Spirited pregame events have CC Boys Bowled over

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN
SPECIAL WRITER

Electricity charged the air at last Friday's pregame activities to kick off the game of the year, otherwise known as the Boys Bowl, between rivals Catholic Central and Birmingham Brother Rice.

The Boys Bowl tradition began in 1944 when Father Flanagan of Boys Town brought his football team from Nebraska to play Detroit Catholic Central in Briggs Stadium at the corner of Trumbull and Michigan Avenue.

The prelude to the 50th Boys Bowl began with the Shamrock Shuffle Charity Run, with 250 runners and half as many in-line skaters fighting for a first place finish.

Proceeds from the 2-mile run, produced under the direction of cross country coach Tony Magni, went to the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Michigan for a 6-year-old Detroit boy diagnosed with cancer. The money will help pay for a trip to Disney World in Florida.

"The Boys Bowl has a traditionally been associated with charities throughout the years. We hope to raise $3,000, but the final tally won't be in until Monday," said Greg Grabowski, public relations director and varsity tennis coach. In the past six years, $16,000 from the charity runs went to such worthy causes as Muscular Dystrophy Association medical research, scholarships, a CC building program, and new gymnasium for Notre Dame High School.

Finishing at the head of the pack was CC senior Mike Krivick of Plymouth. Canton Township brothers Jamie Bauer, a junior, and Jeremy, a freshman, took second and third places, respectively.

"It was for a good cause. That's why I did it," said Krivick. Next up was a pep rally with close to 1,000 students, faculty, staff and alumni crowding into the gymnasium to cheer on the Shamrocks in Sunday's game at Wisner Stadium in Pontiac.

The Rev. Joseph Moffat, CC principal, led the singing of the alma mater after talking about keeping the rivalry alive and continuing the tradition started with Father Flanagan of Boys Town.

Head football coach Thomas Mach geared up the crowd by telling the story of an old Chinese legend followed by a cheer in Chinese. The CC starting lineup was announced, and the homecoming court presented. The unveiling of a large-scale mural, painted by art students over the last three weeks, and a skit rounded out the morning events.

"It gets the alumni coming back for the game. It's a family weekend," said Mother's Club president Becky Viola of Livonia, who was one of the mothers serving refreshments.

A gigantic bonfire on the campus decorated with lots of pumpkins took place later in the evening. According to Grabowski, Brother Rice's colors are orange and black, earning them the nickname "pumpkin heads." Earlier at the pep rally, painted banners covered the walls with slogans saying, "Carve 'em up."

Catholic Central and Boys Town teams played 14 games between 1944 and 1958 (with the exception of 1946, when no game was played), with the Nebraska team winning nine.

In 1952, Detroit Mayor Albert Cobo named the game the Boys Bowl, officially declaring a Boys Day in the city. He urged all citizens to join the daylong program of activities. The city government and local charities became involved with the annual gala event.

Mighty Morphin Ranger Jason to visit Livonia Mall Oct. 23

Austin St. John, who appears as Jason the Red Ranger on The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers TV show seen on Channel 50, has rescheduled his appearance in Livonia. Austin will appear 1-4 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 23 near Crowley's in the Livonia Mall.

St. John will also attend a luncheon 12-12:45 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 23, to benefit the Livonia Police DARE (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) program.

The DARE program offers preventive strategies to enhance those protective factors — especially bonding to the family, school and community — which experts say appear to foster the development of resiliency in young people who may be at risk for substance abuse or other problem behaviors.

O'Hair tabs Kelley for re-election

Nineteen Michigan prosecutors, including Wayne County Prosecutor John O'Hair, are supporting Attorney General Frank Kelley, a Democrat, for re-election.

Michigan's citizens never falters. His integrity is above reproach. He calls them as he sees them, without fear or favor. Michigan is fortunate to have an attorney general of Frank Kelley's caliber.

The other endorsing prosecutors are Tony Tague of Muskegon County, Mike Thomas of Saginaw County, Pat Shannon of Chippewa County, Carl Marlinga of Macomb County, Thomas Evans of Gladwin County, Gary Walker of Marquette County, Arthur Busph of Genesee County, Brian Mackie of Washtenaw County, Joseph Sheeran of Bay County, Edward Swinkey of Monroe County, Frederick MacKinnon of Ogemaw County, Thomas Smithson of Delta County, Peter Hollenbeck of Schoolcraft County, Mark Luoma of Alger County, Michael Riley of Lake County, Douglas Edwards of Houghton County, Jay Finch of Dickinson County and Daniel Hass of Menominee County.

Kelley's Republican opponent is John Smietanka. The election is Nov. 8.

"Frank Kelley is the consummate public servant," said O'Hair. "The commitment, energy and concern which he brings to protecting the public safety of

Family center dedicated at St. John's Seminary

BY M.B. DILLON
STAFF WRITER

Forty-five years to the day after the late Cardinal Edward Mooney dedicated St. John's Provincial Seminary in Plymouth Township, Detroit Archbishop Adam J. Maida welcomed clergy, governmental officials and members of the public and the press on a tour of the seminary, to be converted into the St. John Center for Youth & Family.

that it would be renovated and used by the archdiocese. "Once the work is completed, the St. John Center for Youth & Family will serve teenagers, young adults, married couples, engaged couples, and numerous support groups," said Maida. "We will have a wonderful facility in a great location. It further reinforces our commitment to the youth and families of the archdiocese of Detroit."

Some of the $2 million in renovations, to include making the facility handicapped accessible, enlarging the dormitory rooms and adding a kitchen — have already begun. The golf course, gym, bowling alleys, library, dining halls, faculty suites and conference rooms will be left intact. Opening of a portion of the four-building facility — St. Edward's Hall — is targeted for February or March. St. John's can be reserved by calling Gerri Cooper at (313) 883-8529.

At the invitation of the archdiocese and in honor of the Michigan International Year of the Family, Lt. Gov. Connie Binsfeld was on hand. Binsfeld, who serves as MYPF chairperson, addressed the archbishop and bishops Kevin Britt, Bernard Harrington and Walter Schpenherr, saying, "God has led you in a very good way, not to let the hammer of destruction fall on this beautiful facility."

Archdiocesan officials aren't concerned about Grosse Pointe developer Eric Lindquist and his ongoing legal battle to develop the site as senior housing center. The archdiocese declared void earlier this year a purchase agreement with Lindquist, as he had not produced evidence of financing by a contracted deadline.

Wayne County Circuit Judge William Giovan ruled Oct. 7 that the archdiocese is free to make renovations. He also ruled that Lindquist may return to court with a letter of credit. Don Scheible, director of buildings for the archdiocese, said, "In a year and a half, he hasn't come up with a letter of credit. I don't know where he's going to come up with one at this stage. We're serious about this and will hit the ground running."

Author to sign books at area stores

Award-winning author Shelly Thacker of Redford will visit metro-Detroit area bookstores this fall to sign copies of her latest historical romance novel, "A Stranger's Kiss."

Bowling Green, Warren, Royal Oak, Monroe, Oxford, Ann Arbor, and Highland between now and Dec. 10. Described as an 18th-century James Bond adventure, "A Stranger's Kiss" pits a British agent against his beautiful enemy. During a war in 1759, Max D'Avenant is sent by the English King to kidnap brilliant French scientist Marie Nicole LeBon.

Her first manuscript, "Falcon on the Wind," sold to Avon in less than a week in 1990 and landed her a two-book contract. Her second release was "Midnight Raider" and the third novel, "Silver and Sapphires," reached number 10 on the Morle-Distributors best seller list.

Thacker's blend of suspense, history, adventure, and romantic intrigue has made her popular with men and women while winning her an international audience in Europe, Africa, and the Far East.

Hunter safety courses offered

The Western Wayne County Conservation Association will host a Department of Natural Resources-sanctioned Hunter Safety class.

This course is open to anyone 12 years of age or older and is mandatory for any first-time hunter born on or after Jan. 1, 1990. A hunter safety certificate is also required in many states and Canada to buy a non-resident hunting license.

All classes will be on the grounds of the Western Wayne County Conservation Association, 6700 Napier Road, between North Territorial and Five Mile Roads, in Plymouth Township.

A fee of $4 will be charged to cover ammunition and range fees. A hunter safety certificate and patch will be presented for successful completion of the course.

Prize-winning recipes are hot!

Taco Twist Soup, an easy and appealing meal in a bowl, was a winner in the 1994 Pace Picante Sauce "Pick Up The Pace" Recipe Contest.

This prize-winning soup combines favorite taco ingredients with a twist — rotini pasta — for a family pleasing lunch or supper. Gladys Fulton, of Summerville, S.C., is the soup's proud creator.

Pace-Setting Two Sausage Chili, another prize winner, is a one-of-a-kind meal in a bowl teaming Italian and smoked sausage with ground beef, beans, vegetables and savory seasonings. It simmers to flavor perfection in just 25 minutes, serves a crowd and freezes beautifully. Betty MacDonald of Castro Valley, Calif., created the original recipe, which she entered when it was enthusiastically received by her family and friends.

TACO TWIST SOUP

1 pound lean ground beef
1 medium onion, chopped
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 to 2 teaspoons chili powder, as desired
1 teaspoon ground cumin
3 cups beef broth
1½ cups Pace Picante Sauce
1 can (14½ ounces) diced tomatoes in juice
1 cup uncooked rotini pasta
1 small green pepper, chopped
Shredded cheddar cheese
Tortilla chips

In large saucepan or Dutch oven, brown ground beef with onion and garlic; drain. Sprinkle chili powder and cumin over meat; cook and stir 30 seconds. Add remaining ingredients except cheese and tortilla chips, mix well.

Bring to a boil, stirring frequently. Reduce heat, cover and simmer 10 to 15 minutes or until pasta is tender, stirring occasionally. Ladle into bowls; top with cheese. Serve with tortilla chips and additional picante sauce. Makes about 8 one-cup servings.

PACE-SETTING TWO SAUSAGE CHILI

½ pound mild Italian sausage
1 pound lean ground beef
3 cups chopped onion
4 cloves garlic, minced
½ pound smoked sausage
2 cans (15 ounces each) kidney beans (do not drain)
1 can (14½ ounces) diced tomatoes in juice
1½ cups Pace Picante Sauce
1 can (6 ounces) tomato paste
2 tablespoons chili powder
4 teaspoons ground cumin
1 teaspoon dried oregano
¾ teaspoon salt
2 large green peppers, chopped
Optional toppings: Shredded cheddar cheese, sour cream, ripe olive slices, chopped onions.

Remove casing from Italian sausage, cut into ¼-inch slices. In large saucepan or Dutch oven, brown ground beef with Italian sausage, onion and garlic; drain. Halve smoked sausage lengthwise, cut into ¼-inch slices. Add to saucepan with remaining ingredients except green peppers and optional toppings; mix well. Bring to a boil, stirring frequently.

Crowd-pleaser: You'll get rave reviews at lunch or dinner with Taco Twist Soup, a first prize winner in the 1994 Pace Picante Sauce "Pick Up The Pace" Recipe Contest.

Reduce heat, cover and simmer 15 minutes. Stir in green peppers. Cover and continue simmering 10 minutes or until green peppers are tender. Ladle into bowls. Top as desired and serve with additional picante sauce. Makes about 12 one-cup servings.

Cocoa cake is fine fini for tailgate party meal

AP — When hosting a tailgate party, the best strategy is to keep the menu simple. Choose foods that are easy to make, transport and serve. For a sweet ending, serve cocoa crunch cake.

TOUCHDOWN COCOA CRUNCH CAKE

1½ cups all-purpose flour
1 cup sugar
¾ cup cocoa
1 teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup water
¼ cup plus 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
1 tablespoon white vinegar
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
Broiled topping (recipe below)

Heat oven to 350 degrees F. Grease and flour an 8-inch square baking pan. In large bowl, stir together flour, sugar, cocoa, baking soda and salt. Add water, oil, vinegar and vanilla; beat with a spoon or whisk just until batter is smooth and ingredients are well blended. Pour batter into prepared pan.

Bake in a 350-degree F oven for 35 to 40 minutes or until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Meanwhile, prepare broiled topping; spread on warm cake. Set oven to broil; place cake about 4 inches from the heat. Broil 3 minutes or until top is bubbly and golden brown. Remove from oven. Cool completely in pan on wire rack. Makes 9 servings.

BROILED TOPPING

¼ cup (½ stick) butter or margarine, softened
½ cup packed light brown sugar
½ cup coarsely chopped nuts
½ cup sweetened coconut flakes
3 tablespoons light cream or evaporated milk

This macaroni pie recipe will measure up to your cool-weather appetites

AP — Although the following recipe is called Macaroni Pie, it is best made with angel hair pasta, or capellini.

MACARONI PIE

¾ pound capellini, or angel hair pasta
6 eggs

½ pound prosciutti, diced
¾ pound mozzarella, diced
Freshly ground black pepper
1 tablespoon chopped parsley

(optional)
3 tablespoons olive oil
3 tablespoons butter

Cook noodles according to package directions. Do not overcook. Rinse with cold water and drain. Beat eggs, adding prosciutti and mozzarella. Season with black pepper and parsley, if desired. Do not add salt; the prosciutti has enough already. Mix in the cooked pasta.

12 alternatives to lashing out at your child.

The next time everyday pressures build up to the point where you feel like lashing out — STOP! And try any of these simple alternatives.

You'll feel better . . . and so will your child.

1. Take a deep breath. And another. Then remember you are the adult . . .
2. Close your eyes and imagine you're hearing what your child is about to hear.
3. Press your lips together and count to 10. Or better yet, to 20.
4. Put your child in a time-out chair. (Remember the rule: one time-out minute for each year of age.)
5. Put yourself in a time-out chair. Think about why you are angry: Is it your child, or is your child simply a convenient target for your anger?
6. Phone a friend.
7. If someone can watch the children, go outside and take a walk.
8. Take a hot bath or splash cold water on your face.
9. Hug a pillow.
10. Turn on some music. Maybe even sing along.
11. Pick up a pencil and write down as many helpful words as you can think of. Save the list.
12. Write for parenting information: Parenting, Box 2866, Chicago, IL 60690.
