Help available

The Salvation Army Wayne-Westland Corps has money available to offer client families one-time assistance paying their bills.

The corps received $27,000 from its territorial level recently, but only about $7,000 has been spent, said corps commander Capt. Derek Rose.

Those eligible now can receive at least $150 per client family. Previously, that had been the maximum.

Those who have lost their jobs should contact Robin Rutledge-Clarke, to make an appointment, at (734) 722-3660, Ext. 107. She is the Salvation Army caseworker for Wayne-Westland.

We have about $20,000 left," Rose

The $150 is no longer a maximum, but the amount will be based on needs. The one-time assistance for client families is intended for prescriptions, rent, utilities, home and vehicle repair, as well as car insurance.

Recipients must live in Wayne, Westland, Romulus, Inkster or New Boston, the service area for the local Salvation Army, which is both a church and a social service organiza-

"To save gas, call and set up an appointment," Rose said.

The corps center is on Venoy, south of Palmer in Westland.

Vote could put soccer complex at Cooper

BY KAREN SMITH OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The Livonia school board will vote Monday on a controversial agreement to allow a company to lease the old Cooper School site in Westland for a soccer complex.

Under the terms of the agreement, the school district would use $800,000 from a Michigan Department of Environmental Quality grant and about $1 million from the district's sinking fund to improve the property, a former landfill. The school district would grade the property, cap the landfill, erect a soccer dome provided by the company, plant grass, build a retention pond, install an irrigation system and fields and a dome for indoor soccer.

add a parking lot and lights. Oakland County-based Breeze Management would lease about half of the 40-acre site for 35 years, paying the school district about $2 million over that time period. The company would manage the complex, Mang said they are concerned about which would include four outdoor soccer fields, a couple of training

If the company defaults, the school district gets to keep the dome.

If the agreement is approved, construction may begin in December or January, Supt. Randy Liepa said.

Chess boards find place among library books

Spencer Wooley describes himself as the feel good person. Play a game of chess against the almost 10-year-old and you'll feel good because you won. Most people would feel down about that, but not Spencer. He smiles and moves on to another opponent and another game at Chess Night at the William P. Faust Public Library in Westland.

"I don't win all the time, but I know the rules," said the Garden City youth. "I've been playing here since this opened and I've been getting my butt kicked a lot, too."

"He's a pretty sharp little guy," said his grandfather, Ron LeBourdais of Livonia, who watched the gamesmanship from an upholstered chair across the room. "He'll play with anyone, he just wants to play."

Every Thursday night, reference librarian Kristy Cooper sets out chess sets in the library's Faust Area for players who stop by for a game or two or three. Now in its second month, interest in Chess Night is slowly building with more and more people showing up.

"Last week, we had 15 players with all different abilities," said Cooper.

The success of the popular Wednesday evening Knitting Night at the library was the impetus for Chess Night. Like Knitting Night, the belief is that Chess Night will become self-sustaining once it gets going, Cooper said.

"It's a good community gathering, people get to know each other and want to go against the other person

Chamber of Commerce stages annual expo at mall

BY SUE MASON OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Westland Shopping Center may be known for its variety of retailers, but Saturday the Westland Chamber of Commerce will transform the mall's East Court into a Health and Business Expo.

This is the eighth year the chamber has held the event, offering its members the opportunity to advertise their goods and services in a popular August shopping destina-

"It's an opportunity for businesses to connect with the community,"

said Brookellen Swope, chamber president and CEO. "It helps draw people to the mall and bridges the gap between the business and residential community."

Some 30 businesses will participate in the event, which will take place from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Aug. 22. Among those in attendance will be representatives of Garden City Hospital and Livonia St. Mary Mercy Hospital, who will do health screenings. Chiropractic doctors will do chair massages and there also will be dentists and vision specialists on hand to talk to shoppers.

On the business side, financial institutions, cell phone companies and the Livonia Family YMCA will be among chamber members ready to talk to people about what they have to offer.

Swope estimates that attendance has more than doubled since moving the event to a Saturday. Holding it when the mall is filled with families doing back-to-school shopping also helps.

Businesses participating in the expo include Parkside Credit Union, St. Mary Mercy Hospital, Westland Shopping Center, AT&T My Link, C&M Printing & Imaging, city of Westland, Comfort smason@hometownlife.com | (313) 222-6751

"It's a good event that a lot of members enjoy and it's another opportunity for them to network with the community," Swope said.

CARS makes dealers, buyers happy

BY SUE MASON OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

As Susan Ianni sees it, Cash for Clunkers is the wrong name for the highly popular federal Car Allowance Rebate System (CARS). Aimed at increasing auto sales, the point of the program is to swap vehicles with 18 mpg or less for today's more fuel efficient models.

"They should call it Cash for Guzzlers," said Ianni, general manager of Gordon Chevrolet in Garden City. "They're trying to get the gas guzzlers off the road, so people come in, find out if their clunker qualifies and get the rebates from the federal government and GM."

Ianni calls Gordon Chevrolet the "anchor" of an almost threemile stretch of Ford Road in Westland and Garden City where program.

Teen has new view of Detroit after doing home 'makeover'

BY PAT MURPHY OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Western Wayne County has helped change the image of Detroit — at least in the eyes of Sara Willis, a high school student from the "Show-Me" State of Missouri.

Willis is one of dozens of young people who slept in the gym at Our Lady of Loretto Catholic Church in Redford while renovating the Detroit home of a single mother who recently lost her job.

"My friends wondered why I was going to Detroit," said Willis, who will be a senior high school student this fall in Marshall, Mo., about an hour's drive east of Kansas City. They were all aware of Detroit's reputation, she said, and they were convinced she'd get hurt.

She didn't get hurt, said

"I really enjoyed myself," she

Motor City. "The people are so nice," said Willis, a member of the First Baptist Church of Marshall.

Willis decided to come to Detroit — rather than an area of St. Louis or another community in her home state — because she likes to travel. She could help repair houses closer to home, she said. But she wanted an experience in a different state.

The kids were great, said Delores Green, who with her five kids (ages 12 or younger) lives in the house Willis and the other youngsters painted and repaired doing what they call a "makeover." The youngsters did everything she asked "and they were fun to be around," said Green.

Willis and the other 16 youngsters working on the house seemed to have fun as well.

"LifeChangers encourage young people to live out the teachings of the Bible," said Wayne Vann, a Livonia resident and spokesman for the group.

They are part of LifeChangers, a co-educational, hands-on mission project of the Greater Detroit Baptist Association.

"LifeChangers encourage young people (grades seven through 12 and their college-aged mentors) to live out the teachings of the Bible," said Wayne Vann, a Livonia resident and spokesman for the Eighty-four teenagers and 14 college students were in the metro area in late July, working in teams at several houses. In conjunction with Northwest Detroit Neighborhood Development Inc., they worked to repair or demolish several houses in the Brightmoor area. In the morning they worked on homes, and in the afternoon they participated in backyard Bible clubs at elementary schools.

After that, the youngsters spent much of their time in Redford Township. They took showers at Thurston High School and slept in the Lady of Loretto gym - usually discussing the day's activities or participating in team-building exercises, said Vann.

"They also have devotional time," he said.

"Our youngsters come from all over," said Vann, and each pays $150 to cover the week's expenses.

Ashley Noeyack, a member of the Merriman Road Baptist Church in Garden City and a senior at John Glenn High School in Westland this fall, said she liked working on the Green house because she enjoys helping people — particularly those in need.

Darrel Manuel of Garden City worked the midnight shift at Ford Motor Co. before joining the youngsters working on Green's house.

"I'm a crew chief," he said, "I make sure the kids know what to do, and they do it right."

Working nights and working with the youngsters makes for a long day, Manuel said.

"But it's my way of giving back to the community and to God," he said.

W-W fills two administrative positions

BY SUE MASON OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Two veteran educators have been hired to fill principal and assistant principal positions in the Wayne-Westland Community Schools.

Bridget Regan, an elementary reading facilitator in the curriculum department of the Livonia Public Schools, is taking over as principal at Hamilton Elementary while Mary Wizinsky, a reading specialist with the Aldine Independent Schools in Houston, Texas, will join the administrative staff as an assistant principal at Wayne Memorial High School.

Regan replaces April Quasarano who has been assigned to principal's position at Schweitzer Elementary School. She is familiar with Wayne-

Westland, having done staff development in reading and writing and provided workshops at several schools, Superintendent Greg Baracy said in recommending her appointment.

I'm happy to recommend her, she will be a great asset," he said.

"I'm delighted to be a part of this school system," said Regan. "I was excited with what I saw when I had the opportunity to work in the district. When the opportunity to apply came about, I said this is for me."

A Livonia resident, she has a bachelor's degree in elementary education/language arts and a master of arts degree in reading instruction, both from Eastern Michigan University and an educational specialist degree in educational leadership from Oakland University. Her entire career has been with the Livonia Public Schools where she was a fourth-grade teacher, a language specialist working in reading recovery and as a literacy facilitator. In addition to her work with the Aldine district, Wizinsky has worked as an English teacher and leader and as the dean of student activity with the Novi Community Schools. The South Lyon resident thanked the board for her appointment, telling them that "I need to go out and buy a lottery ticket, I feel so lucky.'

"I'm absolutely ecstatic," she said. "I found this organization so warm and inviting and I knew I wanted to make my home here. I know I'm going to have a great time at Wayne Memorial. I can sense that."

Wizinsky received her associate of arts degree in physical education and health education from North Harris County College and a bachelor of arts in those two areas from Sam Houston State University. She also has a master of arts degree in leadership administration from Eastern Michigan University.

"Both of those schools are really good, I think you're going to like them," board Secretary Martha Pitsenbarger said in congratulating the two women on their appointments.

"I hope you enjoy your tenure here because we are hard working people," added Trustee Carol Middel.

vehicles and most likely will run out of inventory before the program ends. Currently, the dealership has about 200 vehicles on its lot that qualify for Cash for Clunkers — the Malibu, Impala, Equinox, Cobalt and Avail. However, it's already sold out of HHRs. According to Ianni, it hasn't been this empty since the strike year of 1997 that the dealership has had so few vehicles on its lot.

"This program was the boost the dealerships needed,' she said. "The feedback we're getting is that there's enough money to carry the program through Labor Day, but I encourage the federal government to continue the program forever. It's a great program."

Business also has picked up at Red Holman GM at Wayne and Ford roads in Westland. According to Operations Manager Mark Kowalski dealership has seen more people coming in and an increase in business since the start of the CARS program.

> "We definitely have seen an increase in our floor traffic and phone calls," he said. "A majority qualify for Cash for Clunkers, but there was a few who didn't and some that didn't qualify purchased vehicles."

Kowalski doesn't have firm sales numbers, but said the program "has been an efficient tool in getting people into the building and moving vehicles."

"It's a wonderful thing as long as we get paid by the government," he added.

Metropolitan Linco Mercury which anchors the eastern end of dealership row also has seen a boost in sales.

"It's working out great, and our customers love it," said Stan Pudelek, Metropolitan Lincoln Mercury sales manager. "We studied the government's instructions as intensely as if we were cramming for a test, so we've been able to follow the steps and make the process as easy as possible for each of our customers."

As of last week, Metropolitan had helped 50 customers replace clunkers with new Lincoln or Mercury vehicles through the CARS program. And by doing its homework, the dealership has already been reimburse by the government for the first round of "clunker deals," Pudelek said.

"Yes, it creates more paperwork for the dealership, but it's definitely worthwhile for everyone involved and we're glad the program was extended," said Pudelek. "The Mercury Milan, Mercury Mariner and Lincoln MKX are selling fast so we keep bringing in more."

"With the clunker cash plus the other great incentives we're offering through Lincoln-Mercury, it's been fun to see the excitement on our customers faces when they find what a great deal they're getting on a new car,"

While the CARS program has been a win-win for the dealerships, which include North Bros. Ford and Crestwood Dodge, and their customers, Ianni says people need to stop and take a look at the domestic car companies, especially considering that U.S. taxpayers are part own-

"People have to support their local dealerships because they support their community," she said. "It's a different world out there, we need to stick together."

sore for 15 years. We have an opportunity to do something about it."

The school, built in the 1960s, was closed in 1991 because of contamination. The district has since torn it down. A fence surrounds the site, located across from the new Cooper Upper Elementary School at 28550 Ann Arbor Trail.

Over the years, different developers have come up with three plans for the site, Liepa said. Those plans have included a senior center and a larger soccer complex than the one now proposed. Those plans fell through, primarily because of the economy.

The district will lose the grant money, if it doesn't have a plan by Sept. 30, when the grant expires, Liepa said.

Lessard said if the grant money goes away, "we're going to be stuck with that fence and weed pile forever. There's not a big market for contaminated property."

Liepa said the agreement will provide revenue to the district's general fund, which faces a $7.5 million deficit.

Several terms in the agreement protect the district, Liepa said, including a limit on how much the district will spend to improve the property.

"It's not an open blank check," he said.

Davenport's new president seeks input from community

BY KEN ABRAMCZYK OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Richard Pappas toured the Livonia campus of Davenport University on Wednesday and met with teachers and staff there, some of the first duties he's completed since taking over as Davenport's president this month.

Pappas comes to Davenport from National-Louis University in Chicago. He said he went to Davenport because it was a "perfectly fitted match" for him. "I'm glad to be back in my home state, and Davenport has a tremendous drive for excellence," Pappas said.

Pappas wanted to meet with faculty and staff in Livonia and at other Davenport campuses to develop a five-year plan. He plans to return in about a month to talk with businesses, technological firms and hospitals to find out what employer demands and needs will be over the next several years.

"Livonia is a new campus, and it is a beautiful campus," Pappas said. "We'd like to sit down with the residents and employers and have input from

That input and information will help develop a strategic plan that fits everyone's needs, whether it is a student seeking a career in an employable field or a company that needs educated workers, he said.

"I think (Davenport in Livonia) is a great fit with the needs of this particular area," Pappas said. "People want to make a difference in health care and in business. I think we can make a difference."

He also hopes to meet with Conway Jeffries, president of Schoolcraft College, to discuss a possible partnership. He hopes to meet with presidents and officials from every community college in the state, Pappas said. "I've known Conway for 15 years and he's a great leader," he said.

Pappas said he's heard positives about the Livonia campus and that staffers are excited about the new campus. He hopes to meet with business officials and the Livonia

Chamber of Commerce, too. "Quality is a key adjective of what we do," Pappas said. "We talk a lot about our new direcand academic quality," said Ken Bovee, chairman of the Davenport University Board of Trustees and member of the search committee. Bovee further noted that the board based its decision for selecting Pappas on his successful track record in strategic planning, academics, admissions, fundraising, alumni relations and community leadership.

Pappas has 35 years experience in higher education and 20 years as college and university president. Pappas holds a doctorate in higher, adult and continuing education and a master's degree in higher education and business management from the University of Michigan.

Pappas served as president of Lake Michigan College in Benton Harbor and president of Harford Community College in Bel Air, Md. He will now oversee Davenport, a private, nonprofit university which has its main campus in Grand Rapids, and offers classes at 14 locations, from Alma to Warren. Enrollment is approximately 11,000.

Davenport specializes in business, technology and health professions. The university boasts that it prepares students for 17 of the top 20 careers on the Michigan Top

Oakwood seeks design for its Red Run T-shirts

Youngsters age 12 and under can put their artistic talents to the test in designing a T-shirt for a fitness run being hosted by Oakwood Annapolis Hospital in October.

Dubbed the Junior October Mile, the run is part of the Red October Run that will held Saturday, Oct. 3, at the hospital, 33155 Annapolis, Wayne. The event will feature a 10K run, 5K run, 5K walk and Junior October Mile.

The artwork must be done on a $8 \frac{1}{2}$ -by-11-inch sheet of white paper. Designs should include no more than three colors. Felt tip pens, crayons or color pencils can be used. Include the child's name, age (as of Oct. 3) and gender along with home address and parent's phone number and/or e-mail address. Include the information in the body of e-mailed entries or on the back of artwork sent by mail. Shirt contest entries must be received no later than Sept. 1.

Entries can be mailed to Oakwood Community Health, 23400 Michigan Ave., Suite 606, Dearborn, MI 48124, ATTN: Red October Run. They also can be e-mailed as a PDF, JPG, GIF or TIFF attachment to Cynthia.Cook@oakwood.

The entries will be juried for selection by qualified professional local artists with the winning entry announced on or about Sept. 14. The winner will receive free T-shirt for child-entrant and their mother and father, as well as a special prize. All entries will be displayed in the hospital.

Time to play ball

Although Major League Baseball may call their championship the "World Series," it is only an international event when Toronto (currently the only team not based in the United States) is in it. Founded in 1939 by Carl Stotz as a three-team league in Williamsport, Penn., the Little League Baseball organization has grown to more than 200,000

teams in the United States and 80 countries. Local volunteers run its programs which are open to children between the ages of 5 and 18 at no cost. In 1974, Little League rules were changed to allow girls to participate.
There is now also a Girl's Softball league.

Some famous Little League participants include George W. Bush, Tom Seaver, Gary Sheffield, Jason Varitek, Rudy Giuliani, Kevin Costner, Bruce Springsteen, Cal Ripken, Jr., Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Jim Palmer, Tom Selleck, Nolan Ryan, Dan Quayle and Bill Bradley.

There are actually eight World Series held each year, but the best-known and publicized event is the 11-12-year-old division. Every championship game since 1963 has been televised. Divisional play in the United States began Aug. 6 with teams in eight regions all playing for a spot in the championship game at Howard J. Lamade Stadium. Likewise across the globe, teams in eight regions vie for their spot. This year's championship game will be played Aug. 30 and will be broadcast by ABC television.

If you're interested in learning more about the Little League organization, including its history and how to start a league, the official website is www.littleleague or

The William P. Faust Public Library of Westland has many books and videos that deal with baseball. The following are some items that you may want to check out that deal specifically with Little League: Randy Voorhees' "Making Little League Baseball More Fun for Kids," Peter Kreutzer's "Little League's Official How to Play Baseball Book, Mark Gola's "Little League Guide to Conditioning and Training" and "Play Ball!: Basic Fielding" (DVD).

Investors need to look forward when making decisions he government recently released the July unemployment report and, for the first time in over a year, the unemployment rate dropped. Although the economy still lost nearly 250,000 jobs, the number was much lower than anticipated. As

Money Matters a result of these better than

expected numbers, investors are asking whether we have finally turned the corner and put the recession behind us. I would love to say the recession is over. Unfortunately, I

First, let's put the unemployment numbers into perspective. It is generally agreed that the U.S. economy needs to create 100,000 jobs every month iust to account for new people entering the job market. In addition, one month does not create a trend. The government issues revised numbers, and although typically these are not material, they can be. Before getting excited about the job numbers, it's best to wait another month or two to get a clear picture.

In addition, what we all should hope for is an economy that creates new jobs.

As investors, we are flooded with economic data on a daily, weekly and monthly basis. Whether it is the unemployment report, consumer spending, personal savings rate or personal income, there is no shortage of economic data. If investors try to analyze all the data available, they would be paralyzed and end up doing nothing. In fact, when I speak to portfolio managers who handle hundreds of millions and billions of dollars, they generally tell me they focus on a few economic numbers.

Remember, economic numbers released are in the past and as investors we need to look forward. Looking at economic numbers released is like looking in your car's rear-view mirror. In reality, the main focus should be looking for-

LOOK FORWARD

An example of where looking in the rear-view mirror can cause problems is what recently happened in the stock market.

In March, all the economic numbers released showed the recession was deepening and the U.S. economy was faltering. In fact, after many investors received their February statements and saw the losses, they bailed out. They were looking through their rear-view mirror. As painful as it was for the investors who continued to look forward, they have been rewarded. Since the beginning of March, the market has rallied dramatically and investors who panicked have lost a golden opportunity.

Since March, the Dow is up more than 40 percent, the S&P 500 is up nearly 50 percent and the NASDAQ market is up date, all three of the markets are in positive territory. As I write this column, the Dow is up 7 percent year to date, the S&P 500 is up 12 percent and the NASDAQ market is up a stunning 27 percent.

I've had a number of investors ask me since the market has had this great run over the last three or four months, will it eventually pull back? I more than 50 percent. Year-to- have no clue and neither does anyone else. I've always said it is dangerous to attempt to time the market.

> My advice for people who pulled out and are sitting on cash is to consider dollar-cost averaging back into the market. Dollar-cost averaging is a strategy where you invest a certain amount of money on a regular basis, no matter what is happening in the market.

The length of investment time is based upon your comfort in the market. The key to success in investing on a regular basis.

A word of caution: Although the rest of the country may be improving, our area has significant challenges ahead. General Motors and Chrysler continue to struggle. Although Ford is doing better, it too has challenges.

I believe it will be some time before our area truly begins to recover and we must take that into consideration when handling our personal financial affairs and managing our portfolios. Good luck!

Chill at the Joe benefits First Step

First Step, is inviting families to Chill at the Joe on Sunday, Sept. 20.

This family-friendly event at Joe Louis Arena will help raise needed funds to support First Step and its mission to help women and families overcome domestic violence and sexual abuse.

Chill at the Joe will be 3-6 p.m. and feature a variety of crafts, games, entertainment, all-you-can-eat "game day fare" as well as a once-in-alifetime opportunity to tour the Red Wing's locker room. Guests also can bring their skates or rent a pair of skates to take a few laps on the ice at Joe Louis Arena and participate in hockey feats of skill.

"This event is exciting! It's a time to celebrate. It's an affordable, fun-filled event for all members of the family, at the same time helping other families to overcome violence. This event will help fill in the gaps in funding created by difficult economic times," said Judy Ellis, executive director of First Step. "I hope to see at least 1,000 people at this event to send a message of hope."

Methodist church is fabric of members' lives

BY DARRELL CLEM OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

As the historic Cherry Hill United Methodist Church in Canton celebrates its 175th year, lifelong member Dorothy Richards, 76, fondly remembers her childhood days going to Sunday School.

"I used to walk or ride my bike a half-mile to get here. We had excellent Sunday School teachers," she said, sitting in the fellowship hall. "I can't think of going anywhere else. It's become a good habit."

Richards, who chairs the trustees committee, remembers when sweet corn grew around the church, which stands on Ridge Road south of Cherry Hill as a proud reminder of the township's more rural past.

"I was baptized here, and I've never turned away," Richards said, smiling.

Like Richards, 59-year-old Bob Simmons of Inkster is a third-generation member of the church.

"I was raised here, so it's my family," he said. "I feel kind of an ownership."

The congregation began meeting in 1834 in local homes, and members say the first church, a clapboard building on the Ridge Road site, was erected a year later. Folklore has it the small gathering place caught fire before it was replaced in 1882 by the existing church, which boasts a red brick exterior, a white steeple and a basement where meticulously painted wall murals depict stories from the Old and New Testaments.

"We really do embrace the Methodist (teachings) of open hearts, open minds and open doors." Simmons said.

United Methodist Church in Belleville. He hopes to draw more people into the fold of his 52-member congregation, which comes from communities such as Canton, Livonia, Westland, Plymouth, Redford, Ypsilanti, Inkster and Belleville.

Pratt said some people mistakenly believe the church is a historic building not being used. To be sure, it has received historic designations from the township, the state of Michigan and the National Register of Historic Places, but 80 pastors later it still is a place of worship.

Marcus Swift, one of the area's first settlers and a traveling preacher, was the first minister. Moreover, Pratt has learned that one of his ancestors, Hobart Dubois, was church pastor around 1842.

Pratt was appointed pastor after he and his wife had done missionary work in Jamaica. Since then, some members of his congregation have returned to that country to take clothing to the poor. They also have assembled school supplies in backpacks for students, and they have helped Habitat for Humanity build homes for families in need.

"This is a nice place to work," Pratt said of the church, "and the people here are good folks."

The congregation has marked its 175th year in simple ways. Members had a Family Fun Fest last Saturday including food and activities, and they had a Bible School just this week.

Pratt sees his responsibilities as helping to grow the congregation in hopes the church can survive for years to

"We want it again to be a center of the community,"
Pratt said. "We want to attract new families with children."

Maybe those children, like Richards, will one day look back fondly on their early days in church. Even now, she describes it as a welcoming place where people can feel comfortable.

"We try to accept everyone," she said. "People take away a happy feeling from here."

Patriots hope to solve missing piece of puzzle

QB slot up in air

OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Livonia Franklin football coach Chris Kelbert admits he's been spoiled by his quarterback play in recent years.

The Patriots, coming off a 5-5 season, lost first-team All-Observer signal caller Mark McRobb to graduation. McRobb, who accounted for 1,889 combined passing and rushing yards. He assumed the job from another first-team All-Area pick in Jesse Carpenter.

Carpenter, meanwhile, took over the position from another first-team All-Area pick Matt McCullough, who led the Patriots to a 10-1 record

They were three reasons why the Patriots have made the postseason three of the past four years.

There a few questions marks for this year's 2009 Patriot squad. That's because Kelbert returns a slew of starters led by 6-foot-3,

Churchill plans to 'spread' the wealth

BY BRAD EMONS OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

If the second half of the 2008 Livonia Churchill football season is any indication, it's time to stock up on light bulbs for the home field score-

The Chargers' first-year spread offense lit up the board like Christmas tree during the final four games to the tune of 151 points, an average of 37.7

But the downside was that the Chargers were outscored 271-227 on the season, leaving them with a 3-6

"This is the second level of instal-- lation of the spread," Churchill 13thyear coach John Filiatraut said. "We're further ahead as far as learning and I'm interested to see how it translates. Last year we really didn't pick it up until the fifth game."

Jordan Grohoski, who started three games last season as a sophomore, takes the full-time reins at quarterback in an offensive attack tailored to his capabilities.

"He had a great off-season, he's bigger and stronger physically," Filiatraut said of the 5-foot-11, 175-pound junior. "He's accurate. he's got a good arm and runs well. He's a talented kid.

It could be a new-look Madonna University women's volleyball team this fall, but the results never get old for the Crusaders, who will be gunning for their 11th NAIA National Tournament appearance under Hall of Fame coach Jerry Abraham.

Abraham, entering his 23rd year, must replace first-team All-America Lubovj Tihomirova, who average 4.08 kills per game, and second-team All-America Whitney Fuelling (463 kills), along with front-row specialist Stephanie Parslow - all of whom graduated. "We lost three quality seniors

- offensively who were dominant kind of players that were all tremendous leaders and volleyball athletes," said Abraham, who is coming off a 35-7 season and 12th straight Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference title. "So our recruiting efforts this year were to get more firepower specifically in the outside and middle hitting positions.

"Overall we're new in a lot of spots. We're returning experience in key areas, but yet we have a lot of new players that have to fit in. That's why this preseason is more important than the last few years. But I'm confident that once we mold into a team, it could be a team that is fast and athletic. The chemistry is extremely good and I'm excited about the season."

Mary McGinnis, a 5-foot-11 senior outside hitter from Fraser who ranked second behind the 6-2 Tihomirova in total kills (474) will take on the leadership role along with fourth-year starting setter Inta Grinvalds, a 5-10 senior from Portage Central.

Abraham said both are legiti-mate All-America candidates. The other senior returnee is 5-8 defensive specialist Abby Long (LaPorte, Ind.), a three-year starter who is coming off knee surgery. "Obviously we'll count on our seniors," Abraham said. "If Abby is healthy, she'll pick up where she left off. Inta's the floor general, the leader who is able to put it antenna-to-antenna. She's a top level setter, one of the better setters in the country.

"Mary will be a captain. She had a great spring. We'll rely on her as a left-side hitter who we expect put up numbers on a consistent basis.'

McGinnis, meanwhile, is ready to assume the mantle.

"Coach (Abraham) wants me to be more vocal," McGinnis said. "Usually I try to lead by example. I've been a leader, but haven't had the seniority. I'm excited to take on the role."

Grinvalds, MU's all-time leading setter, averaged 10.83 assists per game in 2008.

Westland soccer coach LaShanna McCurtis of the Wavne Westland United Lightning has been selected Weplay. com's National Coach of the Year.

McCurtis has been coaching soccer for nine years. She and her husband developed a love for the game after their eldest daughter decided that was her sport.

The McCurtis' two younger daughters followed suit, and it has been a family affair ever since.

One of McCurtis' past squads, the MSYSA Soccer Spotlight Team, worked hard on teamwork and conditioning over the 2007 winter season and finished their spring 2008 season undefeated. The girls also attended the Kohls American Cup, where they displayed an enormous amount of selflessness and generosity by participating in the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's Kicks for Cancer program.

"Over the years, the girls I've coached have truly been an inspiration to me," McCurtis said. "Weplay has been great for this - from coordinating every day tasks during the season to staying connected with everyone all year long."

Steven Thompson, a student at Westland John Glenn, earned a gold medal at the U.S. Tae Kwon Do Junior Olympics in Austin, Tex.

Golden future

Westland's Thompson on the rise in tae kwon do

BY TIM SMITH OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Midwest Tae Kwon Do in Plymouth could be grooming a future Olympian.

Westland John Glenn's Steven Thompson certainly is on the right track toward that lofty goal, earning a gold medal at the recent USA Tae Kwon Do Junior Olympics & U.S. National Championships in Austin, Tex. and qualifying for Saturday's national team

If the 16-year-old Westland native is victorious at the Colorado Springs, Col. "fight off" at welterweight (129-to-137 pounds) he will earn a berth on the USA National Junior Team.

"I think I'm surprising people," Thompson said. "A lot of people didn't think I could make it as far as I am now, like going to teams."

One of his trademarks is dogged determination, so no matter what happens in Colorado, Thompson won't be deterred.

"I would just come back here, start training more and wait around for next year," he said.

And making the USA National Junior Team is just the next of the string of ambitious goals Thompson is planning to

"After making junior team, (goals are to) win internationally, travel around the world and play for USA and then go for the 2012 Olympics (in Chicago)," he said.

About the last goal in that list, he smiled and said it was do-able. "I think so. I always try to set myself at the highest I can go."

Thompson, whose parents are Lori and Daniel Thompson, said his Tae Kwon Do success (he came home from Texas with a gold medal in sparring in the 18-32 age bracket) is helping him grow as a complete person.

"It's making me concentrate more in school and it's making me more athletic to do other sports," said Thompson, who also played varsity soccer at John Glenn. "The agility in Tae Kwon Do is like the same thing on the soccer

"... I've grown in school, too. I got better grades since I started tae kwon do and I've met new people during tournaments and built friendships with them."

According to one of the Masters at Midwest Tae Kwon Do, fifth-degree black belt Tanya Panizzo, there's no telling what Thompson might be able to accomplish.

One of the main reasons for Panizzo's optimism is Thompson's absolute passion for the sport, which gets it's three-pronged name from "foot," "fist" and "the way."

"It started when I was six, I always loved fighting," Thompson stressed. "It's just adrenaline and energy flowing through your body. It's like you just can't wait to get out there and fight."

Giorgi's leadership key for Crusaders

OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

With two straight trips to the NAIA Nationals under his belt, Madonna University eighthvear coach Tino Scicluna is not content.

He continues to hunger for

"The expectation doesn't change," said Scicluna, who guided the Crusaders to a 17-3 record and a Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference crown. "We've been knocking on the door every single year I've been here. We were knocking on the doorstep and made the nationals two years ago and last year we went one more step."

The Crusaders, who lost WHAC Player of the Year Doron Drai to graduation along with leading scorers Victor Otieno (nine goals, three assists), hope to surpass last year's national tourney run where they were knocked out in the second round of the NAIAs by Rio Grande (Ohio), 2-1.

"We have to take care of business in the conference first if we're going to have a chance," Scicluna said. "And if we get there, we want to have a little more success."

Only nine players return from a year ago led by senior midfielder Emilio Giorgi, a native of Windsor, Ontario.

"With Emilio we expect big things," Scicluna said. "He's a guy who has done all the dirty work in the past and he's one of the most fit players in the conference. He's matured a lot the last few years. He'll take on a leadership role whereas in the past he's led by example."

Other seniors returning include goalkeeper Steven Besk (Northville), who went 9-1 in 2008; midfielder Eric Kiebert (five goals, 10 assists), midfielder Mark Pikula (Dearborn), midfielder-defender Isaac St. John (Dearborn) and defender Dan Pichler (Livonia Stevenson).

Juniors Jacob Rosiek (Madison Heights Bishop Foley) and Daniel Amaya (Cartenga, Columbia) also return along with sophomore Cavle Lackten (Ancaster. Ontario).

"Every year we've lost good players, but every year we've been able to bring in some good ones and I feel good about this recruiting class," Scicluna said. "It's been a balancing act of young players and veterans. This is the first freshman class where I feel I've influenced their development because I've either coached them in club soccer or seen them play. I think we'll be able to strengthen our chemistry since day one."

Two newcomers - Otieno Moses, a native of Kenya, and Nigerian native and Schoolcraft College transfer Mikey Iyoha should have an immediate impact.

Otieno is a playmaker, or he can put the ball in the back of the net," Scicluna said. "I expect he can do a little of everything. I expect him to be a productive player.

"Mikey is a good young talent. He's a center-midfielder who can be a playmaker or an attacking threat. At Schoolcraft he was a successful player. Transfers from that program have been a large part of our success. Then, we'll have some local talent to fill our defensive roles."

The Crusaders will open their season Friday, Aug. 21 on the road against NAIA Region nemesis Bethel (Ind.) College.

Grohoski will more than likely get the ball to slotback Tony Frezzell, a speedy 5-11, 170-pound senior who must replace first-team All-Observer pick Jeff Ricketts (17 touchdowns).

Juniors Mike Kutek (5-10, 175) and Dean Bokuniewicz (5-6, 135) will also touch the ball with regularity out of the backfield, while senior wideout Marshall Fry (6-2, 170) and senior tight end-punter Zack Goeglein (5-11, 230) will be prime receiving targets.

The offensive line, meanwhile, will be anchored by senior tackle Alex Danke (6-1, 240) and senior center Nick Molencupp (5-9, 250).

Defensively, Churchill will be in its standard 4-3 stunt scheme. The Chargers must replace their leading tackler Devin Moynihan, a first-team All-Observer pick at linebacker who graduated.

Linebacker Dylan Ochala (6-0, 230) and defensive end Jimmy Atkins (6-3, 220), a pair of juniors who return as starters joined in the secondary by seniors Kevin Pietrasinski (5-8, 170) and Grohoski.

Junior Paulin Chateau (6-3, 240) and senior Billy Bowles (5-10, 220) should also help alleviate the tackling problem backed by senior linebackers Matt Andrzejewski (5-11, 200) and Jimmy Koltunchik (5-11, 175).

"We've made a focus to be better defensively," Filiatraut said. "The second half of the season we had trouble tackling. Last year we were small, but this year we're considerably bigger up front. Last year we had all mediums and one extralarge. This year we'll be able to match up and that should help our tackling.'

2009 schedule (all 7 p.m. starts): Aug. 28 (Hartland); Sept. 3 (at Waterford Kettering); Sept. 11 (at Westland John Glenn); Sept. 18 (Livonia Franklin); Sept. 25 (at Plymouth); Oct. 2 (Wayne Memorial); Oct. 9 (Canton); Oct. 16 (KLAA crossover); Oct. 23 (at Livonia Stevenson).

305-pound first-team All-Area tackle Nate Coleman, along with 6-1, 195-pound senior running back Mike Baumgardner, who earned second-team All-Observer honors.

But the big question mark remains quarterback as senior Mike Beasley (6-0, 168) and junior Brent Marzion (5-9, 170) are vying for the starting nod.

Our offense will be based around the run, which always has opened up the passing game,' Kelbert said. "Hopefully we can do the same this year.

"Both are good quarterbacks, but they don't have the experience right now that you have to have to make the reads. Sometimes they look good, and sometimes not so good. But if they can make the third down throws when we need them and don't turn the ball over, it will allow us to move the ball.'

Franklin's deep at running back with the return of the speedy Baumgardner along with seniors Mike Gadsby (5-11, 200) and Chris VanTuyl (5-9, 165).

"Baumgardner's a wingback who has gotten pretty strong, he's gained 10-to-15 pounds," Kelbert said. "He's got speed on the edge, but he's become more physical. He wants to put his shoulder down and become a more powerful

"Gadsby has decent speed and one of the most athletic on the team. He's got great hands in the open field and can make people miss."

Coleman, who has started since his sophomore year, anchors a seniorladen offensive line that will also include Sean McAuliffe (6-2, 245), Brian Nixon (6-2, 230) and Nate Robinson (6-0, 255), the latter whom missed most of last season after getting injured in last year's 41-40 season-opening overtime loss to Livonia Stevenson.

Franklin's Nate Coleman, a twoyear starter on the offensive and defensive lines, works up a sweat during Friday's preseason workout.

"The interior line is very good, very strong," Kelbert said. "We've been saying that four of five games we lost last year were because we were physically beaten up front. As a goal, that it is one area that we have to change."

The Patriots open the 2009 season with daunting schedule which includes Division 1 state semifinalist Stevenson (at home) followed by Walled Lake Western (on the road).

"Our goal is to take the program another step forward," Kelbert said. "We've made the playoffs and have had some fine winning seasons, but we'd like to make a drive in our division (KLAA South). With two games left in our division last year we were in first place, then lost our last two. We'd like to be like the '05 team where we're going for a title in our conference and make a playoff

GIRLS GOLF CAPSULE OUTLOOK

LIVONIA CHURCHILL Head coach: Paul Worley, second year. League affiliation: KLAA Kensington inference (South Division).

Last year's finish: first, KLAA South (Division 1 regional).

Notable losses to graduation: Lexi McFarlane (first-team All-Area); Jessica Burdette (first-team All-Area): Sarah Linder Leading returnees: Jordyn Shepler, Soph. (second-team All-Area); Stephanie Panaretos, Sr. (captain); Shelby Longworth, Promising newcomers: Maggie McGowan, Fr.; Jackie Burdette, Fr.; Taylor Cutting, Fr.; Claire Rose, Fr.

Worley's 2009 outlook: "I'm optimistic. The girls are working hard. We have a lot of young players to match with the two seniors we've got. Obviously we want to keep our winning streak in the (South) division. Both Franklin and John Glenn will be good teams, and both Canton and Plymouth will be decent this year. What Jordyn (Shepler) shoots will probably dictate whether we win or lose a match If she shoots low 40s, we'll probably win If she shoots 50, we probably won't. She's capable of going low."

LIVONIA FRANKLIN

Head coach: Brian McCalister, fourth

League affiliation: KLAA Kensington Conference (South Division).
Last year's finish: fourth, KLAA South (4-6); ninth (conference and Division 1

Notable losses to graduation: Natalie Polakowski (second-team All-Area); Samantha McAtee (second-team All-Area);

Promising newcomers: Zoe Riopelle, Jr.; Jamie Buchanczenko, Soph.; Kayla Buchanczenko, Soph.; Lucie Patrick, Fr.; Allison Karczynski, Fr. McCalister's 2009 outlook: "We look to have a very competitive team this year. There is a lot of room to get into the varsity matches and the girls are working hard to claim those spots. Georgia Patrick has been a real leader and had a real successfu summer winning some tournaments. She is looking to carry that success into the season. Alexis Smith, Mariah Barcus and Lauren Beahon have also improved and will give us a solid, experienced top of the lineup. We have set some lofty team and individual goals and will work hard to reach Soph.; Gina Castrodale, Jr. Delo's 2009 outlook: "We should be a better team than last year, but it may not show up in wins and losses this season. We will have some strong players leading our team as many of our players got loads of experience playing last season. Their dedication to improving their game by playing all summer, attending golf camps and tournaments should provide us the edge we will need to win. Our conference, and especially our division, is one of the most competitive in the state and we will need to work hard to earn wins. Hopefully a couple of newcomers to the team this year, in a pair of sophomores, should lead to an improved and fun season."

Kompoltowicz's 2009 outlook: "I can't wait to get this team out onto the course. They worked hard over the summer playing in tournaments and taking lessons. They are ready to work hard and start marching up leader boards. It should be a fun year and with such a young team, the first of many solid seasons."

CRUSADERS

"We're going to miss Lubovj, but we have some good girls coming in," said Grinvalds, who is majoring in nursing. "She was a key player, but we can make due with the girls coming in. Over the years with played the same style. But with a new assistant coach (Tera Woodruff) after three years it could be a factor as far as changing the style.'

Also returning is Karie Altman, a 6-foot sophomore middle hitter from Allen Park Cabrini (175 kills); Megan Fricke, a 5-9 sophomore outside hitter from Wyandotte Roosevelt (111 kills); and Amanda Koszela, a 5-7 defensive specials from Dearborn

"She (Koszela) will be our starting libero, she's a great defensive player with a lot of speed," Abraham said. "Karie (Altman) will be a go-to player, a big part of the offense. She's very strong with a whip for an arm. She attacks from the slide dominantly."

Other returnees include three players with Observerland ties - Liz Dempsey, a 5-8 junior hitter from Livonia Franklin; Marie Martin, a 6-1 middle hitter from Canton; Anna Gatt, a 5-7 defensive specialist from Livonia Churchill.

"Martin has really developed," Abraham said. "It took a season for her to develop. And I thought both Dempsey and Fricke had great springs."

Grinvalds' back-up will be freshman recruit Evia Prieditis, a 5-9 setter from Milford. And adding depth to the front row is 6-1 sophomore Katie Czarnecki (L'Anse Creuse North), a 6-1 sophomore transfer from Macomb Community College.

"She's a lefty who will provide a big block and a big hit,' Abraham said of Czarnecki.

"Prieditis already is familiar with our system. She's played it for three years.'

Abraham has added two freshmen in a pair of 6footers named Anastasija - Baranovaskaja and Sheremetjeva - both whom hope to follow in the footsteps of former MU All-Americas Tihomirova and Natalja Tinina.

"They're very talented kids, both high level players from the club team that Lubovi and Natalja came from - that's the connection," Abraham said. "They both come in with high honors. They can play front and back row. They can play all over the place."

Abraham has also added a new and old assistant coach with the departure of Ed Tolentino to Georgia Tech. Back in the fold is Tim DeBeliso, who spent 11 seasons on the bench, and former MU standout Tera Woodruff. They join longtime Abraham assistant Brian McClain.

With the two new Latvian players we may be smaller and quicker," Woodruff said. "We have a good core with Mary (McGinnis) and Inta (Grinvalds). We may not necessarily have the power we've had, but we have the quickness.'

The new-look Crusaders, however, plan to keep on winning for Abraham, who ranks second among NAIA coaches in total wins (881).

"When we walk out on the court we may not look as intimidating," McGinnis said. 'We'll be a lot different, but we'll be really aggressive and I think we'll have a successful

Contender status fuels '09 Schoolcraft spikers

BY JIM TOTH OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Entering his third season in charge of the women's volleyball program at Schoolcraft College, head coach Rich Lamb knows this year's squad will be hardpressed to match, or better, the accomplishments of the 2008 contingent.

'We certainly had a good year," Lamb said of the last season's unit which posted a conference-leading 15-1 ledger, strung together 18 consecutive victories, and finished with a 31-9 mark overall. "It was quite rewarding.

"But we go into every season with the goal of being league champs, and continuing on in the national tournament. We started that season with a good base of sophomores and we're looking to do the same this year

A handful of returnees, including four starters, has Lamb believing the '09 Ocelots can be every bit as dominating both offensively and defensively. Lamb's optimism begins with Jordan Kerr (Livonia Churchill), a second-team All-MCCAA Eastern Conference selection in 2008, whose overall talents position her as the team's libero.

"She's all-everything out there for us," Lamb said. "She's our back-row specialist, but we'll position her everywhere out on the court and it will be up to the other team to find out just where she is."

Jennifer Brunink and Emily Bronkema return as powerful middle hitters and Brittany Denter, with a year of experience under her belt, should prove to be one of the league's top setters.

"It will be nice to have an experienced setter," Lamb said. "Last year she (Denter) kind of learned on the fly thinking and making decisions."

PREVIEW

The fifth returnee is Kirstin Kirk, who was limited in her playing time last season after suffering a knee injury.

The ability of freshmen to step in and make an immediate impact is crucial to any community college in maintaining a successful program.

Katie Vellucci (Livonia Stevenson) is one such freshman and Lamb believes her contributions, along with that of outside hitters Katrina Johnson, Sam Gilbreth and Kayla Creech, will be critical in the Ocelots' attempt to defend the Eastern Conference crown in the Michigan Community College Athletic Association.

"We lost Virginia Butler (Westland John Glenn), who was our top outside hitter and conference player of the year last year, so we're going to need somebody to step in really fast," Lamb said. "We talk all the time about going out and playing at that high level, and the great thing about this group, is they go out and really make an effort.

"They have also shown they can do some coaching among themselves. They point out to each other the things that are going on out on the court and really communicate over the mental part of the game."

The race for the top spot in the Eastern Conference promises to be a heated one as Lamb believes the off-season recruiting turned in by Oakland CC. St. Clair CC and Macomb CC makes it difficult to select a clear-cut favorite.

"I just hope we're in the mix at the end," he said.

Regular-season play for Schoolcraft begins Friday, Aug. 28, with a tri-match against visiting league foes Alpena CC and Delta College.

IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Canton Christian Fellowship Church is ready to party - and give away school supplies at the same time.

It's registering participants for its Back-to-School Party, noon to 2 p.m., Saturday, Aug. 29, at the church, located at 8775 Ronda Drive, off Joy between Lilley and Haggerty in Canton.

"They call us and say they want to be a part of it and we get their name, their grade, whether they're a boy or girl and their school," Adonna Wright, event coordinator, explained the registration process. "We're hoping they register by Wednesday, Aug. 26, but if people call after that time we won't turn them down."

Wright said the church, pastored by the Rev. David Washington, Jr., also runs a clothing bank.

"This is the first time we're having a backto-school party. We'll try to accommodate everyone. And we'll have games for the kids, face painting and a little music to celebrate going back to school. The main thing is it helps those parents who are having a tough time now. School supplies can be expensive." RSVP at (734) 404-2480. Visit the church Web site at www.CantonCF.org.

Canines step out in style at Canton event

BY SHARON DARGAY O&E STAFF WRITER

Dinah Braun of Canton will don a handmade clown outfit next Saturday and do her best to look the cutest as she struts her stuff in a half-mile walk through Heritage Park in her community.

A lot will be at stake for the 3-year-old entrant. If she wins the "best costume" contest at the park, she'll get a year's supply of treats.

But she'll face some stiff competition from other contestants, like 41/2-year-old Abby Slattery of Novi who will portray "Toto" while her mom, Megan Slattery, walks the route in gingham dress and ruby slippers as Dorothy from the Wizard of Oz.

Win or lose, both the Braun and Slattery families say the fun - and fund-raising for the Humane Society of Huron Valley (HSHV) - is what counts the most.

"I always tell Abby, 'It's for the cause," said Slattery, a big supporter of HSHV.

She and her Cairn Terrier, (full name Abby Girl Pelino Slattery) and the Braun family - Kurt and Shawn, with kids Matthew, 11, and Alyssa, 13, and Dinah, their Border Collie/Retriever mix — will be among those participating in the Paw Walk August 22 during the first annual Paws in the Park, a two-day activitypacked event for canines and their families.

"There are so many familyfriendly events as well as dog events," Slattery noted. "This event is a must for dog pet people — beautiful setting, great causes and dogs dogs dogs." Dinah-saurs Team" members, the Brauns, look forward to the variety of events, as well as the costume contest during the Paw Walk.

Alyssa is eager to see how much money the Paw Walk raises for HSHV.

Her mom, Shawn, noted that there are "a lot of great things to do and see all for a great cause."

MONEY, AWARENESS

Actually, two organizations will benefit. Money from event ticket sales will go toward efforts to create a dog park in Canton. The Paw Walk will generate dollars for HSHV.

But Deb Kern, HSHV marketing director, and Terri Green Street Fair and a Paws in the Park organizer, both say awareness is equally important.

"The Humane Society of Huron Valley is the Humane Society of choice for Plymouth and Canton. A lot of people don't know that," O'Brien said, explaining that dogs lost in those two communities are taken to the HSHV shelter, located in Ann Arbor.

Kern said HSHV serves all of Washtenaw County, in addition to Canton and Plymouth. The Michigan Humane Society, which maintains a shelter in Westland, is a separate entity.

O'Brien, founder of Plymouth's A dog leaps off the dock during an Ultimate Air Dogs show.

"We try let people know that. If their animals get away from them they need to file a lost report with us," she said. "We have contracts with Plymouth and Canton.

"People think the Michigan Humane Society covers all of Michigan, and that's not the case."

In addition to raising money and awareness, Kern said Paws in the Park will help HSHV place pets in new homes through the adoption fair planned for both days.

The shelter cares for approximately 10,000 animals a year, including cats, dogs, rabbits, hamsters, guinea pigs and birds and maintains a cruelty investigation team.

A new, larger facility is under construction and scheduled to open in the fall.

NO VACANCY

"We really need the space. Right now we have room for 110 cats and 70 dogs. We're full. We also have 150 foster families that work with us," Kern said.

The new building will increase cat lodging by 60 percent and the dog kennel by 20

WHEN IS ENOUGH, ENOUGH?

Injection of a steroid into a sore or swollen joint represents a frontline offensive in a physician's battle against arthritis. A steroid injection provides a direct approach to tissue inflammation and joint irritation. The injection stops the buildup of destructive chemicals in the joint, and by this action both resolves joint pain and allows the body to begin and continue the process of joint repair and healing.

At time, a single steroid injection does not suffice. Pain returns and swelling reoccurs; a physician may decide to aspirate fluid from the joint and inject steroid again. In my experience, patients often become concerned saying that they have heard that too much cortisone is bad for the body." Or, patients say that they have heard that they" can't have more then one or two steroid injections a year because steroids destroy the

Certainly, too much cortisone is harmful, and taking large amount cortisone by month on a daily basis can damage the body; however, joint injections represent a single amount targeted to a joint that does not enter the body in a dosage that can

Furthermore, what determines how many joint injections are reasonable is not a specific number of injections. The number appropriate for an individual comes from how much relief resulted from the last injection and for how long that relief lasted.

If patient and physician agree that the last injection helped, then when pain returns, another injection is in order. If pain or swelling returns quickly after an injection, the

In the meantime, HSHV has taken a creative approach to placing cats, which tend to "overwhelm" the facility.

"We're doing adoption specials. We had our cat adoption stimulus plan - cats for canned food," Kern said. Anyone who brought in 12 cans of cat food received a free cat if they qualified for adoption. If they paid $50 for a kitten, they'd get the second one for

No harm meant to humans: Here's the buzz on Killer Cicada Wasps

BY SHARON DARGAY 0&E STAFF WRITER

Sphecius speciosus is here. They're building homes right under your nose — at the edge of your lawn, near your favorite park, along your daily walking route.

They're skimming the ground, flying through the air, poised to paralyze and kill.

But don't worry. These winged invaders aren't intent on harming

They've got it out for summer cicadas.

'They'll fly around shrubs and trees and lawns looking for cicada. I think 'Cicada Killer Wasp' gives them a bad name. They're not really aggressive toward humans," said Brian Wilson, Livonia superintendent of public service.

Still, that's what the scary-looking insect, with its yellow-lined black body, reddish-colored head, and yellow wings is commonly called. The two-inch long wasp also has been dubbed "Sand Hornet" and "Giant Ground Hornet" or "Giant Cicada Killer."

Cicadas are those beetle-like bugs that live in trees and make loud creaking sounds on summer nights.

Wilson said his department has received calls from residents wondering what to do about the sandylooking, ant hill-like nests and big, buzzing insects.

"We've been advising them that they are not aggressive and that it's not a situation like yellow jackets or hornets," Wilson said. "I did a little battle with bald-faced hornets who are extremely aggressive. If you come near their nest they'll come after you."

But simply walking near Cicada Killer Wasp nests isn't likely to stir up any stinging action. The males don't sting and the females are busy hunting for cicadas, which they sting and stockpile at home.

"Now, if you decide to take a shovel to their nest, it may be a different story. They're not aggressive toward humans unless you want to make them aggressive," he said, adding "We don't typically spray for the ones we encounter on city property."

He said that although there have been more inquiries about the insects this year, the bugs will be gone by the end of September. They generally appear in mid-July and live through summer, depositing eggs in August before they die.

Wilson suspects the cooler-thanusual temperatures in June and July postponed their arrival this year and likely will lengthen their stay into next month.

An over-the-counter insecticide will kill them, but good lawn care may be the best method to control Killer Cicada Wasps. They generally settle in dry, sparse, sandy areas. Allowing bare spots and dry, brown areas to spread in a parched lawn is like putting out a welcome mat for these insects.

"If you have more of a lush type" of lawn, they're not going to pick on it," Wilson noted.

Health department creates Twitter page with current info

The Michigan Department of Community Health (MDCH) has launched a page on the social networking site, Twitter.

The MDCH Twitter page is designed to relay up-to-the-minute health information to the public in the form of "Tweets," which are messages of up to 140 characters. The MDCH messages will include helpful links. timely updates and important information.

Anyone who is a member of Twitter can join the MDCH Twitter page as a "follower' at www.twitter.com/MIHealth. Those who do not have a Twitter account can still view the MDCH Twitter page, but need to join Twitter to interact with others on the page. Followers can send their own Tweets to the department with questions, commends or concerns.

Tweets can be accessed through e-mail, a personal Twitter account and phones that have Internet access.

Social media and networks are the newest innovation in communication among people all over the world and no network is growing as rapidly as Twitter. With its ease of use, ability to convey a wealth of information in concise messages, and its availability to nearly every citizen, MDCH hopes to utilize all that Twitter has to offer the department and its followers.

To view or sign up for the MDCH Twitter page, visit www.twitter.com/MiHealth.

Study offers help for overweight kids

Beaumont Hospitals' Weight Control Center and the Oakland University School of Health Sciences are teaming up for a study that will help overweight children. Participants will be enrolled in the awardwinning Beaumont Healthy Kids Weight Management Program at no charge.

Psychologists, dietitians and exercise physiologists will use fun educational activities to keep children motivated and offer strategies to improve their health through nutrition, exercise and behavior changes. This 12-session "Healthy Kids" program takes a family approach to living a healthy

"By offering the services of medical professionals experienced in helping children manage their weight, we hope this program will demonstrate that children who are on their way to obesity can get back on track to a healthier lifestyle," stated Wendy Miller, M.D., medical director of Beaumont's Weight Control Center. "Ultimately we want them to adopt lifelong habits to keep their weight in check and optimize good health." Excess weight or obesity in children can lead to poor quality of life and chronic disease, including type 2 diabetes, high blood pressure and early heart disease.

Needed for the study are children between 8 and 12 years old who have excess weight. Interested families who want to learn more about the trial can contact research nurses Lynne Michalski, R.N., at (248) 655-5920 or Kathi Russell, R.N., at (248) 655-9645. The nurses can help determine during a phone call whether a child qualifies for the study based on his height and weight.
