IN BRIEF

Promotions

Three veteran Westland police officers have new duties following promotions made by Mayor William Wild.

Greg Angelosanto has been promoted to deputy chief. He has more than 20 years on the job and most recently was the lieutenant in charge of the Detective Bureau and has held numerous high-level positions as a lieutenant.

Jeffrey Jedrusik has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant and has assumed command of the night shift. He has 15 years of service. He was assigned to the special Investigations Unit prior to the promotion.

Richard Kummert has been promoted to the rank of sergeant after spending 13 years as an officer. He is a longtime member of the Tactical Response unit and has worked in both special investigations and patrol.

"The Westland Police Department upholds the highest standards in safety and community relations and the experience the promoted officers have exemplifies these principles," said Wild in announcing the promotions.

Corn Roast

Everyone is welcome, and the corn roast will take place rain or shine.

In addition to corn, there will be hot dogs donated by Mr. Mike's Grill of Westland, picnic sides, s'mores, games and prizes. Six backpacks filled with school supplies will be raffled off.

Free packs

Westland Mayor William Wild will be distributing free backpacks to low-income families with children in kindergarten through 12th grades 1-4 p.m. Monday at the Wayne Westland Salvation Army, 2300 Venoy.

The goal is to distribute 200 backpacks filled with supplies including notebooks, pencils, paper, folders, rulers and more to families in need of assistance.

All recipients must pre-register by call (734) 722-3660. This event is on a first come first served basis.

Council turns down request for bucket drive

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A Westland man has received a thumbs down to his request to hold a bucket drive charity fund-raiser at Ford and Wayne Road due in part to safety concerns.

Stephen Shiner asked for permission to collect money from motorists as part of his efforts to raise money for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. Shiner is working to raise $6,800 for the charity to participate in a half marathon in Orlando, Fla.

"I have concerns that this will open the doors for any group in the city or individuals to do this," said Councilman Dewey Reeves, a concern shared by other council members.

Holding a variety of other fund-raisers in addition to the proposed bucket drive, Shiner said he would have four people at the intersection wearing T-shirts identifying the charity and safety vests.

"You've allowed other groups to do this, it's bias not to allow it," said Shiner, who added he was flexible on which intersection would be used for the collection.

Along with concerns that the bucket drive request was coming from an individual, council members noted that only four other groups, all local to Westland, have been allowed to conduct charity bucket drives in recent year — police, firefighters, the Salvation Army and the Westland Lions.

"We've tried to limit this in the past. We've turned other groups down. We've tried to phase out the Goodfellows (from street solicitations)," said Councilman Michael Kehrer. "We've only allowed those four groups and have refused other groups due to safety concerns. I'm sympathetic to your cause but we have indeed steered people away from this."

Councilman Bill Johnson, who joined Councilwoman Christine Bryant in casting the only votes in favor of allowing the bucket drive, said council members had been concerned that the request came from an individual.

"The other groups have their base here, I think it sets a dangerous precedent," said Council President James Godbout. "We have a (American Cancer Society) Relay for Life each year. What if those teams wanted to be on the corner? We'd have someone on the corner each week and that's just the American Cancer Society."

Big step: First Step to build new housing facility

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

First Step's new emergency housing will be to the rear of it Family Center on Venoy at Annapolis in Wayne and have 12 apartment-like suites to house victims of violence and their families.

The ceremonial first shovelfuls of dirt may have been turned over for the new emergency residential housing First Step will add to its Family Center in Wayne, but help is still needed.

Formerly known as First Step: Western and Downriver Wayne County Project on Domestic and Sexual Violence, the Plymouth-based nonprofit is still looking for in-kind and financial donations to complete the $5.5 million project which will be built behind its Family Center on 4400 Venoy at Annapolis in Wayne.

"People who need help won't come to an old, dark building, they'll be able to stay in a building that matches the spirit of the program," said Theresa Bizo, associate director of First Step. "It's just incredible all of the little things that have come together for this."

The organization has raised $4.5 million, due in large part to a pledge from Wayne County for $1.4 million in U.S. Department of Housing and Urban

Radio Disney rocks mall with back-to-school event

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Westland Shopping Center will be rockin' Saturday when Radio Disney AM 910 stops by the mall to celebrate back to school.

Radio Disney will be at the mall noon to 3 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 28, to celebrate Back 2 School, powered by Co-op Services Credit Union and Wayne-Westland Community Schools.

"It's a chance to celebrate back to school and promote the community and school district," said Patrick Derrig, mall marketing director. "The idea is to make it one-stop shopping, learn about the schools and celebrate our community."

"It's a fun kick-off to back to school and to reach out to the community," added Wayne-Westland Deputy Superintendent Charlotte Sherman. "It's one more avenue to go to parents and bring our resources to them."

There will be a back to school fashion show, a chance to win $5,000 in a dance contest and tickets to see the Jonas Brothers LIVE in Concert Sept. 1 at DTE Energy Music Theatre in Auburn Hill as part of the event.

According to Derrig, selected mall merchants will be showcasing clothes in the fashion show that the audience will be able to win, with no purchase necessary, by filing out entry forms available in the stores. Featured will be Forever 21, J.C. Penney, Macy's, American Eagle, Kohl's and Sears.

"We're very excited to have a line of clothing and accessories that can be modeled in the show and then won afterward," Derrig said.

Chloe Bridges from Disney Channel's Camp Rock 2: The Final Jam, will be making a special appearance at 2:30 p.m. to meet and answer questions from the audience. Bridges is the newest cast member of Camp Rock and is Nick Jonas's love interest in the film.

"The Camp Rock 2 CD is out, but the DVD hasn't been released yet," said Derrig. "This is a huge, huge event for Disney and we're glad to be in the forefront."

Also "huge" is the chance to win four VIP back stage tickets to see the Jonas Brothers with Demi Lovato and Friends from Camp Rock at DTE, only during the Radio Disney event at the mall.

Feud leads to charges in beating of Westland teen

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Ongoing bad blood between two groups of friends and a broken window ended with a Westland teenager hospitalized in intensive care early Aug. 15.

A Westland woman and her son have been charged with assaulting and severely injuring a teenager they suspected of breaking a window at their home early Aug. 15.

Angela Chapman, 36, and her son Steven Chapman, 18, have both been charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm less than murder. Westland 18th District Court Judge Sandra Cicirelli set bond for Angela Chapman at $500,000/10 percent and $750,000 cash for Steven Chapman. Not guilty pleas were entered for each of the Chapmans.

Charges are pending against an Inkster man, 20, who is related to the Chapmans, and his friend, a 19-year-old Westland resident, who are accused of participating in the attack on the teenager.

"The victim was hit, stomped, kicked and kneed until he was unconscious, then the assault continued after that," said Westland police Sgt. David Zucchetto. "The responding officers thought that he had been hit by a car. He spent two days in the intensive care unit."

He's out of the hospital but he has a long road ahead of him to recovery."

The victim suffered severe head and facial injuries, Zucchetto said, with a possible broken vertebrae.

The incident began just before 1:30 a.m. when a group, gathered in the rear yard of the Chapman home on North Inkster Road, north of Warren Road, heard glass breaking at the front of the house.

A group of five or six people were seen running from the house. Zucchetto said the group incorrectly thought a girl they knew had been assaulted there. The Chapmans and the other two men were reported to have chased the group, catching up with the victim who was pulled to the ground, then attacked.

When officers arrived, the victim was found lying on the ground and unresponsive. The officer noted both his eyes were severely swollen and his shoe was in the curb lane of Inkster Road.

When officers went to talk with Angela Chapman, they said she used obscenities as she admitted beating the teen because she was tired of her windows being broken. She was arrested at that time while Steven Chapman turned himself in at the police station later in the day.

When he was interviewed, Zucchetto said that Steven Chapman also admitted assaulting the teenager, who he didn't know personally. Steven Chapman told police that he has had a several-month simmering dispute with friends of the victim and that the teen was assaulted because he was the slowest of the group in running away.

Steven Chapman, the two men expected to be charged and other guests present at the North Inkster Road home all admitted to underage drinking, according to Zucchetto.

A preliminary examination has been scheduled for Angela and Steven Chapman on Thursday in 18th District Court.

Co-op Credit Union Services also is letting mall goers learn the cool moves It's On from Camp Rock 2. Dancers will have their performances videotaped in front of a green screen and then they will be uploaded to the Internet where people will vote for the best dancer. The winner will receive a $5,000 cash prize.

This is the second time Wayne-Westland has partnered with Radio Disney and Westland Shopping Center, and according to Sherman, the "second time is bigger and better."

The school district will have representatives from its transportation department, preschool program and William D. Ford Career Technical Center on hand to talk to answer parents' questions and provide information on resources available to the community like adult education. Career Tech's culinary arts instructor chef Tony Paquette also will be providing samples of desserts made at the center. Members of the John Glenn High School band and Wayne Memorial High School cheer squad and JROTC also will be at the event.

"It's a way to go to the community and give them information on our programs," said Sherman. "It's a way to build excitement, look forward to going back to school and to say we can't wait to have you back."

The event will be in the East Court, starting at noon, and Derrig said the mall is ready to welcome a crowd.

"We want as many people to come as possible to come and help the mall celebrate public education, meet the school administration, register for school and become a part of a great community," he said.

Westland Shopping Center is at Wayne and Warren roads in Westland. For more information, call the mall at (734) 421-0291 or visit the website at www.westlandcenter.com.

Community Garden provides first harvest

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

It's still the growing season but the first harvest at Westland's Community Garden brought 230 pounds of fresh produce.

"The garden is doing very well, it's not even harvest time. We got tomatoes — lots of tomatoes like everyone — green and red peppers, squash and jalapeno peppers," said Westland Planning Director Bruce Thompson, city coordinator for the garden, a partnership between the city and DTE Energy.

The produce generated by the garden is donated to the Gleaners Community Food Bank. Located behind a DTE Energy facility at 38155 Cherry Hill, Westland's Community Garden covers about one acre. It's one of 10 community gardens sponsored by DTE throughout the metro area.

"We did plant some corn which is taller than me. The broccoli and some of the leafier stuff is not doing as well. I think that is due to not watering," said Thompson, adding that after this first year the crops can be adjusted based on what is best suited for the site's soil.

The garden, planted and tended to by volunteers, is getting watered now thanks to the efforts of Westland Department of Public Services Superintendent William "Benny" McCusker. Using a hose confiscated from someone who had illegally hooked into the city water system and a golf course sprinkler, the garden is no longer depending on Mother Nature for watering.

Volunteers are needed to help work in the garden 4-7 p.m. each Wednesday, weeding and eventually harvesting. Gleaners serves children, seniors, disabled people, working families and other individuals in need of emergency food.

"We get eight-15 people out on a Wednesday, it depends on the day and time. My wife and I go out there," said Thompson.

Development HOME funds and a donation from Karen Colina Wilson which helped in the acquisition of the Family Center, a former Ford-UAW building.

At the ground breaking, Judy Ellis, First Step's executive director for more than 30 years, told guests that it was "a celebration of those who had that passion and vision."

"Their enthusiasm and commitment will be transformed into walls and windows and brick — a solid structure that will be an important part of the safety net in Wayne County," she said. "Our plan all along was to build a facility where each one of us and our loved ones would feel safe, comfortable, empowered and supported should we ever need a place to be safe from violence in our homes."

"In these challenging economic times, statistics show that domestic violence increases," said Wayne County Executive Robert Ficano, who participated in the ground breaking. "This facility will empower victims of domestic violence and provide them with security and safety."

The new residential facility will be attached to the west side of the Family Center and be capable of housing up to 50 people. The 12 apartment-like suites will have a private bath, small kitchen and living areas,

CHILL AT THE JOE

First Step has many ways to help further its mission to help women and families overcome domestic violence and sexual abuse. One way is attending its second annual Chill at the Joe Sunday, Oct. 10, at Joe Louis Arena. The event features a variety of crafts, games, entertainment, all-you-can-eat "game day fare" as well as a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to tour the Red Wings locker room. Guests can bring their own skates or rent a pair of skates to take a few laps on the ice at Joe Louis Arena and participate in hockey feats of skill. Individual tickets are $30 for adults and $20 for kids, and are available through First Step. Individual tickets also will be available at the door. Sponsorship opportunities also are available and range from the $10,000 title sponsorship to as little as $250 for a support sponsor. The sponsorship deadline is Oct. 1. Net proceeds from sponsorships and ticket sales will be donated to First Step, www.firststep-mi.org, which provides a safe place to stay, a 24-hour help line, counseling, advocacy, assault response, legal support, children's programs and other essential services designed to support victims of domestic and sexual violence and their families. More information and ticket order forms can be found on the First Step website at www.firststep-mi.org.

added. The new facility is a far cry from previous First Step emergency housing. Initially, the agency used a former group home at Five Mile and Sheldon and then bought a former nursing home on Ridge west of Beck. The latter facility, which First Step used for more than 20 years, is closed due to its condition and the families are in temporary housing until the new facility is ready some time in the spring or summer of 2011. The old building is slated to be torn down and the 10 acres it sits on sold, according to Bizoe.

In 2008-09, First Step served 16,480 individuals. It provide 8,730 nights of sheltering and handled 18,757 crisis calls on its 24-hour helpline. It also provided 6,508 hours of counseling for adults and 1,569 hours for children. "This building is long overdue," said Ellis, who has led the organization since its early days in a white house at Nankin Mills in Westland. "We are so grateful to all of the generous individuals, groups and government entities who gave time, and financial support to make this campaign a success."

Unlike the two former buildings, the locations of which were kept secret, the new facility will not be in hiding, due in part to the availability of information through the Internet and GPS technology. However, the agency will be "universally vigilant" to protect survivors and their families with secure parking and good security, Bizoe said.

For now, First Step's staff and volunteers are looking for people to help in raising the remaining $1 million to finish and furnish the new facility. Donations can be dropped off 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday or mailed to First Step's Plymouth office at 44567 Pinetree Drive, off Sheldon near Ann Arbor Road, 48170. For more information, call (734) 416-1111.

For more information about First Step, visit www.firststep-mi.org. The agency is also on www.myspace.com/firststep4 and Facebook.

Police seek culprits in five business break-ins

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Westland police are investigating simultaneous break-ins at five adjoining businesses early Thursday morning.

The front glass doors or windows were broken at the business shortly before 2:30 a.m. The businesses, which include Nikki's Cleaners, Discount Jewelry, Curves, Cottage Inn Pizza and Coco Beach Tanning, are located in the same strip center in the 8300 block of North Wayne Road north of Central City Parkway.

A security guard at the nearby Art Van Furniture store told police he heard voices and saw about five males standing in front of Westland Smoke Shop, 8335 N. Wayne Road. That business has an overhead light.

The security guard said he returned to his vehicle to get his cell phone so he could call police. As he went back to his vehicle, the security guard told police he heard glass breaking. After calling police, he said he returned to where he could see the smoke shop but the men were gone.

A Michigan State Police tracking dog came to the scene and followed a track to the southeast corner of the Woodcrest apartment complex before the scent was lost.

Reported stolen were:
• A estimated $80 in cash and a flat screen television, valued at $100, from Coco Beach Tanning with $100 estimated damage to the glass front door.

• $200 in cash from Nikki's Cleaners, which reported $500 damage to the glass front door;

• A sterling silver chain and cross, assorted sterling silver chains and bracelets, birthstones and assorted other glass rings, valued at $300, from

Discount Jewelry;
• $300 in cash from Cottage Inn Pizza which reported $500 damage to the glass front door;

Nothing was reported missing from Curves, where the front desk area appeared to have been searched and an interior office door had been kicked in.

Police also believe an earlier break-in at Toarmina's Pizza, 8006 N. Wayne Road, may be related to the five other break-ins. Between 10:30 p.m. Aug. 18 and 6:30 a.m. Aug. 18, someone was reported to have thrown a large cinder block through the front window of the business. Reported stolen was $100 from the cash register.

Anyone with information about the break-ins is asked to call Sgt. David Zucchetto at (734) 467-3248.

Income tax applies to severance; IRA conversion depends on individual

Q: Dear Rick: I am single, in my mid-50s and have been unemployed since the beginning of the year. My main source of income is severance pay which continues until the end of the year. Is my severance pay taxable? Would it make sense to convert my existing IRA into a Roth IRA? I'm thinking of taking classes at a community college to qualify for a job. Can I deduct the cost of classes on my tax return?

A: I would love to give you good news with regards to your severance pay, however, I cannot. Your severance pay is subject to ordinary income taxes. Whether you receive a lump sum severance check or it is paid over time, it is still taxable.

Money Matters

In fact, many people are surprised to learn that depending upon one's individual situation, unemployment benefits are taxed. Because your severance pay is subject to income tax, make sure your former employer is withholding money for income tax purposes or that you are making estimated payments. It is always important to remember that taxes are due on a quarterly basis, not on a yearly basis. Returns are due yearly, taxes must be paid quarterly.

Should you convert to a Roth IRA? The following are the rules that I've developed and can help in making the decision.

The first is you must have the money to pay the tax (you must pay taxes on the money that you are converting) without touching the money. This year, the rules are somewhat different because you have options. You can spread your conversion tax liability over 2011 and 2012 or pay the entire tax liability in 2010.

There is no one best option. The key is determining what best fits your individual tax situation.

Secondly, make sure that converting the money won't throw you into a higher tax bracket. And finally be sure you are able to leave the money in the Roth IRA for a minimum of five years. If you meet those qualifications then a Roth conversion makes sense. However, keep in mind that with the job market still difficult at best and with little improvement expected in the near future, you must consider whether you want to use your resources to go through the conversion. I think it is important that you consider your cash flow needs over the next few years before you do the conversion.

As to the education expenses, the criteria for determining whether the tuition payments are deductible is whether furthering your education enhances your skills or qualifies you for a new career.

For example, if you are an accountant and take classes that are related (a tax class) you would have a deduction. On the other hand, if you are an accountant and you take classes to become an actuary the expense is not deductible.

Look at your individual situation to make the determination as to whether your tuition is deductible or not. The key is whether it is continuing education, which is deductible, or education that qualifies you for a totally new position or job, which is not deductible.

Good luck!

Woman tells police man urinated on her car

Urinating in public

A woman leaving the Sports Venue Bar at closing time at about 2 a.m. Aug. 19 called police when she allegedly saw a patron she knew from her work as a bartender at the Crystal Bar in Westland urinating on her 2004 Saturn Vue.

GARDEN CITY

When she yelled at him, he allegedly pushed her to the ground. He also allegedly opened the driver's side door and urinated on the front seat. He reportedly left as a passenger in a car that drove northbound on Middlebelt.

When police arrived about 3 a.m., they reportedly found urine on the auto, the driver's seat and driver's side tire.

The 28-year-old Garden City woman reportedly wants to prosecute the man.

Home invasion

When a Garden City woman returned from a trip up north, she found several items stolen from her house in the 370 block of Lytle Place sometime between Aug. 13-18.

She acknowledged she probably left her house unlocked. Police did not find evidence of forced entry. Jewelry, cash, a laptop, PlayStation 3, a Wii game system and a TV were taken,

Theft

Expensive lawn equipment was stolen from the back of International Extrusions sometime between 9-10 a.m. Aug. 15.

A worker said he left the equipment for just a short time. A truck and trailer were parked behind the business located at 5800 N. Venoy. Mowers, an edger and a weed whacker were stolen.

Stolen car

Someone stole a 1998 Oldsmobile Regency from a home in the 31400 block of Block sometime between Aug. 16-17. The vehicle was parked under a carport at the apartment complex.

Property damage

A woman who lives in the 29500 block of Bock said that her 2001 Ford Explorer sustained different types of damage ever since she moved back into the family home.

She reported that sometime between Aug. 17-18 someone "keyed" the passenger side door and hood. Previous to that, her car was covered in grease, wrapped in plastic and had all four tires punched.

Obscene phone calls

Garden City Police ordered a 19-year-old Westland man to stop calling a 17-year-old Garden City woman.

When the woman told him she no longer wanted to date him, he allegedly made frequent, harassing and obscene phone calls and text messages which were derogatory and sometimes threatening in nature.

After an officer warned the man to stop, he found out that another Garden City officer had previously spoken to the man about the matter, police said.

The man, who was cited, said that he "was being stupid," according to the report.

Work tools stolen from truck

Larceny from a vehicle

On Aug. 11, a resident in the 32000 block of Ontonagon Court told police that someone entered his locked vehicle and stole his work tools. The missing tools included a locking extension set, an 85-piece general service set, ratchets and wrenches. No damage was reported to the pickup truck.

WESTLAND

Burglary

A resident of an apartment in the 6500 block of Yale told police Aug. 15 that someone kicked her apartment door, damaging the door and frame. Reported missing were a fishing pole, tackle box and vehicle title.

Larceny

A resident in the 800 block of Denice told police Aug. 11 that a mini bike and World War II rifle were missing from her garage. She reportedly said sometime in early June, a 20-year-old neighbor was helping her move furniture and admired the rifle. The man asked if he could have a mini bike that was in the garage and the woman said she agreed to let him have it.

The man left the mini bike in the driveway for two weeks, she said, because he was supposed to be coming back to pick it up with a friend's truck. After he failed to return, the woman said she put the mini bike back in her garage. On July 17, the woman said she noticed the mini bike was missing. She said she then checked and found the rifle was also missing.

The woman reportedly told the officer she suspected the neighbor due to his interest and the fact that he knew she kept a door unlocked.

There was no indication why there was a gap between when the items were missed and the report was filed.

Participants sought for Angela Hospice walk

Individuals, families, and friends can walk in honor of the loved ones they've lost when Angela Hospice holds its third Walk of Remembrance Saturday, Sept. 25.

The walk will begin at Madonna University in Livonia. Registration will open at 8 a.m., with the opening ceremony at 9 a.m.

"The Walk of Remembrance is a wonderful event for anyone who has lost a loved one," said Syndie Best, volunteer coordinator for Angela Hospice. "It's a chance to set aside a couple of hours in our very busy lives and choose to remember the ones we love who have passed on. The beautiful surroundings of the walk route are enhanced by musicians and volunteers placed along the way. At the end of the walk, having an opportunity to decorate a rock with the name of a loved one is a very moving experience."

Last year more than 500 people participated in the Walk of Remembrance, and an even greater response is expected this year. The walk is a 2.3-mile route through the grounds of the Felician Sisters, including Madonna University, the Central Convent, Ladywood High School and Angela Hospice.

Northville resident and hospice nurse Kathleen Pidruzny attended the event in 2009, as well as in 2008. Each year Pidruzny brought eight of her friends and family with her.

"It's a beautiful walk," said Pidruzny. "They loved it. They thought it was so peaceful."

So Pidruzny responded favorably to the opportunity to form

Westland resident Syndie Best performs an inspirational song at the 2009 Walk of Remembrance opening ceremony, attended by more than 500 people.

a Walk of Remembrance Team this year.

Event coordinator Barb Iovan explained that this is the first year participants have been encouraged to form teams.

"Participants have been so positive about the event," said Iovan.

"This year we are inviting people to form teams as a way to both memorialize their loved ones and at the same time raise funds for Angela Hospice programs, while bringing friends and family together."

Individuals can register in advance for the Walk of Remembrance by calling Iovan at (734) 953-6045, or downloading a registration form at www.angelahospice.org. Registration includes a commemorative T-shirt, ribbon, craft and refreshments. Fees for adults are $20 in advance (or $25 day of), children ages 6-12 are $5; children age 5 and under are free and do not need to register.

All proceeds from the Walk of Remembrance will benefit

Angela Hospice's programs for terminally ill patients and their families, including free grief support counseling which is available to anyone in the community.

"We really hope to see the community come out to support this event," said Iovan. "It's a wonderful day and supports an important cause."

Mall hosts hazardous waste collection

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Wayne County residents have an opportunity to dispose of hazardous household waste and maybe get in a little shopping.

Westland Shopping Center is joining with Wayne County in hosting their second annual Hazardous Waste Collection 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 28. The collection, which is done from vehicles, will be on the west side of the mall at Warren Road and Nankin Boulevard in the parking lot behind J.C. Penney.

"Based on the line up last year, I would get there early, they kept it open later last year," said Westland Council President James Godbout. "We appreciate everyone's patience. They did a great job of routing people so that they didn't interfere with the mall traffic."

Household hazardous waste that will be accepted includes household paint, antifreeze, stains, dyes, floor wax, non-controlled substance pharmaceutical waste, automotive and dry cell batteries, fire extinguishers and nail polish. The collection will also accept computer CPUs, monitors, printers, scanners, keyboards, mice, cell phones, fax machines, copiers and televisions.

Items that will not be accepted include commercial waste, appliances, refrigerators, tires, microwaves, concrete, explosives and ammunition.

People participating in the drop-off will receive a voucher from Westland Shopping Center that can be redeemed at the Customer Service booth in the East Court for a free eco-friendly shopping bag, while supplies last, filled with goodies, discount cards and coupons from mall merchants.

There's also a chance to win a $250 Westland Center gift card.

For information about disposing non-accepted materials, call the Wayne County Resource Recovery Coordinator at (734) 326-3936. For more information about the household hazardous waste collection, call the Wayne County Department of Public Services at the same number.

August is Audio Book Appreciation Month

Originally created in the early 1930s as part of an initiative to provide books for the visually handicapped, audio books are now in wide use and among the fastest-growing areas of the publishing world.

Recorded books, once confined to cassette tape or compact disc format, are now also available as audio downloads to be played on one's computer or mp3 player, or on pre-programmed portable players called Playaways. They're a great way to make up for lost reading time or to make commuting or exercise more entertaining.

In addition to telling us a great story, audio books sometimes contain extra material, such as performances of songs and poetry relevant to the story, or a message from the author or reader.

Some audio books are read by the author, some by a professional actor and others by a full cast of performers. Excellence in audio book production is recognized by the Audie Awards, given each year by the Audio Publishers Association.

Check out these Audie Award-winning titles:

- "The Help by Kathryn Stockett" (multiple readers).
- "Duma Key" by Stephen King (read by John Slattery).

for your listening pleasure. You can also download digital versions of public domain audio books at <http://librivox.org/>. Please feel free to give us a call (734-326-6123), check the online catalog (catalog.westlandlibrary.org) or stop by the library to learn more about our selection of audio books.

Highlighted Activities

Super Smash Bros. Brawl, Final Tournament: 3:30-8:30 p.m. Aug. 24, ages 15-29

Play Super Smash Bros. Brawl and compete in our first-ever Wii video game tournament. Warm up with open play from 3:30-4 p.m., when the tournament begins. Participants must be signed in by 4 p.m., or you won't be able to play! Bring your own controller, if you can't win without it! This is the last tournament of the summer. All results from previous tournaments will be compiled, and prizes will be awarded!

Science Fiction/Fantasy Book Club: 7 p.m. Aug. 25

Join us for a discussion of Jane Austen and Seth Grahame-Smith's "Pride and Prejudice and Zombies." In what's described as an "expanded edition" of "Pride and Prejudice," 85 percent of the original text has been preserved but fused with "ultraviolet zombie mayhem." Added to the familiar plot turns that bring Elizabeth and Mr. Darcy together is the fact that both are highly skilled killers, gleefully slaying zombies on the way to their happy ending. Copies will be available a month before at the Reference Desk.

Friday Night After-Hours Movies will resume Sept. 10. Plan to join us another season of Academy Award hopefuls.

After Hours Theatre looks at Peanuts gang 10 years later

If you like Charlie Brown, the characters will be familiar in Barefoot Productions' inaugural After Hours Theatre production of Dog Sees God: Confessions of a Teenage Blockhead at 10 p.m. Friday-Saturday, Aug. 27-28.

Co-directed by Nathan Corliss and Barefoot's artistic director, Craig A. Hane, this "unauthorized parody" by Bert V. Royal imagines the beloved Peanuts gang 10 years later as dysfunctional high school seniors, dealing with such topics as drugs, acceptance, sex, alcohol, pyromania and violence. The philosopher has become a drug addict, the sporty girl sexually popular, the filthy child a germaphobe (but no less filthy), the musician an outcast, and man's best friend has passed away.

Barefoot's After Hours Theatre will feature a selection of shorter plays that lend themselves to slightly more risqué subject matter than the main stage productions. Shows vary and are peppered throughout the season, but may include such plays as Midnight Catechism, Miss Margarita's Way and My

Members of the cast rehearse a scene from Barefoot Productions' "Dog Sees God: Confessions of a Teenage Blockhead" that will be presented Friday-Saturday, Aug. 27-28.

First Time among others.

"The concept behind our 'After Hours' theatre is that there are some fantastic plays out there, but they may not be entirely suitable for all audiences," said Hane. "Being true to our mission - bringing unique, quality productions to the stage - it was important that we crafted a 'venue' that would allow flexibility to perform some 'out-of-the-box' shows. Dog Sees God: Confessions of a Teenage Blockhead is a great opener because while it contains adult humor and language, it's a well-constructed play that's a lot of fun."

Dog Sees God: Confessions

of Teenage Blockhead opens with a once-familiar Charlie Brown mourning the death of his adored dog. Spurred by the tragedy, CB questions if life after death exists and tries to seek answers as well as consolation from his childhood friends. However, each friend is battling their own demons and struggling to find their way in what has become a very real and cruel world. Patrons are cautioned that the production contains offensive language and adult themes which may not be appropriate for those under age 18. Viewer discretion is advised.

"I remember sitting on my Pop's knees and watching the Peanuts' broadcasts; I grew up with them. It's funny how the Peanuts gang has remained eight years old after all these decades while I'm the one with the grey hair," said Hane. "Our cast in this production ranges in age from 18 to 21 and we cast this age-appropriately to accurately represent the script. It also illustrates how Barefoot approaches its casting - with realism."

In directing Dog Sees God, Hane concentrated on ensuring the show's characters were portrayed true to the traits and nuances recognizable to original fans, while Corliss focused on the script's current storyline and how today's characters grapple with daily teenage angst.

Corliss also portrays one of the characters in the production in addition to co-directing with Hane as his directorial debut.

"I have a real affinity for Dog Sees God," said Corliss. "From the moment I read the script, I understood as both an actor and as a co-director, how words on paper can truly create a vision that inspires a director throughout the process."

In addition to Corliss, the cast includes Matthew DeLisle, Christine Doulette, Ethan McIntyre, Pamela Satchwell, Elizabeth Whitcomb and Matthew Williams, all of Livonia and Stephanie Lee of Westland.

The 75-minute Dog Sees God is being performed without an intermission in the Walker-Buzenberg Building, 240 N. Main St., Plymouth. Tickets are $10. For tickets or more information, visit the website at www.justgobarefoot.com or call (734) 560-1493.

Stevenson '10 roster getting complete makeover

Only a handful of starters return

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

There appear to be more question marks than answers right now for the 2010 Livonia Stevenson football team.

And that's highly unusual for a program that has been to the state playoffs six years in a row and 10 of the 15 years head coach Tim Gabel has been at the helm.

The Spartans, defending KLAAs Kensington Conference and Central Division champs, finished 8-3 a year ago after starting 0-2.

Stevenson was decimated by graduation losses, the most notable being All-State running back Austin White (University of Michigan), who racked up more than 6,700 all-purpose yards during his career, including 1,494 yards rushing last season and 21 touchdowns.

Gabel enters his 16th season with a slew of newcomers.

"On paper, we certainly have a lot of inexperienced kids stepping into starting jobs for the first time," said Gabel, who guided the Spartans to the 2007 Division 1 state finals and the 2008 state semifinals. "But in reality, a lot of our seniors were the first kids off the bench last year, so they have seen time with the outcome of the game in question.

"We'll only improve as everyone becomes more comfortable as a starter."

As far as starters, only three full-timers return this season led by a pair of senior offensive linemen - Jon Aneed, a 6-1, 246-pound guard, and Anthony Sharp, a 6-0, 274-pound tackle.

"Jon (Aneed) is in his third season as a starter, so his experience will hopefully help anchor the rest of the line as we sort out the starters," Gabel said. "We have a good deal of size, but also have real concerns about conditioning. The line will be a work in progress."

So who moves into the starting backfield?

That question has been answered as sophomore Jeremy Mims (6-0, 160) takes over the quarterback duties with senior Leroy Glover (5-8, 228) at running back and senior Tim Lorence (5-10, 190) at fullback.

"I don't remember the last time we had a quarterback start as a sophomore," Gabel said. "Joe is very advanced for a sophomore, so we have a lot of confidence in his ability to be effective leading the offense. He's coming along. He's a good athlete and as he gets more experience, he'll be more of a playmaker."

Gabel also likes what he sees so far in his backfield combo of Glover and Lorence.

"Leroy looks very smooth and polished so far during practice," the Stevenson coach said. "Tim is very versatile and can move around the backfield as necessary."

Depth concern for Zebra gridgers

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Wayne Memorial football coach Kevin Weber is battling the numbers game entering Thursday's season opener at home against Brighton.

Many of the players on the Zebras' 30-man varsity unit will have to go both ways.

It will be a baptism under fire for some, but the third-year coach is confident his troops can get the job done.

Wayne is coming off a 3-6 season, including a 1-4 mark in the always formidable KLAAs South Division. To improve upon that record, the newcomers will have to mature quickly.

"We have very little depth," Weber said. "We just have to make sure we're in great shape and keep developing the guys who aren't ready yet."

The Zebras lost strong-armed quarterback Nick Mills (Alma College) to graduation, but their apparent Dean Caldwell, a 6-foot-3, 205-pound junior, should be able to make a smooth transition.

"He (Caldwell) is physical and has the most tools of any quarterback we've had since I've been the head coach," Weber said. "He has a great knowledge of what we're doing offensively and he's an extremely hard worker. That's why he was voted captain. He has the potential to be as good a passer as (Nick) Mills. And he brings it when he runs. He could be a tight end."

Caldwell is a tri-captain along with seniors Keith Agee and Billy Shillingburg, both of whom will start in the backfield. Junior Devin Korzetzki will also get to carry the ball.

"We'll rotate them and they'll share the load because we're short on depth and they all have to play defense," Weber said.

Meanwhile, the only other returning starter on the offensive line is 6-2, 220-pound senior center Robert Baker.

"The key to our offense is that we need to be able to

BOYS SOCCER

Glenn wins opener vs. Trojans, 3-1

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Westland John Glenn boys soccer coach Jimmy Mortada gave his team a passing grade following Friday's season-opening 3-1 victory over visiting Livonia Clarenceville.

"We attacked in style, we pressured them, but we've got a lot of work to do," Mortada said. "We weren't pressured too much. We dominated, but we missed shots left and right. We know if we're going to win in our division (KLAAs South), we've got to play harder and play better. But I'm happy with the win."

Glenn's Kyle Beguhn, a senior, opened the scoring in the 15th minute off an assist

Prep volleyball landscape could be shifting slightly

PREVIEW

Could there be a changing of the guard in area girls volleyball?

The name that usually pops up first annually is Livonia Churchill, which is coming off a stellar 56-6 season and a trip to the Class A state semifinals.

The Chargers, despite the return of first-team All-Observer setter Cory Urbats and three other seniors, could take a back seat to longtime rival Livonia Stevenson this fall.

The Spartans, 29-22-1 a year ago, are led by first-team All-Area pick Kelly Vellucci, a 6-foot junior who can set and play as an outside hitter.

Also, the return of Reina Tyl, a 5-10 senior outside hitter, and 5-7 junior libero Jordan York, give Spartan followers reason for optimism.

"If our defense comes along, well be tough to stop," said Stevenson coach Kelly Graham, who is entering her 17th season. "Our weakness right now is passing the ball and playing defense. We're working on getting quicker - the offense will be there. If the defense comes around we'll be pretty competitive. They know they are good team, a tall team and they can hit." Churchill, the Kensington Lakes Activities runner-up, was hard-hit by graduation losses as the team's top attacker Sarah Suppelsa and libero Taylor Kerr, both first-team All-Area selections, have moved on to Schoolcraft College.

Seventh-year coach Mark Grenier, who has a Class A state title under his belt (winter 2007), will be sharing bench responsibilities this fall with Eva Jedruszko.

Urbats, who set the MHSAA single season record for assists (1,465), will make the Chargers formidable again along with the Kempinski sisters, Kara and Nicole, and 6-foot junior middle hitter Erin Menard.

"Cory is as good as any setter in the state," Grenier said. "She's that good."

While Novi and Stevenson should battle it out in the KLAAs Central, the KLAAs South favorite along with Churchill will once again be Canton.

Westland John Glenn (28-18-1) could be considered a darkhorse after winning the Class A district title.

New coach Sharon Hubbard takes over for Julian Wargo, who resigned after four seasons to take the West Bloomfield job.

Hubbard, who spent the past three years as an assistant at Glenn, will bank on 5-5 senior libero Brooke Zywick, who has committed to NCAA Division I school Marist (N.Y.) University, along with 5-9 senior outside hitter Halie Baker, who has committed to Siena Heights University.

"We've really been working hard on passing," said Hubbard. "I told the girls, 'If can't pass, you can't play.' If we commit to passing, the rest will come. We're not the biggest team in our league, but we hope to be fastest and smartest and be the best at passing."

Both Livonia Franklin (10-23-2) and Wayne Memorial (winless in KLAAs) hope for improvement in the South Division.

Franklin senior outside hitter Amanda Borioe is recovering from hip surgery, while 5-10 junior middle hitter Keri Horton will lead Wayne.

The top team in the area could well be Livonia Ladywood (39-22), which reached the Class B state semifinals last November in Battle Creek before losing to Delton-Kellogg.

The Blazers have eight players returning with considerable playing time, led by 6-1 senior middle hitter Katy Rooney, who made first-team All-Observer and second-team All-State.

Rooney hit at a .344 percentage last season and averaged 0.95 blocks per game for the district and regional champs, who must get by Catholic League Central Division powerhouse Birmingham Marian, the defending state Class A champion, along with 'A' semifinalist Farmington Hills Mercy.

Other senior returnees for the Blazers include 6-1 Caitlin McClorey and 6-2 Shannon Hogg.

Juniors Alex Hines, Jenny Rhodes, Kenzie Kettner, Kristi Aurand and Cheyenne Woodall also return for coach Erin Craggs.

Another team in transition is Lutheran High Westland (32-11), which captured the Blue Division in the Michigan Independent Athletic Conference and won another Class D district crown.

Fifth-year coach Kevin Wade, who guided the Warriors to the state finals in 2008, must replace 6-3 middle blocker Emilie Freeman (now at Madonna University).

Wade has a tough schedule and a young team, but watch for the development of Leah Refenes, a 5-11 freshman setter and outside hitter to follow in the footsteps of her older sister Becca, a sophomore now playing at the University of Cincinnati.

Another MIAC member, Westland Huron Valley Lutheran (13-17-5), hopes to contend in the Red Division with the return of MVP and fourth-team All-Area pick Leah Miller, a 5-7 senior outside hitter.

Livonia Clarenceville (14-16-4) lost its top player, Kat Hall (Schoolcraft College), to graduation.

The Trojans, who embark this season as an independent after the Metro Conference dissolved, will rely on some promising newcomers. The top returnee is senior setter Kellie Ankiel.

We expect to go at least .500 and win district again. I don't want to place unrealistic expectations as a first-year coach, but I'd like another shot at regionals. But I think be good because we'll see lots of teams we haven't seen before. We have size and a young team. I'm so excited, can't wait for people to see them. It's a young team, we're rebuilding. STEVENSON

Stevenson's 4-4 defense returns only one starter – defensive end David Tharpe, a 6-foot, 230-pound junior. "David is a very athletic kid with a year of experience under his belt," Gabel said. "He showed the ability to make big plays as a sophomore."
 Senior Jon Meek (6-0, 183) has the inside track at inside linebacker, while seniors Nick Rotter (5-8, 164) and Derek Micallef (5-10, 175) will lead the way at outside linebacker. "Micallef was a special teams player last year who has probably come the farthest of any of our kids," Gabel said. "He's our strongest kid. He benches over 300 pounds."
 "Most of the seniors in this group all had reps at times with the first-team defense last year, so while we don't have a lot of game experience at linebacker, we do have kids that know what they're doing." The secondary will be led by senior cornerbacks Dan Wilk (5-9, 159) and Ryan Lackey (5-8, 154), along with senior safety Jeff Meek (5-9, 159). "Wilk and Lackey both had the opportunity to play last year in a supporting role, so they will lead the way," Gabel said. "Jeff (Meek) has had a very good off-season and we are seeking that translate into good performances in early season practices."

 Stevenson opens its season 7 p.m. Friday at home against rival Livonia Franklin before going on the road Thursday, Sept. 2 at Waterford Mott.

execute consistently," Weber said. "Our kids definitely know what they're doing. They just have to do it without any mental errors and we need to protect the football. We can make the big plays, but we definitely have to control the football. That will be our game this year. We're going to move the ball three-to-five yards a shot. We'll take our shots, for sure. We have a quarterback with a big arm. We have some skilled receivers who can do some things deep, but we're definitely going to try and control the clock."

On the defensive side, Antonio Caston (6-3, 240) returns as a starter at nose guard, while Agee and junior Demetrius Renfro (6-0, 220) will head the linebacking corps.

Senior cornerback Brett McMasters is the top returnee in the secondary as Weber has changed his defensive scheme slightly for the 2010 season.

"We ran a 4-2 before, but we're going to a 5-2 to highlight some of our players' abilities," he said. "We put guys in positions to maximize their talents. We have a defensive end (Shillingburg) and a nose guard (Caston) who are hard to deal with in a one-on-one situation. And our linebackers (Agee and Renfro) are both physical guys who can hit."

Wayne opens its season 7 p.m. Thursday at home against Brighton.

Mitchell steps down as Spartan ice coach

BY BRAD EMONS
 OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

David Mitchell had a successful stint – albeit brief – as Livonia Stevenson boys hockey coach.

Mitchell recently stepped away following three varsity seasons with the Spartans to take an assistant principal's position at Holmes Middle School in Livonia.

Stevenson athletic director Lori Hyman said Mitchell's 10-day job posting ended Thursday and she will begin to conduct interviews next week for a replacement.

Mitchell finished with a 56-14-8 overall record with the Spartans, who reached two Division 1 regional finals and captured the overall Kensington Lakes Activities Association crown in this past season while going 21-4-1 overall.

Mitchell guided Stevenson to a 23-2-2 overall record in this first season (2007-08) and went 12-8-5 during his second year (2008-09).

A former assistant coach under Pete Mazzoni at Livonia Churchill, Mitchell took the Stevenson varsity job after Mike Humitz's contract was not renewed following the 2006-07 season.

By taking the Livonia Public Schools administration job, Mitchell had to resign as hockey coach.

"It was an extremely tough decision

Mitchell

"I'll be working with them in a different capacity as a feeder school, but I thank them for what they've done for me. This was an opportunity I couldn't pass up and I still expect to be a major part as a coach or administrator. I went to high school in Livonia, live in Livonia and my kids go to school in Livonia."

Hyman said Mitchell, a former Western Michigan University goaltender who coach eight seasons in the Computware youth program before going to high school hockey, "will be truly missed."

"What can you say?," the Stevenson A.D. said. "I'm happy for him in his new position at Holmes. He's a great leader and extremely professional. He took our program to new levels and created a family atmosphere on-and-off the ice. He was a special coach with a unique ability to foster talent and exceed expectations."

"He'll always be a part of this program."

from Tyler Simpson.

Clarenceville's Ardit Dushkaj, who had 26 goals last season, scored the equalizer just two minutes later on a direct free kick.

Just before the half, Glenn's Alex Isaevski tallied what proved to be the game-winning goal from Troy McGuigan.

Robert Mason's second-half goal from Caleb Samborski clinched the victory.

Glenn goalkeeper Jason Rockwell had to make only one save, while Clarenceville's Evan Gregg, a freshman, stopped 13 Rocket shots.

Senior midfielder Jimmy Moody and freshman defender David Vandekerckhove also stood out for the Trojans.

"We had our moments, but we're so young," Clarenceville coach Trevor Johnston said. "Glenn is a solid team. They're good."

Pats in cruise control

Jordan McGuire, Craig Beebe and Fred Shatara each scored a pair of goals Friday night as host Livonia Franklin rolled to an 8-0 mercy-rule triumph over South Lyon East in the season opener for both teams.

The Patriots, who led 3-0 at halftime, also got goals from Dillon Debeliso and Nicholas O'Brien.

Beebe's goal with 3:37 remaining ended the match.

Ryan Tikey posted the shutout in goal for Franklin.

Scott starts new era at MU

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

When Eric Scott was named the new Madonna University men's soccer coach last March, he couldn't help but admire all the hardware stored in the case.

The former Schoolcraft College assistant then went right to work on the recruiting trail and has put together a 26-man roster with the season opener right around the corner this Sunday (Aug. 22) at Viterbo (Wisc.).

"It's a real privilege to coach at a program with such a tradition they established under both Pete (Alexander) and Tino (Scicluna)," Scott said of the two former MU head coaches. "I just hope to continue to what they done. But they didn't make it easy seeing all those trophies in the office."

Scicluna's final season as head coach was un-Scicluna like as the Crusaders finished 4-7-3 overall and 4-5-3 in the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference.

Only a handful of players return from that squad led by first-team All-WHAC selection Jacob Rosiek, a junior midfielder from Madison Heights Bishop Foley.

Other returnees include midfielders Ogbemudia "Mikey" Iyoha, a senior; Zain Qureshi (Livonia Franklin), a sopho-

Scott will rely on incoming freshmen and transfers to fill in the blanks.

Look for Max Washko, a first-team All-Area striker from Livonia Churchill who had 25 goals as a senior, and Brandon Hess, an attacking midfielder from Novi-Detroit Catholic Central, to each have an impact immediately as freshman.

Scott also brought in pair of transfers with him from NJCAA Division I National Tournament runner-up Schoolcraft - Masato Morioka, a midfielder from Northville, and Drew Kidder, a defender from Macomb Lutheran North.

Freshman defender Derek Rosiek, Jacob's younger brother, has also been a pleasant surprise so far on defense.

"He's used to the speed of the game and the same goes for Max (Washko)," Scott said. "Max is a big target and Jacob has that quality that he's with the ball, he stays calm and doesn't panic."

The Crusaders also lost their goalkeeper, Steve Besk, to graduation, but scheduled to start Sunday's opener is Parker Laabs (Canton), a transfer from NCAA Division III Seton Hill (Pa.).

"All the older guys on the team have been able to assimilate with the younger guys and make them feel comfortable," Scott said. "There's also a honeymoon period with the old, the new players and the coaching staff. But overall the spirit has been good, especially this week."

Triathletes lose their hair for charity

BY DIANA WING
CORRESPONDENT

You've got to keep moving if you want to finish an Ironman Triathlon, a 2.4-mile swim, 112-mile bike ride and 26.2-mile run in 17 hours or less. But members of the Detroit Iron Triathlon Team will break from their busy training schedule Friday, Aug. 27, to just sit still and lose — their hair.

Shave to Save, Detroit Iron's sixth fund-raising event for The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS), will be held at BlackFinn Restaurant and Saloon in Royal Oak. Heads will be shaved and locks (gals only) will be clipped to raise funds for blood cancer research.

"I did it last year and it takes far too long to grow back. It certainly is a sacrifice. Let's say, I just don't date for a few months afterwards because it doesn't look good," said Detroit Iron founding member Stuart Baskin, laughing. "I have five hairdressers coming from Edwin Paul Salon (Grosse Pointe Woods). If someone wants to jump in and says, 'it's a great cause, I'll do it,' we're more than happy to have their head shaved also."

A Farmington Hills resident, Baskin is the triathlon coach for the Team in Training (TNT) program of LLS. He and 13 other TNT alumni, many of them past or present coaches, formed Detroit Iron last year. The group has grown to 50 members. They train together, compete in various triathlon events and raise funds and awareness for charities.

TRAINING FOR FUN

"I had never done any triath-

Hayley Ray, a local 'Make-A-Wish' child, shaves the head of Detroit Iron founding member Stuart Baskin at Palazzolos Salon last year. She'll clip his locks again during Shave to Save, a benefit for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, Friday, Aug. 27, at BlackFinn in Royal Oak.

lon before but I'd been involved in different sports for a while ... I do this for fun," said Detroit Iron founding member Jason Lyngaas of Royal Oak. "We're training six or seven days a week — short and long training sessions. You try to vary it so you're not doing the same thing all the time."

Baskin races and raises funds in honor of his wife, Janet, who died in 2002 after a long and hard battle with breast cancer.

"We'd do the Walk for the Cure every year and then one year I said, 'I'm going to run in your honor.' I had never been a runner. I was not that active," Baskin said. "I started running one block at a time, then two blocks, then a mile, and I fell in love with running."

BECOMING A COACH

A friend asked Baskin to sign up for a TNT-sponsored bike ride around Lake Tahoe in 2006. Baskin was so impressed with the Team in Training program that he did an Olympic distance triathlon, a half Ironman and a full Ironman in 2007, and the following year he agreed to coach.

"With TNT we take people from the couch to an Olympic distance triathlon. We give them a training plan, we work together, we motivate each other. It gives you a connection to honor people who have survived cancer ... we find, too, that you make lifelong friends," said Baskin, who recalled a 55-year-old non-active couple who was skeptical at the TNT informational meeting, but completed the triathlon. "Michele said, 'thank you. This was one of the biggest events of our life, and you were totally true, it is a life-changing experience.'"

"It's a rarity in life that we get a chance to inspire people, and through being a TNT coach, I have a chance to inspire, all for a great cause," he said. "One day we're going to beat cancer, it's just a matter of time. I keep saying, I'll raise money so people smarter than me will come up with a solution."

Shave to Save runs 7-11 p.m., with hair cutting and head shaving at 8 p.m. Advance tickets are $20 ($25 at the door) and include appetizers, and live entertainment from Detroit Red Wing's songstress Karen Newman, and acoustic pop/rock artist Frankie D'Angelo, Michael Bermudez and Steve Aho. BlackFinn is located at 530 S. Main, in Royal Oak. For advanced tickets visit www.detroitiron.com. # FOUR SEASONS REHABILITATION AND NURSING

GREAT STAFF. GREAT CARE.

Four Seasons' new open-air pavilion is the perfect meeting place for patients and families

Soak in the fleeting rays of summer sun on the beautifully landscaped Four Seasons patio. The open-air pavilion is the perfect place for family outings. Alongside the grilling and picnic area, roses and a butterfly bush edge the walking path that provides a serene setting for patients in extended and rehabilitative care as well as the Memory Unit.

"We encourage families to grill out there," said Charles Dunn, owner of the rehabilitation and nursing center. "Next year we plan to plant an organic garden and involve the residents."

Lori McLeskey involves residents in planning parties on the patio. As activities director, she and the staff make sure residents have fun, use sunblock and drink fluids.

When extended care and short-term rehabilitation become necessary, choose Four Seasons for the attentive professional staff and skilled nursing. From the minute visitors enter the fresh-smelling lobby, the recently renovated facility feels like home.

Four Seasons is no ordinary rehabilitation and nursing center. In addition to physical, occupational and speech therapy, the facility offers one-of-a-kind services such as in-patient and bedside dialysis.

"People want home-like along with great care," said Dunn. "We hope quality drives them here."

Dog days

Pets, owners will have a ball at annual Paws in the Park

BY SHARON DARGAY
O&E STAFF WRITER

Paws in the Park returns to Canton next weekend for two days of all things canine.

That's more than 11 hours of dog entertainment and activities, dozens of vendors and nonprofits, and hundreds of dogs.

Bring your best four-pawed friend on-leash to the park and don't miss these organizations and events:

HUMANE SOCIETY OF HURON VALLEY

Kittens at a dog event?
Deb Kerr of the Huron Valley Humane Society (HSHV) says the shelter likely will have "lots" of young felines for adoption.

"Probably not many cats," she said, adding that most are a bit finicky when it comes to travelling. "We'll have dogs — small, large, different kinds. Whoever is here that hasn't been adopted."

The HSHV shelter, located in Dixboro, is full and also has 181 animals in foster care. Adoptable dogs will take turns walking with handlers among the crowd at Paws in the Park. They'll wear easily identifiable capes that say they're available for loving, new homes.

Kerr encourages adopters to bring along their existing dogs to the event to make sure they'll get along with potential new family members.

"We like to do dog-to-dog interaction," she explained. "The ideas is to

When: 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday-Sunday, Aug. 28-29; the Paws Walk registration starts at 8 a.m. Saturday. Walkers can log the mile route any time from 9-10:30 a.m.

keep them in the home. If you take a dog home and they don't get along, it's likely you'll bring the dog back."

The adoption process, which includes an application, interview and interaction with the dog, takes about an hour.

Kerr said visitors also can check out adoptive dogs at Paws in the Park and wait until they visit the shelter to make a commitment.

"Many people come here (the shelter) as a destination for adoption. We adopted out 122 last week, which is great. But we took in 149. Ninety were strays and the rest were owner relinquished."

HSHV also will offer a low-cost micro chip clinic, tips on what to do if you lose your dog, and behavior advice both days of the event.

RESCUE GROUPS

Michigan has its own version of the Utah-based "Dogtown" sanctuary for dogs.

It's called Mackenzie's Animal Sanctuary, in Lake Odessa, located between Lansing and Grand Rapids. It's one of three rescue groups, along with The Buster Foundation — a pit bull-focused organization — and North Star Border Collie that will be on hand with adoption information at Paws in the Park.

"I think right now we have about 95 dogs," said Amanda Parrish, marketing and PR director for the organization that serves only canines. "We don't accept owner surrenders or strays. We find it's most effective to work with other animal organizations that have to euthanize. We go out every week and take in as many as we can."

The group finds homes within a 150-mile radius of its campus, which includes 14 play yards three "real life" rooms that resemble living room areas for training, pools and an agility and gymnasium area.

It doesn't allow on-site adoption at events like Paws in the Park. The adoption process requires the potential adopter to visit the shelter twice. A MacKenzie staff member also visits their home.

"We're not just going to place a dog in any home," Parrish said. "We want to make sure they match up with the right family and environment — that it's a good fit."

"We had one lady who was interested in a dog. The first two visits went well. She was looking at a 65-pound dog. Then we went to her home and there was no room to get through the house. We told her to clean up and make room for a dog before adopting."

Because of its "thoughtful and thorough" adoption process, it has a low return rate of dogs: four in the past five years.

CONTESTS

Give your dog the opportunity to shine — whether he's smiling, testing out a new trick, racing or just planting a big, sloppy kiss on your face.

"The best trick contest last year had several participating dogs," said Terri O'Brien, spokeswoman for Paws in the Park. "One dog played the piano. Another dog jumped in the air about 8 feet and another dog played dead. There were several unusual tricks."

The Wiener Dog Race is designed for Dachshunds and other canines with a mild resemblance to a frankfurter.

"We line them up in a fenced-in area and the dogs race to the other side of the field. The first dog that crosses the line, and let's just say it takes them a while to figure out which way to run, wins a year of Ball Park Franks for their owner."

O'Brien said kissing contestants do get plenty of paper towels to clean up the slobber.

Contests run both days of Paws in the Park.

ROCK N ROLL K9'S

The Novi-based group of racing, jumping, agility-trained musical-mat (think musical chairs) playing dogs will add a new challenge to its shows at Paws in the Park.

We don't want to give the surprise away, but it includes agility-style weaving and kids.

"We're switching things around a bit and adding different things," said Pam Koons, founder of the popular dog performance troupe. "We've also started selling trading cards. The kids love it."

Each card sports a picture of a Rock N Roll K9's dog, and stats. They're available for a donation, which benefits a no-kill shelter.

Koons said about 25-30 different dogs, accompanied by their handlers, will perform in the show that includes "a lot of fast-paced racing and high jumping" all set to rock and roll music.

"They love the music and clapping and cheering. The more cheering there is the higher they go."

Think your dog could make the team?

Dogs must have good recall, a sterling temperament and in most cases a little experience in agility.

PAWSITIVE VYBE

Abby Cline of Fargo, N.D. will bring her Australian Shepherds, Australian Cattle Dogs and even a Poodle-Bishon mix to the park for a little Frisbee action.

"It's going to be faced-paced and a fun show," she said.

"We have dogs that get big air (jumping high); we have a weave pole race and a tunnel. It's a race between two dogs. It's a lot of action."

Cline said the more the audience cheers, the better the dogs respond.

She added that all Pawsitive Vybe dogs were rescued from pounds and shelters.

ULTIMATE AIR DOGS

Talk about jumping: Ultimate Air Dogs athletes will leap off a dock into a 30-foot pool, competing for distance. Former Detroit Tigers pitcher, Milt Wilcox, will host the show which invites visitors to bring dogs on a leash, to be part of the action.

PAWS WALK

The second annual walk will benefit HSHV through its minimum $15 participation fee and will light up smiles throughout the park.

Costumes and floats aren't required but many dogs and their owners will vie for "best of" awards in both categories. Last year's event brought out Dorothy and Toto lookalikes, Chihuahuas dressed as fairies and a "Red Barron" float. Winners get a six-month supply of dog food from Canidae Pet Foods.

LURE, AGILITY

Dogs will get a chance to try lure-chasing — racing after a fake squirrel tail over small jumps and through tunnels — in a fenced-in course both days.

The HSHV also will set up an agility course open to visitors. Dogs can try the course for a donation to the shelter. Representatives will be on hand to help owners coax their dogs through and over the equipment.

Adopt a pet on site at Paws in the Park, in Canton.

No Snoopy here as a boy and his dog compete in a 'Red Barron' float at last year's Paws Walk.

Dogs large and small alike strutted across the stage in costume at Paws in the Park last year.

RESISTING CHANGE

The ability of orthopedic surgeons to replace a worn knee joint with an excellent replacement has a success rate of over 90%. At the same time, American hospitals, have gained experience in postoperative knee replacement care, and patients remain hospitalized only 2-3 days after surgery.

Patients ambulate with a walker within a day after surgery and rehabilitation to the point of walking with no aids or only a cane is a goal most patients achieve within six weeks. If a person cannot undertake rehabilitation at home, facilities are available for convalescent care and physical therapy that prepare a patient for independent living within a month after surgery.

Yet many people after seeing their x-rays revealing the advanced state of arthritis of their knee, and despite their pain even on standing, refuse to undertake surgery. Though their doctor points out the risk of fall because the damaged knee is also unstable, and the family tells the patient how much the patient's activity is limited because of knee pain, the patient denies a need exists that requires surgery.

Instead, the patient insists that pain is minimal, and that he or she is doing whatever they want with no limitation.

The last attitude old age and disability need is resistance to change. Old age should look for accommodation, not deny it. When both the doctor's experience and the x-ray evidence indicate the need for knee replacement, the patient should not reject, but respond to the recommendation to change.
