AROUND TOWN Cards for food

Customers who donate nonperishable food items and personal care items to the Salvation Army will receive a free 99-cent Hallmark Card this weekend.

Three Amber's Hallmark Shops in western Wayne County have been setting out food barrels the last weekend of every month and have "already filled seven barrels in the past two months," said Rita Selenis, owner of the Amber's Hallmark stores sponsoring the drive.

"Some of our donating customers have been laid off themselves," she said.

On the last full weekend of each month, every person donating food to the Salvation Army has received a "Thank You" gift from the store. This weekend, Friday-Sunday, April 24-26, Amber's Hallmark will be giving donors a free 99-cent Hallmark card.

The three Amber's Hallmark Shops are located in Canton at 43309 Joy, in Livonia at 29481 Five Mile and in Westland at 128 S. Merriman.

Saving money

The City of Westland's phone bill will be going down with the approval of a new telephone system.

The Westland City Council Monday evening approved an administration recommendation to install the Techmode telephone system for city buildings.

According to the administration, Techmode's updated technology will result in a 65 percent reduction in phone service costs, a savings that will cover the monthly expense for the new system and which will result in even greater savings when the system is paid off. According to Mayor William Wild, the city will save about

Police link parolee to 2 thefts, break-in

A Westland prison parolee has been charged with seizing money from two local businesses and breaking into a third, vacant store where he was captured, police Sgt. Todd Adams said.

Michael Scott Herndon, 47, is facing an April 30 court hearing amid allegations he robbed an ACO Hardware store, grabbed money from a Dunkin Donuts cash register and broke into a now-closed Dollar Palace - all on the city's south end.

Herndon was arraigned Tuesday by Westland 18th District Judge Mark McConnell on charges of unarmed robbery for the ACO incident, larceny involving a Dunkin Donuts worker and breaking into the former Dollar Palace.

"He is charged as a fourth-degree habitual offender," Adams said. "He has been in prison before.'

McConnell set a $1 million cash bond, entered a not-guilty plea for Herndon and ordered him to return to court for an April 30 preliminary hearing that will determine whether he will face trial in Wayne County Circuit Court.

A police investigation led to charges against Herndon for the three incidents in Westland.

The first incident happened about ' 7:30 p.m. April 9 inside the ACO store at Wayne and Glenwood. A male cashier reported that a suspect brought candy to the cash register and shoved the worker

Westland native Jacqueline Rubasky has found a way to make a living while helping to save the planet.

There is no business to be done on a dead planet," Rubasky, a 1985 John Glenn High graduate, said during a telephone interview from her Santa Barbara, Calif., home.

Rubasky has been hired as a strategic advisor for Aquamantra, a West Coast bottled water company that in May will begin shipping to stores what is billed as the world's first 100 percent biodegradablerecyclable bottle.

She also has been chosen as the West Coast chief marketing officer for Bloomfield Hills-based

The Wayne-Westland Salvation Army will again offer its summer day camp this year. Day camp will run from June 22 to July 31 and is open to children ages 6-12. Hours are 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Friday. Lunch and field trips are included in tuition.

Registration forms are available now on a first-come basis. Registration forms can be picked up at the Salvation Army at 2300 Venoy, south of Palmer, in Westland.

To reserve space, a deposit of $50 will be needed with each application. This is equal to the cost of one week plus a $10 registration fee. The deposit must be either in cash or money order.

The Salvation Army also is hiring junior counselors ages 15-17. A paid position, applications can be picked up at the Salvation Army.

Organizers also are looking for volunteer counselors-in-training ages 13-14.

Spelling bee winners get 'indignant'

BY ALEX LUNDBERG OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Seniors from all over the county converged on the Redford Community Center Tuesday to take part in the first of several community senior spelling bees as part of the ongoing Wayne County Senior Olympics.

Former Roosevelt Elementary teacher Linda Waara, 68, and her partner Donna Koch, both of Westland, won the spelling bee Tuesday afternoon. Runners-up were Redford residents Reva Wujcik and Reta Alexander. Diane Morency and Larry Hindle of Redford came in third.

Wujcik and Alexander misspelled "harass," giving Warra and Koch an opportunity to seal the competition by spelling it and another word correctly. They got it right, then spelled "indignant" for the win.

"I used to be in the district spelling bees in Redford with Reva," Waara said. "Back in 1950-53 she and I competed against each other when we were in school. We're very competitive with each other so this was a lot of fun."

The spelling bees are run in teams of twos with each team being able to confer on an answer before submitting to the judges. County

Executive Assistant Jakleen Ochalek said the idea of going to one-person teams was discussed for a while but quickly shot down.

'We talked about it but when we asked contestants they said they'd be too nervous by themselves," she said. "They said they wouldn't take part."

The bees were launched as a part of the greater Senior Olympics in the county as a way to give people a mental workout as well as a physical one. Events like it are going on throughout the county. The next bee is May 12 in Plymouth and then later in Dearborn, Taylor and Wyandotte before coming back to the Redford Community Center in September for the playoffs.

They've been drawing good crowds. "We normally get about 100 people per bee," Ochalek said.

Redford Senior Adult Advisor Dorothy Morris said there were 10 teams in Tuesday's event with about 60 more watching and playing "Scramble," inevitably competing at that as well.

"It's like at the spell-off in September," she said. "They're competing for bragging rights."

It's not a crime to make money in corporate America. But, Rubasky's message as the world celebrates Earth Week and Wednesday's Earth Day is that it's important to strive to leave behind a better planet. "We should live our lives as a legacy and embrace a sense of community," Rubasky said.

Aquamantra already has had products on certain store shelves in places like southern California, Hawaii and Las Vegas, but the company will try to broaden its reach as it markets its new biodegradable-recyclable bottles, which are packaged with slogans like "I Am Love," "I Am Healthy, "I Am Grateful" and "I Am Lucky."

Sonic plans win council's OK

BY DARRELL CLEM OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Sonic's decision to build a 1950s-style drive-in restaurant in Westland will create as many as 140 jobs and spruce up a blighted corner in Westland's core shopping district, officials said Monday.

City officials expect Sonic to open by late summer, replacing the boarded-up Denny's restaurant at Wayne Road and Central City Parkway and becoming the national chain's fourth Michigan eatery with carhops on roller skates.

The project gained momentum Monday as a supportive Westland City Council approved a site plan and special land use request while endorsing the company's decision to seek certain tax breaks through Wayne County for six years. "I think it's a real plus for the community," Councilman Charles Pickering said, joining his council colleagues in approving Sonic's plans.

City officials indicated Monday that Sonic hopes to open for business in August or September.

Sonic, an Oklahoma City-based chain that dates back to 1953, will offer customers a choice of parking and placing their orders on a speaker menu, using outdoor seating or driving through and taking their food home. There will be no indoor dining.

"It's a great concept," Mayor William Wild said, one that harkens back to the 1950s with a wide menu that goes beyond burgers, coneys and malts.

Sonic has some 3,400 U.S. locations, and local officials hope the Westland site will spur other new development in a core shopping and dining district near Westland Shopping Center. The area around that mall has grappled with numerous vacancies.

Sonic plans to ask the county for a property tax abatement of 100 percent in the first year and 50 percent for each of the next five years. The plan, if approved, would provide the company with money to ready the site for its newest eatery.

Moreover, the tax-relief plan would come amid a sour economy, and officials said it's better to have reduced tax revenues for a few years and create new jobs than to leave the old Denny's building standing.

Westland Economic Development Director Lori Fodale has said Sonic is expected to draw customers from other communities who, she hopes, will stay and spend money in the shopping district.

when the drawer was opened, according to police reports.

The suspect grabbed money from the drawer and then fled to a getaway vehicle that was left running in a fire lane outside the store, police said.

The second incident happened about 3 a.m. April 13 when a female worker told police that a man came into Dunkin Donuts on Wayne north of Palmer, demanded money, jumped onto the counter on his stomach, reached over and grabbed cash from the register.

The suspect then fled the store and ran south. The last incident occurred about 2:10 a.m. Monday at the old Dollar Palace on Wayne near Glenwood, when police responded to what was described as a burglary in progress.

A witness told police that a man had just broken out a front window and was inside. Police arrived and saw the suspect inside the building, according to police reports.

The officer ran to the back of the building as the suspect fled through a rear door, then saw him trying to climb over a brick wall. Two other officers arrived on the scene and helped capture the man.

The most serious charge against Herndon, unarmed robbery, carries penalties ranging up to 15 years in prison upon conviction. However, he could potentially face a longer sentence as a fourthdegree habitual offender.

Autism program undergoes restructuring

BY SUE MASON OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

For 13 years, Connor Jablonowski has been attending school at the Burger Center for Students with Autism in Garden City. But the 16-yearold will move from what has become known as Burger West to the Cambridge Adult and Alternative Education Center, or Burger East, in the fall.

And the change, according to his mother, has the teen "very excited."

"He's been told he'll be near the high school and that he will be with older kids," said Darlene Jablonowski. "He's very excited.

Under the restructuring, classes will be grouped by age along the four hallways of Burger West, allowing a sharing of academic resources and have grade-level collaboration, said Special Education Director Sharon Dusney. "We want to provide an ageappropriate setting for the students," said Dusney. "We looked at how to divide them by age and how we separate the students."

According to Dusney, the program has experienced a decline in enrollment in the Burger preschool program in part because of parents' concern that youngsters are placed with older students. The classrooms are at Burger East, which also houses the Garden City school district's alternative high school and adult programs

"At East, despite the age difference, they share the same restrooms," she said. "At Burger West, the age groups will be separated and will keep teachers of the same grade together." Dusney said surveys were done, phone calls were made and there were even visits to other center programs to see how they were aligned in preparation for the restructuring. Under the plan, early elementary classes will be groups along on hallway, with upper elementary and middle school class rooms along the others. Four preschool classes also will be moved to Lathers Elementary School.

Burger East will house students who are in late high school and those who are adults ages 21-26. The principal's office will be by the door to create a front for the building. There also will be a vocational room where students will learn skills and an adult room.

Burger takes in students from school districts throughout Wayne County and according to Dusney, the changes will take away the choice of going back and forth between the two buildings and offer more mainstreaming opportunities for the older students.

"We have some logistics to figure out and some tweaking of rooms," said Dusney. "The program will be aligned more closely with the general education program. It will improve mainstreaming for students."

Jablonowski, who serves on the Wayne County Parent Advisory Committee, has the utmost confidence in the staff in making the change.

"We have the best program in the country and the best teachers in the country," she said. "No one likes change, but once it gets going the flow is going to be amazing. Special education is changing and the program had to change with the times."

Connor knows this is his last year at Burger East, and Jablonowski believes the change will be good for her son.

"I think it will be good to have older students in the other building, they'll have ageappropriate things for them there," she said.

Rubasky lives in California with husband and high school sweetheart Scott Kochan, an entrepreneur whose work with Ford Motor Co. and automotive controls has focused on sustaining the future.

Never let it be said that rivals of sorts can't work toward a better world. Rubasky earned her master's degree in marketing and advertising from Michigan State University; Kochan majored in electrical engineering at the University of Michigan.

Rubasky's involvement with Aquamantra comes as some environmentalists have portrayed the disposable plastic water bottle as an eco-sin poster child. The company, using a product developed by ENSO, will provide water in bottles that will biodegrade within one to five years, even in a landfill.

"Microbes eat the bottle as dinner," company founder Alexandra Teklak said in a statement. "That is welcome news to both retailers and consumers who have felt the pressure from environmental Aquamantra hopes to have an edge in the ever-growing "green" market, and Rubasky is doing her part to market the product and bring in eco-friendly investors.

Aquamantra also donates to such charities as Vitamin Angels, which delivers vitamins to children in poor countries, and Nourish America, which provides food for hungry youngsters.

In marketing Aquamantra, Rubasky said it's important to ask three questions: Is it good for the planet? Is it good for people? And is it good for profit? She believes the product has met all three tests.

Aquamantra is in the midst of being picked up by national distributors, but it's not known how soon the product might be routinely found on shelves here in the Midwest. However, Rubasky urged those who want it to talk to their retailers or go online to www.aquamantra. com.

"It's our gift to the planet," she said. "It's our gift to future generations."

As for her work with Business Edge International, a consulting firm, she will be part of a firm dedicated to making a success of companies that, in part, are dedicated to providing products that are environmentally friendly. She will help run the firm's West Coast office.

Business Edge International CEO Doron York issued a statement calling Rubasky "a true entrepreneur who believes in the power of inspired, passionate people," adding that her skills will enable the firm to help clients who have new ideas while "addressing environmental concerns."

What better way for Rubasky to celebrate Earth Day and Earth Week than knowing she is making a difference for the planet.

"Joining Business Edge International as chief marketing officer provides me with the opportunity to create new opportunities for business, people and the planet to thrive," she said.

Phony repairman takes video game from bar

A portable, bar-top video game was reported stolen recently from Stryker's Bar, on Ford Road east of Hix.

According to police reports, a suspect posing as a repairman walked in, spoke with bar servers and took the video equipment, valued at $2,500. The employees later realized that the video game had been stolen.

The suspect was described as a white male, about 40 years old, 5-foot-10, 170 pounds, wearing a ski cap.

Pickup truck stolen

A 25-year-old man told police that his 2003 Dodge pickup truck was stolen between 3 a.m. and 11 a.m. April 16 while it was parked in the area of 37100 McKinney Dr., southeast of Joy and Newburgh roads.

The victim told police that he had locked the truck.

Jewelry cases missing

The owner of Westland Jewelry, a business on Wayne Road south of Cherry Hill, reported that several display cases of watch bands and jewelry repair tools were stolen sometime before 4:30 p.m. April 15.

The business owner told police he hadn't been to the business, which is under construction, for about three weeks. However, he spoke with a construction crew that said the items had been seen in the store the night before they were found missing. The investigation is continuing.

Car windows broken

A 22-year-old woman told police that someone broke out the front and rear window of her 1999 Ford Taurus sometime before 2:45 a.m. April 16. She reported that she had left home around 2:30 a.m. to walk to the store and that the damage had been done when she returned a short time later to the 6500 block of Chirrewa. north of Hunter between Wildwood and Farmington.

The woman told police she wasn't sure who would have damaged her car.

Car damaged by rock

A 23-year-old woman · reported that someone smashed out the front window of her 2000 Buick Regal and dented the hood with a large stone while the car was parked at Pointe West Apartments, on the south side of Palmer between Newburgh and Wayne roads.

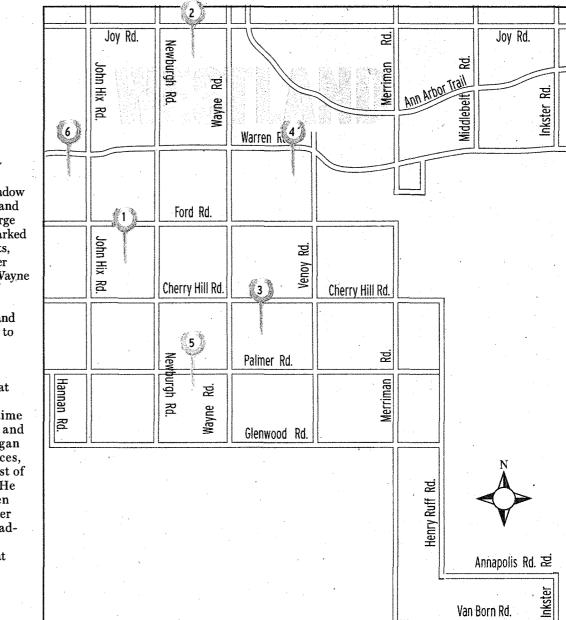

The incident happened between 11 p.m. April 15 and 2 p.m. April 16, according to police reports.

Laundry truck stolen

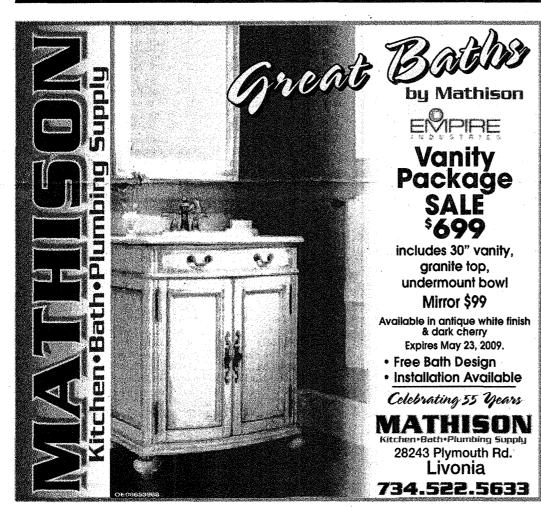

A man told police that an 18-foot, two-axle trailer was stolen sometime between 5 p.m. April 14 and 7 a.m. April 15 at Michigan Laundry Machine Services, on Webb Drive southwest of Warren and Hix roads. He said the trailer was taken from the parking lot after the thief had cut off a padlock.

The trailer was valued at $3,800.

Livonia couple dines with metro yoga stars

Energy, health and lots of conversation about yoga's benefits were the topics of the day for Livonians Lori and Mike Richards, winners of last month's Dining with Stars contest. The Richards were treated to lunch at Buddy's Pizza in Farmington Hills with the stars of metro Detroit's yoga scene.

Linda Kay of Yoga Shelter, Sara Davidson of Sarahngyoga@yahoo. com, Matthew Darling of AshtangaMichigan.com and Buddy's owner and longtime yoga student, Robert Jacobs, joined the Livonia couple for a peaceful, healthy lunch. The group dined on Buddy's new multi-grain thin crust pizza and was entertained by The Fred Astaire Dance Studio's Vadim Boldirev and Anastasia McCurry, who performed the Jive.

Katherine Lucas from Karma Yoga was unable to make the lunch but offered the couple a private lesson at her studio.

"Yoga and pizza were a perfect match on this day," Marcy Brontman of Buddy's said.

Lori Richards was the first to enter the contest. She emailed her entry explaining her love of yoga.

"My yoga experience began in a window-lined room near Port Huron's Black River. It was a fabulous experience with a wonderful instructor. I loved her attention to breathing, the rest breaks between moves and her encouragement to achieve what progress we could.

"Recently, I married a man from Livonia. I left my job, and my yoga instructor. I found a job, but not a yoga instructor. If I didn't love my husband, I'd move back just for the yoga," Lori wrote.

Then her husband, Mike, also e-mailed in hopes of convincing the judges to pick his wife.

It worked. Lori won the contest and Mike was invited to join the group.

Lori and Mike were treated to a limo ride courtesy of All Class and walked the red carpet into Buddy's. Lori received a mini makeover from Christine of Beauty Shop in Birmingham and a $100 gift certificate from Reaver's Diamonds in Southfield. Next on tap for Dining with the Stars, sponsored by Buddy's Pizza and the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, are Deena Centofanti and Jay Towers the co-anchors of FOX 2 News Weekend, which airs Saturday and Sunday mornings. Understand true cost of owning a house was talking to a friend recently about homeownership. He has never owned a home and because of what has happened in the real estate market he was thinking it is time to buy. As we were discussing the pros and cons of homeowner-Rick Bloom

ship, I realized that people have many misconceptions about homeownership. The first misconception is it provides great tax benefits. Although, there are tax benefits to owning a house, the benefits are not as great as people make them out to be. Typically, when you purchase a house, you're allowed to deduct the interest on your mortgage and your property taxes. However, it is not a dollar-for-dollar reduction. For example, if over one year vou've paid $5,000 in interest in the 15 percent tax bracket, your total savings is $750.

That means that $4,250 is net out of your pocket. Of course, the higher the tax bracket the greater the savings. However, keep in mind that for high income taxpayers that may be in the 28 percent tax bracket or above, it comes a point where you actually start losing your deductions for interest and property taxes.

The bottom line is no one should buy a house just for the tax benefits. We have no idea what tax laws will be in the future.

Another misconception is that since housing prices in southeast Michigan are at dramatic lows - compared to where they were a few years ago - prices have to increase in the future.

Although I believe housing prices will rise in the future, that does not mean that they will increase more than the increased cost of living. At best, I believe houses will keep up with the increased and property taxes and you are cost of living. What has happened to housing prices over the last 10 years was the aberration. Because of many things, including the easy availability of mortgages, there was an artificial bubble surrounding home prices. I do not believe we will see that same bubble anytime in the near future. After all, the requirements to obtain mortgages have changed, and justifiably so.

There are some incredible deals on the market and for many people they are very enticing. However, don't make the mistake of buying the most expensive home that you can afford.

Do the homework ahead of time and make sure you know what you're getting involved in before you sign on the dotted line.

OUR VIEWS Turner, Walker, Goci best for W-W

On Tuesday, May 5, voters in the Wayne-Westland Community Schools will go to the polls to fill three positions on the Board of Education. If history repeats itself, the turnout will be light. Interest in school elections has dropped off tremendously since the passage of Proposal A and the ensuing absence of tax issues to bring out voters.

But residents should make an effort to go to the polls. Ten people have expressed interest in serving on the board. The candidates include incumbents Ed Turner and Steve Becher as well as appointed incumbent Shawna Walker. Challenging them are John Goci, Angela Hoops Cossey, Gregory Maxwell, Carol Middel,

Lori Mirales-Smith, Brian Mark Neal. Each brings

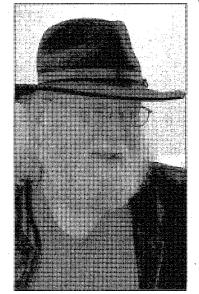

school district and what done to better serve the They all share that Wayne- and Mark Neal. Westland has good schools, but many say

But residents should make an Mulligan and effort to go to the polls. Ten people have expressed interest a different in serving on the board. The view of the candidates include incumbents Ed Turner and Steve Becher as well needs to be as appointed incumbent Shawna Walker. Challenging them are students to John Goci, Angela Hoops Cossey, the election. Gregory Maxwell, Carol Middel, the belief Lori Mirales-Smith, Brian Mulligan there is a need to better communicate the quality of education available in the district beyond its boundaries.

We were able to speak with all but one of the candidates to ask pointed questions about why they are seeking a sit on the school board and what they believe they can do for the district. In listening to their responses, we believe residents should re-elect Ed Turner and Shawna Walker to the two four-year terms and John Goci to the one-year term.

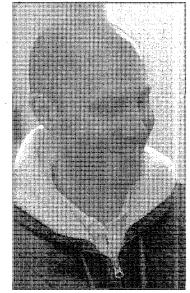

Turner has the experience -12 years of service - needed in these troubling times. When he first ran, he listed his priorities as the students first, parents second and teachers and administration third and has not wavered from that course. He visits classrooms on a daily basis to see what is happening in them. He also is a fixture at programs ranging from D.A.R.E. graduations and spelling bees to high school plays and concerts. Wherever he is, he's sure to have current and former students stop to talk to him. Walker was appointed to board last August to serve until this school election. She brings diversity to the school board and provides a voice for the district's minority students. Walker has shown she is up to the job. During her first month in office, she faced the fourday teacher strike and dealt with angry parents with quiet dignity. She also has voiced a commitment to doing what's best for the students and the district as a member of the board. We selected Goci for the one-year term because he brings an ability to connect to the business community to the position. He is a product of the school district and is filled with many ideas, from charity gaming nights to working with local businesses, to help raise money for the district. He sees the position as a one-year opportunity to make a difference. We hope he will commit to a full term next year. We also urge residents to take the time to participate in the May 5 school election, whether voting by absentee ballot or at the polls, and to re-elect Ed Turner and elect Shawna Walker for the two four-year terms and John Goci for the one-year term.

Time for a change

During these difficult economic times, it is more important than ever that citizens take an active interest in their government. In Mayor Wild's proposed budget, base salaries for the mayor's staff are higher than last year. Salaries for the lowest-paid employees are down. Pension costs for the newly hired MIS director are $53,323. Pension costs for a 20-year plus clerical employee are $18,362. City employees are losing their jobs. Police and fire retirees are not being replaced. We cannot afford to continue paying for the extremely generous pensions and salaries of the highest paid employees. It's time to rethink salaries and compensations starting at the top. It's time for a change.

A budget study session is scheduled for April 25 starting at 8:30 a.m. at city hall. Please let

Thanks for the help

As you must have read, we had a good turn out for the quilt show and thanks to you, The Observer, for this. The bowling with bunny was good, too. We are keeping up well with the Dictionary program and more will be handed out soon.

The only thing we forgot to do is talk about the Grange. Did you know we are the last Grange in Wayne County and we help many communities not just Westland and Plymouth. The best is that on April 17, 1873, we became a Grange with the State of Michigan. We are 136 years old and still growing.

In April 2000 we where ask to help out in the City of Westland to make us add to our name and another birthday for us in April. To sum it up, it's 136 years as the Plymouth Grange 389 and nine years as the Plymouth/Westland Grange 389. And we're proud to be a part of the great things in our cities.

Once again thank you for all your great help and efforts.

Doesn't know the facts

Joe from Westland doesn't get it ("Full of Tales" $O \otimes E$, 4/16/09). But then again, that appears to be the hallmark of the left - ignorance of the facts.

Or perhaps fear.

He says "the first few months of the Obama administration has been a time of profound hope and satisfaction." How so? "Hope" has yet to feed a single hungry child, pay a single overdue mortgage, or save a life. "Hope" is a platitude, not a policy.

The only hope Obama accomplished is the "hope" of greater debt and a poorer, government-dependent citizenry.

History-making, sky rocketing debt — $12trillion! Three times greater than previous administration. Three times! And the left screamed about Bush's excessive spending! Where is the outrage from the "progressives" now?

The nonpartisan Congressional Budget Office (CBO) reports "unsustainable" deficit (meaning income is less than expenses). Look at this graphic presented by the CBO at www. cbo.gov/ftpdocs/100xx/doc10014/toc.htm.

And this gets worse after 2018. Ironically, this happens to occur the very year Obama plans to start receiving his presidential pension! Gotta love his chutzpah!

This deficit scenario isn't a "fairy tale" as Joe maintains. This isn't "Republican childish Sorry, Joe. This is fact. Open your eyes and let the sun shine in.

Taking back our country

Our government has taxed businesses right out of this country, mainly our manufacturing businesses, such as tool and die shops, pattern mold making shops, machine shops, etc.

Now Congress and the Obama administration is seeking to take over our last pillar of hope: our American automotive manufacturers. They have told the auto companies that they are willing to cough up more taxpayer money in exchange for stock in the company. This is not why the states created the federal government, to loot our businesses and taxpayers and dictate how a business should be run. Government cannot run anything properly or profitably. Some believe that this stock will in turn be handed over to the union bosses as "payback "for supporting them in the elections, giving more power to the union and hence crippling the owners and investors of these companies.

Pelosi's and Granholm's remarks on April 15 that the Tax Day Tea Party attendees were "organized or orchestrated by right-wing extremists" are ridiculous. Nothing could be farther from the truth. There were Democrats in the crowd as well as Republicans and conservatives, but extremists we were not, just everyday hard-working taxpayers who are fed up with out-of-control government spending and taxation. Rep. Thad McCotter was one of the few politicians invited to attend these events. I'm sure Nancy and Arnold were cowering somewhere way out of sight in California.

Pelosi, a multi-millionaire, is telling us that these parties were "financed by the rich" and that Obama's (actually her) plan is going to cut taxes on 95 percent of the taxpayers making it sound like a middle class tax cut when the fact is that 50 percent of these people aren't required pay taxes so they won't see a tax cut but rather a check which is called welfare in most circles.

Pelosi, Obama and the Democrats keep saying they are going to give us a tax cut but so far all I've seen is a few dollars in my paycheck which might get me a donut and a cup of coffee at a greasy spoon. Show me these "tax cuts!" Congress is going to let the Bush tax cuts expire next year and we will all be paying higher taxes again and then so much for the tax cut we were supposed to get

This plan is to raise taxes on families with a household income $250,000 and above which may sound good, but these are the small business owners that employ 52 percent of this nation. If they are forced to cut back, guess what will happen to a lot of our jobs?

These Tax Day Tea Parties were organized by normal everyday taxpayers who are fed up with the same old tax and spend routine. They started organizing them in February. Conservative radio and center-right media didn't jump on the bandwagon until two weeks prior to the events. All were welcome.

If we were gathering in protest of the war in Iraq or over health care concerns, I'm sure the left would have responded differently and the liberal mainstream media would have been covering this movement like a blanket.

Hundreds of thousands turned out to make these as well as other statements: We are taxpayers fed up with government stealing our money. We do not want our hard earned money "spread out" and given to people that don't even pay taxes. We do not want government to run healthcare, auto manufacturing or any private enterprise.

We want a free market, capitalist society not a socialist or Marxist government. We do not want our money to go to pet projects. We do not want tax cheats, thieves, liars, baby killers and religion haters running our country.

And we want to remind them that they "work for us" and we will fire them come next election, if the will of the people is not met. Reform is needed in congress and our tax system. Government greed has sold us out. We will take this country back, one politician at a time.

Madonna University first baseman Kevin Zerbo (Farmington Hills Harrison) was named Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference Player of the Week.

1st-place Crusaders deck Cards in weekend sweep

Madonna University maintained its two-game lead in the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference baseball race by sweeping all four games during its weekend series against Concordia University.

On Sunday, the Crusaders improved to 33-6 overall and 12-4 in the WHAC by downing the visiting Cardinals at Ilitch Ballpark, 3-1 and 5-1.

Jeff Mann (3-0) pitched the first five innings to pick up the win for MU in the opener. He allowed one earned run on seven hits and a walk. Brian Diroff came on to get the final four outs to earn his first save of the year.

Offensively, Mike Gansser collected two hits, while Ryan Morrow, Scott Boyer and Matt Kay (Canton) each drove in a run. Tony Pounders (Livonia Stevenson) knocked in the lone run for the Cardinals.

In the nightcap, Drew Fry knocked in three runs, while Morrow, Shawn Little (Canton) and Kevin Zerbo (Farmington Hills Harrison) each added two hits to offset the 3-for-3 performance of Concordia's Zach Johnston.

Winning pitcher Tom Hansen (7-1) scattered six hits and allowed just one earned run, a solo homer to Johnston, in going all seven innings. Hansen struck out two and did not allow a walk.

The loss drops Concordia to 18-25 and 4-10.

On Saturday, MU swept at twinbill against the host Cardinals, 11-0 and 11-3.

Senior right-hander Jeff Sonnenberg (9-1) set the MU single season mark for complete games (eight) by throwing a two-hitter in the five-inning mercy in the opener.

COLLEGE BASEBALL

He walked only one and struck out two. Gansser knocked in four runs, including a 3-run double in the first inning.

Other offensive standouts included Zerbo (2-for-3; two RBI); Little (2-for-3; RBI); and Kay (two RBI).

In the nightcap, Kyle Bolton (6-1) went all seven innings to pick up the win. He scattered nine hits, walked two and fanned two.

Ted Toune and Adam Bailey each knocked in two runs for MU, while Aaron Hacias went 2-for-2 with an RBI.

WHAC lauds Zerbo

For the first time this season, Madonna University senior first baseman Kevin Zerbo (Farmington Hills Harrison) was named the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference baseball Player of the Week (ending April 19).

Zerbo, the 2008 WHAC Player of the Year, hit .471 in six games for the Crusaders. After being held hitless in the opener at Siena Heights, Zerbo exploded for three hits in the nightcap, including a pair of home runs, driving in four in a 12-2 MU win.

In the four-game series against Concordia (April 18-19) Zerbo went 5for-11 with three doubles and three RBI.

All told for the week Zerbo posted seven RBI, four doubles and two homers, while drawing three walks and not striking out.

April 25, at Livonia Franklin High School. The Passion, playing their season opener in the IWFL's Mid-Atlantic Division of the Tier I Eastern Conference, got touchdowns from Lisa Horton, Wilma Walton, Lori Johnson and Amanda Haeg to hand the Demolition only their sixth loss in the last 79 games.

The defense was sparked by JoJo Warner, while Sharon Vasquez and Michelle Brevard both picked off Demolition passes that led to scores.

The 1-1 Demolition, hampered by injuries, got their only TD in the first half from Dawn Adams.

Ladywood trudges through mud for 1-1 deadlock

Canton's Brittney Scero had five hits Sunday as the first-place Crusaders settled for a split at Livonia Ladywood, ranked No. 10 in Division 2, fought to a 1-1 draw Tuesday with Catholic League Central Division girls soccer foe Warren Regina.

After a scoreless opening half, Ladywood freshman Emily Chrzasz was pulled down on a foul in the box and Alessia Vagnini scored on a penalty kick to make it 1-0 for the visiting Blazers.

With only four minutes remaining, Regina's Samantha Olszewski scored to even the count at 1-all.

Ladywood held a wide margin in shots, 17-4, in a game where playing conditions were less than ideal on the muddy Regina turf thanks to a game-long rain.

"I thought our effort was good considering we were coming off an 18-day layoff," said Ladywood coach Ken Shingledecker, whose team is 4-1-2 overall and 2-1-1 in the division. "The field conditions limited our possession game.

GIRLS SOCCER

We were forced to play more direct, which seemed to work. We just needed to finish off some of the scoring chances that we generated."

Ladywood goalkeeper Michele Ring made just two saves, while Regina's Maria Ciolina had eight stops.

Regina is 1-2-1 overall and 1-1-1 in the Central.

STEVENSON 8, S.L. EAST 0: It took just 55 minutes Tuesday for host Livonia Stevenson (4-3, 3-0) to invoke the eight-goal mercy rule in a KLAA Central Division triumph over South Lyon East.

Renee Boudreau, Kayla Kimble, Krysta Kane and Samantha Gutkowski each tallied two goals for the victorious Spartans, who led 4-0 at intermission Molly McConnell and Kelli Vellucci each chipped in with two assists, while Ali Slavin and Boudreau each added one.

Michelle Krawczyk and Tara Johnston split time in goal for the Spartans. Neither keeper faced a shot.

FRANKLIN 1, WAYNE 0: Brooke Killeen scored the game-winning goal at the seven-minute mark Tuesday to give host Livonia Franklin (1-5, 1-2) the KLAA South Division win over Wayne Memorial (1-5, 1-2).

Goalkeeper Lexi Smith earned the shutout for the Patriots.

"It was a good win and one that we will work from to help us continue forward." Franklin coach Jen Barker said. "Everyone was having a good game individually and that carried through to give us a good game as a group. We were able to string some passes together for combinations that got us forward. We dominated offensively and had many chances that were near misses

CHURCHILL 7, JOHN GLENN 0: Bailey Brandon tallied two goals and three assists Monday as host Livonia Churchill (3-1, 2-1) rolled to a KLAA South Division victory over visiting Westland John Glenn (0-4, 0-2).

Brandon scored in the 11th and 17th minutes, while other goals came from Sam Meeker (second minute), Darcy DeRoo (20th minute), Kayla Munroe (38th minute) and Hannah Otto (70th minute)

The other goal came during the 61st minute when the ball was accidentally kicked in by a Glenn defender.

Other assists for Churchill went to Melissa Roe and Nicole Marlow.

Starting Charger goalkeeper Stefanie Turner played the first 55 minutes before relinquishing duties to Megan Bauman, who helped close out the shutout.

Megan Nikula, who hit the crossbar, stood out for the Rockets.

"She was awesome," Glenn coach Jimmy Mortada of his senior midfielder. "We're playing good, but we're struggling with only 12 varsity players. We've been playing good first halves, but then we have no energy for the second halves

"But we're getting better. We're trying to play with some technique.'

Livonia Churchill High's Lexi McFarlane (middle) will play golf next fall at Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College after recently signing an NJCAA letter-of-intent. McFarlane was a four-year letter winner in golf, as well as a letter winner in cross country for the Chargers. She was a two-time All Conference and All-Observer golf selection who earned a top 10 individual regional finish and was a participant in the 2007 Division 1 state team finals with the Chargers. Pictured with McFarlane are (from left) Scottsdale coach Todd Howard, father Bob McFarlane, mother Jackie McFarlane and Scottsdale CC's women's athletic director Darcel Coco.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

Stevenson pom tryouts

Tryouts for the Livonia Stevenson High varsity pom squad will be Monday through Thursday, May 4-7, at the high school fieldhouse.

The clinic will run from 7-9 p.m. Monday through Wednesday, May 4-6, while the actual tryout will be from 6-9 p.m. Thursday, May 7.

The clinic will tech a pom and dance routine as well as a short kickline. Girls should wear plain, white T-shirts and gym shorts during the clinics (A CD of the tryout songs will be available for $1 for own personal practice time usage.)

For tryouts, participants must be on hand no later than 4 p.m. Dress is a plain white T-shirt, navy or black shorts with white Ked-style shoes.

The season will run from June through November. It also includes practices from 7-9 p.m. Monday through Thursday. All participants must attend a camp from July 19-22 at Northwood University in Midland.

Under MHSAA rules, all those interested in trying out must have a current physical. If you are a current eightgrader, you must provide a copy of your physical exam form from the middle school dated on or after April 15, 2008. If you do not have a current physical exam form, contact your doctor immediately or Dr. George M. Nicoloff, M.D., out of Novi, for a $15 fee. (That office number is 248-615-3564.)

For more information, call Stevenson athletic director Lori Hyman at (734) 744-2894; or e-mail lhyman@ livonia.k12.mi.us.

Learn to Play Golf

The Fox Hills Learning Center in Plymouth will hold three sessions of its Get Golf Ready in 5 Days program - May 11-15, June 8-12 and July 13-17 - for $149 per person.

The five introductory lessons will be conducted by PGA and LPGA pros in a small-group environment.

Blazers 3-0 at Pinckney Tourney

Livonia Ladywood is off to an impressive start to the 2009 girls softball season.

The Blazers captured the Pinckney Tournament over the weekend with a 5-0 victory over the host Pirates in the championship final as freshman pitcher Briana Combs threw a two-hit, complete game while striking out 13. Julie Bushart, Jennifer Kelley and Gina Sykes each collected two hits for the Blazers, now 3-0 overall. One of Bushart's hits was a tapemeasure homer.

In tourney opener, Cara Miller clubbed a 3-run homer and Combs threw a one-hitter while striking out 14 as the Blazers turned back Dexter, 3-0.

In the second game, Courtney LaValley, Alyssa Gietl and Sara Stempin each had two hits in Ladywood's 9-4 triumph over Allen Park.

Madonna golfers runner-up

The Madonna University men's golf team improved 16 strokes from its first-day total to fire a 369 and place second Saturday at the Bill Gettig eight strokes from day one, carding a 71 to tie Lawrey for the low round of the day. Brett Quitiquit (Highland) turned in a 72 (148) while Matt Robinson ing tailback Aisha Brown, who was out with a knee injury. Danielle Paulozzi was also making her first start in the backfield.

Starting linebackers Catherine Moss and Yolanda Riggs were also out with injuries suffered in the opener against the Wisconsin Warriors, while rookie defensive end Shavone Redd hurt her groin during the opening kickoff at Pittsburgh and did not return.

"I try to make few excuses – they (the Passion) just played well and we didn't," Demolition coach Tony Blankenship said. "And to compound those three factors - they're good football team, we were away from home, and haven't been in that kind of atmosphere. We were not able to do it on defensive side of ball. We couldn't move it or run it. We were able to throw it, but there was no consistency. And we didn't do a good job of coaching."

The Demolition hopes to get Brown and Riggs back in the lineup for this week.

"We're still a young team with more players that are still learning their positions and how to play the game," Blankenship said. "So the coaching staff has to come back and keep teaching the players how to maximize their performances at their position and have an effective game plan.

"We wanted to be safe with Aisha. But not having her explosiveness and speed was missed. If we can get healthy, we'll be a good football team. We'll keep our fingers crossed. I feel good about this group and we still have a chance to be good football team."

The Divas, 1-0, are coming off a 33-0 win in Week One against the Baltimore (Md.) Nighthawks.

"The Divas are another great team," Blankenship said. "But we are always tough at home and we have never been beaten at home in our history, or twice in a row. So we'll come out to play and to win."

Special early purchase and group rates are available for Demolition home games. Tickets at the gate are $9 for adults and $5 for seniors and students.

Marking and lifting a ball

By Jeanne Myers

Marking a golf ball seems to be a simple thing, but most of us haven't spent much time reading the rules dealing with marking. For example, most golfers believe that they have to mark the ball on a cart path before they lift it to take relief, but that is not the case. Rule 20-1 says you only need to mark a ball before lifting it if you are going to have to put it back (replace it). That would be the case on the putting green, or if someone asks you to lift your ball because it interferes with his or her shot. But when you are taking relief from a cart part, you are not going to have to replace the ball on the path -you are going to drop it somewhere else. Therefore, you do not have to mark it. You can, but it is not necessary. This is also true if you are taking relief from any other immovable obstruction, or abnormal ground conditions such as casual water, ground under repair, or a hole made by a burrowing animal.

A ball may be lifted by the player, his or her partner or another person authorized by the player (such as the player's caddie). Just as a side note here, it may be replaced by the player, his or her partner or the person who lifted it. So you can see that if a caddie lifts the ball, the player may replace it. But if the player lifts the ball, the caddie may not replace it. If a fellow competitor lifts your ball without your authority during a stroke play, there is still no penalty and the ball gets replaced. However, in match play, if your opponent lifts your ball without your authority, he gets a one-stroke penalty.

When marking a ball on the green, the marker may be placed behind, to the side of or in front of the ball as long as nothing is done (i.e. pressing down a tuft of grass) to influence the movement of the ball when played. There are lots of ways to mark a ball, many of them not recommended, but they are permissible. You may place the toe of a club at the side of or behind a ball. You may use a tee or a handy loose impediment (make sure it won't blow away). You may not just point out a blemish near your ball and use that as a mark - you must physically mark the position of the ball.

Is there a "correct" way to move a ball-marker to the side because it interferes with someone else's putt?

You may measure from the side of the ball or from the ball-marker, as long as you reverse the exact same process to get the ball back on the spot from which it was lifted.

What happens if the ball or ballmarker is accidentally moved in this marking/lifting process?

There is no penalty provided the movement of the ball or marker is directly attributable to the specific actof marking/lifting.That means if you nudge the ball forward as you are marking, you do not have a problem. But, if you are walking up to mark your ball and drop your putter on the ball, that will be a penalty of one stroke, and the ball must be replaced.

One point to remember: once you mark and lift your ball from the putting green it is no longer the "ball in play" – it has become part of your equipment. Once you replace it on the spot from which you lifted it, it is again the ball in play – even if you leave your marker in place. Therefore, if the wind blows it somewhere else, you must play it from its new location!

Invitational hosted at the Zollner Golf Course and Trine University (Ind.).

Junior Kyle Lawrey (Grand Blanc) finished second, carding a second-day round of 71, three strokes less than on Friday for a total of 145.

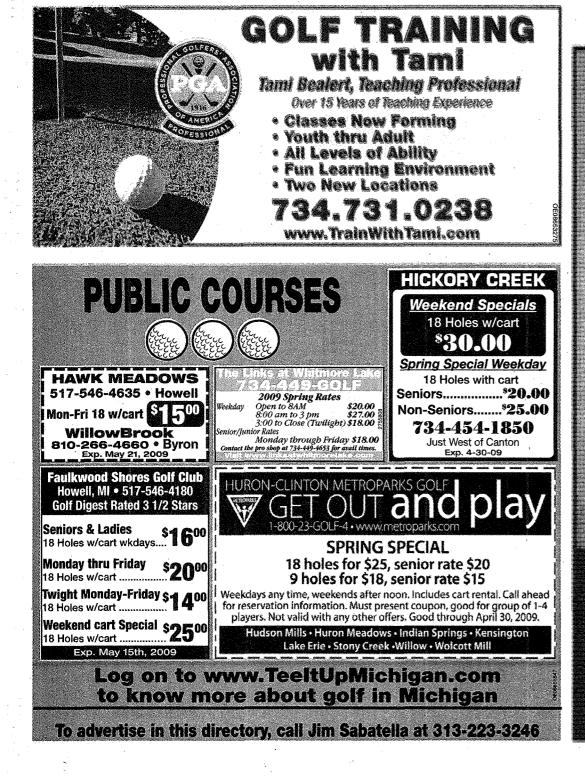

Sophomore Austin Stillman (Livonia Franklin) improved (Livonia Churchill) shot a 77 (156) and Westland's Steve South (Franklin) carded a 78 (155) to round out the scoring for MU.

The Crusaders improved four spots from day one, finishing just three strokes behind Huntington College of Indiana (751) for top honors.

ALL-AREA SWIMMING

All-Observer swimmers compete in the fast lane

FIRST TEAM Chris Behler, Sr., Livonia Stevenson: All-State honors as part of the Spartans' 200- and 400-yard relay contingents. Behler will take his pool talents to Wayne State University in the fall.

"Chris was one of our surprise seniors who came on real strong at the end of the season," said Stevenson coach Jeff Shoemaker. "His quality training during the season paid off for him with all his accomplishments."

Aaron Marecki, Jr., Stevenson: The junior reduced his times significantly from his sophomore season and earned All-State accolades in four events: the

All state accolates in four events, the 50 freestyle, 100 freestyle, 200 freestyle relay and 400 freestyle relay. "People now know the name Aaron Marecki," said Shoemaker. "He will be team captain next year and I know he will lead this team with confidence.

Michael Cruce, Sr., Stevenson: The senior captain proved to be an outstanding leader, both in the pool and out. An All-State performer, he will swim for Grand Valley State University in the fall.

"Mike overcame huge adversity just to be able to swim for us this year, 'said Shoemaker. "He is an excellent leader." Matt Collingwood, Soph., Salem: The 10th-grader qualified for the Division 1 state meet in the 200- and 500-yard freestyle events this past season. He earned a spot on the KLAA All-Conference squad and has earned the team's "Most Improved Swimmer" award each of the minified award each of the past two seasons. "Matt shows no significant backing off now that he has achieved success at the state level," said Salem coach Chuck Olson. "His improvement is reflected in the fact that he qualified for three individual events and two relays." Adam Seroka, Soph. Salem: Seroka has joined forces with Collingwood to give the Rocks one of the top young one-two punches in area swimming circles. He stroked his way to All-State honors in the 200 individual medley and 500 free and was voted to serve as a captain next season

"Adam proved to be one of the elite freshmen in 2008 and 2009 proved to be even better with All-State efforts in two events," said Olson. "He's on the national level with All-American consideration. It will be what Adam can accomplish in the 200 IM the next two years."

Jeff Kinsvater, Sr., Stevenson; After barely missing state-qualifying point totals the past two seasons; Kinsvater not only qualified this season, he scored at the Di meet. "Jeff is surely going to be missed next year," said Shoemaker. "Chris and his coach, Matt Breen, were able to put our diving program on the mat." Jereme Pesta, Sr., Stevenson: Pesta was instrumental in the Spartans' spectacular season, turning in All-State performances in three events. The future Eastern Michigan University swimmer was a member of Stevenson's All-American 200 medley relay foursome.

"Jereme came through in a big way for us this year," said Shoemaker. "Jereme has accomplished all these honors in just three years. I'm sure he will accomplish much more at Eastern in the coming

Victor Zhang, Fr., Canton: The freshman burst on the high school swimming scene in grand fashion, earning All-State honors in two events. The Chiefs talented ninth-grader placed fifth at the D1 state meet in the 200 individual medley (1:57.56) and eighth in the 100 backstroke (55.60).

Joey Wingett, Sr., Stevenson: Wingett was not only a stellar captain, but he thrived in the water as well earning All-American laurels as a member of the Spartans' 200 medley relay contingent and All-State recognition in the 100 breaststroke.

"Joey was an awesome motivational leader this year," said Shoemaker. "I could use a captain like Joey every year. He is a true competitor and a pleasure to work with. I look forward to seeing him swim at Grand Valley State in the future Stevenson's 200-yard medley relay team (Kellen Schoff, Wingett, Pesta and Ryan Scott): The Spartans extraordinary foursome earned All-American honors and a fourth-place showing at the DI state meet and set a school record of 1:36.01. "This relay team was automatic All American," said Shoemaker. Stevenson's 200 freestyle relay team (Behler, Pesta, Cruce and Marecki): This talented quartet of swimmers capped an outstanding season by placing fourth at the D1 state meet a clocking of 1:27.

Stevenson's 400 freestyle relay team: (Behler, Schoff, Scott and Marecki): This relay team proved to be a fearless foursome as it went undefeated in dual meets before placing third at the DI state meet with a time of 3:12.85. SECONO TEAM

Andrew Rice, Sr., Garden City: Rice enjoyed a stellar senior season, excelling in the 50-yard freestyle, the 100 butterfly and the 200- and 400-yard freestyle relays. He qualified for the Division 2 state meet in the 50 free with a school-record time of 22.96 seconds in a dual weet against Wyandotte. The four-year varsity performer – two years at Redford Thurston and two at Garden City – also qualified for the state meet in the 100 fly.

"Andy's determination to qualify for the state meet was like an infectious disease and an inspiration to the whole team," said Garden City coach Julie Johnston, "So much so that we had four other events that the team was close as far as state-qualifying times The entire team worked hard for their accomplishments this season and Andy was the inspiration for it all." Ryan Scott, Sr., Stevenson: The future Wayne State University pre-med student was a versatile member of the Spartans' deep and talented squad, earning All-American status as a member of the 200 medley relay squad and All-State honors for his efforts in the 200 freestyle relay. "Ryan was a very pivotal member of this year's state team," said Shoemaker. "He really came through for us this year. Without his contributions, we would have fallen much lower than fifth place at the state meet. He is a prime example of the type of athlete we try to develop at Stevenson.

Richard Zhang, Sr., Canton: Zhang was an invaluable member of the Chiefs' team this past winter, excelling in the freestyle events. The future University of Michigan student qualified for the state meet in two events

Daniel Schoff, Jr., Stevenson: The junior, who qualified for the state meet in the 500 freestyle this past winter, will be the Spartans' top returning distance swimmer next fall.

"Daniel had a breakthrough season," said Shoemaker. "He will definitely be needed in order for this team to have the success we had this year. I look forward to watching him his senior season. Charles Turlo, Sr., Stevenson: The senior peaked his final season in high school and opened a lot of eyes with his performances in the 200 IM and 100 breaststroke. Turlo future plans include majoring in medicine at Wayne State University.

"Charles is a very hard trainer and he surprised us all with his state-qualifying times in the 200 IM and 100 breaststroke, said Shoemaker. "He could swim any event and was often asked to swim other events in order for the team to succeed Travis Holt, Sr., Livonia Churchill: The senior was one of the Kensington Lakes Activities Association's elite divers, placing fifth at the conference championship meet with a score of 330.05 Noah Santer, Fr., Salem: The future is bright for this Rock ninth-grader, who qualified for the D1 state meet in two events: the 100 butterfly, (37th place) and the 500 freestyle (44th). He earned All-

KLAA honors and was voted as the team's most-improved freshman

"Noah was a great addition to our team this season," said Olson. "He is an excellent trainer and competitor. Whatever event the team needed him to swim, he was always ready. Noah is also an outstanding student with a 4.0 grade point average. Bryan Bielecki, Jr., Stevenson: The junior played a pivotal role in the Spartans winning the inaugural KLAA

Conference championship as he placed fifth in the 200 IM (2;05.29) and sixth in the 100 backstroke (57,40). Dan Stoscup, Sr., Plymouth: Stoscup capped a sensational high school swimming career by qualifying for the DI state meet in the 100 breaststroke, where he placed 34th with a time of 1:02.99.

200 medley relay: Canton (Jay Jin, Ryan Boes, Richard Zhang, Patrick Jenner): This Chiefs' foursome clicked all season, especially late when they placed fifth at the inaugural KLAA Conference nionship me championship meet. 200 freestyle relay:

Salem (Santer, Collingwood, Max Mills, Seroka): This foursome placed fourth at the Salem KLAA Conference meet and earned an All-KLAA nod. "Generally, the four swimmers on your 200 free relay team are juniors and seniors," said Olson. "Rarely do you find three sophomores a freshman competing at the state meet, which gave them great experience for the future

400 freestyle relay: Salem (Santer, Collingwood, Mills, Seroka): The group of underclassmen are a threat to do serious damage at the conference and state meets in the coming years after finishing 24th at this year's state meet and fourth at the KLAA meet. "These four young men are going to make a lot of noise in the state the next several years," said Olson. "They push each other to do their best in practices and meets. They are all very good students as well. Coach of the Year: Jeff Shoemaker, Stevenson: In his seventh season as head coach, the highly acclaimed Shoemaker led the Spartans to a fifth-place showing at the Division 1 state meet and to a championship effort at the inaugural KLAA Conference

"I was very happy with the team this year," Shoemaker said. "They all trained extremely hard and deserve all of their accomplishments. We ended up fifth in the state and just 4.5 points away from fourth meet

"We lost about half our team to graduation and there are plenty of shoes to fill. I am looking forward to next year and filling all these shoes and starting with some new faces.

Westland-Garden City Strictly Business

IT'S YOUR BUSINESS Q&A

TOM HAWLEY | STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

Catherine Buchanan is showroom manager at the family owned and operated Independent Carpet One Floor & Home on Wayne Road in Westland.

Independent Carpet focuses on service

Observer: Tell us about your business, including the types of service and/or products you feature.

We are a family owned and operated store serving the Westland community for more than 40 years. Carl and Fran Francavilla started the business with Carl's younger brother and another family. Little did they know it would grow into the family business that it is today. The store is now operated by Carl and Fran's children - Carl Francavilla Jr. Robert Francavilla and Catherine Buchanan. Independent Carpet One Floor & Home is a full service floor covering retailer. We have a 10,000square foot showroom that houses carpet, vinyl, laminates, ceramic, hardwood and area rugs. In addition to our showroom there is a 13,000-square foot warehouse stocked with material available for immediate installation.

Observer: How did you decide to open your first business?

We had always owned the business but didn't take it over on a permanent basis until 1977 when our family moved back into the area. Carl Francavilla Sr. had always worked in the flooring industry as a manufacturer's rep and upon hearing that this particular location in Westland needed some managerial attention the family decided to actually take over and turn it into the business it is today. Do you have a funny tidbit or story to share with our readers about your experience so far as a small business? Our customers trust us. Maybe it's knowing we're a family business maybe it's because we've been here so long. Whatever the case,

Free planner

A. 1997

People who recently lost their jobs can visit the FranklinCovey Products store in Laurel Park Place Mall, Six Mile at Newburgh, Livonia, Friday-Saturday, April 24-25, to receive a free 2009 Franklin Planner and binder. All they need to do is provide the name of their last employer and supervisor and the date they were laid off. Availability is on select January 2009 planners while supplies last.

Getting organized for a job search can ultimately save much time and frustration. Having one place to track all information, contacts, appointments, job leads and interview notes can make a job search less stressful and more productive.

Planning and organization are an integral component of a job search. FranklinCovey products and tools can bring focus, direction and a sense of purpose to an individual's daily decisions and can help lesson the panic that surrounds a job loss. For store hours, call (734)

BARBARA M. DAVIS Of Grand Blanc, formerly of Plymouth, Michigan, age 76, died peacefully Saturday, April 11, 2009. Barbara resided at Clare Bridge of Grand Blanc. Barbara was born July 29, 1932 in Elgin, IL to Monroe and Eleanor Thompson. She was the youngest of five girls. After graduating from Olivet Nazarene College with a degree in Education, Barbara married Edward Davis on December 22, 1955. They lived in Grand Rapids, MI for several years before moving to Plymouth. Following a short teaching career, Barbara was a secretary and homemaker. She enjoyed needlework, gardening, antiquing and traveling with friends. Barbara was a long time member of Detroit First Church of the Nazarene located in Far mington Hills, MI. She was the "unofficial greeter," always smiling and greeting people with a warm hello. She survived by daughters, Melinda Weber and husband Larry of Flushing, MI. Lisabeth Hillman and husband Brian of Sherman Oaks, CA; grandchildren, Emily Weber, Grant, Troy and Tate Hillman. She is also survived by sisters, Juanita Thompson and Virginia Carron. She was preceded in death by husband, Edward Davis, as well as sisters, Lucille Thompson and Dorothy Chellew. The family would like to offer their sincere gratitude to Dr. Braver, the entire Clare Bridge staff and Home & Hospice Advantage. The love and care they gave to our mother will always be remembered. Those desiring may wish to make a donation to the Alzheimer's Association in her memory. Barbara

A stroll down memory lane: Prom lets women be 16 again

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN O&E STAFF WRITER

It seems a lot of women want to be 16 again. The Mom Prom started as a night out for a dozen women to revisit their high school years, but it's growing into a national phenomenon. On Friday, April 24, local women will have the opportunity to leave the kids and husband home and dance the night away at a prom put on by the Mom's Group at St. Thomas a Becket Catholic Church in Canton. This year's charity event takes place from 8-11 p.m. at the church with proceeds going to the First Step domestic violence shelter and St. Vincent de Paul.

Even those who have outgrown their prom gowns improvise. Betsy Crapps still fits into the dress she wore as a senior to her high school prom in 1988.

"This is our fourth year. The first year there were just 12 of us," said Crapps of Canton. "We went to dinner and dancing in our dresses. We said we should put our gowns to good use and more women heard

"Last year some women came in with T-shirts on underneath their gowns because they couldn't zip up the back. A lot of women wear old bridesmaid dresses. Last year three women wore their wedding gowns. Some go out to consignment shops just to find something to wear for the tackiest dress contest. It's a night for women to be silly and 16 again."

Brothers bring back '60s to feed hungry children

B8

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN O&E STAFF WRITER

David Birchler jokes that he and his brothers are children of the '60s. They still play the music they learned in high school and never learned anything else. The audience won't be laughing though when 3 of the 5 Birchler brothers take the stage at Jammin' to End Famine Friday, April 24, at the Monaghan Knights of Columbus in Livonia. They'll be to busy grooving to the sounds of Motown, American rock and psychedelic tunes as The Paisley Fogg brings back the era of flower children.

The 60s is just one of the decades covered by 5 bands at the second annual fund-raiser for Kids Against Hunger. The Paisley Fogg will be joined by singer/songwriter Mark Edwards; The Shawn Riley Band performing a tribute to '50s music; British Beat 66, the Canadian ambassadors of the British invasion, and 2 Dayz Gone with '80s and '90s rock n' roll.

By day David Birchler is a city planning consultant with Birchler Arroyo Associates in Lathrup Village, but on Friday night he goes back to his carefree guitarist days to raise money to feed children around the world. Kids Against Hunger partners with humanitarian organizations like the Kiwanis Club of Colonial Plymouth to package a specially formulated soy-rice casserole for starving children in more than 40 countries.

"I think famine relief is an important topic with what's going on internationally and in this country with the economy," said David Birchler of Birmingham. "Kids Against Famine gets young people involved in a good cause at a young age by packaging food for those in need. They get kids involved and give them a taste for that good feeling you get for volunteering. At last year's event the Kids Against Hunger folks cooked up some of the soy and rice to show people it's very nutritious."

John Birchler knows first hand the difference the nonprofit makes in the lives of hungry children. He is past president of the Kiwanis Club of Colonial Plymouth, the organization which has donated more than $50,000 and helped package more than 1 million meals over the last 5 years. In November 2007 John invited his brother Tom for a day-long packaging extravaganza in Okemos.

"We packed 100,000 meals in one day but could have done 200,000 but raised enough money to do only 100,000. My brother Tom saw that and said it's really about raising enough money for supplies," said John Birchler, a financial advisor who lives in Plymouth. John sings a couple of songs at the fund-raiser with his brothers Tom, David and Keith and their Paisley Fogg band. "We do about 30 of these events a year. I've been a member of the Plymouth Kiwanis a dozen years and Kids Against Hunger is the best project we've ever done."

It was only natural Tom would suggest a concert to raise money for the nonprofit that feeds starving children. For the Birchler brothers it's always been electric guitars. Their parents bought them a cheap acoustic at a young age along with The Beatles' Rubber Soul album from which they learned their first songs. Through the years Tom played professionally with groups like Scratch, Steve King & the Dittlies and The Paisley Fogg.

"I'm playing in Paisley Fogg with 2 of the 5 Birchler brothers,' said Tom, a Livonia musician. "My brother Jim is playing with the Shawn Riley Band. Back in high school he did 50s music inspired by Happy Days and is kind of recreating their high school band, We're all graduates of Brother Rice. Paisley Fogg is playing 60s rock, Motown, the Beach Boys, Mamas and Papas, Janis Joplin with our female vocalist Dawn Dehring. We play a lot of summer festival series, Birmingham, Franklin, June 12 in Farmington. We also play the Dream Cruise Saturday Aug. 15, in Ferndale."

For the last 3 years the Birchler brothers supported different organizations by playing a concert. Two years ago they decided to rename the event and support Kids Against Hunger. Last year's event brought in $6,000.

"Jammin' was dreamed up by brother Dave and I get the entertainment together," said Tom. "It's a Birchler family event. We like to play and like to do something good for a worthy organization. My son Mark Warren with 2 Dayz Gone is closing the show and last year his 5-year-old son Markie, my grandson sang Bon Jovi and stole the show. Our brother John usually makes a guest appearance with Paisley Fogg. We have that sibling harmony that you can't learn. The Bee Gees have it. The Birchlers have it."

Jammin' to End Famine takes place Friday April 24, at the Monaghan Knights of Columbus, 19801 Farmington Rd., Livonia. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are $20 and available at the door or in advance by contacting Tom Birchler at tbirchler@twmi. rr.com. Cost includes the concert, pizza, salad, sweets and a cash bar. FOOD & WINE

The affordable tastes of Italy is business card reads, "Council for export of prestigious Italian wines." Prestigious, though, may ring expensive. Not, however, when it comes to many cialists who own their own vineyards and produce around 5,000 cases annually." WHITE WINES

From Grave-Friuli in northeast Italy, Banear Principe Dei Conti 2007 Pinot Grigio, $13, is decidedly mineral with hints of almonds - not your run-of-the-mill pinot grigio. It's a red wine in a white suit," says Biscardo.

Vallerosa-Bonci 2007 Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi Classico, $15, is from the Marche region. White flowers and crisp green apple notes lead to a layered, complex and creamy wine with minty spice. Biscardo dubs it, "big wine at a little price."

RED WINES

Sicily's warm climate turns Sangiovese in 2007 Terre di Sole, $14, to an easy-drinking great wine for Italian food. It's screaming, "drink me now," Biscardo quips.

Agriverde 2007 Piane di Maggio Montepulciano from Abruzzo, $13, confirms our opinion that the Abruzzo region has the best value red wines in all of Italy. Biscardo calls this wine "the friendly one." We say, what a bargain!

From Puglia, Feudo di San Nicola 2007 Negro Amaro, $18, is a more complex wine, brimming with bright plum and cherry flavors. An anise touch in the finish pairs it well with grilled meats, game and aged cheeses. Biscardo's remark, "a southern wine with a northern accent," rings true.

CANTON FARMERS MARKET CANTON - Canton Farmers

Market will kicks off its third season 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sunday, April 26 at the Bartlett-Travis House, located at 500 N. Ridge. It will be open every Sunday through Oct. 25 rain or shine at the historic site.

New and returning vendors will offer a variety of merchandise, as it becomes available, including fresh fruits and vegetables, bread, baked goods, flowers, herbs, jellies, jams, cider, honey and much more. Opening day will include the Spice Up Your Summer Cook Off Series challenge, featuring the Best Burger Blowout.

Call (734) 398-5570, Ext. 5, or visit www.leisure.canton-mi.org.

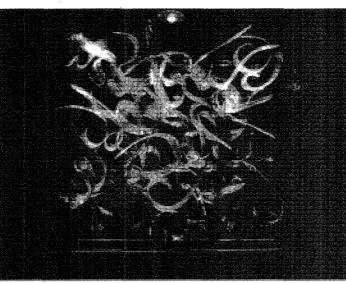

RUGBY GRILLE REVAMPS

BIRMINGHAM - The Townsend Hotel's renowned Rugby Grille has implemented enhancements to its décor and menu.

Led by Chef Bologna and Director of Restaurant Operations Keith Schofield, the new Rugby Grille menu keeps favorites like Steak Tartare and Dover Sole prepared tableside, but adds dishes like a Veal Chop presented with a Warm Frisee Salad, Fingerling Potatoes, Morel Mushrooms, Pancetta and a Truffled Vinaigrette, and Braised Beef Short Ribs served with a Fava Bean and Sweet Corn Succotash, Shaved Parmesan, and a Natural Reduction.

The new decor incorporates artwork from some of metro Detroit's finest artists, from Park West Gallery in Southfield, including glass sculpture by April Wagner and Jason Ruff, and paintings by Tim Yanke, Simon Attendees are also invited to help honor this year's Plymouth Service Club's Volunteers of the Year and the Student Citizen Scholarship Award winner's during a short recognition ceremony in the Atrium at 6 p.m.

Featured restaurants include Bennigan's, E.G. Nick's, Fancy Food Catering, Fiamma Grill, Grand Traverse Pie Company, Independence Village, Leo's Coney Island, Mill Street Gourmet Pastries, Omlette & Waffle Café, Panera Bread, Rusty Bucket, Station 885, Toarmina's Pizza, Zapata's and more. Beverages will be provided courtesy of Absopure and Central Distributors of Beer. Inn at St. John's is located at 44045 Five Mile Road, Plymouth. Visit www. theinnatstjohns.com.

DSO HOSTS BACCHANALIA DETROIT – The very popular

DSO deCanted, a wine tasting and auction, sponsored by the Volunteer Council of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, will be held at the Detroit Athletic Club, 241 Madison Avenue, Detroit 6-8:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 13.

Friends and supporters of the DSO will enjoy sampling an outstanding selection of wines from Argentina that will be expertly paired with an array of savory hors d'oeuvres. Oenophiles will have the opportunity to nurture their love of fine and unusual wines by bidding on any number of exceptional wines, some from the personal cellars of serious collectors, along with other unique wine related items.

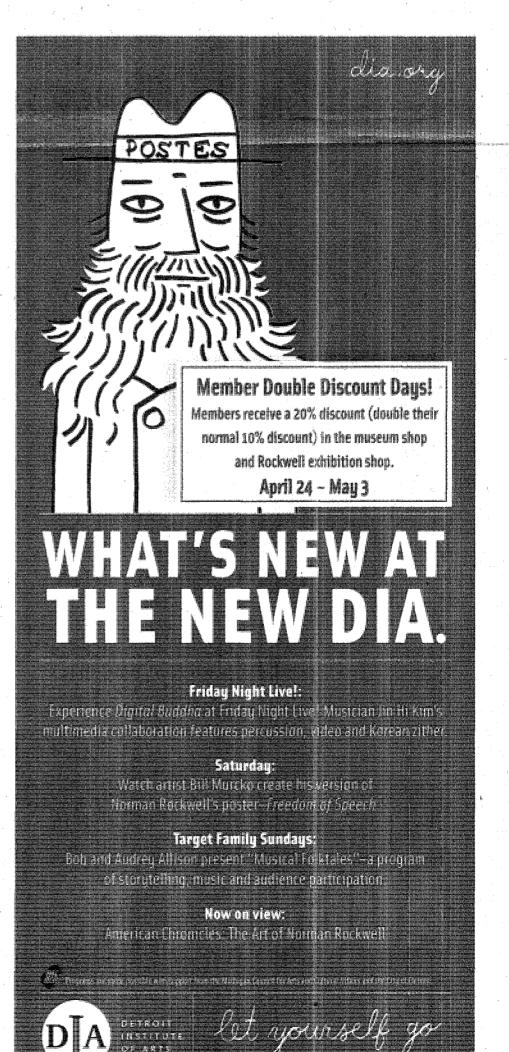

Adding to the evening's festivities, this year's feast of fine wine and strolling dinner features a live auction led by WDIV-TV personality, Andrew Humphrey which will begin at 7:15 p.m.

To order tickets, $95-$175, call (313) 576-5154 or visit www. detroitsymphony.com.

Negro Amaro, also spelled sometimes as one word, negroamaro, is an ancient Italian variety, grown almost exclusively in Puglia, the heel of Italy's boot. Its mellow tannins and good acidity make it a stellar food pairing.

Clay, limestone and sandy soils of the Le Gagie vineyard of Tenuta La Meridiana allow the crafting of its 2006 Barbera d'Asti, $20, from the Piedmont. Aging a year in neutral oak barrels have given the wine roundness and a layered profile.

BISCARDO PERFECTION

Marchesi Biscardo 2005 Valpolicella Classico Superiore "Ripasso," $30, illustrates the commitment of the Biscardo family to the most well-known red from the Veneto region. Ripasso means fermented for three weeks in oak casks containing the grape skins used to make the highly-prized Amarone. Additional 14 months' aging in barrel have created a wine with aromatic and flavor complexity. Another wine from the Biscardos is the full-bodied Ortaglia 2003 Vino Nobile di Montepulciano DOCG Riserva, $38.

For information on where to buy these wines, phone Eagle Eye Imports, (734) 467-7088.
