Crackdown: Police go after red light abusers

BY DARRELL CLEM
STAFF WRITER

Stop! Don't ever run a red light, but the risk of being ticketed in Westland is greater in July. Westland police will step up enforcement efforts this month for traffic-light violations at major city intersections.

"It's intended to help control the intersections and cut down on accidents," said police Sgt. Ron Kroll, who is in charge of the police department's traffic bureau.

Extra police officers will be assigned to intersections with help from federal dollars funneled through the state Office of Highway Safety and Planning, Kroll said.

It's an effort similar to other safety measures, such as the Click It or Ticket seat-belt enforcement program.

Officers will crack down on red-light violators 2-6 p.m. on the following dates and locations:

- Sunday, July 22, at Ford and Wayne.
- Monday, July 23, at Ford and Newburgh.
- Tuesday, July 24, at Middlebelt and Warren.

- Wednesday, July 25, at Wayne and Warren.
  - Thursday, July 26, at Cherry Hill and Newburgh.
  - Friday, July 27, at Ford and Wayne.
  - Saturday, July 28, at Ford and Newburgh.
- During those times and locations, six extra police officers will be assigned to watch the intersections, Kroll said.

Firefighters talk to the MEDFLIGHT medical and flight crews and look inside the helicopter that landed in the Bailey Recreation Center parking lot.

Pickering stresses his experience as mayor, on council

Pickering

Editor's note: This is the second in a series of three candidate profiles and questionnaires for the three mayoral candidates in the Aug. 7 primary. The top two vote-getters will advance to the Nov. 6 election.

Charles Pickering, 64, is a real estate associate broker. He is single with two adult children and five grandchildren. He received a bachelor's degree in parks and recreation administration and had two years of additional studies at Wayne State University.

He worked as supervisor and assistant director of the city's parks and recreation department before serving as mayor in 1982-85. Pickering is a longtime Westland City Council member and is currently the president. He also has been involved in such orga-

Mall gets magical for book release

Grab your pillows and sleeping bags and head to Westland Shopping Center where Harry Potter fans can while away the hours Friday evening with a magical mall movie premiere.

The event is in advance of the release of the final J.K. Rowling book, Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows, at 12:01 a.m. Saturday.

The movie, the first Harry Potter film, will be shown at 9:30 p.m. and end in time for those with book reservations at Borders Express to get their copies. The movie is free of charge. Teens under age 18, however, must be accompanied by an adult.

"People can gather as early as they want, around 8-8:30," said Denise Mills, the mall's marketing manager. "Sears is providing the big screen TV and sound system and the mall is providing the free popcorn."

Mrs. Field's Cookies also will have cookie bags for sale at $2 each and the Pretzel Peddler will be open in the East Court as well, she added.

Mills isn't certain how many people will show up for the movie. Borders Express has been taken book reservations for five months, and Mills believes that the store has some 700 Harry Potter books on order.

"I'm hoping for a good turnout, but how many come, I'm not sure," Mills said. "The predictions are people will get their books, walk out the door and start reading it."

For those who can't get enough of Harry Potter, Rowling will make an Open Book Tour in the U.S. in October. She'll make stops in Los Angeles, New Orleans and New York City to meet with school children and will host a second event in New York City for 1,000 Harry Potter fans, who will be selected through a sweepstakes, sponsored by publisher Scholastic Books on its Web site at www.scholastic-books.com. The sweepstakes starts July 30. Until then, fans can enjoy the very special movie night at Westland Shopping Center, located at the corner of Warren and Wayne Road. ## In case of an emergency

MEDFLIGHT visit updates firefighters on services

BY SUE MASON
STAFF WRITER

The sounds of summer around the Bailey Recreation Center were interrupted with the whoop, whoop, whoop of a medical helicopter landing in the east parking lot of the Bailey Recreation Center.

Watching and waiting outside the landing zone were Westland firefighters.

There was no accident scene, no patient in need of transport to a trauma center. The Midwest MEDFLIGHT helicopter was at the civic center complex to familiarize the firefighters with the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital-based helicopter service.

"We were working with MEDFLIGHT to understand what it takes to get them here, if we need them, and quickly transport a patient," said Assistant Fire Chief Scott Neal. "We're going over how to get a patient packaged for transport."

Neal decided to have a face-to-face with MEDFLIGHT personnel following an accident in Hines Park. The University Hospital survival flight wasn't available, so firefighters called in MEDFLIGHT. That contact led fire officials to decide that the service should be the first called.

On average, Westland firefighters call for a medical helicopter two-three times a year, but MEDFLIGHT paramedic Andrew King told firefighters not to hesitate to call out the helicopter.

"Call us, get us rolling, we can be there six-seven minutes from time of activation," said King. "Just because you request us for the scene of an accident doesn't mean we have to land at the accident. We don't charge for stand by, but it gets us in the air."

MEDFLIGHT did three presentations earlier this week for the department's respective shifts. It included bringing in the helicopter for firefighters to look over and providing information on everything from the size of the landing zone and how to mark it to the medical supplies the helicopter carries.

While MEDFLIGHT flies out of St. Joseph Mercy, the helicopter can transport to the metropolitan area's four trauma centers — University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, St. Joe's in Ypsilanti, Henry Ford in Detroit and

Durante: Recycling, new programs on list Goci: City services are his top priority

Sam Durante is making his second bid for elective office. He ran against Richard LeBlanc in the 18th District House race in 2006.

He is a graduate of Fordson High School and a U.S. Army veteran. He also graduated from a California business school and opened his own restaurant.

He has worked for ServiceMaster/Terminix since 1990 and currently is manager of Terminix's trapmaster department. Married, he has three children and six grandchildren. He has been involved with the Westland Summer Festival Committee and Save the Rouge. He also has been a hunter safety instructor, helped with the Jerry Lewis MDA telethon and played Santa Claus for the Head Start program.

Q: Given Michigan's economic crisis, what would you do to maintain a budget surplus in Westland and to protect city services?

A: (1) Any budget surplus should earn interest or dividends in a "safe" manner — nothing risky, but something more than the usual savings account interest. For the most part, these funds should be considered "rainy day" funds. (2) Management, of course, should always keep tight reign on workers' hours. (3) No credit. Don't spend money we don't have.

Q: What can be done to attract more homebuyers and businesses to Westland considering Michigan's economic climate?

A: (1) Encourage developers to build more mid-sized housing which is more affordable to buy, maintain and pay the taxes. (2) Encourage the owners of vacant buildings to put more attractive new "faces" on the buildings, if needed. (3) Divide unusually large vacant buildings into smaller areas for smaller businesses.

Q: Cite three top priorities that you believe should be addressed by the City Council:

A: (1) Programs for children. (2) Tax breaks for seniors. (3) Curbside recycling.

Q: Why should voters choose you over other candidates to fill one of four seats at stake in this year's election?

A: I would be a full-time councilman as I am retiring quite soon. Once I'm involved in a project, I will stay on track until completion. I am always available at (800) 527-3817.

John Goci, 37, is a write-in candidate for Westland City Council. He is president of Barden Entertainment and owner of U.S. 12 American Bar & Grill in Wayne.

He is married and has four children. He is a graduate of John Glenn High School and attended some classes at Henry Ford Community College and Schoolcraft College.

Goci started a foundation in honor of his late brother, Skender Gocaj, a Westland police officer, by working with Kosovo police force to give out a yearly award.

Goci also organized and built a community computer lab at St. Paul Catholic Church. He has held fund-raisers at his bar to help local people in need.

Q: Given Michigan's economic crisis, what would you do to maintain a budget surplus in Westland and to protect city services?

A: My top priority is to protect, maintain and even improve city services by working with the City Council and the mayor's office. A balanced budget is the only way to insure no reduction in city services. If the city continues to surplus tax revenue, then we should consider tax relief for individuals and small business owners to ensure that Westland is an economic leader and provides a favorable business environment, which will in turn create more jobs in the city.

Q: What can be done to attract more homebuyers and businesses to Westland considering Michigan's economic climate?

A: Westland is a great city. A great city to raise your family, educate your children, and Westland maintains some of the best recreational facilities in the state. I want to make sure that the people who are in the market for a new home are aware of the benefits to owning a home here.

I feel the best way to inform potential homebuyers is through real estate brokers and agents.

As far as attracting businesses, I would look into businesses that are not located in the city and try to offer tax breaks, if they locate here.

Q: Cite three top priorities that you believe should be addressed by the City Council:

A: Central City Park is my top priority. We need to create a sense of urgency with Wayne County and the state to clean it up and even reach out to our federal government for assistance.

Q: Why should voters choose you over other candidates to fill one of four council seats at stake in this year's election?

A: First, I applaud anyone who wants to serve their community, including those I'm running against. I want the voters to know that I am in this to serve the citizens of Westland. The community that has clothed me, educated me and made me what I am. As your elected voice, I will work hard to serve you and address governmental issues important to the people of Westland.

Godbout: Promote city to business, families

James Godbout, 52, is an account manager for Rockwell Automation. He is a Westland City Council incumbent. He is married and has one son.

Godbout received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Lawrence Technological University. He has received education and leadership awards from the Michigan Municipal League Elected Officials Academy.

He has been involved in such organizations as Nankin Transit Commission (vice chair), Westland Recycling Committee, Westland Technology Committee, Westland Community Foundation board member, Westland Festival Committee, Westland Condominium Directors Organization (president), Westland Host Lions Club, Democratic precinct delegate, Cub Scout Park 786 committee chairman, and Wayne-Westland Family YMCA board member.

Q: Given Michigan's economic crisis, what would you do to maintain a budget surplus in Westland and to protect city services?

A: I will continue to work with the administration and directors in looking for ways to lower departmental costs. Since serving on the council, this cooperation has taken the city's fund balance from $200,000 to slightly more than $2 million. Our investment in technology has resulted in improved services at lower costs.

Q: What can be done to attract more homebuyers and businesses to Westland, considering Michigan's economic climate?

A: Westland has great diversity in housing that makes it attractive to a variety of homebuyers, everything from starter to $300,000/$400,000 homes, and condominiums that attract Gen-X and seniors.

Providing Realtors with information promoting Westland's great retail and dining options, good school districts, and our parks and recreational options would help them show their prospective buyers the advantages of living in Westland.

Q: Cite three of the top priorities that you believe should be addressed by the City Council.

A: Reopening of Central City Park. Implementing a curbside recycling program. Develop a plan for maintaining/updating our aging infrastructure and facilities.

Q: Why should voters choose you over other candidates to fill one of four council seats at stake in this year's election?

A: Since being elected to the Westland City Council in 2000, I have demonstrated my ability to work with my colleagues, three mayors, and their administrations to move Westland forward in a positive direction. Some accomplishments include:

- Increased fund surplus from $200,000 to more than $2 million despite cuts in state funding.
- Removed Westland from an overly expensive incinerator contract.
- Adopted a blight control ordinance to eliminate neglected and dangerous buildings.
- Implemented technology committee and drove improved efficiencies.

Beaumont in Royal Oak.

"We're two-three times faster than ground transport, we travel at 150 miles per hour," said King. "We can bypass the orange barrels, we can bypass the traffic. Within five minutes we can have a patient to one of those trauma centers."

"The other day we made it from St. Mary's (in Livonia) to Beaumont in 4 1/2 minutes."

The MEDFLIGHT helicopter has a crew of three - the pilot, a paramedic and a nurse.

King is one of four full time. MEDFLIGHT also employs a part-time paramedic as well as four full-time and five part-time nurses.

King, who worked for the Huron

Valley Ambulance Service before joining MEDFLIGHT last year, stressed the knowledge of the area flight crews have.

"The good news is that most of us know the area," he said. "I grew up in Canton and I'm pretty familiar with the area."

The MEDFLIGHT helicopter also attracted the attention of Kreshnik Pjeshkazini and his 2-year-old son Mikel who came over from nearby Tattam Park to join the firefighters in peering inside the twin-engine helicopter.

"We saw it and had to come and look," Pjeshkazini said.

That interest is good news to Neal.

"The more comfortable we become in using the service, the better off our residents will be," said Neal. "Even though we're not close to a trauma hospital, with this we can bring that hospital to residents."

PICKERING

nizations as Westland Jaycees, Goodfellows and the Westland Chamber of Commerce.

Q: Why are you the best mayoral candidate to lead the city of Westland forward?

A: Experience is everything! On June 4, while adopting the city budget, I proposed to reduce taxes to our taxpayers by over $800,000. The current interim mayor did not support reducing your taxes. During this time when the government is raising our taxes, our gasoline and utility costs are skyrocketing out of control, and our residents' incomes are stagnant, it is more important now than ever that the voters elect a mayor with proven experience and one who will work to decrease their taxes. My 35 years in Westland's government makes me the most qualified for mayor.

Q: Describe your style of leadership.

A: I am a strong believer in teamwork and consensus building. As a leader, I will want all my staff to feel that they can participate in high level decision-making. Each director and staff members have very specific responsibilities within their department or division. I expect them to lead the same way with their employees. I also believe that all members of my administration must know and understand their jobs and take responsibility for their decisions. They must also work with and support each other. I will work with the council in the same way.

Q: Given Michigan's economic crisis, what would you do to maintain a budget surplus in Westland and to protect city services?

A: When I took office as mayor in 1982, I inherited a deficit, yet I ended my term with a $1,650,000 surplus. Over the 16 years that I have been on the City Council, we have always adopted and maintained a balanced budget. We currently have over a $2 million fund balance. In spite of the hard economic times the state has faced these past few years, and with the loss of millions of dollars in state revenue sharing, we have been able to protect our city services and maintain our workforce. I have the experience to protect our city services.

Q: What can be done to attract more homebuyers and businesses to Westland, considering Michigan's economic climate?

A: I have been a Realtor for over 20 years and owned my own real estate business for many years. I have lived in Westland and have been in Westland's government for over 35 years. I have always promoted the positive attributes of the Westland community, its schools and Westland's government. In spite of Michigan's economic crisis, Westland homeowners are still able to sell their homes to new residents. Many of our sellers buy new homes in Westland. I will continue to market Westland as the place for new businesses by being directly involved with my economic development staff.

Q: Cite three issues that would be top priorities of your administration?

A: 1) Continue to look for ways to reduce the tax burden of our citizens. I will work to have our homeowners' assessments reflect the most current market value of their homes.

2) I will make sure that the county-owned Central City Park is made safe at the expense of the county, not the city. Whatever we lose in use of the park must be replaced by the county.

3) I am a supporter of recycling. The five cities of our sanitation authority need to work together to develop a program.

Air Force speaker proud to serve country

BY JULIE BROWN
STAFF WRITER

Tech. Sgt. Howard Watkins of the U.S. Air Force came to Westland Rotary last week to share his story of serving in Iraq. The 17-year military veteran was in Iraq as a convoy commander April-December 2006.

"I'm a member of the Why We Serve program," the Arkansas-born and southwest Missouri-raised Watkins said.

The U.S. defense secretary program includes recently deployed service personnel from all branches who speak at U.S. gatherings. Speakers discuss service in Iraq, Afghanistan and the Horn of Africa and "hopefully try to give them some of the information they're not getting from the regular media."

"I'm not here to persuade anybody," he said. Service personnel don't necessarily want to be overseas in danger zones, but want to do their jobs.

Watkins, 35, also spoke to a local American Legion gathering, and has found the reception positive.

"Everybody I've spoken with has been very supportive," he said. Another speaker arrived at a forum to learn for the first time he was to be the "pro-military" voice in a debate.

"I'm enjoying this quite a bit, getting to see parts of the United States," said Watkins, who's been married 16 years and has a son, 10, and daughter, 3. He was impressed with the Detroit area's natural beauty, which he didn't expect.

Watkins, now stationed at Ellsworth Air Force Base in South Dakota, talked about coming into the military as a truck driver, and within six months being in Saudi Arabia and Kuwait.

"I was able to get back home within a few months," he said of Operation Desert Storm.

On his recent deployment to Iraq, he was responsible for transporting equipment throughout Iraq.

"We had to transport everything from toilet paper to tanks," he said. The daytime temperatures were 135-140 degrees Fahrenheit, he added.

Watkins is grateful he didn't lose any of his people, four, however, were wounded by shrapnel. He noted Americans heard a lot about Abu Ghraib and other misconduct by U.S. troops, but less so about improvements to lives of Iraqis.

"We are making improvements and we're doing what we can," he said, citing providing clean water and power in Iraq.

Watkins recalled being at a medical clinic in Iraq where a local man was grateful his children were receiving care. The Iraqi man had lost his foot, Watkins recalled the man's pledge of support for the United States.

"I don't see it being fixed anytime soon," he said of the situation in Iraq, where he intends to serve again.

Watkins is buoyed by patriotism he sees at home.

"It'll make it that much easier when I do have to go back," he said. "I love being in the military. I've had so many doors opened up to me."

He cited earning two associate's and a bachelor's degree, and worldwide travel.

"You know when you're home," Watkins said. "It strengthens you to go back and do what you have to do."

Rotarian Dr. Kim Shunkwiler, a local chiropractor who arranged the visit, thanked Watkins and others for their military service.

"It's a very valuable and precious commodity," the Vietnam veteran said of freedom. "Sometimes we take it for granted."

Tech. Sgt. Howard Watkins of the U.S. Air Force is thanked for speaking by Lou Toarmina, Westland Rotary president.

Literature's lessons: Club celebrates 75th year

BY REBECCA JONES
STAFF WRITER

Ladies used to wear hats and high heels to a neighbor's home in Rosedale Gardens two evenings a month to discuss books, culture and world events over desserts and tea.

Today, members of the Arts and Letters group are still active, contributing to charities and enjoying the company of other culturally minded women with Livonia roots.

Of course, things have changed since the club formed in January, 1932. "We're not nearly as formal today. Most of us wear slacks and our New Balance shoes, and we're not afraid to sit on the floor," said Barbara Birmingham, a member of the group since 1968.

Arts and Letters celebrated its 75th anniversary with a picnic at Greenmead last month.

These days, the group meets monthly. Each member hosts the group or gives a program, usually a book review. Some members put on music programs. The group also attends plays.

For her next program, the group's president Betty Tripp will review a book she bought at a garage sale about women on the Great Lakes, who worked in lighthouses or on ships.

Other reviewed books include Marley & Me: Life and Love with the World's Worst Dog by John Grogan, Pretty

Birds by Scott Simon and Not Without My Daughter by Betty Mahmoudy.

Although some are humorous and some are serious, the books provoke discussion.

"I would never miss a meeting because I like the exchange of ideas," said member George-Ann Golem, a former teacher in Livonia and Plymouth-Canton schools, who said she enjoys knowing women with such different backgrounds and hearing about their travels as well.

Members range in age from about 40 to 85.

When Arts and Letters formed, Livonia was rural and many women were stay-at-home moms watching children all day. For them, this was a night out to discuss literature and culture.

"During the Depression, they wanted to do something that would be uplifting and get them out of the house," Birmingham said.

The group formed in the Rosedale Gardens neighborhood, but has since expanded to include residents from all over Livonia. Some longtime members have moved to other communities.

Through the years, more than 100 women have been invited to be members. Fifty-year member Jean Champe of Canton and 48-year member Verna Lee Stewart of Northville were honored at the picnic. Ten have belonged for 25 or more years.

Membership is limited to 20 so the group can continue its tradition of meeting in each other's homes.

Women must be invited to join. It's considered an honor.

"They send you a written invitation," Tripp said.

"In my heart of hearts, I wanted to be invited," Golem remembers.

Although they're a group of women of a certain age who get a kick out of their time together, Livonia's Arts and Letters group the group can't be compared to the boisterous Red Hat Society, Birmingham said.

"What we do we enjoy doing, but it isn't just for fun," Birmingham said. "There's always the feeling that we learn something from the books."

In addition to stretching their minds, the women believe in reaching out to others near and far. During the Depression, the group paid medical bills for a family in need. Soldiers in World War II received packages from home from Arts and Letters.

The women were the first to request in a 1953 letter to City Council that the library be established in Livonia.

In more recent years, money has been given to support programs such as First Step, Seedlings, Heifer International, Angela Hospice, Livonia Symphony, Greenmead Historical Park and memorial books to Livonia's libraries.

Birmingham's sister, Sue Daniel, is also a member. So was their mother.

"For her, it was a very important meeting. That's a night that she never let anything get in the way," she said.

Wayne County Fair Aug. 14-19

The Wayne County Fair 2007, at the Wayne County Fairgrounds in Belleville, is Aug. 14-19.

The fair will feature over 50 attractions, with the purchase of the Pay-One-Price-to-Ride wristband. Attractions include the USA Demolition Figure 8 and Enduro Derbies; Mapapa African Acrobats; grandstand shows; Mexican Rodeo; Mexican Bands; and Talent Search 2007.

Opening Day, Tuesday, Aug. 14, tickets are $2. The price allows riders to ride all day!

The rest of the week fair-goers will pay $12 per day.

There will be a lineup of entertainment every day at the fair. The Wayne County Fair offers free Parking; and with the Pay-One-Price-to-Ride wristband fair-goers have admission to the grandstand shows, rodeo, and the Figure 8 and Enduro Derbies, to name a few.

Fairgrounds are at the north I-94 Service Drive, Belleville Road Exit #190.

Claiming your elderly mom or dad as dependent

I recently met with a couple to discuss managing their portfolio. But before getting down to business the issue of an elderly parent was raised.

One parent's source of income is Social Security. They have very little in savings and no other retirement account. It's a situation that's happening more and more, where members of the baby-boom generation have to supplement their parents' income. People are living longer and the cost of living is going up.

In this particular situation, the three children decided they would each contribute a certain amount of money per month to help cover their mother's living expenses. My question was, 'Who's claiming mom as a dependent?' The answer was they were told that since no one person is paying half of mom's support, they did not qualify to claim her as a dependent.

Since more and more baby boomers have to financially assist their parents, it's important to review some of the rules with regard to claiming a parent as a dependent.

Two tests must be met in order to claim a parent as a dependent. The first is income. Typically, in order to claim someone as a dependent, they cannot have more than $3,400 of income (not taking into consideration Social Security). Included, however, are distributions from a retirement account or a pension plan.

The second test is support. In order to claim someone as a dependent you must provide more than half of their support (includes housing, food and medical expenses). A parent does not have to live with you to claim them as a dependent. If the two tests are met, you are eligible to claim someone as a dependent on your tax return.

My clients believed that while mom met the income test, they did not provide half her support because her other children were contributing as well.

In order to claim someone as a dependent, you individually do not necessarily have to pay half the support. If multiple parties are involved, as long as those parties provide more than half the support, someone can claim the individual as a dependent.

In this situation, three adult children equally contributing were paying more than 10 percent of mom's support. In total they paid more than 50 percent so one of them is entitled to claim mom as a dependent.

In cases where multiple parties are supporting an individual and they are rotating who takes the dependency deduction, the IRS Form 2120 would be the form to be completed.

Is it worth filing an amended return? If you discover a mistake you made on your tax return which results in you owing more money to the IRS, I recommend filing an amended return. The IRS is more forgiving on penalties when you voluntarily come forth.

On the other hand, if by filing an amended return the IRS is going to owe you money, my general rule is as long as you can document the change there should be no problem.

Many people are under the mistaken belief that when you file an amended return, it automatically means you will be audited. That's not the case. However, if you're only going to save $100 to $200, don't go through the hassle.

In the case of my clients, who would save more than $1,000, it makes sense to file an amended return.

Camps are answer to 'there's nothing to do'

BY SUE MASON
STAFF WRITER

Parents, tired of hearing from their kids that there's nothing to do this summer, can find them something to do at summer camps being offered through the Westland Parks and Recreation Department.

Carrie Kelley will offer two weeks of her Kelley's Camp Monday-Friday, July 23-27 and July 30-Aug. 3. This is the second year for the camp that includes crafts, organized games, sports and afternoon swims in the outdoor pool.

"Kids are going to have a really good time," said program supervisor Margaret Martin. "Carrie did this last year and the kids had a blast."

A teacher by trade, Kelley used to do fun camp programs in several city parks. When the funding was eliminated, she took two years off and came back with Kelley's Camp.

"The kids stay active much of the day," the Canton resident said. "There's so much to do in and around the Bailey Center. There's so much to do."

Campers are divided into groups to work with an individual staff member. They include several teachers and "the best craft lady in all of Michigan," Kelley said.

"We're all fairly young and are full of energy," she added. "We still have the summer off, but take a few weeks to do the camp. It was very successful last year."

Staffers will take a group of kids and find out what they want to do and do it, Kelley said, adding that "they stay active much of the day, we keep them busy."

The camp is for kids age 6-12 and costs $100 per student per week, $180 for both weeks. The cost includes the afternoon swim in the outdoor pool. Hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Campers should wear comfortable clothes, bring a bathing suit and towel as well as a sack lunch and snack Monday-Thursday. Friday will be a pizza party and field day.

Registration can be completed at the Bailey Recreation Center in the civic center complex on Ford west of Wayne Road. For more information, call (734) 722-7620.

"We try to cater to the kids and they have fun because we do," Kelley added.

The recreation department also is offering a two-day Adventurer's Camp Monday-Tuesday, Aug. 6-7.

Each day, the campers will head out on a new adventure - the Detroit Science Center on Aug. 6, and Cranbrook's bat house and Cranbrook Museum on Aug. 7.

The Adventure Camp runs 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Campers can sign up for one or both of the adventures. Cost is $35 per child per day or $70 for both per child. Bring a sack lunch and a snack each day.

For more information or to sign up for the camps, call the Bailey Recreation Center at (734) 722-7620.

Tips help protect valuables, vehicles from theft

H.E.A.T. (Help Eliminate Auto Thefts) warns that warm weather in summer months can lead to carelessness among car owners, providing thieves with easy access to personal property and vehicles.

July is National Vehicle Theft Prevention Month and the Auto Theft Prevention Authority reports that August is the highest month for auto theft in Michigan.

"While the summer months mean vacations and cook-outs with family and friends, they also bring car thieves looking to steal exposed property and vehicles," said Terri Miller, director of H.E.A.T. "It is important that people keep their guard high by rolling up their windows, locking their doors and putting car tops up, even when running a quick errand."

"Michigan typically experiences the most auto thefts in August, and nationally, the most auto thefts occur in July," added Col. Peter C. Munoz, director of the Michigan State Police. "It is important to practice auto theft prevention throughout the summer, whether at home or on vacation."

Tips on keeping your car and belongings safe during warm weather:

■ Close windows tightly. Don't even leave them "cracked" and always lock your car when your vehicle is unattended.

■ Keep all personal belongings, including iPods, cell phones and other valuables, out of sight.

■ Close and lock convertible car tops.

■ Protect your vehicle from being started by a thief by having a mechanic install a concealed kill-switch.

■ Add a second layer of protection to your vehicle by using a steering wheel locking device, a steering column protector or an alarm with a visible flasher.

■ Consider etching your VIN (Vehicle Identification Number) onto the glass surfaces of your vehicle.

VIN etching makes vehicles less attractive to thieves because all windows must be replaced before the car is tagged with a fake VIN for resale.

■ Call H.E.A.T. If you know anything about auto theft, report it day or night to your local police department and H.E.A.T.'s 24/7 confidential tip-reward line, (800) 242-HEAT or online at www.1800242HEAT.com.

Since its inception in 1985, H.E.A.T. tips have led to the recovery of more than $43 million in stolen property and the arrests of nearly 3,000 suspects and paid more than $2.9 million in tipster rewards.

Anyone with information on auto theft, carjacking, chop shops, auto theft-related identity theft and auto insurance fraud in Michigan is encouraged to call the H.E.A.T. which works with Michigan law enforcement agencies to follow up on tips.

Tipsters are awarded up to $1,000 if the tip leads to the arrest and prosecution of a suspected car thief or a person suspected of auto theft-related insurance fraud.

Rewards of up to $10,000 are issued, if a tip results in the arrest and binding over for trial of a suspected thief ring or chop shop operators. H.E.A.T. rewards up to $2,000 for information leading to the issuance of a warrant for a carjacking suspect.

The H.E.A.T. tip line is monitored by the Michigan State Police and funded by Michigan's auto insurance companies.

Madonna, All-Saints receive Carter Award

Madonna University and the All Saints Neighborhood Center, Neighborhood Centers Inc. - Partnership for Community Cohesion received the 2007 Carter Partnership Award.

The Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter Partnership Award for Campus-Community Collaboration recognizes college/university and community groups that work together in exceptional ways to improve people's lives and help college students learn the value of community service in the process. The $10,000 award will be divided equally by the partners to support their program.

In 1999, the All Saints Catholic Church assumed control of a recently-closed church building and turned it into a community center. Madonna University initially provided tables, chairs, desks, and soon followed with a host of service-learning activities such as literacy tutoring, health and wellness programming, summer program assistance, neighborhood surveys and asset-mapping, and a residential summer camp at Madonna for the Center's young people.

Partnership work outside of service-learning includes the provision of technical assistance by university representatives on the design of early childhood and family-based programs which contributed in part to the renovation of the center to meet childcare codes, client tracking systems, and assistance in securing a grant for computer training.

"Each year Madonna has done more and more to support the children in one way or another," said Dennis Nordmoe, executive director of All Saints Neighborhood Center. "The program gets better and better, thanks to all the students and the faculty who get involved." To prove his point, Nordmoe said there were two applicants for every opening for this year's Bridge Camp; a residential summer camp at Madonna that provides children the experience of going to college, to help them see the possibilities for their futures.

"This award is recognition for nearly a decade of collaboration that has been mutually beneficial," said Kevin West, service learning director at Madonna University. "The All Saints Center has brought the neighborhood new life and hope, and our students and faculty have experienced the joy of helping others develop to their potential. It's that community service component of a Madonna education that sets our graduates apart."

The Partnership for Community Cohesion was among four finalists vying for this award. A selection panel, composed of representatives from community, higher education, business and government organizations selected the four finalists based on the combined merits of each program, giving careful consideration to how closely the program applicants matched the award criteria. This campus-community partnership was recognized June 20, 2007, at the Fox Theatre in Detroit at the annual Governor's Service Awards.

Madonna University's main campus is conveniently located at I-96 and Levan Road in Livonia.

Classes also are offered at the Orchard Lake Center and the Downriver Center in Southgate.

Satellite library is good for city

It's a ball that started rolling when, in an interview with the Observer, new Library Director Cheryl Napsha expressed a hope of starting outreach programs for residents of outlying neighborhoods.

Last month, Mayor William Wild quantified that hope, saying he is in support of a branch library at the Dorsey Community Center in the Norwayne subdivision. Now we have newly elected Library Board President Daniel Bourdeau listing a satellite branch there as one of his goals.

It's nice to see so many people speaking out in support of the idea. We say it's an idea whose day has come.

For 10 years, the library has been meeting the needs of residents who came to its facility, now it's time to meet the needs of those who can't make its Central City Parkway location.

Westland isn't a neat, compact community. The city's core services are concentrated in about a one-mile radius of the Ford-Wayne Road intersection. That's good for neighborhoods in the west and northern portions of the city, but not so good for residents in the southern area. A satellite office in Norwayne would bring the library closer to them.

In Norwayne, the closest thing to the library the past seven years has been the Wayne-Westland Community Schools' Red Wagon Literacy Program. A library on wheels, the program has relied on volunteers and donations to provide books during the summer months to children living in the subdivision.

We're sure the program wouldn't be offended to have a branch library open up on its turf. Just imagine the delight of children being able to walk into the library and see shelves filled with books waiting to be read. Imagine the delight of being able to get a library card and check out books at the library branch.

We urge city and library officials to do more than just talk about a satellite library. We urge them to make it a reality. We know that it can't happen overnight, but we hope it happens sooner rather than later.

Don't take a vacation from giving this summer

Summer is a time to kick back and take a break from school, work and other commitments.

Folks on fast-track schedules the rest of the year finally have time to travel and visit with far-flung family members and friends.

When at home, they make the most of summer's long days and warm weather by enjoying outdoor activities.

But summer takes a toll on charities. Not only are people busy with other interests, but the need for donations goes up.

Demand for blood peaks in the summer because travel and outdoor activity-related accidents increase. And food pantries scramble to provide peanut butter and jelly and other staples to families whose children get free or reduced-cost lunches during the school year.

This summer is no different. Blood donations at the Southeastern Michigan chapter of the American Red Cross have been critically low all summer. As of July 13, there were zero units of O negative and O positive blood types on the chapter's shelves when there should be a three-day supply of 369 units and 1,392 units respectively.

"For us to have none puts the whole community in jeopardy," said Bridget Tuohey, director of marketing, who added that all types of blood are needed.

At Gleaners Community Food Bank of Southeastern Michigan, donors are responding to pleas to raise $250,000 this summer to help feed the 300,000 children in southeastern Michigan who are income-eligible for government-funded lunches. "But are we keeping pace? No way, the need is way bigger," said Gerry Brisson, vice president for development.

The state's ailing economy is adding to the client load of charities that provide emergency assistance with food, rent, utilities and prescriptions. In North Oakland County, Lighthouse of Clarkston and Oxford Orion FISH are seeing big jumps in their numbers from last spring and summer. At Oxford Orion FISH, an average of 72 more families a month are turning to the charity for assistance.

Don't take a vacation from giving this summer. To schedule an appointment to give blood, call (800) GIVE-LIFE or visit www.givelife.org. To donate to Gleaners, make a cash donation at www.gcfb.org or call Lisa Walker at (866) GLEANER, Ext 241. Or contact the local charity of your choice.

Undo health care mess

It is not too late to undo the mess we call health care here in the United States. We, the people must start a parade where others can join us in our efforts to do something proactive in making sweeping changes in what is one of the most important factors in our lives, our health care.

We must start by contacting our legislators and let them know in no uncertain terms if they wish to have our continued support in future elections they must pass legislation for reform.

We need to have a universal, single-payer health care system and we need it now. Too many people, young and old educated or not, employed and unemployed either have inadequate insurance coverage or no insurance at all.

I just watched the movie Sicko, and I can only state that it is a sad fact that I would be better off living in Cuba, not Canada, England or France where everyone is also covered by their government health system, but Cuba! I will not move in order to have the health care available, I advocate change to the "system" we have right here in the good old U.S.A.

Thanks, Michael Moore

Thanks for Michael Moore, a person who is willing to stand up to our so corrupt government and greedy big business. I am in my late 70s and part of my pensions has been eaten up by the exorbitant increase in insurances, along with the increases for Medicare taken from my wife's and my Social Security.

In my years I have never seen our government and politicians so unresponsive to the will of the people. It's about time we the people take back control of our country, even if we have to fire them all like in the private sector when you don't do your job you're fired. Don't let the door hit you in the a-- and you lose all your benefits.

Medicare for all.

Wrong about privatization

The woman who wrote the "Get less with Republicans" letter (July 5) needs to get her facts straight. Her letter implied that taxpayers don't get their money's worth when government services are privatized. She also suggested that it is Republicans alone trying to implement this turnover to private companies. Wrong!

Government leaders of both parties are recognizing the advantage in hiring private companies to perform city duties. Prime example, here in Redford trash pickup has been handled by a private company for years and everyone running the township is a Democrat! If privatization is more costly, why haven't they switched back to city employees picking up trash?

Also, Detroit Mayor Kwame Kilpatrick is having snow removal privatized after discovering the city was paying employees for snow removal year round! Did Mayor Kilpatrick become a

LETTERS

Republican? I don't think so.

More governments are moving to privatization because of the bottom line. It saves taxpayers money! Government-run industries become bureaucratic, monopolistic and corrupt. A private firm is more accountable and their managers must be efficient. They must meet the needs of their customers "the public," if they are going to keep the contract. And since the contracts go out by competitive bid, companies are competing with each other. This results in lower prices and better service for the taxpayer.

The "Getting Less with Republicans" letter either shows a lack of knowledge or just raw partisanship. Either way, that hurts the citizens.

Jim McFerran

Who does he represent?

I just received my first letter from U.S. Rep. McCotter, R-Livonia, in which he attempts to explain his courageous vote against a budget bill because it will raise taxes.

"Attempts" is the key word, since McCotter makes no effort to explain what taxes the budget bill will impact. Will it primarily affect those making $50,000 a year or those making $250,000 a year? Those families struggling to put children through college, or those ultra-rich making thousands of dollars a year on stock transactions and capital gains? Will it be persons that benefited from the multi-trillion dollar tax cuts that were enacted in the early days of the Bush administration, or will it be recent college graduates struggling to pay off student loans?

I'm guessing McCotter's lack of detail means he doesn't want the average person in his district to know if and how the tax changes would affect them. I think McCotter underestimates the people in his district, we know taxes are a fact of life, we want them to be fairly assessed and tax dollars spent wisely. Unfortunately, that has not been the case in the last six years.

McCotter goes on to explain that the budget bill does not address the issue of Alternative Minimum Tax (AMT). While that is true, and it does need to be addressed, he neglects to mention that the problem with the lack of inflation indexing in the AMT has been a known issue for the last five-six years, a time frame when our Congress was Republican controlled and neglected to act.

It is ironic that McCotter ends his letter saying, "I work for you." He must mean that we pay his salary and fringe benefits, since we do. He certainly can't mean that he votes our voice in Washington. We know McCotter has voted several times to deny federal funding for stem cell research, while opinion surveys consistently report 60-70 percent of the public supports federal funding.

It can't mean that he votes our voice in the Iraq war fiasco. He has voted against a bill that would set timetable to bring home our troops from the ill-conceived and ill-managed war in Iraq.

It appears that his record from most of his votes during his tenure in Congress, he works for Mr. Bush and the Republican Party, not the voters of the 11th District of Michigan.

The 2008 Congressional elections are not far off, we will remember your votes, Mr. McCotter.

John Zajechowski
Garden City

McCotter is disingenuous

In your June 7 edition, you reported U.S. Rep. Thaddeus McCotter spoke at the Wake Up Livonia breakfast at Schoolcraft College. In your story, you stated that McCotter reminded the crowd he did not vote to authorize the war. If McCotter spoke those words, he is being very disingenuous and sneaky (and politicizing the occupation by downplaying his war mongering).

There were 23 senators and 133 (126 Democrats and six Republicans) House members who opposed the start of the war in the Oct. 11, 2002, vote on Joint Resolution 114. During McCotter's campaign he applauded those who voted to go to war. He wholeheartedly has supported this war and Bush on every decision about it. Be careful of this man who states the occupation should not be politicized — that's exactly what he does by lying about his beliefs in 2002. That is the main platform he ran on — support for the war. Good thing he's not running for president — heaven help us. Throw him out of office, for as he states, he is unfit to hold public office.

Ethical, not political

The issue of universal health care is not a political issue or an economic issue, it's an ethical issue. It is patently unethical to profit from the treatment of the sick. Period. And ethics should be a completely non-partisan issue. As a U.S. and Michigan taxpayer, I would gladly agree to a tax increase in order to fund universal health coverage. By the way, if we weren't paying for a war thousands of miles away, it might be a less taxing proposition. Let's really make this the greatest country in the world and take care of all of our citizens, not just those who can afford it. Please pass H.R. 676. Thank you.

Bipartisan votes will help state get out of this crisis

Three steps forward, seven to go.

Gov. Jennifer Granholm last week signed into law the new Michigan Business Tax. Getting that done marked a big and essential step for a state with a struggling economy. But at best it represents only a 30 percent solution.

So now for the hard part: The far bigger and more difficult step will be adopting a state budget for the fiscal year that begins Oct. 1.

What we all need is a lot more statesmanship on the part of everyone in Lansing than we have seen so far — or we, our children and grandchildren will all be in big, big trouble.

We have reason to worry. The nicest way to describe the way in which these same lawmakers finally "balanced" the current 2007 budget back in May is "fraudulent." The patchwork deal included accounting gimmicks, the scandalous sale of future proceeds from the tobacco fund and outright cuts and so-called "delays" in appropriation payments to state universities. (University officials fear they'll never see the deferred dough.)

That means the present budget is not merely a "let's sweep it under the rug budget." In fact, it makes the problem for 2008 worse.

Best estimate for the shortfall for the coming fiscal year is $1.8 billion.

So far, the governor and legislative leaders have "negotiated" in public via warring nasty press releases, while trying to hammer out an agreement behind closed doors.

But time is running short, and public patience with our elected leaders is running out as Michigan staggers closer to either outright government shutdown (as Pennsylvania has been going through) or budget cuts so hideous that they would tear the guts out of what used to be a pretty good place to live and grow a business.

What our politicians sometimes conveniently forget (to our peril) is that we've had years of budget and tax cuts. State General Fund spending has been cut by $4.3 billion since 2002, and business conditions are no better than when budget-whacking started.

So now it's time to get serious. The stage is set for what might be called a "Grand Budget Bargain" — and it's already been sketched out in private amongst our leaders. All that's needed is the guts to take the final steps. To stanch the $1.8 billion of red ink, they need:

■ $300 million in expense cuts, mostly in spending for prisons. I understand most of these have been agreed to.

■ $200 million-$300 million in non-tax revenue. Some might come from a fee on water that companies bottle and sell out of state.

■ Reforms in the structure and cost of state and local government. Although the savings from most of these come over the long run, Republicans in the Senate are making structural changes a necessary quid pro quo in any budget deal.

■ Around $1.5 billion in higher taxes. Democrats insist that any budget deal include increased tax revenue, partly because there simply isn't another way. Most of the negotiation going on involves an increase in the state income tax from 3.9 percent to 4.1 percent, although there is some discussion about a sales tax on non-essential purchases like tickets to ball games.

All these things sound like a pretty obvious deal for adults to make. Trade big-time, much-needed government reforms for an equally necessary tax increase.

But it isn't going to be all that easy, not for anybody.

The problem for the governor and the Democrats who control the state House of Representatives is their friends in organized labor. Labor is fiercely resisting government reforms and cuts in pay and benefits for public employees. Republicans, who control the Senate, are demanding reforms and cuts as part of the price for a vote on taxes.

Frustratingly, Granholm has up to now been relatively quiet about what she's willing to fight for. But I now have been told by high-placed sources in her administration that she's now prepared to recommend a long laundry list. Those include:

Mandatory competitive bidding for health care services. Tightening up pension requirements for school employees, including eliminating the five-year vesting provision and ending the practice of retired employees returning to work for just a handful of days to get fully vested in health care coverage. End to pension double-dipping. Removing legal barriers to local government consolidation.

Perhaps the biggest reform of all: Switching public employee pensions to defined contribution plans (in effect, a 401K). This will save many, many millions over the long run, although it may actually cost a bit more over the next several years.

That's a long list. And it's one that should give Republicans plenty of good reasons to justify voting for a tax increase.

Sure, there are risks for all sides. Democrats who vote for public employee reforms risk the wrath of their union allies. They also need to accept government reforms that are real, not Band-Aids or outright fakes. Republicans who vote for new taxes risk being recalled by the noisy anti-tax crowd, whose leaders are not living in this century. Still, it's high time for those GOP members demanding government reforms as the price of tax increases to put up or shut up.

Everyone we've elected to state office needs to realize that we didn't put them there just to make the easy votes. Our state is in crisis. It will take bipartisan votes to get us out of this jam.

Failure — meaning either a shutdown of state government, ruining higher education or trying to cobble together one more set of budgetary Band-Aids — would be absolutely unacceptable. Most legislators want to do the right thing. Now is the time to do it.

St. Mary Mercy welcomes you to our tobacco-free campus

According to the American Lung Association, tobacco is the No. 1 source of preventable deaths in the United States, and second-hand smoke causes at least 38,000 deaths in adult non-smokers each year. It is our responsibility as a hospital to help safeguard the health of every person we serve. Therefore, effective July 7, St. Mary Mercy Hospital has become a tobacco- and smoke-free environment, indoors and out.

This initiative prohibits the use of tobacco products, including, but not limited to, cigarettes, cigars, chewing tobacco and pipes within all of the St. Mary Mercy campus facilities, owned or leased property, and parking facilities.

Our new tobacco- and smoke-free policy is designed to promote good health among patients, visitors, neighbors and staff of St. Mary Mercy. The Michigan Health & Hospital Association has issued an advisory for hospitals to ban smoking by Jan. 1, 2008, so we join many area hospitals and health facilities in this initiative.

Because our new policy prohibits tobacco use and smoking anywhere on the hospital property, we want to take this opportunity to inform the community of this change. Over the past year, a team of employees — smokers, non-smokers, former smokers, nurses and physicians — has been meeting to create awareness of this tobacco- and smoke-free policy, and offering our employees who smoke options to help them quit smoking.

We understand that nicotine is addictive. No employee, patient or visitor is required to stop using tobacco products. However, similar to the regulations in the restaurant and travel industries, employees who smoke will be responsible for managing their nicotine dependence during their work hours in ways that do not violate the tobacco- and smoke-free policy.

We will also make every effort to notify patients and families about our tobacco-free campus initiative before they arrive. Patients who are scheduled to be admitted to St. Mary Mercy, or who are having outpatient surgery, will receive information about the policy. During their stay at the hospital, patients who smoke will be directed to speak to their physician about nicotine replacement therapy. Vendors, contractors and delivery companies will also be notified.

We announced our plan internally to go tobacco-free more than six months in advance to prepare our employees for this change. We have distributed information on resources at St. Mary Mercy and in the community to help those who want to quit.

St. Mary Mercy Hospital provides support and smoking cessation for those who wish to utilize these services. Smoking cessation counselors are available and offer classes to help our patients, staff and community members as we make this transition.

Educating others about our policy is the responsibility of all St. Mary Mercy employees, physicians and volunteers. The intent of this policy is to educate and create a healthier environment.

Did you know? Tobacco use is the:

■ No. 1 cause of drug addiction in adults and children in the U.S.

■ Major cause of hospital admissions and readmissions

■ No. 1 cause of both cancer and emphysema

■ Leading cause of heart disease and strokes

■ Effects on patients that smoke include:

■ Twice the rate of wound infections, slows wound healing

■ Longer stays in the hospital

■ Most common form of pulmonary morbidity during surgery and anesthesia

■ Gastrointestinal, prenatal and orthopedic complications

■ Effects of second-hand smoke include:

■ U.S. Environmental Protection Agency has classified it as a "Group A" carcinogen, which are the most toxic substances known to cause cancer in humans, including benzene, radon and asbestos

■ Increases non-smoker's risk for heart disease and worsens symptoms of adults already suffering from asthma, allergies or bronchitis

■ Is associated with as many as 300,000 cases of bronchitis and pneumonia each year in infants to 18 months of age

Employer costs related to tobacco use include:

■ Increased direct medical costs per smoking employee per year

■ Increased indirect medical costs to employee's family

■ Lost productivity costs per employee per year

■ Smokers have 6.5 more absent days per year

■ Smokers have six more visits to health care facilities for themselves

■ Smokers make four more visits to health care facilities for their dependents

Cessation treatment is the most cost-effective form of medical intervention in the United States.

A list of resources for those who are thinking of quitting smoking can be found on our Web site at www.stmarymercy.org or call our Community Outreach Department for more information at (734) 655-8950.

You can be assured our policy will be implemented in as supportive a manner as possible and with sensitivity toward smokers, while also upholding our commitment to maintaining healthier communities.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding the tobacco- and smoke-free policy, please contact our vice president, human resources, Ken Antezak at (734) 655-2931.

These cute chicks pack a wallop

While you prepared for Fourth of July celebrations, three cute chicks, with awesome nails and feisty attitudes had their physicals. They passed. And then, with little fanfare and no paparazzi they were hustled off just over a week ago to a private air-conditioned "condominium" 20 feet above a lake nestled within the boundaries of Stony Creek Metropark.

Nature's Way

Jonathan Schechter

They will summer there under the watchful eyes of volunteer guardians and park rangers. And they will learn to kill. For that is nature's way.

The chicks are osprey, the physical was at the Detroit Zoo and the proper name for their condominium is a hack box, a platformed shelter where they stay until they fledge. Air conditioning is supplied by Mother Nature. And those awesome nails are more properly called claws, long curved claws, at that. Ornithologists, biologists and volunteers working with the birds consider the claws the business end of the osprey. Rightfully so. Each four-toed foot has four sharp claws and a spiny pad on the feet between the toes helps secure dinner. Dinner for osprey is live fish. Bullhead and carp are favorites.

This fish-eating specialist is sometimes known as the fish hawk.

And why not? It has the ability to hover above water and when the moment is right plunge into the water to dramatically snag dinner. Osprey were once common through much of the Midwest and Michigan. Then came DDT and habitat destruction - a one-two punch that led to their demise. But now we are in the fifth summer of the osprey project, an interagency effort to restore osprey to southeast Michigan. And if you checked off a contribution on your tax return for the Non-Game Wildlife Fund you are a key player in their return: You funded it. The project is a cooperative venture among the Huron Clinton Metroparks, the DNR and the Detroit Zoological Institute, with additional support from DTE Energy.

The osprey is a fish-eating specialist, sometimes known as the fish hawk.

I've been an osprey fan ever since I fell in love with them as one of those early volunteers tending to their needs during the first of five summers osprey were "hacked" at Kensington Metropark. Sitting up high near my charges, watching them tear at chopped bullhead, and later take flight - that was the good life!

I'll never forget the next summer, when an osprey loitered for three weeks at the West Bloomfield Nature Preserve, drawing binocular-toting bird lovers from afar. And then it was gone to seek fishier, wilder pastures.

The osprey population of Southeast Michigan is growing. Metroparks is celebrating. An osprey festival will be held Saturday and Sunday, July 21 and 22, from 10 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. at the Nature Center of Kensington.

Expect games and crafts for kids, media presentations and displays and several vendors with birding and osprey-specific items for sale.

On Sunday at 2 p.m. the Howell Nature center staff will be on site with live birds of prey. And a stunning documentary, An Osprey Homecoming will be on display in the nature center.

The special weekend event is co-hosted by Osprey Watch of Southeast Michigan.

There is no charge except for the required vehicle permit and the birds of prey program and crafts are also free. Visitors are also welcome to follow the Osprey Discovery Trail and use the park's spotting scopes.

For more information contact Kensington at 1-800-477-3178 or visit. www.metroparks.com.

Hemingway's Nick Adams stories are selected for state reading program

The Michigan Humanities Council has selected Ernest Hemingway's The Nick Adams Stories for its new statewide literature and literacy initiative, The Great Michigan Read. For the next year, as hundreds of thousands of Michiganders open their copies of The Nick Adams Stories and attend hundreds of programs and events across the state, readers will be introduced or reacquainted with a classic piece of American literature.

The Nick Adams Stories chronicles a young man's coming of age in a series of short stories, most of which are set in Michigan.

"The Michigan Humanities Council is pleased to kick off its statewide program, The Great Michigan Read, by presenting Ernest Hemingway and The Nick Adams Stories to Michigan citizens," said Janice Fedewa, executive director of the Michigan Humanities Council. "It is an outstanding opportunity for people to become engaged in reading and community programs through a classic piece of literature, made in Michigan, from an American icon."

The Humanities Council is the first organization to implement a program for an entire state to read one of Hemingway's works. To date, more than 100 communities across the state will participate in The Great Michigan Read. Reader's guides, bookmarks, posters and other opportunities are available to participating cultural institutions. Additional activities include traveling exhibits, radio and television features, a web site resource, www.greatmichiganread.org and grant programs to help engage communities in literature.

The Great Michigan Read promotes literary reading to help create an educated and engaged society. According to a report recently released by the National Endowment for the Arts, literary reading is fading as a meaningful activity, especially among younger people. Less than half of the adult American population now reads literature. From 1982 to 2002, the percentage of American adults reading literature declined from 56.9 percent to 49.7 percent.

After reviewing many Michigan titles and authors, the Council's book selection committee selected The Nick Adams Stories based its broad appeal, its relevance to current life and its classic status. This title represents an accessible entry point for first-time literature readers, yet will challenge the most advanced readers. And it is authored by one of the foremost writers of the 20th century, Ernest Hemingway, who spent more of his first 22 summers in Northern Michigan.

One day you have urine leakage. The next day you don't. End of story.

If you've got that "can't laugh, can't sneeze" leakage, a 30-minute outpatient procedure with GYNECARE TVT SECUR can stop it. It's covered by most insurance, and uses a ribbon-like strip to stop leakage the way your body was designed to - by supporting your urethra. It's also designed to be less invasive, and offer a quicker recovery than other procedures of its type. All medical procedures involve risk, and in this case, there's a risk of injury to the bladder and surrounding tissues. Find out more.

2007 USSSA Boys World Series

The Canton Cardinals 10U baseball team gather for a pre-game pep talk prior to their opening contest in Monday's USSSA Double-A World Series at the Canton Sports Center. Like all 58 teams that are participating in this week's elite tournament, the Cardinals had to qualify by winning a previous tournament.

Livonia Travel's John Slater delivers a pitch during Monday's opener in the 14U USSSA World Series at the Canton Sports Center. Close to 60 teams from around the country are participating in the event in 10U, 12U and 14U divisions.

Sidelines

Hole-in-one club

Andrew Myers of Westland recently scored a hole-in-one on the 17th at Pine View Highlands Golf Course in Houghton, Mich. Using a pitching wedge, Andrew accomplished the feat, which helped him score a two-under-par round for 18 holes. Proudly watching the second ace of Andrew's young golf career were his father, Mark Myers, and two other members of their group, Rick Rowley and Ed Zielinski. Andrew, 16, was in Houghton visiting his grandparents. "I'm just a very proud grandpa," said Doug Seal, of Garden City.

Baseball tryouts

Tryouts for the 9U, 10U and 11U Canton Cardinals baseball team will be held July 25-Aug. 5. For more information on the 9U and 11U teams, contact Jim Hejka at (734) 658-2446. For more information on the 10U team, contact Dan Hejka at (734) 776-3918.

Haeger recalled

Plymouth Township resident and Detroit Catholic Central graduate Charlie Haeger was recalled by the Chicago White Sox Major League Baseball squad late last week. Prior to his promotion, Haeger, 23, had compiled a 4-11 record and 4.81 earned run average in 17 starts for the White Sox' AAA team in Charlotte, N.C. He was especially effective as of late, having registered a 1.82 E.R.A. over his past five starts to lower his overall E.R.A. from 6.19.

Haeger was called up twice during the 2006 season and recorded his first MLB win last September.

Urbana inks

RU grads

Redford Union graduates Ian Iler and Desmond Latham will take their football skills to Urbana University in Ohio this season. Both former Panthers recently signed on to play for the Blue Knights.

Tennis class

A three-week introduction to tennis class for children between the ages of 6 and 10 is being offered by the Livonia Department of Parks and Recreation July 31, Aug. 2, 7, 9, 14 and 16. The classes will be held on the Shelden Park tennis courts, which are located on Plymouth Road, just east of Farmington Rd. (behind the Alfred Noble Library).

The fee for residents is $75 per session; non-residents will be asked to pay $85 per session. For more information, call (734) 466-2410; or visit www.ci.livonia.mi.us.

Elite youth baseball teams converge on Canton

One-day pass to the USSSA 10U, 12U and 14U Double-A World Series this week at the Canton Sports Center: $5.

Souvenir T-shirt: $15.

Hot dog and pop: $4.

An opportunity for the 870-plus players competing in the week-long event to claim a once-in-a-lifetime World Series title: priceless.

Fifty-eight teams from as far away as West Virginia and Ontario, Canada have converged on Canton this week in search of a national crown in their respective age divisions. The event kicked off on Sunday with an elaborate and fun-filled opening ceremony and will conclude next Sunday with the championship games in each age group.

"The caliber of teams in this tournament is very high because they all had to qualify to make it this far," said Stephanie Pavlo, a sports recreation specialist for Canton Leisure Services. "We've had a lot of games go right down to the wire and one game (Monday) went 12 innings.

"We've received a lot of positive feedback so far. A couple of parents have approached me and told me this is the best facility their kids have ever played in."

Sunday's opening ceremonies featured a demonstration by the Canton Police Department's Honor Guard, a parade of teams and the ceremonial first pitch thrown out by Canton native James Wisniewski, a member of the Chicago Blackhawks.

"I was very proud to be a Canton resident and trustee after attending the opening ceremonies Sunday," said Canton Township Trustee Todd Caccamo. "It was professionally done by our Leisure Services staff and drew people from all over the region and other states."

Two local teams — the 10U Canton Cardinals and Livonia Travel — are competing in the week-long tournament.

Junior Olympics: Their day to shine

Fun, sun and healthy competition summed up yet another Redford Junior Olympics, held July 11 at Hilbert Middle School.

The 49th annual event, despite a drop in numbers, proved successful yet again - giving kids from Redford and surrounding communities between ages 2-12 a day to shine.

"Everybody tried their hardest," said event coordinator Theresa Burgess of Redford Parks and Recreation. "I try not to focus as much on places as (on that) everybody participated. There's a lot of kids that have done things they've never done before. So, I'm just glad they came out and participated, whether or not they received first place or sixth place."

Although most Junior Olympians are from Redford, some live in Livonia, Farmington Hills and other nearby communities. Ages included Bantams (6-U), Squirts (7-8), Pee Wees (9-10) and Midgets (11-12) with the honor of youngest participant going to 2-year-old Cynthia Rothley, of Livonia.

Several youngsters nearly ran the table in their age divisions, demonstrating fledgling athletic versatility.

Redford's Michael Iacovacci, for example, won four of five events among 8-year-olds in the Squirt boys division.

Redford's Brayden Burgess and Carlos Welch placed first in nearly every Pee Wee boys event in their respective age brackets.

In age 11 of the Midget boys division, Livonia's Zack Bohn captured four events with the others being won by David Taylor of Redford. Redford resident Curtis Smith claimed all but one event in age 12 of the Midget boys division.

Similarly, Cynthia Rothley of Livonia, Daysha Williams and Nya Williams (both of Redford) won multiple events in the Bantam girls division; Mikaila Murphy (Livonia) took three Squirt girls division events with

Diesels clip Cards, 28-25

Whoever said time heals all wounds doesn't know the Detroit Diesels.

After a two-week layoff — two weeks to stew about a 53-7 blasting at the hands of the West Michigan Force — the Diesels got cranking again with a 28-25 victory over the Cleveland Cardinals on July 14 at Livonia Franklin High School. It was the first league competition of the year for both teams.

The Diesels scored first with 28 seconds left in the first half, when Randy Sinnott connected with John Craven on a 20-yard scoring toss.

In the second half, the Diesels got rolling again, as Bob Curtis busted a 20-yard scoring run. Cleveland answered with a score of its own. Another Cardinal scoring opportunity was thwarted with an Absalom Goode interception return to the Cardinal red zone. Four plays later, Sinnott scampered in from six yards out. Then, a Cleveland fumble was converted into a 5-yard run by Lance Nichols to push the score to 28-10 in the fourth quarter. After a hard-fought battle, the Cardinals chipped the lead to 28-13 on a field goal, and then lofted a short scoring pass to close the gap to 28-19.

The Cards scored their final points with 33 seconds left, but it was too little, too late.

Sinnott went 7-of-15 for 160 yards, one touchdown and three interceptions, while also running for another. T.J. Dillard paced the ground attack with 71 yards, while Curtis contributed 63 yards.

Defensively, Ali Bazzi and Hassan Hazime paced the Diesel defense. Christian Young, Earl Blanchett, and Hazime had a sack a piece for the Diesels, while Absalom Goode had his interception.

Richters takes 2 Wolves clubs to US Youth Soccer Nationals

BY BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

Lars Richters doesn't get much of a break this summer and he's doing double duty, but he's not complaining one bit.

The Livonia Stevenson boys varsity soccer coach will be taking two teams, the Under-16 and Under-15 Michigan Wolves, to the US Youth Soccer Association Nationals, July 25-29, in Frisco, Texas.

The U-16 team can be considered Richters' pride and joy.

He has coached the group for four years since they were formed as a U-13 team.

After tying Javanon (Ky.) in the tourney opener 1-1, the U-16 Wolves reeled off four straight wins to earn the title last month in Des Moines, Iowa, capped by a 2-0 victory over three-time Region II champion Chicago Magic.

Goals by Tom Catalano (Utica Eisenhower) and Corey Majkowski (Rochester Adams) in the fifth and 67th minutes, respectively, gave the U-16 Wolves the victory.

Goalkeeper Rick Pflasterer (Ann Arbor Huron) earned the shutout.

"It's a team we had never beaten," Richters said, "We started out very well and took the early lead, which was helpful and gave us confidence."

"We seemed to be the hungrier team and I think we had the edge in terms of effort."

The U-16 Wolves have lots of local flavor including two of Richters' players from Stevenson, midfielder Brian Klemczak and forward Adrian Fylonenko.

Other area players include Scott Zech, Canton; Mark Djokaj, North Farmington; Sean Hastings, Rochester Adams; Moses Suleiman, Birmingham Brother Rice; Garrett Gauruder, Novi; Josh Gonyea and James Leutzinger, Warren DeLaSalle; David Yang, Ann Arbor Pioneer; Matt Garza, Saline, Hamoody Saad, Dearborn, Eric Parks, Grand Rapids Forest Hills Eastern; Shane Lyons, Plainwell; and goalkeeper Kyle Huber, Grand Blanc.

Lyons, Gonyea and Suleiman were newcomers to this year's squad.

Klemczak, Gonyea and Yang area all members of the Region II team, while Zech, Lyons and Saad are part of the Region II pool.

"We talked about all year about the chance to play the Magic with a chance to get to the Nationals," Richters said. "We wanted to win the first five minutes of the game and we did score a goal."

Richters' U-15 team, 23-2-3 since November of 2006, cruised in the Region II championship match with a 7-0 win over the Vardar Stars of Michigan after rallying from a 1-0 halftime deficit for a 2-1 semifinal victory over Scott-Gallagher of St. Louis.

Other wins came against Javanon (Ky.), 2-0; North Dakota, 7-0; and Ankney Fusion (Ia.), 12-0.

"I definitely have a talented group of players and I feel that's what sets them apart," said Richters, who is assisted by former Stevenson player and University of Michigan goalkeeper Joe Zawacki.

"They exhibit the leadership and desire to play for each other as a group."

Plymouth's Josh Gatt, who attends Novi-Detroit Catholic Central, and Soony Saad of Dearborn High, an U-15 National Team pool player, each scored eight goals in the tournament. Rochester Stoney Creek's Jordan Tyler added six goals.

Other area players included Joey D'Agostino, Livonia Stevenson; Etienne Lussiez, Livonia Churchill; Kevin Cope and goalkeeper Sasa Miskovic, Salem; Vinh Nguyen, Plymouth; Cody Henderson, Bloomfield Hills Lahser; Nick Scabassi, Doug Beason and Nick Tacconelli, all of Northville; Rick McCarthy, Beverly Hills-Detroit Country Day; Jad Al-Zein, Dearborn Fordson; Josh Barends, Holt; Ryan Barrett, East Grand Rapids; and goalkeeper Adam Grinwis, Grand Rapids Forest Hills Central.

Grinwis, Tyler, Barrett and Barends are all members of the Region II pool.

Tyler, McCarthy and Al-Zein were newcomers to the team in Richters' second year with the group.

"We finished third last year (at the Nationals) and we're definitely thrilled and excited to have a second chance," Richters said.

Rams drop Bulls, 6-3, in LCBL

On Monday, the Michigan Rams improved their record to 15-12-2 in the Livonia Collegiate Baseball League when they doubled up The Bulls, 6-3, in a game played at Ford Field in Livonia. The Bulls dropped to 17-8-3 with the setback.

The triumph was the red-hot Rams' fifth consecutive victory.

The Rams overcame a 1-0 deficit in the fourth with a pair of runs to grab a 2-1 advantage. They added a solo run with fifth and three more in the sixth.

Steve Karchefski hurled a complete-game six-hitter for the winners. He struck out four and yielded four walks. Steve Teno suffered the mound loss for the Bulls after giving up five runs and seven hits in 2.2 innings of relief work.

The winners' potent plate attack was paced by Drew Churchward, who went 2-for-4 with a home run, two RBI and two runs scored. Other big sluggers for the Rams included Max Kelmigian (2-for-3, game-winning RBI), Mike Wiseman (2-for-2, RBI) and Kyle Gendron, who went 2-for-3. Andrew Powell was the lone Bull to notch two hits. He also chipped in with an RBI and a run scored.

Rams sweep Eagles

On Saturday, the Rams swept a double-header from the Eagles, 5-4 and 6-3. The double-dip setback dropped the hard-luck Eagles to

The Rams overcame a 1-0 deficit in the fourth with a pair of runs to grab a 2-1 advantage. They added a solo run with fifth and three more in the sixth.

0-26-1.

A trio of pitchers — starter Justin Mazur, Ryan Gunderson and Steve Karchefski — limited the Eagles to just seven hits. Mazur pitched the first 3.1 frames (no runs, two hits) to pick up the win. Karchefski notched a save by retiring the final two batters on strikeouts.

Offensively, the winners were paced by Gunderson (2-for-3, run), Andrew Stafford (2-for-4, run) and Churchward, who ripped the game-winning RBI.

The Eagles were led by Don Carino, who went 2-for-3. Bobby Henderson went all the way on the mound for the Eagles, yielding eight hits and zero earned runs.

Rams starting pitcher Shane McCatty shined in the nightcap, tossing a complete-game 10-hitter. He K'ed three and walked just one.

The Rams pushed four runs across in the second inning and never trailed again.

Wielding big sticks for the winners were Mike Wiseman (2-for-3, run), Andrew Stafford (1-for-4, two RBI), Kyle Gendron (1-for-4, RBI triple), Eric Vojtkofsky (1-for-2, run) and Gunderson (1-for-2, double).

Spring champs

Region II champion Hawks soar to nationals

BY BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

Coaches Derek Williford and Doug Landefeld of the Michigan Hawks believe their girls soccer teams have similar traits.

"They're a bunch of good kids who play for each other and work hard to over-achieve," Williford said of his Under-17 squad.

"This is just a good team," Landefeld said of his U-16 squad, which has also qualified for the U.S. Youth Soccer Association Nationals, July 25-29, in Frisco, Texas, a suburb of Dallas. "Defensively we're good and strong through the midfield. And every game we have different scorers. We're kind of opportunistic."

In last month's Region II tournament held in Des Moines, Ia., the U-17 Hawks earned the trip to Texas with a 1-0 victory over the St. Louis (Mo.) Soccer Club as Jenna Carosio (Novi) scored the game-winning goal from Katie Chaklos (Novi).

Other wins came against Indiana (2-0), Minnesota (4-2), F.C. Milwaukee (2-1) and Kansas (4-1).

"We have talented kids," Williford said. "Since they've been together in the U-12 they've won two Region championships. Last year we lost in the semifinals."

The U-17 Hawks also feature Kelsey Kassab (Brighton), a national team pool player; and Region II team members Clare Stachel (Grand Rapids Forest Hills Central), goalkeeper Haley Kopmeyer (Birmingham Seaholm) and Kim Siebert (Auburn Hills Avondale). Meanwhile, both Chaklos and Carosio are Region pool players.

Rounding out the squad is Alisha Lussiez (Livonia Churchill), Afton Delvecchio (Seaholm), Jordan Horvath (Bloomfield Hills Lahser), Jessie Baxa (Lahser), Emily Kunkel (Beverly Hills-Detroit Country Day), Courtney Whalen (Farmington Hills Mercy), Christy Naife (Walled Lake Northern), Anna Cunningham (Grosse Pointe South), Jamie Fratto (Novi), Marilyn Wargo (New Baltimore Anchor Bay), Meghan Gorsuch (Grand Rapids Forest Hills Central) and Theresa Yankovich (Northville).

So what are the U-17 Hawks' chances at the Nationals?

"The team is talented enough that they think they can win it," Williford said. "California has 10 region players, but at this level, anybody can beat anybody. In youth sports you can win on any day."

Landefeld took over the U-16 Hawks this season for Tim Ernst, who had coached the group since they were U-9.

"To win a regional, everything had to go our way," Landefeld said. "We only allowed one goal."

The U-16 Hawks, who defeated F.C. Milwaukee in the final, 4-1, used a makeshift lineup because of injuries.

Goalkeeper Julie Blaszczyk (Northville) played in the field and scored an overtime goal to beat F.C. Milwaukee in the prelims.

Victoria Slavin (Livonia Stevenson) and Sam Echols (Walled Lake Central) were asked to play different positions and performed well.

"It was the first time in the back for both of them," Landefeld said.

Other area players for the U-16 Hawks include Taleen Mergian (Livonia Stevenson), Chelsea Hunter (Walled Lake Western), Jordan Mueller (Farmington Hills Mercy), Megan Swiderski (Troy Athens), Karen Piasechi (Farmington), Jacqi O'Shea (Walled Lake Northern), Olivia Ann Stander (Grosse Pointe North), goalkeeper Sarah Banks (Okemos), Mikalia Dennis (Ann Arbor Pioneer), Emily Jaffe (Pioneer), Kristen Goncalves (Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard), Katie Howarth (Flint Powers Catholic), Caitlin Henderson (Dexter), Ashley Racette (Brighton), Helen Steinhauer (Ann Arbor Huron) and Stephanie Honeycutt (Brighton).

"They know the game very well, they commit to the game and they're all about winning as a team," Landefeld said. "They all get along and work hard together."

"A GREAT PLACE TO PLAY!"

Got Game?
Yep, got scores, too.

OLYMPICS

Redford's Asia Williams taking the other two; Jessica Reich topped the field in the Pee Wee girls division in three categories, while Redford's Raquel Urban (three firsts) and Lauren Tate (two firsts) took care of matters in age 11 of the Midget girls division.

And in age 12 events in the Midget girls division, Rachel Reynolds of Farmington Hills took the first-place ribbon in all but one event.

Pee-Wee participant Madeline Piontek, 10, of Redford leaps over the bar to take first place in her age group.

SPREADING THE WORD

"I'm not sure why the numbers are down," Burgess said. "It's gone great the last several years. I think because it's the middle of summer, it's trying to get people out to the event, too."

"But many years back they used to send out mailers to everybody that participated and I think that's a great resource that we need to tap back into."

Another reason she cited for lower numbers is a drop in township playground programs. Because of budget cuts, there now are just two of those sites, down from five several years ago.

Those programs were excellent stations to get the word out about the Junior Olympics.

Burgess, meanwhile, added that is likely that the mailed reminders will make a comeback next year, to help spur registration for the 50th annual event - tentatively set for July 8, 2008.

"Next year is our 50th year," Burgess said. "So there will be a bunch of new activities and special stuff going on for that."

And the Redford Junior Olympics continues to be a special place and time for young athletes and their families.

"It keeps them active during the summer," she emphasized. "Obviously, parks and recreation promotes youth fitness year-around. So, this is a great way for people to come out and have fun. ... A lot of families come out, eat lunch and cheer on their family members, their brothers and sisters."

No Love For The Ladies?

LESSON ON GOLF
By Jeff Lesson

I was watching the Jamie Farr Classic in Toledo this past weekend. I also was wondering why ladies golf has not become a bigger draw than it is. It does not receive anywhere near the same media attention the PGA Tour does. As a result, the crowds are usually a lot smaller. But why is this?

I am not suggesting that people should watch the LPGA Tour over the PGA Tour. Everyone should make their own decision. For myself, nothing beats the PGA Tour. But the ladies offer a nice alternative.
The Jamie Farr Classic in Toledo did not receive anywhere near the same media attention that the Buick Open does. This is true despite the fact that both venues are about the same distance from Metro Detroit.

And the Jamie Farr Classic had Se Ri Pak, Natalie Gulbis and many more stars on hand. In fact, the field was stronger than this years Buick Open.
Now I am not suggesting that you should ditch the PGA Tour. Those guys always have been and will be the greatest golfers on earth. I am only suggesting that you consider broadening your horizons and give the ladies a chance. You may be surprised!

Back Pain?

According to a recently released back pain relief report, most back pain sufferers have no idea how to eliminate their pain. Some use heat, others ice. From sleeping on the floor, to pillows underneath the legs, back pain relief techniques vary. But thanks to a free report, local back pain sufferers finally know exactly what to do.
