W-W closes 6 schools, looks to save more

BY SUE MASON OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The president of the Wayne-Westland Community Schools' largest employee union has already put the district on notice that it should look elsewhere to trim $7 million from its

"Wayne-Westland teachers are in the bottom quarter in pay in Wayne County, administrators are in the top quarter," said Nancy Strachan, president of the 850-member Wayne-Westland Education Association. "I don't see why our employees should shoulder the burden of the state.'

Her comments came after the school board voted Monday evening to close six elementary schools and go to a four-tiered grade configuration with the start of the 2010-11 school year.

The board voted 5-2, with trustees

Carol Middel and John Goci dissenting, to approve the final recommendation of its 21st Century Schools Committee and to direct the superintendent to pursue other avenues of cost containment and savings. The district is looking to trim $12 million from its budget. The school closings will save $5 million, leaving $7 million to come from other areas.

"I understand the school district faces major financial issues. I understand the financial liability of having underutilized school buildings," Middel said. "But I feel too much emphasis was placed on brick and mortar. Parents need to feel like they're stakeholders. With more parents on the committee, the administrators could have served as a

FINAL RECOMMENDATION

The recommendation approved by the Wayne-Westland school board is that: · Six elementaries - Patchin, Madison, Kettering, Lincoln and Jefferson-Barns elementaries in Westland and Vandenberg Elementary in Wayne - close at the end of the current school year. • The district change to a K-4, 5-6, 7-8, 9-12 grade configuration. Adams and Marshall middle schools will become 5-6 schools, while Stevenson and Franklin middle schools will serve seventh- and eighth-graders. Stevenson would feed into John Glenn High School and Franklin into Wayne Memorial High School. • All-day kindergarten will be offered at

- all K-4 buildings.
- The 5-6 buildings will have an elementary focus with instrumental music, world language classes and talented/gifted programs. · Revised attendance boundaries for the 11 K-4 buildings, including moving students living in the area bounded by Merriman, Henry Ruff, Cherry Hill and Avondale from the Hicks attendance area to Elliott. Under the final plan, five elementaries - Walker-Winter, Hamilton, Elliott, Hicks and Schwetizer - will send students to both 5-6 schools.

- · Sixth- and seventh-graders attending Stevenson Middle School who live in the Wayne Memorial attendance area will be given the option of remaining there through the eighth grade.
- · The Board of Education must pursue additional cost savings.

Eagle project restores park's bridge

BY LEANNE ROGERS OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Christopher Crile didn't have to look far for his Boy Scout Eagle project. It was installing a new bridge over the Tonquish Creek in the William P. Holliday Park Nature Preserve.

"It's right behind my house. I've walked in the park many times with friends and family," said Crile, a junior at Livonia Churchill High School. "One of my neighbors is in her 80s and she would shimmy across (the remains of an

with maintaining the park. Plans for the project developed after Crile met with Carol Clements, a county naturalist, and William Craig, president of the Holliday Nature Park Association.

"The boardwalk was suggested because it was more meaningful — the park was split (without a bridge)," said

The original bridge across the creek, which connected the Koppernick and 'Newburg sections of the park, was 10 feet wide and 46 feet long. Many of the bridge planks disappeared over the years, and in 2007 vandals stripped the bridge to leave only a skeleton of steel

Working with his grandfather Larry Snowden, a retired Ford plant manager, Crile spent four months developing plans for a four-foot wide by 46-foot long wooden foot bridge with a railing that utilized the existing steel trusses. The plans were submitted and approved by the Wayne County Parks Engineering Department.

To pay for the project, Crile knocked on doors and was persistent in making phone calls. Among the donors: Holliday Nature Association gave $200; Wayne County Parks donated material valued at $250; the Canton Home Depot donated

City adds brine to snow removal efforts

BY LEANNE ROGERS OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A new pre-treating program is expected to reduce costs for keeping Westland's major streets cleared of snow - and it's more environmentally friendly.

"The Department of Public Services is readying for inclement weather. We're pretty excited about the new program with liquid brine," Mayor William Wild said.

The brine, a by-product of calcium chloride, will reduce the amount of salt needed to clear roads. The brineenhanced salt enables the mixture to work better in frigid temperatures - it melts the salt, which allows heat to be given off quicker, and speeds the process of melting the snow

"Pre-treating streets is not really new in the area — Wayne County and Romulus jumped into it. We waited to see the results," Wild said. "It has been successful. If it works as well as it did in other communities, it will reduce our salt use."

The council recently approved a contract extension with Suburban Oil to purchase 100,000 gallons of magnesium chloride brine at a cost of $30,000. For several years, Suburban Oil has been contracted for dust control treatments on Westland's unpaved

Ex-staffers remember Wayne County General as 'phenomenal'

BY SUE MASON OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

It's been 25 years since Wayne County General Hospital closed its doors, but for those who worked there, it seemed like only yesterday they were there working.

"There was a sense of pride because we were doing so much with so little," said Shirley Beyer. "It was always a learning experience for us nurses at the County."

"We had a sense that we were providing a service no one else could," said Dr. Joe Weiss. "We served people who had a need. In the 1980s, there were still a lot of people without health insurance." Beyer and Weiss were among former hospital employees who filled every available seat in the Cafe Marquette at the William D. Ford Career Technical Center last week to reminisce about the hospital. Nurses, maintenance workers and administrators exchanged stories and caught up on their lives after the hospital closed in 1984.

Beyer worked as a nurse from 1961 to 1983. When the hospital was sold to Southwest General, she was given the option of staying with Wayne County and was offered a job working at the jail in downtown Detroit.

"That wasn't my cup of tea," the Westland resident said. "I stayed at home and then went to work at Garden City Hospital."

'SEE WHAT HAPPENS'

Beyer, who wore her hospital badge that had a 1984 expiration date, worked in pediatrics, obstetrics and the intensive care unit when it was started. She recalls that the hospital "knocked down some walls and put in some cots" for the unit.

"We were flying by the seat of our pants," she said. "They decided to try it and see what happens."

LPS school board slashes $4.35 million

BY KAREN SMITH OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The Livonia school board Monday cut $4.35 million from this year's budget, but preserved busing for high school students, 12 elementary classroom positions and music for upper elementary students.

However, elementary students will have reductions in physical education and sixthgraders will lose foreign lan-

An estimated 40-50 jobs will be cut, including approximately 23 teaching positions, Supt. Randy Liepa said.

Some elementary students will be assigned new classroom teachers at semester break as teachers with more seniority whose specialty teaching jobs have been eliminated bump regular classroom teachers with lesser seniority, as permitted by contract.

But more elementary students will stay with their current teachers than originally thought because the board preserved the 12 elementary classroom teaching positions as well as 15 elementary learning specialist positions slated for cutting.

Teachers being laid off will be notified before the holiday break, the other employees afterward, Liepa said.

The cuts are necessary to offset an expected $8 million reduction in state funding, school officials said. The balance will be made up with fund equity. The district has an approximate $150 million general fund budget.

High school transportation, music for fifth- and sixth-graders, 12 elementary classroom teachers and 15 elementary learning specialists were on the chopping block until Friday, when Gov. Jennifer Granholm announced the state may restore $127 per pupil of the cuts it made this fall to school districts. The cuts for Livonia had totaled $600 per student.

The district has cut its budget by $30 million over the past seven years because of continuing reductions in state funding, Liepa said. But this is the first year in the last seven for midyear cuts of this magnitude.

Board Secretary Rob Freeman, who will be signing the layoff notices, said, "Last year I said we were cutting to the bone. This year, it's amputa-

He said the difficulty was deciding which arm to cut.

Board members said they had no choice but to make the cuts, even if they disagreed with

"What we have to do is ugly," Trustee Dan Lessard said. "It's horrendous that we have to go through this."

Board Vice President Gregory Oke said it may have appeared the board was pitting one group of employees against another, but that was never the intention. "Everything everyone does is important," he said.

Trustee Colleen Burton said the board opted to cut in half the number of student assistant positions at elementary schools over eliminating 15 learning specialist positions because learning specialists could bump classroom teachers. She said the board wanted to avoid displacing classroom teachers midyear as much as possible. "We don't want to pull teachers," she

All student assistant positions were cut at the middle and high school levels. Other jobs that were eliminated include those held by paraprofessionals, $\,$ custodians and maintenance workers, supervisors and central office and secondary school secretaries.

Erin Casey, a 2000 Stevenson High graduate who spoke during a public hearing prior to the board's 7-0 vote, said student assistants at the high schools help prevent students from falling through the cracks and dropping out of school. "I feel they are invaluable positions," she said, adding they helped to shape her future.

Charles O'Loughlin, a physical education teacher at Hoover and Cass, said the district has reduced its physical education in half since he started, yet heart disease remains the No. 1 killer of men and women and health care costs continue to escalate and drag down the

Students in kindergarten through fourth grade will have 45 minutes instead of an hour of physical education each week now, and students in fifth and sixth grades will have gym once a week instead of twice.

The board considered reducing music for fifth- and sixthgraders, but opted instead to eliminate foreign language for sixth-graders.

Edward Collins acknowledged the board faced tough choices. "You're going to make someone mad, no matter what you do," he said. But, he said, district employees need to give more, much like those in the private sector have done. He noted district employees represented by AFSCME started contributing to their health care premiums for the first time ever starting just this year. "We all out here are hurting. I'd like to see things equalized between public employees and the private sector."

Board members have said that none of the cuts would be necessary if all employees agreed to concessions of approximately 3 percent or the state reinstates more of the School officials and parents are continuing to put pressure on lawmakers.

'We're not going to give up the fight," Liepa said.

ksmith@hometownlife.com | (313) 222-2098

"This is one of the most important decisions we will have to make and it will have profound impact on the district," Goci said. "It shouldn't be rushed through. I don't think this plan has the support of the community."

"No one wants to close schools, no one on the schools committee wants to close schools," consultant Jeff Rahmberg said. "This is a big step forward to reinvent the Wayne-Westland School District and ensure its financial stability."

Parents, however, challenged the decision.

"This is the third night in a row that we've not gotten answers," said James Grondy of Westland. "You promised more programs, but when you have to cut another $7 million, you're going to cut the budget and it's going to come out of those other schools. Nothing adds up.

"I hope if you voted yes that you have a long night thinking that you're in a position to change this," said Sally Madison of Westland. "Nobody has disputed that schools have to close, we get it. It's what schools and why that we want to know."

Trustee William Gabriel told the audience that Wayne-Westland is in the same position as many other districts and that it "has to adjust and react."

"It's tough, nobody wants to close schools," he said. "We closed schools in 1994 and we got over it. We'll get over it again. We downsized before and we may have to downsize again. I'm more concerned about what's offered in the classroom than where the classroom is." "I hate seeing schools closed.

Schools are the heart of a community," board Vice President Cindy Schofield said. "The heart of a school is its staff, and we have a staff that will rise to the occasion and make this easy for our students."

"This is a very difficult decision, but as a community we need to stick together," board Treasurer Shawna Walker said. We need to support the children and be role models. If we stick together, we'll get through this."

Parents shouted and drowned out school board President Skip Monit, who tried to tell parents that he has served on the board "long enough to know there is nothing to hide."

"Every move made is with only the best interest of our kids," he said.

While several parents shouted out recall, Shawnn Maxwell made it perfectly clear she would not be involved. The leader of an effort to recall school board members last fall following a four-day teacher strike, Maxwell said she will be there to support the parents and students.

'It's unfortunate schools have to close, but we have to think about the quality of the education we want for our children," she said.

John Glenn High School senior Ali Zarate said that while the plan isn't perfect, "we can make it perfect."

"This is about making a great district or letting it go and not be remembered," she said. "Everyone would agree they would do anything for their child. Wayne-Westland is our cost effective, said DPS Director Kevin Buford, since it would have cost about $100,000 per truck to add the needed equipment to apply the brine. DPS has 14 trucks that would have needed the equipment.

"We'll probably save $60,000 on salt. The brine wets the street. It keeps the snow from sticking and starts melting it," Buford said. "We won't have to send crews out so fast, so there will be less overtime. Before, we'd throw the salt as soon as the snow starts. Then we'd plow and take up the salt, then salt again."

The pre-treatment wets the road and makes it easier to plow snow, Buford said. Salt is ineffective melting snow and ice when the temperature drops below 10 degrees — the brine works in temperature as low as minus 32 degrees. The brine solution also is less corrosive than salt. Whatever goes into the storm sewer, the brine is 28 percent salt — that's less than 100 percent salt," Buford said. "It's environmentally friendly."

Beyond improved effectiveness and cost-savings, Wild noted that the brine pre-treatment program also is a good fit with his Mission Green program.

"By using products like brine it shows our commitment to Mission Green, the city's environment-friendly initiative. One of my primary goals is to provide a green legacy to our children and grandchildren," Wild said. "These small changes we make today provide big benefits

The bridge construction took place on Halloween when 37 volunteers, mostly scouts and parents from Boy Scout Troop 1539, met at the Snowden home on Warren and built the bridge in eight-foot segments. The completed sections were then carried

After his parents divorced, Crile said his mother moved to Canton but he wanted to complete his education in Livonia and now lives with his grandparents.

At the request of HNPA President William Craig, Crile made a presentation on his project at the HNPA general meet-

Crile's project still needs to go before a board of review before his Eagle rank is awarded. "I am very proud of what my grandson has accomplished and it is a place I plan to visit for many years to come," said Snowden.

HOSPITAL

Judith Corbutt of Bloomfield Hills was "there until the bitter end," spending her last 15 years in the emergency room. But not before being the hospital's "first ICU nurse."

After she left, she spent 20 years working in her husband's business placing medical personnel. Now she's billing herself as a master gardener.

"I'd still be there, if I could," said Corbutt. "ER was my favorite department. We worked our butts off, but we had fun. It was a good hospital, we learned a lot."

One of the people who taught was Norm Potter, the medical electronics technician. He roamed the hospital repairing machines. According to Corbutt, Potter would fix the respirators, then show the nurses how to do it.

"You name it, I fixed it," said Potter who worked at the hospital for 12 years. "I worked on all the medical equipment."

Potter described the staff as a "close knit group" that worked together and played together. There were three racquetball leagues, and they played baseball on a diamond on the hospital grounds. The hospital also had a team that competed in the stretcher races at Hutzel Hospital during Michigan Hospital Week every year.

"When we played baseball, Norm would get mad and take the bases and go home," said Nancy Rogerro, adding that "we also had a guys golf league."

"We worked harder than anywhere else, but it was so interesting," said Rogerro, also a Westland resident.

Rogerro worked in the emergency room and discharge and homecare. When the hospital closed and became Westland Medical Center, she stayed on and worked six more years. She left and took a nursing position at the Garden City Schools' Burger School for Students with Autism.

"In its heyday, the hospital was phenomenal," she said. "You never worked a slow day. You'd blink and the day was over."

THE RED PHONE

The hospital was a major trauma center. During a presidential visit, a red phone would be set up at the hospital. Delphine Maddox remembers the day she picked up the receiver of the red phone.

"There was no one there, but a while later another phone rang and someone said, 'Don't play with the red phone,'" the Westland resident said.

One of the oldest retirees at the gathering was 91-year-old Erma Greenwood of Wayne. She started working at the Eloise complex in 1937. She spent 14 hours one day and 12 hours the next, working the wards. She retired in the 1970s.

Luetta Ellis hugs her old boss Nancy Rowles at a reunion of former Wayne County General Hospital employees.

"I worked in admitting on the fifth floor of D Building, admitting patients, the second floor was where they did all the treatments," she said.

Greenwood met her husband there. He was a truck driver, and according to Greenwood, she "chased him and when he turned around to see how close I was, I grabbed him." She lived on the second floor of one of the buildings he was on the first floor. The building manager would let her sit in his room with the door open for a date.

"We'd go to Brownie's Diner in Wayne and get hamburgers and milk for $1, then go back to his room and eat them," she said.

There was one person at the reunion who didn't work at the hospital, but she worked her hardest to keep it open.

"I did everything but stand on my head," said former Wayne County Commissioner Kay Beard. "I really fought for that hospital. I did everything I could possibly do."

Beard, who has one of the few remaining buildings named after her, the general hospital was charged for the maintenance of the entire Eloise complex. Had it had been charged for only what it cost, "the hospital would have broke even or even made money."

Beard served on the county commission for 30 years and said she has one major disappointment for each decade. For the 1980s, it was the closing of the hospital.

"It was a level one trauma center with doctors and professors from the University of Michigan, the health care there was wonderful," she said.

Weiss worked at the hospital in 1961 and left for the service. He returned in 1967 and was a resident and fellow and stayed on the staff until it closed. Looking back on his time at the hospital, Weiss said the hospital had a lot of special people working there.

"They were all wonderful," he said. "The hospital was large enough to provide what the people needed, but small enough to know everyone," he

A BIT OF HISTORY

The Eloise Complex of buildings has at various times been referred to as the Wayne County Poor House, the Wayne County Sanatorium, serving tuberculosis patients, the Wayne County Asylum, serving the mentally illindigent population, and Eloise Hospital.

Eloise, which started out as a poorhouse and a poor farm, later became Wayne County General Hospital. From only 35 residents on 280 acres in 1839, the complex grew dramatically after the Civil War until the total land involved was 902 acres and the total number of patients was about 10,000. There were about 75 buildings in the large complex. It became a city in itself and even had its own post office, named after the postmaster of Detroit's six-year-old daughter, Eloise. In 1945, Eloise was renamed Wayne County General Hospital and Infirmary. By the 1950s Wayne County General was considered one of the best hospitals in the nation. It played a major part in metro Detroit's health network. It was the only acute-care medical and surgical hospital between Detroit and Ypsilanti. As patient treatment was updated, so were the facilities. Older buildings were razed in the 1960s and 1970s and two new buildings were constructed - the 511-bed

Laptop, GPS system stolen from vehicle

Larceny

A resident in the 7500 block of North Hix told police Dec. 13 that someone had stolen a laptop computer, GPS system and a top coat valued at $1,900 from his unlocked vehicle. He also said $45 in coins were missing.

Hit and run

On Dec. 7, a Detroit man told police that he was traveling southbound on Wayne Road and had entered the intersection with Cherry Hill on a vellow light when his vehicle was struck by COP CALLS another vehicle. The second vehicle was reported to be turning westbound onto Cherry Hill from northbound Wayne Road.

After initially stopping at nearby gas station and asking if he was OK, the Detroit man said the second driver got into his vehicle and left.

A witness told police that the Detroit man had run the red light and struck the other vehicle as it turned left on a green arrow. Officers weren't able to locate the second vehicle. The Detroit man's vehicle was reported to have minor front end damage.

A semi-tractor and trailer, containing 500,000 pairs of cotton work gloves, was reported stolen from Advanced Truck & Trailer, 426 S. Newburgh, Dec. 11. The tractor, valued at $30,000, was owned by a Westland man. The $10,000 trailer was owned by a Romulus man.

Retail fraud

Police arrested a Westland man for allegedly shoplifting a BB gun and a PlayStation 3 game valued at $60 from Kmart, 165 S. Wayne Road, Dec. 7. Disorderly man Police arrested a 50-year-old Garden City man in the Kroger parking lot at 5736 Middlebelt about 2 p.m. Dec. 11 after he reportedly walked through the store threatening female customers.

The store manager was right behind him in the store and called police.

When police investigated, they found out that the man had also reportedly been disruptive in the nearby Family Dollar store, located in the same plaza. He reportedly knocked over a display of two-liter bottles of pop and threatened female customers there also.

Candlelight vigil honors children gone too soon

When Sandy Lucas of Canton lost her daughter to a sudden heart ailment in August 2008, she lost not only her daughter, but her best friend.

Lucas, who owns Lucas
Nursery in Canton, was in Plymouth's Kellogg Park
Sunday night with other mothers, fathers, friends and relatives who've lost their daughters, sons, best friends, all gathered to hear their child's name one more time.

Lucas and hundreds of others dodged the raindrops for the annual candlelight vigil sponsored by The Compassionate Friends, Western Wayne County (Livonia) Chapter, in conjunction with Children's Memorial Day.

"We tell (Nancy) we miss her, tell her we love her," said Sandy Lucas, who attended the ceremony with Nancy's brother, Bob. "It just makes you feel closer."

Lucas said she found out about the Compassionate Friends' ceremony from a customer. Missing Nancy, and watching the 3-year-old son, Conner, she left behind, gave Lucas a reason to attend.

"Conner was her whole life, and we tell her how much he misses her," Sandy Lucas said. "You realize there are so many other people hurting like you are. Their hearts are broken, too, and our hearts go out to them."

The ceremony included the dedication of trees decorated with ornaments featuring the children's names, a candlelight vigil, a reading of a record 570 children's names, poetry and songs.

The ceremony came in conjunction with the worldwide candle lighting. The idea is that, as candles burn down

"The holidays are especially difficult for parents who have lost children," said committee member Gail Lafferty of Livonia, who organizes the ceremony every year. "This candle lighting ceremony honoring them helps their memories live on."

It's what brought Howard Gross and Esperanza Santos-Gross of Livonia to Kellogg Park Sunday, the chance to remember their son, Howard, who died in September 2008.

"It's peaceful, it shows he's not forgotten," Esperanza said.

"You hear your child's name. In your heart, you know everyone's holding a candle for your baby. What you see in other people's eyes, is the same thing that's in your eyes. It gives us comfort."

Volunteers create toy store for families

BY SUE MASON OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Christine Merritt vowed that by Wednesday morning the gymnasium of the Dearborn Heights Salvation Army Citadel would truly look like a toy store, thanks to volunteers from the Ford Motor Company.

Tuesday, volunteers were busy sorting the toys, clothing and books by age, placing them on tables set along the outer edges of the gym. One wall was devoted entirely to food boxes planned for the 560 families that are stopping by today and tomorrow.

"Wednesday will be a lot more organized," said Merritt, who with her husband Steve are majors assigned to the citadel which serves Livonia, Garden City, Redford, Dearborn and Dearborn Heights. "The Ford volunteers will come in and set up a display so it will look like a toy store."

Parents who visit the toy store have appointments. They are met at the door by volunteers who escort them around the toy store, letting them select a gift for each child, stocking stuffers, one family game and a food box and certificate to Kroger to buy the fresh produce.

By the time the store closes Friday afternoon, more than 560 families will be serviced and 1,446 children will have gifts for Christmas. Leslie's mother.

While the volunteers worked in the gymnasium sorting, families in the Salvation Army's Adopt-A-Family program were coming to pick up their gifts and food. The first family to walk in the door was in Sleep admitted it was a sluggish start to the morning, but once they started opening boxes of toys purchased by the Salvation Army headquarters, the day got better.

"I'm at the point where I look at the toy and wonder why we didn't have it when we were little," she said, admitting she'd had some fun with the Backyardigans.

Rosa Victory of Dearborn Heights was also new to the toy store set-up. She stood at a table, organizing hats, mittens, socks, scarves and booties, many of the items handmade by the Women of the Dearborn Heights

"People are so generous, they donate for the kids and they give for the adults," she said. "I'm from a large family and I remember my mom never received anything. It brings tears to my eyes to see that people remember the adults."

And the calls for help won't end when the toy store closes Friday afternoon.

"We expect more calls on the 21st," Merritt said. "On Monday, they just call and we see what we can give them. I think we'll be able to help them. My goal is to give them a food box and certifi-

OUR VIEWS

Consider local charities in your gift giving

Who among us has not seen one of the many films made of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol. We all know about the Ghosts of Christmas Past, Present and Future who turn Ebenezer Scrooge from a mean and nasty tyrant to a loving and kind individual.

Michigan is caught in its own version of the Dickens classic, but our ghosts didn't wait to visit on Christmas Eve. They started arriving years ago and the visions they've shown us are bleaker than what you see in the movies. The Ghost of Michigan Past is hanging around reminding us of the good times - high employment, most people enjoying their piece of the American dream. The Ghost of Michigan Present is in our face with gloom and doom. Too many people have lost their jobs and lost their homes. Our government and our educational system is in shambles, too many expenses and not enough money.

Lurking in the wings is the Ghost of Michigan's Future. Our leaders have told us what we need to do to return to a prosperous state, but standing in the way is the Ghost of Michigan Present. We were the first state to experience the economic collapse and we will be the last to climb out of the hole. We know we have to do it ourselves. We have done it in the past and we will do it again.

But it will take those of us who have, to help take care of those who have not. In a week's time, people will be gathering to celebrate Christmas - at church, at home, with family and friends. For those lucky enough, it will be a holiday filled with presents and tables laden with food. For those not so lucky, it will be a holiday with gifts and food provided through the kindness of Michigan has suffered through almost nine years of economic hardship and the effect most apparent this holiday season. Groups like Goodfellows and Salvation Army, local food banks, soup kitchens and warming shelters are working hard to provide for those in need. Their success is tied directly to the generosity of

We have urged our readers to buy local to support Michigan businesses. We've also urged readers to support the Goodfellows and Salvation Army and offered information on helping local groups that are providing food and shelter for the less fortunate.

It's a message that bears repeating. When you think you are done with your Christmas shopping, consider giving one more gift - a gift of food or money that will help your fellow neighbors in their time of need. Instead of a gift to the person who has everything, give them a card telling them that a donation has been made in their name to a local charity.

Need some ideas? The Garden City or Westland Goodfellows, the Wayne-Westland or Dearborn Heights Citadel of the Salvation Army, the food bank at Good Hope Lutheran Church in Garden City or the John Bolde Memorial Food Bank in Wayne or Lighthouse Home Mission's soup kitchen, food pantry and warming center for the homeless at the Full Gospel Temple in Westland.

And while we're talking about giving. Don't let your support of these groups be limited to Christmas. The need for help in Michigan is Michigan will one day recover form this mess, but until then it is up to those of us who have to help care for those who have nothing. What we do today will make for a better tomorrow.

Price of education

Health Care and Pensions for the Teachers are the issues in the school funding debate not the children in the classroom. None of the money will ever go into any children's education now or in the future. Teachers and auto workers should suffer like every one else in Michigan.

Christmas blessing

Someday at Christmas maybe we'll see Not gifts and stress and what will be, But peace and fortune the world through

Beginning with just me and you. A joyous Christmas with love and sharing,

A Christmas without the fear of not

Someday at Christmas we will be able to share His love, Practice all the blessings we have been given from above, Joy and laughter without sadness or

Peace and love and those we cherish held near. Our hearts will cast off the lack of trust And we will have to do what we must. Encourage the homeless that this to Nurture those who cry over what did

Practice what we really preach in our lives today

Inspire the new children coming up

And make all this craziness go away. So bless you each and everyone with love and cheer

Thanks for support

I'd like to express my heartfelt thanks to the American people for the sustained outpouring of support you have shown our men and women in uniform during these years of conflict. They serve us proudly, and we are inspired by their sacrifices and by the patriotism and resolve of their families.

If you happen to be traveling through our Nation's busy airports or other transportation hubs this holiday season, you'll likely see many service members traveling in uniform. As part of what our Army calls its "Holiday Block Leave," we suspend basic and advanced skills training to allow Soldiers to spend the holidays with their families and friends.

During the next two weeks, more than 40,000 Soldiers will depart our posts, camps and stations to travel across America. They will be joined by thousands of other troops traveling to and from Afghanistan, Iraq and other overseas locations where they're stationed to protect and promote the liberties we celebrate during this time of year.

I ask all Americans to take a moment to say "thank you" to these service members as you encounter them. They have all sworn an oath to protect our way of life knowing the risks that entails, and many of them have experienced multiple deployments into the war zones.

There's nothing they appreciate more from those they serve than a simple expression of gratitude and acknowledgment of their service and sacrifice.

Throughout our history, young mericans have answered the ca serve. This generation, yet again, is demonstrating that they care more deeply about their country, their fellow countrymen, and their fellow Soldiers than they do about themselves.

We must never take that for granted.

Reform of state government at all levels needed as soon as possible

he governor cannot fix what is wrong with our schools by forcing a tax increase. What is required, and has been avoided and ignored for far too long, is sensible reform of government at every level and specifically in our system of public education. Our schools are increasingly unstable, unbalanced and ultimately unsustainable unless bold changes are made to alter the present course. Putting money into a dysfunctional system will not fix the problem.

The governor and Legislature have ignored the numerous reports calling for sensible reforms in Michigan schools for at least the past five years.

We cannot simply cut or tax our way out of this crisis that our leaders' inaction has let The foundation on which this great state was built, the auto industry, has been eroding for decades and has imploded in the last year. The sooner we accept the new economic reality, the sooner we can begin the rebuilding process necessary to get Michigan working again. As state schools superintendent in 2004 I issued a report: Structural Issues, Surrounding Michigan Schools in the 21st Century (www.michigan. gov/documents/michiganschoolfunding_110803_7.pdf).

The report demonstrated that Michigan's system of public education was unsustainable back then.

The report asked that we reimagine our system of public education — or start from scratch — taking all the money we could possibly spend on education, setting priorities and then figuring out how to invest it to help prepare our children and state for the disruptive, hyper-competitive, transformational, global knowledge economy.

Let's toss aside the present 550 local school boundaries and recast them to be more efficient, eliminating tiny districts to remove administrative redundancies. The rising cost of health care and pensions for educators is absorbing nearly every dollar the governor and Legislature invest in schools. The state would need to invest nearly $300 per student, per year into the foreseeable future (approximately $500 million/ year) just to cover health care and pension costs. This figure is as unrealistic as it is unsustainable. If we continue down this path, we should change the name of the department of education to the department of health care and pensions - because that is where the money is going.

PRETEND AND SPEND

Watching the angst of the governor and Legislature as they talk about the plight of our schools remind me of the kid who killed his parents — and threw himself on the mercy of the courts because he was an orphan! Like they had nothing to do with creating this mess!

The governor's and Legislature's failure to act on sensible reforms have created the crisis facing us today.

In 1993, the Kalkaska public school system closed 45 days early for lack of funds and their inability to provide a high-quality education with resources available. The school superintendent and school board took the drastic action after the tax-weary citizens rejected a millage needed to overcome a $1.5 million shortfall in a $10.3 million budget. This action spurred the thengovernor and Legislature into action to fix Michigan's school funding system with the passage of Proposal A in 1994. Fast forward to 2009 and the question today is similar: Who will flinch? The choices are to hold firm for sensible changes in health care, pensions, shared services and consolidations of intermediate and local school districts. Or, they could blink and raise taxes, which will be the equivalent of "fixing" General Motors' problems by getting a guarantee that they can just charge more for their cars - without addressing the fundamental structural problems growing in their system.

If reforms were initiated when brought to light years ago, all or much of the crisis of today could have been avoided. Sadly, they were not.

A PLAN OF ACTION

Agree to raise taxes only as a bridge to reform/restructuring. The tax increase should sunset in two to three years, being phased out and replaced with redirected money saved through:

 A health care reform plan, which pools insurance for public employees thereby saving significant resources to be redirected to the classroom.

· Creating a process for closing or consolidating school districts and municipalities.

• Changes in pension plans from defined benefits to defined contribution — for new hired school as well as local government employees - and other sensible reforms.

 Creating a tier pay/benefit system for state, teachers and local government new hires. If the reforms are not in place - the cuts happen and the schools, education establishment, Legislature and governor have no one to blame but themselves. If you have a hole in your roof, you have to fix it or suffer the consequences. Michigan has been avoiding fixing the hole in school funding for years. Because of inaction the entire roof is set to collapse.

Inaction has consequences.

Michigan made gift ideas for everyone on your list

BY WENSDY VON BUSKIRK

There are still a few days left before Christmas, so it's time to get your last-minute shop on. It's always hard to pick out the perfect gift, so why not narrow down your choices by buying something Michigan-made? Here are some ideas:

• If you've got someone artsy on your list, try Pewabic Pottery. Founded in 1903 during the Arts & Crafts Movement, Pewabic is nationally known for its tile and pottery in unique glazes. New for the holidays are snowflake ornaments, and pinecone and reindeer tiles. Tiles and ornaments depicting Detroit and Michigan are also favorites. Visit the historic studio at 10125 E. Jefferson Ave., in Detroit or shop online at www.pewabic.com.

• Give a gift with Michigan pride and help laid-off workers close to home with 'Don't Mess with the Mitten' and 'MichiCAN' shirts. Created by local residents Lisa Burnia and Terri O'Brien, the shirts use homegrown resources including T-shirts from Border Bros. in Plymouth and screen printing from The Identity Source in Livonia. Proceeds benefit Bridgepointe, Schoolcraft Foundation and Gleaners. T-shirts and hoodies come in white and navy, along with MSU and U of M colors. Find

• Indulgent homemade soaps make great stocking stuffers or hostess gifts. Boh Bon Soap Company offers beautifully-packaged scents like Cedarwood & Lime, Wildflower and Honey, and Up North Natural, reminiscent of a Michigan forest ($4.25 per bar). Flood crimps IKEA's style

BY BRAD KADRICH OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Kelly Blair and her mother, Sherry, stood on the doorstep at the IKEA store in Canton, staring at the big yellow sign in disbelief.

The sign was announcing the unexpected closing of the store — which turned out to be caused by a ruptured fire suppression sprinkler that dumped thousands of gallons of water into the store's main showroom — and suggested shoppers could still access IKEA goods online.

The Blairs, who traveled from the Benton Harbor area specifically to complete their Christmas shopping, weren't interested in the retailer's Web site.

"We came just for IKEA," said Kelly Blair, who said the drive took more than two hours. "It was a big part of our Christmas shopping. This is crazy, I'm pretty upset."

She wasn't the only one. Store manager Kelly Frieze couldn't say exactly how many shoppers tour IKEA each day, but put the number "in the thousands," all of whom were turned away Tuesday and weren't likely to get back in until the week-

That's because the sprinkler head ruptured around 2:30 a.m. Tuesday, flooding the main showroom and forcing the popular retailer to close its doors. Frieze said store officials were notified by their alarm monitoring system.

Frieze estimated "thousands of gallons" of water spilled into the main showroom, causing significant damage to inventory and display items there. The store's warehouse, Frieze said, was undamaged.

Frieze wouldn't estimate how much monetary damage was done, pointing out he was awaiting the arrival of an insurance assessment

Frieze said the store would almost certainly be closed Wednesday, and said he was "hopeful" the retailer could reopen by the weekend. The flood comes at a bad time, just 10 days before Christmas.

There's never a good time, but this is certainly inopportune," said Frieze, who noted he'd been dealing with unhappy customers all day. "People drive from all over to visit us. We service the local community, certainly, but we're also a regional destination. We understand it's frus-

It certainly frustrated Bridget Nicklas, who made the 90-minute trip from Metamora looking for a bed for her daughter. She checked IKEA's Web site before embarking, and there was no mention of the closure; instead, according to Frieze, the retailer opted for a media alert as "the quickest way to get the word out." Health care coverage will cause problems for many he talk in Washington and throughout the country lately has been about health care. Every day we hear something different about health care reform. Whatever your opinion on health care reform, any plan passed will take years to fully implement and there will be many changes along the way. After all, politicians will do what politicians do. That being said, there are many people who do not have the luxury of waiting. They need to make some decisions about their health care, in particular those covered by COBRA (Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act).

COBRA is the federal legislation that allows an individual who loses his/ her job to keep their health care insurance for a period of time. COBRA coverage is not free. In fact, it is expensive. However, it does give unemployed workers the means to keep insurance. Despite the price, millions of Americans many in Michigan — have taken advantage of COBRA until they are able to obtain alternative coverage.

In February, Congress passed legislation to provide a subsidy to help the unemployed pay for COBRA coverage. COBRA premiums throughout the country average about $1,100 a month, which is the bulk of an unemployed individual's unemployment benefits. Although the subsidy has allowed millions to and provide some sort of keep their health care, the problem is the federal subsidy is about to end. This will put millions in the position of not being able to afford their health care premiums, thus causing them to lose their coverage. Congress has recognized this problem and has introduced legislation to extend the subsidy for another six months. The problem occurs if your subsidy terminates before Congress passes the legislation. What makes this issue even more difficult is, if an individual lets COBRA lapse and does not obtain other health care, he/she may find it difficult to obtain affordable health care in the future.

Under current federal law, if you have a gap in your health care coverage for more than 63 days, your pre-existing health care issues could be used by insurance companies to deny you coverage or make premiums unaffordable.

If you're in a situation where your subsidy is about to terminate and you don't have alternative coverage, what do you do?

First, try to obtain health care insurance elsewhere. If you belong to an organization that has group coverage, you can join or you can buy an individual health care plan that may be more affordable than COBRA. The other alternative is to find a way to make your COBRA pay-

I am generally not in favor of borrowing money, but in this situation it makes sense. I believe that Congress will do something with the federal subsidy and it is possible, in fact, even probable it will make the legislation retroactive refunds for the extra payments. Another possible alternative is to take a distribution from a retirement account to make the health care payments. My fear is that if someone does not keep their coverage and cannot obtain alternative coverage, they may find it very difficult to obtain coverage at a reasonable price in the future.

It is possible that the massive health care reform legislation being debated in Washington could provide affordable coverage in the future, however, that does not solve problems today.

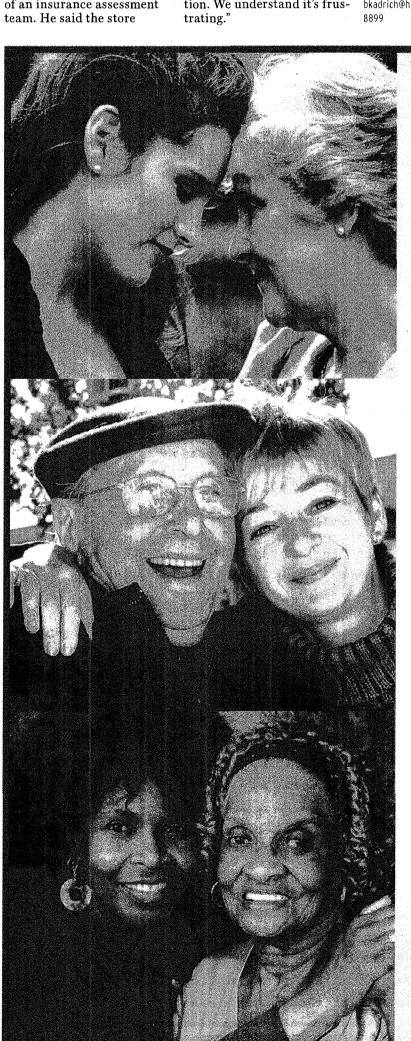

Another issue with the current subsidy program is that in order to qualify, you must be eligible for COBRA before Dec. 31. Therefore, people who have recently lost their job and have health care coverage until the end of the year, may find that they do not qualify for the subsidy.

My advice is to ask your ex-employer, no matter how difficult it is, if they can see fit to make you eligible for COBRA before Dec. 31. Many employers will be willing to do this as an accommodation.

There is no doubt that unemployed individuals are under a tremendous amount of financial pressure, particularly this time of year. However, you must be proactive. Make plans now so you won't be in a more difficult situation down the road.

Good luck!

Gymnasts vault into new year

When state runner-up Livonia Blue unveils its 2009-10 gymnastics team tonight at Walled Lake Central, fourthyear coach Lisa Fierk will have was fifth in the Division 1 allaround with a score of 37.75 in last year's individual state finals, will again be the Quint catalyst.

Quint, who attends Franklin High, placed in three events in last March's state finals including a second in floor exercise (9.525); a tie for third on the balance beam (9.45); and a tie for sixth on the uneven bars

Sophomore Alex Kitz also returns for Livonia Blue after placing runner-up in the Division 2 uneven bars (9.1).

Three key performers, however, have departed.

Among those who graduated are Laura Nomura, fourth in the Division 2 all-around (36.775), along with Meghan Powers, ninth in the Division 1 floor exercise, and Brittany Janis, ninth in the Division 1

"We are looking forward to a great season," said Fierk, who guided Blue to a regional title, Kensington Lakes Activities Association crown and 7-0 dual meet record a year go. "We have our goals set out for us and we know what we have to do to achieve them. The team is working hard and is focused. I cannot wait to see how they do at their first meet."

Livonia Churchill senior Sara Kroll crosses the finish line in the 2009 Foot Locker Cross Country Championships held Saturday at Balboa Park in San Diego, Calif. Kroll, of Westland, was among 40 regional qualifiers to compete in the nationals where she finished 35th in 18 minutes, 36 seconds (for 5,000 meters). Megan Goethals of Rochester edged Chelsey Sveinsson of Dallas, Tex. for first place, both clocking 17:07. "At the start, I got out in a good position, sitting comfortable in about 15th place," Kroll said. "Once the big hill was over with the first time, the downhill went smoothly. But once I hit the two-mile mark my legs turned to lead and finishing was incredibly tough. But making it to Foot Locker in general was a huge accomplishment and I am forever grateful for this experience."

Glenn bowlers forfeit historic win

BY BRAD EMONS OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

It was a bittersweet weekend for the Westland John Glenn boys bowling

After finishing runner-up in Saturday's Farmington Early Bird Invitational held at Drakeshire Lanes, the Rockets ventured Sunday to the White Lake Lake Invitational at Century Bowl in Waterford.

Glenn captured what appeared to be its first tournament title in school history, only to forfeit the crown because of a minor MHSAA rules violation.

Glenn had scheduled boys and girls dual matches earlier in the week against Hartland (Dec. 8) and Walled Lake Western (Dec. 9), along with invitationals at Farmington (Dec. 12) and Lakeland (Dec. 13) — one over the allowable limit.

Rockets Athletic Director Brian Swinehart reported the violation because the MHSAA allows a maximum of three meets within a seven-day span (Monday through Sunday).

"I made an error, I thought it was Sunday to Sunday," Swinehart said in an e-mail to the Observer. "I am following up with the MHSAA today (Tuesday).

The violation also affected the Rocket girls varsity team.

"Normally the penalty is forfeiture of the extra match," said Thomas Rashid, associate director of the MHSAA.

In the 14-team Farmington Early Bird, Farmington/Harrison edged Glenn boys by a single pin, 4,268-4,267, in a format

The third-seeded Lakers advanced to the final with a 3-2 overtime win in the national semifinals (Dec. 3) over Saint Rose (N.Y.). Mira appeared in all 26 games, including 41 minutes in the finals. Abron is All-Region

The American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) announced Dec. 9 that Michigan State sophomore Kyndra Abron (Livonia Churchill) has been named as an All-Mideast Region honorable mention pick.

The former prep Miss Volleyball becomes the first MSU player in team history to receive such an honor.

Abron, who led the 17-16 Spartans to their third NCAA tournament appearance in four years, tallied a career-high 267 kills during the 2009 season, with 107 of those kills against top-25 ranked opponents, first among the team this season.

During the season, Abron led the Spartan attack in conference action with her 2.81 kills-per-set average. She also was tops on the team in solo blocks

Abron and the rest of the Spartans had their the 2009 season come to an end in a 3-0 loss to No. 13 host Kentucky in the opening round of the NCAA tournament.

Slaughter saluted

For the period ending Dec. 13, Madonna University junior guard Bryant Slaughter was named Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference Player of the Week in men's basketball.

The 5-foot-10 Slaughter earned all-tournament honors at MU's State Farm Classic after averaging 20.5 points and 5.5 rebounds per game as the Crusaders went 1-1.

In MU's 78-72 upset Friday of No. 30 Notre Dame (Ohio) College, Slaughter scored 20 points, going 8-for-16 from the floor, to go along with seven rebounds, two assists, three steals and a block.

In the Crusaders' 65-61 setback Saturday against Rochester College, he led all players with 21 points, shooting at a 50-percent clip from the field to go along with four boards, two blocks and a trio of steals.

Slaughter is the team's second leading scorer at 13.8 points per game.

Laker contributes

Grand Valley State University's football season came to an end Saturday in the NCAA Division II title game with a loss to Northwest Missouri State, 30-23.

Sophomore wide receiver Israel Woolfork (Livonia Franklin) had two catches for 48 yards in the nationally-televised championship game played in Florence,

Other Glenn scorers included Kyle Hamlin, 199-217-416; John Cleavenger, 210-171-381; Tommy Ruark, 194-179-373; Thomas Brusseau, 201; Derrick Ammons, 191; and a split score of 155.

"Although the boys bowled well all day, the one pin loss left a bitter taste in their mouth," Glenn coach Ron Brusseau said. "My only focus was to pick their spirits up as we had another tournament the next day.'

Farmington edged Waterford Mott, 2,989-2,942, in the 14-team Lakeland qualifying block. Glenn finished third with a total of 2.857. including Baker games of 144-204-215-211 following regular games of 1,078 and 1,005.

In the best two-of-three match play, all under the alternate shot format. Glenn defeated the Rockets' 'B' team, 221-217 and 211-140; Mott, 224-202 and 202-124; and Brighton for the title, 190-168 and 246-216.

Glenn's 'B' team qualified for match play in sixth with a total of 2,661 on Baker games of 213-223-170-201 and match games of 932-922.

In qualifying, Chris Harper was the individual leader for Glenn in match games with a 269-234-503 followed by Thomas Brusseau, 246-179-425; Kyle Hamlin, 199-203-402; and Jordon Hornes, 203-177-380. Steven White added 212, while the Rockets had a split score of 161.

But the win went all for naught because of the forfeit.

Glenn girls take ninth

Despite having to forfeit, the Rockets bounced back in the Lakeland Invitational after a ninth-place finish in Saturday's Farmington Early Bird with a set of 3,058.

"Our first tournament of the season was up and down," Glenn coach Jim Bowles said. "Our team shined in Bakers where we climbed as high as second place. Unfortunately when we switched into regular games, we struggled and fell down into ninth place. While we did not finish the way we wanted to, we still bowled well in Bakers and fought hard throughout the day.'

Glenn's total Sunday was 2,229, good enough for sixth in the qualifying. The Rockets lost to eventual tournament champ South Lyon East in match play, 2-1. East won the third and decisive game by a mere nine pins.

"Overall we bowled very well and will continue to improve throughout the season,' Bowles said.

Campbell serves up double-overtime win for Stevenson

Livonia Stevenson needed not one, but two overtime sessions Tuesday to notch its first boys basketball win of the season.

The Spartans got a sterling effort from reserve junior guard Jonathan Campbell to beat visiting Dearborn Fordson, 54-50.

The 6-foot Campbell, who finished with a game-high 16 points, scored a layup off an inbounds play to break a 50all deadlock in the second OT to catapult the Spartans to victory.

"It was an ugly win, but any win in December is good," said Stevenson coach Mike Allie, whose team is 1-1 overall. "Campbell gave us good minutes tonight off the bench."

Senior guards Bobby Naubert and Kyle Bambach chipped in with 14 and nine points, respectively, for Stevenson which led 25-17 at halftime before Fordson pulled even at 42-all at the end of regulation.

Ladywood also got 15 points from reserve sophomore pointguard Kelly Capoccia.

We got into some foul trouble and Kelly came in and handled the ball well," Cannon said. "She showed a lot of maturity and growth."

Also scoring in double figures for the Blazers was Jennifer Kelley (12) and Alyssa Anastos (10).

Jaclyn Bieniewicz tallied a game-high 24 for the Ventures, who dropped to 1-2 overall. Ladywood shot 25-of-31 from the foul stripe (80 percent), while Foley made 14-of-22 (63.6 percent).

Truman's lead remained at three, 21-18, entering the final frame where both teams man-

Blazers prove too much for Bishop Foley

BY BRAD EMONS OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The Madonna University men's basketball team was unable to parlay its biggest win of the season Friday

- falling on the second day of the 2009 State Farm Classic Saturday to visiting Rochester College, 65-61.

The 2-9 Crusaders, who upset 7-1 Notre Dame College (Ohio) on Friday, 78-72, ran out of gas down the stretch in its bid to beat the Warriors, who improved to 8-7 overall.

Four Rochester players scored in double figures led by Classic MVP Ricky Doron and Plymouth native Michael Graham with 14 each.

Marques Ewell added 12, while Adrian Shaffer II contributed 10.

Bryant Slaughter (Westland), named to the All-Tournament team, paced the Crusaders with a game-high 21 points on 8-of-16 shooting from the field. He was 5-of-9 from three-point range.

Geoff Gaylor, a 6-foot-8 junior center, added 18 points and 10 boards.

MU enjoyed a 33-31 halftime advantage and led 50-47 on a three-pointer with 8:49 remaining. But Rochester regrouped and outscored the Crusaders 18-12 down the stretch to earn the win. It was the second win for the Warriors this season over MU, the first coming Nov. 10 (82-76).

"We played hard last night and most of this game," MU coach Noel Emenhiser said. "We kind of let this game slip through our fingers.

"We were not getting the loose balls or rebounds."

With 6-7 junior Ryan Waidmann (Canton), the team's leading rebounder (6.3 per game) out this weekend for personal reasons, Emenhiser had to shorten his bench.

'We're trying to build some chemistry and we went with an eight- and nine-man rotation," the MU coach said. "Because Ryan did not play, we were kind of short, especially underneath.'

Gaylor's play during the weekend has given Emenhiser cause for encouragement. The Roscommon native nearly recorded a double-double (20 points, nine rebounds) in the win Friday over Notre Dame, which received votes in last week's NAIA Division II national poll.

"What Geoff's been doing on the court has been much better," Emenhiser said. "He's playing with confidence and poise. He's shown the ability to score in the post, which is something we've lacked."

MU will close out the 2009 calendar portion of its schedule Wednesday, Dec. 16 at Defiance College (Ohio) and Dec. 29-30 in the Russ DeVette Tournament hosted by Hope College.

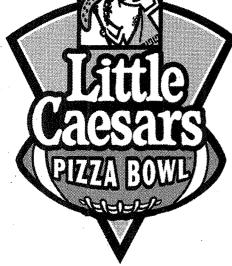

Schoolcraft routed

On Saturday, host Glen Oaks Community College improved to 9-1 overall with a convincing 117-58 non-conference victory over Schoolcraft College.

The loss drops the Ocelots to 2-11 overall.

Patriot grapplers surprise at Salem

Livonia Franklin turned a a solid effort earning runner-up honors Saturday in the Salem Invitational.

Adrian captured the team title with 284.5 points to capture the 10-team tournament. Rounding out the top five were the Patriots (224.5), Macomb Dakota (178.5), Dearborn Heights Crestwood (176) and Ypsilanti Lincoln (168).

Plymouth (144) placed sixth (144) followed by host Salem (144), Lincoln Park (136), Sterling Heights (122) and Ann Arbor Huron (50).

"I was very pleased with the way we wrestled overall," Franklin coach Dave Chiola said. "I think almost all of the guys would like to have one of their matches back from the day, but that's going to happen as they gain experience. Our goal this year was to get better every week, and I can definitely say that we are better this week than last."

Leading the way for the Patriots were individual champions Steve Tuyo (125 pounds) and Paul Hanni (130).

Earning seconds were Josh Hatfield (145) and Zach Leuenberger (189).

"I have to keep reminding myself of the lack of experience of some of the guys we have on varsity," Chiola said. "I think we're further along than I expected us to be right now, but we have a long way to go. We lose a lot of matches in the third period when we have leads and that has to stop." Contributing thirds for Franklin were Gabe Martinez (119), Matt Roos (160) and Nick Simmons (215).

"In a lot of ways, this second place trophy was more gratifying than a lot of the firsts we've taken in the past," Chiola said. "We came in voiding two weights and just wanted to get five good matches in. "Everyone contributed to the second place finish and that's what was gratifying about it."

The Shamrocks (7-0), who earned their 22nd straight win dating back to January 2009, got a goal later in the same period when Eric Fragoso scored from Waterstreet and Brad Wilhelm.

The Spartans pushed back, tying the game in the second period on Max Fox's goal from Brendan Hav and J.J. Pettersson before the Shamrocks went on a scoring rampage to win going away.

Winkler added his second goal of the night with 13:13 left in the second before Gaffney and Fragoso each collected a goal to make it a three-goal cushion, 5-2.

Winkler notched the final goal of the night in the final period to complete a hat trick.

Other CC assists went to Robert Ault, Jacob Downing, Austin Hervey, Jimmy Peplinski, Nick Crowley and Mitchell Gatt.

"It was nice to see our efforts being rewarded with pucks going into the net," CC coach Todd Johnson said. "We struggled scoring in the first five games, but the guys kept working hard and focusing on some structure ideas our staff was presenting, and they were rewarded for executing.

Netminder Danny Sager made 28-of-34 stops for the Spartans, who fall to 4-1-1 overall.

If any Bond issued under this Ordinance shall be lost, destroyed or stolen, evidence of the loss, destruction or theft may be submitted to the transfer agent and, if this evidence is satisfactory to both and indemnity satisfactory to the transfer agent shall be given, and if all requirements of any applicable law including Act 354, Public Acts of Michigan, 1972, as amended ("Act 354"), being sections 129.131 to 129.135, inclusive, of the Michigan Compiled Laws have been met, the Issuer, at the expense of the owner, shall execute, and the transfer agent shall thereupon authenticate and deliver, a new Bond of like tenor and bearing the statement required by Act 354, or any applicable law hereafter enacted, in lieu of and in substitution for the Bond so lost, destroyed or stolen. If any such Bond shall have matured or shall be about to mature, instead of issuing a substitute $% \left(\frac{1}{2}\right) =\frac{1}{2}\left(\frac{1}{2}\right)$ Bond the transfer agent may pay the same without surrender thereof.

Section 8. Payment of Series 2010A Bonds; Security. Principal of and interest on the Series 2010A Bonds shall be payable from the Net Revenues. There is hereby recognized the statutory lien upon the whole of the Net Revenues created by this Ordinance which shall be a lien that is junior and subordinate to the lien of the Senior Lien Bonds created by the Prior Ordinances, to continue until payment in full of the principal of and interest on all Bonds payable from the Net Revenues, or until sufficient cash or Sufficient Government Obligations have been deposited in trust for payment in full of all Bonds of a series then outstanding, principal and interest on such Bonds to maturity, or, if called for redemption, to the date fixed for redemption together with the amount of the redemption premium, if any. The System shall be operated on the basis of an operating year which shall coincide with the Issuer's fiscal year.

Section 10. No Free Service or Use. No free service or use of the System, or service or use of the System at less than cost, shall be furnished by the System to any person, firm, or corporation, public or private, or to any public agency or instrumentality, including the Issuer.

Section 11. Revising Rates; Rate Covenant. The rates now in effect for service by the System are estimated to be sufficient to provide for the payment of the expenses of administration and operation and such expenses for maintenance of the System as are necessary to preserve the System in good repair and working order, to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest on the Outstanding Senior Lien Bonds and the Series 2010A Bonds as the same become due and payable, and the maintenance of the reserves. if any, therefore; and to provide for all other obligations, expenditures and funds for the System required by law, the Prior Ordinances and this Ordinance. The rates shall be revised from time to time as may be necessary to produce these amounts, and it is hereby covenanted and agreed to maintain or cause to be maintained rates for services furnished by the System at all times sufficient to provide for the foregoing.

Section 12. Funds and Accounts; Flow of Funds; Junior Lien Bond and Interest Redemption Fund. All funds belonging to the System shall continue to be set aside as collected and credited to the Receiving Fund established by Ordinance No. 218, except as provided in this Ordinance. The Revenues credited to the Receiving Fund are pledged for the purposes of the funds and accounts established by Ordinance No. 218 and this Ordinance and shall be transferred or debited from the Receiving Fund periodically in the manner and at the times and in the order of priority specified in Ordinance No. 218 and this Ordinance.

Funding Existing Funds and Accounts. Junior Lien Bond and Interest Redemption Account. There is hereby established on the books of the Issuer a separate account designated Junior Lien Bond and Interest Redemption Account (the iJunior Lien Redemption Accountî). Out of the Revenues remaining in the Receiving Fund after provision for the transfers and debits described in the previous paragraph, there shall be set aside at the time of delivery of the 2010A Bonds and the first day of each fiscal quarter thereafter in the Junior Lien Redemption Account an amount equal to that fraction of the amount of interest due on the next interest payment date the numerator of which is one and the denominator of which is the number of full or partial fiscal quarters to the next interest payment date, less any amount in the Junior Lien Redemption Account representing investment income on amounts on deposit in the Junior Lien Redemption Account. Commencing the first day of the fourth fiscal quarter preceding the first principal installment payment date there shall be set aside in the Junior Lien Redemption Account an amount equal to 1/4 of the amount of principal installment next coming due. If there is any deficiency in the amount previously set aside, that deficiency shall be added to the next succeeding quarterly requirements. The amount to be set aside for the payment of principal and interest on any principal payment shall not exceed the amount which, when added to the money on deposit in the Junior Lien Redemption Account including investment income thereon, is necessary to pay principal and interest due on the Series 2010A Bonds to the next succeeding principal payment date.

Section 14. Bond Form. The Series 2010A Bonds shall be in substantially the following form with such changes or completion as necessary or appropriate to give effect to the intent of this Ordinance:

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA STATE OF MICHIGAN COUNTY OF WAYNE

CITY OF WESTLAND

WATER AND SEWER SYSTEM JUNIOR LIEN REVENUE BOND, SERIES 2010A

DATE OF ORIGINAL ISSUE:

prior thereto as hereinafter provided.

The CITY OF WESTLAND, County of Wayne, State of Michigan (the "City"), for value received, hereby promises to pay, primarily out of the hereinafter described Net Revenues of the City's Sanitary Sewer System (hereinafter defined), to the Michigan Municipal Bond Authority (the "Authority"), or registered assigns, the Principal Amount shown above, or such portion thereof as shall have been advanced to the City pursuant to a Purchase Contract between the City and the Authority and a Supplemental Agreement by and among the City, the Authority and the State of Michigan acting through the Department of Environmental Quality, in lawful

During the time the Principal Amount is being drawn down by the City under this bond, the Authority will periodically provide to the City a statement showing the amount of principal that has been advanced and the date of each advance, which statement shall constitute prima facie evidence of the reported information; provided that no failure on the part of the Authority to provide such a statement or to reflect a disbursement or the correct amount of a disbursement shall relieve the City of its obligation to repay the outstanding Principal Amount actually advanced (subject to any principal forgiveness as provided for in Schedule A), all accrued interest thereon, and any other amount payable with respect thereto in accordance with the terms of this bond.

money of the United States of America, unless prepaid or reduced

The Principal Amount shall be payable on the dates and in the annual principal installment amounts set forth on the Schedule attached hereto and made a part hereof, as such Schedule may be adjusted if less than $920,000 is disbursed to the City or if a portion of the Principal Amount is prepaid as provided below, with interest on said principal installments from the date each said installment is delivered to the holder hereof until paid at the rate of two and one-half percent (2.50%) per annum. Interest is first payable on April 1, 2010, and semiannually thereafter on the first day of April and October of each year, as set forth in the Purchase Contract.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this bond, so long as the Authority is the owner of this bond, (a) this bond is payable as to principal, premium, if any, and interest at The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. or at such other place as shall be designated in writing to the City by the Authority (the "Authority's Depository"); (b) the City agrees that it will deposit with the Authority's Depository payments of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on this bond in immediately available funds by 12:00 noon at least five business days prior to the date on which any such payment is due whether by maturity, redemption or otherwise; in the event that the Authority's Depository has not received the City's deposit by 12:00 noon on the scheduled day, the City shall immediately pay to the Authority as invoiced by the Authority an amount to recover the Authority's administrative costs and lost investment earnings attributable to that late payment; and (c) written notice of any redemption of this bond shall be given by the City and received by the Authority's Depository at least 40 days prior to the date on which such redemption is to be made.

Additional Interest

In the event of a default in the payment of principal or interest hereon when due, whether at maturity, by redemption or otherwise, the amount of such default shall bear interest (the "additional interest") at a rate equal to the rate of interest which is two percent above the Authority's cost of providing funds (as determined by the Authority) to make payment on the bonds of the Authority issued to provide funds to purchase this bond but in no event in excess of the maximum rate of interest permitted by law. The additional interest shall continue to accrue until the Authority has been fully reimbursed for all costs incurred by the Authority (as determined by the Authority) as a consequence of the City's default. Such additional interest shall be payable on the interest payment date following demand of the Authority. In the event that (for reasons other than the default in the payment of any municipal obligation purchased by the Authority) the investment of amounts in the reserve account established by the Authority for the bonds of the Authority issued to provide funds to purchase this bond fails to provide sufficient available funds (together with any other funds which may be made available for such purpose) to pay the interest on outstanding bonds of the Authority issued to fund such account, the City shall and hereby agrees to pay on demand only the City's pro rata share (as determined by the Authority) of such deficiency as additional interest on this bond.

For prompt payment of principal and interest on this bond, the City has irrevocably pledged the revenues of the Water and Sewer System of the City, including all appurtenances, extensions and improvements thereto (the "Water and Sewer System"), after provision has been made for reasonable and necessary expenses of operation, maintenance and administration (the "Net Revenues"), and a statutory lien thereon is hereby recognized and created which is junior in standing and priority of lien as to the prior liens of the City's 2006 Water and Sewer System Revenue Bonds and 1998 Water and Sewer System Revenue Bonds (the "Outstanding Bonds") and of any additional bonds of the City of equal standing and priority of lien with the Outstanding Bonds.

This bond is a single, fully-registered, non-convertible bond in the principal sum indicated above issued pursuant to Ordinance No. ___ duly adopted by the City Council of the City (the "Ordinance") and under and in full compliance with the Constitution and statutes of the State of Michigan, including specifically Act 94, Public Acts of Michigan, 1933, as amended, for the purpose of paying part of the cost of constructing additions, extensions and improvements to the Water and Sewer System of the City.

For a complete statement of the revenues from which and the conditions under which this bond is payable, a statement of the conditions under which additional bonds of equal standing may hereafter be issued and the general covenants and provisions pursuant to which this bond is issued, reference is made to the Ordinance and the Prior Ordinances.

This bond is a self-liquidating bond, payable, both as to principal and interest, from the Net Revenues of the Water and Sewer System. The principal of and interest on this bond are secured by the statutory lien hereinbefore mentioned.

The City has covenanted and agreed, and does hereby covenant and agree, to fix and maintain at all times while any bonds payable from the Net Revenues of the Water and Sewer System shall be outstanding, such rates for service furnished by the Water and Sewer System as shall be sufficient to provide for payment of the interest upon and the principal of this bond and any bonds of equal standing with this bond, the Outstanding Bonds and any additional bonds of equal standing with the Outstanding Bonds, as and when the same shall become due and payable, and to maintain a bond redemption fund (including, except for bonds of this issue, a bond reserve account) therefor, to provide for the payment of expenses of administration and operation and such expenses for maintenance of the Water and Sewer System as are necessary to preserve the same in good repair and working order, and to provide for such other expenditures and funds for the Water and Sewer System as are required by the Ordinance and the Prior Ordinances.

Principal installments of this bond are subject to prepayment by the City prior to maturity only with the prior written consent of the Authority and on such terms as may be required by the Authority.

This bond is transferable only upon the books of the City by the registered owner in person or the registered owner's attorney duly authorized in writing, upon the surrender of this bond together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the transfer agent, duly executed by the registered owner or the registered owner's attorney duly authorized in writing, and thereupon a new bond or bonds in the same aggregate principal amount and of the same maturity shall be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor as provided in the Ordinance, and upon payment of the charges, if any, therein prescribed.

It is hereby certified and recited that all acts, conditions and things required by law to be done precedent to and in the issuance of this bond have been done and performed in regular and due time and form as required by law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the City of Westland, County of Wayne, State of Michigan, by its City Council has caused this bond to be executed with the manual signatures of its Mayor and its City Clerk and the corporate seal of the City to be impressed hereon, all as of the Date of Original Issue.

Section 15. Bondholders' Rights: Receiver. The holder or holders of the Bonds representing in the aggregate not less than twenty per cent (20%) of the entire principal amount thereof then outstanding, may, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings, protect and enforce the statutory lien upon the Net Revenues of the System, and may, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings, enforce and compel performance of all duties of the officers of the Issuer, including the fixing of sufficient rates, the collection of Revenues, the proper segregation of the Revenues of the System and the proper application thereof. The statutory lien upon the Net Revenues, however, shall not be construed as to compel the sale of the System or any part thereof.

If there is a default in the payment of the principal of or interest upon the Series 2010A Bonds, any court having jurisdiction in any proper action may appoint a receiver to administer and operate the System on behalf of the Issuer and under the direction of the court, and by and with the approval of the court to perform all of the duties of the officers of the Issuer more particularly set forth herein and in Act 94.

The holder or holders of the Series 2010A Bonds shall have all other rights and remedies given by Act 94 and law, for the payment and enforcement of the Series 2010A Bonds and the security therefor.

Section 16. Additional Bonds. Except as hereinafter provided, the Issuer shall not issue additional bonds of equal standing with the Series 2010A Bonds.

The right is reserved in accordance with the provisions of Act 94 to issue additional bonds payable from the Revenues of the System which shall be of equal standing and priority of lien on the Net Revenues of the System with the Series 2010A Bonds but only for the following purposes and under the following terms and conditions:

- (a) To complete the Project in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor. Such bonds shall not be authorized unless the engineers in charge of construction shall execute a certificate evidencing the fact that additional funds are needed to complete the Project in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor and stating the amount that will be required to complete the Project.
- For subsequent repairs, extensions, enlargements and improvements to the System or for the purpose of refunding part of any Bonds then outstanding and paying costs of issuing such additional bonds. Bonds for such purposes shall not be issued pursuant to this subparagraph (b) unless the Adjusted Net Revenues of the System for the then last two (2) preceding twelve-month operating years or the Adjusted Net Revenues for the preceding twelve-month operating year shall be equal to the maximum amount of principal and interest thereafter maturing in any operating year on the then outstanding Bonds and on the additional bonds then being issued. If the additional bonds are to be issued in whole or in part for refunding outstanding Bonds, the annual principal and interest requirements shall be determined by deducting from the principal and interest requirements for each operating year the annual principal and interest requirements of any Bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the additional Bonds. For purposes of this subparagraph (b) the Issuer may elect to use as the last preceding operating year any operating year ending not more than sixteen months prior to the date of delivery of the additional bonds. Determination by the Issuer as to existence of conditions permitting the issuance of additional bonds shall be conclusive. No additional bonds of equal standing as to the Net Revenues of the System shall be issued pursuant to the authorization contained in this subparagraph if the Issuer shall then be in default in making its required payments to the Operation and Maintenance Fund or the Redemption Fund.

(c) For refunding a part or all of the Bonds then outstanding and paying costs of issuing such additional bonds including deposits which may be required to be made to the Bond Reserve Account. No additional bonds shall be issued pursuant to this subsection unless the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing in any operating year after giving effect to the refunding shall be less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing in any operating year prior to giving effect to the refunding.

Section 17. Negotiated Sale; Application to MDEQ and Authority; Execution of Documents. The Issuer determines that it is in the best interest of the Issuer to negotiate the sale of the Series 2010A Bonds to the Authority because the State Revolving Fund program provides significant interest savings to the Issuer compared to competitive sale in the municipal bond market. The Authorized Officers are hereby authorized to make application to the Authority and to the MDEQ for placement of the Series 2010A Bonds with the Authority. The actions taken by the Authorized Officers with respect to the Series 2010A Bonds prior to the adoption of this Ordinance are ratified and confirmed. The Authorized Officers are authorized to execute and deliver the Purchase Contract, the Supplemental Agreement and the Issuer's Certificate. Any Authorized Officer is further authorized to execute and deliver such contracts, documents and certificates as are necessary or advisable to qualify the Series 2010A Bonds for the State Revolving Fund. Prior to the delivery of the Series 2010A Bonds to the Authority, any Authorized Officer is hereby authorized to make such changes to the form of the Series 2010A Bonds contained in Section 14 of this Ordinance as may be necessary to conform to the requirements of Act 227, Public Acts of Michigan 1985, as amended ("Act 227"), including, but not limited to changes in the principal maturity and interest payment dates and references to additional security required by Act 227.

Section 18. Covenant Regarding Tax Exempt Status of the Bonds. The Issuer shall, to the extent permitted by law, take all actions within its control necessary to maintain the exemption of the interest on the Series 2010A Bonds from general federal income taxation (as opposed to any alternative minimum or other indirect taxation) under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), including, but not limited to, actions relating to any required rebate of arbitrage earnings and the expenditure and investment of Series 2010A Bonds proceeds and moneys deemed to be Bond proceeds.

Section 19. Approval of Bond Counsel. The representation of the Issuer by Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C. ("Miller Canfield"), as bond counsel is hereby approved, notwithstanding the representation by Miller Canfield of the Authority in connection with the State of Michigan State Revolving Fund program which may include advising the Authority with respect to this borrowing.

Section 20. Approval of Bond Details. The Authorized Officers are each hereby authorized to adjust the final bond details set forth herein to the extent necessary or convenient to complete the transaction authorized herein, and in pursuance of the foregoing is authorized to exercise the authority and make the determinations authorized pursuant to Section 7a(1)(c) of Act 94, including but not limited to determinations regarding interest rates, prices, discounts, maturities, principal amounts, denominations, dates of issuance, interest payment dates, redemption rights, the place of delivery and payment, and other matters, provided that the principal amount of Series 2010A Bonds issued shall not exceed the principal amount authorized in this Ordinance, the interest rate per annum on the Series 2010A Bonds shall not exceed two and one-half percent (2.50%) per annum, and the Series 2010A Bonds shall mature in not more than twenty (20) annual installments.

Section 21. Savings Clause. All ordinances, resolutions or orders, or part thereof, in conflict with the provisions of this Ordinance are, to the extent of such conflict, repealed.

Section 22. Severability: Paragraph Headings: and Conflict. If any section, paragraph, clause or provision of this Ordinance shall be held invalid, the invalidity of such section, paragraph, clause or provision shall not affect any of the other provisions of this Ordinance. The paragraph headings in this Ordinance are furnished for convenience of reference only and shall not be considered to be part of this Ordinance.

Section 23. Publication and Recordation. This Ordinance shall be published in full in the Observer, a newspaper of general circulation in the Issuer qualified under State law to publish legal notices, promptly after its adoption, and shall be recorded in the Ordinance Book of the Issuer and such recording authenticated by the signatures of the Mayor and the City Clerk.

Church offers service for those feeling "blue"

BY SHARON DARGAY O&E STAFF WRITER

You're too depressed to hear another Christmas carol or watch a festive Nativity pag-

Yet, you long to attend a church service this holiday

If you're not in the "holiday spirit" the second annual "Blue Christmas" service at St. John's Episcopal Church in Plymouth may be just what you need. It's designed to help you avoid seasonal hype while feeding spiritual needs at the holiday.

"Christmas can be very difficult for people. I think it exaggerates the whole season, both good and bad," said the Rev. Dorian McGlannan. "As a pastor I get annoyed at all the cultural stuff. It pulls people away from what matters in your life.

"If you've lost a job and don't have much money or your home is being foreclosed on, it's a devastating time of year. For those who won't go near a church, this is a possible place to come."

The service starts at 7 p.m., Sunday, Dec. 20, at the church, 574 Sheldon, Plymouth. It will include music, Holy Eucharist, candle lighting and a softly-lit sanctuary. Boxes of tissues will be placed among the pews.

SUBDUED SERVICE

"The Episcopal church tends to be more reflective. Our normal Christmas service is not over the top. It's joyous but not out of control."

The music is lively and includes upbeat carols. But participants at the blue service will sing more subdued music, along the lines of It Came Upon a Midnight Clear rather than Hark !the Herald Angels

"We keep the lighting as low as we can go without keeping people from being able to

Rev. McGlannan said about 30 individuals worshipped at the first blue service last year.

"We're not the originators of this. It's being done elsewhere," she said. "I knew about it but had never been to one."

The unexpected death of a congregation member in early fall last year was the catalyst for the service at St. John's.

"He was in his early 50s. His wife went out shopping, came home and found him. We knew this would be an incredibly hard Christmas for her."

Rev. McGlannan planned the service. Just before Christmas last year two other "mainstays" of the congregation died.

"The service ended up being a good thing to have in place."

FEELING BLUE

Rev. McGlannan said individuals who are in grief, "regardless of what the grief is about," may isolate themselves, especially during festive holidays. While friends gather at parties and other seasonal events, a person grieving over divorce, death, job loss, health difficulties and other problems, may "run home and hide." "This is a way to encourage them to come out of that. There still is a spiritual longing to make sense out of what the grief is."

During the service, participants will get an opportunity to light candles and place them into a sand-filled container. The idea is to pray about a person or concern while lighting the wick. The service will include all of the traditional Christmas readings, with Rev. McGlannan focusing on a thoughtful telling of the Christmas story that she hopes will resonate with participants.

REALISTIC NATIVITY

"Despite what the culture says, it's a family on the run. They've come in for the census. They're from out of town. far from home, lonely and they don't have a place to stay.

"These were dangerous times and difficult for a family without a lot of money," she said, pointing out that Mary gave birth in a stable. "It can't get more difficult than that. We can connect with this story in a lot of ways. It's not all about angels singing."

She hopes participants will leave the service feeling better and able to express their

This 'Jersey Boy' is happy to perform at home in Michigan

BY SHARON DARGAY O&E STAFF WRITER

Eric Gutman has performed with the musical hit, Jersey Boys, touring in Chicago, Ill., and on the Broadway stage. But the Farmington Hills native says he looks forward to its upcoming Detroit run because he's certain residents will respond to its gritty story.

"I think it will resonate with this city more so than any other city," said Gutman, during a phone interview from Chicago last week. He was finishing his final performances in the Windy City before heading to Motown for costume fittings and opening night, today, Dec. 17, at the Fisher Theatre.

Because of its musical history, "blue collar" identity and "grittiness," Detroit area residents will appreciate the story of Frankie Valli & The Four Seasons more than other audiences, Gutman said.

"Here's what I like about the show. Jersey Boys is about Frankie Valli & The Four Seasons, but it's a true story about these guys," he said. "People don't realize that these things really happened to them. There's something amazing about the rough time they had. They rose to the being one of the biggest groups of their "People will be floored with what they went though. It's a hard-knock story. It's not a bubble gum musical. It's a gritty show with authentic Jersey language." Gutman has been happy to help tell their story since 2007 as an ensemble cast member and understudy, first with the show's national tour and then for nearly a year on Broadway before arning the role of Norm Waxman in the Chicago show last summer. He'll play that character again for the Detroit run through Jan. 23,

His wife, Sarah, and dog, Toby, went along with him for the ride, moving from city to city for the national tour and living in New York until fall of 2008 when they moved back to Michigan to prepare for a new family member. Gutman quit the New York cast about two months later to be with his wife when she gave birth to their daughter in January this year.

BACK AT HOME

After a six-month stint Chicago, Gutman he's happy to be back in Michigan.

"I really wanted to do the show at home," he said.

Now a Royal Oak resident, Gutman, 32, graduated from Harrison High School in Farmington and went on to study musical theater performance at Western Michigan University.

"I remember acting when I was in second grade. I was Toto in the Wizard of Oz. It's I've always been a performer. I've played guitar since I was 9 years old, singing and in talent shows." Gutman played in bands over the years and has acted in regional as well as Off-Broadway productions. He earned a Detroit Wilde Awards nomination in 2007 for his performances in Hello Muddah, Hello Fadd 1h at the Jet Theatre. He stepped into various roles in Tony ਈ Tina's Wedding Off-Broadway and took the lead in both Forbidden Broadway 2001 and Forbidden Broadway" 2nd Anniversary, while living in the Big Apple.

He moved back to Michigan and worked "a desk job" after his roles in Off-Broadway plays.

"I was back home in Detroit, working 40 hours a week. I was happy doing local theater in the area. And then I found out through a friend that Jersey Boys was auditioning in Chicago."

FULFILLING A DREAM

He listened to the show's music for weeks while driving in his car and then called in sick the day of the audition. Then he called in sick again when he was called back for a second look.

"I was supposed to go to a conference in Vegas, but they needed me in New York."

The final callback in New York "was a little frightening" because the audience not only included the show's creative staff, but Frankie Valli as well. The four-hour audition landed Gutman a spot in the touring company. He hasn't looked back since. "Between the understudy and the New York tour and Chicago I've performed six different roles."

He also voiced an animated character for several episodes of a project called "International Hareport." He's waiting to hear if it will be picked up for broad-

Get ready to toast the holidays with wine sellers' picks

BY SHARON DARGAY O&E STAFF WRITER

René Parks says you can have a holiday "with sparkle" for less than $15 this

"Make your holiday sparkle, but you don't have to spend a lot of money doing

Parks, who is Westborn Market's wine expert, likes Segura Viudas' sparkling wines, particularly the Brut Reserva for toasting the

"It's flying off the shelves. This sparkling wine from Spain is quality. It retails for $8.99 and it's a Brut Cava Reserve. It's made the same way as champagne but it comes from Spain, not France."

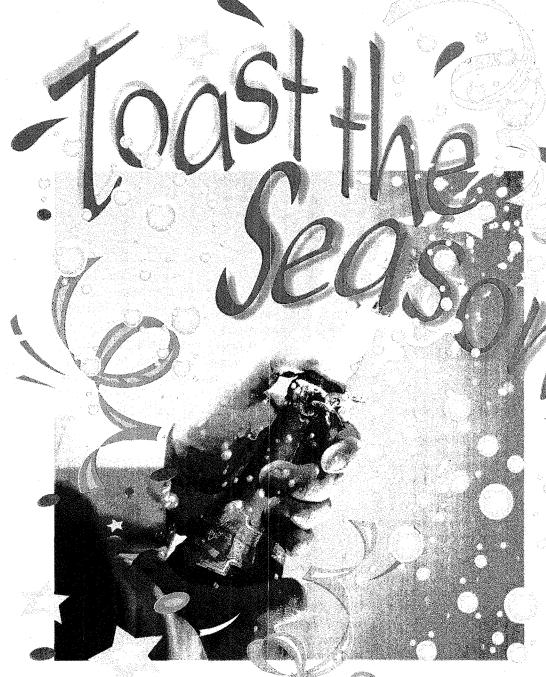

She describes it as "crisp" and delightful. "We have (Chateau) Chantal Celebrate. It's like a Brute Rose," she said, describing the Michigan-made sparkling wine.

"It's a lovely salmon color. I like to say it's the color of a Michigan sunset."

The $13.99 per bottle wine has a fruit finish with raspberry and strawberry notes.

One of Westborn Market's best-selling Michigan wines is Chateau Grand Traverse late harvest Riesling, similar to a German Spatlese. Parks said although sweet, it can be paired with foods ranging from ham to turkey to kielbasa.

"People like 'sweet' around the holidays and the Moscato di Asti are light, with 5-7 percent alcohol. They're good...crowd pleasing," Parks noted. Prices range from about $7.99 for a domestic brand to $13-$21 for authentic Italian versions.

BUBBLY PICKS

Kathy Groman, owner of Wine Styles in Livonia, would drink "bubbles every day all day long" if she could. "I love them.
I hope Michigan catches on to the bubbles," she said. "People here have a misconception that bubbles are for celebration. We've done several tastings and we encourage people to pair their food with bubbles."

oubbles."

Groman offers both true

champagne and sparkling wine recommendations in the "bubbles" category.

Her suggestions for breakfast bubbles include Louis Roederer Brut Premier, a true champagne, (meaning it's from France), that retails for about $44.99 a bottle. "It's not just for breakfast," she added.

She also likes Mawby's
Jadore, from L. Mawby winery in Suttons Bay.

"Larry Mawby is known as one of the premier sparkling wine makers in the country," she said, explaining that Jadore is made in a style called "methode champenoise." It's the same method used to make champagne in France.

"The nice thing about Jadore is that it's a demisec. It means semi-sweet, but not totally sweet."

A bottle of Jadore

retails for about $19.99. Groman's food-pairing picks include a true ing picks include a true champagne, Chartogne-Paillet, retailing for approximately $49.99 and a domestic sparkling wine called Sharffenberger, at about $21.99.

She said the champagne is perfect for a buffet of appetizers.

The Sharffenberger "has a little more depth."

"When it comes to food wine, I like something deeper. Some bubbles are light and don't have much going on. You can drink it by itself. This has more to it, pinot noir mostly and chardonnay."

Groman's favorite party pick is "always Dom Pérignon." But in a more reasonable price range, (around $40) the Schramsberg brut rose made in the methode champenoise style, is perfect for toasting.

"They were the first domestic wine used during the inauguration at the White House. During Nixon's inauguration. They decided they wanted something domestic," Groman noted.

EXPENSIVE DRINK

Mark George, owner of Wine Barrel Plus in Livonia, said he will toast the New Year with '82 Dom Pérignon. It's listed on the Wine Barrel Web site for about $530.

But many of his customers will buy a champagne called Veuveclicquot Ponsardin that sells for between $40-$50 a bottle.

He also sells the effervescent Muscato di Asti in more than 50 varieties and says the wine makes a great dessert drink.

"We've been doing well with a German wine that's not too sweet and not too dry. It has been flying out of here," he said, referring to Kreuznacher Kronenberg, a 2006 vintage Spatlese.

"It normally sells for $17, but I've had it for $13.99 It's done phenomenal for us."

George said many of his customers prefer sweet red wines.

"It's a category no one touches on. But we have high quality sweet Cabernets and Merlots, especially good sweet Michigan wines."

Westborn Market has stores in Berkley, Dearborn and Livonia. It's Livonia store is located at 14925 Middlebelt. (734) 524-1000. Wine Styles is located at 17386 Haggerty, Livonia; (734) 464-9600. Wine Barrel Plus is at 30303 Plymouth, between Middlebelt and Merriman, in Livonia; (734) 522-WINE.

I have lived in Westland most of my life, other than my U.S. Navy career where I served as a Search and Rescue medic, and truly have a lot of faith in this city and love the community. A funny story to illustrate just how little most people know about computers and why I feel we are so important to the community is: we had a customer call about an issue. When we told them that we needed them to bring their tower in so we could diagnose it, they brought the computer screen and NOT the tower. We try not to embarrass people. Jade Scientific moves Jade Scientific Inc., a Michigan-based distributor of laboratory supplies, equipment and chemicals, moved its distribution center to a new, state-of-the-art facility in Westland. The Jade Scientific facility had been located in Canton for more than 10 years.

"We enjoyed being a part of the Canton community for more than a decade, and we're now looking forward to meeting business owners in Westland and across Michigan," said Michael Smolin, owner and president of Jade

Scientific. "Our Michiganbased customers recognize that keeping their business in the state results in a higher level of service and competitive pricing. It's a priority for us to maintain those relationships and provide our customers with the best customer service we can."

Jade Scientific serves thousands of laboratories across the country with tens of thousands of products from lab chemicals to glass containers, and from gloves to testing equipment to lab furniture. The new, 24,000-square-foot facility will provide muchneeded storage space and will allow warehouse personnel to implement faster and safer distribution methods. Jade's management said the layout of the new warehouse also will make it easier for Jade to begin looking at new "green" initiatives that will make the company more environmentally friendly. Jade Scientific is ISO 9001/2000 certified.

The new Jade Scientific warehouse and distribution facility is located at 39103 Warren Road, Westland.

Identity theft warning

Thieves continue to increase their fraudulent attempts to steal individuals' personal account and financial information over the phone, by e-mail or by text messages. Co-op Services Credit Union is actively encouraging its members to beware of anyone requesting confidential information unless they initiate the contact.

"We work year-round to protect our members and help them keep their money safe, but we want to make sure they know that thieves don't take a holiday," said Lisa Fawcett, marketing director of Co-op Services Credit Union. "Anyone who has an account with a credit union or another financial institution needs to be aware of the elaborate ways that thieves will try to steal your personal account information."

Typically known as "phishing" scams, thieves use a method call "war dialing" to acquire cell phone numbers or e-mail addresses. Then, they blast out thousands of text messages, phone calls or e-mails, hoping that a few of the recipients are members or customers of a particular financial institution that they've attacked.

The message may indicate that your account has been frozen or compromised and that you must respond with your account number, 16-digit card number, personal identification number (PIN), card expiration date or other personal information. Once this information is obtained, the thieves can then try to access the funds in the account. We're asking our members to e-mail us at abuse@cscu. org as soon as possible if they are the recipient of a phishing attempt," said Fawcett.

"This not only alerts us to help members avoid loss, but it also alerts our fraud detection partner who shuts down the phone numbers and Web sites of phishing attempts."

For more information, call (800) 321-8570.
