Barns blasts Kehrer contribution

Westland City Council hopeful Michael Kehrer has returned a portion of a contribution from the Jaycees deemed inappropriate. Justine Barns, veteran councilwoman, is criticizing Kehrer and the Jaycees.

Westland City Councilwoman Justine Barns has accused council hopeful Michael Kehrer of accepting an illegal campaign contribution of $1,000 from the Westland Jaycees.

Barns, criticizing the Jaycees and threatening to seek formal charges against Kehrer, noted in a written statement that the contribution exceeded a $500 limit imposed by state campaign finance laws.

Kehrer admitted a mistake but provided campaign documents showing that he refunded $501 of the Jaycees' money, reducing the contribution to $499.

"I didn't know it was illegal until my treasurer let me know that contributions couldn't be over $500," he said.

Barns, a longtime city legislator and former state representative, is ending a three-decade political career by retiring from her council post in December. She is supporting candidates other than Kehrer in the Nov. 2 election.

Competing for four seats are eight candidates: Kehrer; elected incumbents Glenn Anderson and Charles "Trav" Griffin; council appointee David Cox; and hopefuls James Godbout, David James, Michael Rintz and Dorothy Smith.

Barns issued a one-page statement saying she made the Kehrer issue public following citizens' complaints.

"I was absolutely shocked to discover that Mr. Kehrer did, in fact, accept a $1,000 contribution from the Westland Jaycees, something he knows is illegal," she charged.

Kehrer said he is a first-time candidate, and "to say I would know that (rule) in advance of my first campaign is ludicrous."

'Blatant disregard'

Barns said she, as state legislator, helped pass campaign finance reform bills, "and such a blatant disregard for the law in my own city angered me."

Young cadets test their mettle

BY MARIE CHESTNEY

For Civil Air Patrol cadets, the telephone call to take part in a rescue mission can come any time, day or night.

On one Thursday last January, the call to cadets came from the CAP's Livonia commander, Major David Cotton, in the middle of the night. A small airplane had disappeared in white-out conditions near the Pellston Regional Airport in Northern Michigan. Three people were missing. Rescue workers from throughout Michigan were needed to walk the winter woods in knee-deep snow, looking in rugged terrain for an airplane that most likely had crashed.

Cotton, a Redford resident, wasted no time placing the calls to get four of his squadron's best cadets out of bed: Jacob Holloway, 16, Blake Van Baulen, 17, and Terry Miller, 18, all of Livonia; and Richard Wilson, 15, of Canton.

Within an hour the four teens and their commander were northbound on an icy I-75. Within hours they had arrived at the Pellston airport. By mid-Friday, they were knee-deep in snow in their boots, walking side-by-side in a line, scouring every foot of the wooded area south of the airport.

On that snowy winter January weekend earlier this year, Livonia's Thunderbolt's Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol once again fulfilled one of its main missions, providing emergency help for someone in Michigan in trouble.

Every Tuesday all year long, cadets as young as the age of 11 hone their rescue and military skills in the basement of the Livonia Police Department. Throughout the year, in brown and green military fatigues, they keep physically fit by exercising, marching and running on the grounds near Livonia City Hall.

The Thunderbolts are one of about 50 CAP units in Michigan, all formed to be a volunteer auxiliary of the U.S. Air Force. Many of the cadets in Livonia's 6-year-old squadron eventu-

Youth linked to string of apartment burglaries

BY DARRELL CLEM
STAFF WRITER
dclem@oe.homecomm.net

A Westland teenager faces criminal charges following a string of burglaries that occurred at Fountain Park Apartments, where he lives, police said Tuesday.

The teen is accused of five home invasions from June 22 to Sept. 30 at the apartment complex, on Newburgh Road between Warren and Joy, police Lt. Marc Stobbe said.

The suspect was arrested Monday after allegedly entering an unlocked garage at Colonial Village, a residential complex just north of Fountain Park, Stobbe said.

"People saw him breaking in," the lieutenant said, and they called police.

"He was already a strong suspect in our minds," Stobbe said, adding that the teen had been seen near the sites of other break-ins.

A similar pattern of events had developed during the Fountain Park burglaries.

"He would cut through a screen in the window and push the window in," Stobbe said. "He did this while the people were at work."

The teen is accused of stealing jewelry, money and electronic equipment and selling it in Detroit, Stobbe said. The total value of the items taken wasn't immediately known, but it is believed to be in the thousands of dollars.

The teen, who isn't a student and who isn't believed to be working, hasn't been officially arraigned as of Tuesday afternoon. But Stobbe said it's likely he will face felony charges of first-degree home invasion.

The suspect is 17 and, thus, will be treated as an adult by the court system. The maximum punishment for first-degree home invasion is 20 years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

Mary Denning honored at tasteful chamber gathering

BY JULIE BROWN

"Taste of the Arts" sounds appealing to body and soul, and getting a preview of the event pleased Westland Chamber of Commerce members and guests.

The kickoff for the Nov. 30 "Taste of the Arts" was held Tuesday at Joy Manor in Westland. A highlight was the recognition of Mary Denning, owner of Mary Denning's Cake Shoppe.

Denning, a chamber vice president, received the Sam Walton Business Leader Award. On hand for the presentation were D.J. Chapman and Chico Rodriguez of Sam's Club.

"Everyone's support is greatly appreciated," said Lori Brist, chamber executive director. She described the work of Denning and her committee to make "Taste of the Arts" a reality. Tuesday's award included a $500 check for the chamber from Wal-Mart/Sam's Club, which Denning said will go to the event.

ally join one of the branches of the military.

Miller, a 1999 graduate of Churchill High, recently joined the Air Force and leaves this month for active service.

When a land rescue mission takes place in the U.S., CAP cadets and commanders take their place beside local police, firefighters, Coast Guard, Red Cross and other rescue agencies in providing aid.

On this frigid January weekend in the snow-covered forests of Northern Michigan, the four cadets put into practice much of what they had learned in the classroom.

At the airport, Wilson, a Plymouth-Canton student, came face to face for the first time in his life with families immersed in grief.

"I saw the victims' families waiting, just waiting at the airport. It was something I won't forget, seeing people's reaction to a tragedy."

The cadets and Cotton first walked through the deep snow in boots. Then they snared some snowshoes.

Altogether, they spent about five hours trudging southward from the airport until they finally hit a main road.

"We were standing on the road, taking a break, catching our breath, when we got a radio call to return to the base," Cotton said. "We thought, 'They must have found the airplane.'"

The wreckage had been spotted by a U.S. Coast Guard helicopter about three miles southeast of the airport, about a mile away from where the cadets and Cotton had searched, on private land about one-half mile from a main road.

But the Thunderbolts' job still was not done. The Coast Guard recovered three bodies from the airplane and flew them by helicopter to a nearby hospital.

Now it was time for the cadets to secure the crash scene to await investigators from the National Transportation Safety Board.

From 9 p.m. until midnight that Friday, with light from only a small lamp and in sub-zero weather, the cadets and Cotton stood guard around the airplane, providing the security needed until federal investigators got to the site.

At midnight, they were relieved by another crew to get some sleep. Then, from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m. Saturday, they took up their post around the aircraft again. Investigators arrived about 2:30 p.m. and took over the scene.

For Van Baalen, a Churchill High student, the search-and-rescue mission in Pellston brought a "greater understanding" of all the coordination involved in launching a rescue mission.

"I learned what people go through during a crisis, and I learned new ways to help."

Holloway, also from Churchill High, learned the importance of the well-known Boy Scout motto: Be prepared.

"People who fly in small airplanes should pack for every possible situation, to be prepared in case of an emergency."

At 3 p.m., Cotton and the cadets ended their rescue mission.

It was a long drive home. And, for the four cadets and their commander, a lot to ponder on the way.

Bowlers do their bit for cause

A bowling benefit Saturday, Oct. 9, has been deemed a success.

"It stacks up to be the best one so far," said Lt. Chuck Yockey, commanding officer of the local Salvation Army. He estimated this year's Salvation Army Bowlathon raised in the neighborhood of $4,000.

"It was a good year," Yockey said. "Lots of fun."

Yockey said he bowled better at this year's fourth annual event than in the past. The Bowlathon was held at Westland Bowl.

Yockey thanks the sponsors, those who provided money and prizes. "Without them, it wouldn't have been the success it was." He and other organizers look forward to an even better fifth annual event next year.

Contribution from page A1

Barns demanded an apology from Kehrer, who questioned why the issue was raised in October even though he repaid $501 of the Jaycees' contribution on Aug. 30 - long before he knew it would become a campaign issue.

Westland Jaycees is a leadership training organization whose official members are 21 to 39 years old. Kehrer, now 45, is considered a lifetime senator and has helped the organization for more than two decades.

He used his personal credit cards to help the Jaycees stay afloat during a period of financial turmoil in the early 1990s, when it appeared the group would fold. Many members now want to help his campaign out of a sense of loyalty.

"We were not familiar with the rules and regulations of an election," Jaycees President Michele Austin said. "All we saw was that he was a member who has helped us tremendously."

"The Jaycees organization is made up of young adults trying to become better citizens, and through that we will make mistakes," Austin said.

Kehrer and Austin said the campaign contribution came from "internal" funds - members' own money - and not from money raised in the community.

"We want the public to understand that none of the money that we raise in the city for any of our projects or charitable causes was used for this," Kehrer said.

Kehrer twice refused to accept Jaycees' money, he said, but the group insisted on giving $1,000 for campaign signs.

Kehrer said he received the contribution on July 19 and repaid $501 on Aug. 30.

30 days

Anne Corgan, director of the Michigan Department of State's compliance and rules division, said the Jaycees' contribution wouldn't be a problem if the $501 had been repaid within 30 days.

"A contribution that is refunded in whole or in part within 30 business days is not considered a contribution," she said Tuesday.

Even though the money wasn't refunded within 30 days, Corgan said any penalties, at most, would likely be some county filing fees for the Jaycees.

Kehrer narrowly missed the 30-day limit, saying he didn't know about it. He said the county clerk's office had told him just to repay the $501 and reflect it on his campaign finance report, filed Aug. 30.

The same report showing the $1,000 donation also shows that Kehrer repaid $501.

"I have nothing to hide," Kehrer said, adding that he corrected the problem long before Barns raised the issue.

Corgan said a Jaycees donation of $500 or less wouldn't be prohibited by state law.

"Under the campaign finance act, such a contribution would not be prohibited," she said.

Corgan said a $1,000 contribution violates state campaign finance rules, but "if we saw ($500) on the campaign report, we would not consider it to be an illegal contribution."

Barns criticized the Jaycees for donating money to Kehrer, and she implied that the funds from the community would have otherwise gone to "city projects and to help the less fortunate."

Austin said Barns should have called her or other Jaycees to discuss the issue, rather than publicly blasting the group when she didn't have all the facts.

"She has to realize that the young people of this community will be the future leaders," Austin said. "She needs to assist us to get to that point, instead of firing off at us."

"I'm not doing it to be nasty," Barns said Monday by telephone. She said she has complied with state limits on campaign contributions, and she expects others to follow the rules.

Kehrer said the issue has been exaggerated.

"We realized our error. We called the county, and we rectified it," he said.

Austin said she hopes that voters choosing council candidates on Nov. 2 will "make their own decisions" and "not because of some letter from Justice."

Kehrer issued a prepared statement Tuesday noting that he has "always liked and admired" Barns and that he worked on one of her campaigns years ago.

"I am saddened to see Ms. Barns move towards the end of her political career by attacking one of the new candidates," Kehrer said.

Livonia schools applauded for physical education efforts

BY MARIE CHESTNEY
STAFF WRITER
mchestney@oe.homecomm.net

When it comes to winning the highest honor possible from the Governor's Council on Physical Fitness, Health and Sports, Livonia Public Schools has only one more step to climb.

Twice now, based on a scale of 1 through 8, the council has given its highest score in the state to Livonia schools. Two years ago, the district won a 6; this year, the score jumped to 7.

That score of 7 - the only 7 received by a Michigan school district this year - puts Livonia only one step away from snagging an 8, the best score possible from the council.

"Your district is one of only a handful of districts that have actually demonstrated the effectiveness of their physical education program," said Charles Kuntzleman, council chairman. "It's very difficult to receive an award above Level 4. In fact, Livonia's 7 recognition will be the highest commendation awarded in the history of the awards program."

The awards program started

'This award shows we are making a difference in our instruction. We are doing positive things at all levels.'

Fred Price
-assistant director

earlier this decade to combat the high rate of disease among Michigan children. Michigan youngsters reportedly weigh more and suffer more from elevated cholesterol levels and higher blood pressure than children in most other states.

Beginning in the early 1990s, the district has built up its physical fitness program at all three school levels. With an emphasis on each student's personal fitness, youngsters spend much more time in physical education classes, participate in intramural team sports in the middle schools, and work out in a fitness center in each of the three high schools.

To win a Level 7 rating, the district had to provide the state with proof of the ways students had improved in areas such as physical skills, teamwork and understanding health issues, said Fred Price, assistant director of instruction for athletics, music and art.

"We hope to go to Level 8 next year," Price said. "This award shows we are making a difference in our instruction. We are doing positive things at all levels. It shows students are doing pretty well in areas of physical skills and fitness, and points to areas where we need to do better."

New playground equipment being installed at the district's elementaries should help build upper body strength, an area where students still lag, Price said.

"We feel students are still weak in the upper body," he said. To achieve a score above Level 5, districts must give proof that programs are doing for students what they are designed to do, Price said.

"It is here that Livonia surged ahead," he said.

Trial is ordered in attack

A Dearborn Heights man accused of stabbing a Westland man and breaking a glass table top over his head has been ordered to stand trial on four felony charges.

John David Matussek, 31, is charged in a July 17 attack on Hanover Street, where Matussek's girlfriend had gone to visit the homeowner.

Defense attorney Noel Lippman has argued that Matussek was trying to rescue his girlfriend from a drug house when he burst in and fought the owner. Police have said Matussek and his girlfriend had argued and that she went to visit the Westland victim to talk.

Judge C. Charles Bokos has ruled that Lippman's allegations weren't relevant to whether Matussek forced his way into the victim's house and attacked him.

Matussek faces trial for assault with intent to do great bodily harm, first-degree home invasion, malicious destruction of property over $1,000, and felonious assault.

If convicted, he could face a maximum 20-year prison term and thousands of dollars in fines.

The victim suffered numerous cuts and bled profusely, and police said he was injured on his face, nose, abdomen, feet, left torso, left shoulder, left arm and right hand.

Bokos ordered Matussek to stand trial last Thursday, at the conclusion of a two-day preliminary hearing that started Sept. 2.

event," the honoree said.

Tuesday's lunch featured a taste of food to be served Nov. 30. Nancy Barrons, chamber president, urged those present to show up hungry on Nov. 30, as there will be much more food.

The speaker Tuesday was Jacque Martin-Downs, director of the Family Resource Center, which, along with the chamber, will receive proceeds from "Taste of the Arts."

The Family Resource Center was opened at Lincoln Elementary in 1993, Martin-Downs said, attributing much of its success to her predecessor.

"It has been an extraordinarily successful operation." She highlighted center programs, such as parenting workshops and a food voucher program. In the latter, recipients volunteer at the center.

"They walk away feeling better and we're very grateful for the help," Martin-Downs said of the volunteers.

The center also offers one-hour counseling sessions free of charge, plus numerous referrals to sources of help. She cited the many community partnerships, and the center's development of a coming Web site.

"Taste of the Arts" will feature food, fun and entertainment, organizers said. Fine restaurants from the area will participate. There will be music and art provided by Wayne-Westland and Livonia students.

A silent art auction will be featured. The event will be held 6 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 30, at the Hellenic Cultural Center, on Joy between Wayne and Newburgh roads in Westland. Admission/raffle tickets are $20 in advance, $25 at the door.

Prizes will be plentiful, with a grand prize of a trip for two to Las Vegas. Event sponsors include: International Minute Press, the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, the Hellenic Cultural Center, Maui Travel, North Bros. Ford and the Westland Chamber of Commerce. ## PLACES & FACES

Polich honored

Westland resident Barbara Polich has become statewide governor of Civitans, a community service organization. She oversees 23 clubs and 700 Civitans.

Polich was honored last week with a Westland City Council award for her new position and her community service. In turn, she gave the city a plaque.

"That's just like her," council President Sandra Cicirelli said. "We call her here to honor her, and she turns around and honors us."

Mayor's Town Hall

Mayor Robert Thomas' last Town Hall meeting of 1999 is scheduled for 7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 4, at the William P. Faust Public Library of Westland, 6123 Central City Parkway, between Warren and Ford roads. Residents are invited to attend the meeting and voice their concerns or comments.

Reddy appointed

Former Westland Fire Chief Michael Reddy has been appointed to the Wayne County Community College District Board of Trustees.

Reddy, 56, replaces Ted Scott, board chairman, who announced his retirement earlier this year. Scott is also a retired Westland fire chief.

"Ted and I have become very close friends over the years," Reddy said in a WCCC press release. "I don't expect to fill his shoes, but I do promise to serve this area to the best of my ability."

WCCC Chancellor Curtis Ivery welcomed Reddy to the board of trustees but was saddened to see Scott leave.

M. Reddy

"We will greatly miss Ted. He is one of a kind," Ivery said. "But we also wish him the best in his decision to retire."

Reddy will serve residents in the college's 9th District, which includes Westland, Canton, Wayne, Belleville, Huron, Sumpter and Brownstown.

Scott personally selected Reddy for the position and asked that the board appoint him, according to the press release.

Reddy also has served as an appointed member of the Wayne-Westland school board and is currently a Westland Planning Commission member.

Chamber meeting

The Livonia Chamber of Commerce will hold a Five O'Clock Connection in conjunction with the Westland Chamber of Commerce. It will be 5-7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 14, sponsored by AirTouch Cellular, 35105 Warren, Westland.

Price is $5 for members, $10 for nonmembers. For information, call (734) 427-2122.

SMART plans major upgrade of bus fleet over 5 years

BY KEN ABRAMCZYK
STAFF WRITER
kabramczyk@oe.homecomm.net

Dan Dirks believes the SMART linehaul buses log some of the longest passenger commutes in the country.

With an average of nine miles per passenger, the buses are also logging 55,000 miles a year over Detroit's suburban sprawl, which means the larger buses used on SMART's main routes on primary roads are ready for "retirement" at a younger age, said Dirks, general manager of the Suburban Mobility Authority for Regional Transportation.

"Our buses are getting close to the end of their useful life," Dirks said.

SMART expects a new contract in place by January to purchase up to 280 buses over the next five years, but that number is contingent on federal and state funding availability. Each bus will cost approximately $265,000.

Dirks expects SMART to purchase between 200 and 300 buses. "The problem is it takes up to two years to get them," makers against state funding cuts.

Dan Dirks: SMART general manager.

For Dirks and SMART, the new buses represent part of the promises of the 1995 tax campaign: redesigning fixed routes, eliminating a deficit and developing partnerships with communities for more local service.

Dirks highlighted some of SMART's accomplishments:

- Ridership on SMART buses has increased for 40 consecutive months up to about 225,000 riders a week. Ten new routes covering 250 miles provide public transportation where previously none existed. Dirks said ridership grew 5 to 10 percent on one linehaul route that was extended to a Technicolor firm at Newburgh and Palmer.

- New routes were added to Telegraph Road and seven other roads.

- Partnering with local communities through increased community transit, using a fleet of smaller buses for transportation within a community or to adjacent communities.

- A budget deficit of $20 million SMART says was created by cuts in federal funding is expected to be eliminated this fiscal year.

With the new buses, Dirks hopes to better assist the disabled. Many SMART buses currently use hydraulic lifts, which work better on a flat surface, but are difficult to use when the bus is more than 6 inches or less than 2 inches from the curb. If the wheelchair lift is broken, the disabled cannot be picked up.

"It's a complicated piece of machinery that doesn't work that well," Dirks said.

The new "low floor" buses use a floor that is aligned to the curb, so passengers boarding the bus don't have to step up. Passengers in wheelchairs board the bus on a motorized ramp instead of a hydraulic lift.

"If the electronic ramp doesn't work, the driver can manually operate the ramp," Dirks said.

"Once those get on the road, the disabled will never be denied service."

With the new buses, SMART will be standardizing the bus fleet. Currently five different vehicle manufacturers provide buses. "That means there is five separate sets of parts," Dirks said. "What we're looking at is one manufacturer." Dirks expects to save in training costs for maintenance workers.

"We really are a suburban carrier and our fleet needs to reflect that," Dirks said.

While the major routes have shown growth, the community-based partnerships are growing the fastest, Dirks said. "We have people from the local community making decisions on local transportation," Dirks said.

Each community can determine what services to control that will benefit their residents the most. That program has grown to more than 60 community-based programs.

In Livonia, a pilot program recently was started for "remote scheduling" to coordinate schedules from one community to another in using the connector buses. "Someone can call Livonia to check SMART's computer system in Troy to schedule a ride in Warren for a relative who needs the transportation."

"Communities can come up with innovative ways to use SMART," Dirks said. "Harrison Township used the buses this summer to transport people between restaurants and Metro Beach."

"That's why we like these community-based programs," Dirks said. "In a million years, I never would have thought of that."

Dirks emphasizes coordination of Detroit, suburban bus lines

BY KEN ABRAMCZYK
STAFF WRITER
kabramczyk@oe.homecomm.net

Dan Dirks is confident the Suburban Mobility Authority for Regional Transportation and Detroit Department of Transportation can provide better service to its customers by coordinating routes.

As for any merger of the two bus systems, Dirks, SMART general manager, isn't predicting what a consulting firm will find when its report is released soon. "Three things have to happen," Dirks said. "The quality of service has to improve, the quantity of service has to improve and if it costs more money, how can you convince the public it's the way to go?"

But Dirks is encouraged with the coordination between SMART and DDOT. Dirks outlined the following strategies:

- Both systems will begin to use a joint software package for linehaul scheduling, allowing for improved connections at locations where two or more routes intersect.
- Improve radio systems and install Automatic Vehicle Locators. Dispatchers soon will be able to talk with drivers from both systems through a radio interface.

- Join with the Michigan Department of Transportation and Southeast Michigan Council of Governments for a joint bus stop identification project, using global positioning equipment to "geo code" bus stops into the computer mapping system.

- Join with SEMCOG and the Detroit Employment and Training program to bid and receive

Meeting tonight on injection well

BY KEN ABRAMCZYK
STAFF WRITER
kabracyk@oe.homecomm.net

A meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m. today at Romulus High School on an injection well in Romulus that would house liquid hazardous wastes.

Environmental Disposal Systems has applied to the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality to construct a hazardous waste storage and treatment facility at 28470 Citrin Drive in Romulus, near I-94 and Inkster Road.

The Hazardous Waste Site Review Board, a 10-member panel of state and local appointees, will meet to organize and hear about the proposed project. A public hearing is expected to be scheduled in November.

The board was established to evaluate proposals for new hazardous waste management facilities. EDS' application was referred to the board for evaluation.

Wayne County Commissioner John Sullivan (D-Wayne), who serves as an alternate on the board for board member and County Commissioner Ed Boike (D-Taylor), expects members of the public will show up tonight to express their opposition. The meeting is not considered a public hearing but is open to the public.

The board has until April 2000 to recommend whether the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality should issue or deny a construction permit for the facility.

The board will meet in the Romulus High School Auditorium, 9650 South Wayne Road, Romulus.

funding from the Federal Transit Administration for "Access to Jobs" funding.

Both started a reciprocal fare agreement that allows for joint tickets, system passes and transfers, and scheduled information forums for minority businesses to work with the two systems.

Other improvements include joint telephone information for both systems, regional route maps, training and coordinated Web sites.

Dirks believed the biggest key to coordinating the two systems thus far was the gathering of the Big Four — Detroit Mayor Dennis Archer, Wayne County Executive Edward McNamara, Oakland County Executive L. Brooks Patterson and Macomb County Commission Chairman John Hertel — earlier this year to discuss the two systems.

"When it got elevated to the Big Four level, that was encouraging," Dirks said.

House grants tax exemption on Holocaust settlements

An estimated 2,000 to 2,500 Michigan residents are expected to receive payment soon as a result of an international lawsuit over assets lost by victims of the Holocaust during World War II.

And those settlements will be tax free, according to a bill approved by the state House last week. Representatives voted 103-0 Wednesday, Oct. 6, to approve House Bill 4796, sponsored by Rep. Marc Shulman, R-West Bloomfield. All local lawmakers voted for the legislation.

"Nothing can erase the horror of the Holocaust as one of darkest periods in human history," Shulman said, but the passage of his bill shows "a realization that the pain and suffering these people have endured is tax enough." Senate passage is expected to be swift, as is a signature from the governor.

"A tax already has been paid on these items," Gov. John Engler said, "and survivors of Nazi persecution have more than earned the right to enjoy the full benefits of their return."

Similar legislation is expected to win approval at the federal level.

At issue in the lawsuit are assets - bank deposits, artwork, insurance proceeds - left by Jewish families with companies in Switzerland between 1920 and 1945. Some 120 Swiss companies have been identified as possessing an estimated $1.25 billion in assets from victims of the Holocaust. Six Swiss banks have found 50,000 unclaimed bank accounts left behind by victims of Nazi persecution.

The international suit seeks to recover those assets for survivors or the heirs of those who died. A proposed settlement is now under review by a Swiss commission, which is expected to issue its report in November, after which payments could begin.

Some survivors or heirs are expected to receive as much as $200,000, producing a significant tax liability unless exempted from taxation by these proposals.

Engler makes board appointments

Several area residents have been appointed to state boards and commissions recently by Gov. John Engler, including:

■ Robert Hall, of Livonia, is an attorney for the law firm of Rock and Borgelt, P.C. He is reappointed to represent attorneys.

■ Michael David Warren, Jr. of Beverly Hills was named to the State Board of Education. Warren is appointed to replace Clark Durant of Grosse Pointe, who resigned. He will complete Durant's term on the board, which expires Jan. 1, 2003.

Warren has been an associate in the corporate department of the law firm of Honigman Miller Schwartz and Cohn in Detroit since 1997. From 1995 to 1997, he served as the administrative assistant for school code reform for the State Board of Education, during which time he chaired a Department of Education task force that developed an annual education report for taxpayers and also chaired the Governor's Red Tape Task Force regarding charter schools. Warren was a candidate for the State Senate in 1994 and is a member of the Federalist Society of Michigan.

■ Claudia R. Gabay, of Southfield, was appointed to the Electrical Administrative Board, which makes recommendations for electrical code rules, grants annual licenses and certificates to qualified applicants. His term expires Aug. 10, 2002. Gabay is the principal lighting consultant/facilitator of projects for Detroit Edison. She was appointed to replace Ronald Spees, of Jackson, and to represent energy producing utilities.

■ Ronald A. Swartz, of Clarkston, to the Advisory Council on Deafness, which advises the Family Independence Agency's Division on Deafness on matters pertaining to hearing-impaired persons. His term expires Jan. 18, 2002. Swartz is a senior project engineer at General Motors Truck Group. He is reappointed to represent the deaf community.

Fourteen individuals were also reappointed to the state's Site Review Board, which reviews and decides on final approval for each hazardous waste management facility construction permit referred to it by the Department of Environmental Quality. Terms expire Dec. 13, 2001. The following local residents were among those named:

■ Dr. Eugene Perrin, of Huntington Woods, is an adjunct professor of anthropology, pediatrics and pathology at Wayne State University. He is reappointed to represent toxicologists.

■ Thomas Vogel, of East Lansing, is a professor in the Department of Science at Michigan State University. He is reappointed to represent geologists.

Prosecutor, police honored for closing Melody theater

BY KEN ABRAMCZYK
STAFF WRITER
kabranczyk@oe.homecomm.net

Wayne County Prosecutor John O'Hair's office received more than 1,000 pieces of mail from people who appreciated the efforts of O'Hair's and other law enforcement agencies to shut down and demolish the Melody Theater in Inkster.

"We had more communications in that case than I have in any other situation in the last 16 years I've been in this office," O'Hair said.

While some of those letters and cards were an organized effort from an Americans for Decency organization, most were from the Inkster area and surrounding Wayne County communities.

For his efforts, O'Hair was among several law enforcement officials who were honored with resolutions Oct. 7 from Wayne County Commission Vice Chair Kay Beard (D-Westland).

Garden City, Inkster, Wayne and Westland police officers who participated in the investigation were also honored as members of the Metro Street Enforcement Team. Also honored were Wayne County Auditor General Brendan Dunleavy and accountant Grant Alberts for their assistance.

The Metro Street Enforcement Team investigated the theater after it was described on a Web site as a location for males to find sex, according to prosecutors. During visits to the theater, plainclothes officers reported witnessing sexual acts inside the theater on Michigan Avenue between Middlebelt and Inkster.

"(The theater) caused great anguish, not just for the City of Inkster, but the surrounding communities as well," said Beard. Beard's district includes Garden City, Inkster and Westland.

The four police departments are expected to receive $225,000 each - their shares of the forfeiture stemming from a plea agreement reached with the theater owner, who pleaded no contest to a charge of conspiracy to admit persons to a place where lewd conduct occurred. O'Hair's office will receive $100,000.

Sgt. James Ridener and Officer Steve Borsch and Wayne County Prosecutor John O'Hair, Deputy Chief Raymond Walsh and prosecuting attorneys Larry Roberts, Maria Petito and Kenneth Frazier.

Beard also recognized two certified public accountants who assisted in the court case on racketeering: Alberts, a citizen who volunteered his time to wade through boxes of confiscated documents, and Dunleavy, who testified about the theater's business records.

I-275 ramp to 6 Mile may reopen Saturday

State road officials expect the new northbound I-275 exit ramp to Six Mile Road may reopen Saturday, but they caution that with rain in the forecast through the end of the week, that opening may be delayed.

The Six Mile entrance ramp to northbound I-275 may open by next Wednesday, according to Robin Pannecouk, spokeswoman for the Michigan Department of Transportation.

Although I-275 now has removed traffic barriers and opened northbound lanes for traffic, the Michigan State Police reminds motorists to be aware that the freeway remains a construction zone with speed limits of 50 mph. That speed limit will be strictly enforced, according to Sgt. David Robertson.

Enhanced patrols will continue during high traffic periods. Patrols will be concentrating on aggressive drivers, speeders and occupants violating the safety belt laws, Robertson said.

Madonna tapes TV programs

Madonna Magazine is a weekly television show that is produced by Madonna University staff and students. The show is taped every other Wednesday and the public is welcome to attend, free of charge.

Two shows will be taped Nov. 3 at 7:45 p.m. and 8:45 p.m. The first episode highlights Michale Monroe the illustrator of the book M is for Mitten - Michigan Alphabet and other Sleeping Bear Press publications.

The second taping will focus on gambling addiction. Pat Sweeting, who will become part of the Madonna University social work faculty beginning in the winter 2000 term, will discuss what gambling addiction is, how to identify it, and the steps that need to be taken to conquer the problem.

For more information about these shows or to reserve a seat for the taping, call Sue Boyd at (734) 432-5578. Madonna University is located at I-96 and Levan Road in Livonia.

S'craft police recruits learn to bring them in for safe landing

BY RENEE SKOGLUND
STAFF WRITER
rskoglund@oe.homecom.net

On a grayish fall afternoon last week, 46 police recruits assembled in the parking lot of Schoolcraft College's Radcliff Center in Garden City as the wind kicked dust into their eyes and plastered their clothing against their bodies.

It was no tornado drill; instead, the future police officers, who take classes at the Wayne County Regional Police Academy at the Radcliff Center, were helping guide a medical evacuation helicopter to a safe landing.

Officials say such training is not available at any other police academy in the state.

Hovering above them was a

Midwest Medflight helicopter from St. Joseph's Hospital in Ann Arbor. Several orange cones marking off the parking lot as the helicopter landed, signaling just one of the dangers involved with such rescue missions.

"It is very dangerous, especially at night," said Sgt. Doug Lowe of the Dearborn Police Department, an assistant coordinator at the academy.

Police are often the first to arrive at an accident scene. They must assess the accident's severity, contact air rescue and map out a landing zone for the helicopter. They alert the helicopter pilot to overhanging wires, trees, and ditches.

Waiting for firefighters and emergency medical technicians can use up valuable time. "A police officer has to use his ingenuity," said Lowe.

Medflight pilot Dennis Small said most landings occur on highways in more rural areas and involve motorcycles and cars involved in "T-bone" collisions at intersections. Medical helicopters also are used in boating accidents and train collisions.

On congested city freeways, it is better to "scoop and run to the nearest local hospital," said Small. Almost every hospital has a helicopter pad or a nearby field for quick transfers.

Dangers

Once landed, helicopters must be approached with care, warned Small. "The rear propeller turns at an ungodly rpm, faster than the speed of sound."

The propeller, which spins vertically, sets about six feet off the ground, even lower if the helicopter lands on rough ground. It could slice through someone's head or torso like a buzz saw.

Medflight nurse and paramedic Pat Leutheuser said such accidents have happened. "Anybody who's ever walked into it hasn't survived."

The main rotary blades also present a potential hazard, said Leutheuser. They're flexible and may bow down as the blades cease spinning after landing. In addition, "rotor wash" can be dangerous to unprotected eyes.

The lesson: Always approach the helicopter bent over with head bowed.

In addition to learning about impeding power wires and trees and how to use police car spotlights as landing guides, the recruits were drilled about their most important function: crowd control. A medical helicopter needs an area of 100 feet by 100 feet to land, and the curious are often all too curious.

During the Medflight exercise, a young boy on a bike began to edge up to the helicopter zone. An officer quickly broke rank, flailed her arms and directed the boy to a safer area.

Invaluable training

The Medflight helicopter, which is used 15 percent of the time for on-scene rescues and 85 percent for hospital transfers, carries both a nurse-paramedic and a paramedic. It is a flying mini ICU and emergency room and can transport two victims.

It flies at 140 mph at a range of 250 miles. It is not affected by traffic lights, traffic conditions, road construction, or icy roads. However, its efficiency is enhanced or impeded by rescue efforts on the ground.

Leutheuser spoke about the "golden hour," the most critical component of trauma. "We work

Wayne County parks hold fall color hikes

Put on your hiking boots, grab a pair of binoculars and join Wayne County parks for a fall color hike. Participants will see the incredible fall colors from 10 a.m. to noon Saturday, Oct. 16, at Crosswinds Marsh in Sumpter Township or 1:30-3:30 p.m. at Nankin Mills Interpretive Center in Westland.

Each hike, approximately one mile in length and on level ground, will highlight how fall affects trees and what changes signal the coming of winter. Each hike offers participants the chance to create a leaf print T-shirt to preserve the memories of the season. Hikers must bring a light-colored, cotton T-shirt. Paint and leaves are provided.

Crosswinds Marsh hikers will focus on one of the nation's most diverse arrays of plant and wildlife and how its inhabitants prepare for the winter. Each hike costs $1 per participant and is open for all ages. Advance registration is required.

Both programs have been made possible through parks millage funding. Nankin Mills Interpretive Center and Crosswinds Marsh Wetland Interpretive Preserve are open for field trips and outreach programs year-round.

Crosswinds Marsh Wetland Interpretive Preserve is located at Will Carleton/Oakville Walks Road and Haggerty Road in Sumpter Township. Nankin Mills Interpretive Center is located on Hines Drive, east of Ann Arbor Trail in Westland.

For information, call (734) 261-1990 or check www.waynecountyparks.com, the county parks Web site.

within the golden hour to get them (accident victims) to the operating room. That's the time it takes them to go into a shock that's irreversible."

Police recruit Eric Marcotte of Canton took the lessons to heart. "I think it's most important that firefighters, police and emergency medical technicians work together as a team. This is a hands-on approach."

Police recruit James Lekeup of Westland has seen a few accidents dying his ride-alongs with the Westland police, but none have required helicopter evacuation. However, he said the training's value is in "just knowing what they expect from officers and firefighters."

Lowé knows the recruits air evacuation training will add minutes to the golden hour.

(14) A prior conviction shall be established at sentencing by 1 or more of the following:

(c) If 2 or more convictions described in (a) are convictions for violations arising out of the same transaction, only 1 conviction shall be used to determine whether the person has a prior conviction.

(16) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (18), if a person is charged with operating a vehicle while under the influence of a controlled substance or a combination of intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance in violation of subsection (1), the court shall require the jury to return a special verdict in the form of a written finding or, if the court convicts the person without a jury or accepts a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, the court shall make a finding as to whether the person was under the influence of a controlled substance or a combination of intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance at the time of the violation.

(17) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (18), if a person is charged with operating a vehicle while his or her ability to operate the vehicle was visibly impaired due to his or her consumption of a controlled substance or a combination of intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance in violation of subsection (3), the court shall require the jury to return a special verdict in the form of a written finding or, if the court convicts the person without a jury or accepts a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, the court shall make a finding as to whether, due to the consumption of a controlled substance, intoxicating liquor, or a combination of intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance, the person's ability to operate the vehicle was impaired at the time of the violation.

(18) A special verdict described in subsection (16) and (17) is not required if a jury is instructed to make a finding solely as to either of the following:

- (a) Whether the defendant was under the influence of a controlled substance or a combination of intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance at the time of the violation.
(b) Whether the defendant was visibly impaired due to his or her consumption of a controlled substance or a combination of a intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance at the time of the violation.

(19) If a jury or court finds under subsection (16), (17), or (18) that the defendant operated a motor vehicle under the influence of or while impaired due to the consumption of a controlled substance or a combination of a controlled substance and an intoxicating liquor, the court shall do both of the following:

- (a) Report the finding to the secretary of state.
(b) On a form or forms prescribed by the state court administrator, forward to the department of state police a record that specifies the penalties imposed by the court, including any term of imprisonment, and any sanction imposed under sections 5.15i, or section 257.904d of the Michigan Compiled Laws or City Ordinance corresponding to the provisions of section 257.904d of the Michigan Compiled Laws.

(20) Except as otherwise provided by law, a record described in subsection (19)(b) is a public record and the department of state police shall retain the information contained on that record for not less than seven years.

(21) In a prosecution for a violation of (4), the defendant bears the burden of proving that the consumption of intoxicating liquor was a part of a generally recognized religious service or ceremony by a preponderance of the evidence.

Section 5.16a. Driving under influence of intoxicating liquor or controlled substance; warrantless arrests; preliminary chemical breath analysis; commercial motor vehicle operators administration; evidence, presumptions.

(1) A peace officer for the City of Garden City may arrest a person without a warrant under either of the following circumstances:

- (a) The peace officer has reasonable cause to believe the person was, at the time of an accident in this state, the operator of a vehicle involved in the accident and was operating the vehicle in violation of this ordinance at section 5.16 or the Michigan Compiled Laws 257.625.
(b) The person is found in the driver's seat of a vehicle parked or stopped on a highway or street within the City of Garden City if any part of the vehicle intrudes into the roadway and the peace officer has reasonable cause to believe the person was operating the vehicle in violation of 5.16(1), (3) or (4), or Michigan Compiled Laws 257.625.

(2) A peace officer who has reasonable cause to believe that a person was operating a vehicle upon a public highway or other place open to the public or generally accessible to motor vehicles, including an area designated for the parking of motor vehicles, within the City of Garden City, and that the person by the consumption of intoxicating liquor may have affected his or her ability to operate a vehicle, or reasonable cause to believe that a person was operating a commercial motor vehicle within the City of Garden City while the person's blood, breath, or urine contained any measurable amount of alcohol or while the person had any detectable presence of intoxicating liquor, or reasonable cause to believe that a person who is less than 21 years of age was operating a vehicle upon a public highway or other place open to the public or generally accessible to motor vehicles, including an area designated for parking of vehicles, within the City of Garden City while the person had any bodily alcohol content as that term is defined in section 5.15(4), may require the person to submit to a preliminary chemical breath analysis. The following provisions apply with respect to a preliminary chemical breath analysis administered under this subsection:

(a) A peace officer may arrest a person based in whole or in part upon the results of a preliminary chemical breath analysis.

(b) The results of a preliminary chemical breath analysis are admissible in a criminal prosecution for a crime enumerated in section 5.15c(1) or in an administrative hearing for 1 or more of the following purposes:

(i) To assist the court of hearing officer in determining a challenge to the validity of an arrest. This subparagraph does not limit the introduction of other competent evidence offered to establish the validity of an arrest.

(ii) As evidence of the defendant's breath alcohol content, if offered by the defendant to rebut testimony elicited on cross-examination of a defense witness that the defendant's breath alcohol content was higher at the time of the charged offense than when a chemical test was administered under subsection (6).

(iii) As evidence of the defendant's breath alcohol content, if offered by the prosecution to rebut testimony elicited on cross-examination of a prosecution witness that the defendant's breath alcohol content was higher at the time of the charged offense than when a chemical test was administered under subsection (6).

(c) A person who submits to a preliminary chemical breath analysis remains subject to the requirements of sections 5.15c, 5.15d, 5.15e, and 5.15f, as well as Michigan Compiled Laws 257.625c, 257.625d, 257.625e, and 257.625f for purposes of chemical tests described in those sections.

(d) Except as provided in subsection (5), a person who refuses to submit to a preliminary chemical breath analysis upon a lawful request by a peace officer is responsible for a civil infraction.

(3) A peace officer shall use the results of a preliminary chemical breath analysis conducted pursuant to this section to determine whether to order a person out-of-service under section 257.319d of the Michigan Compiled Laws. A peace officer shall order out-of-service as required under section 257.319d a person who was operating a commercial motor vehicle and who refuses to submit to a preliminary chemical breath analysis as provided in this section. This section does not limit use of other competent evidence by the peace officer to determine whether to order a person out-of-service under section 257.319d of the Michigan Compiled Laws.

(4) A person who is operating a commercial motor vehicle and who is requested to submit to a preliminary chemical breath analysis under this section shall be advised that refusing a peace officer's request to take a test described in this section is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for not more than 93 days or a fine of not more than $100.00, or both, and will result in the issuance of a 24-hour out-of-service order.

(5) A person who was operating a commercial motor vehicle and who refuses to submit to a preliminary chemical breath analysis upon a peace officer's lawful request is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for not more than 93 days or a fine of not more than $100.00, or both.

(6) The following provisions apply with respect to chemical tests and analysis of a person's blood, urine, or breath, other than preliminary chemical breath analysis:

(a) The amount of alcohol or presence of a controlled substance or both in a driver's blood or urine or the amount of alcohol in a person's breath at the time alleged as shown by chemical analysis of the person's blood, urine, or breath is admissible into evidence in any civil or criminal proceeding.

(b) A person arrested for a crime described in section 625c(1) shall be advised of all of the following:

(i) If he or she takes a chemical test of his or her blood, urine or breath administered at the request of a peace officer, he or she has the right to demand that a person of his or her own choosing administer 1 of the chemical tests.

(ii) The results of the test are admissible in a judicial proceeding as provided under this ordinance and will be considered with other admissible evidence in determining the defendant's innocence or guilt.

(iii) He or she is responsible for obtaining a chemical analysis of a test sample obtained pursuant to his or her own request.

(iv) If he or she refuses the request of a peace officer to take a test described in subparagraph (i), a test shall not be given without a court order, but the peace officer may seek to obtain a court order.

(v) Refusing a peace officer's request to take a test described in subparagraph (i) will result in the suspension of his or her operator's or chauffeur's license and vehicle group designation or operating privilege and the addition of 6 points to his or her driver record.

(c) A sample or specimen of urine or breath shall be taken and collected in a reasonable manner. Only a licensed physician, or an individual operating under the delegation of a licensed physician under section 16215 of the Public Health Code, 1978 PA 368, Michigan Compiled Laws 333.16215, qualified to draw blood and acting in a medical environment, may withdraw blood at a peace officer's request to determine the amount of alcohol or presence of a controlled substance or both in the person's blood, as provided in this subsection. Liability for a crime or civil damages predicated on the act of withdrawing or analyzing blood and related procedures does not attach to a licensed physician who withdraws or analyzes blood or assists in the withdrawal or analysis in accordance with this act, unless the withdrawal or analysis is performed in a negligent manner.

(d) A chemical test described in this subsection shall be administered at the request of a peace officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person has committed a crime described in section 5.15c. A person who takes a chemical test administered at a peace officer's request as provided in this section shall be given a reasonable opportunity to have a person of his or her own choosing administer 1 of the chemical tests described in this subsection within a reasonable time after his or her detention. The test results are admissible and shall be considered with other admissible evidence in determining the defendant's innocence or guilt. If the person charged is administered a chemical test by a person of his or her own choosing, the person charged is responsible for obtaining a chemical analysis of the test sample.

(e) If, after an accident, the driver of a vehicle involved in the accident is transported to a medical facility and a sample of the driver's blood is withdrawn at that time for medical treatment, the results of a chemical analysis of that sample is admissible in any civil or criminal proceeding to show the amount of alcohol or presence of a controlled substance or both in the person's blood at the time alleged, regardless of whether the person has been offered or had refused a chemical test. The medical facility or person performing the chemical analysis shall disclose the results of the analysis to a prosecuting attorney who requests the results for use in a criminal prosecution as provided in this subdivision. A medical facility or person disclosing information in compliance with this subsection is not civilly or criminally liable for making the disclosure.

(f) If, after an accident, the driver of a vehicle involved in the accident is deceased, a sample of the decedent's blood shall be withdrawn in a manner directed by the medical examiner to determine the amount of alcohol or the presence of a controlled substance, or both, in the decedent's blood. The medical examiner shall give the results of the chemical analysis of the sample to the law enforcement agency investigating the accident and that agency shall forward the results to the department of the state police.

(7) The provisions of subsection (6) relating to chemical testing do not limit the introduction of any other admissible evidence bearing upon the question of whether a person was impaired by, or under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or a combination of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or whether the person had an alcohol content of 0.10 grams or more per 100 milliliters of blood, per 210 liters of breath, or per 67 milliliters of urine, or if the person is less than 21 years of age, whether the person had any bodily alcohol content within his or her body. As used in this section, "any bodily alcohol content" means either of the following:

(a) Any alcohol content of not less than 0.02 grams or more than 0.07 grams per 100 milliliters of blood per 210 liters of breath, or per 67 milliliters of urine.

(b) Any presence of alcohol within a person's body resulting from the consumption of intoxicating liquor, other than consumption of intoxicating liquor as a part of a generally recognized religious service or ceremony.

(8) If a chemical test described in subsection (6) is administered, the test results shall be made available to the person charged or the person's attorney upon written request to the prosecution, with a copy of the results at least 2 days before the day of the trial. Failure to fully comply with the request bars the admission of the results into evidence by the prosecution.

(9) Except in a prosecution relating solely to a violation of section 5.15(4) or (4), the amount of alcohol in the driver's blood, breath, or urine gives rise to the following presumptions:

(a) If there were at the time 0.07 grams or less of alcohol per 100 milliliters of the defendant's blood, per 210 liters of the defendant's breath, or per 67 milliliters of the defendant's urine, it is presumed that the defendant's ability to operate a motor vehicle was not impaired due to the consumption of intoxicating liquor and that the defendant was not under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

(b) If there were at the time more than 0.07 grams but less than 0.10 grams of alcohol per 100 milliliters of the defendant's blood, per 210 liters of the defendant's breath, or per 67 milliliters of the defendant's urine, it is presumed that the defendant's ability to operate a motor vehicle was impaired within the provisions of section 5.15(3) due to the consumption of intoxicating liquor.

Observer garners top MPA award

The Observer Newspapers have won 16 awards in the annual Michigan Press Association contest for editorial excellence.

The Westland Observer was awarded first place in general excellence for its circulation class, papers with 5,001 to 10,000 circulation.

In honoring the Westland paper, the judges' citation paid tribute to the Observer newspaper in general. The citation reads: "Very close call for first place in division with half a dozen entries which distinguished themselves from the rest of the pack. Issues Westland submitted had slightly better news and photo content than other Observer entries, but entire chain can be proud of volume and sharp look it gives its readers."

The awards were announced Oct. 3. The contest, which covers the period April 1, 1998, to March 31, 1999, was judged by members of the Wisconsin Newspaper Association.

"We are happy to receive the recognition of our peers in the MPA's annual contest. We believe contests such as these help to encourage us to continue our efforts to give our readers the best possible community newspapers," said Hugh Gallagher, managing editor of the Observer Newspapers.

The Westland Observer's community editor during the period of the contest was Beth Sundria Jachman. The reporter for the Westland paper is Darrell Clem. The current editor of the Westland paper is Julie Brown.

The court shall not dismiss a case or impose any other sanction for a failure to comply with this time limit. The 77 day time limit does not apply to a violation of section 5.15(1), (3), (4), (5) or 5.15h that is joined with a felony charge.

(4) Before accepting a plea of guilty or nolo contendere under section 5.15, the court shall advise the accused of the maximum possible term of imprisonment and the maximum possible fine that may be imposed for the violation and shall advise the defendant that the maximum possible license sanction that may be imposed will be based upon the master driving record maintained by the secretary of state under section 257.204a of the Michigan Compiled Laws.

(5) Before imposing sentence for a violation of section 5.15(1), (3), (4), or (5), the court shall order the person to undergo screening and assessment by a person or agency designated by the court to determine whether the person is likely to benefit from rehabilitative services, including alcohol or drug education and alcohol or drug treatment programs. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the court may order the person to participate in and successfully complete 1 or more appropriate rehabilitative programs as part of the sentence. If the person has 1 or more prior convictions, the court shall order the person to participate in and successfully complete 1 or more appropriate rehabilitative programs as part of the sentence. The person shall pay for the costs of the screening, assessment, and rehabilitative services.

(6) If the judgment and sentence are appealed to the circuit court, the court may ex parte order the secretary of state to stay the suspension, revocation, or restricted license issued by the secretary of state pending the outcome of the appeal.

Section 5.15c. Consent to chemical test; exceptions; administration of tests.

(1) A person who operates a vehicle upon a public highway or other place open to the general public or generally accessible to motor vehicles, including an area designated for the parking of vehicles, within the City of Garden City is considered to have given consent to chemical tests of his or her blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the amount of alcohol or presence of a controlled substance or both in his or her blood or urine or the amount of alcohol in his or her breath in all of the following circumstances:

(a) If the person is arrested for a violation of 5.15(1), (3), (4), (5), or section 5.15a(5), or section 5.15h or Michigan Compiled Laws sections 257.625(1), (3), (6), or 7, or section 257.625m of the Michigan Compiled Laws

(b) If the person is arrested for felonious driving, negligent homicide, manslaughter, or murder resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle, and the peace officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person was operating the vehicle while impaired by or under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or while having an alcohol content of 0.10 grams or more per 100 milliliters of blood, per 210 liters of breath, or 67 milliliters of urine, or if the person is less than 21 years of age while having any bodily alcohol content. As used in this subdivision, "any bodily alcohol content" means either of the following:

(i) An alcohol content of not less than 0.021 grams or more than 0.07 grams per 100 milliliters of blood, per 210 liters of breath, or per 67 milliliters of urine.

(ii) Any presence of alcohol within a person's body resulting from the consumption of intoxicating liquor, other than consumption of intoxicating liquor as part of a generally recognized religious service or ceremony.

(2) A person who is afflicted with hemophilia, diabetes, or a condition requiring the use of an anticoagulant under the direction of a physician is not considered to have given consent to the withdrawal of blood.

(3) The tests shall be administered as provided in section 5.15a-6.

Section 5.15d. Refusal to submit to chemical tests; report.

(1) If a person refuses the request of a peace officer to submit to a chemical test offered pursuant to section 5.15a-6, a test shall not be given without a court order, but the officer may seek to obtain the court order.

(2) A written report shall be immediately forwarded to the secretary of state by the peace officer. The report shall state that the officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person had committed a crime described in section 5.15(1) and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the peace officer and had been advised of the consequences of the refusal. The form of the report shall be prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state.

Section 5.15e. Refusal to submit to chemical tests; written notice by officer; form; request for hearing.

(1) If a person refuses to submit to a chemical test pursuant to section 5.15d the peace officer shall immediately notify the person in writing that within 14 days of the date of the notice the person may request a hearing, or provided in section 257.625f of the Michigan Compiled Laws. The form of the notice shall be prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state.

(2) The notice shall specifically state that failure to request a hearing within 14 days will result in the suspension of the person's license or permit to drive. The notice shall also state that there is not a requirement that the person retain counsel for the hearing, though counsel would be permitted to represent the person at the hearing.

Section 5.15f. Chemical tests; results; duties of peace officer; confiscation of license; temporary license.

(1) If a person refuses a chemical test offered pursuant to section 5.15a-6, or submits to a chemical test, or a chemical test is performed pursuant to a court order and the test reveals an unlawful alcohol content, the peace officer who requested the test shall do all of the following:

(a) On behalf of the secretary of state, immediately confiscate the person's license or permit, issue a temporary license or permit to the person. The temporary license or permit shall be on a form provided by the secretary of state.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (2), immediately do all of the following:

(i) Forward a copy of the written report of the person's refusal to submit to a chemical test required under section 5.15d to the secretary of state.

(ii) Notify the secretary of state by means of the law enforcement network that a temporary license or permit was to the person.

(iii) Destroy the person's driver's license or permit.

(2) If a person submits to a chemical test offered pursuant to section 5.15a-6 that requires an analysis of blood or urine and a report of the results of that chemical test is not immediately available, the peace officer who requested the person to submit to the test shall comply with subsection (1) a pending receipt of the test report. If the report reveals an unlawful alcohol content, the peace officer who requested the person to submit to the test shall immediately comply with subsection (1) b. If the report does not reveal an unlawful alcohol content, the peace officer who requested the person to submit to the test shall immediately notify the person of the test results, and immediately return the person's license or permit by first-class mail to the address given at the time of the arrest.

(3) A temporary license or permit issued under this section is valid for 1 of the following time periods:

(a) If the case is not prosecuted for 90 days after issuance or until the person's license or permit is suspended pursuant to section 257.625f of the Michigan Compiled Laws, whichever occurs earlier. The prosecuting attorney shall notify the secretary of state if a case referred to the prosecuting attorney is not prosecuted. The arresting law enforcement agency shall notify the secretary of state if a case is not referred to the prosecuting attorney for prosecution.

(b) If the case is prosecuted, until the criminal charges against the person are dismissed, the person is acquitted of those charges, or the person's license or permit is suspended, restricted, or revoked.

(4) As used in this section, "unlawful alcohol content" means any of the following, as applicable:

(a) If the person tested is less than 21 years of age, 0.02 grams or more of alcohol per 100 milliliters of blood, per 210 liters of breath, or per 67 milliliters of urine.

(b) If the person tested was operating commercial vehicle within this state, 0.04 grams or more of alcohol per 100 milliliters of blood, per 210 liters of breath, or per 67 milliliters of urine.

(c) If the person is not a person described in subsection (a) or (b), 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per 100 milliliters of blood, per 210 liters of breath, or 67 milliliters of urine.

Section 5.15g. Ignition interlock device; warning label; prohibited conduct; violation as misdemeanor; penalty; definition; insurance; servicing.

(1) A person who has an ignition interlock device installed and whose driving privilege is restricted shall not request or solicit any other person to blow into an ignition interlock device or to start a vehicle equipped with the device for the purpose of providing the person whose driving privilege is restricted with an operable vehicle.

(2) A person shall not blow into an ignition interlock device or start a motor vehicle equipped with the device for the purpose of providing an operable vehicle to a person who has an interlock device installed and whose driving privilege is restricted.

(3) A person shall not tamper with or obstruct the operation of an ignition interlock device.

(4) A person who violates subsection (1), (2), or (3) is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for not more than 90 days or a fine of not more than $500.00, or both.

(5) As used in this ordinance, "ignition interlock device" or "device" means an alcohol concentration measuring device that prevents a motor vehicle from being started at any time without first determining, through a deeping sample the operator's breath alcohol level. The system shall be calibrated so that the motor vehicle may not be started if the breath alcohol level of the operator, as measured by the test, reaches a level of 0.025 grams per 210 liters of breath.

Section 5.15h. Operation of commercial motor vehicle by person with certain alcohol content; arrest without warrant; violation as misdemeanor; sentence; "prior conviction" defined.

(1) A person, whether licensed or not, who has an alcohol content of 0.04 grams or more but not more than 0.07 grams per 100 milliliters of blood, per 210 liters of breath, or per 67 milliliters of urine shall not operate a commercial motor vehicle within the City of Garden City.

(2) A peace officer may arrest a person without a warrant under either of the following circumstances:

(a) The peace officer has reasonable cause to believe that the person was at the time of an accident the driver of a commercial motor vehicle involved in the accident and was operating the vehicle in violation of this section or the provisions of section 257.625m of the Michigan Compiled Laws.

(b) The person is found in the driver's seat of a commercial motor vehicle parked or stopped on a highway or street within the City of Garden City if any part of the vehicle intrudes into the roadway and the peace officer has reasonable cause to believe the person was operating the vehicle in violation of this section or the provisions of section 257.625m of the Michigan Compiled Laws.

(3) A person who is convicted of a violation of this section or is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for not more than 90 days or a fine of not more than $500.00, or both, together with costs of the prosecution.

Section 5.15i. Forfeiture of vehicle or return to lessor.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section and in addition to any other penalty provided for in this ordinance, the judgment or sentence for a conviction for a violation of section 5.15f may require 1 of the following with regard to the vehicle used in the offense if the defendant owns the vehicle in whole or in part or leases the vehicle:

(a) Forfeiture of the vehicle if the defendant was the vehicle in which the violation occurred.

(b) Return of the vehicle to the lessor if the defendant leases the vehicle.

(2) The vehicle may be seized pursuant to an order of seizure issued by the court having jurisdiction over the violation, if possible, prior to the violation, subject to forfeiture or return to the lessor.

(3) The forfeiture of a vehicle is subject to the interest of the holder of a security interest who did not have prior knowledge of or consent to the violation.

(4) Within 14 days after the defendant's conviction for a violation described in subsection (1), the prosecuting attorney may file a petition with the court for the forfeiture of the vehicle or to have the court order return of a leased vehicle to the lessor. The prosecuting attorney shall give notice by first-class mail or other process to the defendant and his or her attorney, to all owners of the vehicle, and to any person holding a security interest in the vehicle that the court may require forfeiture or return of the vehicle.

(5) If a vehicle is seized before disposition of the criminal proceedings, a defendant who is an owner or lessee of the vehicle may move the court having jurisdiction over the proceedings to require the seizing agency to file a lien against the vehicle and to return the vehicle to the owner or lessee pending disposition of the criminal proceedings. The court shall hear the motion within 7 days after the motion is filed. If the defendant establishes at the hearing that he or she holds the legal title to the vehicle or that he or she has a leasehold interest and it is necessary for him or her or a member of his or her family to use the vehicle pending the outcome of the forfeiture action, the court may order the seizing agency to return the vehicle to the owner or lessee. If the court orders the return of the vehicle to the owner or lessee, the court shall order the defendant to post a bond in an amount equal to the retail value of the vehicle, and shall also order the seizing agency to file a lien against the vehicle.

(6) Within 14 days after notice by the prosecuting attorney is given under subsection (4), the defendant, an owner, lessee, or holder of a security interest may file a claim of interest in the vehicle with the court. Within 21 days after the expiration of the period for filing claims, but before or at sentencing, the court shall hold a hearing to determine the legitimacy of any claim, the extent of any co-owner's security interest, the liability of the defendant to any co-lessee, and whether to order the vehicle forfeited or returned to the lessor. In considering whether to order forfeiture, the court shall review the defendant's driving record to determine whether the defendant has multiple convictions under this ordinance, the provisions of state law set forth in section 257.625 of the Michigan Compiled Laws or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to this ordinance and state law or multiple suspensions, restrictions, or denials under section 257.604 of the Michigan Compiled Laws or both. If the defendant has multiple convictions under this ordinance, section 257.625 of the Michigan Compiled Laws, or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to state law or multiple suspensions, restrictions, or denials under section 257.604 of the Michigan Compiled Laws, or both, that factor shall weigh heavily in favor of forfeiture.

(7) If a vehicle is forfeited under this section, the Township shall sell the vehicle and dispose of the proceeds in the following order of priority:

(a) Pay any outstanding security interest of a secured party who did not have prior knowledge of or consent to the commission of the violation.

(b) Pay the equity interest of a co-owner who did not have prior knowledge of or consent to the commission of the violation.

(c) Satisfy any order of restitution entered in the prosecution for the violation.

(d) Pay the claim of each person who shows that he or she is a victim of the violation to the extent that the claim is not covered by an order of restitution.

(e) Pay any outstanding lien against the property that has been imposed by governmental unit.

(f) Pay the proper expenses of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including, but not limited to, expenses incurred during the seizure process and expenses for maintaining custody of the property, advertising, and court costs.

(g) The court may order the defendant to pay to a co-lessee any liability determined under subsection (6). The claim may be paid in the same manner as a civil judgment.

(8) The return of a vehicle to the lessor under this section does not affect or impair the lessor's rights or the defendant's obligations under the lease.

(9) A person who knowingly conceals, sells, gives away, or otherwise transfers or disposes of a vehicle with the intent to avoid forfeiture or return of the vehicle to the lessor under this section, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for not more than 90 days or a fine of not more than $500.00, or both.

(10) The failure of the court or the prosecutor to comply with any time limit specified in this section does not preclude the court from ordering forfeiture of a vehicle or its return to a lessor, unless the court finds that the owner or claimant suffered substantial prejudice as a result of that failure.

(11) The forfeiture provisions of this section do not preclude the prosecuting attorney from pursuing a forfeiture proceeding under any other law or this state or a local ordinance corresponding to this section.

Repeal.

This Ordinance hereby repeals Chapter 70, Section 70.04 E, through Section 70.04 I of the Code of Ordinances for the City of Garden City known as the "Uniform Traffic Code" as amended, and this Ordinance hereby repeals Sections 70.04 E, through Section 70.04 I, and all ordinances or parts thereof which conflict or are inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, and which are repealed only to the extent of any conflict. Except as herein modified, said Code shall remain in full force and effect. Severability.

This Ordinance and various parts, sections, and clauses thereof are hereby declared severable. If any part, section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, paragraph or portion of this Ordinance is for any reason found invalid or unconstitutional by any Court of competent jurisdiction, such portions shall be deemed separate, distinct, independent provisions and such holdings shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof.

Severance Clause.

All proceedings pending and all rights and liabilities existing, acquired or incurred, at the time this Ordinance takes effect are hereby saved and such proceedings may be consummated under and according to the Ordinance in effect at the time such proceedings are or were commenced. This Ordinance shall not be construed to affect, or abate any pending prosecution, or prevent prosecution hereafter instituted under any Ordinance, specifically or impliedly repealed by the Ordinance adopting this penal regulation code or offenses committed prior to the effective date of this Ordinance, and all prosecutions instituted after the effective date of this Ordinance are offenses committed prior to the effective date of this Ordinance and shall be prosecuted under it in accordance with the provisions of any violation statutes in effect at the time of the commission of such offense.

Date of Effect.

This ordinance shall become effective on the date on which it is adopted and shall be in full force and effect.

Inclusion into Code of Ordinances.

The provisions of this Ordinance shall be incorporated and incorporated into the Code of Ordinances for the City of Garden City, as an addition to and amendment thereto, and shall be appropriately renumbered and added to the numbering system of the Code.

Census makes sense Time to be counted is near

You count, in life, of course, and also when it comes to the U.S. Census. Census 2000 is approaching, and Westland officials held a meeting with census officials last week to emphasize the importance of an accurate count.

"We count on various dollars from various areas," said Mayor Robert Thomas, speaking Oct. 5 at Joy Manor in Westland. "The census count is vital to that."

State-shared revenues are based on the census count, along with Housing and Urban Development money, road money and other funds, Thomas said. The mayor encouraged community leaders at the meeting to get the word out on the census.

Census Bureau speakers emphasized that the information gathered is confidential and is not used to deport those living in the country illegally, for example. Completing the census is an obligation of life in the United States, one that is not overly burdensome.

Raef Fakhoury, local census office manager from Dearborn, urged those present to get the word out on census job openings: (313) 359-4864 or (888) 325-7733 are the numbers to call on job opportunities. Census officials are concerned about filling the temporary positions this time because so few people are unemployed in our strong economy, he said. The jobs could be just right for those with certain schedules.

People's busy schedules keep some from completing the form, said Rachel Camper, partnership specialist with the U.S. Census Bureau. In fact, census officials expect 61-62 percent to send their forms by mail, down a bit from 1990, when 78 percent of the people from Westland took the trip to the mailbox. Those who don't respond get an in-person visit from an enumerator.

One in six U.S. residents will get the long form, which takes an estimated 38 minutes to complete. Camper acknowledged some skepticism about uses of census information, but stressed its confidentiality.

Those at the Westland meeting represented the chamber of commerce, municipal government, local schools, media, social service agencies and others. It's impressive to see so many come together this early on to address an issue of critical importance — the census.

Census information through the years makes for interesting reading, and Westland is a part of that story. It's important that we all take a little time next year to complete our census forms.

Stand up and be counted!

Let attorney general bills die

Legislative bills were recently introduced that would make opinions issued by the state attorney general nonbinding on state departments and prohibit the office from siding against the state in a court case.

One bill would limit opinions on law questions on an "advisory" basis — that is, not binding — on the executive branch of government unless the opinion had been requested by a state officer on behalf of a state department or agency, and the opinion related to that department or agency, its jurisdiction or enforcement authority. Another would prohibit the attorney general from taking, prosecuting or intervening in any action against the state.

Republicans who introduced the bills said the measures only sought to clarify separation of powers for the office of attorney general. One state senator was quoted in a published report as saying the idea that one opinion "trumps everybody else in state government... is ridiculous."

While the Republicans who introduced the bills insisted the issue is not political, it certainly appears that way. We wonder had John Smietanka or another Republican candidate won the 1998 election whether there would be such a furor surrounding the attorney general's office and opinions. (Of course, we wonder whether Smietanka would have defended consumer rights like the previous attorney general, Frank Kelley, did.)

Under a 1971 Michigan Supreme Court decision, an attorney general's opinion "is not binding interpretation of law which courts must follow but does command allegiance of state agencies." By law, the attorney general is required to give his or her opinion on all questions of law when asked by either branch of the Legislature, the governor, the auditor general, the treasurer or any other state officer. At the request of the governor, secretary of state, treasurer or auditor general, the attorney general must prosecute and defend all lawsuits relating to matters connected to their departments.

Attorney general opinions often guide the conduct of state departments. Legal questions on the duties of these department officials are often raised and answered by the attorney general on what can and cannot be done.

We have a few questions for the Republicans: Who oversees state government agencies and departments when attorney general opinions are considered "advisory" only? How is the public protected from government? How are consumers protected if the attorney general is quieted and opinions rendered meaningless?

We doubt that this clarification on "separation of powers" really helps Michigan residents. We hope legislators wise up and let these bills die.

Chuck says thanks

To the citizens of Westland:

I would like to thank all the citizens who supported me as well as voted for me in the Sept. 14 primary election. I would especially like to thank my family and the people who acted as my campaign team.

Running for public office is truly a unique experience and one I will never forget. I really enjoyed meeting you, the citizens, and listening to your concerns. I look forward to meeting more of you in the future.

Your vote counts. I would like to remind each and every one of you to please vote on Tuesday, Nov. 2.

Safety Issue

While it is great to see the early completion of the I-275 reconstruction, I can't believe the state did not have the contractor install a median barrier as part of this project.

The high speed and traffic volume combined with the narrower median greatly increase the chances for deadly crossover accidents.

The new median barrier on I-96 between Novi and US-23 has virtually eliminated these collisions. The state missed its best opportunity to make I-275 much safer as well as smoother. The cost, inconvenience and worker hazard all increase if they install the barrier at a later time. I fear more serious accidents will occur before this situation, which was easily avoidable, is corrected.

ful assault on the firearms industry and firearms owners. That the piece admits the wrong-headedness of such lawsuits in its first paragraph makes it more pathetic.

This piece states "... there is evidence that the suits... are getting gunmakers' attention and finally prompting serious discussion on trying to remove guns from the hands of children and felons." What the suits are actually doing is shaking down the parties with the most money, to sweeten the coffers of government agencies.

What would take guns out of the hands of felons and children would be for these government officials to do their jobs with the ample funds they have and enforce the thousands of gun laws already on the books.

The "gun lobby" (law-abiding gun owners) couldn't stand in their way on that if it tried! The Observer shifts subject and object in stating that "legislation by lawsuit" turns over policy-making responsibilities from elected representatives to the courts. The elected representatives have filed these suits, thus neglecting their responsibilities! They are having their hired guns, the trial lawyers, grab for the deep pockets. You can only lock up the average penniless gun felon, but there's $800 million to be had if the blame can be shifted to law-abiding gun owners. You thought that the defendants were gun makers and sellers? Any half-wit should know who would ultimately pay.

Think about what your elected officials, in Wayne County and in Washington, are telling you: "Forget holding criminals accountable. Point the finger at a third party who happens to have money. If you back us on this, we'll be able to dole out more of the government programs you so love." I say: If gun makers cause crime, match makers cause arson.

High school football provides a special magic

I'd forgotten just how much fun high school football can be.

The occasion was the John Glenn homecoming last Friday, Oct. 8. My husband and I attended the game, both for enjoyment and to get coverage of the queen's crowning and other happenings in Sunday's paper.

We ran into Mathew McCusker, Wayne-Westland school board member, and chatted before he headed off to his announcing duties. The game was a 39-17 loss for the Glenn Rockets against the Plymouth Salem Rocks, a disappointment, but still the atmosphere of high school football shone through.

This Friday, it's Wayne Memorial's turn, with the Zebras taking on the Ypsilanti Braves. We'll be in the bleachers watching it all, the queen's crowning, the band and the game.

Unfortunately, we had to leave last week at the end of halftime, and will probably do the same this week, to get the coverage in Sunday's paper. My husband commented that he'd like to see a high school game in its entirety, something we aim to do.

My most recent memories of high school football aren't particularly recent, involving my first job with the Marion (Ind.) Chronicle-Tribune. Basketball reigns among high school sports in the Hoosier State, but football counts, too.

I have memories of traveling to high school press boxes and picking up film to be processed for the Saturday and Sunday editions. That was in the early 1980s, with sports for girls and women coming on strong, too, and it was a proud thing to see them make the paper.

Certainly, professional and college sports get plenty of attention, and not only during football season. It's been a while since I attended a college football game, but I have vivid memories of the action on the field, accompanied by stellar bands and frenzied fans.

The fans at Glenn were enthusiastic, too, and I expect their counterparts at Wayne Memorial tomorrow will be as well. Perhaps your life circumstances, such as not having high school-age kids, keep you from attending games.

Believe me, it's worth venturing out on a Friday night, particularly when it's not too cold. If nothing else, the atmosphere will take you back to your own high school days, surely a trip worth taking.

Limiting AG's authority would undercut people's rights

The politics of it are fascinating enough. Republicans control much of state government — the House, the Senate, the governor's office. The one piece they don't control is the attorney general's office.

And now they want to limit the attorney general's powers. A series of bills sponsored by Sen. Ken Sikkeema, R-Grandville, in the Senate and Reps. Andrew Richner, R-Grosse Pointe Park, and Clark Bisbee, R-Jackson, in the House would significantly reduce her powers.

For one, opinions of the AG would not longer carry the weight they do now. On matters of state law, attorney general opinions are presently seen as having the force of law until and unless overturned by a court. For another, the AG would no longer be able to take on the state government in court unless she gets approval from the governor.

Jennifer Granholm, Michigan's new attorney general and the first female to hold that office, apparently made some enemies in Lansing when she decided to go enter a lawsuit over state gaming compacts on the side of four Indian tribes and against the state of Michigan. And Republicans are feeling that they shouldn't have to worry that the attorney general — the state's own lawyer in their view — is going to come after the state itself.

Granholm herself has been quick to point out the political ramifications of the bills, but what has been missing from the discussion so far is the effect on the average state resident. Reduce the authority of the attorney general's office and Joe and Josephine Q. Public will lose a powerful ally in their dealings with Michigan's largest and most powerful corporations, and perhaps most importantly in their dealings with the state government itself.

No matter how well intentioned the folks who inhabit our bureaucracies may be, be they state or corporate, there are times when they don't operate in our best interests. And when that happens, Mr. and Mrs. Average have only a few choices as to how to handle the matter.

On the one hand, they can pony up the legal fees needed to hire their own attorney. If they do, they had better be prepared to spend big bucks, because the state government and corporations have vast resources they can tap to defend themselves.

Or residents can go to the attorney general and try to enlist the support of that office. It does not come automatically. When the AG's office gets a request from a citizen, it reviews it first to for merit and to determine whether there is a significant question of state law.

And that is precisely why having the attorney general on your side is such an attention-getter.

"Someone has to speak for the little guy," said Rep. Marc Shulman, R-West Bloomfield. He comes to the issue from a unique perspective. For one, he's a freshman legislator and a Republican, but he is also an alumnus of the attorney general's office. A lawyer, he worked there for 16 years under Granholm's predecessor, Frank Kelley.

Shulman said he sees nothing wrong with the way the attorney general's office is operating currently. Other lawyers and the courts seem to keep the AG and its opinions in the proper perspective, he said. If there is concern that the attorney general can legislate from her office, the courts have traditionally looked past AG opinions to the intent of the senators and representatives, he said.

There are legitimate issues about the attorney general's office, Shulman argues. He suggests there may be legitimate concern about the amount it can spend hiring independent counsel. Often, the office will contract with an outside law firm to conduct its work on a given legal matter. And if the attorney general's office decides to take on a major corporation, the legal fees could run fairly high.

So perhaps there should be a limitation to, say, require Granholm to get legislative approval before she takes on a case, using an outside law firm, in which the legal fees are expected to exceed $100,000. After all, it is the Legislature that is supposed to set the state budget.

Now that's a fair issue. But politics aside, if lawmakers put serious curbs on the AG's ability to act in matters on the state and in the area of consumer protection, it will be the residents of Michigan who lose out.

Driving stipulations clear as mud

To: C.R. Thelen, Director
Program Support and Testing Division
Michigan Department of State
Bureau of Branch Office Services
Lansing, MI 48918

I recently received from you a letter addressed to my son, Nathan Power. Nathan is 17 years old. He has a level 2 Michigan graduated driving license. Although Nathan disagrees with me, I think the graduated license program is a fine idea because it sets up an incentive for new drivers to drive safely for a period before they get an unrestricted license.

Nathan is a good case in point. The speeding ticket (45 mph in a 40 zone) he got in August is his third since he started driving. Both Nathan and I realized at the time that he was going to have to wait a while longer before getting an unrestricted license.

I believe your letter has to do with this violation, although I must say it's hard to tell because of the way it's written.

It starts: "Your level 2 license is now extended through 08/21/2000 and your probationary period is now scheduled to end on 06/17/2000." The extension to Aug. 21, 2000, seems reasonable; that's a year after his speeding ticket. But why does the probationary period end on June 17? Doesn't that just confuse things?

Your letter goes on to say that before Nathan can get a level 3 license, he "must drive 12 consecutive months prior to your eligibility date without any of the events shown in the shaded area posted to your record. Your current probationary level 2 will be extended until these requirements are met or until you reach the age of 18, whichever is sooner."

I take it you mean that Nathan must have a clean driving record for a year before he gets an unrestricted license. But the new term, "probationary level 2" throws me. Is this an entirely new category? Or is it just a type meaning probationary?

The events in the shaded area (why it should be shaded is not clear to me) are also confusing. "Receive a traffic conviction/civil infraction or probate court disposition" is probably understandable by a practicing lawyer, but to a 17-year-old?

"An accident in which you are cited for a hazardous action" seems relatively clear, but "violation of your graduated licensing permit" — I thought the shaded area included things that were violations of the graduated licensing permit.

The sentence above the shaded area reads

PHIL POWER

"The probationary period is extended each time one of the events shown in the shaded area is posted during the last 10 months of the three-year probationary period."

By how much is the probationary period extended? A year? Ten months? And what is so significant about the last 10 months of the probationary ("probationary") period? The last sentence of the letter was the clearest: "If you have any questions regarding this notice, please contact the nearest Secretary of State branch office."

Now don't get me wrong, I'm fairly cross at Nathan's driving record, and we've had some strong words about it. But Nathan understands that the consequence of his speeding is delay of his unrestricted license. He's learning to drive better and he's learning something about accepting the consequences of his own behavior. That's great.

But I'd hope that a letter from your office hammering in that valuable message could be written in simple, clear English that makes these points in a way understandable to a 17-year-old.

I fear the lawyers in your office have got hold of a perfectly reasonable policy and gummed it up with incomprehensible legalisms. Don't feel badly, though. This problem affects virtually all communications citizens receive from their government.

Teachers protest removal of displays

BY TONY BRUSCATO
STAFF WRITER
tbruscato@ps.homestead.com

Two Plymouth-Canton teachers are filing grievances against the school district after being forced to dismantle school displays depicting Gay and Lesbian History Month.

The teachers, Mike Chiumento, a music teacher at West Middle School and Westland resident, and Tom Salbenblatt, a math teacher at Plymouth Salem, both of whom are gay, were asked to take down their displays last week. After refusing the request, the two were then ordered to take them down in a written notice from Superintendent Ken Walcott, which they complied with last Thursday.

"We know there are gay kids at the high school," said Salbenblatt. "They are isolated and receive verbal as well as physical assault, and some attempt suicide. I put up the bulletin board in conjunction with our school mission, which is 'Dignity and Respect for All.'"

Salbenblatt said his bulletin board consisted of statistics relating to the gay population, contributions made by gay people in history, and an affirmation by Coretta Scott King stating homophobia is a form of bigotry.

"It comes down to being homophobic. The school administration caved in," said Chiumento. "People fear gay people because they are ignorant. This is a great opportunity for parents to have discussion with their kids about diversity."

Complaints

Apparently it was those discussions that led to approximately a dozen complaints from West parents, and a handful of complaints concerning the high school display.

Chiumento's showcase originally consisted of a couple of books about gays and lesbians, a newspaper article about a baseball player who declared he is gay, a small rainbow flag which represents the gay movement, bumper stickers with pink triangles to remember gays murdered in the Holocaust, and a safe zone sticker with pink triangles in which people are encouraged to tolerate others, including those with diverse sexual orientation.

The display was changed by Assistant Principal Maureen Murphy, who took out one of the books and added books on African-Americans and Native Americans.

"I was just told by Mr. Chiumento he wanted to do a display on diversity, so I let him," said Murphy, who approves showcase displays at West. "I didn't know it was going to be a one-issue display and I told him we needed to make it more diverse."

Curriculum

Walcott was adamant in his stance that sexual orientation wasn't a part of curriculum.

"When we hire staff, we don't ask them their race, color, creed or lifestyle," said Walcott. "But, once we hire, we practice K-12 instructional goals adopted by the Board of Education, not lifestyle makeup. That's not our mission."

Chiumento said a similar display has been showcased at West for the last five years and nothing has ever been said about taking it down. Salbenblatt noted he had a similar display last year and had a few complaints, but wasn't forced to take down the exhibit.

School administrators are being backed up by several school board members.

"I don't understand how this is a part of our curriculum," said Sue Davis, school board president. "The school displays need to be centered around curriculum issues."

"Gay material and sexual preference are not a function of educating our kids," added trustee Darwin Watts. "Our goal is to educate kids around core subjects."

"I wonder why we would post information about gay lifestyle in a middle school hallway. And what does it have to do with a high school math class?" questioned school board member Judy Mardigan. "Parents need to be notified of this kind of exposure."

Plymouth-Canton Education Association President Chuck Portelli said the teacher's union will back up the two educators.

Freedom of speech

"We'll look at academic freedom and First Amendment rights," said Portelli. "In my opinion, a handful of people are forcing change at the high school and at West on information students should receive. I don't think a handful of people represent the community at large. We can't continue to put our heads in the sand and denying there are gay students and employees."

Salbenblatt said a number of students quizzed him about the missing materials.

"I told them it was censorship. It's telling students it's not OK to be different," he said.

In its place, Salbenblatt put a quote from Goethe stating "there is nothing more frightening than active ignorance."

After taking down his display, Chiumento hung up a sign in the empty showcase which said "Censored."

Center provides parenting help

The Family Resource Center of the Wayne-Westland schools is hosting three parenting workshops this fall.

"The ADHD/ADD Dilemmas" begins 9:15-11 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 21, and runs six weeks. Some of the topics that will be discussed include: Is arguing a hassle? Does "no" mean nothing? Are they having trouble focusing on homework?

"Raising a Self-Reliant Child" is an eight-week series that has two sessions. One starts 9-11 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 27, and another begins 7-9 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 26. Parents will learn how to help their child become responsible for

Courteous driving starts with parking

The other evening I dropped The Teenager off for a class at a bowling alley. It's a big alley, pretty much surrounded by parking lots. And the lots are usually jammed.

The main entrance is on the east side of the building. There's a two-lane drive that runs along that side of the building, with parking places on both sides of the drive.

The Teenager's class was scheduled to start at 6:15 p.m., and she didn't want to be late. We got to the bowling alley a couple of minutes after six. It was raining. I pulled around the building so I could get in the southbound lane, stop briefly in front of the main entrance, let her out and go on.

A van was stopped directly in front of the entrance, and two other cars were stopped behind the van. I pulled up behind the last car and stopped.

The Teenager and I both figured the drivers were dropping off their kids and as soon as they got out and the cars moved on, I'd pull forward, let her out as close to the entrance as possible and move out of the way myself, so the cars that were starting to line up behind me could do the same thing.

But the cars in front of me didn't move. They just sat there.

"You know," I said to The Teenager, "there's another class that starts at four and lets out at six. I'll bet these people are waiting to pick up their kids. But they're parked in a traffic lane."

Wait no longer

She didn't want to wait any longer, so she got out and walked the remaining distance to the entrance in the rain. I started to pull into the northbound lane, go around the cars that were stopped in front of me and get out of there.

But just as I started to pull out, a couple of other cars showed up in the northbound lanes (going north), so I had to wait for them to pass.

They went through. I started my maneuver again when a little red car shows up northbound. This one pulls just even with the van - and stops! The driver had her window rolled down, and for a minute I thought she was in conversation with the driver of the van.

I finally realized that she, too, was parked - presumably waiting to pick someone up. Now both traffic lanes are completely blocked, and I (and the people in back of me) couldn't go anywhere. Someone behind me starts leaning on the horn. Then someone else. Then I joined in. The parked cars just sat there.

By now other teenagers are starting to come out of the bowling alley, looking around and getting into cars, some of which are actually parked in parking places. Someone got into the van in front of the entrance and it drove off. The woman driving the northbound red car opens her door, steps out of the car and starts looking toward the entrance.

Where's she going?

Then the woman in the car directly in front of me gets out of her car (keys in her hand) and goes up the steps toward the entrance. Behind me horns are blaring.

Finally, a couple of teens come out of the building, get in the northbound red car and it starts to move out of the way. About the same time the woman in front of me returns to her car (a couple of kids in tow) and starts shaking her fist at me.

She's parked in a traffic lane, keeping a row of traffic from being able to get out of the parking lot and she's ticked because we are honking at her. She's really ticked.

Well, you might sniff haughtily, what do you expect at a bowling alley?

But the bowling alley was merely the location. It has a couple of meeting rooms inside, and that was where the driver's training classes were meeting.

Shops cater to sweet teeth

BY STEPHANIE ANGELYN CASOLA

Joe Gerlach wishes he could say that owning his own business is a piece of cake.

But since he bought Garden City Bakery in Garden City and Ideal Cakes in Canton, Gerlach discovered that being his own boss doesn't necessarily coincide with the sense of freedom some people might associate with it. It takes all the right ingredients.

"You have to be everything when you own your own business," he said. "I have to be a mechanic, an accountant, human resources," he said.

Gerlach and his wife, Tina, ventured into their own bakery business just over a month ago, to furnish Wayne County with specialty cakes and sweet treats. He said the most difficult part of this decision is "trying to meet everyone's needs on a daily basis."

But he wakes up each morning and goes to work in the hopes that someday he'll be able to pass the business on to his children.

"It's a lot of hard work ... this is something I've been doing for most of my life," he said. "I would like to have a father and son sign someday that says 'Established in 1999.'"

For now he's relying on his own skill and experience to get it started. In college, he changed his major from forestry to restaurant management. That education led him to work at Hyatt Hotels and later Ford Motor Company's food service division.

Garden City Bakery and Ideal Cakes were purchased together. Tina took a leave of absence from her career as a registered nurse to support her husband in this venture.

"He made our wedding cake," she said. "He had always wanted to start his own business, so we did."

Although the tempting smell of sugar and icing permeates the air at Ideal Cakes, the baked goods are actually made by Joe at the Garden City Bakery and delivered to the shop twice daily.

Cakes are always on hand in the Canton store, and all employees are specially trained in cake decorating and personalizing.

Working at the store has given Tina a new appreciation for her husband's work.

"I never really got into it before," she said. "It is an art. Wedding cakes are special."

Wedding cakes should be ordered three to six months in advance, she said. The biggest rush is in the spring, but Valentine's Day can be a hectic time as well.

The rest of the store is dedicated to the customers' baking needs. To make it easier, Ideal Cakes sells its fresh vanilla and chocolate buttercream frostings and raspberry filling at the store.

More than just cakes

Cakes aren't the only desserts available. Candy-making tools can be purchased as well. Molds for chocolates are popular around the holidays, according to Tina. This time of year the store is selling a lot of football-shaped molds and Halloween-related items.

Coming from a nursing background, Tina enjoys dealing with customers, who always seem to be in a cheerful mood.

"I'm not dealing with people who are depressed, sick or dying," she said. "Everyone walks out happy. It's a fun atmosphere."

Another place that puts a smile on the faces of its customers, Grunwald's Fudge Shoppe, has been serving sweet toothed patrons in downtown Plymouth for 17 years.

Known for being a successful family-owned business and for providing quality fudges, brittle and candy treats since the start, the shop began as Leonard and Peggy Grunwald's wholesale business in 1981.

The couple worked together making, packaging, selling and distributing the fudge. Leonard, who died in 1995, had a background in fudge-making and used it to the family's benefit after he and his wife were both laid off from their jobs.

"This was something he knew how to do," said Peggy. "He worked for another company for several years and learned how to do it."

Using his own knowledge of making Mackinac Island-style fudge, Leonard set out to learn about how climate and setting all effect the product. His own recipe became a creamy blend of time, experience and know-how.

Just after Thanksgiving Day 1982, the Grunwalds decided to open the store in Plymouth. Their daughter, Darla Getschman, a Howell resident, said she had always had an affinity for the area.

"It was a big treat," she said. "I just loved this shop, this area."

Her mother agrees. "We looked at places from Birmingham to Canton; it was like there wasn't even a choice," Peggy said. "This was where we wanted to be."

Opening the shop gave them constant contact with their customers and greater control over the product, which remains important today.

"Every one says our fudge just melts in your mouth," said Peggy with a smile. "It's always the same recipe. I have a candy book (that reads) fudge is the most exacting of

Pumpkin sales fuel employment program

Pumpkins sold outside a Redford church don't have smiles carved on them yet, but customers will know they're making a lot of people happy with their purchases.

Proceeds from the orange squash sale go to a Navajo Indian Reservation in Farmington, N.M. The area has a 50 percent unemployment rate.

In 1997 non-profit organizations throughout the United States raised more than $1 million for programs, projects and salaries for Native Americans involved with this project.

This is the second year Rice Memorial United Methodist Church on Beech Daly south of Eight Mile will take part in the fall fund-raiser.

"I think it really drew the people together and gave them more of a sense that we need to be more active and doing things for others," said the Rev. Greg Rowe, pastor of Rice Memorial.

Rice Memorial also takes part in the Redford Inter-faith Relief Food Pantry, providing food to needy people in the township, as well as the annual CROP Walk, for local and world hunger relief efforts. In fact, Rowe is the Redford CROP Walk chairperson.

"It really helps us to have connections with people somewhere else in our country," Rowe said.

In 1998 members of Rice Memorial worked shifts, selling 700 pumpkins and earning $2,389 for Pumpkin Patch Fund-raisers Inc, which grows pumpkins, Indian corn and gourds on 950 acres at the reservation. The pumpkins are shipped to non-profit organizations, primarily churches in 40 states.

About 300 Navajo Indians are employed as a result of this project. Their average yearly income is between $2,000 and $6,000.

"Last year we had a very positive response to the sale," Rowe said. "People were coming in realizing it was for missions and helping other people and they cheerfully bought it from the church. Some bought a few and came back and bought a few more."

all the culinary arts. It's sensitive to climate, changes in humidity, how far up the ceiling is. Everything has an effect on it. You can't just do it the same every time."

That is knowledge the Grunwald family holds true. Getschman, who owns the shop, says it takes approximately one hour to make a batch of 25 pounds of Grunwald's fudge. Basic ingredients include sugar, corn syrup and butter, added to a flavor.

After weighing the ingredients, the mixture is cooked in a giant copper kettle. Once the mixture reaches the desired temperature, it is poured into a metal frame to cool.

The 'instinct'

That's where the fudge making "instinct" comes into play. Once cooled, Getschman uses a spatula to separate the fudge from the pan and places it on a marble table top to cool, working the fudge with a spatula the whole time. They make five-six batches daily, and almost double that amount around the holidays.

The most popular flavors of fudge have remained the same over time, said Peggy. Chocolate, chocolate walnut and peanut butter fudge are the top three varieties, but Grunwald's offers a variety of flavors and often experiments with new flavors like chocolate caramel, rum raisin, chocolate cherry walnut, German chocolate cake, pecan praline and even pumpkin.

In addition to the fudge, the store sells their own brittle, truffles and treats, as well as high-quality candies, such as Goelitz jelly beans, Belgian and Swiss chocolates and yogurt smoothies. Getschman said a great deal of creativity and consideration goes into the packaging of the product as well.

Denise Picard runs the store, keeping all of the goods organized, making chocolates, and putting them together in a delectable fashion for her friendly customers. Getschman said "every box is a work of art." And the customers can tell.

"Most people are happy when they come in here," said Picard, who has now taken over much of the responsibilities at Grunwald's House of Fudge. But being surrounded by enticing treats took a little getting used to, according to Getschman.

A sweet tooth

By working at the store, she admits she's definitely become "more of a sweet tooth." In the beginning she said she "couldn't stop eating it." Her mother attributes that to the quality of the product.

"It's natural and it's good stuff, the aroma is clean," she said. Grunwald's is seeking an addition to its staff. Each one is considered family.

"When people work for us, they don't walk away and forget us," said Peggy.

And they are not forgotten. Getschman, Grunwald and Picard make constant references to former employees they still keep in touch with, restating the obvious - Grunwald's is more than a family business, it's a vital and constant component of the Plymouth community.

Joe and Tina Gerlach seem to be headed in the same direction.

CITY OF WESTLAND DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SERVICE Water and Sewer Division 37137 Marquette, Westland, MI 48186 (734) 728-1770

1998 REPORT TO CONSUMERS ON WATER QUALITY

Westland is proud of the fine drinking water it receives from Detroit and furnishes to its residents. This report will list the source of our water, the results of the tests performed on the water, and additional information about water and health questions. State and Federal requirements mandate that an annual report now be sent to Westland customers before July 1 each year, starting in the year 2000.

Water Source

Westland is supplied by the City of Detroit from its Springwells Water Treatment Plant in Dearborn. The water comes from the intake facility at Belle Isle in the Detroit River.

Overview

The City of Westland provided 3.5 billion gallons of water to its consumers in 1998. Over 3500 lineal feet of water main and 3800 lineal feet of replacement water main were installed in 1998. In 1998 the average resident used 113 gallons of water per day, at a cost of less than two tenths of a cent per gallon.

IMPORTANT HEALTH INFORMATION LEAD

Since 1992, with the cooperation of many Westland residents, the City has been testing homes with plumbing systems that may contribute lead to the household water supply. Our latest round of testing shows four out of the 75 homes tested have lead levels above the action level. If your home has a lead service line or piping that has lead soldered joints, you can take the following precautions to minimize your exposure to lead that may have leached into your drinking water from your pipes:

- Run your water for 30 to 60 seconds, or until it feels cold. This practice should be followed any time your water has not been used for more than six hours.
- Always use cold water for drinking, cooking, or making baby formula.
- Use faucets and plumbing material that are either lead free or will not leach unsafe levels of lead into your water.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, EPA prescribes regulations which limit the amount of certain contaminants in water provided by public water systems. The Food and Drug Administration (FDA), regulations establish limits for contaminants in bottled water, which must provide the same protection for public health.

The sources of drinking water (both tap water and bottled water) include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs, and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally-occurring minerals and radioactive material and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity.

Contaminants that may be present in source water include:

- Microbial contaminants, such as viruses and bacteria, which may come from sewage treatment plants, septic systems, agricultural livestock operations, and wildlife.
- Inorganic contaminants, such as salts and metals, which can be naturally occurring or result from urban storm water runoff, industrial or domestic wastewater discharges, oil and gas production, mining, or farming.

- Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture, urban storm water runoff, and residential uses.
- Organic chemical contaminants, including synthetic and volatile organics, which are by-products of industrial processes and petroleum production, and can also come from gas stations, urban storm water runoff, and septic systems.
- Radioactive contaminants, which can be naturally occurring or by the result of oil and gas production and mining activities.

PEOPLE WITH SPECIAL HEALTH CONCERNS

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than is the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbial contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

CRYPTOSPORIDIUM

Cryptosporidium is a disease-causing parasite that lives in the intestinal tract of many animals including dogs and cats. Symptoms of infection include diarrhea, abdominal cramps, headaches, nausea and vomiting. The disease is typically spread through contact with feces of an infected animal or person and consuming contaminated food or water. Cryptosporidium can be introduced into bodies of water by way of surface water runoff containing animal waste and sewage discharge. The Detroit Water and Sewerage Department has been testing for cryptosporidium since 1994 and has not detected it in any of our source water supplies.

NATIONAL PRIMARY DRINKING WATER REGULATION COMPLIANCE

In 1998, the City of Westland had two monitoring violations. A monitoring violation is not an exceedance of a MCL or health standard. On January 12, 1998, a positive coliform sample was found at 37348 Cherry Hill. A recheck was made on January 14, 1998, and there was negative total coliform. On August 10, 1998, a positive coliform sample was found at 1810 S. Wayne Road. A recheck was made August 12, 1998, and there was negative total coliform.

The regulations require confirmation of any positive result by resampling the location in question and sampling surrounding locations within 24 hours of notification or the next business day. The samplings should have taken place the next day but were deferred until the following. All samples were negative for coliform bacteria.

This report was prepared by the Water and Sewer Superintendent of the Department of Public Service for the City of Westland, Michigan. Data was supplied by the City of Detroit Water and Sewer Department and the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality. If there are any questions, concerns or comments, please feel free to contact me at (734) 467-3242. This report is supplied to our customers to ensure compliance with the Michigan Safe Drinking Water Act (1976, PA 399, as amended) by 1998 PA 56. This Act was passed to comply with the Federal Clean Water Act and the rules promulgated by the United States EPA dealing with this law. Water Quality data for community water systems throughout the United States is available at www.waterdata.com.

Kindermusik classes come to Schoolcraft

Parents and their children can enjoy Kindermusik at the new location of Harp and Haggerty Music Store in Livonia in November.

Kindermusik's instructor, Melonie, will introduce parents to Kindermusik in two 45-minute programs at 11 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 16, and 7 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 17, at the store, Six Mile and Haggerty roads.

Having your child Kindermusik classes is like giving them a gift for their 40th birthday, said Melonie. "The benefits of early music learning last a lifetime."

The internationally-known Kindermusik program is based on the theory that all children are naturally musical and the first instrument they use is their own voice.

The program encourages individual expression, both physically and vocally. Through motor activities, a child develops control of motor skills, enhances listening skills and refines language development.

"Kindermusik is a place for you and your baby to capture and celebrate the little miracles that seem to fly by so quickly," the Livonia resident said. "The class helps to slow down life's merry-go-round to let you and your child share in the magical moments that happen through music, movement, touch and sounds."

Melonie also will teach 16-week Kindermusik classes 10-10:45 a.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays at Schoolcraft College, beginning Tuesday, Jan. 11.

The classes are for caregivers and children, and are for newborns through 18 months and 18 months through 3 1/2 years. Melonie expects to offer additional classes for children up to age 7 by the spring.

"Kindermusik children and their families develop a special musical bond and learn fun ways to incorporate music into their lives at home," Melonie said.

For more information, call Melonie at (734) 464-1412 or Schoolcraft College's Continuing Education Office at (734) 462-4448.

Excited about last year's successful sales, this year the church has requested a shipment of more than 1,000 pumpkins and is hoping to raise about $3,500.

The pumpkins are sold by the pound and will be available daily "from morning until dark" through Halloween Day, Rowe said.

"It's a pretty nice time to sit out in the fresh air and talk to the people who stop by to buy pumpkins," Rowe said.

The prices may not be the cheapest, Rowe added, but people will know that their money is going for a good cause. They're also a better quality than a lot of other retail stores, because the pumpkins at United Methodist Church are rotated daily by members of the congregation to prevent them from getting mushy.

Last year, Rowe treated customers by painting fall scenes on some of the pumpkins. He plans on dusting off his acrylics again this year.

The pumpkins will arrive at the church on Friday evening and a Pumpkin Festival is planned from noon to 4 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 16, to kick off the pumpkin sales. Look for a moon walk, pony rides and petting farm 1-4 p.m., bake and craft sale, carnival games and face painting.

"The games will be easy enough that the kids can win and feel good about themselves," Rowe said.

Rice Memorial United Methodist Church is at 20601 Beech Daly Road, south of Eight Mile Road, Redford. For more information about the Pumpkin Festival, call the church at (313) 534-4907.

RELIGIOUS NEWS

Risen Lord celebrates anniversary

Members of the Church of the Risen Lord in Westland are collectively saying, "Wow!"

The church is celebrating the fifth anniversary of its founding on Oct. 16, 1994, when a small group of people met for worship in the room of a home in Canton.

Since then membership has grown from eight to more than 60 people, and gone from worshipping at Griffith Funeral Home in Canton, Madonna University and the Disabled American Veterans Hall in Livonia to the existing church building at 821 Newburgh Road, Westland.

The congregation will observe the occasion with an ice cream social following the 10 a.m. worship service on Sunday, Oct. 17, at the church. An invitation is extended to the community to visit, worship and celebrate with the congregation.

The stated purpose of the church is to be a "healing and worshipping community of Christians who are led and empowered by the Holy Spirit." A part of the International Communion of the Charismatic Episcopal Church, the congregation worships using the form established by the apostles. This return to the ancient faith means the worship is charismatic, evangelical, sacramental and liturgical.

Contrary to the trend toward casual worship, independence and individualism, Church of the Risen Lord and the other churches of the ICCEC encourage serious involvement by each person in prayer, scripture reading, singing, teaching, healing and other ministries.

The form of worship has been likened to a river where the various streams or currents of charismatic, evangelical and liturgical flow together to form a mighty river of worship.

Since moving into the building on Newburgh Road in 1996, members have made a few modifications, making room for a nursery and Sunday school class. Currently, members are in prayer about expanding the building.

For more information, call the church office at (734) 397-7132.

Memorial Church of Christ hosts Celebration weekend

A father and son will team up to lead Memorial Church of Christ's Faith Celebration Friday-Sunday, Oct. 29-31.

Traveling evangelist and storyteller Tommy Oaks will join his son, Thomas (J.T.) Oaks, an accomplished solo artist and composer, for the event.

The Faith Celebration will kick off at 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 29, with a dinner theater production of "Star Queen," a musical drama based on the life of the biblical Queen Esther, presented by the Oakses. Written by J.T., the drama had its world premiere at the 1998 Lees McRae Summer Theater.

A prayer breakfast for the entire family will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 30, with activities closing that day with a message by the father and son at 7 p.m.

On Sunday, Oct. 31, the celebration will conclude with preaching by Tommy and music by J.T. at the 9:30 and 10:45 a.m. worship services.

Tommy Oaks has spent the last 15 years traveling the country as an evangelist. He is a graduate of Johnson Bible College and has been preaching for 30 years.

J.T. Oaks

A gifted storyteller, he was the first person in the world to graduate with a master's degree in storytelling from East Tennessee University. He has made presentations to churches, civic clubs, storytelling festivals and conventions.

J.T. Oaks has produced several albums of original music and performs across the country as a solo artist at revivals, retreats and concerts. Currently, he is pursuing a career in musical theater and is a member of the BMI Musical Theater Workshop.

In addition to writing "Star Queen," he is involved in several original projects, including "Sunny," a modern day version of the Bible story of the prodigal son; "Love Austin," a country music showcase; and "Way Back When," a musical based on the story of Genesis.

All activities are free, with reservations strongly encouraged for the Friday and Saturday events. Child care, for children 4 and under, will be available Friday and Saturday. A nursery and Bible school program for children of all ages will be offered on Sunday morning.

Memorial Church of Christ is at 35475 Five Mile Road, Livonia. For more information or to make reservations, call (734) 464-6722.

A classic time

A classic Warren Road Light and Life Free Methodist Church will have a classic car show 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 31. The church is located at 11000 Warren Road, Warren. Worship is at 9:30 and 11 a.m., followed by a free barbecue. Car show trophies will be presented at 2 p.m. For more information, call (734) 458-7301.

Reading Room has reprints

In response to strong public interest, the Christian Science Sentinel, a national weekly magazine, is making available a special reprint of "Cancer Healed," a collection of reports of individuals healed of cancer solely through prayer.

The special Christian Science Sentinel reprints can be purchased at the Christian Science Reading Room, 445 S. Harvey, Plymouth.

"The healings reported in this collection reflect each person's natural ability to heal through prayer," said Sharon Rea, librarian at the Reading Room. "These true accounts offer real encouragement to anyone dealing with a similar physical challenge."

The Christian Science Sentinel was founded in 1898 by Mary Baker Eddy, the author of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." Each week the magazine explores public issues, events and trends from a spiritual perspective, including verified accounts of healing through prayer.

The Sentinel is one of many publications available to visitors at the Reading Room. For more information about the reprint, call the Reading Room at (734) 453-1676.

Warren Berckmann, who had served as the member of the Christian Science Committee on Publication for Michigan, has been appointed to the first-ever Committee on Publication for the Internet.

For almost 90 years, the 90-plus Christian Science congregations in Michigan have sponsored on their own the Committee on Publication for Michigan to correct in a Christian manner impositions on the public concerning Christian Science and its founder, Mary Baker Eddy.

Berckmann served in that capacity for five years and will continue his committee work on a worldwide basis. Appointed to replace him as the new Committee on Publication for Michigan by the Michigan churches is Robert Jeffrey.

He is a former member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, and for more than 20 years, has been in the public practice of healing through prayer. He plans to continue his ministry of Christian healing in addition to his committee work.

With his appointment, the committee office has moved from Grand Rapids to 300 Town Center, Suite 1345, Southfield. For more information, he can be reached at (800) 886-1212, (248) 350-0004 or by e-mail at micompub@aol.com.

OBSERVER SPORTS SCENE

Twisters reach final

Overcoming a 16-0 first-quarter deficit, the Wayne County Twisters stormed back Saturday to beat the Lorain County (Ohio) Steelmen, 24-22, in the semifinals of the Lake Shore Football League playoffs at Devlin Stadium (Willow Run High School).

The Twisters, thanks to a game-winning 21-yard field goal in the final quarter by Chuck Petitpas (Livonia), will face the Central Ohio Lions for the LSFL title Saturday in London, Ohio.

After falling behind by 16 points, the Twisters scored a pair of second-quarter touchdowns.

Damon Frendo (Garden City) scored on a 4-yard plunge set up by Rob Elswick's 42-yard pass to Reggie Brandon.

Elswick then connected with Brandon on a 15-yard score after Ben Ferguson (Garden City) ran 39 yards for a first down.

The Twisters took the lead 21-16 in the third quarter on a 31-yard bootleg by Elswick, but the Steelmen answered early in the final period when Kareem Hunt teamed up with Tyrone Nelson on a 13-yard TD.

But the Twisters, who outgained Lorain County in total offense, 327-276, put it away on Petitpas' field goal.

Ferguson was the top rusher with 79 yards on eight carries, while Brandon had five catches for 96 yards.

The defense was led by Bob Pensari (Canton), who had two sacks and six tackles.

Deon Perry, Corey McClelland and Aaron Brothers each had four tackles, while James Chapman (Plymouth) and Earl Sutton each recorded one sack and three tackles.

The Twisters also received outstanding secondary play from Matt Graca (Garden City), Eric Thompson and Ron Andrews.

"The first period was difficult to digest," coach Jason Hagelthorn said. "It seemed everything we attempted to do either failed or backfired. It was embarrassing and very humiliating."

"But our young men rose above the failures of that first period and we played the next 45 minutes like champions. They will have to play at their very best this Saturday."

The Lions are ranked third in the American Football Association in the AA Division.

Taormina 7th in Cancun

On a sweltering, sunny Sunday, Livonian Sheila Taormina made a strong showing in the International Triathlon Union World Cup race with a seventh-place finish in Cancun, Mexico.

Jackie Gallagher of Australia, ranked third in the world, won the 1,500-meter swim, 24.8-mile bike and 10-kilometer event in a time of 1 hour, 57 minutes and 44 seconds.

Aussie Michelle Jones, top-ranked in the world, was second in 1:57:53 followed by Karen Smyers (U.S.), 1:58:19; Stephanie Forrester (Great Britain), 1:59:01; Mariana Ohata (Brazil), 1:59:16; Haruna Osoya (Japan), 1:59:40; and Taormina, 1:59:54.

Taormina is Stevenson High and University of Georgia graduate who won a gold medal in the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta (women's 4 x 200-meter freestyle relay).

In Cancun, she finished ahead of five higher ranked Americans.

Taormina and former Stanford standout Barb Lindquist, the top-ranked American in ITU points, led the swimming portion of the race. Lindquist finished 11th.

Taormina has moved up to 73rd in the ITU World Rankings and is now ranked among the top 10 Americans. The seventh place finish also moved her a step closer to qualifying for next spring's U.S. Olympic Trials.

Youth soccer champions

The under-13 Livonia Rockets soccer team recently finished 3-1 to win the Chevrolet Cup, allowing just two goals in four games.

Members of the Rockets include: Nick Ahwal, Eric Anderson, David Ayyash, Adam Bogenschutz, Stephen Franklin, Dan Garber, Ryan Graham, Chris Lantto, Adrian Lucero, Jeff Papera, Brad Schmitz and Andy Smith. The Rockets are coached by Laura, Don and Lesley McDougall, along with Luke Lucero.

Upstart Chargers clinch division

Late-season run continues; Chiefs latest victim, 3-1

BOYS SOCCER

BY RICHARD L. SHOOK
STAFF WRITER

Back when Livonia Churchill's soccer team was 0-5, the young men sat down with Coach Reid Friedrichs and had a little chat.

The re-dedication talk was paid in full Monday when Churchill defeated Plymouth Canton, 3-1, to win the Western Division of the Western Lakes Activities Association.

Churchill played Walled Lake Western on Wednesday, but win or lose, will play for the WLAA title, 7 p.m. Wednesday at 15-1-1 Plymouth Salem.

"We got off to a tough start," Friedrichs said. "We had a team meeting after we were 0-5. We talked about what there was left to play for."

"We said there were three things that counted: your regular season record, the (WLAA) division and the (post-season) playoffs."

"We hadn't played any division games yet so there was that."

"This is tremendous. We were 2-8 two weeks ago and now we're 7-8. They just decided to keep playing. They've played hard."

"They've never stopped believing they could be a good team."

Canton (11-4-1) scored 1:54 into the match when John Kaczmarek redirected a cross by Mike Zemanski.

The Chiefs carried the play throughout the remainder of the first half but were unable to get it by Eric Sicilia, who has been sensational in goal during the Chargers' run.

Churchill tied the score, 1-1, at 34:58 on a throw-in by Eric Scott that Dave Campbell put by T. J. Tomasso.

The Chargers got a big break at 31:39 when a Canton player, trying to kick the ball away from in front of Tomasso, instead deflected the ball into his own net to give Churchill a 2-1 lead.

It was just one of those things because the Chief had his leg high in the air and the ball skidded off the top of his shin instead of the front part and deflected backwards, not away from the goal.

That didn't cost the Chief the game, though.

The Chargers got the final score of the game with 5:25 left in the first half. Scott shot, a defender deflected the ball and Tim Kaminski drilled the loose ball home to make it 3-1.

Sicilia made three or four critical stops of Canton shots in the final 10 minutes of the first half as the Chiefs' unbeaten streak ended at nine games (8-0-1).

In the first minute of the second half, Canton's James Steiner put a shot wide of the net and two of his teammates weren't able to redirect it.

At the 27-minute mark, the Chiefs put one over the goal and another rebound shot went wide to the right.

"Sicilia had a burst appendix at the start of tryouts," Friedrichs said. "So he missed more than a month. We put him back in for a trial against Ann Arbor Pioneer and we won, 1-0. And he had three more shutouts."

"That first goal Canton scored was a bad goal. But the thing is, you can give up a bad goal — and then play a better game. I know, as a goalie."

"But the thing is, you can't give up two bad goals."

The Chargers were losing all the midfield battles in the first half but as the game progressed they started equalizing matters in that department. And their forwards did a good job of taking advantage of their opportunities.

"They took advantage of everything," Coach Don Smith said after Canton fell to 4-1 in the division. "We made key mistakes. They capitalized on them."

"They did a good job. They scrapped. They came to play. The bottom line is you've got to put it in the net. We didn't."

"We've had trouble scoring all season. We had some good opportunities but they kept it out of the net. They earned what they got."

The Chargers are unbeaten in four Western Division games and would win on the tie-breaker even if they lost to Walled Lake Western.

Lady Ocelots eye post-season

COLLEGE SOCCER

Lake County was 12th.

So perhaps it was fitting that it ended in a 1-1 draw, after two 15-minute sudden-death overtime periods.

"That game on Sunday," said SC coach Bill Tolstedt, "I enjoyed watching those teams play. Genesee — we definitely outclassed them. But the match against Lake County was well played."

Not that the Ocelots didn't feel it was a game they could have won. "I feel, and the team feels, we definitely could beat them," Tolstedt said. "That day, however, it was well-balanced."

Lake County got the game's first goal after a scoreless first half. Michele Baldori (Plymouth Canton) knotted it at 1-1, tucking in a cross from Kristina Semuch (Plymouth Salem).

The tie left both teams with a 12-1-2 overall record.

Against Genesee, SC got two first-half goals from Danielle Shaffer, with assists from Kelly Connell (Canton), Meghan Jannuzzi, Shannon Konarski and Nikki Vradenburg (Covell, Baldori) and Emily Alford (Livonia Clarendonville) got goals in the second half.

Shannon Brooks ranked seventh nationally in goals-against average (0.90 per game), was in goal for both matches.

SC still had six regular season matches remaining including yesterday's at St. Clair College in Windsor, before hosting the NJCAA District Tournament Nov. 5-7.

And, should Lake County emerge from its NJCAA Regional Tournament, there's a chance the two teams could tangle again.

League titles at stake in Observerland

BY DAN O'MEARA
STAFF WRITER
domeara@oe.homecomm.net

The big games this week involve Farmington and Redford Catholic Central. Both will be playing for championships on the eighth weekend of the high school football season.

Farmington plays host to Walled Lake Western for the Western Lakes Activities Association title, and it will be a historic matchup.

It's the first time since the WLA was organized in 1982 that neither Farmington Harrison nor Westland John Glenn will be among the combatants.

It will be Western's third appearance in the championship game, having won once in 1992 and lost in 1996. Both times the Warriors faced Glenn.

Farmington, the Lakes Division co-champion with Livonia Stevenson, will play for the title a second time. It was the 1984 runner-up to Harrison.

A playoff berth is also at stake for the 5-2 Falcons, who need one more win to qualify, as do Redford Thurston, Garden City, Glenn and Redford St. Agatha.

Catholic Central can't be thinking about another appearance in the Prep Bowl just yet. If the Shamrocks don't win this week, they won't get a chance to defend their Catholic League title.

CC will face up-and-coming University of Detroit-Jesuit in a winner-take-all showdown for the Central-West Division championship Saturday night at Ferndale High School.

The winner will play the Birmingham Brother Rice-Orchard

GRID PICKS

Lake St. Mary's winner for the league title Saturday, Oct. 23, at the Silverdome.

In the grid prediction contest, both writers were 11-4 last week. Dan O'Meara leads with an overall record of 85-18; Brad Emons is 78-25.

FRIDAY GAMES

(all times 7:30 p.m. unless noted)

Taylor Truman (2-3, 2-5) at Redford Union (1-4, 1-6), 7 p.m.: The Panthers earned their first victory last week, beating Woodhaven in overtime, 32-26. RU can avoid tying Woodhaven for the Mega-White cellar with its second straight win. Truman has dropped three in a row, including a 20-13 loss to Allen Park last week. PICKS: The Cougars end their losing streak.

Thurston (3-2, 5-2) at Romulus (6-0, 7-0), 7 p.m.: It's the battle of the Eagles. Thurston has won four straight, including a 14-7 win Saturday over Taylor Kennedy, but it hasn't faced a team like unbeaten and state-ranked Romulus. Romulus has beaten Gibraltar Carlson (21-7) and Trenton (20-7) — the teams that beat Thurston — in its last two games. PICKS: Romulus ends Thurston's win streak while extending its own.

Ypsilanti (4-1, 5-2) at Wayne (0-5, 0-7), 7 p.m.: The Braves are doing better than expected in their first year in the Mega-Red, beating Fordson, Dearborn and Belleville (29-7 last week) while losing only to Monroe in its last four games. Plymouth Canton must wonder where it would be if it played in the Mega-Red, too. Wayne hopes for an upset that would provide some upside in a down year and deny Ypsi the magic sixth victory. PICKS: The Braves qualify for the playoffs.

Lincoln Park (3-4) at Garden City (5-2), 7 p.m.: These teams appear to be headed in opposite directions. After winning their first five, the Cougars have dropped two in a row, including a 7-0 loss Friday to Edsel Ford. Garden City needs to put Mike Sparks in the end zone and some spark back into its season. Lincoln Park lost its first four games but has won three straight over Fordson, Wayne and Dearborn — the last two by shutout. PICKS: The Rail-splitters deny the Cougars a playoff berth this week, O'Meara says. Emons remains blind loyal to hometown GC.

W.L. Western (7-0) at Farmington (5-2): The state-ranked Warriors seems like the obvious favorite, but don't count out the unranked Falcons, who got a needed boost last week by knocking off unbeaten Livonia Stevenson. In one game, Farmington went from having a good season to one filled with great potential. Both teams rely largely on their defenses and, secondly, their rushing attacks to control the ball. If the Falcons can do what they did last week and contain Western's speed and capitalize on turnovers, they could have their first WLA championship. PICKS: It's a tough call, really, but Western has to be the favorite until Farmington proves otherwise.

Farm. Harrison (3-4) at Liv. Stevenson (6-1): Despite the records this should be an excellent game. Harrison, which is really 5-2 excluding forfeits, is fighting for its playoff life. The Hawks must win their last two games to even have a hope of getting in. It would be the 18th time in the playoffs for the Hawks if they do. Harrison defeated Stevenson three straight years (1994-96) in the WLA crossover game, the first two of which decided the championship. The Spartans need to regroup after their loss to Farmington and build some momentum as they look toward the post-season. PICKS: Harrison stays alive in its playoff quest.

Ply. Canton (4-3) at John Glenn (5-2): The Rockets also need to get things turned around in a hurry, or their season will be shorter than expected. Glenn fell apart in the fourth quarter Friday, giving up 25 unanswered points in a 39-17 loss to Plymouth Salem. The Chiefs, who are coming off a loss to Harrison, are in the same situation. They need to win their last two games to become an automatic playoff qualifier. PICKS: Glenn rebounds with a narrow victory.

Liv. Franklin (2-5) at Ply. Salem (2-5): The Rocks certainly have momentum on their side after their shocking, come-from-behind victory over John Glenn. After an 0-5 start, Salem showed it still has some fight left in it by winning its last two games. Gabe Coble seems to have made a difference since taking over at quarterback for Salem. The Patriots will try to pick themselves up after a 42-8 drubbing at the hands of Northville. PICKS: The Rocks make it three in a row.

Liv. Churchill (2-5) at N. Farmington (3-4): Neither team has won since the opening week of the season, if you exclude Churchill's forfeit victory over Harrison, and both hope to avoid the dubious distinction of being considered the last-place team in the WLA. North Farmington lost another close game to Walled Lake Central, 14-6, while Churchill was on the short end of a 29-6 score with Western. PICKS: Give the home-team Raiders the edge. Emons goes with Churchill.

Luth. Westland (0-6, 0-7) at Luth. N'west (3-3, 4-3): The game was switched from 11 a.m. Saturday, because the Crusaders are bringing in portable lights for their homecoming game. Lutheran Westland continued to struggle Saturday, losing 35-0 to Harper Woods, but it was only the second the Warriors have been shutout. Northwest is having a superior season, considering its usual lack of success, and is coming off a 36-14 win over Cranbrook. PICKS: The Crusaders celebrate with a win.

SATURDAY GAMES

(all times 1 p.m. unless noted)

Clarenceville (6-0, 7-0) at Cranbrook (3-4, 3-4): The Trojans passed their big test with flying colors Friday when they whipped undefeated Liggett in a Metro Conference showdown, and their biggest opponent now could be overconfidence. Plus, the Cranes are a decent team that won't be a pushover if the Trojans aren't ready to play another good game, if they are. Clarenceville's backfield duo of Tim Shaw and Steven Meadows should be unstoppable. PICKS: The Trojans stay undefeated.

St. Alphonsus (4-2, 4-3) at St. Agathe (4-2, 5-2): Third place in the Catholic League D-Section is at stake here. After starting 4-0 in the division, the Arrows have lost two in a row to Cardinal Mooney and Holy Rosary. The Aggies, despite being beset by injuries, rebounded from losses to those teams with two straight wins, including a 9-0 win Friday over Detroit Urban Lutheran. PICKS: The Fonz puts Agatha's playoff plans on hold. Emons goes with the Aggies.

Borgess (0-3, 2-5) at A.P. Cabrini (0-3, 0-7), 7 p.m.: The winner will avoid finishing in the Catholic League Tri-Sectional cellar. Borgess has been shut out the last two weeks; the Spartans lost 28-0 to Riverview Richard Friday, but the Monarchs have scored just 24 points all season. Cabrini was throttled by Waterford Lakes a week ago, 45-14. PICKS: Borgess avoids the basement.

Redford CC (3-0, 7-0) vs. UD-Jesuit (3-0, 6-1) at Ferndale, 7 p.m.: A CC-UD game usually ends in a rout for the Shamrocks, but this year's contest has big-game appeal. The last time U-D won a division title was 1968 when Tom Valente was the star back and the Cubs lost to Gary Danielson's Divine Child team in the Charity Bowl (championship game). The Cubs have been nothing less than surprising this year, winning their last six games after a season-opening loss to Country Day. CC edged DeLaSalle in the Boys Bowl, 17-13, while U-D beat Divine Child, 27-9. PICKS: The Shamrocks find a way to win.

Nowak gets hat trick in Wayne triumph

Senior Shane Nowak pumped in three goals, including the game-winner with 11 minutes left to give Wayne Memorial a 3-2 boys soccer victory Monday at Lincoln Park.

Wayne is now 3-9-1 overall and 3-4-1 in the Blue Division of the Mega Conference. Senior goalkeeper Tim Jaguszewski, a first-year player, made some key saves down the stretch to preserve the victory.

Lincoln Park, which led 2-1 at intermission, slipped to 2-6 in the Mega-Blue.

STEVENSON 10, JOHN GLENN 0: Jeff Budd and Mike White each scored twice Monday, powering state-ranked Livonia Stevenson (11-2-1, 3-1) to the Western Lakes Activities Association Lakes Division win over visiting Westland John Glenn (3-10-2, 0-3-1).

Tom Eller added one goal and five assists. J.T. Katikos, Nick Soper, Ryan Drolet, Dan Lipon and goalkeeper Joe Zawacki also had goals for the Spartans, who led 7-0 at halftime.

Mike Thomas added two assists, while Nik Djokic and Budd added one assist each. Brian Campbell finished up in goal to preserve the shutout.

SALEM 5, FRANKLIN 0: Top-ranked Plymouth Salem (15-1-1) scored four second-half goals Monday to beat visiting Livonia Franklin (7-9) in a WLAAC crossover.

BOYS SOCCER WRAP

Brett Stmer had a pair of goals for the Rocks, while Jeff Haar, Dan Longpre and Scott Duhi contributed one apiece.

"We played them really strong the first half," Franklin coach Dave Hebestreit said. "I was happy with our play for 55 minutes."

Ryan Kracht, unable to play the last three games because of injury, returned to the lineup to give Franklin a boost. Hebestreit also praised the play of Mike Vega and Ross Bohler.

The Franklin coach was also impressed by the play of Duhi, who was marked by Ken Douglass.

REDFORD CC 2, U-D JESUIT 0: Redford Catholic Central (7-3-5, 2-2-4) fell shy of the Catholic League playoffs, settling for third place in the Central Division standings despite a victory Tuesday at the University of Detroit Jesuit.

Birmingham Brother Rice and Warren DeLaSalle clinched the top two spots for the playoffs on Oct. 11. Senior Patrick Griffin scored an unassisted goal and assisted on the other for the Shamrocks against the Cubs. Junior David Ruiz had the other CC goal.

Junior goalkeeper Eric Sullivan notched the shutout. On Saturday, CC earned a scoreless against Rice, the state's No. 1 ranked team, at Livonia's Whitman Park.

The game was a rematch of an earlier meeting won by Rice, 3-1.

CC coach Dana Orsucci said Griffin and Josh Brooks created some good opportunities to score, only to be turned away. The Shamrocks also were stopped on a breakaway attempt.

Sullivan was the goalie of record. In a 4-1 loss Oct. 5 to Warren DeLaSalle, Griffin had the Shamrocks' only goal on a free kick.

LUTHERAN WESTLAND 2, LUTHERAN N'WEST 0: State-ranked Lutheran High Westland (10-1-1 overall) opened the Metro Conference playoffs Tuesday with a victory over Rochester Hills Lutheran Northwest behind goalkeeper Andrew Giesman's 36th career shutout and ninth of the season.

Lutheran Westland, which outshot the Crusaders 20-0, lathered both goals in the first half.

Senior captain Robert Noel scored in the 36th minute from junior center-midfielder Brad Nollar. Jeff Broge, a sophomore forward, then scored on a beautiful header from Nollar in the 39th minute.

The Warriors will host the winner of Hamtramck-Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook, 4:30 today, in a semifinal matchup.

LIGGETT 10, CLARENCEVILLE 0: Second seed Grosse Pointe Woods University Liggett advanced to the next round of the Metro Conference playoffs Tuesday against visiting Livonia Clarenceville 1-11.

North town triumph in WLAA dual

Glenn wins, Blazers bounced

Key turnovers in the final quarter led to Livonia Franklin's Tuesday win in a 53-47 girls basketball dual at visiting North Farmington.

Franklin is now 6-6 overall and 3-3 in the Western Lakes Activities Association, while North is 2-3 and 6-1.

Patriot senior forward Tara Merrill converted the state's most prolific point producer, North junior guard Samantha McComb, 23-25.

North, hitting five of eight free throws, outscored Franklin 13-12 in the decisive fourth period.

Jehan Hinde added eight points for the Raiders.

Junior center Kerstin Marshall chipped in with 11 for Franklin.

JOHN GLENN 60, CHERRYHILL 42: Ten of 11 players scored Tuesday as Westland John Glenn (7-4, 4-2) downed host Livonia Churchill (3-8, 0-6) in a WLAAC encounter.

Stephanie Crews, a senior, led the way with 16 points and nine rebounds. Sarah Peck added 15 points, four assists and two steals.

Sophomore guard Deanna DeRoo paced Churchill and all scorers with 13 points. Senior forward Kristin Barry added 10 points, while Kate Hogan grabbed six rebounds.

Glenn put it away with a 12-6 fourth-quarter run.

NORTHBVILLE 83, STEVENSON 28: It was no contest Tuesday as the host Mustangs (7-4, 5-1) romped past Livonia Stevenson (3-7, 1-6).

Senior guard Cheryl Fox scored nine for the Spartans.

DEVINE CHURCH 68, LADYWOOD 48: The highly rated Falcons prevailed the Blazers right out of the Detroit Catholic League game.

Livonia Ladywood trailed by nine at the half because of a 15-7 opening period but Dearborn Divine Child, the No. 1 ranked team in Class B, stuffed out its comeback hopes with a 21-11 third period.

"We knew what they were going to do with their pressure and we knew what they were going to try to take away," coach Andrea Gorak said, "but we couldn't handle their pressure."

The host Blazers edged to 8-5 overall and 3-4 in the Catholic League's Central Division, while the Falcons remained unbeaten at 12-0 overall, 7-0 in the Central.

Junior guard Marie Jillan led Divine Child with 21 points, seven coming in the third quarter. She hit five three-point shots in the process.

Center Sarah Yakich scored 12 and guard Chris Brown 10.

Michelle Harakas led Ladywood with 14 points.

LIGGETT 28, LUTHERAN WESTLAND 33: Broken by 14 points in the first meeting (Sept. 14), Lutheran High Westland (4-9, 2-7) made it a contest Tuesday only to fall short to visiting Grosse Pointe Woods University-Liggett (5-5, 2-2).

The Warriors missed eight free throws in the decisive final quarter as Liggett held a 10-6 scoring edge.

"We played well in just about every aspect of the game, but the free throw line was our enemy," said Lutheran Westland coach Ron Gentz, whose team made just 10 of 23 on the night. "We had our chances, but just couldn't cash in."

Kelena Banadu led Liggett with nine points.

Senior guard Anna Hoff scored 12 for Lutheran Westland, while junior forward Kelly Pruchnik had nine. Senior center Sarah Marody scored a game-high 15 rebounds.

LUTHERAN EAST 69, CLARENCEVILLE 28: Herper Woods Lutheran East (5-9, 4-5), behind 12 points from Beth Gerds, cruised to the Metro Conference win Tuesday at Livonia Clarenceville (0-12, 0-8).

Despite the loss, Clarenceville's Jessica Kennedy scored a game-high 21 points.

FRANKLIN ROAD 61, HURON VALLEY 49: Stacie Graves scored a game-best 23 points Tuesday night for the visiting Hawks in the non-conference game.

Westland Huron Valley Lutheran (8-6) scored 14 and 17 points in the final quarters of each half but couldn't solve Franklin Road's defense in the other two.

Southfield Franklin Road got 21 points from Heather Swanson and 20 from Jess O'Dell.

COLLEGE SOCCER

Crusaders win again, blank Lady Cardinals

Kelly Delaney stepped up two goals and one assist Tuesday as Madonna University (9-4-1, 6-3-1) captured its second straight Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference women's soccer triumph at the expense of visiting Concordia (1-10, 1-9).

Megan Thiry added one goal and two assists for the victorious Lady Crusaders. Jill Gibson tallied the other Madonna goal.

Goalkeeper Jenny Barker (Livonia Stevenson) made seven saves to earn the shutout.

MADONNA 3, CORNERSTONE 1: Gibson scored her 10th and 11th goals of the season Friday as Madonna downed visiting Cornerstone (9-5, 5-4) in a soggy WHAC match.

Gibson also assisted on Thiry's sixth goal of the year at the 13-minute mark of the opening half.

Madonna led 2-0 at intermission before Cornerstone's Aime Krueger narrowed the lead to one at the 10-minute mark of the second half.

Gibson then put it away in the final minute on an assist from Thiry.

Schoolcraft men turn back Lakeland, 2-0

Schoolcraft College emerged the victor Saturday in a battle of the two top-ranked men's soccer teams in Region 12 of the National Junior College Athletic Association.

Goals by Johnny Demergis (Plymouth Canton) and Gary Bell gave the Ocelots a 2-0 victory at Lakeland (Ohio).

SC is now 10-4-1 overall and 6-0-1 in Region 12, while Lakeland falls to 9-3-1 and 5-1-1.

"We could have converted a few more opportunities, but it was one of our best field games of the season," Schoolcraft coach Van Dimitriou said.

Demergis, who one-timed a shot on a short pass from Tony Maldonado, made it 1-0 at the 24-minute mark. It was his team-leading 12th goal of the season.

Bell then scored on a header at the 20-minute mark of the second half on a cross from Maldonado.

"We're a little too unselfish right now," Dimitriou said. "In practice today (Monday) we worked on making that run up the field and shooting more outside and taking our chances."

Defensively, stopper Joel Wizinsky, filling in for starter Andy Meyers (red carded in Oct. 6 loss to Macomb), stood out along with midfielder Sergio Mainella (Stevenson).

Goalkeeper Doug Koontz (Plymouth Canton), who faced just three shots, notched the shutout.

MADONNA 5, CORNERSTONE 1: Sam Pirane tallied his 23rd and school-record 24th goal of the season Saturday as host Madonna University (7-5-1, 5-4-1) posted the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference victory over the Golden Eagles (8, 5, 5, 3-1) at Heritage Park in Canton.

The two teams split the regular season series. Keith Barber also scored twice as the Fighting Crusaders led 4-0 in the first 28 minutes, Joe Suchara, Livonia Stevenson, assisted on both Barber goals, while Brian Murphy got Madonna started on the four-goal surge at the 15-minute mark on an assist from Pirane.

Henry Ayerendo had the lone goal for Cornerstone to make it 4-1 at half.

Murphy then assisted on Pirane's final goal.

Dave Hart, who had to make just one save, was the winning goalkeeper.

Pirane was also named WHAC Men's Player of the Week after scoring five goals and adding two assists in three games.

ONTARIO HOCKEY LEAGUE REPORT

Whalers ice Windsor

After losing two in a row at home, the Plymouth Whalers made the most of their trip Sunday to Windsor, beating the Spitfires 4-3 in an Ontario Hockey League game.

The win upped the Whalers' record to 3-4-1. Windsor fell to 2-3-1.

Randy Fitzgerald sparked the victory, collecting two goals and assisting on a third in the first two periods. Justin Williams got the Whalers' other goal; he also assisted on Fitzgerald's two scores.

Windsor rallied to narrow the deficit to 3-2 on a power-play goal by Ivan Rachunek at the 5:28 mark of the final period. But Plymouth retaliated with a fourth score, this one by Stephen Weiss at the 10:15 mark. Weiss also had two assists in the game.

His goal made Mark Ridout's goal, Windsor's third power-play marker of the game, at the 14:58 mark inconsequential.

Rob Zepp was the winning goalie for Plymouth; he made 19 saves. Mark Leighton started in the net for Windsor and surrendered all four Whaler goals.

ST. MICHAEL'S 3, WHALERS 2: On Saturday at Compuware Arena, Toronto St. Michael's Majors captain Keith Deane scored one goal and assisted on another in the second period, and goalie Wayne Bateman turned away 40 Whaler shots to pick up the victory. St. Michael's was 3-6 through the weekend.

Shaun Fisher scored both Whaler goals. His first gave the Whalers the lead early in the first period; his second narrowed the gap to 3-2 with 5:06 remaining in the game. Both came on the power play.

Rob Zepp was in goal for the loss; he made 10 stops.

Other St. Michael goals were scored by Steve Farquharson and George Nistas; Mark Popovic had two assists.

BRAMPTON 4, WHALERS 1: The Whalers troubles in scoring goals were evident Friday against the visiting Brampton Battalion.

Damian Surma accounted for Plymouth's only goal, scored on the power play with 21 seconds left in the first period. That narrowed Brampton's lead to 2-1. Scott Thompson and Raffi Torres got first-period goals for the Battalion.

The score remained 2-1 until the third period, when Brampton got a power-play goal from Brad Woods and an empty-netter from Jay McClement.

The Whalers have scored 25 goals in eight games, but nine of those came in two games.

Rob Zepp made 12 saves for Plymouth. David Chant had 39 stops for Brampton, which was first in the OHL's Midwest Division with a 5-1-1 record.

COLLEGE NOTES

Two former Livonia Stevenson standouts, Derek Williford and Scott Babinski, each scored goals Oct. 5 to lift the host Michigan State University men's soccer team past No. 21-ranked Oakland University.

Williford, a junior, scored in the 27th minute, while the sophomore Babinski tallied his first career goal in the 77th minute.

The victory improved MSU to 5-4-1 overall, while OU fell to 2-2-1.

Siena Heights University junior forward Nicole Tobin (Stevenson) had a hat trick in the Saints' 3-0 win Oct. 5 at Tri-State (Ind.).

Tobin becomes Siena Heights' all-time leading point producer (150), eclipsing the old mark of 149 set by Colleen Baieri in 1994.

She currently ranks No. 1 all-time in points and assists (46) and No. 2 in goals (behind Baieri) with 52.

An NAIA honorable mention All-America has 10 goals and six assists so far in 1999 for the Saints (9-2-2, 7-1 WHAC).

The Western Michigan University women's soccer team is off to a 7-4-1 start as freshman Kersten Conklin (Livonia Churchill) leads the team in scoring with seven points (three goals, one assist) in 12 games.

The Broncos, 2-2 in the Mid-American Conference, also include Angela Pandoff (Stevenson) and Kerri Verardi (Churchill).

University of Missouri-Rolla junior forward Lizz Skrybalo (Churchill) tops the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association in scored with 10 goals and 10 assists. The UMR women's soccer team is 7-3-1 overall and 3-0 in the conference.

The University of Detroit Mercy's men's soccer team improved to 3-1 in the Midwestern Collegiate Conference with a 3-1 victory Oct. 6 over Loyola of Chicago as seniors Nick Deren (Stevenson) and Matt Quinter (Stevenson) each scored goals.
