Sentence praised in murder case

The daughter of a shooting victim said her father's death should be a reminder that people should resolve their differences without guns. The man convicted of the shooting was sentenced from 40 to 80 years in prison.

Charles W. Burgess of Westland has been sentenced to prison for 40 to 80 years for murdering Joseph Dues, who was shot to death Jan. 29 after repossessing Burgess' car for a credit company. Dues' family welcomed the sentence, announced Thursday by Detroit Recorder's Court Judge Karen Fort Hood. The decision came three weeks after a jury convicted Burgess, 48, of killing Dues, 52. "We are very satisfied," Dues' daughter, Pam Mitchell, said Thursday. Speaking for the Dues family, she said her father's death should remind people not to resolve their differences with guns. Moreover, she said the killing illustrates the need for tighter gun control legislation. "We hope that parents, teachers and people in the community in general talk about how senseless killings like this have to stop. People can't continue to resolve their differences with guns," Mitchell said. "We don't want our father's death to be forgotten," she added. "We hope that others will use this tragedy as a lesson to teach their children that no material possession is worth more than another person's life." In conclusion, Mitchell said, "This case is proof of why tighter handgun control legislation is needed." Burgess could have received life in prison, but Dues' family was satisfied that he received a lengthy sentence. Dues was slain near Grand Traverse and Alberta Court in Westland after repossessing a 1992 Mitsubishi Eclipse from Burgess' residence on nearby Bannister Court. Dues, accompanied by companion Julie Santel, had stopped to adjust

2 to be honored by group

BY DARRELL CLEM

For their efforts to make Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday a holiday in the Wayne-Westland school district, a 1995 John Glenn High School graduate and her mother will receive a landmark award.

Ecole Barrow, 18, and her mother, Sandra Barrow, will receive the first-ever Trailblazer Award from the Inkster branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Barrow, now a biology premed student at Atlanta's Morris Brown College, plans to fly home Friday for the weekend to be honored with her mother.

The award will be presented Sunday during the Inkster NAACP branch's annual Fight for Freedom Fund dinner at the Royce Hotel, formerly the Airport Hilton, in Romulus.

While Ecole Barrow was a John Glenn student, she and her mother tirelessly pressured Wayne-Westland school officials to declare King's birthday observance a holiday in the district.

The birthday of the slain civil rights leader is observed on the third Monday in January.

The school board eventually approved a measure declaring the holiday, and, for the first time, Wayne-Westland classes won't be in session when King's birthday is observed Jan. 15.

Ironically, the holiday comes after Ecole Barrow's high school graduation, but she said she is pleased that other students will benefit.

"I think it should have happened a long time ago," she said during a telephone interview from Atlanta. "There shouldn't have been any question about it."

Manslaughter trial ordered in traffic death

BY DARRELL CLEM
 STAFF WRITER

An Inkster woman, charged in a Westland high-speed car chase that killed another woman, has been ordered to stand trial for vehicular manslaughter and fleeing the scene.

Driver Nicole Gibson, 21, was ordered to stand trial for the Sept. 19 death of Crystal Deyampert, 22, after waiving a preliminary hearing Thursday in front of Westland 18th District Judge C. Charles Bokos.

But a decision on whether co-defendant/passenger Wendy Smith, 23, should be tried on identical charges has been delayed until Oct. 19, following conflicting arguments from prosecuting and defense attorneys.

Gibson and Smith are accused of chasing Deyampert and her 22-year-old friend, passenger Sharon Edwards, following a verbal dispute outside of the Side Pocket bar on Inkster Road near Cherry Hill.

Deyampert was thrown from her 1995 Toyota Camry and killed when she ran a red light and slammed into a tractor-trailer at Inkster Road and Van Born. Edwards survived the crash and testified Thursday during Smith's hearing.

Assistant Wayne County prosecutor Kellie Gleason argued that Smith should stand trial because she was involved in the bar dispute and was with Gibson in pursuit of Deyampert and Edwards.

But defense attorney Mary Ellen O'Connell countered that Smith had no control over Gibson's car and couldn't escape the situation by jumping out during the 80-miles per hour chase.

"She was not the cause of the accident," O'Connell said. "She was not the cause of the injury."

At one point, O'Connell argued that Smith may not have been in Gibson's car, a 1983 Mercury Grand Marquis. But witness Rokella Doucet said she saw Smith get into the car. O'Connell also argued that Smith may have gotten out of the car before the chase ended.

Bokos, delaying a ruling on Smith's case, has asked both attorneys to support their arguments with prior case law. He is expected to rule on Smith's charges Oct. 19.

Crash survivor Edwards testified Thursday that the problem started when Smith mistakenly believed that Deyampert was laughing at her outside of the bar. Smith threatened to assault Deyampert, but a man talking

Halloween walk

In related Halloween activities, the Westland recreation department and Westland Civitan Club will hold their annual guided Halloween Walk for families from 7-8:45 p.m., Friday and Saturday, Oct. 27-28, through Central City Park. Admission is $2 with registration available at the Bailey Recreation Center lobby desk from Oct. 15-26. The walks will start every 15 minutes those two nights.

Junior Miss program

Friday, Oct. 12, is the deadline for high school senior women to sign up for the annual Wayne-Westland Junior Miss scholarship program. The event is open to senior women who live in Westland or Wayne or attend a Wayne-Westland district high school. Applications are available at John Glenn, Wayne Memorial, Churchill, Frank lin, Ladywood, Lutheran West, Huron Valley and Divine Child. The program to be held later this fall will have a physical fitness routine, talent segment, and an interview with judges. Applicants will be asked to attend a mandatory informational meeting at 7 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 15, at the American Dance Academy, on the southeast corner of Warren Road and Venoy.

Halloween fund-raiser

John Glenn High School drama students will dress in costume and provide Halloween fun for local children on Halloween night, Oct. 31, at the high school. Theatrical Troupe head Sheri Smith, first year drama teacher at the school, said that the students will dress in outfits to reflect the fun of Halloween, such as Sesame Street's "Cookie Monster." Some 15 classrooms as well as adjoining hallways will be decorated with children to receive candy donated by cooperating businesses and individuals, she said.

The drama students will also provide apple hobbing, face painting, pumpkin painting and costume contests. Prizes will include passes to Kid Kingdom and open skating at the Westland Sports Arena.

Smith said the event will be 5:30-8:30 p.m. that night with admission being $3 per child. Proceeds will benefit the Glenn drama department and be used for upcoming productions and educational opportunities.

Livonia schools seek artifacts to put on display

BY MARIE CHESTNEY

Sandra Barrow, a Wayne resident, said the award makes her proud not so much for herself, but for her daughter.

"I think it's pretty neat for a young person to win this award," she said.

A controversy arose when Ecole Barrow, while attending John Glenn, was nearly penalized for missing a test that was administered on King's birthday. Barrow stayed home that day, the only day she missed during the entire semester.

Sandra Barrow has said her daughter had to appeal to school authorities to avoid losing credit.

"She went through quite a bit," the mother said.

The Barrows were nominated for the award by Norma McDaniel and James Netter, executive committee members of the Inkster NAACP branch. The recommendation was approved by the full 16-member committee.

"We felt that they were trailblazers," McDaniel, an Inkster school board member, said. She added that the Barrows' efforts led to "equality for all students in the Wayne-Westland school district."

mini-museum, if plans Livonia Public Schools are now making come true.

The district, which serves the northern section of Westland, plans to launch an archive room in either the administration building, 15125 Farmington south of Five Mile, or at Greenmead

Historical Village, Eight Mile at Newburgh.

The first step in the establishment of the room is the formation of a historical committee. Members will sift through the memorabilia loaned to them and decide what to include in the room.

They will then catalog the artifact, and make sure it is properly preserved for display.

The district's origins go all the way back to 1830. Committee members don't expect to get a real treasure from the old Schwartzburg or Newburgh schools.

If they're extremely lucky, a donation may emerge from the 1870s, the era of Bell, Gaffney and Stark schools.

Committee members will be happy to just get a treasure from the 1940s, a time when local students went to Briggs, Elm-Rosedale and Livonia Center.

Artifacts loaned for display in the room could include sports photos, year books, school flags, school buttons, uniforms, letters earned by athletes, old pictures, a brick from a school torn down long ago — almost anything that shows a slice of life in Livonia schools in years gone by, said Jay Young, director of community services.

Just about anything except textbooks, unless maybe they're McGuffey Readers from the 19th Century. Textbooks may be too numerous to include in the room, Young said.

But right now, nothing is cast in stone and members are open to suggestions.

Depending on how many treasures are received, the mini-museum could either be housed in a conference room in the administration building or one of the houses at Greenmead. Young said more people will see the items if they are housed at Greenmead.

Committee members are Jack McDonald, Marci Baker, Ann Jenkins, Sally Diskin, Sue Daniel, William McMurtrey, Kathleen McCann, Geraldine Joyner, David Watson and Jay Young.

Any artifact loaned to the district should include the donor's name, telephone number, and any historical data that helps identify time, school, and year. Artifacts should be sent to the community services office, 15125 Farmington, Livonia 48154.

Haunted house to open Friday

The Halloween season will open Friday night when the Wayne-Westland Family YMCA opens its haunted house, Oct. 13, for a 24-week run.

The Y, serving Garden City and Canton Township as well as Westland, will have its annual fund-raising haunted house in its barn on Wayne Road, just south of Cherry Hill.

The "Fright Fest '95" house will be open at 7 p.m. Friday through Sunday, Oct. 13-15, and Friday, Oct. 20, through Halloween, Oct. 31.

Those with a McDonald's french fries wrapper or coupon from the Y's fall program brochure will get $1 off the $5 admission.

A YMCA spokesperson said a "new scare" has been added to the haunted house.

For smaller children, 12 and younger, the Y will have "friendly monsters" tours of the haunted house from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. the next three Saturdays, Oct. 14, 21, and 28. Admission is $2 with accompanying adults admitted free.

For more on the project, call the Y at 721-7044.

Ecole Barrow

The Barrows will receive an engraved plaque during the NAACP dinner.

Ecole Barrow said she is studying to be an oncologist. She also has a brother, Everett Barrow Jr., who recently graduated from Michigan State University with a degree in marketing.

Tickets are available for the NAACP dinner for $50, which includes a one-year membership with the Inkster branch. The number to call is (313) 595-1306.

to Deyampert kept them apart, Edwards said.

As Deyampert and Edwards tried to leave, Gibson rammied their Toyota Camry on Inkster Road, Edwards said. Smith, who hadn't yet gotten into Gibson's car, ran into the street and was throwing bottles at Deyampert's car, Edwards said.

Then the chase down Inkster Road began, Edwards said, estimating that Deyampert was driving at least 80 mph as she was being trailed.

Deyampert "was angry. Panic was in her voice," Edwards said. "She was determined not to let them stop us or hit her car again."

Police have said the cars traveled 2.7 miles south before Deyampert slammed into a truck driven by David Crider, who was westbound on Van Born.

"I don't remember hitting the truck," Edwards testified, later sobbing as she left the courtroom.

Crider testified that he didn't see the car before it hit his tractor truck, which was hauling two trailers. He wasn't injured, but he said he "was in shock."

Crider said he saw one body lying in the road and one still in the car.

Westland police officer James

Dexter testified that Smith made a statement saying that she and Gibson had been drinking during the day on Sept. 18 and that they decided to go to the Side Pocket that night.

In talking about the chase, Smith told Dexter that Gibson stopped pursuing Deyampert at Inkster and Powers Street, about one-quarter mile north of Van Born, Dexter testified.

But Deyampert kept driving and slammed into the truck, according to the statement.

Pending trial, Gibson is free on a $10,000 personal bond. Smith remains jailed in lieu of a $50,000 cash bond that was set, in part, because she tried to flee from police when they picked her up at a relative's house in Ypsilanti.

Smith also has warrants out for her arrest in other cities for being a disorderly person and marijuana possession.

The defendants could face up to 15 years in prison if convicted of vehicular manslaughter. They could face five years if found guilty of leaving the scene of the accident.

Dues

the car on his tow truck when Burgess drove up in another vehicle.

Dues was shot in the chest with a Raven .25-caliber semiautomatic handgun. The shooting was reported to Westland police in a frantic 9-1-1 call that Santel made from the tow truck.

Dues was working for Chrysler Credit Corp. at the time. The Flint man also owned a used car lot and was a former General Motors Corp. employee.

Burgess also threatened Santel and passerby Delores Turner at gunpoint. Turner had stopped at the scene because she thought a car accident had occurred, but she said Burgess put a gun to her head and demanded that she help him find his eyeglasses.

Turner testified that Burgess was already wearing the glasses. Following a one-week trial that ended Sept. 15, a Recorder's Court jury convicted Burgess of second-degree murder, two counts of felonious assault and one count of felony firearms possession.

In addition to the 40-to-80-year prison term for murder, Burgess received two to four years for the felonious assault charges and two years for the firearms conviction.

Burgess' attorney, Donald Johnson, had tried to convince the jury that Dues was shot accidentally during a struggle between the two men. But Santel testified that Dues was on his hands and knees when Burgess shot him.

An audiotape of Santel's 9-1-1 call was played during the trial, and she could be heard warning Dues that Burgess was approaching with a gun. She then became hysterical during the moment of the shooting.

Most area municipalities report decline in burglaries

Thanks to an increase in theft-prevention awareness and neighborhood watch programs, burglaries declined in the city of Detroit and held steady in Wayne County last year, according to figures released by the Independent Insurance Agents Association of Wayne County.

In 1994, the most recent figures available, there were 22,156 reported burglaries in the city of Detroit, a 4-percent reduction. During the same time period, Wayne County burglaries remained virtually unchanged from 30,142 to 30,307 — up 0.5 percent, but down almost 16 percent from 1992 figures. The 4-percent drop in Detroit burglaries was better than the statewide average of 3 percent. Among the state's 10 most populated counties, only Oakland, Kalamazoo and Saginaw had declines bigger than Wayne.

The Wayne County cities with the biggest reductions in burglaries were Grosse Ile Township, Grosse Pointe, Plymouth and Wayne. The cities with the highest increases were Southgate, Grosse Pointe Woods, River Rouge, and Hamtramck.

Burglaries in Garden City were up 24 percent, from 180 in 1993 to 224 in 1994. Livonia reported a slight increase (less than 1 percent) from 622 in 1993 to 628 in 1994. Plymouth had a 39-percent drop — from 23 in 1993 to 14 last year. Plymouth Township had a 16-percent reduction in burglaries — from 51 to 43.

Westland had a 20-percent increase, from 666 in 1993 to 799 last year. Cities reporting numbers for less than 12 months, including Redford Township, were not listed in the survey.

"Neighborhood watch programs and anti-theft awareness have helped reduce burglaries," said Denise McHenry, spokeswoman for the association and an agent with Cambridge Underwriters in Livonia.

"It proves that community involvement can be effective in fighting crime. When people commit to protecting each other and assisting law enforcement, it serves as a deterrent to theft. We need to continue that pattern of cooperation."

The agents group reported that burglars are more attracted to houses that are unoccupied or when residents are on vacation during the summer months. Using common sense can lessen chances of break-ins, including these hints:

- Leave blinds open in their usual position.
- Stop deliveries of newspapers and mail, or have a neighbor collect them while you're away.
- Arrange to have your lawn mowed.
- Use automatic timers to turn lights on and off in your living room and bedrooms. Consider connecting a radio to a timer.
- Equip doors with deadbolt locks, put a slide bolt on sliding glass doors, and be sure windows are locked. Another idea would be to install a burglar and fire alarm system; some insurance companies offer discounts for approved alarm and fire systems.
- Put cash, expensive jewelry and other valuables in a safe and bank safety-deposit box.
- Do not leave extra keys around the mailbox, doormat, or flower pots. Change your locks if your keys are lost or stolen.

Edison crews will aid students

Autumn weather and a new school year serve as reminders that Detroit Edison crews can provide emergency assistance as youngsters head to and from school.

Equipped with two-way radios, the utility's field employees continue to be extra sets of "eyes and ears" throughout Southeastern Michigan as participants in an expanded utility safety program.

The Eyes and Ears program was launched in 1984 in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties by Detroit Edison and other utilities in response to a series of assaults on students. The program expanded to Washtenaw County in 1993 and this year has been joined by Macomb County Road Commission crews and Detroit schools security personnel.

Detroit Edison field employees are alert to situations that could pose trouble for children on their way to and from school, said S. Martin Taylor, vice president, corporate and public affairs.

"Although Eyes and Ears was started to help protect children, everyone in the community should know we're there to help should the need arise," Taylor said. Vehicles are marked with the program logo — an eye and an ear with the program's name. The logo is intended to remind the public — and especially students — that employees operating the vehicles have communications equipment and can provide a safe respite.

"The employees' role is to observe and report," Taylor said. "They are advised not to attempt to apprehend anyone involved in an apparent crime. But their vehicles can serve as havens until the proper authorities arrive."

Rep. Rivers to hold office hours

U.S. Rep. Lynn Rivers will hold office hours at the Senior Resources Department (Friendship Center) from 10 a.m. to noon Monday, Oct. 23.

Rivers said anyone who would like to express their concerns regarding federal issues or just say hello is encouraged to stop by.

The Friendship Center is at 1119 Newburgh Road, Westland. Rivers will also be available from 4-6 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 17 in Superior Township Hall, 3040 N. Prospect.

Panel to address foreign aid

A panel which includes U.S. Rep. Lynn Rivers, D-Ann Arbor, will discuss foreign aid at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 15 in the Plymouth Cultural Center, 525 Farmer Street (north of Main and east of Sheldon Road).

Rivers — whose district includes Garden City, Westland, Plymouth, Plymouth Township, Canton Township and part of Livonia — will be joined on the panel by Mike Presanis, state coordinator of the Concord Coalition; Sam Daley-Harris, executive director of RESULTS; and Margie Hazelton, a Peace Corps volunteer.

Moderator will be Paul Huth, associate professor of political science at the University of Michigan.

The panel members will share their views on foreign aid and respond to questions pertaining to: "Is foreign aid a form of embezzlement from U.S. taxpayers or an investment in our future?"

The discussion is being held to mark the fifth anniversary of the World Summit for Children. RESULTS (Responsibility for Ending Starvation Using Legislative, Trintabs and Support) is a non-profit, grass-roots citizens lobby committed to creating the political will to end hunger and the worst aspects of poverty.

RESULTS intends to spotlight effective programs to help meet the goals of the World's Summit for Children.

Lutheran school has 'split personality' administration

St. Matthew Lutheran Church, which serves Westland and Garden City students, has created a shared building leadership.

The decision to have a part-time interim principal working three days a week and a fulltime teacher in the office as acting assistant principal the other two days came after former principal David McNeil accepted a post at Christ Our Savior Lutheran Church as assistant to the pastor of Christian life ministry.

When the school was unsuccessful in getting a fulltime principal and Christian education director to replace McNeil, its call committee and board of Christian education adopted an alternative plan which now has the job split among two educators.

Filling the interim principal's post on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday is Clayton Kelley, who retired as a Garden City High School counselor two years ago after nearly 30 years there.

On Monday and Thursday, Chris Elliott serves as acting assistant principal. On the other three days, he is a seventh-eighth grade teacher.

The two said there is no communication problem of the unusual situation, although Kelley admits carrying a pager on his scheduled days off.

Kelley, 62, and a long-time active member of St. Matthew Lutheran Church, on Venoy north of Ford, said that he is only serving in the interim post only for this school year.

Both positions were approved at a congregational meeting in August, said a school spokeswoman.

She said Kelley comes to the position with a wealth of educational experiences. He started as a teacher and track and wrestling coach at Redford High School in Temperance, Mich., after graduating from Bowling Green University in Bowling Green, Ohio, with bachelor's degree in education.

He moved to Westland in 1965 to accept a similar position at Garden City High School. He went on to earn his master of arts degree in guidance and counseling in 1968 and became a counselor at the high school while still continuing his track coaching duties.

At Garden City High, Kelley developed and directed its career placement center while earning an additional 20 graduate hours beyond his master's degree.

Co-leaders: Chris Elliott (left) and Clayton Kelley are the educational leaders for St. Matthew Lutheran School.

At St. Matthew, Kelley has served as a board of education member, board chairman, member of board of elders, and member of the board of directors. He is currently working as follow-up coordinator for the Build With Christ project.

In 1993 Kelley retired from Garden City High and began working part-time with RN Health Care Services as a courier. He will keep that position while performing his principalship duties at St. Matthew School.

Elliott will be the acting assistant principal on release time from his classroom duties.

Starting his second year as a seventh/eighth grade teacher, Elliott grew up in Ohio and attended Concordia College in Ann Arbor where he received his bachelor's degree in 1993 with a major in elementary education and minor in biology and physical education.

He was a student teacher at St. Matthew two years ago before accepting a teaching post at Fairlawn (Ohio) High School, working as an instructor with the learning disabled in grades six through 12.

Elliott, 26, was married 11 months ago, shortly after coming to St. Matthew. He is also a youth group leader athletics coach besides his teaching duties.

School "Ark": St. Matthew Lutheran School children crowd around the Ark, a play-cape built by volunteers earlier this year.

OBITUARIES

EDITH BADORA KING

Services for Mrs. King, 82, formerly of Garden City and Westland and a former Garden City Hospital employee, were Oct. 5 from the John Santeu & Son Funeral Home, Garden City, with burial in Grand Lawn Cemetery, Detroit. Rev. Donald Gregory of Faith Baptist Church officiated. The Order of Eastern Star held a special service for her Oct. 4.

Mrs. King died Oct. 2 at her Livonia residence. Born Nov. 16, 1912, in Washburn, Tenn., she worked in her family's grocery business and moved to Detroit after her marriage to Clarence King.

Married for 34 years, Mr. King died in 1971.

Mrs. King worked in the Garden City Hospital's dietary service unit for more than 10 years.

"She was known in the hospital for her pleasant personality and friendly smile," said a daughter, Joan Morrison of Garden City.

Mrs. King was active in community projects during the years she lived in Garden City before moving to Westland. She was a volunteer in the Garden City Hospital Guild and worked on several fund-raising projects for the hospital as well as volunteering in the gift shop and surgical reception desk.

She was also a member of Faith Baptist Church, Dearborn Heights, as well as the Order of Eastern Star of Garden City.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. King is survived by sisters Ila Marsee and Vacie Hubble; brother Mack Acuff and many nieces and nephews. Preceding her in death were her husband and a brother, Art Acuff.

Memorials may be donated to the Garden City Hospital Guild or the American Heart Association.

LOIS MAE COSHATT PICHALSKI

Services for Mrs. Pichalski, 77, of Westland were Oct. 6 from the Vermeulen Memorial Trust 100 Funeral Home, with burial in Cadillac Memorial Gardens West Cemetery. Rev. Neil Cowling of Kirk of Our Savior Church officiated.

Mrs. Pichalski, who was born Sept. 8, 1918, in Prescott, Mich., died Oct. 5 in Westland.

Survivors include: sons James Coshatt of Canton Township and Patrick Coshatt of Westland; grandchildren Tony, Patrick, Timothy and Miles; great-grandchild Justin Coshatt, and sisters Nellie Gregg of Clio, Mich., and Mina Bellville of Whittimore, Mich.

Memorials may be donated to the Harris-Kehrer VFW Post 3323, 1055 S. Wayne Road, Westland 48186, or a charity of choice.

Blood donors wanted

Garden City Hospital and the American Red Cross are teaming up Wednesday and Thursday for their fourth annual blood drive.

Donors may stop at the hospital on Inker Road near Maplewood from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days.

The hospital and Red Cross said they hope to collect 425 pints of blood.

To donate, persons must be 17 years old, weigh at least 110 pounds and be in generally good health.

The Red Cross needs 5,500 pints a week to meet the needs of patients in 57 area hospitals.

Road chief nixes income tax diversion to pay for roads

BY TIM RICHARD
STAFF WRITER

Road people have little interest in a state legislator's proposal to divert state income taxes toward road improvements.

"My proposal does not raise taxes in any way, shape or form," said Sen. Mike Rogers, R-Howell. "My goal is to capture growth revenues in fiscal 1996-97."

He's author of a bill to divert 5.2 percent of gross income taxes from the general fund to the transportation fund, which for decades has been fed by fuel taxes, registration fees and other "user fees." Rogers said his bill, due for a hearing before the Senate Finance Committee later this month, will bring roads $350 million — equivalent to hiking fuel taxes seven cents a gallon.

"It's a one-year solution, and we need a long-term solution," objected Brent O. Bair, managing director of the Road Commission for Oakland County and vice president of CRAM (County Road Association of Michigan).

"We've gone 12 years without a (state) increase in the gas tax, and we've gone beyond a seven-cent solution. Our preference is to stick with a user fee . . . How much you use the road system, that's how much you pay."

"Other sources aren't protected by the constitution like the gas tax," said Bair, referring to Article IX Section 8 which says fuel taxes must "be used exclusively for transportation purposes . . ."

"The income tax (revenue) has to go through the appropriations process. Keeping those funds (in roads) is real questionable by the time you make it through a couple of committees or more."

Bair noted Rogers' plan would guarantee $350 million for roads for only one year. Thereafter, Rogers' bill calls for a line item in the budget that could be stripped out by lawmakers or even a gubernatorial veto.

They debated road funding Oct. 1 on "Spotlight on News," Channel 7's public affairs program.

CRAM began this fall's debate by asking a 12-cent-a-gallon increase plus an adjustment in the distribution formula to aid 17 urban counties. That has been whittled down to a 9.5-cent "compromise" program. Gov. John Engler proposed a 7-cent increase with the entire hike going to the state.

"We've identified needs far in excess of a 12-cent increase," said Bair, adding it would cover "just the worst" roads and bridges. "We don't ever have a problem of having too much money when it comes to roads."

Chuckled Rogers: "I've never heard a department yet that could not use extra money."

Rogers' own plan faces serious hurdles. It would take 4.4 percent of the current $8 billion general fund budget, leaving little (one percent by his estimation) or no new money for other uses.

This year's budget gave universities 3 percent, Oakland Community College barely 1 percent, and Schoolcraft College 2.5 percent. Prisons, whose inmate totals are creeping past the 40,000 mark as lawmakers demand stiffer punishments for more crimes, have now passed universities in the budget.

They disagreed on the question of whether Michigan, which has the highest truck weight limits in the nation, should charge trucks more. Bair said CRAM wants to raise the diesel fuel tax 20 cents and truck registration fees 50 percent. "We're not going after them; we're saying they ought to pay their fair share," Bair said.

Rogers pictured truckers as "family" people and others seeking general fund money as "special interests." The senator said a 7-cent fuel tax hike would cost Spartan Stores $1 million. "You're going to pay more for bread and milk," he added.

Neither liked the proposal of the Michigan Chamber of Commerce and the Mackinac Center to cut the single business tax in exchange for a fuel tax increase.

"If you cut anything," said Bair, "cut the fuel tax, like we did with Proposal A (cutting school property taxes in return for a 2-cent hike in the sales tax)."

"Seems crazy to me," agreed Rogers. "My proposal would do it with the revenues we have."

Dentistry in the 90s
by Herbert M. Gardner, D.D.S. & Martha P. Zinderman, R.N., D.D.S.

A CONSEQUENCE OF TOOTH LOSS

If lost teeth are not replaced, there can be adverse consequences outside the mouth as well as within. Specifically, lost teeth that are not replaced in later years can lead to a condition known as angular cheilitis. This inflammation of the corners of the mouth is primarily caused by a reduction in the vertical dimension of the bite. As the lips tend to overlap more at the corners of the mouth and leak saliva, the stage is set for irritation and inflammation. First, continuous chafing and repeated wetting and drying irritate the tissues about the mouth. Then, attempts to relieve the irritation with habitual lip-licking leads to worsening of the condition. The inflamed areas may also be infected with fungus, which are either the primary cause of infection or are more likely to invade areas that have already become inflamed. Vitamin deficiencies, particularly involving vitamin B2, may further complicate the problem. Angular cheilitis should be addressed with prosthodontic treatment. We're located at 19171 Meriman Road, where we provide a full range of dental services from routine examinations to cosmetic dentistry, as well as dentistry without fear through "twilight sleep." Please call 478-2110 to schedule a convenient appointment. Smiles use our business. Hrs: Mon., Tues., Thu. & Fri. 8-5, Wed. til 9 p.m.

YWCA campaigns against violence

BY MARY RODRIQUE
STAFF WRITER

The YWCA of Western Wayne County is asking individuals, government agencies, schools, churches and community groups to join with them in a nationwide campaign for a Week Without Violence.

"The whole idea is to create a ripple effect — we've contacted the Wayne County Board of Commissioners, city halls, mayors, churches and organizations," said Corinne Vincent, executive director of the YWCA of Western Wayne County.

YWCA's nationwide are challenging every American to live for one week without perpetrating, participating in or observing any violence.

The week is scheduled for Oct. 15-21 and will focus attention on practical alternatives to violence. The YWCA of Western Wayne County is joining in this national effort to encourage local participation in the campaign. The goals are to heighten awareness of the opportunities to prevent and avoid violence.

The focus will be on a different issue each day of the week. Sunday, Oct. 15, will be A Day of Remembrance; Monday, Oct. 16, Protecting Our Children; Tuesday, Oct. 17, Making Our Schools Safe; Wednesday, Oct. 18, Confronting Violence Against Women; Thursday, Oct. 19, Facing Violence Against Men; Friday, Oct. 20, Eliminating Racism and Hate Crimes; Saturday, Oct. 21, Replacing Violence with Sports and Fitness.

The city of Livonia will air a film that week on cable Channel 8 featuring First Step, a local domestic violence shelter for women and children. St. James Methodist Church in Westland will hold a prayer litany Oct. 15 and a games and fitness day for children and adolescents on Oct. 21.

Delta Sigma Theta sorority has a theater party fund-raiser scheduled Oct. 15 at 1616 Broadway. Proceeds will benefit My Sisters Place, a local domestic abuse shelter.

"Staff at the local Ya will be doing something with youth groups on conflict resolution," Vincent said. "We will be asking young mothers groups to support the campaign by turning off television violence."

Through 374 local member associations within all 50 states, the YWCA represents more than one million women and their families.

The YWCA of Western Wayne County provides child care, parenting and nutrition classes, youth mentoring, teen counseling, and outreach to young children who are at risk.

For more information about the Y's Week Without Violence, call Vincent at the YWCA of Western Wayne County at 313-561-4110.

Parenting expert to discuss discipline

International parenting expert Barbara Coloroso will discuss basic principles and practices for giving children the "gift of inner discipline" from 7-8:30 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 23, at Wayne Memorial High School, 3001 Fourth St., Wayne.

There is a $3 admission charge, payable at the door.

Every parent hopes to raise responsible and self-assured youngsters. Coloroso will provide advice for parents of children from toddlers to teen-agers, showing how to use chores, mealtime, sibling rivalry, toilet training, bedtime, and allowances to create a home environment in which kids can develop their own sense of inner discipline.

She will discuss the keys to good parenting, treating kids with respect, and giving them a sense of positive power in their own lives, giving them opportunities to make decisions, and take responsibility for their actions. For information, call Barbara Papania, Wayne County RESA, at 313-467-1574.

State nursing league to host fashion show

Michigan League for Nursing's fourth annual fashion show, auction and luncheon "Signature on Style '95" is Saturday, Oct. 21. The event will be held at St. Mary's Cultural Center in Livonia.

This year the honorary chairman is Denise Dador, health editor, WXYZ-TV, Channel 7. Fashions are provided courtesy of Twelve Oaks Mall and coordinated by Take Time Fashion Services.

Doors will open at 11 a.m. with a silent auction; A variety of auction items including baskets donated by the Schools of Nursing program in Michigan will be available.

Proceeds from the event will benefit MLN special projects including the student achievement scholarship awards. Ticket prices are $30. For more information, or to buy tickets, call the MLN office at 313-427-1900.

School choice bill headed to senate floor

BY TIM RICHARD
STAFF WRITER

Parents would no longer have to ask permission from the local school board to take their children to another school district under a bill speeding its way to the state Senate floor.

But school administrators tried in vain to tell the Senate Education Committee that the so-called "Michigan Education Freedom Act" will return them to the bad old days before 1982. That was when schools tried to cream each other's top scholars and athletes, and whites fled from black districts.

"We were losing 200 students a year. They were leaving for racial reasons," William Bedell, superintendent of Romulus and a former Livonia administrator, said at an Oct. 6 public hearing.

"You will feed into bigotry. It exists. You will damage us financially," Bedell told panel Chair Leon Stille, R-Spring Lake, and the bill's sponsor, Sen. Bill Schuette, R-Midland.

"It will be easy to demonstrate de jure segregation," Bedell said. Despite its industrial wealth and high state of computer technology, Bedell said, Romulus has 30 percent minority enrollment, 33 percent transients, and 50 percent "at-risk" students. Total enrollment is 3,800.

Bedell predicted "disaster" for neighboring school districts such as Willow Run, Ypsilanti and Inkster, too, because they not only would lose students but state aid of $5,600 per pupil.

Roger Perry, a high school counselor in Jackson, said his district has 30 percent minorities while neighboring districts have less than 1 percent. "I don't have to tell you what will happen," Perry said.

Opponents complained — and Schuette admitted — the bill had no money for poorer parents to transport their kids to neighboring schools of choice. "It's strictly for rich people," said Phillip DeForest, a school employee from Schuette's home town of Sanford.

But Larry Patrick, vice-president of the Detroit school board, supported the bill, saying parents would find it "a challenge" to get their kids to a school of choice. "Parents would rather be free than not have the option at all," he said.

Race card

Schuette afterwards expressed anger at Bedell's and Perry's comments, accusing them of "playing the race card. I'm saddened by it." Told Detroit buses don't run into the suburbs, Schuette continued to argue against putting transportation funds in the bill because "transportation dollars will divert much-needed funds from schools."

The 3-2 Republican majority pushed the bill to the full Senate calendar over the objections of Democrat Ken DeBeausseart, who wanted to discuss it at meetings with schools in his district, and Gary Peters of Bloomfield Township, who asked for fuller committee deliberations.

"I'm not sure what will change," said Stille, calling for an immediate vote. Schuette's bill sailed through on a 3-0 vote with the two Democrats abstaining.

Schuette said his choice bill will give parents "freedom to choose the public school of their choice. Under current law, if you want to go to another school, the parent needs 1) permission of the district of residence and 2) permission of the receiving school."

His bill would erase the need for the losing district to approve the transfer but allow the receiving school to say no.

Mike Boulos, executive director of the Middle Cities school lobby, said current law was born in 1982 when North Muskegon "pirated the brightest students and best athletes" from neighboring districts. "We have demographic doughnuts — the central cities have the holes, the suburbs have the dough. This bill focuses on the doughnut but leaves the hole."

Schuette criticized

Many speakers criticized Schuette for arguing "concepts" but failing to offer statistics or research about areas which tried cross-district schools of choice.

Wendy Wagenheim, of the National Council of Jewish Women office in Southfield, said she was "dismayed" at Schuette's lack of research to support his bill. Wagenheim said the bill failed to provide for transportation, failed to require potential receiving districts to admit applicants, set forth no standards for switching districts and made no provisions for widely varying per-pupil spending between districts.

"Most parents choose (another district) for convenience rather than educational reasons," said Wagenheim — a point that Schuette's supporters inadvertently demonstrated.

Personal stories

There was Mark Vanra, a Barry County father who teaches in Allegan County while his wife teaches in Kalamazoo County. "They made what he called 'a logistical choice' — two kids would go with mom to Kalamazoo County, two with him to Allegan. It didn't happen."

"I called the Delton superintendent (in Barry County), and he refused. The school board said no. The reason they gave was it was their policy to turn us down," Vanra said.

There was a Lake County mother who sought to send her children to a Newaygo school because "we are building a home to be near my parents; we have established relations with a dentist and doctor in Newaygo; we have strong social contacts."

Schuette supporters said "our children belong to us, the parents," but school officials treated kids like government property.

Schuette said schools of choice would raise educational quality and was challenged by Eastpointe teacher Joyce LaLonde and Sen. Peters.

"What solid evidence or research shows the benefits?" asked LaLonde.

Asked Peters: "Is this going to affect quality for all schools?"

Replied Schuette: "I don't know... I am convinced... I think it will improve."

Peters: "I understand the principles. I'm trying to get a handle on the practicalities."

Schuette: "It's not a quantity issue. It's a principle issue."

Rural residents supported Schuette's bill, charging that officials, arbitrarily or for financial reasons, wouldn't let them transfer kids.

National competition showcases beefy recipes

The National Beef Cook-Off showcases beef in contemporary meals developed by amateur cooks from across the country. Contestants are challenged to create innovative, quick cooking recipes with beef.

The rules are simple: recipes must be exclusively beef, preparation and cooking time must be less than 60 minutes, the recipe can contain no more than eight ingredients.

"Sounds simple," you say? According to Cynthia Hodges of Ann Arbor who was one of this year's 15 national finalists (and who has entered the contest before), "winning the Michigan Beef Cook-off first helped me gain the confidence needed to pull off an entry in the National Cook-off."

Hodges, who has a baby due sometime in December, admitted that she "must have fine tuned her entry recipe at least a hundred times" and tried it out on her husband Andy, relatives, neighbors, friends and co-workers at Ford Motor Company in Dearborn where she is an engineer.

"It was an honor just having a cook-off contestant representing the great state of Michigan" piped in Maggie Nelson of the Michigan Beef Council in Okemos.

Nelson said she was impressed with Cynthia's trendy recipe. It included stir-fried beef sirloin, dried Michigan cherries and pine nuts, an idea that came from one of Hodges' favorite restaurants, Craig Common's The Common Grill in Chelsea.

Although Hodges did not finish in the top five, an all expense paid trip to the cook-off in Little Rock, Ark., with her husband was "everything she had hoped for."

But just what is it that makes a winning recipe, especially a national winner?

Hodges, along with many of the other cook-off entrants, subscribe to "The Cooking Contest Chronicle," a monthly newsletter that explains who's having contests, and offers tips on what it takes to enter a winning recipe.

Creating a winning recipe

Every single contestant that I queried at the cook-off agreed the most important part of entering a contest is to follow the two "R's" - Read and follow the Rules exactly.

And just where do you think winning ideas come from? The National Cattlewomen's Association polled past winners and found that most winning ideas come from ideas in cookbooks and magazines followed closely by a favorite dish enjoyed at a restaurant.

Regardless of the source of inspiration, the end result must be an original recipe - not someone else's. Changing a title, substituting black beans for pinto and/or changing a seasoning or two does not turn a "borrowed" recipe into an "original."

The Cattlewomen's Association also polled past judges who said they look for a taste that is current for today's lifestyles; healthy, easy to prepare, readily available ingredients; and flavors that work well together.

Winning beef recipes all claimed to offer just what the judges were looking for - good, tasty recipes with a healthy slant that anyone can prepare.

So you think you have a winning recipe? The folks at the 21st National Beef Cook-Off offered 15 contestants a chance at over $45,000 in cash prizes, not to mention designer Tappan ranges, microwave ovens and Steuben crystal vases. All of this is in addition to the all expense paid trip to wherever the cook-offs are.

The next contest will be in Tampa, Fla. National Cook-off contestants are treated like royalty. In addition to having all of the finalist's recipes appear in national television promotions featuring the well-known "Beef - It's What's For Dinner" slogan.

And if you think the beef industry is shelling out big bucks for their contest, the folks at Pillsbury have upped this year's ante in their national bake-off to over one million dollars!

If you would like additional information on how to enter the beef cook-off, or would like to request a colored brochure highlighting all 15 of this year's contestants, and their recipe, in the 21st National Beef Cook-off, send a self-addressed stamped envelope to The National Beef Cook-Off, 444 North Michigan Ave., Chicago, Illinois 60611.

See winning recipes inside. Chef Larry is a freelance writer for The Observer & Recreative Newspapers. To leave a voice mail message for him dial (313) 953-2047 on a touch tone phone, then mailbox number 1886.

SPECIAL WRITER

The Michigan Chefs de Cuisine Junior Hot Foods Team, coached by Oakland Community College faculty member Daniel Rowlson and Chef David Iselli (an OCC graduate) was really cooking up a storm at the 1995 National Convention of the American Culinary Federation in New York City.

The team comprised of students from Oakland Community College in Farmington Hills, and Schoolcraft Community College in Livonia even overcame an unbelievable obstacle. Due to an oversight on the part of the competition organizers, the fish Rowlson's team received in a "mystery basket" of ingredients was rotten.

Rowlson said he was extremely proud of how his team handled the situation and compensated for the loss of an important part of their menu while under such pressure and scrutiny.

Their composure, quick thinking, cooking expertise, and skill in preparation and presentation captured a first place award, gold medal, and trophies for the team at the convention.

"This is really quite a feat because it's very rare for students from different culinary schools to work together," explained Rowlson, a chef instructor in the Culinary Arts program at OCC for the past 16 years. "It was a great thing."

This was the third annual cook-off sponsored by R. L. Schreiber, Inc., a major food supplier. The competition was between four regional winning teams, the culmination of hours of practice.

The practice started in November with tryouts for 22 students from Oakland Community College, Macomb Community College, and Schoolcraft Community College. Competitors had to be a student in the culinary arts program, or an apprentice, and a member of the American Culinary Federation.

Two Michigan Chefs de Cuisine Junior Hot Food Teams of four students each from the area schools were formed with one alternate. They immediately began weekly six-hour practice sessions where they would be given what is known as a "mystery basket" of food similar to what would be used in competition.

The basket contained main ingredients like fish, meat, greens, vegetables and fruits. The students would have a limited amount of time to prepare a menu, cook a four-course meal, and present the food on plates ready to serve.

Both teams participated in the American Culinary Federation 1995 Central Region Conference Junior Hot Food Competition in New Orleans on March 4 to qualify for the national competition.

The two Michigan Chefs de Cuisine teams placed fourth with a silver medal and first with a gold medal.

The fourth place, silver medal team was comprised of OCC students Aaron Carmichael, (Oxford), and Norma Parker, (Waterford);

The gold medal team capturing first place, and a shot at the national title, were OCC students Maurice Hodson, (Farmington Hills); Sean O'Rourke, (Warren); and Donna Pylar, (Utica); and Schoolcraft Community College student Karen Williams, (Bloomfield Township).

The winning team began cooking again in April with weekly practice sessions at area restaurants using different equipment and "mystery baskets" supplied by various chefs who evaluated the student's performance.

Practice continued through May and June until the well-oiled cooking team, including alternate-adviser-manager, Gerneil Franklin of the Bloomfield Hills Country Club, traveled to New York City for the national competition.

They competed against winning teams from the other three regions - Northeast (Balsams Resort, N. H.); Southeast (Puerto Rico); and West represented by Orange County, Calif.

Teams received identical "mystery baskets." They had 30 minutes to plan a menu for a four-course meal to serve ten people. They had four hours to prepare the meal and 20 minutes to serve it.

Seven judges critiqued the effort, and 85 percent of the score was based on taste.

Meals were evaluated on creativity, culinary skills, sanitation, teamwork, and final product appeal.

"It was really something," said an elated Rowlson upon capturing first place.

Make cookies in four sizes from one recipe

Cookies come in lots of different sizes these days. They can be itty bitty, as big as a pizza, and nearly every size in-between. And, they all can be made from the same dough - if you know just a couple of baker's secrets.

First, you'll need a recipe for a good basic drop cookie like a classic oatmeal cookie. Next, there's the size to consider - how big (or small) you'd like the finished cookies to be. This will determine the baking time and possibly the oven temperature as well. As a general rule of thumb, the larger the cookie, the longer the baking time. For very large cookies, it's necessary to reduce the oven temperature 25 degrees to prevent the cookie from over baking around the edges before it is baked in the center.

The "Mini To Monsters Oatmeal Cookie" is the perfect oatmeal cookie for the job. Included with the basic recipe are directions for shaping and baking "minis" (1-inch), "in the middle" (2-1/2 inches), "megs" (4 inches) and "monsters" (12 inches).

The following tips from the Quaker Kitchen will help ensure that large, small or in-between, every batch will be perfect.

- For the "in-the-middle," use a measuring teaspoon. Round the dough just over the top of the teaspoon and use your little finger to push dough from teaspoon onto cookie sheet.

- When making the "minis," use miniature chocolate pieces.

■ For the "in the middle," use a measuring tablespoon and a small rubber spatula to push dough from tablespoon onto cookie sheet. To allow for spreading, space dough 2 inches apart.

■ For the "megs," measure dough with a 1/4 cup measure (dough should be level with the top of the measuring cup) and use a rubber spatula to transfer dough onto cookie sheet. Leave at least 4 inches between each cookie.

■ To prevent dough from sticking to fingers when shaping the "monster" try dipping fingers into granulated sugar.

■ Preheat oven according to the cookie size you've selected, and test cookies after the minimum baking time. For chewy cookies, your finger should leave a small impression in the center. For crisp cookies, centers should feel firm to the touch.

■ Let "megs" and "monsters" cool a few minutes on the cookie sheets to firm up before transferring to a cooling rack. When transferring the "monster," use two large wide spatulas or pancake turners.

■ To serve the "monster," place cookie on cutting board and use a sharp knife to cut into wedges, pizza style.

GRECIAN SKILLET RIB EYES

- 2 well-trimmed beef rib eye steaks, cut 1-inch thick (approximately 1 pound)
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
- 2 tablespoons crumbled feta cheese
- 1 tablespoon chopped pitted Kalamata or ripe olives
- Lemon slices (optional)
- Seasoning:
- 1 1/2 teaspoons garlic powder
- 1 1/2 teaspoons dried basil leaves, crushed
- 1 1/2 teaspoons dried oregano leaves, crushed
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper

Combine seasoning ingredients. Press into both sides of beef steaks. In a large nonstick skillet, heat oil over medium heat until hot. Place steaks in skillet; cook approximately 10-14 minutes for medium rare to medium doneness, turning once. Sprinkle with lemon juice. To serve, sprinkle cheese and olives over the steaks and garnish with lemon slices, if desired. Makes

QUICK ITALIAN BEEF AND VEGETABLE SOUP

- 1 pound lean ground beef
- 1 large clove garlic, crushed
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 cans ready to serve beef broth (about 14 ounces)
- 1 can (14 ounces) Italian style stewed tomatoes, undrained and broken up
- 1 cup sliced carrots (1/4-inch thick)
- 1 can (15 ounces) cannellini or Great Northern Beans, rinsed and drained
- 1 medium zucchini, cut lengthwise in half and crosswise into 1/4-inch slices
- 2 cups torn spinach leaves, lightly packed

Heat a Dutch oven or large saucepan over medium heat until hot. Add ground beef and garlic; brown 4-5 minutes, breaking beef up into crumbles. Pour off the drippings. Season beef with salt and pepper. Stir broth, tomatoes and carrots into the beef. Bring to a boil; reduce heat to low. Simmer uncovered, 10

SAVORY BEEF AND CHEESE ROLL-UPS

- 1 pound well-trimmed deli roast beef, thinly sliced
- 2 packages (6 ounces each) garden vegetable flavor soft spreadable cheese
- 4 large (10-inch) flour tortillas
- 1 cup shredded carrots
- 1 cup shredded Monterey Jack Cheese (optional)
- 8 leaves green leaf lettuce

Spread cheese evenly over one side of each tortilla; top each with 1/4 cup of the shredded carrots and 1/4 cup of the shredded Monterey Jack cheese. Layer lettuce and deli roast beef over the carrots, leaving a 1/4-inch border around the edge. Roll up tightly; wrap in plastic wrap. Refrigerate 30 minutes before serving. To serve, cut each roll diagonally in half. Makes 4 servings.

Bake a monster of a cookie

See related story on front. Recipe courtesy of Quaker Oats.
MINIS TO MONSTERS OATMEAL COOKIES

- 1 cup (2 sticks) margarine or butter, softened
- 1 1/4 cups firmly packed brown sugar
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 2 eggs
- 2 tablespoons milk
- 2 teaspoons vanilla
- 1 1/4 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt (optional)
- 2 1/2 cups Quaker oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked)
- One 12-ounce package (2 cups) semi-sweet chocolate pieces
- 1 cup coarsely chopped nuts (optional)

Determine desired cookie size; heat oven to temperature directed below. Beat margarine and sugars until creamy. Add eggs, milk and vanilla; beat well. Add flour, baking soda and salt.

- Stir in oats, chocolate pieces and nuts; mix well. Portion dough into desired size and bake as directed below. Cool 1 minute on cookie sheet; remove to wire rack.
- Mini Cookies: Drop by rounded measuring teaspoonfuls onto ungreased cookie sheet. Bake at 375 degrees F. 9 to 10 minutes or until light golden brown. Yield about 8 dozen.
- In-The-Middle-Cookies: Drop by measuring tablespoonfuls onto ungreased cookie sheet. Bake at 375 degrees F. 9 to 10 minutes for chewy cookies or 12 to 13 minutes for crisp cookies. Yield about 5 dozen.
- Mega Cookies: Drop by 1/2 cup measuring cupfuls about 4 inches apart onto ungreased cookie sheets. Bake at 350 degrees F. 17 to 19 minutes for chewy cookies or 20 to 22 minutes for crisp cookies. Yield about 2 dozen.
- Monster Cookies: Lightly grease two large cookie sheets. Divide dough into 2 equal portions. Place each portion onto prepared cookie sheet. Pat dough into large circle about 11 inches in diameter. Bake at 350 degrees F. 25 to 30 minutes for chewy cookies or 30 to 35 minutes for crisp cookies. To serve, cut each cookie into 24 servings.

Variations:
■ Signature Oatmeal Cookies: Prepare cookie as recipe directs except substitute 1 cup (any combination of) raisins, mixed diced dried fruit, crushed toffee pieces or candy-coated chocolate pieces for 1 cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces.
■ Ice Cream Sandwich Cookies: Spread softened ice cream or frozen yogurt on bottom side of one cookie; top with a second cookie. Wrap in plastic wrap or aluminum foil; freeze. Remove from freezer a few minutes before serving.
■ Peanut Butter-Filled Sandwich Cookies: Beat together 1/4 cup creamy peanut butter, 1/4 cup (1/4 stick) margarine or butter softened, 1 1/2 cups powdered sugar and 3 tablespoons milk until smooth; mixture will be stiff. Spread on bottom side of one cookie; top with a second cookie.

Culinary arts students share prize-winning recipes

See related story on Taste front.
The Michigan Chefs de Cuisine Junior Hot Foods Team, coached by Oakland Community College faculty member Chef Dan Rowson, and Chef David Iselli (an OCC grad), won first place at the 1995 National Convention of the American Culinary Federation in New York on July 19.

The seven-member judging team was headed by Chef Roland Shaffer, U.S.A. Culinary Olympic Apprentice Team coach.

Here are some of the winning recipes.

APPLE ORANGE CHUTNEY

3 Granny Smith Apples, peeled and small diced
2 oranges
1/4 cup brown sugar
1/4 cup cider vinegar
2 tablespoons brandy
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
Using a zester remove orange zest in thin strips. Remove orange peel and segment the oranges. In 1/4 cup of water blanch the orange zest for about 5 minutes or until tender. Remove and set aside.

Combine the apples, vinegar, brandy, sugar, cinnamon and mustard and cook until apples are tender. Fold in orange segments and zest.

PUREE POTATO AND LEEKS

2 cups leeks, dark green removed, washed well behind leaves
1 cup green onions, minced
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup heavy cream
8 Idaho potatoes, peeled, large dice
1/2 gallon water
1 tablespoon onion salt
1 teaspoon garlic powder
3 tablespoons Kosher salt
Sauté leeks in butter until tender. Add the cream and onions and simmer until thick, 8-10 minutes. Puree leek mixture in a food processor.
Bring the water and seasonings to a boil. Add potatoes and simmer until tender in the center when pierced with a fork. Remove, drain well, and mash with an electric mixer for about 2 minutes or until smooth. Fold in the pureed leek mixture and season to taste with salt and white pepper. Serves 10.

GARDEN VEGETABLE SOUP

12 Roma Tomatoes
2 onions, skin and ends removed
2 carrots, peeled
1 zucchini
1 yellow squash
1/2 Fennel bulb, stems removed
4 cloves garlic, minced
1/4 cup olive oil
2 teaspoons Kosher salt
2 quarts chicken stock
1/4 cup margarine
1/4 cup flour
2 tablespoons fresh basil, minced
2 teaspoons fresh chives, minced
2 limes, juiced
Salt and pepper to taste

Roughly chop all vegetables, place on a large baking tray, toss with garlic and oil, sprinkle with Kosher salt and roast in 375 degree F. oven for 30-45 minutes until vegetables are tender, but not burnt.

While vegetables are roasting, bring chicken stock to a boil in a thick bottom pot. In a separate sauce pan melt the margarine, add the flour and stirring constantly with a wire whisk, cook for 2 minutes. Add the flour-margarine mixture to the hot stock whipping until smooth and cook 1 minute until the stock returns to a boil and thickens slightly.

Add roasted vegetables to the stock mixture and simmer for 45 minutes.

Process the soup through a food mill and then through a medium strainer.

Add the basil, chives and lime juice and adjust the final seasonings. Serves 10.

TOMATO-BASIL FOCACCIA

6 ounces (3/4 cup) warm water about 90-100 degrees F.
1 tablespoon fresh yeast
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon olive oil
1 1/2 cups bread flour
1 tablespoon fresh basil, minced

1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1/2 teaspoon onion salt
Topping:
1 ounce (2 tablespoons) olive oil
1 teaspoon cornmeal
2 tomatoes cut in half, seeds removed, and cut into a medium dice
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon dried basil

In the mixing bowl of a heavy duty electric mixer, combine the yeast and water. Cover the bowl with a kitchen towel and let sit for 10 minutes. Bubbles will form and it will smell of yeast.

Add the remaining ingredients and with the dough hook mix on medium speed for exactly 8 minutes. Again cover with the towel, set the bowl in a warm (not hot) area of the kitchen and let the dough rise until double about 45 minutes. Punch down the dough, form into a round ball and let the dough relax about 10 minutes.

Place 1 tablespoon of olive oil in the bottom of a 9-inch cake pan. Sprinkle the pan bottom with cornmeal. Press or roll the dough into a 9-inch circle. Place into the pan, brush the dough with olive oil and top evenly with tomatoes, 1/4 teaspoon salt and dry basil.

Let the dough bench proof for about 10-15 minutes. Place in a pre-heated 425 degree F. oven for about 15 minutes. The dough will be golden on top and bottom. Check the bottom for an even golden by lifting up the edge of the focaccia. Return to the oven if not completely cooked.

Let the dough cool in the pan for about 15 minutes, remove and cut into 10 even pie shaped wedges.

'To Die For' a biting black comedy

JOHN MONAGHAN

Que Van Sant is the best bad director around. Most filmmakers would follow a stinker like 'Even Cowgirls Get the Blues' with something more commercial, more Hollywood-friendly.

she proves that she has the looks to snag some wealthy television executive? The end of the film is also muddled since Van Sant, who obviously has an aversion to dry courtroom scenes, expects us to fill in too many gaps as to how Stone beat the murder rap.

Hip: Even while they were dating, Larry (Matt Dillon) knew Suzanne (Nicole Kidman) was the girl he was going to marry in 'To Die For.'

moments, it's certainly not the best. To leave a message for John Monaghan, dial 953-2047, mail-box number 1868, on a touch-tone phone, fax him a note at 691-7279, or write him in care of Entertainment, Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia 48150.

The story is loosely based on the much-publicized case a few years ago of a woman who seduced some high school boys into doing the deed. Van Sant recognizes this as TV movie fodder so plays it for the darkest kind of comedy imaginable.

Suzanne Stone has one goal in life: to follow in the footsteps of idols Connie Chung and Jane Pauley. Dressed for success in short skirts and brightly colored blouses, she enters a local cable station and bugs the manager until he hires her.

She wants to make a documentary about teen views so recruits a trio from the local high school as her subjects. Her long hours at the cable studio start to grate on her otherwise understanding husband (Matt Dillon), whose family owns an Italian bar and restaurant.

Her story is framed by interviews with the major players, from Stone's parents and in-laws to the murderers herself, who rationalizes everything but (much to the chagrin of police) never admits that she has done anything wrong. The boy who actually pulled the trigger tells his story in prison blues.

These scenes remind me of a 'Current Affair' interview I caught with the real-life gunman, now serving a life sentence and still harboring the pathetic thought that the older woman who put him up to it really loves him. You laugh at these kids because they're such losers but also feel terrible at how they are so manipulated.

Van Sant has recruited his own talented ensemble. Buck Henry, who appears on screen as a high school teacher, also wrote the script. Danny Elfman brings the right blend of fun and foreboding to his musical score. Even cult director David Cronenberg shows up in a key scene near the end.

Perhaps the nastiest trick in 'To Die For' is how sexy it all is, yet with surprisingly little nudity. Dressed in a seemingly limitless and hilarious wardrobe, Mrs. Tom Cruise has the kind of effortless sexuality that the other Stone (Sharon) would do her own dying for.

Yet too much of the movie doesn't add up. Why, for instance, does a career-minded woman marry the local bartender when

City slickers love the western look

Best you think the country/western craze peaked a couple of years ago and has gone the way of Lyle Lovett (remember Julia Roberts' ex?), you better dust the trail dirt off your boots and polish up your spurs because cowboy clothing is still the rage.

"We have a new customer who is sampling prairie skirts, denim shirts, moccasins and tooled leather belts," says Kelly Cottone of Arizona Saddlery, 1687 S. Woodward in Birmingham. "Professional people are buying distressed doekin boots that are as fine and supple as their best dress shoes and they even gander up to the Stetson display. The only thing they shy away from is the fringed suede jacket."

Prairie party

Cottone cited the recent Oakland Family Services Great Western Roundup as a particularly good weekend for sales. Hundreds of city slickers sidled into the store for fancy western party duds and Cottone believes she made a believer out of some of the novices. Once you're hooked on line dancing and barbeque, there's no turning back. Cottone's sister Linda Lee Leannais manages the Arizona Saddlery location in downtown Rochester, and she shared her picks for this fall's hottest western wear. Sometimes hot items are defined by celebrities like the Brooks & Dunn flame shirt ($47.95) made famous by Garth's album cover and his concert appearances. Ellen Barkin posed for photos in Allure magazine wearing a Gucci leather belt with a horse bit buckle. That photo generated so many calls that Arizona Saddlery now makes a similar belt while you wait and their custom design is around $150 compared to Gucci's $325.

Other popular items include "Mo" Betta collarless shirts in flashy motifs ($56.95), Bay-Apache distressed, oiled boots in various skins from shark to kangaroo ($195-$260), bone belts made of cow bone, buffalo horn, glass and silver ($125), and accessories like silver boot straps ($26.95) and tips.

Days gone by

Arizona Saddlery boasts over 30 different styles of cowboy hats and offers custom steaming of creases if you inherited your granddaddy's old Stetson that needs a little refurbishing.

Thinking of gettin' hitched? Leannais' store displays three different styles of wedding gowns, all lace and all under $500. They are embellished with crystal fringe and appliques, and come complete with a cowboy hat trailing a long white train.

Over at Scott Colburn, 20411 Farmington Rd. in Livonia, a special trunk show featured Wah-Maker Cowboy Clothing, the traditional garb that embodies the spirit of the American frontier. Popular styles include the Cavalry Bib Shirt, an old-west military post staple that was designed to provide protection from dust, wind and cold while astride your silk bandanas called Wild Rags; Duckies or old-time stockmen jeans with suspender buttons, a button fly, and two riding pockets; and herringbone trousers for a Saturday night hoe-down or a poker game at the saloon.

Scott Colburn also specializes in boots from famous names such as Tony Lama, Justin, Dingo, Lucchese and Lucado. The midwest lassie of the country craze? You bet.

And if you haven't tried the Cotton Eye Joe or spun your partner through the western swing, you just may be missing a rip-roarin' good time. Get yourself a long frilly denim skirt, a fitted pair of jeans, a Concha belt and some red beads and hit the dance floor.

Malls host jail-bail for March of Dimes

The Mother's March for Dimes was never this fun! Beginning Oct. 10, the March of Dimes annual fundraiser features a cocktail party, Jail and Bail, and the Internet!

This year's March of Dimes fundraiser combines community, computers, and celebrity company, to aid the fight against infant mortality and birth defects.

First, there's a cocktail party to kick-off the event at Parisian Department Store, Laurel Park Place in Livonia. Next, is the 8th annual four-day Jail and Bail Program. And last, but definitely not least, is "Jocks In Cyberjail" or pledge raising on the Internet.

"Jail and Bail is the chance for you to get revenge on a snoring husband, a television remote junkie, or a forgetful co-worker, while raising money for the March of Dimes," said spokeswoman Margaret Champagne.

Jail and Bail takes place Tuesday, Oct. 17, through Friday, Oct. 20, at seven "jail" locations: Tel-Twelve Mall in Southfield, Wonderland Mall in Livonia, Arborland Mall in Ann Arbor, Macomb Mall in Roseville, Renaissance Center in Detroit, The Eatery in Flint, and the Frenchtown Mall in Monroe.

For a $25 fee to the March of Dimes, the "jailbird" of your choice will be picked up at work or a public location, and transported by March of Dimes Police to the closest jail site. Once in the "March of Dimes Court of Law," the accused goes before a "March of Dimes Judge". Bail is set and the jailbird is sentenced to one hour "hard labor" — unlimited use of the telephone to call family, friends, and co-workers to raise bail in the form of pledges to the March of Dimes.

All inmates are released and returned to their normal day after raising their bail or spending one hour in jail — whichever comes first. Call (810) 423-3200 to book your pick-up, or fax (810) 423-3229.

New twists to the campaign are the cocktail party and use of the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers On Line Network to raise additional funds to fight birth defects.

Eric Gaskins couture: clean and classic

BY SUSAN DEMAGGIO
STAFF WRITER

When you grow up with a mother who is a school principal, and a father who teaches music, the academic world surely beckons. But for soft-spoken, low-keyed Eric Gaskins, 37, the future was Seventh Ave., and his own couture business.

Sophisticated style: Designer Eric Gaskins builds an architectural quality into his creations with texture, form and color.

"Yes, I guess you'd think I'd be a teacher," he said during a recent trunk show at Jacobson's in Birmingham where he busily measured and fit customers in his winter collection. "But, when I was a teen, I became fascinated with the glamour and the clothing in Vogue magazine, which I'd look through after school with my twin sister. We'd pick out things we liked and didn't like, and I guess those fashion images had a profound effect on me."

The German-born and Massachusetts-bred designer said he knew he wanted to create women's clothing since he was 16. He pursued an art/fashion degree at Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio, and after graduation, apprenticed in Paris as an assistant to Givenchy!

"I was part of a whole group of young designers who worked on drawings for his licensed accessory lines. Not many of my designs were selected for use, but what an experience! I created all day long," he reminisced.

Back in the states by 1981, Gaskins continued to sharpen his skills with several design jobs. He launched his first labeled collection in 1987.

"I like classic. I like clean," he explained his design philosophy. "I want my customers to be able to wear the clothing they buy from me for more than one season. I chose to design for women because their fashion can be more creative, fun and interesting than menswear. I use couture fabric from Europe in my collections because it is the best."

An Eric Gaskins original dress can cost anywhere from $800 to $2,600. Lois Walts of Bloomfield Hills explained why she wears Gaskins' designs.

"I bought some things from his spring collection and I always felt very well dressed in them," she explained. "They're beautiful. Fun. Not trendy. I can wear them years from now, so they're a good investment."

Gaskins' designs are sold in fine department stores and specialty boutiques like Jacobson's, Barneys New York, Saks Fifth Avenue, Roz & Sherm, Linda Dresner, Neiman Marcus and Lord and Taylor. Celebrities who wear his clothes include Melanie Griffith, Vanessa Williams and Mariah Carey.

Gaskins enlists old-world couture techniques to insure quality and consistency in his creations. His fall collection includes pure, sophisticated styles in satin, silk and linen crepes and chiffons, with subtle mixes of colors, shapes and graphics. Silver lurex lends shimmer as it threads through sheer organza and merges into metallic-burst brocades.

With a staff that now numbers 10, Gaskins said he feels like a real businessman on Fridays when he must make payroll for folks with families that depend on him. "That's pressure," he said. "I worry about that

The party takes place, Tuesday, Oct. 10, from 8:30-8:30 p.m. at Parisian in Laurel Park Place. Distinguished guests will place themselves on "Metro Detroit's Most Wanted List" and proceed to raise ball for the March of Dimes. The "Most-Wanted" get to participate in a drawing that includes a walk-in part in the film "Deadrun" being produced locally, plus the chance to win autographed jerseys, and theater tickets.

Highlights of the evening include hors d'oeuvres, entertainment by the Michigan Arts String quartet from Interlochen, an art exhibit arranged by Albert Scaglione of Park West Gallery in Southfield, with purchase discounts to all guests. Chairing the event are Anne Mervane, director of Gov. Engler's southeast Michigan office; Dan Nemes, C.P.A. of Nenia Allen & Co. of Bingham Farms; Teresa Tomeo WXYZ-TV reporter, and Albert Scaglione.

"Jocks in Cyberjail" introduces computer technology via the Internet to help the March of Dimes reach more people than ever before," Champine explained. "Jocks in Cyberjail put well-known sports figures from the Detroit Pistons, Neon and Vipers in need of bail-outs from Cyberjail."

Internet users can pledge to have their favorite jocks bailed out. A pledge form is available on the screen for the user to fax to the March of Dimes office. With a minimum $25 pledge, the participant is entered into a drawing for sports tickets, signed jerseys, autographed basketballs and more. The drawing will be held on Dec. 10, 1995.

"We're excited to be able to help the March of Dimes in this way," said Susan Dorris of the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, sponsor of the On-Line program. "With the use of the Internet, we can reach so many more people and raise so much more money for a very worthy cause. I can't think of a better use of the Internet."

Look for "Jocks in Cyberjail" on the World-Wide Web at <http://eoeline.com/> beginning Oct. 10.

more than cutting into expensive fabrics."

To escape the frenzied world of fashion and finance, Gaskins, a bachelor, recently took up the sport of dressage. "It involves total concentration," he said. "I can't think of anything but maneuvering that horse in tight quarters. I find this really helps me relax."

WESTLAND SPORTS SCENE

Western Lakes tennis

Livonia Stevenson, North Farmington and Northville are expected to duel Tuesday for the Western Lakes Activities Association girls tennis title. Defending champion Stevenson will host the meet, which begins at 8:30 a.m. Matches will also be held at the Livonia YMCA and Franklin High School. The semifinal and final matches in eight flights will be played later in the day at Stevenson. Admission is free.

Knights ice opponents

The Livonia Hockey Association Knights Pee Wee AA hockey team opened the 1995-96 season last month by winning the Sylvan, Ohio Opening Face-Off Tournament, beating Ann Arbor in the finals at Tam O'Shanter Arena, 4-0.

The Knights also downed host Sylvania (9-0), Royal Oak (7-0) and Ann Arbor (8-2) to earn a berth in the championship.

Kevin Marlowe played all four games in the net for the Knights, who are sponsored by Chrysler Industries, American Representatives, Johnson Stamping and Major Magic Pizza.

Under-18 Hawks 1st

The under-18 Michigan Hawks won five straight matches, including a 5-0 win in the championship final over the Guelph, Ontario, Royals, at the recent Troy Soccer City Classic.

The Hawks, coached by Paul and Dominic Scicluna, also defeated Brighton United (3-0), Waterloo, Ontario, United (10-1), Kitchener, Ontario, Spirit (2-0) and the Rochester Roadrunners (4-1).

Members of the Hawks include Lizz Szkybalo, Mamie Vanderburgh, Christine Wilson and Angela Siggia, all of Livonia; Julie Buczek and Mari Hoff, Canton; Jodi Coyle and Jennifer Parviainen, Plymouth; Kristah Mantouffal, Redford; Amber Berendowsky, Brighton; Anna Cieszkowski, Beverly Hills; Shannon Stevens, Tara Bilovis and Laura Montecillo, Troy; Gina Dawson, Bloomfield Hills; Kim Van Cleef, Detroit; Kristie and Andrea Matthews, Perrysburg, Ohio.

Lady Ocelots prevail

Suddenly, everything is looking up for Schoolcraft College's women's soccer team. The Lady Ocelots ran their win streak to five-in-a-row Wednesday with a second-half surge that propelled them to a 3-0 victory at Central Michigan Wednesday.

SC is now 6-3 overall and moved up in the NJCAA rankings to seventh.

The Ocelots overcame a scoreless first half against a feisty Chippewa team with a dominating second half.

"They don't give up," said SC coach Nikki Johnson. "They go for the ball the whole 90 minutes. They don't give up after 76 minutes."

Which is exactly what Johnson has been stressing to her team since it wanted a two-goal lead to Meramec in the final 10 minutes and lost. Her efforts have paid off. "They've been doing very well (since)," she said.

In the win over CMU, Stephanie Surma opened the scoring, heading the ball in off a free kick from Holly Kimble (from Livonia Stevenson). Amy Marcoe (Stevenson) made it 2-0, retrieving a shot from Erin Stacherki (Livonia Churchill) that deflected off a Chippewa defender and rifling it home from 18 yards out.

The final goal was the result of a penalty kick by Jamie Whelan (Garden City), awarded after a hand ball inside the box.

College soccer notes

Notre Dame senior midfielder Regen Coyne (Livonia Stevenson), who has started all 10 games this season, has seven goals and 33 assists for her career. The Irish, ranked No. 2 nationally in the IBAA Coaches' Poll and No. 4 in Soccer America, are off to a 9-0-1 start (through Oct. 2).

■ Freshman Margaret Wirth (Livonia Churchill) had two of the University of Toledo's 3-2 overtime victory over Eastern Illinois. Wirth ranks third for the 8-3 Rockets in scoring with nine points.

■ Western Michigan University junior volleyball player Lisa Gunn (Livonia Ladywood) recorded a team-high 14 kills and one service ace Friday as the host Broncos defeated Eastern Michigan in a Mid-American Conference match, 15-13, 15-9, 15-12.

The victory improved WMU's record to 5-11 overall and 2-4 in the MAC.

Gunn is a former All-Observer and All State pick with the Blazers.

Glenn stymies Falcons, 17-7

BY NEAL ZIPPER
STAFF WRITER

In Lauri Niskanen's coaching career, he never could remember such a bizarre occurrence.

The play came early in the fourth quarter of the Farmington-Westland John Glenn football game, Tralling 10-7, the visiting Falcons were set to punt when the snap from center accidentally hit the halfback's shoulder.

Glenn took possession of the ball at the Farmington 34-yard line and scored five plays later to take a 17-7 lead, which also was the final score.

"I've never seen that; I'm not sure what happened," Niskanen said. "I'm not sure if the upback was lined up a few inches off or what."

It's been that type of year for the Falcons, as the loss officially eliminated them from contention in the Lakes Division and the state playoffs.

Farmington is 2-4 overall and 1-3 in the division.

The Rockets, on the other hand, are alive and well. Glenn, 3-1 in the division and 5-1 overall, plays at division leader Livonia Stevenson Friday for first place.

Glenn looked impressive on both sides of the ball and like a team that had left behind a 21-20 loss to Walled Lake Central a week earlier.

The Rockets were led by 6-foot-5 senior tailback Jay Jackson, who carried 28 times for 172 yards and scored both of Glenn's touchdowns. He has nine touchdowns overall and 732 rushing yards.

Sophomore Justin Berent quarterbacked a flawless Glenn offense, which compiled 304 yards without committing a turnover. Berent completed eight of 15 passes for 77 yards.

"The sophomore is getting better each week and the team has complete confidence in him," Glenn coach Chuck Gordon said.

The Glenn defense did its job, holding the Falcons to 153 yards (48 in the second half). Farmington's Jake Siskoosky, who entered the game averaging 172 rushing yards, was held to 69 on 21 attempts.

After a scoreless first quarter, Glenn built a six-play, 49-yard scoring drive that Jackson capped with a 16-yard run up the middle. Junior Steve Palling kicked the extra point.

Farmington countered with an impressive 14-play drive that ate up 5:52. Siskoosky put the Falcons on the board with a 3-yard run — his 14th touchdown of the year — and senior Jon Hoad added the extra point.

The score remained 7-7 as Palling missed a 29-yard field goal attempt just prior to halftime.

Glenn took the second-half kickoff and a 10-7 lead on a 21-yard Palling field goal. The 12-play drive featured six runs by Jackson.

The turning point was the bad snap on the punt that set up Glenn's final score — an 11-yard touchdown run by Jackson.

The Falcons weren't finished as Nick Latra returned the ensuing kickoff to the Glenn 45.

Farmington mounted a quick drive to the Glenn 13, but senior safety Ian Wade ended hopes of a Farmington comeback when he intercepted Tim Streit's pass at the 3-yard line.

Wade injured his left knee on the play and might be out for the remainder of the season. It was Glenn's first serious injury of the season and could be costly as Wade is also the backup quarterback.

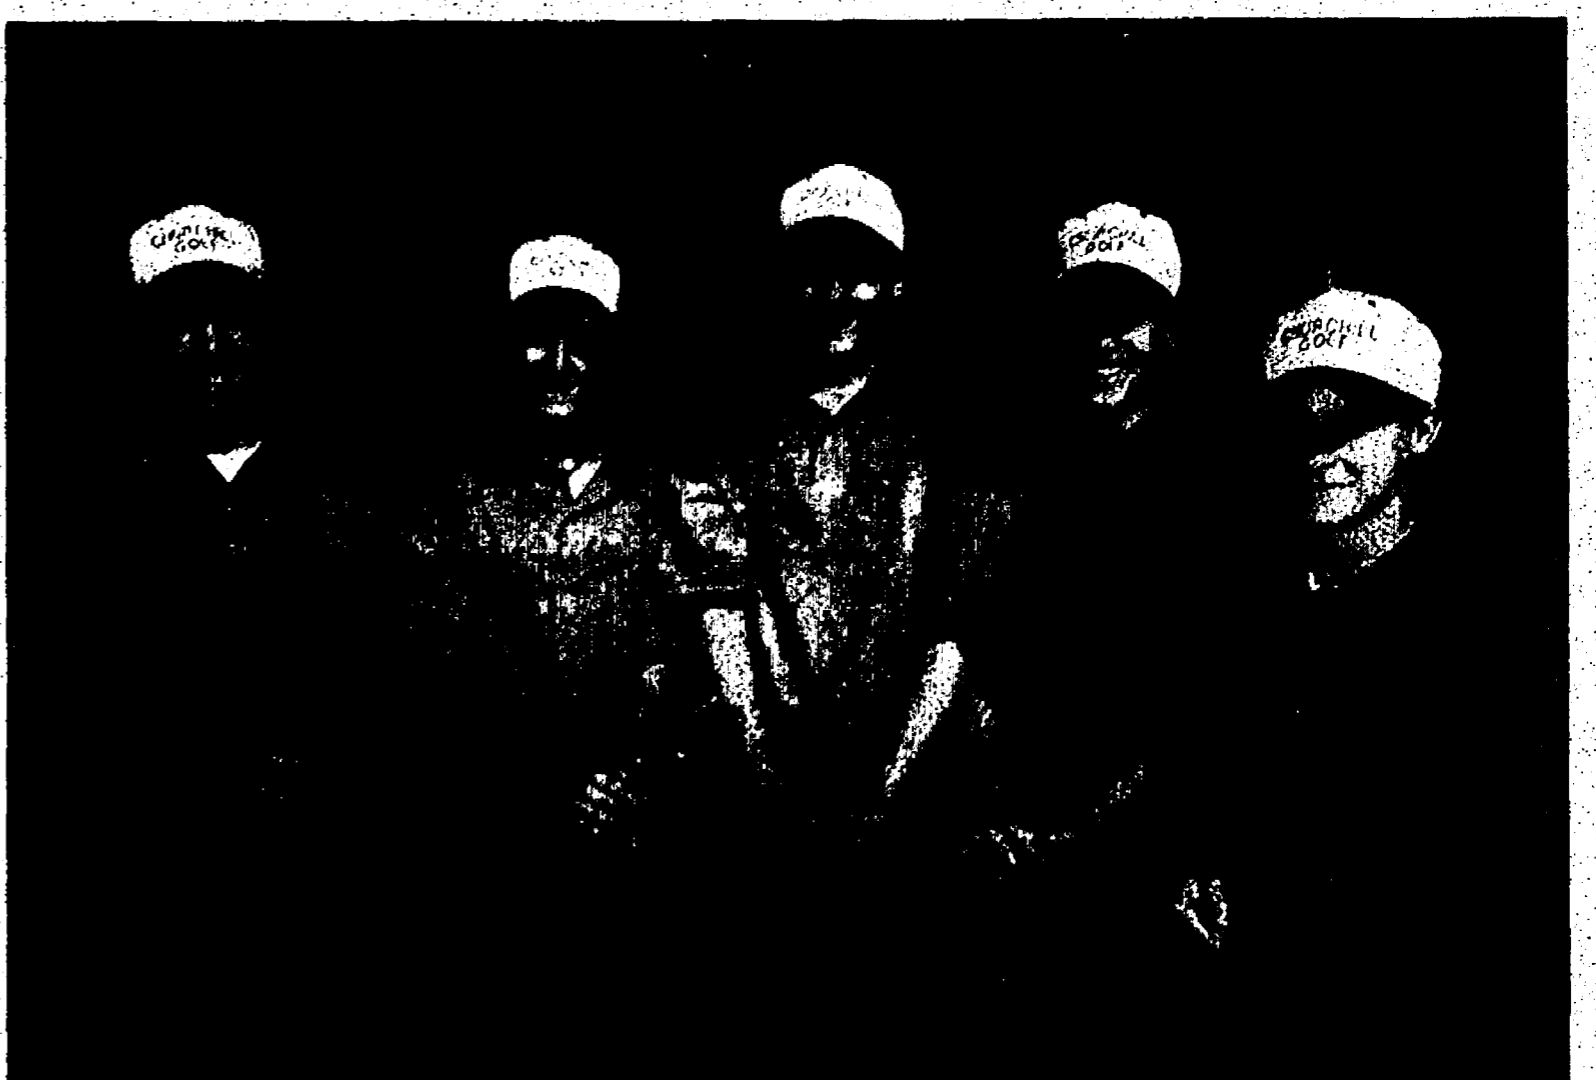

Talented Chargers eye state

BY BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

It may be a little too early to start thinking about replacements for the 1997 Ryder Cup team.

But perhaps Team USA captain Lanny Wadkins could keep a long list around with the names Chris Kiehler, Dave Higham, Gary Kraus, Mike Cotter, Leon Kashawlic and Jeff Kilgore in mind.

Those six are the reason why Livonia Churchill is ranked one of the state's top 10 teams in Class A.

GOLF

The Chargers have won just about everything in sight this season — like nine of 10 dual-meet matches, the only loss coming against Western Lakes Activities Association leader Plymouth Salem on the slippery greens of the Rocks' home course (Hilltop) — not to mention firsts at the Pinckney Invitational and the Plymouth Best Ball tournaments.

On Sept. 25, in a dual meet at Whispering Willows, the Chargers posted a new WLAA five-man low total score of 184, besting their own mark of 186 set last season.

The Chargers, however, are far from satisfied. They're anxiously looking ahead to two of their biggest matches of the year.

On Tuesday, Churchill will vie for the Western Lakes Activities Association crown in the 12-school meet at Links of Pinewood. They won it in 1993, but lost on a sixth-man tiebreaker to nemesis Salem in '94.

On Friday, Churchill will be gunning for one of three qualifying berths in the Class A regional at Oak Pointe. Last season the Chargers missed going to the state meet by one stroke. "I don't judge success on whether you win or lose," Churchill sixth-year coach Kirk Osler said. "What makes this team so unique is that they care so much about each other. They're a close-knit group and they're all involved in one thing . . . to play good golf, which is something you don't run across too often at this level."

This is arguably Churchill's best team since the 1985 season when the Chargers, led by Dean Kobane, were state runner-up in the Class A team finals to Rochester High. Kobane, the 1985 individual runner-up and '86 champ, went on to play at Pepperdine University (Calif.) and the University of Michigan.

Churchill's top three scorers this season have been Kiehler and Higham, both seniors, and Kraus, a junior. Through 11 meets, Kiehler averaged 37.2 strokes per nine; Higham, 37.9; and Kraus, 38.8.

All three are also members of the Churchill hockey team. Five of the team's top six play hockey.

"It's the hand-eye coordination with a similar swing and weight shift from hockey to golf," Osler said. "The slap shot and the golf swing are similar. Give me a handful of hockey players and I can work with them."

"Darren McCarty (of the Red Wings) took it up eight years ago and he's a natural. It's a natural transformation."

Osler calls Higham "a talent."

After an 18-hole first-round 81, Higham came back and shot a low round 71 at the recent O&E Men's Golf Tournament held at Whispering

Willows. "Dave's strength is the swing itself and the ability to hit the ball," Osler said. "He has the ability to shoot 72 each time out. And his strength is the best since Kobane as far as ball striking."

"But sometimes his mind gets wayward. He has to remember to stay focused for four hours and manage shot by shot."

Kiehler, who leads the team in birdies, shows a tough mental approach to the game.

"His ball striking is above average, but he can manage himself around a golf course," Osler said. "He probably has the best short game."

Razor-sharp Warriors roll through Clarenceville, 21-0

BY BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

Lutheran Westland's football team cleaned up its act Saturday.

The Warriors, who have been plagued by penalties and fumbles all season, earned their first victory ever over Metro Conference foe Livonia Clarenceville with a 21-0 homecoming triumph.

The Warriors are now 3-3 overall and 3-2 in the Metro, while Clarenceville falls to 2-4 and 2-3.

"I told our kids that if we don't make mistakes, we can play with anybody on our schedule," said Lutheran Westland first-year head coach Scott Wiemer, who was doused afterward with a container of water. "We finally played the way we're capable of, and that makes me happy."

Lutheran Westland's only penalty came with 4:48 left when the outcome was already in the books. The Warriors did not cough up a fumble and allowed only a pair of harmless interceptions.

Ironically, Clarenceville moved the ball better in the opening half, but drives stalled at the Warriors' 24, 33 and 45-yard lines.

"We moved the ball up and down between the 20s," Clarenceville coach Chuck Donaldson said. "Our backs ran well, but once we got down to the 20 or 30, I don't know why we stopped moving the ball."

The first Warriors' score occurred with 4:29 left in the half when Wiemer decided to go for a first down on fourth-and-3 at the 50. Senior Mat Baltz bolted through a stacked-up Trojan defense and raced 50 yards for a touchdown.

"We were out of defensive alignment," Donaldson said. "One of our linebackers was not there and the kid broke through the hole, and he was gone."

The fact the Warriors decided not to punt might have thrown the Trojans off.

"We ran unbalanced right after going left all game, and it seemed to catch them off-guard," Wiemer said.

It was all Warriors in the second half.

Junior tailback Albert Cook, who led all rushers with 137 yards in 15 carries, scored on a 6-yard TD run in the third quarter and added a 54-yard TD run in the final quarter.

The Warriors rolled up 310 yards total offense, 281 coming on the ground. Quarterback Kris Skov was five of eight for 49 yards, but was intercepted twice (by Donahue Fulton and Craig Rose).

Top rusher: Albert Cook paced Lutheran High Westland with 137 yards and two touchdowns in a 21-0 win.

Clarenceville had 119 yards on the ground, led by Bryan DeCaire's 71 yards in 15 carries. Quarterback Rob Ashton, who left the game late in the third quarter with an elbow injury, was four of seven for 21 yards.

The Warriors' defense, led by the inside penetration of 6-foot-1, 286-pound tackle LeRoy Turner, kept Clarenceville off the board.

"Our defense had me worried the first half because they marched up and down the field on us," Wiemer said. "But we did a good job after that, and we didn't want their tight end (John Rose) to beat us because he's their big-play guy."

Hawks need late score to nip Pats

One of the biggest football upsets of the season was averted Saturday when state-ranked Farmington Hills Harrison rallied in the final two minutes to beat Livonia Franklin, 22-21.

Senior tailback Jason Granger, held to his lowest rushing total of the season (99 yards in 27 carries), scored on a 19-yard run with 1:45 to go to give Harrison the win.

"Our defensive coaches Steve Friar and Chris Whelan came up with a great game plan and our kids did a darn good job containing this guy (Granger)," said Franklin head coach Rick Lee. "We worked at it and worked at it all week. We were also a lot sharper this week. We had only one breakdown and one penalty (for 5 yards)."

Harrison, 6-1 overall, also improved to 4-0 in the division, clinching at least a tie for its 13th Western title in 14 years since the Western Lakes Activities Association was formed.

Patriots misfire, but zap Churchill

By BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

Somehow the math just didn't add up.

The winning team shoots only 29 percent from the floor, but wins by 20 points.

"I have to give credit to our girls for playing defense," said Franklin girls basketball coach Gary Warner, whose team snapped a five-game losing streak Thursday with a 46-26 victory at Livonia Churchill. "They've really worked hard. We've really played good defense throughout the year."

"We probably devote 75 percent of our practice time to defense, but maybe if I split it up 50-50, we might be able to score more points."

Franklin, using a pressing and trapping full-court scheme, forced the Chargers into 26 turnovers.

The Patriots are now 6-5 overall and 2-3 in the Western Lakes Activities Association.

Franklin, despite making just 20 of 68 shots from the floor, had a friend in Churchill.

The Chargers, who pulled within nine points midway through the final quarter after trailing 20-3 halfway through the second period, shot 19 percent on the night (nine of 47).

Many of the Chargers' misses came uncontested at point-blank range.

"We just couldn't make the shots," said Churchill coach Dave Balog, whose team is 1-10 overall and 0-5 in the WLAA. "What are you going to do?"

Churchill, outscored 12-2 in the decisive fourth quarter, missed its last 12 shots after going six for eight in the third quarter.

"Our kids didn't get down," said Balog, whose team trailed 25-10 at intermission. "We decided to come out and play the second half. I told them at half-time that they've got to suck it up because they (Franklin) were pushing us around in our gym." Franklin's leading scorer, Tracy Rynkiewicz, faced a box-and-one defense. The senior guard managed to score 11 of her game-high 14 points in the first half.

"We did a nice job of the box-and-one for awhile, but their other kids stepped up and made baskets," Balog said. "It's awfully hard to beat them when they do that."

Kellie Main, a senior center, scored six of her 12 points in the final period to help stem a Churchill rally. Junior guard Aimee Parenti chipped in with eight points.

"My girls were able to come back, realized what was going on and came back," Warner said. "Churchill came out to play in the second half. And they played hard. They established a good game plan. Give their girls credit."

Jessie Jenkins, a junior forward, was the only Charger to score in double figures. She finished with 13 points.

Dawn Pertulla added seven points, while Kathy Stein grabbed 16 rebounds.

"We've got a good group of kids who won't quit," Balog said. "The girls are down, but they'll bounce back tomorrow. You have to stay on the positive side. They go out each game and think they can beat anybody, and that helps."

Borgess trips Blazers

If it does nothing else, getting hammered in a game tells you it's time to try something else.

Which is exactly what the Livonia Ladywood basketball team did Thursday night when it played host to Redford Bishop Borgess.

Pounded 70-24 the first time around, coach Lisa McPhee of the Blazers figured she couldn't do any worse by a change in strategy.

It worked — to a point. That point, unfortunately for Ladywood, was the second quarter. Because after Ladywood surprised Bishop Borgess with a 17-16 first quarter, the Spartans zoomed away to a 23-6 margin over the next two periods en route to a 51-36 victory.

"Lisa had a good defensive scheme," coach Dave Mann of Borgess said. "She went to a matchup zone. It was a little different look from the first time we played. They did a good job."

Bishop Borgess is now 10-2 overall and 6-0 in the Detroit Catholic League's Central Division, while Ladywood is 1-10 overall, winless in six league games.

"She's doing a great job with those kids," Mann said. "They haven't won, but in the first half they lost three games by two or three points. For them to come out and play us like they did, she did a real nice job."

Maxann Reese scored 12 of her 16 points in the opening quarter to help Bishop Borgess stay in the hunt. Sophomore Koren Merchant also scored 16, but got 14 of hers in the second half. Adriane Bryant added 11.

Ladywood got 15 points from

senior Kathy Dankert and seven from her junior sister Mary. Senior guard Nicole Hayden played well, McPhee said, as did Katie Law who also had seven points.

Bishop Borgess used a 10-4 second quarter to take command.

"We started to run with them, which you can't do," McPhee said. "We had to regroup, and they got a couple of baskets off it."

SALEM 62, JOHN GLENN 31: Fans must have enjoyed watching this game since both teams combined for only 12 fouls (seven for Salem, five for Westland John Glenn).

Salem's fans must have enjoyed it a little more because of the final outcome.

Sophomore guard Amanda Abraham led Salem with 16 points and 10 assists and freshman center Andrea Pruet added 12 points.

The Rocks improved to 6-4 overall and 2-2 in the Western Lakes Activities Association. Glenn fell to 1-8 overall, 0-5 in the WLAA.

Rochelle Harris and Katy Duncan led Glenn with 11 points each.

N. FARMINGTON 64, STEVENSON 55: If you left after the first quarter Thursday night, you missed quite a comeback by Livonia Stevenson.

The Spartans trailed 27-7 after one quarter before rallying over the next three quarters to take a 53-51 lead on a three-point shot by senior guard Marie Wilson with 20 seconds left.

North's Kellie Fournier made two free throws with 14 left to tie the score and after a Stevenson traveling call, Carrie May's three-point basket that banked in at the final buzzer gave the Raiders the win.

"Take away the first eight minutes and the final shot — and the Spartans played a sensational game."

"Everything in between was 'storybook,'" Stevenson coach Wayne Henry said. "If we did anything well (after the first quarter), it was play defense, not just one girl, the whole team."

Fournier made five three-point field goals and four of four free throws for 19 points. She had 12 points, all from three-point shots, in the first quarter. May finished with 15 points, seven rebounds, and five steals and Melissa Gray contributed 12 points.

"We were in a match-up zone in the first quarter, obviously we were a little slow matching up with Fournier," Henry said. Wilson scored 13 of her 18 points in the fourth quarter, including three triples.

Senior center Stacy Nichols led Stevenson with 19 points.

North is 7-3 overall and 3-2 in the Western Lakes Activities Association, Stevenson 6-5 and 2-3.

LUTHERAN WESTLAND 47, CRAWFORD 23: The win streak moved to 10 Thursday as host Lutheran Westland pulled away in the third quarter against Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook-Kingswood.

The Warriors are 10-1 overall, 4-1 in the Metro Conference. Kingswood fell to 4-6 overall, 3-2 in the Metro.

Freshman center Janell Twietmeyer led the Warriors with 14 points and eight rebounds. Junior guard Jenny Twietmeyer contributed eight points and four others had five each.

Janell Twietmeyer had six points and Jenny Twietmeyer five in the third quarter when the Warriors outscored Kingswood, 21-9, for a 34-17 lead.

Lutheran Westland made 12 of 21 free throws and Kingswood was seven of 18 from the line.

WAYNE 52, TRENTON 31: On Thursday, Wayne Memorial held the visiting Trojans to 16 points through three quarters en route to the Mega Conference Red Division victory.

The win moved Wayne to 8-2 overall, 3-1 in the Red. Trenton fell to 6-5 overall, 3-2 in the Red.

Wayne jumped to a 15-6 lead after one quarter and led 28-12 at halftime. The Zebras outscored Trenton, 10-4, in the third quarter to push the lead to 38-16.

Junior Yolanda Holt led the winners with 16 points, 10 rebounds and six steals. Rice Barge had 15 points and eight rebounds and sophomore Natalie Garrison had a career-high 10 points.

Kristina Rogers had eight points for Trenton.

MURON VALLEY 58, BAPTIST PARK 31: On Friday, host Westland Huron Valley Lutheran used a 14-5 run in the second quarter to beat Taylor Baptist Park in a Michigan Independent Athletic Conference encounter at Marshall Middle School.

Melissa Gumbia scored a team-high 10 points for the victorious Hawks, now 8-4 overall and 2-1 in the MIAC.

Amy Mobacci added eight points, while Becky Haddad and Jenny Michaels each contributed six.

Royale Reed and Jenny Michaels tallied 12 and 11, respectively, for Baptist Park (3-5, 0-1).

Stevenson boys outrun Salem Rocks; Franklin girls race by Walled Lake

Plymouth Salem owned the best of the talent. Problem was, the Rocks didn't have as much of it as Livonia Stevenson.

The top two spots went to Salem runners at Thursday's boys cross country dual meet, but the Spartans captured five of the next six positions — and that was just enough to eke out a 27-28 triumph at Cass Benton.

"They had to do it that way," Stevenson coach John Gores said of his team's successful pack running, which boosted the Spartans' record to 3-1 in the WLAA and to 2-1 in the Lakes Division.

It wasn't enough to satisfy Gores, however. "We need to develop a front-runner," he said. "We have a pack, which is nice, I guess. But we need to get that front-runner."

A front-runner is something the Rocks have in Scott Pengelly, who finished first in 16:44. Jared Binniecki was second (17:07).

After that, however, the meet was dominated by Stevenson. Rob Block was third (17:16), Scott Kwiatkowski was fourth (18:12), Mike Felczak took fifth (18:24), Jason Hayward finished seventh (18:37), and Mike Brown placed eighth (18:38).

Salem's other scorers were John Little, sixth (18:33); Japbir Gill, ninth (18:42); and Jason Barylaki, 10th (18:57).

The Stevenson girls, ranked No. 2 in Class A, won in a washout.

And it wasn't just caused by

the weather, although Thursday's nonstop rain made conditions far less than ideal. But it's doubtful that Salem, which happens to be a pretty good team, could have done anything to derail Livonia Stevenson.

The Spartans continued their dual-meet dominance with a 15-0 victory over Salem at Cass Benton. Stevenson runners collected the top seven places in running their record to 4-0 in the WLAA, 3-0 in the Lakes Division.

"We talked about it beforehand and I think they pretty well knew they couldn't win," said Stevenson coach Paul Holmberg. "So (Salem) ran pretty conservatively."

Kelly Travis finished first for the Spartans in 19:53. Next was Kelly McNeilance (20:40), with Jeannette Stojcevali third (21:12), Kim McNeilance fourth (21:12), Laura Pilon fifth (21:16), Della Dumitrescu sixth (21:40) and Jessica Cyburt seventh (21:42).

Leah Retherford was Salem's top finisher, taking eighth (22:12).

Franklin girls win

Freshman Carrie Boven took first in 21:17, leading the Livonia Franklin girls to a 23-32 WLAA-Western Division victory Thursday over Walled Lake Western at soggy Nankin Mills.

The Patriots are 2-2 overall and 2-1 in the division.

Other Franklin girls in the top 10 included Jenny Furlong, third (22:38); Suzie Lukofsky, fourth (22:41); Mo Biegas, sixth (23:21); and Kerry Welsh, ninth (23:49).

In the boys meet, Western prevailed, 21-41, behind the one-two-three finish of Jason Aspinall (17:02), Aaron Goldberg (17:51) and Harold Bremer (17:52).

Franklin, 1-2 in the division and 1-3 overall, took the next three places — Tom Hall (17:57), Jason Wolfe (18:46) and Tom Taylor (19:02). Sasha Knight added an 11th (19:29).

Canton sweeps Churchill

Becky Wolfrom, who covered the Cass Benton Park course in 20:51, led Plymouth Canton to a 17-44 WLAA-Western Division girls win Thursday over Livonia Churchill.

Canton is now 3-0 overall and in the division. Churchill drops to 0-4 and 0-3.

Katie Singer was the Chargers' top finisher in 22:45. Jeannette Martus added a 10th in 25:52.

In the boys meet, Canton, led by Ian Bedford's 17:24 clocking, took the first seven places in a 15-50 win over the Chargers.

Canton is 3-0 overall and 3-0 in the Western division. Churchill falls to 0-4 and 0-3.

Churchill's top finishers were Pat Nicholl, eighth (19:10); Corey Cramb, ninth (20:25); and Jason Leland, 10th (21:00).

Homecoming heartache for Churchill

BY BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

Livonia Churchill's football team did everything but put one in the victory column Friday before an enthusiastic homecoming crowd.

The Chargers had leads of 14-0 and 21-7, but Northville spoiled the evening with a come-from-behind 28-21 victory.

Northville quarterback Scott Vigh, eluding sack, threw a dump pass over the middle and teammate Luis Guajardo turned it into a 48-yard touchdown play with 3:12 remaining to give the Mustangs the victory.

Northville is now 4-2 overall and 3-1 in the Western Division of the WLA. Churchill falls to 0-6 and 0-4.

The Chargers, however, looked anything like a team that has gone 1-50 during the 1990s.

"The game meant a lot to our kids and I was proud of them," Churchill coach Steve Naumcheff said. "I'd like to applaud the hard-core Charger fans who have stuck with us. I just hope sometime they will get their just reward."

Churchill, which had scored only 12 points during its first five games, moved the ball with authority, particularly in the opening half.

The Chargers took a 7-0 first-quarter lead with a 65-yard, 13-play drive, capped by Nathan Jerome's 8-yard pass to Jason Kopchak.

Northville, meanwhile, drove twice inside the Chargers' 15, but were stopped. (Kopchak thwarted one threat with an interception.)

Churchill took a two-TD advantage with 2:10 left in the half on Jerome's 7-yard strike to Matt McCormick, but Northville drove 64 yards in 14 plays capped by Vigh's 4-yard TD run with one second remaining to make it 14-7.

With 3:51 left in the third quarter, junior tailback Todd Wilson, who led the Chargers with 96 yards in 21 carries, made a series of nifty cut-back moves for a 35-yard TD run.

Wilson, a triple threat who can also catch the ball out of the backfield, as well as returning punts and kickoffs, finished with 204 all-purpose yards.

"He's sort of an unknown back in our league, but he's a special player," Naumcheff said.

Northville cut the deficit to 21-20 on Vigh's 14-yard TD toss to Tim Burke, but the Mustangs missed the extra point.

A short Churchill punt near midfield led to the Mustangs' game-winning score.

Churchill moved the ball down to the Northville 25 in the final minute, but Jerome, who was eight of 11 passing for 78 yards, was sacked on fourth down with 23 seconds remaining.

Northville led in total offense, 265-216.

Anell Kersey rushed for 90 yards on 23 yards for Northville.

BELLEVILLE 33, WAYNE 14: Wayne Memorial stayed with the unbeaten and state-ranked Tigers for nearly two quarters Friday before the roof caved in.

Belleville is 6-0 overall and leads the Mega Conference-West Division with a 5-0 mark. Wayne drops to 2-4 and 2-3.

Quarterback Nate Lewis got Belleville on the board with 3:12 left in the opening quarter on a 23-yard TD run.

After the Tigers missed the point after, Lewis took an 8-6 lead with 8:37 left in the second period on Lorenz Guess's 7-yard TD pass to Richard Rashad.

Guess, who was 13 of 32 for 190 yards, then hit James Situla for the two-point conversion.

Belleville's Ian Gold, who finished with 144 yards in 24 carries, then scored the first of his three TDs. With 4:15 left in the half, Gold capped a 79-yard, eight-play drive with a 2-yard run.

"The Tigers' Joe Manuel then ripped off a

78-yard TD run with six seconds left in the half to make it 19-8. (Manuel had 147 yards in eight carries.)

In the third quarter, Gold scored on runs of 5 and 33 yards.

Guess and Rashad then hooked up for a 34-yard TD pass with 8:09 left in the game to cap the scoring.

Belleville had 390 total yards, 365 coming on the ground.

The Zebra had a respectable 333 yards to total offense. Tailback Dwayne Jackson rushed for 86 yards in 18 carries.

Wayne led in first downs, 15-14.

Warriors slip past Hamtramck

Lutheran High Westland sloshed its way Thursday to a 2-1 Metro Conference boys soccer win over visiting Hamtramck.

"It was brutal out there," said Lutheran Westland coach Rich Block, whose team is 6-6-2 overall and 2-6 in the conference. "Believe me, I knew it would be low scoring and the (rainy) weather certainly didn't help."

Two sophomores teamed up to give the Warriors a 1-0 halftime lead — Scott Randall scored on an assist from Chris Broge.

Sophomore Brad Woehke made it 2-0 with 27 minutes remaining on an assist from Kenny Shingledecker.

Hamtramck (7-5-1) ruined goalkeeper Adam Danielczyk's shutout bid with eight minutes left. Danielczyk made six saves.

Block also singled out the strong play of senior co-captain Andrew Sieloff, a midfielder; junior defender Chris Wells and senior stopper Mike Faith.

WAYNE 2, ALLEN PARK 2: Chris Daves scored twice Wednesday, enabling Wayne Memorial, a first-year varsity program, to earn a tie with the Mega Conference-Blue Division leading Jaguars.

Wayne is 2-2-2 in the division; while Allen Park is 5-1-1.

STEVENSON 4, FARMINGTON 1: Livonia-Stevenson overcame a slow start Wednesday to wrap up the Lakes Division title for the third straight year in the Western Lakes Activities Association at the expense of the Falcons.

Stevenson, 12-0-1 overall and 5-0 in the Lakes, will meet Western Division champ Plymouth Garden in a rematch of last year's WLA championship game, 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 18, at home.

Mike Minicilli, Paul Tokarczyk, Matt Quinter and Jeff VanDyke scored for the Spartans, who led 2-1 at intermission.

It was Upland's 20th goal of the season.

FRANKLIN 2, W.L. CENTRAL 0: Eric Kracht tallied both goals Wednesday as Livonia Franklin improved to 9-5 overall with the WLA A crossover win over host Walled Lake Central.

Kracht scored on a penalty kick at the 50th minute and added his second 20 minutes later off a corner kick from Eric Bowman.

Franklin coach Dave Hebestreit also praised the efforts of defender Bill Wojtas and midfielder Rob Vega.

Goalkeeper Shawn MacGillis posted the shutout.

CHURCHILL 6, W.L. WESTERN 0: With the victory Wednesday, host Livonia Churchill clinched second place in the WLA's Western Division with a 3-0-2 record.

Brian Zawislak, Jeff Tomlinson and Corey Buzack each scored two goals for the winners.

The Chargers (7-2-4 overall) travel tonight to face Stevenson. The match begins at 7

Spartan tankers romp

Livonia Stevenson captured 10 of 12 events Thursday en route to a 107-79 girls swim victory over visiting Plymouth Salem in a dual meet at the Bentley Center.

The state-ranked Spartans are 5-0 in duals and 1-0 in the Lakes Division of the Western Lakes Activities Association.

Individual winners for the Spartans included Tina Caranicolas, 200-yard freestyle (2:04.12); Marti McKenzie, 200 IM (2:23.45); Julie Kern, diving (26.39); Kelly Carlisle, 100 butterfly (1:01.1); Becky Noechel, 100 freestyle (58.29); Julie Gallagher, 100 backstroke (1:03.26); and Jordyn Godfroid, 100 breast stroke (1:14.89).

The Spartans also took all three relay events.

Carlisle, Godfroid, Becky Noechel and Susan Howle took the 200 medley relay in 1:57.99.

The 200 freestyle relay of Marla McKenzie, Kern, Godfroid and Noechel were victorious in 1:46.4.

Caranicolas, Kern, Godfroid and Marla McKenzie capped the night with a win in the 400 freestyle relay (3:51.76).

Salem winners included Zoe Yockey in diving (233.15 points) and Andrea Hala in the 500 freestyle (6:33.35).

Canton sinks Churchill

Despite the efforts of double winners Kristen Derwich and Mary Corazza, Livonia Churchill fell to host Plymouth Canton in a WLA-Western Division dual meet, 99-87.

Corazza won the 200- and 500 freestyles in 2:06.67 and 5:43.18, respectively. Derwich added firsts in the 50 freestyle (27.83) and 100 freestyle (1:01.64). Maggie Corazza took the 100 breast stroke (1:18.18).

The Chargers, now 2-2 overall and 1-1 in the division, also won the 400 freestyle relay as the Corazza sisters, Derwich and Adrienne Doyle were clocked in 4:06.79.

Canton is 4-2 overall and 1-1 in the division.

Thriller

Franklin, now 1-5 and 0-4 in the division, jumped out to a 9-0 first-quarter lead on a 23-yard field goal by Brandon Bell and a 1-yard quarterback sneak by Dave McMullen (set up by Alan Shakarian's fumble recovery).

On the first play of the second period, Granger had a 2-yard TD run, but Franklin moved ahead 15-7 later in the quarter on McMullen's 28-yard scoring pass to Paul Terek.

A key play occurred in the third quarter when Ed Hight blocked a Patriot punt, setting up Granger's 5-yard touchdown run. The Hawks missed the two-point conversion, but went on top 16-15 later in the period on Kyle Vessel's 34-yard field goal.

In the fourth quarter, Franklin sophomore tailback Anthony Grech (119 yards in 27 carries) capped an 80-yard, 13-play drive with a 3-yard TD run, but Grech was stopped a yard shy on the two-point play.

Harrison had 276 total yards. Junior quarterback Kevin Bambenek was 14 of 23 for 163 yards.

"If you could combine the two (Higham and Kiehler), you'd have the perfect golfer."

Higham and Kiehler first met playing hockey at age 6. They both came out of Frost Middle School and played their first tournaments at 13.

The two work together at the bag drop and pro shop at Western Country Club, both taking lessons from pro Kevin LaFramboise.

Their dads, Derek Higham and Pete Kiehler, are best friends and play golf together.

Kraus, meanwhile, holds the distinction of shooting the low round of the year, a 34 against Westland John Glenn at Whispering Willows. And like Higham and Kiehler, the 11th-grader has been a varsity member since his freshman year.

"I call them the 'three Amigos,'" Oslar said. "Gary is much of the same mold as Chris and Dave. He's a golf rat and would just as soon be playing golf in the summer."

Oslar, a senior who is deadly on the greens, has been a pleasant surprise, according to Oslar. In an

Oct. 2 match versus Walled Lake Western at Whispering Willows, Cotter was medalist with a 35.

"Mike's the exception to the rule; he plays for the enjoyment," said the Churchill coach. "He knows he has talent, but he plays maybe 10 times in the summer. But he's a very good ball striker."

Cotter also has other sporting interests. He plays center field for the Churchill baseball team.

Kashawlic, a senior, made the varsity cut as a sophomore.

"Leon can hit it a mile," Oslar said. "He doesn't always know where it's going, but he can always find it and hit it again. He also plays for the enjoyment."

Kilgore, a junior, has been the team's sixth man and has shown flashes of brilliance. He carded a 39 in a recent dual-meet win against Livonia Stevenson at Fox Creek.

"They all know they have to work hard because every shot counts," Oslar said. "They learned their lesson last year. I don't have to tell them this year."

Sounds a lot like the kind of advice Wadkins would give, doesn't it?

CAR REPORT

900 brightens Saab's profit picture

By Anne Fracassa
Avanti NewsFeatures

BRASELTON, Ga. — Officials from Saab Cars USA say the company expects to turn a profit for the first time in six years based on the 1995 900 3-door coupe and 900 convertible.

Saab plans to sell 3,700 900 coupes and 4,500 convertibles. Both cars are built on the same

ROAD TEST
By

assembly line as the 900 5-door in Trollhattan, Sweden.

The 3-door comes in $2,500 cheaper than its predecessor with a base price of $22,960, with the turbo going for $28,100. The convertible starts at $31,990, with a fully equipped SE with V-6 engine topping out at $38,490.

Backed by a naturally aspirated 2.3-liter 4-cylinder powerplant (a derivative of the Saab 900 engine), the base 900 coupe produces a respectable 150 horsepower at 5700 rpm. Mated to a 5-speed manual transmission, the 900 coupe is in control of the road, taking to winding roads or straightaway highway with the ease of an eagle.

But for the extra $5,000-plus, the 16-valve 2.0-liter turbo engine that produces 185 horses at 5500 rpm can make the old ticker race a bit.

Fast at takeoffs and solidly confident during passing, the turbo option is one to consider. This engine has the highest horsepower output of any 900 previously offered by Saab.

The turbo package also includes a sport suspension group, which further enhances road feel, responsiveness and handling. The turbo models also have 16-inch all-season radials, an audio upgrade and stylish rear spoiler.

Safety features on the 900 coupe include driver's- and passenger's-side airbags, anti-lock brakes, three-point seatbelts for all five passengers and front and rear crumple zones. The car meets 1997 side-impact standards.

Doors open a full 9 inches wider than the previous 900 model, making it even easier to get in and out of. Other unique features include a telescoping steering wheel, center pass-through in the rear to accommodate surfboards or skis and a 40/100 split rear seat for larger loads.

Even with the rear seat folded up, the cargo capacity of the trunk is nearly 50 cubic feet. The audio system also features a volume control that lowers or increases automatically as the speed of the car increases or decreases.

The new generation of Saab 900 coupe is a solid, stylish vehicle. It can accommodate a single person as well as a family and do the job in style and comfort usually reserved for the bigger sedans.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

• Kitchen fires have become the number-one cause of reported home fires, and responsible for one-quarter of all home injuries. Stay in the kitchen while cooking on your stove or while using your oven.

• Space heaters should be placed at least 3 feet from anything that can burn and please remember to turn them off when leaving your home or going to bed.

• Carelessly unattended cigarettes are the leading cause of fire deaths in the United States. Never smoke in bed, provide large deep ashtrays for guests and put water on butts before putting them in the trash.

• Smoke detectors should be placed on every level of your house, to give you and your family plenty of time to escape. Check your smoke detectors at least once a month, replace batteries once a year.

• Immediately unplug any plug, any smoking or unusual smelling electrical appliances and have them repaired. Replace any cracked or frayed cords. Don't overload extension cords or outlets.

These helpful reminders have been brought to you by all of these concerned sponsors
