half, got started on a goal by Mike Puchalski. Paul Pummill brought the Cougars even when he netted his 29th goal of the year with assists going to Andy Muglia and Ramon Escobar. That's when Bergtold took over.

STEVENSON 9, ANDOVER 0: It was a field day for the Spartans as they rolled to the next round behind three goals from Dan Divens. Not to be outdone, teammates Eric Pence, Rob Costanza and John Gelmlist each added two goals each.

Terry Harshfield had an easy night in the nets as he registered his eighth shutout of the year.

On Wednesday, Stevenson upped their record to 15-2-1 as they blanked Farmington Harrison, 5-0. Pence had another big day with three goals while teammate John Gelmlist added two giving him 24 on the year.

Hawk goalie Kelly Burningham was heroic in defeat, stopping 45 Stevenson shots.

CHURCHILL 4, FRANKLIN 1: Churchill won the battle of Livonia Friday, breaking open a close 2-1 game to advance to the next round.

After the Patriots opened the scoring, Churchill evened matters when Phil Lussier beat goalie Brian Terski on a penalty kick. Ray Glasso then put the Chargers in front to stay with his sixth goal of the year.

Senior John Neff rounded out the scoring with two second half goals for the Chargers.

FARMINGTON 2, GRAND BLANC 1: The shots were even, but Mario Said's two goals were the difference as Farmington advanced.

Falcon goalie Mark Pingree, meanwhile, stopped 15 Bobcat shots. The win upped Farmington's overall record to 8-6-3.

Wednesday also belonged to Said, as he tallied two goals and added two assists as the Falcons beat Livonia Franklin, 5-1, on their home turf. Doug Prince also helped the Falcon cause with two goals.

CANTON 3, A.A. PIONEER 1: Pioneer took the early lead but Canton roared back with three second half goals to get the pre-regional win.

Tom Wright started the Chiefs scoring run at the 10 minute mark. Brian Whiteley and Steve Morell soon followed as the Chiefs went over .500 at 7-6-0.

ANDOVER 5, N. FARMINGTON 0: It was a big day for Andover, which was led by forwards John Artz and Chris Tennant, who each scored two goals.

Raider goalie Dan McCarthy stopped 15 of 20 Baron shots but lacked support from the offense.

Rock cagers smother Churchill

Plymouth Salem's tough man-to-man defense smothered Livonia Churchill Thursday in a Western Lakes girls' basketball crossover game, 31-16.

The Rocks, 11-3 overall, forced the Chargers, 5-9, into a perimeter shooting game.

Fran Whittaker led Salem with 11 points and Pam McBride added six. Patti Schmidt and Tracy Greenwald combined for half of Churchill's 16 points.

The loss gives Churchill a 5-9 overall record.

NORTH FARMINGTON 60, THURSTON 23: The Northwest Suburban League (NSL) leaders opened up a comfortable 23-2 first quarter lead and never looked back Thursday.

North is now 11-1 overall and 6-0 in league play, while Thurston drops to 1-12 and 0-6.

Amy Austin, who played just one half, led the winners with 18 points, 11 rebounds and four assists.

Sophomore Laina Shaw and junior Isley Butlers (off the bench) contributed 10 points each.

Thurston was led by Rose Scerri, who scored nine.

JOHN GLENN 61, REDFORD UNION 45: The Rockets outscored visiting RU 24-6 in the opening period and that was enough in an NSL clash Thursday.

Sophie Castonguay paced the winners with 15 points. Cheryl Dozier added 13 and Daria Bergman scored 10 and contributed 10 rebounds.

Julie Marchand tallied 11 and controlled the boards for RU, despite game-long foul trouble.

Gail Lanyon, who scored 10 points, Marchand and Lisa Vial all fouled out.

"They came back," said RU coach Terri Anthony. "That was the big thing. We got within four. It's not as bad as the score indicates."

"We couldn't overcome that first quarter."

Glenn is 10-3 and 4-2, while RU fell to 7-6 and 2-4.

FRANKLIN 51, GARDEN CITY 27: The Patriots exploded in the second half using a fast-paced attack, outscoring the visiting Cougars 29-9.

Sue Johnson led the assault with a game-high 11 points. Sophomore Tracy Letcka chipped in with 10, while Jill Phillips and Carolyn Smith each tallied eight.

Wayne State U. to hold the line on tuition rates

Wayne State University President David Adamany recommended that the governing board "hold the line" on tuition costs for the rest of this academic year. The board is due to meet Friday, 28.

"I am recommending that the board of governors approve tuition rates for the rest of this academic year at the same levels as last year."

"Gov. Blanchard and the legislature have given us some relief. Our enrollment has held steady, and our fund-raising efforts are approximately 30 percent above last year's figures."

"These have put Wayne State University on a firmer financial footing, and I believe our students are the first ones who should benefit," said Adamany.

"AS AN URBAN university, many of our students come from economically disadvantaged circumstances. More than one quarter of college students in America come from homes where parental income is $35,000 or more. Only 10 percent of Wayne students come from these comfortable backgrounds."

"More than 75 percent of the student body works. In the current recession, their ability to find good jobs that will support high tuition costs has been reduced."

"Students applying for financial aid come from families that are able to provide only about half as much support as is provided by parents of other Michigan college students," Adamany concluded.

MICHELLE TITTRAN, a third-year law student from Troy and president of the law school student board of governors, said, "I've been going to school for seven years, and this is the first year that tuition has not been raised."

"It's good to know that the board of governors and the university administration is doing whatever they can to hold costs down. It's good to know that they're paying attention to us and that they care."

Before the tuition freeze this fall, WSU tuition ranked third in the U.S. among public research universities in average tuition for full-time resident undergraduates.

Tuition rates are: undergraduate lower division (30 hours) — $1,760 annual; undergraduate upper division (30 hours) — $2,000 annual; graduate (master's) (24 hours) — $2,048 annual; graduate (PhD) (16 hours) — $1,392 annual.

BOARD OF Governors Chair Michael Einbeuser said, "I am pleased that Wayne State University is taking a leadership role in calling a halt to rising tuition rates."

"Over the last nine years, undergraduate tuition rates have risen approximately 150 percent and more than 100 percent at the graduate level. I am confident that the other members of the board of governors will join me next week in supporting President Adamany's recommendation."

Joe Bondi, president of WSU's Student Council from St. Clair Shores, expressed relief that tuition rates would remain at the same levels. "It means a lot. Most of my friends are holding down jobs and watching their nickels and dimes so they can get a college education. This eases the pressure," Bondi said.

Joanna Cassidy and Nick Nolte find romance and danger as American journalists caught up in Nicaragua's civil war in "Under Fire."

the movies
Louise Snider

Involved audience responds vocally at 'Under Fire'

This is not a movie that leaves one neutral. At the end of the screening, the audience was very loud and very positive in its approval. Shouts of "liberty" rose above the applause. The movie that prompted this reaction is "Under Fire" (R), a tension-filled, political thriller.

The time is 1979. The place is Nicaragua. The event is the overthrow of the dictatorship of Anastasio Somoza by the Sandinista revolutionaries.

Journalists, like predatory animals on the track of prey, have poured into the country in anticipation of the carnage.

Nick Nolte, Joanna Cassidy and Gene Hackman are three Americans covering the civil war. Nolte is Russell Price, a photographer. His cameras hang from his neck like appendages and go with him wherever he goes. And whatever the situation — while being shot at, while at a party, even right after making love — he keeps up a rapid-firing sequence with his camera. Hackman (Alex) and Cassidy (Claire) are reporters.

THE THREE HAVE come to Nicaragua from Chad, where they were neutral onlookers of another war. They got their stories, sent back their photos and found time for romance.

Alex and Claire were lovers, but when they left Chad, they split. He wanted to unpack, settle down and take on an anchorman's spot with a television station in New York. She wanted to keep moving. He leaves and Russell moves in.

However, as Russell and Claire cover this war, things happen that change them. They begin losing their objectivity and detachment. Instead of just photographing and reporting events, they let their sympathies for the rebels lead them to involve themselves.

"I don't take sides. I just take pictures," Russell says when he arrives in Nicaragua. By the time he leaves, he's doing both. He's making the news and reporting it.

If Russell is moved, so is the movie audience. The movie is very effective in conveying the horror of war for the civilian population, whether in cities or villages. From one street to another, one vegetable patch to another, there is chaos. No one knows who is in control, who is firing shots, what places are safe, what roads are drivable.

"UNDER FIRE" WAS filmed in Mexico and has a very authentic look to it. It's fast-moving and superbly edited and photographed. It captures the immediacy of the news photographer on the scene of dramatic action.

Nolte is the single most effective and dominating character in the movie. Cassidy is an attractive and moderately credible sidekick. Hackman, unfortunately, doesn't develop any depth to his role. He seems less a real character and more a mere device for setting up the movie's climactic ending.

Ed Harris distinguishes himself as a mercenary who scarcely knows what side he's fighting for. At one time, in Chad, he actually gets mixed up and joins the wrong troops.

People might find fault with the movie's portrayal of the good guys (Sandinistas) vs. the bad guys (Somoza's forces). But whatever has transpired since the Sandinistas took power, in 1979 they were the good guys. I have yet to hear anyone find anything good to say about Somoza.
