Council to vote on new city hall

By LeAnne Rogers
Observer Staff Writer

The process of building a new Westland City Hall to be located behind the William Faust Library and funded through Tax Increment Finance money could officially get started Monday.

"This will be an exciting time for the city. It's a much-needed facility — 20 years ago this building needed to be replaced," said Council President James Godbout.

At a study session Monday, the council reached a consensus to place the matter on the agenda for a vote at its April 2 meeting. If the council OKs the concept and starts the process, it is likely construction could get under way in May 2013 with the building to be completed in November 2014.

"It might seem like we are moving fast for some in the room who haven't heard this before," said Mayor William Wild, after a review of the proposal. "We didn't have the ability to pay a couple of years ago without impacting the general fund. There are historic low interest rates. The project will be a boost in the arm for the construction trades in our area. The timing is coming together."

Enhance community
Along with replacing the antiquated building, which pre-dates the city's incorporation over 45 years ago, the proposal takes advantage of land already owned by the city and would require no money from the general fund

Three-peat: Red Wings alum crush Wild Wings in annual hockey game

In their third outing against the Detroit Red Wing Alumni team, the Westland Wild Wings had the same result as last year — losing by a lopsided score and raising more than $20,000.

Coached by Alex Delvecchio, the Red Wings team which included John Ogrodnick, Darren McCarty and Petr Klima, won the game 10-3.

The Mike Modano Ice Arena was filled to capacity for the game Saturday evening.

"Petr Klima is the guy who killed us, he did most of their scoring. It was scoreless after 13 minutes. Our goalie Jeff Reed stopped all the shots," said Westland Mayor William Wild, who scored on a penalty shot. Ogrodnick ended the scoring drought on a shot hard enough to break Reed's goalie stick as the puck went into the net. Joining Wild on the Wild

Wings were former University of Michigan hockey player Chris Frescoln, an attorney with city attorneys Fausone Bohn, and Westland's assistant arena/golf course maner Joe Burton. A Garden City resident, Smokin' Joe was honored with a dasher board commemorating his induction

Vote clears way for Warren Road work

By LeAnne Rogers
Observer Staff Writer

It may make for a bit more difficult Christmas shopping this year, but the reconstruction of a section of Warren Road near Westland Shopping Center is set to move ahead later this year.

"I know the council has received a lot of suggestions on this. It will be a really nice project when it is finished," said Westland Mayor William Wild. "This work ties in with the work that Wayne County already did on Warren Road."

Last week, the council approved the inter-governmental agreement with Wayne County for the project which will resurface Warren Road from Wayne Road to Newburgh. The nearly $810,000 project will be largely funded with federal money along with a $72,000 match from Westland and an equal amount from the county.

Wild credited the efforts of Westland Department of Public Services Director Kevin Buford and Wayne County Commissioner Joan Gebhardt, D-Livonia, in getting the project moving forward after years of attending meetings on the funding.

"This stretch of Warren Road runs right through the heart of Westland's famous 'Shop & Dine District' adjacent to the Westland Shopping Center," said Wild. "Residents and shoppers alike will benefit from this much-needed repair."

The project is scheduled to begin later this year.

Family prepares to say goodbye to Kent Morton

By Sue Mason
Observer Staff Writer

Fawn Salvatore is certain of two things: She is proud to call Garden City her home and immensely thankful for the businesses and people who came to the aid of her family after her son, Kent, drowned in the Detroit River Jan. 11.

"I'm so proud to be a resident of Garden City," said Salvatore. "The people complain about their little complaints, but I wouldn't want to live anywhere else. I want to thank the whole community around here. The people came in and helped us so much. I helped me a lot with the support we got from them."

The family is preparing to say their final goodbyes to Morton after his body was finally found in the river last Friday. A private graveside ceremony will be held in about nine weeks at Cadillac Memorial Gardens West in Westland after a monument to hold his remains has been engraved with the words "beloved father, son, brother and friend."

Salvatore was en route home from a three-day trip to Amelia Island, Fla., when the body of her 28-year-old son was recovered from the Detroit River. Her daughter waited until she had gotten off the plane to call and tell her. In her heart, Salvatore knows her son waited to be found.

"He waited until momma came home, he knew I needed that time," said Salvatore. "I think he knew I needed the rest. I just sat by the beach and be at peace. I needed the time to think about him."

Hard to leave

Admitting that it is hard to leave her family — "I'm always worrying about something happening" — Salvatore had accepted a close friend's offer to be her guest on the Florida trip. Ironically, she arrived in Florida on Tuesday, the same day a body of an unidentified man was pulled from the river, and left the day her son's body was found.

The discovery came more than 10 weeks after he fell from the Ambassador Bridge and drowned. An employee of Seaway Painting in Livonia, he had been working on scaffolding underneath the bridge 150 feet above the river when it gave way.

Residents ask about status of rec center

By LeAnne Rogers
Observer Staff Writer

The purpose of the study session was to discuss the construction of a new City Hall, but much of the public comment focused on the anticipated closing of the nearby Bailey Recreation Center.

Some residents noted no room rentals are being accepted after June 30 — the last day of the current fiscal year — and questioned council members about whether the building was closing.

"We have made no decision on the recreation center. More and more cities are doing private-public partnerships," said Council President James Godbout. "Part of the reason we partnered with Wayne (for Good Neighbor recreation services) was the condition of the Bailey Center."

An answer on the possible Bailey Center closing will be included in the proposed 2012-13 fiscal year which Mayor William Wild will present to the council by April 1. A budget study session is scheduled for 6 p.m. Wednesday, April 4.

"We basically use the Bailey Center for room rentals," said Wild, adding the center is again having problems with its boiler and there are ongoing problems with the swimming pool.

No one disagreed with the need for a new

City Hall. Resident Bud Somerville was concerned about baseball fields lost in the remediation of Central City Park and the high cost of gymnasium rentals at Wayne-Westland schools.

Resident Mark Rodriguez called for a new city hall to be constructed on the current Ford Road location, adding voters would support a millage request to fund the project.

"The recreation center is outdated, too. What will be built first?" he said. "City hall, not a recreation center for the children or the people."

Other residents questioned what would happen to current City Hall and its site once a new building was constructed.

"The Bailey Center and City Hall buildings are both obsolete, we have gotten 45 years out of both buildings. They weren't built for the growth of the city," said

Wild. "I would say demolish both City Hall and the Bailey Center, then look at the entire campus. It's prime commercial property."

Another resident, Robert Foreich, suggested that if both city hall and the recreation center are obsolete, the council might think about a combined facility when a new building is constructed.

into the Central Hockey League Hall of Fame. Burton was the league all-time scorer from his days with the Oklahoma City Blazers minor league hockey team. It had also been declared Joe Burton Day in Oklahoma City.

In a twist on Score-o, a dozen local celebrities, including Council President James Godbout, Councilman Dewey Reeves, Councilwoman Meriam Kadi, Wayne-Westland school board member Shawna Walker, state Sen. Glenn Anderson, D-Westland, State Rep. Richard LeBlanc, D-Westland, 18th District Court Judges Sandra Cicirelli and Mark McConnell, paid $100 each after not scoring.

"They got one shot. Some of them said it was a carny game and that the opening in the board wasn't big enough for the puck," said Westland Parks and Recreation Director Robert Kosowski. "They hadn't seen the board until we brought it out. The hole was big enough. The point was to raise money."

event will go toward construction of new locker room facilities at the ice arena — a project with an estimated $500,000 price tag. The capital improvement fund has about $25,000 already earmarked for the project, which is also receiving a $5 per hour fee added to ice time.

"We've been asked why this will cost so much. The problem is where we have to build the HVAC and plumbing," said Wild. "We have to update the electric and trench out the DTE service from the road."

or any millage increase by using TIFA funds to repay the bonds.

"Throughout the years, the TIFA board always has looked for projects that will enhance the community," said TIFA Board Chair Marsha Bianconi. "The (Faust) library was our biggest project and I like to think our most successful. It's not the first time we have discussed City Hall."

The TIFA board began looking at existing vacant buildings within the TIFA district around the Westland Shopping Center in 2010. Wild noted that one building considered was the former Circuit City building on Warren Road which has since been sold.

If the council decides to move ahead with the project, a specific design and engineering will be developed. Based on recommendations from Plante Moran CRESA, the building would need to be 30,000 to 50,000 square feet, depending on which satellite departments are brought into the building. The estimated cost based on square footage would range from $8 million to 13 million, funded through a bond and repaid with TIFA funds.

"I congratulate you on being able to talk about fixed assets rather than just the fund balance. You started on that years ago right-sizing the budget," said auditor Michael Swartz of Plante Moran. "City Hall at this point is an inefficient building. It can't be made more efficient without significant cost."

One earlier proposal that had been considered was to demolish the existing City Hall and rebuild on the existing site. That would have required temporarily relocating City Hall operations and moving back into the new building, which had an estimated $400,000 price tag. Additionally, City Hall is located in the Downtown Development Authority which currently would have one-to-one funding for the project and require general fund money, if there are additional property tax revenue decreases.

'Destroying area'

Conceding City Hall, with its long-standing flooding problems, had needed to be replaced for 30 years, former Councilman Ken Mehl said he disagreed with the proposal for a new building behind the library.

"Years ago, the council and mayors talked with the people who started Nankin Township who put the building here," said Mehl. "What was the idea of developing this building? The idea was a municipal complex. For what reason are you destroying this area? Why destroy the pristine area behind the library?"

If presented correctly, Mehl said voters would support a millage increase to fund the construction of a new city hall.

Godbout responded that he couldn't see going to voters asking for a millage increase to rebuild on the existing site when there was an alternative that would not require a tax increase.

"I'm a pretty good salesman, but I don't know that I could spin it well enough to sell it," Godbout said.

"I wouldn't put a millage before anyone, especially when we can build it without millage," said Councilman Dewey Reeves.

He survived the fall and even managed to swim briefly before being carried off by the current. He was last seen near the Bob-Lo docks south of the bridge.

His family had spent four days at river's edge, hoping searchers would recover his body. It wasn't found until March 23 in the shallows of the river near Zug Island and at the mouth of the River Rouge, further down river.

Found on him was his cell phone, which Salvatore had called many times after the accident to tell him she loved him, and his wallet with his diver's license and a movie ticket from when he and fiancée Kristi Waltsgott had gone to see Twilight.

"You could still read the day and time, his wallet must have been inside his Carhartts," said Salvatore. "His phone must have been on the outside, it was filled with mud."

Salvatore had her children involved in swimming growing up, and she believes that experience saved her son from serious injury in the fall. However, it was the weight of his clothing that dragged him down.

Kent Morton, with his daughter Makayla, is remembered for his smile and his jokes.

"What's really ironic is that there wasn't one broken bone in his body," she said. "That's what hurts so bad. He knew how to land in the water and if there had been a boat or a life jacket, he could have survived. That's what bothers and hurts me."

Community support
Her family is amazed at the outpouring of support. The Garden City community has rallied around the family, attending a prayer vigil at Morning Star Church two days after Kent Morton disappeared and then filling John Santieu and Son Funeral Home to capacity for a Jan. 22 memorial.

Businesses and individuals, even strangers, have made donations to help them. Some of the money has been used for funeral expenses and some has been used for Morton's 7-year-old daughter, Makayla. Money also has been in a trust fund for Makayla and the unborn child of fiancée Kristi Waltsgott, according to a post on the In Honor of Kent Alex Morton Facebook page.

"I need to thank everyone, but I'm afraid I'll forget someone," said Salvatore. "It has meant a lot to us. I can't list all of them, but they know who they are. They have helped us out so much."

One of those people is the woman whose brother fell off the bridge on the Canadian side 11 years ago. She has called repeatedly to find out how Salvatore is doing. A TV cameraman also has called weekly to check on the family.

She also praises the staff of Memorial Elementary 1-2 Campus where MaKayla is a first-grader and where Salvatore has returned as a volunteer.

"The school has been wonderful in helping my granddaughter," she said. "We have received so much support from everyone. I want to thank everyone for everything they have sent. It has truly helped tremendously."

She acknowledges that she was in shock and denial after the accident, but with the recovery of her son's body, the tragedy has hit home. Easter will be a difficult time just as it was a few weeks ago when the family got together to celebrate one of his brother's birthday.

"Kent always was the one to make the jokes, he wasn't there to do that," she said. "It was different without him there. It really hit me hard."

While the family is preparing for his burial, the Michigan Occupational Safety and Health Administration is investigating the incident. It's unclear if Morton's crew had life jackets, a life-saving buoy and a rescue boat, which are required, according to a MIOSHA official. The investigation could take months to complete.

Police find 'scrapper' with stolen auto parts

Westland

Stolen property

A Westland man has been charged with receiving stolen property and could be facing theft charges in Plymouth.

An officer was sent to a home in the 6000 block of North Walton just before 11 a.m. March 24 about a loud disturbance by a possible scrapper. When the officer arrived, he said he could hear loud metal-on-metal noise from over 50 feet away which seemed unreasonably loud for a residential area.

The suspect was inside the bed of a large enclosed rental truck throwing heavy exhaust manifolds forward in the truck. The officer said the man was startled by the officer's presence. The man denied living at the home and told the officer his boss lived at the address.

The man told the officer that he was loading the parts, which came from his boss' shop and were defective, so they could be disposed of at a scrap yard. The officer noted an additional 15 manifolds in the garage which hadn't been loaded yet.

The man was arrested on a warrant as police sent a message to area police departments about possibly stolen auto parts. CMAI Industries in Plymouth had reported iron exhaust manifolds, described as weighing eight tons and valued at $5,000, stolen.

A representative of the business came to the home on Walton and identified the parts which had been placed in a bin overnight to be collected by a scrapping company.

The representative also identified the suspect as an employee of his business. Witnesses also told police the man had been living at the home for a couple of months.

Carjacking

Just before 11 p.m. March 26, a Westland man told police he was getting into his car in the parking lot of 7-Eleven, 970 S. Wayne Road, when a man armed with a handgun approached. The gunman told the man to get out of the car and the resident said he complied.

The suspect then drove away in the 1999 purple Pontiac Grand Am heading south on Wayne Road. A store clerk told police the suspect had been inside the store asking customers, including the victim, to buy him cigarettes. The suspect was described as approximately 18 years old and left when the clerk refused to sell him cigarettes.

Robbery

A Westland resident

told police he was robbed March 25 just before 8 p.m. while walking behind Holiday Plaza, 8623 N. Wayne Road. The man told police he met two men in the alley and asked if they wanted to buy some cologne, which he sells.

The men were talking about pricing when the resident said one of the suspects pulled out a handgun. Reported stolen were $178, a backpack and 15 bottles of various types of cologne.

Robbery

On March 26, officers on patrol on Elmwood near Yale reported seeing a vehicle pulled onto the lawn near the intersection. As the officers approached, a Westland man got out of the passenger side of the vehicle.

The man had a bruised and bloody right eye. He told police that as he walked south on Yale he had been assaulted by two males who struck him in the face. The assailants took his backpack when he fell, the man said, then tried to grab his cell phone.

Officers located the back pack on Elmwood near Linville and returned it to the man. He said that a silver necklace, valued at $50, had been inside the backpack and was missing.

Lawn equipment, tools found missing from garage

GARDEN CITY

Shoplifting

A 47-year-old Garden City resident was arrested about 3 p.m. March 20 for shoplifting, oblivious to the fact that police were watching her inside of the Rite Aid store at 29447 Ford.

An employee had called the Garden City police to tell them that there was a larceny in progress.

An officer saw the suspect facing the cosmetic aisle when he arrived. When she saw the officer, she picked up the items that she placed on the floor and asked him to hold them for her.

The store supervisor saw her place some of the items in her purse and asked her if she had money to pay for the products. She responded that she had $4 when in reality she had no money.

The police also found about $30 of merchandise with tags on them in her purse. They believed that these items were taken from the Target store in Dearborn Heights.

Break-in

Someone broke into a garage in the 2000 block of Garden sometime before 1:30 p.m. March 27. The resident said that the garage was locked but found an open slider door.

The homeowner said that he left his home at 6 a.m. and when he returned he noticed a variety of tools and equipment were missing from the garage. They included a $2,100 riding lawn mower, a $1,600 snowblower and a variety of other tools valued at more than $1,100.

The police found no sign of forced entry.

Stolen car

A resident in the 33000 block of Hennepin reported that someone stole her 1983 Chevrolet sometime before 7:45 a.m. March 23 from her driveway. She said that the bulletproof vest that her husband uses for his armored car job was inside the vehicle.

The woman added that she has all of the keys.

Theft

An employee at Elite Eyecare at 29316 Ford reported a display case of 30-40 "high end" sunglasses stolen from the store about 11 a.m. March 24.

She said that a man came into the store but had left after she returned from the back of the store.

He again returned a short time later and said that he left abruptly previously because he had received an emergency phone call from his family. He then left again and drove away.

The employee noticed that the sunglasses were gone.

Property destruction

An employee of Red-box, a movie rental service, reported damage to box when she came to service it at noon March 20. The box is located on the east side of the Walgreens store at 31415 Ford on the outside of the building.

The touch screen was damaged and smashed with an unknown object.

Theft

A resident in the 31000 block of John Hawk reported that his GPS unit was stolen from his unlocked vehicle glove box sometime before 10:30 a.m. March 21.

The vehicle was parked in the driveway.

No license

Doing a security check in the area, a police officer noticed that a Pontiac Aztec was parked in a no parking area near the Rite Aid store at 11:30 a.m. March 20.

The officer arrested the driver, an 18-year-old Westland woman, who said that she didn't have a license and that she didn't see the no parking sign.

Fraud

A Taylor man came to the Garden City police station March 26 to report fraud.

He told police that though he hadn't lived at his parents address at 6800 Lathers for more than 20 years, he received notification at that address that he owed $3,500 for a bill through PayPal that was used to purchase something on ebay.

Suspended license

A cracked windshield on a Pontiac Grand Prix caught the attention of a police officer in the Inkster and Cambridge area about 4 p.m. March 23.

The 21-year-old Inkster driver was arrested when the police found out that he had a suspended license and a fail to appear warrant from the Plymouth District Court.

Gemini, the musical duo of twin brothers Laz and San Slomovits, will perform a concert 2 p.m. Sunday at the William Faust Library in Westland.

Gemini concert features classic music of '60s

By LeAnne Rogers
Observer Staff Writer

To celebrate their new collection of peace-related materials, Westland's William Faust Library will be hosting a concert 2 p.m. Sunday.

Gemini, twin brothers San and Laz Slomovits, will perform an hourlong concert "If I Had A Hammer — Songs and Poems of Peace and Social Justice," featuring songs of the 1960s folk revival. Nationally known for their music for children and families, they return to the roots of their music — the classic songs of Pete Seeger, Bob Dylan, Joan Baez, Peter, Paul and Mary, Joni Mitchell and Malvina Reynolds, as well as traditional songs associated with the '60s.

"We've done a program on music of the '60s for several years, I'm part of that generation and love the songs," said Laz Slomovits. "We pulled songs out of our repertoire. We wanted to focus on peace and jus-

"The '60s is the era I grew up in personally and musically. It was also a time when people really made a change in awareness of issues."

The concert will include songs like If I Had a Hammer, Blowin' in the Wind, Where Have All the Flowers Gone? and sing-along with them. The concert also will include poems by ancient as well as contemporary poets on the themes of peace and social justice which the brothers have set to original music. Featured poets will include William Stafford, E.E. Cummings and Naomi Shihab Nye.

"The '60s is the era I grew up in personally and musically. It was also a time when people really made a change in awareness of issues," Slomovits said. "People felt that they could do something about those issues. Music was a crucial part of that. The songs are useful again."

The Slomovits brothers both sing and play instruments, including the guitar, mandolin, violin and a variety of folk flutes. Laz Slomovits performed at the library last fall at a program for Homelessness Awareness Month.

"These are also great songs to perform and for people to join in, it's powerful for people to join together to sing," he said.

The Peace Collection was established with a $500 grant the library received in November from Citizens for Peace. Three other area libraries — Redford, Livonia and Commerce Township — also received grants.

Invest in transportation for a strong future

By State Sen.
Glenn S. Anderson
Guest Columnist

Business leaders, manufacturers, environmental advocates and labor all agree that investing in public transportation and infrastructure is a must for transforming our state into an economic leader and making our state more business friendly. Our current transportation funding models are outdated and falling dras-

Sen. Glenn Anderson

I am closely monitoring legislation that was recently introduced to implement recommendations laid out by Gov. Snyder in his infrastructure message last year. The bills, and many of tically short. We need an immediate plan for action in the long term, to provide stable funding for our roads.

the proposals contained in Snyder's infrastructure message, resemble findings of the Transportation Funding Task Force of 2008 – a bipartisan, bicameral group of legislators and industry leaders, of which I was a member, tasked with suggesting policies to improve economic activity and personal mobility through infrastructure investment.

Some of the specific proposals include changes to vehicle registration fees, altering the collection of gas tax to percentage-based rather than cents-per-gallon and tying road funding to traffic volume. While I am excited that the broad support of this package of legislation might mean we finally take a step forward, I am concerned that we may be at the onset of another cycle of recycling ideas without taking action.

The fixes and ideas proposed by Gov. Snyder have been floating around the legislature for years. Simply rehashing these debates does nothing to help Michigan drivers who spend an average $300 a year on car repairs related to the poor conditions of our roads. As we continue to debate these ideas, counties are pulverizing paved roads and turning them back into dirt roads to save on maintenance costs. We have known for years that bold changes are needed to move Michigan's transportation system into the 21st Century. It is time to take decisive action.

I hope that the introduction of this legislation marks a positive step forward, and that the bipartisan support will result in a strong and reliable transportation infrastructure for Michigan businesses.

Glenn Anderson serves Westland and Garden City in the Michigan Senate. He welcomes feedback at senGAnderson@senate.mi.gov.

PATH workshop

St. Mary Mercy Hospital will offer a free, six-week diabetes workshop called "Diabetes – PATH (Personal Approach Toward Health)" at 1-3:30 p.m. Mondays, April 16 through May 21, in the Marian Professional Building's Classroom 10 on the fourth floor.

Diabetes – PATH is designed to provide the skills and tools needed by people living with type 2 diabetes to improve their health and manage their symptoms. It does not replace traditional patient education with the doctor or health professional; it is complementary and reinforces such education.

Two trained leaders conduct the workshop, one or both of them have diabetes themselves. Participants will make weekly action plans, share experiences, and help each other solve problems they encounter in creating and carrying out their self-management programs. As a result, participants are better equipped to face the daily challenge of living with diabetes.

Family members, friends and caregivers are also encouraged to attend.

The program will include:

- How to deal with the challenges of living with diabetes.
- Managing symptoms of diabetes such as hyper/hypoglycemia, fatigue, stress and emotional problems such as depression, anger, fear and frustration.
- Appropriate exercises for maintaining and improving strength and endurance.
- Healthy eating and meal planning.
- Appropriate use of medication.
- Monitoring blood glucose.
- Communicating more effectively with your health care team and family.

The workshop is free, but registration is required. Call Community Outreach at (734) 655-8950 or visit www.stmarymercy.org and click on "classes and events."

Daily habits can impact success

By Clarity Patton

Is happiness a choice? According to Harvard researcher Shawn Achor, his research shows scientifically the answer is yes.

Shawn says, "It is a choice about where your single processor brain will devote its finite resources as you process the world. If you scan for the negative first, your brain literally has no resources left over to see the things you are grateful for or the meaning embedded in your work. But if you scan the world for the positive, you start to reap an amazing advantage."

Change your mind, change your world. Our daily decisions and habits have a huge impact upon both our levels of happiness and success," Shawn's research showed, which you can read about online at CNN: <http://bit.ly/xDuJmG>. Choosing to be more positive creates a tremendous advantage personally and professionally.

According to Shawn, "A decade of research in the business world proves that happiness raises nearly every business and educational outcome: raising sales by 37 percent, productivity by 31 percent, and accuracy on tasks by 19 percent, as well as a myriad of health and quality-of-life improvements."

However, making the change from viewing things negatively to viewing them positively takes practice. To help make the change, Shawn shared five tips in his CNN article, starting with this: write down three new things you are grateful for each day. Happy writing - and have a sunny day!

Guest readers share stories with students

Each year, John Glenn football coach Tim Hardin selects 15-20 of his players, mostly seniors, to be on his Leadership Council. He works with them to become leaders and to do community service. And the players did just that last week, stopping by Elliott Elementary School in Westland, where they treated students to stories and in turn were treated like super stars.

The players have been visiting elementaries for several years during Reading Month, visiting with students and serving as guest readers. Hardin credits Elliott paraprofessional Mary Konopka with the idea of the players coming in to read to students.

It was an easy fit, since Konopka is in the football booster club, he has said.

Hardin makes the school visit mandatory, but doesn't have a problem getting players to participate. He always gets more than he needs.

"The players love it," Hardin has said about the activity. "They walk into the school so big and proud."

Elliott also is having a family reading night this evening with Maria Dismody, author of Spaghetti in a Hot Dog Bun and Pink Tiara Cookies for Three, visiting the school.

Guest readers are one of the many activities taking place in Wayne-Westland schools as part of March Is Reading Month. Schools have held Book Nights, Celebrity Reading Days, Book Parades and Pajama Days. Among the celebri-

John Glenn High School football players Jeremy Gysel and Tyler Dingman use technology to read to students during a visit to Elliott Elementary School.

Elliott student Jeremy Branham listens to the story being read by the football players.

It's hard to say what Elliott student Marctwan Thomas is enthralled with: the story or the readers, members of the John Glenn High School football team.

St. Raphael students rack up minutes reading

Reading has been on the minds of students at St. Raphael Catholic School in Garden City, where they celebrated Reading Month with a reading camp-out day, eating green eggs and ham and participating in a reading challenge that has had an astounding result.

The entire student body participated in the March 7 camp-out, bringing their sleeping bags, blankets and pillows to relax in the school's gymnasium and read for more than two hours straight. They came wearing their furry slippers, their softest stuffed animal and their favorite books for the annual event.

On March 12, all students enjoyed a breakfast of "Green Eggs and Ham" after reading the classic Dr. Seuss story. And on March 21, teachers ran from classroom to classroom to read portions of Throughout Reading Month, St. Raphael students have logged the time they've spent reading in the "Minutes in March Reading Chal-

OUR VIEWS

Library woes

Cutbacks will hurt, but are necessary for survival

It was painful at best to read that due to a continuing drop in property tax revenues there will be significant cuts in hours and staffing at Westland's William P. Faust Public Library:

In the 15 years since it opened, the library has positioned itself as a cultural hub of Westland. The staff has worked long and hard to meet the needs of the community and as a result the library offers something for everyone.

The Westland library has given residents the opportunity to experience new ideas, explore great minds, and experience great art. It is a community gathering place that is helping to improve literacy, enhance cultural awareness, educate children and engage seniors. It is very much a part of the quality of life in Westland.

Last week's announcement is truly a reversal of fortune. Several months ago, the Library Board was talking about adding on to the library. That plan has been shelved and the talk has switched to a possible millage request on the Aug. 7 primary ballot to increase financial support for the library.

The budget adopted by the Library Board, which must be approved by the Westland City Council, calls for the reduction of the number of hours the library will be open from the current 69 hours per week to 40 hours and the layoff of nine of the current 36 employees.

Library Director Sheila Collins has said that hours of operation and days will be set to allow everyone an opportunity to use the facilities, but patrons will find evening and weekend access limited. And with so much going on there now, we know some activities most likely will be lost.

What is happening at the library is happening all over the state as cities, school districts and entities that rely on tax revenue grapple with the continuing decline in property values. As the value of real estate continues to decline, so does the amount of money generated by taxes. With a dwindling revenue stream, cuts in staffing and services has become the norm.

That problem is just hitting home with the library which is going above and beyond in meeting the needs of patrons, stepping up to provide services not associated with a library. People facing foreclosure and those in need of help with speaking English, learning to read and finding jobs have the Westland library as a resource.

The library also is a social hub, allowing residents to show off their talent at open mic night, expressing their views in any number of book clubs, learning needle arts and honing their skills playing chess. Over the years, library programs have introduced patrons to the women's baseball league of the 1940s, let them meet authors and see documentary films that don't make it to local theater screens.

We have to admit we are not surprised at the announcement and we understand why it is necessary. However, we are saddened at the thought of the loss of the employees who have worked so hard to make the library an important part of the community and come up with the programs that have both educated and entertained us over the years.

The library has informed and transformed us, now it is time for it to transform. We are confident that under the leadership of the Library Board, the Westland public library will handle this change and, when the time is right, it will come back even better than before.

COMMUNITY VOICE

Opening day of baseball is April 3. How do you think the Tigers will do this year?

We asked this question at the William P. Faust Public Library in Westland.

"I think they'll do pretty well. They've got a great lineup, but the question is if they're going to give up anything in the field."

Jerry Dunn
Garden City

"I think they're going to do great, probably about the same as last year, maybe better."

Manny Lentine
Westland

"I think they'll do really well as long as no one gets hurt and the pitchers stay well."

"I'm not a huge baseball fan, but I hope they do good this year."

Questions for McCotter

I keep hearing our politicians say that the American people want Congress to get rid of entitlements. I wonder how they know what we want. McCotter gets 18 constituent weeks a year to talk to us and discuss his votes. He has not had one town hall meeting since he was elected in 2010. I have called his three offices and been told that he is busy and has nothing is scheduled. I know he voted to make Medicare a voucher system. I want more information about how changing Medicare is going to affect me. I want to know if the voucher will rise with inflation or will it rise with medical costs? What I'm looking for are facts about his votes. It is in the interest of both Republicans and Democrats to expect our elected officials to speak to us and answer our questions on a regular basis. Otherwise the 18 weeks that Congress is not in session is just vacation time.

Absurd advice

Mr. Bloom,
I am embarrassed that the Observer published such absurd advice in your newspaper in your article "Advice on disinheriting a child."

Hope for autism

This is an historic time in Michigan. The deep despair of darkness has been overcome by a new light of hope. This hope shines for the 15,000-plus children in Michigan and their families who suffer under the financial burden of autism.

It is in the form of Bills 414, 415 and 981 that passed in the Michigan Senate on March 13 and now go to the House of Representatives. If these bills are passed in the House, families of children with autism will finally get the assistance they so desperately need. Currently, an autism diagnosis excludes coverage for all therapies and diagnostic evaluations.

For years I've traveled back and forth to Lansing and listened to pleas for help from people directly or indirectly affected by this catastrophic disability. For years I've watched my own son and his wife try to cope with all the problems autism brings to a family. It's not uncommon for parents to spend all they have and even go bankrupt to give their child a chance for a better life. Sometimes with help, these children become taxpaying citizens. Yet even a family of means has a hard time finding help for their child. This is because almost all Michigan graduates who have degrees allowing them to work with children who have autism usually leave our state and go elsewhere to find a job.

Out of 50 states, 29 have already passed legislation benefiting children with autism. They found that early intervention costs are comparatively low. In fact those upfront costs make even more sense when looking at the millions of dollars they would have to spend if the child eventually became financially dependent on government assistance.

Bills 414, 415 and 981 will be voted on soon. However, many members in our House of Representatives need to be educated before they vote on this important issue. We citizens need to give them a call. The time is now!

GUEST COLUMN

Wind power needs to be bird-smart industry

By Gavin Shire
Guest Columnist

When the young boy in the Hans Christian Andersen fable cried out "The Emperor has no clothes!" the people of the kingdom realized that the ruse was over. They could no longer keep up the pretense that their leader's imaginary new suit was indeed splendid. Had one of the Emperor's aides spoken out earlier, he could have been spared a great deal of embarrassment.

A similar trick to the one played by the tailors in the Andersen tale is being perpetrated on us today by the wind industry. We are being cajoled into ignoring what lies beneath their carefully crafted illusion. They tell us that because wind is carbon-free, smog-free, and acid rain-free, it is therefore guilt-free, and we should embrace it without reservation or restriction. But remove the green veneer and we find the truth: wind power kills birds—lots of them—and it is time someone spoke out before it is too late.

As the U.S. wind power build-out gathers speed, millions of birds are being killed in collisions with turbines, power lines, and a host of associated structures. More birds are losing breeding, foraging, wintering and migratory stopover habitat to the footprint of these massive developments. While the wind industry keeps up the pretense that there is no problem, others are already proposing a solution.

In a petition to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, ABC has provided a way forward for the continued development of wind power that also reduces the burden on bird populations. It uses a mechanism already well-established to protect birds from over-hunting: "take" permits under one of America's foremost wildlife laws, the Migratory Bird Treaty Act.

For nearly 100 years, in order to reverse and prevent recurrence of the catastrophic effects of unrestrained market hunting that nearly wiped out many of America's game species, all hunters have had to purchase MBTA hunting permits. The number of permits issued, the numbers of birds that can be killed, and which species each hunter can take are determined by careful scientific assessments of populations and their ability to withstand the take.

A similar permit system for incidental take by wind development would make the industry compatible with wildlife conservation needs. It would allow some take to continue, but would also impose conditions that would limit bird deaths and habitat loss and compensate for any unavoidable bird deaths through new conservation projects. Some wind proposals would be allowed to go ahead relatively unchanged; others would need substantial modification; while permits for the most egregious proposals—those that would site turbines in or near key bird areas for example—would be denied. ABC is even producing a detailed map of the U.S. that identifies many of these sites to aid the industry in making the right decisions from the outset.

In addition to the cost of the permit, the developer will be required to compensate for this mortality. But with a permit in hand, he will be indemnified against prosecution for violation of the law.

Will it cost developers more? Certainly. But in relation to the total cost of a project, not prohibitively so. Will it slow the pace of wind development? Slightly. But ultimately, it will lead to a bird-smart, truly green industry. It will tailor for us a suit of real substance rather than an illusory cloak that leaves us exposed to future regret that we didn't do the right thing when we had the opportunity, just like the dam building frenzy of last century. To see ABC's petition to the government for a wind industry take permit system, or to learn more about bird-smart wind, visit www.abcbirds.org.

Look at details when refinancing

By Rick Bloom
Guest Columnist

A client called to say that he received an offer that sounded so good that he couldn't believe it. He wanted my opinion as to whether he should pursue the deal which basically dealt with refinancing his home using a home equity loan.

Money Matters

Rick Bloom

The client owes approximately $50,000 and has about 10 years left on a 6.25 percent mortgage. Currently the house is worth approximately $200,000 to $250,000. The client was approached by his bank to refinance the home using a home equity loan and was quoted a rate of 2.5 percent on the home equity loan. The client told me it seemed like a no-brainer that he should refinance because he would be substantially cutting his payments down. The question he had for me was, what was he missing?

Don't rush

I love the fact that he didn't rush into anything and wanted to get a second opinion before he signed on the dotted line. All too often, people hear about a deal and rush into something before they get all the facts. Taking a step back and looking at the details is something that always works in your favor.

I told him to factor fees into the equation. All too often, when it comes to things like refinancing or transferring charge card debt, people forget about what fees are involved.

Check interest rate

The next factor, particularly when dealing with a home equity loan, is the interest rate. Is it fixed? Is it adjustable? Or is it a gimmick rate? The fixed-rate home equity loan, which is unusual, will remain the same throughout the term of the loan. An adjustable rate mortgage is one that periodically adjusts based upon the changing interest rate environment. Some adjustable rate loans will have no cap, which means that there is no limit as to how much the interest rate could rise.

On the other hand, some adjustable rate home equity loans will have a cap which limits how high the rate could increase. Obviously home equity loans without a cap are more risky than those with a cap.

Analyze gimmicks

The third type of loan rate is a gimmick rate. A lot with charge card companies will offer a low rate but unlike an adjustable rate mortgage or a home equity loan where the adjusts based upon changing conditions, a gimmick rate is going to give you a lower rate for a period of time and then automatically adjust upward.

In analyzing whether to accept an offer, knowing how your interest rate can be affected over time is important.

The last factor to consider is a home equity loan which is considered a line of credit and is somewhat different than a traditional mortgage. Typically, in a traditional mortgage once you get the mortgage, that's it. The mortgage company cannot rescind it based upon changing circumstances. That is not the case with home equity loans. Many people unexpectedly found that out, over the last few years, when they received notices from their bank saying their home equity loan was due.

The problem that many people found was that since the value of their home had dropped so much, they no longer had equity. Therefore, the bank, under the terms of the loan, had the right to call in the loan, which many did. This is something that anyone who gets a home equity loan must consider.

Resolution

In my client's situation, he found that after he looked at the three factors explained here, it didn't make sense for him to refinance using a home equity loan.

He will continue to make the same payment he's making today; consequently, with the lower interest rates he will be able to cut a few years off the back end of his mortgage. This is not necessarily a strategy that will work for everyone.

The bottom line is if you see a deal about transferring your charge card balance or refinancing your home, whether it's via a mortgage or a home equity loan, don't immediately sign on the bottom line. Ask the right questions, understand the product and only then, make the decision that best suits your particular situation. One last note, always remember if someone is trying to pressure you into making a move, that is generally a good sign that you ought to walk away.

Henry Ford teams with Girl Scouts for Journey through Time event

Girl Scouts of Southeastern Michigan is partnering with The Henry Ford to present A Journey through Time: Girl Scouts Past, Present and Future.

Visitors to Greenfield Village will get an immersive and fun learning experience exploring historic buildings, artifacts and stories that contextually connect to many important events in life of Juliette Gordon Low, founder of Girl Scouts, 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 18.

The Henry Ford team is developing a special self-guided itinerary for the event which will help Girl Scouts connect the past to the present and the future. Several special programs and hands-on activities will be available, including a War of 1812 muster, historic strollers, dramatic presentations and more.

"Girl Scouts have been active in southeastern Michigan since 1915 when the first Girl Scout troop was organized in Detroit, and has continued to grow throughout the region," said Denise Dalrymple, CEO of GSSEM. "The Henry Ford is the only cultural institution that could create such an experience for southeast Michigan Girl Scouts, their families and anyone else interested in this 100 year old movement. We are excited to partner and look forward to a great event."

"The Henry Ford's mission is to inspire people to learn from the traditions of ingenuity, resourcefulness and innovation to help shape a better future," said Patricia Mooradian, president of The Henry Ford. "The Girl Scout Centennial event in Greenfield Village is a perfect mission-fit as it highlights the continuing legacy of the Girl Scout organization and the dedication and 'can-do' example of Juliette Gordon Low."

"Our education and program team has been developing some stellar badge-supporting experiences for Girl Scout audiences, and we are glad to partner with the Girl Scout Council of Southeastern Michigan on this inspirational event of national significance," she added.

Tickets go on sale Monday, April 2, and can be purchased through The Henry Ford call center at (313) 982-6001. Tickets will be $13.25 for children and $18 for adults with a coupon which will be available online along with more details of the day's events and activities at www.gssem.org/100th.

Girl Scouts of Southeastern Michigan (GSSEM) is the region's premier leadership organization for girls in kindergarten through 12th grade. GSSEM council includes Oakland, Macomb, Genesee, Lapeer, St. Clair, and Sanilac counties, and parts of Wayne, Livingston and Monroe counties.

'Here's the pitch'

Blazers rely on more than just ace

By Brad Emons
Observer Staff Writer

The old adage "Some things change, some stay the same" certainly holds true for the 2012 Livonia Ladywood softball team.

The Blazers' starting lineup remains virtually intact from a year ago, after they reached the Division 2 state semifinals before losing to Stevensville Lakeshore on a walk-off homer in the eighth inning, 3-2.

Fifth-year coach Scott Combs will once again rely on his fourth-year ace — daughter Briana Combs, who finished with 32-3 record a year ago with an earned run average of 0.22. The right-hander posted an impressive 330 strikeouts and only 11 walks in 260 innings.

The first-team All-Stater, who has signed with Cleveland State and was a member of the Ad-das All-Star team last summer, plans to add to her already potent repertoire of pitches in 2012.

As a freshman she helped the Blazers reach the Division 2 state final (before losing to Niles in the championship final).

The goal is to return to Battle Creek.

"During the winter she worked real hard at improving her spin and her rise (ball)," Scott Combs said. "She also wants to be more consistent with her change-up. Her location has been good, but we want to get late movement even more. That's been the primary goal."

Briana Combs' battery mate once again will be senior Allyssa Kashat, a Findlay (Ohio) University signee. She will be joined by All-Stater infielders Carli SanMillan (second base), Celeste Fidge (third base) and Andria Gietl (first base).

SanMillan, who has signed with Davenport University, hit .470 with six homers and 48 RBI last season, while Fidge batted .398 with six homers and 38 RBI.

Gietl added an impressive .420 average with four homers and 41 RBI.

The biggest question mark surrounds the shortstop position with sophomore Haley Lawrence takes over for first-team All-Area honoree Jenny Rohn (now playing at Western Michigan University).

"She's a good athlete, a basketball player who worked real hard over the winter," Scott Combs said of Lawrence. "She's worked on her footwork and she can handle it. She'll be our lead-off hitter, too, so it's sink or swim."

Meanwhile, sophomore Lauren Hayes anchors

Baseball outlook bright

See capsule outlook of area baseball teams on page B3.

By Brad Emons
Observer Staff Writer

Five area baseball teams claimed titles of different sorts last season.

Now the trick is to see if the feat can be duplicated.

Livonia Stevenson enjoyed its best season under Rick Berryman, who guided the Spartans to the KLAACentral, Kensington Conference and Livonia City crowns.

The eighth-year coach's biggest task will be replacing first-team All-Observer players Evan Piechota, Mark Wagner and Tyler Lynch off a team that finished 25-10.

But the cupboard is not bare as rangy 6-foot-4 right-handed pitcher Chris McDonald leads a cast of talented returnees.

McDonald, bound for Hillsdale College, went 7-2 a year ago with a 1.86 earned run average and will be joined by battery mate Mike Vomashek, a junior catcher who hit .344.

Livonia Churchill (21-10) got a piece of the KLAACentral South Division crown last year with

Smash hits: MU cruises to 18-0 win

It didn't take long Tuesday afternoon for Rochester College's baseball team to discover it was out of its element at Ilitch Ballpark on the campus of Madonna University.

The Crusaders scored early and often before COLLEGE BASEBALL registering an 18-0 triumph over Rochester (15-9).

The nonconference victory improved the Crusaders to 21-12. Eight difference MU pitchers scattered eight hits while Alex Charles and Logan Curtis spearheaded the offensive explosion with three RBI each.

Starting pitcher Josh Vandemark (3-0) earned the mound win for the Crusaders after yielding just one hit and a pair of walks in two frames of work.

The winners' pitching parade also included stellar efforts from (in order of appearance) Justin Hicks, Tommy Moore, Andy Omilian, Erik Wright, Travis Schuba, Dan Stoney and Randall Stempek. Hicks (two innings) and Wright (one inning) both struck out three

Blazers 1-1 in lacrosse

Last year's MHSAA Division 2 state girls lacrosse semifinalist Livonia Ladywood is off to a 1-1 start after falling 12-8 Monday at Ann Arbor Skyline after opening the season Friday with a 16-9 win at Saline.

Jackie Morrow scored four goals and Catie Holmes added three for Skyline.

Senior Emma Ellswood had three goals and one assist for the Blazers, while seniors Kylie Birney and Alyssa Daly each added two goals.

Nina Shahin made 12 saves in goal for the Eagles, while Ladywood junior Stephanie Mackley had five saves.

Ellswood finished with three goals and one assist in the loss against Saline. Birney and Daly also scored twice.

Mackley made 14 saves in the win.

Another Cole nets honor

Allegheny University (Pa.) sophomore Pat Cole (Livonia/University of Detroit Jesuit) posted a 4-0 record at No. 1 singles last week to earn North Coast Athletic Conference Player of the Week honors in men's tennis.

Cole, who plays No. 1 singles, started the week in Hilton Head, S.C., by defeating No. 22 regionally ranked Chris Kuna of Wisconsin Eau-Claire 6-1, 6-0, followed by a 6-4, 6-1 triumph over No. 10 regionally ranked Brian McCarthy of St. Thomas (Fla.).

Cole also teamed up with Kevin Kacer to win a doubles match against the No. 15 regionally ranked tandem from Carleton College (Minn.).

Cole is 13-2 overall and 9-5 in doubles as Allegheny stands 5-6 overall.

Previously, Cole's brother Michael of Grinnell (Iowa) College was named Midwest Conference Player of the Week.

Krug says goodbye to MSU for Boston

MSU ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS
Livonia native and Michigan State hockey captain Torey Krug is skipping his senior year after signing an NHL entry level contract with the Boston Bruins.

By Denny Schwarze
Gannett News Service

Torey Krug's father Kyle once told him to play for his high school team (Churchill) instead of club or junior hockey.

A professional future in the game seemed bleak.

Eventually, Krug went on to play in the USHL junior hockey ranks in Indianapolis — he wasn't drafted, but did earn a college scholarship to Michigan State.

Then last spring, after his sophomore season at MSU, the 5-foot-9 defenseman again went undrafted. Closer, yet still far from his dream.

Sunday, it finally came true. Just two days after MSU's season ended in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the Livonia native signed a contract with the defending Stanley Cup champion Boston Bruins.

"I never thought this day would come and be possible," Krug said Sunday afternoon at Munn Arena. "But with the people that I've been surrounded with over the last three years of my life, it's come true."

Krug will bypass his final season of collegiate eligibility. He played his final game for the Green and White with an assist in Friday's 3-1 loss to Union (N.Y.) in the first-round of the East Regional in Bridgeport, Conn.

Team general manager Peter Chiarelli said Krug will join the Bruins in Boston for Tuesday's morning skate and will be eligible to play in their remaining regular season games, but he will be ineligible for the Stanley Cup playoffs. Financial terms of the contract were not disclosed.

"Torey has had an outstanding collegiate career at Michigan State," Chiarelli told BostonBruins.com. "He is a very intelligent player who is a terrific skater and shooter. But what stands out the most with Torey is his character. He is a two-time captain and a tremendous competitor. We are thrilled to have signed him and look forward to seeing him contribute to the Bruins."

Krug, who turns 21 on April 12, was named the Central Collegiate Hockey Association Player of the Year this season and also won the league's Best Offensive Defenseman Award for the second consecutive season.

MU women ground Pilots twice

Eight was enough (twice) Saturday afternoon for the Madonna University softball team, which unleashed some heavy lumber in its double-header sweep of visiting Bethel College (Ind.).

The Crusaders grounded the Pilots twice, 8-4 and 8-0, at University Field to improve their season mark to 14-9. Bethel slipped to 5-9.

Freshman hurler Angela Pavilanis earned a pair of victories, including a complete-game two-hitter in the nightcap.

MU freshman second baseman Kasey Trierweiler also sparked, so much so that she earned Wolverine-Hoosier Player of the Week laurels.

In game one, the Crusaders trailed 4-3 until the bottom of the fifth when Jackie Barley was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded to knot the game at 4-4. One out later, sophomore catcher Kristen Drabek reached on an infield single to plate the go-ahead run. MU padded its lead with three runs in the sixth on an RBI single by Barley and a two-run round-tripper by Erin Mayes.

MU's top-of-the-order hitters Arielle Cox and Trierweiler set the table nicely for the winners, combining for five hits and four runs scored.

Pavilanis dominated the Pilots in the game two, striking out one and walking no one in a sterling two-hit effort. Offensively, the Crusaders were sparked by Carlee Meek (2-for-3, three RBI), Barley (2-for-3, two RBI) and Trierweiler, who added two hits and two RBI.

Runnin' Rebels

The Livonia Rebels, a seventh-grade AAU boys basketball team, captured the Pinckney Tournament last weekend with a 5-0 record capped by a 49-31 victory over the host team in the final. Members of the Rebels include (back row, from left): assistant coach Jeff Ferguson, Chris Tanderys, Spencer Eddings, Michael Grisa, Jacob Redd; (front row, from left): Matt Harding, Nick Poulos, Craig Jakacki, George Ferguson, Spencer Langley and head coach Joe Jakacki.

batters each. Stempel whiffed a pair in his lone inning of work.

MU lashed 16 hits while taking full advantage of seven Rochester errors.

In addition to Charles and Curtis, Ryan Lech and Matthew Cook laced a pair of hits for the Crusaders.

Good weekend

MU took three of four weekend games from host Siena Heights to improve its Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference mark to 5-3.

On Saturday, the Crusaders split a pair with the Saints, dropping the opener 2-0 before rebounding to claim the nightcap, 5-3.

The Crusaders' offense was stymied by Siena Heights' starting pitcher Corey Alexander in game one as MU managed just four hits. The Saints scored the game's only runs in the sixth to help Alexander earn his fourth win in six decisions.

MU junior Jeremy Gooding pitched well in defeat, striking out 10 Saints while yielding just one earned run.

Sophomore lefty Aaron Saarela (2-4) helped the Crusaders salvage a split when he no-hit the Saints for 5.2 innings before getting relief help from Robert Fraser and Stempel, who earned his fourth save of the season.

Siena's Jake Sperry also pitched well, no-hitting the Crusaders for 4.1 innings before yielding four runs in the bottom of the fifth.

Junior outfielder Steve Pelletier delivered a clutch two-run double in the Crusaders' four-run fifth. Cook also ripped an RBI double for the winners. Six different Crusaders notched at least one hit.

On Sunday, MU swept the Saints, 9-3 and 4-1. MU pitchers registered 19 strikeouts in the twin-bill while the offense came to life with 17 hits.

Cook earned the game-one victory after delivering eight strong innings. Junior second baseman Tyler Cotter (Livonia Churchill) excelled at the plate with the first three-hit game of his MU career.

Pelletier went 2-for-5 with three RBI for the winners. Cook and Curtis also chipped in with two-hit efforts at the dish.

Josh Deeg was brilliant on the mound in Sunday's second game, striking out eight in 5.2 innings to pick up his third victory over the season. Deeg had to leave the game in the sixth after absorbing a line shot to his leg.

Pelletier ripped a key two-run single in the fourth to increase MU's lead to 3-0.

Leading 3-1 in the sixth, the Crusaders plated an insurance run when Charles singled home Drew Adamiec with two outs.

Stempel earned his second save of the weekend when he shut down the Saints (14-11, 4-4) over the final inning and a third.

MU won despite getting out-hit, 7-4.

He was just the second defenseman in CCHA history and the fifth ever in college hockey history to capture a league scoring title.

He led the Spartans to their first NCAA Tournament berth since 2008.

"I told Torey a year ago when he didn't get drafted what a great day it was, because now — when you really think about it — very few professional athletes ever get the opportunity in any sport to pick their employer," first-year MSU coach Tom Anastos said. "He may never get that again, but he got it this time and that's a great opportunity."

A unanimous All-CCHA First Team selection and one of 10 finalists for the Hobey Baker Award, Krug came back and finished with a career-best 12 goals and 22 assists (34 points) this season.

"Whether or not there's an opportunity to play, I'll have to earn that, but I will be flying out to Boston," Krug said. "The message that I received from them is that if I'm ready to play in the NHL and when I'm ready to play in the NHL, I will. There's no time limit on that, so it's just a matter of when. And they will give me the opportunity, so it's up to me to take advantage of that opportunity."

Anastos said about half of the teams in the NHL were interested in Krug, who eventually narrowed his choice to about five or six.

"I think it also says a lot about him that he picked a defending Stanley Cup champion," Anastos said. "It's not like he's just looking to go to a place that's struggling to make the playoffs and maybe there's greater opportunity on their blue line to get in the lineup. He wants to go to a championship-level club, which I think really speaks a lot about him."

On Sunday, Anastos told the Detroit Free Press that Krug set the bar for future captains at MSU.

"If I can attract 25 to 27 of those types of players, our program would have an incredible future," Anastos said. "He embodies everything you want in a student-athlete."

The Michigan State coach said he didn't try to persuade Krug to stay.

"Our philosophy is we want to develop people and hockey players and when you're ready to be a pro we want to help you do that," Anastos said. "I think he's ready to go."

GIRLS SOFTBALL OUTLOOK

LIVONIA CHURCHILL
Head coach: Steve Gentilia, second year.
League affiliation: KLAAS Kensington Conference (South Division).
Last year's overall record: 18-13.
Notable losses to graduation: Natalie Hiser (second-team All-Area), Mackenzie Everson.
Leading returnees: Casey Bias, Jr. C (first-team All-Area, .379, 25 RBI); Rachel Jason, Sr. CF (.324); Abby Jewell, Sr. P-Inf. (51 IP, 1.64 ERA); Nicole Salloum, Jr. SS (.395); Jackie Tolles, Sr. OF; Missy Sidor, Sr. OF-Inf.; Katie Shereda, Soph. Inf.-P; Jordan Lindsey, Sr. OF.
Promising newcomers: Julia Cavagnini, Soph. Inf.-C; Julia Twigg, Soph. OF.
Gentilia's 2012 outlook: "This year we feel we can be a very successful team as long as we continue to stay focused and disciplined on the opponent. Last year we got out of the gates strong, but kind of sputtered towards the end. We had some great wins over some great teams, beating Garden City, Fenton and Southgate Anderson, two of which were state quarterfinalists. Our staff feels we have some very special players that can do some special things as long as we stay focused and don't let distractions get in the way. Our team will be strong up the middle led catcher Casey Bias and shortstop Nicky Salloum. We also feel we have one of the best center fielders in the area in Rachel Jason. Our pitchers are solid. It's very rare in high school softball that you have a team with the two senior pitchers we have in Missy Sidor and Abby Jewell, who can lead us a long way."

LIVONIA FRANKLIN
Head coach: Linda Jimenez, 17th year.
League affiliation: KLAAS Kensington Conference (South Division).
Last year's overall record: 21-14.
Notable losses to graduation: Chelsea Williams, Mariah Barcus, Jessica Emery, Audrey Geraghty.
Leading returnees: Nicole Williamson, Sr. OF-P (second-team All-Area, 7-5, .405); Tiffany Lambie, Sr. P (14-9, 2.41 ERA); Katelyn Devers, Jr. SS (.464); Afton DeWyse, Jr. OF; Mackenzie Lukas, Jr. OF; Maggie Leins, Jr. Inf.; Caitlin Milican, Jr. C; Dana Gresock, Soph. Inf.; Colleen Mandrinsk, Soph. Inf.
Promising newcomers: Courtney Garbino, Soph. P; Morgan Johnston, Fr. Inf.; Megan Chapman, Fr. C; Morgan Larkin, Fr. Inf.-C; Becky Giacobbi, Fr. OF.
Jimenez's 2012 outlook: "We graduated a very talented group, but I am very optimistic. We have two senior pitchers — Tiffany Lambie, who is our ace, and Nicole Williamson, who batted .405. Shortstop Katelynn Devers and second baseman Maggie Leins are working well together in addition to demonstrating much leadership on the infield. I am hesitant to call this a rebuilding season because our freshmen class is very talented, humble, good listeners and a pleasure to coach. Junior outfielders Afton DeWyse and Mackenzie Lukas are much improved. I have been blessed with a hard working, unselfish group of young ladies. Overall, it will be a fun season."

LIVONIA STEVENSON
Head coach: Rob Witherspoon, 10th year.
League affiliation: KLAAS Kensington Conference (Central Division).
Last year's overall record: 22-14.
Titles won last year: Public Schools of Livonia Invitational champions.
Notable losses to graduation: Becca Zarras (All-KLAA).
Leading returnees: Jacqueline Johnson, Sr. P-1B (second-team All-Area, team MVP); Sarah Fier, Jr. 3B (second-team All-Area); Ashley Avery, Sr. SS; Molly Knoph, Sr. 2B-Utility; Alex Ferguson, Sr. OF; Julianne Potvin, Sr. OF; Sarah King, Sr. C; Allie Koestering, Jr. OF-C; Morgan Copperstone, Jr. 1B-P; Kristen Suzio, Jr. OF; Maddie Omietanski, Soph. C-Utility; Erika Randall, Soph. P-Utility.
Promising newcomers: Becca Koestering, Jr. OF; Emily Snitchler, Jr. 1B; Deanna Kluka, Jr. OF.
Witherspoon's 2012 outlook: "We have an experienced team returning, but we will have to continue to work hard each day to improve our skills, in order to compete. Success this season will depend on the consistency of play at the plate and our ability to make routine plays defensively. We have the potential to be very successful at the plate and athletic enough to manufacture runs; but that is on paper, we have to take care of it on the field. We are returning a veteran group that competed very hard last year, had some success, and learned some tough lessons as the season went on last year. I feel that we have added players to the roster that will compete for starting positions the entire year. The depth of our lineup should prove to be something that we haven't seen at Stevenson in awhile. The key to this season, defensively, is to be patient, make routine plays, and not let one mistake lead to several."

WESTLAND JOHN GLENN
Head coach: Patrick McGrath, first season.
League affiliation: KLAAS Kensington Conference (South Division).
Last year's overall record: 11-22.
Titles won last year: Division 1 district champions.
Notable losses to graduation: Brandi Holbrook.
Leading returnees: Nicole Quaine, Sr. SS-C; Kailey Wovles, Jr. 2B-SS; Danielle Saunders, Jr. C-OF; Alexis Lester, Soph. P; Brittany McGrath, Soph. 3B-2B.
Promising newcomers: Cassandra Huren, Jr. CF.
McGrath's 2012 outlook: "We are looking to continue improving over the previous year's success, win districts (three-peat), and have an impressive showing in the regionals. We have a strong core of returning players, and have added several strong girls. With hard work, dedication, and a positive attitude, we'll have a successful season."

WAYNE MEMORIAL
Head coach: Larry Lankton, first year.
League affiliation: KLAAS Kensington Conference (South Division).
Last year's overall record: 0-10 (KLAAS South).
Notable losses to graduation: Alyssa Florn, Tawni Kenyon, Jane Thayer.
Promising newcomers: Megan McCurry, Fr. Utility-1B; Ashley McGeorge, Fr. OF; Chloe O'Rourke, Fr. OF; Raquel Johnson, Soph. OF; Jenessa McCloskey, Soph. P.
Lankton's 2012 outlook: "We lost 13-0 and 15-0 Monday to Ann Arbor Skyline. We have some players that don't have a lot of softball experience. Only two played over the summer. When you're struggling you have to play defense — catch the ball, throw the ball, throw it to the right base. We're working on game-type situations in practice. We're trying to develop another pitcher besides Nielson. Hitting-wise we only struck out three times in the two games. We didn't score any runs, but we hit a lot of balls at people."

LIVONIA LADYWOOD
Head coach: Scott Combs, fifth year.
League affiliation: Catholic League (Central Division).
Last year's overall record: 35-4.
Titles won last year: Division 2 district and regional, Central Division, Catholic League, Michigan Stars and Eaton Rapids tournament champions.
Notable losses to graduation: Jenny Rohn (first-team All-Area).
Leading returnees: Briana Combs, Sr. P (first-team Division 2 All-State; first-team All-Area, 32-3, 0.22 ERA, 330 Ks); Carl SanMillan, Sr. 2B (first-team All-State, first-team All-Area, .470, 6 homers, 48 RBI); Andria Gietl, Sr. 1B (first-team All-State, second-team All-Area, 420, 4 homers, 41 RBI); Celeste Fidge, Jr. 3B (first-team All-State, second-team All-Area, .398, 6 homers, 38 RBI); Lauren Hayes, Soph. OF-P; Brittany DeCamillo, Sr. OF; Michelle Nelson, Sr. Utility; Kristin Eisterhold, Sr. OF; Nicole Payne, Sr. OF; Allyssa Kashat, Sr. C.
Promising newcomers: Haley Lawrence, Soph. SS; Sarah Knapp, Fr.; Anna Lewis, Fr.; Christina Meyer, Fr.
Combs' 2012 outlook: "We have all returning (except Rohn), and hope to challenge for league and district titles. We have excellent sophomores in Lauren Hayes and Haley Lawrence, and we have high expectations. We hope to 'live up' to the expectations of others as well. We're ranked preseason No. 29 nationally in the ESPN High School Magazine."

LIVONIA CLARENCEVILLE
Head coach: Joe DeCaire, 14th year.
League affiliation: Independent.
Last year's overall record: 11-11.
Notable losses to graduation: Joanna Burling, Kellie Ankiel, Reba Bibik, Izzy Sidon, Stephanie Bishop, Kiana Smith and Brittany Tallman.
Promising newcomers: Emily Schwartz, Fr. P-Inf.; Ariel Osborne, Fr. Inf.-OF; Mia Sampson, Fr. Inf.-OF; Morgan Cairns, Fr. Inf.-OF; Lindsey Cairns, Fr. Inf.-OF.
DeCaire's 2012 outlook: "It is going to be difficult, like any other program, to replace seven seniors who started or played a key role throughout last season. Every player on our roster will have the opportunity to fill those vacant positions and will have to step up and play. The strength of our team this year will be our pitching. For the first time, our program will potentially have four girls who will take the mound competitively. McAlpine, the Bateman twins and freshman Schwartz have worked hard and look season ready. The coaching staff is excited about our catcher Nicole Kurdziel, who has worked all off season learning the position and the fundamentals of being a strong catcher. Overall we will place a competitive team on the field. I am sure we will take some lumps, but will get better over time. Our depth is going to be a weakness and our starters will have to remain healthy."

We'll have our work cut out for us to match last year's record, but we hope the tougher competition will help us to raise the level of our game. We have a great group of girls. Our seniors provide great leadership, they work hard and are hungry to prove themselves."

the outfield and will be a back-up pitcher to Combs.

Ladywood's biggest obstacle in the Catholic League once again will be Farmington Hills Mercy, led by ace Kacey Nieto.

"They have three pitchers and they're that good," Scott Combs said. "They can easily be one of the top three or four teams in Division 1."

But if things fall into place, look for the Blazers to be the favorite not only in the Catholic League, but also in Division 2.

They certainly have the offensive capability.

"If everybody does what they've done in the past, we'll score runs," said Combs, whose team opens its season Saturday, April 14, in the Grand Ledge Tournament in East Lansing.

Targosz's 2012 outlook: "The weather has been a positive for us because we have been able to do many things outside that you really cannot simulate indoors. With some of our inexperience, being outdoors has been a big advantage as far as practice goes. I'm looking forward to scrimmaging and getting into some game type situations in order to see home some of our guys react."

Head coach: Matt Fournier, sixth year.
League affiliation: KLAA Kensington Conference (South Division).
Last year's overall record: 14-18.
Notable losses to graduation: Dan Muller, Brent Marzion, Adam Michael, Tyler Dewhirst, Brandon Hawkins, Bobby Andrus.
Leading returnees: Joel Trudell, Sr. P-OF (5 wins, 39 Ks, .310, 3 homers); Joe Barczuk, Sr. P-Inf. (.317); Justin Forrestall, Sr. P-Inf. (.300); Kyle Curtis, Sr. OF-P; Josh Gorman, Jr. Inf.-C.

Promising newcomers: Alex DeYonker, Jr. P-OF; Kevin Nisun, Jr. OF-P; Garrett Fetner, Jr. Inf.-C; Kyle Madden, Jr. P-Inf.; Mike Haist, Jr. Inf.-P; Mason Wypych, Jr. Inf.; Dan Johnson, Soph. C-OF.
Fournier's 2012 season outlook: "The varsity looks to make improvements off of last year's 14-win season. We have a strong core of returning players mixed in with a nice group of hard working, talented underclassmen. One thing we do have is a lot of interchangeable pieces at a lot of positions. We are, however, just a little bit shorter on depth than we have been in the past. This group has shown that they are willing to work based on their attendance through the winter. Watching this group come together has made the opening few weeks a lot of fun."

LIVONIA STEVENSON
Head coach: Rick Berryman, eighth year.
League affiliation: KLAA Kensington Conference (Central Division).
Last year's overall record: 25-10.
Titles won last year: Kensington Conference, Central and Livonia City champions.
Notable losses to graduation: Evan Piechota (first-team All-Area); Mark Wagner (first-team All-Area); Tyler Lynch (first-team All-Area); Brendon Hayes.

Promising newcomers: Mike Kanitra, Jr. P-Inf.; Brandon Jurczyszyn, Jr. OF; Nick Lagerstrom, Sr. P-1B; Pete Michalak, Sr. OF; Austin Stevens, Jr. Inf.-P; Alex Anderson, Jr. P-OF; Mike Barill, Jr. Inf.; Cody Coleman, Jr. OF-P; Connor Hayes, Jr. OF; Jason Rakowicz, Jr. P; Matt Hunt, Jr. P-1B.
Berryman's 2012 season outlook: "The outlook for the Spartans looks very promising this season. We feature four pitchers who throw in the 80s (MPH) and a strong hitting lineup. This should keep the Stevenson in the hunt for division and conference titles."

WESTLAND JOHN GLENN
Head coach: Dan Danic, second year.
League affiliation: KLAA Kensington Conference (South Division).
Last year's overall record: 10-24.
Titles won last year: Division 1 district champions.
Notable losses to graduation: Rob Schurig (second-team All-Area), Caleb Clenney, Shane Anderson, Kevin Karnick, Colton Lipinski, Mike Pietruszka, Brian Monty.

Leading returnees: Daniel Ammons, Jr. 3B; Adam Singleton, Jr. C; Zach Quinn, Sr. 2B; Danny Croft, Sr. OF.
Promising newcomers: Chase Bovia, Jr.; Brandon Martin, Jr.; Jacob Fox, Jr.; Devon Spalding, Soph.; Brandon Smeltzer, Soph.; Ryan Wheeler, Soph.
Danic's 2012 season outlook: "We have a young team that is hard-nosed, aggressive and willing. We have a lot of young talent that is adjusting to varsity baseball and will have a great shot of winning our district as we develop and improve throughout the season."

Head coach: Chris Bailey, second year.
League affiliation: KLAA Kensington Conference (Central Division).
Last year's overall record: 13-19.
Notable losses to graduation: Shane Wilson (second-team All-Area), Shane Kommer, Brandon Harnos.
Leading returnees: Chris Briggs, Jr. P-SS; Tyler McCurry, Sr. P-3B-OF; Jacob Lefler, Sr. P-SS; Jordan Lowry, Sr. C; Zach Lankton, Sr. P.

Promising newcomers: Tyler Harnos, Fr. 2B; Josh Lowry, Jr. CF.
Bailey's 2012 season outlook: "Pitching will be our strong suit. Defense will be the key. We're missing some big hitters from last year. We'll have to make up for the loss of Wilson, Kommer and Harnos and I'm not sure where that will come from. We'll have to be more selective at the plate and take better swings to put the ball in play. We've got some work to do with our hitting."

Head coach: Dan Miller, fifth year.
League affiliation: Independent.
Last year's overall record: 11-9.
Notable losses to graduation: Jimmy Moody, Matt Kurdzial, Dan Blacker, Joe Schiffman.
Leading returnees: Damien Quarles, Sr. P-OF (first-team All-Area; All-District); Ben Gehan,

Promising newcomer: Tyler Howard, Sr. OF.
Miller's 2012 season outlook: "We do still have five kids coming back who have been starting for at least three seasons, so we've got the experience and leadership to continue getting better. Pitching should be our strength, as we return almost all of our innings pitched from last season. A big factor in our success will be filling in losses at catcher, second base, and the corner outfield spots. We have several kids who have paid their dues as backups that are hungry to become major contributors. I'm comfortable with what I'm going to get from our seniors. The key will be how other kids step up and hopefully give us a solid lineup from one through nine, both hitting and defensively."

LUTHERAN WESTLAND
Head coach: Kevin Wade, eighth year.
League affiliation: Michigan Independent Athletic Conference (Blue Division).
Last year's overall record: 13-6.
Titles won last year: Division 4 district champions.
Notable losses to graduation: Marc Rosin (second-team All-Area; All-MIAC Blue; All-Region); Jake Andzjewski (All-MIAC Blue); Kent Krzyske (All-MIAC Blue).

Wade's 2012 season outlook: "Although we have six seniors, we are very young and inexperienced. We have benefited from the early season weather and have been able to do quite a few things at game speed to bring everybody along. Fikes will anchor our young pitching staff and he will give us a chance to win some games. Our conference schedule is daunting with defending state champ (Grosse Pointe Woods) University-Liggett a preseason favorite to repeat. We have a lot of potential in the younger players and even in our new varsity seniors. It's just a matter of how quickly they come along. We will be very competitive when that happens."

HURON VALLEY LUTHERAN
Head coach: Matt Schaeewe, 10th year.
League affiliation: MIAC (Red Division).
Last year's overall record: 12-2.
Titles won last year: MIAC Red Division champions.
Notable losses to graduation: Shawn Schaffer (second-team All-Area), Andy Barber, Shane Bunde, Ivan Bell.

Leading returnees: Alex Harris, Jr. SS-P; Ryan Schaffer, Soph. P-SS-1B; Justin Howell, Jr. C; Ryan Blackwood, Jr. 2B.
Promising newcomers: Adam Hodgson, Fr. 1B.
Schaeewe's 2012 season outlook: "We're carrying 14 players right now. We're young, but I think our infield is solid. The pitching is pretty good, above average, and our offense should be pretty. We have more speed than we've had other years. I think we'll manufacture a few more runs. We basically have to replace our whole outfield and we lost our whole battery with our four seniors."

Jordan See also scored twice, while Sadie Zachos added a goal and assist.
 Other Clarenceville goal scorers included Lindsey Fosth and Jeana Mariani, while Ashley Murphy also drew an assist.
 Goalkeeper Jillian Bunker, who played the first 50 minutes, got credit for the shutout.
FRANKLIN 1, W.L. CENTRAL 1: Jenna Michniewicz scored with only nine minutes remaining Monday from Raven Travis to give host Livonia Franklin (1-0-1) the tied with Walled Lake Central (0-1-1).
 Riquelle Wheeler came off the bench to give the Patriots a spark in the second half, while junior Jane Modes paced the defense.

Franklin goalkeeper Alexis Smith made nine saves.
 Central tallied its lone goal in the 48th minute when Allison Rettig scored on a corner kick.

Patriot bats sizzle in 20-10 triumph

Livonia Franklin's bats were humming in Tuesday's 2012 baseball season opener as the host Patriots unloaded for 21 hits in a 20-10 mercy-rule win over Dearborn.

Franklin scored three in the first, five in the second and three in the third inning to rake an 11-7 lead before adding four more in the fourth.

Junior Kyle Madden led the hit parade going 4-for-5 with a pair of doubles and three RBI.

Junior Kevin Nisun added three hits and scored four runs, while sophomore Daniel Johnson went 2-for-4 with four RBI. Winning pitcher Joe Barczuk, Alex DeYonker and Mason Wypych each added two hits.

Barczuk pitched the final four innings in relief of starter Joel Trudell, who left the game in the second inning with an ankle injury.

Franklin won despite committing four errors and giving up 12 hits. WAYNE 4-1, SKYLINE 3-7: Wayne Memorial (1-1) settled for a split of its season-opening twilight double-header Monday at home against Ann Arbor Skyline (1-1).

The Zebras edged the Eagles in the opener, 4-3, as Chris Briggs drove home Jordan Lowry with the game-winning run on a sacrifice fly in the bottom of the sixth inning to break a 3-3 deadlock.

Lowry paced Wayne's seven-hit attack going 2-for-3 with a double. Briggs, meanwhile, started and worked the first five innings before giving way to Tyler McCurry, who picked up the victory by pitching two scoreless innings.

Briggs gave up three runs on three hits over five, while McCurry struck out one, walked one and did not allow a hit.

In the second game, Nick Sponseller pitched six strong innings as Skyline took the nightcap, 7-1.

Sponseller allowed just two hits, struck out eight and walked only one.

Jacob Lefler, who worked all seven innings and allowed 10 hits, took the loss for Wayne. Joel Frison, Jack Clark, Jared McHenry and Ben Sadis each collected two hits for the Eagles, who scored one in the third, three more in the fourth and three in the seventh.

Lowry scored Wayne's lone run on a fielders choice in the second inning.

BELLEVILLE 13, JOHN GLENN 4: Daniel Ammons went 2-for-4 and two RBI on Monday, but it couldn't prevent host Westland John Glenn (0-1) from falling in its 2012 opener against the Tigers (1-0).

Glenn starter Zach Quinn, who worked the first 2.1 innings, took the loss.

Ryan Wheeler and Devin Spalding also knocked in runs for Glenn.

Scott Powell, the winning pitcher, went the first five innings and allowed three hits and two walks while fanning two. He also helped his own cause going 2-for-4 with an RBI. Teammate Tyler Belant also went 2-for-4.

Each team committed three errors.

after hitting .431 with a .569 slugging percentage. The speedy senior also stole 19-of-20 bases.

"2011 was one of the most successful seasons in recent memory for us, securing a winning record and winning a district game for the first time in at least eight years," Miller said. "But we can't be content with that, especially losing four seniors who were all valuable and reliable assets."

Hoping to move up the ladder this season are Livonia Franklin (14-18) and Wayne Memorial (13-19) both members of the KLAA's formidable South Division.

Franklin sixth-year coach Matt Fournier will rely on seniors Joel Trudell, Joe Barczuk, Kyle Curtis and Justin Forrestall, along with juniors Josh Gorman, Josh DeYonker and Kevin Nisun.

Wayne second-year coach Chris Bailey lost his top three hitters to graduation in Shane Wilson, Shane Kommer and Brandon Harnos.

But the pitching staff remains solid with the return of seniors Chris Briggs, Tyler McCurry, Jacob Lefler and Zach Lankton, along with junior catcher Jordan Lowry.

Canton and the Chargers were also hard hit by graduation losses as they'll miss first-team All-Area performers Ben Matigian and Joe Williams.

The Chargers, however, have one of the area's top returning pitchers in Brent Ochodnicki, a Madonna University signee. The lanky senior left-hander finished with a 5-2 mark and a 3.08 ERA.

Meanwhile, senior outfielder Connor Dwyer leads the Chargers' offensive attack after hitting .402 with 22 RBI and a .512 slugging percentage.

"This season will come down to how some of our inexperienced pitchers perform," Churchill ninth-year coach Ron Targosz said. "We have quite a few players that are very capable of being very good pitchers, but most of them lack the varsity game experience. If, even a handful of these players can come through, then I believe that we will have a very good year."

Westland John Glenn (10-24) struggled during the regular season in 2011, but rebounded by winning a Division 1 district title.

The Rockets, a member of the KLAA's South Division, will be led by junior third baseman Daniel Ammons.

Another district champion was Lutheran High Westland (13-8) in Division 4.

Eighth-year coach Kevin Wade is no stranger to postseason runs as he guided the Warriors to the 2010 state quarterfinals and the 2008 championship final.

The Warriors return senior pitcher Taurrek Fikes as they will try and unseat defending state champion Grosse Pointe Woods University-Liggett in the Blue Division of the Michigan Independent Athletic Conference.

Next-door neighbor Westland Huron Valley Lutheran (12-2) must make up for the loss of four key players who graduated including mainstays Ryan Schaffer and Andy Barber.

The defending MIAC Red Division champions boast a talented sophomore in Ryan Shaffer along with seasoned juniors Alex Harris, Justin Howell and Ryan Blackwood.

Livonia Clarenceville (11-9) will play this spring once again as an independent under fifth-year coach Dan Miller.

Pitcher-outfielder Damien Quarles, a first-team All-Observer pick, returns for the Trojans

Mustangs stride by Churchill, 7-0

Livonia Churchill ran into a buzz saw in its 2012 girls soccer season opener Monday night.

Northville, coming off a 15-3-2 season in 2011, rolled to a 7-0 win over the host Chargers.

Jamie Cheslik and Malory Weber each scored a pair goals and added one assist apiece for the victorious Mustangs, who jumped out to a 3-0 halftime lead.

"They're one of the best teams in the state pre-season and they came out and played like it," said Churchill coach Dave Hebestreit of the Mustangs, who also got goals from Jenni Borawski, Noelle Kuphal and Emily Bush.

Churchill went without five potential starters, including two who may be out for the season with injuries.

Hebestreit singled out the play of sophomore Kelsey Parrinello, "who battled well in the mid-field," along with senior defender Melissa Bird.

CVILLE 8, HARPER WOODS 0: Grace King's goal with 15 minutes left gave Livonia Clarenceville (1-0) the mercy rule win Monday night at home over the Pioneers (0-1). Tristin Bean led the victorious Trojans, who led 4-0 at halftime, with two goals and two assists.

Jordan See also scored twice, while Sadie Zachos added a goal and assist.

Other Clarenceville goal scorers included Lindsey Fosth and Jeana Mariani, while Ashley Murphy also drew an assist.

Goalkeeper Jillian Bunker, who played the first 50 minutes, got credit for the shutout.

Franklin goalkeeper Alexis Smith made nine saves. Central tallied its lone goal in the 48th minute when Allison Rettig scored on a corner kick.

Once upon a time ... Livonia story concert aims to enthrall listeners

By Sharon Dargay
O&E Staff Writer

Three storytellers will spin yarns for youngsters Saturday, March 31 in the 2nd Annual Once Upon a Time Children's Story Concert at the Livonia Public Library.

"We know kids will have a wonderful time and the adults will have fun, too," said Judy Sima, president of the Detroit Story League, a co-sponsor of the event along with Livonia Public Schools. "Part of what our organization does is public service and our public service is storytelling. We're hoping to fill the auditorium."

This year a hootenanny will start the action at 2 p.m. with Detroit Story League members, Ami Jackson and Margaret Lockard, leading the sing-along. Members Carolyn Graves and Rosie Chapman, along with guest teller, Genot Picor, will entertain listeners until 4 p.m. Barbara Jones Clark will serve as "maestro" for the concert, which is aimed at children, 4-10.

"There will be refreshments," Sima noted. "We'll give every child a gift to take home. It's a nice afternoon for kids."

The storytellers will represent a diversity of storytelling styles and content. Chapman is known for her portrayal of Harriet Tubman. She also tells African folk tales. Picor tells native American tales and stories about Michigan history. Graves is a member of North Oakland Storytellers and Parent Tellers in Warren, in addition to Detroit Story League. The parent group performs in classrooms.

"The story she'll tell this time is 'When a Monster is Born.' It's kind of a fun story. The monster has to decide if it's going to become a good student or eat the teacher," Sima said. "She gives (the audience) alternatives."

Live entertainment

All professional tellers perform tales from memory, Sima said. Some use minimal costuming or props. When Chapman portrays Harriet Tubman, for example, she dons a bandana and uses a walking stick. Sima sometimes uses nose masks — and recruits listeners to wear them — as she tells particular tales. Others may incorporate music.

"One thing we do as storytellers is to teach kids how to listen to a live performer," Sima said, adding that children learn when to applaud, how to behave at a live concert.

what grandpa did ... to share happy and sad stories of the family," she said. "It gives (children) a sense of who they are."

Sima, a retired school librarian, also suggests that parents occasionally create stories with their children.

"It's important to read to kids, but also put the book down and make up stories with them."

The Detroit Story League meets noon-3 p.m. the third Saturday of the month at libraries throughout Metro Detroit. Its next meeting is April 21 at the Chaney Branch Library, 16101 Grand River Ave., at Greenfield, in Detroit. On May 19, the group will meet at the Royal Oak Public Library, 222 East 11 Mile, one block east of Main street, in downtown Royal Oak.

Family stories

Folk tales are the mainstay of professional storytelling, although the trend in personal stories has grown, Sima said.

"I think especially with adults the trend has been toward personal stories from your family or your own life."

She hopes parents will leave the concert this weekend eager to tell their own stories to their children.

"The reason we keep doing this is to encourage people to tell family stories to children. When you've got TV and Game Boy, people don't sit around and talk to each other... to find out

"To know you're going to something live is exciting. I've gotten preschoolers to sit and listen for 45 minutes."

She said a simple story performed live by a skilled teller can mesmerize youngsters — even those who are more accustomed to video and computer entertainment.

Family sets annual concert to help hungry children

The Birchler family's fifth annual "Jammin' to End Famine" concert will feature four bands on Friday, April 20, at Monaghan's Knights of Columbus Hall, 19801 Farmington Road, Livonia.

Proceeds will benefit Kids Against Hunger, a nonprofit organization that aims to feed hungry children in the US and abroad. Kids Against Hunger sets up food packaging satellites in the US and worldwide through partnerships with humanitarian organizations, enabling it to deliver its specially-formulated rice-soy casserole to starving children and their families in more than 40 countries.

Jammin' to End Famine will start at 6:30 p.m. and is geared toward all ages. John Birchler will open the show as a member of a cappella vocal jazz group, The Grun-yons. Jim Birchler's high school band, The Over-days, will reunite to fire up the dance floor with 50s rock n' roll, followed by 60s tunes by The Paisley Fogg, with Tom, Keith and Dave Birchler. Tom's son, Mark Warren, and 2 Dayz Gone will turn up the heat with energetic 80s rock.

The concert will include free pizza and salad, as well as a cash bar. Tom's daughter, Emily, will offer free face painting for children.

Tickets are $25 for adults and $10 for students and are tax deductible. They will be available at the door or in advance from Tom Birchler at (248) 722-1820 or by e-mailing him at tbirchler@mi.rr.com. Make checks payable to Kids Against Hunger.

Theater sets auditions for two plays

Two Muses Theatre, a nonprofit, professional theatre dedicated to providing opportunities for female artisans and women in theatre, will hold auditions Monday, April 2, for two comedies.

Auditions will run from 5-9:30 p.m. at the Barnes & Noble Theater Space, 6800 Orchard Lake Road, West Bloomfield. Specific audition times will be scheduled by appointment in half hour blocks.

Two Muses Theatre co-founder Diane Hill, will direct both shows. Sylvia, a modern romantic comedy about a marriage and a dog, will be performed Friday and Saturday evenings, June 7-July 1. A Little Work, which its author, Anita Diamant calls "a mash-up of Nip/Tuck and The Man Who Came to Dinner," will run Friday and Saturday evenings, Sept. 6-30.

The cast will rehearse Sylvia nights and weekends through May. Rehearsals for A Little Work will be nights and weekends in August. "We are looking forward to presenting these two, very funny shows," stated Hill. "Sylvia is a huge crowd-pleaser, and it's an honor to be directing the world premiere of A Little Work. Collaborating with such a notable author as Anita Diamant is exciting, both for Two Muses and local actors."

Roles are available for four men and seven women to play ages 20-50. No prepared material is required. The auditions will consist of readings from the scripts.

Anyone interested in auditioning should e-mail to Auditions@twomusetheatre.org and specify the half hour block they want. Participants should arrive early to complete the necessary paperwork and review the scene excerpts. Callbacks will be 7:15-9:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 4, and actors who are called back should be prepared to stay the entire time. To learn more about the shows and view a complete list of characters, visit www.twomusetheatre.org.

THEATER

Ham, Bacon, and Caramelized Onion Tart

Serves: 6 to 8
Prep Time: 20 minutes
Cook Time: 1½ hours

- 6 slices thick-cut bacon, cut crosswise into ¼-inch strips
- 4 ounces cooked ham, cut into ¼-inch dice
- 1 onion, halved lengthwise and thinly sliced
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon pepper
- 1 9-inch deep-dish pie shell, homemade or store-bought, chilled
- 1½ cups heavy whipping cream
- 3 large eggs, lightly beaten
- 1 teaspoon ground nutmeg

In large skillet over medium-low heat, cook bacon, stirring occasionally, until crisped, 10 to 12 minutes. Use slotted spoon to transfer bacon to large bowl.

Add ham and heat, stirring occasionally, until browned, 3 or 4 minutes. Use slotted spoon to transfer to bowl with bacon.

Add onion, salt and pepper to skillet and cook, stirring occasionally, until soft, 3 or 4 minutes. Reduce heat to very low and cook, stirring occasionally, until onion is golden brown and very tender, 12 to 14 minutes. Transfer onion to bowl with bacon and ham and set aside to cool.

Meanwhile, preheat oven to 350°F. Place pie shell on rimmed baking sheet and bake until pastry is pale gold along the rim, 20 to 25 minutes.

Add cream, eggs and nutmeg to bowl with bacon, ham and onion, whisking to combine.

Remove shell from oven (leave oven on). Pour cream mixture into shell and bake until top is golden and a knife inserted into center comes out clean, 45 to 50 minutes. Let stand 10 minutes before slicing and serving.

Serving Suggestions: This versatile tart serves as a main dish, or can play a supporting role to a holiday ham. To dress up the presentation, make the tart in an 11-inch fluted tart pan.

Thyme-Basted Ham with Roasted Grapes

Serves: 15 to 20 (4-ounce servings)
Prep Time: 20 minutes
Cook Time: 2 to 2½ hours

- 6 to 8 pound cooked bone-in ham, trimmed
 - Pepper
 - ½ cup grape jelly
 - 4 tablespoons unsalted butter (½ stick), cut into 4 to 6 pieces
 - 2 tablespoons chopped fresh thyme
 - 3 cups whole grapes, red, green, or a combination
 - 4 shallots, halved lengthwise and cut into ¼-inch slices
- Preheat oven to 325°F. Position rack in lower third of oven.

Place ham flat side down in large shallow roasting pan and score a diamond pattern about ½-inch deep into any fat. Season with pepper and bake for 1½ hours.

Meanwhile, in small saucepan over medium heat, combine jelly, butter and thyme, whisking occasionally until jelly and butter melt together and mixture comes to a gentle boil, 1 to 2 minutes. Cover and set aside.

In medium bowl, combine the grapes and shallots. Set aside.

Baste ham with jelly mixture. Continue baking, basting the jelly mixture and/or pan juices about every 15 minutes. When ham temperature reaches 120°F, add grapes and shallots to roasting pan, stirring to coat with pan juices. Continue baking and basting until internal ham temperature reaches 140°F, 15 to 18 minutes per pound total cooking time. Remove ham from oven, transfer to cutting board, and let rest 15 to 30 minutes. (If grapes and shallots aren't tender yet, return roasting pan to oven.)

Slice even ham to serve and arrange on plates or a platter. Season roasted grape, shallot, and pan juice mixture with pepper and spoon some on top of ham. Serve remaining grape mixture on the side.

Serving Suggestions: Serve with roast potatoes, fresh peas or steamed asparagus. If you're cooking for a smaller crowd, use ham steaks instead, basted with a smaller amount of the jelly mixture.

- 3 cups peas, fresh or frozen
- 3 tablespoons unsalted butter (½ stick), cut into 4 to 6 pieces
- ¼ cup coarsely chopped fresh mint, plus sprigs for garnish
- 2 tablespoons coarsely chopped fresh tarragon, plus sprigs for garnish

Salt and pepper
Bring medium saucepan of well-salted water to a boil over high heat. Add peas and cook until tender, 3 to 8 minutes depending on size of peas.

Drain peas, reserving 2 tablespoons cooking water. Return peas and cooking water to saucepan. Add ham, butter, mint and tarragon, stirring until butter melts. Season with salt and pepper.

BUILD A BETTER SANDWICH

In America, the ham sandwich reigns supreme. For Easter leftovers, think beyond the classic ham and cheese with these inspired takes:

- Ham and Brie Baguettes: For a French-inspired lunch, cut open a baguette and fill it with sliced ham, sliced Brie, mixed greens, and a mixture of honey and Dijon mustard.
- Ham Reuben: Make your ham sandwich corner-deli style. Combine sliced ham, Swiss cheese, and sauerkraut on rye bread — grill the sandwich if you like.
- Ham, Cheddar and Chutney Quesadillas: For a ham "melt" with familiar flavors, fill a quesadilla with sliced ham, shredded cheddar, and store-bought chutney, and heat through until cheddar is melted.

Honey-Tart Cherry Glazed Salmon with Rustic Tart Cherry Salsa

Tart cherries — today's hottest super fruit

Now more than ever, Americans are aware of health and nutrition and look to their diets as a means to get nutrients naturally. According to top trend forecasters, antioxidants remain a major indicator of health-promoting foods, with nine out of ten of adults aware of antioxidants, and one-third making a strong effort to consume more, according to the study "Mintel 2009; Multi-Sponsor Surveys, 2010."

Known for their powerhouse of antioxidants, tart cherries have emerged as one of today's hottest super fruits. Today there are more than 50 scientific studies specifically on tart cherries, and with the help of Wendy Bazilian, a registered dietician who holds a doctorate in public health, the cherry industry recently launched "The Red Report," a new scientific look at the power of tart cherries.

"The power of this Super Fruit is undeniable," said Bazilian, author of The SuperFood-Rx Diet: Lose Weight with the Power of SuperNutrients. Bazilian explains that what is really amazing is how far tart cherries have come over the last few years. "For example, the fruit has long been anecdotally associated with pain relief benefits. Today, there's a strong and significant body of evidence backing that up."

Beyond their health benefits, tart cherries are shaping key nutrition trends.

"A growing body of research suggests that the powerful antioxidants in tart cherries are linked to a broad range of benefits — anti-inflammation, heart health, pain relief, exercise recovery and more. Some of the latest reports call out the tart cherry as 'the' Super Fruit to watch," Bazilian said.

Good Reasons to Eat Red

Available every day of the year in dried, frozen and juice forms, tart cherries can be a powerful way to boost fruit intake and meet current dietary recommendations of two daily fruit servings. Experts suggest consuming one to two servings of cherries daily can help provide some of the health benefits identified in the research.

Try this flavorful recipe for Honey-Tart Cherry Glazed Salmon with Rustic Tart Cherry Salsa for dinner this week. Add Apple, Pecan, and Cherry Winter Salad.

Honey-Tart Cherry Glazed Salmon with Rustic Tart Cherry Salsa

Salsa:

Serves: 4

1 cup chopped tart cherries (thawed from frozen)
1 small red onion, diced (about ½ cup)
1 jalapeño, chopped
1 tablespoon honey
1 clove garlic, minced
1 teaspoon grated ginger
Salt and pepper, to taste

Salmon:

1 pound salmon fillet, cut into four pieces
¼ cup tart cherry juice (juice from frozen cherries will work)
¼ cup honey

In medium bowl, stir together ingredients until well combined. Cover; chill until ready to serve.

Preheat oven to 350°. Line baking sheet with nonstick aluminum foil or parchment (foil preferred). Rinse salmon fillets under cool water; pat dry with paper towel. Arrange on baking sheet.

In small bowl, whisk together cherry juice and honey. Spread half of mixture over salmon fillets, reserving second half.

Slide baking sheet into oven; bake for 15 to 17 minutes, until just about cooked through. Drizzle second half of tart cherry-honey mixture over fillets; bake for an additional 2 to 3 minutes, until slightly golden at edges.

Serve salmon fillets on bed of greens with tart cherry salsa on top.

Canton woman gets creative with Michigan apples

Debbie Chamulak of Canton recently took top honors in the Michigan Apple Committee's 4th Annual Online Recipe Contest.

She won a KitchenAid mixer and her recipe for Michigan Apple Won Ton Cups beat out 147 other entries. The Michigan Apple Committee plans to distribute the unconventional recipe, along with two other winning entries from Ohio and Michigan, on recipe cards at orchards, farm markets, trade shows and select grocery stores.

Chamulak, 60, is married, has three children, a grandchild and "one more on the way."

The Observer asked this avid cook about herself and her culinary creation:

Q: What compelled you to enter the apple recipe contest?

A: I read the story in the Canton Observer and decided to enter the contest for the creative challenge. I did not already have a recipe in mind. I created the Michigan Apple Wonton Cup recipe specifically for this competition.

Q: Have you entered other recipe contests?

A: Yes, I have entered a few other competitions in the past. Locally, I entered the Canton Cherry Hill Village Cherry Festival in 2008. I won with my cherry strudel recipe.

Q: What do you think makes Michigan Apple Wonton Cups a winning recipe?

A: Michigan apples are the featured ingredient and utilized in two ways, cider and solid fruit. It's an simple recipe that looks and tastes more complex than it really is.

Q: What are your other specialties?

A: Primarily, I enjoy baking at home more than anything. My specialties are pastries, biscuits, and yeast breads — or so I'm told.

Q: Are you an avid cook?

A: I would consider myself an avid cook. I have always been an advocate for cooking family dinners at home.

Q: Do you have a background in culinary arts?

A: I have never formally studied culinary science. My only experience comes from what I have learned from my 90-year-old mother, 9th grade home economics class, and trial and error.

Michigan Apple Wonton Cups

Makes 24 servings

Ingredients:
3 finely diced Michigan Apples, such as McIntosh and Fuji

¼ cup sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 ½ cups of Michigan Apple Cider
24 wonton wrappers
(Optional caramel sauce and whipped cream)

Apple Filling Directions:

Combine 1 cup of the cider, apples, ¼ cup of sugar and cinnamon in saucepan. Cook apples for about 5-7 minutes. Take remaining cider and combine with the cornstarch. Add to the apples. Cook and stir over medium heat until thickened. Set aside to cool.

Bake:

Preheat oven to 350 degrees Fahrenheit. Lightly spray small size 24 cup muffin pan with cooking spray. Line each muffin cup with 1 wonton wrapper, letting the edges hang over. Fill each cup with apple filling. Sprinkle tops of cups with a little sugar. Bake in oven for 15 minutes or when wontons are brown on the edges. Can be served with optional caramel sauce and whipped cream.

Veteran policeman: Guard your home against vacation season break-ins

By Julie Brown
O&E Staff Writer

Sgt. Pat Sullivan hasn't seen a huge number of vacation break-ins during his some 21 years with the Canton Police Department.

"It happens occasionally, like any community," said Sullivan, taking a break from recent duties at the Canton Home Expo. "It hasn't been a big problem."

The veteran policeman agreed holding mail through the post office, or having it picked up by a relative, is vital when vacationing. That's true for your newspaper as well.

Sullivan said inexpensive timers for lights should be used throughout the house "so it looks like somebody's moving around the house." Those timers are available at hardware stores.

Good neighbors come in handy during vacations. "It's always a good idea to let your neighbors know," he said. A friend or relative can stop by to check on the house, including for pipes that have burst, a water leak or a hose on the washing machine flooding the basement.

Neighbors shouldn't hesitate to call if they see something unusual, Sullivan said.

"Most people when they see something suspicious they'll call us. It's always best if you're not sure to call. We would much rather be bothered on the front end than have somebody's house broken into."

Sullivan also recommends motion lights for a home's exterior. "It gives the impression that somebody's in the house," he said, a good idea even if you're just away at work or on errands.

Door locks should be checked to make sure they're effective, and windows and doors locked for safety. Sullivan noted sliding doors in the back of a home are easy targets for thieves, especially in older homes. He recommends putting a sturdy stick or dowel in the track.

"It makes it very difficult to get in," said Sullivan, who also recommends keeping shrubs and trees trimmed so there's no easy opportunity for a thief to break in undetected.

Sullivan's public safety table was among some 135 at the 11th annual Canton Home Expo at the Summit on the Park. The event is sponsored by Canton Township, the Canton Chamber of Commerce and the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers.

It draws some 5,000-6,000 people each March, said John Weyer, Canton building official. "It's more family oriented," Weyer said. "We do a lot of activities," including children's workshops courtesy of The Home Depot.

Consult lawyer on mentally ill resident

By Robert Meisner
Guest Columnist

Q: We have a schizophrenic resident in our unit who was put in by her daughter and sort of "warehoused" in our condominium project. She is dangerous in our opinion and may set the place on fire. What can we do?

A: When the family, police and/or social service agencies are unwilling or unable to resolve the problem, injunctive relief from the court looks like the only remedy. Once a lawsuit has been filed against the owners of the unit and/or the daughter and the matter is before the court, the court can bring the social service agency into the case to possibly create an effective solution, whether it be mandatory in-home assistance or caretaking or removal of a resident from the unit. You are best to consult with your attorney in that regard.

Q: We do not have a management company for our homeowner association and I am concerned about whether or not our deed restrictions will continue indefinitely. Do you have any comments on that?

A: Although most newer generation recorded restrictions in the declaration contain automatic rollover provisions regarding the enforceability of the declaration, many of the older ones have a clause that say they would expire on a certain date, usually 30 or 40 years after recordation, unless certain action is taken to extend them. Recently, we have seen several situations in which the board or the managing agent did not pay attention and allowed that expiration period to come and go. That is obviously something that each association should monitor and seek legal counsel if they have, in the sense, legally expired.
