WOW honorees

Five women are getting help with their college expenses, thanks to scholarships they received from the Women of Westland.

The organization awarded $1,000 Barbara Douglas scholarships to Deborah A. Burke and Robin Tennille, students at Schoolcraft College, and Marianna Costea, a student at Eastern Michigan University. The group also awarded $500 book scholarships to Lorianne C. O'Brady, a student at Schoolcraft College, and Maria Thill, a student at Wayne County Community College.

WOW, a nonprofit organization of professional women who work or live in the city of Westland, developed the scholarship program in memory of one of its founding members, Barbara Douglas. It's available to women who live or work in the city of Westland and are at least 21 years old.

Fourteen women applied for the scholarship, which is based on academic performance, educational goals, leadership, need and the residency requirements. The winners receive half of their scholarship in the fall 2009 semester and the other half in the winter 2010 semester. They will be honored at WOW's annual membership meeting later this month.

The funds for the scholarship are raised through WOW's annual ATHENA Chocolate Fantasy Ball.

Surplus food

The dates have been set for the September food commodity distribution in Westland.

Residents living north of Michigan Avenue can pick up their commodities from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 17, at the Dorsey Community Center, 32715 Dorsey, north of Michigan Avenue and south of Palmer.

Residents living south of Michigan Avenue can pick up their commodities from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. the second Monday of each month at St. James United Methodist Church, 30055 Annapolis, between Henry Ruff and Middlebelt. Call (734) 729-1737 for more information.

Senior citizens living in Taylor Towers pick up their food at Taylor Towers and must call their building manager for their day of distribution. Greenwood Villa residents also must pick up their food items at Greenwood Villa.

In September, the food available includes applesauce, apricots, carrots, frozen turkey breast, grapefruit juice, rice cereal, vegetable oil, UHT milk and possible additional items.

For more information, call the Dorsey Center's surplus food hotline at (734) 595-0366. The program is administered by the Wayne County Office of Senior Services.

Nonprofits sign up for RecycleBank points

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Through the citywide curbside recycling program that began in July, Westland residents have been diverting materials from the landfill, which reduces the amount of trash sent to a landfill and, as a result, decreases the city's tipping fees.

Through the RecycleBank program, households can earn points for rewards from national and local businesses. And for those residents who are charitably inclined, the points can translate into dollars for participating nonprofit groups.

"We are trying to get someone at local nonprofits to sit down and sign up for the program. We've had a problem getting the word out," Mayor William Wild said. "The rewards are cash for the nonprofits."

RecycleBank's Active Cause program allows recyclers to donate to participating charities that meet a few requirements. The group needs to have IRS approved 501(c)3 status — the federal law that grants exemption from federal income tax to nonprofits.

Additionally, the nonprofit group's mission has to align with specified categories: environment, health and medical, children and education, social services and animal care. A resident who accumulates 1,025 RecycleBank points can transfer

An accountant for Domino's Pizza, Westland resident Matt Daugherty said he was picked for a role in a Domino's commercial because he had the stereotypical look of an accountant.

Perfect part: Accountant plays accountant in Domino's

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

When Domino's Pizza was looking for employees to cast in a recently aired television commercial, accountant Matt Daugherty fit the bill to play an accountant.

"We have ID badges, so they got a look at our photos. They wanted a stereotypical accountant," said Daugherty, a Westland resident. "They had us audition. I didn't know I was in it until the day before they shot it."

This commercial, which follows other television ads with Domino's employees, is called Chefs vs.

Accountants. The chefs have put the lava into the Chocolate Lava Crunch Cakes and the number-crunching accountants have made the cakes free with a Breadbowl Pasta purchase.

Employed by Domino's for more than 11 years, Daugherty had a speaking part, playing the lead accountant in the commercial.

"It was not close to what I expected it to be like. I sat for an hour with a camera two feet from my face before I said a word," said Daugherty, 37. "There were a lot more people involved than I expected. It was organized chaos — the director was in charge. I really liked watching the director."

The commercial took about 3½ hours to complete. Daugherty said he

Westland residents bring home 118 Senior Olympic medals

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Westland residents brought home the gold from the Western Wayne County Senior Olympics ... and silver and bronze.

In all, Westland seniors brought home 118 medals from various competitions held last month — the highest medal total for any of the participating communities. Many of the senior athletes came to a recent council meeting to show off their medals.

"The seniors went wild this year. We were close to Canton on the medal count last year," said Barbara Marcum, Westland senior resources director. "We had the highest number of gold medals, the highest number of silver medals and tied on bronze medals. Canton had 75 medals this year."

Westland hosted a 5K race and Marcum thanked other city departments for their support — the Department of Public Services for street sweeping, police for handling traffic control and the fire department for having EMS available.

"This is excellent. We talked about expecting a gold rush. We got a silver and bronze rush, too," Mayor William Wild said. "You do a great job representing us. You should be proud of yourselves."

A new addition to the Senior Olympics this year was sharp shooting held at Firing Line of Westland. Marcum thanked owner Tommy Vaughan, a retired Westland police lieutenant, for hosting the event.

"Congratulations to all the seniors. We have bragging rights. I'm very proud of all of you," Marcum said.

Police Web site links services to citizens

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

If there is an emergency needing police, everyone knows to call 9-1-1.

But for non-emergencies — for example, if you'd like to make a request that a speed trailer be parked on your street — increased services are being offered through the Westland police page on the city's Web site.

Once the city gave control of its Web page to the police department, day shift supervisor Lt. Michael Match became the Web master, although he does like the sound of Web guru.

"There have been a lot of changes already. We try to give some public relations for each of our different departments (within the police department)," Deputy Chief Alan Ramsden said. "That way you will know which part of the police department will serve you."

A long-running feature on the police department Web page has been Westland's Most Wanted. Visitors will also find links to other sites, including the Michigan Sex Offender Registry.

"People can see which registered sex offenders aren't keeping registered," Ramsden said. "Each page has our new crime tip line with an e-mail address. People can tell us of crime or something they want us to fix."

The e-mail tip line is crimetips@wlpd.net. Eventually, the department plans to add a link to Crimestoppers, which offers cash rewards for tips that help solve crimes.

"Another significant feature is (being able) to make requests for the speed trailer. It's part of the traffic bureau," Ramsden said.

Traffic Bureau Sgt. Ron Kroll compiles a list of the requests and the Department of Public Services moves the trailer, which displays speed readouts to passing drivers, to the location.

"We'll keep an eye on that area," Ramsden said of the trailer, which is solar-powered.

Since September 2008, the police department Web page has received more than 12,439 hits. The sex offender registry information received 106 hits, while the new crime tips section had already received a couple of hits.

The Web page also offers a freshly-written information packet and forms for the Community Watch crime prevention program.

"We'll meet with any groups and help them organize. We also train the residents, but you need a level of commitment to be really successful," Ramsden said.

The city's Web address is www.ci.westland.mi.us/. Click on the police department page to see the improved Web page.

Franklin High launches new diploma program

BY KAREN SMITH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Jesse Sabbagh is among 18 Franklin High School students who signed up this school year to do more homework.

"A lot of my friends tell me I'm a nerd," he said, chuckling, on the first day of classes Tuesday.

The students — all juniors — are enrolled in Franklin's new International Baccalaureate program, a college-prep curriculum that emphasizes intercultural understanding and respect as well as education of the whole person.

Franklin is the first public school in Wayne County to offer an IB diploma program, which requires students to take a full load of advanced level classes, plus write a 15-page research paper, take 100 hours of a theory of knowledge class and complete 150 hours of creative activities, physical activity and community service.

"I wanted something to challenge me and get me ready for college," said Jesse, 16, who plans to be a surgeon one day.

Kayla Douglas, 16, who wants to be a broadcast journalist, said her parents encouraged her to enroll in the program. Though she's worried about not seeing as much of her friends, she expects it will make her education more relevant because she'll be able to question why she's learning certain things. "More people should try to get involved," she said.

Tuesday's first day of IB classes was the culmination of five years of work.

Teacher Molly David and Principal Daniel Willenborg started talking a half decade ago about a full program of advanced-level classes to add to the stand-alone Advanced Placement classes the school already offered, David said.

The more they investigated the IB program, the more they liked it.

"It's not just about coursework; it's about you as a person," said David, who facilitates the program. "I like the idea of educating the whole child."

Willenborg said the program gives students a global perspective and helps them to be deeper thinkers and more creative problem solvers.

"It forces students to step back and think about how they learn, how they think," he said.

The school was approved last spring for the IB program after a comprehensive application process, extensive teacher training and a visit by an IB team of educators.

The curriculum, which includes rigorous end-of-course examinations, is the same one used by 2,500 IB schools in 134 countries including the International Academy in Oakland County.

Douglas said more than half of the top 10 U.S. high schools and more than one third of the top 100 U.S. high schools, as ranked by Newsweek, have IB programs.

The two-year IB diploma program starts in the junior year. This year, the students at Franklin are taking six advanced level classes: Spanish, advanced or applied math, visual arts, history of the Americas, chemistry and English.

The students stay together all day, taking classes from 10 teachers trained in the IB program.

Part of the teachers' training includes showing students how the subject they teach relates to the other subjects they're studying.

Franklin intends to build the program to no more than 25 students per graduating class. There is no GPA requirement to join.

David said students on Tuesday were a little nervous, but no one was scared off.

"We still had 18 at the end (of the day)," she said.

talked about 2½ hours.

"There was no actual script," he said. "The director would talk to the writers, then change it or tell me to say it a different way."

Daugherty and other employees were paid for their efforts in the commercial, which was filmed in the evening. But like Domino's CEO David Brandon, who appeared in two commercials, the employees donated their pay to a fund to benefit Domino's employees and franchisees.

"We used the fund to help Domino's franchisees after Hurricane Katrina, for example," Daugherty said.

While he enjoyed making the commercial, Daugherty said he isn't planning to give up his day job.

"People are asking if I have a new career. I'm pretty set on coming to work each day and getting a check each week," he said.

A Westland resident for seven years, Daugherty said his son Brady, 4, is obsessed with the commercial. "He's on YouTube watching it. He wants to watch it 50 times and knows all the lines. It's funny," he said.

RecycleBank offers Green Schools program

Along with non-profit groups, schools can also benefit from points earned through the RecycleBank program.

RecycleBank offers a Green Schools program which awards grants from $100 to $5,000. The money available depends on how much material is recycled. RecycleBank will donate $10 for every 100 RecycleBank points donated by residents.

Westland residents who have signed up for RecycleBank rewards have points added to their account following their bi-weekly curbside collection - there is a computer chip on the recycling cart. The amount of material collected for recycling is averaged in an area.

During the first month of the program, Westland residents recycled 550 tons or more than one million pounds of recyclable material which was diverted from a landfill.

RecycleBank is looking to fund programs that:

- Offer innovative approaches to communicate environmental issues in communities.
- Provide strong educational programming with follow-up opportunities for learning.
- Create new ways of thinking, acting and behaving.

• Empower youth to be "heroes" (educators/stewards/advocates) for a sustainable environment in their own communities.

• Encourage partnerships among formal and informal education systems.

• Embrace diversity and build bridges of understanding among youth of diverse ethnic, racial and socio-economic backgrounds.

Other qualifications for the Green Schools program are that the schools be registered, non-profit, tax exempt 501(c)3 schools in RecycleBank serviced areas that deliver services to youth between the ages of 6-18 and address at least one of the action areas listed above.

There is also a list of programs not eligible for RecycleBank funding, such as capital expenditures such as park equipment, land acquisition, furniture, etc., league sports programs, scholarships and grants to individuals.

For full information about the program, go online to www.recyclebank.com.

those to a participating charity, which will receive $10.

"We'd be happy to get as many nonprofits signed up as possible. We want to talk to Rotary, the Lions Club and other groups," Wild said. "It's gotten much harder for groups to raise money. We want to educate folks about this program."

The Westland Community Foundation has signed up to participate in the program, Wild said, adding he was going to be in contact with Wayne-Westland Community Schools about the program.

The RecycleBank donation program comes at a time when charities are having increased difficulty raising money due to the poor economy.

Westland Rotary Club President Antoinette Martin is excited about the program.

"I've called two times about getting Rotary on the list (of charities). We would be glad to use gift cards or cash as another sources of revenue," Martin said. "We recently gave $1,500 to a homeless shelter. We bought three beds and linens."

The Rotarians are currently holding a raffle to raise money for the Youth Assistance Program. As a Westland resident, Martin said she particularly likes the combination of recycling and raising money for charity.

"I've been recycling for a long time. It's a big benefit not having to take it to the dropoff center every two weeks,"

Martin said. "My goal this year as Rotary president is to put things in place where other people besides Rotary can help us."

Capt. Derek Rose, pastor at the Salvation Army Wayne/Westland Corps, wasn't familiar with the RecycleBank program, but said he'd be interested in another fund-raising opportunity.

"If there was a way for a people to donate for a financial benefit, we'd be very interested," Rose said. "I haven't really heard about it. We are in the middle of our fall programs and preparing for Christmas."

While kettle collections were slightly up last year, Rose said mailed donations and other contributions to the Salvation Army are significantly down.

A first-time July kettle drive netted about $2,000. That was lower than the $5,000 the Salvation Army had hoped to raise, Rose said.

"I am excited about the expanded local rewards program, giving residents the option to donate their RecycleBank Points to local charities and nonprofit groups, such as the Wayne-Westland school system, Westland Community Foundation or the Salvation Army," Wild said. "You probably wouldn't have thought a few short months ago the empty pizza box and plastic containers in your garage would someday contribute to a worthy cause. Now that's recycling."

Any interested nonprofit groups and charities that may be eligible to partner with RecycleBank to receive rewards donations from residents can visit the city Web site at www.cityofwestland.com and download an application.

A Dickens doozy

Spotlight Players bring classic play to stage

BY BRAD KADRICH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

When Christopher Plum of Plymouth was a student at Northwood Elementary School nearly 30 years ago, he played the lead role in his school's production of the Charles Dickens classic Oliver Twist.

So when, nearly 30 years later, he found out his neighbor, Brett Moore, was playing the same role in the Spotlight Players' production Oliver!, which opens Friday, his interest was piqued.

Plum, who helped Moore with some of the songs, decided he wanted back on stage. He auditioned for — and got — the role of bad guy Bill Sykes.

"I'm not in theater at all, I'm in education in Detroit," said Plum, who takes to the stage with more than 50 other cast members in the Spotlight Players' season opener at the Village Theater at Cherry Hill. "(But) it's a real special play for me, because I was in it. It reminds me of a time that was really good. When the opportunity came along, I had to take it."

The show features a cast of local actors of all ages and follows the well-known story of an orphan (Moore) in Victorian London as he makes his way from the cruel workhouse to the even crueler streets, finding a home amidst a gang of loveable pickpockets and a best friend in The Artful Dodger (Jeffrey Selewski).

Patrons will recognize such songs as Consider Yourself, As Long As He Needs Me and Where is Love, made famous in part by Lionel Bart's 1968 movie adaptation.

The music is a large part of the show's charm, according to the woman who will direct the production.

"It has some very memorable songs ... we tend to get an older crowd, which we love, and they are very familiar with the music of this show," said Barbara Bloom of Novi, president of the Spotlight Players and managing director of the group's youth program. "It's a great family show, it involves lots of kids, so it's a chance to

- How much: Tickets are available by phone at the Village Theater Box Office, (734) 394-5300 or (734) 394-5460 or online at www.canton-mi.org/villagetheater or in person at The Summit on the Park or at the door. get the kids to perform with the adults. We thought it would make a really great season opener because it has such a great, broad appeal." Like his neighbor (Plum), Brett Moore is appearing in his first production for the Spotlight Players. Moore, though, does have experience, having been in shows as part of the Plymouth Uptown Players at the Plymouth Community Arts Council.

When Moore, a singer who is a sixth-grader at West Middle School, found out the Spotlight Players were doing a musical, he wanted in.

"I wanted to do a musical," said Moore, the son Pat and Jenny Moore. "Before the audition, (Plum) helped me sing a couple of songs. That helped."

The 54-member cast includes performers from a variety of communities, including Canton, Plymouth, Westland, Novi, Ypsilanti, New Boston, Walled Lake and Ferndale. Getting them all together, since they're all volunteers, has been a huge challenge.

"It's quite a large group," Bloom said with a laugh. "Logistically, trying to get them all together to have a rehearsal — because we are a volunteer group and people have conflicts — is quite a challenge."

As opening night approaches, the cast — and its lead actor — is excited.

"A lot of people I know are coming to see me," Moore said. "Some of them have never been to any of my performances, so it's kind of cool they get to come and see me."

Baracy: State budget talks are 'nail bitter'

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The clock is ticking down to a midnight, Oct. 1, deadline for state lawmakers to finalize a budget, and according to Wayne-Westland School Supt. Greg Baracy, what's happening in Lansing "is a nail biter for everyone in the state."

Baracy

Baracy is among school officials around the state who are waiting and wondering what will be resolved when it comes to funding K-12 education. And with some $7 million in enhanced school aid hanging in the balance and a $110 million cut in the per-pupil state payments a possibility, Wayne-Westland school officials are keeping their fingers crossed.

"They should get a budget in the next two or three weeks, but we don't know what it will be. We haven't heard a word," Baracy said. "We made assumptions when we made our budget and we hope we will be right on with some of them."

It's not unusual for state officials to go down to the wire and even beyond the Oct. 1 deadline in getting a budget, but the concern this year is the projected $2.8 billion deficit that must be filled to balance the budget. Republicans in the state Senate have proposed cutting $1.2 billion from state general fund and schools, including a $110 million per-pupil reduction to schools, a $165 million cut in revenue sharing to cities and the $140 million elimination of Michigan Promise scholarships.

Gov. Jennifer Granholm, who inked out the extra money Wayne-Westland receives in lieu of millage disallowed under Proposal A in her state school aid proposal, Tuesday released her plan to raise $685 million in new revenue, while cutting $572 million in spending. The new revenue would come from new taxes and tax increases like a 6-percent sales tax on tickets to concerts, pro and college sporting events and vending machine sales and a 25-cent per pack increase in cigarette tax. The cuts would include $150 million from Department of Community Health and $74 million from revenue sharing.

School districts will be into the second quarter of their fiscal year, if lawmakers are able to reach an accord by Oct. 1. But there's indication that this year's budget will be extended, rather than the government shut down, until a new one can be hammered out.

"The indication is that we will get less and we're trying to plan for that," Baracy said. Douglas Law, president of the Middle Cities Education Association and superintendent of Niles Community Schools, said school officials "have been told that we will likely see significantly less funding over the course of the next several budget years."

"This is in a time of increasing costs, with inflation, energy, health care all going up," he said. "The result of these funding reductions will likely be significant program cuts."

Like Baracy, Law acknowledges the difficulty faced by state legislators.

"There are no easy answers or quick fixes," he said. "Citizens and state officials must come together to find a long-term solution. That solution will include government reforms and a restructuring of our tax system. We have a tax structure from the last century that is woefully in need of updating."

Baracy said districts need to find a way to reinvent themselves to weather the financial storm. Wayne-Westland has a 21st Century Committee made up of school officials, staff and parents that is working on "right-sizing" the district in the face of declining enrollment and revenue.

"Times are tough," he said. "We have to try to make the best of what we have and protect what we have for the children. That's our bottom line."

17 grads receive foundation scholarship

Seventeen high school graduates have received $500 scholarships from the Westland Community Foundation as part of its charitable activities.

The recipients are graduates of John Glenn and Wayne Memorial High Schools and live in Westland. They received their scholarships at the Aug. 3 Westland City Council meeting.

The foundation, made up of community and business leaders, raises money through its annual Spring Ball and Christmas and July events to sponsor the scholarships as well as make donations to such local organizations as the Salvation Army and the Family Resource Center's Empty Bowls Food Bank.

This year's scholarship recipients are:

Group tries to emulate the wisdom of Solomon

BY PAT MURPHY
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Should Michael Vick — the professional athlete imprisoned and temporarily barred from professional football for operating an illegal dog fighting ring — have gotten a second chance?

No and yes, according to participants in Solomon's Porch, a discussion group organized by the Rev. Robert Hegdal, pastor of St. John Lutheran Church in Redford.

The group — named after the wise king of Israel — met recently at the First Cup Organic Coffee shop at Five Mile and Inkster to discuss topics Hegdal says are designed to encourage members to think about current issues and their moral or ethical implications in current society.

Sessions normally begin around 7 p.m. and end about an hour later.

The discussions are stimulating, said Anna Ingham, who along with husband Fred has participated in several sessions since they were initiated last year.

"Everybody has an opinion," she said, "and we certainly get food for thought."

And thinking is what the

discussions are all about, Hegdal said. Religion, as outlined in the Bible, requires moral and ethical people to evaluate issues of their day and to make appropriate decisions. "We talk about how current issues interconnect with faith and life," he said.

The sessions are non-denominational and open to any interested person, including people who are not Christians or might not believe in God.

"People with other perspectives enhance the discussion," Hegdal said.

The group's name, the minister said, refers to something Solomon, the son of David and Bathsheba, did Pastor Bob Hegdal says people of all faiths and atheists can have meaningful discussions about current issues.

when he ruled Israel around 967 B.C.E. Known as a wise leader, Solomon also promoted discussions on ethical considerations of his day. The discussions were held on Solomon's politico, a Greek word that roughly translates into porch.

The topic of Vick, and the issues involved, might well have warranted the attention of Solomon and his contemporaries, according to the Inghams and others. Vick was the quarterback for the NFL Atlanta Falcons who spent about 18 months in prison for admittedly bankrolling a dog-fighting ring on his property in Virginia. Witnesses also said Vick personally killed animals unwilling to fight.

Vick was conditionally reinstated to pro football and Thursday played his first game with a new team, the Philadelphia Eagles.

But should Vick have been given that second chance? While the group doesn't necessarily draw conclusions, individuals are free to decide for themselves.

At the core of that question, Fred Ingham said, are concepts such as redemption, forgiveness and what constitutes appropriate punishment. "I don't follow professional football," he said, "and I'm a dog person. But I personally think he should be allowed to return."

Never, Kelly Young said. No matter how contrite Vick might profess to be, she said, he should not be back in the game.

"To me, he will always be a person who was horribly cruel to animals," she said.

Tim Young, her husband, had a different view.

"I think God has forgiven Mr. Vick," he said, "and God would give him a second chance."

Girl Scouts Heart of Michigan holds Join Scout Week

"Girl Scouts. More choices. More reasons to join."

That's the message that Girl Scouts Heart of Michigan wants to share with girls and adult volunteers during "Join Girl Scout Week," Monday-Friday, Sept. 18.

"The potential for adventure and excitement in Girl Scouting is limitless," said Jan Barker, chief executive officer of Girl Scouts Heart of Michigan. "We want as many girls as possible to experience the opportunities in Girl Scouting at every age level. Girls are waiting for adult volunteers to make Girl Scouting happen for them."

Girls and adults can join Girl Scouts at the Ann Arbor Regional Center, 1900 Manchester Road, until 7 p.m. Monday through Thursday and until 5 p.m. on Friday. Visitors will make and take samples of sidewalk chalk and taste the newest Girl Scout Cookie, called "Thank U Berry Munch." They also can enter drawings to win T-shirts and gift cards from local merchants, such as A2 O'Hair, Afternoon Delight, Claire's, Pancho's and Roly Poly.

The S'more Stuff Council Shop also will be open so families can purchase Girl Scout gear, apparel and gift items, such as the popular Groovy Girls dolls.

In addition to the week-long open house at the Ann Arbor Regional Center, Girl Scout recruitment events will take place in various schools and neighborhoods. Also, families can visit the Girl Scout table at Briarwood Mall from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 12, to make an optical illusion craft and to sign up for Girl Scouting.

The Girl Scout Leadership Experience engages girls in discovering themselves, connecting with others and taking action to make the world a better place. Girl Scouting offers girls the tools they need to be successful leaders, now and throughout their lives.

Girl Scouts Heart of Michigan was created as the result of a merger of five central Michigan councils — Glowing Embers, Girl Scouts of the Huron Valley, Girl Scouts Irish Hills, Girl Scouts of Michigan Capital, Girl Scouts of Mitten Bay and two jurisdictional changing councils — Girl Scouts of Fair Winds and Girl Scouts of Singing Sands last October.

For more information on Girl Scouting, to locate the Girl Scout registration roundup, to join, volunteer or donate to GSHOM, call (800) 49-SCOUT or visit the GSHOM Web site at www.gshom.org.

Anderson votes to extend MEGA tax credits in state

A veteran Wayne County state senator put his support behind Michigan Economic Growth Authority (MEGA) tax credits by voting Thursday to approve an extension of the that would allow the program to award incentives to redevelop the closed Ford Wixom Assembly Plant into a renewable energy park.

The project is expected to bring in millions of dollars of investment and thousands of jobs. Without the Senate's passage of the bills, SB 777 and HB 4523, MEGA would have been unable to issue any more job-producing credits and this project would not be possible.

"The action taken today represents great progress for Michigan's economy and our workers, but we still can do more," said Senator Glenn S. Anderson, whose district includes Westland, Garden City, Livonia and Redford Township. "We have the tools in place to be competitive, but we need to secure funding to continue to keep attracting businesses and new jobs to Michigan."

On Wednesday, the Westland Democrat made a statement on the Senate floor, urging his colleagues to move these bills and not delay much-needed jobs from coming to Michigan any further.

"I am glad that, after being delayed for two weeks by the majority caucus, this package of bills passed on an overwhelming and bipartisan vote. Michigan jobs must always come before politics and this represents a big step forward in putting our people back to work," Anderson said after the vote Thursday.

The credits are essential to generating economic activity in Michigan, and in particular, helping the state shift from traditional manufacturing to growing, high-tech and green industries. Xtreme Power and Clairvoyant Energy are expected to invest $725 million at the Ford Wixom plant.

Xtreme Power will create 2,500 direct jobs and 10,000 supplier and indirect jobs, including a minimum of 4,000 jobs in Wixom. Clairvoyant Energy will create 270 direct jobs, and its manufacturing partner, Oerlikon, plans to locate its North American Headquarters at Wixom, creating 300 jobs.

There are currently more than 60 other potential projects in the lineup to receive MEGA incentives, and while legislation only specifically addresses the Wixom project, Senate Democrats continue to push for funding the program to support other investments in the state as well.

Remembering Sept. 11

As our country observed the eighth anniversary of the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks, President Barack Obama signed an order to observe this day as a National Day of Service. All of us are being challenged to take time away from our busy schedule to stop and do for others.

"From this day forward, we will safeguard the memories of those who died by rekindling the spirit of service that lit our city with hope and helped keep us strong," said New York Mayor Michael Bloomberg at a ceremony in lower Manhattan.

To get started on how you can be part of that spirit, the library has basic information about volunteerism, including reasons to volunteer and the rewards of volunteer work, try "Volunteerism," a collection of essays edited by Frank McGuckin.

For more specific ideas on how to get started in volunteering, including what type of organization with which to volunteer, try "Keys to Volunteering" by Elizabeth Vierck. For the adventurous, read "World Volunteers: the World Guide to Humanitarian and Development Volunteering," which gives projects all over the world that can last for weeks or even years!

If you are an animal lover, you can volunteer to work with animals. Both "Volunteering with Your Pet" and "Wanted! Animal Volunteers" explain how to use your pet in volunteering. Animal volunteers have been used for volunteering with nursing home residents, the physically disabled, and even with prisoners. This can be a great way to help others while spending quality time with your furry pals.

If you don't have pet but like spending time with animals, there is certainly no shortage of animal organizations that need good volunteers.

If you're ready to volunteer but don't know where, there are many resources on the Internet to help you. Volunteer Match (www.volunteermatch.org) is a great site to help you find out what's available in your own backyard. You can search by zip code and area of interest to find organizations that are looking for someone just like you! For more Web sites to help potential volunteers, visit the Westland Library's Web page at www.westland.lib.mi.us and click on "Internet Guide" then "Volunteering/Giving."

September: Good time to create emergency plan

A Westland business is participating in an effort designed to increase awareness as well as encourage individuals, families businesses and communities to take action and prepare for emergencies this month.

SERVPRO of Westland has joined Ready Campaign in its sixth annual National Preparedness Month and with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security to recognize September as National Preparedness Month.

"Natural disasters take many forms, and while they may be inevitable, they don't always have to be devastating," said Gary Gasser, owner of the local restoration service. "By taking action now, Westland residents can potentially lessen the impact they experience from catastrophes. Being prepared is the best defense one can have."

According to the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), there were 75 declared disasters in 2008, a 19 percent increase from those reported in 2007. So far, in 2009, the Agency has recorded 42, and the number is expected to rise as hurricane season approaches the southeast.

"Whether it's with a tornado, torrential rains or heavy snow, Mother Nature can wreak havoc at all times of the year, and oftentimes, the events can come without warning," said Gasser. "That is why we are urging people to designate National Preparedness Month as a time to sit down with their families and make a plan."

Gasser says that the following three action steps can help area families prepare for the worse:

1. Create an Emergency Supply Kit: Start by thinking about the basics for survival - fresh water, food, clean air and warmth. In addition, be sure to include a battery-powered radio (with extra batteries), flashlight, first aid kit, a can opener to open canned food, and a cell phone with chargers.

2. Make a Family Emergency Plan: Your family may not all be together when a disaster strikes, so it is critical to establish an out-of-town contact to facilitate communication. Also, when using cell phones, know that text messages can often get around network disruptions when a phone call might not be able to get through.

3. Be Informed: Visit your state and local government Web sites to learn about the particular emergency plans that have been established in your area. You can also download tools to better prepare your family for a disaster at www.ready.gov.

"National Preparedness Month serves as a good reminder that we all have a responsibility in protecting ourselves, our employees, our families and our communities," said Gasser. "Emergencies will happen, but taking action now can help us minimize the impact they will have on our lives."

Gasser added that even if a family has an emergency preparedness plan in place, this month is an ideal time to update it and make sure that all members of the family are familiar with its contents. In addition, residents should make sure that a similar plan is in place at work.

Founded in 1967, the SERVPRO franchise system is a national leader and provider of fire and water cleanup and restoration services and mold mitigation and remediation. SERVPRO of Westland offers an assortment of services to help local residents quickly recover and restore any damaged property. Within four hours of the initial notification, a SERVPRO franchise professional will be on-site to start the mitigation process. Exceptions may apply under certain conditions, such as a catastrophic event or a storm situation.

Rockets' big-play offense zaps Chargers

BY BRAD EMMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Westland John Glenn's football team proved Friday night that they have more than one Pontiac Game Changing-type performer.

Coming off his school-record six-touchdown, 370-yard rushing performance last week against Pinckney, Glenn senior tailback Jeremy Langford had another productive night after a slow first quarter as the Rockets earned a 28-14 KLA South Division football win over visiting Livonia Churchill.

Glenn got a pair of touchdown passes from senior quarterback Steven Kulikowski and 191 yards rushing and three more TDs from the 6-foot-1, 190-pound Langford to improve to 3-0 overall.

Langford was held to just one yard on five carries in the first period, but Glenn went up 7-0 on Kulikowski's pinpoint 44-yard TD toss to Davarius Jenkins with 5:25 left.

The score was set up by linebacker Steven Murphy's interception.

In the second quarter, Kulikowski found Langford over the middle screen pass, and the senior cut through the Churchill defense for a 44-yard TD with 6:58 to go until halftime to make it 14-0.

Glenn then marched 80 yards in seven plays — all by Langford out of the one-back set "Wildcat" formation — capped by his 21-yard TD run with just 1:01 remaining to put the Rockets up 21-0 at intermission.

"It was a new formation that they (Glenn) hadn't run," Churchill coach John Filiatraut said. "We practiced against the 'Wildcat' in a goal line

New pom coach

Jamie Chittaro has been named the new pom coach at Livonia Stevenson High School.

Chittaro is a 2004 graduate of Stevenson and was captain of the Spartans her senior year after transferring from Dearborn Divine Child. In high school she earned Mid American Pom All-Star honors three consecutive years.

Chittaro, who received a BBA degree in accounting from Western Michigan University, is currently a judge for Mid American Pom Side Wide competitions. She is currently an accountant for an independent manufacturing company.

"Coach Chittaro is very professional, knowledgeable, structured, organized, firm and fair," Stevenson A.D. Lori Hyman said. "She will work very hard to make our Pom Pon the very best it can be."

Hole-in-one club

On Sept. 8, Fred Crall, 76, of Farmington Hills, used a 5-rescue club to record an ace on the 184-yard, No. 15 hole at Whispering Willows.

Crall, who has been playing 60 years, shot an 18-hole round of 86.

Churchill's one-two punch of Tom Windle (right) and Quinn Osgood placed first and second, respectively, as the Chargers won their seventh straight Livonia City boys cross country title.

Seven and counting.

That's how many Livonia City boys cross country titles Churchill has won in a row following Wednesday's conquest at Cass Benton Park in Northville.

The Chargers, getting a 1-2 finish from junior Tom Windle and senior Quinn Osgood, kept the crown with 32 points, followed by host Stevenson (36) and Franklin (65).

Windle's time on the hilly and demanding 5,000-meter course was 17 minutes, 19 seconds, while Osgood was clocked in 17:41.

Chargers regain title; Kroll's 18:10 leads way

BY BRAD EMMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Sara Kroll felt a bit lonely during Wednesday's Public Schools of Livonia Invitational girls cross country meet.

The senior from Livonia Churchill cruised around the challenging 3.1-mile Cass Benton Park course in an impressive 18 minutes, 10.77 seconds, almost a 1:30 ahead of the next finisher, Livonia Franklin junior Megan McPherson.

Kroll, seventh in the Division 1 state finals last November, bettered her previous Cass Benton best by almost 15 seconds as the Chargers convincingly reclaimed the team title with 21 points, followed by Franklin (32) and defending champion Stevenson (77).

How good was Kroll's performance? It would have put her fourth in the boys race and it was nearly 47 seconds better than defending individual champion Courtney Calka of Stevenson, who placed eighth in last year's state finals and now is on scholarship at Eastern Michigan University.

"There was nobody to push me the whole way, but I like it," Kroll said. "It makes me stronger running by myself."

"I did a hard workout (Monday) and I only had one day to recover. My goal was 18:20 and I'm pleased with myself. And every girl on our team P.R.'ed today."

Churchill, winning its sixth team title in seven years, received sterling performances from three underclassmen, including freshman Kerigan Riley, third place (20:23); sophomore Bethany Pilat, fourth (20:48); and freshman Sydney Anderson, fifth (20:58).

Senior Tiffany Raisanen also placed eighth in 21:57. "I was extremely pleased with the team's performance today," Churchill coach Sue Tatro said. "Sara (Kroll) ran an amazing race and continues to prove that she is one of the elite runners in the state."

"It was also great watching my younger athletes like

Full-throttle Franklin romps by Wayne Memorial, 48-7

Livonia Franklin was on full-throttle from the opening kickoff Friday night as the host Patriots handed Wayne Memorial its first football setback, 48-7.

Franklin, now 2-1 overall and 1-0 in the KLA's South Division, jumped out to a 35-0 halftime lead and invoked a running clock in the second half.

The loss drops Wayne to 2-1 overall and 0-1 in the KLA South.

"We put a lot of pressure on them and we focused all week on coming out of the gate fast and not coming out slow," Franklin coach Chris Kelbert said. "We did a good job scoring 28 first-quarter points. We had six starters out, but a lot of young guys stepped up for us."

Mike Gadsby, a senior running back, scored four touchdowns on runs of 4, 7, 15 and 72 yards. He finished with a game-high 131 yards on 11 carries and caught two passes for 55 yards.

Brandon Tower also added a pair of TD runs including a 5-yarder in the first quarter and a 50-yarder in the final period. Tower had 68 yards on five attempts, while teammate Chris VanTuyt, who also had 12-yard TD run in the opener period, added 37 on 10 carries.

Franklin outgained Wayne 320-236 in total yards.

Wayne's back-up quarterback Zakk Hardyniec rushed for 104 of his team's 165 yards on the ground. He had an 82-yard TD run in the final period to avert the shutout.

Franklin quarterback Mike Beasley was 4-of-4 passing for 68 yards, while Wayne senior starter Nick Mills was 7-of-15 for 71 yards.

Mills was picked off four times, twice by Ryan Parkin and one each by Ryan Hurt and David Dohr.

Wayne went three-and-out on its opening series, but the Patriots mishandled the punt. Patriot senior defensive lineman Nate Coleman got the ball right back when he stripped Mills on a sack and recovered the fumble. Hurt also had a fumble recovery for Franklin.

Divisional opener

Canton pulls away to sweep Glenn in 3 straight

After winning two close games, 26-24, 25-23, the Canton girls volleyball team ended Wednesday's KLAA South Division match with a convincing 25-9 victory in its season opener against host Westland John Glenn.

Senior outside hitter Jordan Kieley paced the Chiefs, 1-0 overall and 1-0 in the KLAA South, with 12 kills, 10 assists and 10 digs.

Also contributing to the win for Canton was sophomore Kristen Muir (five kills, 14 digs, seven aces); Traci Breitmeyer (15 assist-to-kills, seven digs, five aces); and Lauren Macuga (27 digs).

"Normally we would already have played one or two tournaments before our first league game," Canton first-year coach Mary Kryska said. "We struggled to find the open spots and execute a good offense. We didn't make very good offensive decisions, but we never hung our heads low. Glenn played very well giving us very good competition. Our aggressive serving proved to be one of our best assets. Our serve receive was very impressive the entire time with only minimal errors."

Glenn (3-6-1, 0-1) combined for 10 team blocks. Junior Brooke Zywick led the defense with 31 digs. Junior Halie Baker paced the offense with four kills for the Rockets, who couldn't hold five-point leads in each of the first two games.

Glenn coach Julian Wargo also saluted his two setters, senior Lauren Baker and sophomore Sarah Headrick. Senior Mackenzie Stephens added two kills.

"They (Canton) didn't panic and clawed their way back into the games using a tough serve-and-volley strategy," Glenn coach Julian Wargo said. "In Game 3, the Chiefs' servers got hot and stayed hot putting the us back on our heels and taking the home crowd out of the game. We were not able to establish ball control and lost the final game."

Churchill bests Patriots

Senior outside hitter Sarah Suppelsa enjoyed a productive offensive night with 18 kills as Livonia Churchill opened KLAA South Division play Thursday with a 25-16, 25-9, 25-14 win host Livonia Franklin.

Other standouts for the Chargers, who improved to 9-2 overall and 1-0 in the KLAA

South, included sisters Nicole Kempinski (18 assists, six digs) and Kara Kempinski (12 digs); Taylor Kerr (16 digs, five ace serves); Darcy DeRoo (six kills, three assists, four digs); and Erin Menard (four kills, one block).

Chelsea Williams (seven kills) and Liz Hollaway (six kills) paced the Patriots, who fell to 0-4 overall and 0-1 in the KLAA South.

"In Game Two we had trouble with serve reception and as a result had no offense," Franklin coach Linda Jimenez said. "Despite the loss, I thought we were very competitive physically and mentally. I was proud of our effort against a very good team."

Stevenson stopped

In a KLAA Central Division match Thursday, host Northville defeated Livonia Stevenson in three games, 25-15, 25-16, 25-21.

Kelly Vellucci led Stevenson (4-3, 0-1) with eight kills and two assist-to-kills, while setter Claire LeBlanc record 11 assists and was 13-of-14 serving.

Other Stevenson leaders included Shelbie Wilson (9-for-9 serving, three digs), Jordan York (three digs) and Catherine Licata (three assists).

situation. We just didn't make enough adjustments on the fly. He (Langford) changed the momentum of the game."

Churchill, using the spread attack, tried to fight back in the third quarter as junior quarterback Jordan Grohoski engineered a 10-play, 79-yard drive capped by his 23-yard TD toss to Tony Frezzell with 5:33 left to cut the deficit to 21-7.

The Chargers then made things interesting by driving down to the Glenn 16 early in the fourth quarter. But Churchill came up short on a pass to the end zone on fourth-and-two.

Churchill got a late TD (with 5:09 remaining) when back-up quarterback Steven Klisz, in for the injured Grohoski, connected with Dean Bokuniewicz on a 15-yard strike.

But it was too little, too late for the Chargers, who fall to 1-2 and 0-1.

"When I watched them (Churchill) on film they were huge up front," Glenn coach Tim Hardin said. "They did some smart things. It was kind of a cat-and-mouse game and they caught us a couple of times.

"Our defensive coordinator, Matt Howton, does a great job. They say your defense can bend, but not break. And I thought tonight our defense made a couple of key plays."

Glenn outgained the Chargers in total offense, 401-298, as Kulikowski was 7-of-16 for 123 yards. Kamal Aylar also gave Langford some much-needed relief with 79 yards rushing on 11 carries.

"We have a lot of confidence in our quarterbacks going back to when Chuck (Gordon) coached here," Hardin said. "We're a team that wants to run, and then throw when we had to. Tonight we had to (pass) and Steve did a great job. It's what we expect of him."

"And Kamal has really improved since the beginning of the season. He had a tremendous week of practice. He's a power runner and we're happy to have both those guys. And it's good to know we can give Jeremy a break."

Churchill's two quarterbacks were a combined 14-of-28 for 174 yards. The Chargers had 124 yards rushing.

The Chargers hurt themselves in the first half with two turnovers, a pair of costly penalties and a missed 26-yard field goal.

"This is the third game in a row where we opened the game with a turnover on our first drive," Filiatraut said. "It's been three weeks in a row and we've got to get that fixed."

Kevin Mozurkewich and Kevin Pietrasinski each made 10 tackles for the Chargers. Mozurkewich also had a second-period interception.

"I thought the kids played with effort and played well," Filiatraut said. "But they (Glenn) obviously made the big plays and we didn't."

"Langford got loose on the screen pass and our first kid got there late. He's a good player, especially in the open field."

"And when you don't convert on fourth-and-one (early in the fourth quarter) that hurts. Then they turn around and go 80 yards."

Spartans earn 1st grid win, 34-7

Livonia Stevenson pulled away in the second half to earn its first football victory of the season with a 34-7 triumph over Salem at the Plymouth H.S. field.

The Spartans, now 1-2 overall and 1-0 in the KLAA Central, led 14-7 at halftime.

Stevenson jumped out to a 6-0 advantage after one quarter on Austin White's 4-yard TD run, but Salem came back with a TD in the second quarter on Jake Peterson's 3-yard run.

Ethan Walsh's extra point gave the Rocks a 7-6 lead with 5:54 left in the second period.

Stevenson's John Pauley then answered on an 11-yard run to make it 14-6 after White ran in for the two-pointer with 1:56 to go in the half.

The Spartans put it away in the third period on a White 8-yard TD run followed by Beyer's 4-yard TD run.

Stevenson's Troy Whalen also returned an interception 19 yards for a score with 2:41 remaining the game to complete the scoring.

Stevenson had a total of 255 yards, including 142 on the ground.

Quarterback Brendan O'Hara was 9-of-17 for 133 yards. The Spartans had 13 first downs.

Salem had 91 yards rushing, while Peterson and Brian Maksimovic combined for 10-of-23 passing for 91 yards.

Defensive standouts for the Spartans included inside linebacker Duran Onwuemene, outside linebacker Mike Roy and defensive back Bryan Koessler.

"We're just glad to get a win," Stevenson coach Tim Gabel said.

Meanwhile, the loss drops Salem to 0-3 overall and 0-1 in the KLAA Central.

Lady Ocelots outlast OCC spikers

It took the decisive fifth game Thursday, but Schoolcraft College women's volleyball team was able to prevail over stubborn Oakland Community College, 17-25, 25-17, 17-25, 25-18, 16-14.

"We knew this was going to be a tough match," said Schoolcraft coach Rich Lamb, whose team is 8-3 overall and 5-0 in the MCCA's Eastern Conference. "We had watched them play at the Owens (Ohio) Tournament over the weekend and saw the talent that they had. However, we had a game plan that we wanted to execute and knew that if we followed our game plan we would have a chance."

COLLEGE VOLLEYBALL

The loss drops OCC to 11-5 overall and 0-1 in the conference.

"Oakland is a great team and I'm sure they will be in the hunt for the league title the rest of the season," Lamb said. "Hopefully, we'll be able to keep up with them and the other teams that we face in the future."

MU wins Martin opener

Mary McGinnis had 17 kills, while Liz Dempsey (Livonia Franklin) and Karie Altman added 13 apiece Friday afternoon as the Madonna University women's volleyball team downed visiting Spring Arbor, 25-17, 25-22, 25-21, in the opening round of the Julie Martin Memorial Classic.

Setter Inta Grinvalds finished with 50 assist-to-kills, while Amanda Koszela contributed a team-high 12 digs as the Crusaders improved to 9-0 overall.

Spring Arbor (7-3) got 13 kills from Anna Glass and 12 from Taria Olds.

MU was scheduled to play University of Texas-Brownsville in Friday's second match. (Visit www.hometownlife.com for more results).

Trojans execute 28-9 win vs. Harper Woods

It's about time. For two weeks now Livonia Clarenceville football coach Ryan Irish had been looking for better execution and discipline on both sides of the ball from his youthful Trojans.

He certainly saw that Friday night, and what a difference it made as the Trojans took control early and rolled to a 28-9 victory over visiting Harper Woods.

"Our defense just did a great job," said Irish, whose club had gone winless in its previous two starts, primarily due to mistakes in execution. "Our kids were ready to play from the opening kick tonight and we kind of took them out of their game plan. We played physical football - the kind we like to play."

The Trojans, now 1-1 in Metro

Conference play and 1-2 overall, jumped in front of previously unbeaten Pioneers in the opening period when senior running back Levonte Brooks raced in from 15 yards out and teammate Leonard Hogan carried in the two-point conversion for a quick 8-0 Clarenceville advantage.

Following a safety by the Pioneers to trim the margin to 8-2, the Trojans came right back with six more on a 74-yard fumble return by Benjamin Watts.

One of the first half's more crucial plays came in the second period as senior quarterback Lenny Smith scooted 22 yards with the football for a TD and commanding 21-2 lead at halftime.

The Trojans were in no mood to squander the lead as Brooks notched his second six-pointer of the evening in the third quarter on a 12-yard jaunt through the Harper Woods defense.

Harper Woods (2-1, 1-1) found the end zone later in the period - Terrence Hartfield carrying the final 16 yards of a drive - but it was too little, too late as the Trojans were more than happy to climb right back into the Metro Conference race.

Clarenceville put 228 yards of rushing offense into the books and added 60 more through the air on a 7-12 passing performance by Smith, who led all rushers with 80 yards on 12 carries, while Brooks followed with 70 on nine attempts.

Hogan proved to be a terror on defense as he led the Trojans with 12 tackles from his safety position.

Ferndale blocks Clarenceville

After winning the opening game by a 25-21 count Thursday, Livonia Clarenceville's Trojans watched visiting Ferndale take the next three by scores of 25-20, 25-19 and 25-14 to earn the non-league girls volleyball triumph.

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

Kat Hall led Clarenceville with nine kills, while Brittany Tallman added four.

"We started out like gangbusters and then they just busted us mentally after that," said Clarenceville coach Wendy Mershman, whose team falls to 3-2 overall. "We still haven't come up with the right combinations, but we're going to continue working on it. They had some strong hitters, too, and we couldn't dig the ball out."

Franklin girls garner Livonia's 'Ryder Cup'

BY BRAD EMONS OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

It was another Patriot Golf Day on Thursday as Franklin edged rivals Churchill and Stevenson for the Public Schools of Livonia Invitational girls golf title held at Fox Creek.

The Patriots, who tallied nine points, captured stroke play and best ball in the Ryder Cup format, which included three points for first, two for second and one for third.

Churchill was runner-up with eight points, while the host Spartans placed third with seven.

"This is a big win for Franklin golf and I couldn't be prouder of the way they played today," Franklin coach Brian McCalister said. "The girls stayed really focused and played within themselves. One of the team goals this year was to win this tournament and they deserved it after the hard work they have put in the past year."

Franklin's Georgia Patrick and Mariah Barcus combined for a 104 to win the stroke play followed by Stevenson's Kathleen Karczewski and Gina Castrodale (132) and Churchill's Margo McClain and Claire Rose (137).

The Patriots' Lauren Beahon and Alexis Smith captured the best ball with a combined 46 with Churchill's Stephanie Panaretos and Maggie McGowan shooting 49 to take second. Stevenson's Becka Bubbeneheimer and Dana Smith combined for a 54.

Stevenson's lone win came in the scramble format as Andrea Burford and Sarah King shot 45. Churchill's Jackie Burdette and Shelby Longworth were second (46), while Franklin's Mackenzie Meyers and Haley Szpara took third (47).

In alternate shot, Churchill's Jordyn Shepler and Taylor Cutting picked up three points with a 56 with Franklin's Rebecca Keeler and Lucie Patrick taking second (61). Stevenson's Chelsea Phillips and Brynn Cavanaugh placed third (67).

Chargers boot Franklin, 7-0; Stevenson falls on late goal

Livonia Churchill shook off Tuesday's disappointing tie with a resounding 7-0 boys soccer victory Thursday night at Livonia Franklin.

The Chargers, now 6-0-1 overall and 1-0-1 in the KLAASouth Division, got a pair of goals from Tim Devine along with one goal and two assists from Max Washko.

Allen Woodruff, Erik Bird, Adam Bedell and Tyler Varney also scored for the Chargers, who led 3-0 at intermission.

"We played really well, especially after the way we played the last game," said Churchill coach Reid Friedrichs, referring to the 1-all deadlock with Plymouth.

Bryan Bartig, who got his first start in goal for the Chargers, played 55 minutes before giving way to Christian Adams as the two combined on the shutout.

Franklin sophomore keeper Ryan Tikey made 15 saves.

"We had our moments where we contended with them and got through their defense," said Franklin coach Vic

KLAAS BOYS SOCCER

Rodopoulos, whose team falls to 0-5 and 0-2. "But we had no scoring opportunities. We'll come out learning from this. I thought Churchill played a well-controlled game."

NORTHVILLE 1, STEVENSON 0: Fatai Alashe scored off a rebound with only 10 minutes remaining Thursday to give the host Mustangs a well-controlled game.

Alashe pounced on Doug Beason's initial shot after a Northville counter-attack and through-ball bounced just outside the Stevenson box.

Northville goalkeeper Matt VanHouten notched his third shut-out of the season, while Stevenson counterpart Conner Burton had five saves.

"It was another pretty good night in terms of work and effort," Stevenson coach Lars Richters said. "The first half we played well and couldn't capitalize on our chances. We struggled to finish."

Richters singled out the play of his central backs led by Charlie Swingle. "They played against a speedy frontline," Richters said. "They (Northville) did a good job putting the ball away on their best chance."

Northville coach Henry Klimes was pleased with his team's second-half showing.

"We made some adjustments and it gave us more chances, I was happier the second half," he said. "Stevenson put high pressure on the first half. They could have been awarded a penalty kick and scored on us well."

CANTON 9, JOHN GLENN 1: It was all Chiefs on Wednesday as Canton (5-1-2, 2-0) romped to a KLAASouth Division mercy-rule win over Westland John Glenn (2-4, 1-1).

Three of Canton's nine tallies were "own" goals by Glenn. Senior Nelson Kenne had the lone goal for the Rockets.

"We had a really bad game and we're taking this as a lesson," Glenn coach Jimmy Mortada said. "We will regroup and get a result in the next game."

PLYMOUTH 8, WAYNE 0: Nick Russ notched a hat trick and Dan Conklin added two goals Wednesday as the host Wildcats (3-3-1, 1-0-1) rolled to the KLAASouth Division mercy-rule win over Wayne Memorial (0-5, 0-2).

Evan Lewandowski, Dan Jasewicz and recent JV call-up Brenton Zuzo also tallied goals for Plymouth.

Defending WHAC champs reeling

It's still early in the season, but the Madonna University men's soccer team already finds itself behind the eight-ball in the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference race.

The defending champions fell to 0-2-1 overall and 0-2 in the WHAC following a 4-1 setback Wednesday at Aquinas College in Grand Rapids.

Goals by Heath Sommers (15th minute), Ruben Ornelas-Luna (16th minute), Jero Pantoja (41st minute) and Brian McKeough (48th minute) carried the Saints to a commanding 4-0 lead.

COLLEGE SOCCER

Brian Himes also assisted on two goals as the Saints improved to 3-1 overall and 1-0 in the WHAC.

Moses Otieno's unassisted goal in the 72nd minute spoiled goalkeeper Jess Guevara-Lehker's shutout bid.

MU keeper Steve Besk faced 12 shots and made three saves.

MU women blanked

Elaine Schnabel had a goal and assist Wednesday as host Calvin College, ranked No. 24 in the latest NCAA Division III national poll, rolled to a 3-0 win over Madonna University in Grand Rapids.

Carly Prins (16th minute), Kara Zondervan (48th minute) and Schnabel (77th minute) tallied goals for Calvin.

Goalkeeper Kayla Sulzer made four saves to earn the shutout as the Knights improved to 4-0 overall.

MU got three shots on goal from Jessica Austin (Livonia Franklin), while keeper Chelsea Gregg (Livonia Clarenceville) made two saves.

The loss drops the Crusaders to 1-4 overall.

Churchill's other three scorers were Ryan Wise, eighth place (18:30); Cody Rossler, 10th (18:36); and Stephen Charnley, 11th (18:44).
 Churchill interim coach Pat Daugherty, filling in for long-time coach John McCreedy (recovering from surgery), placed plenty of importance on the Chargers defending their city title.
 "They all knew it and they didn't want to be the class to lose it," Daugherty said. "Both Rossler and Wise made the difference today because they're usually our fifth and sixth, or sixth and seventh best runners."
 Windle ran comfortably throughout the 3.1-mile race and finished strong to win going away.

 "I felt good and the course felt fast the first two miles," the junior said. "The third mile I buckled down and ran hard."
 "I'm proud of the team right now. Both Rossler and Wise stepped it up getting into the top 10. The last month I thought about going one-two (with Quinn). We did it and I'm happy about it. This has been our focus the last month."
 Windle, meanwhile, seems to get every ounce out of his 5-foot, 6-inch frame as he succeeded former Churchill teammate Mark Waterbury as city champ.
 "Tom came on at the end of last track season once we got him into the two-mile," Daugherty said.

"And every two-mile he was in, he P.R.'ed. He just gets the most out of his ability. He's worked extremely hard and has a lot of confidence. He's been working all summer. His goal, like a lot of guys, is to get out of the regional and go to the state meet."
 Stevenson's top two finishers were Joe Urso and Matt Williams, who placed third and fourth, respectively, in 17:44 and 18:10. Also in the top 10 for the Spartans were Joey MacDonald (seventh) and Andrew Longhi (ninth).
 Franklin, missing its top runner, junior Austin Jones, to a fractured foot, got a fifth from Bobby Wilson and a sixth from Nik Gherardini.

Warriors settle for another draw

For the second game in a row, Lutheran Westland's boys soccer team failed to score a single goal.
 Fortunately for the Warriors, neither did their opponent - this time Southfield Christian - which battled the Warriors to a 0-0 tie.
 On Thursday, visiting Southfield Christian (1-4-2) battled the Warriors to Bethany (Pilat), Kerigan (Riley), and Sydney (Anderson) run with a great deal of confidence. This was a tremendous kickoff to the 2009 season.

 Kroll missed last year's city meet while recovering from an illness, when the Chargers were edged by Stevenson, 34-35. But the senior has picked up right where she left off from a stellar spring track season, when she placed second in the Division 1 800-meter run (2:14.39).

 "I had a good year in track and it's carried me over to cross country," Kroll said. "This summer I've done longer runs, 10- to 12-milers once a week. I've logged more miles, and with the weight lifting, it's made me better."
 Meanwhile, it was the best finish for Franklin in coach Dave Bjorklund's nine years as coach.
 In addition to McPherson's time of 19:40.3, the Patriots also got a sixth from Brittany Dille (21:21) and a seventh from Tiffany Lamble (21:39). Megan Wickens was also in the top 10 (22:45).

 "It was a good showing. We've never beaten Stevenson since I've been here, and we've been third in this meet every year," Bjorklund said. "I'm happy, but the girls feel they can run better. Our girls have been working hard. We may not get Churchill, but I think we'll surprise a lot of other teams."
 Stevenson, under first-year coach Keith Hearn, got a ninth from senior Victoria Saferian (22:29).

PREP SOCCER

a draw as Christian Bryant played flawlessly between the pipes for the Eagles, while Jake Fairbairn and Nick Andrzejewski did the same for Lutheran Westland.
 "Both of our goalkeepers played real well and so did Southfield Christian's keeper," said Warriors coach Rich Block, whose troops now stand 1-1-2 overall on the season. "We outshot them 18-12, so we had some chances. But give a lot of credit to our defense and goalkeepers because they kept Southfield Christian off the board, too."
FERNDALE 3, CLARENCEVILLE 2: Kyle Rose scored a pair of goals Thursday as the Eagles (3-2) notched the non-league win over host Livonia Clarenceville (3-2-1).
 Michael Baugh also scored for the victors, while Daniel Herrick contributed two assists.
 Jimmy Powrie and Jimmy Moody scored for Clarenceville.
 On Tuesday, Phil Strachan had both goals as the Trojans lost 5-2 at Dearborn Edsel Ford.

Think healthy at Canton pet event, adopt at the zoo

BY SHARON DARGAY
O&E STAFF WRITER

Why merely walk your dog when you can spice up your end of the leash with Tai chi, the ancient Chinese form of graceful exercise.

An expert will show you how to combine the fluid, meditative movements with walking at the 2nd Annual Canton Heart & Bark, a health and wellness event for dogs, cats and their owners.

Jeanette William, Canton Leisure Services recreation specialist, says the Tai chi demonstration is perfect for the Lower Rouge River Trail, the site of Heart & Bark, 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 19. Walking the secluded trail, located at Morton Taylor Road and Michigan Avenue, is almost a meditation in itself.

"You don't hear any cars," she said, noting the trail's quiet surroundings. "It follows the lower Rouge River and it's a wildlife area. We stood out there the other day and had deer walk up."

"The trail just opened recently. What's better than to incorporate things people already do there? A lot of people walk their dogs there."

More than just a dog walk, the event will incorporate health and wellness information for humans and their pets, a "Dash for Doggies" fun run for kids 12 and under at 11 a.m., a pet tricks contest, owner/pet look alike contest, food, raffles, giveaways and vendors.

Dash for Doggies, along a half-mile course, will benefit the development of the Canton Dog Park. All participants will receive a commemorative T-shirt. For details, call (734) 394-5460.

Each contest costs $5 to enter, with proceeds going to the Human Society of Huron Valley.

Admission to Heart & Bark is free.

The second annual event, offering contests, a kid's fun run, trail walks, health tests for humans and health information for their pets, runs 10 a.m.-2 p.m., Saturday, Sept. 19, at Lower Rouge River Recreation Trail, Morton Taylor Road and Michigan Avenue.

"Twenty-five dollars for microchipping is super cheap," William noted. "We're partnering with the Human Society of Huron Valley and there will be lots of different vendors. We'll have health screenings for pet owners and chair massages."

Representatives from local pet stores, veterinary clinics and other pet-related businesses will be on hand with merchandise and to answer pet care questions. Oakwood Healthcare System will give free blood pressure and glucose screenings to pet owners.

"It's proven that being with animals lowers your blood pressure and reduces stress. Even nursing homes are incorporating pets."

ADOPT A PET

The Detroit Zoo and the Michigan Humane Society offer an easy way to find that perfect furry companion through their semi-annual "Meet Your Best Friend at the Zoo" adoption event.

Hundreds of dogs, cats, puppies and kittens will be looking for permanent new homes, 10 a.m.-5 p.m., Saturday-Sunday, Sept. 26-27, at the zoo, located on 10 Mile (I-696 service drive) and Woodward in Royal Oak.

Animal rescue groups and shelters from throughout Michigan will be on hand with pets. They set their own adoption fees and policies. Adopters must present a driver's license or state ID card if they are deemed qualified to adopt an animal.

Puppy passes will be given to the first 25 visitors who are interested in adopting puppies. They'll be allowed to enter the event at 9:45 a.m.

All potential adopters will get an opportunity to spend time in the "get acquainted" area with an animal before adopting it.

COPING WITH DIABETES

Diabetes is a group of disorders in which the body has trouble regulating its blood sugar levels. Type 1 diabetes occurs when the body's immune system attacks and destroys certain cells in the pancreas.

Beta cells normally produce insulin, a hormone that helps the body move the glucose contained in food into cells throughout the body, which use it for energy. But when the beta cells are destroyed, no insulin can be produced, and the glucose stays in the blood instead, where it can cause serious damage to all the body's organ systems.

People with type 1 diabetes must take insulin—undergoing multiple injections daily or having insulin delivered through an insulin pump—and test their blood sugar by pricking their fingers for blood samples six or more times a day.

The warning signs of type 1 diabetes include extreme thirst; frequent urination; drowsiness or lethargy; sugar in urine; sudden vision changes; increased appetite; sudden weight loss; fruity, sweet, or wine-like odor on breath; heavy, labored breathing; stupor; and unconsciousness.

Scientists do not know exactly what causes type 1 diabetes, but they believe that autoimmune, genetic and environmental factors are involved.

Ford Motor Company is JDRF's largest sponsor raising more than $27 million.

Steel trusses were ready to be hoisted into place this past summer as Angela Hospice undergoes a major expansion.

Hospice gives human touch to end-of-life care

BY JULIE BROWN
O&E STAFF WRITER

When Angela Hospice's Bob Alexander asked Westland Rotarians if a loved one had been in hospice care, many said yes. A father-in-law got hospice care the last three months of his life. A mother was cared for briefly. "I've never heard a bad thing about hospice care," said Rotarian Margaret Harlow of Wayne, speaking for many.

Alexander, business development manager for the Livonia-based hospice, spoke Sept. 10 to a Rotary audience. "Hospice is a real organic thing," he said, noting it's different from most medical care.

Hospice came to southeastern Michigan in the 1970s, with the Felician Sisters' Angela Hospice starting in 1985. Sister Mary Giovanni was working in the sisters' infirmary and then St. Mary Hospital.

She saw the contrast between those who received the sisters' care and other patients at the end of life. "They were cared for medically very capably, well," Alexander said of the others. They lacked touch and human comfort, however. Sister Giovanni heard Dame Cicily Saunders, a doctor and Englishwoman who created the modern hospice movement, speak. The Livonia hospice began in the basement of Madonna University.

TEAM APPROACH

Alexander, a community development graduate of Central Michigan University, noted its interdisciplinary team approach. There's a nurse, social worker, aide, a spiritual caregiver and often others such as physical therapists.

"How can we help you?" is the focus. "It's an open-ended question intentionally," said Alexander, who also studied at the University of Michigan and is a married dad of two grown children and grandpa to twins.

It's hard for many families to give up on curative care despite a terminal diagnosis, he said. Alexander cited a 2007 study of 4,500 terminally ill people showing that those who chose hospice care actually lived longer than those only with curative care.

"We are not down on curative therapies," he said. "We think they're great."

PRECIOUS TIME

Those at Angela Hospice often hear from families who say they wish they'd known of hospice sooner. Having hospice care gives time to deal with relationships and resolve conflicts.

"We see so many wonderful blessings of family during the time of hospice care," said Alexander, a Waterford resident. They're invited into what he thinks is the most challenging time of life.

Angela Hospice currently cares for 170 patients, most of them at home. Alexander urged his audience to interview a couple hospices for comparison, and to have doctors acknowledge the hospice option.

Doctors' training often makes them reluctant to "give up," he said, and families can help by introducing the hospice option early in the discussion.

The facility on Newburgh north of Schoolcraft now has 16 beds. It's being expanded to 32 inpatient beds, with work ideally to wrap up next spring. Hospice officials had to get approval all the way from the Vatican for the Catholic facility's expansion.

"We're so excited about it," Alexander said. Square footage for patients and their families will more than double to 46,000 feet.

Angela Hospice can be reached toll free at (866) 464-7810 or online at www.angelahospice.org.
