'Sad scenario'

District calls for action after Senate slashes funding

BY SUE MASON
STAFF WRITER

Sad is the word Wayne-Westland school board President Skip Monit used to describe the budget crisis that has state government facing a partial shutdown.

"It's a sad scenario and it's getting sadder all the time," he said. His comments came Monday evening as Wayne-Westland school officials once again urged residents to let lawmakers know they need to "fix the budget problem, fix it right and fix it now."

The call came just 24 hours after the state Senate, along party lines, approved two budget bills that would cut almost $1 billion in expenses, including millions of dollars in funding for school programs.

"I urge all residents, even those not affiliated with schools but who want to see the state survive, to contact lawmakers and tell them there needs to be cuts, there needs to be restructuring, there needs to be new revenue," Supt. Greg Baracy said.

School board trustees joined Baracy in urging residents to express their displeasure with the budget stalemate.

Trustee Terrance McClain quoted the late Martin Luther King Jr., telling people that "The only thing that allows evil to triumph is good men doing nothing."

"Our children are our most precious thing," he said. "We have to make our legislators understand that the children are our priority."

"Call them, e-mail them, bombard them with letters. Let them know we need the money," Trustee Steve Becher added. "If we want the state to prosper, our students have to prosper."

"It's been very difficult and we have worked diligently to have the best program we can," board Secretary Martha Pitsenbarger said. "I encourage anyone involved in any way with our schools to contact our legislators."

The bills passed Sunday evening in the Senate include a $43 million cut to Michigan's colleges and universities and elimination of all funding for middle school math grants and declining enrollment funds. They also reduce at-risk funding by $28 million as well as provide no increase in the per-pupil state school aid payments.

According to Gary Martin, deputy superintendent of administrative and business services, the district could lose "a chunk" of the $3.9 million in at-risk money it receives, not to mention the $100,000 budgeted for the math grant and a small amount for declining enrollment, but the biggest bite might come with a flat per-pupil foundation allowance.

The district had anticipated a $100 per pupil increase when it passed the 2007-08 budget in June. If there is no increase, it would mean a $1.4 million revenue shortfall.

The district already is using $5.5 million of its fund equity to cover a revenue shortfall. Martin doesn't think the support will be there to increase that amount to almost $7 million. Drastic cuts would be up to the board, he said.

"That's the worst case. We've heard everything from $1.5 billion in cuts to cutting no cuts," he said. "A lot depends on the income tax rate or the sales tax and that's difficult to tell with what's going on. We're not sure where it's at right now."

State Sen. Glenn Anderson, whose 6th District includes a large portion of the Wayne-Westland school district, opposed the two budget bills, saying: "These are not 'solutions.' They will only push Michigan further down the road to crisis."

"The results of these cuts would be tragic to Michigan, threatening education, health and public safety," Anderson said in a statement released Monday. "If Michigan is going to be a place where people want to do business and raise their children, we must invest in education. These cuts are short-sighted."

Police link teen to 3 car fires

BY DARRELL CLEM

Westland police have turned a 16-year-old boy over to juvenile authorities amid allegations he set fire to three vehicles in the Newburgh-Palmer area, on the city's southwest side.

Police took the teen into custody this week after he confessed while being questioned by police Sgt. Ed Price, who suspected the boy due to some earlier arson incidents, Lt. Daniel Karrick said.

The teen is suspected of setting fire to at least three vehicles either parked in driveways or on the street. Two of the incidents happened last Thursday and Saturday; an earlier fire was set Aug. 31, Karrick confirmed.

All of the fires were set at night, and they occurred in residential neighborhoods on South Globe and Gilchrist, Karrick said. "No homes had any damage," he said.

Westland Fire Marshal Chris Szpara said two of the vehicles were substantially damaged, but firefighters contained the flames before they could spread to any structures.

"We had the potential for it being a pretty bad situation," Szpara said.

Police and fire officials hope the teen's arrest will help residents rest easier in the area where the fires had occurred.

It will be up to juvenile authorities to decide what the youth's punishment should be.

DeHart: Job's reward is helping residents

BY DARRELL CLEM
STAFF WRITER

Campaigning for a second four-year term, City Clerk Eileen DeHart cited her "experience, knowledge and professionalism" as reasons why Westland voters should keep her in office.

DeHart became the city's first elected clerk after voters approved a ballot measure and wrestled control of the position, formerly filled by the Westland City Council.

"I've served four years, and I think I've done a good job in those four years," DeHart, 59, said during an interview.

DeHart will face certified public accountant Bruce Paige, 45, in the Nov. 6 election. The job pays $89,816 a year.

DeHart cited numerous accomplishments she has made:

■ She has earned her ranking as a certified municipal clerk from the International Institute of Municipal Clerks, keeping a promise she made to voters when she sought her first term.

■ She has routinely returned money to the city's general fund that had been budgeted for her office. During last fiscal year alone, she gave back $12,000 that was allocated for department furniture.

Given tough economic times, she said, "it wasn't the right time" to make the purchase.

■ DeHart's office oversaw 10 elections during her first term, and four elections are looming next year.

■ She helped lead the transition to electronic informational packets for the council, saving the city $8,000 in the first year alone.

■ She studied for her certification through Michigan State University and Central Michigan University, and she Voters will choose between incumbent Eileen DeHart and challenger Bruce Paige for city clerk in the Nov. 6 general election. The city clerk serves for four years. The position currently has an annual salary of $89,816.

Paige: My business skills good for city

BY DARRELL CLEM
STAFF WRITER

As a Westland city clerk candidate, certified public accountant Bruce Paige pledged to bring a strong business background and solid analytical skills to the job.

Paige also vowed to put residents first and to avoid the political trappings that he said can lead to "nonsense in government."

"The residents will be my employers — not the government," Paige, 45, said during an interview.

Paige, a political newcomer, is challenging incumbent Clerk Eileen DeHart, 59, in the Nov. 6 election. The winner will earn a four-year term that pays $89,816 a year.

Paige earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Wayne State University. He has been a certified public accountant for 17 years, and he operates his business out of his home.

"I've always been interested in (elected) office," Paige said.

He thought about running against DeHart four years ago, when she became Westland's first elected clerk.

"I knew she would be tough to beat," he said, and he conceded that, even now, he faces an uphill battle to unseat the incumbent.

To that end, his campaign includes knocking on doors and trying to convince voters to support him.

Paige touted a business knowledge that he said began to grow when he completed his first tax return at age 14, when he was a student of a teacher who thought youngsters should learn such skills.

His campaign literature indicates that he would serve as clerk "with

Couple tracks down cousin's military history

BY DAVE VARGA
STAFF WRITER

Those messages that you can read on the public access channel may not seem like they'd be very inspiring to a lot of people.

But it was just such a message, offering instructions on tracking down military service records, that led Shirley and Gerald Lentz of Redford to begin tracking down service details about Shirley's cousin, George Dewey Mitter Jr., who was a Marine corporal.

The Lentzes say they're grateful for the governmental access channel that shared the veterans information that started them on their search.

They knew that Mitter had been born in Highland Park on May 20, 1924, grew up in Redford and Detroit, enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps in 1942 when he was 17 and then died in a airplane crash during the World War II.

However, they didn't know where he served or fought during the war.

"Over the years," Shirley Lentz said, "I often thought about George. I was six years younger than him."

She explained that her mother and father each had siblings who also married, and George was their son. Their families were close growing up. "We liked to call ourselves double cousins," she said.

Looking back, Shirley remembers that the letters her cousin mailed to family were heavily censored back then, but they picked up some clues from both the letters and pictures. "He was always bare to the waist so we knew it was really hot for them. But we never could fill in the gaps of what he did, where he was stationed," she said.

This was what George Dewey Mitter Jr. looked like at age 17, when he enlisted in the Marines.

Now that all of her cousin's immediate family has passed away, Shirley wanted to fill in those gaps.

Gerald said, with the computer help of his son, they contacted the National Personnel Record Center in St. Louis, filled out a form and sent it in. The information returned wasn't totally complete. "Some of the stuff is vague and some of it is blocked out," Gerald Lentz explained.

They were able to find out that cousin George got his basic training in San Diego, was shipped out Aug. 30, 1942, aboard the USS President Monroe and participated in the heavy fighting for Guadalcanal, Solomon Islands, spending some four and a half months there. The battle was significant as Americans eventually turned back the Japanese expansion.

The reports showed Mitter left there March 29, 1943, and that, despite surviving the intense battles there, he later died of injuries he received in a plane crash on the southern tip of Talina Islands, in the eastern part of Russell Islands, Solomon Islands. He was just 19. He was buried there, then moved to Grand Lawn Cemetery in Detroit.

"We must never forget our service men and women. God bless them all," Shirley said.

Veterans or next-of-kin looking for information about a military service record can go online to www.archives.gov, click on the link that says Military Service Records, and follow the instructions.

Board approves tenure charge against teacher

BY SUE MASON
STAFF WRITER

A Wayne-Westland middle school teacher will appeal a school board decision to proceed with tenure charges related to what the school district deems inappropriate behavior.

Attorney Bill Young said an appeal will be filed with the Tenure Commission within 20 days, challenging the proposed 90-day suspension without pay.

"My client claims it didn't happen," said Young who is representing longtime teacher James Zoltowski on behalf of the Wayne-Westland Education Association. "He will challenge the charges and say they didn't happen."

The board took the action Monday evening, following a brief private hearing that had been requested by Zoltowski. He received written notification Tuesday, Deputy Supt. Charlotte Sherman said.

"We are asking the commission to approve the suspension, we are not asking that he be fired," Sherman said. "We can't suspend a teacher without going to the commission."

The district, in filing the complaint, contends that the teacher has received numerous verbal warnings for "unprofessional and unethical" behavior and communication with staff, parents and students, dating back to 2004-05.

Under the Teacher Tenure Act, Zoltowski has 20 days from receipt of the school board's decision to appeal. If he does appeal, as Young has said, the hearing must be conducted and concluded 60-90 days after the filing. "I wouldn't expect a decision until next spring," Young said, adding that Zoltowski will ask for a private hearing to keep the allegations under wraps.

"He wants to keep from damaging his good name, especially if he is successful in his challenge."

The board resolution also indicated the direction the district will take, if Zoltowski appeals.

According to the resolution, the administration "has the authority to reassign him as a visiting teacher with no reduction in compensation pending a decision by an administrative law judge."

If Zoltowski doesn't appeal the decision, the suspension would go forward, Sherman said.

Zoltowski has been with the district for 38 years. He was hired in 1969 and taught at Wayne Memorial High School until 1989 before moving to John Glenn High School for one year. A physical education teacher for most of his career, he also taught at Adams Middle School for six years.

Since 2006-07, he has divided his time between Marshall and Stevenson middle schools teaching technology education.

"To go to the Tenure Commission is a rigorous process," Sherman said. "Because of that, we generally try to handle teacher discipline at the district level. If it persists or if it is of a severe enough level, we go to the Tenure Commission."

professionalism" and lead by example. He also vows to be a positive influence in the community and to protect residents from unnecessary costs.

"I just want to be able to help the residents any way possible," he said.

One of his priorities as clerk would be to implement new carts to make it easier for election workers to deliver ballots from polling places to City Hall.

Paige didn't speak critically of DeHart, and he conceded that her office staff members seem to know their jobs.

"I guess the bottom line is I just want her job," he said, saying at another point that "we can always continue to improve services."

If elected, Paige promised to keep current employees who work in the clerk's office. He said he would work cooperatively with them.

"I believe in teamwork," he said. "That's how things get done."

Paige said he has been a supporter of such local programs as Westland Youth Assistance and the Goodfellows, which helps needy families at Christmas time.

He said he has been mostly well-received when he knocks on doors and talks with local voters.

"I basically introduce myself and pledge to work hard for them," he said, adding later, "I'm getting my name out there as much as possible right now."

also serves as vice president of the Association of Wayne County Clerks.

DeHart is continuing efforts to bring more services online to make it easier for residents to do business with the city. Her newest goals include providing online forms for voter registration and dog licenses, and applications for police and fire department jobs.

She assumed greater oversight of local school elections, including results for the portion of the Livonia district that is in Westland. Her office also handles results of Wayne-Westland school elections in the Westland, Canton, Inkster and Dearborn Heights areas of the district.

Her office offers passports for U.S. citizens — a move she said has brought in about $10,000 a year in revenues.

Before she became clerk, DeHart served six years in the state House and a nearly one-year stint on the Westland City Council, but she said her job as clerk has been the most challenging.

She had to learn the job quickly after becoming the first elected clerk. She credited her staff and former Clerk Diane Fritz, who assisted with elections in the first year, with helping to ease the transition.

"This is the toughest job I've ever had," she said, but added that it has been highly rewarding because she gets to help city residents.

Recycle that old computer, other equipment on Sept. 29

The Wayne County Department of the Environment and Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit will offer a chance for people to recycle their old computers and similar equipment from 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29, at the east lot of Livonia City Hall.

The county and Goodwill Industries, through Dell Computer's RECONNECT Michigan initiative, will refurbish the equipment to help create opportunities for individuals with disabilities and other barriers to employment.

The idea is to keep the dangerous items in computer equipment from landfills. Items that will be accepted include CPUs, monitors, fax/scanners, cell phones, keyboards, copiers, printers and all related peripherals. Boxes, manuals or software are not accepted.

Livonia City Hall is at 33000 Civic Center Drive, south of Five Mile and east of Farmington Road.

For more information, call 734-326-3936. To arrange for large quantities, call 313-964-3900, ext. 401.

The next recycling event will be on May 12 at the Canton Township DPW in Canton Township.

Senior workers sought for honors

Operation ABLE of Michigan is searching for the area's top older workers to honor at the 18th Annual Ability is Ageless Award Luncheon. The awards will be presented noon Wednesday, Oct. 24, at the Hyatt Regency in Dearborn.

"We are looking for outstanding older workers aged 50 and older who make everyone's day better through their hard work and dedication," said Mary McDougall, president of Operation ABLE of Michigan, the area's leading provider of job training and employment assistance for mid-career and older workers. "We encourage employers to give these dynamic staff members some well-deserved recognition."

It is easier than ever to nominate outstanding older workers for the Operation ABLE Ability is Ageless Award. Operation ABLE of Michigan has placed the nomination form on its Web site (www.OperationABLE.org) so employers can fill out and submit the form all on a computer.

Forms for making luncheon reservations and signing up as a sponsor of this unique event can also be downloaded from the Web site.

The nomination deadline is Oct. 2. In addition to obtaining the forms on ABLE's Web site, companies and organizations can also obtain them by calling Operation ABLE at (313) 832.0922.

Since 1989 Operation ABLE has hosted the Ability is Ageless Award Luncheon to call attention to the valuable role of mature workers.

Employers from many different sectors use the luncheon to recognize and thank their outstanding mid-career and older workers for their achievements both on the job and in the community. Each year approximately 100 mature workers are honored and 500 guests attend the award luncheon, an indication of the value of the celebration.

Each person nominated by his or her employer will be featured in the luncheon's slide presentation and program book and receive a Certificate of Distinguished Service. A committee of human resource professionals and workforce development specialists will select nine honorees to receive the Most ABLE Award.

These honors will be presented by Carmen Harlan, WDIV-TV news senior anchor.

To be eligible, a nominee must live or work in Michigan, be 50 years of age or older or have 25 years of service to a company by Oct. 24, 2007, and be currently employed.

Retirees are not eligible for the award.

There is no limit to the number of employees a business or organization can nominate. Reservations for the award luncheon are $65 per person.

The work of Operation ABLE of Michigan is made possible in part through the support of the Michigan Department of Community Health Office of Services to the Aging, the Michigan Department of Labor and Economic Growth, the Detroit Workforce Development Department,

AT&T, Kelly Services, Henry Ford Health System, Charter One Foundation, WDIV-TV Local 4 and WWJ Newsradio 950.

Operation ABLE of Michigan, a Michigan Works! affiliate, is the premier provider of computer and job training to the mature worker (aged 40 and older) in southeastern Michigan. The organization offers a full range of computer and career development classes and has a Career Resilience Center at its Detroit office.

Each year Operation ABLE assists more than 500 people from a variety of work experience and demographic backgrounds.

Funding is provided by public agencies, foundations, corporations, and individual donors.

Operation ABLE of Michigan is an Equal Opportunity Program/Employer. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities. TTY users: call the Michigan Relay Center at 711.

Strikers got mostly positive reaction from motorists

BY ALEX LUNDBERG
STAFF WRITER

The strike between General Motors and the United Auto Workers is over, allowing the corporation, its workers and the thousands of smaller businesses who depend on the smooth operation between the two to breathe easy again.

But for two days, the men and women who carried the signs in front of GM facilities around the country were prepared to work the picket line as solidly as they worked the production line.

At the Livonia GM Powertrain plant, 12200 Middlebelt, a group of 20 autoworkers were trudging up and down the street Tuesday morning, carrying signs and waving to passing motorists as the strike was still going on.

Herb Nettles, the safety representative for the plant, has worked there for 39 years. The Oak Park resident said this was his third strike.

"We'll go on until we get an agreement," he said. "We'll be out here until the union president calls us and tells us to go back."

Paul Holdinski, a 34-year employee, was driving to work from his home in Hartland Monday when he got the call to break out the strike signs and inform the union brothers and sisters. It was about four hours notice but also no real surprise.

"We knew it was going to be a rough contract year," he said. "We're all up for helping the corporation but it's got to go both ways. We could be out here for months."

He said he's been socking a little money away here and there in anticipation of lean times during the strike. The people who are single and GM is their only form of income would have it worst, he said.

UAW member Terry Baber waves to people honking their horns as they drive by the Livonia G.M. Powertrain plant on Middlebelt north of Plymouth Road Monday afternoon. At left is Ron Marz, carrying two picket signs.

Michael Crouch of Detroit has 37 years at the Livonia plant and has maintained a lifestyle that insulates him against strikes. People driving past the line on Middlebelt were supportive.

"It's been very positive, more from the senior citizens driving by because their health care could be directly affected," he said. "There have been a couple of people giving the finger, yelling insults."

A veteran of more than one strike, he said unions are responsible for building America and he predicted the UAW prevailing over the corporation in short order.

"We'll have this wrapped up in a week," Crouch said, prophetically. "If the strike goes on longer, it'll drag the economy down and no one can afford that."

Holdinski wanted to give special thanks to the local Ford Motor Co. employees who sent over food, water and pop for the members out walking the strike lines at the plant. He also wanted to thank the people at Looney Baker for sending food over.

Fear, greed can lead to bad investment decisions

Greed and fear are harmful to investors.

Fear leads to bad decisions which can cost investors substantial amounts of money. One example is what has happened over the last few months.

Money Matters
Rick Bloom

The Dow Jones Industrial Average broke through the 14,000 mark for the first time and almost immediately thereafter the market began to retreat.

Just a month after breaking through the 14,000 mark, the Dow fell below the 13,000 mark. At that time, the topic du jour was the subprime crisis along with the slowing U.S. economy and, unfortunately, many investors began to bail out of the market.

Too many of them let fear dictate their decision as they focused on the day-to-day volatilities of the market as opposed to long-term goals and objectives.

A little over a month from the low point and since that time the market has rallied. In fact, the Dow is up 1,000 points. Investors who rushed out of the market missed the recovery and a substantial amount of money.

No one, including me, likes to see their investments go down. However, that's the reality of the stock market. Successful investors recognize that volatility is part of the process. A well-balanced, diversified portfolio can somewhat reduce the impact of short-term volatility. Don't focus on the day-to-day volatilities of the stock market, but rather on the overall portfolio strategy. Make sure your investments match your goals and objectives and that your portfolio is diversified and balanced.

As we are entering the last quarter of the year, there are some strategies that investors may wish to consider. The first is whether to convert a traditional IRA or a portion of it into a Roth IRA.

The transaction must be completed before Dec. 31. Many brokerage houses and mutual fund companies require at least a few weeks to complete the transaction. If you are considering conversion, don't wait.

I am a fan of converting to Roth IRAs because it allows the individual investor to turn tax-deferred money into tax-free money.

The longer you have until you need your money from your IRA, the greater the benefit of converting.

In order to convert, you must have an adjustable gross income of $100,000 or less. If you meet this criterion you are eligible. If you are over 70½, you cannot convert your required minimum distribution, however, you can convert anything above and beyond that amount.

My general rules are: 1) you have the money to pay the tax created by the conversion, without touching the money converted; 2) converting the money will not throw you into a higher tax bracket; 3) you can let the money grow within the Roth IRA for generally at least five to seven years.

Yes, you are incurring a tax liability by converting. However, the long-term benefits of a Roth IRA are substantial. The money you are converting would always have been subject to tax. By converting, you're just paying that tax earlier.

It's also time for year-end tax planning. Whether it's selling investments to recognize tax losses or accelerating deductions into 2007, the goal is to focus on your increasing net worth. Don't do anything for tax reasons alone. Do tax planning that will result in you having more money in your pocket — exactly where it belongs.

Rep. McCotter gets airtime on BBC broadcast

BY JULIE BROWN
STAFF WRITER

As a congressman, Thaddeus McCotter is accustomed to answering reporters' questions. Things were a bit different this past week, however, when the Republican from Livonia was interviewed by the British Broadcasting Corp. on Fred Thompson's run for the presidency and other GOP hopefuls.

The BBC story, heard by local listeners on satellite radio, focused on the presidential hopefuls who were in Michigan for the Republican Mackinac Leadership Conference. McCotter introduced Thompson, a former U.S. senator. "I'm supporting Fred Thompson," the congressman said Tuesday. "I think he's a proven, common sense conservative. When you've got all the presidential candidates hanging around, you never know who's going to pop up," he added of the BBC reporter. McCotter has been interviewed by the BBC in the past on the Iraq situation. He noted his Irish grandfather would have laughed "the BBC talking to me." The congressman listens to radio broadcasts on his iPod, but hasn't heard a lot about the BBC story. "I don't know what people listen to. There are so many options out there. You can find out anything you want if you look hard enough." McCotter noted of the BBC: "It's government-run. It's like the CBC." Questions have been raised in the United Kingdom about the BBC's objectivity, he said, but "not being British, I don't have an opinion on it." He was approached by the BBC after introducing Thompson, who also has an acting background. "I don't think I was their first choice," McCotter said. He's interested in how British people view our politics and vice versa, noting our government is based on Britain's going all the way back to the Magna Carta in 1215. "We're traditional allies," he said. "We like to keep an eye on the British. The War of 1812 isn't that far away."

Archer will speak at WSU

Dickinson Wright Chairman Dennis W. Archer will be a keynote speaker at E2detroit, an entrepreneurial and excellence symposium at Wayne State University Oct. 1 and 2.

E2detroit provides resources to entrepreneurs and small business owners by bringing together the southeast Michigan regional leaders and business community to share ideas about the tools and relationships necessary to launch and grow a successful business. E2detroit also assists entrepreneurs in locating funding sources, qualified management and facilities for company operations. Dickinson Wright is a sponsor of the event.

Archer will speak on small business growth, public office, law firms, and bringing the economy in Michigan and Detroit to great heights.

Archer was Mayor of Detroit from 1994 - 2001. He was the first African American attorney to be elected to the position of president of the American Bar Association and was an associate justice of the Michigan Supreme Court. Recognitions in the past several years include being named among the "100 Most Influential Black Americans," by Ebony magazine; one of the "25 Most Dynamic Mayors in America" by Newsweek magazine; the "Most Respected Judge in Michigan" by Michigan Lawyers Weekly, among the "100 Most Powerful Attorneys in the United States" by the National Law Journal, and "Public Official of the Year" by Governing magazine.

County gets grant to control pollution

The Wayne County Department of Environment's Water Quality Division has been awarded more than $200,000 from Michigan's Clean Water Fund grant to control polluted water discharges into the Rouge River.

When leveraged with existing federal grants, the total amount to be spent by Wayne County on this effort will be more than $405,000.

"These funds will allow us to expand our ongoing mission to identify and stop illegal discharges into the Rouge River," said County Executive Robert A. Ficano. These discharges can come from sewage pipes improperly connected to the river, building drains that empty into the river, and runoff from failed septic systems.

"The Department of Environment has done a great job in securing a substantial grant in difficult economic times," said Ficano, "and by leveraging these grants with existing federal dollars, we are providing added value for our residents."

Retain DeHart as city clerk

In 2003, Eileen DeHart told voters she was the best candidate for Westland city clerk because of her strong work ethic and her experience in public office. They agreed, and she became the city's first elected clerk.

Now, four years later, she's telling voters she has the experience, the knowledge and the professionalism to remain city clerk.

On Nov. 6, Westland voters will choose between DeHart and newcomer Bruce Paige in the city clerk's race. The winner will receive a four-year term, and we believe that person should be Eileen DeHart.

Paige brings a strong background in business to the election. A certified public accountant, he believes his business background and analytical skills are what's needed in the clerk's office. He also says he would continue to improve services as well as streamline the department to save money.

DeHart, however, has the edge. From her previous work in Lansing as an aide and state lawmaker to managing 10 elections as clerk, she has the ability to do the job and do it well.

DeHart did not have an easy job of it when she took over as clerk four years ago, but proved herself a quick study and with credit to her staff, she was able to master a job she says is the toughest one she's ever had.

During her tenure, she has overseen the transition to new voting machines and the assumed management of school elections for the Wayne-Westland Community Schools and the Westland portion of the Livonia Public Schools.

She has transitioned the City Council to an electronic meeting packet and worked on beefing up the clerk's Web site. She is looking to add voter registration and dog license forms, to name a few, to the site to accommodate residents.

We also like that she has taken the time to get her municipal clerk certification from the International Institute of Municipal Clerks, completing the program in just three years' time.

That said, we believe Eileen DeHart is the best choice and urge voters to re-elect her Westland city clerk in the November general election.

Short jobs help state in economic slugfest

Michigan's been hit with a one-two punch with the pull-out of area corporate headquarters, like Volkswagen of America in Auburn Hills and Comerica. The state may be bloodied; however, it's not down for the count.

In fact, what is less known are the many success stories in the area of economic development in southeastern Michigan. That's an important story that not only needs telling but promoting.

Success, as the saying goes, breeds success. Just as some out of state companies may be reluctant to locate here, hearing about the growing number of firms making a move to Michigan ought to tell CEOs that Michigan has a lot going for it.

How the state's economic image is portrayed needs to be revised to target a new audience. Forget the corporate office buildings; what's happening here is the growth of smaller, sometimes high tech businesses.

And the Michigan Economic Development Corporation has played a key role in this upswing.

Recently, the MEDC announced nine new projects that received state help to create nearly 3,000 jobs. There's more. Also included in the projects is roughly $52.3 million in new capital investment in communities, including three tech companies in the Ann Arbor.

Clearly the emphasis is on technology here, with firms planning to develop portable fuel cells and clinical diagnostic testing products.

In a separate announcement, a British company has said it is establishing three firms in Troy to deal with different segments of the amphibious vehicle market. One of the firms is expected to bring 1,500 jobs to the area.

As good as all this is, what may be equally important is the determination seen at Oakland County's Automation Alley, also in Troy, to fight back.

Six companies are joining Automation Alley's trade mission to India Oct. 10-20. While many companies are outsourcing work to India and elsewhere, those on the trade mission expect that country's growth to produce a demand for products and services that Michigan can supply.

Automation Alley isn't just seeing stars with that goal. A Warren company reportedly got a $100,000 manufacturing contract on a pre-mission trip to India.

The important message here is that the state hasn't suffered a knock-out punch. It's ready for the next round.

But if Michigan is going to win this economic matchup, businesses and officials will both have to jump in the ring.

"He says small businesses are going to save the state's economy. I just wish he weren't our CEO."

Vote for incumbents

I would like to know why Christine Cicirelli Bryant was not required to go in front of the UAW screening committee? Could it be because of name recognition? As far as I know all other candidates have to go in front of the screening committee and answer the questions they are asked.

I wonder if it was because of her mother! If it was, then it was wrong. Every person should have the same opportunity. Favoritism should not be shown because of the family you are born into.

What has this woman ever done for our city? I had never heard of her except knowing she was a daughter of our former mayor. What qualifies her for this job?

Please when you go to the polls, ask yourself if the council has done a good job so far. If so, vote for the incumbents. Don't vote because of a person's family or gender.

LeBlanc deserves thanks

Those of us who care about Eastern Michigan University and higher education in general owe a debt of thanks to local lawmaker Richard LeBlanc. Rep. LeBlanc along with several of his colleagues held firm recently against a divisive and elitist proposal that would give three universities their own budget bill separate from the other 12 state universities. If enacted, this plan is expected to result in more funding being driven toward those three institutions and, as a consequence, less resources remaining for EMU and the other 11 public universities.

The University of Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne State already receive more state funding than the other 12 public universities combined! To create an even larger chasm in higher education funding in Michigan would only serve to further divide our state's student population between the "haves" and the "have nots." Rep. LeBlanc correctly maintains that the goal should be to secure more resources for all 15 of Michigan's public universities, not acquire more resources for one group of students at the expense of another.

At a time in our state's history when there is a great deal of debate on how our tax dollars should be spent, I can't think of a better investment than in higher education. Especially when you consider that nearly 80 percent of all the students who attend one of the other 12 state-funded universities come from a local Michigan community and more than 85 percent of the graduates return to their Michigan communities and support their local economy.

Western Wayne County is fortunate to have such a thoughtful leader representing them in the state legislature and all of us at Eastern Michigan University would like to publicly thank him for continuing his strong, principled stand for fairness and equity.

Exception to editorial

I take exception to the recent editorial ("Leadership lags on state budget," Observer, Sept. 20) that questioned my motive for keeping my vote "off the board" while negotiations on Michigan's budget crisis continued.

Blindly voting along party lines doesn't show leadership and it doesn't take political courage — in fact, it's the easy way out. Voting along party lines to gain a political advantage when Michigan faces an unprecedented fiscal crisis is cowardly.

I was sent to Lansing to speak on behalf of the people I represent. I've gotten hundreds of e-mails regarding Michigan's budget crisis. Many demand that I vote against a tax increase; many demand the exact opposite. The one common thread is that they all demand that I do what's right to move Michigan forward.

I firmly believe that we need a comprehensive solution to solve Michigan's budget crisis. The plan that was presented to me was a partial solution. It did not go far enough to rein in state spending. Michigan's economy is struggling. Our working families, already struggling to make ends meet, have told me they cannot afford a tax increase. Before I can ask working families to sacrifice more, I have to be confident that we have completed the necessary reforms and cut the fat out of the state budget.

I also firmly believe that any plan to resolve this budget crisis must be bipartisan. I began this job by promising that I would reach across the aisle to build relationships and consensus. Threats of a recall, or the loss of this job, will not stop me from keeping this promise. Without bipartisan support I am convinced that we would be back to the negotiating table in just a few months. Without bipartisan support any plan that passes the House would die in the Senate, sending the Legislature back into finger-pointing and political squabbling. These problems are why I, and some of my colleagues, held back our votes. This lack of support eventually forced both sides back to the negotiating table.

I will continue fighting to ensure that we use our residents' tax dollars efficiently, that we have a leaner, more responsible state government, and that a bipartisan solution will be forged to move Michigan forward.

Marc Corriveau

House District 20

Corriveau was one of six Democrats to vote Friday against raising the state income tax to 4.6 percent.

Unions are the problem

Read your article ("This is a day to reflect on tales of tough laboring," Sept. 2) and have to say that unions are (and were) a major problem with American industry and have been for the last 30 years.

Were they necessary? Yes, they were back in the '20s, '30s and '40s, but they got out of control and they are coming close to destroying American industry along with the "good ol'" boy network of CEOs who sit on each others' boards of directors at public corporations and give one and other these asinine compensation packages.

We must keep value added manufacturing in this country, for this is how wealth is created. Whether it's from farming or industry, we must keep the ability to produce products instead of depending on the "service economy," which will just turn us into a debtor nation.

So while Gettlefinger and the rest of the labor leaders tell everyone what a great guy Walter Reuther was (gag me, I have no respect for communists) while they continue to blame management for all problems in industry, I have one question for them:

When will the UAW, or any other union, buy Delphi or any of the companies on the brink and show us all how to run a manufacturing operation with the contracts they negotiated in place and make a profit? Their combined silence on this subject speaks volumes to those of us who know what is really going on in this country's industries.

Not in the give-up mode

The reporting on the surge in Iraq has been scant. The New York Times and The Washington Post have followed the policy that good news is no news. The move by Petraeus and our forces surprised the Jihadists and assorted miscreants in that the enemy evidently thought that the wail and cry by the leftists and assorted Democrats in the United States would mean the certain early retreat, Iraq left to the poachers, Iranian interlopers, all kinds and sorts of Koran rapists and killers.

The murdering Muslims had determined that the leftists in America would steer our country to a give-up mode, quit the attempt to preserve freedom, and high-tail home, opening the door to a more complete takeover and domination of the social and economic affairs of all nations in the immediate East.

The liberal press continues to be of little help.

Prison reform, worker benefits key parts of budget woes

After another week of watching the same endless shenanigans going on in Lansing, I can only repeat: "Michigan's political, policy and finance systems are broken. Ten million Michigan citizens have been held hostage to the partisan agendas of both political parties and their members who now hold office, not to mention the interest groups that fund their campaigns."

We are in trouble. We're facing the greatest crisis since the Great Depression, and desperately need leaders with a vision for Michigan that will get us through our present turmoil and lay the foundation for a radical transformation of our state.

We're not going to get that by habitual partisan finger pointing or by absurd, face-saving compromises that claim to "solve" the $1.8 billion state budget deficit. Without a new vision, no matter what they do, a similar deficit will be staring us in the face next year.

Even if we buy into that vision, it won't become reality unless we have state government that is effective, efficient and accountable.

Republican lawmakers say the way to do that is by cutting something like $1 billion from state spending. But you when ask exactly what they'd cut, mostly what you get back is mumbles about "government waste, inefficiency and bloat." That's not a responsible recipe for crafting a budget. Especially when they've known the dimensions of the problem we're facing for a year.

But if they are serious about cutting spending, here are two big, obvious, long-overdue ways to cut nearly $800 million, as suggested in The Center for Michigan's most recent newsletter:

■ First, enact $500 million worth of prison reforms. Michigan's incarceration rate is 40 percent higher than our neighboring states, while our crime rate is just about the same. One-third of our enormous state prison population is there for drug-related or nonviolent crimes. Nearly another third are being held beyond their earliest possible release date. And our prisons cost Michigan taxpayers around $5,000 more per inmate each year more than neighboring states pay to keep theirs locked up.

Ending expensive jail time for nonviolent offenders and releasing inmates unlikely to be dangerous to society will save hundreds of millions. Gradually bringing pay for Michigan prison guards in line with neighboring states would help. Privatizing some operations like food service could save even more.

People from all over the political spectrum — business conservatives, social liberals, academics and the state's financial advisers — have for years urged cost-conscious prison reform.

Any concrete results? Nah. In part, Republicans fear being accused of being "soft on crime."

■ Second: Bring Michigan state worker benefit costs in line with the national average. How big? Around $275 million. Both the Small Business Association and The Center for Michigan reached that conclusion in separate studies earlier this year.

Republicans are going to have a harder time swallowing the first of these two suggestions; Democrats, the second — but both are vitally necessary. For a while earlier this summer, both Gov. Jennifer Granholm and Democratic lawmakers talked a good game about reforms in pay and benefits for state employees earlier. But not recently. The story in Lansing is that public employee labor leaders are holding court in the capital, holding the line against reforms among the troops who want labor campaign contributions later on.

Detroit News columnist Daniel Howes, in a stinging column last Saturday, asked of labor leaders: "Tell us how you explain to recently retired autoworkers fearing for their pension and health benefits that they have to pay higher taxes so their pals in the public sector won't be asked to do the same? Answer: You can't, and sooner or later they'll wake up to the rank hypocrisy and fight back."

And although much of the debate on the revenue side of the budget argument has had to do with the income tax, here's a quick, simple and fair way to bring in an added $300 million each year: Tax beverages.

States like Texas and California raise more than $100 million each year by taxing unhealthy, sugar-saturated soft drinks; they're classified as "food" in Michigan and therefore not taxed.

Our tax on beer was last adjusted 41 years ago ... when it was cut to just under two cents per beer. Two cents in 1966, adjusted for inflation, would be about 14 cents a bottle today.

All lawmakers would have to do to raise $225 million would be to raise beer taxes to keep up with inflation. But they haven't. Why not? Because the beer and wine lobby is among the most powerful in Lansing. And lots of legislators are scared they'd anger off blue collar beer drinkers.

There you have it; three simple ideas to make our government more efficient and less costly. There are lots of others: Benchmarking public employee pension and health care benefits against public employees elsewhere or (gasp!) private sector workers. Find ways vastly to increase collaboration and service sharing among Michigan's thousands of local government units and school districts.

So how do we get people talking about making common sense the centerpiece of our political discussions? That will be the subject of community conversations taking place throughout Michigan next month as part of the Michigan's Defining Moment campaign.

Ramadan sparks memories of happy days in Palestine

The holy month of Ramadan and its fasting are once again upon us. Muslims will fast from sun up 'til sundown, abstaining from food, water and intimate relationships.

Each year around this time, my memories are rekindled of Ramadan in our small village of Beit Hanina, a suburb of Jerusalem still without electricity, where people carried lanterns to light their way in the darkness as they went first to the mosque and then to visit friends and family.

Beit Hanina had a drummer, charged with the pre-dawn task of awakening the village to sahoor, the light meal whose end marked the beginning of each day's fast. Closing my eyes and thinking real hard, still brings back the sound of Beit Hanina's drummer banging away, and the delightful memories of joining the other children, carrying our decorated fanoos lanterns with candles burning brightly inside them, as we ran along behind the drummer, singing, laughing and shouting to help awaken the sleeping adults and start them on sahoor and their new day.

How I admired the drummer. How I wanted his job and to share in his fun. During Ramadan in 1979, when I made my first visit back to Palestine since the 1967 expulsion, my cousin and I, both 18 and living in the U.S., finally became the Ramadan drummers of Beit Hanina. The Israeli invasion of 1967 and the subsequent occupation made the drummers' job very high risk and today they are scarce. Ramadan drummers were often stopped, even beaten, and some have been killed by the Israeli occupying army.

By 1979, the village had not enjoyed a drummer in five years, so my cousin and I delighted in our job of walking through the village each morning banging away on large tin cans. It must have been a very humorous sight. The elderly were happy to hear us, while the younger people thought we were a great joke and made fun of the "bored Americans."

But everyone agreed that we had renewed some "life" that had been lost as we broke through the dark still nights of Ramadan. For me, however briefly, I was transported back to a happy childhood whose memories had never left me for a moment. I still remember sitting by the family's transistor radio with my siblings listening to the special programs as we awaited the "cannon" to go off, signaling that it was time to break our fast. The "cannon" was a World War I-era English relic and merely made a loud bang, which was all that it was good for.

Ever since my own children were very small, I had regaled them with the many stories of my childhood in Palestine, enjoying the look of fascination on their faces as they implored me to tell them yet "another story of when you were young in Palestine." This past summer, I took my children to visit the grave of my grandmother, which is located on a hillside cemetery off of Salah Eddin Street in the Old City. The cemetery is actually located inside the boundaries of the Palestinian village of Lifta, which was ethnically cleansed of its Palestinian inhabitants, including my wife's family, by the Zionists in 1948. Many people, including my grandmother and her family members, are buried there, although now it is considered part of Jerusalem.

As we made our way through the cemetery gates and up the hill so that we could read Al-Fatiha, which is the opening verse of the Quran, at her graveside, I noticed an old rusty cannon sitting on the top of the hill, virtually buried beneath the overgrown weeds. I decided to head up the hill and take a closer look. Much to my surprise, the cannon was an exact copy of the very same cannon that I had remembered as a youth. I called my children up the hill and showed them the cannon, surmising that the cannon was used to alert the residents of Jerusalem when to break their fast before the city fell under Zionist control.

During Ramadan, my mother would always invite friends and relatives to our home to break the fast with us. As Muslims, we are obligated to share breaking our fast with others, especially those less fortunate than us. It is considered a blessing to do so. It is something that we continue to do here in America as we invite friends and loved ones to share in our blessing on this holy month — the essence of which are a time of prayer, fasting and charity.

The closeness and feeling of "community" that I felt during those times is something that is almost beyond description. The sound of the drummer, the Muezzin call to prayer, the static emanating from the transistor radio, the "boom" of the cannon, the enticing aroma of the special foods that we only ate during Ramadan, the sight of families huddled together on a mat-covered floor around the evening meals, illuminated by the flickering light of a kerosene lantern, enjoying their meals, as humble as it may have been, in the company of family and loved ones.

These are my memories of Ramadan before the Israeli invasion and subsequent brutal and inhumane occupation, which has destroyed many families and communities and is now in the process of causing further havoc as Israel continues to erect its apartheid walls, checkpoints and roadblocks that have reduced many Palestinian villages and cities to nothing more than walled off ghettos and open-air prisons.

Unfortunately, these will constitute the next generation of Palestinian children's memories and experiences.

Schoolcraft hosts College Night Wednesday on Livonia campus

Area high school students and their families can investigate the programs of more than 80 colleges and universities during Schoolcraft College's annual College Night on Wednesday, Oct. 3. The event is free and open to the community.

The schools, primarily from Michigan and the Midwest, will be on hand to answer questions and provide information on degrees, fields of study, admission requirements, cost and extracurricular activities.

A sample of in-state schools attending include Michigan State University, University of Michigan, Grand Valley

State University, Wayne State University, University of Detroit Mercy, Michigan Technological University, Eastern, Central and Northern Michigan universities, College of Creative Studies, Adrian College and Hillsdale College.

Out-of-state institutions attending include Bowling Green State University, Penn State University, Ohio State University, Syracuse University, University of Notre Dame and Valparaiso University, to name a few.

College Night will be held in the Physical Education Building of Schoolcraft College's Livonia Campus on Haggerty Road between Six and Seven Mile Roads. Typically College Night draws about 3,500 people. The program begins at 6:30 p.m. and continues until 8:30 p.m. The colleges are arranged fair-style and in alphabetical order in both gyms so guests can visit as many tables and in the order they wish.

For more information, call the Schoolcraft College Office of Admissions at (734) 462-4426. Schoolcraft College is a public two-year college, offering classes at the Livonia campus, the Radcliff Center in Garden City and online at schoolcraft.edu.

Wayne County Senior Day Oct. 12

The 13th annual Western Wayne County Senior Celebration Day will be held Friday, Oct. 12, announced state Rep. John R. Pastor, R-Livonia.

"Our area is home to a great number of seniors, and this fun-filled event is just one way to give back to them and to our community," said Pastor, R-Livonia. The event takes place at St. Mary's Cultural Center in Livonia, and runs from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Tickets went on sale Sept. 4 and can be purchased at the Livonia senior center.

The event is organized by Pastor and Senior Citizen Achievement Needs, a local nonprofit organization for seniors. This year its major sponsor is Angela Hospice of Livonia. Tickets are $5 and include a hot meal, door prizes, games, health screenings, exhibitor booths featuring samples, novelties and other information, and a free cloth bag to carry away all the goodies. The event is limited to 600 people and has sold out in the past. For information, call Pastor's office at (517) 373-3920.

YOUR BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

An opportunity to know more about the businesses in your area.

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING OUT OF THE ORDINARY?

In the middle of the night, our sneaky staff will find your victim's front yard with a flock of plastic Pink Flamingos.

Imagine their surprise when they get up for work and find these lovely birds!

The entire flock will magically disappear overnight (not before 7:00 p.m.) leaving no dropping - just fond memories!

What could be better than celebrating a Birthday with an 15-foot-tall Inflatable Birthday Cake? Or a lawn full of Graduation Caps?

How about red Hearts of Teddy Bears for an anniversary? Perhaps Lambs for a Sweet 16.

A 6-foot-long vinyl Banner accompanies every display to celebrate the occasion and personalized Banners can be purchased.

A card will be left in the front door so you can take the credit - or remain anonymous. We'll never tell!

If you are out of the area, we offer display rental so that you can pick up the Flamingos and create your own lawn display. Why should we have all the fun?

We have many themes for Lawn greetings. Call us today to mix and match your custom display.

1-800 LAWN FUN

Daytime delivery requires a 2-hour window and is an additional cost.

Pickup is anytime after 7:00 p.m., but most likely after dark.

Sorry, we cannot make deliveries in daylight hours for Halloween, Christmas Day, New Year's Day or Easter Sunday.

No backyard setups and sidewalk setups can be accommodated for corner lots.

Chargers fall in finals rematch, rebound vs. Rocks

BY BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

PREP VOLLEYBALL

Defending Class A volleyball state champion Livonia Churchill learned some valuable lessons in Saturday's Kalamazoo Central Midseason Classic.

The No. 5-ranked Chargers reached the quarterfinals of the prestigious 32-team tournament, only to fall to North Branch in a replay of last year's state finals, 25-21, 25-15.

North Branch went on to take the tournament title with a 25-15, 25-18 semifinal victory over No. 8-ranked Flushing followed by a 25-21, 25-22 triumph over Farmington Hills Mercy in the finals. (Mercy upset Catholic League rival Birmingham Marian in the other semifinal.) It was No. 2-ranked North Branch's fifth tournament title of the season as the Broncos improved to 38-0 overall.

"It was good competition, an intense match," Churchill coach Mark Grenier said. "Most of the mistakes were our fault. We had 11 errors hitting and 15 service errors. If we shore that up, we'll be fine. They (North Branch) served us off the court. They took revenge. It was a big learning day for our young kids."

Churchill captured its pool with splits against Class C-ranked Blissfield (22-25, 25-22) and Kalamazoo Loy Norrix (24-26, 25-17), along with a win over Temperance Bedford (25-18, 25-19).

The Chargers, seeded eighth in the elimination round, opened with a 25-19, 26-24 win over North Muskegon.

For the day, All-State middle hitter Kyndra Abron finished with 60 kills and five solo blocks. Kristen Nalezec added 33 kills, while Brianne Schmansky finished with 12.

Lindsey Graciak added 32 total digs and six ace serves, while Shannon Warner contributed 20 digs. Grenier also singled out the all-around play of Kelly Buhler.

On Monday, Churchill opened WLAA Lakes Division play with a 20-25, 25-18, 25-12, 25-20 win at Salem as the 6-foot-2 Abron finished with 26 kills, four blocks and five aces.

Setter Kristy DeClercq added 41 assist-to-kills and 10 digs, while Graciak (16 digs), Jordan Kerr (13 digs) and Warner (10 digs) anchored the defense. "That trio did a great job of passing and using ball control," Grenier said.

Jessica Stroud chipped in three kills and two blocks, while Katie Matz had 10 assists, five digs and served at 100 percent.

Churchill is 15-2-3 overall and 1-0 in the Lakes, while Salem, led by Jansan Falcusan (32 assists, six digs, three blocks), falls to 10-7-3 and 0-1.

"The kids overall played with a lot of energy," Grenier said. "The kids responded well after a not-so-great Saturday."

Sidelines

Blazers win, 1-0

Kristen Selasky's goal from Briana Boyce in the second half proved to be the difference Tuesday as Livonia Ladywood earned a 1-0 Michigan High School Girls Field Hockey League triumph over the visiting Washtenaw Whippets.

Ladywood goalie Sara Burnosky made six saves en route to the shutout as the Blazers improved to 4-3-2 overall and 1-2-2 in Division II of the MHSGFHL.

The loss drops Washtenaw to 2-2-2 overall and 0-1-1 in Division II.

WHAC honorees

■ Taking Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference honors in men's soccer were Madonna University senior midfielder Darrel Quinn and senior goalkeeper Kristofer Lyons, named the week's top offensive and defensive players, respectively.

Quinn recorded the game-winning goal Saturday against Siena Heights with a penalty kick and earlier in the week he assisted on MU's game-winner Sept. 18 at Indiana Tech. He also assisted on a goal Saturday.

Lyons made seven saves in two Madonna victories, allowing only one goal (Saturday against Siena Heights). It was his second Defensive Player of the Week award this season.

■ Livonia native Lauren Hess (Ladywood) garnered WHAC Offensive Player of the Week honors for Sept. 17-23 in women's soccer after posting two goals and an assist over a two-game stretch.

The sophomore midfielder from notched the game-winning goal on Sept. 19 at Indiana Tech and went on to score the clincher Saturday against Siena Heights, also contributing an assist.

Blazers can't reel in division rival Marlins

BY BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

Fresh on the heels of an impressive runner-up finish Saturday in the Kalamazoo Central Midseason Classic, the Farmington Hills Mercy volleyball team returned to Catholic League play Monday night with a less-than-inspiring performance.

It was still good enough for the Marlins as they managed to come away with a 25-15, 25-21, 25-17 Central Division win over host Livonia Ladywood.

"We had no intensity, no passion, but that's no disrespect to Ladywood because we've got to play every night, not when we feel like it," said Mercy coach Ed Moeller, whose team improved to 25-4-3 overall and 2-1 in the division.

Mercy reached the finals of the Midseason Classic by upsetting Catholic League rival Birmingham Marian before losing to last spring's Class A state runner-up, 38-0 North Branch, in the championship final.

Outside hitter Colleen Loftus, a 5-foot-11 senior, paced the Marlins' balanced attack against Ladywood with seven kills, 15 digs and three ace serves.

"She (Loftus) is unsigned, one of our better defensive players," Moeller said. "She knows where to be and jumps to the hole. She's an excellent defensive player and she's got a long reach. She can pound it. She was our go-to player this weekend. She's capable of taking a game over."

Mercy cruised in the opening game as seven different players recorded kills.

"We're very diversified," Moeller said. "We have several players who can play several positions."

Ladywood (5-6-3, 1-2) built leads of 11-5 and 18-14 in the second game behind the hitting of senior Catherine Phillips (six kills), but Mercy rallied back for the four-point win.

In the third game, the Blazers led 16-14 before Mercy reeled off eight straight points to take command.

"We're making progress, we can play with them and even win games, we just need to get mentally tougher and finish at the end," Ladywood coach Erin Craggs said. "We've got to play better defense and get more attacks in transition. We need some of those players to step up and get it done."

Phillips, who had team-high eight kills and three ace serves, is the only Ladywood senior with game experience off last year's Catholic League A-B Division championship team. The Blazers have five freshmen and a sophomore (Ashley Hines).

Setter Julie Rhodes, a junior, had 23 assist-to-kills, while Hines finished with eight digs.

"We changed up at the end," Craggs said. "We just have to find a combination of players in the right positions and get comfortable. We're improving every game. We moved (Catherine) Phillips outside more, but we suffer because we need somebody to block. Mercy is a tough team with an experienced setter, good outside hitters, and they play defense."

Mercy, now ranked No. 7 in Class A, got five kills from Andrea Conover and four each from Morgan McPartlin, Bridget Hickey and Stephanie Bodien. Tracy Whelan added three blocks, while libero Kelsey Maxwell finished with three aces.

"Defense is usually our trademark," Moeller said. "When we're not playing defense, we're a whole different ballclub. It's all about effort."

Ladywood's Ashley Hines sends a shot over past Mercy's Kelsey Doyle during Tuesday night's Catholic League Central Division match.

Grid Picks

Tim Smith

There's a reason for my unorthodox picks

Let me explain the method to my "grid picks" madness. Boy, did I take it in the gut for recently picking Garden City and Redford Union to win games two weeks ago against Mega Conference dynamos Highland Park and Dearborn Fordson. Even one of my colleagues, Livonia-Westland Sports Editor Brad Emons, couldn't resist chirping — in person and in print — about how ridiculous people said those picks were.

Apparently, the masses were ready with their white coats to come and get me.

But to quote Jim Leyland, it is what it is. Yeah, I messed up with those picks, as both the Cougars and Panthers (two teams I cover as Redford-Garden City sports editor) were summarily trounced, tackled and torn to bits, 50-6 and 36-8, respectively. I dutifully swallowed my medicine.

By the way, I didn't follow up with a superior week, going 7-4 in Week 5 to drop in the Observer standings. Pass the medicine again, please.

But I have always had a soft spot for the underdog. My favorite Beatle is "dark horse" George Harrison. I like Canada and love hockey. Athletes who others give short shrift, generally ignored because they aren't the flavor of the week, are those I pull for to make it.

And so I decided to fly in the face of conventional football wisdom and give Garden City and Redford Union a vote of confidence against teams a cut or more above.

That's because those programs do the best they can with what they have, with whomever walks through their doors. Those are not school-of-choice destinations for hot-shot running backs and linebackers from outside district boundaries who are recruited by public high school coaches or booster groups.

Garden City, RU and Redford Thurston simply are not in the business of turning prep athletics into an extension of pro and college, as seems to be the case elsewhere.

If that means they get pounded, so be it. If I get catcalls for making my picks, oh well. Sometimes sticking to principles is the right pick of the week for any sports writer.

Unfortunately, my principles have me looking up in the grid picks standings to Emons, entering this week's slate of games on a major roll. He went 11-0 last week to improve to 41-15 and take a commanding lead over Plymouth-Canton Sports Editor Ed Wright (9-2 last week) and yours truly, both tied at 36-20.

Now, here is a peek into the crystal ball for Week 6:

FRIDAY'S GAMES
(ALL AT 7 P.M. UNLESS NOTED)

GARDEN CITY (1-4, 1-3) AT EDEL FORD (3-2, 2-2), 4 P.M.: I won't make a "sentimental" pick this week, however. The Cougars are struggling mightily and have managed just 26 points in five games. Their defense hasn't been holding up in recent weeks, and it will be tested by the steamrolling Thunderbirds' attack, which sparked a 44-18 triumph over Romulus last week. PICKS: Smith (Edsel Ford); Emons (Edsel Ford); Wright (Edsel Ford).

LIV. CLARENCEVILLE (0-5, 0-5) AT HAMTRAC (0-5, 0-4), 4:30 P.M.: If ever there was a chance for the Trojans to bust into the victory column, this is it. Clarenceville hung in there against Metro Conference co-leader Macomb Lutheran North last week before losing 21-0, while the Cosmos were trounced 37-0 by Lutheran Westland. Hamtramck has managed just 12 points while giving up 200 this season. PICKS: Smith (Clarenceville); Emons (Clarenceville); Wright (Clarenceville).

LIV. STEVENSON (5-0, 3-0) AT LIV. CHURCHILL (5-0, 3-0): This has to be the Game of the Week in Observerland. Both WLAA teams enter this Lakes Division showdown looking to squeeze into the driver's seat. Both also are coming off lopsided victories and should be firing on all cylinders. It should be interesting who wins the battle of the trenches. Although the Spartans have scored more points this season than the Chargers, the home team is stingier overall on defense. This is almost too close to call. PICKS: Smith (Churchill); Emons (Stevenson); Wright (Stevenson).

CANTON (2-3, 1-2) AT LIV. FRANKLIN (2-3, 2-1):

These WLAA Western Division rivals will hook up in a game that features teams possibly headed in opposite directions. The 2006 Division 1 state semifinalist Chiefs lost a 24-23 heartbreaker to Walled Lake Western and must win out merely to qualify for the state playoffs. The Patriots defeated Plymouth last week, and would like to stay on the heels of the division-leading Warriors. PICKS: Smith (Canton); Emons (Franklin); Wright (Canton).

W.L. WESTERN (4-1, 3-0) AT WAYNE (3-2, 2-1): The Zebras will enter this WLAA Western contest with some momentum following a 33-14 victory over winless Northville. But the first-place Warriors provide a much tougher test, as proven by last week's one-point triumph over Canton. PICKS: Smith (Western); Emons (Wayne); Wright (Western).

WESTLAND GLENN (2-3, 1-2) AT W.L. CENTRAL (2-4, 2-1): After losing Friday to unbeaten Livonia Churchill, all that lies ahead for the Rockets is a WLAA Lakes matchup against a team that dismantled Plymouth Salem, 40-0. PICKS: Smith (Central); Emons (Central); Wright (Central).

TRENTON (2-3, 1-2) AT REDFORD UNION (2-3, 1-2): Could the Trojans spoil homecoming night for the Panthers and their fans? It's possible, given that both of these Mega White squads have scored and allowed virtually the same number of points. This game could go either way, but the energy of Kraft Field could provide enough of an edge for outstanding RU senior halfback Yourye Wilson, who scored four TDs and rushed for 179 yards last week. PICKS: Smith (RU); Emons (RU); Wright (Trenton).

RED. THURSTON (1-4, 1-2) AT YPSILANTI (4-1, 3-0): Eagles head coach Bob Snell correctly said his team has a "brutal schedule" and any good feelings gained by Friday's 21-0 win over Garden City should get wiped out by the Mega Blue rival Braves, a team that has figured out in all areas. PICKS: Smith (Ypsilanti); Emons (Ypsilanti); Wright (Ypsilanti).

NORTHVILLE (0-5, 0-3) AT PLYMOUTH (3-2, 1-2): The Wildcats can garner steam toward a playoff spot with a victory. As long as the home team doesn't get too complacent, that should happen against the Mustangs, still without a win. PICKS: Smith (Plymouth); Emons (Plymouth); Wright (Plymouth).

SATURDAY'S GAMES
(ALL AT 1 P.M. UNLESS NOTED)

RED. COVENANT (4-1, 3-0) VS. S.F.D. CHRISTIAN (2-3, 1-2) AT BIRMINGHAM GROVES, 9:00 A.M.: The Spartans, who sit atop the Southern Michigan Football Conference standings with Parkway Christian, will look to keep building momentum toward what could be their first-ever playoff spot. If the chemistry between Covenant quarterback Tony Harrison and wide receiver Anthony Davis (three TD catches last week) stays strong, it could be a long day for the Eagles. PICKS: Smith (Covenant); Emons (Covenant); Wright (Covenant).

CLAWSON (2-3, 2-1) AT LUTHERAN WESTLAND (3-2, 2-1): These Metro Conference teams are looking to build on Week 5 victories, with the Warriors coming off a 37-0 blitzing of Hamtramck while the Trojans defeated Rochester Hills Lutheran Northwest. PICKS: Smith (Lutheran Westland); Emons (Clawson); Wright (Lutheran Westland).

W.L. NORTHERN (0-5, 0-3) AT SALEM (0-5, 0-3): There will be some smiling faces, guaranteed, as one of these struggling teams will finally get into the win column. The Rocks are looking to score their first point in WLAA Lakes play. PICKS: Smith (Salem); Emons (Northern); Wright (Salem).

Knockout punch

Rockets outlast Spartans in five-game set

Westland John Glenn went the distance Monday night, going five games to beat visiting Livonia Stevenson in a WLAA-Lakes Division girls volleyball match.

Kirstin Kirk added 11 kills and 38 digs as Glenn improved to 3-5-4 overall and 1-0 in the Lakes.

"It was more like a boxing match," Glenn second-year coach Julian Wargo said. "Every time they punched, it seemed they (Stevenson) counter-punched. They (Stevenson) are a well-coached team and it was an important victory for us."

Other Glenn contributions came from Stacey Truskowski (11 kills), Brittani Robinson (three solo blocks), Aranda Phare (29 digs) and setter Lauren Baker (17 digs).

"We're starting to distribute the ball with our attack," Wargo said.

In a WLAA-Western Division opener Monday, host Plymouth made quick work of Livonia Franklin in three games, 25-16, 25-13, 25-21.

"We did not execute," Franklin coach Linda Jimenez said. "It's simple as that. Plymouth also strategically placed their serve making it difficult to set up our key hitters. And they played outstanding defense."

Junior Brianna Taylor had nine kills in the setback as the Patriots fell to 4-12-3 overall and 0-1 in the division.

Plymouth, led by Rachel Heaton (11 kills, eight digs) and Kate Spangler (12 assists, five digs), improves to 8-3-2 and 1-0.

"It was our first tourney, a good team effort," Clarenceville coach Wendy Roy said.

Stevenson secures Lakes title with victory over Vikings, 1-0

Livonia Stevenson has already booked Oct. 10 to play for the Western Lakes Activities Association boys soccer championship.

The 11-0 Spartans recorded their ninth shutout of the year with a hard-earned 1-0 victory Monday night at Walled Lake Central.

The state-ranked Spartans will represent the Lakes Division and host the title matchup against the Western Division champion, either Canton or Northville.

Dylan Green's goal midway through the first half from Mike Debolski stood up as the Spartans, who clinched the Lakes outright with an 8-0 record, defeated Central (7-7, 3-4) for the second time this year.

"The last time we beat them (Sept. 10) it was 2-0, both good, competitive games," Stevenson coach Lars Richters said.

Defense has been a staple

BOYS SOCCER

for the Spartans, who once again split the goalkeeper duties between Justin Collins (first half) and Conner Burton (second half). The pair have combined to do an ample job replacing All-State keeper Mitch Hildebrandt (now at Oakland University).

"For two guys with no varsity experience they've done a good job of being mistake free although they haven't seen a ton of action," Richters said. "The general them is not to be Mitch, but do what the position calls you to do, which is not forcing things and making solid plays."

Richters also credits his backline, led by center-backs Kendall Snow and Green, along with outside defenders Brady Thom, Tyler Vines, Joey Dedomenico and Kyle Kopitz. "We've done a fairly good job as far as team defense," Richters said.

Central goalie Dennis Ran made 16 saves and was "excellent in net for us," according to Vikings coach Joel Sharpe, who added senior Michael Clark played very well in back.

"It was a hard-fought game; we played well," Sharpe said. "They're an outstanding team. They controlled most of the game. We put a little pressure on them at the end, but we did a good job of defending and kept it close the entire time."

CHURCHILL 8, JOHN GLENN 0: Jacob Robison's goal from Kyle Schwarz with 21 minutes remaining Monday gave host Livonia Churchill (7-5-1, 4-3-1) the WLAALakes Division mercy-rule triumph over visiting Westland John Glenn (2-10-1, 0-8).

Junior Matt Regan led the Chargers, who led 5-0 at halftime, with a pair of goals. Chris DeNapoli added a goal and assist, while Schwartz finished with two assists.

Ben Merritt, Drew Sieber, Etienne Lussiez and Max Washko also tallied goals for Churchill.

Goalkeepers Adrian Motta and Derik Peterman combined for the shutout.

FRANKLIN 7, WAYNE 1: Junior Zain Qureshi unloaded for three goals Monday as host Livonia Franklin (3-9, 2-6) rolled to a WLAALakes Division victory over Wayne Memorial (0-11-2, 0-8).

"Back-to-front it was a well-played game," Franklin coach Vic Rodopoulos said. "We utilized our outside defenders a lot. We played quick balls, we played simple. Guys supported each other and things went smoothly."

Joe Michnewicz tallied his first goal of the year, while Steve Trapp (direct free kick), Mike Dobson and Chad Dorton also scored for the Patriots, who led 4-0 at halftime.

Wayne's Juan Zavala spoiled Franklin goalkeeper Jordan McKindles' shutout bid with only eight seconds remaining in the match.

LUTH. WESTLAND 6, CLAWSON 0: Junior Josh Kruger's hat trick propelled Lutheran High Westland (8-3-2, 4-3) to the Metro Conference triumph Tuesday against the host Trojans.

Senior Adam Zehel contributed two goals, while sophomore Gage Flanery had a goal and assist. Other assists went to Ben Crandall, Austin Baglow, Ton Cipolla, Ryan Baglow and freshman Kent Krzyzyske.

Goalkeeper Micah Hausch recorded his sixth shutout of the year.

LUTH. NORTH 1, CLARENCEVILLE 0: Livonia Clarenceville (3-9, 2-5) was denied the upset bid Tuesday as Jordan Holmes scored the game-winner midway through the first half for host Macomb Lutheran North (6-5-2, 4-1-2).

"This is the first game we've played as a team this year," Clarenceville coach Trevor Johnson said.

Junior Phil Heidler, filling in for starting goalkeeper Garrett Gregg, who was out sick, made 10 saves.

"He (Heidler) was pretty impressive for giving him a shot," Johnson said.

The Trojans' defense was paced by senior sweeper Matt Parent. The Trojans lost starter Dustin Csokasy to injury with 12 minutes remaining.

AGAPE 7, HURON VALLEY 0: Seven different players scored Tuesday as MIAC-Red Division leader Canton Agape Christian (11-1, 6-0) rolled past host Westland Huron Valley Lutheran (0-12, 0-6).

Goal scorers for the Wolverines, who led 5-0 at halftime, included Daniel Walker, Brandon Pierson, Robi Knight, Keith Reith, Billy Martin and Daniel Mullett.

Goalkeepers Joel Ruffin (first half) and Daniel Walker (second half) combined on the shutout.

Andy Faulk was in goal for the Hawks.

Aaron Howell led HVL with five shots on goal, while Austin Tranchida and Eric Schaffer added two each.

LUTH. WESTLAND 1, SHRINE 1: In a non-conference match Saturday, host Lutheran High Westland (7-3-2) and Royal Oak Shrine (5-4-2) battled to a draw.

FERNDALE 5, WAYNE 2: On Friday, John Ndeh-Zama's three goals and one assist carried the host Eagles (5-2-3) to a non-league win over Wayne Memorial (0-10-2).

Dennis Burgess added a goal and assist in the win, while Michael Baugh tallied the other Ferndale goal. Jeff Traynor contributed two assists.

Lady Ocelots win Soyad's goal beats Cincinnati State, 3-2

Gloria Soyad's goal late in the second half Sunday enabled Schoolcraft College's women's soccer team to edge visiting Cincinnati State, 3-2 in a non-conference matchup.

Soyad, a sophomore forward, chipped in a feed from freshman forward Clare Baptist (Plymouth).

The Lady Ocelots had leads of 1-0 and 2-1 vanish, but Soyad's clutch tally proved just enough to take care of what Schoolcraft head coach Deepak Shivraman called a tough regional opponent that could be a tough foe in the playoffs.

"I feel that we needed to capitalize on many of our opportunities," said Shivraman, noting that the match turned too tight for comfort. "There were at least three to four chances that if converted would have opened up the game a bit more for us."

He did praise the "strong, consistent" work of freshmen midfielders Ally King (Livonia Stevenson) and Adrianna Guerreo, as well as Soyad and Baptist up front who "worked relentlessly to create scoring opportunities."

Baptist scored Schoolcraft's second goal to give the Lady Ocelots a 2-1 advantage midway through the second half, only to have Cincinnati State deadlock matters a few minutes later.

Schoolcraft's first goal was scored in the first half by sophomore forward Jessica Austin (Livonia Franklin).

Drawing other assists for the Lady Ocelots were Guerreo and sophomore forward Nicole Polite.

FERRIS STATE 4, MADONNA 2: Kristie Smilanich scored twice and added two assists Tuesday as host Ferris State downed Madonna University in a non-conference women's soccer match, 4-2, in Big Rapids.

The Bulldogs, who improved to 2-6 overall, also got a goal and assist from Tammy Unsworth. Heather O'Keefe added her eighth of the season in the opening half.

Smilanich's game-winner came in the 70th minute, while Unsworth added an insurance goal in the 77th minute.

Kati Germane (unassisted) and Lauren Hess (from Lia Melasi) scored for the Crusaders, who fall to 6-3-1 overall.

MADONNA 3, SIENA HEIGHTS 2: In the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference match Saturday, first-half goals by sophomore forwards Kati Germane (from Salem alum Ashley Stoychoff) and Kaila Moore provided enough cushion to withstand a late rally from the Saints (5-4-0, 3-2-0) and lift the Crusaders (6-2-1, 5-1) to the win at Livonia's Greenmead Field.

Assisting on Moore's goal were junior midfielder Stoychoff and sophomore midfielder Lauren Hess (Livonia Ladywood). Stoychoff made a nice lead pass to Hess, whose shot was blocked by Saints goalkeeper Haley Mancini. But Moore was there to find the mark on the rebound.

Siena Heights cut the lead to 2-1 early in the second half before Hess booted a shot from outside the 18-yard mark under the crossbar. The goal was unassisted.

Kim Stoutenburg finished the scoring with just 44 seconds left, knocking the ball past MU senior goalkeeper Traci Anderson (two saves) off a scrum in the box.

S'craft road trip successful

The Schoolcraft College men's soccer team pitched a pair of shutouts over the weekend to improve to 5-2-2 overall on the year.

On Friday, the Ocelots blanked host Heartland (Ill.), 2-0.

The Ocelots got off to a quick 1-0 lead in the non-conference tilt and that proved to be the deciding goal, with freshman midfielder Michael Iyoha finishing up a three-man passing play just four minutes into the match. Assisting were sophomore forwards Brandon Horvath and Plymouth High School alum Ali Youssef.

Assistant coach Eric Scott said Iyoha scored on a "great shot" from the top of the 18-yard box.

That's how the contest remained until a late goal by Horvath, on a "tremendous free kick after (sophomore defender) Brad Spencer drew a foul near the box," Scott noted.

Making five saves for the shutout was freshman goalkeeper Chris Riley.

Saturday at Ancilla (Ind.), Riley and freshman goalie Bob Lovelace

MEN'S SOCCER

(Plymouth) combined to pitch another 2-0 shutout. Lovelace came in for the final five minutes in relief of Riley (three saves).

The Ocelots found the mark with 12 minutes remaining when sophomore forward Louie Djokic (Livonia Stevenson) scored. The goal capped off another fine passing play in the 18-yard box, this time between Horvath, Iyoha and Djokic.

Seven minutes later, Iyoha added an insurance goal, with an assist by Horvath.

MADONNA 3, SIENA HEIGHTS 1: In the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference match Saturday, second-half goals by senior defender Darrel Quinn (on a penalty kick) and Maki Lewis (from Quinn) broke a 1-1 halftime tie and lift Madonna University (6-2-2, 4-1-1) past visiting Siena Heights University at Livonia's Greenmead Field.

Opening up the scoring for Madonna was sophomore midfielder Emilio Giorgi, with a beautiful unassisted goal. Giorgi beat the Siena Heights defense with a number of nifty moves inside the 18-yard box.

Siena Heights dropped to 5-5 and 3-2.

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

VOLVO HAS A 'HOT HATCH' IN NEW C30

Advertising Feature

CAReport

By Dale Buss

With high gasoline prices now firmly established as a fact of life, automakers are devoting more attention and resources to small cars. As a result, they're finally bringing some meaningful diversity to a category that was stuck in a bland homogeneity for many years.

Volvo's brand-new C30 sporty compact is in the very vanguard of this development. Aiming to appeal to young urbanites and compete with established lookers including the Volkswagen GTI and the Mini Cooper, Volvo has launched the C30 this year behind hot styling, peppy performance, and just enough amenities to make it a credible entry in the high-end small-car derby - what some wag has taken to calling the "hot hatch" segment.

Aiming the car mainly at the narrow streets and tight parking of the European market, Volvo also has graced the United States with the C30, a sporty hatchback that closely follows the design of a concept vehicle from a few years ago. Starting retail prices are around $22,700, but fully loaded, C30 can set you back around $30,000.

For that kind of lucre, you want something that impresses - and C30 delivers. Start with looks: C30 boasts a tongue-wagger of a design, both in the overall and in some intriguing details. Not known until lately for its design prowess, Volvo really has pulled out all the stops with the C30. Its dramatic wedge shape and short-clipped rear end suggests a vehicle back on its haunches, ready to rocket.

The chopped-off front grille is a blunt statement by this two-door coupe. So are the huge-looking 18-inch wheels on the Version 2.0 that I drove. Dramatic flares run along the bottom of the C30 from the front to the rear wheels. Parallel to them, the car's shoulders rise and its roof quickly descends to form smart-looking wedge shapes.

And yet, it isn't until you get to the rear end where Volvo really makes a design statement with the C30: The hatchback is nearly entirely comprised of a huge, squarish back window that extends well below where a traditional design would have it end, creating a dramatic effect. The chrome-tipped dual exhausts help as well.

In the case of the C30 I drove, Volvo also adds to the appeal with a dramatically fresh color scheme. The body color of the vehicle was an extremely light mossy green, almost a bare tint of a hue, while the trim pieces along the bottom were a very deep mocha. Interesting combination with an esthetically pleasing result.

Interior of the C30 features sensible climate control and a "waterfall" center console.

The only down side to this entire design picture is a strange pair of taillights, in which the brake-light strip extending vertically on the sides of the hatch - reminiscent of Volvo's design in other vehicles - are actually adjacent to the arc of the main taillights, producing weird effects. Of course, all of that is only annoying to the drivers behind you.

For the driver who's actually behind the seat of the C30, it's a big treat. Powered by a turbocharged, 2.5-liter five-cylinder engine, C30 generates 227 horsepower and 236 pound-feet of torque. As a result, totting around a vehicle this small, C30 is able to accomplish remarkable acceleration - about 6.5 seconds zero-to-60 - as well as determined quick moves whatever the driving demands.

Shifting up through the five-speed automatic I drove is extremely smooth as well. At an estimated 19 mpg in the city and 28 mpg on the highway, fuel economy is about where it must be to take advantage of the small dimensions of the car.

Inside, C30 is mostly a treat. The first thing you notice is the extremely high visibility out the windshield, the front side windows and, especially, the huge hatch, all of which is a real treat. However, C30 displays the same blind-spot problems for the driver that are generic to many coupes. And if you're a rear passenger, the seats are so deep and the windows so shallow that the effect is a bit like sitting in a jail cell looking up at a scant chink of a space to the outside.

The interior design is sleek, highlighted by a signature, thin, "floating" or "waterfall" center console that Volvo first incorporated into the S40 and V50. Not only is the visual effect stunning, but there's a handy compartment behind the waterfall stack where you can stash keys, cell phones and other objects safely without having them clutter up the important space right next to the driver's seat.

And, of course, Volvo has used its uniquely sensible approach to climate controls in the C30 as in its other vehicles. An icon of a human shows you exactly where the air stream will be pointing, and all the necessary climate switches and dials are clustered within a few inches of each other.

And obviously, climate-switch design isn't the only thing that competitors could learn from the C30.

Used car prices take hard tumble New car incentives push used car marketplace to record low

by J.L. Sims Independent ad features

Livonia, MI - A Livonia dealer is selling 2007 vehicles for about one-half of the original manufacturer's list price. And they're offering many other models far below normal market values. The low financing offered by GM, Ford, and Daimler-Chrysler mesmerized so many buyers that far fewer shoppers even bothered looking at pre-owned 2007 models.

How does 0% financing on a new model do in a heads-up comparison to a pre-owned 2007 model? In the instance of the Buick LaCrosse, financing $21,960 plus tax vs. $9995 plus tax, the payments on the new car at 0% interest would be $392 monthly for 60 months, but only $269 monthly at 5.9% for 60 months on the program model. With the prime at a record low, today's interest rates are very competitive. Many credit unions charge under 6% for auto loans if the applicant has a good credit rating. And when purchasing the used 2007, don't forget that you'll be saving about an additional $1,000 in sales tax and licensing fees. (Taxes estimated at an average of 6%).

John Rogin Buick sold over 150 Buick LaCrosse & Pontiac Grand Prix's in the first 30 days of their sale.

A "program" car is a vehicle that has been leased by a premium rental company through a special "program" from the manufacturer. Strict maintenance is required, and all vehicles are carefully inspected upon return. In many cases, these program units receive better maintenance than vehicles owned by private owners.

John Rogin Buick-Livonia has long been known as Michigan's "bargain hunting" dealer. Currently, they're selling more 2007 Pontiac Grand Prix's than any other dealer in the nation. (Over 150 Pontiacs & Buicks were sold during the first 30 days of their sale.) Last year, they sold the most pre-owned 2006 Impalas and Pontiac Grand AMs in the nation from their single location. And the year before they set the sales record selling the most off-lease GMC Yukons and pick-ups.

Today's real bargain can be found at John Rogin in the pre-owned 2007 vehicles. The low financing on new 2007's has left the used models unnoticed and overlooked. So, with far fewer dealers purchasing these units, the prices have dropped to record lows.

So, once again, John Rogin has gone shopping for the vehicles with a huge cart. They have just made a multi-million dollar purchase of these units from General Motors, bringing in truckload after truckload from across the country. In addition to filling their giant used car facility to the brim, John Rogin had to lease additional storage lots to accommodate their massive acquisition of vehicles. And they currently stock the largest inventory of 2007 program cars in Michigan with a 100,000 mile warranty.

Bargains abound in pre-owned 2007 program vehicles all with 100,000 mile warranty.

The purpose of 0% financing is to clear out the remaining new 2007's. In another week or two, these vehicles will all be gone, along with the incentives. In the meantime, the 2007 program vehicles are truly today's "sleeping" bargain... But they'll soon disappear as smart shoppers begin to "wake up" and recognize the real deals.

John Rogin Buick is located at 30500 Plymouth Road, between Middlebelt and Merriman in Livonia. Their used car superstore may be contacted directly at (734) 525-0900 Monday - Friday during normal business hours.

A Beautiful Buick

The 2001-2007 Buicks were the highest ranked Premium Midsize Car in J.D. Powers and Associates Initial Quality Study. This study was based on a total of over 64,900 consumer responses indicating owner reported problems during the first 90 days of ownership. Of those surveyed, Buick owners reported the fewest problems - An outstanding mark of excellence for superb workmanship and a prelude to the satisfaction yet to be experienced during the coming years.

Equipped with a powerful 175-horsepower V-6 boasting 20 mpg city and 29 mpg highway fuel economy, the Buick LaCrosse will capture your heart from the moment you slip behind the wheel. There won't be any need for a salesperson to explain how to operate "all the buttons," because this LaCrosse will greet you like an old friend, or a comfortable pair of slippers. The cabin is exceedingly driver friendly, with all controls neatly laid out before you like an elegant table setting. And everything just seems to "fit."

The Buick LaCrosse still retains all the traditional value you've come to expect from Buick. From its luxurious well-appointed interior to the clean, flowing exterior design, LaCrosse makes a stylish impression.

The standard features provide evidence that the Buick still remains just one step down from the Cadillac in GM's lineup. Dual (driver and passenger side) heat and air conditioning controls, six-position tilt steering wheel, cruise control, power windows, locks, and seats, remote key fobs operating doors and trunk, rear window defroster, plus a stereo system that will blow you away.

Children aren't forgotten with the rear seat upper and lower latch system for compatible child safety seats and rear door child security locks.

Four-wheel independent suspension provides for solid handling and the ride of a magic carpet.

Best of all, the new LaCrosse requires just a little more maintenance than a rock garden. 100,000 miles between spark plug changes. 100,000 mile transmission service intervals under normal driving conditions. "WOW".

See the 2007 Buick LaCrosse at John Rogin Buick in Livonia.

It's no wonder that John Rogin Buick-Livonia considers the pre-owned 2007 LaCrosse to be the most car they've ever been able to offer for the money. And for the past several weeks, they've silently amassed hundreds of these wonderful units from throughout the country and brought them to Livonia. Best of all, today you can purchase a pre-owned 2007 LaCrosse from John Rogin for nearly half its original value of $24,000 list price new. While they last.
