Fire officials seek cause of apartment blaze

Cleanup was underway on Tuesday as Westland fire officials tried to determine the cause of a fire that damaged or destroyed 39 units at the Waynwood Apartments.

Westland fire officials expected to be able to get into the basement of a Waynwoods apartment building Wednesday afternoon to look the cause of a fire that damaged or destroyed 39 units Monday evening.

The investigation was slowed by the removal of three-four feet of water that had accumulated as a result of fighting the blaze. It took firefighters almost 4 1/2 hours to put it out and they remained on the scene well into Tuesday morning extinguishing hot spots and securing the area due to icy conditions.

"This was a pretty significant fire, but the good thing is that all of the residents have been taken care of," Fire Chief Michael Reddy said. "Our No. 1 priority outside of fire attack was knowing the residents were cared for. There were no major injuries, no loss of life."

Firefighters were called to the apartment complex on Wayne Road south of Warren Road about 6 p.m. Monday and found heavy fire coming from the common basement and smoke coming from the common attic space of the double L shaped building. Reddy said it appeared the fire traveled up a wall to the

Two men face murder charge in teen's death

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Two men charged with killing Carlee Morse were acquainted with the Westland teenager.

"She knew these guys for awhile. Their story is that she went with them voluntarily," said Westland Deputy Police Chief Dan Karrick. "We believe they are being truthful but we have only their stories. We hope to learn more once we find her."

Westland resident Justin Lee Yoshikawa, 19, and Nicholas Jay Cottrell, 22, of Taylor were both arraigned Tuesday in Westland 18th District Court on charges of first-degree murder in the death of Carlee Jade Morse, 16. Cottrell is also charged as a fourth-degree habitual offender. Not guilty pleas were entered for both men, who are being held without bond.

Police are declining to comment on motive for the killing except that the two men were having a dispute with Morse, who was reported missing in the early hours of Aug. 20. Based on statements made by the defendants after they were arrested, police believe the teenager was strangled a short time later.

"We believe she was killed shortly after she went missing, they (the defendants) had a plan," said Karrick, adding that police are continuing the investigation in an effort to locate Morse, whose body has not yet been recovered.

Morse was reported missing by her mother after she went outside their apartment at Venoy Pines Apartments in the area of Venoy and Warren Road to make a call on her cell phone just after midnight Aug. 20 and never returned. Her mother checked on her when she didn't return and called police about an hour later to report her disappearance.

A witness came forward on Dec. 9 and provided police with information that led to the arrest of Yoshikawa and Cottrell. Police said that after being arrested, the men confessed to killing Morse.

"A missing family member is always a horrific occurrence," said Wayne County Prosecutor Kym Worthy. "Our hearts and prayers go out to the victim's family."

Westland police investigated Morse' disappearance as a missing person case and initially received reports of sightings in Canton and Garden City. Karrick said it didn't appear that there was any orchestrated effort to make it look like the teenager was still alive. Instead, Karrick said people were likely to have seen girls who at least superficially looked like Morse.

Preliminary examinations for both defendants are set for 1 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 21.

Board OKs capital needs assessment for library

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A capital needs assessment will be conducted on Westland's William P. Faust Library.

The library board voted last week to use city engineers OHM to do an assessment of the 14-year-old building at a cost of $3,000, subject to the council agreeing to a budget amendment. Having the building needs assessed was an idea that came in the aftermath of the city's attempt earlier this year to charge the library rent and back rent in excess of $500,000.

City officials had recommended hiring OHM, the Livonia-based city engineers, but library board members hadn't moved forward with getting the assessment done. Rebecca Kelly, library board vice president/secretary, reported contacting several other firms to get quotes for the work, not realizing three bids weren't needed for professional services.

Several months after a meeting with city officials and agreeing to concept, some library board members continued to balk at paying for the study, arguing the city should pay for it. Board members also expressed concerns that if the library pays for the study, the expenditure hadn't been budgeted during the current fiscal year although the library has an approximately $1.5 million fund balancer.

"If the city owns the building, they are

Patrons respond to library's Food for Fines

Nearly three weeks in and the William P. Faust Library Food for Fines program is still going strong.

As of Dec. 10, the library has received more than 1,200 nonperishable, unexpired food items donated and has forgiven more than $1,000 in fines.

The donations have already exceeded the original goal of 1,000 donated items. The library is well on the way to meeting a second goal of 1,500 donated by the end of the program on Thursday, Dec. 23.

Stop by the library during regular hours to get your fines reduced: one nonperishable, unexpired food item equals a $2 reduction in fines. The Food for Fines program reductions don't apply to lost or damaged library items.

No holiday change

Employees at the Faust Library will have the day after Thanksgiving off as a paid holiday again in 2011. At a recent library board meeting, a motion to minate the day after the holy as a paid day off failed on a split vote.

Board member Duane Moody offered a motion to continue having a library closed but make it an unpaid day off for employees.

"I never understood why it's a paid holiday, maybe they are still digesting turkey," said Moody.

City offices so are closed on the day after Thanksgiving but unlike city offices, the library is opening on Saturday and Sunday following the holiday. The employees normally scheduled for work on that Friday would be allowed to make up those hours earlier in the week.

Library board member Rebecca Kelly questioned the change, noting due to pending litigation with former employees the library board had been advised not to make changes in compensation or working conditions.

"Any substantial change could be subject to an unfair labor practice charge," said library attorney Michael McNamara. "You do it at your own peril."

The motion failed with support only from board member Antoinette Martin and Moody, who commented that his proposal came closer this year than it ever had previously.

Teen Advisory Board

If you're in middle school or high school and enjoy coming to the Westland Library, consider joining Teen Advisory Board. It meets at 7 p.m. the last Tuesday of each month. The next meeting is Jan. 25. Teens can help the library plan programs, pick out books, and design book displays for the Teen Area.

Teens who are interested in being on the board can stop in at the library and fill out a short registration form or simply pick one up at the next meeting. The library provides dinner at each meeting.

Firefighters pour water onto the smoldering remains a Wayewood Apartments building that caught fire Monday evening.

Fire dept. sets up donation center to help families

According to Westland Fire Capt. John Adams, it's like night and day in looking at the damage caused to apartments during a building fire at Waywoods Monday evening.

"The first floor had minimum smoke and water damage, 20 feet from the area of origin, it's as different as night and day," said Adams.

Thirty-nine families were displaced by the fire and while those living in units on the second floor lost everything, those on the first floor, with the exception of the area where the fire started, will be able to recover most of their possessions.

The fire department has been receiving donations for the displaced families. The firefighters union also has kicked in $3,900, $100 for each family for their basic needs. Adams also is working on a fund-raising dinner that will be held next week to help the tenants.

"These families have been out of their homes for several days, they need the basics," said Adams, adding that "I've received 100 phone calls in the last day for donations of coats, blankets and food."

"The complex required renter's insurance but only a small number continued it," he said.

The fire department has set up a donation center, and people can drop off items at the fire department's headquarters on Ford at Carlson. Adams stressed that "all donations will go to the affected families."

"Most of the people lost everything," he said.

For more information, call Adams at 734-476-3261.

responsible," said library board member Duane Moody.

The city owns the property on which the library is located, said library attorney Michael McNamara, who added the capital needs assessment was necessary, if the library got to the point of needing to negotiate a lease with the city.

An attorney's opinion from McNamara, who was also acting as city attorney at the time, was that the city could charge the library rent but needed to negotiate a lease rather than arbitrarily set an amount and demand payment retroactively.

"It's a gray area who owns the building," he said. "The grants (that paid for the library building) went through the city."

During the previous fiscal year, the library had a $1.9 million budget with a .994 millage levy — before the Headlee rollback — generating $1.7 million for the largest portion of its revenue. Tax revenues for the current fiscal year 2010-11 are projected at $1.5 million due to decreased property values.

The city had proposed charging the library just over $50,000 annually for rent and collecting $500,000 for 10 years back rent, in addition to $200,000 charged each year for overhead costs.

"Things are starting to fall apart (at the library building), I feel like we just need to do it," said library board member Antoinette Martin. "Let's go ahead and do it. We need a building assessment."

Library board president Leslie Bell said that after meeting with city officials, it was agreed that the capital needs assessment would be done.

"The mayor said the city would pay for it. I'm OK with OHM. Then, are we going back to the mayor you can pay for it or do we go into our reserves?" said Bell.

However, after there was a motion to hire OHM to prepare a 10-year capital needs assessment, Kelly said, "I don't feel comfortable approving this not knowing where the money will come from, we didn't budget it."

The board amended the motion to have OHM do the needs assessment contingent on the council approving the budget change.

attic space and spread, with the help of strong winds that blew flames from one side to the other.

Reddy estimates that 32 firefighters fought the fire, including mutual aid responders from the Wayne, Garden City, Plymouth, Canton and Livonia Fire Departments.

Westland firefighters were able to battle the blaze and safely evacuate those tenants who were at home when the blaze started. Only one resident suffered a minor back injury due to the icy conditions. Two firefighters also were sent to the hospital, suffering from smoke inhalation. All three have been treated and released.

The fire caused severe smoke and heat damage to half of the apartments. The remainder sustained heavy water and weather damage. Many of the tenants have been moved to other apartments in the complex or placed in housing with the help of the Salvation Army and American Red Cross, Reddy said.

He added a command post was set up in the manager's office which gave firefighters an accurate count of the units involved.

There currently is no estimate on the loss, however, Reddy said the units most severely damaged in the fire will have to be torn down and rebuilt, the others will be repaired before tenants can move back in.

"We know where it started, once we're done doing salvage we'll be able to get inside and see what happened," said Reddy.

Qdoba wins best food honor at Taste of Westland

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Barbecued ribs, prime rib, pasta and French pastries ... It was an epicurean feast for the 400 guests who packed the Hellenic Cultural Center for the Westland Chamber of Commerce's annual Taste of Westland.

In its 12th year, the Taste of Westland allowed guests to sample food from 15 restaurants, caterers and student chefs.

"It was a successful event in every way," said Brookellen Swope, chamber president and CEO. "It's always been a fun way to start the holiday season. It's almost holiday tradition."

For Taste goers, there were food samplings from Famous Dave's, Hellenic Cultural Center, Knox Restaurant and Catering, Longhorn Steakhouse, Maria's Italian Bakery, Marvaso's Italian Grille, McDonald's, Qdoba Mexican Grill, Red Robin, Rose Catering, Texas Roadhouse, Toarina's Pizza, Vintage Market and the culinary arts program at the William D. Ford Career and Technical Center.

According to Swope, there was "good competition" for the best food award, but when the evening was over, the honor went to Qdoba. A perennial favorite, student chefs from the William D. Ford Career Technical Center walked away with the most creative table decorations.

dents did an encore of their dancing once the eating was done.

"They usually dance and put on a good show," said Swope.

While showcasing the food of area restaurants, Taste of Westland also serves as a fundraiser for the Joseph F. Benyo Scholarship program. Proceeds from a You Pick Raffle also help give out scholarships to students in the Wayne-Westland Community Schools.

The most popular item in the raffle was massages for a year provided by Michigan Chiropractic Specialists and a year of flower arrangements by My Lady's Florist. Also given away was Detroit Red Wings suite tickets for the team's New Year's Eve game, a Framed Steve Yzerman picture and a mountain bike.

"We should be able to provide two $500 scholarships, sometimes it's $1,000 depending on the funding through the year," she said.

Swope also offered a thank you for those who help make the event a success

"It was a good evening, thanks to the sponsors and the community," she said.

Westland man to stand trial in fatal shooting

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A Westland man continues to be held without bond after being ordered bound over for trial on charges that he fatally shot another man outside his home.

Joie Rayshaun Bell, 23, is charged with three felony counts — felony homicide which is treated a first-degree murder and carries a mandatory sentence of life without parole, weapon possession by a felon and felony firearm. He is also facing second-degree habitual offender sentencing enhancements.

A preliminary examination was held Friday before 18th

District Court Judge Mark McConnell who found there was probable cause to bind Bell over to Wayne County Circuit Court for trial on the charges. Bell's circuit court arraignment is set for Dec. 23.

Anthony Michael Esse, 25, died Oct. 6 after being shot once in the chest during a confrontation with two men at his home in the 2200 block of Stieber, south of Palmer and west of Wildwood. Esse went outside and collapsed after being shot, police said. He was transported by Westland Fire Rescue to an area hospital, where he died of his injuries.

Westland police described the murder as drug-related — that Esse and his assailants were feuding over territory for selling marijuana and possibly cocaine.

Investigators appeared to have little to go on in the case initially and appealed to the public to come forward with information. Police credited information from a witness who eventually came forward with the break that resulted in charges against Bell.

Bell had already been in custody on an unrelated charge when the warrant was obtained in the murder case. Police continue to investigate a person of interest believed to be the second man involved in the attack.

Westland nan charged with animal cruelty

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A Westland man has been cited for discharging a weapon within the city limits and animal cruelty after police responded to a complaint about someone killing wildlife. Lawrence Joseph Raymond, 61, was ticketed and could be facing additional charges through the Department of Natural Resources and Environment. Police confiscated a .22 caliber revolver and two .22 caliber rifles, one with a scope, all loaded.

Midday on Dec. 13, officers went to a home on the 300 block of North Christine, north of Cherry Hill and west of Wildwood, in response to the complaint. A witness told police a neighbor was using a rifle every day to shoot at animals attracted to his backyard by a bait pile he had set up.

The neighbor was concerned about the wildlife being killed and also that stray bullets could injure people, pets or cause property damage in the residential neighborhood.

When officers arrived, Raymond wasn't home but his wife told them that her husband was a hunter and shoots animals, specifically squirrels. The officers said they saw a bait pile — corn attached to a tree stump — in the backyard.

Near the back door of the home, the officers noted a dead squirrel which had been shot and a blood trail from the bait pile. Several bullet holes were seen in the stump, the officers said, with the two loaded rifles next to the rear garage door and several squirrel tails on a shelf.

Officers were still at the home when Raymond arrived. He was told it is illegal to fire a gun within the city and also that he couldn't hunt or kill animals in his backyard, police said.

A DNRE conservation officer also responded to the home and indicated after his investigation was completed, additional charges might result.

Cash, jewelry, and collectibles reportedly stolen in break-ins

Break-ins

Three break-ins were recently reported at the Landings Apartments.

A resident of an apartment at 6939 Lakeview Blvd. told police that late on Dec. 10 she had been transported to the hospital by Westland Fire Rescue. When she and her husband returned to their apartment early on Dec. 12, she said they found items thrown around the apartment.

Reported missing was $600 in cash, two books of checks, an Xbox game system and 10 mini baseball helmets, the latter items valued at $400. There was no sign of forced entry and the officer noted the door may have been left unlocked.

As he responded to the break-in, the officer questioned another resident who was in the parking lot. The officer said the neighbor has an extensive history of larcenies.

A resident of an apartment at 6822 Lakeview Blvd. told police Dec. 13 that she returned from school to find her front door was kicked in. She said her jewelry box drawers had been removed and thrown about her bed. Reported missing was a small round container, containing approximately $70 in assorted bills.

Also on Dec. 13, a resident of an apartment at 6586 Lakeview Blvd. told police she returned to find the front door was kicked in. The apartment had been ransacked, the resident said.

Reported missing was assorted jewelry valued at $3,000 and two steaks taken from the refrigerator.

Break-in

A plasma television and a Wii game system with two remotes valued at $1,164 were reported stolen from an apartment at 7322 Central on Dec. 13. The resident told police he and his girlfriend returned to find the dead bolt lock had been pried and forced open.

Stolen vehicle

A resident in the 340000 block of Spring Valley at the Holliday Park Townhouse Cooperative told police someone had stolen her 1994 Mercury Grand Marquis from the parking lot Dec. 13. She said the vehicle was paid for and could account for all of the keys.

Break-ins

The Garden City police are investigating two home invasions which were discovered a short time part on the 1000 block of Belton on Dec. 11.

In one incident, an elderly couple returned home from a Christmas party about 6:30 p.m. to find their side door kicked in. Their credit cards and checkbook were missing.

An airsoft pistol gun similar to one stolen from a neighbor's house was found in their bedroom.

A 60-inch TV, 12-inch laptop computer and coins were missing.

In the second case, discovered about 6:45 p.m. on the same block of Belton, the 79-year-old owner also reported that a TV, DVD player and coins were stolen.

The side door was found ajar. The owner said the lock was old and didn't close properly.

He reported a 1911 BB gun missing from the house.

Disorderly conduct

Two Garden City men, both 23, were arrested for disorderly conduct about 11:30 p.m. Dec. 11 in the 29400 block of Marquette. The police responded to a call that eight people were gathered in a back yard.

When the two relatives saw police both tried to leave the area, police said. The police ordered both not to leave the area while they conducted their investigation but they resisted, police said.

A witness said there had been a fight before the police arrived, police said.

Larceny

A resident in the 6735 block of Gilman reported that someone entered her unlocked 1998 Chevy van sometime before 6 a.m. Dec. 10 and stole a $20 briefcase. Because the theft occurred before the snowfall, the police found no footprints.

Fraud

A woman who lives in the 6400 block of Helen reported at 9 a.m. Dec. 10 that a man that she once had a business relationship with defrauded her of cash by using her personal information.

Both parties have personal protection orders against each other. The police advised her to report the incident to the court which issued the PPOs.

The Garden City woman said she also wanted to file a separate incident report against the Romulus man.

Drunken driving

A 26-year-old Taylor woman was arrested about 1:30 a.m. Dec. 10 after they stopped her for speeding on Ford Road at Henry Ruff in her 2000 Jeep Cherokee. She registered a .12 blood alcohol level, police said.

A 25-year-old Westland woman was arrested for drunken driving about 2:30 a.m. Dec. 11. She disregarded the traffic cones that police set up as a perimeter around a fire scene at north Merriman and Warren Road, police said.

She registered a .146 blood alcohol level, police said. The woman was also cited for driving with a suspended license, police said.

The police found a lot of vomit in the car which the woman attributed as from her sister-in-law, police said. She said they were coming from a house party, police said.

Hospital employees reconnect 26 years after closing

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Esther Benjamin remembers Josephine Montgomery very well.

A clerk in triage at Wayne County General Hospital, Montgomery was the first person people met when they came through the doors of the emergency room.

"She was always calm, she never raised her voice," said Benjamin, the director of nursing. "She'd say, 'Sir, I will talk to you when you calm down. I'm not yelling at you.'"

"I'd tell them, 'If you whisper, you'll be heard,'" said Montgomery.

The two women reconnected at the 26th reunion of employees of Wayne County General Hospital, held at the William D. Ford Career Technical Center's Cafe Marquette Dec. 7.

At age 94, Montgomery was among the oldest former employees in attendance at the get-together. She had worked at Herman Keiffer Hospital in Detroit and for the Friend of the Court before joining the staff at Wayne County General.

"I didn't have any hard jobs, I enjoyed what I did," said Montgomery. "When the new ladies came in, I enjoyed them, too. I enjoyed them all. They had a wonderful party when I left."

"She didn't realize how many hearts she touched," said Sheila Green of Belleville. "She was even-tempered, firm and very calm. She had charisma."

Benjamin, who left the hospital for a job at the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, keeps tabs on Montgomery at the beauty shop - Virginia Farrell on Ford Road. They meet up there every few weeks. "She was always comforting," said Benjamin.

Montgomery shared the honor of oldest employee in attendance at the party with Mary Hunter of Detroit. Also age 94, Hunter was there with her daughter Carol Carr of Southfield.

Hunter was an attendant

Former hospital employee Josephine Montgomery is remembered for her calming influence in triage. She attended the annual reunion with her longtime companion Russell Forbush.

Former Wayne County General Hospital employees talk catch up on what's happened since the hospital closed in 1984.

in Eloise's N Building before moving to the hospital where she worked as a clerk in the emergency room on the mid-night shift. The Detroit resident would get a ride to work every day and remembers that "all the people I worked with were very nice."

According to her daughter,

Hunter hasn't let age slow her down.

"She's been a chairman at Core City Neighborhood, she's been there 30 years," said Carr. "She's very active in her church and its Nurses Guild, community activities ... she's involved in so much."

Carr sat in a booth in the student-run restaurant, watching her mother stop at one table or another to greet old friends.

In the crowd was Dennis Abraham and Pat Ibbotson who organize the annual reunion. Also there was former Wayne County Commissioner Kay Beard who "did everything but stand on my head" to keep the hospital open. The 511-bed medical hospital was built on Merriman north of Michigan Avenue in Westland in 1962 and was the only acute-care medical and surgical hospital between Detroit and Ypsilanti. The hospital was closed in 1984 and the building was torn down in 1999.

For Hunter, meeting old friends like Pauline Hampton brought back memories of her 17 years at the hospital.

"It was a place where people got good care," said Hunter. "People were given good care, even the indigent."

Candles in the snow

Crowd braves winter to pay tribute to their children

BY BRAD KADRICH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Kathy Rambo figured her phone might not stop ringing Sunday.

The harder it snowed, the more the phone seemed to ring, with people wanting to ask the Compassionate Friends-Livonia chapter co-leader if the group's annual candlelight vigil, honoring children who died too young, was a go.

Rambo assured anyone willing to brave the snow, the cold, the ice and the wintry road conditions the show would go on, no matter what Mother Nature threw their way.

Rambo, who lost her son, Jason, in a traffic accident 10 years ago, knows by the ache in her own heart how important the annual vigil has become.

"I think people feel it's something they do for their children," Rambo, a Canton resident who lived in Plymouth for 25 years, said of the 100 or so people who braved the elements. "It's our Christmas now. Christmas will never be the same for us. We're like a family. We've all gone through the same pain. Nobody knows what it's like unless they've been through it."

Sponsored annually in conjunction with Children's Memorial Day, the vigil is held in time zones throughout the world, the idea being that, as candles burn down in one time zone, they're lit in another, creating a 24-hour memorial.

The Plymouth ceremony included readings, music and the dedication of two Christmas trees filled with ornaments dedicated to children who've died too soon.

The most touching part of the ceremony is the reading of the names, either called in or e-mailed to The Compassionate Friends. Rambo said some 600 names were read Sunday.

Many of the people in the crowd have taken part in the ceremony before. One such woman, who'd lost a child a few years ago, recommended the ceremony to Willa Butler of Redford, who lost her daughter to complications of Lupus and diabetes in October. The friend told Butler the ceremony would help. She was right.

"It's been very hard for me to deal with, and it's part of a healing process for me," said Butler, whose daughter was just 39 when she died. "It was a beautiful ceremony. It gave me something to focus on. It's hard to deal with the loss of your child. You think, 'She's lost to the world.'"

"It meant the world to me," Butler added. "I will participate in the future, because it gave meaning to my having my daughter. The most important thing is, she's not forgotten."

Rambo knows how she feels. When Jason died, Rambo said she used his clothing to make teddy bears for friends and family members as a way to keep Jason's spirit alive. She said it took her a few months to find out about The Compassionate Friends. And she might not have, had it not been for her mother.

"My mom came across it, because I was in no condition to think about things like this," said Rambo, now the co-leader of the group to which she turned in her grief. "It helped get me through the worst time of my life. Now, it's my turn to give back to others. (The Compassionate Friends) is my life now."

Not surprisingly, the 100 or so people who turned out turned Mother Nature's fury into a positive.

"It was smaller than usual," Rambo said of the ceremony, which usually draws some 400 people. "(But) it was beautiful, with the snow coming down and everything."

Co-op Credit Union opens student branch

Co-op Services Credit Union is helping nearly 700 fifth- and sixth-grade students at Cooper Upper Elementary learn to save money with the opening of a student credit union at the Westland school.

According to Principal Terry Taylor, students will be able to continue to use existing accounts they established at student credit unions in their former elementary schools, Hayes and Cleveland.

"We are really excited to finally have a credit union branch at Cooper," Taylor said. "Now all of our students can have the ability to open accounts to help get in the habit of saving for those things they need and want, and to help them learn how to manage their own accounts. It's a wonderful opportunity for our Cooper kids."

To prepare for the opening, 90 students applied, and 24 were hired and trained to help operate the student credit union, named the Cooper Coyote branch after the school's mascot. The volunteers will help fellow students open savings accounts, make deposits and track their savings. Students also advertise the credit union in school through posters and PA announcements.

"This is a very hands-on program that gives students the opportunity to learn a variety of math skills," said Jeremy Cybulski, youth and community development coordinator for Co-op Services Credit Union, adding it is the eighth student credit union for Co-op Services.

During the grand opening celebration, which included a variety of activities and prizes, the credit union's Rock Star Saver mascot made a surprise appearance to greet

Now until Dec. 23, 2010, for each person who becomes a friend of Co-op Services' "Nextgen" Facebook page, the credit union will donate $1 to the Salvation Army Red Kettle Drive. The Facebook page is readily accessible from the credit union's Nextgen website, www.iamnextgen.org, which serves as a valuable resource about savings programs and services for teens between the ages of 13 and 17.

"By donating to the Salvation Army, we are making a difference in our local community, and by educating teens about our Nextgen savings program, we are helping them learn how to be financially responsible," said Jeremy Cybulski, youth and community development coordinator for Co-op Services Credit Union. "Becoming a friend on Facebook is just another way to connect and expand our outreach in a positive way."

OUR VIEWS

Giving time

Help the less fortunate this holiday season

The countdown is on: Just eight days until Christmas. Forget the sugar plums. For today's children, the visions are often expensive and numerous.

But for many children, what they receive for Christmas, what they eat for Christmas and on into the New Year is dependent on the kindness of strangers.

If you can't find room under your Christmas tree for that present, think about giving it to the Goodfellows or the Salvation Army. Instead of dropping $10-$20 on a quick dinner out, drop it in a Red Kettle or send it to the Goodfellows.

ers. They are the poor and the hungry in our community who turn to places like the Wayne-Westland Salvation Army, the St. Mary Outreach Center, Veterans Haven, Lighthouse Home Mission and the Westland Goodfellows for help.

This is the season to be merry, but for many people being merry may mean a hot meal at the local soup kitchen or a warm place to sleep on a cold winter's night. For many, it's a fine line that separates them from being a have and a have not. They are struggling to make ends meet. There is no wiggle room in their household budget for a big Christmas celebration. They must rely on the kindness of strangers.

We have more than once urged our readers to open their hearts and their wallets to help those less fortunate. It's a message worth repeating. These agencies cannot continue to help those in need without our support both financially and in donations of food and clothing.

If you can't find room under your Christmas tree for that present, think about giving it to the Goodfellows or the Salvation Army. Instead of dropping $10-$20 on a quick dinner out, drop it in a Red Kettle or send it to the Goodfellows. If you see a good deal at the grocery store, buy a few extra cans and donate to the John Bolde Food Depot.

Cold weather gear — hats, gloves, socks, coats, boots — also is needed, especially at the Lighthouse Home Mission's Warming Center to help care for the homeless, especially considering this week's bone-chilling temperatures. Or consider volunteering your time to work at the warming center during January, February and March. And while at it, have your children do their part. Instead of you dropping the money in the kettle let them. Have them help make the deliveries to the Goodfellows, the warming center and the food depot. It's an important lesson that they will keep for life. The gift is the generosity of spirit, a life skill that needs to be learned as a child. It is taught through example and experience.

So when you head out to the stores for some last-minute shopping, make an extra purchase for those less fortunate. It isn't shiny and bright, but generosity is a gift worth giving.

Aerotropolis: Boom or bust?

It's official. On Dec. 3, the Michigan Legislature passed the "Next Michigan Development Initiative," a major tax incentive package aimed at attracting logistics, transportation and manufacturing firms to transportation hubs. The Detroit Region Aerotropolis Development Corporation (ADC) was strongly backed by Wayne County Executive Robert Ficano.

The six-bill package would allow up to five Next Michigan Development Corporations to receive Renaissance Zone status and abatements from many major local government taxes. Wayne County wants to use that status to attract logistics companies around Metro Airport.

Mr. Ficano has pushed this legislation for years in the hope that it would be the right tool at the right time to solve the development woes of Wayne County. He has traveled the world looking for foreign dollars without returning with much evidence that China or other countries are about to rush into the area around the airport even with the tax break option. There are only so many logistic companies out there that can be lured or captured by any development tools. Competition for these companies is intense.

Wayne County will have to compete with lower taxed counties like Macomb and Oakland. And there's no denying that Wayne County has a looming $300 million projected deficit which also makes us less hospitable to new business and investors.

The use of abatements is inequitable and dubious at best. The fact that Mr. Ficano believes tax incentives are necessary in the first place is proof of Wayne County's stifling tax and spend climate. What will naturally make this county more attractive is the perception of a lean and mean government and lower taxes for all small businesses and entrepreneurs, not a hand selected few.

I have my doubts. However, I wish Mr. Ficano well. Wayne County desperately needs a large dose of business success. Only time will tell if the aerotropolis is just another pipe dream or actually pays dividends. When we revisit the aerotropolis initiative three years from now we'll have a better idea of whether it is a boom or bust.

Owners' right to repair

The Automotive Oil Change Association (AOCA) strongly supports the Motor Vehicle Owners Right to Repair Act (S 3181/HR 2057) and urges Congress to pass the pro-consumer, pro-small business legislation.

Americans throughout the country rely on oil change facilities for convenient local service. In order for these small businesses to be able to serve their customers, they must have access to the safety alerts and repair information necessary to provide service and safety checks on today's modern vehicles.

We have a growing concern that important repair information from vehicle manufacturers is being denied or not released in a timely manner to our members, including simple filter applications and fluid capacities that are fundamental to basic vehicle maintenance.

I think most motorists would agree that they should not be forced back to the dealer for any service, particularly something as simple as an oil change. Passage of the Right to Repair Act would ensure that all automotive repair facilities, including quick lubes, remain competitive so that car owners can conveniently and affordably have their vehicles serviced at the shop of their choice.

The Right to Repair Act has bipartisan support in both chambers of Congress. Please send a letter urging your members of Congress to support the Right to Repair Act by visiting www.righttorepair.org.

The issue: Moving Wall returns to city

What an honor for Westland to get the moving wall once again. I was very fortunate to have been able to have been a worker and volunteer for the wall. It was so moving to see veterans and families come leave flowers, pictures, notes, etc. I was so moved by this, I am hoping Ken will again allow me to work. Funny, I said work, it is an honor to do this no work involved. It comes straight from the heart. These veterans came home to a reception they did not deserve. They now get the reception they so deserve, they are heroes. They served their country with honor, and I am looking forward to again thanking any and all of these vets when they come to the wall.

The issue: Men confess to killing teen

I'm trying to figure out why 2 "men" would confess to a murder, but be so evasive when the police are trying to find the body of this poor girl. It's cases like, this we need the Death Penalty for.

westlandresident

I understood it was a lead that led them to the to men. Then after they were interrogated, they confessed. This is different than turning your self in. If there is no body, there is no murder 1, right?

Most likely they are holding that information in the hopes of a plea bargain. This is what our justice system has come to ... plea bargaining with murders ... Makes me sick!

GUEST COLUMN

Make it happen: Finding your passion is the key to success and joy in life

I'm not done singing yet," one of my 4-year-old twin granddaughters said as she finished her role in the preschool's holiday concert.

Her comment struck a chord with me. Leave it to a child to offer a world of truth in so few words. This little girl has a passion for singing. She may be peanut-sized, but she belts out a big vibrato voice that won't be quieted.

Joan Noricks

Perhaps it's the wear of age that makes most of us hide our voices under the drone of splashing water in the shower. But no one can hear our big voices in there. How else can we tell the world what we are passionate about?

The giving season and a New Year are typically when the world takes a moment for reflection. Indeed it is a perfect time for each of us to sing as loud as we can and make our voices heard about what moves us and stirs our passions.

Some folks passionately crusade for animals and the environment. Others raise their voices to protect children. And still others are determined to eradicate homelessness and hunger.

Last week the Canton Community Foundation was informed that the Michigan Department of Human Services is reporting more than 3,000 Canton residents are receiving food stamps. Wayne is just behind Canton, but the numbers are even higher in Westland and Romulus.

Hunger is the most basic need. And fulfilling basic needs in the community has stirred our passions at CCF this year as Michigan's stagnant economy and continuing joblessness put many residents at risk. Without an immediate economic miracle, we can only assume that families will continue to struggle.

Plenty of charitable organizations in our local communities are available to help those in need. Passionate leaders and volunteers work daily to raise funds and develop programs that can help improve our corner of the world.

In November, CCF hosted its second annual philanthropy summit that drew local nonprofits who work with donors fulfilling their own passions. An example of a Canton resident who followed her passion is Mary Beth Levine, who began the Detroit Area Diaper Bank in 2009. She didn't wait for millions of dollars to come along. She started small in her home and continues to work from there. The lack of diapers — government assistance programs do not pay for them — for infants and adults can put family hygiene, health and independence at risk.

Other passionate leaders are Deb Bondie, founder of Livonia-based Seedlings, which provides Braille books for blind children, and Elaine Kennedy, founder of New Morning School in Plymouth. They are fulfilling their passions, while leaving indelible marks on the lives of so many.

Just think what we can all accomplish by following our heart-filled passions and singing our own songs.

Joan Noricks is president of the Canton Community Foundation. She may be reached at (734) 495-1200 or jnoricks@cantonfoundation.org.

Be wary of scam artists, guard your finances

Ever since the financial crisis began, more and more financial Ponzi schemes have come to light. Ponzi schemes are a type of investment scam where existing investors are paid with money from new investors. The most famous Ponzi culprit is Bernard Madoff, whose house of cards came tumbling down two years ago.

Money Matters

A recent article stated the U.S. Justice Department brought criminal and civil cases against more than 500 people for fraud. These cases involve more than $10 billion in investor losses.

To keep a Ponzi scheme going new money is constantly needed to pay off existing investors. When new money can't be raised (as in the Madoff situation), the fraud blows up.

Investors seem to think that only the rich are subject to Ponzi schemes, but that is not the case. Every type of investor has suffered from these types of frauds and that is why all investors need to keep their guard up.

I wish I could reveal the one thing to look for to avoid these frauds. I can't. However, there are things that all investors need to consider.

It seems that many Ponzi schemes and frauds these days are committed by family and friends. These types of frauds have grown so much they are now referred to as affinity frauds. Scam artists like Madoff prey on people they know or who have similar interests. Madoff, being Jewish, scammed a disproportionate amount of investors who were Jewish. We have also witnessed a scam artist who was a pilot taking advantage of other pilots. It happens in every religion and every type of social or professional setting. The bottom line for investors: Don't let your guard down.

Scam artists like Madoff know that people will let their guard down when they are dealing with someone with a shared interest. Don't let that be you.

The key is to do your homework before getting involved. The fact that someone belongs to the same church as you or your children play on the same sporting team is meaningless. Due diligence is crucial. Check out the investment independently. If you can't, don't be afraid to walk away. Also, check out the person who wants you to invest. Do a Google search and check with state regulators. You would be surprised how a little bit of homework can save you from being involved with scam artists and crooks.

Scam artists like Madoff know that people will let their guard down when they are dealing with someone with a shared interest. Don't let that be you.

On a personal note I want to wish my dad, Mitch Bloom, a happy birthday. My dad celebrates his 90th birthday this week! It is my dad who taught me that when all is said and done, anyone who measures wealth in dollars and cents is a loser. True wealth is measured in family and friends. Happy Birthday, Dad!

Prep gymnastics teams anxious for season to start

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Practice began on Nov. 1. Forty six days later, the Livonia Red girls gymnastics team is finally ready to hit the floor with its first meet Thursday night at Walled Lake Maroon-Gold.

PREVIEW

Meanwhile, it will be another 19 days before Livonia Blue embarks on its season when it travels to Plymouth for its opener. What can we expect this 2010-11 campaign for the two programs? "It's a growing year," said Livonia

Blue fifth-year coach Lisa Fierk, who guided her team to a seventh-place team finish in last year's state finals. "They come out and do the best they can as the season progresses. We've been pretty healthy so far."

The most notable loss to graduation was Emily Quint, who was the regional all-around champion and 10th place finisher in Division 1. Her best event was the uneven parallel bars where she placed seventh. Also gone are Meredith Albers and

Kitz

Kretzschmar

Katie Bridges, but junior Alex Kitz will lead the way after earning a state qualifying berth in Division 2 where she finished 15th overall with an all-around score of 35.0. Kitz earned all-state honors on the uneven bars with a score of 8.95.

She is joined by two key returnees in junior captain Sara Bridges, who excels on bars and on balance beam, along with senior captain Cassie Morford, who was a Division 2 state qualifier last year on beam.

Other returnees included juniors Haley Olson, Alexis Soave, Sarah Hogan and Andrea Irvan, along with sophomore Allison White.

Fierk, who has 13 gymnasts all from Stevenson High, is unsure who might emerge as a promising newcomer. "We're waiting to see the first meet and see how it pans out against the competition," she said.

Kretzschmar leads Red

Lakers swim fast

Four Livonia Stevenson grads figured prominently as Grand Valley State opened its men's swimming and diving season by capturing the Calvin College Winter Invitational, Dec. 2-4, in Grand Rapids.

The Lakers scored a team-high 1,397 points followed by Kalamazoo College (661) and Olivet College (494).

Senior captain Jeff Pauza took firsts in the 500- and 1,650-yard freestyle events in 4:35.88 and 16:00.11 (school and pool record). He also added a third in the 200 freestyle (1:42.42) to earn three NCAA Division II 'B' qualifying cuts.

Sophomore Michael Cruce placed fourth in the 200 butterfly (1:54.41), an NCAA 'B' cut; seventh in the 500 freestyle (4:47.72); and eighth in the 100 butterfly (53.52).

Another sophomore, Joey Wingett, placed sixth in the 200 breaststroke (2:12.47) and eighth in the 100 breaststroke (1:00.48).

Cougars stymie Churchill, 45-19

Thurston romps past Groves

Garden City played suffocating defense Tuesday night en route to a 45-19 boys basketball win at home over Livonia Churchill.

The Cougars, who improved to 2-1 overall with the non-conference win, led 18-15 at halftime before posting runs of 11-1 and 16-3 over the final 16 minutes.

"They (Garden City) pressured the ball well and we couldn't handle it," said Churchill coach Jim Solak, whose team slipped to 0-3 overall.

Seniors Marlon Rodriguez and Brandon Kennedy paced Garden City's balanced scoring attack with nine and eight points, respectively.

Tyler Steele, Jordan Buck and Zach Vera-Burgos contributed seven apiece.

Churchill, shooting a dismal 7-of-32 from the floor, including 0-for-9 on three-point attempts, did not have anybody score more than three points.

Senior guard Dean Bokuniewicz had six rebounds.

Garden City was 4-for-4 from the foul stripe, while Churchill was 5-of-16.

THURSTON 73, GROVES 49: Senior Anthony Barley had a big night with 20 points, five rebounds, four assists and four steals as Redford Thurston (1-0) opened its season with a non-league win Tuesday at Birmingham Groves (0-3).

The Warriors led 22-21 at halftime before going on a 21-14 third-quarter run.

Kelzon Adams scored eight for the Chargers, who shot 3-of-8 from the foul stripe. Lutheran Westland was 7-of-16 from the line.

Stevenson secures 46-44 win vs. Pats

The Livonia Stevenson girls basketball team found a way to win Tuesday night.

The visiting Spartans overcame a 26-point effort from Livonia Franklin senior guard Chelsea Williams to earn a 46-44 triumph.

Stevenson got 15 points from 5-foot-10 freshman forward Charlesann Roy, while senior Monika Rudis and junior Jordan York each added nine points.

Stevenson jumped out to a 16-5 first quarter lead.

"After that our girls figured it would be a walk in the park," said Stevenson coach Jen Knoph, whose team is 2-1 overall. "But it's a game of runs and I told them Franklin's got a lot of scrappers and we can't rest on our first quarter. We don't have that killer instinct, but we were in the same situation last year and didn't get it done."

Amanda Borieo chipped in with seven points for the Patriots, who fought back to make it 37-35 after three quarters.

"We just dug ourselves a hole that first quarter and that was the game," Franklin first-year coach Bob Ostrowski said.

The Patriots, who slipped to 1-2 overall, went 14-of-21 from the foul line. Stevenson made 11-of-22 free throws.

LAKELAND 51, WAYNE 35: Stephanie Lock scored a game-high 19 points to propel White Lake Lakeland (4-0) to the KLAAC crossover win Tuesday at Wayne Memorial (1-2).

Lakeland led 29-14 at halftime before putting it away with a 14-5 third-quarter run.

Freshman Ashley Brand and junior Holland Boertje scored 11 and nine, respectively, for the Zebras.

Wayne was only 5-of-13 from the foul line, while Lakeland was just 2-of-15.

PLY. CHRISTIAN 34, LUTH. WESTLAND 15: On Tuesday, Brianna Harris scored 12 points as Plymouth Christian Academy (4-0, 1-0) rolled to a Michigan Independent Athletic Conference Blue Division win at Lutheran High Westland (1-3, 0-2).

Harris also had five assists and four steals as the Eagles led 28-10 at halftime and pulled away with an 11-2 fourth-quarter run.

Jenna Abraham and Jennifer Malcolm chipped in with eight and seven points, respectively, for PCA. Amanda Terranella and Aldreana Fikes scored seven and six points, respectively, for the Warriors, who committed a total of 25 turnovers.

PCA went 6-of-15 from the foul line, while Lutheran Westland was 0-for-2.

On Friday, sisters Madison and Haleigh Ristovski scored 27 and 14 points, respectively, as host Grosse Pointe Woods University-Liggett (2-1, 1-0) rolled to a 65-12 MIAC Blue win over the Warriors.

The Saints would not get any closer than 12 the rest of the way as MU got back to the .500 mark (2-2) in the WHAC.

MU is idle for final exams until Friday when it hosts the annual Crusader Classic. Marygrove and Spring Arbor meet the first game of the double-header at 6 p.m., while MU takes on East-West (Ill.) at 8 p.m.

GRAND RAPIDS CC 88, SCHOOLCRAFT 60: A 50-26 halftime deficit was too much to overcome Saturday as Grand Rapids Community College (5-3) downed Schoolcraft College (6-8) in the Kalamazoo Valley CC Tournament.

(David) Vincenzini could qualify in the breaststroke, butterfly and 100. Franklin Oiu is a transfer who is not eligible until second semester. He's a possible state cut in the sprint freestyle and breaststroke as well. We had our first meet against Walled Lake Western (101-82 defeat). Falcons sweep at Super Bowl

Nobody likes to admit they were wrong, but on Nov. 6, outgoing Livonia Junior Athletic League commissioner Mike Rotter was more than happy to announce that indeed he was.

Twelve months earlier, Rotter told anyone who would listen that the Falcon football unit's perfect season — three undefeated Western Lakes Junior Football League Super Bowl champion teams, each at 10-0 — would never happen again. History, however, did repeat itself when the Falcons completed another hat trick and perfect season at Eastern Michigan University's Rynearson Stadium.

The Falcon freshman team, coached by Rob Shepley, set the wheels in motion for the remarkable day with a 35-12 triumph over the Livonia Orioles, who wanted to avenge a loss in the LJAL championship game two weeks earlier.

The Falcon JV, coached by Bob Jarosz, then made it two-for-two with a hard-fought 14-0 victory over the Novi Bobcats, the third meeting between the teams in as many years.

That set the stage for the Falcon varsity, who held up their end of the bargain by defeating the Walled Lake Braves, 27-12, in a rematch of the 2009 final.

The Falcon varsity, coached by Fred Miller, is 29-0 and a three-time Super Bowl champion.

Members of the Super Bowl Falcon JV squad include: Luke Battjes, Jacob Beaune, Collin Bowersox, J.R. Spartans stave off Brighton, 3-2

Senior center J.J. Petterson scored a pair of power-play goals to lead Livonia Stevenson to its sixth consecutive victory with a 3-2 boys hockey win Saturday over host Brighton at the Kensington Valley Ice House.

After a scoreless first period, Petterson scored his second and third goals of the season during the second period to give the Spartans a 2-0 lead.

The Bulldogs narrowed the gap when Zach Morgan found the net with 1:01 remaining in the period.

Junior forward Tommy Ross gave the Spartans an insurance goal, his second of the season, when he fired in a one-time pass from senior Justin Shureb. Senior Tim Pruchnik also assisted on the goal that gave Stevenson a 3-1 lead with 5:57 left in the game.

Brighton narrowed the gap to 3-2 with 1:03 remaining in the game with a power lay goal by Travis Cohoon, but sophomore goalie Connor Humitz and the Spartans held on to win the game and improve their overall record to 6-1.

Humitz made 24 saves on 26 shots to earn his fifth win of the season, while Brighton goaltender Jack Gosselin stopped 17-of-20 Stevenson shots.

The loss drops Brighton to 3-3-1 overall.

LADYWOOD 8, MERCY 2: Hannah Periera had a hat trick and four assists to lead host Livonia Ladywood (2-4, 2-4) to a Michigan Metro Girls High School Hockey League victory Saturday night over rival Farmington Hills Mercy (2-5, 1-4) at Plymouth's Arctic Pond.

The Blazers jumped out to a 3-0 advantage only to have Mercy cut the margin to 3-2 after one period on pair of goals by Madeline McClain. Ladywood responded with five unanswered goals including four in the second period.

"We came out ready and took it to them early going, but we let them back into the game after getting back-to-back penalties," Ladywood coach Bruce Peck said. "We knew we needed to come out in the second period and get the momentum back. The girls were able to move the puck well and get four straight in the period."

Other Ladywood point producers included Jenny Rohn (two goals, two assists); Rana Freij (one goal, two assists); Lane Kolpacke (one goal, one assist); Brittany Galvin (one goal); and Erin Doyle (one assist).

Lauren Hensick assisted on both Mercy goals. Lauren Debrincat also drew an assist.

Ladywood goalie Jessica Pavela made 28 saves, while Mercy's Kari Unger had 24 stops.

"The third period saw us in the penalty box for a lot of the period, but we were able to play well defensively," Peck said. "Jessica Pavela did a great job in net."

Conference.

SheMeika Nicholson added 11 points and Sierra Calhoun contributed 10 for Siena Heights, which shot a blistering 27-of-51 from the field (52.9 percent).

Madonna (3-6, 1-3) shot only 35.1 percent from the floor (20-of-57) and was outrebounded 38-27.

Wildcats host holiday swim event

BY TIM SMITH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Doug Schade is still trying to figure out who can do what for his 2010-11 Plymouth varsity boys swimming and diving team.

But the coach will get more of an idea Friday evening at the annual Wildcat Holiday Relays. The event, hosted by the Wildcats, is set for 6:30 p.m. at Salem's natatorium. "I think it's a good chance just to see what you have, because you really don't know until you put it (the team) in the water," Schade said. "It's definitely more exciting than practice. And really, it's just kind of a fun meet and I think kids get really excited about it."

Plymouth, Canton, Redford Union and six other schools will compete. Varsity and junior varsity swimmers will participate in up to 10 scheduled relays.

"We've been doing this for three or four years and every year we've been adding teams," said Schade, about what is building into one of the biggest relay events in southeastern Michigan. "I'd like to get as many teams as we can get in there and make it a really big deal."

Friday will be a departure from the norm.

There will be some events that teams do not swim in during regular dual meets, such as relays for the 200 fly, 200 back, 200 breast and 400-meter IM. Add to that a 500-meter crescendo relay.

"We're definitely going to swim all our kids, as will everybody else," Schade said. "Everybody for each event will have a varsity relay that's scoring points and everybody will be allowed to have a JV to swim for fun. So you get all your kids in the meet that way."

According to Schade, most of the swims are 50 or 100 yards, so that will enable more kids to compete and be evaluated in a low-pressure environment.

"You can see how your newer swimmers swim and they don't have to go a lot of distance," he continued.

Plus there also will be a festive theme — lightening things up on the eve of a two-week holiday hiatus.

"We have a holiday theme, we give candy canes out to the heat winners," Schade said. "The boys like that, they think that's fun."

There also will be trophies and medals, by the way.

Also anticipating the relays is Canton head coach Dave Le, because the many freshmen and sophomores on the squad will be looking to gain extra experience.

"Friday's meet is a good meet to start the season off with because we have a very young team," Le said. "It gives everyone an opportunity to compete."

In addition to the Wildcats, Chiefs and Panthers, other teams at the relays include Howell, Tecumseh, South Lyon, Woodhaven, Dearborn Edsel Ford and Monroe.

GYMNASTS

Made up of gymnasts from both Churchill and Franklin, Livonia Red lost Division 2 individual state qualifier Katina St. Pierre (uneven bars and beam) along with Sidnee Mattison to graduation.

Ninth-year coach Kelly Grodzicki's 2010-11 team will be anchored by sophomore Katie Kretzschmar, an all-around state qualifier last year in Division 1.

Kretzschmar's best finish was 14th on floor exercise

(9.15) en route to a 23rd place overall (34.95). The Franklin student was also eighth in the all-around at the regional.

"The key for Katie is staying focused," Grodzicki said. "Hopefully she'll increase her skills and continue to do that along with being able to motivate and encourage the other girls in their skills."

Leading returnees include sophomore Mallory Dorton, all-around;

junior Megan Martinez, beam and vault; sophomores Sarah Gosdzinski and Maggie McGowan, both all-around. Senior captain Megan McDonald, who will be in the beam and vault, also returns to the lineup after year's absence.

The top newcomer, according to Grodzicki, is freshman Shannon Diaz, an all-around competitor with a competitive cheer background.

"Both the newcomers and returning girls are stepping up," Grodzicki said. "Our numbers are small, but we have some promising talent. We're hoping for a safe season and I think it will be a successful year. We'll know more on Thursday."

Churches offer services for those feeling blue

BY SHARON DARGAY
O&E STAFF WRITER

If you feel sad or troubled this Christmas season, you might find relief at a church service meant to ease the pain of loss.

St. Genevieve Catholic Church will hold a "Longest Night" worship service at 7 p.m. Monday, Dec. 20, at 29015 Jamison, off Middlebelt between Five Mile and Schoolcraft in Livonia. The quiet, meditative gathering is an alternative for those who don't feel comfortable celebrating the holiday in a traditional Christmas Eve or morning service.

"The mood we're shooting for is relaxing, comforting, quiet. It will be dim, with candles. We want people to be able to rest and lay their burdens down and be comforted," said Diane Montes, youth minister coordinator. "We're going to gear it down. Instead of speaking from the altar, we'll bring a lectern down to make it feel more intimate."

"We do invite the whole community. You don't have to be Catholic to be blessed by this."

Montes based the service on one she had attended four years ago at a church in Birmingham. At the time she was grieving the loss of her 22-year-old son, who had died in June that year.

STORIES OF LOSS

She'll be among the speakers at the special service who will talk briefly about their personal experiences. She'll reflect on the loss of a loved one. Others will focus on job loss, illness and hope. A short prayer, reflection time and lighting of an advent candle will follow each speaker.

"Grief is a physical manifestation that knocks you off your feet. It's so hard to recover, especially at Christmas," she said. "That first Christmas I couldn't put up decorations. I couldn't imagine celebrating. It does get better. Every day it's a little easier."

"But there are so many other kinds of loss. There may be people who can't continue the traditions their family is used to. They aren't bringing in the same income. They see others shopping and buying and they are just trying to pay the bills. Or they aren't sure what will happen to their job the first of the year or they are ill."

EMPATHY

She said her own loss made her more aware of the burdens that other individuals carry.

"When people are aware of what you've suffered, they feel free to share about their own suffering."

The service will wrap up with a blessing and opportunity for each individual to light a candle.

Longest Night services are held on or near the first day of winter when sunset comes early, days are short and spirits may sink in the growing darkness.

Here's a sampling of other alternative Christmas services:

• St. John's Episcopal Church, 4:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 19, 574 S. Sheldon, Plymouth. The "Blue Christmas Service" is designed to help people who are hurting because of loss or crisis, find peace and solace. The service includes readings from poetry and scripture, prayer, and a special candle lighting litany. Holy Communion is offered, and music will include not only quiet Christmas carols, but also songs from the Taizé tradition. (734) 453-0190

• First United Methodist Church, 7 p.m., Tuesday, Dec. 21, in the sanctuary, 1589 W.

Maple, Birmingham. The place "to bring the grief, anxiety and pain that often surfaces during the holidays," the Longest Night worship service will include peaceful music, personal prayer, stories of hope, communion and a candle lighting. Cookies and punch will be served in the fellowship hall after the service; (248) 646-1200.

Dave Bennett and his septet

Local clarinetist pays tribute to Benny Goodman

Dave Bennett, a Michigan native and a leading jazz virtuoso, and his band will play many of the late Benny Goodman's best-loved swing jazz classics at 4 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 9, 2011 at the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington.

The "Remembering Benny" concert is a part of an on-going concert series at the church.

Bennett is a self-taught prodigy who began playing at age 10 on a clarinet given to him by his grandfather. Although now only in his mid-20s, Bennett's performing career goes back to age 12, when trumpet legend Doc Cheatham invited him to the bandstand of New York City's celebrated Sweet Basil Jazz Club. At 14, Bennett began frequenting tours on the "traditional jazz" circuit with a Saginaw-based Dixieland band. At 17, he won — over more than 600 entrants — a guest solo spot with the Count Basie Orchestra.

Bennett has created both written and "head" arrangements of many of Benny Goodman's classics, including Moonglow, Stompin' at the Savoy, Airmail Special, Let's Dance, and the signature piece from the historic Carnegie Hall concert, Sing Sing Sing. Along with the members of his septet, Bennett has meticulously worked out the complicated harmonies, improvised riffs, and tightly woven ensemble parts from the big band and smaller combo recordings that made Goodman the "King of Swing" in the 1930s and Dave Bennett will play a tribute to Benny Goodman at the First Presbyterian Church, Farmington.

Bennett has recorded with three of the Goodman band's most famous musical alumni: pianist Dick Hyman, vibraphonist Peter Appleyard, and guitarist Bucky Pizzarelli. They've called "Remembering Benny" the closest thing to an actual Benny Goodman concert.

First Presbyterian Church is located at 26165 Farmington Road, at 11 Mile, in Farmington Hills. Free parking is available on-site, and the entire facility is barrier-free and handicap accessible. There is no charge for this event, but donations will be collected to fund the musicians. Suggested donation is $10 per person and $25 per family. For more information, visit www.farmington-pres.org or call (248) 474-6170, extension 208.

O&E STAFF WRITER

Bob Nelson hasn't missed a Plymouth Oratorio Society concert in 24 years.

"It took some dedication and work," said the Canton resident and one of the choral group's original members. "Last year the concert came on the last day of a show I was in with the Spotlight Players. They knew that when I had signed up. We made a deal." At intermission Nelson took off his cowboy costume and left the Players' final show of Oklahoma! to take his place among the bass singers at the Plymouth Oratorio Society's only show of the season.

That kind of dedication is typical among Society members.

"This is a group that takes music seriously. We have fun, but people are not there to pass the time. People are there to sing works that you can't do anywhere else," Nelson said.

Those works have included the Easter portion of Handel's Messiah, Bach's Passion According to St. John, Requiems by Mozart, Brahms and Rutter, and Stravinsky's Symphony of Psalms. In celebration of its 25th anniversary, the Society will take a step back in time when it kicks off its four-month schedule of weekly rehearsals on Jan. 3, 2011. Singers, led by director Rick Ingram, will tackle major portions of Mendelssohn's Elijah, an oratorio they sang during the group's second season.

CHALLENGING MUSIC

"The first year we sang the Easter portion of Messiah. Then we sang part one of Elijah the second year," said Don Pratt, Society business manager and a tenor with the group. Elijah is a major work of choral repertoire. It's not as commonly known as the Messiah. People don't have as much experience with it. That makes it more of a challenge."

Membership in the Society is open to anyone interested in taking on that challenge. Singers join without auditioning, but must be able to sing complex, demanding classical works.

PAYING TO SING

Rehearsals run from 7:30 to about 9 p.m. every Monday beginning next month and running through April at First United Methodist Church, 45201 N. Territorial, Plymouth. They culminate in one concert, generally held the first Sunday of May. Although the concert is free to the public, Society members pay a $10 fee for a musical score and $20 for facilities rental and insurance when they join the group in January. Donations from the Plymouth Rotary Foundation and grants from the Michigan Council for the Arts enable the group to hire the Michigan Sinfonietta to play at the annual spring concert.

"For 30 bucks you're ready to rock and roll if you're an experienced singer and can sing the music," Pratt said. "It's pretty rare that we have to weed someone out. People know this is a group that does music of the masters and we do it with a professional orchestra. It's a self-audition because of the quality of music we do."

CREATIVE OUTLET

Pratt said many members have gained experience in church choirs before joining the group. He sings with the choir at St. John Neumann Catholic Church in Canton and his father, the late Robert Pratt, was the founding conductor of the Plymouth Oratorio Society.

Nelson also sings in the choir at his church, First United Methodist Church in Plymouth. A mathematician by training and CFO of Airflow Sciences Corporation in Livonia, Nelson finds a creative outlet in the Plymouth Oratorio Society.

He likes the idea that Society concerts are free to the public, making it affordable for families to expose their children to quality classical music.

"If you look at what is happening to music in our schools, our youth has less exposure to the quality music that makes up a good bit of our heritage," Nelson said. "You don't have to pay $35 for a ticket. If they get fidgety, you can afford to leave halfway through the concert."

No RSVP is necessary to join the group next month. Pratt said prospective singers simply need to attend the first rehearsal on Jan. 3, 2011. Those with questions can call him at (734) 455-8353.

Rick Ingram directs the Plymouth Oratorio Society.

Deadline set in second annual film festival

Get those camcorders ready and head to South Lyon. The 3 Minutes in Lyon Film Festival is accepting entries for next year's screening and awards night in June 2011.

The inaugural festival in May unveiled 16 original and locally produced videos from more than 25 producers. The festival is open to anyone regardless of residence, although films and videos must be shot in South Lyon, Lyon Township, Kensington Metropark or Island Lake recreation Area.

Students, video enthusiasts, non-profit organizations, families and anyone else with a desire to display their visual and storytelling creativity may participate in the festival by creating their own three-minute video and submitting it on DVD. Entry deadline is Monday, June 13, 2011.

The festival will begin with Free Screening Night, an outdoor viewing of all submitted videos. Audience members will select the Audience Choice Award by voting on the best overall entry.

A new festival activity, the Producer's Roundtable, will invite all producers to discuss their projects, multimedia creation and filming ideas. The festival will end with an awards night at the Lyon theatre in South Lyon, where top films will be recognized.

"The response to the inaugural festival was better than expected. I was impressed with the range of video concepts and the wide age range of participants. Producers submitting videos ranged in age from 11 to 55," stated founder Richard Perry. "Seeing a wide variety of images from the community and businesses on the big screen was very exciting. But even more impressive was to see the level of creativity in every submission resulting in very entertaining videos."

Festival details entry form, entry rules and instructions are available at www.lyonfilmfestival.org.

Rib Roast

A TOAST TO THE Holiday Roast

When it comes to holiday entertaining, there is nothing more elegant — or easy — than serving a beautiful roast. The elegance factor we can all understand, but easy? It's true. There is no need to be intimidated by a roast ever again.

Tender roasts are always cooked uncovered using dry heat methods, which results in producing the flavorful, deep brown crusty exterior. It's also important to allow the roast to rest before carving to ensure that the juices in the center have time to redistribute for maximum flavor and tenderness.

By following a few simple guidelines, you can easily prepare and serve a holiday roast that will receive rave reviews from all your guests.

Party responsibly with these alcohol-free cocktails

CITY BITES

AAA Michigan is encouraging motorists to remain drug and alcohol-free when they drive during the holidays. Visitors to TakeThePledge.AAA.com can sign a pledge to support a culture of "zero tolerance" for impaired driving and spread the word to family and friends via Facebook and Take the Pledge e-cards.

Nearly 9 of 10 drivers say that motorists who drive after drinking are a very serious threat to their personal safety, according to the AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety. And 98 percent say they consider it unacceptable for a driver to get behind the wheel when they think they may have had too much to drink.

Each year, more than 11,000 individuals are killed in alcohol-related crashes, representing 32 percent of all motor vehicle accidents. More than a million individuals are arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol each year.

AAA Michigan offers these party tips to stay safe on the roads:

- Plan ahead and designate a non-drinking driver before any holiday party or celebration begins.
- Never get behind the wheel of a car when you've been drinking - even after just one drink.
- Do not hesitate to take the keys from friends or family members who may be impaired.
- Be a real friend: Call a taxi for those in need.
- Be a responsible host in reminding guests to stay safe and offer alcohol-free beverages.

Here are a few recipes for nonalcoholic cocktails from AAA Michigan's newest edition of its annual Great Pretenders Party Guide. For more recipes, visit a AAA Michigan office or go online at www.aaa.com/Pretenders.
