places and faces

IT'S THE END of November and for the Westland City Council that means, among other things, it's time for the annual verbal skirmish over printing the city calendar.

The city council last week rejected an administration proposal recommending low bidder Dearborn Lithograph for the job. Bids on the 1990 calendar will have to be resubmitted and voted on by the council next Council members' concerns ranged from the cost of the job (Dearborn Lithograph's bid was $27,972) to the delivery date forthe calendar.

Last year, Dynamic Graphics of Southfield and Q and Q Printing of Detroit were awarded the bid after much debate about cost overruns and late delivery.

.The number of planned pages in the 1990 calendar has already been lowered due to budget considerations.

The 1990 calendar will be designed around an historical theme and feature several fullcolor pages. Barring further delay, it will be mailed to local residents and businesses sometime in late December or early January.

The calendar is designed by Cable Management Associates and published by the city's community relations department.

THE NUMBER of

openings and expected openings on the zoning board of appeals increased last week with the resignation of Richard Powell, who cited continuing business commitments in his resignation

The Westland City Council hopes to fill Powell's opening before Jan. 1, when it will also have to find a replacement for Sandra Cicirelli, a board member who won election to the council earlier this month.

Cicirelli's council term begins then and she will have to step down from the ZBA.

LONNIE Street drivers beware: You've got a new stop sign to contend with.

A stop sign on westbound Lonnie at Shari was approved at last week's council meeting, along with a sign barring trucks on eastbound Parkgrove at Wayne and "No Stopping, Standing, Parking" signs on the east side of Avondale, between Schuman and Easley.

JAMES FUGATE of Westland received a degree as a 32nd-Degree Mason.

Fugate was accorded the honor during Nov. 4 ceremonles at the Masonic Temple in Detroit.

AL GAISS, the city's labor relations director, has been named to two committees of the Michigan Public Employer Relations Association

He will sit on the Manual Marketing Committee and the ... 1990 Annual Conference Committee during the next year.

MPELRA was founded in 1969 to promote sound public employment labor relations. Galss has been a member of the organization since 1986.

Mayor taps campaign chief

By Tedd Schneider staff writer

Robert Thomas has named Edward Gunther as his deputy mayor, but the mayor-elect is remaining mum for the time being on other administrative appointments.

Thomas announced Gunther's appointment Tuesday at city hall, where he spent several days last week interviewing city department heads and other employees for possible jobs in the new administration.

He said other announcements regarding appointments would come in the near future."

The mayor has the responsibility for appointing 23 positions, including department directors, some supervisors and his personal staff.

Thomas, elected Nov. 7 to succeed Mayor Charles Griffin, will assume office at noon on Jan. 1, with an official swearing-in ceremony scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 3, at the Melvin Bailey-Recreation Cen-

Thomas characterized transition progress between the the outgoing and incoming administrations as "fair." Asked if the Griffin administration was meeting his requests regarding the changeover, he declined

HE SAID THE interviewing process for the new administration had gone smoothly so far. "Knowing everyone personally (as a longtime city employee) has made it easier for me," Thomas said.

Gunther, 59, has been a city employee for 32 years. He served as Thomas' campaign manager.

He was the city's personnel director under Mayor Thomas Taylor in the mid-1970s and has been an engineering inspector, ordinance enforcement officer and animal control officer.

P.D. Graham, Madison and Schweitzer Elementary Schools attending a special program Wednesday on drug and alcohol abuse have already had a chance to put that into practice.

About one-fourth of the kids seated on the floor in the Graham gym raised their hands when asked if they had seen someone use illegal drugs or alcohol before.

Questions asked by the sixth graders ranged from "How can I get my dad to quit smoking?" to "What is 'crank' (a juiced-up form of amphetamine)?"

The program, titled "Running on High," featured 30 minutes of sketches performed by members of Crossroads Productions, a Redford Township-based theater troupe, followed by a question-and-answer session led by Joe Musial, a chemical dependency therapist at Annapolis Hospital, Wayne.

Even for those without questions, the program's message was crystal clear.

"What I've learned is that drugs are bad, for me and my family," said Leanne Clayton, a Schweitzer sixth grader. . .

OTHER STUDENTS said they learned how to deal with friends who try to convince them to drink alcohol. In fact, dealing peer pressure was a major theme.

Last summer, different groups of residents adjacent to the proposed project circulated petitions eithersupporting or opposing it.

Concerns expressed by nearby residents ranged from how the development would affect their property values to whether nearby schools could handle additional students and how the police and fire departments will cope with more development in the area.

The sometimes frank dialogue in the skits drew nervous giggles from some children.

By 9:10, they had their red shopping bags filled to the brim and were sitting on a bench in the middle of the mall, heads drooping while they caught their breath.

They weren't done - far from it. They were just taking a break, getting ready to carry their stuff to their car and continue Round Two at Foland's.

"You have to shop in shifts," said Thomas, of Southfield.

Did they care to pose for a photo? "No, don't you know we have to lose weight before we get our picture taken?" said Thomas.

"What you do is, you go find three beautiful women, take their plcture and put our names on 'em." And with that, they were up and

Local attorney plays major role in Poland bond offering

By Tim Richard staff writer

How does an Irisher who doesn't speak a word of Polish ghostwrite a Lech Walesa speech?

"I tried to string together things he had already said," said Michael McGeo, a bond attorney from Livonia. McGee, 35, wrote a couple of speeches when he worked as an administrative aide to Mayor Ed McNamara back in 1974-77 and made some speeches of his own in a campaign for state representative.

Actually, McGee had a heavier role in the recent announcement of the availability of $100 million in Poland Bonds. He works in the Detroit law firm of Miller, Canfield. Paddock and Stone, among the top 10 or 15 bond counsel firms in the country. 🗈

SPEAKING IN Polish, Walesa, the Solidarity leader, took part in a Chicago ceremony with the Polish American Congress. Translation: "There are many business opportunities in Poland, and investing money in Poland will prove to be very profitable, even if it does not bring immediate results."

Walesa also held out hope of establishing a market economy in a nation that has been under Communist Party rule since World War II. And he thanked those who believe "deeds follow words."

First in line to buy $10 million was Michigan state treasurer Robert Bowman, trustee of the state pension fund. Bowman also said he intends to proceed with venture capital investments in Poland. Second in line was the state of Illinois, bidding for $25 million. McGee said the two commitments bring the program more than one-third of the way to its target figure of $100 mil-

Besides institutional investors such as government and unions, the bonds will be marketed to Individu-

Poland has no law for bond financing. We wrote their statute for parliament.

- Michael McGoe bond attorney

A final element in the plan is a U.S. government guarantee — much like the guarantees of Chrysler Corp.'s and New York City's bonds. If all goes well, the federal government will spend-nothing.

CENTRAL FIGURE in the deal is the man whose office is next to McGee's - Richard Walawender, 29, a Warren resident who speaks Polish and whose parents were born there.

"We're pals," said McGee, a Bentley High with two University of Michigan degrees. "He came to me one day and said, 'You've heard of Israel bonds. Is there any reason we can't do Poland bonds?'

"It takes a team - securities lawyers, joint venture experts. . . There were five on our team. I helped to think of how it could be structured."

Walawender took the outline to Solidarity officials and the Polish American Congress (PAC), based in Chicago. In October PAC took the plan to Warsaw and reported it was warmly received by the new, Solidarity-led Polish government.

INSTITUTIONAL investors like

Bowman had to be satisfied, McGee said. "Bowman has certain controls - he wanted it invested in agricultural and medical purposes; he prohibited other uses.

"Poland has no law for bond financing. We wrote their statute for parliament."

This week Walawender, McGee and William Danhof of the Miller, -Canfield firm are meeting in Warsaw with the Polish prime minister and finance minister.

The bonds Bowman is acquiring will be like U.S. savings bonds — the interest will be compounded, not paid, increasing the bond's capital value. Later, the bonds will be convertible to coupon bonds on which interest is paid periodically.

McGee said Poland wants to upgrade its agriculture by acquiring more tractors. It also needs pharmaceuticals.

"One of the nice things we see is that the money flows benefit the local economy," he said.

Caterpillar tractors, trucks from the Wayne assembly plant, a joint venture with the Upjohn Co. of Kalamazoo - all are prospects as the invested money goes to work.

House members and senators would receive a 7.9 percent cost-ofliving increase Jan. 1 plus a cost-of-Aiving increase of up to 5 percent and à 25-percent raise in January 1991. This would raise their present $89,500 salary to about $125,000, up -about 40 percent. Salarles of up to B34 top executive branch officials including Cabinet members and 1,115 Supreme Court, apellate and district court judges also would rise under the bill.

Tightening congressional ethics, the bill prohibits lawmakers from keeping honoraria such as speaking fees, limits outside earned income to-15 percent of congressional pay, prohibits members from accepting gifts worth more than $200 and tightens certain travel rules. It repeals in 1993 the law under which House members elected before 1980 cantenivert campaign contributions to personal income when they leave Congress.

TO HELP PAY FOR POPULA-TION CONTROL — By a vote of 244 against and 178 against, the House approved $15 million in American support of a United Nations program to slow global population growth.

The payment to the U.N. Population Activities Fund could not be allocated to China, said by critics to have coercive abortion and sterilization policies, or spent anywhere on abortions.

The vote reversed a previous House stand against U.S. support of the fund and put the House in agreement with the Senate that the $15 million should be sent to the U.N.——

Phone: 478-7860 REPLACING YOUR WORN OUT KNEE

You need a knee replacement when you joint pain is so great or your motion is so little, as to render you immobile. What kind of replacement you need depends on the extent of the wear on your knee. If both the inside and outside part of the knee joint have lost considerable cartilage, then a total knee operation is in order. This procedure requires removal of considerable bone, making subsequent interventions difficult.

If only one side of the joint is worn, then a partial replacement is possible. In this case the good half of the joint is saved, and is available for anchoring an artificial joint if you require a second operation.

The third type of knee surgery is the "tibial osteolomy." The surgeon removes a wedge of bone from the lower leg, thus shifting weight on the joint from the involved to the uninvolved side. At the bone of the knee joint is available for later operations. This approach, while attractive, is technically difficult, and subject to failure more often than the other operations described above. -

Thus, knowing you need surgery is a straightforward decision, while making the choice of operation is fraught with difficulty.

Where foodies hang out

Monday, November 27, 1989 O&E

Most foodies have a pre-set compass that will direct them to their favorite gourmet shop or grocery.

Everybody has favorites, but a few interesting and out-of-theway boutiques and retail shops are so specialized that a holiday shopping excursion turns into a fantasy trip.

I checked out the Festival of Trees in downtown Detroit last week with my wife and kids and, as usual, I parked at Greektown and took the People Mover over to Cobo.

BUT BEFORE embarking on the People Mover, a quick trip through Trappers Alley at Greektown unearthed a shop called Get Sauced that just opened last week.

This unusual—and definitely one-of-a-kind little hole-in-thewall on the second level of Trappers Alley was brimming with the likes of Blue Crab Bay Seafood Marinade, Larry Forgione's famed Peanut sauce, an array of Justin Rashid's American Spoon Foods products and even Detroit's famous Sanders Hot Fudge.

Anybody who is a foodle or wants a special edible gift for a foodie must put Get Sauced on the holiday trip sheet. Ask for a sample of a lemon curd that beats Momma's. What a neat concept!

JUST UP Gratiot from downtown Detroit is the famed Eastern Market area, and any foodle who has not visited Hirt's has yet to discover another foodle nirva-Hirt's is loaded with speciality foods and "basket stuffing materials" that range from coffee beans to soup base.

The store has condiments and a cheese-and-sausage counter reminiscent of the good old days.

The more you buy the more you save. If you need anything wicker to put it in, a trek up three flights of old wooden stairs will be well worth the trip.

WITH THE busy holiday shopping season upon us, it was a real surprise to see a store called the Dollar Tree open up recently at Wonderland Mall in Livonia.

Everything in the store costs a buck. Period. Nothing more, nothing less. Let me tell you, if you are hunting for some real bargains when it comes to basic, utilitarian kitchen items, at a buck each, this is the cheap place to shop.

So far, the only locations for the Dollar Tree besides Wonderland Mall are Universal Mall in Warren and Macomb Mall in Roseville.

Keep your eyes peeled, as this budget-minded emporium of the '90s will surely spread its wings and expand to every major mall in the area.

UNDOUBTEDLY ONE of my most favorite off-the-wall places to shop is Hartler Brothers in Ann Arbor.

The place is actually a feed store, but it has bubbled over into a quasi-gourmet shop filled with Americana and all the basics from the kitchen.

Real dish towels, the kind Momma used to use. Crockery pickle jars and bowls big enough to hold a dozen loaves of bread.

A ladder that rolls on a rail down the back wall of the store can take you from cast-iron cookware to rat polson, in one easy

Anyone into Americana has to put this place on the list, if not to shop, just to walk around in awe.

It's just west of Main Street and north of Huron Road. Ask anyone for directions because the place has got to have been there for at least a hundred years.

I'm sure there are more of these little mom-and-pop-type places that makes the foodle in us go wild, but space prohibits mentioning them. Do you have a favorite, relatively unknown place that foodles would go wild in? Drop me a note and I'll list the best. Until then, bon appetit!

Today's version of the "corner cale" is a far cry from the greasy spoon of yore. Many are full servicerestaurants with an upscale menu. They just happen to share a wall with a retail shop.

A restaurant of this "genre" is LeMetro, in Southfield's Applegate Square shopping center on Northwestern Highway, a saiad plate's throw from the Mira Linder spa. LeMetro occupies a corner spot, a space the size of a small shop. With scating for 70, a small waiting area and a small kitchen, this restaurant has all it needs for its business — but not much more. Its almond-beige decor is bland or soothing, depending on your point of view, but its menu is spritely.

petizers, and each one sounded better than the one before. It also offered 11 entrees on the menu and two specials for the evening. Dinner entrees ranged from white Peking duck ($15.95) to lamb ($13.95), coq au vin ($11.95) or a combination of Though one might expect a limited roasted venison and sauteed quail ($17.95).

The extralarge sea scallop was flavored with a sauce of walnuts and grapes. The scallop itself was cooked perfectly, moist and tender but substantive, enough to slice easily with a knife. And the sauce was light, buttery and sweetened by the grapes. It was, great.

The salads also had a special touch. The three selections of the evening were a spinach saiad ($4.50): with dried cherries, apples, Roques fort cheese and warm onion-citrum? dressing; a chaves salad ($4.25) with Romaine lettuce, Parmesan cheese croutons and toasted sesame seed dressing, and the house salad ($2.54) of mixed greens with an herbod vinaigrette. Turkey gobbling up fatter competition

The trick dialogue here is "ounce." How many people do you know who can eat only an ounce of anything? Multiply that 20 calorie per ounce difference by the number of ounces unusually consumed by the average person and you' can save a whopping 80 calories or more just by switching to turkey

Ah, but the bottom line is taste, right? How can anything so healthy maintain a high standard of relatively good taste? The Janes gang, although not known for its ability to discern between imported and domestic caviars, has long been proponents of real sausage and bacon for breakfast.

As a matter of fact, I can remember growing up in Wyandotte, and after Momma fried up a pan of regular sausage or bacon, she would use the same frypan, loaded with grease remains, to fry the eggs in. (Can't you just see those arteries hardening?)

I DIDN'T MESS around with random tastings either. Two weeks ago I ventured down to Wyandotte at 6:30 a.m., complete with a dozen eggs and fresh samples of both pork and turkey sausages. All Momma had to do was make coffee. For the what went into whose frypan.

But I purposely cut both samples into equal-sized proportions so that once in the pan, it would be difficult to discern the difference. Once again, Momma's keen eye noticed the difference almost immediately. ... It was evident there was more fat in the pork-sausage pan than in the turkey pan.

After repeated requests to please sit down and let me do the cooking, she finally complled, and when the sausage was presented, after a quick pat with a paper towl to remove and visual grease, outward inspection could not discern a difference. Deep down, I think this bothered Momma because I think she wanted to show me that anyone could tell the difference, even before tasting. So, when it comes to eye appeal, our panel of tasters could find no difference between products.

I then asked our distinguished panel to smell both sausage patties, and to comment on their aroma. Dad said both products smelled the same, while Momma commented that if she were making the sausage, "it should have more sage." After reprimanding Momma not to compare a store-bought product to her own, she relented, agreeing with Dad - something she doesn't do too often. That makes both products record, she continually tried to . even on looks and smells. Is this sneak a look as to which package of "turkey, sausage too good to be true?

immediately noticed that they were overcooked. Not so, said Momma, because pork should always be well done or you could get sick. Granted the more you cook breakfast pattles the drier they get, but Momma and Dad both thought the products to be cooked adequately.

WHEN ASKED TO comment about taste differences, Dad noticed that the pork sausage pattle was a little more flavorful than the turkey breakfast sausage variety. After sprinkling the obligatory, generous shake of salt and pepper on the turkey-sausage pattie, he pronounced it to be just as tasty as the pork variety.

Momma was a little more cautious. She sampled both products, and after taking healthy swigs of coffee between tastings, pronounced, somewhat disappointingly, that there was very little difference between the two, and that as far as she was concerned, the commercial pork sausage tasted just as good as the turkey breakfast sausage.

Dollar for dollar, expect to pay about the same price for turkey sausage as for standard rolls of pork sausage. The only difference here is that my coupon collection contains a few more "turkey product" coupons than regular pork-sausage coupons. How about yours? Another, thing to remember is that turkey sausage contains less fat, there is less shrinkage and, there fore, it is a more edible product per pound.

Our family has always been a big consumer of turkey products Ground turkey has been a staple on . our table at least twice a week in place of ground beef, but in all honesty I've never used turkey break. fast sausage for anything other than breakfast. I was surprised to learn that turkey breakfast sausage, works equally well in recipes call 4. ing for a great spice content. Tofu adds special touch to Spaghetti Pie recipe

Most kids and, I dare say, someadults, might think that tofu is a type of martial art similar to Kung Fu, or perhaps a distant relative of Fu Manchu.

It is with great pleasure that I shed some light on this most nutritious and increasingly popular food item, used in this week's Winner Din-

Tofu, also called bean curd or soy cheese, is a custard-like and creamy substance made from soy beans. Tofu works like a sponge, soaking up the flavors of any food in which it is cooked. An eight-ounce serving of tofu has all the usable protein of a 51/2 ounce hamburger and almost no fat or cholesterol. An excellent source of calcium, iron, phosphorous and B-complex vitamins, it is no wonder that more and more healthconscious people are passing up fast food burgers and turning on to tofu.

This week's Winner Dinner, New York Spaghetti Pie, was submitted by Mary Fry of Bloomfield Township. NEW YORK SPAGHETTI PIE

This dish takes about 25 minutes to assemble, can be made in advance and amply serves 6 people. Soba noodles are madeof wheat flour and whole grain buckwheat flour. They have a nice flavor and texture and are sold in health food stores. Fresh tolu can be found in the produce. section of most large supermar-

1 egg and 2 egg whites, beaten 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese 1/2 cup green pepper, chopped 1/3 cup onlon, chopped 1 teaspoon olive oil,

1 cup mock sour cream (1/2 cup nonfat yogurt and 1/2 cup lowfat cottage cheese, blended in food processor or blender) 1 pound tofu, drained 21/2 cups spaghetti sauce (bottled or home-made) 4 ounces mozzarella or mozzarella soy cheese, grated

Break the soba noodles in half and cook until al dente, which means "to the bite" - or slightly resistant and elastic instead of soggy. Drain. Combine eggs and Parmesan cheese and toss with warm noodles. Turn the noodles into an oiled 2-quart baking dish and spread them on the bottom. Saute the green pepper and onion in the oil until the onions are translucent, about 5 minutes. Mix with the mock sour cream and spread over the noodle mixture. Crumble the drained tofu into a skillet and mix with the spaghetti sauce. Simmer for 10 minutes. Spoon over the mock sour cream layer. Sprinkle the grated mozzarella over the top. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 min-

TOSSED SALAD

Use romaine or red or green leaf lettuce, as they have many more vitamins and minerals than iceberg lettuce does. Add any other vegetables of your choice and toss with some of the dressing below which is quick and easy to make.

FRENCH QUICK DRESSING 1/2 cup mild olive oil or canola oil (also known as "rapeseed oii"), which has a composition very similar to that of olive oil) 1/4 cup lemon Juice

3 tablespoons of red wine vine-

2½ tablespoons honey 1 teaspoon salt ¼ teaspoon pepper

½ teaspoon paprika 1 tablespoon of poppy seeds or sesame seeds (optional)

Mix ingredients together and serve over salad greens. BROCCOL

Wash the broccoli and remove the large leaves and the tough part of the stalks. Cut broccoli into spears. Steam until barely tender and sprinkle with a little lemon juice and salt. APPLE CRISP

This dessert is one of the Fry family's favorite desserts. It is low in fat and quite nutritious.

8-10 medium apples, sliced juice of 1 lemon 2 cups rolled oats

34 cup whole wheat pastry flour (or regular white flour)

1/3 cup maple syrup, honey or 1/2 cup barley mait (a sweet syrup made from malted barley and available in health food stores) 14 cup canola oil or vegetable

1/2 cup sunflower seeds 1 teaspoon cinnamon 1/2 teaspoon alispice % cup orange juice

Slice the apples and drizzle them with the lemon juice. Spread half of them in a 9-by-13-inch pan. Mix the maple syrup and oil and stir together with the combined oats, flour, seeds and spices. Spread half of this mixture on top of the apples. Cover with the remaining apples and the rest of the topping. Pour orange juice over the top. Bake for 40 minutes at 375 degrees. Cover if it browns too gulckly. Raisins can be added to the apples if so desired. Blueberries, peaches or pears can also be substituted for the apples.

161.161-STATEMENT OF INTENT

nit Planned Development for the purpose encouraging innovation in land use planning and development.

 achieving a higher quality of development than would otherwise be achieved.
 encouraging assembly of lots and redevelopment of outdated commercial corridors.

encograging infill development on sites that would be difficult to develop according to conventional standards because of the shape, size, abutting development, accessability, or other features of the providing enhanced bossing, employment and shopping opportunities.

providing a development framework that promotes appropriate business activity that significantly Improves the economic viability of the City.
ensuring compatibility of design and function between neighboring properties.

encouraging development that is consistent with the City's Master Plan.

These Planned Development regulations are not intended as a device for ignoring the more specific standards in the Zoning Ordinance, or the planning upon which the standards are based. Bather, these provisions are intended to result in development that is substantially consistent with the coning standards generally applied to the proposed uses, but allowing for modifications to the general standards to assure a superior quality of development.

161.162-ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be eligible for Planned Development approval, the applicant must demonstrate that the following

(A) Recognizable and Sabstantial Benefit. The Planned Development shall result in a recognizable and substantial benefit to the ultimate users of the project and to the community. (B) Minimum Frontage and Size. The Planned Development shall have minimum frontage of two hundred (200) feet along a public street or road. The minimum size of a parcel that is developed as a Planned Development shall be thirty thousand (30,000) square feet.

(C) Availability and Capacity of Public Services. The proposed type and density of use shall not result in an unreasonable increase in the use of public services, facilities, and utilities. (D) Compatibility with the Master Plan. The proposed development shall not have an adverse impact on the Master Plan of the City. (E) Compatibility with the Planned Development Intent. The proposed development shall be consistent with the intent and spirit of these regulations, as stated in Section 161.161.

(F) Economic Impact. The proposed development shall not have an adverse impact on the Master Plan of

(G) Unified Control of Property. The proposed development shall be under single ownership or control such that there is a single person or entity having responsibility for completing the project in conformity with the Planned Development regulations. This provision shall not prohibit a transfer of ownership or control, provided that notice of such transfer is given immediately to the City Clerk.

161.163-PROJECT DESIGN STANDARDS Proposed Planned Developments shall comply with the following project design standards:

(A) Location. A Planned Development may be approved in any location in the City, subject to review and approval as provided herein.

(B) Permilled Uses. Any land use authorized in this Ordinance may be included in a Planned Development as a principal or accessory use, provided that public tealth, safety and welfare are not impaired.

(C) Applicable Base Regulations. Unless waived or modified in accordance with sub-section (D), the yard and bulk, parking, loading, landscaping, lighting and other standards for the districts listed below shall generally be applicable for uses proposed as a part of a Planned Development:

3) Retail commercial uses shall comply with the regulations applicable in the C-2, General Shopping

District, Section 161,135 through 161,137.

4) Office uses shall comply with the regulations applicable in the P-O, Office and Professional Building District, Sections 161.115 through 161.118.

(5) Industrial uses shall comply with the regulations in the M-I, Light Industrial District, Sections 181-135 happen 181.160. (6) Mixed uses shall comply with the regulations applicable for each individual use, as outlined above, except that if regulations are inconsistent with each other, the regulations applicable to the most dominant use shall apply. (D) Regulatory Flexibility. To encourage flexibility and creativity consistent with the Planned Development concept, departures from the regulations in sub-section (C), above, may be permitted, subject to review and approval by the Planning Commission and City Council. For example, such departures may include modifications to: lot dimensional standards; floor area standards; setback requirements; density and standards; parking, loading, and landscaping requirements; and similar requirements. Such modifications may be permitted only if they will result in a higher quality of development than would be possible without the modifications. (E) Residential Density. Modifications to the density of residential development may be permitted upon determination that the desired density will not adversely affect water and sewer services, storm water drainage, road capacity, traffic, parks and recreation, fire and police services, schools, character of the area, and any planned public and private improvements in the area. (F) Permitted Mix of Uses. Where the existing underlyine tooling district is residential, nonresidential uses shall be permitted as part of a Planned Devicopment which also contains a residential component, provided that the applicant demonstrates that the residential uses will be predominant. The Plansing Commission shall determine predominance of use after taking into account the following criteria as they apply to each of the proposed asen amount of traffic generated; hours of operation or use; noise, odors, and overall impact on adjoining uses; land area allocated to each use, and, building area allocated to each me. (G) Open Space Requirements. Planned Developments containing a residential component shall provide and maintain usable open space at the ratio of 250 square feet of open space per dwelling unit, provided that each development shall contain a minimum of ten thousand (10,000) square feet of open space. Any previous land area within the boundaries of the site may be included as required open space, except for land contained in public or private street rights-of-way. The required open space shall be set aside by the developer through an irrevocable conveyance, such as a deed restriction or covenant that runs with the land, assuring that the open space will be developed according to the site plan and never changed to another use. Such conveyance shall:

(1) Provide for the privately owned open space to be maintained by private property owners with an [blerest in the open space.
(2) Provide maintenance standards and a maintenance schedule.

3) Provide for assessment of the private property owners by the City of Garden City for the cost of maintenance of the open space in the event that it is inadequately maintained and becomes a public nulsance. (H) Frontage and Access. Planted Developments shall front onto a primary major thoroughlare, secondary major thoroughfare, or collector street, as specified in the adopted Master Plan of the City, except where the Planned Davelopment involves reuse or redevelopment of an existing structure which fronts The nearest edge of any entrance or exit drive shall be located no closer than one hundred (100) feet from any street or road intersection (measured from the nearest intersection right-of-way line).

[I] Utilities. All utilities serving a Planned Development, including electric, telephone, and cable felevision lines, shall be placed underground, wherever feasible. (3) Privacy for Dwelling Units. The design of a Planned Development shall provide visual and sound privacy for all dwelling units within and surrounding the development. Fences, walks, and landscaping shall be used in the site design to protect the privacy of dwelling units.

(K) Emergency Access. The configuration of buildings, driveways, and other improvements shall permit convenient and direct emergency vehicle access.

(I.) Pedeutina and Vehicular Circulation. A pedestrian circulation system shall be provided that is insulated an completely as possible from the vehicular circulation system. uled Planning Commission workshop and a public hearing shall be scheduled.

(b) Public Hearing. The public hearing shall be scheduled in the same manner as required for Special Uses in Section 181 022 of this Ordinance and Section 4a(3) of the City or Village Zoning. Act, Michigan Public Act 207 of 1921, as amended. As state in Act 207, the public hearing and notice required by this sub-section shall be regarded as fulfilling the public bearing and notice requirements for amendment of the Zoning Ordinance. The Planning Commission and City Council may hold a joint public hearing on a Planned Development application if they so

(c) Planning Commission Review. Following the public bearing, the Planned Development proposal and plan shall be reviewed by the Planning Commission in relation to applicable standards and regulations and consistency with the intent and spirit of the Planned Development (d) Plan Revision. If the Planning Commission determines that revisions are necessary to bring the Planned Development proposal into compliance with applicable standards and regulations, the applicant shall be given the opportunity to submit a revised plan. Following submission of a revised plan, the Planned Development proposal shall be placed on the agenda of the next scheduled meeting of the Planning Commission for further review and possible action (8) Planning Commission Determination. The Planning Commission shall review the application for Planned Development, together with the public hearing findings and reports and recommenda-tions from the Building Official, City Planner, City Engineer, Public Safety Officials, and other reviewing agencies. The Planning Commission shall then make a recommendation to the City Council, based on the requirements and standards of this Ordinance. The Planning Commission may recommend approval, approval with conditions, or denial as follows: (a) Approval. Upon determination by the Planning Commission that the final plan for Planned Development is in compliance with the standards and requirements of this Ordinance and other applicable ordinances and laws, the Planning Commission shall recommend approval

(b) Approval with Conditions. The Planning Commission may recommend that the City Council impose reasonable conditions with the approval of a Planned Development proposal, to the extent authorized by law, for the following purposes:

to insure that public services and facilities affected by the proposed development will be capable of accommodating increased public service loads caused by the development to protect the natifial edvironment and conserve natural resources and energy.

Livonia Stevenson and Redford Catholic Central displayed their re-Wednesday.

Monday, November 27; 1989 O&E

While the Spartans have the makings of a solid V-6 roadster, it was the fuel efficient, sub-compact Shamrocks who drove away with a 3-1 victory in prep hockey action at Eddie Edgar Arena in Livonia.

A pair of late period goals by freshman Bill Baaki and Keith Bozyk, along with a tally by Joe Cyrek, with seven minutes left lifted Catholic Central (1-0) to the opening-season win. Matt Kozar had the lone goal for Stevenson (0-2), which dropped its second straight game of the young season.

Goaltending on both sides was excellent. CC netminder Matt Fennelly stopped Stevenson on two breakaways in the second period, turning away 14 shots altogether for the win.

JUNIOR Kevin Brady was equal to the task for the Spartans, stopping-20 CC shots. On two of three goals he allowed, Brady made the initial saves but was the victim of re-

Those were one of many plusses in

John Gumbleton was being the consummate worry-wart afterward.

"The lines are pretty good," Gumbleton said. "We have to get some spective 1989-1990 hockey models more production out of the Jesse Hubenschmidt line (that also includes forwards Paul Pirronello and Bozyk. We're not going to win many games if we don't.

We're small, aren't we? We're going to have to get quicker."

But Gumbleton summed everything up by remarking how proud he was of his team. CC was Johnny-inthe-slot when it counted.

The game was a scoreless checking frenzy until Baaki knocked in his own rebound with 1:16 left in the first period. Scott Johnson and Cyrek drew assists on the goal.

THE PUCK was taken over the CC bench in attempt to commemorate the freshman's first goal, but the referee asked for the souvenir back. At the end of the period, Fennelly scooped up the puck and carried it

After the game, Gumbleton held the prized piece of vulcanized rubber with slight grin.

"When the little freshman gets his first goal, you got to give him the puck," he said.

Then it was the Bozyk-Hubena rather well-played, tight-checking schmidt-Pirronello combo's turn to hockey game. As usual, CC coach score. Bozyk grabbed a loose rebound and lifted the puck into the corner of the net. Hubenschmidt and Pirronello assisted on the powerplay goal, which came with 1:55 remaining in the period.

The tally was preceded by two excellent stand-up saves by Fennelly; who stopped a pair of Matts on breakways: Stevenson's Matt Kozar and then Matt Cichy.

The Shamrocks kept up the goal-aperiod pace as Cyrek sent in a low slap shot from the point with 7:27 left in the game. The goal was unas-

VICTORY MIGHT not have been theirs, but the Spartans displayed a willingness to hit. Until Kozar knocked in a rebound for a powerplay goal with 5:39 left, all Stevenson had to show for its robust play was a handful of penalties.

The goal, which was assisted by Scott Johnson and Nick Sata, came on one of three power-play opportunities for Stevenson.

Offensively, the team never seemed to get untracked. First-year coach Paul Ferguson doesn't sound too worried yet.

"There's a lot of stuff the kids have to pick up on," Ferguson said. "It's a matter of getting the system and the plays down pat."

Taylor Center nips Franklin in final

By Dan O'Meara staff writer

Jenny Russell couldn't say whether she had scored a careerhigh number of points or not Wednesday night."

She didn't care. It really didn't

The important fact was Russell's 12 points were vital to Plymouth Canton winning its first regional championship in girls basketball.

Russell and Susan Ferko, who scored a game-high 22, combined to lead the Chiefs to a 48-40 victory over tournament host Trenton.

"I don't even know what my career high is," said Russell, a point guard averaging three points per game. "They've been telling me toshoot the ball, and the opportunities were there and I went with it."

Russell, who usually makes an impact with her defense and ball-handling skills, did have a career-high point total, and 11 came in the second half to help Canton take control of the contest.

THE NO. 9-RATED Chiefs, 21-3. will play No. 3 Benton Harbor in a Class A quarterfinal game at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at Jackson Lumen Christi High School. The game will be broadcast live by radio station WSDP (88.1 FM).

"We wanted (Russell) to shoot," Trenton coach John Biedenbach said, "but we didn't want her to drive in and shoot layups. She might have been the total difference."

In helping Canton defeat the Trojanettes for a third time this year, Russell-got-the Chiefs, who led 23-20 - round of eight teams at halftime, off to a good start in the second half as she drove for two layups in the first minute.

That boosted the Chiefs into a 27-21 lead, and Canton's advantage was

BUT IT was close until the end, and the Chiefs didn't have a comfortable lead until Ferko gave them an eight-point margin, 41-33, with 31/2 minutes remaining.

Even then, Canton needed free throws down the stretch to cement its first appearance in the final

Thrilling finish lets Hawks keep title

By Dan O'Meara staff writer

Mill Coleman's last football game for Farmington Hills Harrison was some kind of thrill.

The senior quarterback was certainly "Mill The Thrill" as he guided the Hawks to an exciting, last-minute victory over DeWitt in the Class B championship game Saturday night, 28-27.

Coleman directed a clutch, 67yard drive that tied the score and enabled Steve Hill to kick the gamewinning extra point with 1:34 remaining in the Pontiac Silverdome.

"I couldn't picture losing my last game," Coleman said after leading Harrison to its second consecutive state title. "I don't think there's any better way to end your high school career than to win a championship and come from behind to do it."

The Hawks, who finished 13-0 and extended the state's longest winning streak to 28 games, got a break and much-needed shot in the arm when Matt Sperry blocked Marty Camp's extra point. DeWitt had scored the go-ahead touchdown with 2:20 remaining, but Harrison saw the opportunity for victory in that momenturn-turning block!

"Once everybody saw we were only down six points (27-21), that kinda inspired us," Sperry said. "As soon as I blocked it, I looked up at the clock and said 'We're going to

THAT'S WHAT the Hawks did after Scott Ratsos returned the kickoff 26 yards to the Harrison 33. It took Coleman and the offense five plays and 46 seconds to reach the DeWitt end zone, with Coleman running the last 9 yards for his second TD of the game.

"When they scored, I saw there was time on the clock and I knew we had all three timeouts left," said Coleman, who completed 13 of 20 passes for 208 yards. One pass went for a TD on the first series of the game, but two others were intercept-

"I was thinking of John Elway's 98-vard drive with three minutes to go (against the Cleveland Browns in the playoffs)," Coleman said. "That was going through my mind — the drive, the drive, the drive."

Coleman was the epitome of cool under fire, calmly using hand signals to convey audibles to his receivers and being content with a little yardage at a time.

He completed three straight firstdown passes covering 51 yards to Mike Saputo, Steve Hill and Greg Piscopink which put the ball on DeWitt's 16-yard line with 1:50 to

After running 7 yards on a bootleg, Coleman rolled out the other way and ran for the TD, lunging past on-win this - just get the ball in Mill's coming defender Chris Berkimer at the 2 and diving into the end zone.

"We work on the two-minute drill every week, so that really helped us," Coleman said. "(The Panthers) were playing soft, and we were taking what they were giving us."

COLEMAN'S RUNS originated as sprintout pass plays, but there was plenty of room for him to run with DeWitt playing a prevent defense. He was Harrison's leading rusher with 89 yards on 14 carries.

"I liked all those pass plays I called that he ran in for touchdowns," Herrington said tongue-incheek.

Hill, who injured his kicking leg in the team's 3-2 victory over East Grand Rapids in the semifinal game, provided the deciding margin for the second week in a row and killed DeWitt's last hope when he intercepted Berkimer with 1:03 on the clock.

"We were the so-called favorite, but it didn't look that way for most of the game," Herrington said. "I was wondering if we weren't going to get blown out in the first half."

The Panthers, 12-1, gave an inspired effort that surprised most of the 16,090 in attendance.

Making its first appearance in the state finals and competing for the first time as a Class B school, DeWitt was awed neither by being in the Dome nor Harrison's tradition and No. 1 ranking.

THE PROBLEM for Harrison was its inability to stop DeWitt running back John Telford, who rushed for 153 yards and two TDs on 16 carries.

Much to everyone's surprise, the Panthers pounded a Harrison defense that had been tough against the run, rolling up 248 yards on the

Furthermore, the Hawks compounded that with three first-half turnovers, each of which the Panthers converted into TDs and a 21-7

Harrison had geared its defense to stop 2,000-yard rusher Mike Cowdrey, but his counterpart in the wishbone was just as big a threat. Telford scored on runs of 2 and 32 yards and threw a halfback pass for a 36-yard TD in the first half.

At the start, Harrison made it look as if the state final was going to be another romp like the 44-9 shellacking it dealt St. Joseph in 1988.

Harrison needed five plays on the game's first series to take a 7-0 lead. Coleman had two good runs and passed 35 yards to Ratsos for the TD before three minutes had elapsed.

But the rest of the first half was adebacle for the heavily favored second half, and the Chlefs were able to hit Ferko inside, resulting in layups or more free throws for an additional eight points.

"Going inside helped us a lot, because it got them in foul trouble and put us on the free-throw line," Blohm said. "That's a big part of basketball. You have to force the other team to guard you at the basket.'

FREE THROWS were real important for Canton, which had one less field goal than the Trojanettes but was 24-of-35 at the line. Trenton made 14 of 24 free throws. Ferko was 8-of-10, Russell 6-of-9 and Stacey Thompson 6-of-10.

"Our goal was to shut down Ferko," Biedenbach said. "We had done that against some other good players in our league, and we thought we could do it again. We did a good job of double teaming her, but she's just a tough player. She works hard, and that's the thing."

The foul situation became critical for the Trojanettes when Mans, who scored 16 points to lead Trenton, sat down with her fourth foul at 3:33 in the third quarter and the Chiefs leading 30-27.

RUSSELL DROVE for another layup and Ferko scored to give Canton a seven-point lead entering the final period.

"The key was on the blocked shot by Katie Mans," Biedenbach said. "We had to go two or three minutes with her on the bench, and that's when they got their spurt. Without her in the post, we're in trouble."

Trenton stayed within three, 36-33, on Brigette Anderson's basket, but another key sequence followed.

Mary Barna, who held Hoppes to one field goal and six points, made a free throw, and Ferko scored backto-back baskets, the second coming after a Thompson steal at midcourt with 3:47 remaining.

"Our defense was what helped us win the game," Thompson said. 'With us being strong defensively in the beginning, it brought us out at the end. Our offense will come when our defense is there.

"We knew if we did our best we'd have a shot at the end, but we couldn't take that for granted."

FERKO'S SECOND basket made the score 41-33, giving Canton its biggest lead to that point, and the Chiefs went to their delay game and subsequently the free-throw line to secure the victory.

Russell made four straight free throws, Thompson two and Barna one for a 48-38 lead with 12 seconds remaining.

"When we got ourselves on eight points, that was critical," Biohm said. "If you stay on four or six in a game like this, then you're suscepti-

West Bloomfield vs. Lady Rams in final 8

Michelle Aerts, Amira Danforth and Ziggy the Bear.

It all added up to another win for West Bloomfield in the Class A girls basketball tournament.

The Lakers held off Detroit Cass Tech, 55-44, Wednesday in a regional final played at Berkley, and afterward coach Ronna Greenberg was ready to give Aerts, Danforth and Ziggy some of the credit.

We all know Aerts, who scored a game-high 16 points, and Danforth, who added 13, but who's Ziggy?

"It's this teddy bear," said Greenberg. "My players gave it to me and I keep it in my pocket during the games for good luck."

ZIGGY HELPED, and so did Shannon Sipperly, who scored eight of her 12 points in the fourth quarter.

Four of Sipperly's points in the final quarter came from the free throw line, as Cass Tech, a Detroit Public School League member, was forced to foul to get the ball back.

The win was the first ever regional crown for West Bloomfield and the Lakers will meet Taylor Center in a Class A quarterfinal at 7 p.m. Wednesday at Southfield High.

Taylor Center (24-1 overall) is led by guard Wendy Jamula, who has scored more than 2,000 points in her career. The Lakers have two more days to think about the Rams, the than three minutes left. Tri-River League champion.

"We need the rest," Greenberg said. "And we're going to take advantage of that. We have to respect Jamula. She's a good outside shooter. Hopefully, we'll do some stuff they haven't seen yet."

Against Cass Tech, West Bloomfield led by as many as nine, 21-12, after the first quarter, but had to cash in at the free throw line in the end to secure the win.

The Lakers were 14 of 18 at the free throw-line, and Sipperly made all six of her attempts.

"I JUST SAID, "They're going in," Sipperly said. "We always expect a tough game. We came out real strong, then let up. Ronna will be a little disappointed. But she'll take West Bloomfield committed 15 turnovers and that's uncharacteristic of the Lakers.

Choose latest lines in new bowling balls

IGH TECH BOWLING balls are here to stay, and this season there are more to choose from than ever.

In this era of "short oil," synthetic lanes, varying lane conditions and newly developed lane dressing, more ball manufacturers are developing new equipment to meet the needs of the sport today.

Most of the new models are constructed with a urethane outer shell. There are several variations in the weight block.

These are elements that will cause the ball to react differently under certain conditions like oily lanes, medium lanes and dry lanes.

The Columbia "U-Dot" line comes in five different models, each for a certain type of condition with new pearlized finishes, to go along with the old standbys. Brunswick now has five different versions of the "Rhino," each a different color for each particular lane

AMF has added the "Cobra" to its existing line. The ball is designed to work best on heavy oil conditions. New from Ebonite is the "Thunderbolt M/D," developed for medium to dry lanes. 'Hammer," by Faball Industries, offers a wide selection of urethane balls, including the "Nail" for medium to oily lanes.

The "Enforcer" is another series developed by Track, Inc., which features a dual-weight block to reduce friction.

Star .Trax makes the "Equalizer" for dual weight and the X-15 with a triple-weight urethane shell. Rotogrip claims its new ball, the "Grenade," is an explosive weapon. These are all fine productions, but they may be more expensive than our old. "black beauty." But anything is worth the price if you can score higher.

With the holidays fast approaching, this might be a nice little stocking stuffer. Most of the balls mentioned can be obtained at your

Aerts, who scored seven points in the fourth quarter, gave the Lakers the lead for good, 42-40, with 5:20 left on a basket in the paint. Aerts made one of two free throws to give West Bloomfield a 43-40 lead and Danforth then made two important defensive plays — taking a charge and forcing a jump ball - with less

The Lakers' defense in the second half was the difference, according to Greenberg.

"I went in at halftime and I told the kids, 'Cass Tech wants it more than we did," Greenberg said. "We were stuck in our shoes defensively."

Lanise Baidas was the other double figure scorer for West Bloomfield, pouring in 10 points.

Amway Grand Plaza Hotel, right downtown on, the Grand River, is one Grand Rapid's largest, and best-located hotels.

A rapid trip through a grand city

By Carolyn DeMarco staff writer

Monday, November 27, 1989 O&E

You need a weekend off and you're longing for city lights. New York's too expensive. Detroit's too close. Chicago's too far.

Remember Grand Rapids, Michigan's second largest city? With a core population of less than 200,000, it's certainly not the Big Apple (nor does it pretend to be).

But there's enough activity offered to fill a winter weekend nicely. And, as a bonus, it's less than trace the 38th president's life from 21/2 hours from Detroit. If the idea of a weekend in a large, but not too large, city is appealing, read on.

THE LUXURIOUS Amway Grand Plaza Hotel, right downtown on the Grand River, is certainly the area's largest and best-located hotel, and the rates reflect it.

If you can't get a special weekend package, plenty of other moderate hotel choices are available. Among them are Days Inn, Red Roof, Marriott, Quality Inn and Holiday Inn.

One obvious "what to do with ourselves now that we're here" is the Gerald R. Ford Museum, an interesting afternoon whatever your politics, and cheap at $1.50 per person. It's just a walk over the Grand River bridge from the Amway.

Films and two dozen displays his early childhood in Grand Rapids, through his University of Michigan football years and on to the House of Representatives, then his selection as vice president and his swearing in as president. Of special interest is a reproduction of the White House Oval Off-

Hours are 9 a.m. to 4:45 p.m.

Monday through Saturday, noon to 4:45 p.m. Sunday. It's closed Thanksgiving Day, Christmas and New Year's Day.

SOME OTHER sights to see:

• The Alexander Calder Sculpture at Ottawa and Lyon is worth a drive by, if only to ask yourself quietly what other people see in the red-orange "La Grande Vitesse." • The Fish Ladder Sculpture. Ah, now we're talking something practical here.

The sculptor's plan was to help the spawning salmon climb the rapids instead of knocking themselves out to defy gravity and the Grand River rapids, but no one told the fish, at least the day we visited. It's still fun to say you've been.

• Heritage Hill is a nationally recognized historic district of 365 acres and 60 residential architectural styles.

Among them are the Meyer May House, 442 Madison Avenue, a Frank Lloyd Wright restoration of the 1909 house. Free tours are offered 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday, 1-5 p.m. Sunday. The Voigt House Victorian Home Museum is close by. This magnificent house needed no restoration. The Voigts never threw anything away or changed a thing.

The clothing of the day displayed on beds, the wallpaper, the dozens of rocking chairs are all authentic, as are the items that stocked the pantry and the laundry room, like laundry flakes.

The house is open 1-3 p.m. the second Sunday of each month and 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesdays.

• The Grand Rapids Art Museum, 155 Division, is a short walk from the Amway and worth the ex-smaller than a large museum, it's worth an hour of your time to view the traveling and permanent exhibits, especially the furniture room.

It's free Tuesday and Saturday. • While you're in the vicinity, stop at the Kendall School of Art and Design. One recent display on the school's main floor was a jukebox exhibition, 'Man, They Dig This Jive." Fifteen jukeboxes were on display dating from 1927. • For downtown shopping, visit the City Centre Mall, a three-decker Trappers Alley-type affair, or the adjacent Monroe Center pedestrian mall.

Hats in the Belfry is a small haberdashery that carries everything from berets to deerstalkers to Australlan cowboy hats. Try the Shaver and Pen Center, "Michigan's Largest Pen Dealer." Or The Great Divide, which sells only U-M and

YOU CAN do lots of things in January. Bring downhill or cross country skis or ice skates.

For maps and information on outdoor recreation spots, including public ice skating rinks and folks who offer sleigh rides, send for a free copy of "Grand Rapids Guest Book." Bed and breakfast places are also listed. Write Gemini Publications, 40 Pearl NW, Suite 1040 Trust Bldg., Grand Rapids 49503. Or call (616) 459-4545.

"On the Town," a tabloid calendar of events for the month, is also distributed free. Write Downtown Publishing Inc., 759 Butterworth SW, Grand Rapids 49504. Phone (616) 451-0361. For a little more general information on the western Michigan area, send for "Visitors Guide West." Michigan," from Visitor's Network, 190 Monroe NW, Grand Rapids 49503. Phone (616) 459-1297.

He provides weather tips to sail by

By Chris Rizk special writer

If the temperatures are cold these days, Chris Bedford declines to take credit for it.

Temperatures, he said, are only a small part of his duties as a meteorologist since 1986 with the New York-based firm of Galson Technical Services, Inc., an environmental consulting firm for speclal interest sporting groups.

But he will take partial credit for returning the America's Cup to America and away from the Australlans.

Admittedly, Bedford's sailing skills did little to recapture the most-coveted sailing prize. But his knowledge of weather conditions

Bedford, who has ties to Redford (and yes, he's heard all the jokes about Bedford/Redford, he said) through his parents who live there, has the lucrative title of "weatherman" for America's Cup team leader Dennis Connor.

"Well," the 25-year-old said hesitatingly, "let's just say they asked me back."

Connor first asked Bedford to foin his team when the latter's boss, Lee Davis, relinquished the title to pursue a teaching position; at the University of Michigan.

That's where Connor met Bedford, then an undergraduate working toward his degree in atmospheric science.

"He knew I was interested in the kind of forecasting the Cup team needed," Bedford said. "He asked" me if I'd be interested." Bedford began charting Cup forecasts in October. Sometimes,

Return trip still entertaining

Once again, friends, it's time to time-warp so rev up your DeLorean and brace yourself for an exciting and delightful trip "Back to the Future Part II" (B±, PG, 90 minutes).

In this sequel, Marty McFly (Michael J. Fox) learns from Doctor Emmett Brown (Chrstopher Lloyd) that, in the year 2015, Marty's kids - Marty Jr. (Michael J. Fox) and sister Marlene (Michael J. Fox) are in trouble. Unless Marty can intervene and alter things, Marty Jr. will go to jail and a whole string of misfortunes will follow.

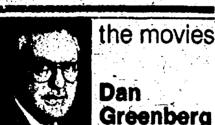

Marty is whipped forward by Doc to 2015 in order to avert catastrophe. In this future segment Michael J. Fox plays three roles - Marty, Marty Jr. and Marlene - courtesy of the makeup department. Generally that's OK but there tends to be a rubbery, Halloween-mask quality which works against Fox's visual im-

Marty helps his son by outsmarting the villain, Griff (Thomas F. Wilson), grandson of Biff, circa 1955. This secures the future but while in 2015 Marty gets greedy and purchases a sports almanac listing events from 1950 to 2000.

A chain of events follows spinning Marty back to an alternate track 1985, parallel to the 1985 he had left. Well, now he's in the soup, in a world where Grandpa Biff (Thomas F. Wilson) retrieved the almanac Marty never should have picked up in 2015.

With that booklet back in 1955 Grandpa Biff made a lot of money which leads to a corrupt and depraved Hill Valley in 1985. Unfortunately some of Biff's villainy is a touch too cruel and unpleasant for the film's generally happy atmos-

ALTERNATIVE VIEWING

A pair of musicals with unusual twists

By John Monaghanspecial writer

It's easy to look at movie musicals as mindless entertainment whose sole purpose is to make people hum the soundtrack on their way home.

In a week brimming with musical screenings, two of the titles, "Love Me or Leave Me" (1955) and "Cabin in the Sky" (1943), have that same end result. But - as their troubled characters can attest - it's a long, hard road getting there.

Take Ruth Etting, the subject of "Love Me or Leave Me," screening Tuesday morning at Livonia Mall. The famous 1920s torch singer was as well known for her lousy marriage to a gangster as for the songs she made popular.

In adapting her story for the screen, Oscar-winner Daniel Fuchs didn't pull any punches. The end result was perhaps the most disturbing and honest show biz biography of the DORIS DAY played Etting, the talented chorus girl whose career flourished under the financial support of gangster Martin "The Gimp" Snyder (James Cagney). Forced into marriage, Etting fell in love with another man - whom Snyder tried to murder out of jealousy.

The chemistry was unusual - to say the least. Cagney, well known for gangster roles, elicited both sympathy and revulsion as the psychopathically jealous Snyder. The role echoed slightly more subtlely than his intense mother fixation in "White Heat" (1949).

Day, meanwhile, surprised everyone with her poignant, dramatic performance. She did justice to the renditions of Etting classics - 'Ten Cents a Dance" and "Shaking the Blues Away" — along with a pair of

"Love Me or Leave Me" was well received by critics and audiences; and could have turned Day into a major dramatic actress. Press releases called the film "The Dawn of ! a new Day."

Though she worked with Hitch-cock on "The Man Who Knew Too Much" the following year, Day soon! returned to the squeaky-clean roles; that made her famous.

THE DARK aspects of "Cabin in."

the Sky," meanwhile, spread well beyond its all-black cast. In it, the forces of good and evil wrestle for the soul of a likeable no-account; named Little Joe (Eddie 'Roches-' ter" Anderson). In the world of "Cabin in the Sky," jazz music becomes synonymous! with sin. Louis Armstrong is all: smiles as an assistant to Lucifer Jr. (Rex Ingram), and Duke Ellington sizzles at the local den of iniquity.

"Cabin in the Sky" was based on a popular Broadway play, and was the first of many musicals directed by Vincente Minnelli. Despite the obvious racial stereotypes, a black cast ; has rarely been used so creatively.

The film sets up familiar good girl and bad girl counterparts in Ethel Waters and Lena Horne. As Little Joe's faithful wife, Waters comes off surprisingly sexy_when_vamping_itup in an attempt to make her hus :: band jealous. She introduced the song, "Taking a Chance on Love."

Ageless Horne, meanwhile, is at her most striking in this film. She puts on sin with the same ease of slipping into a sexy silk blouse.

"Cabin in the Sky" teams with "Singin in the Rain" (1952) this weekend as the Tele-Arts Theatre takes a break from premieres with a monthlong look at vintage films.

Foreign films that deserve a VCR visa

By Dan Greenberg special writer

Foreign film fans - as well as those who seldom sample tape offerings in that section of the video store - may be interested in the wide variety of entertaining movies available from overseas.

A student once asked me, in all sincerity, whether or not there was some requirement that all foreign films must have sad endings.

While there is no such rule, most imported films are more serious than Hollywood entertainment. There are a number of reasons for that, but what we see here does not fully represent foreign film producion. Their reputation to the contrary, not all imported movies are serious, "artistic," philosophical or exclusively concerned with social problems.

Despite a high entertainment quotient, foreign films, particularly

Two very excellent, older German films which launched their stars' careers — "M" with Peter Lorre and "The Blue Angel" with Mariene Dietrich --always are available and are a must for every film fan.

Western European ones, are produced in cultures with long traditions of open discussion of social issues. There also is a strong tradition of the motion picture as an art form in Europe.

Then, too, there is the high cost of distribution and exhibition so that distributors are reluctant to spend big bucks without some sort of pub- Lorre's memorable, tortured confeslicity hook to reassure them that the film will appeal to the American market. "Best of the Festival" at Venice or Cannes or "The Golden" Something Somewhere Else" are usually awards won for artisitic merit and qualify as the needed boost for ticket sales. Of course nowadays videocassette distribution eases the financial burden on importing foreign films to this country. The extensive racks at many video stores are ample testimony to this and there's lots of entertainment available, new and old.

TWO VERY excellent, older German films which launched their. stars' careers - "M" with Peter Lorre and "The Blue Angel" with Marlene Dietrich - always are available and are a must for every film fan. The former is about a psychopath (Lorre) whose killings set Berlin on edge and concludes with

"The Blue Angel" features Marlene Dietrich introducing "Falling in Love Again" which became her signature tune. Rene Clair directed the first French musical in 1931, "Le Million," a dippy but fun-filled romp through Paris in musical search for the winning lottery ticket.

Recently a number of French films have been remade quite successfully in this country, e.g., Ted-Danson in "Cousins," and Danson with Tom Selleck in "Three Men and a Baby." A few years ago Gene Wilder and Gilda Radner remade the 1977 French comedy, "Pardon Mon Affaire" (color, PG, 105 minutes).

"Affaire" was directed by Yves Robert, better known for "The Tall Blonde Man with One Black Shoe" --: also remade on this side of the Atlantic and also available in its original on tape.

Language is one of the problems foreign films face in this country and while dubbing is disturbing on large theater screens, it's not so intrusive on a 21-inch videoscreen, despite the fact that it never quite matches up and there's always the sense that some strangers are butting in on the fun.

"Pardon Mon Affaire" is dubbed and it's a pretty effective comedy about four friends and their problems with sexuality and aging. Despite that topic, the film is properly rated PG. All very tasteful as the comedy centers less on the sexual problems of middle-aged men and more on their bumbling attempts to do something about it.

THE MAIN character, Etlenne Dorsay (Jean Rochefort), a minor but successful civil-servant, is happily married to Marthe (Danielle Delorme) but the middle-aged crazies Simon (Guy Beccs) is a doctor suf- 1/4 fering from an overdose of mother? while the macho guy in the group, we Daniel (Claude Brasseur), is a homosexual. The childishness of these supposedly mature characters provides: a number of good comic interludes 2 although the film's main focus is on " Etienne's bumbling attempts to have an affair with a model (Anny Du-15-

Singer strums away, shuns music's labels

By Larry O'Connor staff writer

You can calls him Bruce Springsteen. You can calls him Warren Zevon. You can calls him John Cougar Mellancamp. But you doesn't has to call him a folk-roots-rock-pop

In fact, Ichabod Stowe prefers you wouldn't.

For Stowe, labels belong on clothes and food products, not music. He actually prefers being compared to another artist than have his music affixed with some description that doesn't apply.

"I try to avoid labels of any kind," sald Stowe, 30, a native of Franklin and a Birmingham Groves graduate, "especially ones like stale or something like that."

That would probably be the last thing one would call his latest LP, "It's My Turn," on the New York-based independent label Gadfly Records. Stowe's music includes folk, rock and even reggae this time around.

The cover features a person trying to balance the cube (from Ann Arbor) on his finger. Sometimes humorous, sometimes serious, indeed, this LP is something of a balancing act for Stowe (whose real name is Mitch Cantor).

The LP opens with the folk-rock inspired "This Train is Running Out of Track" and then follows with the reggaefied "All Grown Up With Nowhere to Go." From there on, anything goes.

"It's My Turn" is the follow-up to the singer/songwriter's acclaimed debut "The Legendary Ichabod Stowe" two years ago. Though wellreceived, the LP perhaps didn't capture the essense of what Ichabod Stowe is onstage, one who is funny, the artist who is quite versatile.

Versatility is Stowe's middle name. After all this is a guy who has two master's degrees, teaches the martial art Aikido Yoshinkai, held public office in Ann Arbor and had a role in the Dino DeLaurentis film "Evil Dead II."

Stowe's musical resume is as extensive. His musical roots can be traced to Ann Arbor, where he joined a band, Gary Pryka and the Scales. He then started his own-group The-

HE WENT on to Washington D.C. where he was in a group called The Jump and then performed with a band in Paris, France, The Ice Cream Men.

A move to the Big Apple, though, would prove to be the core of his solo career. It's a career that continues to evolve despite the usual obstacles. He doesn't have a record deal, operating his own label, and he is trying to stake a claim in the highly competitive New York folk scene.

"It's a double-edged sword," Stowe said. "(New York) is a better. place for meeting people from other parts of the country, it's more centralized. Again, on the other hand, you don't walk down the street and meet the president of C.B.S. Records."

Nonetheless, Stowe carries on. His audience is targeted, primarily college-educated people who listen to such things as lyrics. Now, it's only a matter of reaching them.

He believes an open-minded audience helps give him carte blanche in terms of the type of music he performs. Along with folk, pop and reggae, Stowe has a bagful of rockabilly tunes he might pull out during a live performance. That won't change anytime soon, he said.

"I write whatever I feel like writing," he said. "I don't think of it as settling down, I think of it as limiting yourself. If you enjoy writing in different styles, if you cut yourself off from that . . . I don't know why you would do that."

Much the same attitude is applied to his choices of venues for live performances. He will perform a show at his alma mater, Birmingham-Groves, on Thursday, Dec. 7. He will also perform that evening at The Ark in Ann Arbor. He talks of perhaps one day performing a show at the Apple Orchard in his hometown of Franklin.

Nonetheless, Stowe is looking forward to returning to his old school.

The guy who book the date wanted to know what I did in high school," Stowe said. "Basically, I went to school. There no extracurricular activities . . . I was just there."

BO DIDDLEY Majestic Theatre, Detroit

This show had the feel of a high school sock hop: a rockin' little trip back in time.

The boys were lined up front, pounding the stage with their fists, thump-a-thump-a-thump thumpthump. The Bo Diddley Beat. A couple fellas even sported 1950s, DAstyle haircuts. They were too young for the original, but looked good nonetheless. A few girls were up front as well, moving to that beat. The man, Bo Diddley, was on stage in all his glory, at times gyrating, shaking and strutting, his eyes showing keen interest in the girls.

"I've been doing it for 35 years..." he told the Majestic Theatre crowd.

Bo Diddley did many things that night, but he did not show his age.

In 1955, Chess Records released a 45 by Diddley - a.k.a. Elbert one side and "I'm A Man" on the not.

capilvating guitar sound brought rhythm and blues to rock and roll, much like his contemporaries Chuck Berry and Chubby Checker did.

Unlike Berry and Checker, Diddley never scored big on the record charts. He has complained bitterly over the years about getting ripped off by record companies, promoters, and other music industry sharks.

Dozens of 1960s artists, the Rolling Stones and Bob Seger among "Long live rock and roll." them, paid tribute to Diddley. While the sound is well known in rock'n'roll, the man is less so. But here it is 1989, and the forgotten man resurfaces in a tennis shoe McDaniel, Mississippi-born and Chi-- commercial, and becomes popular cago raised - with "Bo Diddley" on again. Poetic justice lives, irony or Heyyyy Bo Diddley He played two hours to a couple DIDDLEY AND HIS SIMPLE but hundred fans at the faded but fun Majestic, seeming to enjoy himself all the while.

Diddley's trademark guitar looks like a Lincoln Continental on strings - square, loaded with switches and a sticker that reads 'Turbo 5 Speed.' Its master worked all the gears.

Flipping switches and pedals, Diddley had that square, Gretsch guitar sounding at times like a mariachi band, at times like a guitar

HE WORKED THROUGH HITS like "I'm a Man," and "Roadrunner" with a strong voice, and got into some twisted, love-gone-bad raps. Bo Diddley is no feminist. His odd sense of humor remains.

On one song, he berates a lover then adds: "Wait a minute...Woman, put away that razor. Don't you know I love you?"

Local bluesman Johnny "Yard Dog" Jones opened up the show with The Rhythm Kings, who stayed on stage to back up Diddley.

If there was a complaint, it was the brevity with which he whipped through "Bo Diddley." He didn't even play "Who Do You Love?"

That's too bad because I couldhave listened to that beat all night. - Brian Lysaght

AUTOMATIC — The Jesus and Mary Chain

It may well be time to reassess the Jesus and Mary Chain as a gimmick band that unwisely dumped its gim-

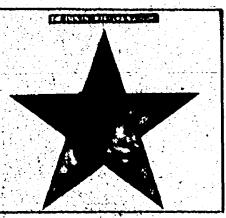

Four years ago, the Chain was the darling of the independent music scene. The black-clad quartet drenched its simple pop songs with a squalling wall of feedback and guitar noise. The Chain's debut LP, "Psychocandy," set a new standard for noise, and it remains influential.

On "Automatic," the Chain has been pared down to Jim and William Reid, brothers, guitarists, singers and songwriters. While the Reids can fairly claim the bulk of the credit for the band's earlier successes, they must now accept the blame for the band's stagnation.

Their attempt to dispense with the ultimately limiting sound they invented on "Psychocandy" is praiseworthy, but "Automatic's" cleaner arrangements reveal the Reids' lim-

Simply put, the pair has yet to come up with a chord progression that sounds even remotely original.

But while the lyrics do slink through a harsh, dark, metallic landscape broken up only by the occaslonal Coke machine, this is turf that has been well covered by the Reids and their disciples and predecessors. And because neither Reid is a great singer, "Automatic" often sounds like the latest Love & Rockets LP.

At its best, the hooks are too good to ignore, or one of the Reids lets loose with a blast of gultar noise that allows the listener to forget the record's many limitations.

while it's a tad unfair to use the band's prior successes against it, "Automatic" makes it clear that the Chain's songs just aren't enough. If the Reids are going to persist in boldly ignoring the gimmickry that made them famous, they ought to consider finding a new gimmick of equal appeal, some new chord progressions, or a new lyrical bent.

STORYTELLER - Rod Stewart

Few rock artists have been as commercially successful as Rod Stewart; none so reviled by critics.

Spanning Stewart's 25-year recording career, Storyteller (Warner Bros.) makes at least 30 strong arguments for Stewart's return among rock's select.

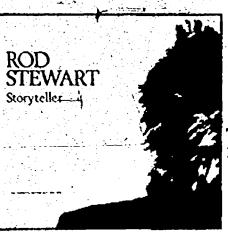

Most are contained in the album's first half - pulled from the oftenbrilliant albums Stewart recorded with the Jeff Beck Group, the Faces and from early, folk-based, solo albums released on Mercury in the

These songs demand little individual comment. "Maggie May" is as vital a part of rock's history as "Hound Dog", "She Loves You" or "Purple Rain".

Those unaware of the power of Stewart's early work, which also includes such classics as "Gasoline Alley", "Mandolin Wind" and 'You Wear It Well", have some serious catching up to do.

And the album's CD configuration is a good way to do it. The generally clean sound is a welcome relief for those who have sat through Stewart's soggy LP referee.

Culture gone-mad

For years, suburbia's social elite have been forced to travel downtown for their cultural pursuits. From the DSO to the DIA, the big city has traditionally enjoyed a monopoly on highbrow entertainment.

Now, culturally-deprived suburbanites can stand tall, thanks to the debut of the prestigious "Museum of Failed Products' in Farmington Hills. Exhibiting only those cultural milestones conceived in suburbia, the MFB threatens to turn metropolis green with envy.

Meanwhile, join me for a sneak preview as we take a burb-by-burb look at our hometown inventors:

No. 1. Redford's talented Sister Cordova is the proud inventor of the original "Meat Detector." Developed in the '50s for use by the Catholic Church, this portable electronic sensor helped enforce meatless Fridays on the faithful.

Every Friday, plainclothes nuns would drive past parishloner's homes at dinner time and scan them for meat. If the detector's neutre swung into the red, the sisters would surround the house, shouting "Where's the Beef?"

The papal edict lifting the ban on meat spelled doom for the local manufacturer. However, a modified version is still being used by fastfood restaurants to locate hamburger pattles too small to see with the naked eye.

No. 2. Next time you nuke a frozen pizza, pause a moment to say "thank you" to Tom Bunker of Troy.

While experimenting with electromagnetic radiation, Tom invented the revolutionary new appliance he dubbed the "Open-Air Microwave Oven." Unlike today's fully enclosed models, this early prototype was open on three sides for easy access.

Sensing the future market for microwave cooking, industry flocked to purchase the rights to Bunker's idea. Unfortunately, before the royally checks arrived, Tom's family had mutated into alien life forms and slithered off into the storm sewers.

Using robotics, a set of rods and levers were installed around Travolta's legs. Once the dance steps were programmed in, the motorized splints completely controlled his lower body. With the machinery concealed by bellbottoms, all Travolta had to do was swing his arms and curl his lip to the beat.

After the success of the movie, Lupanoff earned his own place in the record books by winning 14 dance marathons in his battery-powered slacks. Able to dance vigorously while eating or sleeping, Conrad stunned the judges by dancing for eight straight days! Richard Lewis is on hiatus from his ABC-TV sitcom, "Anything but Love," working on his stand-up routine.

Lewis: Anything but rest

By Bob Sadler special writer

It's tough to catch Richard Lewis when he's not working.

Technically, when we caught up with him last week, he was "on hiatus" from his ABC series "Anything But Love." However, the scenario_ painted by the frenetic comic could be more realistically titled "anything but rest.

"Anything But Love" is in its first full season on ABC and Lewis is excited about its possibilities.

"ABC believes in the show, me, her (co-star Jamie Lee Curtis) and the rest of the cast. I'm happy with the writers and the cast. We all get along."

By Cathle Breidenbach special writer

TAST APRIL when Charles Bullock decided to manufacture and market glimmering ornamental Christmas trees, sentiment played as big a role in the decision as business know-

He says when people succumb to the shimmering serenity of his trees, "It's an emotional buy no matter what. The trees are so reflective when they're near lights, they sparkle like they're lit up themselves."

If emotions move people to buy the tree kits called Ornamentrix, emotion also lies behind Bullock's own decision to go into the Christmas tree business.

The trees and the hollday have become a family affair. The partiallyretired manufacturers representative will be 60 Dec. 25. His wife, Jill, was also born on Christmas Day, and that's just the beginning of the mix of traditions and memories that persuaded him to fill his basement with floor to ceiling boxes of shiny balls and packaging materials and to become an entrepreneur again.

The most persuasive reason is that his 82-year-old mother, Rose Bul-Tock, first created the decorative trees 40 years ago.

"DURING MY YOUNGER years," Bullock reminisces, "Dad was busy making a living as vice president of a manufacturing company. He always came home with a briefcase packed with work. So mother and I became pals. She taught me to cook soup and corn relish and to bake pies. She and I played horseshoes and she tossed a football with me."

Rose Bullock came up with the idea of making the trees from graduated sizes of glass Christmas balls topped by a spiked ornament. The tiers of balls were mounted on a .: "Only two manufacturers make metal base to anchor the tree. Her creations have sparkled on coffee tables and end tables during the holidays ever since - a treasured heirloom she shared with family and

A year ago July, she moved from her large home in Bloomfield Hills to Mercy Bellbrook, a complex for senior citizens not far from where Charles and his wife live. Over the holidays at her new home, "people oohed and aahed and asked her where whe got her trees," says Bullock, "and one fella said from out of left field, 'Geez, you ought to market those."

Charles Bullock couldn't banish the idea from his mind and decided to launch a new business. Certainly the lifelong businessman knew how to go about starting a business. He'd done it several times before, once on a large scale with a tool and die shop. Unlike his previous business ventures, this one capitalizes on emotions — his own and his buyers'.

FIRST HE PATENTED the trees which he sells as a kit because there's no unbreakable way to ship them assembled. Expenses to get his patent approved cost $6,000 up front. The trees may look uncomplicated, but the multiple details of patenting them, purchasing parts, designing packaging that could withstand UPS shipping, and booking advertising demand careful planning not to mention considerable outlay of money.

After Christmas last year, Bullock bought sample balls from stores all over town to find out names of manufacturers as potential sources.

spindle and her husband made a four sizes of balls," he says of the supply problems he encountered, and "nobody makes tops in the U.S." Back in April he wanted to place an order for spiked tops through Bronner's in Frankenmuth, but it was already too late to take advantage of Bronner's bulk order discounts. So he ordered independently - tops from Colombia, South America, and balls in assorted colors from a company in Los Angeles. Even though silver is his hottest seller, he couldn't specify color quantities because manufacturers can't afford to hand pack-orders. Computers do the packing and buyers must take either cases of predetermined color mixes or full cases in all one color.

Matching ball colors presented the next hurdle. The blue and green on imported balls which he uses for the tops of his trees quarrel with the colors of balls from his Los Angeles supplier. "The imported blues are nearly purple," he says. Clashing colors led him to his basement "laboratory" to experiment with spray cans of assorted automotive transparent acrylic lacquers. He rigged up a cardboard box spraying chamber and set up fans to speed drying.

IN HIS "LAB," he worked out close color matches. He offers the trees in silver, gold, red, green and blue or in two color mixes.

Next he negotiated with businesses to manufacture the 4-inch plastic discs that support the tree and won't scratch furniture surfaces. "I wanted to make 100 trees to start," he said, "but manufacturers wouldn't even waste the time to quote me on that volume.""Quotes on molds to produce the bases ranged from $175 to over $12,000. He settled on a Wixom company that charged a moderate price for the mold and two dollars per disk.

"I totally blew estimates of packaging costs," he says of another hurdle in starting up his business. Packaging accounts for 20 percent of costs because the 16 glass balls and spiked top must nestle securely in molded urethane to keep them from breaking.

One manufacturer told him, "You gotta break some eggs to make an omelet," but he didn't want any of his customers to receive kits with broken balls.

Finally Manhattan Container Co.

in Hazel Park came up with a sturdy package for the kit that doubles as a permanent storage box. Bullock sent the carefully designed two-pound package to the UPS lab in Illinois to see if it could withstand their drop, vibration and puncture tests. He facetiously says, "It passed the UPS drop kick test." Finally he investigated advertising in Better Homes and Gardens and Traditional Home Magazines and was overwhelmed by the cost. When he inquired two months ago, he says, "Not only was I too late, I couldn't afford them" Earlier in the year, he made a sales circuit of upper Michigan and talked with six different retail operations. Most had already ordered their Christmas supplies and he discovered a marketing problem - "I can't afford to sell low enough so they can mark the trees up 100 percent."

HE DELIBERATELY priced the trees to "meet IRS guidelines limiting gifts and entertainment to $25," so the trees would be eligible for business gift giving. The kits sell for $24.95 plus $4 shipping and handling.

Q: My husband works constantly, yet is always behind. I'm more in control and like to take time off and do nothing sometimes, and he can hardly stand it. "It's the best kept secret in Livonia.

It's called Woodridge Apartments. It's the most perfect combination of luxury and comfort I've found. And I love being just a couple of minutes from the great malls in Livonia, and 1-696. (Of course I love) to shop-who doesn't?!) I also love the tennis and pool right here, and the fact that I have covered parking for my car. The rent makes sense to me too. Since I have so many other things I want to spend my vast (?) resources on. Call

Building amid woods, water

Mission Springs features 101 acres of home sites with five parks and 1,750 feet of lakefront. Fifty acres of wetlands were preserved, and 80 percent of the lots back up to a park. Houses such as the Lakewood model by Invanhoe-Huntley are surrounded by trees.

By Louise Okrutsky staff writer

After three others failed to develop separate pieces of a sensitive plot of land, Gary Shapiro of The Ivanhoe Cos. assembled two parcels into Mission Springs on Darb Lake in West Bloomfield:

"It took me a long time to acquire it," Shapiro said of the property. His plans needed to conform to West Bloomfield and the state Department of Natural Resources wetlands and woodlands regulations.

Out of that grew a development with 101 acres of home sites with five parks and 1,750 feet of lakefront on Darb Lake. A bridge leading from Willow Road was built over wetlands and continues 600 feet into the developed area. The development is west of Hiller Road off Willow.

"I wanted to bring the development in from a paved road. If the bulk of the houses were in the back, you would have had to drive through the neighborhood behind us to get to it," Shapiro said.

Working with the DNR, he came up with a plan that saved 50 acres of wetlands and allowed 80 percent of the lots to back up to a park. There are five cul de sacs in the development. Houses are almost literally built around trees.

"It's more difficult and expensive to build on a treed lot," said Scott Jacobson of SR Jacobson Development Corp., one of four builders in the development. "West Bloomfield is involved in the amount of trees we can take down. We'd like to keep all the trees we can. It's certainly more difficult."

'It's a long process before we dig a hole for the basement," said Stuart Michaelson of Stewart Homes Corp., another of Mission Spring's builders.

AFTER STAKING out a lot, the builder and a West Bloomfield environmental ordinance officer walk through the property deciding which trees can be removed. In many cas- with one child or no children. ing time, Michaelson said.

When the basement is dug, the dirt is carted off the lot. The trees don't allow much room on the lot to store the dirt there as it's more commonly done. Piles of dirt left against tree trunks would harm the trees.

Shapiro's convinced that the subdivision would look different if he wanted to develop the property today. "It was approved two years ago, but under the current state ordinance there would have been bigger lots. It would have made the homes more expensive," Shapiro said. Mission Springs borrows a bit from the condominium developments done by The Ivanhoe Cos. Parks, beaches, streets and bridges are marked with etched signs.

In addition to developing the property, Shapiro also has a stake in building homes in the subdivision. Along with Steve Perlman, his partner in Ivanhoe-Huntley Homes, Shapiro's building on half of the proper-

He also chose three other companies from a field of 50 to build in the development. In addition to those already mentioned, that group includes Richter-Rosin Builders. "We wanted diversity," said Shapiro, a third-generation builder. Perlman's a second-generation builder.

"WE'RE BUILDING houses of the '90s," Shapiro said. Emphasizing open spaces, many of the development's houses feature a sitting roomnext to the country kitchen and master bedroom suites for working couples. "Those are the two rooms lived in to a greater extent," Shapiro said.

So far, the development with homes in the $220,000-$300,000 range is attracting working couples, empty nesters and young executives and families.

Typical of the homes offered in . the subdivision is Ivanhoe-Huntley's 11/2-story home with 2,742 square 1 feet. It appeals to young couples?

Board ignores woman member

I am the only woman on a fiveperson board of directors and believe I am being abused by the male members. They never seem to listen to me and think that I am some scatterbrained female, even though I have a teaching certificate and have been married for 25 years. What can I do to asert my rights and still maintain some degree of respectability?

This is a frequent complaint I hear from females who believe their voice is not being heard by the other members of the board. If your intent is not to seek a direct confrontation with the other directors and if you do not wish to come out and accuse them of being discriminatory or chauvinistic, my best suggestion is that you overwhelm them with your enlightenment and education concerning condominium association affairs. It may be appropriate to do additional reading, take condominium operation classes and otherwise point out by way of direction that you are indeed perceptive and know what you are doing and that your experience both in your avocation and in your day-to-day living demands the proper respect from the other members of the board.

I am being told by my real estate agent that I do not need an attorney at closing to review the papers because the Realtor is very experienced and that the bank will be overseeing the closing as they must protect their interest as the lender. While I don't expect you to agree, can you give me any decent reason why my Realtor is wrong?

I could probably fill the newspaper why your Realtor has not only given you bad advice but has breached his or her fiduciary responsibilities as a broker. Instead of encouraging you not to have an attorney, a Realtor is supposed to recommend to you that you have an attorney look over your closing documents. The bank-lender is interested in securing that it has a first mortgage interest and that its lien is prior to all other interests and it is not necessarily in a position to protect your legal rights with respect to the particular aspects of your purchase. At the very minimum, you should have an attorney look at the closing documents to ensure that the calculations have been properly made as well as the deed and bill of sale have been properly drafted to protect your interests in accordance with the purchase agreement. Moreover, I would be particularly skeptical of the nature of the closing in fight of what bad advice you have received from your Realtor. As a practical matter, the best time to get the attorney involved is before the purchase agreement has been signed to insure that all of your rights are protected. If that has not been done, at least insure that you got the benefit of your bargain so that you will not have problems, either in terms of the deed, bill of sale or title policy that you will presumambly receive after closing.

Our board of directors is experiencing increasing problems with the developer. Several members of the board indicated that they do not want to spend the money to pursue the developer and that the co-owners will not tolerate a special assessment because they are on fixed incomes. I am trying to point out to the board that they must discharge their fiduciary duties and pursue the developer because of the magnitude of the claim. How can I get their heads screwed on straight?

You may have to unscrew their heads and replace them with others if they are not persuaded that they must pursue the developer in light of serious delects and deficiencies in the common areas for which the association is responsible. The fact that co-owners may not be able to easily afford to defray the costs of litigation is a practical consideration but should not be the sole basis by which the association decides to pursue the developer. In any condominium, there are always co-owners who will complain about special assessments, regardless of their ability to pay. Unfortunately, the board of directors has a practical responsibility of insuring that it has done whatever is necessary to pursue the developer if the economics and legal claims justify it. In your case, it would seem that your board is being very shortsighted and has not forthrightly dealt with the issue of the developer claim as it relates to the members' ability to fund the claim. I would insist on a meeting of members of the association to explain the need of the board to take action against the developer by way of a members' derivative suit or to seek a petition to force a special meeting of the mem-

The best time to get. the attorney involved is before the purchase agreement has been signed to insure that all of your rights are protected.

Our board has hired a new management company that has been in existence for 10-12 years but claims to be the cheapest management company having the cheapest contractors and the cheapest lawyer. The management company president doesn't seem terribly professional, and the board and I am concerned about what can be done to confront the management agent. The attorney that he has recommended seems to be involved with him in a number of sites, and I am not sure that the attorney will be in any way helpful in confronting the management agent. What do you suggest?

As in any other profession or business, there are excellent management companies and there are very poor management companies. A management firm that is not prepared to stand up to a board of directors when the board is wrong or does not have independent judgment in terms of making decisions is not the management firm that you want foryour condominium association.

If you believe that the attorney is basically beholden to the management company, you are best advised; to interview on your own other management companies or attorneys to get a straight answer on the advisability of continuing to use your present management company and the alternatives available. There are attorneys who can be consulted on an independent basis to provide you with an unemotional and detached evaluation of their experience in working with condominium management companies and you may be well advised to consult with that attorney on behalf of your association. Then take your information and confront the board of directors with the results if your views are confirmed.

1. Cive the reader specific information. Pretend you are someone reading the classifieds. What would you like to know about the item, service or Job you are advertising? Be sure to add details such as color, size, condition, brand name, age, features and benefits. Be accurate! Don't embellish your ad with misleading information. Stick to the facts and reap the rewards!

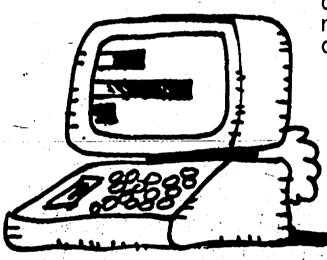

l. Include the price. Don't vaste your time or a potential nuyer's time. If you advertise the price of the item or service you offer, the people who respond o your ad will be those who are renuinely interested. Surveys how that readers are more nterested in those items and ervices they know are within their price range.

3. Avoid abbreviations. Don't make a potential customer work too hard! Although you may be tempted to cut down on the cost of your ad by using abbreviations, surveys indicate that many people don't understand such abbreviations as EIK (eat-in kitchen) or WSW (white side wall) tires and won't take the time to figure them out. A confused reader is a disinterested reader. Get the most for your money and use complete words.

specify hours. Be sure to let potential customers know when and where to call. Surveys show that even if a person is very interested in your item or service, he or she will not call back after the first attempt. Stay near the phone during the hours you indicate you will be available. Don't risk missing a sale!

5. Run on consecutive days. Your ad will not get results if people don't see it! Therefore, it is important to set up a consistent and consecutive ad schedule with your telephone salesperson or outside sales representative.
