Leaf pickup

The leaves are definitely dropping and residents ready to sweep them to the curb are reminded that the city's leaf pickup program has been cancelled.

Instead of being raked to the street, leaves can be bagged and put out at the curb for pick up on residents' normal garbage collection day. Up to 20 brown compost bags may be put out per week for collection.

For information, call the Department of Public Service at (734) 728-1770.

50th year

The sounds of Mexico will fill the sanctuary of Ss. Simon and Jude Church when current and former parishioners gather Saturday, Dec. 12, to celebrate the Westland church's 50th anniversary.

The celebration will begin with a mariachi Mass at 4:30 p.m. celebrated by Most Rev. Bishop Daniel E. Flores. Mariachi music will be by Salvador Torres & Mariachi Mexico 2000.

A dinner-dance will follow at 6 p.m. with music by trademark. The dinner will feature a Mexican combination plate — cheese enchilada, chicken flauta, beef burrito, rice and beans — catered by Las Brisas of Detroit. The cost is $12 for adults. For children age 10 and under, a chicken nuggets and french fries dinner will be available for $6.

Dinner-dance tickets must be purchased by Dec. 6. No tickets will be sold at the door that evening, and there will be no admission without a ticket.

There also will be a grand raffle drawing with $5,000 in prizes to be given out. The drawing will be at 9 p.m.

Ss. Simon and Jude Parish is at 32500 Palmer, west of Merriman. For more information and tickets, call (734) 722-1343.

Light turnout expected for Tuesday's election

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

There will definitely be new faces seated on the Westland council after voters go to the poll Tuesday.

Incumbent Mayor William Wild is unchallenged on the printed ballot. Jeffery Hayton and Angelo Stocchi have both filed to run as write-in candidates for mayor.

Three school districts have spot on ballots, see story on Page A2

In the council race, voters will fill four open seats from a field of eight candidates that includes one veteran council member. Along with incumbent Dewey Reeves, the other council candidates include Christine Cicirelli Bryant, Sam Durante, Janet Frederick-Wilson, Adam Hammons, Meriem Kadi, Kenneth Mehl and Mark Rodriguez.

Current council members Cheryl Graunstadt, Charles Pickering and Robert Stottlemeyer didn't seek re-election. The top three vote getters will earn four-year terms, while the fourth-place finisher gets a two-year seat.

Clerk Eileen Dehart expects about 12 percent of Westland's 60,132 registered voters will cast ballots in Tuesday's election — about average, for a city election.

"There are more than 4,000 absentee ballots out and more than 3,000 have been returned. We may end up with more absentee ballots than people going to the polls," said DeHart,

Hearings delayed for suspects in home invasion

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Preliminary examinations were adjourned for three men charged with holding a family hostage while robbing their Westland home in September and a fourth defendant was ordered bound over for trial.

Scheduled to appear Thursday before Westland 18th District Court Judge Mark McConnell were Adam Brent Mastaw, 25, of Westland and Detroit resident Geraud Raymond Austin, 22. They are charged with multiple felonies, including home invasion, being a felon in possession of a firearm and larceny.

The homeowners and a teenage son were kept bound and gagged at gunpoint as their home was robbed. Among the items stolen were nearly 50 guns which had been collected by the homeowner.

At the request of defense attorneys, the preliminary examinations for Mastaw and Austin were adjourned until Thursday, Nov. 5. Mastaw and Austin are accused of being the two masked gunman who entered the home in the area of Ford and Newburgh late Sept. 26.

Mastaw is also charged with three counts of armed robbery, three counts of unlawful imprisonment, auto theft, carjacking and arson, the latter charges stemming from the theft of a vehicle from the homeowners. The Dodge Durango was later recovered, burned, in Detroit.

The third defendant appearing in 18th District Court was Leonard Hren, 47, of Detroit, who is charged with home invasion, 38 counts of receiving and concealing stolen firearms and being a felon in possession of a firearm. Police recovered 38 guns identified as stolen from the Westland home in an Inkster storage locker leased by Hren.

After waiving his preliminary examination and being bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court for trial, Hren's attorney Susan Hubbard asked McConnell to consider a reduction of his $2 million cash bond — the same bond set for Mastaw and Austin. Hubbard noted that Hren has mental health issues and that he currently receives Social Security disability payments due to his

Vacant building gets makeover for medical office, urgent care

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A site plan for improvements to allow a medical office to occupy a currently vacant building on Wayne Road has been approved by the Westland council.

Improvements planned for the building at 1203 S. Wayne Road, on the east side of the street south of Avondale, include renovating the exterior utilizing the existing brick, a new masonry dumpster enclosure at the southeast corner of the property and a six-foot screening fence at the rear of the property. The existing non-conforming parking also will be eliminated under the site plan.

"I'm happy to bring this to you. The petitioner is making a large investment in the community," said Planning Director Bruce Thompson.

Representing applicant Justin Liyanage, architect Denny Krestel said 3,300 square feet of the 6,149-square foot building would be used for a family medical practice and urgent care center which will be open weekdays until 6 p.m. and noon on Saturdays.

"The balance of the building is lease space - we hope medical use. We tried for a complete new look," said Krestel.

There will be additional landscaping along Wayne Road where there is now parking, Krestel said, with new screening fence along the adjoining residential property replacing a chain link fence.

"This is a marked improvement. We welcome it. It makes a huge improvement to that area," said Council President James Godbout.

The council also approved a site plan for Chase Bank, 31311 Cherry Hill, to allow an additional drive-up ATM to be installed.

"They have the stacking space (for vehicles) and all of our departments have signed off," said Thompson.

Three school districts have spot on ballots

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

There are boxes of four different ballots — color-coded — in Westland Clerk Eileen DeHart's office in anticipation of the general election Tuesday.

The reason for the different ballots comes down to school district boundaries. All Westland voters will receive ballots containing the mayoral and council candidates, along with two proposed city charter amendments and a Wayne County millage renewal question.

Some voters will also be asked to consider school millage proposals and elect board of education members.

Westland residents living in the Livonia Public Schools district will vote on two millage renewal questions: 18.45 mills for operations and 1.12 mills for a building and site sinking fund. The millage is levied on each $1,000 of taxable value.

If approved, each would be renewed for five years. The operating millage would generate approximately $30.2 million in 2011. The sinking fund would generate approximately $6 million.

Part of Precinct 28 in the south end of Westland has approximately 300 voters who live in the Taylor School District. Those voters will help fill two seats on the Taylor board of education. Three candidates, Linda Newsome, Jeremy Waechter and Mary Moore, are seeking the two seats.

Precinct 31 includes a small number of Westland residents who live in the Garden City Schools district. Those voters are being asked to consider approving a 0.5-mill to fund a building and site sinking fund for 2009 and 2010.

The sinking fund would generate approximately $366,300 in 2009.

who expects precinct workers will have a rather quiet election day.

Precinct 31, which includes residents in the Garden City School District, may draw a few more voters, DeHart said, since it has a millage proposal for a building and site sinking fund on the ballot.

In addition to electing a mayor and council members, all Westland voters will consider two proposed amendments to the Westland City Charter. One amendment, if approved, would allow candidates to pay a $100 filing fee as an alternative to filing nominating petitions.

The second proposed charter amendment would move the filing deadline to run for city office to 12 weeks prior to the election instead of the current seven weeks. That would put the city requirements in line with state law.

"The (Michigan) attorney general said even if voters were to reject this, we still have to follow state law," DeHart said. "If voters approve this amendment, the charter is a cleaner document. Both these questions are kind of a no-brainer."

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Registered voters are required to show valid photo identification when they vote or sign an affidavit attesting to their identity.

up with Sarah, who was a 1999 Livonia Franklin High School graduate.

"I knew her my whole life. She was full of life. She loved everyone, no matter the class, race," Goins said.

When her mother Brenda Ramsden died of scleroderma in November 2002, Sarah took over raising her sister Kristy Buchakian, who is 10 years younger.

"She was everything to me," said Buchakian, who was still living with her sister when she died. "She had just started going to Schoolcraft College (with plans to be counselor)."

Both Mariah and Buchakian, who graduated last spring from Franklin and is now studying accounting at Schoolcraft College, are now staying with their aunt Shelly Schaffer.

The fund-raiser will be held 1-9 p.m. at five area bars — the Last Chance, Bumpers, Stockdale's West, Ford Road Bar and Mr. G's. A $10 donation per person gets an admission to all five venues where a total of 35 bands will perform. There will be hourly raffles and recorded music between the bands' sets.

"All the bands have donated their time and the bars have donated food for a buffet," said Davis, who works at the Last Chance and sings with the band Don't Ask. "Sarah loved karaoke — she loved to sing Red Neck Woman. We'll sing it. Between the bands, we'll play her favorite songs. It will be a huge celebration of who she was and what she was all about."

mental health problems.

McConnell declined to reduce the bond, but agreed that Hren should be referred for pretrial screening including a review of the bond.

Since the homeowner kept his gun collection displayed in the home's basement which had a steel entry door, police had said the home was targeted by someone familiar with the contents. Police had identified Hren, a cousin of the female homeowner, as the person who set up the robbery. The fourth defendant, Robert Lawrence Kirby, 24, of Detroit was charged with three counts of receiving and concealing stolen firearms, being a felon in possession of a firearm and felony firearm. Three guns identified as stolen from the Westland home were recovered at Kirby's home in Detroit.

As a result, charges against Kirby were filed in Detroit 36th District Court. His preliminary examination was also scheduled Thursday, but adjourned until Friday, Nov. 6. A $50,000 cash bond was set for Kirby, who like the other three defendants remain jailed after being unable to post the bond.

Anderson to host movie for veterans

In recognition of the tremendous sacrifice and service of America's military veterans, State Sen. Glenn Anderson, in cooperation with AMC Theaters of Livonia, is hosting the second annual Veteran's Day Movie Celebration.

This year's event will feature a free screening of the film Valkyrie, starring Tom Cruise. "I am proud that the community can come together again to offer this important recognition for those men and women among us who have sacrificed so very much," said Anderson. "Last year's event was a huge success and I am sure that this year's event will be even better. It's the least that we can do for our veterans who deserve to be recognized every day for what they have given to their country." The movie will be shown at 3 p.m. Veteran's Day, Tuesday, Nov. 11, at the Livonia AMC 20, 19500 Haggerty Road, north of 7 Mile Rd.

Anderson has made veterans' issues a priority during his tenure. He has proposed legislation providing significant property tax relief for Michigan's veterans and offered a proposal that resulted in a one-stop Web site for veterans' services. This year he successfully added language in the higher education budget to allow recipients of the new GI Bill to be eligible for in-state tuition rates in Michigan.

In addition to the free screening, concessions will be provided free of charge, courtesy of AMC Theaters of Livonia. Seating is limited and a reservation prior to the event is required for admission. Veterans can save a seat for themselves and one guest by contacting Michelle Makarewicz in Anderson's office by e-mail at mmakarewicz@senate.mi.gov or by calling toll free (866) 262-7306.

Concert to benefit injured veterans

A concert to benefit injured veterans and their families through four military veterans' charities will be held Friday, Oct. 30, at Laurel Manor in Livonia. The "Heroes Benefit Concert," as it's called, will feature the Magic Bus band playing popular music of the late 1960s and honoring all veterans for their service and sacrifice.

"We're proud to be able to use our love of music to raise money and give back to those men and women who've given so much for the freedoms most people take for granted every day," said Mark Harrington, lead singer and the band's founder. "The music we play is from an era where our returning Vietnam veterans weren't given the respect they deserved. That lack of respect is what motivated us to create the tour, which today honors all our veterans."

The event is open to the public, and both military and civilian families are encouraged to attend. Doors will be open 6 p.m. to midnight. Tickets are $25 each and can be purchased at the door. Laurel Manor is at 39080 Schoolcraft Road.

The charities benefiting from the concert are the Michigan Paralyzed Veterans of America, the Fallen and Wounded Soldiers Fund, Operation Never Forgotten and the Brain Injury Association of Michigan Veterans Program. For more information, email Rick Briggs at veterans@biami.org.

Glenn students sleuth way through 'The Butler Did It'

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

So what do you say about a play that's titled The Butler Did It, but nowhere in the script or the cast list is there a butler to be found?

Drama Director Sheri Grove's answer is that it's a mystery comedy that has a "compelling and interesting story line."

"All the characters are mystery writers," she said. "They all bring an interesting character to the table and all have an interest in solving the mystery. When you put it together, you have a comedic combination."

Students at John Glenn High School will present The Butler Did It at 7 p.m. Thursday-Saturday, Nov. 5-7, in the auditorium.

The play is a spoof of English mystery plays. Miss Maple, a society dowager known for her imaginative weekend parties, played by Shannon Salisbury, invites a group of detective writers to her eerie manor, where they take on the personalities of their fictional characters. Miss Maple has arranged for all sorts of amusing incidents for her guests, but when an actual murder takes place, the writers soon realize that they are marked for death.

The cast includes a scholarly clergyman, Father White, played by Tyler Scott Claus; a seedy gumshoe named Chandler Marlowe, played by Cody Buege; and Rita, the social secretary who carries around a hatbox. She's played by Julianna Stewart. The trio are pulling double duty in the production, joining Grove as assistant directors.

All 11th-graders, they were

What: 'The Butler Did It,' a spoof of English mysteries with a decidedly American flavor finds Miss Maple, a society dowager noted for her imaginative weekend parties, awaiting a group of detective writers invited to eerie Ravenswood Manor, where she's arranged all sorts of scary and amusing incidents. Then a real murder takes place and the guests realize they're all marked for death. When they're not busy tripping over the clues, the zany sleuths trip over one another.

selected for the posts after submitting essays why they wanted the job.

"I want to be powerful, I want people to listen to me," Buege said. "And it worked."

Buege has been doing plays since third grade. He's in his third show at Glenn and is coming off his show-stealing role of Ryan in last spring's production of High School Musical II. He's not surprised he got the assistant director's job, but he's happy he got it.

"I think I said I wanted to work under my favorite director in my essay," he said. "Mrs. Grove knows I'm dedicated to

"He's extremely talented, but we have to keep him grounded," Grove said.

While Buege was looking at power, Claus has been wanting to be one after seeing what other students did. He has to admit that overall the experience has been good.

"They've been mean and friendly at the same time," he said. "It's easier to know exactly what's happening, when you're on stage, you can give better direction. You're more involved, you know what needs to be done on stage."

Stewart was looking for a more well-rounded experience in theater when she wrote her essay, not just on stage but on the other side of the footlights. The experience "has been better than I expected," she said. "Everything has been good."

"It's more than I thought it would be," she said. "I get to do a lot of things I don't normally get to do."

The cast has been rehearsing in costume to get into their characters. Buege wears a Mickey Spillane-style trench coat and hat and has an exaggerated New York accent — "I thought the accent would fit him," he said. Claus is using a cane and carrying a battered briefcase for his elderly character.

And Stewart wears a severe looking suit with monster shoulder pads she found at a resale shop.

"She plays a frumpy secretary and when I saw this, I thought it would fit," she said. "My mom offered to take them (shoulder pads) out, but I told her no."

Rounding out the cast are Sarah Toarmina, Sarah Mellas, Steve Goldberg, Kimmie

The cast has been rehearsals for three weeks after losing a week to not having the script, and the crew has been working Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays to get the set ready for opening night. Grove knows the show will come off without a hitch.

"They've really dug their heels in to get it done," Grove said. "I'm confident the show will come together. I have a real talented group of actors and crew members."

Symposium looks at online learning

The online classroom is changing. What was once primarily accessed by young adults, online learning is fast becoming the way to make a job market transition and even graduate from high school. As online classes become larger and more diverse, it's imperative for community colleges and universities to continue improving these courses.

"Best Practices in Online Education" can help educators meet these expectations. The eighth annual Symposium for Excellence in Online Learning runs from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday, Nov. 6, at Macomb Community College University Center, Center Campus, 44575 Garfield Road in Clinton Township.

Educators will hear from a panel of students from area community colleges their recommendations on what's working and not working with online classes. A panel will look at trends in K-12 education online initiatives and a faculty panel will discuss engaging online students. Featured will be Matt Roush, WWJ-Newsradio 950's technology editor, Great Lakes IT Report.

Kevin Krason, president and founder of Biznet.com; Karen Kelley from Cisco Systems and Bruce Umpstead, the director of the Office of Educational Technology and Data Coordination, Michigan Department of Education, will also be featured speakers.

The Alliance for Excellence in Online Education is sponsoring the event along with Macomb Community College, Northwood University and UCompass.com/educator. The cost is $100 for alliance members and $150 for the public and includes continental breakfast, breakout sessions, luncheon, and a vendor showcase. Registration can be completed online at www.a4coe.org.

Growing church tries to 'lead by example'

BY DARRELL CLEM
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A Canton church that started as a small group meeting in Alex Rahill's back yard in 2002 has grown into an 800-member congregation worshipping inside a 21,000-square-foot brick building near the northwest corner of Haggerty and Warren.

It's called lifechurch, but don't be fooled by the small "l" in its name. "There's something big going on inside those walls," 26-year-old member Jeff Packer of Canton said.

Packer and others describe lifechurch, part of the rapidly growing Evangelical Covenant Church, as a welcoming place where they can dress casually, talk frankly about real-life problems and watch a rock band perform Christian and secular songs. Rahill, the lead pastor, incorporates the music into his sermons to get his message across.

"I don't have to put on a front and be somebody I'm not," Packer said. "It's hard to show up on a Sunday without having something tug at your heart."

Just in time for Halloween, a band performance of Michael Jackson's Thriller is coming to the Sunday, Oct. 25, services.

Rahill, 46, said lifechurch draws members from Canton, Plymouth, Livonia, Westland, Redford, Garden City, Farmington, Dearborn and other communities. After its backyard beginnings, the congregation leased space in elementary schools before moving in April to a site that formerly housed a construction firm and warehouse.

The stylishly decorated church houses a vast worship area and stage, a cafe, basketball goals, children's rooms for age-appropriate activities, and a place where nursing mothers can comfortably tend to their newborns while watching services on a television screen.

"We look kind of like Starbucks. We try to create a barrier-free facility to God," said Rahill, who has four children with wife Marcie.

Rahill and five other pastors try to be relevant in ministering to their largely youthful congregation, unemployed auto workers, foster parents, debt-ridden families, recovering substance abusers — anyone who needs help or inspiration.

"We've had marriages healed here," Rahill said. "The church is a place where people can find friendship and meaningful relationships, a place where they can be real."

Although lifechurch is a Christian church, Rahill said people who have no religious background or who aren't sure what they believe are welcome.

"People are allowed to belong before they believe," he said.

Rahill said lifechurch started out mostly as a congregation of teens and people in their 20s. "Then they started bringing their parents."

Some services incorporate rock and popular music, and Rahill said the performance of Thriller will include smoke machines and dancing. He said even someone as talented as Michael Jackson had struggles in life, and Rahill examines the lyrics in popular songs to teach his congregation.

"Whatever the song is, we piggyback on that theme," he said.

Sunday services are at 9 a.m. and 10:45 a.m., and a third service at 12:30 p.m. will begin on Nov. 1.

The church teaches by example. Rahill said congregation members drive in a mobile soup kitchen to deliver food to the homeless in Detroit, a city where lifechurch also has a sister church, Messiah Church.

"Church is not a product you consume, but a commitment you engage in," Rahill said.

To that end, services may include not only rock music, but videos, drama and props. One time, Rahill started up a motorcycle and drove it across the stage to demonstrate how people need to turn a key in their own lives in order to move forward.

"This church is so real," said 23-year-old member Jennifer Kompoltowicz of Plymouth. "I've been to churches before where I leave and wonder what they were talking about. When I go to lifechurch, I can apply it to everyday life. It helps me learn to be a better person."

Friendly contest puts pumpkins and creativity to the test

Dr. Brad Davis wears white gloves to hold the Crystal Pumpkin, an award that Kim Arbour has won three of the last four years for her cute and cuddly looking mother and baby animals designs.

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Pandering to the public? Tampering with entries? Stuffing the ballot box? It may sound like smoke-filled room politics, but at the VCA animal clinic in Garden City, it's the friendly banter surrounding its annual pumpkin contest.

A oblong pumpkin lent its shape to a mother penguin for Kim Arbour's entry.

Since 1994, members of the staff have decorated pumpkins and then asked clients and the public to vote for their favorite one. The winner gets their name on the Crystal Pumpkin, "the Stanley Cup" of the contest, and a Baskin-Robbins gift card, or an ice cream treat, if Dr. Brad Davis wins ... which isn't all that often.

"I've won twice. I should have won more, but there's a lot of cheating going on to keep me from winning," the Westland resident said. "Mine are actually the best."

Davis cares for the animals that come into the clinic. His kind and caring demeanor changes to highly competitive around this time of year as he puts on a full-court press to win the Crystal Pumpkin. His nemesis of late is Kim Arbour, a technician supervisor, who has won the Crystal Pumpkin three of the last four years.

"I do cute and cuddly, it's all about mom and baby animals," the Westland resident said. "The clients really seem to like the cuteness, but Dr. Davis says it's not original."

"She will tell you she that's what people like, but she's just pandering to the public," he said. "My pumpkins are unique."

Over the years, an elaborate set of rules has evolved, many aimed at keeping Denise Toney from "cheating."

Toney maintains her innocence, however, Davis claims she tampers with his designs, making them inoperative. Two years ago, he did a butterfly with movable wings which stopped working. Toney claimed it needed new batteries, Davis claimed otherwise.

"I think she did a dance around my pumpkin and caused it to not work," Davis said when his disco ball pumpkin initially failed to spin on its plate.

There's 11 pumpkins in this year's contest, all carefully measured to make sure they would fit in their allotted display area on a special platform above the display of dog and cat food. There's Arbour's mother and baby pumpkins, Toney's princess and Dr. Marilyn Begney's ice cream sundae, not to mention Medusa, a fire hydrant that has a case of rotting pumpkin, Plankton from SpongeBob SquarePants and one covered in spiders.

One pumpkin is covered in pink feathers with a photograph of Davis peeking out from behind a pink Christmas tree. The work of Laura LaPere, Davis claims it's an attempt to steal votes from his entry.

"It's clever because people will vote for it, thinking it's mine," he said.

The poll closed at the end of business on Halloween and the ballot box was turned over to the auditing firm of "Davis and Associates" — a.k.a. Dr. Davis — which counted the votes during trick-or-treating that evening.

"In my opinion, I'm the only one who is the most trustworthy person here," Davis said.

The winner will be announced at the monthly staff meeting Wednesday and comes with charts, graphs, you-name-it statistics on the voting.

"I break it down like a baseball nerd," Davis said.

The winner's name is engraved on the Crystal Pumpkin in time for the meeting. And in true Stanley Cup style, the white gloves are needed to handle it.

The contest has become such a tradition that people who have moved away come back to see the designs, even "Bill, our retired mail carrier." On average, some 200 votes are cast.

Davis is smelling victory in this year's contest.

"I tell you realistically I'm almost assured of being the winner," he said. "My pumpkin is mesmerizing."

Arbour thinks otherwise. "I think it's going to be pretty close," she said. "I don't think I'll be first, but I'm keeping my fingers crossed."

Toddlers find treats at Westland library

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

An elephant was wandering around the library last week and nary a book was knocked from the shelf. That's because the elephant was toddler Shaylee Szaraz, who came to trick or treat with her fellow storytime pals.

"She's a pretty slow elephant," said her mother Amy, who with her young son Nathan in a stroller, followed Shaylee to five trick or treat stations set up in the library.

The Tuesday morning Toddler Tales storytime at the William P. Faust Public Library had a very definite Halloween theme, with youngsters invited to come in costume to hear stories like Five Little Pumpkins and sing songs like The More We Get Together before heading out to get their treats.

"The toddlers are my favorite," children's associate Cari Fry said.

Fry came prepared to entertain the group, asking if she should wear her dog, flower or angel hat. She settled for a headband adorned with bats that wiggled when she shook her head.

He props also included orange circles on sticks that followed the life cycle of a pumpkin from the pumpkin patch to a Halloween jack o' lantern to a pumpkin pie.

"I love Halloween ... and Christmas is good, too," she told the children, who were given glow-in-the-dark trick-or-treat bags and instructions to find the five little pumpkins in the library. Of course, they had help. Fry was at the front of the line, making sure the trick or treaters found the pumpkins.

"Every time you see a pumpkin, there will be someone who works at the library who will give you a treat," she said.

For Szaraz, toddler's storytime is a "wonderful, cheap

Mazel tov, Congregation Beit Kodesh

BY DIANE GALE ANDREASSI
CORRESPONDENT

As they prepare to celebrate their 50th anniversary, members of Congregation Beit Kodesh like to think of themselves as the House of Miracles.

If it weren't for miracles, how else could they keep the synagogue going with no staff and no full-time rabbi?

Services are held by learned members of the congregation and a paid cantor who conducts High Holy Day services. Everything else is done on a volunteer basis by members of the congregation's 39 families who live mostly in Livonia. Others come from Canton, Farmington Hills, Milford, Northville, Novi, Oak Park, Redford, Southfield, Wayne, Westland, West Bloomfield and White Lake.

Phyllis Lewkowicz, a founding member and past president who has held many volunteer positions, chuckled and said: "Boy, do we have hopes for the future — just to stay around. We're probably the only all-volunteer synagogue in the state. We pay nobody. Everybody does what they can."

Of the 39 families, 30 are over 65.

The future lies in the youth of the congregation, according to Lewkowicz and a few other synagogue members who gathered recently to talk about the anniversary. The youth may be small in number, but the commitment to the institution remains strong.

"This small synagogue located in the heart of Livonia is not just any old synagogue," said Elizabeth Stein, 19. She is a fourth-generation member and her mother, Sally Stein, serves as president. Beit Kodesh is the first conservative congregation in metro Detroit to elect a woman president. Elizabeth's father, Larry, is very involved at Beit Kodesh where he and other volunteers deliver groceries to senior citizens throughout the area.

"To me it has more meaning than a place to go worship," Elizabeth Stein said. "It is a home, a family, a safe haven, and an emotionally attached part of my heart."

'A GIANT SECOND FAMILY'
For 50 years this congregation has held strong in a busy world of "the bigger and the better" by keeping its small-town charm alive in a fairly large city, Elizabeth Stein said.

Her great-grandparents moved to Livonia from Detroit, like so many others who migrated from the inner city to the suburbs in the 1950s. At that time, the congregation was renting the basement of a church to hold services.

Stein's grandparents, Phyllis and David Scherman, then started to attend the synagogue with their children, which included Elizabeth's mother, Sally.

David Scherman is a Holocaust survivor who finds it too painful to retell his experiences during World War II.

"The members at Beit Kodesh come from all walks of life and life styles," Elizabeth Stein said. "But, despite that difference we all have two things in common, the love for our religion and for our synagogue. Our members are a loving, caring support system and a giant second family to all of us."

The youngest member of Congregation Beit Kodesh is 4-month-old Ryan Maxwell Diskin. The oldest member is 96-year-old Sam Raick.

Samuel Raick is the oldest member of Congregation Beit Kodesh. Sally Stein is currently president.

Samuel Raick, at 96, is the oldest member of Congregation Beit Kodesh.

"I enjoy the company that I have here," said Raick, a bright-eyed, quick-witted gentleman.

SMALL BUT EFFECTIVE

Beit Kodesh is the only conservative congregation in western Wayne County. It is affiliated with the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism.

At one time, there were more than 200 families at Beit Kodesh, but many members moved to Southfield and West Bloomfield, Lewkowicz said.

In response to the declining membership, two years ago, Beit Kodesh and Bet Chaverim in Canton combined Sunday school programs. Classes are held at Beit Kodesh in Livonia. The congregation also provides bar and bat mitzvah classes and students participate in the Matzos Factory at the Jewish Community Center.

One of the benefits of being small, Phyllis Scherman said, is that everyone knows and supports each other in good and bad times.

Even with this small group, the spirit of giving to those in need has always been a driving force, especially among the synagogue's Sisterhood. The group sponsors many volunteer activities including "Soldiers Angels," a Jewish chaplaincy program that sends packages to service men and women for various holidays.

Food is taken monthly to Yad Ezra, a kosher food bank in Oakland County; members deliver food to shut-ins; a fix-it program for the elderly is held annually and a program at Livonia's Frost Middle School is under way to collect six million buttons in memory of Holocaust victims. The program is intended to draw attention to the need to ban stereotyping. A mural will be made with the buttons.

OVERCOMING OBSTACLES

Over the years, the congregation has suffered obstacles, including the desecration of the building with swastikas and hate messages in October 1984. But, from that came good. Charles Costa, a Detroit businessman and politician, sandblasted the words away for free and there was an outpouring of support from local Christian denominations saying they abhorred that behavior and wouldn't tolerate that kind of message.

A few years earlier, in 1980, the synagogue was also robbed of its valuable silver breast plates.

The congregation began in 1958 and was incorporated in 1959. The first Shabbat services were held at a Clarenceville elementary school and were moved to members' homes and other various locations until 1963 when land on Seven Mile and Osmus was purchased. In 1967, they moved to their current location on Seven Mile between Farmington and Merriman.

Over the years, Congregation Beit Kodesh had three full-time rabbis, Rabbi Nathaniel Steinberg, Rabbi Martin Gordon and Rabbi Craig Allen.

NEW MEMBERS WELCOME

Hoping to build, or at least maintain, their numbers, they welcome Jewish faithful to attend weekly services.

Many younger generation Jews are married to people of different faiths, Lewkowicz said, and she wants them to know they're still welcome.

"We hope to get more young people," Lewkowicz said.

At Beit Kodesh, everyone knows your name and there are many leadership opportunities available to new members, says Rabbi Jason Miller, Rabbinic Adviser, in his welcome letter on the congregation's Web site. Beit Kodesh is best described by the Yiddish word heimische — small, cozy and inviting, he says.

Jeff Kirsch, director of education, calls Beit Kodesh "a warm and inviting place for friends and family to worship, to learn, celebrate and socialize together."

Elizabeth Stein, who attends Western Michigan University, looks forward to what the next 50 years will bring to Beit Kodesh, which she calls "this wonderful place of prospering Jewish culture."

"I am sure that with the close-knit loving family of a congregation the next 50 years for Beit Kodesh will sparkle like its first 50 years," she said.

Added her grandmother, Phyllis Scherman: "No matter how gloomy something looks, if you have faith it will come back. Even though we are small in numbers, we are mighty in all our accomplishments."

Congregation Beit Kodesh is at 31840 W. Seven Mile, between Farmington and Merriman roads, in Livonia.

For more information about its weekly and holiday services, Sisterhood, social action and other programs, call (248) 477-8974 or visit www.beitkodesh.org.

Madonna building is certified green structure

BY KAREN SMITH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

As Archbishop Allen H. Vigneron of the Archdiocese of Detroit walked around sprinkling holy water on Madonna University's new Franciscan Center for Science and Media, rain drops fell outside onto the building's green rooftop.

"I think God approves," joked John Akouri, master of ceremonies for the dedication of the university's first stand-alone building constructed in more than 40 years and Livonia's first LEED-certified building.

Vigneron led the blessing and dedication, attended by Adam Cardinal Maida and Edmund Cardinal Szoka, Madonna students, faculty, trustees and donors.

The 60,000-square-foot building features recycled and renewable materials, a partial green roof, energy-saving windows and lighting, a restored 13 by 7-foot stained glass window from a Detroit church, motion-sensitive sinks, dual-flush toilets, waterless urinals and a chemical-free cooling system. "Everything has its place in God's creation," he said, adding that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.

Maida and Szoka unveiled renderings of Cardinals Square, a garden plaza that will be built in spring 2010. Szoka said it was a great honor and blessing to participate in the dedication.

"We are all very proud of Madonna," he said, adding it has evolved from a small girls college in 1937 to "an important and substantial university."

Sister Rose Marie thanked all involved for their participation in seeing the new "cathedral of learning" come to fruition. She called it "good, green, gorgeous and growing."

Student Leslie Banks, a senior from Redford majoring in graphic design, said she is proud of the new building. "I'm pretty passionate about being green," she said.

Megan Drabek, a junior from Monroe who's studying public relations, said she was impressed with the dignitaries who attended — "from judges to cardinals."

She said the new building is beautiful. "I like the openness of it."

The building, which was open for classes in September, was designed by the SmithGroup and constructed by Clark Construction Co.

AROUND WESTLAND

Indoor golf

The outdoor golf season ends today, Nov. 1, at the Westland Municipal Golf located at 500 S. Merriman, but don't put the golf clubs away just yet. The indoor golf simulators at the golf course offer state of the art graphics and the newest software so players can "realistically" golf all year round.

For more information, call (734) 721-6660.

Thanksgiving tickets

The deadline is Monday, Nov. 2, for seniors to purchase tickets for Thanksgiving Dinner, which takes place noon-3 p.m. Friday, Nov. 6, at the Westland senior Friendship Center, 1119 N. Newburgh. Tickets are $10 for members and $15 for non-members.

The menu includes turkey and dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, cranberries, vegetables, tossed salad/dressing, rolls and butter and pumpkin pie for dessert.

For more information, call the center at (734) 722-7628.

Election closures

City offices will be closed election day, Tuesday, Nov. 3, however, the Westland City Clerk's Office will be open for election business only.

The Bailey Recreation Center, William P. Faust Public Library and 18th District Court will be open.

Constituent hours

The staff of U.S. Rep. Thaddeus McCotter, R-Livonia, will hold office hours in several locations in November. The time is set aside so that the citizens served by the congressman have the opportunity to speak with a staff member one on one regarding any federal issue that they might have.

Office hours for Tuesday, Nov. 3, are 9-10 a.m. at Livonia Civic Park Senior Center, 10:30-11:30 a.m. at the Redford Community Center, 1-2 p.m. at the Maplewood Community Center in Garden City and 2:30-3:30 p.m. at the Westland senior Friendship Center. Investors need to understand tax implications

It is important for investors to stay informed. Whether it is a tax law change that affects investments or a change in a portfolio management team, it is important to stay informed.

In today's ever changing world, that may be difficult, therefore focus on what is important to you.

One item of importance to mutual fund investors is how those funds are taxed — particularly, at this time of year.

Every investment is taxed a bit differently. Typically, with mutual funds held in a taxable account, there are a number of tax consequences that are important to understand. As with an individual stock or bond, there are dividends and interest paid throughout the year. These items are taxed to shareholders at their ordinary income tax bracket. In addition, when you sell the mutual fund there are tax consequences.

There is another way that you pay taxes on mutual funds which is particularly important this time of year. The profits that funds make throughout the year, by buying and selling securities are distributed to taxpayers, typically at the end of the year, and that money is generally taxed as a capital gain.

What makes this distribution so important is that it is not prorated throughout the year. In other words, if the capital gain distribution is made Dec. 1, it doesn't matter when you bought the fund, you are taxed on the capital gain distribution.

Capital gain distributions are not relevant when talking about retirement accounts such as IRAs and 401(k)s. These accounts grow on a tax-deferred basis, so capital gain distributions are irrelevant.

Where capital gain distributions make a significant impact is for someone who purchases a mutual fund between now and the end of the year. If you wait to purchase the fund until after it makes its capital gain distribution, there is necessarily the case. Most mutual no tax liability. Therefore, it is important to use caution this time of year.

Money Matters

In the past it was difficult to determine when mutual funds made capital gain distributions. In today's world, that is not fund companies now provide that information on their Web sites. If the information isn't on the Web site, contact the company directly.

Most mutual funds will make capital gain distributions in late November or early December.

Many people believe they can avoid some tax liability by selling a mutual fund before its capital gain distribution and then repurchasing it immediately afterward. Unfortunately, this strategy does not work. Therefore, if you've owned a mutual fund throughout the year, don't sell it merely to avoid the capital gain distribution because it will not save you on taxes.

Many people who avoid investing in mutual funds cite the tax consequences of capital gain distributions as a reason to avoid them. Although I have no problem with being smart and efficient with taxes, I never want to let the tax tail wag the dog. What is important to understand about capital gain distributions is the money is taxed at your capital gain rate, which is your lowest bracket. Presently, the maximum capital gain rate is 15 percent. In addition, with a mutual fund you do not pay higher taxes, you pay the tax earlier than if you have an individual stock. With an individual stock, when you sell is when the capital gains are due. With mutual funds, you pay that tax year by year. In the long run, you're not talking about a significant amount of money and the benefits that mutual funds offer — professional management, diversification, instant liquidity and opportunities to reinvest dividends and capital gains — far outweigh the tax consequences.

Stevenson harnesses Mustangs in playoff opener

BILL BRESLER | STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

Stevenson's Austin White (23) gets loose down the sideline with Northville's Dan Stern (54) and LaDarrius McLaurin (90) in hot pursuit.

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

When Livonia Stevenson jumped out to a 14-0 advantage early in Friday's first-round Division 1 playoff game, it looked like another easy night for the host Spartans.

But as former Indiana University coach and ESPN football analyst Lee Corso likes to say: "Not so fast, my friend."

Stevenson had downed the Mustangs in a Week 5 meeting, 31-0, but the rematch in the Region 2, District 2 opener was much closer as the Spartans grinded out a 21-7 victory over their fellow KLAA Central Division foe.

Stevenson, which has won eight straight, improved to 8-2 overall, while the Mustangs bow out at 6-4. And with the win, the Spartans were scheduled to face either Novi-Detroit Catholic Central or Livonia Franklin in next week's district final.

Just 3:29 into the second half, Stevenson put two touchdowns on the board, including a 1-yard run by Austin White (following Bryan Koessler's interception at the Northville 42) and Brendan O'Hara's 22-yard pass to Stephen Pollard.

Northville, meanwhile, committed three first-half turnovers.

Will Burek's fumble recovery off an errant Northville pitchout resulted in Stevenson's third score of the first half — a 20-yard pass from O'Hara to Pollard, the latter whom tight-roped the back of the end zone with only 37 seconds left until intermission.

"The credit has to go to Stevenson," said Northville coach Matt Ladach, whose team trailed 21-0 at half-time after Tyler Jarosz booted his third straight extra point. "They were prepared well and ready to play. They took it to us early."

The Mustangs, however, regrouped at intermission and made things interesting in third quarter thanks

SIDELINES

Men's college hoops

D.J. Baisden scored a game-high 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds Friday night to lead host Spring Arbor University to a season-opening 76-55 men's basketball win over Madonna University.

Rob Boss added 14 points for the victorious Cougars, who advanced to Saturday's championship game against Robert Morris (Ill.) in the Jamieson-Allen Insurance Agency Tip-Off Tournament.

MU, making just 31 percent of its shots from the floor (18-of-58), got a team-high 13 points from freshman guard Kevin Henry and 11 from senior forward Leroy Allen.

The Crusaders, who trailed 28-19 at intermission, also shot a dismal 12-of-24 from the free-throw line.

Spring Arbor, meanwhile, shot 48.2 percent from the floor (27-of-56), including 8-of-17 from 3-point range (47.1 percent).

Women's college soccer

Amanda Dudiak's goal in the 66th minute proved to be the difference Wednesday afternoon as host Cornerstone University pulled out a 2-1 Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference victory over Madonna.

Cornerstone improved to 5-8-3 overall and 4-5-2 in the WHAC, while MU falls to 5-12 and 4-7.

Amy Vander Bent's goal in the 31st minute staked the Golden Knights to a 1-0 advantage before MU's Kaila Moore's answered with an unassisted goal in the 59th minute to knot the count at 1-1.

MU goalkeeper Chelsea Gregg (Livonia Clarenceville) made eight saves in the defeat, while Davenport counterpart Julia Bruining made 10 stops.

College volleyball

In Friday's quarterfinal round of the Michigan Community College Athletic Association Tournament, host Kalamazoo Valley CC ousted Schoolcraft College in four games, 25-20, 15-25, 25-19, 25-17.

The loss drops the Lady Ocelots, the fourth seed in the MCCA's Eastern Conference, to 21-16 overall.

Kalamazoo Valley, the top seed in the MCCA's Western Conference, improved to 33-6 overall.

Schoolcraft returns to action Friday, Nov. 6 in the NJCAA Division II District E tournament hosted by Grand Rapids CC.

The Lady Ocelots will face Owens (Ohio) Tech in the opening round at 6 p.m.

Collegiate golf

The champion Madonna University men's golf team reaped several postseason honors by the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference, including first-team honors for juniors Brett Quittiquit and Jimmy Uelmen.

Westland's Steve South (Livonia Franklin) made honorable mention All-WHAC, while Justin Taurence made All-Academic and Champions of Character teams.

Coach Steve Mato was named WHAC Coach of the Year.

Lakeland upends Churchill for KLAA championship

Eagles' tall front row too much

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Backed by a boisterous home crowd, the White Lake Lakeland girls volleyball team didn't disappoint in capturing the school's first-ever Association-wide title in the Kensington Lakes.

The Lakes Conference champs put on an impressive performance Thursday night in carving up defending KLAA champion Livonia Churchill in three straight games, 25-20, 33-31, 25-14.

It was a rematch of last year's KLAA final as Lakeland, 30-11-3 overall, used a decided height advantage on the front row to subdue the 47-5 Chargers, the Kensington Conference representative.

Maggie Hannon, a 6-foot-2 junior middle blocker, and Stephanie Lock, a 5-11 junior outside hitter, each had 12 kills to pace the victorious Eagles.

Kelsey Brown, a 6-foot middle blocker, added seven solo blocks. Lakeland had a total of 13 blocks on the night, while Churchill finished with only three.

"Obviously we're very excited, I'm proud of the girls," Lakeland first-year coach Jake Nighwander said. "Churchill is a good team, but our girls listened to the scouting report and got it done."

"Churchill is an outside-hitting driven team and our middle blockers were able to close better than the last time we played them."

Many of Hannon's 12 kills were a result of rapid arm swings from a 90-degree angle on sets just off the net.

"She (Hannon) has improved dramatically this season," Nighwander said. "It's hard to defend her. We also have a great setter (Lauren Maxwell) to get her the ball. I also thought our number two (Stephanie Lock) had a very good match."

Maxwell, a senior, finished with 26 assist-to-kills, while junior libero Rose Deren spearheaded the defense with 16 digs.

Backs against wall

Short-handed Ocelots down to 9 players

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

With the 2009-10 just around the corner, the Schoolcraft College men's basketball team finds itself already behind the eight-ball.

An incident a week ago from a physical altercation resulted in the dismissal of five players and two assistant coaches (see related story).

Third-year Schoolcraft head coach Randy Henry is trying to keep the program on course, but he is down to nine available players and has no assistant on the bench entering Monday's season opener at home against Jackson Community College. (Tip-off is at 7 p.m.)

"I can't get into what happened," said Henry, a former Illinois State player who is 10-48 in his two seasons with the Ocelots. "It's tough, but I just have to forge ahead and move forward. I can't do anything about the past. I just have to go with the players I've got."

So who's left? It will be an entire roster of freshmen for the Ocelots.

Among those slated to start include John Acuff, a 6-foot-2 guard from Warren Lincoln; Gregory Morgan II, a 6-0 guard from Redford Thurston; Trevor Zaeny, a 6-4 swingman from Allen Park; Marcel Stewart, a 6-5 forward from Detroit Community; and Aaron Felsner, a 6-6 center from Allen Park.

Guard play remains the biggest concern for Henry.

"We'll do things by committee," Henry said. "Acuff is a real athletic who plays the point or the two spot. But he will have to handle the ball some. He sees the floor better than most guys."

Morgan is a tremendous shooter who has to be better defensively. Stewart has a good stroke and a great offensive player, but he's got to get tougher as a rebounder."

Rounding out the Schoolcraft roster is Adam Creech, a 6-foot guard from Wyandotte; Gerald Bowler, a 6-4 forward from Detroit Cody; Dwayne Rogers, a 6-5 forward from Detroit Winans Academy; and Duggan Quinn, a 6-8 center from Novi.

"Creech can shoot the ball," Henry said. "He's a great anticipator who plays the (passing) lanes well. He'll get some steals."

"Bowler is a strong kid, a rebounder, while Rogers can get up-and-down the floor."

"Quinn hurt his knee last year at Novi and at first he couldn't get up-and-down the floor, but his conditioning is getting better."

Despite a nine-man roster, Henry said the Ocelots will pressure opposing backcourts all 94 feet.

"We'll use three different presses," said Henry, who is coming off a 7-22 season, including a 4-14 mark in the MCCA's Eastern Conference. "We'll try and disrupt the offensive flow with multiple looks. The biggest thing we'll try and do is mix and match."

Incident costs S'craft 5 players, 2 assistants

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Less than a week prior to its season opener, two assistant coaches and five players have been dismissed from the Schoolcraft College men's basketball team following an incident following a team practice on Oct. 24.

According to an official statement released Wednesday by Schoolcraft Communications Coordinator Michelle Gaynier, men's basketball assistant coaches Myron Butler and Deajada Smith have both resigned.

Names of the five dismissed players were not released.

When contacted Tuesday night by The Observer, Schoolcraft athletic director Sid Fox denied that head coach Randy Henry, who is 10-48 in his two seasons with the Ocelots, had resigned.

The former Detroit Renaissance High coach and morning producer for Detroit's WDIV-TV referred all comments regarding the matter to Gaynier.

"Head coach Randy Henry was not present during the incident and is not facing disciplinary action," Gaynier's statement said. "The incident involved a physical confrontation among players while two assistant coaches were present."

"After interviewing the players and coaches involved, college administrators concluded that the incident constituted a violation of the college's student code of conduct as well as codes of conduct outlined by the Michigan Community College Athletic Association and the National Junior Collegiate Athletic Association."

Schoolcraft, coming off a 7-22 season, now enters Monday's home opener against Jackson Community College with less than 10 players.

OLD-TIMERS DAY

Softball-loving senior citizens stay in the game

BY TIM SMITH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Miron Stolaruk took a healthy swing at one of Don LaMay's pitches and held up his hand.

"Wait a minute," said Stolaruk, a 76-year-old from Canton who is nicknamed Mike. "All I do is swing and I get winded."

LaMay, 76, served up some consolation before letting another offering go toward Stolaruk.

"Take your time," Livonia's LaMay said. "No one's in a hurry."

He was smiling again. It's all part of the Wednesday morning routine for a bunch of guys in their 70s and even early 80s who convene from spring until the snow flies at the park to play some softball.

LaMay, who graduated in 1951 from long-defunct Livonia Bentley, was the guy who in 2007 initiated the weekly sessions at the McClumpha Road-Ann Arbor Trail facility.

ANYTHING GOES

With the third year of the informal softball group ending soon, anywhere between 10-20 guys come out.

They do some stretching with physical trainer Stephanie Montera and then take to the diamond.

Depending on how many turn out, their Wednesdays entail anywhere from batting practice to actual games.

Every week has plenty of banter, not to mention lunch at a nearby coney island.

"I try not to miss it," said Canton's Bob Mosher, who at 69 is one of the youngsters of the group. "The guys here are pretty die-hard."

Other regulars include Westland's Bud Welcher and Dick Horie and Livonia's Bill Lloyd — all in their mid-70s.

Horie and Lloyd played baseball at Bentley with LaMay, but they couldn't make it to the park on this particular day. Neither could the group's elder statesman, 83-year-old Rick Price of Plymouth.

"We have a guy (Price) who is 83 years old," LaMay said. "He just had eye surgery, so he has to watch getting out in the sun."

SOMETHING NEW

The Plymouth Park venture began after LaMay and others felt they needed a new softball outlet.

In recent years, many of them had played in a 65-and-over softball league at Victory Park in Canton. That league suddenly was becoming too competitive for the older guys.

So LaMay got the green light from Plymouth Twp. public service coordinator Susan Vignoe to use the fields.

Then, all that was needed was recruiting buddies who like him have played ball (baseball in their younger days) since they were kids.

"For most of us, what's important is to come out, play ball and have a good time," LaMay said. "So I told the guys that I'd try to start an over-75 league."

Interest in his plan didn't take off immediately.

"But then I took the names off of all the rosters I had who were over 75, or weren't able to play or weren't playing anymore," LaMay added. "I asked them to come on out here and we'll do whatever."

MIXING IT UP

For them, it's the perfect way to blend athletics and exercise with friendship and camaraderie.

"We just come out and if there's enough for a game we play a game," said Mosher, a retired manufacturing engineer at Visteon. "If not, we just hit balls and that's what we're doing today."

With a laugh, Mosher added, "We don't have enough for one team, let alone two."

Swinging at pitches and shagging fly balls isn't quite as much fun as playing a game. But Stolaruk, a former teacher in Livonia Public Schools, still can't wait for Wednesdays to roll around.

"It does help to get you going," Stolaruk said. "We could use more guys coming out here. We've been practicing, but we need a few more to have games."

Westland's Ernie Dinatale, 76, enjoys the Wednesdays, but stops short of saying the softball makes him feel young again.

"I feel like an old man," he cracked.

Dinatale trotted out to the softball field after a couple of hours of swimming and cardiovascular exercises at a nearby gym. He recently had both knees replaced.

But he still plans on playing in a competitive softball league this winter in Florida, where he'll stay sharp until the LaMay group reconvenes in 2010.

DOING ENOUGH

And as long as the grizzled veterans stay in the game, that's fine with LaMay.

"I'm concerned about getting these guys off the couches," he said. "Instead of sitting home watching TV right now, they're out here playing ball."

No matter the turnout, there's always room for more. There's always a spot for somebody who finds out about LaMay's group, as Mosher did in 2008.

"I hadn't played for 50 years until last year," Mosher said. "Some of them have played all their life and are now in the 70s."

"Here's a place where we're pretty much on the same page. ... We can all do a little, we can run a little, we can throw a little, hit some."

As it turns out, a little is just enough for these softball seniors to keep the flame of youth alive.

It's not too late to start planning for the 2010 season. Anybody who is interested in joining the group should e-mail Don LaMay at bentleydon@sbcglobal.net.

Schoolcraft boots Kellogg, 6-0

Masato Morioka notched a hat trick, while Bim Ogunyemi contributed two goals and two assists to propel the fifth-ranked Schoolcraft College men's soccer team to a 6-0 victory Wednesday over visiting Kellogg Community College.

The Ocelots, now 14-1-1 overall, will face Owens CC (Ohio) on Saturday's NJCAA Division I Region 12 semifinal hosted by Cuyahoga CC (Ohio).

Ogunyemi, a sophomore midfielder from Lake Orion, figured in the first four Schoolcraft goals including what proved to be the game-winner by Masato Morioka in the 24th minute.

Ben Lightner also scored for the Ocelots, who exploded with five unanswered goals in the second half after leading 1-0 at intermission. Other assists went to Dane Laird, Ryan Lemasters, Drew Kidder and James Dutcher.

Other standouts for the Ocelots, who outshot the Bruins 17-2, included the Carver brothers, Dave and Joe, along with sophomore midfielder Yaya Toure.

Adrian Motta (Livonia Churchill) played the first 80 minutes in goal for the Ocelots before Ian McDonald-Wilkins finished up to post the shutout. The pair combined for two saves as Schoolcraft finished 8-0 in the Michigan Community College Athletic Association.

Kellogg ends its season

2-14 overall and 0-8 in the MCCA.

DAVENPORT 3, MADONNA 0 (MEN)

Aaron Lee had a goal and assist Wednesday night as Davenport University (6-7-3, 4-6-1) ended a modest two-game winning streak for host Madonna University (3-7-3, 3-5-2) in Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference action at Livonia Franklin High School.

All three Panther goals came in the second half — Gerard John Williams (from Lee) in the 68th minute; Lee (from Duvare Minto), 73rd minute; and Alex Boehm's eighth of the season (from Ricco Mulero), 75th minute.

Davenport goalkeepers Kevin O'Brien and James Gilpin each played 45 minutes to combine on the shutout. Gilpin had three saves in the second half.

WHAC Defensive Player of the Week Steve Besk (Northville) stopped 3-of-6 shots on goals for the Crusaders.

Vellucci propels Spartan spikers

Kelly Vellucci recorded nine kills, nine digs and 11 assists Thursday as Livonia Stevenson downed host Walled Lake Northern in a KLAAs girls volleyball cross-over, 25-22, 25-19, 20-25, 25-18.

Vellucci and Kristen Balhorn also served four aces apiece.

Other contributions for the Spartans, now 27-20-2 overall, included Monika Rudis (eight kills), Shelbie Wilson (21 digs), Claire LeBlanc (16 assists), Coley Favaro (four blocks) and Jordan York (10 digs).

The Knights fall to 32-11-4 overall.

Franklin bests Vikings

Amanda Borieo led the way with 11 kills and six aces Thursday as Livonia Franklin defeated host Walled Lake Central in three games, 23-11, 25-17, 25-13.

Other standouts for the Patriots, now 10-22-2 overall, include Chelsea Williams (nine kills), Liz Holloway (eight kills, four aces); Nicole Williamson (13 digs), Raquel Garza (five aces) and setter Rachael Kapchus (22 assists, four aces).

The loss drops Walled

Lake Central to 3-26 overall.

CLARENCEVILLE 3, S. CHRISTIAN 0: Livonia Clarenceville gained a little momentum heading into state tournament play this week by knocking off Southfield Christian in convincing fashion Thursday on Senior Night.

The Trojans held off the Eagles in all three games 25-23, 25-29 and 25-22 as seniors Kat Hall, Theresa Parent, Morgan Tressler, Ashley Devon, Megan McLaughlin, Ashley Welch and Paige Davis combined efforts to help their teammates finish regular-season play 14-15-4 overall.

"We started strong and we finished strong," Clarenceville head coach Wendy Merschman said. "It was a good showing by all the girls."

Hall paced the heavy-hitting attack with 10 kills. She also came away with nine digs and had two solo blocks.

Tressler and McLaughlin each supplied six kills, Davis had four kills, Parent collected eight digs, Devon tallied four aces and six digs and Welch contributed 26 assists and seven digs.

Churchill coach Mark Grenier tries to rally his team following a timeout during Thursday's KLAAs championship setback to host Lakeland.

"We'd get lucky sometimes, but our philosophy is that the ball doesn't drop without an effort," Nighwander said.

Churchill had chances on four different occasions to close out the second game and squaring the match a 1-all, but the Eagles refused to buckle.

"This the third time playing Lakeland and they outplayed, outscored and served better than us," Churchill coach Mark Grenier said. "We did not hit well and had too many errors. But everything goes to Lakeland. Give them all the credit. They took it to us and deserved it."

Senior outside hitter Sarah Suppelsa had 14 kills, while Cierra Yetts added nine, but the Chargers got only seven other kills from three other players.

"The first game we were pretty bunched up," Grenier said. "It took awhile for us to settle down. It's something we can work on and talk about."

"The second game was competitive, but they took the sails out of us. It was too little, too late."

The two teams split a pair of matches Sept. 19 at the Flushing Invitational, but in the third meeting the long-armed red-head became a larger-than-life figure on the front row.

"She (Hannon) stepped up and scored some big points," Grenier said. "She put the ball in places we couldn't get. She had a great match."

Churchill's Taylor Kerr had a game-high 27 digs, while setter Cory Urbats finished with 28 assists.

WILLIAM J. RICHARDS

December 20, 1919 to October 25, 2009. William was born in Davison, MI to Mildred (Dynes) and Fred Richards. He attended school in Flint, MI and graduated from General Motors Institute with a degree in mechanical engineering in 1941. He was a lieutenant in the U.S. Navy during World War II from 1943 through 1946. He served aboard the USS Shamrock Bay (aircraft carrier) as a catapult and assistant flight deck officer in the Pacific and Atlantic theatres. Bill married E. Lenora Thompson from Pontiac, MI, in 1946. They raised two children in Livonia, MI: Ronald (Janet Pletcher) of E. Lansing, MI and Nanci (Steve) Taylor of Crystal Lake, IL. Lenora passed away in May 1998. His sister, Doris Richards, PhD, preceded him in death in July 2000. William was a career engineer. He began employment, after the war, with GM Coach in Illinois. In 1958, he accepted employment with the Ford Motor Company in the Transmission and Chassis Division in Livonia. He retired as Resident Engineer of that facility in 1984. At his retirement, his peers lauded him as one of the finest and most gifted mechanical engineers with whom they had the privilege to have worked. Bill was a tinkerer. His basement workshop was his creative lair. He spent countless hours designing and crafting items of wood or metal; repairing mowers to fan motors which he had retrieved as "cast-aways" from neighboring curbsides. Bill also restored a 1946 Chevrolet pick-up truck that had been "in the family" and used on a gladiola farm near Traverse City, MI. The restored truck was the recipient of several blue ribbons in local and regional car shows. He began summer vacations on Lake Huron in Harrisville, MI in 1958. He purchased land and began building a second home on "The Bluffs" in 1973. Together, Bill and Lenora built the house as a labor of love. It remained Bills proudest achievement. Bill leaves behind his many special friends at the Livonia Senior Center, where he danced on Wednesday afternoons to live "Big Band" music and his most special and favorite partner, Bernie Timm. A private memorial service will be held with the family. Bill's remains will join with those of his beloved Lenora in Lake Huron. The family requests memorial gifts only to Alcona Humane Society; 457 W. Traverse Bay Road; Lincoln, MI 48742 or The Salvation Army. For online condolences go to: ChapelinthePinesFuneralHome.com

The 'club'

Work colleagues maintain 55-year friendship

BY SHARON DARGAY
O&E STAFF WRITER

Nancy Braden of Plymouth Township and Barbara Krauss of Westland have been friends since 10th grade at Mackenzie High in Detroit.

But Krauss isn't among Braden's top 10 Facebook friends. In fact, she didn't make the list at all.

Neither did Janet Conway of Livonia, Pat Hildebrand of Birmingham, Marilyn Lindow of Troy or Rose Pierce of Farmington.

Friends since 1954, the "club" as they called themselves in early days, celebrates friendship the old-fashioned way — in person with lots of laughter and good times.

"There are six of us and we all worked together at National Bank of Detroit (Puritan-Livernois branch). We're in our 70s now," Braden said. "This is the first time I've enticed them to Plymouth."

The group meets quarterly, usually at a restaurant as they did recently at E.G. Nick's in downtown Plymouth. Braden invited the Observer along to sit in on the conversation and discover what makes this 55-year friendship tick.

"We worked in the bank and we worked together. I don't think I've ever seen anyone closer than that," Pierce recalled.

"There was a lot of mutual respect and I think work ethic," Conway added, recalling their early days together in the early to mid 1950s. "We were very supportive of each other."

"We all got married pretty close and we all started having babies," Lindow said.

COMMON INTERESTS

They remained friends even after leaving the bank to raise their children and move from Detroit to the developing suburbs. Their husbands all got along well, and the kids sometimes played together. There were couples parties, "kiddie" gatherings at Christmas and plenty of "gals only" outings.

"Those kiddies are probably closer to 50 give or take," Conway noted. Between the six, there are 21 children in the 40- to 50-plus age range, some with kids of their own.

Four of the women are widows. Conway and her husband have been married 51 years; for Hildebrand and her spouse, it's 54 years.

How hot is your kitchen range?

A few weeks ago I informed you of problems that Barb Bennett was having with her Frigidaire range which was under a nationwide recall. I'm pleased to know that Barb

Appliance Doctor

Joe Gagnon

finally had her range repaired after waiting for a month and a half before a service technician came to her home. With 200,000 of these smooth top ranges needing a factory fix, it make take Frigidaire the next 20 years to get them all fixed. This story prompted Lesley to send me the following e-mail:

"I'm writing about my Classic Amana Range ACS3350AS. I feel that it is defected and very dangerous to have in my home. In May of 2006 my husband and I had purchased a new home. Our new home came with new appliances. I've been having on-going problems with my oven. I've had A&E Factory, AHS Repair out to my home numerous times. My complaint is that the oven door does not seal properly, the top of the stove and the knobs are extremely hot, that it is untouchable to handle. I've burned myself numerous times. And having three little children safety is important to me.

"On Sept. 10, 2007 I had a technician to my home. I had over $858.43 worth of problems to my oven. I felt that was a red flag when the oven was only a year old. The oven let so much heat out that my oven control buttons actually melted. The hinge on the oven door was replaced and the oven control was replaced. The oven control membrane was replaced and so was the door gasket. The list goes on and on.

In March 2008 I had another technician out for the same problem and on his invoice it reads, 'outside of unit is still very hot, cannot touch knobs.' He said the outside surface and knobs were 188 degrees. I remind you the stove temperature was set at 350 degrees. Could you imagine what it would be like if I was cooking all day? I have many repair invoices with the same problems every time — never fixable. I'm still having problems with my oven door and the light now won't go off. I've spoken to my builder who says there's nothing he can do.

Bottom line, my Classic Amana range is a danger in my home. I feel that Amana should step up to the plate and handle this serious situation. Please help me inform others if there are other similar situations."

Thank you Lesley and I must say that this is not the first I've heard of these sorts of problems. I've read on the Internet of others who have almost identical problems such as yours. The outside surface temperature on kitchen ranges has been a big concern of mine for several years. I've written articles in the past about little children have been treated for burns suffered while their little hands touched the stove during their first walking experiences. This sort of problem reflects very poorly on the quality of our major appliances of today. It seems to be acceptable in the industry that a surface temperature can be as high as 168 degrees. Hopefully your communication on this problem may shed some light towards the manufacturers and I'm sure you have helped others prevent their little children from suffering burns from a kitchen range.

Joe Gagnon can be heard at 8 a.m., Saturdays on WAAM 1600 and Sundays at 2 p.m. on WDTK 1400. You can e-mail your problems and questions on appliances to appldr@twm1.rr.com

ADOPT A GREYHOUND

Diamond and Oliver "Prime" are two of five dogs the Greyheart Greyhound Rescue and Adoption picked up from Dairyland Greyhound Park in Kenosha, Wis., last week.

Here's what volunteers say about them: Diamond is a gorgeous little 2-year-old, female greyhound with a beautiful white coat with some brindle markings. She's very easy going and loves to play with toys.

Oliver (Prime) is a very handsome gentleman. He's 2 and is a very happy dog with a calm disposition. He's white with some red markings on a beautiful coat.

Both Diamond and Oliver are looking for their "Forever Homes." If you want to meet them, call Greyheart Greyhound Rescue and Adoption at (866) 438-4739. Check out the group's Web site at www.greyheart.org for more photos.

The organization holds a meet and greet from noon to 4 p.m., today, Sunday, Nov. 1, at Canton PetCo, 43435 Ford Road, Canton. www.greyheart.org

CLUB

Braden and Krauss have travelled together. Conway and Hildebrand were neighbors for a while.

And during the 15 years that the group didn't routinely meet, they kept their bonds alive through cards and phone calls.

"When you get to the years when your children are in hockey and all the activities, there just isn't time," Conway said, explaining the hiatus. "When they are infants it's not hard to break away as long as they are being cared for while you're away."

RECONNECTING

When Conway ran into Braden at a grocery store three years ago, they decided it was time for the group to begin meeting in person again.

"Everyone was more than happy to resume these get-togethers. We were ready to reconnect. Life does change as you get into your 70s. Friendship is so important as we get older," said Conway, who "flunked retirement" and works part-time at RSV, a gift and paper store in downtown Plymouth. She also volunteers at Angela Hospice.

"We fell right back into place. And it is quite amazing because we're all very different. We have different interests and personalities."

ENJOYING THE DIFFERENCES

Braden, who earned a teaching degree while raising her family and is now retired from the classroom, said common memories helped to cement a lasting friendship.

"We shared our youth together. We have a never ending conversation about husbands gone or still with us or children. The conversation never lags," she said. "Now we're interested in the differences as much as the commonalities."

Memories, stories and gentle ribbing wove easily throughout the conversation during their lunch at E.G. Nick's. When Hildebrand mentioned the word "chicken" in conversation, Conway egged her on with a "speaking of chickens, shouldn't we go there?"

Hildebrand has told the story many times before — at age 12 she worked in a chicken store killing fowl — but provoked genuine laughter when she added "I said a Hail Mary for every one."

"I think all of our personalities are easy to get along with. No one puts on airs," Krauss observed. "We're just down to earth people. You take people as they are and enjoy hearing what they've been doing. This is a great group of ladies. I just enjoy seeing them."

The group mentioned a few ideas for maintaining lasting friendships:

- Try not to be judgemental about other people
- Be happy for others
- Stay close — send a card, make a phone call to tell someone you're thinking about them if you can't visit in person
- Try to reconnect with friends because time moves swiftly
- Enjoy your differences as well as common interests

Unique glasses help vision impaired see better

Low vision doctors Sheldon Smith and Donald Haiderer prescribe spectacle aids for the visually impaired.

Vision loss is devastating, stealing independence and quality of life. The good news is many determined people have begun to fight back.

Desmond Roberts lost his license to drive. He saw Dr. Sheldon Smith of Low Vision of Michigan desperate to maintain independent driving. With telescopic driving glasses prescribed by Dr. Smith his license was reinstated.

"My life ended at my front door, but this gave my life back," said Roberts. "You saved my life."

David Welch sought to read without hand magnifiers and drive with confidence. The doctor prescribed one pair for driving and another for reading. "No other specialists helped me like Dr. Smith," said Welch, moved to tears by seeing better.

"Today we make glasses that noticeably improve sight," said Dr. Smith. "They can be taken anywhere, unlike electronic table-top magnifiers. And unlike magnifiers, spectacles are hands free."

David Welch with driving glasses

"We prescribe surgical quality telescopes for sight loss," said Dr. Don Haiderer of Low Vision of Michigan. "They are custom focused for simplicity of use so your eyes see the best they can. Details look bigger, closer and easier to make out."

Urgency is critical to success. Prompt treatment gives better outcomes. There is no advantage in waiting to get worse. Whether reading or driving, the best time to start is early, with milder devices. If necessary, using stronger devices comes easier after mastering mild ones.

We help people with mild, moderate and severe vision loss. Every situation is unique. Special reading glasses start at $600 and custom telescopes start from $1800.

Patients and referring physicians are welcome to review their situation or schedule an appointment. We can help. Call Low Vision of Michigan to find out how.

OPEN HOUSE

First Step is inviting families to its new facility in Wayne from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 7. The facility is First Step's fourth location in the metro Detroit area and will focus on surrounding communities.

The open house will feature a free pancake breakfast, a tour of the new building, and a variety of kids' activities. First Step representatives will be available to answer questions about services the new facility will provide.

"First Step has a large family of supporters, volunteers, donors, staff and friends that make our work possible," stated Judy Ellis, executive director. "This open house is to thank them for their support and to invite everyone to tour our new facility, and what better way to celebrate than with a free pancake breakfast!"

The event will be held at 4400 S. Venoy, Wayne. For more information call Theresa Bizoe at (734) 416-1111 or e-mail to tbizoe@gmail.com. Visit First Step's Web site at: www.firststep-mi.org. First Step's mission is to reduce the incidence of domestic and sexual violence and to provide services to individuals affected by these crimes. The goal of First Step is the prevention of violence through education, advocacy and intervention.

BEER TASTING

The Friends of the Rouge will hold a beer tasting fund-raiser 1-3 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 8, at Liberty Street Brewery, 149 W. Liberty, Plymouth.

Brewmaster Joe Walters, a long-time supporter of the Rouge will be on hand to describe his beers. Michigan beer guru Rex Halfpenny of the Michigan Beer Guide will guide participants through the tasting and inform participants about brewing in the Rouge River watershed and the Michigan craft beer renaissance.

The cost is $30 per person and $25 for Friends of the Rouge members.

All proceeds will support Friends of the Rouge, a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting restoration and stewardship of the Rouge River. The fee includes tastes of eight beers, one pint, pizza and popcorn.

Register by sending a check to: Friends of the Rouge, 4901 Evergreen Road, 220 ASC, Dearborn, MI 48128 by November 2. Call Sally Petrella at (313) 792-9621 or e-mail monitoring@therouge.org with any questions. Visit the Friends of the Rouge Web site at www.therouge.org for more information about the group.

Friends of the Rouge promotes restoration and stewardship of the Rouge River through monitoring, cleanups, restoration projects, tours and workshops.

Jennifer (Carbott) Bouren holds her son, John 'Jack' Matthew Bouren, born Aug. 3, 2009. Bouren grew up in Livonia and graduated from Ladywood High School. With her are her baby's great-grandmother Eileen Murphy of Livonia and grandmother, Bridget Carbott of Livonia.

Zoo, Salvation Army join forces in drive

The Detroit Zoological Society and the Salvation Army will conduct a drive to collect used clothing and household goods during two weekends in November at the Detroit Zoo.

Donors can drop off used but usable clothing and household goods at the Salvation Army truck in the zoo's front parking lot beneath the landmark water tower Nov. 7-8 and Nov. 14-15, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

A tax receipt will be available upon request at the time of donation. Contributions to the donation drive can be made without payment to enter the zoo; regular admission and parking fees apply for those visiting the zoo.

Donations to the Salvation Army's Thrift Stores generate total funding for the organization's Southeast

Michigan Adult Rehabilitation Center's 180-day residential rehabilitation program for adults. The program provides food, shelter, education and counseling services to those re-establishing their lives free from alcohol and chemical dependencies. TOO BROWSE OR NOT TO BROWSE

One aspect of health care today is the ongoing campaign that urges individuals to become "the informed patient." That idea is that if you are ill, you should go to the library, the Web, or even watch television ads so you will learn enough to "participate" in your care, and be a "stakeholder" in decisions concerning your health.

This zeal for the informed patient brings out a less than enthusiastic response from physicians caring for persons with arthritic complaints. On the one hand, the patient who comes to the office with a perspective of the possible cause for the pain, and the likely treatments, make the doctor's job of explanation far easier than would occur with the uninformed patient.

However, the misinformed patient especially one who is proud of the information that he or she gathered, presents a far more difficult task for the physician than the uninformed patient.

First, the only way a physician can counter bad, usually Web based, information is with the Web. Providing the patient with Web based counter material is time consuming for the physician. Second, the patient often comes with requests that are closer to demands than to recommendations. Usually, these "requests" are for blood work, x-rays, MRI's or bone scans that are costly and not in order. Giving in to the patient rather than using clinical judgment riles a physician, but arguing the matter upsets both physician and patient. It is the risk of conflict that causes physician second thoughts on the informed patient.

Local artists give women's heart health a boost

BY JULIE BROWN
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The red dresses on display at the Costick Center in Farmington Hills make more than a fashion statement. They're also designed to raise awareness of heart health.

The American Heart Association exhibit, continuing through the end of December, is part of the Red Dress campaign that spreads information about the frequency of heart attacks in women. It features five half-scale red dresses that were entered into competition, including the winning design by Inga Lenz, a 2006 Farmington Harrison High School graduate, and Marisa Cristina Vendittelli, a 2006 Troy High School graduate.

"We knew we wanted to make a little bubble dress, something cute and fun. The skirt kind of looks like a bubble," Lenz said. They purchased the fabric first, and were required to use red.

"It just all came together eventually. It wasn't a thought out process before." Both designers were pleased with the result. "When we made the big one, it looked even better. It's comfortable to wear, actually."

The women also made a regular-size dress of the design.

"We're pleased to see that art can be used in such a good way to communicate the dangers of heart disease to women," said Nancy Coumoundouros, cultural arts supervisor for Farmington Hills.

Shelley Rusinek, Go Red for Women director for the American Heart Association, arranged the exhibit's visit to Farmington Hills. "We thought it was exceptional," Rusinek said of students' work.

ARTS COMMUNICATE

The dress competition is sponsored by the International Academy of Design and Technology. Student designs are nominated by the school's faculty.

"The arts are one of the most effective communication devices available and, in this case, help spread awareness of heart attack to both the public as well as the students," said Julie Patterson, Fashion Design Program chair, in a statement.

Rusinek said the educational traveling exhibit focuses on heart disease as the No. 1 killer of women. The students also created regular-size dresses for the February 2009 AHA luncheon at the Detroit Marriott in the Renaissance Center.

"We encourage students to get involved, submit their pieces of work," Rusinek said, adding the competition was first held in 2004 and has been followed by other educational exhibits.

WINNING DESIGNERS

Lenz and Vendittelli got their assignment from the AHA.

"It was great," Lenz said of the work. "It's just so important to do something for a good cause like that." The dress will tour and be seen.

"It'll get more attention than just fliers that are lying around somewhere. That is much more rewarding than winning," Lenz said.

She recently graduated from the International Academy of Design and Technology and works for Marlaina Stone, a couture jewelry designer based out of Royal Oak.

Vendittelli also is a recent graduate of the International Academy of Design and Technology. She is working toward her master's degree at Istituto Marangoni in Milan, Italy.

The Costick Center is located at 28600 W. 11 Mile, at Middlebelt (east of Mercy High School), in Farmington Hills.

Rusinek of the AHA said libraries, companies and others are welcome to host the Red Dress exhibit. She can be contacted with such inquiries at (248) 936-5807.

UDM legal expert highlights help in getting veterans' benefits

BY JULIE BROWN
O&E STAFF WRITER

Project SALUTE works to assist low-income veterans with denied federal disability and pension claims obtain their benefits. It's a program of the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law.

The program was highlighted Tuesday, Oct. 20, in a presentation at the William P. Faust Public Library of Westland. Joon Sung, visiting assistant clinical professor for the Veterans Law Clinic, spoke that evening.

"Veterans can call directly if they don't want to go to a site," said Sung, noting UDM's law school hosts a number of clinic site visits for low-income veterans statewide. The number is (313) 596-0262.

The clinic started two years ago, said former Westland resident Sung, a graduate of Boston College's law school. "It teaches the students to give back and serve those in need."

Law students and volunteer attorneys help veterans with their benefits. The clinic was founded in response to the scant help available for veterans with disability benefits, he said. Often, veterans have trouble knowing what benefits they can obtain.

"Our first goal was to recruit attorneys, pro bono attorneys." They work without pay.

A mobile law office was created, with plans for the Westland library and Westland Rotary to host it at the library after Jan. 1, 2010. "We hope to come back to do those individual consultations with veterans," Sung said.

Medical care offered through the Department of Veterans Affairs is generally good, although news stories have focused on ion to link the disability to their service. The standard is that it's linked "as likely as not."

He discussed the defoliant Agent Orange used in the Vietnam war. Veterans who served Jan. 9, 1962, to May 7, 1975, are generally eligible as the chemical has led to skin conditions, cancer and other illnesses. In the past, it could be tough to get medical support for the claim, Sung said.

Congress passed a law of presumptive service connection for Agent Orange in the late 1980s, he said. Gulf War syndrome began to appear in the early 1990s, including fatigue, appetite loss, gastrointestinal symptoms and others. It's now also considered service-connected.

Sung also highlighted secondary service connection, such as when a foot broken in military service leads to back problems. He said the VA system is not intended to be adversarial to veterans, although its ability to help is limited.

"This is a program for low-income veterans, individuals who are financially needy," Sung said of the monthly VA pension payment to veterans unable to work. Some have been in car accidents or other situations not directly tied to military service.

He touched on other sources of help, such as veterans service officers associated with the American Legion and similar organizations. Counties may have staffers who specialize in working with veterans.

Sung concluded by saying there's no time limit in filing for veterans' benefits, and cases can be reopened for claims with new evidence.

poor care, he said. Sung outlined requirements to obtain care, with conditions needing to be service-connected.

He recommends those with questions go to a VA facility and apply. Monetary benefits can accrue to those who left the service "under conditions other than dishonorable."

The disability must be current and diagnosed, he said. Chronic conditions, such as cancer, are also compensable.

Sung, who focuses on veterans and consumer protection law, noted post-traumatic stress disorder is up about 30 percent among current veterans.

"This is a very common condition," he said. It can include Vietnam-era veterans who raised families and held jobs but now have difficulty as their time is less occupied.

Benefits are often denied by the VA, he said, noting veterans need a medical opin-

Dentists 'give back' with free services

Endodontist (root canal specialist) Dr. Todd Ester of Canton, who has practices in Southfield and Ypsilanti, performed free root canals for Detroit residents last week as part of the "Save a Tooth" event at the University of Detroit Mercy Dental School's Endodontics Clinic.

He was among the more than 20 Southeast Michigan endodontists who volunteered their time and expertise to 50 Detroit residents who otherwise would have no access to dental care.

Ester

received root canal treatments at no charge in the University of Detroit Mercy Dental School's Endodontics Clinic.

Because root canals must be followed by skilled dental care

The region's first ever "Save a Tooth" volunteer effort took place Tuesday-Wednesday, Oct. 27-28. Pre-screened Medicaid-eligible patients to ensure the successful complete restoration of the tooth, patients were placed in the care of dentists from the Covenant Community Care dental partnership after completion of their free "Save a Tooth" root canals.

Though they donated their time as individuals, all participating root canal specialists are members of the Michigan Association of Endodontists. The University of Detroit Mercy donated the facilities. "It can be difficult for an endodontist to volunteer services to help people in need, but through our partnerships, we've found a way," said root canal specialist Dr. Steve Shoha, whose practice is located in East Pointe. "Regardless of the patient's financial status, saving a tooth through a root canal is the healthiest option and is pain-free thanks to new technology."

*Annual percentage yield (APY) is accurate as of date of publication. 1.64% rate (1.65% APY) referenced in any of the following tiers is guaranteed for at least 90 days from the date of account opening then may change at any time as the Huntington Premier Plus Money Market Account (HPPMMA) is a variable rate account. Different rates apply to different balance tiers. Rates and corresponding APYs listed in the tiers that do not earn 1.64% (1.65% APY) are also variable and subject to change without notice even prior to the first 90 days. Initial minimum opening deposit required is $20,000.00 and must be new money to Huntington. The interest rate for balances $0.01-$19,999.99 is 0.00% (0.00% APY); the interest rate for the following balance tiers, $20,000.00 to $49,999.99, $50,000.00 to $99,999.99, and $100,000.00 to $2,000,000.99 is currently 1.64% (1.65% APY) and will apply for at least 90 days. This is our current standard rate for HPPMMA opened October 12, 2009 or later. Balances $2,000,001.00 to $999,999,999.99 do not qualify for the 1.64% (1.65% APY); current standard rate for that balance tier is 0.80% (0.80% APY) and subject to change at any time. After the first 90 (ninety) days, the rates in all tiers are not guaranteed and subject to change at any time. When your balance falls into a particular rate tier, your entire balance will earn the applicable rate in effect for that tier, i.e., if your balance reaches $2,000,001.00 or more, your entire balance will earn that lower rate. Balances below $20,000.00 are subject to a $20.00 per month maintenance fee. Interest is compounded and paid monthly. Limit one account per household. CHECKING ACCOUNT REQUIREMENT & CONDITIONS: Customer must also have, or open, a consumer checking account with a $1,500.00 balance which must be titled in the same name(s) as the HPPMMA. Depending on your type of checking account, it may or may not be interest-bearing which will impact the overall return of your total funds on deposit. If checking account is not maintained, the HPPMMA will be converted to our Huntington Premier Money Market Account which has lower rates in all respective rate tiers and does not receive the 1.64% (1.65% APY) on any balance tier. APPLICABLE TO BOTH HPPMMA AND CHECKING ACCOUNTS: Fees may reduce earnings on the account. An Early Account Closing fee will apply to accounts closed within 180 days of opening. We reserve the right to limit acceptance of deposits greater than $100,000.00. Not valid with any other offer. FDIC insured up to applicable limits.
