THE JOHN GLENN high school football stadium will move up a notch this fall, matching the first-class performance of the team that plays in it.

The Wayne-Westland school board last week approved construction of a new press box at Irma Kionka Stadium.

The press box will be built with $53,610 in bond issue money. (A $12.9 million bond issue for building repairs and equipment purchases was approved by district voters in January, 1988.) Completion of the project is expected by Sept. 1 and in case of delays, the current press box won't be demolished until the new one is finished.

The new press box will feature an improved public address system, school officials said Monday.

The current PA setup, with two small speakers on top of the press box, often isn't heard by fans on the far side of the fleid.

Private schools to use Ford center

By Tedd Schnelder staff writer

Students from two parochial schools will be using the Ford Vocational/Technical Center this fall.

The Wayne-Westland school board Monday approved pilot agreements to accept tuition students from Lutheran High School in Westland and Cabrini High School in Allen Park at the center on Marquette, east of Newburgh. The board also renewed similar contracts with the Allen showing that we're a member of the Park and Northville public school districts.

The new agreements mark the first time the center will be used by private school students.

Edwin Ferguson, vocational/technical center principal, said Friday he expects a total of 12-15 students from the two private schools will be enrolled at the center for the fall semester.

"I think what's important is we're community at large," Ferguson said. The center can benefit from those outside the Wayne-Westland Community School District as well as inside, and that includes private

"BESIDES, A number of students who attend Lutheran High actually live in the district," he said.

The center also attracts students from the Crestwood and North Allen Park-Melvindale school districts. The majority of its estimated 1,800 students this fall will come from the Wayne-Westland district.

Some 166 students from outside districts were enrolled at the center in 1988-89, according to fourth Friday attendance figures turned in to the state.

Tom Svitkovich, associate superintendent for communications and finance, told the board Monday that declining enrollment at the high school level opens up more spaces at the center for other students.

"I don't see where you're going to have a problem with our students getting bumped to make room for outsiders," he said. The contracts with other schools also stiplulate that the intent isn't to displace Wayne-Westland students to make room for students from outside the district.

Shop owner continues fight for legislation

Joe Gagnon, self-dubbed "The Appliance Doctor," slept poorly last week in anticipation of state hearings to regulate the appliance repair industry, which Gagnon maintains is dilking" consumers of some $50 million annually.

The hearings, held Tuesday in Lansing by the House Consumer Committee, are the latest and most significant round in a fight started four years ago by Gagnon, owner of Carmack Maytag Appliance Center on Ford near Venoy.

Gagnon, a Westland resident who appears on a cable television show to discuss appliance services, said the hearings were successful, "in that the committee had a chance to listen to the pros and cons of the issue." Under consideration are House

Bills 4947 and 4948, introduced by state Rep. Perry Bullard, D-Ann Arbor, requiring the licensing of all service dealers and repairmen, and establishing registration fees.

HB 4947 lists seven conditions under which the state Department of Licensing and Regulation might impose penalties on dealers or servicemen, including making false or misleading statements, performing incompetent or negligent work and willfully departing from or disregarding accepted trade standards."

Gagnon is confident both proposals will be enacted into law.

RALPH PARRY, owner of Sands Appliance in Farmington Hills, is equally certain there "isn't a chance" of enactment because such legislation "is not needed."

"Michigan has one of the toughest consumer protection laws in the country," he said.

Joe Gagnon wants regulation

"Small claims court works very well. There is the Better Business Bureau and the Attorney General's office" as ways consumers can get

And, he added, "87 percent of all consumers are satisfied with the service they receive," quoting a recent survey conducted by Wayne State University and the Detroit News.

"The only fraud (in the repair industry) I've ever read about was engineered by one man and he's the only reason this legislation has been suggested in the first place," Parry said of Gagnon's campaign.

State Rep. Nick Ciaramitaro, D-Detroit, who chairs the House Committee on Consumers, said "our purpose is to figure out answers, see if there is a need and what is the most effective approach.

What's wrong when cash not credit, raises distrust

· I DID IT again.

Created a commotion. Threw a public fit. Embarrassed my family. And it's all my mother-in-law's

The check-cashing policies of modern businesses have often been a topic of discussion in our family and a major irritant to me.

Over the years, as I have paid for assorted purchases with personal checks, I have been photographed, thumb-printed, asked for the name and telephone number of my employer and in whose name our family telephone is listed.

All this, of course, in addition to the obligatory presentation of a driver's license and two major credit cards.

I understand the problems that businesses - particularly large operations — have with rubber checks. But the presumption is that we are all crooks unless we can prove other- ing. wise.

IT WAS MY mother-in-law, however, who was subjected to the ultimate hassle in attempting to pay a

She and my father-in-law had stopped for the night at a motel on their way to Florida. When the clerk asked how they were going to pay for the room, she said, "Cash."

The reason, he told the m-i-l politely in response to her less-thanpolite demand for an explanation, was as simple as it was cynical. If she paid with a credit card, the motel would have a record of her name and address. But if she paid cash,

The implication was clear. She was not to be trusted. What the motel management expected her to do was uncertain, but whatever it was, they wanted to be able to find her after she did it.

She was not pleased, and she let the young man behind the counter

THAT'S WHAT was going through my mind as my family and I checked in to a motel a couple of weeks ago for a one-night mini-vacation.

"Cash," I said, in response to the clerk's question. I handed him some bills and braced myself, ready to go into a tirade about not being a crook and getting fed up with being treated like one.

But instead, he smiled, shoved a key across the desk and said. "You're in Room 36." That was it. No hassle. No request for ID. Noth-

"So," I thought to myself, "I must look more trustworthy than the m-i-1." I'd suspected that for a long time.

When we got to the room, however, my wife suggested that the real reason I was not asked for identification was that she had used a credit card when she made the motel reservation. Even though we paid cash, the management already had an official record of who we were.

Maybe. I still liked the notion that I had an honest face.

AT DINNER in the motel dining room that evening, I asked the wait-"I'm not writing a check," she er if I could sign the check and settle up at the desk the next day. No prob-

Back in the room a few minutes later, my wife answered the tele-

"You have to go to the desk right now and pay for the dinner," she said as she hung up. "Something about using cash."

"What?" I demanded in a rather loud voice. "We only allow one method of payment, sir," the clerk said. "If you had used a credit card for the room, you could sign your dinner check. But since you paid cash up front for the room, you have to pay cash for everything."

That's when I threw my public fit. I railed on and on about business people treating customers like criminals, about the stupidity of checkcashing policies being exceeded only by the mindless distrust of people who paid cash, about such policies serving to drive customers away, etc. It was a good, if unsuccessful,

And all the while I had in my head an image of the m-i-l, standing fuming and snarling in another motel lobby and fumbling for her driver's license in order to be allowed to pay a bill with U.S. currency.

I knew exactly how she felt. But I still think I look more trustworthy.

Women rights being ignored

To the editor:

Soon after the Webster Decision on July 3 the Observer & Eccentric came out with a general statement that they support a woman's right to "choose" abortion. But does the Observer & Eccentric support women having informed consent? (The dangers of the surgery explained prior to the abortion and the truth told about the developing baby inside her womb?)

Does the Observer & Eccentric support a knowledgeable decision on the subject, or do they only support the decision to terminate unborn life? If the Observer & Eccentric was truly in favor or women's rights, they would be in favor of them receiving all the facts, the ability to make a truly knowledgeable choice.

The Observer & Eccentric wouldn't stop at a fair article of the above mentioned and pictures of a developing baby in utero; it would investigate the many tragadies at the Livonia abortion mills.

Why did late last fall an ambulance take away a patient? When called and asked, this mill was more concerned about if I was a lawyer or if I was working for one. When asked about why the abortionist had no malpractice insurance for his last two medical malpractice lawsuits, the mill worker refused to answer. All of this abortionist's assets are in his wife's name. This sure would make it hard for an injured victim to get one cent out of him.

What is the city of Livonia's role in this industry? Are there city ordinances that govern these abortionaries? If not, why not?

Mayor Robert Bennett and City Council, don't fool yourselves. Just because it's the law of the land doesn't mean your hands are tied. Just because it's legal, doesn't mean

The mills in Livonia have no license to practice by the state. If the state doesn't check on them, Livonia, you have to.

The Observer & Eccentric owes women the truth and the city of Livonia government must protect women. Even the staunchest, most left-wing radical feminest must agree with me that a male abortionist with 15-plus, medical related malpractice lawsuits and no malpractice insurance is just a continuance of males exploiting women for profit, like the Observer & Eccentric and this city and state government by its lack of action.

Opposed to Domino trip

To the editor:

(An open letter to the Livonia Board of Education):

I am writing to voice my objection over the choice of Domino Farms as a field trip experience for the schoolage child care program this summer. My two sons, Geoffrey and Alexander, are part of this group who are currently at Bentley High

The reasons for my strong opposition to this trip are:

1. Tom Monaghan has revoked a permit to the Ann Arbor NOW Chapter to use the "Farms" because Mr. Monaghan says "they support abortion." Americans have the right to their views. Mr. Monaghan has rented this facility to area groups as a fund-raising event. He has let Right to Life, the Boy Scouts, and other groups use this "community" facility. Facilities should not ban those who hold opposing views.

2. Tom Monaghan donated more than $500,000 to the Catholic Church in Rome while doing little for the Catholics of Detroit who support his businesses. He has done nothing for those Detroit parishoners who aretrying desperately to keep their churches open after their closings by

As a member of Mothers Against Drunk Driving who devotes time and energy to keeping streets safe for our children, I cannot condone giving money to a robe! pizza king who cares more about 30minute deliveries than saving lives on our streets.

4. Using public school transportation and funding to visit Domino Farms is not in our children's best interest. I have tried to teach our children that their consumer power is reflected in the businesses they patronize. For this reason, many of the "treats" in the grocery aisles are "off limits" because the corporation has environmentally harmful policies or manufactures cigarettes.

I hope you can find field trip alternatives for Aug. 23, 1989. The fact that my own children will not be attending this trip does not resolve the issue that Livonia Public Schools should not be giving Mr. Monaghan

View given on lost toddler

To the editor:

Thursday, July 17, at 7:30 in the morning, I went to get in my car to go to work. In the street in front of my house I found a toddler about 11/2 years old, dressed in his pyjamas, with no one else around.

Running up and down the street, I took him to a of couple houses down where it looked like he may have walked away from. There, a nice woman answered the door, dressed in her robe and slippers. She, too, had never seen the baby before. She called the police while I went to work.

The officer was there in about 10 minutes. He sat in the car and had the woman dressed in her robe and slippers go house to house. The baby belonged to no one on the street. The woman had to hand the baby through the car door window. The officer didn't even open the door to take the baby. She had to partially fold the baby in half. Then the policeman drove off with the baby standing up, 3. During 1988, drivers for Dominot even buckled in the seat.

> 1. How in the heck does a baby walk off that way without someone noticing he's gone?

diet, nutrition, and arthritis. Medical opinion at that time concluded that a good diet was a good arthritis diet. Since then, two questions have arisen on diet and arthritis. One is: can arthritis be caused by a food allergy? Several studies looked into this possibility. One involved 20 patients who thought that their arthritis was caused by specific foods. Another investigation followed 33 patients with arthritis using elimination diets- withholding dairy products and milk. No patients in either study showed a relationship between their arthritis and their det.

The second question is: can the use of fish oils prevent or treat arthritis. The theory is that the fish oils would substitute in the body for a chemical, prosteglandin, which causes inflammation. However, studies to date show that fish oil, even when taken at the highest tolerable amount, has little effect on flares, activity, or remissions of joint pain and swelling.

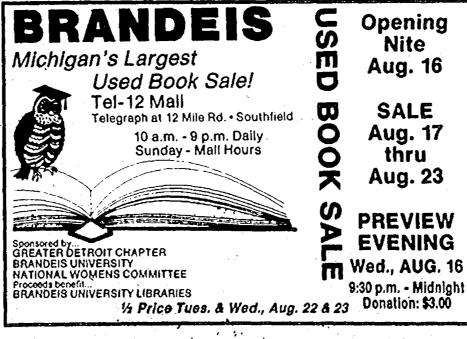

Nor has any information come forth that would give credence to assertions that taking extra vitamins, using selinium, avoiding meat, or eating only fish will treat staff writer Detroit Mayor Coleman A. Young's message last Thursday to the 200 persons who heard him speak at the Mayflower Meeting House was simple but powerful.

The big city and its suburbs are dependent on one another and need to emphasize the commonalities between each, not the differences.

During his opening remarks, Young said of Detroit and the suburbs, "There is a mutual dependence between us that far outweights any differences we have."

Reaction among those in the audience after the mayor's speech was generally positive.

"Impressive," said Plymouth fire chief Al Matthews. "It was the first time I've heard him speak, and I was very impressed. I think he has some very good ideas."

Said Kay Arnold of Plymouth, "I felt it was very positive. It made us aware that we do connect with the city. I felt he gave us all a lot to think about regarding education being the responsibility not of each city, but for all of us as parents and taxpayers."

YOUNG TOUCHED on a variety of subjects, including the impact of technology on the demise of the auto industry and Detroit, and its part in the growth of the suburbs.

Young called on suburban and Detroit leaders to work together to ensure the future of the auto industry in metro Detroit and to help lure industry back to Michigan.

By doing that, he said, Detroit and its suburbs would benefit and be able to better compete with the onslaught of foreign corporations that have eptered auto and other hi-tech indus-

The suburban stretch between Detroit and Ann Arbor, he said, also has the potential to be the next great hitech corridor in America. Detroit and its suburbs should work together toward this goal, first by setting up a mass transportation system along that route and then developing outlying areas. Young offered two solutions to crime - education and jobs.

BY PROVIDING a stronger educational system and luring jobs back to the city, the crime rate would slowly decline. He also said that providing education for future generations should be a state-wide responsibility, not the burden of individual school districts.

Mary Roehr, executive director of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce, said, "I think that he's a master at speaking and sizing up his audience and he came across as very genuine.

"I think there were some good questions that focused on the issues, and I think having him come to the surrounding communities furthers all our goals," she said. "And I do agree with him, that what affects Detroit affects us and vice versa." "He was very smooth," said John Stewart, a lawyer and Plymouth Township trustee. "He presented a thorough picture of what condition he thought Detroit is in. I'm very impressed that the guy gave an 18-minute speech with no notes. I was a little surprised at his emphasis on economics being the answer to many problems."

Not everyone was taken by Young's visit.

"I think the mayor needs to spend more time building a sense of commitment in his own city," sald William Joyner, a public relations exec-

Herb lady tells how she began

Occasionally in this business, I cross paths with other foodies who, like myself, enjoy playing in the kitchen. We swap recipes, stories and techniques over the phone, standing in line at the supermarket and in the strangest of places.

I met Diane Steinhauer of Westland one afternoon while she was volunteering as a room mother in her daughter's kindergarten class. Seems that in addition to helping out at school, she also makes time for a family of five while helping out as volunteer for the herb study group at Matthaei Gardens in Ann Arbor. She also has a 10-by-50-foot herb and vegetable garden at home and is involved in countless other activities.

An active member of the American Herb Society, Steinhauer tends to more than 150 assorted herbs in her own backyard. She can also be seen tending to the herb and botanical gardens at Matthaei. This summer, she will attend the national conference for the American Herb Society, which is hosting noted cookbook author and herbologist Sol Gilbertie.

Anyone who has more than 150 herbs in a garden is, in my book, a self-appointed herbologist. Steinhauer's garden runs the gamut of her Westland backyard, creeping down the sides of the house toward the street. She claims her garden is more experimental than functionary.

THE PLOTS ARE laid out in Chinese fashion, using raised beds. The herbs are used mainly for culinary purposes, with a few. of the more fragrant varieties being raised for craft purposes.

Steinhauer claims she became hooked on herbs when she first sampled fresh tomatoes laced with a basil vinaigrette. In addition, many of her herbs end up in favorite soups and stews, salads and homemade vinegars and oils. . The herb lady says she began expanding her herb garden because, "It provokes all of the senses." She likes the texture of the leaves, the smell of the flowers, the assorted tastes, and the sounds of the birds and insects

She has observed wild finches, hummingbird moths and swallowtail butterfly caterpillars, in addition to thousands of butterflies and birds who partake of her herbal delights.

that flock to the garden during the summer growing season.

The wildlife is not the only thing to benefit from Steinhauer's green thumb. She and her husband, Curt, spent their honeymoon canning tomatoes for the cellar. The Steinhauer kids, Geoffrey, 13; Maren, 9, and Alexis, 6 notice that Mom has become almost a permanent fixture around Hayes School.

For daughter Alexis' sixth birthday, Mom brought in a Peter Rabbit book and went through all the herbs Peter enjoyed while hopping through the enchanted forest. The class then feasted on parsley dip, fresh vegetables and chamomile tea, just as Peter Rabbit did in the book.

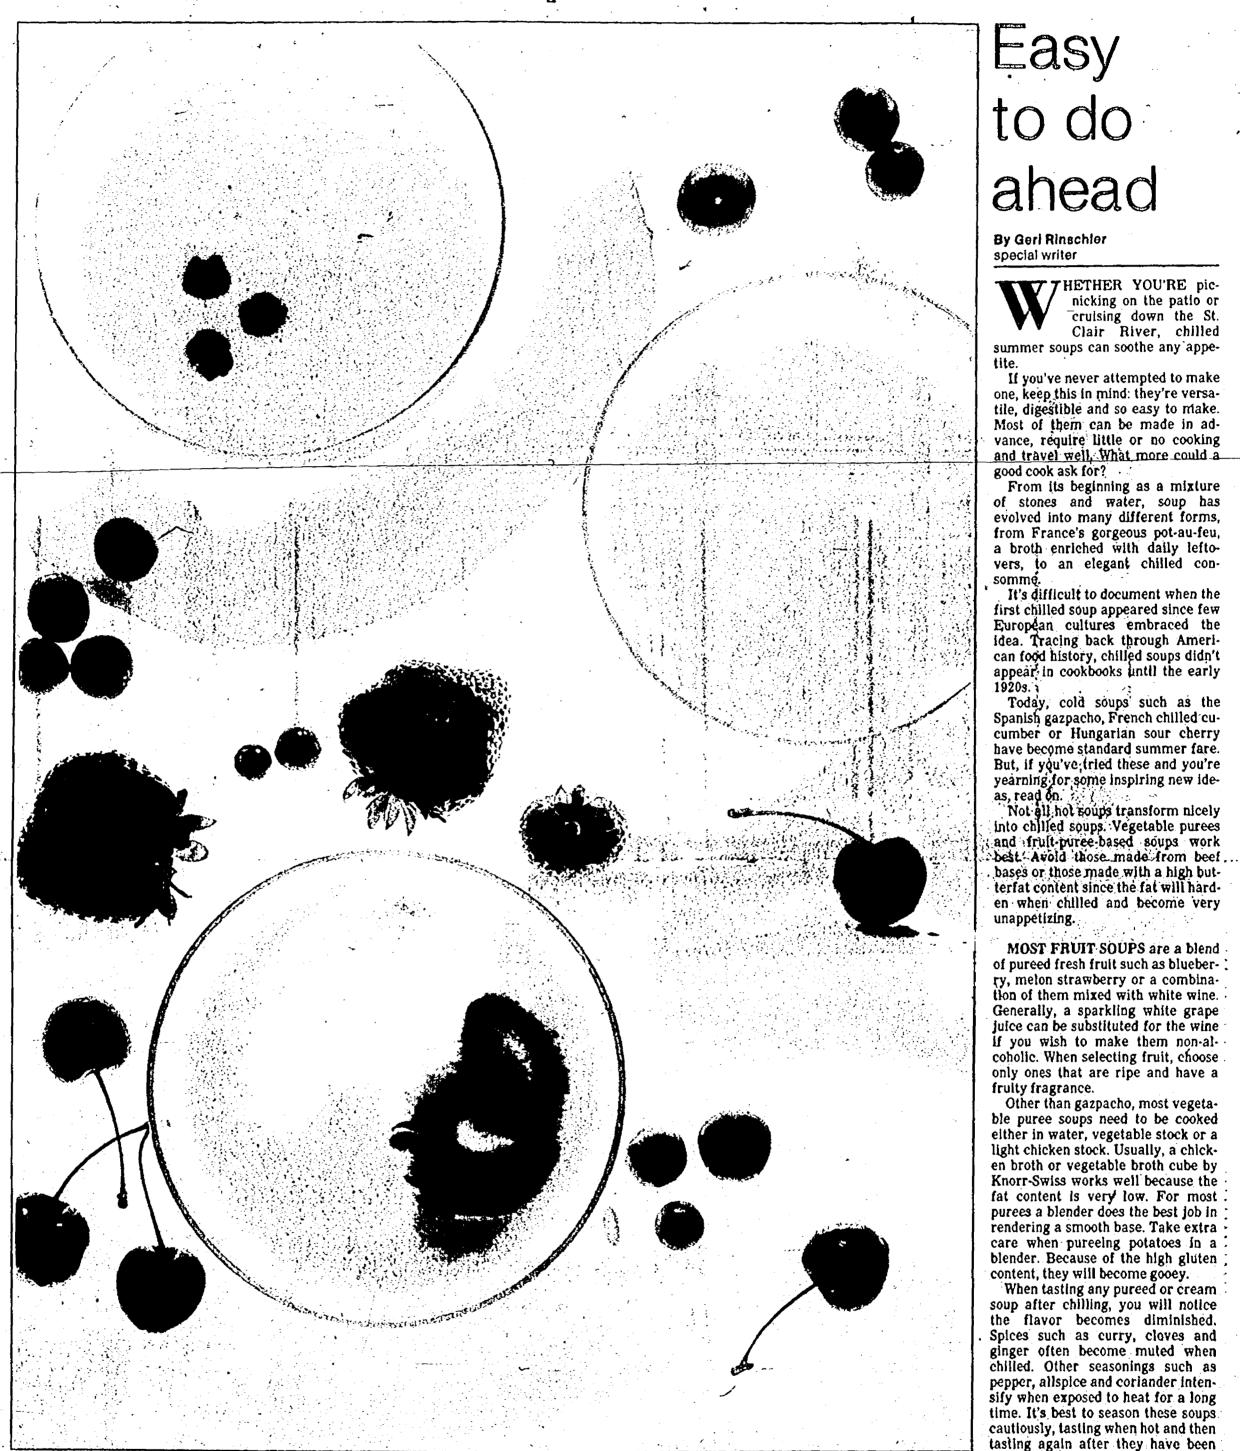

IN ADDITION, the Steinhauer family has successfully planted a pizza and salad garden at Hayes School, consisting of tomatoes, basil, peppers and assorted salad fixings. In all, when harvest time approaches, Steinhauer will find herself tossing pizza, stirring sauce and assembling salads for hungry 4th and 6th graders who, unknowingly, will get a lesson on herbs and vegetables while enjoying the bounty.

Talk about being wrapped up in her hobby, Steinhauer also volunteers and maintains the formal herb gardens at the beautiful Matthaei Gardens. She assigns study topics to the various coordinators and helps with tours. She is very active in the fall herb and bulb sale and fundralser at Matthaei.

Steinhauer is quick to point out that this year's sale will feature an amateur flower and plant show, in addition to a kitchen cupboard sale of homemade vinegars, oils and dried wreathes.

Health facts vs. fiction

Since the ancient days, people have wanted to believe that certain foods hold special curative properties and powers. At one time, it was believed that garlic would give you added strength and that eating chocolate would prolong life.

Wouldn't it be great if that were the truth? No more steroids for athletes, and we'd all live forever.

More and more scientific studies show there is a relationship between the diet people consume and the incidence of the leading diseases.

Take care about products, with health claims when choosing a particular breakfast cereal to avoid cancer, or eating a certain oat bran to lower cholesterol, or fish-oil capsules to protect you against heart disease and on and on.

To the degree that low-fat oat products replace fatty items in a healthy diet, the value increases. Oat bran is only as good as your entire dietary pattern.

Eating quantities of oat muffins will add to the fiber in your diet; however it also will add lots of unwanted calories.

Having a "fiber fest" everyday by eating a high-fiber breakfast cereal will prevent cancer. If it were only that simple.

The best way to ensure you're getting beta-carotene daily is to eat an orange or yellow-colored fruit or vegetable or a dark green vegetable.

Adding fish to the diet can also be beneficial to one's health. Fish are lower in fat than foods that come from animals, and they contain a wide variety of nutrients.

Inexpensive fish that contain the now famous Omega-3 fatty acids include canned mackerel, sardines and herring. Canned salmon and white meat albacore tuna are also good

Microwave chicken dijon

AP - Yes, you can enjoy microwave oven-fried chicken and still get a crisp coating. It's not quite as crispy as pan-fried but much lower in fat and more health-

The secret? Coat only the meaty side of each piece and cook meaty side up. That way there's no coating on the bottom to absorb juices and become soggy. Cover with paper towels - not a cover, plastic wrap or waxed paper - so moisture can escape.

MICROWAVE CHICKEN DIJON 1 tablespoon margarine or butter 14 cup fine dry seasoned bread crumbs 1 tablespoon dried parsley flakes 1/2 teaspoon paprika

2 whole medium chicken breasts (12 ounces each), skinned and halved lengthwise Ltablespoon Dijon-style mustard

For coating, in a 1-cup measure cook margarine, uncovered, on 100 percent power (high) for 30 to 40 seconds or until melted. In a small mixing bowl combine bread crumbs, parsley flakes and paprika. Toss with melted butter.

Rinse chicken pieces and pat dry. On waxed paper brush pieces with mustard. Dip each piece into crumb mixture, coating the meatier side and leaving the other side uncoated. In a microwave-safe 8by-8-by-2-inch baking dish arrange pieces, coated side up, on a rack, with meaty portions toward edges of the dish.

Cover with paper towels. Cook on high for 8-10 minutes or until no pink remains, giving the dish a half-turn every 3 minutes. Makes 4

HERBAL CAMOMILE TEA 10 tablespoons flower heads of chamomile

4 cups fresh water, brought to rolling boil

Toss in the herbs (2 tablespoons fresh or 1 tablespoon 1 cup heavy or whipping cream dry). Add the water and allow the salt and pepper to taste tea to "steep" for about 5 minutes. Strain the herbs as soon as the tea reaches desired strength. Serve with Chop fine. In a heated saucepan, add honey, lemon, orange slices or fresh herb sprigs. To make iced tea, follow the same procedure, using 3 table- chicken stock and simmer for 10 spoons of fresh herbs per one cup of water. The extra allows for melting processor and process until pureed.

Madhur Jaffrey's Cookbook: hasy East/West Menus for Famny and Friends," Madhur Jaffrey, Harper & Row, 1989, $22.50.

The one and only time I met Madhur Jaffrey was in the summer at 15. We were both enrolled in a boking class taught by James Beard smulled "Tasting." Along with other mtable cooks in the class, Jaffrey *as introduced as the author of the wokoook "An Invitation to Indian Cooking," as well as an actress and friend of Beard's.

During one of the lectures on "seasonings. Beard remarked that Jafrrev caught him to grind all cooking spices such as fennel seeds, allspice and cinnamon just before using them Later that summer I took nen advice and ground some cinnamion pieces in an old electric cofree grinder. Jaffrey was right. The difference was phenomenal.

Jaffrey's latest book is "Madhur Jaifrey's Cookbook: Easy East/West Menus for Family and Friends." And it's just what the title implies, a personar collection of her favorite recipes. Although she is regarded to be the cooking authority of Indian food, most of what she prepares are dishes tion Mexico, Korea, Japan and the inited States.

The editors of Jaffrey's book sum us ner cooking style beautifully in the introduction: "When a woman troin India who has lived in Europe marries a man from America whose tather comes from Kentucky -- exour things are bound to happen."

Recipes throughout the book are intriguing, appetizing and healthy Most of them are simple to prepare and use ingrequents which can easily be found in the grocery store or health food markets. Reading through recipes such as Spley Chick- 1 egg, lightly beaten

The majority of the recipes are written to serve four-six people. The menus are grouped into chapters corlander (Chinese parsley) based on the ingredients of the main dish such as fish, chicken or meat. There are few dessert recipes among them are cookies and a devil's food cake - most of them contain fruit.

This is a refreshing, innovative cookbook with tasty dishes for summer cooking as well as hearty ones for the winter.

After all this, if you're still yearning to try some Indian food, "A Taste of India, Madhur Jaffrey's Far East Cookery" will be arriving in bookstores in September.

Following is a recipe from East/West Menus for Family and Friends.

GOLDEN SESAME CORN BREAD

1 cup all-purpose flour 3 tablespoons sugar 4 teaspoons baking powder

½ teaspoon salt 1 cup plain yogurt lightly beaten

4 cup milk

hot green chilles, very finely chopped (with seeds) 2 teaspoons very finely grated, peeled, fresh ginger 2 tablespoons chopped, fresh green

Preheat the oven to 400 degrees. Pour 1 tablespoon oil into an 8inch-square metal cake pan and heat over a medium-low flame. When very hot, put in the mustard seeds. As soon as they begin to pop, put in the sesame seeds. Stir them about for 10 seconds. Remove the pan from the fire. Spoon out the seeds and put them in a saucer. Some will remain clinging to the pan. This is as it should be; leave them there. Just push what remains toward the bot-

Combine the cornmeal, flour, sug-'Madhur Jaffrey's Cookbook: Easy ar, baking powder and salt in a bowl. Mix slightly. Add yogurt, milk, egg, jalapeno or chilies, ginger, green coriander (Chinese parsley) and 4 tablespoons oil. Stir gently and mix thoroughly.

Spoon the corn bread batter into the cake pan. Scatter the seed mixture from the saucer over the top as evenly as you can. Bake for 25-30 minutes or until golden brown.

This bread is best served straight from the oven. I cut it into squares or thick slices and put them in a bread basket lined and covered with a single large napkin. However, it can be made ahead of time, wrapped in foil and reheated in a 400-degree oven for 10-12 minutes.

Hospitals sue over Medicaid funding

Michigan hospitals are suing the state for what they term inadequate payment on behalf of needy patients. The Michigan Hospital Association filed suit in U.S. District Court last week, charging state and federal Medicaid payments fall short of costs involved in providing care for Medicaid patients. The MHA and its member hospitals allege the state violates federal requirements for adequate reimbursement.

Twelve hospitals are direct parties to the suit. Botsford General Hospital, Farmington Hills, is the only Wayne or Oakland county hospital so involved, though the Southileld-based MHA sald another metropolitan area hospital may be added to the suit.

"HOSPITALS WERE chosen because they represented the average hospital in terms of Medicald payments - not too high above the average, nor too low," MHA spokesman Steven Simmons said.

State park fees to increase through 1995

By Tim Richard staff writer

State park fees will go up by half next year and keep going up through 1995 under a bill on its way to Gov. James Blanchard's desk.

The Michigan Senate last week had to vote twice on the controversial bill before giving it 24-8 approv-

"It's amazing the increase we've had in the state budget in the '80s," said Sen. Doug Cruce, R-Troy, one of the no votes.

"For us to increase fees while the tax base is expanding so rapidly is unthinkable. There should be enough tax revenue to operate the parks," Cruce said in an interview.

THE VEHICLE admissions provide $2.8 million a year for park operations and maintenance, about 20 percent of the operating budget. Here's how fees would rise under House Bill 4681:

• A bigger chunk of the annual permit money would go for park operation and maintenance, a smaller proportion into capital outlay and special maintenance. This is due to voter passage of a $140 million recreational bond issue last year that is to be used solely for capital outlay.

• The Department of Natural Resources could raise fees for camping reservations and camping fees, which are paid on a daily basis over and above vehicle entry fees.

SUPPORTING the bill were Sens. William Faust, D-Westland, Jack Faxon, D-Farmington Hills, and Robert Geake, R-Northville.

Opposed were Cruce, George Hart, D-Dearborn, and Rudy Nichols, R-Waterford.

Richard Fessler, R-Commerce, had an excused absence.

Current fees are "ridiculously low," according to a staff analysis. Meanwhile, staffing is down, tollet facilities are sometimes in disrepair, and stairways are deteriorating.

"The money goes into a special, restricted fund," said Sen. Phil Arthurhultz, R-Whitehall. "It is used for day-to-day operations rangers, trucks. Fees have not been increased in a number of years. This does not meet inflation.

"The DNR budget is based on this fee increase," said Arthurhultz. --

Debate was brief as senators waded through a stack of budget conference reports in the cramped quarters of a committee room. The Senate chamber has been torn apart during extensive renovations of the State Capitol Building.

Sun bathing — It's for the birds

Summer is indeed the time for bathing. On hot sticky days, or after one has been sun bathing, it feels great to cool off in the show-

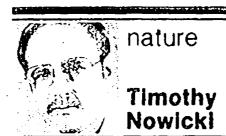

Well, man is not the only animal that bathes. In fact birds do not always use water to bathe with either. We are all familiar with blrds splashing in a shallow puddle formed by the sprinkler. Wetting feathers with water can help control their body heat and help align their feathers.

Birds also sun bathe. On hot sunny days one may see a robin, or cardinal in the yard resting on the ground with its wings outstretchedand head arched downward. It may upper wing extended. This allowed appear that the bird is suffering from heat exhaustion, but it is actually sun bathing.

Sun bathing is believed to force ectoparasites to regions of the body where the bird can easily remove them. Exposing the skin to sunlight may stimulate the production of vitamin D. There is also a strong correlation between molting and sun predation, it stayed in its "tub" for bathing. Sunlight may help to soothe the skin when it is irritated by the replacement of new feath-

SEVERAL species of birds have been reported bathing in the rain and in the dew on leaves. But dust bathing is not as common. Fowl like birds, such as, quail, pheasants, and grouse are those most commonly observed dust bathing.

> Classic Oak Furniture 122 W. Michigan Ave. Downtown

Not long ago I had the opportunity to watch a ruffed grouse dust bathing. Like most birds that dust bath, this individual rocked back and forth to form a slight depression in an old ant mound. It was very deliberate in its movements and would lie on one side with the dust to get into the underwing area.

There were times when it rolled onto its back while rocking and rolling to and fro insuring dust landed everywhere. In between bouts of rocking it would remain still for long periods as if soaking in pleasure. Though this behavior made the bird more vulnerable to about 40 minutes.

The exact function of dust bathing is not known, but it is thought to remove excess lipids from the feathers which are fed upon by feather mites. It may also help fluff the feathers and aid in their alignment.

Ficano mulls options after jail loss

By Wayne Poal staff writer

Wayne County Sheriff Robert Ficano said Friday he was mulling his options after last week's Michigan Court of Appeals decision that cost him control of the county jail.

Ficano said he was meeting with his attorneys to determine whether to continue his case before the state Supreme Court in the wake of Thursday's appeals court ruling favoring county Executive Edward McNamara.

"We're weighing our options," Ficano said. "We feel there are constitutional issues involved and we feel this sets a bad precedent. But there through "mismanagement". has been cooperation lately between our office and the executive."

The state appeals court upheld chief Wayne County Circuit Judge Richard Kaufman's Feb. 16 ruling awarding the jail to McNamara under terms of a 1971 prisoner lawsuit.

In March, the state Supreme Court temporarily overruled Kaulman, returning the jail to Ficano pending the appeals court ruling.

IN THAT ruling, Kaufman said the sheriff wasn't doing enough to bring the fail into compliance and had hampered improvements

Ficano, steadfastly denying Kaufman's findings, said he's never received his day in court to properly argue them.

"There's never been a full hearing in open court," Ficano said. "We never had the ability for cross-examination."

A spokesman for the executive's office said McNamara would "move promptly" to assume jail control.

"We're going to move in promptly to clean up the jail and bring the budget into balance," said deputy county executive Michael Duggan.

Former county youth home director Pete Wilson had been administering the jail under an informal agreement between both branches.

While Ficano said he assumed the informal agreement would continue, Duggan said the agreement, "was in effect until the (appeals court) opinion came out."

"We're going to do this in cooperation with the sheriff, but Ed McNamara is the jail administrator," Duggan said. "He's the one who will be reporting to Judge Kauf-

The jail would return to the sheriff, Duggan said, once terms of Kaufman's ruling were met.

Walter's booking trip to Johnstown

By Brad Emons staff writer

"Wallyball" isn't just a cute slogan

Walter's Appliance capped an impressive three-game sweep of the Livonia Collegiate Baseball League playoffs Friday night at Ford Field with a 7-2 victory over Hines Park Lincoln-Mercury.

Pitcher Randy Buchler made his 45-minute ride to the ballpark from his home in Grass Lake a memorable one, winning his second playoff game on a two-hitter. The righthander went the distance, striking out 12 in nine innings, while allowing just two hits and five walks.

But probably the happiest memiber of the Walter's brigade was manager Mike Keller, who after 10 years in the league will be making his first trip to the prestigious All-American Amateur Baseball Association Tournament, beginning Friday, Aug. 11, in Johnstown, Pa.

"This is great, and I'm still shaking inside," said the Livonia manager. "I felt it was 'meant to be' after our last (regular) season game when we beat Little Caesars 1-0. That's the point where we wanted to be. It made us believers."

BUCHLER also made believers out of Hines Park, mixing a variety of off-speed pitches with a lively sidearm fastball to handcuff the opposition. Buchler is no stranger when it comes to winning the big one.

In 1987 he and Walter's catcher Tim Crabtree led Grass Lake High to the Class D state crown. As a freshman this past season at Hillsdale College, he was voted the Great Lakes Conference's most valuable pitcher.

... "He was on the money all night" long," Keller said. "But we also played real good defense.

"We made some excellent plays. It was a team effort. That's the way it's been all season long."

Shortstop Ken Dropiewski, a Wayne Memorial High graduate and a member of the Henry Ford Community College team this past spring, made three sparkling defensive plays on the night to propel Walter's to victory.

And as the Walter's players like to refer to, they hit "plenty of seeds."

The first outburst came in the second inning when Walter's produced five runs.

JOE STURTZ, the left fielder from North Farmington High headed for Indiana University, started the surge with a double and scored on Crabtree's single.

Dropiewski then reached base on an infield hit and advanced on a Hines Park infield error.

With the bases loaded, Jeff Pendell walked to make it 2-0. Marty Wolfe followed by sending a hard smash past Hines Park first baseman Derek Humphries, scoring two more runs. John Gotts' then earned credit for an RBI on a ground out.

Walter's made it 6-0 in the fifth when Dave Houghtby and Sturtz pulled off a double steal with runners at first and third.

Damian Hull then scored Walter's seventh run when Pendell, a Livonia - Hines Park snapped Buchler's

Grazulis learning new game at Olympic Festival

By Brad Emons staff writer

ERHAPS LAURA Grazulis has upstaged the great Bo Jackson. The 22-year-old athlete from Westland can do a little bit of everything and more, as the popular Nike shoe commercial dubs Jackson, the probaseball and football star who has become the man for

At John Glenn High (class of 1985), Grazulis ran cross country and track, played a year of tennis, and stood out in volleyball.

At Tulane (La.) University, Grazulis performed four years on the women's volleyball team and held the javelin record for a month in track (during her senior year).

And now Grazulis has entered a new arena — team_ handball — where last week she played for the South team at the Olympic Sports Festival in Oklahoma City, Okla. (The South competed Sunday for the bronze medal.)

"It's a little bit of basketball, volleyball and some soccer, although you can't actually kick the ball," Grazulis explained. "It's a lot like water polo, only it's on land. It's a lot bigger over in Europe and right now they're trying to create interest over here."

TEAM HANDBALL is played by two sides of seven players (including a goalie) and five substitutes. The object is to score most the goals with attackers passing or dribbling the ball with their hands until a shooting opportunity is created. When a team loses possession it immediately forms a defensive formation around the goal, which is three meters wide by two meters high.

little tired."

"There's quite a bit of contact," said Grazulis. "You can strike a person from throwing the (leather) ball, but there are also two-minute penalties for being too rough. There are also penalty shots taken for flagrant fouls." At 6 feet, 3 inches, Grazulis uses height to her advan-

But she remains a relative novice, having tried three different positions including goalle, circle runner and left back during her stint at the Olympic Festival.

"I'm not sure I'm good at any," chuckled Grazulis. The volleyball coach at Tulane, Dorothy Franco, was instrumental in providing Grazulis a tryout for the Olympic Festival.

"MY COACH was an Olympian in 1984 and because of her I was able to get an invitation," said Grazulis. "Because of my background, she felt I was worth a look."

Considering her athletic history, it's not surprising that Grazulis earned a berth on the team. She comes from an athletic family.

Three of her brothers were college basketball players including 6-9 Paul, who played at Eastern Michigan University, 6-5 Mario, who just finished at Kalamazoo College; and 6-8 Andy, a reserve forward for NCAA Division I tourney qualifier Siena (N.Y.) College.

All three brothers also played tennis at Glenn.

"Everybody thought that I would play basketball in high school," said Laura. "But I ran cross country. It coincided with the basketball season so I couldn't do both. I wanted to run cross country because of track, so I never got into it (basketball) even though everybody thought I should have."

During her senior year at Glenn, Grazulis was one of the area's top distance runners. In the winter she was standout in volleyball.

"It was a fluke that I even got into volleyball," she said.

AFTER GRADUATING, Grazulis was set to run track at Miami of Ohio before a couple of college volleyball coaches intervened during a summer AAU tournament in Chicago.

Convinced her future was in volleyball, coaches from Miami of Florida and Tulane each offered scholarships. Grazulis suddenly changed her mind, enrolling at the New Orleans campus.

But in four years of volicyball at Tulane, she played in relative anonymity.

Because of a national scandal involving the men's basketball program, which was censured by the NCAA, all Tulane athletic teams lost their membership to the Metro Conference. The volleyball team played as an independent ("We didn't have much of a schedule," Grazulls said) and despite two sparkling seasons (28-9 and 32-7), the Green Wave never carned an invitation to the NCAA tournament.

And to make matters worse, the coach who recruited Grazulis, Kathy Trostclair, died of cancer just before

"We lost quite a few girls and the competition got a lot tougher," said Grazulis, who was voted team MVP as a senior. "We did pretty well considering that we only had seven players. We finished 18-11."

WITH A VOLLEYBALL career at an end, Grazulis turned her attention back-fo track where she dabbled in the javelin throw.

"I needed to get into something to keep in shape because I knew I was going to be trying out in team handball," Gražulis said.

If all goes according to plan, Grazulis will graduate from Tulane in December with a degree in sociology. She would like to work for Covenant House, an agency which deals with runaway children. Headquartered in New York, Covenant House has numerous locations throughout the western hemisphere.

Grazulis realizes she has plenty of options. "I'd like to go to Alaska, but there are a lot of other places - South America, Cleveland . . . they even have a branch in New Orleans, but I'll go wherever I'm as-

Meanwhile, Grazulis is unsure about her newly-found team handball career. (The top players from the Olympic Festival will be selected to play for the U.S. Nation-

"I'D LIKE to stick with it because it's fun," she said. "It's a more of an aggressive game than I'm used to, so it's different in that respect.

"It depends how much time I put into it. It isn't easy to get a group together and start playing."

Knowing the multi-talented Grazulis, it appears she can adapt to just about any sport. But can Bo play team handball?

Pitcher a pain in neck for Ohio tourney foes

The tournament might have been over before it got started for the Pat Boyle Chevrolet men's modified fast-pitch softball team.

But it wasn't, and the team rebounded to win the Fostoria Metro League Tournament with a 4-0 record (July 23).

The team and ace pitcher Curtis Richards were nearly dealt an in-'surmountable blow in the first inning of the first game when Richards was felled by a batted ball.

On the fourth pitch to the leadoff batter, Richards was hit on the right side of the neck with a line

After being knocked down and dazed by what could have been a dreadful injury, Richards regained his feet and composure, pitched to the next batter and led Boyle Chevrolet to the title.

"IF I DIDN'T get right back up, I don't know if I ever would have pitched again," said Richards, fearing he would have been gun shy if he bothered to dwell on it.

"I've pitched all my life and never had a ball hit back at me like that. "It puts the fear of God in you."

Pat Boyle defeated Port Huronbased Little Caesars, the defending outstate champion, twice to win the tournament. In the winner's bracket final, Boyle Chevrolet eked out a 7-5 victory and whipped Caesars 9-1 in the rematch.

And it so happens Richards also plays for Little Caesars when he's not pitching for Pat Boyle. The latter is considered his team, and that's the one he chose to play for in the tournament.

"They wanted me bad," said Richards, who survived a 13-hit assault in the first Caesars game and tossed a five-hitter in the second. "They wanted to hit me all over the Richards' teammates did some serious hitting themselves, combining for a .339 team average. Don Dreher finished with a tournament average of .600, Keith McManaway and Rick Dreher .417, Mike Kesson McManaway and Don Dreher 2-for-.385 and Dan Pierce .357.

MCMANAWAY ALSO hit three home runs and led Boyle Chevrolet with nine RBI, and the Drehers had five RBI apiece.

In the second Caesars game, Jeff Campbell was 3-for-4, and Don Dreher, Dave Brubaker, Curt White and Steve Dawson had two hits each as Pat Boyle supported Richards with 14 hits and an 8-0 lead. McManaway belted a solo ho-

But the winners also needed a two-run seventh to stay in the game. Don Dreher's sacrifice fly with the bases loaded and Brubaker's RBI single gave Pat Boyle a 5-4 lead, but Caesars scored a run in the bottom of the seventh and forced the game into extra innings.

In the opening game Saturday, Richards, after recovering from being hit, tossed a four-hitter to beat Express Oil of Port Huron 7-1. Richards allowed only two hits after the first inning and walked only one for the game. McManaway's grand slam highlighted a five-run seventh inning, which Pat Boyle entered with a 2-1 lead. Kesson had two hits, Dan Pierce had an RBI single and Don Dreher an RBI sacrifice fly.

IN A LATER game Saturday, Pat Boyle whipped the Fostoria All-Stars 12-2 as Richards threw another four-hitter, walked one and struck out five.

McManaway blasted a three-run homer in the first inning, and Rick Dreher keyed a six-run third with a two-run triple. Pierce added an RBI single in the big inning. Rick Dreher was 3-for-4 with three RBI,

Tie gives Boyle modified crown

By Dan O'Meara staff writer

The game was men's modified fast-pitch softball, but football came to mind Monday night (July 24) at Ford Field.

The regular-season finale between first-place Pat Boyle Chevrolet and John Rogin Buick was supposed to decide the championship of the Livonia circuit.

It did, but not quite the way everyone expected as Pat Boyle needed only a 3-3 tie — the result of a time limit imposed by the parks and recreation department - to win its second straight title.

Pat Boyle players invoked the memory of Duffy Daugherty afterward, but the outcome meant they also could relate to Ara Parseghian, the man who purposely played it safe and still won it all.

"This is like kissing your sister," said Pat Boyle catcher Dave Brubaker. "You hate to win it like this. Nobody comes out here to play for a

They already had surpassed the 11 p.m. lights-out curfew and the onehour, 10-minute time limit when the umpires called a halt to the game. which drew a negative response from a handful of Total Foods players who stayed around to see the Boyle-Rogin game.

If Rogin Buick had beaten Boyle Chevrolet, Total Foods and Pat Boyle would have met in a playoff game at some future date to determine the Division A winner.

Furthermore, the team was coming off a weekend high, having won the Fostoria Metro League Tournament by beating the defending outstate champion, Little Caesars of Port Huron. "I ended up losing about six pounds over the weekend," said winning pitcher Curtis Richards, alluding to the hot, humid weather. "It has a little effect. You have to go to work in the morning, and it's a long

Don Dreher, the only player with more than one hit for the winners, went 3-for-3 and scored two runs, and Tim McCrohan, Mike Neville and Tom See were 2-for-3 for Pick a street . . . any street. You're sure to find someone cruisin' by on a bicycle. Bicycling is a favorite summer pastime not only for the fun of it, but for the physical fitness aspect. American Youth Hostels has cashed in on the pastime with bicycle "clubs" that meet weekly for jaunts on two wheels. See Page 6D.

BEAVER

'America's Emerald Isle'

By M.B. Dillon staff writer

Monday, July 17, 1989 D&E

Tranquility, natural beauty, solitude, simplicity and old-fashioned friendliness — these are some of the things Beaver Islanders like best about their Lake Michigan home.

They're also the reasons vacationers, looking to get away from it all, fall in love with the place. If youcan't relax here, there's just no hope for you.

Twenty miles northwest of Charlevoix, Beaver Island is 13 miles long and six miles wide — the largest island in Lake Michigan.

Largely forested, Beaver boasts seven inland lakes, 41 miles of beaches, 100 miles of scenic roads and numerous hiking trails. Fishermen and hunters will tell you the island is blessed with a rich variety of animal and plant life. There are wonderful restaurants; fascinating museums; a biological station; marinas; lakeside campgrounds that operate on the honor system; delightful shops with hardwood floors and wooden screen doors; even an antique toy store where a note invites you to leavethe money on the counter if Mary isn't around. Islanders are proud of their quality schools, and their newest asset -a library funded chiefly by Land's End retailer Gary Comber. Sunsets on Beaver Island aresomething to behold. Star-gazers arein heaven here.

Beaver is the largest of an 11-island archipelago that from the air "looks like a scattering of emeralds strewn by the hand of a playful giant against the deep blue of Lake Michigan," suggested one travel writer. Those en route to one of Beaver's two small airports are free to judge for themselves.

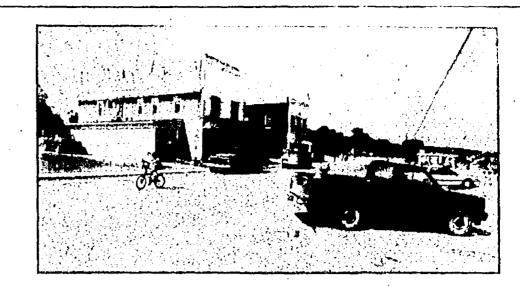

VISITORS opting for the 242-hour ferry ride ($21round trip) from Charlevoix are treated to eye-pleasing sights as well. The boat docks in the heart of St. James, a harbor town nestled in a bay lush with evergreens and sandy beaches.

A sign reading "Cead Mile Failte" (100,000 welcomes in Irish) gives visitors their first clue that beaver dams notwithstanding, Beaver Island is a friendly, Irish place.

It's not unusual for newly-arrived city slickers to be offered a ride to their motel or cottage by a passer-by. If they accept, travelers may learn how rare it is for an islander to remove the keys from the ignition. Local wisdom has it that that's a good way to lose them.

One of the nicest customs on Beaver is the wave, and not the kind you do at Tiger Stadium. You can bet that whether you're on foot or on wheels, an islander will never pass you on the road without waving hello.

Island has a colorful beginning

By M.B. Dillon staff writer

When it comes to colorful Michigan island history, Beaver Island has a lock on bragging rights.

Need convincing? Visit the island museum, better known as the Old Mormon Print Shop. On the National Register of historic places, the museum is staffed by Beaver Island Historical Society volunteers who'll confirm it in a minute. (They'll also invite you to help yourself to a paperback or two from a shelf on the front porch, as long as you bring it back, trade it for a book of your own, or make a small donation.)

Beaver was formed nearly 10,000 years ago when a stubborn limestone lip scraped rocks and sediment from the belly of a passing glacier.

Little is known about Beaver's first Indian inhabitants, but it's said Ojibways were around when the first white trappers and traders arrived.

Christianity may have come to Beaver Island as early as the 1600s. Bishop Frederic Baraga built the island's first church in

The only kingdom ever in existence in the United States was founded in 1847 by self-coronated James Jesse Strang, leader of a Mormon colony on Beaver.

By 1850, Mormons outnumbered the "gentiles," mainly Irish, and by 1852, non-Mormons were crowded off the island.

In the Old Mormon Print Shop, the red-headed Strang started the first daily newspaper north of Grand Rapids - the Daily Northern Islander.

A flamboyant lawyer, Strangalso served in the state legislature. He appropriated land on the island, contended he received divine commands and practiced polygamy.

Once upon a time in Sveti Stefan

By Iris Sanderson Jones contributing travel editor

Q: Four of us are going to Dubrovnik, Yugoslavia, on a oneweek tour, then staying another week on our own. We plan to spend a few days sailing and a few days land touring. The literature keeps referring to a hotel, or an island, called Sveti Stefan. What's the story on Sveti Stefan?

A: If you like sea tales, you will love the story of Sveti Stefan on the Adriatic coast of what is now southern Yugoslavia. The story begins in the 15th century.

The walled city of Dubrovnik sat in its jeweled setting beside the sea 65 miles to the north. The walled city of Budya sat above the sea six miles north. The Turks controlled the Adriatile coast 40 miles south of the island in what is now Al-

'Hooch' is dumb, 'drooly' d-u-m-b

Welcome to the Wonderful World of Saliva — and if you think a big, ugly dog that drools in all directions is funny, well then, you're gonna love "Turner & Hooch" (D, PG, 95 min-

Hooch is portrayed by an unpleasant looking animal, Beasley, and his double Igor, both De Bordeauxs, a French breed of mastiff. About half way through the film, while sitting on an all-night stakeout, Detective Scott Turner (Tom Hanks) turns to the dog and says, "I'm boring you."

I can't speak for the dog, but for myself, I couldn't agree more. "Turner & Hooch" is filled with infantile humor - the dog's heavy spittle flung in all directions and deposited everywhere, particular in the fastidious Turner's clothing and home. Hooch also enjoys chewing furniture, car upholstery and leaving a mess wherever he goes, including the immediate atmosphere which he fills with flatulence - much to almost everyone's amusement.

The film's real problem, however, is not childish bathroom jokes but its own schizophrenia as it fluctuates from serious murder-mystery to a conventional Disney comedy all about men and animals bonding. The comedy element wins out but in the final analysis. "Turner & Hooch" tears itself apart figuring out what it wants to be.

The story opens with Turner's waterfront friend, Zack Gregory (Reginald VelJohnson), Hooch's master, murdered by the bad guys. Hooch is a witness and winds up staying with Turner during the investigation.

For the most part, the investigation is subordinated to the alleged comedy of sloppy dog destroying meticulous home, car and office of Mr. Clean, Detective Scott Turner. The complicated murder investigation gets lost in the background of these immature jokes and, at several points, is incomprehensible.

The simple-minded silliness is carried to the nth degree with the loveinterest, veterinarian Dr. Emily Carson (Mare Winningham), who it should be no surprise, has a lady dog so that Hooch can do it in the streets while Tuner and Carson are doing it inside. Yes, friends, they do it, even in Touchstone Pictures - Disney's arm for mature entertainment. But don't worry, parents, they don't show anything, just talk about it, so you needn't worry. This film is so childish that kids young enough to enjoy it won't understand what they're talking about.

THE DELIGHTFUL Babar stories created over 50 years ago by Cecille de Brunhoff and illustrated by her husband, Jean, now are on the screen in an animated version which should amuse children of all ages.

Produced in part by the Nelvana Company, whose 1985 success, "The Care Bears Movie" holds the box-office record for a non-Disney animation, "Babar: The Movie" is set for a (F, R) is 100 minutes too long.

"Jason Takes Manhattan" isn't quite accurate either. It's more like ready. Jason takes an extremely slow boat to the Big Apple while killing off everyone in sight in a litany of uninspired gore. This movie has the look utes. and feel of a junior high school film project.

Production values are nil and suspense is non-existent. Nothing here is fun or enjoyable. What is disturbing, particularly since this movie is aimed at a young audience, is the tacit approval of promiscuity and the frequent use of cocaine and heroin. This is unforgivable and a wholly unneccessary breach of the supposedly socially responsible consciousness in Hollywood these days.

There isn't a single redeeming aspect in this movie to make it worthwhile. Save your money and your time. Trust me, you've got better things to do. Reviewed by Susan Fincham.

Stewart shines in series

By John Monaghan special writer

A director once said that Jimmy Stewart's success came from his ability to be so "unusually unusual." It was a feature that proved irresistible in "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington" (1939) and 'It's a Wonderful Life" (1946), where he played common men in an uphill battle for dig-

The Livonia Mall plays tribute to Jimmy Stewart in a continuing series of free films. Screening Tuesday mornings at 10 a.m. (Squeezed in before the mall's matinees), previous films have attracted word-of-mouth audiences up to 300.

More than the previous series, which saluted Judy Garland, Clark Gable and Debbie Reynolds, the choices in the Stewart festival are testimony to the actor's greatness. Though passing over his famous films with director Frank Capra, four out of the five films scheduled rank among his finest work. Hitchcock's "Rear Window" (1945)

VIDEO VIEWING

By Dan Greenberg special writer

There's nothing like vintage Bogie, and "The Desperate Hours" (B, 112 minutes, unrated) is just that. While there's an appealing, competent supporting cast, including Arthur Kennedy, Martha Scott, Dewey Martin, Gig Young and Mary Murphy, this one is all Bogart and his nemesis, Fredric March.

This 1955 black and white Paramount release — just two years before Bogart's untimely death — was produced and directed by William Wyler. Joseph Hayes adapted his novel and play for the screen and Paramount is releasing the video cassette on Aug. 2.

The story is pretty simple and straight forward, almost cliched in these days of widespread hostagetaking. Bogart, his brother, and a semi-moronic agent, Cobish, escape from jail and turn up at Fredric March's nice, polite, proper house, which they take over, holding March and his family hostage. They're waiting for Bogie's girlfriend to show up with the loot.

MARCH IS faced with the classic dilemma of every lawful and orderly person: Does duty lie with loved ones or with society? March opts to protect, as well as trying to save, his family from these desperate men.

"The Desperate Hours" starts rather slowly but builds effectively said for that point of view — but it is to a tense, exciting conclusion which enjoyable and entertaining anyways.

The opening, however moderately paced, does set the scene of the '50s extremely well. The cars, the hairdos, the suits and dresses, everything including the ladies' figures are remarkably similar. Even after watching the entire film carefully, it is difficult to recall distinguishing features of the mother, daughter or kid brother's school teacher.

But then the '50s was a time of conformity. No doubt in another few decades, with proper historical distance, commentators will say the same thing about the '80s. Nonetheless, "The Desperate Hours" is worth tage.

watching just for its picture of the

It's also worth screening as a psychological face-off between Bogart and March because that's what the film is all about. No doubt some will complain that this is haggard Bogart reprising his '30s style in a '50s movie - and there's something to be

THE FILM develops well on the psychologically level as internal pressures work on the three gang members as well as on the family held hostage.

The police forces — city, county and FBI — come in for some pretty modern criticism insofar as their political interests outweigh their concern for the family's safety. In desperation Fredric March's wife says, "Nobody knows what's going on in here."

That hopelessness characterizes so much of modern life and the film is successful in dealing with that fear and with the terror of being held hos-

'To thine own self be true'

Dear Barbara,

I really enjoy your column and respect the way you speak to those who write you for advice. I hope you'll be able to help me out a little bit with my dilemma.

I've been going with a wonderful, loving, faithful man for 11/2 years now. We have a good relationship and others enjoy and admire it. I love and care about him deeply, but sad to say, I don't think I've ever been in love with him. I've never thought about him in a dreamy, happy way. I've never really desired him in a passionate, romantic, sexual way, even though he is very good looking and is an excellent lover. This has made me feel guilty and dishonest throughout the entire relationship. I have cared for him and treated him well, but I've always felt bad that my whole heart and soul wasn't with him. He really deserves that much of me since he's given whole heartedly of himself.

He asked me to live with him and marry him many times, but I just could never do it. I have always voiced my hesitations, have told him I am not ready to "settle down" or commit myself entirely like that, yet still he hangs on and loves me as strongly and devotedly as ever. I almost wish he would treat me bad so I could have a reason to break up with him. The last thing in the world I want to do is hurt this man. We've know how very sensitive he is. He'll be devastated, if I leave him, probably wonder what he did wrong when he's done nothing wrong. How can I tell him, after all of this time, that he just doesn't "turn me on?" What a thing to say!!! It would make him feel like he's ugly or something, and. that's just not true.

I know this letter is very long already, but I must add one more important aspect of this dilemma. About three months ago, I met a goy who just makes me crazy, and I want to go out with him. I have been totally faithful to my boyfriend and I do not want to "sneak around" with this new man. He hasn't asked me out yet, but I know he likes me and is attracted to me in return. I have "held myself back" out of loyalty to my boyfriend, but If I'm honest with myself, I know that that really makes me angry. I'm staying with a man I do love and care about, but it's mainly because I don't want to hurt him, not because of blinding passion or a real want. And I'm not talking of just a physical thing; it's not sex , that I yearn for, it's something much and leading him on only to let him more all-consuming than that. Tve been in love before and I know this isn't "it" for me with my boyfriend. And that makes me very sad because it obviously is "it" for him. I wish I could say I feel the same, but in my heart of hearts, I know I don't.

Please, Barbara, help me decide been through a lot together and I what to do about this situation in my life. This new man interests and attracts me enormously in a way that my boyfriend never has. But my boyfriend is the kindest, sweetest, most generous and thoughtful man I've ever met. Girls tell me to "hold on to him" and I know I'm a lucky lady. For my birthday last month, he bought me a diamond and emerald ring, though I told him I never wanted a ring. I feel trapped and guilty and I cry myself to sleep many nights. I desperately seek your ad-

I enjoyed reading your letter very much and I'm going to take this opportunity to thank all my readers who have sent letters and given me such pleasure.

However, moving away from decisiveness and clarity, a woman's age would have a large weight in which mate to choose. The younger you are, the more my statement is true.

Many women face this dilemma. Whatever choice you and others like you make, it is important to be able to live happily with the compromise.

False-front buildings, many dating to the 1800s, give St. James the feel of a frontier town. Anchoring St. James is the Shamrock Bar, kittycorner from the dock in the heart of town. The Shamrock stays open year-round for breakfast, lunch, dinner and evening diversion.

During the 37 years native Islander Archie LaFreniere ran the Shamrock, he was known as Beaver's "unofficial Governor-General."

Now retired, the harmonica-playing LaFreniere has no intention of leaving Beaver, even if he does have to travel a ways to see Notre Dame's Fighting Irish play football. Mrs. LaFreniere, the former Frances Connaghan, also wants to stay put. Like their parents and grandparents and great-grandparents before them, several of LaFreniere's children have settled on Beaver.

"I ENJOY IT here. It's a closer knit community; it's just a peaceful place," said Mrs. LaFreniere, during a time out from preparing dinner.

"My paternal grandfather came here in winter. He walked across from Goodhart near Cross Village," recalled the Governor-General. "My grandmother ran a boarding house near the lumber mill where she served luncheons and dinners."

Humor with dash of sports

By Bob Sadler special writer

In the opportunistic world of stand-up comedy, there are performers and there are those who specialize in writing material.

Bill Scheft is a guy who's not only established himself as a top-notch comedic performer and writer, he's also an accomplished free-lance sportwriter, with articles published in The New York Times, Sports Illustrated and Sport magazine.

Naturally, with those credits, a significant portion of his humor originates out of a passion for sports. That's why Scheft loves to come to "New York (where he resides) is a great sports town," Scheft said, "but the people who go to comedy clubs aren't necessarily sports fans. In Detroit, it's the same people."

Scheft had thoughts about each of the major franchises in Detroit, except the recent NBA champion Pistons.

"A losing team is much more interesting than a winning team. There's a lot more to poke fun at."

Alluding to a certain franchise owned by William Clay Ford, Scheft a losing football team. That really SCHEFT PROVIDED more sobering thoughts about the current state of the Red Wings.

"I think it's really tough when people are celebrating before they win a Stanley Cup. But Betty Ford's going to have a heck of a team this year."

Originally from Boston, Scheft grew up with the Celtics, Bruins, Patriots and Red Sox. He graduated with honors from Havard and said he doesn't understand why many are intimidated by the Ivy League mys-

After a couple of years in Albany, Scheft moved to The Big Apple and tried to make it as a free-lancer, a rather tough proposition. When that wasn't putting enough food on the ley's Comedy Castle, 2595 Woodtable, he looked to find something ward, Berkley, Tuesday through

IN THE eight plus years, he's been in comedy, Scheft has done a lot of television. As he puts it, "I've done everything but the shows that can help you." He's appeared on Fox's "The Late Show" and "The Wilton North Report," CBS "Morning Program" and "The NFL Today," NBC Sportsworld Looks at Sports Humor" special and Cinemax's Richard Belzer special.

Eventually, Scheft would like to give up live performance in favor of writing. He's already written a few scripts for television pilots and dreams of one day writing something to run on Broadway.

Taking to the road for fun and fitness

By Lynn Waldsmith special writer

Summer's here and the bikin' is easy.

Whether you're an avid cycling enthusiast or just a beginner, biking is the perfect summertime activity. It's fun, it's simple and it's an excellent form of aerobic-exercise._

Riding a bicycle allows you to stay in shape while you enjoy the outdoors. One of the best ways to discover new bike routes and meet new people is to participate in a ride, sponsored by a local biking club or or-

American Youth Hostels Inc. in Berkley is one of the largest and best known biking groups in the tri-county area. The organization sponsors rides every day of the week except Fridays.

"We offer a diverse group of rides that match different abilities and styles of riding," said Jim DeBaker, president of the AYH Bike Club. "And most of our rides tend to be on low traffic routes.

AYH grades its rides according to typical riding speeds. Although the average speeds will be lower because of stops, the grades are "D" for slow (7 to 10 mph) rides, recommended for the beginner or for those preparing for the more advanced rides, "C" for moderate (10 to 13 mph) rides, 'B" for moderately fast (13 to 16 mph) rides, "A" for fast (16 to 19 mph) rides, and "AA" for very fast (20 plus mph), recommended only for the very advanced bicyclist.

IF YOU aren't sure of your ability, DeBaker recommends that you start at a low grade ride and move up when you feel comfortable doing so. By the way, don't let the name American Youth Hostel fool you. People of all different ages participate in AYH rides, including teenagers and senior citizens.

Riders are assessed $2 for each AYH-sponsored ride. Most of the group rides are have a leader, but on some of the simpler routes, riders are simply given a map and directions.

The number of people who participate in an AYH ride varies anywhere from one to 50, but special event rides, such as the Firecracker 100, can draw as many as 1,000 riders.

Biking is especially popular on weekends and so are the AYH weekend rides.

Every Saturday, AYH sponsors a ride, known as the Clarkston-Orion Express, which gives bikers the opportunity to pedal through Clarkston and Lake Orion. Special Saturday rides are also available each month.

The first Saturday of the month features a ride that begins in Hartland in Livingston County, north of Brighton. Riders are provided with maps and have the option of biking anywhere from 25 to 75 miles.

The third Saturday of the month highlights a ride from Dearborn to Northville - approximately 50 miles round trip, although riders have the option of going fewer miles. Much of the route consists of Edward Hines Drive, which is largely closed off from vehicular traffic on Saturdays.

BICYCLING can certainly cause you to work up an appetite. Perhaps that's one of the reasons why the Sunday Morning Brunch Ride, held every Sunday, is AYH's most popular biking event.

The brunch ride offers a variety of different routes, some of the destinations include Birmingham, Northville and Plymouth. After meeting at Nine Mile and Evergreen roads in Southfield, riders begin their workout, which is approximately 25 miles with a brunch stop halfway.

AYH also offers a regular series of rides during the week. On Mondays, the Lakeshore Spin features a scenic 20- to 25-mile ride through the Grosse Pointes and along the shore of Lake St. Clair.

The Ego-Opto Ride on Tuesdays is a 20- to 25-mile ride through the country and suburban areas in Plymouth and Northville. Wednesday is the Cranbrook Ramble. The 20- to 25-mile route goes through Cranbrook and the Birmingham-Bloomfield area.

On Thursdays, the M&M Ride takes bikers through Berkley, Lathrup, Southfield and Birmingham at a very easy pace with a stop for ice cream.

All AYH weekday rides begin at 6 p.m. Another popular ride is the Firecracker 100. Held on the Fourth of July, the Fircracker 100 is AYH's annual fund-raising ride. The starting point is Milford, and bikers have a choice of completing a 25-, 50- or 100-mile route. For more information about the Firecracker 100 ride or any of the regular AYH rides, call the AYH office at 545-0511.

To enjoy bicycling, all you really need is a bike that's in good running order and comfortable clothing that won't get caught in the bike chain or spokes.

A WATER bottle is a good idea, as well as a bag of some sort to carry a jacket or sweater, a spare tube and patch kit, or any other items you might need. But the best piece of advice is to wear a safety helmet when riding.

"If you break an arm or leg, you can fix that," De-Baker said. "But if you crack open your head, you may not be so lucky. We don't require riders to wear a helmet, but we strongly encourage it.

"I consider the $25 to $50 that you spend on a helmet the best insurance policy that you can have."

If you're interested in biking through scenic northern Michigan, Michigan Bicycle Touring at (616) 263-5885 and Bicycle Cruises at (800) 222-0072 offer a variety of weekend and week-long bike tours.

Information about other biking groups and tours are available at local bike shops.

In addition, bike maps that show road surface type and recreation facilities are available through the Michigan Department of Transportation. The maps highlight designated bike facilities, roads with paved shoulders and roads with low traffic volumes.

Kinsey Report: A new 'blues'

By Larry O'Connor staff writer

Once Donald Kinsey saw the future in the face of a great bluesman, the brightness faded.

'We did a show with (Albert King) in Pittsburgh not long ago," said Donald Kinsey, guitar player with The Kinsey Report. "It's almost like the years of the ups and downs and being used has taken its toll on him. It hurts me to see him like that because I know him so well. I heard hlm say, 'Donald, I don't give a damn. about playing any more."

The story of the blues artists has often been a tale of woe. Bad management and exploited by promoters have left some greats broke, alcoholics or drug addicts and, worse, dead. The sight of a burned-out musician who once set the stage on fire with his high energized style guitar playing was not only painful, but somewhat frightening, especially to a member of a group that has been touted to be the blues band of the

The Kinsey Report has just released what is undoubtedly the blues album of the year, "Midnight Drive" (Aligator). Several cuts are outstanding. Several cuts are deserving of commercial radio play. Yet, there are no guarantees that will happen.

"We just played New York City a couple of weeks back and this guy came up to me and said, 'Wow you guys were great. When's the new album coming out?," "said Donald Kin-sey, perhaps best illustrating what The Kinsey Report is up against.

Three years spent touring with Albert King proved beneficial. He appeared on two of King's albums "I Wanna Get Funky" and "Montreux Festival." Kinsey later met reggae greats Marley eventually hit the Top 100 Billboard with "Rastaman Vibration," on which Kinsey performed. Now, The Kinsey Report is striving for chart action.

The group released "Edge of the City" in 1987 and was well-received by critics but never rose above blues circles. "Midnight Drive" (Alligator) could be the ticket.

family, Sveti Stefan appears before you like a fairy tale.

The turrets and their sentries have gone, but otherwise the island looks much as it did centuries ago, buildings climbing step by step up the rocky hill above the wall.

Ancient Montenegro was a tribal society and each clan had 12 families. The Pastrovic clan built the wall, each family built a house inside the wall and whenever enemy ships came into view the people would flee to the island.

The clan did that for about 200 years. They moved into the walled island permanently during the 17th century and built stone houses. By the end of World War II, there were only five families left on the island. Artists had discovered the place by then, and one of them had a great idea of turning the whole island into a hotel. It took a few years for the bureaucratic wheels to turn, and the five familles didn't move willingly to larger modern houses on the mainland, but in the 1960s, Hotel Sveti Stefan opened to the public.

THERE ARE 116 rooms set in the old houses and shops. The government built a causeway and a sand beach and spent millions of public and private money restoring the vil-

When you walk across the causeway and through the wall to the reception desk, you might be assigned a room in one of the old houses or you might get a whole stone house to yourself.

The alternative is to visit the hotel for lunch, or dinner, about $20 for a large meal, or pay about $3 just to tour the Island, and use the receipt for a cake and coffee at the bakery.

Rent a car in Dubrovnik. People who fly in and take the airport limousine to Sveti Stefan pay $75 for the whole car, full or empty. Or take a bus to Budva

Handling disliked tasks

Q. I travel on my job and must turn in expense reports. When I get back though, I always find 10 other things that need doing and several days often go by before getting it filled out. Does everyone have an aversion to expense reports?

A. You seem to be suffering from the "Working Hard To Get Out of Work" syndrome. This is a skilled procrastinator's ploy which is amazingly effective. Here's the rule: When a disliked task needs doing, any other work ranks a higher priority.

One woman hates ironing, but dislikes sending Christmas cards even more, so the only time her ironing is caught up is — yep, you guessed it — right before Christmas. When it's time to clean closets another woman can think of a million telephone calls she just has to make.

A friend of mine loves giving speeches. Although she knows the material inside out, putting talks together is somehow excruciating and she avoids it as long as possible. That's when her desk is cleanest because her weaknesses overtake her and she will do any "To Do" in sight rather than sticking to outlining her speeches.

Disliked tasks vary for different people. One person may mow the lawn as a means of getting out of paying bills while another may pay bills to avoid lawn mowing. "Having" to run errands is a great excuse for not cleaning out the garage. At the office, telephone calls, coffee breaks and "having to discuss an issue" with someone else are effective avoidance factors. All too many parents feign being "busy" to avoid spending quality time with their children. A pity.

To overcome the problem: 1) Identify distasteful tasks which aren't getting done 2) Acknowledge to yourself the excuses you are using to avoid them and 3) Using self discipline, do them first. Doing hated tasks first is well worth the effort because it's such a relief to have them done. You can then regard yourself with more pleasurable activities the rest of the day while enjoying a feeling of freedom. Also, you can think more clearly without the burden of dreaded work hanging over you.

On your next trip, take an expense report with you, fill it out first daily and it will effectively be complete when you return.

You can obtain a booklet of Dorothy Lehmkuhl's first 52 weekly columns by sending a long self addressed envelope with 65 cents postage and a $5 check to Organizing Techniques, 6165 Worlington, Birmingham 48010.

condo queries Robert M. Meisner

Q. Our condo association has asked to inspect our unit for electrical problems. They claim there is a safety hazard, and there is some talk about them placing certain fixtures in the units. Do they have the right to gain access to the unit for such inspection?

A. It depends on your condominium documents, but most documents allow the association reasonable access in order to inspect the common elements and to avoid safety problems to the extent that a condition in your unit may cause a safety problem for other units and/or the common areas. The association has a good argument. On the other hand, the association should be prudent in regard to the extent of the repairs to your unit to insure that it is not encroaching upon individual rights and/or responsibilities of co-owners. Also, the contractor retained by the association should be monitored to insure that there are no abuses. You may also wish to consult the electrical inspector for the municipality in order to confirm that the actions taken by the contrctor for the association are proper!

Q. Can you please describé what one purchases in buying a cooperative unit. I am thinking of buying one in Detroit, and I am wondering how it differs from a condo. A. When you buy a cooperative, you are in effect buying a share of stock in a cooperative association. Also, you sign a proprietary lease with cooperative leasing out a particular unit in the cooperative project. If you default in the payment to the cooperaive of the monthly service charge, the cooperative has the right to seek your eviction and to repossess your stock certificate. Cooperatives generally are more difficult to finance as banks in this locale have not been receptive to providing cooperative financing. It is also sometimes more difficult to ascertain the true market value of a cooperative unit. Caution is always the better part of valor as in any purchase of real

S GOLF grows rapidly as a popular leisure time activity, builders and developers have picked up on the theme. Vacation condos and yeararound homes ring lush green fairways and offer stunning views of the tees and the manicured, bunkered

One of the most recent to capitalize on the public's interest in golf is the Holtzman & Silverman/The Fisher Group who are developing The Fairways, a condominium community at the southeast corner Square Lake and Rochester Road in Troy. Sylvan Glen golf course is on the southwest corner of the same intersection. So, while the course isn't connected to The Fairways, it is directly across the road - about two good wood shots away.

The two- and three-bedroom units, ranging in size from 1,400-2,000 square feet, are priced from $130,000. There will eventually be 98 townhouse and ranch-style residences, four or six to a building. The building sites are attractively arwith a large, picturesque man-made pond in the center with tennis courts at one end and clubhouse and large outdoor pool at another.

SEVERAL MORE small ponds, fountains, extensive landscaping, lots of plantings and trees, brick detailing along the walkways and the gently curving streets give the development a pleasant country look. The exterior, "eastern seaboard," style brings a fresh, clean look to this new community.

That is accomplished through the. use of brick, limestone and siding in. combination with multipaned windows and skylights, columns and long, vertical rooflines with gable

The interiors of the models, done by Sara Olesker Ltd. of Chicago, carry on the bright, fresh, traditional/ country look. Olesker, as in her past work here, has a nice touch for the sophisticated/country look - warm; inviting and quite chic.

This is particularly the case in the three-bedroom, 21/2 bath Baytree model where she has used lots of polished chintz, bright lemon carpeting, Queen Anne and Chippendale pieces, deep green accents and English ivy wall covering in the kitchen.

IN ANOTHER model, the two bedroom, 21/2 bath Augusta, she went for a jewel-toned, California look and in the two-bedroom, 21/2 bath ranch, the Carmel, she created an elegant interior using peach, celadon and ivory.

These different approaches give the visitor a good idea of how the ranged on a well-landscaped site many choices of flooring, carpeting and cabinetry will look. All residences have full lower levels with full-size windows, large enough and with plenty of natural light, to be completed as a pleasant guest suite and/or a family activity area. Each residence has a separate courtyard entrance and attached garage (one and two car).

Models are open noon to 6 p.m. daily. For information, call 879-0900.
