County, EPA feud over landfill

The county and the Environmental Protection Agency are still at odds over whether a former dump should be opened for more extensive testing. The county wants a quicker data collection, while the EPA wants a more thorough study.

BY LEONARD POGER
Editor

County officials are insisting that testing of a former landfill in the city's northwest corner poses no "imminent threat" to the public or environment.

But some residents remain concerned about the credibility of the private consultant testing the site. The firm said two years ago that the Cooper School site in Westland was also safe. The school was closed soon afterward, with students moved to another building across the street.

The questioning came during a 2½ hour informational meeting held Thursday night in Bailey Recreation Center, the latest of four held by governmental agencies.

The last will be sponsored Thursday night, June 2, by the county to report on the testing's final results.

Handling the informational presentations are the county; 3M Co., which has admitted dumping materials there more than 30 years ago; and Crestwood Development Co., which built two nearby apartment complexes.

The questioning of the consultant's credibility came from two people, including Katherine Pare, of the Cooper School parents' group, and generated an emotional response from Abraham Thomas, representing the testing company.

"3M has never told me to stop because we might find out bad information," Thomas said. He wouldn't cover up any findings for anybody, he stressed.

James Murray, the director of the county's new environmental department, said that the consultant is na-

Schools' birthday is simply golden

Hundreds of party-goers, including Westland residents, helped Livonia Public Schools celebrate 50 years of challenges and successes at a birthday bash held Friday night, April 22, at the former Bentley High School.

The Golden Oldies Sock Hop spotlighted the district's formation 50 years ago, on April 22, 1944. On that day, residents went to the polls and approved consolidating the seven school districts in Livonia Township into one district. The district was later expanded to include the northern section of Westland, including the former Cooper School District in the Middlebelt-Ann Arbor Trail area.

Resolutions praising the district for its history came fast and furiously during Monday's meeting of the Livonia Board of Education. Resolutions came from the trustees themselves, the state of Michigan, Wayne County and Schoolcraft College.

"We're poised for the next 50 years and the next century," said Superintendent Joseph Martnelli. "People have made this district outstanding — parents, community, staff."

Over the years, school leaders have done "one heck of a job under often difficult circumstances," said Rep. Lyn Rankes, R-Redford. She told how she got her first taste of club dinner meeting next Monday night, May 9, in Lerlght's banquet hall, 626 S. Wayne Road. Cost of the dinner will be $11.31, with reservations to be made through the church office, 729-7550. Dinner will start at 6:30 p.m. The dinner will be buffet-style.

Chess champ

Kenneth Raupp, a seventh-grader at Adams Junior High School in Westland, won first place honors recently in the state junior chess tournament, held in Flint. The son of Kenneth and Helena Raupp of Westland, was tops in the eighth-grade-and-under division. He won all five of his games to capture first place in the Michigan Young Junior Championship competition. He advanced to the national tournament held in New York. Adams School chess players also competed this past weekend in the National High School Chess Championship in Dearborn.

Musician invited

Heather Ann Allsteadt, a John Glenn High School senior, has been invited to take part in the 32nd annual Michigan Youth Arts Festival this month on the Western Michigan University campus in Kalamazoo. The May 12-14 festival will involve 700 high school students picked from some 40,000 in the state. Heather is the daughter of Mary Allsteadt of Westland. During the festival, the students involved in music, drama, dance, visual arts, film/video and creative writing will attend clinics, workshops and master classes.

tionally known and has done work for the federal Environmental Protection Agency.

Murray said that no one's integrity or motives should be questioned since everyone involved is working toward the goal of protecting the public health and environment.

But the next step in testing of the property remains a source of dispute between the county and the EPA.

Murray, working with 3M and Crestwood, said the county wants to work methodically and quickly to collect data from the site before deciding the next step.

The EPA wants to trench the property, on the north side of Warren Road between Central City Parkway and Newburgh, to see if there is any toxic material under the surface.

Part of the problem is that the EPA wants access to the site. The county agrees, but insists on controls.

If the federal government fails to get the freedom of access it wants, it has two options, said EPA spokeswoman Heidi Valetkevitch. One is to issue an administrative order. The other is to ask the U.S. attorney general to initiate a civil action.

Murray told the audience that the EPA has failed to respond to several inquiries issued by the county.

He added that the two governmental agencies are working on a written agreement providing access to the EPA.

But Valetkevitch told the Observer at the meeting that her agency wants access to the property so it can do detailed sampling.

"We now have limited access but want freedom to get on the site when we want and move equipment there," she said.

Another official, William Brown of the county health department, said the county hasn't been ignoring the potential threat posed by the former dump.

"The county knew of the site 10 years ago, but only as an old municipal dump," he said. It was only last year that a former hauling trucker told EPA that 3M Co. was dumping there, he said.

The dump was closed in 1962.

Bill Nelson of 3M insisted that his company, Crestwood and the county have done everything asked by the EPA, but noted that the federal government has decided to take a different approach in pushing for the expensive trenching.

Judge McKnight to run for another 6-year term

Westland Judge Gail McKnight is seeking re-election to the 18th District Court seat she has held since 1985.

With the filing deadline being Tuesday, May 10, no other candidate has announced plans to oppose her.

Judge McKnight is running for a new six-year term. She was appointed to the bench by then-Gov. James Blanchard, elected to the balance of the term in 1986 and re-elected in 1988.

McKnight said, "I have sought to serve the citizens of Westland by working hard and treating the people who appear in my court with fairness and the dignity all people are entitled to."

"Although making thoughtful and just decisions is my first responsibility, I have also taken seriously my obligation to help my community, especially its young people and troubled families."

McKnight organized and implemented the program of moving court one day each year to John Glenn High School so that students may observe the judicial process. This event has been broadcast on local cable TV so that viewers may also observe the court's work. This year junior high school students will be added to this program.

She stressed that she is a strong supporter of the Westland police department's Drug Abuse Resistance Education program, which educates fifth- and sixth-grade students in drug resistance techniques, and has participated in many DARE graduation ceremonies.

Judge McKnight: seeks new term

She also supports the Westland Youth Assistance Program organized to provide support for troubled young people and serves on its advisory board. With the police department she has worked to develop a domestic violence policy at the 18th District Court that is aimed at preventing repeated involvement of families before the court.

Combining her experience as a judge and as a former referee of the Wayne County Juvenile Court, McKnight said she has instructed and trained other judges on child abuse matters and handling child witnesses.

She has urged changes in Michigan law that have simplified the child oath and make it easier for child witnesses to testify.

She has also written an advice of rights form to be used for citizens who come to court for civil infraction cases, and this form is now used in many other district court.

"It is difficult enough for people to come to court; it is important that the court strive to make it less stressful for everyone," McKnight said.

As a faculty member of the Michigan Judicial Institute, McKnight is an instructor to new district judges and judges seeking refresher courses in such topics as landlord-tenant law, small claims, traffic law, and the handling of drug trials.

McKnight is a longtime member of the board of directors of the Wayne-Westland YMCA and past chairwoman. She is a member of the Westland Business and Professional Women, and a member of Divine Savior Catholic Church. She has been honored by the Westland Chamber and the YMCA for her volunteer activities.

McKnight is past president of the Wayne County District Judges Association, and past chair of First Step, the area Domestic Violence agency.

She is married to Richard McKnight and they have two children, Edward, 25, on active duty with the Army, and Margaret, 21. She is a 1967 graduate of the University of Detroit, and a 1977 graduate of the Wayne State University School of Law. The McKnights have lived in Westland since 1967.

political action by fighting to keep open school buildings that were recommended for closing.

In their resolution, the trustees called the district "one of the finest in the state of Michigan."

Many students made the banners which decorated Bentley's hallways Friday.

The district has put together an historical overview of the district that will now travel from building to building.

The district plans to highlight its 50 years of history in a special edition of its newsletter, "The Dialogue."

According to local historians Ruth Knight, Jim Melosh, Suzanne Daniel and Harriet Larson, the first school was built in Livonia in 1830 at Ann Arbor Trail and Wayne Road, just north of what was then Nankin Township.

It was followed in 1890 by a new one-room wooden school built on Stark at W. Chicago.

The anniversary Sock Hop raised up to $2,000, which will be contributed to the James P. Cahill Scholarship Fund.

Souvenirs of the birthday bash, such as coffee cups and T-shirts, are still for sale. Call 623-0287 for more information.

Program for new mothers offered

St. Mary Hospital in Livonia will offer a Breast-feeding Support Program beginning Monday, May 16.

The service is offered noon to 4 p.m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays and 3-7 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays, except holidays, at the Marian Women's Center.

For more information, call St. Mary Hospital at 591-2528.

The program will help answer mothers' questions and concerns about breast-feeding before their babies are born, while they are in the hospital, and when they return home.

The program includes a breast-feeding class before the birth, consultation with nurses who are specially trained in breast-feeding before and after the birth, educational printed materials and videos about breast-feeding issues, breast-feeding supplies and breast pump rentals.

Come learn about the benefits of breast-feeding for new mothers and their babies. The Marian Women's Center is at 14555 Levan, south of Five Mile next to St. Mary Hospital.

Teacher makes history by earning doctorate

BY M.B. DILLON
STAFF WRITER

Joanelle Long made history at Eastern Michigan University Sunday. The teacher and Canton resident became the first individual to earn a doctor of education degree at the Ypsilanti institution.

The educational leadership program is EMU's first and, thus far, only program offering a doctorate.

"I knew it was a historical event for EMU, and they made the occasion very special. I'm still getting back to reality," said Long Monday during a break at Westland's Lincoln Elementary, a school built during World War II in then-Nankin Towhship when the adjacent Norwayne neighborhood was home to Willow Run bomber plant workers.

"EMU has graduated more than 80,000 students and was one of the biggest universities in the U.S. that didn't have a doctorate program," said Long.

Long, married and the mother of two, is the first in her class of 10 students to complete the required 65 hours of post-master's classwork and her dissertation, titled "Leadership Practices of Elementary Principals and Parental Involvement in Their Schools."

Long's research showed "how very important principals' leadership is in the parental involvement movement. I learned how important it is that they enable and encourage parents' involvement in schools. It makes a world of difference, and I see it as a classroom teacher. Parents are very important in the educational success story."

An Ohio native who earned her bachelor's degree at Ohio State University, Long joined the Wayne-Westland school district in 1974. She left in 1987 to work for the Michigan Department of Education, where she served as career and technical education program development and operations consultant. She returned to Lincoln in 1991.

Long is receiving praise from folks ranging from EMU's president to her kindergartners.

"I congratulate Joanelle Long for her hard work and I believe she is truly representative of the exceptional scholars our doctoral program will continue to produce," said EMU president William Shelton.

Lincoln principal Marian Greer said, "How Joanelle has been able to teach two sessions of kindergarten, run a volunteer program and get her doctorate is beyond me, but that's the kind of person she is."

Rachel Rodman, parent of a first-grade daughter, volunteers at Lincoln. "I wouldn't be here now if it weren't for her. She's the one who got me involved," said Rodman, adding that her daughter excelled while a student of Long's.

Tamra Furlong enrolled her son David in Long's class "after I heard through the grapevine about how fantastic she is. I can't say enough good things about her."

Tammie Petrowski said her 3-year-old already is requesting Long for a teacher. "She encourages all the children," said Petrowski. "She doesn't make anyone feel like they know less than the next person."

On Monday, April 25, Long asked students to give her the "vowels password" before they left her classroom for the day. One by one, students recited "a,e,i,o,u" as they got a personal goodbye at Long's door and headed for the sunshine.

Kindergartner Kimber Grudenich is a big fan of her teacher. "When we're being bad, she never yells. She just says, 'Kimber, don't do that,'" said the dark-haired 5-year-old.

Alyssas Lasley likes her teacher even though "we can't eat licorices because they're not nutritious. She lets us eat bananas, oranges, apples and grapes."

Long said she'd love to become a national consultant in parental involvement and early childhood education someday. Meanwhile, she's still fascinated by kindergartners. "Many of these children come from backgrounds that ask for more. They come with a slate that doesn't have a lot on it," she said. "Many of them come without knowing the alphabet or numbers. They go out reading. Miracles happen in here."

YMCA raises $18,000

The Wayne-Westland YMCA honored two volunteers who each have given a lifetime of service to the YMCA service communities. Joseph Benyo and William Copland were honored Thursday night at the Y's 18th annual recognition dinner.

A record crowd of 125 attended the dinner, said Richard Perlowski, Y executive director.

The dinner raised $18,226, surpassing its $18,000 goal for the Invest in Youth program. The funds will allow low-income families to take part in the Y's programs and services.

Benyo, Westland City Council legislative aide, received his plaque from City Council President Thomas Brown, while Copland was presented his plaque by Rev. Raymond Zips.

Also taking part were state Rep. Justine Barns, Mayor Kenneth Warfield of Wayne, Kay and Dale Butler, Rev. Paul Panaretos, Rev. Robert Millar, and Carol Oliphant, Invest in Youth chairwoman.

The Wayne Rotary Foundation was cited for donating $1,000 or more to the program.

In the President's Club for donating from $250 to $999 were Allstate Insurance, Marilyn Archambault, Greg Cowling, Dick Davis, Sr., Rod and Judy Fitch, Doris Kolling, Richard and Gail McKnight, Rev. Paul Panaretos, Kathryn Schmidt, Mary Spano, Norman and Lillian Stockmeyer, the Target store in Canton Township, Wayne Professional Firefighters, Westland Firefighters and the Y's Stingrays' Swim Team Boosters.

Donors who donated from $100 to $249, in the Youth Sponsor category, were:

Adistra; Bryan Amann; Sharon and Fred Arthur; Jess Austin of J. D. Auto Salvage; Gerry Barlage; Wayne Bennett; Bushel Center; Sun Pork Chai; Corrine Collins; Sandra Cicirelli; Chris Correa; Copland Enterprises; Robert Dahlman; Jack Demmer Ford; Jim Edwards; Environmental Enhancers; Harry Francis; William Franks Furniture; Ference, Ference and Cicirelli law firm; Errol Gilbert; Dr. James Gillig; Carole and Frank Houfley; Independent Carpet; Patt and Jeff Jahr; Dr. Dan Johnson; Kmart Corp.; Richard Leidel; Mark Chevrolet; Meijer-Canton; Rev. Robert Millar; Angie Mudd; Carol and Bill Oliphant; Roberta Paquette; Jaldhar Prasad; Professional Insurance Associates; Dr. Valerie Sabb; Hwa& Stacy; Howard Stein; Robbie Stewart; Lennox Sheppard; Tait Tool and Die; Ken Warfield; Wayne Lions; Wayne Police Command Officers Association; and Wayne Police Officers Association.

Rev. Paul Panaretos of St. Mary's of Wayne, board chairman, said:

"The YMCA and the community owe a debt of gratitude for the hundreds of volunteer hours given by Joe Benyo and Bill Copland."

"Although both Joe and Bill Benyo served our Wayne-Westland YMCA Board, our board selected these two for their other community involvements."

Joe Benyo, a retired Westland firefighter, a photographer, and legislative assistant to the Westland City Council, was instrumental in setting up Westland's first spring festival in 1971, served as activities chairman for the city's 25th anniversary celebration in 1991, and received in 1993 the Wayne-Westland school district's Lifeskills advisory award, the John Glenn High School community historian, and the president's award from the Keep Michigan Beautiful Committee's executive board.

Benyo has been active in the Jaycees, Goodfellows, Westland Historical Commission, and the Westland Chamber of Commerce, and was recently honored for 25 years of service to the American Red Cross.

Bill Copland, a longtime Wayne resident, owns the Wayne Party Store, a bike shop and video store, and is known around Wayne as "Wild Bill."

A Y spokeswoman said he has devoted himself to community projects that involve his family. He is a leading member of St. John's Episcopal Church serving on the Vestry, as junior warden and with the Men's Club.

Copland has served with the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, Wayne Rotary, and Wayne Festival Committee.

The Wayne Rotary Club honored him in 1993 with the Paul Hall Award; he also received Wayne's businessman of the year last year.

He previously served as a volunteer coach for his sons' hockey team and a 4-H father for his daughter showing her horses.

GC councilman to seek election as state rep

BY LEANNE ROGERS
STAFF WRITER

A Garden City councilman is joining the field seeking to replace outgoing state Rep. William Keith.

Republican Edward Juarez, who was elected to a two-year term on council in November, confirmed last week that he was making his second run for the position.

"It will be an uphill battle. I am going in with my eyes wide open," he said. "The reality is the district is traditionally Democratic and the Democrats have traditionally sent a Democrat to the state House."

The fact that the Democrats have had a lock on the seat during Keith's 22 years in office should work in his favor, according to Juarez.

People in the district should have realized that the district has not benefited that much from our area representative," he said. "You don't see programs and money in the district. We've had 22 years of it."

Another factor is that people are aware that the Republicans control the legislature and there is a Republican governor.

Maybe sending someone different ... maybe there will be some impact for a change," said Juarez. "People shouldn't think in terms of a specific party but the individual and what they have have to offer."

Edward Juarez: House candidate

Besides Garden City, the district includes Wayne, Inkster and the southeast section of Westland.

A former Inkster police officer and director of the Criminal Justice Institute, Juarez, 50, is currently employed as a nuclear training supervisor with Detroit Edison. He was recently reappointed by Gov. John Engler to the state Correctional Officers Training Council.

Juarez said that during the campaign he intends to stick to the issues, including the major ones of financing schools and maintaining the quality of education.

"Proposal A is behind us. How are we going to improve upon that," he said. "The main issue is how to provide quality education. It's a bipartisan state issue."

Juarez, who ran unsuccessfully against Keith in 1992, is the only announced Republican in the race.

On the Democratic side, announced candidates include veteran Wayne city council member Tom Kelly, an aide to county commissioner Bryan Amman, former Garden City council member David Keith and Jack Wynne Jr. of Inkster.

While he doesn't expect to have a race on the Aug. 2 primary ballot, Juarez said he will be working during the upcoming months to develop and clarify positions on issues and build support. He said he has formed an election committee and is drawing support across party lines.

The filing deadline for state representative is Tuesday, May 10.

Trial ordered in strangulation

BY DARRELL CLEM
STAFF WRITER

A Taylor man has been ordered to stand trial for allegedly strangling his girlfriend, stuffing her body in an oil drum and driving it in his pickup truck to a Westland friend's residence.

Bret Thomas Greenleaf, 34, was bound over to Detroit Recorder's Court on a first-degree murder charge following a preliminary hearing Wednesday in Taylor District Court.

Greenleaf is accused of killing Tammy Lynn Davis, 30, during a dispute at their Taylor residence. Police said he then stuffed her body in a 55-gallon oil drum and drove to a Caseville Court residence in Westland, where he told a friend about the killing.

Greenleaf was arrested in Westland after his friend contacted an attorney who, in turn, called police. Police also received a tip from Greenleaf's boss, who allegedly learned about the incident when Greenleaf called to ask for his paycheck, police said.

Following the killing, Greenleaf apparently tried to kill himself by taking an overdose of prescription drugs, police have said, but he was taken to Annapolis Hospital in Wayne for treatment.

Davis' body was stuffed in the oil drum along with a blanket and a partially full bag of cement, Taylor police Cmdr. Stan Cybert has said. Two shovels also were found in the truck, he said.

Neighbors have reported hearing fights often at the Taylor residence shared by Greenleaf and Davis. Police have been called to the house four times in the last four years, Cybert confirmed. But only one of those incidents involved a domestic dispute, and that was in 1991, he said.

Greenleaf will next be arraigned in Recorder's Court, where he will face trial on the murder charge. He would face a mandatory sentence of life in prison if convicted of first-degree murder.

Hospital offers nutrition information

St. Mary Hospital in Livonia will offer a Nutrition Clinic from 7-8 p.m. on Tuesday, May 17, called "Nutritional Issues for the '90s Woman."

The clinic will be in the hospital's Lower Level Conference Room.

For more information or to register, call 591-2983.

The focus will be on nutrition's role in contemporary health concerns facing women, including osteoporosis, energy, stress, and premenstrual syndrome (PMS).

The charge is $8 per person or $12 per couple. Preregistration is requested as seating is limited.

Man to be tried on sex charge

A former Westland man charged with sexually molesting two female relatives, both juveniles, has been ordered to stand trial on nine counts of criminal sexual conduct.

Scott Alan Falkiewicz, 33, could face life in prison if convicted on eight counts of first-degree CSC. He could face 15 years behind bars if found guilty on one count of second-degree CSC. A not-guilty plea was entered for Falkiewicz when he was arraigned on the charges.

He was ordered to stand trial in Detroit Recorder's Court after waiving a preliminary hearing Thursday in Westland 18th District Court.

One of the girls, age 10, told her mother that Falkiewicz sexually molested her on multiple occasions between August and December of last year, Westland police Sgt. Michael Terry said.

The other girl, age 11, had reported that Falkiewicz molested her for a 1½-year period that ended in early April of this year, Terry said.

One of the girls lived in the Westland residence from which Falkiewicz has now moved, but the other girl is a Canton Township residence, Terry said.

Falkiewicz now lives in Farmington Hills, said 18th District Court administrator David Wiacek.

The girls have been highly distraught over the incidents. To protect them, the Observer is not publishing their relationship to the defendant.

Falkiewicz, who owns a floor-covering business, was released from custody after posting $1,000, or 10 percent of a $10,000 bond. However, he has been ordered not to have contact with the girls.

He is scheduled to appear in Detroit Recorder's Court on May 12 for an arraignment in that court, where he will be tried on the charges.

Sheriff would sell guns to raise cash

BY RALPH R. ECHTINAW
STAFF WRITER

The Wayne County Sheriff's Department wants to sell 400 guns to a Detroit gun dealer, but county commissioners objected to the plan when asked for permission last week.

The sheriff's department would rather not put more guns in the hands of the public, but the department needs the $37,000 such a sale would generate, said Nancy Mouradian, the chief of staff for Sheriff Robert Ficano.

Sheriff's department materials manager James Carmody appealed unsuccessfully to the county commission's public safety committee last week for permission to sell the guns.

"I understand Bob (Ficano) needs money, but this isn't the way to do it," said commissioner Thaddeus McCotter, R-Livonia, who also represents Plymouth and Plymouth Township. "Police take guns off the street, and government puts guns back on the street. This makes no sense to me."

Commissioner Bryan Amann, D-Wayne, who also represents Canton Township, said the guns should be destroyed. "We ought to just melt the damn things down."

The sale would finance the purchase of equipment for the department's tactical operations unit, Mouradian said. "We've been out front with handgun safety and keeping guns off the street for a long time," Mouradian said.

In December 1993 the sheriff's department bought 450 guns from the public. In a similar program just completed the department bought 100 guns.

Of the 400 guns Ficano wants to sell, more than 300 are .38-caliber revolvers, which have been replaced by semiautomatic pistols. And more than 300 of the guns are at least 20 years old, Mouradian said. The plan is to sell the guns to CMP Distributors of Detroit.

Mouradian agrees that putting guns in circulation is not the "best option," and it would be better to simply destroy the guns, but "we are definitely between a rock and a hard place. We have no other funding at our fingertips here. We just don't have monies available."

The next step is to appeal to the commission's ways and means committee, Mouradian said. The committee will be asked to come up with some more money for the sheriff's department to buy the equipment for the tactical operations unit, she said.

Job fair for military veterans set for May

Employers in search of well-qualified, skilled and disciplined employees need look no further than the Michigan Employment Security Commission's veterans job fairs.

The MESC, along with local veterans organizations, is seeking employers with upcoming job openings to participate in several veterans job fairs throughout the state.

Employ A Vet Expo '94, one of five fairs scheduled for this year, will be held Wednesday, May 18, in Detroit. Other veterans job fairs are scheduled this year for Flint, Kalamazoo, University Center and Wyoming.

Employ A Vet Expo '94, offered at no cost to employers or veterans, will be from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Light Guard Armory, 4400 Eight Mile in Detroit. Employers wishing to register for the fair should call Jane Darling of the Sterling Heights MESC office at (810) 939-9668. Preference will be given to those employers anticipating job openings within 90 days of the expo date.

This marks the third year the MESC has sponsored job fairs to help find jobs for veterans affected by the downsizing of the military. The MESC predicts that more than 18,000 veterans and their spouses will return to Michigan's work force in 1994. By 1995, that number will have reached 75,000.

Senate bills spur argument

BY TIM RICHARD
STAFF WRITER

The state Senate has passed two "truth in sentencing" bills amid warnings the election-year bills will drive up prison costs.

"Certain people who are currently allowed to be in corrections centers or half-way houses prior to parole would not be eligible for that until after parole," said Sen. Jack Welborn, R-Kalamazoo, one of two nay votes on the popular bills.

"People want to vote on being tough on prisoners and criminals on a big television day," Welborn said, "but I think it is a mistake to pass legislation that is going to undermine some of the alternative programs we put forth."

But the sponsor, Sen. William Van Regenmorter, R-Jenison, said the cost of letting prisoners go free too soon exceeds, immeasurably, the cost of keeping them behind bars until their minimum sentences have been served.

"The minute that 15-year person walks into the front door at Jackson prison," he said, "that sentence is going to be reduced to about 11.5 years for good time — it really doesn't matter whether you earn it or not."

Final passage came on a 34-2 vote. All area senators voted yes except David Honigman, R-West Bloomfield, who was recuperating from surgery.

The bills would:

- Assure that felons who commit crimes of assault crimes would serve at least the minimum sentence in secure confinement. Currently some may be paroled or released to half-way houses.
- Eliminate "good time," which can reduce an inmate's sentence by seven days per month and replace it with "bad time" under which an inmate's sentence could be lengthened beyond the minimum for prison infractions.

According to various fiscal estimates, the bills could cost the state 9,000 additional prison beds (currently 36,000 felons are behind bars), a one-time construction cost of $90 million and annual operating costs of $98 million. This year the Corrections Department budget is $1.1 billion.

Support for the bills came from families of the victims of ex-convict Leslie Allen Williams, who left a trail of four brutally murdered young women in western Oakland and Livingston counties.

Van Regenmorter, chair of the Senate Judiciary Committee, said perpetrators of violent crimes should not be eligible for alternative programs until their minimum sentences have been served.

The Senate amended the bills to include carjacking among crimes to which the bills would apply.

Others are first- or second-degree murder; kidnapping and hostage-taking; drunken driving or drunken boating that causes death or long-term injury; burning buildings or natural resources; assault; robbery, armed or unarmed robbery; bank robbery; disarming a police officer; breaking and entering an occupied house; and first-degree child abuse and sexually abusive activity.

Refer to Senate Bills 40 and 41 when writing to your state representative, State Capitol, Lansing 48909.

Moms deserve a little ribbing every once in a while.

No, not the kind of ribbing you think.

In this case, the ribbing is the exquisite faceted ribs of hand blown English crystal.

And seldom will you, or anyone else, find it at prices quite this remarkable.

Because right now, the Crate and Barrel has these magnificent vases for less than the cost of the flowers you'd normally put in them.

The smaller size is just $19.95 and the larger only $24.95.

And just in case Mom would rather plant flowers than arrange them, or is more interested in flour than flowers, we have gardening and gourmet gifts, as well as dozens of other glass and ceramic accessories throughout the Crate and Barrel at affordable prices.

So stop in at one of our stores soon. After all, this Mother's Day, a little ribbing like this just might tickle her.

Purse-snatcher confesses to cops

BY DARRELL CLEM
STAFF WRITER

A Westland man who had a guilty conscience after he robbed a Garden City woman outside of a Westland drugstore has turned himself over to police, Detective Sgt. Marc Stobbe said.

Robert Jeffrey Raines, who turned 23 Sunday, admitted in a written statement to police that he robbed the woman of her purse about 9:45 p.m. April 11 outside of Perry Drugs, 31162 Warren Road, Stobbe said.

Raines, a restaurant worker, said in his statement that he robbed the woman after he spent his entire paycheck on crack cocaine and beer, Stobbe said. The woman, 31, was robbed as she was walking to her car after leaving the drugstore.

Raines told police that the woman's purse contained only $6, according to police reports. He admitted taking the money and throwing the purse into a Dumpster, the reports said.

The woman had earlier reported being robbed during a struggle with an attacker outside of Perry Drugs. She said the man took her purse and fled on foot.

Four days later, Raines phoned the Westland police station and identified himself as the suspect, saying he was in Allen Park but would turn himself in when he got back to Westland, police reports said.

Raines told a police dispatcher that he could be found at the Hines Park Apartments on Cowan at Warren. Police later found him there.

The suspect was not carrying a weapon during the robbery.

Raines has been arraigned in Westland 18th District Court on a charge of unarmed robbery. A not-guilty plea was entered for him.

He was jailed last week after not posting a $10,000 cash bond.

Raines has been scheduled for a preliminary hearing May 5 to determine whether he should stand trial in Detroit Recorder's Court. He could face a maximum sentence of 15 years in prison if convicted.

Bike riders fight against child abuse

BY JOANNE MALISZEWSKI
STAFF WRITER

This year's Magic Ride will offer the choice of bicycling or walking to raise money for the prevention of child abuse and neglect.

"If they are interested in walking or riding, they can register the day of the ride," said Sandra Murphy, executive director of the Child Abuse Prevention Council of Out-Wayne County.

Magic Ride is 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, May 7, at the Canton Township Recreation Complex, behind township hall, 1150 S. Canton Center Road. Money for child abuse councils is raised from pledges taken by bicyclists and walkers, as well as participants' registration fees.

"All is returned to the child abuse council of where the walker or bicyclist is from," Murphy said.

Participants who have not registered in advance may sign up 7-11 a.m. at the recreation complex. Children younger than 12 years must be accompanied by an adult. Family activities such as games, music and crafts are planned for the day.

Registration fees the day of the event are $15 without a special Magic Ride T-shirt or $20 with T-shirt. The family rate (four members) is $50.

A highlight of the event is a celebrity ride with retired Detroit Pistons star Vinny Johnson at 10 a.m. Johnson and community leaders will ride a one-mile police escorted route.

"I can't tell you how many people are excited about this," Murphy said, adding participants are welcome to join in the celebrity ride.

Walking loops and bike routes begin and end at Canton Township Recreation Complex. Walking loops are well-suited for strollers and children on tricycles and are eight-tenths of a mile long.

Bike routes are clearly marked with stakes and signs and follow scenic, paved country roads in Wayne and Washtenaw counties.

If you are an average rider it will take you one hour to ride 10 miles. Routes are 4, 14, 25 and 50 miles long. "We do have maps of all the routes," Murphy said.

Magic Ride is designed to raise money and public awareness of child abuse prevention activities. It is co-sponsored by the child abuse councils of Oakland, Wayne, Washtenaw and Monroe counties in cooperation with Sen. Debbie Stabenow and the Magic Ride Michigan Bicycle Tour.

Prizes also will be given. The top pledge-getter will receive a grand prize of a gift certificate for a bike and helmet.

Second, third and fourth prizes will be hotel or restaurant gift certificates.

Pledge money must be turned in by June 3 to be eligible for prizes. Biker/walker numbers will be drawn for prizes throughout the day.

Magic Ride has raised more than $114,000 since the event was started in 1990. About 300 bikers and 100 volunteers generally participate.

Participants should bring pledges, water bottle, comfortable shoes, bright layered clothing and rain gear if necessary. Helmets are strongly encouraged and bikers should carry their identification when they ride.

House votes to give farmers a break on taxes

BY TIM RICHARD
STAFF WRITER

Nearly all agricultural property will be taxed at the 6-mill homestead property tax rate under a controversial bill passed by the House of Representatives.

Business property and second homes will be taxed 24 mills under Proposal A, the school finance reform plan approved March 15 by voters.

"The bill defines farmland by its use," said the sponsor, Rep. Dan Gustafson, R-Williamston, "That is language tax assessors now use and that is understood at every level of government. That's the language used in this bill."

However, city and suburban lawmakers protested the bill would give an unfair property tax break to farmers while giving rural schools a whopping increase in state aid. But they were on the short end of a 61-39 vote.

Voting yes: Republicans Penny Crissman of Rochester, Shirley Johnson of Royal Oak, Jerry Vorva of Plymouth and Deborah Whyman of Canton.

Voting no: Republicans Lyn Bankes of Livonia, Barbara Dobb of Union Lake, John Jamian of Bloomfield Township; and Democrats Justine Barns of Westland, Maxine Berman of Southfield, David Gubow of Huntington Woods and Richard Young of Dearborn Heights.

Missing the vote were Jan Dolan, R-Farmington Hills; Greg Kaza, R-Rochester Hills; and William Keith, D-Garden City. Kaza announced he would have voted yes had he been present.

The bill goes to the Senate, which is expected to pass it despite fiery debate. Gov. John Engler, during the Proposal A campaign, promised to support it in order to win the endorsement of the Farm Bureau.

Young, Democratic co-chair of the House Appropriations Committee, protested:

"Previously, a large number of farm districts were spending approximately $3,200 per child. Under the new state law, the amount will be increased to $5,000 per child.

"They (farmers) will be getting a 40 percent increase in state dollars expended on their children, and now we're going to lower the tax not only on their homesteads but on their economic enterprise, namely their farmland in excess of 100 acres.

"The farmers will receive a 40-percent increase in spending on education for their children while those in urban areas will receive only a 3-percent increase. The farmer will receive additional tax relief; the city dweller will not receive the additional relief," Young said.

The original law, approved by the Legislature on Christmas Eve, gave the 6-mill tax break to owner-occupied farms where the land was contiguous to the homestead. But it charged the 24-mill rate to rented land, non-contiguous land and corporate-owned land.

Gustafson, whose district includes eastern Ingham and western Livingston counties, said his bill will continue to tax commercial storage, processing, distributing, marketing and shipping operations at the 24-mill rate.

But it will make these changes:

- Allow corporations with a single business tax (SBT) liability of less than $20,000 to qualify for the lower rate.
- Allow family farm fruit and vegetable stands to be taxed at the lower rate.
- Apply to rented and discontiguous land.
- Cost schools $20 million in revenue.

Birmingham Seaholm High School's recent "Fashion Splash" featured prom dresses from Hannah Rose. Included were a long stretch panne velvet with plunging back by Betsey Johnson, modeled by Lora Pomfret and a short, flirty red slip dress modeled by Kerry Taylor. Allison Schubert was stunning in a feminine tie-dye silk chiffon slip dress by Vivienne Tam, one of this year's hottest designers.

Simple spaghetti-strapped slip dresses and soft, flowing fit and flairs are the newest silhouettes, while popular fabrics include matte jersey, georgette and chiffon. Black is still the color of choice, although red, white and navy are gaining popularity. Missing this year are the bubbles, the ruffles and the all over beading. Instead, you'll find beaded shoulders or necklines and sexy barebacks. Carole Friedman, a junior at Harrison High School in Farmington Hills and a model for Hannah Rose, was partial to a simple, straight red silk jersey dress with a gorgeous criss-cross cut-out back ($240). "I think a lot of girls will wear long this year and some will wear vintage looks," she said. Amanda Trivax of West Bloomfield High School adores the black lace slip dress shown here ($245). It's romantic, but classic enough that it can be worn again and again. Hannah Rose dresses are priced from $120 to $300. For a funky, retro prom look, check out It's The Ritz, 193 W. Maple in Birmingham. Cotton gauze slip dresses with crepe sheathing come in long and short styles and great color combinations like slate blue with chocolate brown, lemon and lime, and lemon and pumpkin ($56 and $86). They can be knotted and tied for highly individual looks.

A more traditional prom gown can be found at Gantos in Oakland Mall. At a recent fashion show, Tonia Revere of Lutheran High School North modeled a short white brocade halter dress ($55) and her friend Jordan Roth wore a similar dress in black with a flirty crinoline peeking out from the hemline ($59). Both were fit and flair silhouettes.

Don't forget pearl or velvet chokers, vintage earrings, strappy platforms or mules and natural makeup. Do leave your ankle bracelet, shoulder pads, spike heels, can of hairspray and panty liners at home. And enjoy a night to remember!

- Spring hair looks, tangles and lots of layers.

Foundations expert offers ground rules

The sheer styles of spring and summer call for a new emphasis on what's underneath. Jacobson's Intimate Apparel guru Paula McManus provided a seminar on the latest undergarments to show shoppers what a difference the proper foundations can make.

How many times have you opted for the ordinary because you didn't know what to wear underneath a sensational strapless sheath or a sheer poet's blouse?

The question was put to a dozen Rochester Hills women last week at an Intimate Apparel fashion show sponsored by Jacobson's at Great Oaks Mall.

The audience admitted their frustration; undergarments buyer Paula McManus told them to worry no more.

"There are so many different bras styles, underwear cuts, slip lengths and body suits available today that no woman should feel immodest or have her straps or underwear lines showing," she said. "It's all a matter of knowing what foundation is required for what look and where to find it."

McManus, who has been buying intimate apparel for Jacobson's stores for many years, said 85 percent of the company's undergarment business was in underwire bras. The newest underwire materials and designs are comfortable, flexible and provide the best support. They are a big improvement over the underwires available 10 years ago.

The miracle fabric, Lycra, with its memory yarns, can provide a seamless slimming silhouette when used in one-piece foundations or longline pants. These undergarments are a must when wearing form hugging knits, like St. John, she said.

The sheer blouses and vintage-look dresses on the runways this spring call for camisoles or body-tone liners to be worn underneath, according to McManus. Some body suits come in colors, others have small stripes or floral designs to add interest.

Skirts with a slit require slips with a slit, McManus insisted. Form-fitting tube skirts require form-fitting tube slips. Slips now come in lengths as short as 19 inches.

"The saying goes, 'Where the elastic ends the line begins,'" McManus said. "So never overlook the thong underpant. It is often worn by models to eliminate any pant line."

She said that french-cut underpants and girdles are often the most

Secretary looks over 52 years on the job

BY SUSAN DEMAGGIO
STAFF WRITER

Flashback: Christmas 1942.

St. Thomas Aquinas High School student Wanda Jazowski of Detroit applies for a part-time job as a holiday gift wrapper at J. L. Hudson's Department Store downtown. She enjoys the work, saves the cash and, after graduation, gets promoted to the retailer's secretarial staff.

Through the years, she moves up the ladder, reporting to executive after executive, including members of the Hudson family. She goes from typing through eight sheets of carbon paper and taking hours of dictation by hand, to copy machines, computer word processing and instantly faxing memos across the world.

"I can't imagine us getting any better or faster at communicating than we are right now," she said, laughing.

After 52 years on the job, she still wears her bright, shy, smile. From Hudson's corporate offices at Northland Center, she says she would do it all over again.

comfortable, although many women prefer more coverage around the thigh. Look for underwear with a tummy panel if that area is a problem.

Camibras, with higher coverage, are designed to be worn under summer suits and into the evening, according to McManus. The tops come in lace or with more tailored pleating to peak out from under the lapels of a suit.

"Never exercise or jog without wearing an athletic bra," McManus cautioned. "Besides being unsightly, it breaks down muscle support. Many of these bras are 100-percent cotton. These days women are buying cotton bras 12 months a year."

McManus suggested that women own a wardrobe of bras — athletic sports bras, three underwires for support, cotton bras for muggy summer weather, T-backs for cut-out blouses, backless and strapless bras for certain special occasion dresses, a formfit no-seam bra for outfits that require a smooth foundation.

Certain women require minimizer bras that have wider bands that flatten, other women like demi-bras with a slight push-up or bras with pockets for removable polyester pads. McManus reports that the latest rage is the "call for cleavage." She reported that Jacobson's sold 120 "Wonderbras" the first weekend the bra was available.

"On the somber side," she said. "Since statistics say one in eight women will get breast cancer in their lifetime, Jacobson's sells breasts forms made by Amoena. The latest are quite remarkable, self-adhering — most natural looking."

To care for intimate apparel, (the finer products become costly,) McManus suggested laundering them in a nylon-zippered bag with all the hooks hooked closed. No dryer — the heat will destroy the fibers. Frequent washing is needed for Lycra fabrics because body oils break down the fabric.

"Jacobson sells a wonderful light cleaner with a whitener in crystal form," McManus said.

Jacobson's plans to offer another intimates seminar in the fall. Darlene Heilman of Rochester Hills said she wouldn't miss it. "It was very informative," she said afterward. "I never knew the design science behind all the different kinds of bras. I learned a lot that should come in handy."

Two national retailers new to the Michigan market opened at Briarwood in Ann Arbor. Pacific Sunwear of California, marketing young men's casuals, and Nature Food Centres, a one-stop health, food and body care stop are located in the Jacobson's wing.

"It's been a wonderful career," she said, "And it's not over yet! I don't have any immediate plans to retire. I truly enjoy my work and I look forward to coming here every morning."

A resident of Harper Woods, Jazowski travels along Eight Mile Road each day to Hudson's Grand Central, where she is the secretary to the Design Studio, Shoe and Auditing Divisions. One of her bosses, Robert Ryan, of Shoes, said, "Wanda's response time and positive can-do attitude is catching. It rubs off on her office associates."

Co-worker Karen Kleinfelt, of the public relations staff, said Jazowski was an inspiration. "She always has candy on her desk for the rest of us. Wanda's love for her job is genuine."

Jazowski explained that her key to success is "liking what I do. That's my advice for anyone in the work force today. How can you do your best at a company or job that doesn't bring personal satisfaction and happiness?"

Never married, Jazowski said she enjoys the quiet life, reading, walking and visiting friends and family to relax.

After 52 years with Hudson's, she considers herself a goodwill ambassador for the retailer and never misses an opportunity to tell acquaintances about the latest sale or line of merchandise.

"After all," she said with a wink, "Hudson's is everyone's favorite department store."

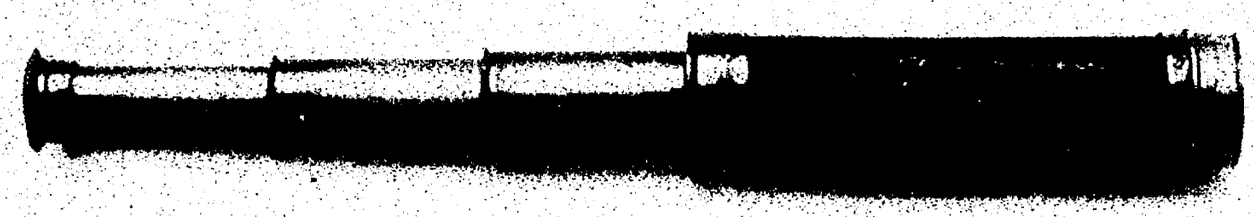
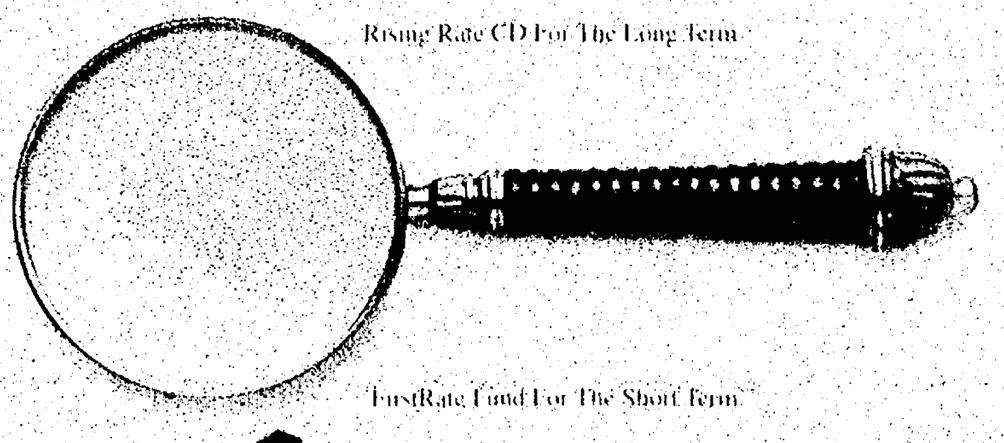
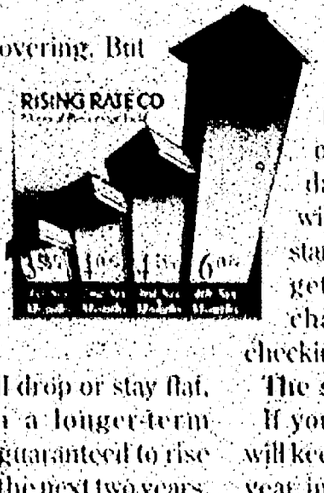
The Long And Short Of Making More On Your Money, Whatever Your Economic Outlook.


Rising Rate CD For The Long Term


FirstRate Fund For The Short Term



The economy is recovering. But even the experts can't agree on what interest rates will do.
So First of America has two shrewd ways for you to earn a great rate. No matter what your strategy.
The long view.
If you think rates will drop or stay flat, you should go with a longer-term deposit and get a rate guaranteed to rise every six months over the next two years. The Rising Rate CD.SM
It starts at 3.50% APY. And you'll end up earning 6.00% APY for the final term.* You can withdraw part or all of your money in the first ten days after every six-month interval without penalty. All it takes to get started is a $1000 deposit. Plus, you can get a no service charge personal checking account.
The short view.
If you predict rates will keep going up this year, invest short term with the FirstRate Fund. The APY is based on the 91-day Treasury Bill. So if the T-Bill goes up quickly, you'll continue to benefit from it.
A new deposit of $10,000 is required.
It's a respectable rate of return plus liquidity in these uncertain times. Plus you can get a no service charge personal checking account.

FirstRate Fund Accounts	Annual Percentage Yield (APY)
Accounts with a balance of $10,000 or more	3.92% T-Bill
Accounts with a balance less than $10,000	3.66% passbook

Of course, your deposits are FDIC insured up to $100,000 per depositor.
Call 1-800-443-5465 or visit any of the 150 offices in Southeast Michigan.
Because no matter what your point of view, you can't go wrong investing with us.
FIRST of AMERICA
A bank for life.SM
*The APY for each term is as follows: 3.50% APY for 6 months; 4.00% APY for 12 months; 5.00% APY for 18 months; 6.00% APY for 24 months. A penalty will be imposed for early withdrawal. Annual Percentage Yield (APY) assumes reinvestment. Fees could reduce earnings on the account. POINTS OF VIEW

Superstars: an alchemy of mind, body and spirit

JOHN TELFORD

In the 1940s my father took me to see Detroit-born Sugar Ray Robinson box the super "Raging Bull" Jake LaMotta, the Tigers' super Hank Greenberg hit home runs and the Red Wings' super Gordie Howe blast pucks into the net. I also listened, mesmerized by hero worship, to broadcasts of super champ Joe Louis beating the entire world, and I pondered upon the sparkling status of superstardom. Recently I studied these superstars, trying to determine what ephemeral virtue separated them from ordinary athletes.

In the 1950s I did this again more methodically than reverently when I raced against the greatest Olympic champions of my time — superstar speedsters like Charley Jenkins of Villanova, Hayes Jones of Eastern Michigan, Glenn Davis of Ohio State, Mike Larrabee and Rex Cawley of Southern California, Ira Murchison of Western Michigan and George Rhoden of Jamaica. Unsurprisingly, some of them beat me even though I had dissected every step of their previous races in training films. I would scrutinize these films in a hand-cranked micro-viewer in my coach's office at Wayne State University, searching for some slight flaw in the swift superstars' style or strategy. This did pay off, because I managed to beat some of them, too.

In the 1970s I took my father to see Tommie Hearns' power punch his way to welterweight superstardom. And in the 1980s I took him to a Pistons game where a diminutive wizard of slight-of-hand named Isiah Thomas outplayed much taller men — passing and faking and dribbling and shooting Detroit to a lopsided win. My dad — an ex-pro fighter — predicted that Hearns would win many titles and Thomas would lead the Pistons to more than one. Sadly, he didn't live to see it happen, but his ultimate correctness on both counts caused me once again to contemplate the traits that set a superstar apart from mere stars.

It isn't just technical virtuosity that produces superstars. It isn't brute speed or strength, either. Nor strategy. Nor is it coordination alone. Nor concentration. Nor even determination. What makes superstars super is the same thing that produces super poets or artists or violinists. And it's the same thing that produces super statesmen or generals. It's an inner sense of invincibility — the feeling that any rare loss was a pure accident. And it's charisma — an aura that John F. Kennedy and George S. Patton had, an aura that Jesse Owens had, an aura that Sugar Ray Robinson had, and an aura that Muhammed Ali above all had. It's an alchemy of mind and body and spirit that's greater than the sum of its parts.

It is facing and beating the best opponents, too — the kind that lend the combat a sense of drama — and a sense of history. It's Louis-Schmeling, Ali-Frazier, Hearns-Leonard, Michael Moorer-Evander Holyfield, Nancy Kerrigan-Oksana Baiul, and Ulysses S. Grant-Robert E. Lee. And it's Isiah Thomas-Magic Johnson and Isiah Thomas-Michael Jordan. Isiah has probably played his last game of professional basketball. My old Pershing High coaching colleague Will Robinson — now a Pistons official — often coaxed me to join him at the Palace for a game. I wish I had, because I missed my chance to see the Pistons' superstarriest star sparkle one final time.

Child care benefits

As a follow-up to my participation in Job Shadow Day sponsored by the Michigan Worthy Wage Coalition, I would like to provide additional information concerning employer-supported child care.

With the cost of child care averaging $4,500 per child per year, parents cannot afford to pay any more for child care expenses. One way to divert the cost from parents is to encourage employers to offer child care benefits.

I won't get into the optimum benefits that some employers offer, only the basic benefits such as flexible benefit packages, pre-tax spending accounts and flexible work schedules.

■ Flexible benefits: Flexible benefit plans are employer-sponsored benefit packages that offer employees a choice between taking cash or certain employer-provided benefits. The employer allows employees to decide which benefits they want and how much money they will spend on those benefits according to their needs. For example, if a husband and wife are both working, one may choose to be part of the other's benefits. Thus one can opt to take the cash value established by the employer instead of the benefit.

■ Pre-tax spending accounts: This is an excellent, low-cost option that an employer can provide to employees. Workers deposit pre-tax dollars from their gross income into a spending account which can be used to pay child care expenses. Essentially, employees are decreasing their gross income, thus they are paying less in Social Security, federal, state and local taxes. If the employee is paying less Social Security, then the employer is also paying less. Thus is how the employer is able to cover the costs associated with the administrative fee.

If employees choose to use the dollars saved from opting out of their flexible benefits package and put them into a pre-tax spending account, then they would have maximized their dollars to pay for safe, quality child care.

Also, there are pre-tax spending accounts for medical services. Those who have high medical expenses may want to consider such an account because it could save the employee money.

■ Flexible work schedules: In order to offer the benefit of flexible work schedules, employers must identify the workload and product that needs to be accomplished in a given week or month. Employers should then ask their employees to identify how the work can be accomplished and the goals achieved. The employer must be flexible in allowing employees to meet the needs of their family lives without interfering with work.

As chair of the House Republican Task Force on Child Care, I learned that many parents took off at least five work days per youngster each year to care for their children. Unfortunately, this disrupts the work product and creates tension between employee and employer. If employers allowed those employees flexibility in their schedules, then those days could have been made up with no loss of productivity.

These are all benefits an employer can offer an employee at very little or no cost. I want to stress the point to employers that it takes a "family friendly attitude," not necessarily money.

Since I began holding the annual Child Care Challenge awards competition, I have yet to meet a business that regretted offering these benefits. I believe this is the very least that employers should do for their workers.

Plan affects suburbs

As you know, Detroit Mayor Dennis Archer recently endorsed a conceptual plan presented by Tigers' owner Mike Ilitch for a new Tiger Stadium in Detroit. In declaring his advocacy for the so-called "Foxtown Plan," Archer made it clear that there is no money in Detroit's budget for such an endeavor.

Indeed, it is illegal for the city to subsidize a new stadium based on a March 17, 1992 vote in which 63 percent of Detroit voters said they did not wish to pay for a new stadium. Thus the debate moves to the state Capitol, where the House Oversight and Ethics Committee is considering House Bill 5135, also known as the State Preservation Empowerment and Enterprise Development Authorities bill, to provide state money from Indian gaming for some costs associated with the construction of a new stadium. The debate over the fate of Tiger Stadium and the SPEEDA bill have been the focus of media attention for weeks.

On March 23, state Sen. John Kelly, D-Grosse Pointe, introduced a substitute version of SPEEDA that has a direct impact on your readers. Kelly's version of SPEEDA would spread the revenue received from Indian gaming so that all Michigan residents could benefit. Instead of limiting coverage to Detroit and Grand Rapids (which is also seeking state funds for a new arena), Kelly's SPEEDA includes the largest 75 cities in the state, providing no-interest loans to rebuild those communities.

Readers might be interested to learn that there is an alternative to simply giving money away for sports stadiums. I urge you to contact the legislators representing your area and find out which version of SPEEDA they plan to support.

Governor to make speech at Schoolcraft graduation

Gov. John Engler will be the keynote speaker for Schoolcraft College's Spring Commencement Exercise on Saturday, May 7, when 937 graduates receive their diplomas.

Engler was elected the 46th governor of Michigan in November 1990. Engler's main objective has been to improve Michigan's economy. He points to Michigan's rate of job growth, which is three times the national average, with 330,000 jobs created since August 1991. As a result, Michigan's unemployment rate has fallen below the national average for the first time in 15 years.

Engler is a Michigan native who earned his bachelor's degree in agricultural economics from Michigan State University and a law degree from the Thomas M. Cooley Law School.

Gov. John Engler

Teachers promise to behave

BY RALPH R. ECHTENAW
Staff Writer

Schoolcraft College teachers have agreed to participate in commencement exercises Saturday, May 7, "in spite of the governor's appearance, not because of it," according to Faculty Forum president William Nickels.

The Schoolcraft teachers are part of the Michigan Education Association teachers union that is mad at Gov. John Engler for a new law that makes it impossible for teachers to strike and takes away some of the things that used to be bargained in contracts.

Engler is scheduled to deliver Schoolcraft's commencement address at graduation ceremonies Saturday.

In light of the recent vehemence on the part of teachers around the state in protesting Engler's policy, Nickels wrote a letter to Schoolcraft Board of Trustees chairman Steve Ragan.

"I have been directed by the Senate of the Faculty Forum at its meeting of April 27 to express our outrage, loss and disappointment because of (Engler's) presence at the college's commencement activities. The governor has demonstrated in word and deed that he is no friend of teachers or of education.

"However, we will not permit our feelings to interfere with the commencement exercises. Therefore, the union and its officers will participate in the ceremony out of respect for our college and student graduates and their parents, friends and relatives. We do not wish to embarrass either them or our college."

Engler said that the Schoolcraft teachers "have been under a lot of pressure to exploit this opportunity." He commends the teachers for saying they won't protest Engler's appearance. "My real concern is that this be a day for the students."

Schoolcraft President Richard McDowell said "we're expecting the focus to be on student accomplishment and graduation, and we're appreciative of the faculty efforts to support the students."

However, there's no telling if other area Michigan Education Association affiliates are planning protests, or if individual teachers will picket Engler's appearance.

Chuck Portelli, the Plymouth-Canton Education Association president, said no organized protest will be launched from his MEA affiliate. "If individuals choose to go, they can, but we're not organizing anything," he said.

Redford Union Education Association president Larry Digon said he's not organizing a protest either, but individual teachers are free to picket if they choose.

The presidents of MEA affiliates representing teachers in Livonia and Wayne-Westland schools did not return the Observer's phone calls by press time.

Madonna workshop focuses on conflict

A Madonna University workshop called "Conflict Resolution in the Classroom, at Home and on the Job" meets 6-10 p.m. Friday, May 20, and 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Saturday, May 21.

The fee is $85 for 1.2 continuing education units or $157 for one academic credit. Call 591-5188.

Students will examine the social psychological perspective of conflict and peacemaking. The class will focus on learning a model of conflict resolution that is rooted in concepts such as contact, cooperation, communication, negotiation and non-violence.

CHEF LARRY JANES

Walk your way to good food in 'City by the Bay'

Having experienced my first "red-eye" flight from San Francisco to Detroit, I sit at my word processor slugging down the fourth in a series of mugs of coffee from the highly touted Starbucks fame.

Now I know why they call it "Starbucks." My wallet was "starbuck" naked after the purchase. San Francisco is a coffee town, and coffee shops abound, but without a doubt, good fresh coffee with aroma, coffee that wakes and then says "good night," is readily available here. I like the house blend from The Coffee Beanery.

The "City by the Bay" hosted the International Association of Culinary Professionals conference, and the 16th annual Julia Child Cookbook Awards. Unfortunately, it was sunny and beautiful the five days we were holed up at the Fairmont Hotel. Mother Nature decided to give the drought-stricken area a good dose of rain on the two days fellow foodies and I decided to check out the city and wine valley.

Cookbook awards

The Best Cookbook of the Year Award went to Darra Goldstein's "The Georgian Feast: The Vibrant Culture and Savory Food of the Republic of Georgia" (Harper-Collins $27.50.)

The book also claimed the Silver Whisk Award for best international cookbook. Other winner's included Steven Raichlen's "Miami Spice" (Workman Publishing $22.95), Daniel Leader & Judith Blahnik's "Bread Alone" (William Morrow, $25.00) and, for all our vegan friends, Anne Summerville's "Field of Greens" (Bantam Books, $26.95) took top honors in the general competition.

All these books should be marked with a silver seal as winners in your local gourmet shop or cookbook store and are worth having on hand.

San Francisco by far surpasses any other city in our nation in accessible restaurants. I say accessible because with a great mass transit system or a good pair of shoes, you can walk just about anywhere and get great food. They do things a little different in the city known for fog and hills than they do here in metro Detroit.

Flavorful flowers

First off, folks on the West Coast must certainly love flowers. I sampled a deep-fried flower of unknown origin for an appetizer at LuLu's, sipped flower tea at the Pearl City dim sum palace in Chinatown, downed a salad with fresh sage flowers at Simi Vinyards in Sonoma, and cooled my palate with rose flower ice cream from the China Moon.

When I mentioned to momma that one salad I sampled was smothered with lilac blossoms, she rolled her eyes and muttered something about having your rollers too tight.

Then there were the restaurants. What kind of food do you like? was the big question. In addition to our dim sum visits, we sampled steamed chicken feet at a Hakkan style restaurant in North Beach, Tuscan cuisine from a trattoria in Little Italy and the cuisines of Singapore, Malasia, Yugoslavia, Switzerland, Sweden, Vietnam, Australia and Hawaii, to name just a few. We ate with everything except our feet.

On a suprising note, we sampled the updated airline food on the flight via Northwest Airlines.

Northwest Airlines gathered a gaggle of chefs from around the country including chef Brian Polcyn of Acadia and Chimayo to try to update and upgrade the quality of airline food.

Now there are two words seldom seen in the same line - quality and airline food.

Northwest's dinner buffet offered a choice of an Oriental salad that was mediocre (but better than an unidentifiable sandwich) or a gourmet lasagna with sausage, imported mushrooms and noodles that were superior to anything boxed.

A locally produced ice cream bar stuffed with Mackinaw Island Fudge was dessert, and I must say that the group was impressed.

I know we're rushing the season here a bit, but Denny Wright and the friendly folks at Wright's Hardware in Livonia are presenting an outdoor grilling clinic 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, May 7. Wright's Hardware is on Five Mile, just east of Middlebelt. Call (313) 422-2210 for more info.

Royal Treatment

GIVE MOM THE

BY SANDRA DALKA-PRYSBY
SPECIAL WRITER

Pampering mom on Mother's Day is a tradition in four Oakland County families. While the men and children cook and clean up, the women relax.

On Mother's Day, four Oakland County dads, including Michael Battersby of Beverly Hills, cook and clean and do other nice things for the women in their lives.

Battersby rounds up his three daughters to help him treat his wife and their mother, Trish, to a Mother's Day brunch. Oftentimes other Battersbys, including his mom and dad, Chris and Helen of Farmington Hills, and his five brothers and two sisters and their families, are invited to participate in the celebration.

"It's nice to be treated like a queen," said Trish. "It's also special when the whole family is included. It gives my daughters the opportunity to tell their grandmother and aunts how much they are appreciated."

Michael, who is no stranger to the kitchen, decides the menu, does the shopping, prepares the food, serves it and cleans up afterward, all with the help of Margaret, 13, Katie, 11, and Clare, 9.

"This is fun for me because I like cooking and I enjoy working with the girls," said Mike.

They're anticipating a big celebration this year, and everyone will bring a dish to pass. "Otherwise I'd be in the kitchen for a long time," said Mike.

While the youngest Battersby, Clare, believes that "every day should be Mother's Day," Margaret can't understand why there isn't a "Kid's Day."

However, these two sisters agree that having a special day for mothers gives them a chance to let their mother know how much they appreciate her.

While the Battersby clan is enjoying brunch, three other south Oakland County men will be busy cleaning the patio, dragging out lawn furniture, checking the grill and preparing food for a late afternoon barbecue for their wives.

"We've done this for the past five years," said Stuart McCracken of Southfield. The work detail includes his father-in-law, William Littlejohn also of Southfield, and Paul Cullis of Bloomfield Township. The recipients of their labor are Vivienne McCracken, Margaret Littlejohn and Anne Cullis. All the couples are transplants from Great Britain.

According to the Littlejohns, Mother's Day is similar to an English tradition - "Mothering Sunday," which is celebrated in March.

"This day is celebrated simply. Children present their mothers with a flower, such as a daffodil, and maybe a small box of chocolates in church," said Margaret.

She added that she has the good fortune of being recognized as a mother twice a year. "My son in London sends me flowers in March, and my daughter honors me at the barbecue in May."

The traditional barbecue is a welcome treat for Vivienne, whose sons Jonathan, 11, and Alister, 7, help their father with preparations. "A mother of two active boys should be waited on at least one day a year," she said.

"Any mother deserves special treatment once in a while, and the men do a pretty good job of pampering us," said Anne, who also has a son, Jonathan, 8, and daughter, Emma, 5.

The men also get good reviews for their cooking. Each year the main dish changes, but Paul's "Key Lime Pie" is a consistent favorite. "I'm just a 'sometimes cook,' so I like to stick with something I know," he said.

William cooks on a regular basis and likes to try new dishes. "It's usually my job to select the menu," he said. This year the menu calls for marinated flank steak, a dish assigned to Stuart.

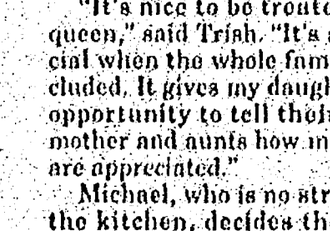
The nicest part of our Mother's Day tradition, according to the three women, is that they don't have to clean up. "It's such a treat to get out of washing dishes and putting things away," Vivienne added.

Since one good turn deserves another, will the three women give the royal treatment to their husbands on Father's Day?

"Do we have to?" they asked. Then, with smiles on their faces, they said that they always try to make Father's Day as nice for their husbands as the men have done for them.

Refreshing Cru Beaujolais a spring arrival

FOCUS ON WINE



ELEANOR & RAY HEALD

Wine consumers think of Beaujolais just before Thanksgiving when the Beaujolais Nouveau is released as the first wine bottled after harvest. It is young, very grapey and barley wine. Cru Beaujolais arrives in the spring. It has more complexity, it is real wine, and, when slightly chilled, can satisfy a red wine drinker on a warm day.

Beaujolais is made from the gamay grape and grown in the southern Burgundy region of the same name. Technically, Beaujolais is Burgundy, but it is a fruity wine without the depth or longevity of red Burgundies made in the Cote d'Or from the more aristocratic pinot noir grape.

Cru Beaujolais, arriving in local wine shops now, is from the 1993 harvest. It was very successful in Beaujolais because the gamay grapes were picked before rains that began Sept. 20. These rains made 1993 a dismal year for the rest of Burgundy.

Didier Mommessin represents the fourth generation in his family to make wine in Burgundy and Beaujolais.

"The wines of Beaujolais represent a brilliant exception to the rest of the 1993 vintage," he said. Mommessin recommends the 1993 Cru Beaujolais, wines grown in 10 specially designated regions where they develop increased roundness and flavor depth. Of the 10 Beaujolais "crus," Mommessin divides them into two groups.

The first five are light with good fruit and early attractiveness. They are Brouilly, Chenas, Chiroubles, Cote de Brouilly and Regnie.

The second five "crus" have increased complexity, fullness and longevity. They are Morgon, Julienas, St. Amour, Fleurie and Moulin-A-Vent.

We found the 1993 Mommessin Brouilly ($10) showing fresh cherry and raspberry aromas and flavors in a light refreshing style. Serve it chilled below room temperature to enhance the fruitiness. The 1993 Mommessin Fleurie ($10) has exuberant fruit, good depth, with a slight spritz in a

EGG HASH BROWN CASSEROLE

8 cups frozen hash brown potatoes (one 2-pound bag)
3 cups shredded cheddar cheese
1 cup chopped onion
12 eggs
2½ packages of Brown and Serve sausages
½ cup half and half
Salt, pepper and parsley to taste

Grease a 9 by 13-inch baking dish. Cook potatoes and onions together in a frying pan with a small amount of olive oil.

Put potatoes and onions on bottom of casserole dish. Cook sausages. Add three cups cheese and cooked sausages, sliced. (Refrigerate until needed — can be made the night before.)

When ready to cook, beat eggs, cream, salt, pepper and parsley together and pour over potato mixture. Bake at 350 degrees for 50 minutes or until eggs are golden on top.

Remove from oven, cool 10 minutes and slice into pieces.

Recipe submitted by Michael Battersby.

GRANDMA WALSH'S COFFEE CAKE

½ cup butter or margarine, softened
1½ cups sugar
3 eggs
1½ tablespoons vanilla
3 cups flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
1½ teaspoons baking soda
¼ teaspoon salt
1½ cups sour cream
Filling:
½ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
½ cup walnuts
1½ teaspoons cinnamon

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Grease tube pan. Combine butter, sugar, eggs and vanilla. Beat on medium speed two minutes. Mix in flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt, alternating with sour cream.

Spread ⅓ of the batter in pan and sprinkle with ⅓ of filling. Pour in remaining batter and sprinkle remainder of filling on top.

Bake about 1 hour or until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Wait 10 minutes before removing from pan.

Recipe submitted by Michael Battersby.

MARINATED FLANK STEAK

1 whole flank steak
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
½ cup salad oil
2 tablespoons soy sauce
1 tablespoon dry mustard
¼ cup lemon juice
Garlic powder and ground ginger to taste

Mix all ingredients together. Pour over flank steak and marinate for 24 hours, turning occasionally. Grill on barbecue for 6 to 7 minutes per side, brush with marinade during cooking. Slice thinly across the grain and serve.

Recipe submitted by Stuart McCracken.

GRATIN DAUPHINOIS

2 pounds potatoes (about 7 to 8 cups thinly sliced)
1 egg (beaten)
½ pound sharp cheddar cheese
2 large onions (thinly sliced)
½ pound Gruyere cheese
2 cups half and half
Salt and pepper to taste

Arrange thinly sliced potatoes and onions in overlapping rows; add cheese between layers, reserving a little cheese for top layer.

Mix together half and half with beaten egg, pour over layered potatoes until covered. (Extra half and half may be added if needed).

Season with salt and pepper to taste. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Cover and bake for 1½ hours or until potatoes are tender. Remove cover for 15 minutes to brown.

Recipe submitted by William Littlejohn.

KEY LIME PIE

1 can (14 ounce) sweetened condensed milk
1 egg yolk
Grated rind of ½ lime
4 ounces of lime juice (½ cup)
1 drop of green food coloring
Baked pie shell
½ pint whipped cream

Mix together the first six ingredients. Pour mixture into pie shell. Bake at 350 degrees for 10 minutes.

Cool pie completely. Top wth whipped cream prior to serving.

very appealing style. The 1993 Mommessin Moulin-A-Vent ($10) is smooth with more subtle fruit, generous mouthfeel and the most promising future. Moulin-A-Vent are generally most tannic and frequently most age-worthy, although an aged Beaujolais is almost self-defeating since one of their great attributes is the fresh fruit character.

Pinot Noir

The Mommessin family is sole owner of the Grand Cru vineyard Clos de Tart in the Burgundy commune of Morey St-Denis. Because Mommessin is the sole owner of Clos de Tart, it is known as a monopole — rare in Burgundy since most vineyards have multiple owners. Historical records indicate that Clos de Tart was planted in 1140 by the monks of a Cistercian monastery. The vineyard was bought by Mommessin in 1932 during the world depression.

The 1990 Mommessin Clos de Tart ($100) showcases berry-cherry aromas with a suggestion of grilled meat. It is full and supple with requisite strength and structure, yet elegant on the palate. The wine was aged 18-20 months in all new oak barrels. Monsieur Mommessin suggests that in the best years Clos de Tart will gracefuly age for 15-25 years without a problem.

Mommessin explains three evolutionary stages of red Burgundy. "In the first, the young wine shows red fruit characters of cherries, raspberries, strawberries and currants, which fade away within a few years of bottling," he said. "The second stage highlights aromas of roses and violets along with those of strawberry and raspberry preserves. The third stage focuses principally on non-fruit attributes that include soil, wood, nuts, prunes, mushrooms and leather." He explains that oxidation of the wine accounts for the first two stages and reduction reactions produce the third generation of aromas.

Mommessin is sensitive to the criticism of some British wine critics who have suggested that his Clos de Tart should be fuller and more robust. To appease his critics, Mommessin hired Guy Accad, a controversial winemaker, to make a portion of the Clos de Tart. Accad's method includes a week-long cold-soak of the grapes in their own juice prior to fermentation to extract color, embellish tannins and enhance richness. Mommessin admits that when young, Accad's wine is harsh, inelegant and herbaceous, while the same wine produced by the traditional method is gentle and more appealing. He is hopeful that with a few years bottle age the new-method wine will develop the elegance of the traditional wine with added depth and longevity. He also hopes that this effort will appease his critics.

The lesson here is that an ugly, young wine does not always grow up to be a handsome rendition. More frequently than not, the wine that is balanced and flavorful in youth is balanced and flavorful when mature.

CRISPY POTATO AND LEEK PANCAKE

2 tablespoons butter or oil
1 large russet potato (or other good baker)
White part of a medium leek, sliced very thin
¼ cup shitake or other mushrooms, sliced very thin
Sour cream, smoked salmon etc. to garnish, if desired

Peel the potato and grate into fine strips. Place in a bowl of cold water and stir with your hand to wash away the excess starch. Allow to soak while preparing other items.

When ready to cook, squeeze all the water from the potatoes. Combine potato with thin sliced leek and mushrooms. Toss to mix.

Heat butter or oil in a non stick skillet. Place potato mixture in a heap and press to flatten in hot skillet and cook over medium heat for 3 minutes or until golden.

Carefully flip pancakes over and continue cooking for 2-3 minutes. Serve with sour cream, smoked salmon, if desired. Makes 4 pancakes.

Recipe prepared by Chef Eric Lenard at the Sutro Brasserie, San Francisco.

PRAWN CAKES

2 pounds shrimp pieces, coarsely chopped
2 red bell peppers, diced fine
2 Pasilla peppers (mild green chiles can be substituted) chopped fine
2 small red onions, chopped fine
6 cloves garlic, chopped fine
1 teaspoon ground cumin
½ teaspoon ground coriander
½ bunch fresh cilantro, chopped fine
2 cups dry white wine
Juice of 6 fresh lemons (about ½ cup)
½ cup olive oil
1 cup bread crumbs
6 egg whites

Cook shrimp pieces in a little olive oil for 2 minutes or until they appear done. Remove from pan. Using the same pan, saute chopped onions for 2 minutes. Add peppers and garlic and cook for 2 minutes. Stir in cumin and coriander, then add white wine and lemon juice.

Bind together with enough bread crumbs to hold mixture together. When the mixture cools, combine it with lightly whisked egg whites. Separate into small patties.

Pan fry patties in olive oil until cooked, about 2-3 minutes on one side, and 2 minutes on the other. Serve with black bean or tomato salsa, if desired. Makes about 15 cakes.

Recipe prepared by Chef Peter Morency of the Gate Five Restaurant in San Francisco.

Hotline open to grillers

If you've got questions about barbecuing, here's help.

Weber-Stephen Products Co. is offering a toll-free hotline to answer consumers' questions on barbecuing, 1-800-GRILLOUT.

Toss up a healthier salad

Here are some salad tips from Karen Collins, a registered dietitian for the American Institute for Cancer Research.

- If you like something crunchy on your salads, reach for croutons or chow mein noodles. A quarter cup of croutons or two tablespoons of chow mein noodles will add a bit over one gram of fat to your salad.
- On the other hand, two tablespoons of bacon bits adds over three grams of fat to your salad, while the same amount of sunflower seeds adds about 14 grams of fat.
- Remember that crunchy raw vegetables like carrots, broccoli, and cauliflower add crunch without fat.
- Watch the dressing.

Low-fat pasta with beef supreme

■ QUICK, EASY

Not too long ago, pasta suffered from a bad reputation. It was considered fattening and full of starch, not at all substantial or nutritious. Now we know that pasta itself provides important fiber and complex carbohydrates, while most of the fat and calories come from the rich sauces, cheese and sausage that are added to the pasta. In fact, according to the American Institute for Cancer Research, pasta itself provides a substantial amount of protein, as well as iron, riboflavin, niacin and thiamin.

Pasta is as quick, economical and versatile as it is wholesome. Pasta dishes fit into almost every part of a meal, as soups, side dishes, salads, main dishes or desserts. And pasta can be deliciously combined with nearly any type of meat, poultry, seafood, plus vegetables or even fruit to provide a complete and nutritious meal.

Pasta comes in scores of shapes and sizes, and the varied shapes serve different functions as well as provide visual appeal. Although capellini (angel hair), vermicelli, linguine and fettuccine all resemble spaghetti, they are meant to be sauced differently. Thin, delicate capellini and vermicelli require a light sauce, such as simple chopped tomatoes, herbs, and a little olive oil. The sturdier linguine and fettuccine do well with thick, strongly flavored sauces.

Tubular shapes, like penne, seem to go best with a sauce that will cling inside and out. Envelope shapes, like shells, seem made for a sauce with bits of meat or fish to be caught in the spaces. And a chewy twist of rotini pasta is just right for a cold pasta salad with a light vinaigrette.

Broad, flat noodles are popular in main dish casseroles and offer many exciting ways to stretch the meat in meals. By reducing the amount of meat in the dish and replacing it with these hearty noodles, you can cut fat while you increase complex carbohydrates, a very healthy trade-off.

Beef and Noodles Supreme uses a lean cut of top round with noodles in a creamy low-fat mushroom and white wine sauce. Serve it with your choice of colorful steamed vegetables.

Pasta supreme: Toss beef and noodles together in a creamy low-fat mushroom and white wine sauce for a quick and nutritious dinner.

BEEF AND NOODLES SUPREME

1 pound top round-cut lean beef
3 cups uncooked noodles
2 cups sliced fresh mushrooms
1 teaspoon margarine
½ cup white wine
½ cup water
½ teaspoon instant beef bouillon granules
1 tablespoon flour
1 teaspoon sugar
¼ teaspoon salt (optional)
pepper to taste
8 ounces plain non-fat yogurt
2 tablespoons chopped parsley

Put the water on to boil separately for the noodles. While it is heating, slice the beef into thin strips. Melt the margarine in a skillet or wok, using a pastry brush to coat the skillet.

Brown half of the beef strips at a time for three to four minutes, and set the beef aside in a bowl.

Saute the mushrooms in the skillet until they are tender. Set them aside with the beef and add the wine, water and bouillon to the skillet. Bring the mixture to a boil and boil gently for three minutes.

When the water for the noodles is boiling, add the noodles. While they are cooking, stir the flour, sugar, salt and pepper into the yogurt, then stir the yogurt mixture into the liquid in the skillet. Add the beef and the mushrooms; cook and stir over low heat until the mixture is thick and hot. When the noodles are done, drain them and divide into four equal portions. Serve the beef over the noodles, sprinkled with parsley, if desired.

Each of the four servings contains 345 calories and 8 grams of fat.

Recipe from the American Institute for Cancer Research.

Pick up some fresh Michigan asparagus

KEELY WYGONIK

Spring is finally here, and one of the first Michigan crops — asparagus — is ripe for picking.

"It's fabulous this year," said Rose Timbers of Wiard's Orchards in Ypsilanti. "We just started picking it."

■ Girard's Produce Farm has fresh hand-picked asparagus. To get there take I-94 to Exit 187, Rawsonville Road. Go south one mile to West Huron River Drive, turn left, farm is 1½ miles on the right. For information, call (313) 697-1685.

■ Wiard's Orchard's is offering u-pick and hand-picked asparagus. To get there take I-94 to Huron Street (exit 183) at Ypsilanti, then south four miles. For information, call (313) 482-7744.

If your farm is offering fresh asparagus either fresh hand-picked or u-pick, call me (313) 953-2105. We'll update the list every week.

There are lots of good reasons to "pick" asparagus for your family. According to the Michigan Asparagus Advisory Board, asparagus is a good source of potassium, fiber, vitamin B6, vitamins A and C, thiamin and folacin which is necessary for blood cell formation and growth and for prevention of liver disease. Asparagus has more folacin than any other vegetable. Asparagus has no fat, contains no cholesterol and is low in sodium.

Here 's a recipe to try.

SPRING ASPARAGUS AND BISCUITS

2 cups (8 ounces) cut, trimmed, fresh asparagus or 2 cups (10 ounces) frozen, cut asparagus
1 cup plus 2 tablespoons packaged buttermilk biscuit mix
⅓ cup milk
3 tablespoons margarine
3 tablespoons flour
⅛ teaspoon white pepper
2 cups milk
2 teaspoons instant chicken bouillon
½ cup cooked, sliced carrots
1 cup diced, cooked chicken
⅓ cup Parmesan cheese
¼ cup toasted, slivered almonds, optional

Cook asparagus in small amount of water until crisp-tender; drain. Set aside. Using biscuit mix and ⅓ cup milk, prepare biscuits according to package directions. Cut biscuits with 2½-inch cutter. Bake according to package directions.

Meanwhile, in 2-quart saucepan, mix together margarine, flour and pepper. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture starts to bubble.

Add milk and bouillon. Continue cooking and stirring until mixture boils. Cook and stir 1 minute longer. Add remaining ingredients except almonds. Cook about 3 minutes longer or until thoroughly heated, stirring frequently. Serve over hot biscuits. Garnish with almonds. Serves 4.

WASH BEFORE EATING?

The findings of the National Academy of Science's "Pesticides in the Diets of Infants and Children" report are in, and they are not encouraging. According to the report by the 14-member panel, children are more vulnerable to carcinogenic and neurotoxic pesticides than adults are. In addition, because the FDA sets legal residues (the amounts of pesticides allowed to remain in food) with only adults in mind, children can eat permissible levels of pesticides only to find that their risk for cancer is hundreds of times what the FDA deems acceptable. If these findings confirm the suspicions that many of us have had all along, it gives us one more reason to purchase healthy organic produce.

Now that we know that rinsing vegetables that have been repeatedly subjected to pesticides does not remove those toxic chemicals, isn't it time to stop eating them? Why risk your health and the health of your children? Eating organic foods simply makes good sense. At the GOOD FOOD CO., we offer a superb selection of quality natural foods, organic vegetables, free range chicken and beef, and an array of vitamins and supplements. We are Michigan's largest discount natural food supermarket. For more information, please call us at 981-8100. We are located at 42615 Ford Rd. We are open Mon.-Sat. 9-9 and Sundays from 10-6. Happy Mother's Day!

P.S. Kids are more sensitive to pesticides because these chemicals can imitate themselves more readily in children's rapidly dividing cells.

Strawberry puffs perfect for tea

■ DESSERT

AP — Strawberry Puffs are light and airy, perfect for a Mother's Day tea. They're cream puffs filled with whipped cream and sliced strawberries, drizzled with chocolate. They can also be served at a bridal or baby shower, or at a graduation party.

For a spectacular presentation, ring a plate with puffs and fill the center with more strawberries drizzled with chocolate.

The puffs can be baked ahead and kept for up to three days in an airtight container. If fat is a concern, fill the puffs with reduced-fat whipped topping or pudding prepared with skim milk.

STRAWBERRY PUFFS

2 pint baskets strawberries, stemmed and sliced
Sugar
½ cup water
4 cup butter
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup all-purpose flour
2 eggs
1 cup whipping cream, or one (3.4 ounce) instant pudding mix made with 2 cups nonfat milk, as package directs
Sugar, to taste
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup prepared fudge sauce, or ½ cup prepared light fudge sauce
Powdered sugar

In a bowl, toss strawberries with sugar, to taste; cover and chill. Preheat oven to 400 degrees F.

In 1-quart saucepan, bring water, butter and salt to boil. Remove from heat, stir in flour all at once to blend thoroughly. Set over medium heat. Cook and stir until mixture pulls away from side of pan and forms a ball. Remove from heat and cool slightly.

Thoroughly beat in eggs one at a time. Spoon batter in six equal mounds, spaced apart, onto lightly greased baking sheets. Bake in the center of a 400-degree F oven for 20 to 25 minutes until puffs are evenly browned. Turn off oven. Remove from oven; with thin knife, cut a slit in each puff. Return to oven for 10 minutes, then cool completely on rack.

In bowl whip cream to form soft peaks; sweeten with sugar to taste and flavor with vanilla. To assemble, halve puffs horizontally with serrated knife. Fill puffs with whipped cream and some of the strawberries.

Drizzle with fudge sauce, thinning with a little water, if needed. Cover with puff tops. Dust lightly with powdered sugar. Serve with remaining strawberries, and accompany with additional fudge sauce, if desired. Makes 6 servings.

Nutrition information per serving, made with whipped cream and prepared fudge sauce: 370 cal., 22 g fat, 150 mg chol., 300 mg sodium, 38 g carbo., 3 g fiber, 6 g pro.

Nutrition information per serving, made with instant vanilla pudding, nonfat milk and prepared light fudge sauce: 240 cal., 10 g fat, 80 mg chol., 310 mg sodium, 33 g carbo., 3 g fiber, 4 g pro.

Recipe from California Strawberry Commission.

Low-fat tomato sauce easy to prepare

AP — The following recipe for tomato sauce is a snap to prepare.

One serving of this sauce and your favorite pasta adds up to just 1½ grams of fat.

SUPER LOW-FAT TOMATO SAUCE

33 and ½-ounce can plum tomatoes, undrained
1 medium onion, peeled and diced (½ cup)
2 cloves garlic, finely chopped
2 teaspoons dried basil
1½ teaspoon crushed red pepper flakes
Salt to taste

Combine all ingredients in a 2-quart saucepan and heat to boiling. Reduce heat and simmer until the liquid is reduced by half, about 10 to 20 minutes.

In a food processor or blender, puree small quantities of the sauce to desired consistency, using three or four quick on-off motions for a chunky sauce, longer for a smoother sauce. Makes enough sauce for 1 pound of pasta.

Nutrition information per serving, including pasta: 221.3 cal. (6 percent calories from fat), 8.7 g pro., 46.3 g carbo., 1.6 g fat, 0 mg chol., 32.6 mg sodium.

Recipe from: The National Pasta Association.

Seafood, vegetable medley colorful

AP — Instead of a wok and special stir-frying utensils, all you need is a casserole and a measuring cup to cook up this colorful shrimp, scallop and vegetable medley.

Even better, the steam of microwave cooking prevents the wine sauce from sticking. Rice is nice, but for a change, serve this dish over hot cooked orzo (small rice-shaped pasta) or warmed chow mein noodles.

■ MICROWAVE

SEAFOOD VEGETABLE STIR-FRY

12 ounces fresh or frozen shrimp in shells or 10 ounces frozen, peeled and deveined shrimp
8 ounces fresh or frozen scallops
½ cup dry white wine
¼ cup water
4 teaspoons cornstarch
1 tablespoon white wine Worcestershire sauce
2 teaspoons instant chicken bouillon granules
¼ teaspoon pepper
2 cups sliced fresh mushrooms
1 medium sweet red or green pepper, cut into ½ inch pieces
½ cup sliced celery
¼ cup sliced green onion
1 clove garlic, minced
2 tablespoons olive oil or cooking oil
2 tablespoons snipped parsley
Hot cooked rice (optional)
Lemon wedges (optional)

Thaw shrimp and scallops, if frozen. If necessary, shell and devein shrimp. Set aside.

For cornstarch mixture, in a 2-cup glass measure combine wine, water, cornstarch, Worcestershire sauce, bouillon granules and pepper.

Cook, uncovered, on 100 percent power (high) for 1½ to 2 minutes or until thickened and bubbly, stirring after every minute. Set aside.

In a 2-quart microwave-safe casserole combine mushrooms, red pepper, celery, green onion, garlic and oil. Cook, covered, on high for 3 minutes. Add shrimp and scallops. Cook, covered, on high for 3 to 4 minutes or until scallops are opaque, stirring twice. Drain.

Stir cornstarch mixture. Stir into seafood mixture. Cook, uncovered, on high for 1 to 2 minutes or until hot, stirring after every 30 seconds. Sprinkle with parsley. If desired, serve over rice with lemon. Makes 4 servings.

Nutrition information per serving: 248 cal., 25 g pro., 11 g carbo., 9 g fat, 126 mg chol., 441 mg sodium.

MUSIC NOTES

CHRISTINA FUOCO

Marilyn Manson wanted to capture a live feel when they recorded their debut album so they took matters into their own hands — they mimicked a live show in the studio.

"I was singing with a mic and I took the mic stand and smashed it in the studio," said lead singer Mr. Manson.

The band, who will release its album in June, is set to bring its live show to the State Theatre in Detroit on Sunday, May 8, to open for Nine Inch Nails. (The show is sold out.)

NIN lead singer Trent Reznor produced the band's debut for his Nothing Records label so he's pretty confident that NIN fans will embrace Marilyn Manson, too.

"Nine Inch Nails fans will be interested in anything that Trent Reznor is involved in it."

Besides that, Mr. Manson said that he and Reznor have a lot in common. "Trent and I are (ticked) off for our own reasons." Reznor, he theorized, is "unsatisfied" with his current situation. He, on the other hand, is "basically comin' at the world with a shotgun, shooting everyone in my way."

As for the bizarre name, it's a combination of Marilyn Monroe and Charles Manson's names.

"People always need flashy names to get attention (in the entertainment industry). I'm making a mockery of that."

Collective Soul has had a whirlwind courtship with the music industry since it signed with Atlantic Records in early February. A snippet of their video for the single "Shine" shows up sandwiched between videos by Alice In Chains and Ice Cube in an MTV commercial.

"Shine" is also frequently played on alternative and rock stations while the album "Hints, Allegations & Things Left Unsaid" is selling more than 3,000 copies per week.

Now the band is in the midst of its first major headlining tour. That's not bad for a band that's officially been together for less than a year. Has the band's heads stopped spinning yet?

"It still is," said lead singer Ed Roland. "It hasn't slowed since."

The band will bring its hook-laden blues-inspired rock to The Ritz, 10½ and Gratiot, Roseville, on Friday, May 6. Call (810) 778-6404 for more information.

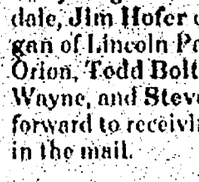
For trivia nuts, the phrase "Collective Soul" is how Ayn Rand describes mankind in her novel "The Fountainhead."

Congratulations to Shawn Grimes of Rochester Hills, who won two tickets to the Paw concert last Thursday at St. Andrew's Hall in Detroit. Kimberly Garrett of Westland, Tony Gagnon of Detroit, Sue Tollafield of Ferndale, Jim Hofer of Harper Woods, Tony Barragan of Lincoln Park, Cathy Sanchez of Lake Orion, Todd Bolton of Monroe, Mark Phillips of Wayne, and Steve Mohr of Westland, can look forward to receiving Paw CDs, posters and singles in the mail.

To leave a message for Christina Fuoco, dial (313) 953-2047, mailbox number 2130, on a Touch-Tone phone, or write her at 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia 48150.

STREET SOUNDS

McFly — Spanking Bozo



On their new album, "McFly," the Detroit based band Spanking Bozo use the same funky pop formula that made many bands rich.

Most of the album walks that familiar street looking for a different route to take and finding nothing new, but there are a few tracks that are welcome exceptions. "Wipe Off That Page" takes the funkiness to another wonderfully eccentric level. "J.B.I.A. (James Brown Is Alive)" is a response to the L.A. Style hit "James Brown Is Dead."

Proclaiming "Electronic disco music by genital-ive white boys from England is dead but . . . James Brown is alive," Spanking Bozo shows that the funk James Brown brought to the world is also alive.

Their only obstacle is that there has been so much done with funky pop music that it is difficult to carve a distinctive niche. "McFly" shows a band with the ability to take the funk to their own level once they find their space.

Harris, the Snakes? Charming

Mimi Harris has proven she's a musical storyteller, crafting songs filled with sublime imagery. She also has proven she can sing with power of Janis Joplin and the bluesy style od Bonnie Raitt.

BY MARK E. GALLO
SPECIAL WRITER

Smart move: Mimi Harris has landed a recording contract with Blues Factory Records with the help of The Snakes, and together, they'll record 10 original compositions later this year.

STREET BEATS

That Mimi Harris comes from a theatrical family seems obvious. There's an inherent sense of drama that threads its way through every song she sings, a sort of bare-boned theatricality.

A story teller of sublime imagery, she is one of the premier songwriters in the area, yet she is equally adept at bringing a musically astute, discerning and sympathetic voice to the songs of heroes and peers.

There is a fervor that informs every performance, and it's the direct result of that fever for the stage instilled in the Grand Rapids native as a child. A couple of years of honing her musical chops on local coffeehouse stages, when she was barely eligible for enrollment in high school, completed the one-two punch that sent her on her path.

There was never any doubt that Mimi Harris was meant to be a performer, and it was as a seasoned vet that she first hit the Detroit area music scene some 17 years ago. She's been a powerhouse presence ever since.

Although she was a staple early on at venerated venues like the Blind Pig and Mr. Flood's Party in Ann Arbor, there were also the bread-and-butter days of what she calls "the Dry Dock and Mountain Jack scene," as a "human juke box five or six nights a week." Those are the gigs that got her through the transitional times.

Such is the life of the singer/songwriter. In Harris' case, though, there came the revelation that a little electricity and a rockin' little combo had a much broader appeal.

The first band, an R&B outfit that she formed with the Rockets' John Fraga, was born in 1979 as Mimi & the Midniters. A couple of years later came the Intruders, with Jim McCarty of Mitch Ryder/Rockets/Detroit Blues Band fame.

Somewhere in the mid-1980s, she even sang with the Sun Messengers, an experience she calls valuable, if only for the opportunity to sing with a big band.

Through it all, her reputation grew steadily among a constantly growing legion of fans. Then, she took a couple of years off "to be a mom."

With the formation four years ago of the Snakes — Greg Calder (drums), Mike Marshall (bass), Bill Cooper (lead guitar) and the just added keyboards of Jimmy Bones — Harris has the kind of band every musician dreams about.

As intuitive as they are chops smart, they're the band that helped Mimi Harris land a recording contract with Blues Factory Records. Sometime this June or July, she and the band will record 10 original compositions for the label that's had so much to do with putting Detroit back on the musical map. She's already excitedly planning a CD release party for December.

Often compared to Janis Joplin (for her power) and Bonnie Raitt (for her slinky bluesy style), like any performer worth her royalty check, Mimi Harris rises above easy comparisons.

In the apples and oranges milieu that is the Detroit music scene, it may be beyond reason to call anyone the best at anything, but Mimi Harris is certainly in that category of one of the best reasons in town to actually get out there and experience the magic of live music.

Mimi Harris will play a rare solo show at the Disc Cafe in downtown Pontiac (333-2233) May 5.

SCREEN SCENE

A sampling of what's playing at alternative movie theaters across metro Detroit as reviewed by John Monaghan.

■ DETROIT FILM THEATER
Detroit Institute of Arts, 5200 Woodward Ave., Detroit. Call (313) 833-2323 for information ($5)

"Thirty-Two Short Films by Glenn Gould" (Canada — 1993), 7 and 9:30 p.m. May 6-7; 4 and 7 p.m. May 8. Colm Feore stars in this acclaimed Canadian portrait of pianist Glenn Gould, whose extraordinary life is captured in 32 cleverly executed vignettes.

■ MAGIC BAG THEATER
22918 Woodward, Ferndale. Call (810) 544-3030 for information ($5)

"Return of the Three Stooges," 7:30 p.m. May 5-7. Five classic shorts from Larry, Moe and Curly. Among the titles: "Higher Than a Kite," "Pop Goes the Easel" and "They Stooge to Conga," often called the most violent Stooge short. Also included a repeat performance of the Max Fleischer cartoon, "Koko's Earth Control."

■ MAIN ART THEATER
118 N. Main St. at 11 Mile Road, Royal Oak. Films play through at least Thursday. Call (810) 542-0180 for information and show times. ($6.50; $4 students; $3 twilight matinee)

"Bitter Moon" (Britain — 1994). The long-awaited new film from director Roman Polanski stars Hugh Grant as part of two couples who meet on a cruise and discuss the most intimate details of their lives.

"Back Beat" (Britain — 1994). Stu Sutcliffe used to be just a bit of Beatles trivia: the guy that decided to leave the band early on. He gets his due in this new film about the early, early years of the band.

"Four Weddings and a Funeral" (Britain — 1994). From Mike Newell, the director of "Enchanted April," an engaging story about a confirmed bachelor who runs across the same woman at the numerous weddings he attends. Hugh Grant and Andie MacDowell star.

■ MAPLE THEATER
4135 W. Maple Road, Bloomfield. Films play through at least Thursday. Call (810) 855-9090 for information. ($5.75; $3.95 matinee; $2.95 twilight)

"Belle Epoque" (Spain — 1992). In this year's Oscar winner for best foreign film, a young army deserter tests the limits of his friend's liberal philosophy by pursuing each of the old man's beautiful daughters.

"Sirens" (Britain — 1994). John Duigan's "Flirting" directs this story of a young Englishwoman's sexual awakening when she visits the eccentric and bohemian household of a controversial painter. Sam Neill, Tara Fitzgerald and Hugh Grant star.

"Four Weddings and a Funeral." (See Main Art Theatre listing above.)

■ STATE THEATER
2115 Woodward Ave., Detroit. Call (313) 961-5450. ($1)

"The Fugitive" (USA — 1993), 9 p.m. May 2. Innocent man on the run Harrison Ford continues to evade the authorities in last year's action hit.

Stu gets his due in new Beatle film

BY JOHN MONAGHAN
STAFF WRITER

■ MOVIES

Up until now, Stu Sutcliffe was just a piece of pop music trivia. He was the "fifth Beatle" who helped launch the band but then chucked it all for an art career and a relationship with a German photographer. He died from a brain hemorrhage even before the band invaded the States.

Stu gets his due in "Back Beat," a clever new chronicle of the Beatles early days performing in seedy clubs in Hamburg. Full of great music and finely modulated performances, it may well be the best dramatic account of the band yet put on film.

Although John Lennon and Paul McCartney are best known for their prolific collaborations in the '60s, the film shows Lennon and Sutcliffe as the heart of the Beatles. McCartney and George Harrison stay pretty much in the background. Original drummer Pete Best (soon replaced by Ringo Starr) barely speaks a word.

The most vivid scenes occur in the Hamburg club where the boys are given their first break. As a house band in between strippers, they are a far cry from the adulation that came later, when you could barely hear the music over the screams of young female fans.

Here are the Beatles cutting their musical teeth on rock'n'roll standards like "Kansas City," "Twist and Shout" and even "Love Me Tender." You can see the evolution of lead singer Lennon, who tentatively introduces the cuts with caustic remarks and whose vocal range becomes harsher and grittier from constant use.

In "Back Beat," the lead actors weren't picked for their exact resemblance to the Beatles, but they successfully capture the essence of the group.

It's Ian Hart's performance as the acerbic Lennon that really stands out. He has all the qualities we expect: the biting wit, the difficult personality, the explosive temper and the drive to get to the top of the pops.

Lennon's alleged bi-sexuality also comes into play, but subtly and far from exploitative. His passionate bond with Sutcliffe (Stephen Dorff) is both convincing and touching as Lennon tries to keep his friend in the band despite his interests elsewhere.

You want to slap Sutcliffe for not taking the Beatles more seriously, but you also see his passion for modern art and Astrid Kirchherr (Sheryl Lee), a beautiful, talented photographer who introduces him to the mod, mod world of German bohemia.

The movie, on screen exclusively at the Main Art Theatre in Royal Oak, captures the other band members' unflinching belief in themselves. They will make it big someday, despite playing what seems like eight days a week in German dives.

Just being away from home is an adventure for the boys from Liverpool, who aren't even out of their teens. George (played here by Chris O'Neill) wasn't even 18 when he left for Hamburg, a technicality that eventually got the band deported.

Former Detroiter Don Was produced a soundtrack that both replicates the early Beatles sound and adds something new and almost inexplicable. He has assembled some of modern rock's most respected musicians (R.E.M.'s Mike Mills, Afghan Whigs' Greg Dulli) for the live tracks, which stand as a worthwhile recording even outside of the film.

If you have a comment for John Monaghan, call him at 953-2047, mailbox 1866, on a Touch-Tone phone, or write to him care of Street Scene, Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia, MI 48150.

Request for magazine draws more comments

STREET SENSE

BARBARA SCHIFF

Barbara:

I strongly disagree with the mothers who responded to their son's requests for "Playboy" by buying the magazine for them and then even going so far that they read them together with their sons. As you said, we don't know all the answers yet, and what is right for one family may not be right for another, but in my home pornography is in bad taste. Buying it for one's son is, at the least, very poor manners.

I agree that many teenage boys want to look at pornographic pictures. For them, it is age-appropriate behavior. But when parents show approval for this behavior they are denying their children an adult role model, a person who knows the difference between wrong and right.

When I was confronted with the same problem, I wanted my son to know that I disapproved. To me, it was better for him to sneak to read pornography than it was for me to imply my approval by allowing him to do it at home. I wanted him to feel guilty, and to know that I disapproved.

Parents who give away their authority are cheating their children from having an ideal they can look up to. All of this is enough reason not to, and there is much more, not the least of which is that sex is private.

Barbara:

I'm responding to your column where someone wrote in about pornography. I think this parent's intentions are very misguided, however, good. I do not believe that you need visual aids, such as the ones she described. I feel that she's giving her child mixed messages, that even though she doesn't approve of this material, she will let him have it as long as he locks it up.

I think that a parent can have frank discussions with a child about this type of material without the help of visual aids. I feel that in a home where you do not approve of it, that type of material should not be allowed. A child will be exposed in his own good time, I suppose, but she can certainly warn him about that material, talk to him about it, and tell him that as a family they do not approve.

I think this woman should not be commended for her good intentions, and I think her husband shirked his duty because he was too afraid to discuss it, so he said it was OK for his wife. I don't feel that this was a combined effort between these parents and I feel that it was very inappropriate.

Dear Callers,

Thank you for your astute comments on this difficult problem. As I replied to a recent letter with the same theme, I understand your criticism of my guarded response to the caller who bought her son "Hustler," "Penthouse" and "Playboy," and also rented an X-rated movie for him.

I am truly delighted that they called and wrote, and that those of you who do not agree with them also shared your opinions. All of this correspondence was prompted by the mother who asked for advice on getting her 11-year-old son a subscription to "Playboy." She called this week to say her son has forgotten the subject. She will not get him a subscription.

Another call came this week from a mother who comments that if her son requests pornography when he gets older she will take him to the art museum to see beautiful, not exploitive, pictures of love. In this way, she hopes to instill in him respect for himself and others.

DePaul signs MacKinnon

Livonia Stevenson track and cross country standout Bridget MacKinnon will become a DePaul University (Ill.) Blue Demon after signing a national letter-of-intent on April 23.

"I like the school's mission statement, which is serve other people," said MacKinnon, an honor student who plans to study languages (French and Spanish). "I also liked Miami of Ohio, but DePaul gave me a very generous offer. The scholarship money helped."

Last fall, MacKinnon finished third in the 3,000-meter state Class A individual cross country race with a time of 19:01.

This season, MacKinnon clocked an 11:25.5 in the 3,200 run at the Lady Chief Relays..

Livonian wins 10K

Susan Tatigian won the 10-kilometer race April 24 at the 17th annual Briarwood Run in Ann Arbor.

Tatigian's first-place time was 38:08. She was the Briarwood Run 20K winner in 1992 and finished second in the 10K in 1991.

Livonian Bridget MacKinnon was third in 39:40.

Rochester's Laura Murphy took the 20K event in 1:17:30.

Watt at USGF Juniors

Erin McWatt, an eighth-grade honor student at Holmes Middle School in Livonia, will be among 14 Level 10 competitors who will represent Region 5 in the U.S. Gymnastics Federation Junior Nationals in Allentown, Pa.

McWatt

McWatt, who trains under coaches Jack Evanoff, along with Claudia and Ed Kretschmer at Gym America in Ann Arbor, placed ninth over all in Region 5 competition April 16-17 at Michigan State Univeristy.

She posted with an all-around total of 36.075 after posting scores of 9.125 (vault), 9.2 (bars), 8.675 (beam) and 9.075 (floor).

McWatt will attend Stevenson High next fall.

Chippewas sign pair

Two All-Observer players recently signed national letters-of-intent to play men's soccer for Central Michigan University.

Coach Rick Trainor has added seven recruits, including Livonia Franklin striker Victor Rodopolous, who scored 51 career goals and added 24 assists.

Rodopolous will join Livonia Stevenson midfielder Chris Grodzicki, who helped the Spartans reach the state Class A final. He was also a member of Stevenson's 1991 state championship team along with brother Matt, who also attends CMU.

The Chippewas are coming off a 2-11 season.

"I was real impressed with their recruiting class," said Grodzicki, who also considered walking on at Miami of Ohio. "They're bringing in seven All-State caliber players. It's a good group of recruits."

Other signees include Tom Grasso and Steve Phelps, both of Grand Blanc; Ken Perlin of state Class A champion Warren DeLaSalle; Ryan Maxey, Brighton; and Rob Roney, Swartz Creek.

'78 Wolves victorious

Going undefeated in four games (April 23-24), the Michigan Wolves '78 boys soccer team captured the eighth annual Johnson City, Tenn. Tournament.

The Wolves '78, coached by Bill Friend and Bob Neumann, outscored opponents from Tennessee, North Carolina and West Virgina by a combined total of 23-5.

Whispering Willows aces

A pair of hole-in-ones were carded April 26 at Whispering Willows Golf Course in Livonia.

- Bud Lehman, 71, of Livonia, used a 5-iron to ace the 144-yard, No. 17 hole.
- Bill Korol, 27, also of Livonia, used a 3-wood to ace the 213-yard, No. 15 hold.

Cage assistant wanted

Madonna University is seeking a men's assistant basketball coach.

Those interested should send a resume to: Etta Barbee, Department of Athletics, Madonna University, 36600 Schoolcraft Road, Livonia, MI 48150-1173.

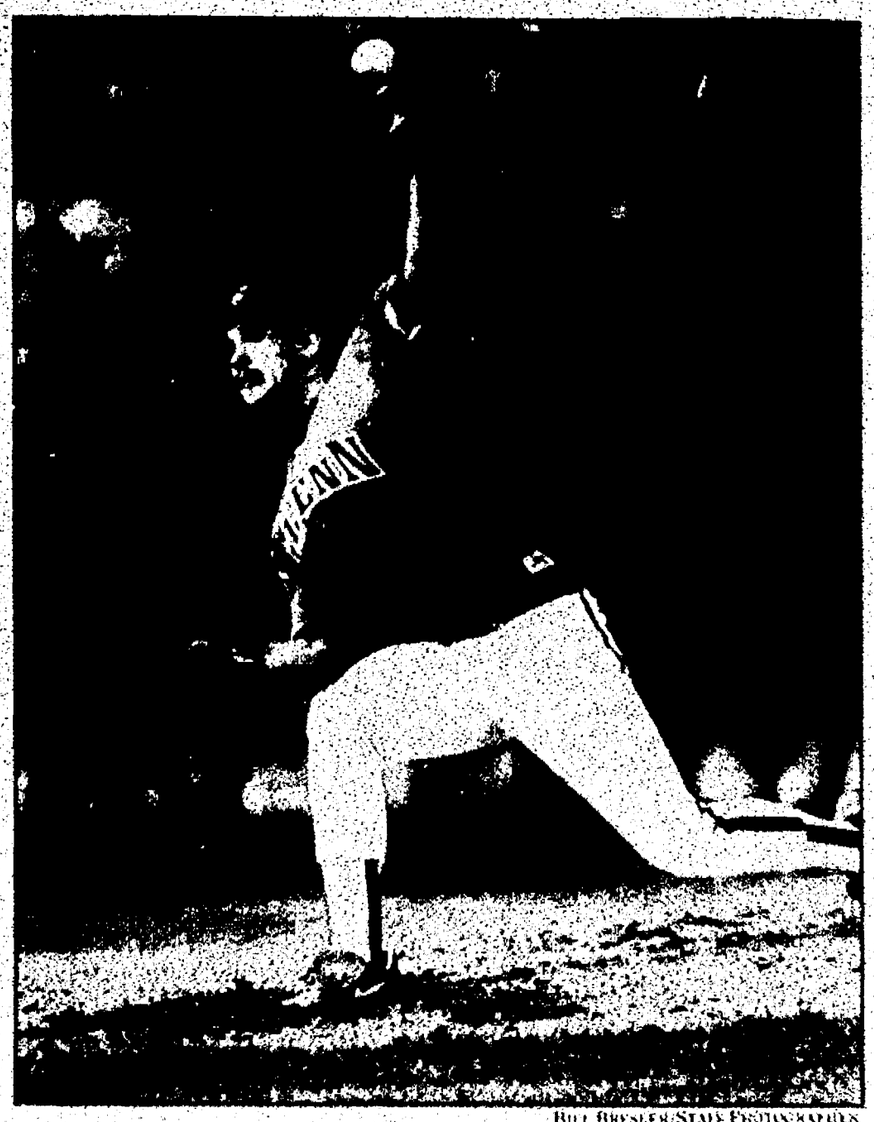
Gymnastics tryouts

The Livonia YMCA Twisters competitive gymnastics team will be holding open tryouts (levels 5-8) from 1-3:30 p.m. Saturday at the Livonia Y.

For more information, or to preregister, call 261-2161.

Rockets lost in space, 3-1

Two of Observerland's top baseball teams met in an early season showdown. Plymouth Salem, the 1991 state Class A champs, defeated '92 and '93 state semi-finalist Westland John Glenn in a pitchers' duel, 3-1.



BILL BRESLER/STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

Mound duty: Westland John Glenn's Bryan Besco pitched well enough to win, allowing only four hits.

BY BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

The state finals are still six weeks off, but the way the Plymouth Salem baseball team celebrated its 3-1 win Friday at Westland John Glenn, it might as well have been the World Series.

Hats and gloves filled the air, as Salem's Mike Marsella certainly had the look of Mr. April. The senior right-hander out dueled Glenn ace Bryan Besco in a battle of Lakes Division leaders in the Western Lakes Activities Association.

"Emotion just took over," said Marsella, who scattered four hits and only one walk over seven innings against the powerful Rockets. "I was not thinking about it, just pitching. I had lost my last two decisions against Glenn. I lost to them in the regional finals last year. All I was thinking was 'I just want to win.'"

Salem is now 9-4 overall and 3-0 in the Lakes.

"This puts us in the driver's seat now in our division," Salem coach John Gravlin said. "The kids know that you don't win anything until you get by John Glenn. This is a huge step."

Glenn, which dropped its second straight, fell to 7-3 overall and 2-1 in the division. The Rockets have dropped three of six since being ranked No. 21 in the nation by USA Today.

Besco, the senior left-hander bound for Michigan, certainly had the attention of the four major league scouts in attendance, particularly over the first five innings.

He clubbed a wind-blown triple to center field in the first, but was left stranded on third when twin brother Derek Besco, relegated to designated hitter status because of a sore back, was fanned by Marsella to end the inning.

Bryan Besco, meanwhile, mowed down 15 of the first 16 batters he faced, including seven strikeouts. The only runner to reach base was eventual game hero Dave Knight, who singled up the middle in the fourth.

Marsella's only glaring mistake came in the fourth when Bryan Besco ripped a shot over the right field fence for a 1-0 Glenn advantage.

"The home run was my mistake," Gravlin said. "I call all the pitches and that was supposed by be a split-finger, but it was a breaking ball.

"But he didn't let the home run bother him."

The Salem pitcher got himself out of a pickle in the fifth after back-to-back singles by Jamie Hagelthorn and Brian Morrison.

Matt Howton popped out and Marsella fanned Jeromey Cosby to end the threat.

In the top of the sixth, Salem's Billy Styles hit a liner to right, but Hagelthorn was handcuffed by the sun, the ball glancing off his chest.

With Styles reaching second on the error, Sam LaGrow followed with a bunt single.

Styles scored to make it 1-1 on Kaz Kurisu's soft chopper that Morrison couldn't handle at third.

Matt Abbott then bunted the runners over and Knight followed with a clutch two-run single to right, scoring two runs.

Marsella, who is leaning toward Henry Ford Community College, then closed the book on Glenn for the victory, retiring six of the next seven batters he faced. He allowed only a lead-off walk to Mike Bint in the seventh.

"Salem seemed to get confidence after that fly ball (by Styles)," Glenn coach Norm Hoenes said. "That's a tough place to play because there is a lot of sun.

"Give them credit. We gave them a crack in the door and it gave them confidence. They're always well prepared and they have good athletes. What's bad is that we wasted a good pitching performance. They made all the plays and that was the difference."

Marsella, who struck out six, was never better, according to Gravlin.

"He had all the right stuff, all the levers pulled," the Salem coach said. "He had a no-hitter in the district last year, but this was his best game by far."

Madonna slugger 'in a zone'

BY BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

Madonna University left fielder Craig Overaitis is a throwback to the old days of baseball.

He's part Hack Wilson. Part Babe Ruth. Lots of RBI. Lots of home runs.

In contemporary times he resembles the stubby and lovable first baseman of the Philadelphia Phillies: John Kruk.

"I just love his style of play; we call him 'Baby (John) Kruk,'" Madonna coach Mike George said. "He plays the game the same way. He's hard-nosed. He doesn't look like he should be a player when you look at him. You wouldn't say he's in the best of shape. He's very unassuming.

"But he never quits. He runs out every ball."

The senior from Livonia Franklin, who bats from the left side, packs a surprising wallop in his 5-foot-10, 187-pound frame.

During one stretch (April 18-24), the senior batted .410 (16 for 39) with seven homers and 18 RBI. He scored 15 runs, had three doubles and a triple.

It was enough to be named District 23 Player of the Week — as well as the top player in the country during the same period, by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

"I was just seeing the ball better and I became more confident at the plate," Overaitis said. "I was spraying the ball a lot and I was turning on the inside pitches."

Overaitis is a good bet to surpass Ernie Bowling's school RBI record of 52.

As of April 28, Overaitis had 11 homers, only five shy of Bowling's season mark of 16. His batting average is hovering around .360.

"Craig got off somewhat to a slow start, but ever since he's been on fire," George said. "He uses the whole ballpark. Three of his home runs came on the road in straightaway center field.

"When Craig gets hot, he can carry a ballclub. And he hits in the clutch, too. He proved that when he went to Johnstown (Pa.) a couple of years ago."

Playing for Walter's Appliance of the Livonia Collegiate Baseball League in 1992, Overaitis hit a dramatic two-out, three-run homer in the bottom of the ninth to beat New Orleans, 8-7, in the semifinals of the prestigious All-American Amateur Baseball Association Tournament.

Overaitis not only does the job at the plate, but has also put a smile on George's face with his play in left with only one error.

"He's an excellent outfielder," said the Madonna coach. "Originally the plan was to play T.C. Raptis (now at second base) in left and use Craig as the designated hitter. But Craig never gave us a reason to move him out because he makes all the plays. He doesn't have the greatest arm, but he's solid defensively."

Craig Overaitis

Overaitis is also one of the team's top hunters and occasionally steals a base.

"He does our delayed steal play better than anybody," George said.

Extra innings

Warriors go 11 for 9-8 triumph

Jenny Brauer's single in the 11th inning Friday scored Erin Cicero as visiting Lutheran Westland defeated Lutheran Northwest, 9-8, in a Metro Conference softball game.

The Warriors, 6-4 overall and 2-1 in the Metro, forced extra innings when Jenny Pruchnik drove in Christie Snell with a two-out single in the top of the seventh.

Amy Gontz worked the entire 11 innings to record the win. She scattered 10 hits, struck out three and walked two. Only five of the runs against were earned.

Trailing 3-0, the Warriors exploded for seven runs in the fifth inning. The key hits were two-run singles by Snell and Dena Purdy.

Pruchnik, Snell and Purdy had two hits apiece.

■ CLARENCEVILLE 21, LUTHERAN EAST 18: Wendy Roy crushed a pair of three run homers Friday, lifting Livonia Clarenceville to its first victory in the Metro Conference.

Roy had two hits and walked four times while collecting seven RBI. Stacy Bishop-Hick maintained her hot hitting, going 5 for 6 with three RBI for the Trojans (2-4 overall, 1-2 Metro), who racked up 29 hits.

Sherry Schuster and Chris Nunnery each collected three hits and two RBI.

Roy earned the victory, allowing eight hits, striking out eight and walking 17.

"It was a nice hitting game for us, but we're still walking too many," Clarenceville coach Wendy Kelleher said.

On Wednesday, the Trojans lost in eight innings to visiting Rochester Hills Lutheran Northwest 11-8.

Northwest scored four unearned runs off Roy in the top of the eighth. Roy took the loss despite striking out 17 and walking 13. Bishop-Hick was 4-for-6 with two RBI.

■ CHURCHILL 8, HARRISON 3: Livonia Churchill stayed atop the Western Division of the Western Lakes Activities Association with a victory Friday at Farmington Hills Harrison.

All five Churchill runs were unearned, and it was more than enough for Karen Jess, who struck out 10 and walked none, while surrendering four hits. Jess also knocked in two runs in the third inning with a double.

Jessie Jenkins added two hits for the Chargers (3-0 in the division, 9-2 overall). Churchill trailed until taking the lead with two runs in the fifth inning.

Erin LaVeere took the loss for the Hawks (0-3 overall, 1-3 Western Division) despite striking out seven, walking only one and allowing five hits.

■ SALEM 13, JOHN GLENN 2: Plymouth Salem hurler Deidre Rickayk may not be the fastest pitcher around, but she kept the Westland John Glenn batters off balance Friday.

Rickayk struck out four, walked two and allowed five hits. Kara Iost paced the seven hit Salem attack with two hits and an RBI.

Lynn Little took the loss for the Rockets (1-2 in the Lakes Division and 6-5 overall).

■ CANTON 9, FRANKLIN 5: Plymouth Canton rallied from a 5-2 deficit Friday to score five runs in the fifth inning and pull away from host Livonia Franklin (3-9, 0-3) in a WLAA Western Division game.

Amy Price, Kerri Jackson and Heather Schafer had two hits each for the Chiefs (6-5, 2-1).

Freshman shortstop Nicole Covacevich knocked in three runs, including hitting a home run.

Jackie Nitardi gave up only three Franklin hits while striking out six and walking 10. Becky Janssen took the loss for the Patriots as she struck out seven, walked four and surrendered 10 Canton hits.

■ CHURCHILL 2, JOHN GLENN 0: On Wednesday, Karen Jess allowed Westland John Glenn Wednesday as the Chargers blanked the visiting Rockets.

Jess scattered three hits, struck out seven and walked two.

Glenn's Lynn Little took the loss, despite holding the Chargers to four hits. She struck out four and walked two.

Both of Churchill's runs were scored with the help of infield errors. In the second, Carla Kaczeb doubled and later scored on an infield error.

In the fourth, Melissa Sechrist singled and eventually scored another infield error.

The Chargers' defense spoiled any of Glenn's hopes of scoring.

■ SOFTBALL

Tri-State falls to Crusaders

The winning continues for the Madonna University softball team.

A pair of mercy-rule shortened victories at Tri-State Wednesday — 10-2, 8-0 — made it 16 wins in the last 18 games for the Crusaders. The team is now 28-6 overall, 9-1 in District 23 play.

■ COLLEGES

"We are playing our best ball of the season right now," said Coach Jerry Abraham.

Dawn Terrasi (22-5) pitched both victories. She allowed one earned run on seven hits in six innings in the first game; no runs, three hits in five innings in the second. She struck out 15 and walked only one on the day.

The Crusaders had 23 hits in the two games. Mo Paulin had four hits and four RBI, Mandy Armstrong had four hits, Michele Birchmeier had four hits and two RBI, Jennifer Czech, Holly Jendro and Jeanie Baxter each had three hits on the day.

New WIBC inductee Mohacsi elated

TEN-PIN ALLEY

AL HARRISON

Livonia's own Mary Mohacsi was inducted into the WIBC National Hall of Fame at Salt Lake City in ceremonies that took place at the Delta Center during the WIBC convention.

Mary was one of three selected for "superior performance" and is only the 10th from the Detroit area to be honored. The last was Dora Knechtel in 1988.

Other Hall of Famers present at the ceremony, which took place in front of 4,000 delegates from all over the U.S., were Anita Cantaline, Elvira Doepler and Marion Ladewig from Michigan.

Mohacsi was accompanied on the trip by her husband, Ted, and daughter, Sandi. Mary received a Hall of Fame medallion and a copy of her portrait which will hang in the Bowling Hall of Fame in St. Louis.

She earned her place in the Hall of Fame through her many accomplishments on the lanes in local, national and international competition.

Mary has also received a lot of previous recognition, having been named to the Greater Detroit Hall of Fame (1978), the Michigan Women's Hall of Fame in 1978 and the Michigan Amateur Sports Hall of Fame.

That's FOUR — count 'em — halls of fame based on 30-plus great years of superior performance on the bowling scene, during which time she averaged between 190 and 200.

"Oh, what a moment this is," Mohacsi said during the induction. "This is the greatest bowling achievement in my life."

To elaborate on her many accomplishments would take more space than this column will allow, however, Mary Mohacsi has the distinction of having earned the honor of "Queen" of Detroit Women Bowlers 10 times. That's a record and one that might never be broken. Mary and son, Mark, operate "The Right Approach" bowling pro shops located in Merri Bowl and Taylor Lanes.

Churchill stuns Glenn

BASEBALL

Perhaps it wasn't as big of an upset as the United States hockey team beating the Soviet Union in the 1980 Olympics, but it was close.

Livonia Churchill pulled a major upset Wednesday as it knocked off previously nationally ranked Westland John Glenn, 4-2, at Glenn.

It was Churchill's first win of the season.

After four consecutive losses, the Chargers appeared to be headed for their fifth straight defeat before erupting all their runs in their final two at-bats.

The big hit was a one-out double by Bob Szopko, who drove in Eric Godlewski and Brad Grayson.

Leading 3-2 in the seventh, Churchill added an insurance run when Ron Blackmore scored on a fielder's choice. Bill Morris added two hits for the Chargers.

Junior Mike Tomassi, starting for the first time this season, held the mighty Rockets to just two hits, as he struck out four and walked one.

"It was the first opportunity we had to start him, and it worked out well," Churchill coach Herb Osterland said. "He's a control pitcher and he kept the ball down and on the corners. He threw strikes. He'll be one of the kids we'll depend on."

Both of Glenn's runs were aided by Churchill errors. Bryan Besco's single in the third scored the game's first run.

Glenn (7-3) wasted a fine performance by Brian Morrison, who went the distance and struck out seven without a walk.

The momentum carried over to Friday as the Chargers beat Farmington Harrison 8-6, despite being outhit 10-6.

Blackmore was credited with the win as he struck out 11 and walked three. Jake Lawson lasted the first 3⅓ innings to take the loss.

Bruce Bentley had a two-run double for Churchill, which also received two hits and two runs scored from Vince DeMarco.

■ WL. CENTRAL 8, STEVENSON 5: On Friday, a five-run fifth inning powered visiting Walled Lake Central to victory.

Andy Dimillo took the hard luck loss for the Spartans (5-5 overall, 1-2 in the WLAA Lakes).

Buster Clark, Churchill's next 3 (2-4 with three RBI — two on a third inning double), Brad Morgan was 2-3 with one RBI.

Morgan was the loser Wednesday as the Rockets' lefthander stymied visiting Walled Lake Western on four hits as the Stevenson prevailed, 2-1.

The Stevenson senior had his fastball working as he struck out 11 and walked five. At the plate, Morgan knocked in three runs. Chris Kondziolka added two hits and two RBI, including a first inning triple which opened the scoring.

■ FRANKLIN 3, CANTON 2: It took 10 innings Friday, but Livonia Franklin finally edged host Plymouth Canton, 3-2, to move into a first place tie with the Chiefs in the Western Division of the WLAA.

The Patriots (7-1 overall and 2-1 division) scratched out the winning run in the top of the 10th. Dennis Madden singled and stole second. Mike Anbuchon, who had three of Franklin's five hits, walked. Then, in a daring move, the two executed a double steal.

"It was a hit and run," Kanoub said. "We weren't hitting, so I felt like we had to make something happen. Turns out, the ball wasn't hit and we stole the bases anyway."

Rod Risner's grounder to a drawn-in infield scored Madden.

Franklin starter Brian Crumley (4-1) pitched nine strong innings for the win. Anbuchon came on to get the final three outs for the save.

Canton (7-4 overall and 2-1 division) loaded the bases with one out in the eighth and couldn't score. The Chiefs also enabled the Pats to tie the game in the fifth. Both runs scored on overthrown or bunted balls.

On Wednesday, Franklin blew a 7-3 lead and lost to Walled Lake Central, 8-7. Three errors in the bottom of the seventh inning doomed the Patriots.

Jason Schnierer provided Franklin's highlight as he ripped a three-run homer.

■ WAYNE 8, MONROE 6: Wayne broke its two-game conference losing streak Friday with a 6-4 victory against the host Trojans.

Scott Wetmore fanned the first six batters to get the win. Shannon Green relieved Wetmore in the seventh as Monroe started to rally, and retired the final three batters and earn the save.

The decisive run was scored on an Aaron Capone single in the seventh. It was his second RBI of the game.

Green and Jason Overton each hit homers and went 2-for-4. Green drove in a total of three runs. Phil Sisco and Steve Duchala had two hits apiece for the Zebras (5-5 overall and 4-2 in the Mega Red).

On Wednesday, Wayne lost to Southgate 8-1 as poor defense hurt the Zebras. Lincoln Park beat Wayne 5-3 on Monday, despite Sisco, Overton and Clark Boston collecting two hits apiece.

■ LUTH. WESTLAND 10, LUTHERAN WEST 3: John Reardon made his first start of the season Friday and the result was the first Metro Conference win for the Warriors.

Reardon scattered seven hits while striking out five and walking five, as Westland improved to 3-2 overall and 1-2 in the league.

Steve Yaich gained the victory hit attack going 3-for-4 with three RBI, including a two-run single in a four-run third inning. Andy Marshall and Jason Bratgalla collected two hits each.

Bratgalla opened the scoring with an RBI single in the first and Reardon knocked in the Warriors' final two runs with a single in the sixth.

"John threw the ball well today," Westland coach Marty Moss said. "His fastball and curveball were both working. He had a little trouble with his control at first, walking a few batters in the first inning, but settled down after that."

"He's got about eight or nine this year just because he's so smart."

At Franklin, Overaitis stood out in baseball, basketball and soccer.

After graduating from high school, Overaitis played two years under Stu Rose at Henry Ford Community College before moving to Madonna, where his father, Joe, is employed.

A sociology major, Overaitis is becoming serious about academics.

His younger sister, Tara, an All-State basketball player who recently transferred from Livonia Ladywood to Dearborn Divine Child, is a 4.0 student who has become a model for achievement.

"It's tough trying to keep up with her, but I think because of my age, I finally grew up," Craig said. "I had to get more involved. Once I graduate (sometime next year) I want to find something in my field, and I'd like to coach, too."

With his final season winding down and Madonna (36-13 overall) vying for first place in District 23, Overaitis is savoring every moment of his collegiate career.

He's dedicated the season to his grandfather, Alexander Kaczmarczyk, who is recovering from a stroke.

"He comes to the games, but he has to sit in the car," Overaitis said. "He just loves the game. I'm on a mission because of him."

The outfielder, however, cautions that he may not enjoy another stretch like the one he had when he was chosen national player of the week.

"I don't think that would happen again," Overaitis said. "I just hope I can continue to help the team. As long as we keep winning, I'll be happy.

"It will be sad to see it end. I'll miss it a lot because I like the camaraderie."

George said the loss will leave a void.

"Craig's not a rah-rah type guy, but he knows when to shake things up in the dugout," the Madonna coach said. "I don't know anybody on our team who dislikes 'Ove,' but when he puts on the uniform, he hates to lose. Just like the rest of our seniors."

■ CLARENCEVILLE 4, LUTHERAN EAST 3: Mark Juncaj retires the final six batters Friday — four on strikeouts — as the host Trojans beat East of Harper Woods.

Juncaj (1-3) scattered seven hits, while striking out 10 and walking only one. His only mistake was a three-run homer to Gary Tucker in the third inning.

Kyle McSorley had half of Clarenceville's hits as he went 3-for-4 with two RBI. Ali Nehmeh added one hit and knocked in a run for the Trojans (4-6 overall and 2-2 in the Metro Conference).

On Wednesday, Clarenceville blew a 5-1 lead to en route to a 6-5 loss at Rochester Hills Lutheran Northeast. The winning run was scored on a bases loaded walk in the seventh inning.

Bryan DeCaire, Ray Kastl and McSorley each had two hits. Steve Parker (2-3) took the loss.

■ REDFORD CC 10-7, DELASALLE 8-5: Ken Marzec hit a grand slam Wednesday, helping Redford Catholic Central split a doubleheader against host Warren DeLaSalle.

Spartans bounce Huron

SOCCER

At the 38 minute mark of the opening half of Wednesday's non-league game at Ann Arbor Huron, state-ranked Livonia Stevenson found itself in a strange position — trailing 1-0.

Huron opened the scoring with just over two minutes remaining in the first half. It didn't take long for the Spartans to wake up as less than a half minute later, Laura Pedrigo fed Katie Downsewicz who found the back of the Huron net to tie the score.

Not long into the second half, Pedrigo put Stevenson ahead for keeps. Her 15th goal of the year just minutes later gave the Spartans a two-goal cushion.

Holly Kimble concluded the scoring for Stevenson, which improved to 8-0 overall. Anne Pedrigo notched two assists.

Role Khoury and Cheryl Baer split time in the nets for the Spartans, who held a 20-8 shooting advantage.

■ FRANKLIN 2, PLY. SALEM 2: Livonia Franklin (5-3) came away with a point in the second half Wednesday, as the Patriots tied the Plymouth Rocks.

Alicia Marrone and Colleen Kirby each scored a first half goal to stake the Rocks to a 2-0 lead. Plymouth Salem and Dana Rathbun added insurance.

"We should have had more," Salem coach Ron Schwartz said. "We had the wind at our backs and we just couldn't score and put it away."

Franklin tied the game in the second half on goals by Elke Hellmann and Sarah Quellette. Heather Ryder and Becky McDougall picked up assists for Franklin (3-3-2 overall).

■ BISHOP GALLA 6, LADYWOOD 1: Kelli Gallagher's unassisted goal in the first half was the only highlight Thursday for host Ladywood-Harper Woods, as the Pilots (1-4-2 overall) fell to Madonna Heights Bishop Galla, the defending Class B state champion.

On Wednesday, Clarenceville blew a 5-1 lead to en route to a 6-5 loss at Rochester Hills Lutheran Northeast. The winning run was scored on a bases loaded walk in the seventh inning.

Bryan DeCaire, Ray Kastl and McSorley each had two hits. Steve Parker (2-3) took the loss.

■ REDFORD CC 10-7, DELASALLE 8-5: Ken Marzec hit a grand slam Wednesday, helping Redford Catholic Central split a doubleheader against host Warren DeLaSalle.

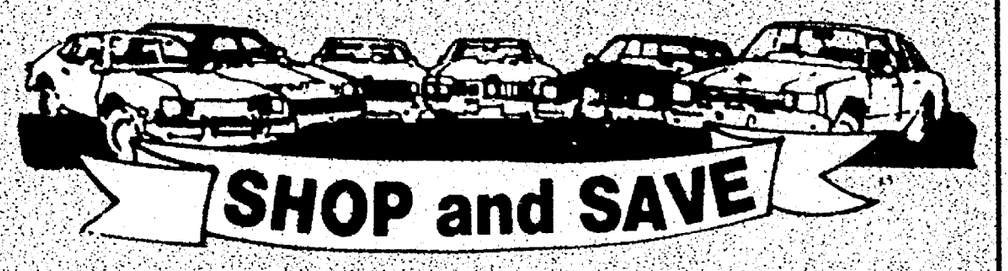
USED CARS AND TRUCKS MONDAY MARKETPLACE



Buying a Used Car Can Be Risky.

Blackwell Ford can help minimize the risk you take when purchasing a used vehicle. Every used vehicle sold by Blackwell Ford undergoes extensive reconditioning and safety inspection before it is offered for sale. If the vehicle does not meet our high standards, it will never be displayed on our lot. In the unlikely event that something does go wrong with your vehicle during the first 30 days or 2,000 miles, whichever occurs first, we will stand behind it 100% and repair it free of charge. It's that simple. We offer new car peace of mind with your used vehicle purchase. Stop in today to see our large selection of quality used vehicles, all priced to sell. And please remember...

Simple, honest, straightforward. How else would you expect to lease a Saturn?

By now, you've probably heard about the Saturn buying experience. No hassles, no pressure, no fuss, just common courtesy, along with a pretty great car.

Well, the way we see it, your experience shouldn't be any different if you want to lease a Saturn. After all, what could we possibly gain by making things any less straightforward than they have to be?

Mon., Thurs. 7:30-9:00
Tues., Wed., Fri. 7:30-6:00
Saturday 10:00-4:00
