Westland will "go far beyond what's required" by Wayne County's new solid waste management plan, the city's public services director sald Tuesday.

"We expect to have a compost program set up within the next year to year-and-a-half and we already make use of incineration," said Richard Ditimar,

The temporary recycling facility is located at the DPS transfer site, on Marquette cast of Newburgh.

The Central Wayne County Sanitation Authority, which runs the Dearborn Heights incinerator used by Westland and four other western Wayne communities, agreed last month to a joint study on development of a new waste-to-energy facility. Detroit Edison and the Resources Energy Co. will also take part in the study.

Today's young adults share concern

By M.B. Dillon staff writer

The twenty-something generation: Fairly or unfairly, it's been characterized as an overly sensitive group that is responding in specific ways to having grown up in an era of drugs, divorce and economic strain.

These young adults — born during dropped to half the rate of its postwar peak — is postponing adulthood and delaying relationships in an effort to avoid hurt and risk.

Sometimes called "baby busters," these young people prefer shortterm tasks that bring tangible results. They take a passive approach to overwhelming social problems student at the University of Michihave a taste for travel to exotic

HEALTHY DOSES of self-direction and a desire to obtain high-paying jobs in order to afford the finer things in life. And an enhanced awareness of the drug scene, AIDS, sex and a higher possibility of being victimized by crime.

Differences are emerging between the age groups as well. More of today's high school freshmen work. "In many ways, there's more pressure to achieve academically," said Charlotte Sherman, assistant principal at John Glenn High School in Westland, "The guaranteed Jobs aren't there, and they know it. "More of them are going to work," she added. "Ten years ago, ninth and 10th graders never worked after school. Now it's very common. They assume more responsibility for earning a share of their expenses."

Agreed Dawn Virant, a ninthgrader at Garden City Junior High: "Most of my friends want to go to college and get a job so they can earn money. Earning a lot of money is a big thing. They want everything; like a blg house, a nice car and the ability to travel. Younger kids are working so they don't have to depend on their parents for money. You need that to fit in."

Classmate Neil Marano said family ranks up there too, "because they do everything for you. The way you get these expensive clothes is usually through your parents."

"Being more materialistic is in," agreed Dan Murphy, a ninth-grader at Canton High School who plans to become an architectural engineer. "You have to have money to have JASON CHAPMAN, 14, of Plymouth points out that "with the way things are in the world with the rich getting richer, the poor getting poorer and the environment crumbling, there's not going to be a chance for everyone to earn $100 million.

Jessica Olmeda, 14, of Canton Township wants to be rich "because we don't have a lot of money now. I want to be able to buy stuff. Then I want a family afterwards," said Olmeda, who plans a career in psychology.

A family isn't all-important to Canton ninth-grader Kathryn Yack.

'I just want to have a career. I'm afraid if I have a family I will neglect them. I want to be a wellknown author and help people through writing, and that's a hard

Twenty-four-year-old Mary Kublak has coached junior high and high school gymnastics and track in Westland since graduating from John Glenn High School. Kubiak, who is single and owns her own home in Westland, said she thinks some of the characterizations about her generation are true.

"Personally, I agree that we try not to take too many risks," she said. And enjoying the good life is important to a lot of Kublak's friends.

"A lot of my friends are like that.

To me it matters some, but not quite as much. A lot of people didn't go to our five-year reunion because they didn't have the things they wanted to have by that time. The more they have, the better it looks. They want to impress people," said Kubiak, who loads planes for Northwest Airlines.

KUBIAK HAS put off marriage a time when the U.S. birthrate and family because "I've seen too much. I've seen too many people who've not stayed together, too many men who have lost their kids because of divorce. I've even seen women who've lost their kids or are under too much of a stain raising kids on their own."

Bruce Ling, a 24-year-old medical gan, says young people have options - unlike earlier generations who What do they share with today's emigrated to this country and had no

> "Kids have taken what their parents have given them and taken it for granted. I think that's where the perception is that maybe we haven't grown up. We haven't needed to."

Dr. Jerald Bachman surveys high school seniors each year with the University of Michigan Institute for Social Research.

He says materialism among the young reflects a national trend, but not necessarily a permanent one,

"People are arguing that this is not so much a "me generation" as a "me decade," he said. "We've had a period in our nation's history where we've been very much encouraged by our national leadership to go right on and consume and spend money and borrow against the fu-

"Personally, I'd like to hope that the increased materialism that's shown up over the past decade or so in surveys of high school seniors doesn't represent a permanent difference, but differences in the national mood," Bachman said.

"I'm hoping those will change, and when they do change, that we won't be stuck with one generation of people moving through the whole life cycle permanently set on a materialistic mode."

AN ENCOURAGING trend is the decreasing popularity of drugs among high school seniors, added Bachman.

Pam Yockey has taught for 14 years and coached for 25 in southeastern Michigan school districts. She notes definite differences between today's high school freshmen and their counterparts of 1980.

Yockey's 1984 John Glenn High School graduates were dynamic, adult and very much in command of their lives, she said. "They have very high goals for themselves. They know exactly where they are going and what they are going to do. They don't have patience for the older generation right now."

Even if these young people have come from troubled backgrounds or have experienced serious problems, they bounce back and doggedly pursue their goals, she said. While they may be concerned about environmental and other issues, "they're still trying to set their life."

Today's freshman, says Yockey, are smarter, and a bit more street-homes, and showing up in homes with parents. What's allowed on TV today I don't think we would have seen 10 years ago," she added.

While the younger generation hasn't lost its curiosity, "this group is not as adventurous," Yockey said. Many of them are growing up with less parental support and in singleparent; households. Because the world has grown less safe, kids today are more restricted and are therefore not as adept at decision-making and acting independently. "Because they can't go out and experiment safely, they don't pick up on things. They wait for things to arrive in

For many of today's freshmen and teachers, the information explosion - which sees our total knowledge double every six weeks - is proving overwhelming, Yockey said.

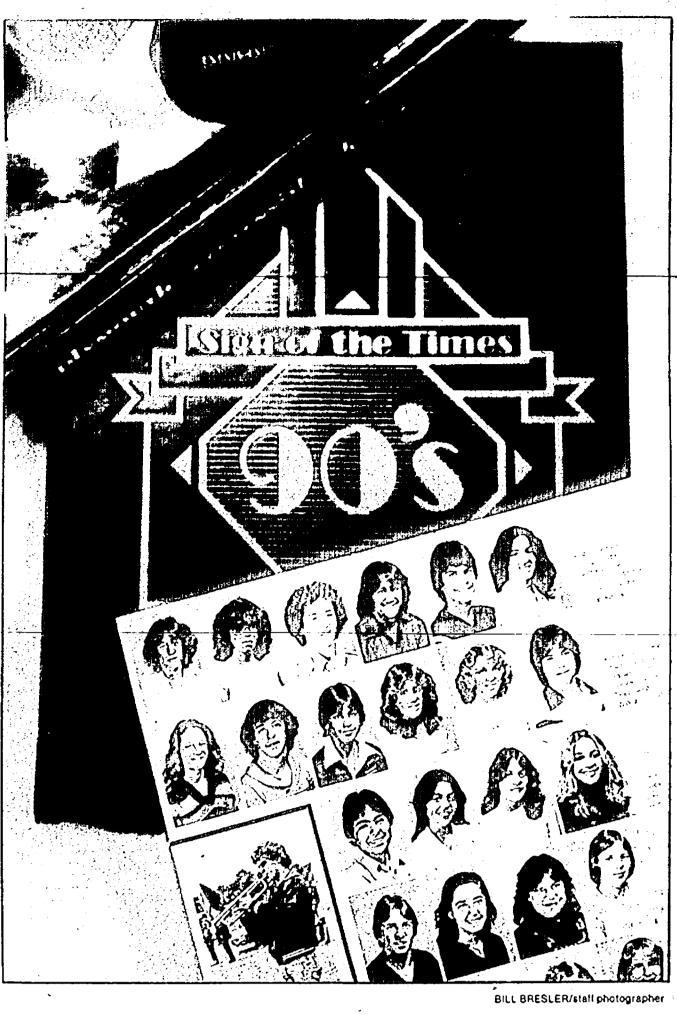

'We're expecting them to know so much. There's so much that kids today are going to have to be specialized.

'We have very high expectations for our kids, and want them always to do better than we did. Depending on the child, some kids can accept this, and come cannot. I enjoy them. They get smarter and more curious as the year goes on."

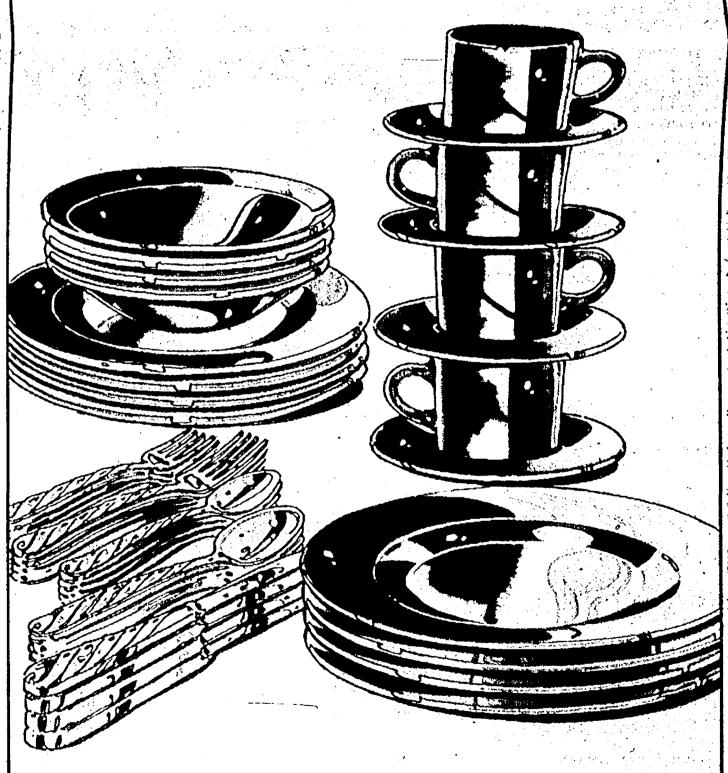

BILL BRESLERVataff photographer

Discussing what they want out of life, freshmen Kathryn Yack (left), Jessica Olmeda and Sarah Luebke said they don't all necessarily want to have children, but each of them wants a career.

"They know a little more about. The twenty-something generation shares something in common with today's high school drugs. It's no longer a drug scene freshmen: an increased desire for material things and a decreased desire for drugs when just for kids. Now it's showing up in compared to the thirty-something crowd.

We asked this question to Westland residents at Capitol Coney Island.

No. She had a lot of good things to say that made him look better. He lost a good backer.

'I think he did the right thing. She's well qualified but a little old to carry out some of the duties of being lieutenant governor.'

A ROMULUS youth told police he was threatened by a man with a shotgun or rifle Aug. 30 in front of a house on the 2000 block of Edgerton.

The youth, 17, said the man is the father of an acquaintance.

The youth said he was in front of the house about 9:30 p.m. when the man waved the weapon and shouted "stay away from my daughter" from a 1981 Bulck as it drove by. The man was in the front passenger seat, the youth said.

The youth told police he has had previous confrontations with the man, who also lives in Romulus.

AN EMPLOYEE of a gas station on the 1200 block of N. Wayne Road reported that an unidentified man drove off without paying $10 for in gas Aug. 29.

The man, who was described as a white male in his early 30s, entered the station at 4:14 p.m. driving a 1969 Pontiac, the employee said.

A 19-YEAR-OLD Detroit man was beaten with a five-footlong, two-by-two-inch plece of wood about 4:30 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 19, at a home in the 8600 block of Lanewood.

He told police he was visiting his ex-girlirlend to see their 2-year-old son. The 25-year-old woman said, "You're never going to see him again," according to the police report. She slammed the door hard enough to shatter its glass and he walked back to his car, he told

Then the woman came after him with the weapon and hit him at least 10 times on the back and left side. He told police he wants to prosecute her for assault and battery.

ANOTHER FLASHER struck in Westland at 6:35 p.m. Monday, Aug. 20. A 38-year-old Westland woman was working alone at Warrior Racing Products on Abruzzi Road when she heard a tap on the window. When she looked out, she saw a white man in his late 20s, 5 feet 6 inches tall and 160 pounds. "(He was) standing in front of the window with his pants down and he was masterbating," according to the police report. The woman ran into the hallway and waited until she heard a car start. She saw the car drive southbound on Hix Road.

Applicants sought for scholarship

Wayne-Westland Young Woman of the Year (formerly Junior Miss) is seeking applicants for its 24th annual scholarship program.

High school senior girls who live in Wayne or Westland or any student who attends a Wayne or Westland school is eligible to participate.

Contestants will be judged in five categories — scholarship achievement (20 percent), physical fitness/group choregoraphed routine (15 percent), talent (20 percent), poise and appearance/group choreographed routine (15 percent) and panel evaluation (30 percent).

A CASH scholarship of $2,000 will be awarded to the local winner who then has an opportunity to compete in the state program in Marshall in January.

No entry fee is required. Application deadline is Wednesday, Sept. 12.

Applications may be obtained in Wayne Memorial, John Glenn, Churchill or Franklin high school

Students attending a private or parochial school, but who live in Wayne or Westland, can contact Tony Rosati at 729-1779 after 5 p.m.

Expect more from our emergency care.

You should expect a lot from any hospital. Larger or smaller. Far off or right around the corner. At Annapolis, you can expect more. One reason is the simple fact that when you need us, we're here. In your neighborhood. We're here with a state-of-the-art emergency care unit — staffed and ready 24 hours each day. We know how you feel when you're hurting from an accident or sudden illness. PAC rates candidates in MSU trustee race

By Tim Richard staff writer

The Green and White Political Action Committee will get a test of its clout this weekend when the two major parties nominate candidates for the Michigan State University board.

"We determined which candidates are qualified to seek the nominations," said Kevin A. Kelly, chair of the 13 member panel of mostly MSU-alumini.

Three of five interviewed candidates received the "qualified" rat-

• Larry Owen, incumbent Democrat seeking re-election, an East Lansing attorney.

• Dee Cook, of Greenville, a Republican already tapped by gubernatorial nominee John Engler for the ticket.

Gerald M. Finch, a certified public accountant from Jackson who has audited MSU's books.
 Engler, however, passed over

Finch's name and Tuesday picked retired MSU administrator John Shingleton of East Lansing to run for the MSU board.

AMONG MEMBERS of Green and White PAC are veterinarian Dr. John Richardson, former mayor of Farmington and past president of the state veterinary medicine association, and Bruce McCristal, of Bloomfield Hills, an industrial executive

One member, associated with Engler, didn't take part in the interviews. Others are business and professional people, Democrats and Republicans, from around the state. Kelly is executive director of the Michigan State Medical Society.

"Later we'll interview the actual nominees," said Kelly, "and make our endorsements. The total we have to contribute will be $10,000 to $15,000.

Green and White PAC's "qualified" list was circulated to the candidates, party chairs and state party committee members.

but only five sought interviews, Kelly said.

Sixteen people wrote to the PAC

THE GREEN and White PAC was born in 1987 and rejuvenated this year in the wake of several controversies at MSU.

The biggest was the board's 5-3 decision to give football coach George Perles the additional job of athletic director over the objection of President John DiBlaggio.

Others had to do with closed meetings of the board, athletes on steroids, a tuition increase that prompted Gov. James Blanchard to veto MSU's appropriation, and a shantytown protest.

Richardson said MSU must have excellent governance because of its next-door location to the state capital. The campus newspaper is distributed free in the Capitol Building.

tributed free in the Capitol Building.

The PAC seeks candidates who preferably are alumni or have a demonstrated interest in MSU, have management and fiscal experience and be "team players."

A 1988 candidate had no ties to MSU. And there is great disagreement in political circles, Richardson added, as to how deeply board members should be involved in day-to-day campus business.

Airport group plans to meet with citizens

By Wayne Peal staff writer

County residents unhappy about airplane noise will have their say before a special county committee.

Meetings before unhappy homeowners will be scheduled, possibly before the end of the month, sald airport noise committee chairwoman Susan Hubbard.

"I can't say whether it will be public hearings as such, but we are interested in meeting with home-owners," said Hubbard, a county commissioner whose district includes Dearborn. Committee members are looking at western Wayne meeting sites.

Members of a citizen anti-noise group apparently can't wait for the meetings to be held.

"Once they schedule them, we'll come," sald Dearborn attorney David J. Esper, a spokesman for the Committee Against Airport Noise (CAAN). Petitions circulated by the citizens group forced a November referendum on airport expansion.

While CAAN's proposal seeks to block $100 million in airport expansion at Detroit Wayne County Metropolitan Airport, the county committee is steering clear of expansion Issues.

"WE'RE JUST looking at how we can reduce noise," Hubbard said. "We aren't concerning ourselves with airport expansion at

Toward that end, committee members are investigating noise reduction techniques at 15 other airports nationwide. They're also looking at a series of noise reduction methods that had earlier been rejected for flights at Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport.

Ideas under consideration include engine noise mufflers, to be added at airlines' expense, and maximum noise standards, with fines assessed against airlines whose planes exceed limits.

"We expect to have about half our work done by the time of our next meeting (Thursday, Sept. 13)," Hubbard said.

Esper, who attended the committee's first meeting last week, said he was cautiously optimistic a solution could be found.

"At this point, it's too early to tell whether it's going to be a sincere effort, or whether this is just being done for political purposes," Esper said. "But we are hopeful something will be accomplished."

County commissioners formed the committee last month due to rising complaints about new flight patterns at Metro.

Committee members include area commissioners Kay Beard, D-Inkster and Kevin Kelley, D-Redford. Beard's district includes Westland and Garden City. Commissoners Ricardo Solomon of Detroit and downriver commissloner Edward Boike round out the committee's membership.

Flights have primarily been redirected over Dearborn but noise complaints have surfaced among Livonia, Garden City, Westland and Redford neighborhoods. Flights were redirected as a safety measure, according to the Federal Aviation Administration.

CAAN's petitions were recently upheld by the county clerk's office. The issue will appear on the Tuesday, Nov. 6 election ballot.

The proposal involves $100 million in bonds for a new 3,200-car airport parking structure - a part of a planned $1 billion airport improvement project.

Group members said they filed petitions under a little-used provision of state bond law because there was no provision for a direct vote on airport expansion or noise.

County Executive Edward McNamara's staff members have said the vote could jeopardize further expansion and, in the long term, force Northwest Airlines -Metro's main carrier — to move services to other airports.

Report blasts airport, DNR on toxin release

By Wayno Poal staff viritor

Toxic materials are routinely released into nearby waterways from Detroit Metro Wayne County Airport - with little protest from the Department of Natural Resources -

Anti-freeze solutions containing toxic and cancer-causing substances have been discharged from airport drains into the Detroit River, eventually reaching Lake Erie, according to a report filed by the Southeastern Michigan Environmental Resource Association, Inc. (SMERA)

The problem centers on ethylene glycol, a de-icing solution similar to automobile anti-freeze, and 1.4-dloxane, a cancer-causing by-product.

Though the airport has a permit to discharge the substance, SMERA tion ponds were already full with the found airport discharges exceeded the permit's mandated safety level 373 times over the past two years.

Because of excessive discharges, an environmental group charged last the DNR has deemed the airport in non-compliance with safety standards since December. Airport and DNR officials have met periodically since then to discuss the problem.

"The problem is that anti-freeze runs off the planes and is carried along with rain water and melting system improvements, Duggan addsnow," deputy county executive Michael Duggan said. "The solution is that we need to modify our retention system, separating the ethylene glycol from storm water."

suggest technological solutions." DNR officials took exception to that charge.

"WE HAVE begun enforcement of the permit beginning with the notice of non-compliance," said Richard Powers, assistant chief of the DNR surface water quality division.

The airport could faces fines of up to $25,000 per day if improvements aren't undertaken, Powers said.

"I'm not saying their particular fine would be that high, but that's the maxlmum," he said.

COMETO QUALITY, VALUE &

By Tim Richard staff writer

Republican Judy Miller will run an issues-oriented campaign to unseat Democrat Richard Austin, whom some pundits call "secretary of state for life."

"Age will not be an issue," quipped gubernatorial nominee John Engler, who tapped Miller, 54, of Birmingham, to challenge the 77-year-old incumbent seeking an unprecedented sixth term.

"She's a veteran campaigner who can talk knowledgeably on a wide Wednesday morning news conference in the Bloomfield Township Hall.

He cited Miller's four years on the Birmingham City Commission and six years as a state representative, with service on the elections and state affairs committees, two panels that deal with Department of State registration through his office rather than local clerks.

One priority will be "accountability in the area of campaign financing," she said. Engler added he wanted to do away with officeholder expense funds.

Miller said she would promote ways for better public service. Would that include providing seating for people who have to wait in long lines at the Secretary of State's office? "That would be a wonderful thing to do," she replied.

Both frowned on the notion, popuarray of issues," Engler told & lar among some Democrats, of same-day voter registration. "No way," sald Miller.

"I've never been an advocate of it because of the difficulty with security," added Engler. "I don't think it's an undue restriction on the right to vote to have people register in advance."

MILLER WILL be the third Oak-tin had gone too far in seeking voters tions to challenge Austin. Others were state Rep. Mel Larsen of Lake Orion (1978) and Bloomfield Township trustee Weldon Yeager (1986).

Engler's announcement, leaked to the press a day earlier, ended weeks of speculation that Miller would be on the ticket after an unsuccessful run for a state Senate nomination.

"Election night, John came to my party, and I indicated I would do whatever I could to get him elected governor," she said. "I began reading about it (her name on the ticket) in — well, the newspapers."

A native of Detroit, Miller attended high school and Western Reserve University in Ohio. She and husband Steven have two children, Elizabeth and John. From 1976-84 she owned a dressmaking service. gler completed the partisan part of the Nov. 6 state GOP ticket by endorsing Lansing attorney Cliff Taylor for attorney general. It made him the first gubernatorial candidate in modern times to endorse every candidate on the ticket, leaving the GOP state convention in Detroit this weekend little to do but rubber stamp his choices.

Tuesday Engler endorsed three more education ticket candidates:

• Marv Esch, 63, of Ann Arbor, former 2nd District congressman and 1976 Senate nominee - for the University of Michigan Board of Regents. Now president of The Communications Group, Inc., Esch taught at U-M in the 1960s.

• Shirley McFee, mayor of Battle Creek - for U-M. A former teacher and college instructor, he has served on the Calhoun County board.

• John Shingleton, retired placement director of Michigan State University - for the MSU board.

Planning needed City must set financial future

THOMAS ADMINISTRATION needs to develop a long-term financial plan for the city of Westland before it's faced with a major budget crisis.

Judging from the rate at which the city's budget surplus is being gobbled up, the administration should be prepared to explain how it will pay for overtime cost overruns, the AFSCME Local 1602 contract settlement and contract negotiutions with the patrol officers' union.

It appears that Mayor Robert Thomas is banking on rising property tax assessments to replenish the dwindling surplus. We don't believe that's sound budget planning in light of recent economic indicators. Housing prices aren't rising as rapidly as a few years ago and, in fact, the market is slowing down. To expect, assessments to keep pace with those of the last few years - which have averaged around 10 percent — is a gamble - one we don't believe the administration should be taking.

Another major source of revenue in a municipal budget is taxes from commercial development. Thomas, who ran for office and was elected on a no-growth platform, has moderated his approach somewhat. But he isn't actively encouraging an expansion of the city's industrial and retail corridors.

For these reasons, we believe the administration must get its budget house in order so that plans don't have to suddenly be developed in a

In June the council approved a $28.2 million general operating fund budget, which included the hiring of six additional police officers and three new firefighters.

The general fund millage is $6.52 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation, a drop from last summer's $7.31. The total summer tax levy which, includes drains, police and fire pension programs and the Central Wayne County Sanitation Authority, was $12.53 per $1,000, virtually the same as last year's $12.63.

In July a four-year pact with the city's largest employee union, AFSCME Local 1602, provided 20 percent pay increases for 118 clerical and public service employees between now and December 1993. That included a 7 percent pay hike retroactive to Jan. 1 and another 5 percent next

The administration figured the cost of the contract over a four-year period at $1.8 million nearly half of the $3.9 million city surplus Thomas inherited following his election last fall.

As we have stated previously the contract is overly generous and excessive in its four-year length (it coincides with the mayor's term).

The mayor has said the contract will save the city money in the long run because of a costsaving health insurance option and a clause that allows the city to hire supplemental, non-union employees to perform certain jobs.

Any savings have yet to be be seen until the program is in operation for some time.

In addition, Thomas in April submitted a 1990-91 budget that calls for the addition of six positions in the police department - price tag $200,000 the first year — and he supported a council addition of three new firefighters price tag $100,000 the first year.

And to top it off, the city is presently negotiating with the patrol officers' union.

We have no quarrel with the Thomas public safety agenda for the city. Westland has a longstanding problem when it comes to police and fire staffing. The city is well below most other towns of comparable size and population.

However, along with staffing improvements must come a financial plan to pay for those improvements.

The administration owes it to taxpayers to take a long hard look at the city's fiscal future and map out a plan to pay for the improvements it plans to implement.

Sound financial planning, not crisis management, is what Westland needs. We're confident that Thomas can handle the task. But it should start sooner rather than later.

Bickering obstructs integration's success

PUTTING TOGETHER a workable integration plan in suburban Detroit is sort of like fighting a fire with gasoline. The harder you try to put out the fire, the worse it gets.

Just ask the folks over at Southfield city hall. The most newsworthy and dramatic story in suburban Detroit today is the struggle of Southfield to maintain itself as an integrated com-

The future of suburban Detroit, including your community, will be determined by how integration fares in this middle class community which rests on the northern boundary of Detroit.

In recent years blacks have, in ever growing numbers, moved there.

This is a first for a Detroit suburb. Unlike other parts of America where integration has taken a tiny foothold, it has consistently met defeat in southeastern Michigan. For years whites have been running, first within Detroit, from neighborhood to neighborhood. Then after they ran out of neighborhoods, they ran to the suburbs, which, up until Southfield, have been mostly lily-white pre-.

the art of living together. Blacks have especially been victimized.

The reasons are relatively simple as well as tragic — the majority of white people are afraid to live with blacks. They mistakenly associate black neighbors with crime.

This fear is exacerbated by some who find profit in it.

Southfield government officials, much to their credit, have been making an honorable attempt to deal with this perception in hopes of preventing the white flight which has crippled previous integration efforts. Unfortunately, like the good intentions of the Detroit Lions, they play hard but sometimes fumble the ball at critical times.

THEIR ATTEMPTS are made more difficult when coming up against the fear mixed with the pervasive racism which permeates our area. Those who believe in integration must fight a dirty whispering campaign, always hidden from public view, but always present.

became more so when that city's mayor, Donald Fracassi, made some remarks which infuriated black leaders. Former councilwoman warbara Talley, a black, said the mayor's remarks "took me back to the '60s when doors were slammed in my face."

Recently Southfield's challenge

The mayor has apologized and black leaders and residents should ..., accept the apology and move on. Honest efforts, as is the mayor's and city administration's, need support. Mistakes must be forgiven. After all, ..., nobody is perfect.

Besides, integration advocates don't need to be fighting among themselves.

The aliles of World War II were only able to conquer Fascism when they put their differences behind them and fought a united battle. Racism will be defeated only if the champions of integration do the

HE PRIGGISH few who feel called upon to define obscenity for the rest of us got a surprise slap in their collective face the other day, and not a moment too

The owners of Off The Record, a music store, were cited for displaying a poster advertising an album by a band called Jane's Addiction. The poster, as part of its design, included three partially abstract (or poorly drawn, depending on one's point of view) drawings of people - naked. The purpose of this note is to request your help. On Aug. 23 you published a letter from a Laurel Raisanen in which she suggests the Wayne-Westland school district board and administration are not prioritizing education first in their expenditure of a $1.38 million windfall made available by the state.

I think it would be most helpful to, and appreciated by, the community if your staff would investigate what is really going on relative to the $1.38 million and in the district in generai.

The school board and administration have lost the confidence of the community and in fact the situation is becoming so bad that it's starting to appear as if there is a conspiracy afoot to punish the voters for falling to approve the board/administration millage proposal.

Clean Air Act hits a snag

To the editor:

The House and Senate Conference Committee dealing with revisions to the Clean Air Act has dug itself a pretty big hole.

More than three months have elapsed since the House passed amendments to the law which would attempt to reduce acid rain, urban smog and the emission of toxic air pollution, as well as phase out ozonedepleting chemicals.

In that time, the conference has met only three times, resolving only the Issue concerning ozone depiction. This means that in more than three months, the committee has agreed on just 50 pages of a 700-page bill. At this rate, the committee would complete work on the bill sometime in March 1994. And very controversial provisions, such as reducing auto emissions and cancer-causing toxic air pollutants, have as yet hardly been touched.

The Congress is expected to adjourn for the year on Oct. 8, leaving the committee very few days to resolve the formidable remaining issues of the Clean Air Act. There are strong provisions in both the House and Senate bills that must make it into the final product to comprise a law worthy of its name. We urge the Conference Committee, of which Michigan Congressman John Dingell is a leading member, to work hard to report a strong Clean Air Act before Congress adjourns.

It is clear that we cannot wait until 1994 for the conference to wend its way to conclusion. If we do not get a bill signed by the president before this year is out, the tortuous legislative process in which the Clean Air Act has been mired for a decade will have to begin all over again with the new Congress. And the historic progress that has been marked this year by the passage of bills through both houses of Congress will be negated - to the delight of many industries responsible for our considerable air pollution problems.

The Clean Air bus is now stalled by the side of the road. We urge Congressman Dingell and other conference leaders to fix the engine and get it back on the highway so that we might finally have a Clean Air Act worthy of its name.

and why are they important?

Wallace Carothers, Wills Carrier. Robert De Graff, Joyce C. Hall, Ray Kroc, Edwin Land, Frank McNamara and James D. Watson.

No, they weren't the original asfronauts nor the real names of the seven dwarls.

They are just seven names on the ist of the "100 Most Influential Americans of the 20th Century" compiled by the editors of Life magazine. And, it seems to me, they are seven who truly deserve to be there, although their names are not exactly household words.

Life released the list last week. occording to Mary Steinbauer, the editor of the special issue, it's a list of the "most influential people of the bast 100 years, not the famous.

"In making our selections," she ald, "we looked at how our lives would be different if each of our onorees didn't live.''

Many of the people on the list are, ndeed, famous. Included are such bvious selections as Henry Ford ind the Wright Brothers (the only three names to be chosen by all 60 members of the selection panel), po-

Martin Luther King Jr. and physicist J. Robert Oppenheimer.

Other names on the list seemed somewhat specious to me: Irving Berlin, Marlon Brando, Bing Crosby, Jackson Pollock and many others. Well-known, yes. Popular, yes. Influential, yes. But as far as changing or influencing the way we live, I'm not

BUT THOSE seven people mentioned above . . . ah, they changed may not have made the history books.

Carothers was a chemist who invented nylon; Carrier was the father of air conditioning, De Graff was the first paperback book publisher, Hall was a businessman who started Hallmark Greeting Cards; Kroc, of course, founded McDonald's; Land o vaccine developer Dr. Jonas Salk, invented the Polarold Land Camera lenses; McNamara, curse his soul, invented the credit card; and Watson, a contemporary blologist, is a major figure in DNA research.

Now the problem — and the fun — of making lists like this is that someone is always second-guessing you. So my family and I did a little second-guessing ourselves and came up with some names that we think should be added to the list. Some contributions are positive, some are not. In no particular order, they are:

HUGH MOORE, an inventor who, in the early 1900s almost inadvertently invented the paper cup in an attempt to sell water by the drink. He later founded the Dixie Cup Co. Blame him for all the disposable utensils that are around today. Richour lives, even though their names and S. Reynolds, nephew of tobacco magnate R. R. Reynolds, the man who introduced aluminum foil (now almost generically known as "Reynolds' Wrap") to the world in 1947. Dr. Percy Spencer, father of the microwave oven.

Hugh Hefner, who managed to combine high quality writing with soft pornography and gave a certain "respectability" to the "girly magaand, more significantly, polarized zine." For better or for worse, he changed the whole nature of this particular medium and gave new meaning to the term "explicit."

Ted Turner, who certainly has been as influential in changing the face of cable television as D.W. Griffith, John Huston and Louis B. Mayer (all of whom made the list) were to movies. Timothy Leary, who became virtually the poet laureate of the drug generation, and who, without stretching a point too far, could be a major reason behind the widespread drug use today.

Ruth Handler, who founded a toymaking company called Mattel in 1945 and, 13 years later, gave the world its first full-figured adult doll, named after her daughter. Barbie.

And finally, but certainly not least, Rosa Parks, whose refusal, in 1955, to give her seat on a bus to a white man in Montgomery, Ala., almost single-handedly set off the Civil Rights movements of the '60s.

Those are our selections. How about yours?

Q: Every year we're faced with teacher strikes. You said you were president of a teacher union and as administrator you negotiated from both sides of the table. Please share some observations of what occurs during school negotiations that many of us many not be aware of.

A: Both sides will bring what they believe are the 30 to 40 most critical education issues to the bargaining table. The closer a strike appears, the issue will narrow down to classsize and money.

Teacher negotiators will be told by those teachers who have master's degrees that they spent considerable time and energy getting the degree and should be financially compensated for the effort.

Teachers with no master's degree will tell their negotiators that taking a couple extra classes at some university doesn't make one a better teacher. Therefore the pay differential between a teacher with a master's degree and a teacher with a bachelor's degree should be mini-opt for a bit less money for small class size. However, many teachers will opt for money rather than smaller class size. Especially those teachers with many years in the system who know that their average salary for the last three years determines their retirement pay.

Most teachers have a master's degree. Few go on for an educational specialist or doctorate. Teachers negotiations, therefore, will use the master's as a focal point for salary increases.

Nasty strikes tend to be shorter in very small districts. The Crestwood School District, a small district in Dearborn Heights, once fired its entire staff and hired new teachers. Nasty strikes in large districts can run longer because unions leaders know it is difficult to replace hundreds of staff members.

Tax base sharing gains support

By Tim Richard staff writer-

Business property tax base sharing - a notion long popular in rural school districts - is gaining popularity in outstate urban areas.

"The Idea emanated from Grand Rapids," said an aide to Rep. William Keith, D-Garden City, sponsor of two enabling bills.

House Bills 5885 and 5886 have had hearings before Keith's House Education Committee in Grand Rapids and Midland, where so far there is no opposition, the aide said.

Keith has scheduled a public hearing for 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 11, the day the state Legislature returns for a three-week session. It will be in room 424 of the restored Capitol

THE PUREST form of tax base sharing is for commercial and industrial property taxes to be collected in common for a large jurisdiction such as a state or county.

Farmers long have advocated the idea as a method for their sharing in urban industrial wealth without giving up political control of their rural districts or taxes on their farms,

Kelth's bills, however, contain two major differences:

 Enactment would be voluntary within an intermediate school district, which generally follows county lines. Any school district within the county could veto the plan.

• Only growth in commmercial and industrial property values would be taxed countywide. Existing business property would be unaffected. Residential, farm and mining property would be unaffected. Little support is expected for the plan in Wayne County, where communities have competed fiercely to attract business growth and there are three dozen school districts.

But Keith's aide said the Oakland Intermediate District was interested in having a public hearing. And Midland County, with only five school districts, is attracted by it.

behind the bills, the aide said.

"Gov, Blanchard is supportive of the concept. (GOP challenger John) Engler is supportive of the concept. The speaker (Lewis Dodak, D-Montrose) is supportive.

"The Senate will have the same bill, introduced by Dick Posthumus (R-Alto)," said the aide. Posthumus is Engler's right hand man in Senate pollcymaking.

When identical bills are introduced in both chambers, it is a sign that a broad base of lawmakers is serious about a subject.

A form of statewide tax base sharing was contained in Proposal B, deleated by voters 3-1 in 1989. It would have allowed statewide collection of a portion of school property taxes.

If passed by the Legislature in September, the measures would be phased in beginning next July 1. TAX BASE sharing could be implemented in any of three ways under Kelth's bills:

1) The board of education of every intermediate must approve.

2) A board could ask voters to approve.

3) Voters could sign initiative petitions.

The bills contain guarantees to help sharing districts maintain their revenues. According to a House Democratic research staff analysis:

"(T)he distribution would be adjusted to ensure that in-formula school districts would receive at least the same amount of revenue that they would have been entitled to if there had been no tax-base sharing proposal.

"In exchange for tax base sharing, out-of-formula school districts would be exempted from categorical recapture provisions contained in the state school aid act."

Under that controversial measure, the state took away $70 million in categorical aids to richer school districts. The law is extremely unpopular among suburban districts in the metro Detroit area.

"This adjustment further reduces gas costs for our customers who already pay rates among the lowest in the nation," said Michael G. Morris, of natural gas and marketing.

A recent American Gas Association study showed that Consumers Power's rate for a typical residential gas customer was lower than that charged by 81 percent of the nation's gas utilities.

An American flag drapes the wall behind Jimmy Jack (foreground) of Inketer, president of the Knights of the Road, and club member Mike Rouse of Dearborn.

By Larry O'Connor staff writer

In Steppenwolf's blker anthem, "Born to Be Wild," John Kay sings about motors running, heading for the highway, looking for adventure and heady stuff like that.

He didn't say, however, anything about eating Keebler's Pinwheel cookles and slpping Pepsi.

Then again, the Knights of the Road Motorcycle Club in Detroit has never been the stereotypical bunch of chains and mayhem riders.

"This isn't what you expected coming into a motorcycle club's clubhouse, is it?," asked Art Dusz, 47, of Romulus, a 22-year member of the motorcycle club.

Well, quite frankly, no. Guys in black boots and vests with unusual names like "Buzzard," yes,

But video games? Floors immaculate enough to eat from? Walls devoid of Playboy plnups? Tree forts are more raucous looking than Knights of the Road Motorcycle Club has been in existence for 50 years, riding on a reputation of wheeling hard but dealing right.

Granted, Knights of the Road are not the first motorcycle club to contend beneath the leather and beards, they're really a swell bunch. Members partake in the usual activities such as going on runs, playing pool and bragging about their bikes.

YET THEY'RE also involved in raising money for TOTES, a group for kids under 2 with Down's Syndrome, and passing out blankets to the homeless in Detroit.

In their ranks are people of all professions, including a Detroit Police officer whose nickname is "Psycho."

"I wanted to ride with a club that didn't cause any trouble," said Calvin Barrett of Redford, who's been a member for seven years. "That's why I joined this one."

Still, many restaurants and bars refuse to admit members who are wearing their "colors," a vest carrying the club's crest on the back. People, in general, view bikers with the same wariness as they would Vikings on the verge of a pillage.

Barrett remembers passing out blankets to homeless people one night during the winter. When the broad-shouldered guy stepped out of the car with a friend, the people on the street ran away.

In some cases, the outlaw image is not without merit. Notorious clubs such as Hell's Angels have more than fueled the bad guy persona bikers possess.

Knights of the Road members also believe they are misrepresented by Hollywood and the news media.

Their club is proud of its reputation and long history. A reunion is planned for former members on Sept. 15.

Dusz, in addition to his duties as treasurer, serves as historian.

ORIGINS ARE traced to a group of motorcycle enthusiasts called the Rouge River Riders in the late 1930s. In 1940, the Riders changed their name to Knights of the Road.

Members would meet informally, hanging out around the Outer Drive and Warren road area. The group didn't have a clubhouse, instead meeting at each other's homes.

One of the places was in Garden City. Because the early uniforms somewhat resembled those of the German SS, someone caught up in a bit of World War II hysteria reported the group to the FBI. The place was subsequently raided.

"The president was a guy named Busy," Dusz said. "The guy from the FBI said, I want to see someone in charge here.' The president said, 'What do you want? I'm Busy' The FBI guy said, 'Who are you?' The guy said, 'I'm Busy.'"

Humor aside, the club was near extinction in 1961 as only four riders remained. Knights of the Road then merged with an informal group, the Asphalt Angels, which had seven members. One of the Asphalt Angels was Jerry Kubany of Garden City, who is the camaraderie associated with fighting in a war. As a result, the number of motorcycle clubs grew. From four members in 1961, Knights of the Road went on to form an additional chapter in Baltimore, Md., in 1969.

AS MOTORCYCLE clubs grew, so did the violence as some rival factions began warring. A few clubs became involved in drug trafficking and racketeering. Knights of the Road swerved away from such notoriety.

"Generally speaking, it's the people we allow in our club," Dusz said. "Our members are screened. It seems because we're an older

Dear Lorene,

I have always been interested in handwriting analysis and I have wanted someone to analyze mine. I was very pleased to see your article in the paper and this is why I am writing. I'd be most appreciative if you would publish my letter.

Thank you kindly.

Your interest in handwriting analysis (graphology) makes me happy. I am glad you wrote.

This attractive handwriting suggest you have an eye for aesthetics. I strongly suspect you have a penchant for creating attractive surroundings. And I can almost visualize your manner of dress as eyecatching. Your taste in most areas leans toward the fancy more than

At the office by 8 a.m. every day, she's lucky if she's home by 7:30 p.m. to take care of the kids' needs.

A quiet moment of meditation and rest for herself is out of the question. She's got a career she's proud of, children to raise, a house to keep in order, and a mother who still lives alone but needs more and more of her time as she becomes less able to take care of herself.

Sarah has given her all to her work and to the needs of others around her. In the process, she has given up much of herself. Where have the moments gone that are just

Many women today are working at a constant and frantic pace to keep up with the growing demands in their lives. For all women who are workaholics, rushaholics, or busyaholics, "Meditations for Women Who Do Too Much" (Harper & Row), is a well of rich inspiration to dip into when the spirit runs dry. It's written best-selling author and internationally respected addiction consultant Anne Wilson Schaef.

A COLLECTION of 365 quotations for her, to nourish the spirit within, by women, they are enhanced by Schaef's own sharply observed and honest interpretations to stir up some feelings, get you thinking, and precipitate possibilities for change which will add to the quality and vitality of your life."

Each page is like a snapshot, a splash of color, ideal for women juggling tight schedules to read in a spare moment and to savor throughout the day.

What is addiction? What are its far-reaching effects?

President of Wilson Schaef Associates Inc., which does education training and consulting in the addictive process, Schaef has evolved some groundbreaking ideas around those questions. Three of her five previous books - "The Addictive Organization" co-authored with associate Diane Fassel, "When Society Becomes an Addict" and "Co-Dependence: Misunderstood, Mistreated" - have been recognized as major contributions to the understanding of addiction.

Literature addressing addiction is not a new phenomenon. In the 1980s, legions of books hit the market, telling people how to kick every personal pattern of addictive behavior im-

But what Schaef has done to earn her reputation as a cutting-edge thinker is to see addiction in terms that are political, social and organizational as well as personal.

"When we talk about the addictive process, we are talking about civilization as we know it," Schaef said.

WORKAHOLISM, she believes, is the most socially accepted of all addictions. And in her research she has found "more and more evidence that society actually supports and promotes workaholism. Many of the magazines for career women, like 'Working Woman' and 'Savvy' appear to tout the profile of the workaholic woman," she said.

Schaef believes it is important that women begin to take time for themselves.

"Solitude is not a luxury; it is a right and a necessity," she said.

Women whose lives have become ruled by others' needs have "Meditations for Women Who Do Too Much" as a bedside companion, for train commutes, gaps between appointments, or waiting to pick up the children after school.

To be a Knight, one must own a 500 CC, four-stroke motorcycle. American-made Harley-Davidsons (which range in price $10,000-$14,000) are the bike of choice, although to the disdain of some, a few Japanese models are showing up in front of the clubhouse.

Prospective members have to go on six Friday night runs and become a go-fer. For instance, it's not uncommon for a probationary to be sent to Toledo, Ohio, for a can of oil. Along with love of motorcycles, the impetus to join is riding on the road with others.

"It's hard to put into words," said Dave Ufford of Livonia, who has been a member for two years. "You're riding with people who

Performers bring a message of hope

By Julio Brown staff writer

A group of worshipers from Tri-City Assembly of God in Canton recently took a silent message to West Germany.

Silent Message, in fact, is the name of a mime group at the church. The group, including 14 teenagers and five adult leaders, traveled to Europe Aug. 1-10.

"We did street mime," said the Rev. Tom Lange, youth pastor. "We shared our faith in Christ, bringing the message of hope.

"Jesus really can change your life. There is forgiveness of sins through him."

They began their work in the West German city of Bad Kreuznach, and stayed there for the first six days. Their final three days were spent in Nuremberg.

"We traveled by train to each location," said Lange, who traveled with the group. "It's a great place.

I recommend it to anyone who wants to travel."

BELLEVILLE RESIDENT Lisa Hildebrandt, 15, was among the students who went to West Germany. She'd never been to Europe be-

"It was really great," said Hildebrandt, a sophomore at Belleville High School. "More things happened than I expected would. All the people were really receptive, and they talked to us.

"It was something new and something different," Hildebrandt said. "I just gave it my best. We didn't really have any problems."

Members of Silent Message have performed at outreach programs at area churches. They found performing on the streets in a foreign country was a bit different.

"It was a very moving experience," said Rocky Barra, 15, a Canton resident. "The spirit of God live in a country without religious freedom.

"I'd hate it," Barra said. "I'd probably try to leave the country as fast as I could."

Germany, but did see some signs of political change in the region. Lange, 28, noticed signs in West Germany offering free room and board to East Germans who were willing to work.

moved on the streets, in the church. It was unstoppable."

Barra, a sophomore at Fairlane Christian School, hadn't been to Europe before this summer. His father's the senior pastor at Tri-City Assembly of God.

Barra found the teenagers in West Germany weren't exactly like students in the United States.

"They're the same, but they need something to do over there. They don't have anything to do." Visiting discos and drinking beer are among the few activities available; even younger teens are seen on the streets of West Germany smoking, often in the presence of their par-

BARRA SAW "big churches with not many people." He and the others found a need to share the message of God's love.

"I got to witness to one person from East Germany that never heard of the Bible before. He was very curious," Barra said. He knows he wouldn't want to

The worshipers didn't visit East

"We take a lot of stuff for granted," said Laurie Lange, 15, of Belleville. That's true not only of religious freedom but also of more mundane things such as clean drinking water.

Lange, a sophomore at Plymouth Christian Academy, was also a first-time traveler to Europe. She was impressed with the politeness of nearly all the people she met, and isn't sure people in a big American city would have been as recep-

"I think we would have gotten a lot more persecution," she said.

THE LANGUAGE barrier wasn't much of a problem for the group, as much of their performing was done through mime. They worked with four translators, and learned a few simple words in German before leaving. They found many West Germans spoke English.

The Americans visited some West German churches and did some singing.

"On the streets, we would pray before we started the mime," Laurie Lange said. She and the others found some resistance to their efforts, but that was more the exception than the rule.

Planning for the trip began in the summer of 1989. Tom Lange contacted the German Assembly of God district. In December, he heard that West German church leaders were interested in having a team visit.

Each student raised $1,200 of his or her own support, "which was quite a feat," he said. "And they did that. That was great."

Group members held car washes and other fund-raising events, and got some pledges from family

They stayed at a youth hostel and then in a dorm for nurses. Group members sang for some nurses and patients while in Nuremberg.

The visitors kept busy during their trip, but found time to do some shopping and sightseeing. "We went and we saw a castle," Hildebrandt said.

Mime group members, who did quite a lot of practicing before their trip, are part of the Light Force Youth Ministry. Teens and young adults meet at 7 p.m. Wednesdays at the church, 2100

Hannan in Canton.
Some of the West German teens they met have already written to them. After returning to the U.S., group members presented a program on their travels during a Sunday evening service at the church.

Group members heard about the Middle East situation during their time overseas. The TV broadcasts were in German, but the visitors still heard quite a bit about the cri-

Diversity ensures society's creativity

A friend of mine told me that she wanted to buy a home in east Dearborn. She was advised that only Moslems will be comfortable, or indeed even safe, in the area she had considered.

Diversity, whether in the city or in the suburbs, seems to be an explosive element. Yet it is only one aspect of a society that does not seek whole answers. Differences are perceived as something that divides

It is an element of the insecurity which so pervades our society. Hang close together with those who are like you and you will feel safe.

But insecurity does not go away. Our fears are too often projected upon others. Sometimes it is expressed in individual violence. The worst case is when we hear of children abused or even killed.

THEY BECOME victims of a fear of others, especially others who are different. Whether it is a diversity based upon race, religion, culture and language, sex or age, diversity of persons is under attack.

There is a deeper reason for this. Division is characteristic of western, modern society. Reason and specialization have become idols of our pe-

> A new book by Joel Idokyr, "The Level of Riches . . .," suggests that "Diversity is the mother of inven-

> The author makes a historical analysis of powerful civilizations that have come and gone. Diversity is a most important factor. Diversity will ensure the creativity of a society. "It is crucial that the world preserve a measure of diversity . . . As long as some societies remain creative, others will eventually be dragged along."

> How will religion serve as a means toward creating a helpful solution to the problems caused by division and diversity? It may seem trite to say it, but I believe that religion must focus upon love.

RELIGION MUST lift our vision so as to include all of the diversity of creation in this love. But an effective, peace-seeking religion must also address our insecurities. There are reasons for our insecurities. Unemployment, especially in the city, violence, family breakdown, an uncertain economy, all feed our fears. Our society needs to address these ills. Religion needs to address the speciers of hate, prejudice and fear. Above all, a healthy religion will address God and say "God have mercy upon us, heal our divisions."

Fall is mosey and poke time

We are planning a trip in early October to South Haven. Could you please give me information on South Haven and the surrounding cities we might visit? Toni, Livonia.

I want to take my son fishing in Lake Michigan somewhere between South Haven and Grand Haven. Any suggestions for fall? Keith, Novi.

- Fishing off the edge of a dock or from the deck of a charter boat. • Walking down a small town
- Checking out the antique shops.
- Staying in a bed and breakfast. Walking an autumn beach.

These are some of the small pleasures along the southwest coast of Michigan in the fall; mosey and poke

Start by walking the beaches of South Haven in a sweatshirt. Most of the cottagers have gone, but the town is big enough so that it doesn't close down as some summer towns do.

You might still find a volley ball garhe on the beach, or you might just sit and watch the sun go down behind the lighthouse. A brave soul, who doesn't mind cold water, might even be windsurfing against the setting

If you feel like being a tourist, go to the Lake Michigan Maritime Museum or call the Lakeshore Convention and Visitors Bureau at (616) 637-

There are all kinds of things to do up and down the coast. Most people go north, and if they have seen the Dutch windmills of Holland, go on up to Saugatuck or even Grand Haven.

If you stand within the smell of the popcorn stand in Grand Haven, you can watch the pleasure boats cruising up and down the Grand River, follow the T-shirts along the boardwalk or visit the museum and old train cars at Harbor St. and Washington.

There is a large brass map set into the plaza there, so you can "walk" the Grand River as it meanders in brass past Grand Rapids to the sundia Lihat marks Grand Haven.

Fewer people go south past Benton-Harbor and St. Joseph to the small pleasure of that golden crescent of sand beach where Michigan finds its way towards the Indiana border.

It is well worth an hour or two touring the Cook Energy Information Center, where robots will explath nuclear energy to you in an educational and entertaining way.

Is also a great time of year to visig the wineries around Bridgeman or go on to the sand dunes at Warren Dunes State Park, where you can join-the hang gliding enthusiasts or just-sit and watch a glorious sunset.

If you really want to do it all, have a hamburger at Redamaks in New Buffalo where the main street ends at the lake, as it does in all these southwest Michigan towns.

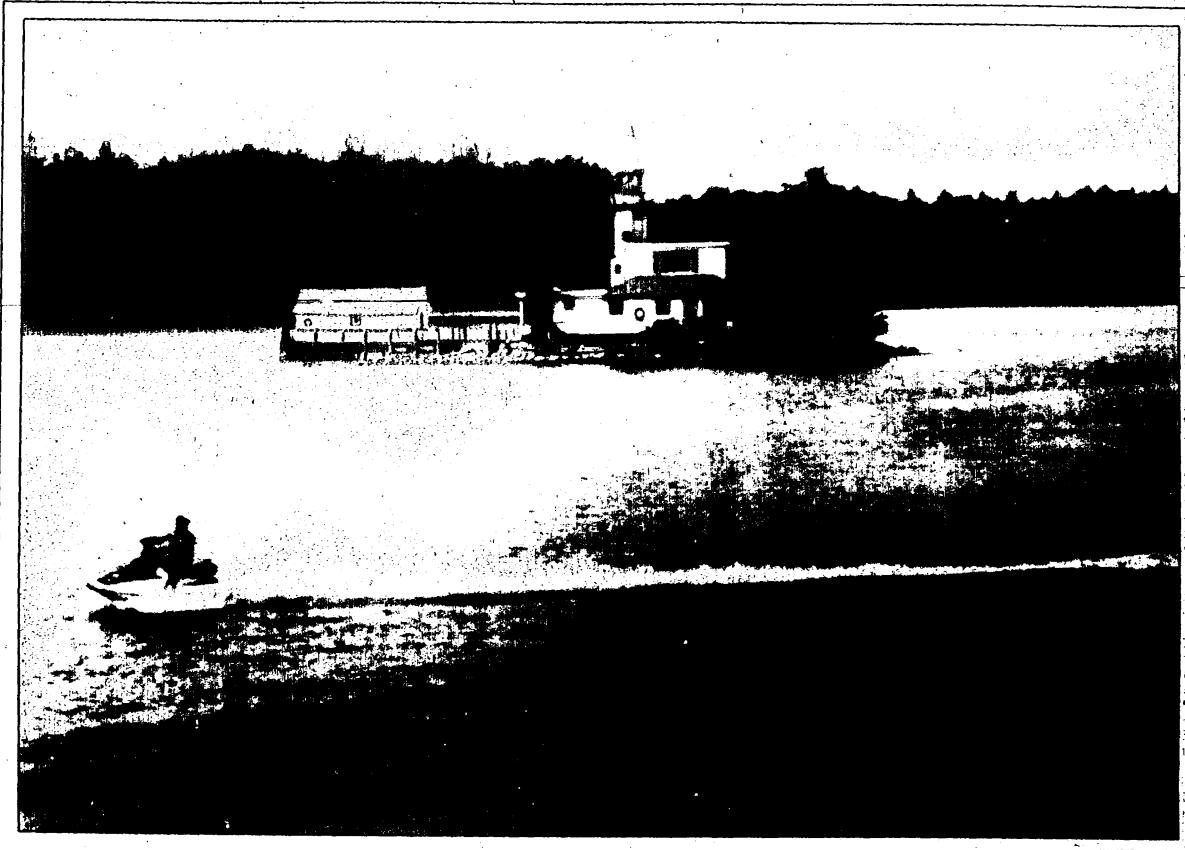

Pick up one of the many newsprint visitors guides available up and down the coast and check out the festivals, especially cider and apple festivals as well as Octoberfests. The southwest corner of Michigan is full of pick-your-own farms, although October is too late for most fruits and vegetables.

An for fishing: October is a great month for fishing in Lake Michigan. The water has cooled down so the fish are vigorous. The Great Lakes has good shore fishing for perch and walleve because the shore is warmer than the rest of the lake.

Charter fishing gets a new leaso on life in October, when the fishermen go out after next year's salmon, which are not yet mature enough to go upstream. You may have to go north as far as Grand Haven to get the best late fall fishing, although I hava seen fishermen standing on the rocks in Michigan City, Indiana, in October, hauling them in.

For more information, contact the Southwestern Michigan Tourist Council, 2699 M-139, Benton Harbor, 49032 or call (616) 925-6301. Or call the atate tourist office at 5432-YES.

Autumn shades color lake views

By Julie Candler and Alian Hayes special writers

Nearly everything is more fun on a boat. That includes seeing the fall colors.

Nature's autumn palette of crimsons, oranges, greens and golds looks fine when viewed from a concrete highway. From a boat, the colors are even more spectacular because they're bordered by iridescent, reflecting waters. So here's our report of some Michigan waters on which you can immerse yourself in color to right or left, from the familiar comfort of your own craft.

AUSABLE RIVER We start our tour of the

Along the way we meet Bob and Sue Schmidt, of AuSable. "In mid-September you'll see a lot of boats along here, especially near Foote dam," Bob said. "The chinook salmon will be coming up the river to spawn."

Because of the dams that supply electric power to nearby communities, you can't navigate the river in one pass. And in some of its sections the water averages from one and a half to three feet deep, so boaters have to watch for deadheads and other submerged hazards. These waters are ideal for canoers, who can portage around the dams. Every July, two-person teams compete in the annual AuSable River Canoe Marathon. They start at the river's beginnings near Grayling and paddle at 60 to 90

From here small motor boats can go up the strokes per minute for 14 hours or more. They da. Looking down through the trees, we have

This river does not run as the crow flies, however. It meanders entrancingly through a forested wilderness for 240 miles. It passes through the sand-hills of the Huron National Forest, which extends over 425,000 acres.

We visit the flooded pond above Foote dam, the first and the lowest of them. We find a lake-like area with developed campgrounds, picnic areas, beaches and launching ramps, much like the ponds above the other dams on the river.

But in many parts of the AuSable we feel we are hundreds of miles from civilization. The wildlife thinks so, too. Bill Csapo, a National Forest Guide, tells us with pride that there are 14 pairs of bald eagles now nesting between Grayling and Oscoda, all having chicks every year.

Bill works at the visitor's center at the Lumbermen's Monument, which is 260 steps above the river about 14 miles west of Osco-

We have a delicious and inexpensive lunch at the attractive Lakewood Shores Golf Club near Oscoda. Their newly completed condominiums are for rent in a special fall color package at $30 per person for one mid-week night, including unlimited golf on its 18-hole course. Call (800) 882-2493.

The peak color time in this area is from mid-September to mid-October. As for overnight lodgings, this part of the state boasts that prices are more moderate on its "Sunrise Side." We recommend the Holiday Inn at East, Tawas, 15 miles down the Lake Huron shore, with a Michigan harbor of refuge next door. Call (800)- HOLIDAY.

The 1819 Lowendenkmal, Lion Monument, is a tribute to Swiss mercenary troops killed in the French Revolution.

By Dorla Scharfenberg special writer

If there is any kind of jet flight into Lucerne, I never want to take it. In the heart of Switzerland, Lucerne should be approached only at ground zero, on mountain roads or across long. deep lakes. A sense of pligrimage is part of the

On a country-wide tour a friend and I didn't want to miss this quintessential Swiss city, so after "Arrivederci, Lugano" it was "Guten Tag Lucerne" via train and boat, a new travel combo called the "William Tell Express."

The W.T. Express is a train-addict's train. You're not hermetically sealed in but can stand and open windows, feel the rushing air, and take pictures without a glass barrier. Skimming through a narrow valley and several tunnels (some tunnels spiral inside the mountain) the William Tell speeds through vistas of pure grandeur in the Gotthard Pass; over places it once took weeks to get through. Too soon we reached the lakeside depot in Fluelen, where 60 seconds were allowed to sprint from train to a waiting boat. Time is the art of the Swiss, I remembered. On the Vierwaldstattersee, Lake Lucerne, snowy peaks became remote, but green mountains and rock cliffs kept up the drama, 'til' they became pleasant hills at the north end of the lake. The chalet villages seemed idyllic. To tell passenger natives from tourists you merely note who is staring across the rail and who

We were sailing the "Stadt Luzern," an ahtique paddlewheeler being TLC-ed toward its second century of service. In the elegant small dining room (green plush chairs, morning glory light fixtures, a Victorian sideboard) we could dawdle over lunch, watch acenery and read how this region gave birth to the Swiss Confederation. The towns where we stopped for passengers had once known the legendary Herr W. Tell himself.

Everyone got off at Lucerne, crowning the north end of the lake, but concerns about luggage and getting a taxl to the hotel limited my chance to look around. I did note the huge train station nearby (train-boat transfers are part of Swiss travel), and children playing near a fountain with a bronze horse. Throbbing tour buses lined the curbs.

Our Cab darted through traffic that was probably schooled in New York, passed a castle-like turret and covered bridge and came abruptly to the Rebstock Hotel. Small, moderate, modern, and with an excellent outroor restaurant. Its location seemed close to everything and we were pleased. In the late afternoon I walked back to the wooden covered bridge (Kapelibrucke; Chapel Bridge) angling across the Reuss River for pedestrians. The "castle" turned out to be a

Boats give a better view of Michigan's fall colors

Les Cheneaux means "the channels" and is pronounced "lay shenno." It is often called "the Snows" by the locals at the nearby villages of Hessel and Cedarville.

It's an archipelago of 38 wooded islands and peninsulas along the south shore of Michigan's Upper Peninsula. Some 20 miles northeast of Mackinac Island, it's a wellsheltefed part of Lake Huron wittp the good winds, flat waters, and interesting places to explore so loved by sallors. There is a harbor of re-

There were no roads in the area until the late 1800s, so early settlers communicated only by boat. Hotels sprang up on the islands and the mainland.

Vacationers began arriving by the thousands. "They came for the hotels, by steamer," attendant Alvina Firack said as we studied memorabilla in the historical museum in-Cedarville. "The hotels are gone now. The last one was torn down about 1972. They weren't safe and people came up and built their own

From the water, we see the picturesqué cottages and boathouses people built on the mainland and the islands. The bulldings add their unique charm to the blazing cedar, tamarack and yellow birch trees along the shorelines. Some of the cottages are still occupied by fourth generation family members.

We take a short cruise among the islands aboard the Chippewa. The motor ship is owned by the same Arnold Line whose steamers brought vacationers to the area in the late Chippewa's skipper is the handsome Jimmy Brown, grandson of the late U.S. Senator Prentiss Brown who obtained authorization to build the Mackinac Bridge. As we pull away from Hessel, our guide points out the Senator's boathouse, near the cottage where Capt. Brown spent much of his childhood.

The area reminds us of the Thousand Islands. Every twist in this maze of channels brings another island or passage into view. Some of the uninhabited coves and islands are rich with animal life.

Fall colors should peak here from mid-September to early October.-You can get information about accommodations by calling the Les Cheneaux Chamber of Commerce (906) 484-3935. St Ignace is 35 minutes away, call its Chamber of Commerce at (906) 643-8717.

LAKE LEELANAU We once spent a fine vacation on

Les Cheneaux is lined with picturesque cottages and boathouses. Some cottages along the shorelines are still occupied by fourth generation family members.

Lake Leelanau. We agree with the Indians, who named the Leelanau

Peninsula "The Land of Delight." We recommend it for fall colors. because it's more like a river than a lake, with nearby wooded shores on both sides. It lies like a long, narrow cat-scratch along the little finger of the Michigan mitten. It is really two lakes, pinched in the middle like Mae West, at the little town of Lake Leelanau. The lower lake is bordered by a long range of sandy hills on its eastern side and there are six public launching sites.

The strong winds off Lake Michigan once submarined both hulls of Allan's 20-foot catamaran into Lake Leenanau. He was able to resurface it without a capsize, leaving a trail of boat cushions, sweaters and other flotsam. Jetsam floated out too, notably one shoe in which a passenger had placed his glasses for safekeeping. Neither shoe nor glasses were ever recovered. A few days later we ceremoniously deep-sixed the other shoe, while everyone sat at attention in the boat and we all hummed

Leelanau County is wine country. You can see one of the vineyards, the Boskydel, from the lake. The gracious owners keep the vineyard open year round, seven days a week. They invite visitors to drop in between 1-6 p.m. any day except for major holidays. Call (616) 256-7272.

Fall colors here should peak from late September to mid-October. For places to eat and sleep, Leelanau County is dotted with wonderful restaurants and resorts. Sugar Loaf Resort in Cedar is 10 minutes from Lake Leelanau and has tennis and an excellent golf course. Call (616) 228-5461.

The Homestead in Glen Arbor offers fine food and tennis courts. Call (616) 334-5000. Both resorts are open

LAKE MACATAWA

Allan keeps his monohull sailboat docked at Holland on Lake Macatawa, which is connected to Lake Michigan by a short channel. The old ~ lighthouse marking Macatawa's entrance is one of Michigan's most famous landmarks, and adds a bright red accent to the colors of autuumn.

It lies directly across the channel from Holland State Park.

During the summer we see hundreds of boats passing through this channel, but by fall the crowd has thinned. Macatawa is another long, narrow, well-wooded lake running from east to west, with inviting coves and intriguing headlands. We enjoy sleeping aboard the boat on mild fall nights.

The water is usually flat and the traffic quiet except for an occasional boat passing us on the way in from Lake Michigan.

We hear the breeze in the rigging and feel a gentle rocking, and tend to sleep like we've been sandbagged.

We dock sometimes at Eldean's marina to enjoy the marvelous food at the Sandpiper, an attractive restaurant overlooking the lake. Call (616) 335-5866.

Holland is well-equipped for visitors because of the crowds it welcomes at tulip time. Fall colors are most striking from mld to late October. For information about overnight and other accommodations, call the Holland Area Chamber of Commerce, (616) 392-2389.

New York 'lays an egg' with masterpiece

By Sally Sawyer

What is it? "I stared as we drove in eastern New York toward Albany, the state capital.

"A spaceship just landed," my husband teased. "I've got to see It!" I insisted. As we approached, it looked moree like a concrete dev-lled egg surrounded by tall chess

The area is the Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller Empire State Plaza, a billion dollar architectural masterplece. "The Egg," as it is affectionately called, is the centerplece, The Performing Arts Center. It is flanked by four agency buildings and The Tower Building with an observation deck. From here you can see the Hudson River Valley, the Adirondacks, and the Catskills.

In the middle of The Plaza are three reflecting pools with playing fountains surrounded by marble benches. In one area, skating is permitted in winter. All eleven buildings are connected by a quarter mile concourse which includes shors hanks and restaurants and a New York State Vietnam memorial is housed in this area.

Also in the cluster is a convention center, a legislative building and a justice building. The old state capital is on its original site between State and Washington Streets.

Albany is 137 miles north of New York City on freeway 87 along the Hudson River. On October 6, 1978, The Plaza was dedicated to Nelson A. Rockefeller in honor of the former governor who had brought about its creation. (He died less than a year later in 1979.) By the end of World War II Albany had realized it was desperately in need of more office space. By 1962, with Rockefeller's insistence, the idea of The Empire State Plaza was born.

It took from 1962 until 1978 to lear away the 1.150 bulldings and more than 3,000 family units while the deteriorated downtown area was generally rejuvenated.

The architecture is overwhelming and yet calming because of the simplicity of its lines. We arrived at lunch hour and shared the beauty of the area with munching visitors, maintenance people and legislators. Farmers had set up produce stands between agency buildings. Nearby, in a playground, children were using swings, a sandpile and climbers. A visitors assistance center is at the north end of the concourse. Guided tours, maps and often, entertainment is free. The Veterans Memorial Park is open seven days a week year round. The resource center and art gallery are open dally. Check with the visitors assistance office for hours.

One warning: if you park in the huge facility under The Plaza, write down where you parked, the level, row and number of the elevaness, especially when they are compounded with drug or alcohol abuse and other family problems, self-help programs coordinated with professional therapy may be the most effective remedy.

"It is no criticism of either selfhelp or professional services to say that they can do certain things well and other things not so well or not at all," Powell said.

Powell has received a $1.8 million grant from the National Institute of Mental Health to establish a Center for Self-Help Research and Knowledge Dissemination at U-M. The center will research ways to coordinate self-help with professional care.

The U-M project will include researchers from the Michigan Department of Mental Health's hospitals and community programs, Michigan State and Eastern Michiigan Universities and U-M's Schools of Social Work, Nursing and Public Health, Institute for Social Research and Medical Center.

The research also will involve the leaders of several self-help organizations - Manic Depressive and Depressive Association, Schizophrenics Association, Dual Recovery AA groups and consumer-run mental health programs.

"The ell. In cases of serious mental ill-mental health field needs similar arrangements with self-help groups."

In most cases, self-help efforts should be coordinated with professional therapy. However, it must also be recognized that many selfhelp groups have weak organiza-tions, ineffective programs and few resources, Powell said.

"Under these circumstances, the fair-minded observer will conclude that self-help services have a way to go before they can become full partners with professional services," he said.

Ironically, through self-help programs, many people have become more aware of professional services and more inclined to seek them out, according to Powell. In an earlier study, the U-M scholar found that members of Parents Anonymous who were also receiving professional therapy felt that the services complimented each other. Therapy was helpful in illuminating their difficultles and self-help support helped them deal with daily problems, he

Another problem of self-help groups is that they don't reach some segments of the population, Powell

WHILE IT IS "encouraging that there are self-help groups for nearly every conceivable personal problem or problematic life situation . . , it is discouraging that most organiza-tions, except for a few such as AA, do not have local chapters in anything but large communities and have too few chapters in most innercities," he added.

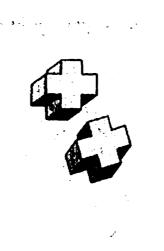

Self-help groups also "have an abysmal track record with members of minority groups," Powell said. Although several explanations have been offered for the low rate of minorltles involved in self-help organizations, "the problem is that many minorities don't feel welcome by many self-help organizations," he

Powell suggests that self-help groups could dedicate chapters to minority groups, just as they do for "other culturally homogeneous but privileged and largely white groups, such as businessmen and health care professionals."

Powell is author of "Self-Help Organizations and Professional Practice," published in 1987. He also edited "Working with Self-Help," a book being published by the National Association of Social Workers.

Air bag can't protect the nut that holds the wheel

I've been hearing, but still don't Japanese cars made to U.S. safety quite know how to take it, that the standards are good bets, and a small Américan public is finally getting interested in safety in cars.

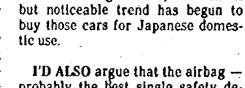

This is enough to make me feel my age, since I remember 'way back when even safety belts weren't required, and the subsequent decadesbrakes, and other major advances most commonplace on the family automobile today.

Actually, I don't remember anybody advocating unsafe cars in all those years. Mainly it was a debate over money - cost of the improvements to be more precise, with a couple of side issues involving per-

The Naderites have mainly stuck

Manufacturers have been going with the populist approach, insisting that any fool can do anything with 3,500 pounds of Iron and steel and not be held personally responsible, and even a task as simple as buckling a seat belt is too much to ask, hence airbags for idiots.

THE REALITY is that air bags local high school athletes died from are remarkably safer when added to a competent seat belt system, and I believe that if this were acknowledged long ago and promoted as best-available technology we would have seen them accepted long before

Curiously, I still feel with all the new emphasis on safety and safetyrelated technology, there is something missing from the equation. That is the sense of responsibility that simply must accompany driving a car on the public roads.

Try these ways to save for college

Your choices for saving for college are wide. Besides traditional investments, there is an array of plans Frun by brokerage firms, mutual fund companies, banks, and insurance companies, not to mention the federal government.

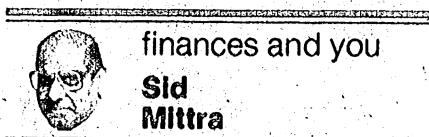

However, the selection process is not easy, since your situation is unique. I will discuss various options open to you and grandparents at several seminars (see below for details). Today I will briefly discuss some of them.

Education savings bonds

For one thing, these bonds are illiquid. For another, their yields are less than the competitive rates.

If time is on your side

If your child is just a kid, and you can assume market risk, you may wish to invest in a growth fund with venerable record.

In the accompanying table, I have reproduced the record of a 8.5-percent loan fund over 20 years. Each year $5,000 was invested on the worst day. And yet, the value of the fund was $620,868 after 20 years.

If junior is almost ready If your child is almost ready for college and you or the grandparents have saved some money for college, annuity with a twist (discussed several weeks ago in this column) may be appropriate for you. It will provide a guaranteed income 82 percent of which will be tax-free.

I have touched on just a few of the options open to you. An in-depth discussion of all major options will be discussed at the seminar, details of which are given below.

Seminar: "Education Funding by Parents and Grandparents" and "Retirement Income - Guaranteed, Safe, and Tax-Favored," sponsored by the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers and Coordinated Financial Planning, will be 7-9 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 25, in the offices of Coordinated Financial Planning, Sheffield Office Park, 3250 W. Want some 'free' money? Here's a guide

By Mary DiPaolo special writer

I need better information about federal and state money programs. So far, what I've read about grants and loans for business owners has been either too generic or too complicated. Is there some book or reference manual you can recommend based on your experiences as a small business consultant?

Matthew Lesko, president of Information USA, has recently published an excellent reference manual called "Government Giveaways from Entrepreneurs" (Edition II). In it, Lesko not only presents answers

DIPaolo to almost any question you may have on the subject of government money programs, but does so in an easy-to-read and humorous fashlon. Some of the major topics covered include: "How Other People Got Government Money," "Types of Money Available," "See a Winning Application First," "Your Chances of Getting the Money," and "Federal Money Programs: 40 Free Money Programs." State money program information includes the types of money and help available by state. Lesko also reviews the venture capital option and lists several organizations and government agencies willing to invest in new or growing ventures for a percentage of equity.

Lesko's other topics are govern-

News.

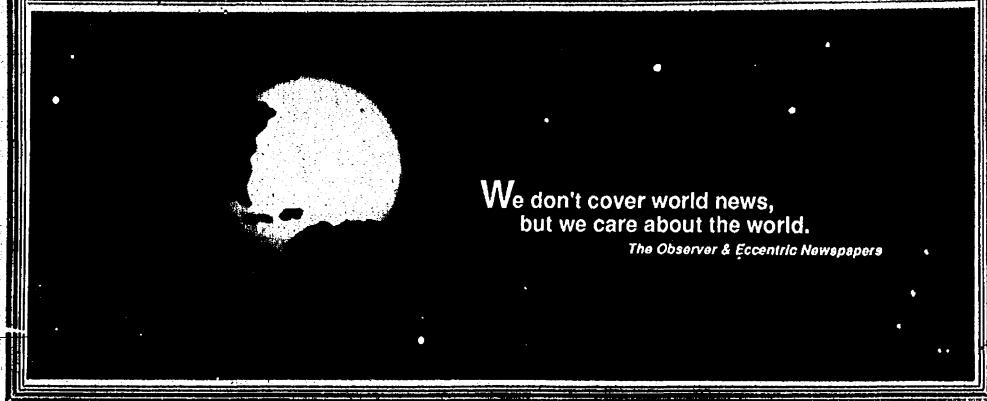

Bad news.

The good news? More and more people, businesses and industries are finding ways to recycle.

It takes more than 6,000 tons of newsprint each year to print The Observer & Eccentric Newspapers plus a number of other publications, so we're doing a number of things to help the solid waste situation:

1. For years we've sold our waste newsprint to a recycling firm.

2.25% of the newsprint we print on is recycled and we're increasing this amount by another 25% this year.

3. Our employees have begun to routinely put office; paper (memos, computer paper, waste copy paper) in recycle bins instead of waste baskets.

Of course, we still deliver thousands of newspapers twice each week. It's our business to bring you news of your local government, schools, sports scene and community events; the news you need to know.

And when you're finished reading your hometown newspaper there are places that will recycle them.

We've listed a few for you on this page because we think recycling is Good News.

Observer & Eccentric

Here is a list of recycling centers in or near The Observer & Eccentric circulation area. Please call the center nearest you for guidance in preparing your recyclables

Minority studies grows

A new bachelor of arts program in African American studies was established by the Eastern Michigan University Board of Regents at their Tuesday, Aug. 14 meeting.

The new degree program was created because of increasing academic recognition of African American studies, its importance in understanding American and world history and its usefulness in career preparation for careers in communications, education, human services.

public administrations, public relations, law, humanities and social and behavioral science.

The program requires nine credit hours of core courses and 21 hours of restricted electives, with at least three open elective credit hours of further study.

The program will cost $97,000. cost will be absorbed through a reallocation of funds through the division of academic affairs.

THE NUMBER OF DISPLACED WORKERS IN NEED OF RETRAINING IS GROWING EACH YEAR.

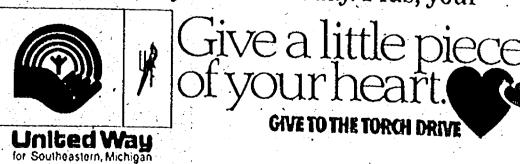

Times have changed. Unskilled labor is a thing of the past. In fact, more than 179,000 people in Metro Detroit find themselves chronically out of work because of lack of training for the new technological advances in manufacturing and trade jobs.

Now, more than ever, the United Way Torch Drive needs your donation to help organizations, like the Jewish Vocational Service, equip people with the skills they need for today. Plus, your contribution will aid over 150 agencies that teach the illiterate, feed the hungry, work with troubled youths and more.

Please, this year, give generously to the United Way Torch Drive and keep our work force in demand.

"The bad part of town." Abandoned cars. 8idewalks scattered with crack vials. Bombed-out buildings.

A neighborhood whose spirit is as broken as the bits of glass that dot the street. There are only two things to do if your neighborhood becomes a war zone: give up or take action.

The Philadelphia Story One day in the "bad part" of Philadelphia, a neighbor complained to a neighbor. And then to another And then to more. People didn't like their homes being. "taken over." Feelings of holplessness and resentment turned to action.

They went to the police for help.

Boon a substation was ostablished where folke could readily reporterime. Weekly meetings began. Community watches started. Things started getting fixed up. Vacant lots were cleaned up and fenced off. Abandoned cars were towed away. Painting and repairing programs began.

The neighborhood was cleaning itself up. The local 4. H Club even helped set up garden clubs where kids, teens and adults could work together on plants and flowers while talking over ways to raise awareness.

When people care and get involved, neighborhoods ohange. When a block doesn't look like a haven for crime anddruge, it won't be. And in this part of Philly, where once only apathy grew, seven gardens now bloom.

This is only one success story of many. To find out what can be done in your neighborhood, write: The 'Dead' trees: New phase in nature's cycle

During the summer when lush green vegetation is on the plants, dead trees and their skeletonized forms contrast sharply with the full bodied look of leafy trees. To some these are "eyesores" and are often removed.

To naturalists and animals, they are an important phase in the life cycle of a tree. New, healthy trees supply leaves for animals to eat. They provide nuts, fruits and berries for many animals, including people. Leafy branches serve as protection from enemies and the elements. Notto mention the fact that they also provide oxygen for all living things.

If the tree should be infected by fungus, reach old age, or be injured by lightning, a new phase of its imten and woodpeckers can excavate a

Making strides Johnson among state's top amateurs

By Brad Emons staff writer

Practice makes perfect, just ask amateur golfer Todd Johnson.

The Livonian may not have entirely perfected his swing just yet, but he's getting close after reaching match-play round in last month's U.S. Amateur Golf Championship in Denver, Colo.

Johnson, a Catholic Central High grad and member of the Eastern Michigan University varsity team, made the 36-hole cut after shooting 73 and 72, respectively, at the Meridian and Cherry Hills courses.
In match play, Johnson was eliminated 5-and-4 by Michael Brannon of

Trumbull, Conn., a two-time All-American at Brigham Young Uni-

"He (Brannon) is real tough," said Johnson. "He lost to Chris Patton (the 1989 U.S. Amateur champ) in the semifinals last year. He's also beaten Jay Sigel (the U.S. Amateur of the Year). This year he (Brannon) made it to the quarterfinals.

"I really didn't play that bad at that level, but at that level you have to play under par. He (Brannon) was 3-under and I was 2-over with four holes left to go."

JOHNSON EARNED the trip to Colorado after finishing second behind former Detroit Red Wing Darren Veitch in the 36-hole Michigan qualifier at Pine Lake and Oakland Hills (north course) country clubs. Johnson shot 71 and 70.

Johnson, ironically, was player before retiring from competitive action a couple of years ago.

"I don't know what it is about golfing and hockey, I guess we just have good hand-eye coordination," joked basically be summed up in a few words.

"I just practiced and everything came together," he said. "I've practiced hard to improve my swing to get to that level of play. I knew I had the ability to play with the best amateurs in Michigan and I just got hot and made the cut this summer,'

Todd Johnson top amateur golfer

At only 5 feet, 5 inches, Johnson has always had to prove he belongs among the big boys.

While he was at Redford CC. Johnson didn't make the varsity hockey and golf teams until his senior year. He played left wing for the No. 1 ranked Shamrocks along with younger brother Mark during the '86-87 season and was the No. 3 man on the golf squad.

"I WAS AN average golfer," Johnson said. "We had a good team, we finished fourth in Class A (state tournament). But I didn't make the top 10 at the Catholic League (meet)."

Johnson went on to play for the Olivet College golf team for one semester as a freshman, making All-Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) squad.
In the winter of '88, Johnson decided to transfer to EMU, where he sat out a semester before becoming Johnson's summer of success can eligible to play for coach John Jen-

"I still wanted to play hockey and be closer to home," he said. "I played Junior C (hockey) in Livonia and half-a-year of Junior A, but I just didn't have enough time for hockey so I hung it up."

During EMU's fall '89 season, Johnson finished runner-up at the Midwestern Collegiate Invitational hosted by Northern Illinois.

But last spring Johnson suffered through a dismal varsity season, EMU, which hosted the Mid-America can Conference championships jat the Huron Golf Club, sinished deadlast as a team.

"I didn't play well at all last spring," Johnson said. "We have a couple of tourneys this fall. I have one year of eligibility left so I want to have a big season in the spring? That's when it really counts."

JOHNSON IS SPENDING his second summer working as an intern with the Essex Insurance Group. His boss, Brian Mills of Livonia, is one of Johnson's golf mentors. The two play frequently together at Meadowbrook Country Club in Northville.

"My dad's a member at Meadowbrook so I'm fortunate to play there often," said Todd.

Johnson's most immediate plans are to graduate from EMU (with a degree in marketing) and 'have a good year at school golf-wise."

"My job prospects are good hopefully after working as an intern," he said. "And if I'm good enough, I'd like to make it a go on the tour, but if not, I'll stay in business and play amateur golf."

And making the U.S. Amateur cut (top 64) capped a great summer for the Livonian.

"It was just unreal," said Johnson. "You receive great treatment. It's the best run amateur tournament anywhere. Meridian was just like the Bear (in Traverse City), but not as much water. And Cherry Hills is just a great traditional course."

In the meantime, Johnson is eager to get back to EMU's home course and continue his practice sessions.

Thurston puts boot to Garden City, 5-1

By Steve Kowalski staff writer

The scoreboard didn't show it, but Redford Thurston boys soccer coach Ron Predmesky thought his players took some more time off. Tuesday — a day after Labor Day.

Thurston beat visiting Garden City, 5-1, in the season opener for both teams, but Predmesky wasn't satisfied with the way the Eagles got the job done. Predmesky has trouble figuring out his team and one of the reasons for that is Thurston has three freshmen and four sophomores on its 14-player roster.

"The score does not indicate the kind of game" we played," Predmesky said. "We played better getting beat by (state-ranked) Livonia Churchill, 9-0 (in a preseason scrimmage), than we did today. We're young and we could either be good or collapse. That first scrimmage opened our eyes. Half our team had never seen a team play like Livonia Churchill can."

Two of Thurston's more experienced players, juniors Jim Marunich and Jeremy Courval, scored two goals each. Marunich scored the game's first two goals and Courval added a third before Garden City's Sama Jishi closed the margin to two, 3-1, at halftime.

The Eagles' Ralf Ressel, an exchange student from West Germany, gave Thurston a 4-1 lead and Courval closed out the scoring with an unassisted goal with about 10 seconds left.

IT WASN'T EXACTLY the kind of season opener Garden City coach Scott Steiner hoped for, especially with Livonia Stevenson next on the schedule.

Steiner gave credit to both Tom Dempsey and Ray Hampton, a pair of defenders who gave goalkeeper Dan Horvath all the help they could. All three will have have to play well for the Cougars to gain any respect from Stevenson,

The Cougars play at 7 p.m. Thursday at Ste-

"Hopefully he (new Stevenson coach Wally Barrett) will take it easy on us," Steiner said. "This wasn't a very pretty game, either way. It was our first game or scrimmage and I used a lot of different combinations trying to figure out. who can play where. Eleven of our 12 guys have not played high school soccer before and I hope they realize now what it takes to play at the high school level as opposed to city ball."

Thurston goalkeeper Brian Mlynarek made 12 saves. He was especially tough in the second half, diving to his right to knock away shots by both Son Do and Jason Lilnangi, respectively.

"By the time he's a senior, he'll be the best goalie in the state," Predmesky said. "There's no doubt about it. He's over 6-foot now and he's only a freshman. He's going to be a big boy down the road. He's been playing since he was five and at least six years on the premier level." JEREMY COURVAL and Jeff Garlepy collected two assists each for the Eagles, and Joe Canilao and John Courval had one assist apiece. Thurston, which finished below .500 in 1989, is hopeful of eclipsing that mark this year.

Predmesky expects co-captains Jeremy Courval and Gethin Jones to help lead the Eagles rise, and he's also looking forward to more help from Ressel, a senior.

"Courval can play any position (sweeper, forward and center midfielder) you want him to," Predmesky said. "Raif has a lot of skills by our standards, but he was just a playground player over there (in West Germany). He never played on a club or anything."

Rodopoulos goals lift Pats in opener

Livonia Franklin opened its boys soccer season Tuesday with a 4-3 victory over Flint Powers in the Springfield Tournament.

Victor Rodopoulos tallied two goals for the winners, while sophomore David Steinert and Scott. Bernes added one goal aplece.

Franklin advances to today's semifinal against an opponent yet to be determined.

Blazers nip Lakers; Chargers victorious

Livonia Ladywood got a tougher-than-expected girls basketball battle Tuesday from West Bloomfield in a non-league encounter at Redford Catholic Central Senior forward Rebecca Willey pumped in 24 points and grabbed 17 rebounds, leading the Blazers to a 66-62 triumph over the stubborn Lakers, last year's state Class A runner-up.

West Bloomfield, coached by former Ladywood All-Stater Ronna Greenberg, put up a fight despite the absence of leading scorer Amira Danforth (knee surgery). Ladywood led 31-29 at halftime, but the Lakers rallied to tie it at 46-all heading into the final period. Willey, who had a slow first half, scored 20 of her 24 points in the final two quarters.

Mary Jo Kelly added 15 points, while senior center Leslie Catanzarite contributed 11 points and eight re-

Three Lakers scored in double figures - Jody Persky (15), Lanise Baidas (13) and Shannon Sipperly (12).

A girls basketball team accustomed to taking punishment is beginning to dish out some of its own.

Farmington Harrison, longtime doormat of the Western Lakes Activitles Association, ran its record to 2-1 Tuesday, shaking its out of its doldrums to rip host Livonia Clarenceville in a non-league clash, 54-26.

It's no secret that the Hawks' hopes hinge upon 8-foot sophomore center Heather Hopkins, who enjoyed another big night.

Despite suffering from the flu coupled with a stuffy gym, Hopkins paced the victorious Hawks with a game-high 24 points, 11 rebounds and five blocked shots.

Hopkins, who played for the Harrison varsity last season, scored 18 of her 24 in the first half, lifting her team to a 26-15 advantage.

She sat out big chunk of the third quarter before re-entering the game, but by that time Harrison had things well in hand, outscoring the turnover-prone Trojans 16-7 to open up a 44-24 lead.

"SHE (HOPKINS) was running a temperature, so we had her cool down for the second half," said Harrison coach Jim Neve. "But she wanted to go back in later and I let her."

Hopkins, hitting 11 of 19 shots from the floor, displayed smooth moves around the hoop with a feathery touch.

She drew raves from Clarenceville coach Wendy Kellehan. "I knew from the start she'd be tough to cover," said Kellehan. "Fundamentally she's strong. She's a great post player. She's tough."

Clarenceville's defense tried to collapse around Hopkins, leaving openings on the perimeter for Andrea Najarian, who added 16 points,

"We like to shoot the threepointer," said Neve. "We want to pull them out to post her (Hopkins) up better."

Neve's team was far from sharp, however, turning the ball over 28

"We haven't touched the ball in five days (because of Labor Day weekend), but that's no excuse," he sald. "We had no movement and our defense was terrible tonight."

THE HAWKS, however, got by defensively because Clarenceville couldn't get into its offense or throw it in the ocean. The Trojans had 40 turnovers and hit only eight of 42 from the floor (19 percent).

But despite a rocky season opener, Kellehan was not discouraged.

"The score with them last year was very similar, but we're a different ballteam this year," said the season, but the girls' goals are even Clarenceville coach. "We have more confidence, it's just a matter of getting people in the right scoring posiwe have to work more on ball-handling. If we had played this game a week ago we might have lost by 60. Last year we lost a lot of games by attitude, but this year things are different. We fought a hard game."

Senior Rhonda Saunders fought vallantly, despite a frustrating night at the point-guard position.

Saunders, always hustling, finished with a team-high 15 points before fouling out midway through the third quarter.

"We have to keep Saunders In the game," sald Kellehan. "We can't afford to get into that position, and a senior like her should know better."

ANOTHER STARTER, Anna Merritt, was also saddled by early foul trouble. She picked up four quick first-half personals before eventually being disqualified with her fifth shortly after Saunders exited.

To compound their problems, the Trolans did not score a field goal in the final 13 minutes.

Meanwhile, the young Hawks, who have only one senior (April Jones), outscored Clarenceville 12-4 in the final eight minutes.

"We're a young team," said Neve. "I'd like to play .500 or better this higher."

And with a healthy Hopkins around the basket and getting the tions. We can't win on scoring alone, ball, that goal is well within reach.

Victory eludes SC in men's opener

lege's first men's soccer scrimmage last week against Oakland University probably won't believe the claims made by Ocelot coach Van Dimitriou regarding his team's much-improved

But perhaps no proof is needed. At least nothing more than what was provided Sunday, when SC tied National Junior College Athletic Association powerhouse Lewis and Clark (III.) CC 3-3 at SC.

"That team was loaded," sald Dimitriou of Lewis and Clark, which the day before beat Macomb CC 2-0. "But we put some of the pieces together. And our kids were fired up."

Actually, the Ocelots should have fared better. They scored twice in the game's first 12 minutes, both on rebounds. Chris Crawford poked in the first goal two minutes into the match; John Cortese got the second 10 minutes later.

But Lewis and Clark battled back, scoring twice before halftime. The visitors first goal came at the 25minute mark; they tied the game with just a minute left in the half.

Any witnesses to Schooleraft Col.

THE SECOND half was controlled by SC, said Dimitriou. With only five minutes remaining, midfielder Bobby Hayes beat a defender and sent a hard shot from 18 yards out into the net for the go-ahead goal.

But again, the Ocelots could not maintain their advantage. With under a minute left to play, SC keeper Scott Hauman overcommitted and a deflection went to a charging Lewis and Clark forward for the tying goal.

Dimitriou was pleased with almost everyone's performance after last week's 6-0 loss to OU. Midfielders Jerry Staszel, Phil Todino and Hayes, and forward Shane Millner. were all standouts.

Two important players were hurting for SC: sweeper Dave Dinglie, who had the flu and a bruised calf, and defender Jeff Saylor, who had eligibility problems that have since been cleared.

Madonna returns 0-6

The letdown was inevitable. After losing three hard-fought, tough vollevball matches on Friday at the Mesa College Tournament in Grand Junction, Colo., — two going the full five games - regaining form for three more matches against the same competition Saturday was going to be challenging.

Madonna College couldn't do it. The Lady Crusaders lost all six of their matches over the weekend, a dismal end to what had been a glorious start to the season.

On Friday, they were bested by Asuzu Pacific (Calif.) 15-3, 7-15, 15-8, 15-10; by Mesa College 15-9, 10-15, 6-15, 15-8, 15-11; and by Chadron (Neb.) College 15-12, 13-15, 15-3, 13-15, 15-11. Saturday was rematch day, but Madonna fared no better. The Crusaders lost to Chadron 15-7, 7-15, 15-8, 15-8; to Asuzu 15-5, 15-9, 15-3; and to Mesa 15-10, 15-8, 15-11.

"WE HAD a confidence problem Friday night," said coach Jerry Abraham. "And we didn't play nearly as well Saturday. One problem was in our serving. We had 72 service errors in the tournament."

Top offensive performers for Madonna were Dana Hicks, with 54 kills in the tournament; Stacey Girard (from Livonia Ladywood), with 38kills; Kristy McFadden (Redford Bishop Borgess), with 37 kills; and Tiffany Goodlow and Evette Sluder (both from Wayne Memorial), with 28 kills apiece.

Melissa Mars (Borgess) and Jenny Sladewski (Livonia Stevenson) led the defense with nine and eight digs, respectively.

The consecutive three-hour losses on Friday robbed Madonna of any momentum, said Abraham. "I really believe we could have been 3-0 going into Saturday, but we couldn't put our points together," he said.

Madonna will try to put something good together tonight when it hosts Kalamazoo College at 7 p.m.

Color me pink S'craft makes policy clear to athletes

ICKETS ARE VERY ESSENTIAL II you plan to get by in life.

You need a ticket to go to a movie or concert, see a ballgame, fly commercially,

The same goes for athletes at Schoolcraft Community College, where academic standards are a bit more stringent.

If you want to be an Ocelot, you have to have a pink ticket to play a varsity sport.

"Haggerty High," as we all like to call it, is no high school when it comes to imposing standards for its athletes. Schoolcraft is to Michigan community colleges what Northwestern is to the Big Ten.

Northwestern prides itself on not accepting just anybody who runs the 100 in nine-flat. And Schoolcraft, under the eagle eye and direction of its Dean of Instruction, Dr. Louis A. Reibling, requires that SC athletes maintain a 2.0 grade-point average, 25 points higher than the suggested National Junior College Athletic Association standard of 1.75 (while completing 24 credits per year).

It was only last week that incoming student athletes and second-year players from all varsity sports, along with their parents, met for dinner in the Waterman Center for its annual Athlete Orlentation Night. -

FOR MANY YEARS, SC administrators have quietly complained that our sports department reports only negative news about Ocelot athletes who become mid-year academic casualties, most notably the men's basketball squad, while ignoring the academic

At the urging of new athletic director Marty Nowak, I decided to attend Schoolcraft's Athletic Orientation Night to better understand the administration's pro-

It was enlightening and helpful, I must admit. But I also caution that playing sports at Schoolcraft is not for everybody and that some student-athletes should look elsewhere, perhaps Macomb, Henry Ford, Highland Park or OCC for starters.

The LAC (Learning Assistance Center) is open to all students from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m., Monday through Friday, and for part of the day on Saturday. Student-athletes can set up times to work with tutors ("We have a staff of 10 to handle a crowd," says Sirkka) to confront any academic problems they might encounter, although some former student athletes have complained to me privately that setting up an appointment at the LAC is like waiting at the doctor's office, often cutting into afternoon practice time.

But Gudan stressed that LAC people will help students set up a study-management plan (to be completed by the third week of school), insuring that athletes block off their time effectively in order to keep up with their workload.

SASS also provides study group sessions and free tutoring. Audio visual tapes are also available to supplement textbooks. And if that is not enough, a member of the LAC (Lee Rebain) will stop by the Physical Education building for three hourse each Wednesday afternoon to handle any questions or problems. Gudan also made it point to stress that regular class attendance is essential to staying eligible. "Our main goal is to get them to class," said Sirkka in no uncertain terms.

BUT THE most important thing of all is the pink

Student-athletes must submit a weekly progress report (form) to each one of their instructors. The instructor must initial it and have the student return the form to LAC for scrutiny. If the LAC deems academic progress is satisfactory, SC student-athletes can prac-

Sirkka maintains that SC student-athletes usually get the cooperation from their instructors, but cautions, 'We can't force an instructor to initial it (the progress

I can relate to that difficulty. When I was a tennis player way back at Franklin College (of Indiana), I remember asking one of my professors for a Friday off from his class to play out of town in a tournament. His initial reaction: "Do you want to be a journalist or a tennis player?" My response was the usual: "I just want to be a tennis player for one day, sir." He relented, giving me the opportunity to skip class and make up my work at a later date. SC professors, according to Gudan, are usually as sympathetic. SUMMING THINGS UP, the key to staying eligible at SC is to: (A) Go to class; (B) manage your time wisely, (C) ask for help if you get behind; (D) get your professor to cooperate (don't SASS your teacher); (E) get the LAC to sign your pink ticket.

Jokingly, I asked Gudan if you get any credit for doing all this paperwork.

She laughed, "We do have a one-credit class in college notetaking and Lee (Rebain) will pass out study tips." Gudan also said those students with reading disabilities can get special attention.

Of course. Gudan admits that despite all the resources available, athletes mirror Schoolcraft's general population where 70 percent maintain a 2.0 GPA or better, while 30 percent fall below the standard.

"We expect some people to fall by the wayside," she said. "Not everybody is going to make it."

The second half of the program (following Gudan) dealt with eligibility requirements, transcripts, etc. . . Ron Randall, SC's Eligibility Officer who works out of the Student Services Center, made it clear that he's available to answer any questions about NJCAA or SC

BY THE TIME Randall had finished, the final order of business on the agenda was honoring last year's top student-athletes.

And while watching SC's top students being recognized, I reflected back upon Reibling's opening state-

Shamrocks survive stiff test from Mules

Redford Catholic Central football coach Tom Mach is happy to win any game by one point.

He must have been thrilled, then, to have gotten past Temperence-Bedford, 10-8, Saturday in the seasonopening football game at the Pontlac Silverdome.

"Most of our games are close," Mach said. "I didn't know what to expect, but I thought Temperence-Bedford was a good team. I don't look at it as an escape, li's just a victory."

Senlor Mike Thomas made a memorable debut at tallback, gaining 99 yards on 14 carries and scoring the lone CC touchdown on a 36-yard second-quarter carry. CC's other points came on a 30-yard field goal by senior Brent Jenkins, his first of his career.

CC led 10-0 at halftime. "Mike did a lot on his own and showed he has great potential to be one of the great backs around," Mach sald. "He's just beginning to really see everything hap-

CC outgained Bedford, 122 to 78 on the ground and recorded 11 first downs. The Shamrocks' defense, led by tackle Rob Sylvester and linebacker Jon Barbara, held Bedford to eight first downs. Bedford's only score came on an 80-yard third quarter drive, but Mach didn't have much else to complain about.

Sylvester had 12 tackles, including two sacks for minus-13 yards, and Barbara 10.

"Our defense played pretty well, but I don't like the long drive," Mach said. "The drive kind of made us take a long look at everything. It was two good football teams playing each other."

Senior quarterback Jason Carr completed six-of-13 passes for 83 yards and one interception. Four of the passes were caught by Jack Davidson for 38 yards. The Shamrocks receive another non-conference test at 1 p.m. Saturday against Lansing Sexton.

Batylewicz, the second-year coach, then rattled off a list of "things" the Spartans must work on, showing they're a long way from being a polished team.

Special teams play was one thing that impressed Bazylewics. Of the Spartans' 20 points, 14 were scored partly because of the special teams. Borgess, which led 12-6 at halftime, opened the scoring in the first quarter on a 75-yard punt return by Anthony Hood.

Al Pernandez blocked an Algonac punt in the second quarter and Marvus Hood downed it in the end zone for the Spartans' second score. Quarterback Tom Cole, who was four of 11, threw a 55-yard touchdown pass to Bob Carlton to linish the scoring. The Spartans outgained Algonac, 268-123, in total of-

The emphasis was on the run, and Aggles' running back Cordell Davis was impressive, gaining 117 yards on 15 carries and scoring on a 65-yard second-quarter run. Brian Wilson, who was three of five in the air as Kutch's replacement, threw a 16-yard TD pass to Joe Boards, and Derwin Henderson scored from 26 yards for the Aggles last score.

It also marked a successful debut for Clarenceville first-year coach Mark Ladd.

The defense came out and really banged them hard," said Ladd. "And overall the team did a super job."

Clarenceville racked up 369 total yards, 307 on the ground.

Senior Kendrick Harrington, making the switch this season from wide receiver to quarterback, completed only two of six passes, but connected with senior Ken Bazzy for the game's first touchdown, a 37-yard pass in the opening quarter. Brian Mahoney kicked the extra point to give the Trojans a 7-0 lead.

The score stayed that way until the third quarter when senior Jim Jurkowski tallied Clarenceville's second TD on a 6-yard run (the kick Zailed). Harrington added another fouchdown in the fourth quarter on a A-yard run (the PAT failed), and Mahoney added a 32-yard field goal CARDINAL MOONEY 7: Lytheran Harrington led all rushers with 116 yards in 11 carries, while Jurkowski contributed 93 yards in 14 attempts. Carl Holston collected 47 yards in five carries.

"Our offensive line did a great job," said Ladd. "They called everything at the line of scrimmage and Kendrick did a good job of calling audibles. He did a great job of picking things up, and our line were making their blocks on the run. St. Clement gave us so many defensive ironis, but we picked the changes really well."

Ladd gave credit to his offensive line, which included tackles Randy Wallace (senior), Todd Soop (sophomore) and Jeff Gradiscak (junior); guards Adam Acito and Dave Ballenger (both seniors); center Mahoney (senior) and tight end Bill Van Erp (senior).

Van Erp also intercepted a pass. On the negative side, Clarenceville lost four fumbles, three times inside

Line drawn between prep forecasters

By Dan O'Meara and Brad Emons staff writers

The first week of the 1990 football season looked like shades of '89 for the Observer's prep prognosticators.

Brad Emons, the reigning champ, had a fine start, going 15-2 on the opening weekend of play.

But it was a woeful beginning for his counterpart, Dan O'Meara, who apparently made some wild and careless picks. The bid to get ahead backfired. He ended up 12-5 and promptly fell three games behind.

That's the same margin we saw in the prediction race at the end of last. season when Emons finished with a 98-28 record.

And there are more differences of opinion this week. Will the race tighten, or will Emons do like the '84 Tigers and make a farce of this contest before the season is half over? Stay tuned. Read on:

FRIDAY'S GAMES (all games at 7:30 p.m. unless noted)

Liv. Clarenceville at Harper Woods, 4 p.m.: The Trojans started the new season where they left off last year, winning: Clarenceville saw that first-year coach Mark Ladd had a successful debut with a 22-0 win over Centerlina St. Clement. Harper Woods was on the losing end of a 29-0 score with University Liggett of Grosse Pointe. PICK: Ladd stays unbeaten as Clarenceville coach for another

St. Agatha at Grosse Ple. Liggett, 4:15 p.m.: The Aggles miss injured quarterback Brian Kutch as evidenced by their. loss to Detroit East Catholic. But the Chargers, ranked No. 2 In Class DD, would have been a load with Kutch, and now St. Agatha must face another stateranked leam. Liggett is No. 8 in Class C. PICK: Both forecasters don't foresee Aggles coach John Goddard taking a victory dib in Lake St. Clair.

Liv. Frenklin at Liv. Stevenson: Tho Patriots played one of the state's topranked teams, Lansing Sexton, and lost while Stevenson was beating up on Redford Union last week. Can Franklin balance the scales this week and put both contain Stevenson back Chris (Don't call me Doug) Lehtl, who rushed for 107 yards and a touchdown in the opener. PICK: The Spartans win a close game.

W.L. Western at Wald. John Glenn: The Warriors were hammered by a good Novi team last week while Glenn tooked sharp in beating Highland Park. The Rockels have to pay to play now, but it's still a quality brand of football. PICK: John Glenn Improves to 2-0.

Northville at Phy. Salem: It could be a high-scoring game. Northville has nine starters back on offense and shut out South Lyon 20-0 last week. Salem tallback Leon Hister showed he's capable of having the big game. PICK: The Rocks win their home opener.

Farm. Harrison at W.L. Central: Harrison is 0-1 to start the season for the first time in nine years. The Vikings also are 0-1, but the Hawks have the clear advantage here. Harrison will be eager to have a victory after fosing 18-15 to the No. 1 team in Class CC, Detroit DePortes. PICK: The Hawks start a new winning streak.

Romulus at Garden City: Former Bishop Borgess coach Dan Henry got the Eaglas turned in the right direction last year. but Romulus opened with a 21-12 loss to Taylor Truman. Garden City had an Impressive win over Dearborn Heights Crestwood in the opener, but can the Cougars make it two in a row? PICK: O'Meara gives the home team the edge, but Emons likes the visitors.

Trenton at Wayne Memorial: Trenton is troubled after being steamfolled by Plymouth Salem 33-7. The Zebras, meanwhile, are in a good mood after nipping South Central Conference contender Adrian 21-20, PICK: Wayne begins Wolverine A Conference play with another victory.

Red. Thurston at Taylor Kennedy: The Eagles will definitely win a game this week. The question is "Which Engles?" Both teams are coming off lopsided losses — the Thurston Eagles losing 38-0 to Dearborn Heights Robichaud and the Kennedy Eagles losing 58-12 to Wyandolle. PICK: Kennedy wins this Tri-River League opener.

Wat. Kettering at Redford Union: The Corsairs, coming off a 4-5 season, return the most starters (12) of any team in the Greater Oakland Activities League. RU hopes to rebound from that 28-8 loss to Livonia Stevenson. PICK: Kettering keeps the Panthers caged up.

SATURDAY'S GAMES (all games at 1 p.m.)

Redford CC at Lansing Sexton: The Shamrocks and the Big Reds coulde his this week's version of The Game of the Decade. CC nipped Temperance Bedford! 10-8 on the big carpet up in Pontiac while Sexton blitzed Livonia Franklin. The Box Reds are ranked No. 2 in Class AA, the Shamrocks No. 4. The question is whether or not CC's atways-tough detense can stop Sexton running back How ard Triplett. PICK: The Big Reds pull out at victory, according to O'Meara. Emordi says CC's detenso to up to shull, and the Shamrocks have enough offense, too.

St. Alphonsus at Luth. Westland; b-Lutheran Westland becoming a football power? The Warriors whipped Caronal Mooney 28-7 last week and could be 2-0. this weekend. St. Al's took a 30-0 beating from Lutheran West in its opener. Picke The Warriors break the Arrows.

Liv. Churchill at N. Farmington: The Raiders suffered a setback in their season debut, losing a game they could have wonto Pontlac Northern, 13-10. The Chargeri' faced a state-ranked power in Sterling Heights and lost 35-14. PICK: North (6) bounds on a positive note.

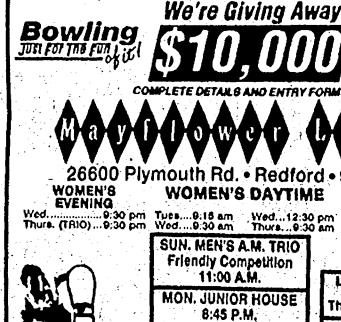

Ply. Canton at Farmington: The Ches showed a lot of promise in whitewashing Monroe 33-0 in the opener, while the Fall cons, who lost 34-13 to West Bloomfield. still have a ways to go under first-year coach Bernie Call. It doesn't get any easier for Farmington, which faces another strong opponent. PICK: The Chiefs take it. 2-0 record into next week's early-season' showdown with Harrison.

Bridgeport vs. Bishop Borgess, 730 p.m. at Garden City Jr. High: Bridgepor was a 24-12 loser to Harper Woods Bish op Gallagher, but the Spartans gant coach Walt Bazylewicz a 20-6 victory: over Algonac. PICK: O'Meara says Bridgeport goes home a winner. Emons says otherwise.

Miller, Farr ponder futures

SUNSHINE evoked contrasting greetings from two guys who want to make a game their livelihood.

. Both John Miller and Mike Farr had been walved by the Detroit Lions a day earlier. That meant any team in the NFL could claim them. None did.

For most of those waived, it also meant the team they had spent the past several weeks training with a team that no longer wanted them. Look for something else to do, was the unspoken - but all too clear message. You'll never make it in the NFL.

Neither Miller nor Parr are ready to give up the game. Not just yet. Both firmly believe they can play pro football.

. Miller may never get another chance. The Lions kept just the two starting saftles when they waived Miller and Herb Welch. They resigned Welch after he cleared walvers.

Muddling the picture further, the Lions signed another defensive back, waived by the New York Giants, on Tuesday. "I don't know what's going on," said a disappointed, disillusioned Miller, a Farmington Harrison and Michigan State graduate.

brighter. After clearing waivers, he was re-signed by the Lions. The former Birmingham Brother Rice and UCLA standout at wide receiver will be on the roster when Detroit opens its season Sunday against Tampa Bay.

"Ever since I was a little kid, I dreamed of playing in the NFL,"

Risak said Farr, son of former Lion great

Mel Farr. "Then I had to sign as a free agent . . . I was upset about that." Ah, but all's well that ends well. right? And Farr can at least see hopes are bleak at best. What bothers Miller most is trying to figure what went wrong. If some part of his game were weak, if he needed to improve his tackling or pass coverage or defensive reads, sunshine in his future. Miller's pro well, OK. He could handle that. It would be concrete, tangible. A problem? I'll fix it.

That's not the case, however, "It's frustrating for me," he said. "I felt I played good enough to make the

"Whether it's a numbers game or not, other guys who didn't play well enough to make the team, whatever their position, made the team. I thought I did too."

Miller served as back-up to start-FARR'S PRO plans seemed far ing free safety Bennie Blades throughout training camp. He was also on all the special teams. He played with the first unit most of last week, making him think he would start the final exhibition game at Cincinnati. INSTEAD, MILLER played one quarter. "In the back of my mind, I knew I was on the bubble," he admitted. "I knew it was coming down to three safeties. They said it was between me and Herb Welch (for the final roster spot).

"Last year, there was a point where I thought I wouldn't be around. But then I made the developmental squad. I never thought I'd get cut this year. I thought I'd played well enough to win a spot on the team.

"I don't think I could do anything differently."

Miller was cut for one basic reason - speed, or lack of it. He runs about a 4.6 40-yard dash.

That makes his future in football murky. No team is interested in by pro standards — a slow-footed defensive back.

They told me to keep in shape and be ready," Miller said of his Lions' farewell. "They said sooner or later, I'd be back.

"But that's tough. Maybe if I had some money, I could afford to do it. But I'm out looking for work now. If they call me back this season, I'd drop what I was doing and do it. But if they don't call back this year, forget it. I'm not going to just keep hanging around."

FARR CAME into training camp determined. After a record-setting career at UCLA, Farr had two bad days - and they came at the worst times. The first was in the Blue-Gray All-Star game; the second was at the NFL combine in Indianapolis.

Dropped passes and a slow time in the 40 nearly sidelined Farr's dreams before the NFL draft.

"What everyone thought were drawbacks, weren't," he said. "I'm faster than everyone thought and I have better hands than everyone thought."

Farr dropped passes during the Blue-Gray game, and he ran a 4.61 40 at the combine. "That's the slowest time I ever ran," he insisted. His normal 40 is from a personal best of 4.43 to 4.5 — fast enough for the NFL.

"I have to say I was on a mission," said Farr of his decision to sign as a free agent with the Lions. "There was a force, a drive I had . . . something I wanted to prove."

WHEN FARR reported to a Lions' minicamp in April, he was a fourthstring receiver. "I'd have to say I've come a long way," he said.

Attitude played as big a role as ability in Farr's success. Not getting drafted, then watching the betterpaid draftees waltz cockily through practices, could have tormented him. He didn't let it.

"I tried to put all that stuff behind me and I thought about the future," he said. "I kept telling myself, 'I have a chance to make this team

NOW." There are two other factors in his making it, Farr said: His belief in God, and his ability. "The reason I'm on this team is I can play football," he summarized simply.

But so could John Miller - and look what happened to him.

The sun's shining on Farr, for now. He knows that could change very quickly. In a few weeks, Miller may be basking in it as he chases down the sideline for the Lions to cover a punt, living his lifelong dream.

O HUNTER EDUCATION CLINIC

A hunter education clinic will be held Saturday and Sunday, beginning at 6:45 a.m. at the Michigan State Fairgrounds.

Michigan Department of Natural Resources Hunter Safety Certificates will be awarded to any participant, 12 years old or older, who successfully completes both days of the clinic. Any person born on or after Jan. 1, 1960, must have a DNR Hunter Safety Certificate to obtain their first hunting license.

Participants should report to the Ford Building located on the Fairgrounds. The clinic is free, but participants must provide their own lunches and beverages. There will be a fee for parking.

Call the 1990 Hunter Education Clinic Hotline at 680-3638 for more information.

Since the program began in 1987, 86 grants worth more than $776,000 have been awarded to communities throughout the state. 6 KLEPPERT SCORES

AGAIN

Rochester's Pat Kieppert continued his bid to win the Operation Bass Redman Tournament Trail Michigan Division championship with a sixth-place finish recently at à qualifier on Saginaw Bay. After three of the six qualifying events, Kleppert leads the Michigan Divisin with 127 points (27.14-pounds).

Kleppert placed sixth on Saginaw Bay with a five-bass limit catch which tipped the scales at 11pounds, 15-ounces.

Lee Kelley of Michigan Center won the Saginaw Bay qualifier with five bass which weighed-in at 14-pounds, 9-ounces.

At the completion of the six Red Man qualifying events, the top 30 anglers, determined on a basis of pounds and points, will advance to the Regional Classic, where they will compete against the top 30 anglers from four other divisions. The top 10 finishers from the Regional Classic advance to the $150,000 Red Man All-American where the winner will receive $100,000. All Red Man-events are catch-and-release events.

Rochester's Art Ferguson is also in the chase, currently holding down 33rd place in the Michigan Division.

A new career Show biz dreams may come true

By Arlene Funko special writer

LIFETIME AGO Nick Simos yearned for a life as an entertainer. During the '50s Simos thrilled audiences when he dressed up as ghoulish movie characters such as Frankenstein and Wolfman.

"I loved it," said Simos, now 54 and living in Westland. "I wanted to make people happy."

Those early successes faltered in the face of illness and personal setbacks. Simos packed away his dreams and settled for the security of factory work.

Now, facing retirement in November, Simos is hoping for a fresh chance. He's practicing some magic tricks and rehearsing jokes and songs for his "Tricky Nicky" act.

"I know it's going to take a lot of work," said Simos, whose mustache and curly hair are flecked with gray. "I don't care if I make a lot of money. I figure I have about 10 years."

The twice-divorced father of three grown children was born in Detroit. Simos, the youngest of eight children, was scarcely more than a toddler when he began singing and dancing for the customers in his father's tavern.

LATER, HE SPENT all his free time in movie houses, mesmerized by horror films and musicals featuring Fred Astaire and Gene Kelly.

"I clowned around and danced." Simos said. "I couldn't wait for Halloween to dress up. I thought it would be thrilling for people to see me like that."

His talents as a makeup artist blossomed. Sometimes he put on blackface makeup and did song-anddance routines like Al Jolson's. He particularly enjoyed assuming the look and menacing gait of the Frankenstein character.

While those monster roles made Simos feel "strong and powerful," they worried his father, now de-

"He was afraid I would take on the person of a monster," Simos re-called. "He told me to give it up. He thought it was like showing off. He said, 'Don't be a big deal.'"

Eventually his father's sentiments had a chilling effect on Simos' confidence. "It was like a finx," Simos Simos dropped out of high school to join the Marine Corps. He received a medical discharge because of a "nervous breakdown" which Simos attributed to overwork. He returned to Detroit and completed his high school requirements.

SHOW BIZ beckoned. With the encouragement of his first wife, Patricia, Simos spent several months in California studying acting and makeup. Back home in Detroit he

"Every time I started going up the ladder something would happen to get me down," Simos said.

Following his recuperation Simos was hospitalized for depression. Later Simos and his first wife were divorced. He took another factory job and worked part time as a doorman at a go-go joint. Soon he was spin-ning records. While the songs were playing he often jumped into a costume and entertained customers with songs and skits.

That intense activity led to exhaustion and another breakdown.

"I lost my job and most of my records," Simos said. Simos remarried in 1970. Because his second wife disapproved of his entertaining, Simos backed off. BUT SIMOS NEVER completely abandoned his hopes. He wrote several songs, nine of which have been recorded. He wrote poetry.

Now divored from his second wife, Simos will retire in November from his job as a special parts controller at Ford's transmission plant in Livonia. Unemcumbered, he plans to concentrate on the entertaining, which he enjoys so much.

Recently, Simos has been praticing the magic tricks and vocal characterizations of his Tricky Nicky character, a long-nosed, redand-blue- faced funnyman.

JIM JAGDFELD/staff photographer

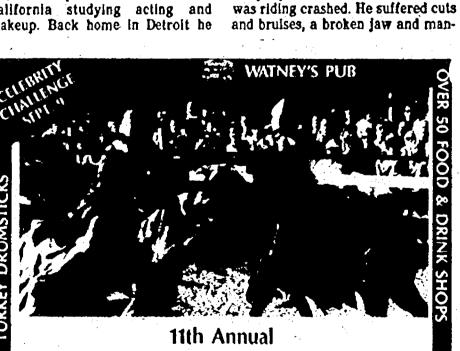

Simos had been booked for a November senior citizens party in Livonia. He also has been sorting and atranging his record collection of 4,000 pieces, many from the big band era, He hopes to be hired as a disc jockey for parties.

Simos bills himself as the "Golden Greek Disc Jockey" with the longer name in show business. His business card contains a tongue-twisting stew of his and friends' names: Nickolops laus Michaelangeous Simopopola Andropolous.

HE INTENDS to lay to rest the ghosts of past disappointments. And use of monster characters would be for comic relief, Simos said. He is especially interested in entertaining, at no cost, young school children or kids in hospitals.

Simos admits to a love-hate relationship with his aspirations. 'I have a passion for making people laugh," he said. "When I hear people enjoy what I'm doing, I'm blessed. I feel cursed when deals fall through. I'm doing the thing I love best."

Antique Mart to benefit symphony

By Linda Ann Chomin special writer

THETHER YOU'RE looking to buy a plece of history for yourself, as a gift for someone spe-

ARTBEAT ACCENTS:

• Deserving honoree - Kudos to Gwen Tomkow, a Farmington Hills watercolorist whose artistic creations include northern Michigan's picture-postcard landscapes.

The 1988 Farmington Artist Club Artist in Residence is one of 128 artists chosen to exhibit in Watercolor USA 1990 at the Springfield Art Museum, Springfield, Mo.

She's one of just four Michiganians to earn a spot in the elite 667-artist field. The show is one of the toprated nationally for watercolorists.

Tomkow's painting of hay bales with bright sunny colors, "Harvestime," won a Patron Purchase Award from the Dunnegan Museum Gallery of Art, Boliver, Mo. It'll be-catalog.

Tomkow strives to weave her imprint on each of her works.

As she put it: "When just one person says, 'That's a Gwenie painting alright, just look at those grasses dancing and at that color, which is so exciting, being an artist has its own reward."

• Think protection - I appreci- troversy surrounding an architectur- projects.

A tribute to Tomkow, "Harves-clous fire guited the 123-year-old time" was chosen to appear in full farmhouse on the nearby Historic color in Watercolor USA's exhibit Fruit Hill Farm Aug. 12. The farmhouse had been restored and made into law offices at a cost of at least

Sweet success sprouts

By C.L. Rugenstein special writer

LESSED ARE those who parlay their hobbles into profit, for they shall have fun and make money, too.

Livonia resident Lydia Sweatt (pronounced "Sweet") is among those fortunate few - and her succesa couldn't be awecter.

Within a year of opening her doll and collectible shop, Remembrance, in downtown Northville, Sweatt's shop already is paying for

"According to my accountant, many retail businesses don't make it through the first two years, and most won't realize a profit for the first two years," she said in the lace-curtained shop where a music box played in the background.

"Business far surpassed my expectations, but quite frankly, I'd be in it whether it made money or tiques, although she admits to buying those if one should catch her fancy and be in excellent condition.

Rather, Sweatt specializes in new dolls by artists who established themselves recently in the field. Some of the hot ones among collectors are Annette Himstedt (Sweatt's personal favorite for her Barefoot Bables"), the team of Lothar Groessle-Gudrun Schmidt of Gernmany and Yolanda Bello.

DOLL COLLECTING is more exciting than people realize because artists are considered more talented now. They're considered artists rather than doll makers."

In the not-so-distant past, dolls were made only to be pretty. "In these days, they're made to be more like a real child."

Limited edition, numbered dolls were produced 250 at a time for worldwide distribution by Groessle-Schmidt. The couple used their real-life son as a model for the sleeping, blond doll, "Robin."

Or Johanna. A 3- or-4-year-old imp in blue-striped pinafore, her wild corkscrew, gingery curls caught in two pony talls, she's one angry little girl. She's sticking out her fongue, in fact. She's so angry, her little firsts are balled and the toes on her plump feet are curled.

Sculptured detail on her facial features is so lifelike, one can feel the frown ridges on her forehead.

Johanna is a Groessle-Schmidt. She resembles another little barefoot toddler doll named "Lynn,"

Each is immediately recognizable as a Groessle-Schmidt because each artist's work is marked by his or her style — like a Picasso or a Van Gogh. "It's the style that in-trigues people."

It's also the style that causes people to spend $50 to $10,000 for a particular artist's doll. "I have one client who said, Every doll you have of theirs (Groessle-Schmidt), I want it!"."

ALTHOUGH SHE has been a lifelong doll lover, Sweatt's first doll at age 6 was a "Chatty Cathy," now worth thousands, Sweatt said.

Sweatt got into the business end of collecting strictly by accident. Having married young and raised three children, she found herself in her late 30s with a desire to have her own business.

Collectible dolls fill the Sweatts' Victorian doll shop in downtown Northville. Her husband, Ron, a restaurateur in Detroit for 20 years, suggested a doll shop, "Everywhere would buy dolls." Even when she was in a funk, she'd console herself with buying dolls rather than clothes.

we would travel in the world, I

The shop is modeled after her doll room at home. She used the same floral-striped, Victorian wallpaper and antique reproduction furniture, in and on which the dolls are displayed throughout the shop.

"It was a passion for me for years. When I was upset or stressed, I'd go into the doll room, and it would be so relaxing."

She may have spent a lot of time in the doll room after making the blg decision to go into business. As a first-time business owner, she said she found the prospect "kind

BUT HUSBAND Ron proved a

"He was totally supportive. He"s developed an expertise himself and knows all the dolls by name," as well as their artists, Sweatt said.

He also accompanies her on buying trips during the year and has a good eye for what will sell, she sald.

Still, it took her two years to accumulate the trappings for the shop before she opened. "You could not move in my house. There were boxes, doll buggies, baby beds and wicker prams all over the place. The storeroom in my basement is crammed with antiques."

Some of the furniture is Munchkin-sized reproductions, but all are props, used to display the dolls in settings, rather than hide them in sterile glass cases.

But all the props are for sale. Sweatt said she'll just get more to arrange her favorite Annette Himstedt dolls, "Kal," the wild-haired, lute-playing boy doll on, or her Groessle-Schmidt doll, "Heddy."

As she put it: "That's the fun part - putting it all together."

• CHINESE PAINTINGS

Wu Guanzhong, a contemporary Chinese artist, introduces one of China's leading painters in his first exhibition to tour the United States.

Wu, now 71, works to bridge the gap between traditional ink and coloring painting and mainstream international art. The free exhibition opens at the Detroit Institute of Arts Saturday, Sept. 8. It runs to Sunday, Nov. 11. Large ink and color landscapes, olls, drawings, sketchbooks and an album reveal the virtuosity of this artist, who now lives in Beijing.

With the re-emergence of artistic freedom in China after 1976, Wu developed his own style combining the fluid brushwork of traditional Chinese painting with the semi-abstraction of modern Western art.

During 30 years of government censorship of the arts, when Russian-inspired socialist realism was the only style of painting acceptable to the government, Wu clung to his goal: to nationalize oil painting and modernize traditional Chinese paint-

• GALLERY BENEFIT

 A recent benefit for Detroit Focus Gallery, "Live from Detroit Focus." raised $7,200.

The highlight was on-the-site portrait painting by three well-known area artists, Glen Michaels of Troy and Robert Wilbert and John Hegarty, both on the Wayne State University art faculty. Each did a portrait of a live model during the evening. Those attending the party crowded around to watch the artists work, each with a different style and approach to the same subject.

Later in the evening, the painting were given as prizes. Mulh Symmes, graphic arts curato, for ledo Museum of Art, won Willer's portrait. Mary B. Stephenson, 19th century art curator, Detroit Institute of Arts, won Michaels' work and Laurie Bouchez. An arts patron woo Hegariy's painting.

Renting art: popular pastime in Plymouth

By Amy Harmon staff writer

ENTING A picture from the Plymouth Community Arts Council Rental Gallery is a very simple process.

"You walk in, plop down five bucks and walk away with a picture," said Therese Gall, gallery cochairwoman.

And every year, hundreds of people from the Plymouth area who want to try out a month's worth of new art on their walls do just that.

On the second floor of Plymouth's Dunning-Hough Library, the gallery does heavy business on Wednesdays, the only day it's open.

Pictures may be renewed for a second month and are then returned to circulation but, Gall said, prospective renters should be warned that the competition for favorites can be stiff.

To get around the time limit, some people will send their neighbors in to rent their favorites for them over and over again.

Fortunately for those who become especially attached to a rented picture, "it's not unattainable," Gall said.

The gallery periodically sells its pieces, replacing them with new acquisitions. With 250 pictures in its collection, the gallery has seen enormous growth over the last 15 years.

FOUNDED BY the arts council in 1975, the gallery began circulating its 10 or 12 pictures to local businesses and public buildings. As word of the gallery's rental system spread, it began to make more money and buy more artwork.

All of the profits go into new acquisitions and the general fund of the arts council. Last year, the gallery provided the general fund with $10,000, Gall said.

The gallery attracts several different sorts of people.

First, there are the regulars, those who "just like the idea of having different pictures on their walls all the time." They come in each month to trade in one of the gallery's pieces for another.

Gall said she knows some husband-and-wife teams who "fight to get home from work first so they can come up and pick out the picture for the month."

'It's really therapeutic. I look up and I realize eight or 10 hours have gone by and I haven't thought of anything other than what's on the canvas or paper.'

- artist Jim Hardy

Then, there's the set of people who have just moved into their new home and want to fill up their bare walls.

Finally, there are people who stumble upon the gallery because they happen to be in the library on a Wednesday. Some people in this crowd, Gall sald, "have lived in town forever" and are amazed to find such a special community resource they were never aware of before.

IN ADDITION to providing area residents with affordable art for their homes, the gallery has helped many local artists establish a reputation and start successful careers.

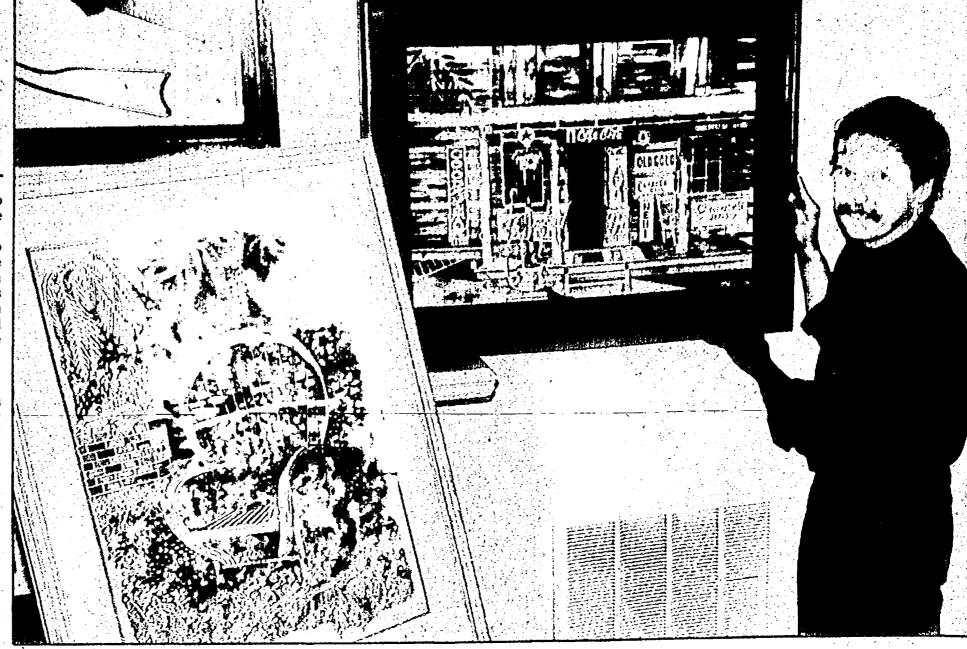

John Krieger and Johnnie Crosby were two Plymouth residents who started out at the gallery and have since gone on to show and sell their work nationally.

Buying new work from local artists at the metro area's art shows and at the sessions the gallery schedules for artists to bring in their work is Gall's favorite part of her job. But she admits it is sometimes painful to turn away artists whose work doesn't find favor with the gallery's

"It's hard to say, "This is awful," but Gall and Pam Minscher, gallery co-chairwoman, as well as the rest of the gallery's volunteer staff, knows what people in the community like to rent. And they insist that the gallery maintain its standards.

The quality of the work that artists try to sell to the gallery varies, Gall said, "but there are some artists we know we're going to get good stuff from."

One of these is Jim Hardy, a longtime Plymouth resident who has been working with the gallery for almost eight years. After discovering his work at the Plymouth Fall Festival several years ago, "Therese befriended me and kind of adopted me," Hardy sald.

HIS JOB as a golf course superintendent keeps him busy seven days a week during the summer. But in the winter, after his kids go off to bed, Hardy sometimes stays up all night painting in the room that serves as a library, an office, an alcove and a studio.

"It's really therapeutic," he said. "I look up and I realize eight or 10 hours have gone by and I haven't thought of anything other than what's on the canvas or paper."

Hardy considered trying to make a career out of his painting, but he decided to keep at it as a hobby when "I realized I had to be somewhat of a businessman, a marketing analyst and a public relations person if I were to make a living out of it."

Although some of his paintings have sold for $300, Hardy figures he makes just $1-$2 an hour for his

"It's not uncommon for me to spend 200 hours on a painting, so I'm barely making minimum wage."

Hardy said he's not in it for the profit. "So long as people like them, that's all that's important to me."

AFTER A period during which he painted mostly Depression-era scenes, depicting the "despair and decay" of the Dust Bowl and the cities in sepla tone, Hardy has moved on to a style he said is influenced largely by the Impressionists.

His colorful floral paintings are very popular at the gallery.

And since some of his pieces that card," Gall said.

his wife liked the best have been sold, he has become a regular patron of the gallery, as well as one of its best contributors. "I come up here and rent often."

Gall said it has been fun over the years to watch people such as Hardy change and grow. The gallery is also always growing and changing. New renters are always welcome.

We have renters from all over the area and we're anxious to have more. All they have to do is fill out a ...

Books serve up lots of insight into learning was the week in which many area kids started back to school, I think it's time we got to a subject I've been meaning to talk about for some time: school books.

No, I don't mean textbooks. I mean books about schools and learning, books that offer help and advice to concerned parents, books that bring readers into today's classrooms, books that bring us closer to teachers, that help us better to see our own children, that help us to gain a clearer and more complete picture of the educational process itself, that show us how to bring about change where it's needed in our schools.

Sliding SAT scores, illiteracy problems, rising dropout rates and teacher shortages - they're all part of the picture in hundreds of schools across the country. As the problems ly.

grow, the appeal of "school books" increases, not just for parents of school children, but for every one of

Bentley sweat shirts reflect gift shop motto

S YOU walk into the little gift shop, Betty Omar's embroldered sweat shirts are the first handcrafted items to catch your attention. The shirts are displayed on the entrance door.

Emblazoned on the front of the sweat shirts is: Bentley High School 1947-1985. On the back are the words: Gone But Not Forgot-

The Friends of the Livonia Library Gift Shop, in the atrium of the Livonia Civic Center Library at Farmington Road south of Five Mile, is crammed with jewelry,

"Our motto at the shop is, Gifts from around the world and around the corner," said Janet Bennett, assistant manager. Although other states have gift artists and craftsmen. Also there are Items from as far away as Chi-shops in their libraries, the idea is new to Michigan, Bennett said.

"We opened about a year ago," the Livonia resident said. "The Livonia Civic Center Library is the first in Michigan to open a gift shop in its library. We thought Betty's shirts would be a great item to sell here because so many Bentley grads live in the area."

"I GOT the idea because myself, my husband, Ronald and oldest daughter, Susan, graduated from Bentley," said Omar, a Livonia resident and Bentley graduate.

"Our youngest daughter, Becky,would have graduated from Bentley also if there had been a graduation class in 1986. Becky spent her senior year at Churchill instead."

"When Bentley was closed, there was a big brouhaha," Omar said.

"A lot of people were very upset." The Roman poet Horace (65-8 B.C.) said, "Adversity has the effect of eliciting talents which, in prosperous circumstances, would have lain dormant." So Omar declded to make sweat shirts out of the adversity stemming from the closing of Bentley.

The first shirt I monogrammed took 45 minutes. Now I can finish a shirt in a half hour," Omar said. "The monogramming is done on a machine like a sewing machine."

The sweat shirts come in white with green lettering or with white lettering on a green sweat shirt.

Omar said she'll "monogram sweat shirts with just about any kind of an inscription on them" from "I love my Irish Wolfhound" to the logos of Ford, Porsche, Newsweek, Nescafe and others, which can be legally copied.

Omar prefers to have one week to complete a customized sweat shirt order, but if it's needed in a hurry, she can have it ready within three days.

The cost of her custom sweat shirt is $20.

IN ADDITION TO sweat shirts, the gift shop carries jewelry designed by Claire Edwards of Livonia, a recent graduate of the Detrolt Center for Creative Studies, and Janet Snyder of Livonia.

The earrings, pins and necklaces woodcarvings, handmade baskets from Edwards' design business, A la Carte, are large, colorful creations. Snyder's handmade jewelry is finely beaded.

The gift shop carries

Viola Canfield's handwoven baskets, Don Lenz's woodcarvings of Saint Nicholas and Debbie Larocque's personalized mugs are only a few of the items sold at the gift shop.

I he Crossings

Apartment living just got better.

We're making The Grossings a better place to live and a better value. You'll feel it in the new hallways and newly refurbished clubhouse. You'll see it in the plush landscaping when you enter the grounds. And that's just the beginning. It's the new look and feel of The Crossings at Canton—and it's for you.

The Crossings at Canton offers 19 different floorplans with 1 to 4 bedrooms. And whether you choose a 2-level townhome or a luxury apartment, the renewed beauty of this charming tental community shines through in every one—the result of our recent "Capital Improvements & Upgrading" program. These apartments and townhomes are the largest in the area, yet are still incredibly affordable.

Kitchen design lags recycling

By Doug Funko staff writer

Trash separation and recycling may be the wave of the future, but you'd never know it from local designers and builders.

Little seems to be on the market or drawing board to help deal with sorting, storage and disposal of glass, metal, plastic and paper waste in kitchens.

-Ask what's happening and you get responses like, "Absolutely nothing, as far as I'm concerned," said Gene Brown, president of a Plymouth construction company.

"You're asking a good question. Nobody's giving up extra space for papers, plastics. Why, I don't know. Something probably should be done," Brown added.

His was far from being a lonely voice in the wilderness.

"It's all in its infancy," said Stuart Cyklert, owner of Lenwal Bullding Co. of Farmington Hills. "You know how it is - we're all reactive rather than proactive. We're just waiting to see what happens."

Hear Rodger Houck, owner of Creative Kitchens of Rochester. "There's nothing really happening." And James Allcorn, owner of Bloomfield Custom Kitchens.

head now," he said. "I think our association (National Kitchen & Bath) will start addressing it soon."

Recycling and separation of re-cyclables probably will drastically change the lives of familles who now dump all of their trash into one bag. Separate storage compartments would require more room than a single compactor or receptacle.

Then there's the matter of attrac-

We were out to a kitchen and bath show last spring in Chicago," said Kevin Fox, a designer for Robert R. Jones Associates in West Bloomfield, "I noticed a number of companies supply kitchen cabinets ... a sort of pantry unit with a series of bins for separate items.

I"I think this sort of thing will filter down fairly quickly," he added.

But perhaps not until recycling is

"I THINK what happens is this (recycling) is not unlike the business of energy conservation," Fox said. "Very few customers are interested in spending money on extra insula-

"I'm only guessing, but if you apply that same line of thinking, why spend money for extra cabinet space and figure I'm not going to use it,"

Not a single customer has asked for recycling elements in the kitchen yet, Fox said. Houck reported "no demand" and Allcorn only a couple of inquirles.

Trash separation seems inevitable, regardless of current demand for a working area to accomplish

Cykiert suggested that the kitchen isn't the best place to deal with recyclables, especially in smaller

"We have a cove area in the garage — a multipurpose area — for tools, storage. They'll do it there," he Allcorn and Fox also mentioned that the garage may be a better site than kitchen.

BUT IF THE kitchen is the room of choice, expect cabinetry design to provide solutions.

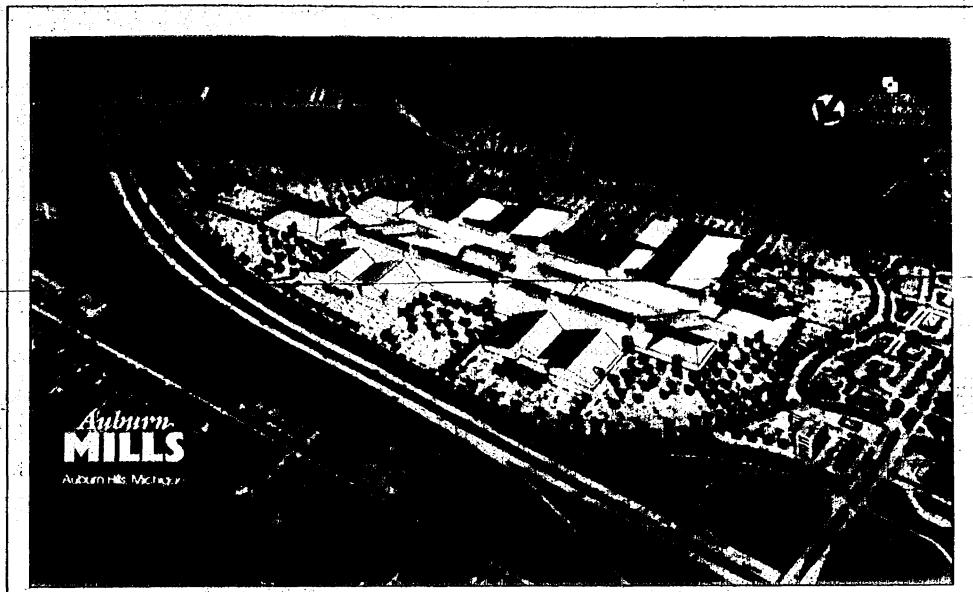

Allcorn said he now sells a popular storage cabinet in which two plastic or wire bins pull out on a track. However, more bins are needed for trash separation. More bins will add weight to the system and could affect the ease with which they slide on the track. "Maybe in the upper end of the market, builders will supply Trashmasters for glass and papers," Cyklert sald facetiously.

Enter Paul Sincock, assistant city manager in Plymouth. "Some of the homes I've seen have multiple trash compactors," he said.

Sincock is in charge of Plymouth's recycling program.

"Should a builder plan for space for a recyclable area in the kitchen? Yes. If not in the house, in the garage area," he sald.

"Plan for space. Recycling programs are changing on a daily basis. What works today may not work a month from now, six months from now or a year from now," Sincock

Moving forward on Auburn Mills

Work was expected to resume at the site of the Auburn Mills mega-mail in Auburn Hills after an Oakland County judge last week dismissed two lawsuits filed to block the project. Opponents, concerned about expansion of urban sprawl, traffic congestion and damage to the environment, have said they will appeal. Western Development Corp. says the $200 million regional mega-mall with nine anchor and five major stores, more than 200 discount shops and a hotel will provide jobs and property tax revenues without a net destruction of wetlands acreage. A trial on further wetland matters remains to be scheduled on an expedited basis. No official groundbreaking ceremony or major structural work is expected until all legal challenges have been resolved. Meanwhile, Western Development plans to move forward on site preparations. To date, preliminary work has included grading for road improvements, moving some trees and demolition of a couple of houses. The mall is expected to open in the fall of 1992. Stores are billed as selling merchandise at 20-60 percent below retail ... prices. The development will be built on 200 acres bounded by 1-75, Baldwin, Joselyn and Lake Angelus roads.

Less tolerance for drug abuse in construction

By Mary Rodrique staff writer

Sawed-off fingers, split wheelbarrow loads of cement, and self-inflicted nailgun wounds were traumas one construction company suffered.

The bizarre accidents and screwups compounded by tools stolen from job sites finally led the San Diego Fence Co. to drug test its: employees. The results: 15 out of 43 workers either failed or refused to be tested.

In a nationwide poll of eight industries, construction workers had the dubious distinction of rating the highest in substance abuse problems, according to Builder magazine.

That statistic echoes the findings of a 1987 University of Michigan survey that found 10 to 15 percent of all construction workers are substance abusers. Subsance abuse costs the industry at least $20 billion annually in absenteeism, health care, accidents and workers compensation.

"I think there's far more awareness today of the problem and less tolerance," said William Maloney, U-M associate professor of civil engineering and a former construction engineer who headed the survey.

Commissioned by the Construction Industry Institute, the survey said at least 600,000 of the nation's six milllon construction industry, workers nad a problem.

"More than 100 contractors and architectural firms took the report and developed programs and workshops to combat the problems," Maloney sald.

He cited an Albuquerque firm, New Mexico's largest contractor, which implemented a safety program in tandem with drug testing. result: Worker compensation benefits paid out to employees dropped from $950,000 to under

SOME LOCAL builders feel the worst is over in terms of substance. abuse in the workplace.

"It appears that construction workers have cleaned up their act considerably," said James Bonadeo, president of Bonadeo Builders and spokesman for the Builders Association of Southeastern Michigan.

"There is much less lost time (due to substance abuse) than there was three or four years ago," Bonadeo

Just a few years ago, Bonadeo recalls a time when a crew would work until 10 a.m., "pass the smokes around at coffee break," have an unproductive late morning, break for lunch and call it a day.

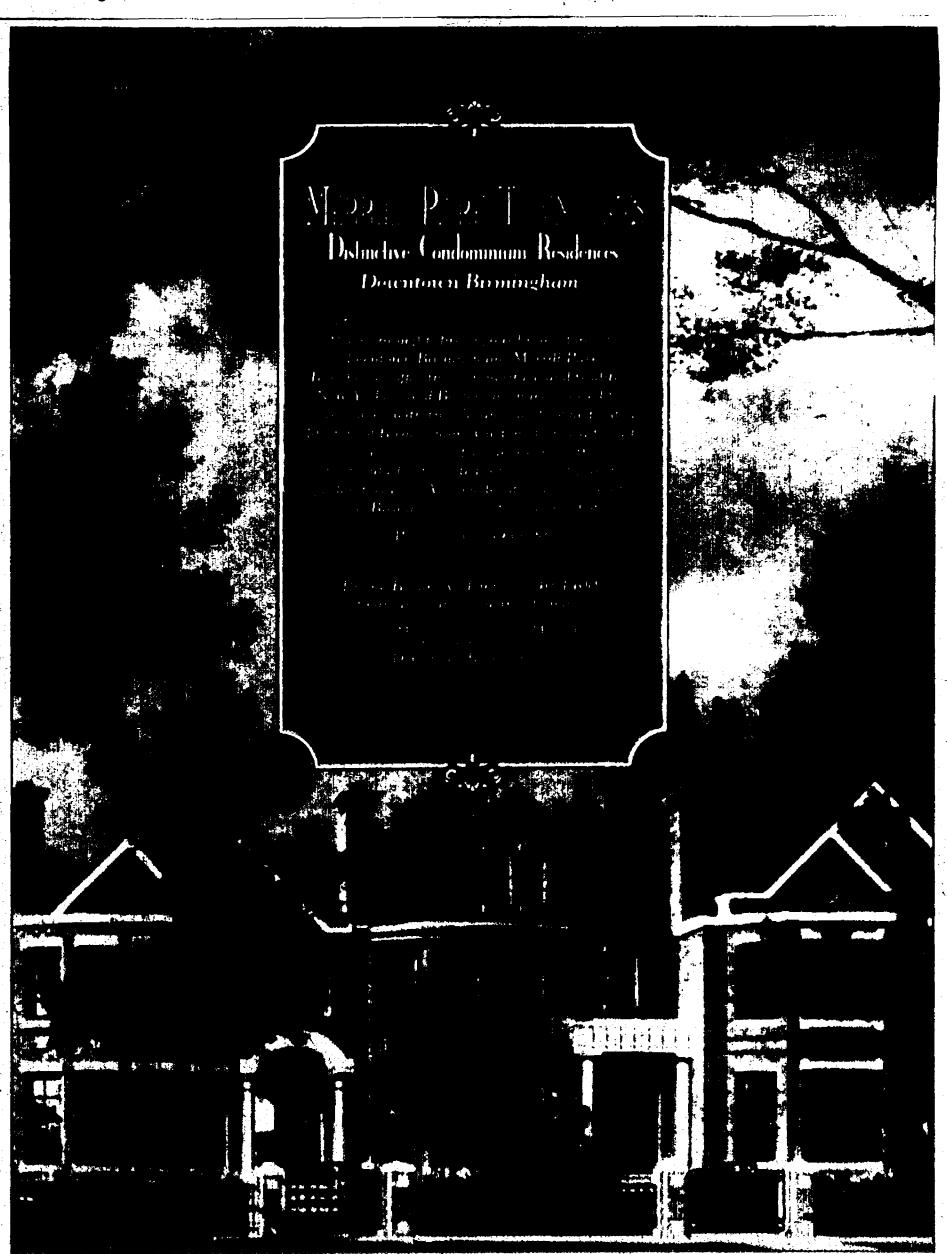

"I think the young men have observed too much of what happens when they become drug dependent. They've seen what has happened to other people. The industry is relatively clean today," he said.

To some extent alcohol abuse remains, Bonadeo said.

A spokesman for Nosan Cohen & Associates, a West Bloomfield-based builder, agrees "there's always potential in the industry for alcohol to be a problem, what with guys who want to cut out at 8 o'clock. But personally we don't have a problem with drug abuse. It's a big zero."

IN PACT, alcohol was the drug of greatest abuse cited in the U-M

GE testing house built of plastic components

Architects will tell you there definitely is a trend to make many building types, including laboratories, more personalized and homelike.

General Electric's 5,000-squarefoot Living Environments Laboratory, created to test an entire spectrum of plastic housing components, carries this design concept to the maximum.

Located in a residential area close to GE's Plastics Technology Center in Pittsfield, Mass., the research lab serves as an experiment in but one of the company's many interests outside of electricity and light bulbs.

The Living Environments Laboratory displays a number of building materials and systems that are designed to be adaptable to a more . typically sized 1,200-square-foot, expandable house for the future.

firm Richardson Nagy Martin in Newport Beach, Calif., designed the prototype.

The lab, called the Plastic House, maintains a traditional American home look, especially from the outside. The siding, which looks like wood, was developed specifically for the project using an extruded plastic resin that has improved weathering capabilities. Inside the wall, experimental insulation of corrugated wood panels coated with a fire protective thermoplastic skin functions like a giant thermos bottle to regu-Architect David George of the / late the inside temperature. The roof incorporates plastic composite shingles and molded plastic panels.

Perhaps the most striking element of the house is the part that normally: isn't seen: the way that all the environmental systems are controlled and linked together. A Total Environmental Control unit integrates the systems for heating, cooling, water conditioning and heat recovery. For example, the TEC water collection system in the basement can take water directly from an integrated gutter system, which also can be used for heat storage.

ADDITIONAL COMPONENTS, such as waste heat recovery units, can be added to the lines as snap-on units. All of the TEC units can beplugged in and out like household appliances. All the piping in the house can be accessed through pop-off wall and floor panels. Hard foam plastle underfloor tiles, shaped like an upside down eggerate, form a grid tems to a central computer control. Door frames contain space for wire raceways and integral light switches. A liquid crystal control changes the window glass from transparent to frosted as natural

Recycling also plays an important part in the OE Living Environments... Laboratory. Concrete for the basement floor and the walks outside the house incorporates aggregate made . of recycled thermoplastic. A disposing unit in the kitchen reduces domestic plastic waste to recyclable pellets. Drug abuse in construction

"It's an issue the industry historically tolerated," Maloney said. "Workers drank beer right on the workers breaking for Miller time.

"Although many people do not consider it a drug, alcohol is the most abused drug by a significant margin," he added. "On-site construction workers are the last of the macho cowboys."
