Mayor's gathering: Good time for families to share togetherness

BY DARRELL CLEM OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

In a troubled economy marked by rising expenses, Westland single mom Juanita Francis looks for frugal ways to spend quality time with daughters Naomi, Trinity, Mijai and Ashé, ages 5 to 14.

"I think Westland is one of the most phenomenal communities around," Francis, a teacher at the alternative education Tinkham Center, said, adding that Wild and his administration "are keeping people connected and grounded."

If Francis had appeared in a televised political commercial, Wild would certainly have endorsed her message. He sponsored his second park-based community gathering to give residents a chance to mingle informally with his staff, ask questions and learn about issues ranging from his environmentally friendly Mission Green program to the city's vision for sprucing up the Ford Road commercial corridor.

play areas, got to pet Westland police dog Friday and gazed at a huge banner for Play Planet, a 25,000-square-foot, space-themed play structure that will be built in late October in Tattan Park. The crowd watched as firefighters demonstrated how they rescue victims trapped in vehicle crashes, and they learned from Deputy Police Chief Gary Sikorski how a Taser gun works.

Since the gathering occurred at dinnertime, Wild's staff served up 1,350 hot dogs to people who said the gathering, made possible by local business donors, seemed like one big picnic — a message endorsed by Deputy Mayor Courtney Conover.

"This is about community. It's about people getting to know their neighbors," she said.

Juanita Francis' oldest daughter, Franklin Middle School eighth-grader

Ashé, said the party was bigger than a celebration she attended near the end of her summer camp program at the Interlochen Center for the Arts, where she studied singing and painting. "This is huge," she said.

W-W district, teachers spar over contract

BY DARRELL CLEM OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A potential strike by Wayne-Westland teachers still looms amid an impasse in contract talks between bargaining teams representing the 850-member union and school district officials.

Despite the stalemate, district Superintendent Greg Baracy confirmed Monday during a school board meeting that "we're negotiating." Barring a collapse of talks, three more bargaining sessions are scheduled to occur by early next week.

"There has not been any progress made," Wayne-Westland Education Association union President Nancy Strachan said Monday evening, as a large crowd of placard-carrying teachers protested outside school district offices on Marquette. "It doesn't look good as of right now."

Strachan said teachers want contract talks resolved by Oct. 2. However, Baracy warned that a strike would be illegal, and he said negotiations will continue unless either side ends the effort with a 24-hour notice.

"We feel that they haven't made a concerted effort to be at the bargaining table," Baracy said.

Strachan said teachers made concessions in recent years and that they cannot accept further setbacks in wages, health care and class sizes. She said local teacher salaries rank near the bottom in Wayne County.

Under the last contract, which expired Aug. 25, salaries ranged from $34,409 for a new teacher with a bachelor's degree to $82,081 for a seasoned teacher with an education specialist degree.

Baracy indicated that school officials aren't asking teachers to accept a pay cut or freeze, but he conceded the two sides are at odds over a proposal to give the 13,000-student district more flexibility to choose competitive health insurance carriers.

This week, many teachers wore black clothing and "unity" buttons to school in an attempt to press their issues. They also garnered support from several parents who contended during Monday's school board meeting that too many students have been placed in some classrooms.

Baracy responded that the district strives to quickly address any overcrowding problems and that "we're going to honor the contract."

Parent Melissa O'Neil implored school officials not to allow problems like state fund-

On three separate occasions, including Monday evening, Wayne Westland teachers have gathered at the district's administrative offices to protest the course of current contract talks.

ing shortfalls to usher in cuts affecting teachers, "the people that really matter to our kids."

Baracy pledged that the district's bargaining team will continue to seek what he called a fair contract within the financial constraints facing school officials. However, he rejected "a ton of inaccurate information" that officials say has been disseminated to imply that money has been misspent.

Baracy and board President Martha Pitsenbarger said revenues raised from an earlier, voter-approved bond issue and a sinking fund could only be used for specific purposes like building improvements — and not for teacher salaries.

Board Vice President Skip Monit and Trustee William Gabriel issued lengthy statements Monday, criticizing rumors and saying the board is charged with looking out for student interests.

"We answer to a higher authority. That authority is our kids and their parents," Monit said.

Gabriel called strike threats unnecessary and said he would hate to see negative bargaining tactics damage relations between teachers and administrators.

"Trash-talking isn't something we want to teach our children," Gabriel said.

As teachers protested outside school district offices Monday, Strachan indicated it's the district officials — not teachers — who have been unfair in contract talks. She said teachers in recent years have made concessions that saved the district $19 million, "and now they want more."

State responds to park remediation plan

BY DARRELL CLEM OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A conceptual plan to redevelop portions of lead-contaminated Central City Park has received a partially warm response from the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality, but city and county officials concede they will have to revise part of their proposal.

"It's a good foundation," MDEQ project manager Beth Vens said Tuesday. "It's a good starting point."

Although it's far too soon to pinpoint when part of the 100-acre, fenced-off park could reopen, a Monday meeting involving officials from MDEQ, Wayne County and the city of Westland was viewed as productive.

"I thought it went really well," Westland Mayor William Wild said. "I didn't see anything that we couldn't overcome."

The meeting at MDEQ's offices in Warren came two months after county and city officials submitted a conceptual plan to remediate and redevelop 15 acres along the eastern edge of Westland's one-time recreation gem. The park was closed after it was revealed in November 2006 that the site, a former landfill, was contaminated.

MDEQ officials appeared receptive to plans to use 12 inches of clean soil and a geotextile barrier for an area that officials hope to use as three soccer fields for adults and five for youngsters.

"This was a very important milestone in the process," Assistant Wayne County Executive Alan Helmkamp said. "They've said we're basically on the right path."

However, MDEQ has called for similar measures beyond the proposed soccer fields, in an area where officials had envisioned using a lesser barrier for more passive activities like walking. Vens said the tougher requirements would give officials more latitude for future park uses.

In yet another area of the park, Wild indicated he still hopes that officials can convince MDEQ to not require the extensive barrier near Friendship Pond, which would essentially be used for leisure activities.

Helmkamp cautioned that any conceptual plan will be followed by a formal proposal, likely hundreds of pages, that will serve as a blueprint for fixing the initial 15 acres of Central City Park.

The three levels of government could resume talks within two weeks after revisions are made to the conceptual plan, officials said. Referring to a formal propos-

Newest W-W school trustee takes her oath of office

BY DARRELL CLEM
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Wayne-Westland school board appointee Shawna Walker got a strong vote of confidence Monday from a high-ranking friend, Westland City Clerk Eileen DeHart, who presided over Walker's swearing-in ceremony. "She's as beautiful on the inside as she is on the outside," DeHart said, administering Walker's oath of office. DeHart predicted that Walker, applauded by onlookers including husband Dwayne, will be a "true friend" to students and staff. Walker was seated on the seven-member board after she was chosen earlier this month to replace former Trustee Frederick Weaver, who resigned after he moved to Midland for a new job.

Walker, a former Ford Motor Co. employee who is now an optical technician attending Henry Ford Community College, called her appointment "an honor." She and her husband have four children.

Walker's colleagues wasted little time drafting her as one of the board's two delegates to a Michigan Association of School Boards assembly scheduled for Oct. 30-Nov. 3 in Grand Rapids.

She will represent the board and the 13,000-student district along with Trustee William Gabriel, who won election to the board in May and who replaced longtime board member Terrance McClain, who didn't seek re-election.

Walker will serve in her appointed post through next June. She already has indicated that she plans to seek election to the board in next May's election.

Friend holds benefit to aid cancer patient and her family

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Patty Hawkins would love to raise $1 million for her friend Dee Sitarski, but she'll settle for a lot less. Any amount she and her husband, Dave, are able to raise at a mostaccioli dinner this weekend will do.

"I did a benefit for a friend in May and raised $6,000, I'd like to raise that for Dee, but any amount is more than what they have now," the Wayne resident said.

A lunch lady at the Burger Center for Students with Autism, the Garden City resident has been battling cancer since October 2007, when a trip to the doctor for difficulty breathing and bad cough resulted in a diagnosis of post stage 4 small cell lung cancer that has spread to her back and brain.

She is receiving outpatient chemotherapy at Garden City Hospital to treat the tumors in her lungs which make it difficult to breathe, Hawkins said.

The dinner and silent auction fund-raiser will be 3-7 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 27, at Guardian Martial Arts, 30942 Ford, between Merriman and Middlebelt, in Garden City. Tickets for the dinner cost $7.

The Hawkinses have gotten 42 businesses in Garden City, Westland, Canton and Wayne to donate to the fund-raiser, making it possible to have 21 gift raffles, 11 gift certificate raffles and five silent auctions. There also will be a 50/50 raffle.

The family, which includes husband Greg and 15-year-old son Aaron, have had trouble paying bills since she was diagnosed.

"Her loss of income has hit them hard," said Hawkins.

"She hasn't been able to work, so hopefully we can make some money for them."

Hawkins and Sitarski have been friends for 10 years. They met while taking their sons to speech therapy at Oakwood Annapolis Hospital. Four years ago, Sitarski took Hawkins' son to Guardian Martial Arts where her son, Aaron, was training. He dropped out, but Hawkins' son stuck with it.

That connection led to Kelly and Shelby Perkins offering use of the facility for the benefit.

Since, the building is close to where the family lives, Dee Sitarski is planning to be there, Hawkins said.

The Hawkinses have been working on the benefit since late July and according to Patty Hawkins, they didn't tell Sitarski they were doing it — with good reason.

"You don't tell Dee, you ask Dee," she said. "I told her we'd seen her struggling and said we'd like to do something. She had tears rolling down her face and said OK."

The Hawkinses have been "plastering" 200-300 fliers in stores around town to promote the event and are hoping for a big turnout. The more people who come or who make donations, the better.

People who would like to make a donation can send a check, made payable to Dee Sitarski, care of Patty Hawkins, 35436 Chestnut St., Wayne, MI 48184. For more information, call the Hawkinses during evening hours at (734) 467-4995.

"Dee is a very strong-willed person," said Hawkins. "She's going to get every single moment she can get out of life."

PARK

al, Helmkamp said, "we're still many months away."

Nothing has yet been said about a proposal to fix the rest of the park, which is owned by the county and leased to the city.

In other developments, Vens said the MDEQ believes that additional testing for contaminants should be conducted around Friendship Pond, because "right now there's hardly any data from that zone" and those limited earlier samples indicated slightly elevated levels of lead. She said more tests could help pinpoint whether officials need to put in a barrier or simply dig out limited "hot zones."

She also said more soil tests may be sought on the eastern edge of the park to help determine how far the protective barrier should be extended.

Moreover, Vens said the MDEQ also has called for more methane monitors on the eastern and southern perimeters of the park to ensure there's no threat to nearby residences, including Taylor Towers and homes east of Carlson. Vens said those measures would be similar to monitors already in place on the north end of the park, near the Bailey Recreation Center and Westland 18th District Court.

Helmkamp said county and city officials already have proposed trenches and piping to vent methane on the north end of the park.

Schoolcraft College hosts annual college night Oct. 1

Area high school students and their families can investigate the programs of more than 80 colleges and universities during Schoolcraft College's annual College Night on Wednesday, Oct. 1. The event is free and open to the community.

The schools, primarily from Michigan and the Midwest, will be on hand to answer questions and provide information on degrees, fields of study, admission requirements, cost, financial aid, scholarships and extra-curricular activities.

A sample of in-state schools attending include Michigan State University, the University of Michigan, Grand Valley State University, Wayne State University, University of Detroit Mercy, Michigan Technological University, Eastern, Central and Northern Michigan universities, College for Creative Studies, Adrian College and Hillsdale College. Out-of-state institutions attending include Bowling Green State University, Penn State University, Wisconsin University, Purdue University, University of Notre Dame and Valparaiso University, to name a few.

College Night will be held in the Physical Education Building of Schoolcraft College's Livonia Campus on Haggerty Road between Six and Seven Mile Roads. Typically College Night draws about 3,500 people. The program begins at 6:30 p.m. and continues until 8:30 p.m. The colleges are arranged fair-style and in alphabetical order in both gyms so guests can visit as many tables and in the order they wish.

Investors shouldn't overreact to financial crisis

There is a lot to learn from what happened on Wall Street last week.

If you listen to the talking heads and read some of the news stories about the market, you would think that the entire economy was falling apart and that the Great Depression was around the corner.

In fact, I heard the Great Depression referred to a number of times in listening to the talking heads. By the end of the week, the same talking heads were talking a different story.

As investors, we cannot allow ourselves to be swayed by the daily banter that we read and hear. Think about how much money someone would have lost this week by bailing out of the market at the wrong time. Investors must recognize that good news or bad news, the market tends to overreact. Investors cannot be swayed by short-term volatility. The lesson to learn is don't overreact and take a step back and let some of the dust settle before making a major change in your portfolio.

Whenever a new program or a major change in tax law occurs, promoters of investments start coming out of the woodwork pushing the investment to take advantage of the changing situation.

No matter what the changes are, the rules remain the same. They are:

- 1.) Before investing in anything, check it out with independent research. Don't believe what someone — who has an interest in an investment — says until you can check it out independently. If you can't check out an investment independently, walk away.

2.) Before investing, review how an investment has performed over time. Look at three-, five- and 10-year track records.

3.) Before investing, understand how the investment works and how you can make money, lose money or get your money out when you want.

4.) Before investing, understand all the costs associated with the investment. Know what an investment costs to buy, sell and hold.

5.) Don't forget — if an investment smells too good to be true, it generally is smelly. You need to be reasonable when it comes to returns. If you let greed enter into your thought process about an investment, your returns will suffer.

The rules on Wall Street and in Washington are always changing. As investors, we also need to follow a set of rules to protect ourselves, and those rules are not subject to change.

St. Dunstan's new pastor aims to connect with parish

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Even before you talk to the Rev. Ron Richards, it's clear he has a sense of humor - there's a plaque on his office wall that reads "Jesus loves you, but I'm his favorite."

It's also clear that from items displayed in his office at St. Dunstan Catholic Church, that Richards is a Spartan - he received his undergraduate degree in mechanical engineering from Michigan State University.

"If you are not real with people and honest about who you are, I don't know how you can connect with them," said Richards, who started his assignment at St. Dunstan last month. "In my homilies, people will hear about my life. That's how you connect. I think people appreciate that. We're called secular priests, we're meant to be among the people."

As the new administrator and pastor at St. Dunstan, Richards was coming into a parish that had gone through difficult times as their long-time pastor was removed and a former parish employee was jailed for embezzlement.

"The welcome here has been warm - I can't speak more highly of them (parishioners).

I think the key is I'm here to help them heal as a community and for their faith and love of God to grow," said Richards. "My role is to bring people closer to God."

Interim administrator the Rev. Thomas Sutherland had organized a church council and commissions at St. Dunstan during his tenure. Pat Squires, a member of the new parish council, is excited that Richards has arrived.

"It's been wonderful. We finally feel almost complete again. He's a great man and everyone seems to be taking to him very well," said Squires. "Father has a lot going for him. We have nowhere to go but up for the parish. We're finally beginning to recover."

Now 46, Richards was a teacher at Birmingham Brother Rice High School for nine years before entering the seminary. For six of those years, he was also the varsity swim coach.

"I hadn't thought of going into the priesthood until I was 32. I was teaching and coaching - I had been very successful," said Richards. "I got involved in the campus ministry and retreats - it made me think about the choices I had made."

When he entered the seminary in 1998, Richards found his background was different from many of his classmates.

"I was quite an anomaly. I hadn't been an altar server. I didn't attend Catholic school - I hadn't seen the inside of a Catholic school until I was teaching," he said. "I hadn't known a lot of priests growing up."

Most of Richards' seminary work was done in Rome - something he is quick to point doesn't mean he's special or on any kind of fast-track.

"In fact, the bishop told me going to Rome to study means nothing. You're still going to be back here to be a diocesan priest," said Richards. "They like to send someone to Rome because you get a different flavor of the church. There are students from all over the world, so you get a broader view. But there is also a disconnect (with local seminary classmates)."

Richards is finishing up his studies at Catholic University in Washington, D.C., to be licensed in canon law. St. Dunstan is his first assignment as a permanent administrator. He was associate pastor at St. Hugo of the Hills in Bloomfield and spent the last year as interim pastor at St. Anne in Ortonville.

With a six-year assignment at St. Dunstan, Richards said he doesn't know what the future might hold once he is a canon lawyer. He does know what he won't be doing with the premium on priests

- teaching. "I loved teaching and I miss it, but I know I won't be doing that. Those days are gone," said Richards. "I would never have entered the seminary, if I thought I would not be able to walk away from teaching ... I'm not (quarterback) Brett Favre."

Seventeen young women, many of them at-large contestants, competed in the 2008 Michigan Junior Miss Program. The winner was Erin Wheeler (front row, right) of Plymouth.

Junior Miss program holds at-large meeting

High school seniors looking for help with their college education can find it through the participate Michigan's Junior Miss Scholarship Program.

The state-wide program is looking for contestants for the 2009 program. Contestants must be high school seniors graduating in 2009 with a 3.3 grade point average or higher. This program awards college scholarships to young women who have distinguished themselves at school and in their communities.

Michigan's Junior Miss Scholarship Program has local programs in Wayne-Westland, Inkster, Plymouth-Canton, North Oakland County and the Irish Hills Area. Young ladies who live in a city or county that has a local program can get more information at the Michigan

Junior Miss Web site, www.ajm.org.

Young ladies who live in areas that do not have a local program can qualify for the state program by going through the At-Large Program. An orientation meeting for at-large contestants will be held Oct. 26 in Wayne for high school seniors interested in the at-large program. Register online at www.ajm.org by Oct. 18, for this orientation program and the at-large program. The at-large program will be held on Nov. 23 in Wayne. More information is available by calling state chairperson Lydia Soroosh at (734) 426-4744.

Michigan's Junior Miss Scholarship Program is part of America's Junior Miss Program, the largest and oldest scholarship program for high school seniors in the country. Since America's Junior Miss first began in 1958, more than $90 million dollars in college scholarships have been awarded. National sponsors are the Mitchell Company, Alabama Power, Encore Rehabilitation, Mobile Gas, Regions Bank and Wintzell's Oyster House.

Contestants are judged based on academic achievement, talent, physical fitness, interview and poise. The Michigan state finals will be held on March 14 at Saline High School. The winner of the Michigan Junior Miss Program will go on to compete for America's Junior Miss program which will be held in Mobile, Ala., in June. For more information on the college scholarship program, go to the America's Junior Miss Scholarship Program Web site at www.ajm.org.

Westland woman waives court hearing

Becky Sue Malmsten, the Westland woman accused of robbing 10 homes in Canton, waived her preliminary exam Friday and has been bound over to Third Circuit Court.

Malmsten, 49, has been charged with home invasion, a 20-year felony and larceny from a building, a 4-year felony. Malmsten, whose criminal background includes drug and larceny convictions, has also been charged with being a habitual fourth offender, which is punishable by up to life in prison.

Police have accused Malmsten of entering approximately 10 township homes through open garage doors while the residents were sleeping. Once inside the homes, she allegedly took purses, laptop computers and cameras. There is no indication she was ever confronted by a homeowner.

Police were led to Malmsten after a gas station surveillance camera was able to identify her vehicle.

Malmsten, who is being represented by Plymouth attorney Lisa Stempien, is scheduled for arraignment on Oct. 3.

Mojo in the Morning: Win lunch with 95.5 crew

It's back! The Observer & Eccentric/Mirror Newspapers and Buddy's Pizza "Dining with the Stars" contest returns this fall asking: Who wants to have lunch at Buddy's Pizza with Mojo, Spike and Kyra of Mojo in Morning?

Mojo, along with Spike and Kyra, wakes up metro Detroit with some outrageous antics. The show is known for Spike's "Senseless Surveys," "War of the Roses" and outrageous phone scams (the station Web site says more than 570 people have been heck-led, bothered and bullied by phone scams).

Mojo, who came to Detroit and Channel 95.5 in February 2000, is one of metro Detroit's most popular personalities.

"My interests are my wife, my kids, and sports ... in that order," he said. "My hero is my dad. He came to this country from Cuba for a better life for himself. He learned a new language and became a doctor, husband and dad. I get my work ethic from him. He was the biggest supporter of me getting in radio. Without his support, I would never made it."

Tell us in 100 words or less why you want to have lunch with Mojo, Spike and Kyra at Buddy's Pizza in Farmington Hills. E-mail your entry to BuddysDiningStars@gmail.com by 5 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 1.

In addition to lunch, the winner will be treated to a limo ride courtesy of Class

Plus Limo, mini-makeover by Sebastian and Heba of I Design Salon and Spa in Dearborn, $100 gift certificate from Reaver Diamond Co. in Southfield and dance exhibition by the Fred Astaire Dance Studio in Bloomfield Hills.

To top it off, Buddy's will donate $500 to Covenant House, one of Mojo's favorite charities.

OUR VIEWS

Union, district need to agree

Members of the Wayne-Westland Education Association picketed the district's administrative offices Monday evening to show their displeasure with contract negotiations. It marked the third time in six weeks that teachers staged a such protest.

The two sides are trying to hammer out an agreement with the help of a state mediator. The teachers have identified class sizes, health care and wages as the three major stumbling blocks.

The union has fanned the flames of concern among parents about overcrowded classrooms and through a Michigan Education Association economist, painted a picture of a district that has "manufactured a budget deficit in three of the last four years by moving millions of dollars out of its operations budget to pay for capital improvements to district facilities."

Those are harsh words for a school district that has gotten a clean review of its budget by auditors year after year and has seen its business department receive national accounting awards for more than seven years. The union's comments also paint a picture of a district that cares more about appearances than educating students; the money spent on two new field houses at the high schools should be spent on in the classroom.

The district has chosen not to negotiate the contract in public, but it is using its Web site — wwcsd.net — to post updates on negotiations and a Q&A related to the WWEA's claims. They acknowledge the district has surplus and that through nickel and diming, it has shored up the dwindling state school aid. There have been no cuts in the educational program, new textbooks and technology have been updated, and teacher layoffs have been all but nonexistent.

We will not take sides, but somewhere in between this test of wills there is a compromise. Yes, they deserve a living wage, and yes, their classes should have a manageable number of students. But the district can ill afford to spend everything it has in the bank on a contract settlement.

We urge both sides to come together and find the middle ground for an agreement. We all have a lot to worry about with the state of the U.S. economy, we don't need to worry about who will teach our children.

We will not take sides, but somewhere in between this test of wills there is a compromise. Yes, teachers have made contract concessions in the past. Yes, they deserve a living wage, and yes, their classes should have a manageable number of students. But the district can ill afford to spend everything it has in the bank on a contract settlement.

Michigan's delegation must demand more from Washington

Michigan's role as a battleground state for the November presidential elections provides a unique opportunity for the state's congressional delegation to influence national policy, and keep our needs in the spotlight.

For too many years, Michigan has been known as a donor state, meaning we send more tax dollars to Washington than are returned in federal funding for education, transportation and other vital services. This was less an issue when our state's economy was humming, but that clearly no longer is the case.

Our state has some pressing needs, and our representatives in Washington should be taking every opportunity between now and November to talk about them with the McCain and Obama camps. A good place to start is helping Detroit's automobile companies lead the charge with alternative fuel vehicles, but it does not end there.

This state, and our local communities, has pressing needs to repair and replace aging roads and bridges, upgrade municipal water and sewerage systems and protect our Great Lakes from toxins and exotic species. And no meaningful discussion about a light rail system can take place without a commitment of federal dollars.

Hopefully, when our local politicians are pressing the flesh with their respective presidential candidate and making joint appearances along the campaign travel, they will take the time to make this state's case for more support for Michigan, and make it a condition of their support.

Hard to say goodbye

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the following people of the All American City of Westland. It has been an honor to serve you as Building Official for the past six years.

I would like to thank now-Judge Sandra Cicirelli for bringing me into her staff and having faith in me. I would also like to thank now-Mayor William R. Wild for allowing me to be part of his team.

Most importantly I would like to thank the Very Important Residents of Westland. To all of those whose homes I have visited, to all of those who spent time in my office and last, but not least, to all of the wonderful Westland people who supported me, prayed for me and sent me cards when I was ill. I will never forget each and every one of you.

Thanks to council for their support through some tough budgets, and through the rental program. It has been my pleasure to serve with you.

Last, but not least, I would like you to know I am leaving you in excellent hands! I call them the silent heroes of the City. The inspectors insure your safety. For example, the electrical inspector prevents electrical fires. The mechanical inspector prevents carbon monoxide poisoning among many other furnace-related issues. The plumbing inspector prevents your plumbing from leaking and causing damage, and the building inspectors make sure your home is structurally sound. So sleep well, you are in good hands! Thanks to each and everyone of you.

I must not forget the ladies in the front office! They really have the toughest job! Anyone who has been in knows how hectic it can be. They serve you well and I thank them for their support they have shown me.

To all of the business owners, it has been a pleasure to work with you to get your business open and safe.

To Paul Featherston, a special thanks for being my deputy for many years and taking over and doing a fine job when I was ill. The city was in good hands.

To Bruce Thompson, it has been a pleasure working with you. We managed to get a lot done over the years! Keep up the good work!

To John Dickie, engineering, it has also been a pleasure working with you and doing creative thinking to get thing accomplished.

To Lori Fodale, good luck in your new challenge.

In closing, I cannot think of better place to end my career. Westland is the BEST!

What have we become?

My daughter is a third-year teacher in the Wayne-Westland schools. Just before school started this year, she came home from a teachers union meeting disenchanted and embarrassed at the unprofessional behavior of her colleagues. She explained the conduct as incomprehensible and was shocked at the theatrical approach the union leadership from Lansing took when addressing the membership. They had total disrespect for the Board of Education, community and students.

Joe Goionka
Westland

Where was the caring, nurturing culture the teachers like to brag about? I think their true colors came out loud and clear. Especially when the union leadership was promoting an illegal strike. What message does this send students? Break the law when it fits your own needs. Come on!!!

Even more appalling was that state Rep. Richard LeBlanc took the stage and promoted an illegal strike at the meeting. What business does a state representative have at a union meeting promoting an illegal strike? What has our legislature become?

All my daughter wanted to do is teach and not be subjected to all this nonsense. She cares and loves children. She is committed to the education of the children in Wayne-Westland. She also is very thankful and happy with her job, salary and benefits that come with it. In my humble opinion, it is time for the outsiders to leave town and take their agenda and trouble-making elsewhere.

Wayne-Westland schools have served my family well, and I am here to stay.

Sleazy election tactics

Here we go again. A sleazy, Republican-led effort is under way to deny Michigan citizens their right to vote. Macomb County Republican Party Chairman James Carabelli is working to suppress voters who have recently lost their home due to the foreclosure crisis. What is the Michigan GOP so afraid of?

We've seen cowardly Republican tactics like these in close elections before. Voters in swing states have been similarly targeted by vile and insidious GOP efforts to suppress voting. The "lose your home, lose your vote" scheme selectively targets those least likely to vote to continue failed Republican economic policies.

The Obama campaign has joined the Democratic National Committee and affected citizens in bringing a lawsuit to stop these anti-democratic tactics in their tracks, but real change comes from the bottom up.

This election is too important for any voter to be silenced. Michigan has been devastated by the Bush-McCain economy. It's no wonder, then, that Republicans are terrified of Michigan citizens actually exercising their constitutional right to vote!

Double standard

I just finished reading the "Our Views" article in the paper. I felt the need to voice my opinion on the subject.

I am in total agreement with all the people who have joined the initiative to lower the drinking age to 18. We have such a double standard in this country that's so ridiculous, it is almost funny.

You feel that people at the age of 18 are not responsible enough to drink. These are the same people that are serving in our armed forces and dying every day so that you can voice that opinion.

These are the same young people that pay the same amount of taxes as you. They are held to the same laws as you. They are married and have the same responsibilities as you. They have to support their families like you, but you don't think that they are responsible enough to drink.

Am I the only one that sees something wrong with this?

Don't you think that if they're not responsible enough to drink then they should not have to pay taxes, fight our wars and be held accountable for all the other things that they are until they reach the age of 21? If they cannot have a beer until they are 21, then the rest should not apply until they are 21.

I also see where they want to restrict driving until the age of 17. So I can't drive until I am 17, but the minute I turn 18 I can ship out and maybe die for my country. How sad.

I am 63 years old and when I shipped out to Vietnam from California I was 20 years old. I had to stop a guy on the street to go in and buy me a six-pack. Four days later, I was in Vietnam. Do you not see something wrong with this?

Librarians lead the way in keeping information free

You may not think of librarians as a radical bunch, but they're on the forefront of free speech efforts in the U.S. and beyond.

Banned Books Week: Celebrating the Freedom To Read, is Sept. 27 to Oct. 4 this year, as a bookmark from the Plymouth District Library reminded me.

Banned Books Week is observed during the last week of September each year, according to the Web site of the American Library Association (ala.org). Observed since 1982, the event reminds Americans not to take the freedom for granted. This year marks BBW's 27th anniversary.

Julie Brown

BBW is sponsored by the American Booksellers Association, American Booksellers Foundation for Free Expression, American Library Association, American Society of Journalists and Authors, Association of American Publishers, National Association of College Stores, and is endorsed by the Center for the Book in the Library of Congress.

Pat Thomas, director of the Plymouth District Library, pointed with pride to library displays on Banned Books Week and librarians' lapel buttons saying "I read banned books."

"It's amazing what people try to ban," she said. "The Bible, a lot of things you consider great literature."

Plymouth has a formal process for challenge in which librarians review material, checking with neighboring libraries in Livonia, Canton, Northville and Farmington. "A lot of it is a community standard," Thomas said.

Infrequent challenges have come up, but Plymouth has never removed material. A book may go from children's to teen, or from teen to adult. "The library has things for all kinds of tastes and all kinds of sensibilities," said Thomas.

She likes to ask those who object to material what they'd like to include. "I'd rather have more points of view rather than fewer," she said. "If we start narrowing it down, then we close people out."

James Lenze, director of the Garden City Public Library, said the issue hasn't come up in his eight-nine years as a reference librarian or in his more recent return as director. "There may have been something before my time."

"Everybody has their own personal standards of what's acceptable to them," he said. "Everybody has their own informational needs or what they find pleasurable to read."

Lenze hopes parents can teach kids what is acceptable "whether it's their church teachings or just what they find acceptable." Each parent draws that line in a different place, he noted.

"We have to be open to that," he said. Garden City staffers haven't had an issue, and haven't seen need to draw attention to it with a specific program.

"Part of the hallmark of our democratic system is an informed electorate," Lenze said. That means people need to be able to express and receive ideas.

The Canton Public Library's Laurie Golden, marketing and communications manager, said there are book displays, posters and bookmarks for Banned Books Week. "It's going to be featured on our Web site," www.cantonpl.org, she said.

"Every once in a while, we get a request for someone to look at materials. It's not a big issue here," Golden said.

"Because Canton is so diverse, we really do have a wide range of materials here," Golden said.

At the William P. Faust Public Library of Westland, Director Cheryl Napsha said book banning's not an issue "that I've ever heard" locally. The Westland library will have a teen event for Banned Books Week 6-7 p.m. Monday, Sept. 29.

"They're going to read banned books out loud," Napsha said. The teens should sign up and pick a passage ahead of time.

"We wanted to make sure it was appropriate," she said, adding you can call (734) 326-6123 for sign-up details.

"The best books are thought-provoking. I think sometimes adults are afraid of what a book might inspire, what kind of thinking or challenging thoughts," Napsha said.

She agreed not every book is right for every reader; it's best for parents to be aware "of the literature themselves and guide their child's reading."

"Intellectual freedom is really the foundation of a public library," Napsha said. "We're here to provide all sides, answers to an issue, and we're not supposed to judge."

She's concerned by "the fear that seems to be behind a lot of the banning." A lot are innocuous. "I think it's really the cornerstone of our country, giving people the freedom to think on their own. That's really the fundamental definition of a democracy," she said.

Westland will have listings of books that have been banned. "See for yourself," she said. "If people read a book and then object to it" that's different, as it's based on knowledge not fear.

Plymouth's Thomas noted "I don't know that you see the polarization in the library." Librarians are there in person, there's safety to explore views and respect for views. "So you don't get the extremely emotional kind of environment," Thomas said.

The "information explosion" has benefited from professional librarians who help us sort through the heavy load of information out there these days. It's also time to salute librarians for their efforts to keep free speech free and alive.

Venture capital conference bodes well for state's economy

OK, admit it — as the weekend approaches, you can think of more exciting things than reading about yet another conference.

So can I. But hang in here with me for a moment, because this one is the real deal, when it comes to Michigan's future.

Recently, Detroit hosted the 15th annual conference of the National Association of Seed and Venture Funds. These are, in fact, the folks who help the companies that will become the Microsofts and General Motors of the next generation.

Phil Power

Three hundred or so folks who invest in startup and newly developing companies came to listen to state and national venture capital experts, including Ann Arbor's Tim Petersen (Arboretum Ventures, L.L.C.) and Mary Campbell (EDF Ventures).

They got tips from Dan Gilbert of Livonia-based Quicken Loans Inc. and Josh Linkner, founder of ePrize L.L.C. of Pleasant Ridge.

For a struggling Michigan, holding this conference here and now was critically important. Tom Kinnear summed it up best. He, by the way, is the Eugene Applebaum Professor of Entrepreneurial Studies at the University of Michigan's business school — not to mention an authority on venture capital, technology transfer and entrepreneurship. "This conference puts Michigan on the national venture capital radar screen," he said.

That is vitally important, because it hints at the prospect of new life when the dinosaurs are dying. These are dire days for Michigan. Our state leads the nation in unemployment. The auto companies, frantic to shed even more workers, are trying to save themselves by scoring $25 billion in low-interest loans from Washington. All of which means that making progress scoring in the world of venture capital and helping local startup companies is the single most important sign of better things to come in Michigan.

The news is pretty good overall. The amount of venture capital being managed by Michigan companies is now around $900 million, up more than 70 percent since 2001, according to the Michigan Venture Capital Report. There were seven VC firms in Michigan in 2001; today there are 17, with investments in life sciences, information technology and alternative energy.

"It's really exciting around here. Michigan is coming to life," said Kinnear. "There are lots of deals here worth funding: medical devices, electric and information technology, materials, software."

No Michigan firm can bankroll a huge deal on its own. The largest Michigan VC firm has around $100 million to invest, which isn't enough to enable it to be the lead investor in big deals.

But that is enough to qualify for a place at the table, when syndicates are being put together by several firms.

These are adventurous souls. Venture capitalists, like daring startup entrepreneurs, tend to be freebooting buccaneers who believe stoutly that the proper relationship of their work to government is ... none whatsoever.

"All government does is just get in the way," one hard-driving startup manager told me. But in Michigan, even government's attempts to help out seem to be working. The Michigan Economic Development Corp. (MEDC) was one of the sponsors of last week's gathering. With MEDC support, the state launched in 2006 the Venture Michigan Fund and the Michigan 21st Century Investment Fund, two programs with more than $200 million for early stage investing. The Venture fund is guaranteed by state tax vouchers, while the 21st Century Fund uses state money coming from the national tobacco settlement. Both funds are managed by the highly respected New York firm, Credit Suisse.

This is a sign that we are getting beyond a historic impasse that has helped paralyze progress in this state. For many years, we had a classic "Catch 22" — entrepreneurs in Michigan griped about the lack of venture capital funds in our state. Meanwhile, VC types grumbled there weren't any good places to invest in.

New technology draws venture capital firms, as Kinnear observed, "and it has led to significant 'angel fund' activity in the state." Angel funds are informal groups of investors who get together, share expertise, compare notes and make initial investments in little startup companies. Today, angel groups in Ann Arbor, Oakland County, Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids and perhaps elsewhere are adding their heft. The majority of new jobs in the future will come from new companies that are starting small — just the ones that need startup seed money and venture funding.

Focus:HOPE walk supports scholarships

Focus:HOPE, marking its 40th anniversary, will hold its annual Walk and Diversity Festival Sunday, Oct. 12.

From the day it started 40 years ago, Focus:HOPE has found ways to bring people together — people of all races and religions, from Detroit and its suburbs.

That spirit continues during this anniversary year with the Oct. 12 event. Entertainment and children's activities will begin 11 a.m., the Walk program at 12:30 p.m. and Walk at 1 p.m. There will be entertainment, food and children's activities 2 p.m., with the program ending 4:30 p.m.

Those who register and seek pledges for the Walk and Diversity Festival will help support scholarships for Focus:HOPE's students. Scholarships make it possible for students to develop their skills and start on the path to new careers in information technology, manufacturing or engineering. Registration fee is $15 for those age 18 and older.

You can register:

■ online at www.focushope.edu

■ by calling (313) 494-4225

■ by bringing a registration form to the Walk.

Focus:HOPE is at 1355 Oakman Blvd., Detroit 48238.

Chargers take control of KLAA-South race, 3-0

BY ED WRIGHT
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Livonia Churchill's boys soccer team is proving to be as proficient at attaining goals as it is at scoring them.

Fueled by a crisp-passing offensive attack and an airtight defense, the Chargers blanked Kensington Lakes Activities Association South Division rival Canton, 3-0, Tuesday night on the P-CEP varsity soccer pitch.

Churchill didn't lock up the division title with its ninth straight triumph, but it certainly has two hands on the padlock. The Chargers are now 7-0 in the South (and 9-2 overall) with three division matches to play.

BOYS SOCCER

The Chiefs dropped to 7-4-3 overall and 5-2 in the division. "After we lost our first two games (to state powers Livonia Stevenson and Northville), we made it our team goal to win 10 games in a row," said Churchill coach Reid Friedrichs. "Now we're one away from that. "Tonight we moved the ball better than we have all season against a very good defense. These guys play as a team -- they play for each other."

The Chargers lost just one player to graduation heading into this season.

"That's huge because they all knew what to expect coming in," Friedrichs said. "I didn't have to spend a lot of time teaching them the basics. We've been able to work on extra stuff."

Churchill netted the only goal it would need 15 minutes into the contest when Etienne Lussiez scored off a magnificent crossing pass from Max

Washko.

Approximately 10 minutes later, Tim Devine padded the Chargers' cushion to 2-0 after he secured a pin-point pass from Adam Bedell.

The Chiefs came within an eyelash of cutting their deficit in half early in the second stanza when junior Kyle Breitmeyer banged a 30-yard free kick off the crossbar.

Teammate Sherif Hassani controlled the rebound six yards in front of the goal, but his quick blast rolled just wide of the left post.

Canton threatened again with 23:30 left when Kyle Wingham roped a low, sizzling shot that Churchill keeper Josh Andrzejewski cradled with both hands.

The winners put the icing on the cake with 6:43 to play when Jakub Herout banged a laser into the lower-left corner of the net to make it 3-0.

"The first time we played Canton (a 4-2 Churchill win), it was a back-and-forth game and they were more dangerous than they were tonight," Friedrichs said.

MU's Austin hailed

Madonna University junior Jessica Austin (Livonia Franklin) has been named the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference Women's Soccer Player of the Week (ending Sept. 21).

For the week, Austin scored four goals, including the game winner in both of MU's conference triumphs a 4-1 win Sept. 16 over Concordia and a 6-2 victory Saturday at Davenport.

Austin leads MU with seven goals and an assist for a total of 15 points.

MU golfers second

The Madonna University women's golf team, led by Sara Simnitch's 88, took runner-up honors Saturday in the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference Jamboree (No. 3) held at Tecumseh Country Club hosted by Siena Heights.

Indiana Tech captured the team title with a four-player total of 357 followed by MU (363).

Davenport's Caitlin Duval was medalist with a 5-over 77.

Simnitch took fifth followed by MU teammates Chelsea Bathurst (Livonia Stevenson) and Mariel Meyers (Livonia Franklin), tied for eighth (91 each); Caitlin Steele, 14th (93); Jacqueline McCormick, tied for 15th (94); and Jillian Kloc, tied for 19th (96).

Frost runner fourth

Livonia Frost Middle School's Kerrigan Riley, a member of the Stickman United racing team, placed fourth in the girls middle race with a time of 13 minutes, 49 seconds for 3,200 meters at the Monroe-Jefferson Invitational cross country meet.

Stickman United's Keenan Jones and Colin Smith placed 11th and 41st, respectively, among a field of 106 elementary school competitors (kindergarten-through-6) with times of 8:05 and 9:17 at the 2,000-meter distance. It was Smith's first-ever cross country competition.

Tie that binds

Spartans, Rocks draw again, 0-0

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Nothing gained, nothing lost.

That was the story again Tuesday as Division 1 state powers Salem and host Livonia Stevenson battled to a 0-0 draw in a showdown for first place in the Central Division of the Kensington Lakes Activities Association.

Stevenson, 8-1-3 overall and ranked No. 3 in the state, maintains its slim one-point lead in the KLAA-Central Division race at 5-0-2, while top-ranked Salem is 14-0-3 overall and 5-0-3 in the division.

Each team has three matches remaining in the division.

In the first meeting between the two teams on Sept. 15, Salem scored during the final five minutes to forge a 1-1 deadlock. That duel featured free-wheeling, up-and-down action, but the rematch was played close to the vest.

Stevenson had five corner kicks in the first half, while Salem had four in the second half -- that was the extent of it.

Ironically, play opened up -- out of desperation -- during the final minutes.

"We played hard and played smart, the second half was much better," Salem coach Ed McCarthy told his team afterward. "Both backlines were strong and it limited the scoring opportunities. Our first-half message was that we had some opportunities, but we did not have any quality shots. And if we don't get shots, obviously we don't get any scoring opportunities. I think they responded better the second half.

"It's been eight days since the last time we played them and this game looked nothing or felt nothing like the last game -- even going from the grass field to the (synthetic) turf, to the number of scoring opportunities."

Stevenson goalkeeper Conner Burton and Salem's Will Allen both did their jobs efficiently despite the limited amount of shots.

"The first meeting, in terms of soccer performance, was much better," Stevenson coach Lars Richters said. "Both teams tonight had some exciting moments, but I wish we had played better and with more composure despite the high pressure."

"But a 0-0 result against Salem -- it's at least somewhat satisfying -- but I hoped we would have performed better."

Salem had to be pleased to keep Stevenson off-the-board for 80 minutes. And for the Rocks, it could be considered a moral victory. Allen, a senior, filled in admirably for the injured Sasa Miskovic.

Please see SOCCER, B3

Stevenson's Kendal Snow (25) goes airborne for the header between Salem's Lachlan Savage (12) and Matt Woster (16) during Tuesday's KLAA-Central Division showdown.

Slim margin of error

Longeway wins O&E golf crown

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Dan Longeway didn't get serious about the game of golf until he was 32. Twenty years later, Longeway continues to prove that you're never too old, especially when it comes to winning tournaments.

His latest conquest came Sunday during the final round of the Observer & Eccentric Men's Golf Open, where he overhauled Madonna University junior Steve South of Westland for the title by a stroke at Livonia's Whispering Willows G.C.

The Northville Township resident earned his first O&E crown by shooting 71 Saturday at Livonia's Fox Creek and added a 75 Sunday at Whispering Willows for a two-day total of 146.

South held a two-shot lead heading into the second day of play after firing a blistering 69 Saturday, only to fall back with a 78 Sunday after four-putting and taking a triple-bogey on the par-13, 213-yard No. 15 hole.

"Steve played well, he only had one bad hole which probably cost him the tourney," said Longeway, who runs a health insurance firm for small to mid-size employers. "I settled down on the back side. On the front side, I was trying to hold on. I was 5-over on the front and even on the back."

Penalty-prone Warriors fall, 27-14

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

PREP FOOTBALL

Lutheran High Westland had the upper hand in total yardage, but that's not what the Warriors could hang their hats on in a 27-14 Metro Conference football setback Saturday at home to Macomb Lutheran North.

Things started out well enough as the Warriors' Stephen Kemp recovered a pooch kick at the North 39 and 10 plays later scored on an 8-yard run after a timely audible call at the line of scrimmage from senior Eric Shoats, who got his first start at quarterback.

But despite being outgained 226-204 in total offense, North scored four unanswered touchdowns during the next three quarters to take a 27-6 lead - a 43-yard run by Zek Bielecki; an 18-yard pass from quarterback Mike Visbara to Ryan Schwark; a 44-yard pass from Visbara to Dan Greene; and a 4-yard run by Chris Connell.

The Warriors scored their final TD in the fourth period on Sean Rowe's 10-yard pass to Kemp followed by Rowe's two-point conversion run.

The loss drops Lutheran Westland to 1-2 overall and 1-2 in the Metro, while North evens its mark at 2-2 overall and is 1-2 in the conference.

"They (North) controlled the line of scrimmage and one of our two big plays kills us in the game," Lutheran Westland coach Paul Guse' said.

The Warriors, who trailed 21-6 at the half, had pair of turnovers, losing a fumble and getting punt blocked in the second period which led to a North TD.

Lutheran Westland also committed a total of 10 penalties for 95 yards.

"Twice we got called for an illegal man downfield," Guse' said. "We also had intentional grounding, offensive pass interference and a personal foul on a punt return."

"Penalties killed us. We're a ground team and we had too many second-and-20s. Anytime something bad happened, it happened. It's frustrating."

Ethan Haller (15-for-60) and Kemp (12-for-56) were the Warriors' leading rushers. Four different quarterbacks combined for 6-of-15 passing for 70 yards with one interception.

Defensively, Sam Ahlersmeyer led the Warriors with 10 tackles, including a sack.

Kemp and Haller added seven tackles apiece, while Rayshaun Booker also recovered a fumble.

Pee Wee football offers life lessons

Ed Wright

According to author Robert Fulghum's 1989 best-selling book, everything you really need to know in life you learn in kindergarten - necessary skills like sharing, playing fair and not taking things that aren't yours.

After watching a few of my 7-year-old son's junior freshmen football practices, I'd like to contribute the following unauthorized sequel to Fulghum's masterpiece: Everything You Really Need in Life You Learn in Kindergarten...and at Pee-Wee Football Practice.

Here's a condensed version:

Chapter 1 - Pay attention to detail: Always make sure your chin strap is on, your mouth guard is in and your other vital protective devices are straight, because you never know when you're going to get matched up against the kid that hits harder than Brian Urlacher in one-on-one tackling drills.

Chapter 2 - Stay focused: Even when a train is chugging by the practice field over your right shoulder and the junior freshmen cheerleaders are practicing a routine over your left, don't forget the snap count because, for goodness sake, you don't want to be the one who costs your teammates 10 down-ups.

Chapter 3 - Never give up: No matter how big the guy is you're blocking or how far he's pushing you back, keep moving your legs because while you may never pancake him, you can always earn his respect.

Chapter 5 - Live for the moment: Cherish every jumping jack, every bear crawl and every gut-busting run around the flagpole because before you know it, you'll be watching your son and wishing you could participate in just one more pee-wee football practice.

The most important thing I learned in kindergarten was to stay humble when I'm kicking my two colleagues' rear-ends in Grid Picks. Not really, but that skill would come in handy after going 9-2 last week to improve my first-place record to 36-11. Garden City/Redford

Sports Editor Tim Smith and Livonia/Westland Sports Editor Brad Emons also compiled 9-2 marks last week to stay in the hunt with 31-16 records.

Following are this week's games and picks.

FRIDAY'S GAMES (ALL 7 P.M. STARTS UNLESS NOTED)

LIVONIA STEVENSON (3-1, 2-0) AT NORTHVILLE (3-1, 2-0): A year ago this game would have had "lop-sided rout" written all over it - and it still might, but in pencil, thanks to a strong rebound season from the Mustangs. Northville is no longer the push-over it was the previous few seasons and the Spartans have shown they have a few dings in their armor. Expect a lot of points. PICKS: Wright (Stevenson); Smith (Northville); Emons (Stevenson).

SALEM (0-4, 0-2) AT SOUTH LYON EAST (0-4, 0-2): Judging by Friday night's near-miss against powerful Novi, the Rocks may be the best 0-4 team in the state right now. They're just nine points away from being 2-2 as they dropped a 20-14 decision to Walled Lake Northern and a 17-14 verdict to the Wildcats. Both teams need a win for morale purposes. PICKS: Wright (Salem); Smith (Salem); Emons (Salem).

PLYMOUTH (3-1, 1-1) AT LIVONIA CHURCHILL (1-3, 0-2): A pair of spread offenses will square-off in this key KLA South contest on the Chargers' turf. Plymouth hopes it can pick up on the momentum it gained in the second half of last week's win over Wayne when they outscored the Zebras 29-8 over the final 24 minutes. The Chargers are coming off perhaps their best showing of the season last week when they battled Franklin to the wire. PICKS: Wright (Plymouth); Smith (Plymouth); Emons (Plymouth).

WAYNE MEMORIAL (0-4, 0-2) AT CANTON (3-1, 1-1): The Chiefs will be looking to rebound following a tough Week 4 overtime loss to Westland John Glenn. The Zebras showed glimpses of promise against Plymouth last week, but couldn't finish drives. PICKS: Wright (Canton); Smith (Canton); Emons (Canton).

LIVONIA FRANKLIN (3-1, 2-0) AT WESTLAND JOHN GLENN (2-2, 2-0): First place in the KLA South is up for grabs in what promises to be a down-to-the-wire dandy between two surging teams.

One week after upsetting state-ranked Canton, the Rockets' defense will have their second hands full again against the Patriots, who are averaging 41 points a game. PICKS: Wright (Franklin); Smith (Glenn); Emons (Franklin).

LIVONIA CLARENCEVILLE (2-1, 2-1) AT MACOMB LUTHERAN NORTH (2-2, 1-1): The Trojans have outscored the Mustangs nearly 3-to-1 during the first four games and will be motivated to show that last week's setback to Lutheran Northwest was a fluke, not the start of a trend. PICKS: Wright (C'ville); Smith (C'ville); Emons (C'ville).

INKSTER (3-1, 1-1) AT GARDEN CITY (1-3, 0-3): The Cougars will be hard-pressed to keep up with the Vikings' explosive offense. Garden City has struggled mightily after winning its opener. PICKS: Wright (Inkster); Smith (Inkster); Emons (Inkster).

REDFORD THURSTON (2-2, 2-0) AT DEARBORN HEIGHTS ANNAPOLIS (4-0, 2-0): Less than a decade since the Cougars could barely find enough players to field a football program they have turned the corner and are cruising on the highway to success. The winner of this Mega Gold showdown will be in the driver's seat to a conference crown. PICKS: Wright (Annapolis); Smith (Thurston); Emons (Annapolis).

REDFORD UNION (1-3, 0-2) AT GIBLALTAR CARLSON (2-2, 1-1): The Panthers have had a tough time moving the ball as their 13.5 scoring average indicates. That's not a good sign against a Gibraltar defense that has yielded just 66 points in four games. PICKS: Wright (Gibraltar); Smith (Gibraltar); Emons (Gibraltar).

SOUTHFIELD CHRISTIAN (2-2, 1-1) AT REDFORD COVENANT (3-1, 2-0) - 4:30 PM: Covenant has yet to allow a point in its two Southern Michigan Conference games. That streak will be in peril against a Southfield Christian unit that has averaged nearly 30 points a contest. PICKS: Wright (Covenant); Smith (Covenant); Emons (Covenant).

SATURDAY'S GAME

LUTHERAN WESTLAND (1-3, 1-2) AT BLOOMFIELD HILLS CRANBROOK-KINGSWOOD (1-3, 1-2) - 1 P.M.: The Warriors' offense needs to get untracked to keep its post-season playoff hopes alive. So far, they managed to put just 38 points on the scoreboard. The Cranes are allowing more than 35 a game, so the time is now for LW. PICKS: Wright (LW); Smith (LW); Emons (Cranbrook).

Kenne propels Glenn past rival Zebras, 6-1

Nelson Kenne's two goals and two assists sparked Westland John Glenn to a 6-1 boys soccer victory Tuesday at home over rival Wayne Memorial.

The Rockets, who led 3-0 at halftime, improved to 5-8-1 overall and 4-3 in the South Division of the Kensington Lakes Activities Association.

Logan Chaston, Loren Marku, Tomasz Karznowski and Steve Thompson also tallied goals for Glenn.

"Nelson (Kenne) played a beautiful match," Glenn first-year coach Jimmy Mortada said. "But I thought we played too much individual."

Kyle Michael's goal off a corner kick to open the second half spoiled Glenn goalkeeper Zach Redden's shutout bid.

The loss drops to the Zebras to 0-12-1 overall and 0-7 in the KLAAs-South.

PLYMOUTH 3, FRANKLIN 1: On Tuesday, goals by Brad Finnegan, Dan Jasewicz and Kyle Anderson carried the host Wildcats (6-8-1, 3-3-1) to the KLAAs-South Division triumph over Livonia Franklin (1-10-1, 1-5-1).

Zach Miller scored the lone goal on an assist from Travis Matthey for the Patriots, who trailed 2-1 at halftime.

"We played a great first half, but they let them score less than 10 seconds into the second half," Franklin coach Vic Rodopoulos said. "We fell flat the second half and did not mark tight enough. Plymouth also has great speed up-top."

Despite the loss, Franklin goalkeeper Brad Mangune (15 saves) and senior forward Noel Romo stood out.

CRANBROOK 4, LUTH. WESTLAND 0: Alex King scored two goals and added two assists Tuesday as Metro Conference leader Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook (7-0-2, 6-0) blanked state-ranked Lutheran High Westland (9-3-1, 4-2).

Jeff Hammond and Heedong Young also tallied goals for the unranked Cranes, who bolted to a 4-0 halftime lead on goals in the eighth, 17th, 20th and 32nd minutes.

"We cleaned it up on the back and played a little better in the second half," said Lutheran High Westland coach Rich Block, whose team is ranked No. 9 in Division 4 statewide coaches poll.

HAMTRAC 2, CLARENCEVILLE 0: In a Metro Conference encounter Tuesday, the host Cosmos (2-3, 2-2) sent visiting Livonia Clarenceville (4-7, 1-5) to its sixth straight setback.

LUTH. WESTLAND 5, S'FIELD CHRISTIAN 2: Josh Krnger scored four goals and added one assist, while Laith Francis chipped in with a goal and two assists Saturday as Lutheran High Westland (9-2-1) posted the non-conference win over host Southfield Christian (4-67).

"We kept our shape well and things are coming together," Lutheran Westland coach Rich Block said.

Brian Nimmon and Derek Holecek scored for the Eagles, who trailed 5-1 at halftime.

MU's Giorgi sits on Daveport, 4-2

Emilio Giorgi notched his second and third goals of the season Saturday as the Madonna University men's soccer team rallied from a 2-1 halftime deficit to beat host Davenport University, 4-2, in a Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference match.

Goals by Rory Scott and Carl Winterbottom staked Davenport to a one-goal advantage. Mark Pikula scored for the Crusaders.

In the second half, Giorgi scored in the 47th and 50th minutes off assists from Otieno Victor and Pikula.

Corbin Titus put it away for the Crusaders in the 67th minute off a long pass from Jacob Rosiek.

The Crusaders' goalkeeper Steve Besk made nine saves. MU is now 5-1 overall and 3-0 in the WHAC, while Davenport falls to 4-2 and 0-1.

SCHOOLCRAFT 3, MACOMB CC 0: With second-year starting defender Hunter Robertson out of the lineup due to an injury, the Schoolcraft College regrouped and turned in what assistant coach Chris Grodzicki termed a

COLLEGE SOCCER

"total team effort" Sept. 17 against visiting Macomb Community College (4-2-1, 2-1).

Schoolcraft, 4-0 in the MCCAAs, gave up just four shots on goal in the win.

Grodzicki said the strong defense yielded plenty of offense, with Michael Iyoha outstanding throughout.

"Michael Iyoha was a captain in every sense of the word," Grodzicki said. "His energy was contagious, he was vocal, he played hard, he played smart (and) he played injured. Oh yeah, he ended the game (against) our biggest rival with two goals and an assist."

The lone goal of the first half was tallied by Iyoha, who took a throw-in from Andy Adlington all alone in the box and beat the Macomb goalkeeper.

The host Ocelots then poured it on after intermission, with Iyoha neatly threading a pass over to Younan Samra with 15 minutes to go for Schoolcraft's second goal.

The final goal, with about 10 minutes left, was scored when a through ball by Bim Ogunyemi was collected by Iyoha, who proceeded to dribble through the defenders and beat the goalie. Collecting the shutout in goal for Schoolcraft was Billy Irvine.

On Saturday, Schoolcraft battled host Parkland (Ill.) CC to a 1-1 overtime draw and on Sunday defeated host Heartland (Ill.) CC, 2-0, to improve to 6-1-3 overall.

MADONNA 3, CONCORDIA 0: Using three first half goals, the Madonna University (4-1, 2-1) rolled to a Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference win Wednesday at Concordia University (0-1, 0-1).

MU got on the board just 7:37 in as newcomer Eric Kiebert took a loose ball just inside the 18-yard box and after turning, fired a shot that Concordia keeper Shawn Simney had no chance to stop for a 1-0 MU lead.

Fellow newcomer Otieno Victor made it 2-0 MU, scoring his first goal of the season in the 21st minute, taking the ball away from the Cardinals and beating Simney to his right for his first collegiate goal.

Kiebert, a transfer from Auburn-Montgomery, made it 3-0 just under nine minutes later as he took a pass from Doron Drai and fired his shot past a diving Simney for the final MU score.

The Cards posted four shots on goal, but Crusader keeper Anthony DeMarco was up to the challenge in his first action of the season, stopping all four shots.

The Rocks' backup keeper made a key diving save on Stevenson's Joey D'Agostino with only 3:25 left.

Salem also played the final 59 minutes without senior defender Jace Beardon, who went off with a knee injury.

"We went from goalkeeper (Miskovic) who is probably among the top 10 percent goalkeepers in the state to a guy who has only played one game," McCarthy said. "That's why played a little more conservative and we didn't want to move (senior sweeper) Kevin (Cope) up. I didn't know what to expect, but tonight he (Allen) was very good."

Stevenson tried to create some buzz late in the game, only to have the potential game-winning goal by Nate Sergison disallowed with 2:19 left due to an obvious offside call.

"I told the boys at halftime I had a strange vibe tonight," Richters said. "That last game we played with confidence and it was fun. I don't know if the nerves got to us or affected our performance. Unfortunately we did not bring the same level of play."

Crusaders boot Tech for 3-0 WHAC victory

The 24th-ranked Madonna University women's soccer team traveled Tuesday to Indiana Tech and took home a 3-0 Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference win.

MU came out and put up its first goal of the game just 10 minutes as Jaclyn Ventimiglia got her shot past Mallory Xurvein for a 1-0 lead.

After halftime, Kaila Moore beat Xurvein in the 61st minute for a 2-0 MU lead and Ventimiglia made it 3-0 in the 80th minute for the final MU score.

Brittany Warner (Plymouth) had to make just one save for her fourth shutout of the season.

SCHOOLCRAFT 5, JACKSON CC 1: Schoolcraft College (5-0-2), ranked third in the latest NJCAA Division I poll, rolled to its second consecutive MCCAAs win over Jackson Community College.

MADONNA 6, DAVENPORT 2: In a WHAC match Saturday, the visiting Crusaders (5-2, 3-0) found themselves down 1-0 in the 21st minute as Davenport (0-3, 0-1) scored off of a free kick to take the early lead.

Jessica Austin (Livonia Franklin) tied the match at 1-1 just under three minutes later (23:17) as she beat her defender off the dribble and fired her shot past Kristen Haight to square the match at one.

"Jessica is a key element to this season," MU coach Paul Thomas said. "She is putting the ball in the net, which is something we struggled with at times last year. She is a part, but far from our only part."

The Panthers made it 2-1 in the 28th minute when Erin Vermeersch found a loose ball after a scramble in the box and put it past the Crusaders' Brit Warner.

Senior Dina Allie (Livonia Stevenson) made it a 2-2 game exactly two minutes later as she took a run into the box after a pass from Diana Brda (Franklin) and beat Carissa Quador for another tied score.

Austin scored her second goal of the day and second game-winner of the week in the 40th minute, taking a long pass from Sarah Rokuski into the box and beating Quador to make it 3-2 Madonna.

Shannon McIntyre made it 4-2 MU in the 63rd minute as she lofted a shot over Quador for her first goal of the season. McIntyre set up Moore on her first goal of the match in the 67th minute as the junior forward pushed her shot past Quador for her second goal of the season.

Moore finished the scoring in the 73rd minute as she finished off a crossing pass from Allie.

Rocket launchers Truskowski, Holbrook fuel KLAASouth victory

Westland John Glenn opened its South Division girls volleyball schedule Tuesday in the new Kensington Lakes Activities Association by outlasting visiting Plymouth in five games before large crowd. The Rockets improved to 5-2-4 overall and 1-0 in the KLAASouth with a 20-25, 25-20, 22-25, 25-20, 15-12 win over the Wildcats, who slipped to 8-6-3 overall and 0-1 in the division.

Senior middle-hitter Brittany Holbrook, who will sign with Oakland University, led the victorious Rockets with 21 kills and three blocks, while fellow senior Stacey Truskowski chipped in with 14, many at critical times. "Stacey was able to get the big kills when we needed it," Glenn coach Julian Wargo said.

Meanwhile, junior Katie Down came off the bench to tighten up Glenn's defense in the second game. "Playing in front of a big crowd isn't easy," Wargo said. "We tended to compound our mistakes and take ourselves out of the game."

Glenn's defense began to pick things up when facing elimination in the fourth game. Sophomore Brooke Zywick had a team-high 23 digs, while sophomore Halie Baker and Truskowski each added 22 on the night. Truskowski also served eight straight points to lead off the decisive fifth and final game. "You have to give Plymouth credit," Wargo said. "They scratched an clawed their way back in Game No. 5. Fortunately our defense was able to hang onto Stacey's lead."

Setter Bianca Hayes had three digs and passed at 86 percent as Wayne falls to 0-1 in the KLAASouth.

Canton whips Patriots

On Tuesday, Canton improved to 15-3 overall and 1-0 in the KLAASouth with a convincing 25-10, 25-12, 25-8 victory at Livonia Franklin.

"We did not get any offense going because we had trouble passing Canton's floater serves," said Franklin coach Linda Jimenez, whose team slipped to 5-7 overall and 0-1 in the division. "Our passing game is our strength, so this was very disappointing. Canton was relentless and played tough."

Emma Green and Chelsea Williams finished with six and four kills, respectively, for the Patriots.

Lions block Stevenson

South Lyon opened KLAACentral play Tuesday with a 26-24, 25-15, 25-21 victory over host Livonia Stevenson, which slipped to 4-9 overall and 0-1 in the division.

Christine Armstrong had 12 digs and four ace serves in the setback, while Katie Vellucci finished with 13 assist-to-kills.

Kat Krupsky and Jessica Stroud also combined for 39 kills and 12 blocks.

Lutheran Westland stuns Novi in UM-D Tournament semifinal

BY BRAD EMONS OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Lutheran Westland continues to prove it's a force to be reckoned with in girls volleyball - regardless of class. The Warriors put on an impressive display during Saturday's 20-school University of Michigan-DeARBorn Tournament by finishing runner-up.

Farmington Hills Mercy took the title with a 25-17, 25-21 triumph over the Warriors, ranked No. 3 in Class D. The Marlins are 17-8-1 overall.

Lutheran Westland (15-4-3), seeded fourth in the Gold Bracket, reached the finals by upending last year's state Class A semifinalist Novi, 26-24, 20-25, 16-14, after beating Clinton Township Chippewa Valley, 25-18, 22-15, 8, in the quarterfinals.

In pool play, the Warriors split with Mercy (22-25, 25-21) and defeated Wyandotte (25-16, 25-18) and Detroit Renaissance (25-6, 25-14).

"I am definitely pleased with how we performed throughout the day," Lutheran Westland coach Kevin Wade said. "We played well within our pool, winning our pool and making it to the Gold Bracket. We had to battle all day against big Class A schools and for a small D school we more than held our own."

"Beating Novi in the semifinals was definitely huge for us. They have a great program over there and have had a lot of success so to be able to compete with them and pull out a close match was great."

The Warriors' Becca Refenes, a 6-foot-2 senior committed to the University of Cincinnati, recorded the 1,000th kill of her career with 66 on the day. She also served 38 points, including 14 aces, to go along with 47 digs and 10 solo blocks.

Senior Katey Ramthun added 31 kills and 24 digs, while senior Allyson Yankee finished with 23 kills, 20 digs and five aces (along with Ramthun).

PREP VOLLEYBALL

Assist-to-kill leaders included Lauren Gieschen (59), Cathy Haller (32) and Lauren Switzer (16).

Abi Gieschen led in digs (60) and had eight aces. "Losing in the finals did not take away from the overall success we had during the day and hopefully that carries over for us in our upcoming games," Wade said.

Warriors sweep C'ville In Metro Conference encounter Tuesday, Becca Refenes had 14 kills and seven digs as host Lutheran High Westland downed Livonia Clarenceville in three straight, 25-12, 25-6, 25-18.

Setters Cathy Haller and Lauren Gieschen combined for 25 assists as the Warriors improved to 16-4-3 overall and 2-0 in the Metro.

Katey Ramthun added seven kills and served five aces, while Allyson Yankee chipped in with five kills.

Abi Gieschen also had seven assists and four aces. Clarenceville falls to 4-5-1 and 1-1.

Huron Valley prevails

Staci Hatzung served 13 straights in the opening game, including four aces, to lead Westland Huron Valley Lutheran to a 25-6, 25-19, 25-22 Michigan Independent Athletic Conference-Red Division win Tuesday over host Ypsilanti Calvary Christian.

Leah Miller (eight kills) and Samantha Barber (seven kills) paced the Hawks' hitting attack.

Setter Kayla Stockdale added 20 assist-to-kills as Huron Valley improved to 5-5-1 overall and 3-1 in the MIAC-Red.

Ladywood triumphs

Setter Julie Rhodes finished with 25 assist-to-kills Tuesday as Livonia Ladywood evened its Catholic League record at 1-1 with a 25-23, 25-13, 25-21 victory at Warren Regina.

Claire Dezelski and Rachael Fuller each recorded 10 kills for the victorious Blazers, who improved to 11-8-5 overall.

Courtney Smith paced the defense with 11 digs.

Blazers 'stick it' to Kingswood, 1-0

Junior Gabrielle Meyer scored the lone goal off an assist from Leah Malm in the second half to give Livonia Ladywood a 1-0 Michigan High School Girls Field Hockey League triumph Tuesday at Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook-Kingswood.

Junior goalie Marissa Ellswood made six saves to earn the shutout as the Blazers improved to 4-2-1 overall and 3-0 in Division III of the MHSGFHL.

The loss drops Kingswood to 1-6 and 0-3. On Saturday, Malm scored a pair of goals Saturday as Ladywood scored a 4-1 Division III win at East Grand Rapids.

The Blazers, coming off a 6-0 setback Wednesday at Ann Arbor Pioneer, also got a goal and assist from senior Briana Boyce.

Also scoring for Ladywood was junior Jamie Benaglio. Other assists went to Meyer and Devin McParlane.

Ellswood made two saves to earn the win. East Grand Rapids counterpart Lauren Ufkes had 12 saves for the Pioneers, who slipped to 0-5 overall and 0-3 in Division III.

5th-ranked Madonna cuts up Cardinals in WHAC encounter

BY TIM SMITH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

They know their guy is on the cusp of being the winningest volleyball coach in National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics history.

But Madonna University players such as Livonia Churchill alum Brynn Kerr figure all they have to do is keep barreling over every opponent they face - such as visiting Concordia on Tuesday night - and coach Jerry Abraham will eventually be No. 1.

Abraham's Crusaders won 3-0 on Tuesday (25-17, 25-9, 25-21) for his 860th career triumph. But after he tied Mt. Vernon Nazarene's Paul Swanson for the top spot last week, Swanson collected a few wins over the weekend.

"We're aware of it," Kerr, a junior who Tuesday played an excellent game at libero, said following the match. "I don't know if we focus too much on that, ... but we know coach is right up there."

"Yeah, we want to beat that record, but we take it game-by-game and concentrate on one match at a time."

According to Abraham, the NAIA record is merely an indicator of how well his teams have played over his more than 22 years at the Madonna helm.

Another is Tuesday's announcement that the Crusaders (16-1 overall, 3-0 in the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference) are ranked No. 5 in the latest NAIA national poll.

"We did talk about it (the ranking)," Abraham said. "We talked about it just for the sake of pride and sort of an accomplishment. But, we don't put a lot of emphasis on it at all, because it's the end of the season that counts the most."

Abraham said records and rankings are "part of the process along the way to be the best team you can."

With a laugh, he added that "We're very elated, I think, to be the highest team ranked outside of that California conference."

One of the reasons is the knee-scrapping efforts of Kerr, who the coach said is playing with more confidence and knowledge about her new position (she was stuck last year behind WHAC and NAIA Region VIII Libero of the Year Jacqui Gatt, also a Churchill alum).

Kerr collected 10 defensive digs to pace the Crusaders in that department, helping augment the front-row power game of senior outside hitters Lubovj Tihomirova (15 kills), Mary McGinnis (13 kills, 21 attacks and a hitting percentage of .476) and senior middle hitter Whitney Fuelling (5 kills).

"That's my mentality, I just go-go-go," Kerr said. "And hopefully, one of these days, it (the ball) won't drop."

She added that the Crusaders played with more poise and consistency against much-improved Concordia (12-9, 0-2) than during a Sept. 9 road match.

"Tonight, compared to a couple weeks ago playing Concordia it was 10 times better," she continued. "Everybody stepped up. We're coming together, we're making it click."

Abraham said the team's mix of talented veterans and promising newcomers are meshing better than could be expected.

"We had a nice combo outside with Mary and Lubovj, they both bring a little different package," Abraham noted. "But Mary's been hitting the ball. And tonight Mary had ... an awesome match."

Other contributors to the lopsided victory included junior setter Inta Grinvalds (39 assists) and freshman defensive specialist/libero Amanda Koszela (5 digs).

Of the three games, the Crusaders were most dominant in Game 2, rolling out to a 13-5 edge before McGinnis stepped up to the service stripe and reeled off six points.

Finishing points with monster slams during that streak were Tihomirova, freshman middle hitters Karie Altman (3 kills, 9 attacks) and Canton's Marie Martin.

The teams played a closer Game 3, although Madonna never trailed.

GOLF

Omiotanski shot a 75 at Fox Creek for a two-day total of 148.

"I made a few more putts today (Sunday), but I really couldn't get anything close," Omiotanski said. "I was 1-over on the back and 2-over on the front."

Former Livonia Churchill High golfer Chris Kiehler and Stevenson High junior Drew Mossioan, the low net winner, tied for fourth with 149 each, while defending O&E champ William Himm and former Churchill standouts Mike Lawton and Tommy Lucko were one shot back each at 150.

It's been a good summer for Longway, who finished eighth last June in the Michigan

Senior Open and won both the match and medal play rounds at the Western Golf & Country Club Championships, where he is a member.

On Sunday, he birdied the tough par-4, 439-yard No. 10 hole and made par on the par-4, 341-yard No. 11. On Whispering Willows' No. 1 handicap hole, the signature par-4, 390-yard No. 2, he took a double-bogey.

On Saturday, Longway got hot with five birdies in six holes (Nos. 8, 9, 11, 12 and 13). "That's where I got it back to even par," he said.

For his efforts, Longway won a $375 gift certificate and first-place trophy, while South took home a $195 gift certificate and trophy.

Longway, like South, attended Livonia Franklin High School.

"I played a little intramural golf in high school," he said.

"Once I joined Washtenaw Country Club, I started as an 11-handicap and got down to a scratch. I've taken a handful of lessons, but Randy Erskine (a Michigan PGA pro) is the one who got me going. When I learned how to chip, that got me going. You have to learn how to get up-and-down. You practice, practice, practice. That's how I learned how to play."

The first-flight winner for handicaps 9-and-up was another Churchill Charger, Dan Higham, a Livonian who ran away with the title shooting 79-76 for a two-day total of 155. Higham was the first flight winner in 2006.

Jim Matthews of Livonia was runner-up in the first flight with a 168 and Sal Petrulis of Howell placed third with a 169.

Whalers 'bogey' season opener

BY ED WRIGHT
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

If the Plymouth Whalers were weekend golfers, they'd be looking to get a mulligan for Saturday night's home-opener against Erie.

The 6-1 loss to the Otters was comparable to shanking a tee shot into the woods on the opening hole.

Plymouth was missing four of its most effective clubs, er, players - goalie Jeremy Smith; forwards A.J. Jenks and Chris Terry; and defenseman Michal Jordan - all of whom were competing for roster spots at NHL training camps.

After Plymouth's Joe Gaynor knotted the contest at 1-all 1:44 into the second period, the Otters ruled the night, scoring the final five goals.

The loss dropped the Whalers' record to 0-2 while Erie evened its mark at 1-1.

Among the Otters' highlights were a pair of penalty-shot goals by Anthony Luciani, who accomplished the rare feat after getting dragged down on break-aways during the game's final 12 minutes.

Both of Luciani's net-finders were scored against Whalers back-up goalie Scott Wedgewood, who relieved starting goalie Matt Hackett at the beginning of the third period.

Hackett stopped 26-of-30 Erie shots.

The play on the ice was a lot closer than the final score would indicate as Erie registered just three more shots on goal than their hosts, 40-37.

However, Otter netminder Jaroslav Janus stuffed the Whalers on several pin-point scoring opportunities.

Indoor soccer fans eye new Xtreme circuit

The Xtreme Soccer League on Tuesday launched the next phase in the evolution of the sport of indoor soccer by introducing the Xtreme Soccer Xperience at the Milwaukee Theatre in downtown Milwaukee, Wis.

Commissioner Brian Loftin was joined by the league's initial investors in unveiling both the league and the Xtreme Soccer Xperience (XSX), an interactive, year-round operation debuting in four cities - Milwaukee, Chicago, Detroit and Newark, N.J.

"The Xperience brings together the essence of the game, and allows participants, either through the web or through their own sweat, to be a part of this lifestyle brand," said Loftin, who won three championships as an indoor player and one more in the front office of the Milwaukee Wave.

Most recently, Loftin had been chief operating officer of the Chicago Storm.

Among the facets of the XSX that were introduced on Tuesday:

League play: Teams will play a 20-game season from December through March. Rules will remain unchanged from the previous season, including multiple-point scoring. The complete league schedule will be announced within a week.

Web site: At www.xtremesl.net, fans will find a concise and fresh connection with the Xtreme Soccer Xperience.

Features to come include live web-streaming of all games, an online fantasy game, access to videos, photos and wallpapers, fan-created highlight videos and the opportunity to post freestyle juggling footage.

Participation: Throughout the year, the XSL and its teams will host 3 v 3, street soccer, beach soccer, futsal, soccer tennis and other tournaments for youth and adults.

Player development, including the expansion of existing camp programs and team-operated training centers, is another focus of the XSX.

Players: Marcio Leite is the first player signed by the Xtreme Soccer League and assigned to the Milwaukee Wave.

Leite, 24, is a dynamic Brazilian who was second-team all-league last year.

Throughout the year, the XSL will introduce more elements of the XSX, including additional cities.

Visit www.xtremesl.net for updates on the league.

Last year, Japanese students tried an American pastime — a day at the cider mill. It's that time year again at the Franklin Cider Mill and all of Michigan's mills and orchards where there are hayrides, cider, doughnuts, pumpkins and apples.

Local cider mills each offer something different

Worried about cider mills and all those bees? Pin a fabric sheet to your shirt. It will help keep them away.

Metro Detroit is lucky because we have many apple orchards and cider mills to choose from and no two are alike.

For example, at Wiard's in Ypsilanti, there's a really scary haunted house each year and a corn maze. The orchard has been in business since 1853 and has hayrides, apple almond bread, cinnamon rolls and a lot more.

At the Plymouth Orchards & Cider Mill are U-Pick pumpkins, hayrides for $3 (kids three and under are free) and special pies including sugar-free fruit pies, and regular apple and pecan pies.

"The Michigan Pie is all-Michigan," said assistant manager Rosanna Pino. "It's one-third blueberry, one-third cherry and one-third apple."

At Yates in Rochester, the river trail is stunning in October as the leaves turn color. The half-mile trail is where you can enjoy donuts and cider and you may even see someone proposing marriage in the romantic area. Things like that happen at Yates. The pies there include caramel

Here's an easy apple dessert for the family

FRESH APPLE CRUMBLE

- 2 cooking apples chopped into small pieces
  - 5 tablespoons water
  - 1 tablespoon ground walnuts or almonds
  - 4 tablespoons wheat-free or regular flour
  - 1 tablespoon margarine
  - 4 tablespoons brown sugar
  - 1 teaspoon cinnamon
  - 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg optional
- Optional variations: 1 chopped pear and an added tablespoon of water, or 1 cup wheat germ with an added tablespoon of water

Preheat oven to 350.
 In a saucepan, over medium heat, cook apples (and optional pears) with water until stewed. Stir constantly to prevent sticking.

In a separate bowl, stir margarine (and optional wheat germ plus another tablespoon water) and flour together into a fine crumble.

Add ground nuts, two tablespoons brown sugar and stir well.

Add the leftover sugar and the cinnamon to the apples. Stir until sugar dissolves. Put the apple mixture in casserole dish. Top with the crumble. Bake about 30 minutes. Serve warm alone or with vanilla ice cream.

Take a day trip to organic apple farm

BY LANA MINI
 O&E STAFF WRITER

Locally grown apples require less pesticides and other chemicals than those grown out of state. When the fruit is driven just a few miles from pasture to store it doesn't need as much heavy spray.

But maybe you want a fruit that's even more natural.

Try organic. Organic apple orchards are tough to find locally because Michigan's climate makes it difficult to grow large quantities of them.

But if you want to take a day trip with the family a few hours away, while enjoying the state's color change, there are several organic farms and cider mills to enjoy as you head to the western side of the state.

For example, family-owned EverGreen Lanes has an organic U-Pick apple orchard open through the end of October. Pick from the semi-dwarf trees or buy from the retail stand and take a walk. Apples include tart and crisp Jonathans; sweet and creamy Idas; Sweet and slightly acidic Golden Delicious and my favorite not-too-sweet yet sweet enough, crunchy

Gary Banovetz never tires of performing The Reflections' hit song Just Like Romeo and Juliet.

In fact, the Farmington Hills resident said it's more of a thrill today than when he first joined the group in 1977.

"It's greater now than it was back then," he said. "We're having more fun now than we ever have."

Banovetz is looking forward to playing at A Rock 'n' Roll

Fall Spectacular on Saturday, Sept. 27 at the Ford Community & Performing Arts Center in Dearborn.

During two shows, at 4 and 8 p.m., the Detroit-based band will share the bill with national acts including The Belmonts (A Teenager in Love, Runaround Sue, The Wanderer); Jay Siegel & The Tokens (Lion Sleeps Tonight, Tonight I Fell in Love); The Shangri-Las (Leader of the Pack, Walking in the Sand); and

LIVONIA NATIVE SCREENS FILM NOVI

— Mike DiManno will return to Michigan to host the opening of Battle in Seattle, followed by a Q&A, at Emagine Novi Theater, 7:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 26. DiManno is executive producer of the Hollywood film, which stars Ray Liotta, Woody Harrelson and Charlize Theron. The movie depicts five days in 1999 when demonstrators took to the streets to protest the World Trade Organization.

DiManno was born in Dearborn, raised in Livonia and attended Catholic Central High School and Michigan State University before moving to Sacramento and founding Redwood Palms Pictures. A portion of his film's first week's run at Emagine will benefit Catholic Central's wrestling foundation as well as Thin Blue Line, a non-profit that assists the families of injured, ill, disabled and deceased public servants.

Emagine is located at 44425 West 12 Mile Road, in the Fountain Walk Complex. The movie also will open Sept. 26 at Landmark Main Art Theatre in Royal Oak. # Chamber Music Society opens its 65th season Extravaganza offers exquisite delights

BY LANA MINI
O&E STAFF WRITER

The 65th anniversary season of the Chamber Music Society of Detroit Saturday kicked off this month, and unlike many other chamber events nationwide, Detroit's is special.

Why? Because the concerts sell out and audience members are both young and old, sophisticated and hip, suburbanites and urban viewers. Something special is brewing here. There's a welcome feeling in the air. So check it out.

The concerts take place at the Seligman Performing Arts Center, located at 22305 West 13 Mile Road (at the corner of Lahser and 13 Mile roads), Beverly Hills, on the campus of Detroit Country Day School. All shows are at 8 p.m. on Saturdays.

The series includes musicians such as the Kalichstein-Laredo-Robinson Trio, the Miami String Quartet and the Pražák Quartet — big names worth hearing in the chamber world. On Oct. 4, a pre-concert talk with Steven Rings begins at 6:45 p.m.

On Saturday, Oct. 5, four virtuoso soloists — John Bruce Yeh, clarinet; Cho-Liang Lin, violin; Gary Hoffman, cello; and Christopher Taylor, piano — appear together for a program on French chamber music.

The program includes Debussy: Première Rhapsodie; Ravel: Duo

for Violin and Cello, Op. 73; and Messiaen: Quartet for the End of Time

THE MUSICIANS

Yeh is assistant principal clarinetist and solo E-flat clarinetist with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. He's a winner of both the 1982 Munich International Music Competition and the 1985 Naumburg Clarinet Competition. He is founder and director of the Chicago Pro Musica, which won the 1986 Grammy Award for best classical artist.

Lin is a violinist whose career has spanned 30 years. Since his debut with Lincoln Center's Mostly Mozart Festival at age 19, he has appeared with virtually every major orchestra in the world. Lin is a faculty member at the Juilliard School and Rice University.

Hoffman was only 22 years old when he became the youngest faculty appointee in the his-

Don't forget the popular Culinary Extravaganza in Livonia on Sunday, Sept. 28 where dozens of Michigan's finest chefs will offer very interesting tastings.

Attire for the event is business casual, and the community is invited to attend.

Schoolcraft College's Culinary Arts program has given us chefs including Randy Emert of Great Oaks Country Club in Rochester; Steve Allen of Steve & Rocky's of Novi; and Chef Kelli Lewton, owner of the organic Royal Oak catering company Pure Food 2 U.

And there will be specialties created by certified master chef Jeff Gabriel — one of just a handful of master chefs nationwide.

The Extravaganza is a treat for metro Detroit and benefits

The students of the culinary arts program.

Marjorie S. Lynch, Schoolcraft's special events coordinator, said it will raise approximately $70,000.

At least $20,000 provides direct support to the Culinary Arts Department. The remaining supports student scholarships and college initiatives.

Chef Kelli Lewton offers recipes

Chef Kelli Lewton of the catering company Pure Food 2 U in Royal Oak, is focused on organic gourmet foods. Here are several recipes that are popular with her company. Both dishes will be offered at the Schoolcraft College Culinary Extravaganza.

  - 4 tablespoons virgin oil
  - Sea salt and fresh cracked pepper to taste

Chapter Two

by Neil Simon

Directed by: Evelyn Urzúch

September 2-28, 2008

Chemistry knows nothing of timing.
 When a growing widow and a newly divorced man meet, the last thing they want is a relationship — let alone a date. Yet, from their first conversation, they experience an irresistible attraction. In this autobiographical play, Neil Simon's trademark intelligent, humorous repartee makes "Chapter Two" sparkle.

Pookie Hudson's Spaniels (Goodnight Sweetheart Goodnight, Stormy Weather).

The Reflections formed in 1964 and released many singles, including Shabby Little Shack, and one album, Just Like Romeo and Juliet, on the Detroit R&B label Golden World Records.

The current lineup includes original members Tony Micale of Livonia and John Dean of Westland; along with newer members Banovetz, Joey Finazzo of Warren and Sal Prado of Dearborn.

Banovetz said the group stays busy touring historic theatres across the country, and is often tapped to play local shows.

"We have a big fan base in the Detroit area," Banovetz said. "We're able to draw a lot of people."

In order to carry the name of a classic band, a group must have at least one original member, according to Joel Bogorad, Executive Producer of Concert Entertainment and organizer of the Rock 'n' Roll Fall Spectacular.

Bogorad said each act will play at least 20 minutes and banter with the crowd. Audience members are invited to take photos and get autographs during a meet-and-greet after the show.

"These are family-friendly performances. Good wholesome fun," said Bogorad, of Farmington Hills. "These shows give people a smile. When you leave you feel happy."

Banovetz says The Reflections enjoy interacting with fans, which is why they keep the music of the '60s alive.

"People will start dancing in the aisles and singing the songs. The energy that's created and the crowd participation is just unbelievable," Banovetz said. "It's a good feeling bringing back the songs that we all remember."

Performance art demands participation

BY STEPHANIE ANGELYN CASOLA
O&E STAFF WRITER

This weekend won't mark Performance Artist Guillermo Gómez-Peña's first trip to the Detroit Institute of Arts. He has visited the museum twice before, in the 1990s. Nancy Jones, executive director of learning and interpretation for the DIA, has brought him back for a weekend of performances she said is sure to make audiences think.

"Personally I think he is the most brilliant and gifted artist alive today," said Jones, who was anticipating his return.

Gómez-Peña relies on spoken word and interactivity to convey his passionate views on world issues.

He'll begin with a one-man show, a free performance, on Friday, Sept. 26. Titled El Mexorcist, Gómez-Peña will embody an activist protesting the construction of a U.S./Mexican border. He'll shift into various languages and morph into multiple characters as he presents ideas on identity, race, sexuality, pop culture, politics and more.

Then, Sept. 27-28, the audience gets in on the act for Mapa Corpo: Interactive Rituals for the New Millennium. As the title suggests, the artist will use the human body as a political map. Gómez-Peña will be joined by his troupe, which includes Roberto Sifuentes, professor of performance art at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago; Violeta Luna, a Mexican actress and artist; René García, an alfortia-based video artist; and a local addition — Royal Oak resident and actress Lisa Melinn. Jones was familiar with her work and connected her to the project. Melinn could not be reached for comment.

Jones said she saw a production of Mapa Corpo over a year ago in East Lansing. "I was just blown away by it," she said. "I think it's one of the most significant presentations he's ever done." And a timely one, she added, as it deals with and encourages people to think about current social and political issues. Audience members should prepare to feel personally involved and engaged, Jones said.

The programs happen to be during Hispanic History Month, which was part of Jones's intention in offering the program at this time of year. Gómez-Peña is of Mexican descent and many members of his troupe are Mexican Americans.

Gómez-Peña, a MacArthur Grant fellow and regular contributor to National Public Radio, uses music, spoken word and images to evoke feelings and ideas meant to last long beyond his performance.

His work covers issues of oppression and liberation, mourning and healing, and visitors will interact with performers as they move through the Rivera Court.

Those who have not witnessed his pieces, Jones said, will find "it's a very powerful political, social and cultural statement. The political and social situations of the moment are very topical. Guillermo is always like that."

Pull up a stool, grab a pint, it's beer month

The metro Detroit area surely isn't lacking when it comes to microbreweries and bars that serve up an enviable selection of brews. FILTER shares some of our favorite pints at a handful of tried-and-true watering holes in and around Wayne and Oakland counties. All this in honor of National Beer Month and we're feeling thirsty:
The Berkley Front: With 42 brews on tap you're sure to find your fave. When in doubt grab a Sierra Nevada Pale Ale. At 3087 Twelve Mile Road, Berkley, call (248) 547-3331.
Big Rock Chop & Brewhouse: Go smooth with

Platinum Blonde Lager. At 245 S. Eton, Birmingham, call (248) 647-7774

Unique & Unforgettable Experience

Celebrate Oktoberfest with Bastone's fastest-selling Fall brew

BY STEPHANIE ANGELYN CASOLA
O&E STAFF WRITER

When the airy Belgian-inspired bistro Bastone opened in Royal Oak in 2004, it quickly garnered a reputation for its consistent menu of frites, tartes, burgers, salads and pastas. But that's only half of the story. Below its floorboards lies a full brewery where brewmaster Rockne Van Meter has free reign to create the eight varieties of beer that will flow from Bastone's taps at any given time.

Last week, just in time for the coming Oktoberfest celebration, he invited FILTER down to see the process for ourselves. Surrounded by stainless steel tanks on all sides, he sauntered over to a secondary room where hundreds of pounds of grain were piled, one bag atop one another, each awaiting its turn in giant grinding mill.

"Grain is the primary ingredient," said Van Meter. That's where the flavor, color and taste begins, he added. Bastone imports 90 percent of its grains from France, Belgium and Great Britain. Whole kernels are ground down into smaller pieces and transferred to a lauter tun in a separate room, where it is mixed with water and heated to a high temperature, up to 160 degrees, to release the starches.

At that point the mixture becomes wort, a sort of barley sugar water. Then, it is diluted to suit the style of beer Van Meter intends to create. "The darker the beer, the more concentrated the wort," he said.

Hops are added, or "mashed in," giving the beer its bitter flavor and aroma. The next step, and perhaps the one requiring the most patience, is the fermenting process. The mixture is placed in a large bin to ferment in open air — a quality unique to Bastone when compared to other area breweries. The yeast begins to do its work and fermentation takes varying amounts of time.

Ales are crafted after seven days, Van Meter said, while lagers take about 14. Temperatures are stepped downward and when the batch is ready, it is transferred to a conditioner and later moved into tanks connected to the bar taps upstairs in the brewery.

The beer on tap includes mainstays like Bastone-best-seller Monumental Blonde, Main Street Pilsner, Royal IPA and the brewery's Belgian-styles like the Great White Wit, Dubbel Vision and Nectar des Dieux Triple.

The menu also features two seasonal beers at a time. And Sept. 29 marks the start of Oktoberfest season — which comes with a brew to match. It is a medium-bodied brew with a deep amber color and roasted toffee notes. According to David Ritchie, operating partner at Bastone, "we couldn't resist naming it Rocktoberfest" after Rockne. The second seasonal offering is a Munich Dubbel, dark-styled lager with chocolate notes.

Ritchie came on board last year with the intention of promoting the brewery side of the business. He's seen the restaurant's to-go beer service double in that amount of time. Like Van Meter, he said the blonde is his favorite Bastone beer, adding "but I love them all."

Van Meter plans four to six weeks ahead of time to be sure the barrels remain fully stocked for Bastone's beer-drinking patrons. "We never run out of beer," he announced with pride. Van Meter, a Grand Blanc resident, has been in charge of the Royal Oak brewery for the past three years. He takes cues from the season rather than the restaurant's menu when choosing and crafting new brews. Some varieties sell faster at certain times of the year. The Belgian Wit seems to be a warm weather favorite while IPA earns more fans in the fall and the Dubbel satisfies winter beer cravings.

The Monumental Blonde is the overall best-seller while the Main Street Pilsner tied with Stella Artois in 2007 national competition. In all, the brewery has earned 24 awards from organizations ranging from the Beverage Testing Institutes' World Beer Championships to the World Expo of Beer, the North American Beer Awards and the Michigan Beer Brewers Cup. Most of those honors have come under Van Meter's leadership. He attributes his success to staying true to a beer's traditional style and paying close attention to detail when it comes to brewing.

Van Meter began as a homebrewer with a passion for beer and sought out his first position at Big Buck Brewery as an assistant. He also worked at Rochester Mills Brewery before coming to Bastone.

All of the beers he brews must pass Van Meter's rigorous standards. His work environment also contributes to the success of the product, he said.

"I do enjoy the freedom to do what I want," he said, adding that he has the support of management.

While he's had some unusual requests over the years — including one for an oyster beer which never materialized — Van Meter has established a beer menu patrons have come to expect, anticipate and enjoy. The awards, Ritchie said, are a testament to "how good Rockne is."

Jewish prepare to celebrate holidays

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN
O & E STAFF WRITER

Wendy Sadler is busier than usual these days preparing for the Jewish High Holy Days. In addition to her job as director of Shalom Street, the Jewish museum in West Bloomfield, the Canton woman is cooking for more than a dozen family members and friends for Rosh Hashana. The Jewish New Year begins at sundown Monday, Sept. 29. She'll be celebrating with daughters Michelle, 19, Samantha, 17, Frankie, 10, and husband Jim at Temple Israel in West Bloomfield. Sadler is a founding member of Congregation Bet Chaverim in Canton.

"It's a family event," said Sadler. "Our family comes Monday night and then we go to the synagogue. My sister and I take turns making challah and chicken soup, brisket, apples and honey in anticipation of the new year being a sweet one. For Yom Kippur, Oct. 8, we get together for a big meal and then break the fast in the evening of Oct. 9. Yom Kippur is a day of repentance to ask for forgiveness for the not so nice things we've done. We fast because if you feel the hunger, you feel the pain. It's kind of a way to cleanse your body and start again."

Jeff Kirsch and his family bring in the new year together as well. The Farmington Hills man will have dinner at the home of his parents, Dan and Arlene Kirsch, then go to Congregation Beit Kodesh in Livonia for services. Joining them will be his children Michelle, 27, Jordan, 23, and grandson Chase, 3.

"We have a festive dinner," said Kirsch, Beit Kodesh education director. "My grandson might not quite understand what we're celebrating but he sees we're all together and laughing and talking about what will come about for the new year. My daughter brings him to the synagogue for the holidays. It's a warm feeling for us to see him getting involved at a young age. He's being introduced to the holidays and celebration. For Yom Kippur we start with Kol Nidre for the beginning of the Day of Atonement where Jews say prayers to ask God for forgiveness." Kari Alterman is hosting 35 friends and family members along with daughters Noa, 6, Adina, 4, and husband Eddie on Tuesday night at their home in Franklin. They'll attend services at Congregation Shaarey Zedek in Southfield where she serves on the board.

"We have many friends who are Jewish and non-Jewish. I believe it's a wonderful opportunity for people to reconnect. In many ways for our family it's like a Thanksgiving," said Alterman, Regional Leadership Director and Detroit Chapter Director for the American Jewish Committee. "It's a nice time for everybody to be together and celebrate and appreciate how lucky we are. For the 10 days of AWE which culminate in Yom Kippur people apologize to people they may have hurt over the past year. It's a period of self reflection."

Roberta Malkowski has been delivering holiday food parcels to elderly in the area through the Jewish Federation and Jewish Home and Aging Services. Her most recent stop was at a Livonia facility where one man said she made his day. "We want to show they're not forgotten at this time," said Malkowski, who'll attend Rosh Hashana services at Congregation Bet Chaverim in Canton, which doesn't charge for High Holy Day services and welcomes everyone.

Although the Jewish High Holy Days end with Yom Kippur, the celebrating continues with Sukkot, the festival of booths, Tuesday-Wednesday, Oct. 14-15. The holiday reminds Jews about the celebration in ancient times when Israelites lived in temporary booths or shelters after harvesting crops.

Malkowski and the members of Bet Chaverim will construct a sukkah then gather at 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 19.

"We construct it ahead of time so then everyone can come out and celebrate," said

Malkowski of Northville. "Rabbi says blessings over your family and people go into the sukkah. We have four spices that are symbols. Myrtle twigs and willow branches represent different events and ideals. Lulav and etrog are fruits of the earth. A palm leaf is a lulav and shaken as prayer is said. Etrog is a citron, an oversized egg shape fruit grown in Israel and imported for the celebration. It's similar to Thanksgiving, celebrating the fruits of the earth."

It's also an opportunity for Jews to remember the 40 years they wandered in the desert after leaving slavery in Egypt, said Alterman.

Makeup moves into sultry fall shades of wine, berry and gunmetal gray

The Fall face is all about decisions — choose between smoky gray eyes or a powerful deep berry pout and you can't go wrong. It's time to pack away the summer stock — like liquid shadows and frothy foundations.

And while bronzers are still all the rage, this season the chic, fashionable faces will tone it down a tinge.

Renee Ryan, North American sales and education manager of CARGO Cosmetics, had plenty of advice for fashionistas looking to update their cosmetic routines — whether it's a quick sweep of berry lip color on the way to the office or a sultry eye for an evening out on the town.

CARGO's Essential Palette makes applying eyeshadow a breeze. Lips create that pop of color. She suggests deep berry or brownish mahogany tones that Ryan assured "everyone can pull off."

GO GUNMETAL When it comes to eyes, the other major trend is the return of gray. "Gray is the new black," said Ryan. "We're seeing a sultry, smoky eye with gray, lighter gray and deeper blue-grays." Keep the eyes the focus of the face by elongating them with a long line using CARGO's new liquid liner. A new product for the CARGO line, "It's almost like a pen," Ryan said. "I did it in a cab. It was so simple to use." Ease of use is important, she explained. In a recent focus group of makeup users, the brand discovered women everywhere had shied away from using eye makeup, claiming they weren't sure how to apply it properly. CARGO's response came in the form of a new system of eyeshades. Ryan suggests beginning with one of the Essential palettes, where each shade is engraved with instructions. It's easy to see which is meant for brow bones, lids and the corners of your eye. Color palettes are also available — and great for adding that pop of color.

A SHOCK OF COLOR "It's a big trend, that pop of color in the crease," said Ryan. "You can use it on top of the Essential palette." And purple is the go-to shade of the season. While not everyone can pull off a dark eggplant or deep purple — except maybe brown-eyed girls — the purple trend comes in subtle lavender tones mixed with pewter, Ryan said. "Think of the Essential palette as your black dress," said Ryan. "Color is your accessories or shoes." It's best not to overpower your look so those opting for a smoky eye will want to pair a subtle nude lip. And CARGO's newest line of high-pigment lip gloss delivers concentrated color — like the perfect marriage of lipstick and high gloss — with a click of the twist top. "You get the most amazing payoff," said Ryan. It comes in four nude shades ranging from pink to berry to brown. While you're tuning into makeup trends, try CARGO's newest addition, the PlantLove line of cosmetics. It's an eco-friendly, natural line of pressed powders, eyeshadows, lipsticks and glosses made with 100 percent natural and organic ingredients. Even the packaging is eco-conscious. "We're about being green and glam at the same time," said Ryan. "Even though it's natural makeup, it's a high performing line." Sephora is the largest distributor of CARGO cosmetics — and stores at Troy's Somerset Collection and Twelve Oaks Mall in Novi carry the brand.

Troy-based 'Project Runway' contestant will stay close to home

Local Project Runway contestant Joe Faris was eliminated from the Emmy-nominated reality show last Wednesday, Sept. 17. But that didn't stop the Troy-based clothing designer from showing his work during New York Fashion Week.

This year, the final six contestants — including Faris — showed collections in Bryant Park on Sept. 12. Faris' designs won't appear in the finale of the show, which will feature only the top three finalists, but the experience will certainly be a boon to his career.

Faris has hobnobbed with fashion elite, and his skills have been honed by "under-the-Gunn" challenges during the show. Yet, no matter how much his resume and Rolodex have been padded, the husband and father of two insists he'll continue to live in metro Detroit. "I've had offers to move to New York, L.A., but the reality is with the Internet and video conferencing I found I never really had to move as long as I've been willing to travel," he said during a recent interview with PINK.

each month in New York City, and takes frequent trips to China. Otherwise, he's not going anywhere. Instead, he hopes to use his newfound fame to help other aspiring designers in the area. "There's a huge pool of talent here — people coming out of CCS and Wayne State's fashion program. Especially in the fashion industry, there's not enough to keep them here. I would love to be involved in anything in the city — any fashion thing we can get started," he said. "I am here. I'm based here, I'm truly representing."
