Students to march for mills Plan to take to sidewalks

By Darrell Clem staff writer

Wayne-Westland students will not be allowed to use city streets for a parade in which they hope to win public support for a school tax increase.

Students, seeking support for a tax increase that could avert sweeping program cuts, had planned to march along Westland streets during a lateafternoon parade on Friday, June 7. But their hopes were dashed Monday night, when the Westland City Council told them that they would have to march on sidewalks and avoid blocking streets during the parade.

The move came as the council decided in a 6-1 vote to allow students to proceed with the parade on sidewalks. The parade is designed to win public support for a 7.75-mill tax proposal on the June 10 ballot. Council member anomas Artiey cast the sole opposing vote. "The main reason I voted against it is because I feel that the school administration is using the children, as well as some of the (pro-tax) citizens committees, to support the millage when they (school officials) are the ones who should really be accountable for why there isn't enough money-to run the schools," Artley said. "They're putting the pressure on the kids to force their parents to go for this millage, when it has already failed three times," Artley added.

Schools lay off 83, make more budget cuts

By Darroll Clem staff writer

Wayne-Westland school officials Monday slashed 83 more employees from the financially troubled district's workforce, amid continuing budget cuts that one board member called "devastating."

The board approved the layoff of 54 teachers, 10 teaching assistants, 18 paraprofessionals and one secretary during a special session. The layoffs are effective July 1.

"I hate to vote for this," Board Member Kathleen Chorbagian said, noting that some of the workers have been employed by the district for 23 years.

The latest cuts came one month after the board approved the layoff of 44 other workers, including 34 bus drivers, seven custodians and three mechanics.

Monday's action raised to 137 the number of employees laid off since April 15.

Unless voters approve a 7.75-mill tax proposal on June 10 and the massaid, "I don't know how we're going to get through this." The layoffs followed deep cuts planned next school year in many programs and services, such as eliminating busing, sports and music programs and reducing the high school instructional day from six hours to five.

"THIS IS devastating," Chorbagian said, after the board approved the latest budget cuts in a 6-1 vote Mon-day.

Among the seven board members, only Sylvia Kozorosky-Wiacek voted against the layoffs, saying alternative budget-cutting measures had not been adequately explored.

Board President Mathew McCusk er stressed during Monday's session sive cuts are reversed, Chorbagian that the staff cuts "do not sit well with any member of this board."

THREE PROPOSED school tax increases have failed since February 1990, and school officials have placed the latest proposal on the June 10 ballot in a last-ditch effort to avert massive budget cuts.

City officials, in denying the students' request to march on city streets, voiced concerns about potential traffic hazards during the parade, planned for 4 p.m. Friday, June 7.

"That would tie up a lot of traffic," Artley said.

City clears way to expand mall

By Darrell Clem staff writer

A divided Westland City Council narrowly approved an $11.6 million plan Monday to boost commercial development, including a proposed Westland Center expansion.

Four council members favored a plan to spur economic growth by spending money to expand the mall, widen Central City Parkway as it loops north from Warren to Wayne Road, and install streetlights along several city roads.

Three council members opposed it, falling one vote short of stalling the projects made possible by amending the city's Tax Increment Finance Authority.

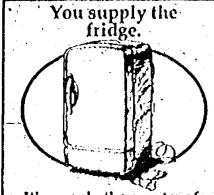

The TIFA uses taxes collected in a designated district, which includes the mall, to finance projected public improvements.

Council members Kenneth Mehl, Thomas Brown, Charles Pickering and Terri Reighard-Johnson supported the TIFA amendment, while council members Thomas Artley, Ben DeHart and Sandra Cicirelli were opposed.

Board hopeful would axe school chief, cut contract also suggested that board meetings

By Darrell Clem staff writer

A Wayne-Westland school board candidate wants to fire Superintendent Dennis O'Nelli and keep tax-increase campaigns out of schools as ways of restoring the board's credibility. ----

Virtually all of the 13 candidates competing for two four-year terms agreed that the board's credibility has deteriorated. Moreover, some blamed the image problem for the board's inability to win voter approval of three consecutive tax proposals.

Board hopefuls discussed efforts to improve the board's credibility in a group interview held by the Observer.

Candidate Laurel Raisanen, 46, a Westland resident' who has been highly critical of Superintendent O'Nelll, called for an immediate search for a new schools chief.

Raisanch also encouraged a board policy to prohibit teachers and other school employees from campaigning while on the job for higher taxes. Students should not be told to urge their parents to support tax proposals, she sald.

Raisanen, an Observer & Eccentric production department employee, also suggested the board should replace its auditing firm, Plante & should be broadcast on local cable to air the issues.

Board members also should try to reopen a teacher contract, settled in February, that led to an 11.9-percent raise over two years, Blouse said. Renegotiating the pact and lowering the raises would improve the credibility of the board, which has come under fire for the contract, Blouse sald.

BOARD HOPEFUL Terry Hewer, 4 a 38-year-old truck driver and Westland resident, criticized current board members for "insulting people" who disagree with board decisions, and he said such behavior has damaged the board's credibility: Hewer encouraged board members to stop the public insults and try to improve communications.

Westland resident John Albrecht, 40, a vice president's assistant at Dearborn Sausage, also said board members "should stop insulting the people who are concerned," particularly senior citizens. The board should "let them know that they are part of this" district, he said.

Moreover, Albrecht called on board members to make the public more aware of school issues by spending more time in the community.

Candidate Albert "Ed" Turner, a 57-year-old Westland, resident and retired American Airlines worker, agreed that board members should make themselves more accessible, in part by visiting schools once a month and seeking input from teachers and students.

The board also should seek ways to improve communication with parents, who should have more input in school matters, Turner said. "Communication is the whole secret to credibility."

INCUMBENT SHARON Scott, a 51-year-old Westland resident seeking her third term, admitted that school board members lack a solid public relations plan, and she said the board should work on it."

However, Scott stressed that teacher raises should not, damage: the board's credibility, even amid a budget crunch, because local teachers received lower pay increases than their counterparts in other

Wayne County districts.

Scott also held out hope that Public Act 25, which will require more citizen input and a building improvement plan at every school, will help the board's credibility,

Layoffs, budget cuts 'devastating' to district

However, board members have indicated the only budget area they can cut is among school personnel, which account for about -80 percent of the district's budget.

The staff cuts were made after school officials met in several sessions with leaders of the Wayne-Westland Education Association, said Bill Taylor, associate superintendent of employee services.

School principals planned to begin notifying those affected by the layoffs on Tuesday.

The employee group suffering the most layoffs were leachers, who lost 54 positions from the current 947-member teaching workforce, Taylor said.

THE LATEST teacher cuts brought to 124 the total number of lald-off teachers. Seventy already were on layoff -- many as a result of budget cuts last year.

The vast majority of the latest teacher cuts occurred at the junior highs and high schools, where program cuts and a reduction of the instructional day have payed the way for layoffs.

Thomas Svitkovich, associate superintendent, also voiced concerns that 70 teachers will be "displaced" as a result of the budget cuts, meaning they will be forced to switch schools or begin teaching different subjects.

Next week, school officials will begin making preparations to reverse many of the layoffs in case the 7.75-mill tax proposal is approved at the June 10 election.

The tax, which would be levied for two years, would cost the average Westland hemeowner about $233 a year on a $60,000? house with a $30,000 state-equalized valuation.

The tax proposal marks the fourth placed on the ballot since February 1990. Three proposals failed, though the margin of defeat narrowed to a mere 3 percent in the most recent election on March 13.

must become more accountable for its actions if it expects to restore its credibility.

"Accountability goes hand-in-hand with credibility," he said. Hallmark blamed the board's accountability problem on the last three failed millage elections and said the board should "listen to the people" who have spoken loudly against higher taxes.

If board members want more taxes, he said, "they are going to have to explain what the money goes for."

School management campaign issue

INCUMBENT MATHEW McCusker, a 55-year-old Westland resident and Ford Motor Co. employee, was the only candidate who appeared_ satisfied that the board has done what it can to improve credibilityat least on a personal level.

"I really don't know how I could improve my credibility as a board member," he said.

For 8½ years as a board member he has visited schools and sought input from employees at all levels. "And this board has probably been more active in going out into the community than any other board in the history of Wayne-Westland," McCusker said.

But board hopeful Jeanette Leppala, a 35-year-old pizzeria owner, suggested "fresh blood" is needed on the board to restore credibility.

Moreover, Leppala, a Westland resident, said the public needs to better understand the school district and its problems, and she added that the board should consider broadcasting meetings to help educate the public.

Candidate Vicki Welty of Wayne, a 34-year-old part-time instructor at Eastern Michigan University, said board members must begin to "think independently," yet work together to resolve the district's problems. The board also should stop lashing out at its critics, she said.

"We need to get rid of the usversus-them mentality that we seem to have right now," Welty said. She also suggested that board members spend more time in schools, taking time occasionally to assume the roles of secretary, bus driver and other workers.

CANDIDATE Anne Harbison, 62, of Westland, also indicated that board members need to be more independent because "they simply are rubber stamps of the administrative propoșals."

Present board members don't question the administration, said Harbison, a retired secretary and former Wayne-Westland school board member, "People need to know that board members are independent. And the board needs to bemore tolerant of people who challenge them."

Candidate John Ristau, 27, a freelance writer and University of Michigan student, said improved credibility would come from better management. The 11.9-percent teacher pay raises over two years should not have been approved because many teachers are failing at their jobs, Ristau said.

Moreover, Ristau, a Westland resident, indicated that new board members would have more credibility than present members. "With the credibility of the candidate comes credibility on the board," he said.

Candidate Kimberly Rowe, 20, a Schoolcraft College student and Crestwood Dodge employee, encouraged more community involvement to help restore hoard credibility.

A Wayne-Westland school board candidates' story printed Thursday, May 16, should have stated that candidate Laurel Ralsanen believes that a 4-mill tax increase would include enough money to protect programs and pay for teacher salary increases.

board's credibility will improve if voters, in the June 10 election, choose board members with a variety of backgrounds and experiences. Raupp chastised school officials

Board members also should' respond better to citizens seeking answers to questions about the district, Warmbier said. And the board should examine student achievement test scores to see if the results arewhat they should be, considering the amount of money spent on education, he said.

CANDIDATE KENNETH Raupp of Westland, a 44-year-old Ford Motor Co. employee, called for better district management among board members, whom he said also should be more accountable to the public.

for making it difficult for some citizens to obtain information they seek about the district.

"They have been stonewalling," he said. "It's sickening."

Candidate Richard LeBlanc of Westland, a 32-year-old General Motors metrology lab operator, said the board's budget should be put in simpler terms to make it easter for citizens to understand. LeBlanc also suggested the board consider hiring a different auditing firm than Plante & Moran because "people don't believe that the (district's) money is being used as effectively as it could be."

Moreover, LeBlanc indicated the board's credibility would be improved if voters elect less politically motivated candidates who owe no political favors.

"I don't need to satisfy any affiliation in our community," LeBlanc said. "I don't carry any extra baggage with me."

For the first time in history, officials of every local school building in Michigan must give the public a written annual report on how they are trying to improve.

The report is required under Public Act 25, the massive school quality improvement law passed in 1990. With its statistical tables, it will be like a corporate officers' annual report to shareholders, comparing last year's performance to this year's.

The Wayne-Westland school district has held most of its building improvement hearings this month. The remaining hearings are scheduled for Edison Elementary at 7 p.m., Wednesday, May 29; Jefferson Elementary at 1 p.m., Thursday, May 30; and Adams Junior High at 7 p.m. the same day.

"It will make people aware of, what is really happening in their schools, what they're trying to do, what some of the obstacles are and s what some of the successes are," said Dorothy Beardmore, president of the State Board of Education.

PA 25 has teeth: Schools can actually lose 5 percent state aid if they fail to produce a report. They also get an additional $25 per student from the state for performing this new state-imposed duty.

The law requires that the report be sent to the State Board of Education in Lansing and the intermediate (county) school district. Copies must be distributed in each school build-Ing's area.

Reports are to spell out the build- tests, state and national tests will be teacher communication.

See Phil Power's column on to- ing's goals, core curriculum, student reported. Where possible, there achievement measurements, student and measurements of parental involvement.

July 31 is the deadline for producing the annual report. State school officials say that's too early because some statistical material will be unavailable. Next year's school aid act is likely to push the date into late summer.

Some districts already do such reports. This year is the first time the ... The data should include not only report will be mandatory and must cover seven specific areas. Here is the state Department of Education's outline of what the reports must contain:

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT -Three- to five-year plans must cover mission, goals oriented to student outcome, staff development, building-level decision making and input from school people, students and the * public.

This section should describe how the school intends to use the core curriculum to achieve its goals. The staff development section should show evidence of training in improving the school.

CORE CURRICULUM -- Student achievement outcomes are to be det fined. Courses, units of study, instructional materials and assessment strategies will be listed.

The State Board of Education has produced a "model" core curriculum. The local school may vary from the state model but must explain the difference.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT ---Results of local student competency should be three-year comparisons.

Examples: Michigan Educational Assessment Program test results for math and reading in grades 4, 7 and 10; MEAP science results for grades 5, 8 and 11; American College Testing results; Scholastic Aptitude tests.

STUDENT RETENTION - The law defines this as the proportion of students who enter 9th grade and complete 12th.

graduation rates but transfers in, transfers out and transfers to adult ed. The state wants details on dropouts in order to target assistance.

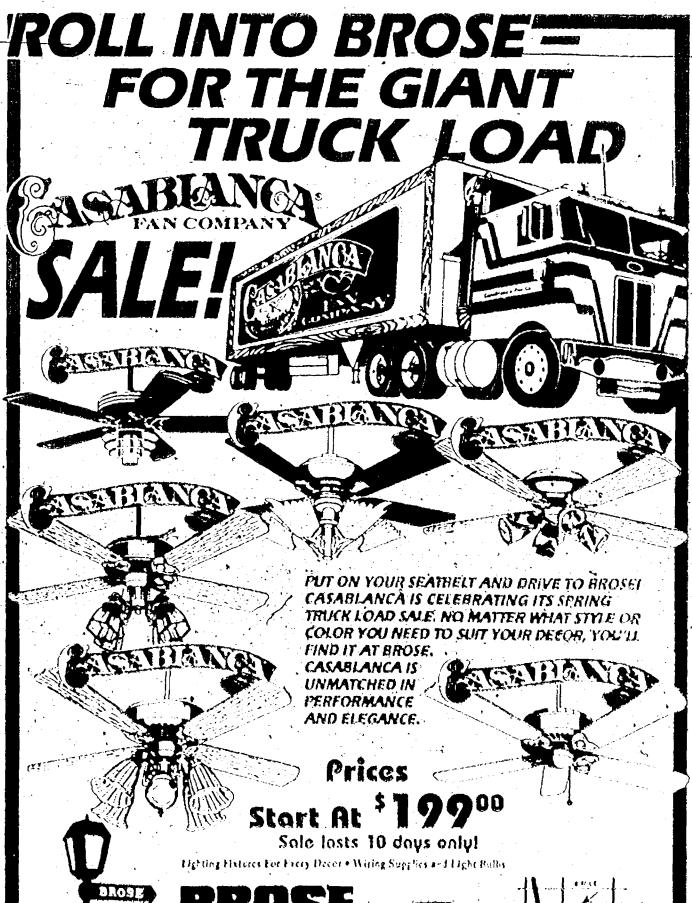

ACCREDITATION STATUS --Since this is the first year of state accreditation of buildings, no comparisons will be possible.

Many high schools have dual accreditation from the University of Michigan and the North Central As- sociation of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Schools in a "warned" status - in danger of losing accreditation .- must report the status and steps they are taking to maintain accreditation.

SPECIALIZED SCHOOLS - A district that operates specialized schools must describe theni, indicating their purpose, enrollment numbers, procedure for enrolling and how well goals are being met.

PARENT CONFERENCES ---The report should show the number and percentage of parents (or guardians) who attend conferences with teachers.

Students to march for millage

He also indicated the parade would require the city to bring in police officers - some of them on overtime. However, that appears secondary to the greater concern for the children's safety, he said.

Students had planned to start their parade at Wayne Memorial High School and march to John Glenn High School. They had hoped to march north on Wildwood, then west on Cherry Hill, then north on Wayne, then west on Marquette until they reached John Glenn.

City officials stressed that these loads will have heavy traffic during the time the parade is planned.

Dom DeBrincat, a John Glenn junior, said the council's decision has prompted students to change their parade route. They now plan to march west on Glenwood, then north on Wayne, then west on Marquette to John Glenn.

WHEN THEY reach their destination, the students are planning a rally in John Glenn's auditorium. DeBrincat said.

Superintendent Dennis O'Neill said Tuesday that, based on safety concerns, the city council's decision may be a good one.

However, DeBrincat appeared disappointed that students will not be allowed to have their parade in the streets.

DeBrincat said the parade will have the "negative" appearance of a protest as students walk along the sidewalks. Marching in the streets would have kept students off of homeowners' properties and would have given a more peaceful appearance, he said.

"We are not protesting," DeBrincat said, adding that students want to use a positive approach in their pro-millage campaign.

that gave teachers an 11.9-percent raise over two years.

The four-member panel issued its findings in a seven-page report submitted Monday to Wayne-Westland school board members. The report emerged three weeks before the June 10 thool election in which voters will decide a 7.75-mill tax increase.

In addressing the board Monday, panel chairman William Mills urged public support for the tax proposal, which he termed "necessary in order to provide the opportunity for a solid education for our children.

"Our audit found no areas of gross mismanagement, over-spending or anything else to indicate a reason to cut off our support of the children of this school district," Mills said, reading from a prepared statement.

AFTER MILLS presented the report Monday, the board voted 6-0 to accept it. Board member Sylvia Kozorosky-Wiacek abstained after members.

Other board members lauded the panel's efforts, with member Kathleen Chorbagian saying the committee did "a marvelous job."

Mills had approached Superintendent Dennis O'Neill about forming the panel after the last 7.75mill tax proposal failed in the special March 13 election.

O'Neill agreed to form the committee, which also includes Kevin Beevers, a Wayne businessman, James Lents, a retired Wayne funeral home director, and James. Murphy, a Westland insurance adjuster,

IN PRESENTING the report, Mills said the proposed tax, which would be levied for two years, would be sufficient to restore programs cut last year, avert pending budget cuts and provide for increased operating costs through 1992-93.

Without the increase, "there are insufficient revenues available to the district," the report states.

The state Treasury Department won't borrow money to meet its ald payments to local-school-districts and colleges in June and July.

Instead, the state will stretch out its payments, forcing-local units to dip into their savings accounts or borrow cash to meet payrolls.

"We'll get through this OK because we have a summer tax collection," Redford Union superintendent Kenneth Erickson sald. "But there's still going to be a loss of interest revenue."

A one-month delay also won't cause a major upheaval at Schooleraft-College-

"We'll have to dig into our reserves," college financial director Adelard Raby said. But in-formula districts and with the Milliken Adminstration, living month-by-month," Garden City Schools Superintendent Michael Wilmot said. "The bigger issue, in my mind, is how is the state going to finance education-It-stilllooks like they'll lean heavily on property tax payments instead of bellying up to the bar and living up to their responsibilities."

Districts will borrow

Redford Union and Garden City are western Wayne's only in-formula districts - receiving state aid for basic classroom expenses. "The state chose to have these districts, and community colleges like Schoolcraft, borrow rather than borrewing itself.

"The state did borrow $500 million in March," said Treasurer Douglas Roberts. "To borrow any more-would be-inviting the rating agencies to downgrade the state's credit rating."

Standard & Poor's gives Michigan a AA rating but has placed the state on "credit watch" status. Moody's rates the state slightly lower, A-plus

"WE COULD legally have borrowed, but we would downgrade (the ratings of) our notes and bonds," said Roberts, who is Gov. John Engler's financial expert.

--A -downgrading of Michigan'scredit rating would be hooted at by legislative. Democrats. Ex-Gov. James Blanchard exploited the fact that the credit rating im--proved during his two terms.

Roberts last week announced he would stretch out payments to local schools. Instead of paying them, a full $344 million on June 3, he will pay half then and the other half June 24. "There is simply not enough money in other usable funds to manage without delaying payments," he said.

Community colleges will get half their June payments on July - 15.

SOME SCHOOL districts have complained that the state's stretching of payments is shifting the burden of borrowing to their shoulders. They asked why the Treasury couldn't borrow to maintain its payment schedule.

"A fair question," said Roberts. "Creditors would ask what basis the state has for guaranteeing it can pay back the loans. We would have to pay them back by Sept. 1." Roberts said the state's revehues and cash flow are in trouble because a Court of Appeals decision on how the single business tax is applied cost the state $500 million in lost revenue. The court allowed Michigan companies which invest in other states to take the capital acquisition deduction, thus reducing state revenues.

Legislators are split along partisan lines over whether to remove the capital allowance and raise business taxes (Democrats) or reduce the SBT generally (Republicans).

Democrats would like to use that revenue to fund property tax cuts for homeowners. Republicans say taxes are bad for the economy. Wayne Peal contributed to this story.

Thursday, May 23, 1991 O&E

That was the objective of the Livonia Family Y Try-athlon. The second annual event, held Sunday, was a testament to physical fitness. Some 98 participants from throughout western Wayne and Oakland counties trained for more than two months for the chance to test their time in swimming, bleycling ind running events.

"Our motto was: challenge yourself," event coordinator Jaye Wells said. "We wanted people to do things they'd never done before."

Sponsored by the Y Wellness Cener, the event promoted good health and healthy living.

"THE GOAL was to get people to improve their cardiovascular wells said. "One participant told us they lost 20 pounds in the process."

Good health also translated to caring for the environment. Foam cups and plates were banned at the event, as well as at a Saturday night, carbohydrate loading pasta dinner provided for participants.

Participants were given their choice of activity levels, with more than half choosing the tougher level: a 20 length swim in the Y pool, followed by five miles peddling on exeasy. It included a 14 length swim, four mile bike ride and 3 mile run.

Men's overall champ Ken DuBois, a 25-year-old Novi resident, completed all three events in 40 minutes, 23 seconds. Women's overall champ April Long, 31, of Plymouth turned in a time of 48:28.

Men's age group winners included: John Curry, Livonia, 19 and under; Sean_Saxon, Livonia, 20-29; Fred Heldmeyer, Plymouth, 30-39; and Jim Holloway, Northville, 40-49.

Women's winners included: Carrie Germain, Garden City, 20-29; Ellen Stacey, Livonia, 30-39; Cecilia Brzys, Livonia, 40-49; and Shirley Rehn, Southfield, 50-59.

Participants ranged from 10-yearold Daniel Brooks of Plymouth to Fred Rafferty, 59, of Livonia. Gary Plank of Livonia and Cecilia Brooks, Daniel's mother, were honored as the event's most inspirational competitors.

"They trained hard and were a big * help to others," Wells said.

But Wells added that everyone who gets and stays in shape is a winner.

Decoration Day becomes Memorial Day. The working force of America looks forward to a. Monday Memorial Day (observed) that will stretch their weekend to three days, while the original May 30th date goes by virtually unobserved.

But this year, with another war barely over, our Memorial Days—both the observed and the original—have added meaning. This year when we gather for the parades and ceremonies, the hot dogs and potato salad, many more of us than before will find a quiet moment to truly remember the legions of men and women who have given their lives to preserve the concept of freedom—not just for our nation—but throughout the world.

Candidates predict money woes

Two candidates for two seats on the Livonia Board of Education, incumbent Richard McKnight and challenger James Watters, both see increases," said Watters, a 42-yearyears of financial struggle ahead for Livonia Public Schools.

Despite being blessed with a solid tax base, the district (which serves cannot be complacent as it faces these financial challenges, said McKnight during a Observer interview.

McKnight believes the freeze ultimately will lead to higher local taxes or cutbacks in the district's budg-

"I understand their (lawmakers') motivation. They want to satisfy the public's desire for the control of property taxes. But the freeze at best merely puts a little salve on the wound. I'd be interested in seeing, after it's been in effect for a year, what it will actually save people. I have a feeling it won't be much."

While understanding taxpayers' concerns, Watters said taxpayers also should look at the total taxes they actually pay after taking advantage of the state's circuit breaker and deductions on the federal income tax form. Watters, who helped put together the district's newly forged stragetic plan, viewed the plan as one good guide the district can use to improve the quality of its education. Part of that planning, McKnight said, must include more emphasis on technology, more help for the noncollege-bound student, and a review of the middle school curriculum _____

If elected, Watters, a member of the Livopia Chamber of Commerce, said he intends to attend business functions and promote a better partnership between business and the schools.

BELL REMEMBERS his years at Glenn "fondly" and recalls that (then) principal Higgins "took special notice of my appetite for math. He arranged for me to meet with some Wayne State math professors and to use some Wayne State computers." Bell is "indebted to Higgins" for his encouragement and was grateful to several teachers while attending Glenn. Tax hike needed to avert cuts

Westland Observer menseeten

HE WAYNE-WESTLAND school district must have a variety of quality programs and services to meet the current and future needs of its students.

As a reality of the community's demographics, the district is forced to offer a wider range ofprograms and services than other districts because of the varying needs of local students.

Voters will act Monday, June 10, on a 7.75 milltax rate increase. The Observer urges the community to support the proposal.

One question in the millage campaign is not what the tax rate boost will buy but what programs and services will be eliminated if the proposal is rejected.

The board has already announced planned, massive cutbacks if there is no new money in the fall. Those cuts will include virtually all busing (with the exception state mandated busing for special education students); reduction of the high school day to five hours from six, which would jeopardize the schools' university accreditation; elimination of the expressive arts program already decimated during the past year; continu-ation of the shortened junior high school day at five hours; and elimination of all sports and cocurricular programs, supported last year on a pay-to-play fee basis.

If the tax increase is approved in 21/2 weeks, the board has promised that none of the administrative cutbacks made last year will be restored, other than those involving the shared principals at four elementary schools.

With the national and state demands for a higher level of educational standards for high school graduations, it's suicide for today's stu- loss of community confidence and credibility in dents to cut more into the program.

IT'S ALSO short-sighted for homeowners ---with or without children now in school - to oppose the millage proposal just to avoid a higher it's also short-sighted for homeowners — with or without children now in school --- to oppose the millage proposal just to avoid a higher property tax bill. estate values in a community. Communities with deteriorating schools usually suffer from lower home values.

On another issue, many voters are upset with the size of the pay raises given to the district's teachers earlier this year. But the contracts are history and won't be changed, regardless of the June 10 election's outcome.

Voters should be aware that the raises account for $3 million of the $11 million to be generated by the millage proposal and related state aid revenues.

IF THE 7.75 mill proposal is approved, it will mean an annual property tax increase of nearly $233 for the owner of a $60,000 house. For those with modest incomes, there would be a state rebate of most of the tax bill increase.

Many parents are upset about low academic test scores, increasing property taxes and the the board of education.

Rejection of the June 10 proposal and the resulting deeper program cuts won't help. Actually, they would make it harder to improve the

Here's our college choices

ERSPECTIVE should be the watchword in selecting a candidate for a four year Schooleraft College board seat Monday, June 10, and Ronaele Bowman has the broadest, most refreshing perspective in the large, spirited field of candidates.

We also recommend incumbents Michael Burley and Jeanne Stempien in the race for two six-year seats, though we wish that race were equally spirited.

Bowman, of Livonia, admits she might not "fit in" with other Schoolcraft board members, at least initially. But that is not necessarily a bad thing.

Ronaele Bowman ilour-year seat

While the Schoolcraft board is capable, it is also homogeneous. Many of its members are bottom-line types, whose first priority involves keeping close watch on college spending. Nothing wrong with that, but there's no one to replace the classroom-oriented philosophy of late trustee Rosina Raymond. . While other trustees might argue whether programs are cost effective, Bowman would be there to argue whether they are effective. That's a critical difference.

.Through her job as a youth assistance program director, Bowman can' also boast ties to Garden City - part of the Schoolcraft community long unrepresented on the Schoolcraft. board.

Bowman also leaves little doubt that she would stand up for her beliefs and that she wouldn't stand for the kind of board shenanigans that surrounded the recent selection of a new college legal representative.

and broad and intriguing personal hobbies — she ergetic, focused campaign.

Right stuff

There are other candidates worthy of mention. Steven Ragan, appointed to the board last month to fill a vacancy, impressed us with the sincere, conscientious_effort_he's_shown_in his brief tenure. But at a mere 25, and just out of college himself, Ragan at this point can't match Bowman's broad, life perspective.

Bruce Patterson impressed us with his forthright answers and with the can do spirit he brings to community projects in Canton. But Patterson makes no bones about his desire to eventually become a district judge. While there's -nothing wrong with such ambition, we'd prefer a candidate with a more long-term commitment to Schoolcraft.

Patricia Watson impressed us with her thoughtful approach to Schoolcraft issues, but her perspective is similar to Bowman's and we question whether she would be as forceful on the board.

Any of those three candidates, however, would have enlivened the low key race for the two sixyear seals

Jeanne Stempien six-year seat

Burley, though, was impressive with his grasp of Schoolcraft issues, not to mention his vigor. There is no doubt this long-time trustee retains his enthusiasm for the job, though we sometimes

Education appreciated

To the editor:

I am a student in the Wayne-Westland district and for months I have been listening to parents blaming teachers for low MEAP (Michigan Education Assessment Program) scores, bad grades, etc. Parents need to support the teachers and work with them.

Recently an article in a local paper gave a negative view of my elementary school and teachers. I found this very upsetting. I went to Vandenberg beginning with kindergarten and completed sixth grade in June 1990.

My seven years at Vandenberg gave me a strong foundation for future educational experiences. All of my teachers gave me their best, however they can't do everything alone. They need parent support. What is started in the classroom must be continued at home. My parents have spent endless hours helping with homework and weak areas.

Phil Power is chairman of the company that owns this newspaper. His award-winning column will appear periodically.

Rumors will always be there. Don't believe them. Give everyone a chance. For example, due to rumors I was scared to death to enter sixth grade. The stories I had heard were frightening. I started sixth grade in August 1989. I was scared, I completed sixth grade the following June as a student with a strong readiness for junior high. I didn't have one horror story to tell about sixth grade.

I left Vandenberg with a 4.0 grade point average and received the President's Academic Achievement Award. I have kept a 3.8 or above grade point average during my first year of junior high. I feel I am able to maintain these grades due to my elementary learning experiences. Thank you teachers and staff at Vandenberg and thanks mom, and dad. Remember, "It takes two" (parents plus teachers).

SOME OF US good ole boys were standing around the copy desk the other day, discussing the latest essay from one of my fellow columnizers.

(Now no one in the group, understand, considered himself a good ole boy. In fact, if you had labeled him as such, he would have denied it with all the indignation he could muster. But there's a trace of the good ole boy in all of us, even if we don't e chew Bull Durham or drive pickups with gun racks in the back.)

"Well, he's really gone over the edge this time," one of them said .---"Come out of the closet, that's for sure," said another ...

"I'll bet his wife makes him eat quiche for dinner," added a third.

It was the kind of lively, and argumentative, discussion that a column should generate. Then one of the women in the office walked by.

"What's going on?" she asked. Somebody handed her a printout of the column in question.

SHE STARTED reading it and muttering unintelligible things under her breath. I couldn't make out what she was saying, but I thought I caught the word "strangle" and something about a dull knife.

Then another person showed up. He surveyed the scene. "Are you guys picking his column apart again?

"It's insensitive," somebody said. "It's his opinion. He's entitled to it."

."It's women bashing. And gay bashing."

"No, it isn't. Besides, it's his opinion. He's got a right to it."

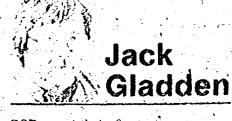

"Well, nobody denies that, but if you went through this and substituted the word 'blacks' for 'women' and 'Jews' or 'Arabs' for 'homosexuals,' we'd never even consider running it." --

"Oh, that's different!"

"I don't know about that crack about soccer, though. Soccer's a pretty good game."

GOBs went their separate ways, presumably to think about politics or hunting or fly fishing or whether the Pistons were going to be able to pull off a Threepeat.

For some reason I kept thinking about the question that has been bugging the feminist for a long time now.

"Why is it," she wants to know, "that it's still socially acceptable to -poke fun-at-women when you'd never_ dare make jokes about or poke the same kind of fun at racial minorities?" The answer, of course, is that the good ole boy syndrome is alive and well, even though it's kept in the closet a lot of the time.

Then I thought about that civil rights bill in Congress — the one that House Democratic leaders are trying to make more palatable to Southern members (the original good ole boys) by setting limits on jury awards to female victims of employment discrimination while imposing no such limits on similar awards to victims in race discrimination cases.

Why is it, the feminist also wonders, that it's considered less serious to discriminate against people because of their sex than because of their race?

I had a vision of her putting that question to one of the congressmen who's supporting the amendment to impose the limits and who (in my vision) bore a striking resemblance to J. R. Ewing, another good ole boy.

I could see him putting his arm around her, giving her a wink and a hug and saying, "Why, that's different, darlin'. Yessir, that's completely different."

Q: As a parent I am amazed that (years ago) who would hire a teacher one high school teacher my children over the phone - no interviews, no had has tenure. All the kids say he is background check.

This seldom if ever happens today, especially when there are 4,000 applications on lile in some of our school district personnel offices.

The second problem is the probationary period. The building principal and central office administration have up to three years to evaluate a candidate before tenure.

If a weak, mediocre teacher was given tenure after three years of observation, the question becomes, "Where was the administration during the teacher's probation period?"

Still, some might say, "We miss the good 'ole days when the administration ran the schools, when there was no tenure." Let's briefly look at

The "unwritten language" is what got techers fired prior to tenure. Taken for granted was that teachers didn't go to local bars, instead go about 25 miles out of town for a drink. Students named merit scholars

Students from high schools in Plymouth and Westland were among 1,250 students nationwide who recently received corporate sponsored national Merit Scholarships.

Scholarship winners were chosen from students reaching the finalist level in National Merit Scholar competition and whose qualifications were of particular interest to the sponsoring corporations.

Area winners include:

• Lynn E. Biberdorf of Plymouth, recipient of a Dow Chemical Co. Merit Scholarship. Biberdorf attends Plymouth Christian Academy, Canton, where she is valedictorian and a winner of the Madame Curle Award. She plans a career in misslonary work and medicine. Dow maintains a comprehensive scholarship program for children of its em-

Winners were chosen from an estimated 2,000 essays submitted to the sheriff's department from public and private schools. The countywide contest was open to students from kin-Junior Kristen Fox and sophomore Wednesday at Martin Luther King dergarten through 12th grade.

Abortion vote delayed

The state Senate has delayed voting for one week on the potentially explosive "informed consent" abortion bill.

The vote on Senate Bill 141 was scheduled for Wednesday, but the postponement was asked by Sen. Fred Dillingham, R-Fowlerville, because his father suffered a heart attack.

While the Senate has been friendly to abortion restrictions, this bill may face trouble because the Michigan State Medical Society is opposed. The bill would require doctors to provide women information on physical complications, psychological complications, mental health sources, adoption services, photos of what the fetus looks like at that stage of pregnancy and how to obtain. birth control information.

Sen. William Faust, D-Westland, usually a pro-life vote, said, "I'm going to listen in particular to Sen. (John) Schwarz," a Battle Creek Republican and the Senate's lone physiclan member.

CAR GETTING ON NERVES? TAXES TOO HIGH?

The secret? Clean drains don't run slow.

Slow drains, or periodic clogs, are SIGNALS that a thick layer of GOOK is choking your pipes. Grease, hair, and other waste stick to your pipes, with every use. This gook deposits along the entire length of the pipe. It chokes your pipes gradually, as it gets thicker and thicker.

Conventional drain openers can't fix slow drains. They react chemically on the surface of the gook. To be effective, they must remain in contact with the waste. Even a small tunnel in the gook lets them flow out to the sewer, leaving the gook behind. In the past, the only way to remove this build-up was to rooter your pipes. An expensive, temporary measure.

"We've been close a lot of times, but we've always been behind Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor Pioneer," Holmberg said "We were third last year ". On Friday, the Spartans took the Class A team title at Southfield with 80 points, outdueling Detroit Public School League members Cody (57) and Henry Ford (46). See statistical summary on page 4B.

"I'm kind of surprised," Holmberg said. "On paper, Henry Ford should have beaten us. We did what we advertised. There were no surprises."

Stevenson, led by regional discus champion Debble Wroblewski (112 feet, 8 inches), racked up 43 points in the field events.

The Spartans then opened up the running events by qualifying for the state Class A meet (June 1 in Grand Rapids) in the 3,200-meter relay as Gail_Grewe, Jennifer_Plander_and Carrie Creehan took second in 9:57.4. "We had 51 points before the meet beaten in eight dual meets this sea-

The Spartans were up to the task; along with some other Observerland individuals.

Livonia Ladywood's Rebecca Willey qualified for the state meet in two events, taking firsts in both the high jump (5-4) and shot put (35-43/4). Teammate Malia Dixon added a second in the 3,200 run (11:43.6) to qualify.

Redford Union's Sarah Percy also qualified in two events, winning the 300 hurdles (48.2) and finishing second in the 100 hurdles. Teammate Kellie Watkins finished second behind Willey to qualify in the shot put (35-21/2).

Stevenson, meanwhile, pulled away from a 2-1 halftime advantage to beat city rival Franklin, 7-1. Michell Brach and Ragen Coyne each scored twice, while Godlewski, Holly Kimble and Kristin Oswandel added one apiece. Godlewski also collected three assists. Patty Shea tallied the lone goal for the visiting Patriots, who were outshot 19-4. Karen Groulx was in goal for the defending state champions.

Where have you gone Detroit Adray Baseball League?

If Simon and Garfunkel were singing a new version to this tune, the answer would be: Livonia Collegiate Baseball League.

With the folding of the Detroit circuit, players ages 20 and under have flocked to compete for jobs in the eight-team LCBL. Competition will be a lot stiffer this summer in the Livonia league, which opens its season Friday at three different sites.

Friday's double-header at Ford Field pits Wendy's of Ann Arbor vs. Livonia Little Caesars at 5:30 p.m., followed by regular season champify's Plumbing of Livonia against two-time LCBL playoff champion starter this season at Indiana and

CC breezes to regional title

Nothing unexpected happened at the Class A tennis regional at Dearborn. Redford Catholic Central dominated, as anticipated, winning the title with ease to advance to the state meet May-31-June 2 in Midland.

The victory may have been costly, however. The Shamrocks' top singles player, Paul Bozyk, had, to withdraw while trailing Dearborn's Andris Abolins 5-4 in the first set of the No. 1 final due to a pulled groin muscle. His status remains uncertain.

CC won with 27 points, Host Dearborn was second with 18, followed by Dearborn Edsel Ford (14), University of Detroit-Jesuit (10), Dearborn Fordson (seven), Livonia Franklin and Garden City (six each), Redford Union (four), Detroit Mumford (two), Detroit Mackenzie and Detroit Redford (one each), and Detroit Cody and Detroit Cooley (zero).

The top two teams advance to the state final.

CC COACH Bob Miller was optimistic regarding Bozyk's return. "It's looking positive he'll be able to start practice real soon," Miller said. "But I want to know what the doctor has to say before I throw him into the fire."

muscle during practice earlier last week. By the tournament final, it had worsened so that he could hardly move.

Bozyk's loss, however, did illustrate just how deep this CC squad is. The Shamrocks were also without Jayson Torres at No. 1 doubles, who missed the regional due to illness.

Mark Shaya, who played No. 4 doubles throughout the dual-meet season, filled in and, said Miller, "He played extremely well. He didn't look out of place at all." Torres is expected to be ready by the state finals.

Indeed, Bozyk's withdrawl at No. 1 singles was the only CC loss. The Shamrocks collected titles at the other six flights, including No. 1 doubles, where Shava teammed with Chris Alonte to beat Dearborn's Travis Furlow and Mike Pernicano, 6-1, 6-1.

"THIS MEET just confirmed the fact that we According to Miller, Bozyk slightly pulled the have a very strong team," said Miller .- "We're-pretty solid down the line. The meet went the way we expected it to go.

"Because of our previous record throughout the season, knowing we'd played some pretty tough teams led me to believe we'd have pretty solid results. But you still have to go out and play."

CC played, all right. At No. 2 singles, Paul Thieme handled Geoff Jorgensen of Edsel Ford 6-0, 6-4; at No. 3 singles, Scott Hazlett outdueled German Spiller of Edsel Ford 6-3, 6-4; and Rohit Bhatia completed the CC singles sweep at No. 4 with a 6.0, 6.2 victory over Franklin's Pat McCormick.

In doubles, the No. 2 title was captured by CC's Dave Gallagher and Chris Matson, 6-2, 6-1 over Brian Short and Chuck Saltmarche of Dearborn. The No. 3 crown went to the Shamrocks' Dave Lombardi and William Shade, who shutout Mike Chioni and Mario Villaba of U-D Jesuit, 6-0, 6-0.

Now all that remains for CC - ranked fourth in the last Class A poll - is the state final. "I'm -just trying to get everyone healthy and gear up for Midland," said Miller, "There are a lot of teams who are pretty much equal. Whoever gets hot is going to win it."

If the Shamrocks can regain their health, they -could be that team-

With only an 11-member squad; Wayne Memorial put on quite a performance Tuesday at the Wolverine A League girls track meet before being nipped at the wire.

grils track Monroe edged the host Zebras in the final point tally, 132-118. Rounding out the eight-team field: Wyandotte (93), Belleville (48), Trenton (38), Lincoln Park (36), Southgate (16) and Dearborn Fordson (15).

"We didn't have enough people to enter the 3,200-meter run and we were hoping some of the other teams could come on, but they didn't," Wayne coach Floyd Carter said. Monroe's Carrie Vanisacker captured the event in 12:19.0.

"That beat us right there," Carter said.

Wayne took firsts in nine of 16 events.

German exchange student Erika Beetz, Akua Hammons and Quinday Cooper each captured two individual events. Beetz won the high jump (5-1) and 300 hurdles (47.4), while Hammons took the long jump (16,8%) and 400 run (1:01.3). Cooper added firsts in the 100- and 200 dashes in 12.9 and 26.56, respectively. Hammons also finished second in the 200 at 26.6. Cooper was also a member of two winning relay squads.

She teamed up with Nicole Perry, Tranessa Burroughs and Zenobla Davis to win the 800 relay (1:51.0), while the foursome of Cooper, Perry, Burroughs and Loleta Cobbs added a win in the 400 relay (52.4). Hammons, Burroughs, Beetz and Davis won the 1,600 relay in 4:15.6.

MICHIGAN INDEPENDENT MEET: Lutheran High Westland scored an impressive 189 points Tuesday in winning the Michigan Independent Athletic Conference meet.

Southfield Christian was a distant second with 85 points, followed by Bloomfield Hills Roeper (75), Grosse Pointe University-Liggett (64), Rochester Hills Lutheran Northwest (45) and Plymouth Christian (8).

Individual winners for the team-champion Warriors included Heather Thomson, 110-yard hurdles, 18.6; Lori Lapum, 100 dash, 12.1; Michelle Conklin, high jump, 4-6; Jennifer Billand, shot put, 28-3; Jennifer Gerlach, mile run, 5:30.3; and Kristin Hughes, 330 hurdles, 55.1.

Angel Azzopardi, Tonia Schlicker, Nicole Hines and Lapum combined for another Lutheran Westland first in the 440 relay (56.0).

At the Class C regional at Quincy, Lutheran Westland qualifled for the state meet in three events, led by individual winners Stephanie Locke in the 800-meter run (2:27.4) and Gerlach in the 1,600 run (5:26.7).

Proud owner David Rice called mances, as required. the Observer & Eccentric to talk about his dog's new claim to fame. "Ryder lives with friends of ours in istered in shows on any of those Wallacetown, about 35 miles south- dates, the dogs both have understuwest of London (Ont.)," Rice said. The friends had gotten a call from friends of theirs, who alerted themto the fact that Stratford was look- for having their dogs appear at ing for Irish setters to audition.

"The director really liked the dog," Rice said. Their dog will be onstage for 10-20 seconds in a hunting scene, along with Molly, a 1¹/₂ year old dog that belongs to their friends, John and Eva Cowhig.

"THE ACTOR walks onstage with them and across the stage to the other side," Rice said. Reading from a clipping from the Stratford Beacon-Herald, Rice said the director, Richard Monette, said the part requires "beautiful, welltrained dogs that have the ability not to become easily distracted."

'My Fair Lady' Perfect show for Greek Theatre

By Mary Jane Doerr. special writer

TO MUSICAL is probably more fitting for St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook to open its newly renovated Greek Theatre than Lerner and Lowe's "My Fair Lady."

Based on George Bernard Shaw's play "Pygmalion" the musical belongs in the 75-year-old amphitheater facing the Greek pool and statues. Shaw based his play on the story of a Greek legend of a king who carves an-ivory statue, only to fall in love with it.

-In the Greek legend, Aphroditebrings the statue to life and Pygmalion marries her. At Cranbrook in Bloomfield Hills, Nancy Brassert is bringing the statues to life, so to speak, as the director for this present-day Pygmalion, "My Fair Lady."

"We are proud of our Greek Theatre," said Brassert. "In Greek theater the saying goes 'less is more.' We don't try to cover up our Greek Theatre, but we have done what had to be done to make this show work."

ON THE floor of the company's "winter" house, the weather-resistant forest-green set was ready to be moved up the hill to the pine forest setting. There are surprises on the set, but Brassert is not telling what they are.

Directing is her second love and perhaps her third, if you count her happy marriage. Brassert says acting is her first love. -

Director Nancy Brassert goes over scene with Dianne Ryding as Eliza Doolittle in St. Dunstan's Guild production of musical "My Fair-Lady," based on Shaw's play taken from a Greek leaend.

Chef's Fest

Interesting chicken dishes were among the specialties at the annual Chef's Fest on Friday at the Community House in Birmingham. The Bates Street Cafe offered breast of chicken tabaka, a Mexican chicken dish; 220 Merrill Street, raspberry chicken salad; and Juliette's Cuisine, its new rotisserie chicken served with hot mustard, and black bean salad.

Ethnic dishes included tabbouleh, hummus and pita bread from the Phoenicia and spinach pie from the Lemon Peel.

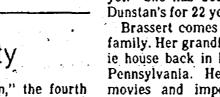

There were desserts in abundance, with an entire table devoted to Machus 160 pastry selections such as chocolate dream torte, Kahlua walnut cake, Kahlua sticks and fresh fruit flan.

Other restaurants participating were Machus Sly Fox, the Townsend Hotel, Midtown Cafe, Norman's Eton Street Station, Bates Street Catering, Alban's, Ocean Grille, Richard & Reiss, Punchinello's, Monchelle Lamoure, and I Can't Believe It's Yogurt.

Benefit party

"La Fete au Jardin," the fourth annual garden party fund-raiser for the St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center in Farmington Hills, will be 2-6 p.m. Sunday, June 2. It will feature gourmet foods prepared by chefs from 57 metro area restau-rants and 100 wines from around the world. Musical entertainment will be provided by a number of groups, including members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. The benefit will take place on the grounds of the Center, which serves abused and neglected children and young single mothers and their babies. It is at 27400 W. 12 Mile. Tickets are $80. For more information, call Artist Wells at 626-7527.

This column, which appears as space permits, includes news about area restaurants. To submit information, send to: Ethel Simmons, food and entertainment editor, Observer & Eccentic,-36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia 48150.

'When I was three I was in a dance recital and each time they played my exit I did my routine over again. I haven't gotten off the stage yet." She has been active with St. Dunstan's for 22 years.

Brassert comes from a theatrical family. Her grandfather built a movie house back in her home town in Pennsylvania. Her-father showed movies and imported talent who stayed in their home. Later, she went on to Sullins College in Virginia, majoring in drama, and then to the University of Virginia to continue her major.

"Once when I was doing summer stock, I went to New York to visit some friends in the theater. I decided there were 20,000 people in New York just as talented as I was and back home a wonderful man wanted to marry me. So I got married."

THIRTY-SEVEN years and no regrets later, she is just as much in love. She spends her weeks as a set dresser for films, and directing and acting in shows. Her husband spends his time at Metamora with his hors-

For her time with St. Dunstan's, Brassert was given the Constance Binney Award, the highest award given by the club for exceptional service.

In "My Fair Lady" she has cast 45 people from the group's 175 members. Many of them are new to the group. For some, it will be their first time on stage. Nearly 20 outstanding and experienced performers tried out for the eight leads - four excellent Elizas.

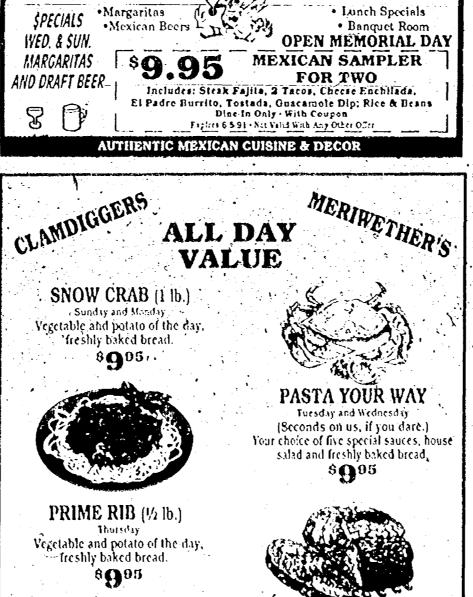

"We put demands on ourselves to do as professional a show as possible. That is our responsibility to our audience. This is a special cast. Their enthusiasm is going to spill out on stage."

DIANNE RYDING is Eliza Doolittle, playing opposite Dick Hartle as Henry Higgins. Edgar Guest is Alfred Doolittle, with Bill Everson as Col. Pickering. James Andres has the singing role of Freddy Eynsford-Hill singing "On the Street Where You Live."

Leading a 17-piece orchestra in the pit is classically trained vocalist Jeanne Weston, who has been rehearsing since March. Phil Fox of the Hilberry Theatre has been consulting on the English accents.

The show's 18 scenes have been cut to 13 to keep the pasing even. The ball and the scene in Mrs. Higgins' garden will take place in the grass in front of the theater. The set for the Covent Garden scene is back by the pool.

Like Pygmalion and Henry Higgins, Nancy Brassert has fallen in ' love with what she is creating with the Shavian characters in this Eng-" lish musical. Her enthusiasm is infectious.

"There is no better high you can get when you are on stage and things are really rolling," said Brassert.

tigate the specific financial aid requirements at each school the children are considering. If the Austins have a special financial circumstance not reflected on the financial aid forms, they should contact and work closely with a financial aid officer at the college,

The bottom line here is that the Austins should not necessarily rule out certain colleges and universities from consideration based solely on the cost. It is not too early to begin investigating the financial ald process with high school counselors and college financial aid officers. By preparing well in advance and acting early, they may be able to afford a far more expensive institution than expected.

DIRECT MARKETING DAYS

By Dan Boyce and Alan Ferrara special writers

This is the second of a series of articles on financing a college education. This week's story focuses on strategies for reducing assets to decrease the expected family contribution to college expenses. Next week, the series will conclude with a look at financial aid forms.

Last week, we reviewed the situation faced by Mike and Jo Austin, a Westland couple who are trying to plan for their two children's college education costs.

The children, who are in high school, have relatively modest college savings accounts - about $5,000 each. The Austins wonder how they can afford to send their children to private or even public universities without putting themselves in a deep hole financially. This would be a major problem for them because they must provide for their own retirement.

Jo recently received a $50,000 inheritance from her mother. Jo wonders whether she would give $5,000-$10,000 to each child to supplement their current educational funds. We would not reccomend that she do this for reasons we will discuss later-

Assets, and to some extent income, should be structured so as to provide the lowest possible expected family contribution and therefore qualify for the greatest amount of financial aid. The four basic resources are: parental assets, student assets, parental income and student income.

PARENTAL ASSETS: This is one of the biggest areas that the Austins can control. Certain assets must be included in the financial aid formula Assets typically not counted in de- Invested Assets: termining family contribu retirement plans, life insur values, and in many cases, annuities. The obvious stra is to have as many assets cluded category as possible.

A note of caution: When ing shifts among assets to c financial aid, don't let the the dog. The financial should make good invest economic sense rather th solely oriented toward qu for financial aid.

THE AUSTINS should consider the following strategies to reduce their assets. They should consider taking out a home equity loan to consolidate their non-mortgage debt. By borrowing the $26,000 to pay off their auto loans, bank loans and charge accounts, they will reduce their equity value of their house and thus decrease their expected contribution by more than $1,400 per year -(5½ percent of $26,000). It is also a good economic decision because the interest rate is both lower and tax deductible.

Jo's $59,000 inheritance might beprotected by aligning it with their life insurance program or possibly through the use of an investment annuity contract: Mike has a $250,000 universal life contract, which has a very modest cash value. By adding the $50,000 to the universal life contract, the money may be excludable, it would earn a competitive interest rate, and it would grow on a tax-adtion rate. So it is beneficial to minimize the total assets in that student's name.

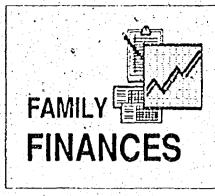

Jo had been thinking of transferring some assets to her children's accounts. This is an appropriate strategy only if there is little chance of qualifying for financial aid. Because the Austins will likely receive aid, they should avoid placing assets in the children's names as it will significantly increase the family's expected contribution and therefore derosso financial aid

The Austins might even consider using the $5,000 each child has accumulated for other expenses that would otherwise be incurred by the children. By reducing the children's assets they again increase the potential for financial aid. The only categories of expense for which the Austins cannot use the children's money are food, clothing and shelter.

PARENTAL INCOME: As in parental assets, there are certain allowances excluded from the parents' income. These include such items as taxes paid, certain unreimbursed medical expenses and a family maintenance allowance. The expected-family-contribution takes 22-47 percent of everything left over.

There are a couple of strategies the Austins might consider to reduce reportable income. First, Mike should increase his contribution to the 401(k) plan at work from 5 percent of his income to 10 percent. This decreases his reported taxable income. Should he need to access these funds to pay for some of the educational costs, the 401(k) plan permits loans for up to one half of the value of this account.

The Austins have stock that Mike bought 10 years ago for $1,500, which is now worth $6,000. With the recent increases in might want to consider selling in 1991 so that the capital gain is reported on this year's tax return. The first child's financial aid application (to be submitted January 1992) will be based on 1992 income. If there is a capital gain in 1992, this will increase the Austins' expected family work to generate additional income. After paying Social Security taxes (over 7.5 percent), federal income taxes (28 percent), state and local taxes (5 percent), job-related transportation and meals (approximately 10 percent), 47 percent of everything left (which comes to about 23.5 percent of the total) goes into the financial aid formula as the expected family contribution. Totaling these, items, 74 percent of her job income would be lost.

Many families use this as a time for the at-home spouse to return to school. If enrolled at least half-time in college-level courses, the parent is considered another student in college for financial aid purposes. Again, this reduces the expected family contribution.

STUDENT INCOME: According to the financial aid formula, 70 percent of a student's after tax-earnings are included in the expected family contribution (with a minimum contribution to be made of $700 per year). There are no exclusions here to reduce—this expected contribution. There is very little that can be done to impact this number.

These strategies, when taken as a whole, will dramatically impact the amount of financial aid that Jill and Ted might receive. The practical considerations of each suggestion should be reviewed carefully by the Austins with their personal tax and financial advisers to be sure that they fit their situaiton. Also, some of the strategies might not work at certain colleges, which have their own supplemental financial aid forms, so they should inves-

Scramble sometimes needed to get discount airline tickets

The ongoing spree of airline advertisements offering drastically low fares for flights to the sidewalk cafes of Paris or the tropical islands of Hawaii has brought a triumphant response from would-be travelers.

But amid the rush to take advantage of the low fares, many area travel agents like Marlene DiPonio, manager of Livonia Travel Service in Livonia, had to tell clients that no such fares were available. This bit of news did not sit well with customers."

And it did not sit well with DiPonio. But the airlines seemed delighted.

"You open the newspaper and see an ad for a $99 flight, but once you figure out all the restrictions, you find out the ticket will cost $299," DiPonio said.

"It's like everything now; you really have take things with a grain of salt."

The airlines are using a relatively new technique known as "yield management," by which they advertise drastically reduced fares and then limit availability in the hopes that customers who fail to get a discount switch to a higher-priced ticket.

"The low fares have always been very limited, but I think this practice has really come to light with all the recent promotions," said JoAnne Noakes, president and owner of Aurora Travel in Troy.

"The airlines were really hurt by the Persian Gulf war and the threat of terrorism, and by offering the low rates they've created incredible demand, but that demand has greatly exceeded the number of seats available.",

Based on the principle that the cost of a particular service is never the same for all clients, yield management allows the airlines to maximize revenues and profits by offering discount fares and then juggling the mix of low- and high-priced tickets right up until takeoff.

For example, business travelers who need flights on short notice pay higher fares than vacationers who book their seats well in advance. At the same time, the airlines are well aware that any empty seats constitute lost revenues. So in order to maximize profits, the airlines take seats they anticipate will remain unsold and raise or lower prices to lure just enough bargain fliers to fill a plane -- and no more.

But as the airlines have grown more and more savvy about how to maximize profits while juggling ticket. prices - often relying on the calculating speed of computers -- consumers have found the advertised fares more and more elusive.

"We do'limit the number of seats for discount fares, but we wouldn't be investing large sums of money in advertising if there were no seats available," said Christy Clapp, a spokeswoman for Northwest Airlines In St.

elers to book themselves on flights scheduled on any weekday except Friday Not surprisingly, the best prices tend to be on off-peak flights, either early in the morning or late at night.

But even as the airlines advertise low fares, Don-Mayer, an assistant professor of management and marketing at Oakland University in Rochester, said it was arguable the discounts were being limited to bump consumers to a higher fare.

"This could be construed as a classic bait-and switch tactic," Mayer said. "The rule is if you sell an ad-vertised product, don't unsell it. If you advertise a refrigerator for $398, you can't display a banged-up modeland then steer people to a $600 model.

"Whether balt-and-switch is going on in the airline industry is quite arguable. A number of consumer groups have tried to address the problem, but most have met with limited success. Court decisions have also largely been ruled in the airlines' favor."

Many businesses do the opposite to build consumer loyalty and satisfy truth-in-advertising laws; Mayer said. They give rainchecks. Indeed, federal and state -laws require advertisers of a sale item to set aside sufficient inventory to meet anticipated demand.

The new mother: She's single by choice

By Joanne Sobczak special writer

Five-year-old Roger (Billy) Brandt knows he doesn't have a father. His mother, Helen, told him he didn't have a dad before he could even speak.

Billy has some concept of his birth. Brandt explained . to him that she consulted a doctor and "got sperm" and . the doctor put the sporm inside her, creating her son.

She's not sure how much of this information Billy comprehends, but for now, "he's comfortable with it."

"We also talked about a man who gave that sperm, but my preference is to just tell him that he doesn't have adad and there never was or will be a father figure," said the 42-year-old Hutzel Hospital nurse who chose artificial insemination in order to conceive.

BRANDT FINDS solace in Single Mothers by Choice, a local support group for women who have decided to bear or adopt a child without a partner.

Forty metro area women make up the current SMC mailing list. The group was founded in 1986 as an offshoot of the New York organization. SMC was intended as support for unmarried mothers and to "assist thinkers" to explore the possibility of being single parents.

Shortly after the founding, the core membership of 10-12 mothers began bringing their children to meetings. The group later extended itself to the youngsters, offering playtime and common ground.

"IT'S A WOMAN'S choice to become a single parent," said chairwoman Phillis Clements, whose pregnancy and daughter were also the result of artificial insemination. 'We don't feel that it is a choice that's right for every woman, but if she makes that choice, we would like to be there as a support group.

Handwriting reflects her traditional upbringing

Lorene C. Green,

At the age of 67, I am still curlous as to what my handwriting reveals and hopefully just maybe, you would be kind enough to analyze it for me. Your column is one I don not miss because it is interesting to find just how much the written word can reyeal, and you don't miss a thing. I sincerely thank you.

M.K.,

Westland

Dear M.K.

This neat handwriting reflects a woman whose strong foundation is in her traditional upbringing. A sense of responsibility was impressed upon you early in life.

Toward ethics, morality and social responsibility, your attitude is probably on the rigid side. The family may lovingly refer to you as "old fashioned."

Conscientious and thorough describe your modus operandi. You are well acquainted with involvement and hard work. Good organizational skills are suggested here. Little is left to chance. You make plans and then move forward to carry out the planning. Your work is performed carefully, methodically and with determination. And you tend to feel optimistic about your goals.

Logic characterizes your thinking. Your mind tends to focus on your objective to the extent that receptivity to change or readiness to accept new opportunities or developments spontaneously is rather difficult,

In your interpersonal relationships you are sensitive, kind and caring.

You readily empathize with the other person and are prepared to help out when needed.

Emphasis is on a proper code of behavior. A string sense of propriety does not gravitate to center stage or making scenes. I suspect only a small number of people know you intimately as you seem reluctant to share your innermost feelings.

You are respectful of those in positions of authority and are disinclined to make waves. Although you are a most capable woman, you continue to need approval from others.

Hearth, home and family are important to your daily happiness. In your home as well as your appearance, you are neat and tidy.

Friendships are also held in esteem. And while you continue to enlarge your circle of friends the old ones are not forgotten. You probably have friendships that date back to childhood.

Most of the time you appear to be a positive thinker. However, something of a temporary nature appears to have you down when you wrote to me.

If you would like to have your handwriting analyzed in this newspaper, write to Lorene C. Green, a certified graphologist, at 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia 48150. Please use a full sheet of white, unlined paper, writing in the first person singular. Age, handedness and signature are all helpful. And objective feedback is always welcome.

Women pick less traditional parenthood — no mate

"We are not a group that is so pro woman that we thought we had to do this without men. That's not the case. For the most part we would have preferred to have done it with an established partner. However, that wasn't the case in most instances,

"Marriage can happen at any time, children can't happen any time.

MOST OF the group's membership is over age 35 (35 to 47 years). They have stable careers and most own homes.

About 50 percent chose artificial insemination to give birth to a 'wanted child."

Most of the others discovered they were pregnant by the men in their lives and decided to continue the pregnancy without the relationship and become single parents. A small percentage selected "willing partners" or went the adoption route.

"The majority of us are well established and are able to support a child without recourse to publicfunds," SMC co-chair Sharon Grieser said as she watched her daughter. Abby, play with Clements' daughter, Megan.

GRIESER, A 40-year-old Royal Oak postal clerk, conceived during a relationship with a man who she later determined would not make a compatible lifetime mate.

We are not having kids for the sake of having kids and being on welfare," Clements said, nodding in agreement.

"We are having kids for the sake of being a responsible parent. The majority of women in the group took a long time to make the decision and felt they could provide a stable home for a child.

"And a stable loving home with one parent was better than an unstable home with two parents."

BRANDT ELECTED artificial insemination almost seven years ago

Helen Brandt has told her 5-year-old son, Billy, how he was conceived. And her-preference is to tell him "that he doesn'thave a dad and there never was or will be a father figure."

as an option to having a child without a partner before her biological clock stopped ticking.

"Artificial insemination had been my choice all along," she said. "If there had been a man in my life, I would have gone that route."

But she worries that a future marriage may cause problems because of the strong bond between her and her son.

"I had a few people ask why I didn't just find a man and get pregnant," she said. "That would have been uncomfortable for me. It's using someone."

PRIOR TO joining SMC four years ago, Brandt lived, ate and drank literature on single parenting by choice, particularly before the birth of her child. The only contact she had had with another woman in a tificial insemination.

to church and what she did," Brandtsaid. "We had contact on the phone but actually met at the (SMC) group. "There were days when I came to meetings when there were problems.

I was inustrated because Billy wouldn't go to sleep or he was hitting the kids next door . . .

"I would talk to these women who became my friends and found that their children were doing the same kind of things," the Ferndale resident said. "When you're by yourself with that child and something goes wrong, your first reaction is to blame yourself.

"You find it's just a developmental thing."

THE OTHER positive aspect of similar circumstance was a client of the organization that drew Brandt into the organization was that it provided a peer group for her son.

"The majority of the activities that we do turn out to be more social than a heavy duty meeting," Clements said. "It usually ends up being a planning time about what we are going to do with the kids. And then we sneak in one or two we can do something for the moms."

Children's activities have included Christmas, Halloween and pizza parties, weekend trips, short stays at beach cottages and a couple of brunches scheduled just for moms during the year.

FUN ASIDE, there also are guest speakers and discussions on stress and financial management for the single mother.

Issues addressed at the monthly. meetings pertain to child rearing. and "the same problems every par-"ent has raising a child."

One area of research data still in the making and of concern to single mothers is how the children will turn out and be able to handle things.

That just hasn't come up a log cause it's (single mothers by choice) -new, it's different," Clements said, "We haven't run into a lot of problems with people not accepting our kids or not accepting us for what we have done."

AS FOR such comments as "You don't have a daddy," "most women have elected to be very open and honest with their children - appropriate information at the proper age," Clements said. "There isn't a set answer (on how to explain to a child) that there is no father." Clements relies on her daughter to bring up the subject. "When she was 2 years old, she" said to me 'I don't have a daddy but I have two kittles," " Clements said.-"I thought here it comes, but I didn't have to give any explanation. That's all she wanted to say."

FARMINGTON HILLS sales representative Charise Fulton is expecting her second child through artificial insemination. Two-year-old_son Andrew was her first.

"I was getting older with no prospects of getting married and I always wanted a child," the 38-yearold Fulton said. "I had the financial means to have a child and take care of him." Fulton boasts that Andrew gets all the attention and they do mother-son things whenever they want. She

Reaching out Resurrection Church grows in faith and size

By M.B. Dillon A if writer

As Canton awoke last Friday morning, quiet dawn gave way to the din of another weekday. Trucks and cars hurtled along township thoroughfares. Workers arrived at their offices, and storekeepers unlocked their shops.

In a small church on Warren near Canton Center, members of Resurrection Roman Catholic Church gathered for a 80-minute liturgy, as they do each Friday and Tuesday morning. Weekday Masses are celebrated at the Faith Community Moravian Church in Canton.

The Rev. Richard Perfetto said Mass for seven parishioners, all of whom are friends despite the fact that they've known each other just a few months.

Resurrection was formed less than a year ago to relieve overflow at Our Lady of Good Counsel in Plymouth and St. John Neumann in Canton. The parish also will accommodate families who will live in subdivisions planned for the area.

The Archdiocese of Detroit has bought 27 acress on Warren between Ridge and Beck for a church, -a rectory and possibly a school.

RESURRECTION PARISHIO-NERS - raising money to build their own church - are grateful to those who've made Faith Community Moravian Church and Ploneer Middle School available for Masses. Sunday Masses are celebrated at the middle school in Plymouth Township.

When two newcomers arrived for Friday's Mass, they were warmly welcomed. When it was time to pray the Our Father, Perfetto and his parishioners formed a circle around the altar and prayed together, holding hands. At the Sign of Peace, everyone present was

CUSTOM PROGRAM

Detroit Symphony Orchestra has entered into a new partnerhsip with TPC, a Detroit-based cus-. tom publisher, to produce program books starting in the 1991-92 season.

"We felt that it would be the best way to control the quality of the book as it is representative of the organization as well as the best way to turn the book into a revenue generator that helps to underwrite our regular operations," said Tom. Gulick, Detroit Symphony Orchestra Hall marketing vice president.

. Dancers from major national ballet companies will join the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in its two dance programs during the final week of concerts at the 1991 Meadow Brook Music Festival. Dancers will include Evelyn Cisneros from the San Francisco Ballet, and Judith Fugate, Kyra Nichols, Lindsay Fischer and Philip Neal of the New York City Ballet.

Part of the DSO's 1991 Chrysler Concert Series, net, bassoon, French horn, trumpet and trom- the two performances will be at 8 p.m. Friday, Aug. 9, and Sunday, Aug. 11, at the Baldwin Pavilion at Meadow Brook. Both performances will be followed by fireworks.

> DSO associate condcutor Leslie B. Dunner, at home conducting orchestral concerts or dance programs, makes his Meadow Brook debut leading the orchestra in these two programs, which will contain several orchestral works.

> The first of two programs will feature Kyra Nichols and Philip Neal dancing to Tchaikovsky's "Sleeping Beauty"; Judith Fugate and Lindsay Fischer dancing to Prokofiev's "Romeo and Julict" and Adam's "Giselle;" and Evelyn Cisneros and Philip Neal dancing to Minkus' "Don Quixote."

> Orchestral works will include Tchaikovsky's "Romeo and Juliet" and Strauss' "Don Juan."

> The Aug. 11 concert will feature the world premiere of Olfenbach's "Solo," with choreography by Robert Sund and danced by Evelyn Cisneros.

> Also on the program are Glazunov's "Raymonda," danced by Judith Fugate and Lindsay Fischer; Sousa's "Stars and Stripes," with Kyra Nichols and Philip Neal; and Gershwin's "Who Cares?" with Evelyn Cisneros, Judith Fugate, Kyra Nichols, and Lindsay Fischer.

Orchestral works will include Offenbach's "Orpheus in the Underworld" and Gershwin's "An American in Paris."

Single tickets are on sale at Ticketmaster Children 12 or younger will be admitted free to lawn seating when accompanied by a paying adult. Group discounts and lawn coupon books are available.

BOTANICAL GARDENS

"Hints of Summer" will be the topic as Matthael Botanical Gardens docents will lead visitors 2-3:30 p.m. Sunday, June 2.

Trail walk participants should register with the receptionist in the lobby upon arrival and meet the docents at the main entrance by 2 p.m. Wear 30. study walking shoes (no sandals) and dress for the weather.

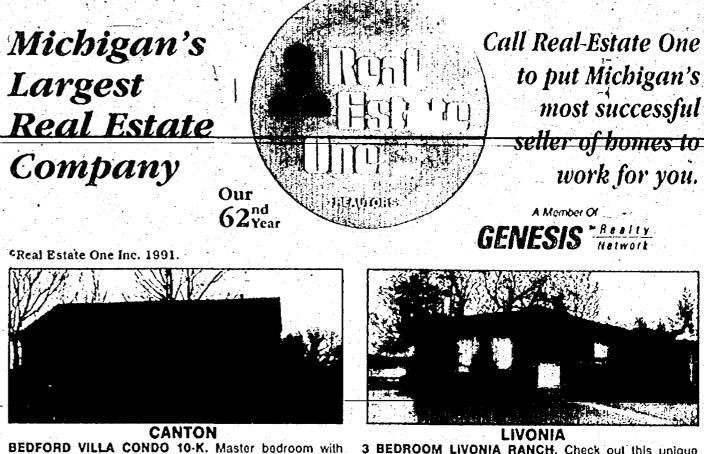

Indoor Conservatory tours also will be given. This month's topic is "Thhngs That Are Not What They Seen." Even in the plant world, mysteries abound and the unexpected exists. Among these are vines in arid environment, plants that truly mimic stones and a tree that has fruit but no visible flowers.

Tour times are 2 and 3 p.m. Saturdays, June 1, 8, 15, 22 and 29; and Sundays, June 2, 9, 16, 23 and

General Conservatory admission of $1 per person applies. Tours are limited to 30 people per hour. Arrive 10 minutes before each tour. The gardens are at 1800 N. Dixboro, 21/2 miles north of the Couldes Intersection, Ann Arbor,

OPERA SEASON

World-acclaimed tenor Luciano Pavarotti will help introduce the 1991-92 Michlgan Opera Theatre season.

He will appear in a concert with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 20, at Joe Louis Arena, MOT general director David DiChiera announced.

The Detroit opera season opens Friday, Nov. 1, with a fall series of two productions in the Fisher Theatre, followed by a trio of grand opera works for the company's sixth annual spring grand opera series in Masonic Temple.

Among Pavarotti's efforts on behalf of MOT's project to turn the old Grand Circus Theatre into

• PIANO-A-THON

A piano-a-then to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association will be noon to 7 p.m. Saturday, June 1 in the North Court at Laurel Park Place, Six Mile and Newburgh, Livonia.

Project Piano students from Schoolcraft College in Livonia will donate their talents and time to raise money for MDA.

The students, ranging in age from 16-18, will receive pledges for the number of plano selections memorized and performed during their assigned performance time.

This is Project Piano's sixth year of support for MDA and its second fund-raiser at Laurel Park Place. "The annual plano-a-thon event raises over $2,000," said Kim Sidwell, MDA district director.

New gardening books track special interests

FROM THE bookshelf:

Timber Press has just published some books for gardeners with special interests:

• "Lilacs," The Genus Syringa, the Rev. John L. Faila ($59.95), is the result of 10 years of Faila's work with this springtime favorite,

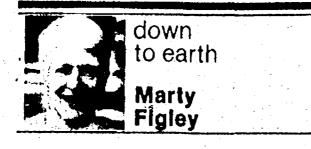

Practical growing methods are given in a forthright style. "Give them the 'four goods' drainage, soil, sunlight and pruning plus attention to pests - and then may you live to see your lilacs blooming to the third and fourth generations with fat lilac buds and heavy bloom around your festive garden."

He tells how to propogate them, landscape with them and arrange them for indoor beauly. The history is fascinating. The list of latest classifications is valuable to serious collectors. The photographs show the various shades of the blooms and may make readers want to add a new plant or two to their garden.

• "The Hosta Book," Paul Aden ($39.95, second edition), relates the history (hostas originated In China and Japan), tells how to care for them and design gardens with and around them. Included are descriptions of the many varieties. Instructions for creating stunning flower arrangements are there, too. This book will become a much-used help to all hosta lovers, beginners or established growers.

• "The Chelsea Gardener," Philip Miller 1691-1771. Hazel Le Rougetel (Timber and Sagapress. $29.95), relates the strong impact Philip Miller had in the field of horticulture. From 1731-68, he wrote the Gardeners Dictionary, which influenced many great plantsmen in the 18th Century. His correspondence and friendship with botanists, plant hunters and others (Linnaeus, John Bartman, and Joseph Banks to name a few) makes this Taborie & Chang, $50), is filled with more than 250 photographs of roses in all their guises by Christopher Baker. The history of the rose, the importance that has been accorded it through the generations, (from medical uses, through art and book nook" runs monthly. literature) and its symbolism, fosters greater appreciation. Lacy relates his personal experience and offers his opinions about this flower. This coffee-table sized book will make rose lovers appreclate their flower even more.

• "Through the Garden Gate," Elizabeth Lawrence (University of North Carolina Press, $19.95), is a collection of her weekly articles written for the Charlotte Observer from 1957 to 1971. Personal and practical gardening advice as well as adventures with other gardeners make this enlovable as well as informative. She has been called the Jane Austen of the gardening world.

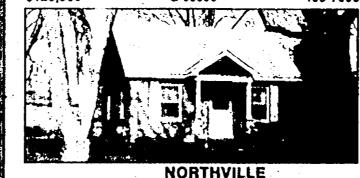

TWO BOOKS from Storey/Garden Way are practical, small, soft-cover.ones:

• "Roses Lovè Garlic," Louise Riotte ($7.95), is basically about companion planting. Many plants (and how they affect other things) are listed. Interspersed is diverse information such as recipes for a moth repellent, Hungary Water and earthworms. I wonder if the author strayed a bit from the original intent of the book.

• "Saving Seeds," Marc Rogers ($9.95) will be invaluable for those who prefer to save their own vegetable and flower seeds. The hows and whys are carefully explained.

• The Brooklyn Botanic Garden's new handbook, "Indoor Bonsal" ($6.95), shows new ideas and techniques for this craft. It is clearly written and illustrated. No. 125. Order from: BBG Order book historically significant. • "The Glory of Roses," Allen Lacy (Stewart Dept., 1000 Washington Ave., Brooklyn, NY 11225, include $1.50 for postage and handling. Take care: Shade skin when in sun

HE SUMMER sun adds a new challenge to your skin care regimen, protecting your skin from the harmful effects of the sun. You can enjoy summertime sun without getting burned.

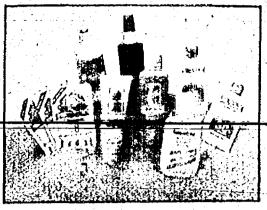

The secret is knowing when and how long you can stay in the sun and choosing the-proper skin protection. F&M-carries more than 127 suntan products, the largest selection in Detroit, to help consumers choose the products that are right for their skin type.

The key to a suntan product's elfectiveness is the sun protection factor or SPF. The SPF indicates that with proper usage, you can stay out in the sun without burning that many times longer than you could with no protection.

A product with an SPF of 15 is called a sun "shade," which provides maximum protection while still allowing a tan; one with a SPF of 30 or higher is called a sun "block" and allows almost no tan. Products with SPPs of less than 6 provide minimal protection.

THIS YEAR, F&M is the exclusive discount distributor of the Panama Jack suntan line. These products are available for 30 percent less than suggested manufacturer prices. You will also find savings from 15-25 percent on suntan products such as Coppertone, Bain de Soleil and Hawaiian Tropic.

"The new trend in suntan products this year is 'sports' products," said Frank De-

F & M carries more than 127 suntan products to help you choose products right for your skin.

Leeuw, F&M suntan product buyer.

"With the new sports lotions premiering at F&M, you only need to apply protection once. The products, like Coppertone's Sun Sense and Bain de Soleil's Sport Lotion, are formulated to stay on longer, even when swimming or perspiring."

Disposable sports towelettes, designed for golfers, and stick formulas are also available this year at F&M.

IF YOU like the look of a tan but are concerned about skin cancer, try a sun-less tan this year. Today's sunless tanning products have come a long way from old products such as Q.T.

Now lotions are available that penetratethe skin and create the chemical reaction that brings color to the skin's surface. These products are available in formulas for light and dark skin.

While you get the appearance of a tan with these new products, you don't get the skin protection that a natural tan provides. If you're going to be in the sun, you still need to use a maximum strength SPF.

This way, you can be both "tan" and safe. Look for. Bain de Soleil's Sunless Tanning Creme or Bronze Tan at F&M.

Top fragrances tracked

&M CARRIES more than 1,300 fragrance items in its 100 stores across the country.

The designer fragrance section is one of the hottest sales growth areas. _with year-to-date sales double those of last year.

F&M fragrance buyer Margie DeLong attributes the growth to the retailer's expansion into lines carried by the higherpriced department stores. These fragrances are available at F&M for 10.40 percent off the department store price.

The accompanying table shows the topselling women's fragrances over the past 12 months, based on total sales volume.

F & M customers buy beauty products for about 30 percent less than conventional drug stores or discount stores.

Beauty — It's more than just skin deep the beauty cake, but women are spending even more time and money on what goes on un-

"There was a time when women used a basic complexion soap and that was about" it. We now see customers buying scrubs, masks, toners and moisturizers that help the skin look healthier and more youthful longer."

F&M carries more than 460 types of skin care products to provide the broadest selection of this fragmented product-line.

The typical F&M shopper is smarter and more value conscious, said Patty Braverman, marketing vice president.

At P&M, consumers buy beauty products for 30 percent less than conventional drug or discount stores. As a result, P&M has seen a dramatic increase in its skincare product business.

THE MOST important new cosmetics category is facial moisturizers, especially those that are lighter, less greasy or oilfree. Neutrogena has a new moisturizer that's free of fragrance and mineral oils.

DeLeeuw also likes L'Oreal's Plenitude Action Liposome moisturizer because it contains less oil and delivers moisturizers right to the areas of the skin that need it most. paired with an oil-free foundation,-such as Maybelline Finish Matte or L'Oreal's Mattique.

Margie DeLong, F&M's cosmetic buyer, recommends using a loose transparent powder, such as Cover. Girl Replenishing Loose Powder, to help set makeup with a sheer finishing touch.

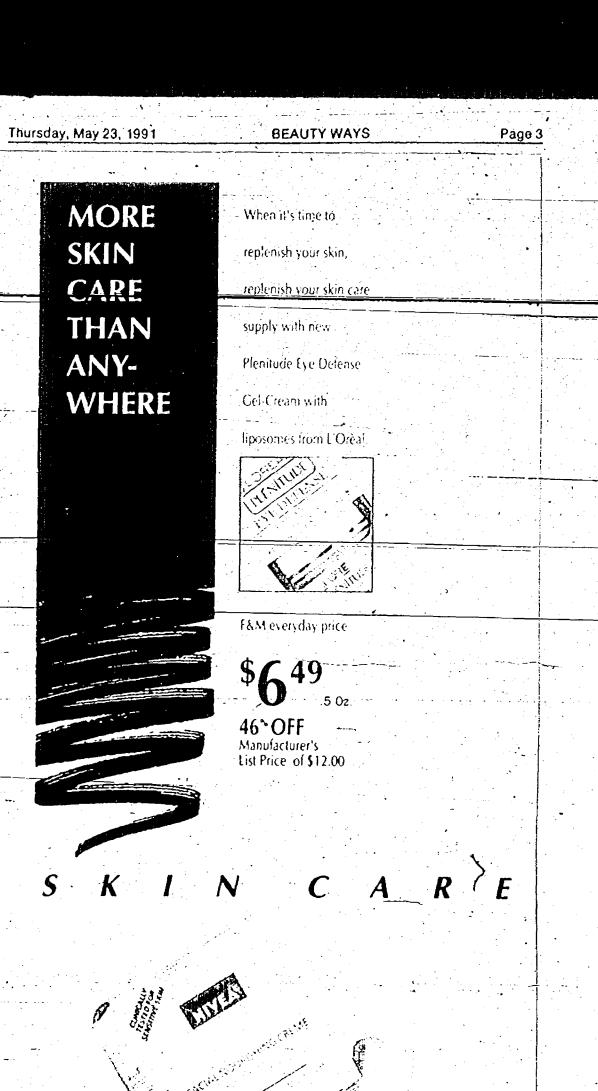

One of the hottest new lines this summer should be Natural Glow by Del Labs. The Natural Glow skin care and cosmetics products are great for summer because they enhance your own coloring and are made with natural ingredients such as fruit and wheat germ oil.

--- For eyes, the trendiest new looks will be paler matte eye shadows. Look for lighter colors such as Sheer Sky and Clear Seas from Revion.

For lips, muted and rose shades such as Classic Rose and Simply Rose are on the fashion forefront this summer. The popular summer style is to apply these lipstick shades over a waxy lip balm with sun screen such as Vaseline Intensive Care Lip Therapy for added lip protection.

Achieve beauty on a budget

S WOMEN look for smarter ways to spend their cosmetics dollars, they are turning from department stores, drug stores and mass merchandisers to deep-discount retailers such as F&M Distributors for the best values in makeup and beauty regimens.

You can see this trend at F&M. one of the largest sellers of shampoos, cosmetics and beauty aids in the country. In the past year, F&M cosmetics sales grew four times faster than the average chain drugstore sales rate.

Patricia Braverman, F&M marketing vice president, F&M has these tips for looking beautiful on a budget:

1. Refrigerate nail polishes to lengthen their life.

2. As an inexpensive cuticle cream, use any skin cream with glycerin or aloe.

3. Test new hair colors at home before committing to a permanent color. Use sheer, temporary colors that shampoo out such as Clairol's Jazzing.

4. Don't get hung up on the name of a cosmetic brand. $29 Alexander DeMarkoff cream makeup is comparable to Max Factor's Satin Splendor sold for $7.50 in conventional drugstore chains and for $5.62 at E&M.

5. Revion manufactures its own name products but also markets the department store _lines - Ultima II and Germaine. Monteil. You can often find the Revion line cosmetics in the same colors at a fraction of the cost at a deep discount cosmetics retailer such as F&M. Cosmair also makes Lancome for department stores and L'Oreal for F&M.

6. For an inexpensive way to get rid of hairspray build-up, try Sca Breeze Antiseptic as a final hair rinse every four to six weeks.

7. Instead of using an eyeliner and also buying a smoke- or kohl-color eye shadow, save money by using your eyeliner as a shadow as well.

8. Get all the tools you need to do a home manicure and save yourself $12 to $20 a week on salon manicures.

REAL ESTATE NEWS

Realtor's calling card: 'total representation'

Realtors who work for negotiated commissions that average 5-7 percent say they provide an indispensable service for sellers.

Agents use their experience, personal contacts and a variety of prospecting/negotiating techniques - in essence, take on a lot of grunt work most sellers don't want to be bothered with -- to move a property.

And in spite of spending all kinds of up-front money and time to find a buyer, there's no guarantee of payment until a deal closes.

"The primary thing we provide is a professional offering of sub-agency through multiple-listing services," said Carol Frick, president of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Board of Realtors. "We offer to pay a percentage of the commission for cooperative efforts to find buyers."

That network of agents and a computer full of listings through a multi-list are paramount to reaching a wide audience. The more agents pushing a house, the more likely a buyer will be found.

"WHAT SELLS houses is exposure," said Joseph Durso, owner of Re/Max West in Livonia. "Within your office, you have a lot of listings, you have a lot of buyers back and forth."

"There is more hands on as far as dealings go --

Real estate market rebounds

This is the fifth story in a series detailing how to buy and sell a home in today's market. With the drop in interest rates and the uncertainty about the Persian Gulf war resolved, consumer confidence has rebounded. The Western Wayne Oakland County Association of Realtors report that April sales of existing homes continued to climb, representing nearly a 20percent gain from a year earlier. Sales are running 5 doing ads, taking calls, setting appointments, doing showings - total representation," said Pam King, partowner of Century 21 J. Scott in Garden City.

"We take all the responsibility off the seller, basically," Frick added. "We show the house, we pre-qualify buyers, we do a professional marketing (pricing) analysis using comprehensive data available through the multi-list.

"Obviously, we present offers. We're obviously professional negoliators. We closely supervise the complete transaction. We make sure the buyer applies for a mortgage. If applicable, a house inspection if called for.

percent ahead of the first four months of 1990. Today's story focuses on Realtor services. Previous stories dealt with avoiding common mistakes of selling a house; home inspection services; after-purchase expenses; and selling a home yourself with the help of an agency. The series concludes with stories on incentive programs in the real estate industry and tax-related issues.

"WE'RE LEGALLY empowered to handle all documents to a real estate transaction, but we recommend all buyers and sellers show them to their attorneys." Frick said;

Realtors have regular tours of their listings for inhouse staff and may tour houses offered several times a week through tours sponsored by realty boards.

Professional showing of property, including negotiations, is another service.

it's a matter of putting a sale together, to get a buyer to put a solid, legitimate offer on paper so it's legal, clear and binding," said Douglas Courtney, immediate past president of the Western Wayne Oakland County Association of Realtors.

"We urge sellers not to be home," Frick added. "Buyers prefer to discuss what they see without fear of offending present owners."

REALTORS WILL tailor sales techniques to specific ; houses in specific markets. Open houses might work well in some areas, but not others.

Durso said he will sometimes do a directed mailing in : an area where he has a listing just in case a relative or friend of a neighbor want to move in.

, Realtors can spend several hundred dollars and many hours of time promoting houses via newspapers, home sales magazines and direct mailings with no payoff if a listing expires and the original listing agency doesn't bring a buyer to the eventual sale. But all isn't necessarily lost.

"If you don't get direct results on some, you may get indirect results," Durso said. "Buyers may not be inter- ; ested in one house, so you try to get them interested in another."

Experience counts in professional relationships, be the legal services, mechanics, computer technology or real. estate, Durso added.
