Wild presents 3-year balanced budget

By LeAnne Rogers Staff Writer

Despite adopting a singleyear budget, Westland has been using a two-year budget cycle in recent years, and now that's been extended to three

Westland Mayor William Wild presented the proposed $58.6 million general fund budget to council at a study session Monday — a day before the charter required April 1 deadline.

Along with the 2014-15 budget, which would begin July 1, Wild also provided proposed balanced budgets for the 2015-

16 and 2016-17 fiscal years. By the end of the 2014-15 fiscal year, Wild said Westland would add about $500,000 to the current fund balance effectively the city rainy day savings — taking that to $5.6 million

"The second-year budget is balanced without using fund balance," Wild said. "The third year, a little fund balance would be used. We're looking to mitigate that through property tax values increasing. As the budget process moves forward, our goal is not to use any fund balance."

Using fund balance in 2016-17 would leave $4.6 million in reserve as currently projected.

In a change from recent years, the proposed budget includes some hiring of personnel, including the recall of two Department of Public Services employees laid off in » The proposed 2014-15 budget includes line items for a parks and recreation director along with the DPS director. Deputy Mayor Jade Smith has been overseeing parks programs for Westland since Westland and Wayne combined their parks and recreation departments.

'It's a place holder in the budget. We will have new facilities in the new City Hall," said Wild, adding the duties for the position are still under review.

Benny McCusker has been heading the DPS since Kevin Buford retired last year. Wild said the new director would be a contract employee, saving he orange barrels are out. The detour signs are uncovered. The equipment is staged.

After nearly two years from when the project was announced, I-96 is finally scheduled to close early Saturday morning through Redford and Livonia for more than six months of reconstruction work.

Compared to other large-scale freeway shutdowns in recent memory, such as the Southfield Freeway or the Lodge Freeway, Michigan Department of Transportation engineer Jeff Horne said this project is unique in that the entire seven-mile stretch is a full reconstruction.

"The difference between the I-96 project and the Lodge and Southfield projects, is that the Southfield project and the Lodge had a combination of different fixes. It wasn't a complete reconstruct throughout the whole corridor," he said. "For instance, M-39, Eight Mile to Five Mile was a reconstruct. But from Five Mile to Ford Road, that was more of an overlay. So this is a full, in-depth reconstruct.

"Those road projects were not as involved as this I-96 project."

The closure, the biggest part of the $148 million project, is expected to take roughly six months, with the freeway expected to open no later than October. In addition to reconstructing the road in both directions, 37 bridges will see renovations, with two - Inkster and Breakfast Drive — seeing complete replacement. Landscaping work along the freeway will also take

And with this closure comes shutting down a stretch of freeway that accommodates more than 140,000 vehicles each day through the two communities, leaving motorists to find another way to work, be it in Detroit or in western Wayne or Oakland counties.

The official detours have drivers going onto freeways such as I-94, I-696, I-275, the Southfield Freeway and the Lodge Freeway, though it's expected many drivers will use the mile roads as alternates.

Westland library waives fines for food donation

William P. Faust Library of Westland patrons can take care of outstanding fines for a donation of non-perishable foods

The Food for Fines program will run throughout April. When patrons donate a canned or boxed food item, they will receive $2 off their library fines up to $20 total.

This is the fourth year the library has participated in a Food for Fines program and every year it seems more important," Library Information Department Head Marilyn Kwik said. "The response we get from the community is quite amazing. Each year we take in more goods than we forgive in fines, which means a lot of people are giving because they recognize this

The library is participating again with a number of area libraries in the Food for Fines, Food for Thought program benefiting Gleaners Communitv Food Bank (www.gcfb.org), a large non-profit food distribution agency serving southeast Michigan. Last year, the library donated more than 1,000 pounds of food to Gleaners, more than any library in The Library Network's 22 participating libraries.

Another great result of this program is that we see patrons again who may have been avoiding us because of their fines," Kwik said. "It really is a win-win for everyone."

Only commercially prepared, nonperishable items in good condition - no opened, crushed, or dented packages and no items past their expiration dates — will be accepted. Also, donated food items will only pay for overdue fines not lost or damaged items.

Westland looks at residential reappraisal

By LeAnne Rogers Staff Writer

A citywide appraisal, spread over several years, is likely on the horizon for Westland homeowners.

It's a move aimed at improving the city's revenues by accurately taxing properties that have been improved or added to and meeting state legal requirements of fair and equitable assessments. That also improves the city's chances of winning property tax appeals before the Michigan Tax Tribunal.

"We're going to have to look at a citywide appraisal. We can do it voluntarily or be forced to do it," Westland Council President James Godbout said. "We will be better off with a plan in place than someone telling us to do it on their timeta-

It's been a number of years since the city has done a citywide reevaluarecords accurately reflect properties. This proposal would look at 20 percent of the city's homes annually for five years.

"We haven't done this since maybe in the '70s. We are waiting for a proposal from the Assessing Department," Westland Mayor as part of this year's budget." William Wild said. "We put it

City assessors WCA Assessing recently completed a random sampling of 428 residential properties to verify the accuracy of assessing records.

The sampling had a taxable value of $16.5 million or 1.67 percent of the Westland's $994 million taxable value. The homes were from all the city's geographic assessing neighborhoods.

» There was an approximately $32,000 taxable value loss reported due to items listed on assessments no longer being present.

» The canvas resulted in the $313,500 in taxable value being gained for items found that aren't currently listed on the assessments. That's a $281,500 net gain in taxable value.

Effectively, most of the un-assessed improvements didn't have city permits pulled - the assessors noted properties with pulled building permits are inspected annually.

The unreported improvements ranged from large differences in square footage and new garages/sheds to air conditioners and hot

New job is return home for court administrator

By LeAnne Rogers Staff Writer

There were plenty of pluses for James Gibbs when he accepted the job of Westland 18th District Court administrator.

"It's my hometown. There is a 15-minute drive to work versus a 45-minute drive," Gibbs said. "That swayed me. With kids, that really makes a difference.

Before coming to the Westland court, Gibbs worked for 28th District Court in Southgate, first as a probation officer and the last five years as court administrator.

"(28th District Court) Judge (James) Kandrevas was an excellent mentor," Gibbs said. A 1988 Westland John

Glenn High School graduate, Gibbs attended Wayne State University for a couple years before earning a bachelor's degree in business administration from Eastern Michigan University and a master's certificate in judicial administration from Michigan State University.

"I wasn't really looking for a change when they called and invited me to apply," Gibbs said.

Full circle

Over 15 years ago, Gibbs had worked at the Westland court as a probation department

"I worked on the work program before I got a call (to work) from Southgate," Gibbs said. "I've come full circle."

Before coming to 18th District Court, Gibbs said he was aware of Judge Sandra Cicirelli when she was mayor — his daughter was invited to lead the Pledge of Allegiance at a council meeting - and Judge Mark McConnell from his days as a city prosecutor.

"Both judges are great people. The biggest adjustment has been the volume of cases," Gibbs said. "Both judges are extremely busy. It can make getting a meeting with them difficult."

The Westland court has about twice the staff and double the caseload as the Southgate Court, he said.

"The work is the same, the people are the same. The employees know what they are doing," Gibbs said. "The surprise has been how busy the court is - the probation department does a lot of work.'

Married 22 years, Gibbs and his wife Eva have a daughter, Allyson, who is earning a teaching degree at Eastern and son James, a junior at Plymouth High School. The family moved to Canton in 2008 for the talented and gifted program for James.

"My wife's sister was my best friend. I was working at Meijer. Her sister had a Halloween party. I said, 'Who's that?" Gibbs said. Eva Gibbs also graduated from Eastern and is a billing an analyst for DTE Energy.

Long-term plan

Not planning to retire anytime before 65, Gibbs said he'd like to work as court administrator for 20 years.

"If I stay here the whole time, I'd love it. We see all kinds of cases," Gibbs said. "It's good to have a hand in changing lives for the better. You see people at their lowest point and help pick them up. It's rewarding. I love that."

The court has an annual Law Day with students at Glenn and has a sobriety court, which Gibbs said he hopes will grow and meet its full potential.

the city the cost of benefits and pension, along with future legacy costs.

» Westland will not be receiving the federal SAFER grant which has funded 13 firefighter positions.

With the remaining retirements under the generic buyout program, the grant-funded firefighters will continue with the department. Wild said the staffing level will be reduced to 56 firefighters.

Additionally, three part-time ordinance/ animal control officers will be hired. The Fire Department handles ordinance enforcement.

"As we listened to the community and council members, they talked of the need to increase ordinance enforcement and animal control," Wild said.

» Westland is seeing an average 1 percent decrease in taxable property values in 2014-15. Property taxes will increase due to the 2.5-mill increase in the Act 345 millage, which funds the police and fire retirement expenses.

That Act 345 millage increase is expected to cost the owner of a home with a $50,000 taxable value $125 annually. That millage was last increased in 2009

» The city expects to again qualify for the state Economic Vitality Incentive Program -$1.25 million in the current fiscal year and $1.35 million in the proposed budget.

The city also expects an increase in the Constitutional state shared revenue to $6.5 million from the current fiscal year's $6.3 million.

» Revenue at 18th District Court remains at $4 million, which Wild attributed in part to the Police Service Aid program which resulted in more officers being on the road.

» The city is seeing additional revenues due to employee contributions for pension and health care. Directors, members of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees and court administration are contributing to their pension and health care.

In addition, approximately 48 new hires in the police and fire departments are contributing 5 percent toward their pensions.

Wild noted that contracts with police and firefighter unions will be expiring later this

» The city is establishing a park ranger program, which will be funded through rentals and fees at Tattan Park.

Council will have its first budget study session 9 a.m. Saturday, April 12.

Chamber leaders: We're still open for business

By David Veselenak Staff Writer

Weeks before this week's I-96 shutdown, one business, the KFC at Schoolcraft and Farmington, was already looking to keep business coming when the freeway shuts down later this week. The marquee reads "We are still open when 96 closes."

Keeping business flowing in Redford and Livonia is crucial to both leaders of the area chambers of commerce, who say it's important to keep those businesses in mind when people's daily routines are significantly changed because of the shutdown

"When you have a project of this magnitude, you have a lot of anxiety," said Dan West, president of the Livonia Chamber of Commerce. "Some (motorists) stop at stores along the way. Those people go to regular certain stores, and their patterns are being disrupted."

The freeway, which shuts down Saturday morning between Telegraph and Newburgh for a $148 million reconstruction, will take more than 140,000 regular drivers off the freeway and onto other freeways in the area, as well as surface streets throughout both communities.

West said the work will not only impact drivers who use the freeway, but other drivers who regularly cross the freeway and visit businesses on both sides of town. Bridge closures, for example, will also make an impact on area businesses, especially those bridges, such as Inkster Road, which will be combletely shut down at some point during the construction project. "It's not just the freeway. That's thousands of cars north and south on Inkster alone," he said. "There's a lot of people that have not seen an entire freeway like this shutdown."

For those who drive around for work, the increased number of vehicles on the roads will force them to begin taking a hard look at the route they usually take, said Marti Swek, executive director of the Redford Chamber of Commerce.

"You never think about how you're going," she said. "It's going to be the best for all of us in the long run."

Livonia mayor Jack Kirksey made a mention during his State of the City address last week to residents, asking them to continue patronizing area businesses, even if traffic is a problem.

'We do encourage everyone to continue really driving the extra mile to get to businesses that you currently are part of, because we have many people that are dependent on that,' he said. "Even if you have to go around a little bit, please go to your local businesses."

But as bad as the shutdown will be for the next few months, it beats the other alternative, Swek said: a partial closure for several years.

The alternate was voted down by motorists during a poll done by the Michigan Department of Transportation in 2012. About 56 percent of those polled requested the freeway be closed completely to get the work done sooner rather than later. Having a partial closure for several years would have made things difficult for a longer period of time, she said.

"Get it done. All that does is it just blocks everything up," she said. "You can't get through. You might as well be shut down.'

from Haggerty to Telegraph, as well as Schoolcraft along the project route, have been retimed to allow for longer green lights for drivers heading east and west, as well as along Grand River from Telegraph to the Southfield Freeway in Detroit.

"It's well under capacity, so it can handle the traffic," Horne said of Grand River.

Several bridges over the freeway will also close down on Saturday, with more bridge closure announcements expected as the project moves along. At some point in the project, every bridge will see some closures along the route, except for the pedestrian bridge that crosses the freeway in Redford.

Livonia mayor Jack Kirksey said during his State of the City address last week that residents should try out other routes to find one that works for them before the freeway closes

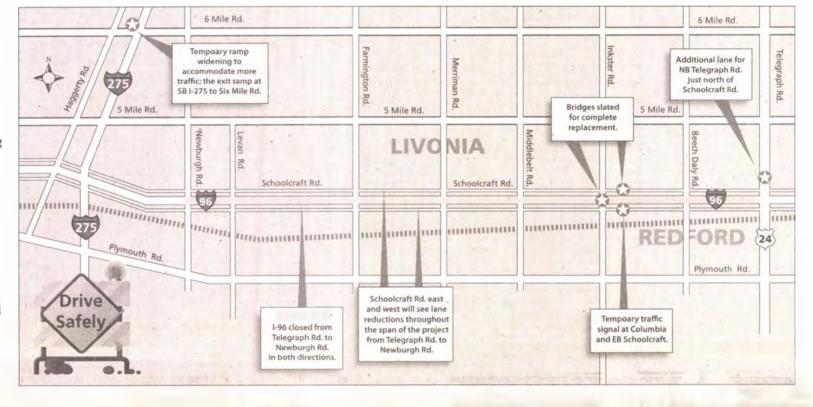

"It's going to really create some very, very serious problems," he said. "People are encouraged to try an alternate route. That won't mean a lot once traffic is dumped onto the surface roads. Try to figure out what works best for you."

Drivers driving eastbound from M-14 toward Livonia will not be able to access Newburgh like they currently can. Access to I-96 from M-14 will be forbidden, though drivers will be able to access the small portion of I-96 open west of Newburgh from I-275 northor southbound.

Horne said it's anticipated many drivers coming from Ann Arbor or Plymouth via M-14 will get off at either Sheldon or Beck roads in Plymouth. A new traffic signal at the eastbound exit at Beck will help with traffic.

While not installed specifically for the project, Horne said MDOT wanted to have it up and running by the time the freeway closed.

"It was not because of this project," he said. "But because of this project, we sped it up. We wanted it in place before this project. But it was going to get one regardless.

Wayne man faces stalking charges

By Darrell Clem Staff Writer

A 33-year-old man arrested by Canton police on charges he had burglary tools is facing mounting legal woes after a widening investigation led to additional counts of stalking that involves two women he knew, authorities said.

Thomas Earl Martin of Wayne is facing a

exam Friday in 35th District Court on charges of stalking, aggravated stalking and possession of burglary tools, Canton Detective Sgt. Chad Baugh said.

Martin, arrested at his home, was jailed with a $100,000 bond when he was arraigned Friday by 35th District Judge James Plakas. Martin could face penalties ranging up to 10 years in prison if he is convicted as charged, Baugh said.

A not-guilty plea has been placed in Martin's court file as he awaits the preliminary exam that will determine whether he should face trial in Wayne County

Circuit Court.

Martin's troubles began shortly before 2 a.m. March 21, when Canton police noticed a suspicious man lurking near the Children's Hospital of Michigan Specialty Center, on Cherry Hill east of Canton Center, while it was closed, Baugh said. According to police reports, the man claimed he believed the specialty center was an animal hospital and he wanted to obtain information for a girlfriend's dog that had been injured. Baugh said the suspect was walking in the area, but his car was nearby.

Baugh said police found binoculars, a flashlight, a Swiss armytype tool kit and, from the man's car, what Baugh described as a lock-picking set.

Further investigation indicated the man had allegedly been stalking two women with whom he had prior contact, Baugh said, though some details couldn't be divulged because the case was still pending in court.

Original Rosies lead crowd in setting new Guinness world record

By Sue Mason Staff Writer

Andrea Kennedy got to be a part of a history making event Saturday, and all she had to do was count.

An Army National Guardsman from Canton, Kennedy was one of two people Jane Vass recruited to count babies, toddlers, children, teens and adult women filed into an enclosed area to stand for five minutes and set a Guinness world record for the largest number of people dressed as Rosie the Riveter.

"I'm reliable," said Kennedy, holding the two counters—one showing 400, the other 378. "We had a really good system. We stood back to back so when they went through we could physically count them."

It was the second time the Yankee Air Museum's Tribute Rosies, led by Vass, tried to break world record. They fell short of the 250 they need when they tried last October, but were well above that number Saturday.

"It's so overwhelming," Vass said. "I knew we'd have

Wearing the iconic red-andwhite polka dot bandana, the Rosies began lining up before 2 p.m. at Hangar 1 at Willow Run Airport, just a short distance from the Willow Run Bomber Plant where Rose Will Monroe ost famously remembered at Rosie the Riveter - worked building the B-24 Liberator Bomber. Monroe who came to Michigan from Kentucky to work at the plant became the symbol of the 6 million American women who entered the workforce during World War

"When we opened the doors at 2, there was already a line," said Jeannette Gutierez of Ann Arbor whose daughter Alison Beatty dressed up as Rosie to draw attention to the Save the Bomber Plant campaign. "We have a bunch of real Rosies here. It's quite powerful."

Saturday's effort attracted Rosiest ranging from 3-monthold Maggie West and her mother Mary of Monroe to 16 original Rosies, including 86-yearold Mary Lentz of Westland and 91-year-old Anna Kinsey of Clinton Township. Even Monroe's daughter, Vicki Creston, came from Conroe, Texas, to help set the world record.

Original Rosies

Lentz was a riveter and worked on the sides of the plane. Her memory has faded somewhat although she remembers "working here a long time"

"I left when I found another job," she said. "I came after my uncle got a job here. It paid more than what I was making in the laundry. That wasn't even enough to buy a roll of toilet paper."

Because of her height — 5 feet 4 inches — Kinsey was short enough that she could crawl inside the plane and work. She worked in the factory for 19 months before leaving

"I'd get the noise from both sides; that's what took my hearing," Kinsey said.

ing," Kinsey said.

"She worked as long as she could stand it," her son Euel said. "She had to get a release when she left because she worked for a military industry."

try."
West sees the original Rosies as "an inspiration to be a strong woman."

"I actually did this for Maggies," she said. "It's cool and original and makes a memory for her. I'd liked her to be a strong woman, too."

Rita Schlagheck of Canton and her husband Don have been "very involved" with the Yankee Air Museum which is raising $8 million to buy a portion of the former bomber plant and turn it into a mu-

"I love the story of what they did to prepare for war," Schlagheck said. "It's nice opportunity to honor Rosie and honor the women who worked here" Kim Lowrie of Dearborn got help from Tribute Rosie Christy Mayhew of Plymouth in pinning up her hair and tying on her bandana. Her grandmother was one of the original Rosies who participated in the record setting event.

"I felt it was a really good cause," Lowrie said. "It's a piece of history that needs to be saved. My grandmother lived it, so it's important to me."

Getting attention

The Tribute Rosies have helped bring attention the campaign. According to Gutierez, wherever they go they hear from people who have a connection to the factory.

"Everybody has a story that ties back to this factory," she said. "I was at Eastern Market this morning and when people saw me they immediately connected with this person (Rosie). Everyone recognizes 'We Can Do It' and 'We Can Do It Again."

"This is personalizing the bomber plant structure we want to save because of what happened inside it and the people who worked in it," said Kevin Walsh, the museum's executive director. "This personalizes what happened here 70-plus years ago."

Janice Amin of Ann Arbor and Kimberly Ford of Plymouth show off the iconic red polka dot bandana needed to be in the event.

Isabella Murphy-Morrow of Plymouth shows her "We Can Do It" pose.

The original Rosies were the last group to enter the roped-off area. They were greeted with applause and chants of "Rosie, Rosie." Vass was glad the ladies got to "hear the applause and feel special."

The 778 Rosies had to stay in place for five minutes before the official photo was taken for the Guinness Book of World Records. To pass the time, they sang songs like God Bless America. A video also was made of the world-record gathering, and there were witnesses to verify the event, which didn't go unnoticed by the Riveter Day in Michigan.

Michigan. Gov. Rick Snyder, who proclaimed Saturday, March 29, as the official Rosie

"This is in no way insignificant," said Mike Montgomery of the Michigan Aeronautical Foundation which is helping in the Save the Bomber Plant Campaign. "This isn't a story about Willow Run, this is the story about the Arsenal of Democracy, and they are a unique asset in telling that story."

Local author Barbara Hood Burgess, 87, "loved her church, and loved her God. She believed that life should be spent doing something you love," said Pastor Steven Schafer of Livonia's Mt. Hope Congregational Church at memorial services for Burgess March 21. "She wrote for the pure joy of it, and tried to write every day. Barbara was working on her fifth book, even though she knew it would never be finished." Born April 20, 1926, in Detroit, Burgess died of cancer March 14, 2014, in her Westland home. "Barbara's family was everything to her," Schafer said. "Her four children Lee, Chris, Debbie and Eric are great successes, and she'd express surprise over that fact. In her mind, she had nothing to with it." Predeceased by her husband John, Burgess was the grandmother of eight and great-grandmother of around her; politics, world events and local events, and she maintained that right up until the end," said son Lee of Chicago. "It made for lively discussions. She did a million little things that when you add it all up had a profound affect on us. She took great joy in the things we did.

Lee recalled his mother reading The Wizard of Oz series to him and childhood pals Tom and Bob Nastas on the family's front porch in Livonia. "It soon became a whole gaggle of kids; a great scene. She gave us a lifelong love of reading and writing," he said.

The day in 1991 when she learned that her first novel, Oren Bell, was being accepted for publication by Delacorte Press "was one of her happiest moments," her son added. The story of a 12-year-old Detroiter and his twin sister, Oren Bell was critically acclaimed by The New York Times. Burgess was lauded for her rare talent and ability to "hold the interest of even the wiggliest reader" with a story enabling young readers to "feel a little less alone in their own battles."

She wrote a sequel, The Fred Field, followed by The Courtship of Tucker Pain. Death on Grave Street is a mystery set in a small Michigan town inspired by Marlette, a community in Michigan's Thumb region where Burgess lived on a centennial farm after selling her historic home in Old Rosedale Gardens.

Burgess graduated from Cooley High School in Detroit and worked for the Prudential company. Barbara and John Burgess married in 1947 and raised four children. When her children were grown, Burgess entered college, earning her bachelor's degree in psychology at 64. She worked as a teacher's aid and veterinarian's assistant.

Ex-Westland resident was 'amazing'

Bv David Veselenak Staff Writer

James Hamrick said his wife Amber was a woman who never slowed down on life. Whether it was work, her family or a new adventure, she was always all-in.

"She just always gave 110 percent on anything she ever did," he said. "From the simplest things to the most important. She just gave all."

Hamrick, 30, of Livonia, died last Tuesday from complications from injuries she sustained in a snowmobile accident March 8 in Wexford County. Police say she was snowmobiling with a group on a rural road in the county when her snowmobile clipped another in the group, causing hers to turn on its side.

The 2001 Franklin High School graduate who grew up in Westland, lived in Livonia with her husband of five years, James, and their two children, Jillian and Jacob. She worked at Dental Smiles of Livonia for the past 13 years.

Dr. Kristal Greniuk-Wioncek of Dental Smiles said she will always remember Amber as someone who stepped up to help out in her dental office, whether it was administrative tasks or cleaning a child's teeth.

"She had this smile that would make any child feel comfortable," she said. "She was a team player. She would always help out wherever she was needed."

James Hamrick said Amber Hamrick would not go out hunting with him, but she would prepare dishes from the game he brought back.

"She would always go up north with me when I was scouting different spots," he said. "She wasn't afraid to get down and dirty. She was definitely an amazing person.

Whether it was water skiing, snowmobiling, jet skiing, four-wheeling or any other activity, Amber got involved and would try new things with her family and friends, her sister, Shelly Anderson, said. "Every type of new thing we would try together. We're very outdoorsy people. We had a lot of good times up north. Amber Hamrick was also very close with her family, spending time with her sister and her children. Anderson said she and her sister had children around similar ages and would get together and go to the park and other activities.

"Everything you can do with kids, we did together," she said. "She wasn't just a sister, she was my best friend."

Ways to help

Several fundraisers are scheduled to help her family with expenses, Greniuk-Wioncek said, including a pasta dinner and raffle at 6 p.m. April 12 at the American Legion Post 32, 9318 Newburgh. Another benefit pasta dinner is expected to take place later in April in Wyandotte. A Zumba exercise night fundraiser is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. May 3 at the Livonia Community Recreation Center, 15100 Hubbard.

Greniuk-Wioncek said Zumba was an activity Amber Hamrick had done with the staff at the dental office, and she thought it would be a fitting way to raise money. She said Amber Hamrick said the exercise session reminded her of family vacations she took to Mexico.

"She liked going to Mexico: it was one of her favorite vacations," she said. "We did it as an office one time. We would all be in the back row and it was a blast.'

All fundraisers, Greniuk-Wioncek said, will accept freewill offerings. Her office is accepting donations of checks and items to use for the raffle held at the American Legion Hall in April. Those who would like to donate can write a check out to "Hamrick Family Assistance Fund" and drop it off at Dental Smiles, 33044 Five Mile.

Dinner, auction to benefit veterans, families

SEAL Team 6. The event will begin at 5 p.m. at the Suburban Collection Showplace, 46100 Grand River Ave., in Novi. Meteorologist Chuck Gaidica will serve as master of ceremonies. He will introduce honored veterans from all branches of service, and state government officials.

Since its inception in 2006, the FWSF has raised more than $1 million to help wounded or fallen soldiers and their families.

New concessions approved for Metro's McNamara Terminal

The Wayne County Airport Authority has approved the next phase in a major redevelopment of the concession program at Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County port's restaurant and dining experience over the next 1 ½ years.

Featured concepts will include national brands, such as P.F. Chang's, Chick-fil-A, Longhorn Steakhouse, Bruegger's Bagels, Pot-belly Sandwich Works, Pinkberry and illy espressamente. The program also introduces many local culinary favorites such as Andiamo, the terminal's first upscale Italian restaurant, Plum Market with Zingerman's Deli, Corridor Sausage Company, Grobbel's Gourmet Deli, Crave Robata Grill and Bar, Papa Joe's Gourmet Market, Mezza Mediterranean Grille, Palazzolo's Artisan Gelato and Sorbetto and a gate holdroom dining experience themed on Detroit's historic Eastern Market.

"This new McNamara Terminal food and beverage program will elevate our passengers' travel experience to new levels," said Wayne County Airport Authority CEO Tom Naughton. "Combining a great mix of well-recognized, national and international brands with the quality, freshness and local flavor of many of Detroit's finest and most successful restaurant/food concepts, we think our customers will really enjoy and appreciate the new unique dining experience these venues will create.'

Increased convenience

Incorporation of innovative technologies, such as use of iPad and tablet self-ordering stations, mobile point of sale devices, social media and web-based platforms, even a virtual concierge, will enable increased convenience, speed of service and opportunity for travelers to find and order exactly what they are looking for, even from the comfort of their gate areas, in several locations.

In addition to resoliciting existing concession agreements that will begin to expire later this year, the airport took the program a step further by incorporating new, previously undeveloped spaces into the list of program opportunities. A vacant former Northwest Airlines WorldClub on Concourse B as well as parts of several gate area holdrooms were made available for concessionaires to show creativity, and propose new nontraditional food and beverage spaces and service enhancements, within the existing gate areas

The new program will add approximately 22,000 square feet of additional space to the McNamara Terminal Food and Beverage program, and is expected to generate nearly $31.6 million of capital investment, more than $614 per square foot on

'Truly unique' "The combination of great concepts and design, high-quality chefinspired menu options, convenient gate-area dining, and new technology and service enhancements, will make our program truly unique," said Marcus

Kemper, Wayne County
Airport Authority senior vice president of facilities and development-"Since the Airport Authority is entirely selfsustaining and does not receive local tax dollars to support our operations, the enhanced nonairline-based revenue these new concessions will generate for the Authority are vital, and help ensure we maintain a competitive cost structure which encourages new air service development."

During the first full year of the program, sales are anticipated to be approximately $63 million, an increase of more than 47.5 percent above the current program, and revenue to the authority is projected to be over $10 million, an increase of $3.7 million or 57.3 percent.

Design and construction of the new concession spaces will commence shortly, and is anticipated to be complete by the fall of 2015.

How to achieve extreme productivity

n today's busy world most of us are continually seeking ways to be more productive. Harvard Business Review published an interesting article that offers six principals to help us achieve "extreme productivity," including this advice:

'Think First, Read or Write Second.

Making time to think is a highly essential and often neglected key to productivity. As the article's author Robert C. Pozen points out, "many people feel overwhelmed by the huge volume of reading and writing they have to do for their business. They don't realize that the key to faster and more effective reading and writing is more rigorous thinking in advance."

For example, when writing an article, compose an outline first with just the key points and a few subpoints under each. "After writing an outline, write the concluding paragraph," suggests Pozen. "That will tell you whether you really know where your article or memo is going. Let's think first and have a sunny day!

Making electricity deregulation work

We're all about paying less for electricity, but we're unconvinced that a bill pending in the Michigan House would lead to lower bills, and we're satisfied to see this legislation on a slow track.

Energy deregulation is getting a lot of attention recently, in spite of the fact that a bill that would allow more utilities to sell electricity in Michigan seems unlikely to advance in the Legislature.

Gov. Rick Snyder has already indicated his skepticism, and Senate Majority Leader Randy Richardville, R-Monroe, calls the idea "a strategic mistake."

Even so, Michigan's big utilities are making known their opposition, with Consumers Energy already bankrolling issue ads on television and radio opposing House Bill 5154.

Sponsored by Rep. Mike Shirkey, R-Clark Lake, the bill would remove the current cap on electric choice. Michigan law allows customers to choose another electricity provider, but only up to 10 percent of a util-ity's electric sales. The bill also would deregulate rates for Detroit Edison Co. and Consumers Energy, allowing rates to fluctuate with the market without Michigan Public Service Commission review.

The utilities' opposition to deregulation will no doubt trigger skepticism among consumers and law-makers understandably wary of monopolies and their Michigan residents already pay more for electricity than consumers in neighboring Ohio and Illinois, both of which allow competition. A recent poll found that 58 percent of likely Michigan voters would support life in the consumers of the life in th port lifting the cap, a majority that held up in both political parties.

Yet the allure of reducing rates through increased competition may be illusory. Among the 24 states that have enacted electricity deregulation plans, the re-

Utility executives hoping to reverse public opinion on the issue could point to Pennsylvania. Hundreds of thousands of consumers who signed up for variablerate plans were surprised to find their monthly bills had tripled or quadrupled in January and February as the demand for power increased during unusually cold weather and the price of electricity went through the roof.

The lesson in Pennsylvania, however, isn't that deregulation can't work, but rather how deregulation is implemented requires careful attention to detail and regulatory oversight of how retail providers of electricity set rates. Transparency, of course, is essential.

It's disheartening to see campaign-style ads used to, essentially, head off the legislative process. Given the public's interest in electric choice, Shirkey's bill deserves cautious study.

Now would be a good time to learn from the experiences of other states where electricity deregulation is already part of the landscape.

The hours at the Wayne Public Library have been reduced as of Tuesday, April 1.

Reasons behind Wayne library service cutbacks

ecause of the current financial crisis in Wayne, the Wayne Public Library will be making some significant changes beginning April 1. The library will be closing four additional hours a week. This means we will be open 31 hours a week instead of the current 35 (down from a high of 58 hours a few years

GUEST

COLUMNIST

Our new hours will be Tuesdays and Wednesdays noon to 8 p.m., and Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays noon to 5 p.m. We will be closed Sunday and Mon-

Once again we will have no budget for new adult or children's books, CDs, nor DVDs. We will eliminate the following line items from our budget: books, professional services, contract services, community promotion, printing and publication, membership and dues, and miscellaneous. There will also be an additional savings by canceling our current cleaning service beginning in April.

In addition, Paulette Medvecky, our library director, will be retiring as a full-time employee on June 30.

We hope to bring her back part-time as a co-director to work with a new part-time person who would be the other co-director. These co-directors will receive an hourly wage and no benefits. Long-time employee Ginny Cesarz will also be leaving us on May 31. She will not be replaced.

Reason for cuts

There are various reasons for these cuts and others in the past couple of years. The primary one is the loss of tax revenue due to falling property assessments in Wayne. The Wayne Library has a guaran-teed, dedicated mill, but income from that mill has fallen as property values have dropped. A few years ago, one mill of taxes produced about $700,000, and our budget was a little over $900,000, including money from the general fund and the Downtown Development Authority. Today one mill brings in only $360,000, and our 2014-2015 budget will be $360,000 — our dedicated 1 mill - with no support from either general fund

Another major factor is that the state has reduced Wayne's portion of revenue sharing by 41 percent from $3 million in 2000 to $1.8 million now.

We apply for as many grants as possible, but these are usually restricted by the granting agency for specific uses, such as books, furniture, programs, etc., and cannot be used for general operations or anything else. We currently have a grant application pending for some new furniture, so if we're successful, and you see new furnishings in spite of the budget, keep in mind that the grant was limited to that specific use.

The Ford Motor Company contributed $20,000 specifically for books for the current fiscal year, and we are fortunate in getting that. Our recent budget for books, CDs, and DVDs has been $65,000, it is now down to zero. Ford has also granted us some money for new computers to replace the out-of-date units we've been using. Although receiving grants is a hit-andmiss affair, we will continue to apply for as many as we can.

fundraisers for some programs and an occasional special project, but we cannot build their contributions into the budget since they are a separate, independent organization, and their contributions may vary. Meeting room rentals have provided a small income, but that has also dropped because the reduced hours have made it inconvenient for many users.

The Board would like to praise our director and all our great staff members for their dedication to this library and to our users, and for their hard work made more difficult by tough financial times.

A good public library is essential, for both adults and children. The library is the second most important education institution in any community and a major factor in promoting literacy. Our staff and board are working hard to give you and your families the best library we can, given the amount of funding provided.

Writing this note to you has not been fun, but we feel that you deserve to know what's happening and why. Thank you for your patience, for your understanding, and for your continuing support.

Goodbye, ole buddy

On Thursday, March 13, 2014, Garden City lost a true resident and I lost an ole buddy in Gomer Goins, age 87, who loved calling Garden City his home. Gomer and his late wife Maxine raised their family here and still lived here in Garden City. Gomer had the means to live anywhere he wished, but he picked Garden City. He truly loved this city.

I used the term "ole buddy" because that was what he would say every time we meet or talked over the phone, "How you doing, ole buddy," is how the conversation would start. From day one, I felt I had known Gomer all my life; he had a style about him that put you felt at ease in talking with him. I found him very wise in the most simple things in life. Very wise about people, especially the rights of people, being involved with unions most of his adult life.

Politics was no stranger to him also. At a county function last year, Congressman John Dingell told him that because of his efforts and help he got elected the first time. Gomer was never a man to brag about his accomplishments in life, but if you got him started on certain times of his life, you were in for some great story telling.

Gomer was a regular to the Garden City council meeting. With his words he could cut you down and you would be thanking him before you realize he just bench slapped you. He would praise Mayor Randy Walker and council when he thought they were helping the city and its citizens. He would also get on them for their faults, and he didn't care if they liked it or not. He spoke it like he saw it.

For his age he was great with southern sayings to get his point against, but one thing I admired in him was he never refused to shake someone's hand when he disagreed with them. Gomer quit going to the council meetings last year. He told me he was tired of the "same old nonsense up here, I might as well stay home in my comfortable recliner and watch it on TV. and that is what he did.

Gomer was one of those people that I believe God brings into your life for a meaning. Gomer was that and more, in just a short time of calling him my friend, his wealth of knowledge and keen insight into people was amazing. I will always remember our talks over breakfast at one of his favorite places to eat, Bob Evans.

He loved biscuit and sausage gravy. Even visiting him in his home, you always felt welcome. He loved people and enjoyed talking to his friends or strangers.

Garden City has truly lost one of its great residents and I have lost a great friend. It is written somewhere that friends you meet in life will laugh, cry, eat, drink and be involved in your life, some forever, some for a short time. But those that leave an everlasting mark or memory in your life are truly friends. Mr. Gomer Goins, thank you for your friendship. You will be missed, but not forgotten.

My prayers go out to his children at this time for their great lost: Mitch, Donna and his grandchildren Joseph

EAA bill needs options, quality control

I am very concerned over reports that the Michigan Legislature may vote to approve legislation around school turnaround strategy. Michigan very much needs a clear strategy that insists on change and intervention in schools that, despite our best efforts to assist them, are still failing young people. To be effective, however, any school turnaround strategy needs to create a range of options, including traditional school districts, ISDs, effective charter schools and other non-profit educational organizations, but with clear criteria for who is qualified to be effective at managing school turnaround efforts, set under the direction of the State Board of Education by our State Superintendent of Public Instruction and Michigan Department of Education. Under such criteria, the EAA and other educational entities could earn the ability to manage school turnaround efforts, if they demonstrate a record of performance. I hope Republicans and Democrats alike will not support this legislation without changes to accomplish these goals, including Democratic Rep. Harvey Santana, who rightly wants to vote for something, that insists on meaningful intervention in failing schools in Detroit.

But this legislation as it currently stands is not an effective school turnaround strategy, as it does not include quality assurance in who manages these efforts.

I reiterate the call, made on a bi-partisan basis by the State Board of Education, that legislation should empower a variety of educational entities and options to manage school turnaround efforts, including the Michigan Department of Education, but with clear criteria and performance standards that would have to be met by any entity before it would be eligible to manage a school. We are not there yet.

How to establish a statutory pet trust

recent report stated that Americans spent over $53 billion on their pets last year. There is no doubt that Americans love their pets. However, one thing that many pet owners tend to forget about is what happens to their pet when they die or become disabled.

Unfortunately, as much as we care and love our pets, under the law they're treated as personal property. Pet owners who want to make sure that their pet is taken care of after their death need to put something in their estate plan.

The two ways of leaving money for the benefit of a pet is in one's will or a trust.

A will is the easiest method, however, it's not necessarily the best. Remember, wills go through probate and they sometimes can be very time-consuming and expensive. Although, amending or drafting a will to provide for your pet may be the least ex-pensive way, it probably is not the best.

I believe the best way to leave resources to a pet so they are cared for is to establish a trust. A pet trust can deal with all the issues regarding care and custody of your pet. In Michigan, laws allow someone to create a statutory pet trust. This type of trust is relatively inexpensive and can be added to an existing living trust.

In establishing a statutory pet trust, one of the key elements, as with any trust, is who is going to be in charge. Since this is a person who will be in charge of your pet, it is important that you select someone who not only likes your pet and who your pet likes as well, but also one that can handle the duties needed to take care of the pet.

In addition, you need to address how much money you should use to fund this portion of the trust. Obviously, the pet's needs and age would enter into the discussion.

Compensate caregiver?

Another item to consider is whether you compensate the caregiver of your pet. What happens to the remaining money after the pet passes on is another issue

In many situations, people are concerned if upon the pet's death the remainder of the funds goes to the caregiver. It gives the caregiver a disincentive to take care of their pet. That is why in many situations upon the pet's death the unused funds go to charity.

I recognize that this may sound a little crazy, however, take into consideration income tax issues when you do a statutory pet trust. If the trust that was established upon death earns at least $100 in income, then it is liable to pay income taxes. The care-giver would be responsible to complete IRS Form 1041 to pay the

In establishing a statutory pet trust, make sure you identify what pet the trust is established for and whether the trust includes future pets. After all, most people are very slow to amend their trust. You may want to tackle these issues from the start.

Good luck.

Museum closes in on bomber plant fundraising goal

The Yankee Air Museum's Save the Bomber Plant campaign is only $1.5 million away from reaching its $8 million fundraising goal and saving part of the Willow Run Bomber Plant.

"Support from individuals and organizations from around the world have helped the Save the Bomber Plant campaign get within reach of our historic goal," said Dennis Norton, president of the Michigan Aerospace Foundation. "It's our hope that over these last few weeks of the campaign, we can re-energize and rally the community one more time to preserve a special piece of World War II history right here in Michigan.'

The Save the Bomber Plant campaign was launched in 2013 in effort to save the Willow Run World War II Bomber Plant from total demolition and turn it into the new home of the Yankee Air Museum. The campaign deadline to save the Willow Run Bomber Plant is May 1.

The Willow Run Bomber Plant built nearly 9,000 B-24 Liberator Bombers during the war, finishing a plane every 54 minutes. At the time of its construction, the plant was the largest factory in the world, employing more than 40,000 men and women, including riveter Rose Will Monroe, more famously remembered as Rosie the Riveter.

To help generate awareness and support for the Save the Bomber Plant Campaign, the Yankee Air Museum is hosting Buff a Bomber Plane from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, April 5. The museum will host its 19th annual Bomber Buffing Party at Willow

Run Airport, Hangar 1. The four-engine B-17 heavy bomber Yankee Lady and twin engine B-25 medium bomber Yankee Warrior have been inspected, repaired and washed, and now the public will have a chance to get up close to buff and polish the planes in preparation for the 2014 flying and air show season.

Participants will each receive a ticket to the Thunder Over Michigan air show and will be escorted on board Yankee Lady to take the pilot's seat for a free cockpit photo. Lunch will be provided by Hungry Howie's Pizza. Participants are asked to bring cleaning rags.

New USL PRO franchise tied to new stadium plan

> By Brad Emons Staff Writer

Livonia native and Michigan Bucks owner Dan Duggan announced Tuesday that he has reached a preliminary agreement with USL PRO to bring a professional outdoor soccer team to the Detroit market starting in the 2015

The agreement, subject to league approval of the ownership group and stadium plan, represents the final chapter in the longtime local soccer executive's quest to bring a professional team and soccerspecific stadium to downtown Detroit, marking the first time professional outdoor soccer has been played in the city since 1968 when the Detroit

Cougars hosted their games at Tiger Stadium.

"We are excited to start meeting with prospective partners and land owners downtown to see what our immediate options are to put a mit to the USL by June 15 for approval," Duggan said.

The 2014 USL PRO season kicked off March 22 with its previous two league champi-stadium plan in place to sub-ons, Orlando City (2013) and the Charleston Battery (2012), squaring off at Charleston's Blackbaud Stadium, the first soccer-specific stadium in the City will complete its fourth and final season in USL PRO in 2014 before starting in MLS next season.

Last year USL PRO entered into a groundbreaking, multi-year partnership with MLS that has further reinforced the scope and visibility of the league as the strongest and best operated league below and in support of MLS on and off the field.

As a component of this arrangement, it is anticipated that all MLS clubs will either own or operate a USL PRO team or forge an affiliation partnership with an existing USL PRO team by the 2015

Duggan, chairman and CEO of the Michigan Bucks of the USL's PDL (one level below USL Pro), has been working with USL and MLS to try and bring professional soccer to Detroit for over a decade.

The Bucks began 19 years ago and have been one of the model franchises on and off the field in the PDL, the top U-23 league in North America focused on the development of top college players and young professionals that aspire to get paid to play professional soccer domestically or abroad.

The Bucks hold many PDL records, including most wins, playoff appearances, playoff wins, and US Open Cup appearances and wins. The Bucks are also the only adult amateur team in history to have defeated two teams from MLS in the US Open Cup tournament. The storied PDL franchise has captured four league titles, qualified for the playoffs in 16 of 18 seasons and has never had a losing record.

Duggan, the brother of new Detroit mayor Michael Duggan, has been working toward bringing an MLS team to Detroit since the league's inception and has been looking at launching the USL PRO team in the Detroit market for the past several seasons, but was held back due to a lack of a stadium deemed necessary to be an overwhelming success in the rabid Detroit sports marketplace.

While exploring options in Pontiac, Livonia, Canton and other local areas to build a 5,000-seat stadium, Duggan decided to take the advice of the experts and turn his entire focus to downtown Detroit.

Duggan's vision for the soccer-specific stadium, which is actually a multipurpose venue that could host concerts and other small-scale events,

Thanks to the efforts of Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference and NAIA National Pitcher of the Week Bree Crampton, the Madonna University women's softball team is off and running again.

The junior right-hander from New Baltimore Anchor Bay won both ends of the double-header Sunday as the host Crusaders captured their fifth straight by sweeping Siena Heights University, 8-0 and 10-5, in the WHAC opener for both teams.

Crampton tossed a perfect game in the opener as she struck out 10 of the 15 batters she faced in the five-inning mercy rule victory.

Top hitters for MU included North Farmington's Karleigh Creighton (2-for-3, two RBI);

Caitlyn Keuvelaar (2-for-3); Livonia Churchill's Nicole Salloum (2-for-3, RBI); and Kristen Drabek (2-for-3, RBI). Losing pitcher Katie O'Hotzke (9-5) was roughed up for five earned runs on 11 hits.

In Game Two, Crampton (9-3) came on to pitch four innings of one-hit scoreless relief to propel MU to the victory. She struck out seven after coming on for starter Erin Combs, who gave up five runs on four hits in three innings of work.

Drabek went 3-for-3 with an RBI, while Salloum added two hits, including her first career homer to go along with four RBI as MU mounted a 15-hit attack. Morgan Kaiser also added two hits as MU improved to 16-5 overall and 2-0 in the

WHAC. Megan Jones went 2-for-3 with a homer and three RBI for the Saints (9-7, 0-2). For the week, Crampton

Newman returns to take Stevenson varsity hoop reins

Jen Knoph steps down following 2 district titles

> By Brad Emons Staff Writer

After five seasons, the baton has been passed to a familiar face in the Livonia Stevenson girls basketball program.

Tim Newman, who has coached varsity girls basketball at Churchill, Franklin and Stevenson, along with boys basketball at Stevenson, is taking the reins over from Jen

Newman

Knoph, who stepped down following five seasons as the Spartans girls coach. Stevenson athletic director Lori Hyman made the announcement of Newman's hiring on Monday.

"Coach Newman is very passionate and knows the game," the Stevenson A.D. said. "His ability to motivate the players is exceptional. Coach Newman is loyal to the program and a perfect fit."
The 56-year-old Newman, a special education teacher at the school who spent the past two seasons as Knoph's JV coach, returns for his second stint with the Steven-

"The girls are in great hands," said Knoph, who went 64-49 during her fiveyear run. "He's got tons of experience. He and I have worked together so well for the last two years. It's been great. He's in it for the same reasons I've been in it, which is for the girls, and to see the program be as successful as it can be. That makes me really happy."

Knoph, who also teaches at Stevenson, said she stepped down to spend more time following her own basketball family around.

"This season we counted up 95 games that went on in my household," Knoph said. "My other son (Nicholas) was playing CYO, my other son (Ian) was playing JV, (daughter) Abby was playing varsity for me and (daughter)

On Sunday, Davenport swept both ends of a double-header from the Crusaders, 7-0, and 5-4.

The Panthers (19-11, 7-2) completed the sweep in the nightcap by scoring the game-winning run in the bottom of the seventh after MU (14-10, 1-3) had tied it with a run in the top half of the

Three pitchers combined for 14 strikeouts Monday as Livonia Clarenceville opened its 2014 baseball season with a 7-3 non-conference win at Romulus Summit

Academy. Zach Devon, who fanned seven, combined with Evan Gregg, who struck out four, and Adam Sade, who added three, to scatter seven hits and three walks in the victory. "We pitched very well as a team and attacked the strike zone," said Craig Cotter, who won in his debut as the Trojans coach.

Clarenceville also came up with three big defensive plays, including a pair by left fielder Ronnie Topolewski, who tracked down two line shots to left field.

"Ronnie made two catches on a dead sprint that robbed Summit of extra bases for sure," Cotter said.

Offensively, Devon led the way with three RBI, while Sade, the lead-off hitter, reached base safely in all five plate appearances that included a pair of singles and three walks. Gregg chipped in with a one-out double in the top of the first as the Trojans jumped out to a 2-0 advantage.

Nick Leigh had two hits for Summit.

"I was proud of our guys they never backed down," said Cotter, whose team regained the lead in the top of the fourth with a pair of runs after Summit had taken a 3-2 lead.

Defense sparkles vs. Wildcats, 1-0

Livonia Churchill turned in a stellar defensive effort Tuesday night to earn a 1-0 girls soccer victory over host Plymouth in the KLAA South Division opener for both teams.

The Chargers, who evened their record at 1-1, got the game-winning goal from Kelsey Parrinello off an assist from Alexis Lubonja just one minute into the second half.

Freshman goalkeeper Brittany Hayes made seven saves, including a key stop with just under two minutes left to preserve the victory.

"Brittany played really, really well," Churchill coach Reid Friedrichs said. "It's one of the best defensive efforts I've seen in my coaching career. We were able to frustrate them even though they (Plymouth) are very good and very quick. We had great ball pressure. I was really proud of the way we played. It was inspiring to watch."

Ladywood captures own tourney championship

Staff Writer

Goalkeeper Holly Cusick has become a proven stand-in for the Livonia Ladywood soccer team.

The freshman, who took over the reins after starter Whitney Bauriedl was out for two days following a medical procedure, made a key save to help the host Blazers win their own invitational with a 2-1 victory Saturday over Dearborn Divine Child, at Livonia Stevenson.

Ladywood, now 4-0-1 overall, outscored the Falcons in the shootout, 5-4, and had an overall shot advantage of 11-3.

Divine Child led 1-0 at halftime on Mary Ann Myler's nice finish from 15 yards out at the 10-minute park.

But Ladywood's Jenna Urso broke through and drove a shot off the crossbar that bounced straight down and in off an assist from Emily Huddleston with only five minutes remaining in the 50-minute match to send it to PKs.

Cusick recorded two saves, while DC's Sam Cimino had seven stops.

In the opening round, junior Sam Riga scored a hat trick and added one assist as Ladywood beat Dearborn, 4-0.

Urso opened the scoring at the 5-minute mark from Riga followed by Riga's goal just two minutes later from Elise Pollock to make it 2-0 at intermission.

Kennedi Bullard. Cusick, who made two saves, posted the shutout.

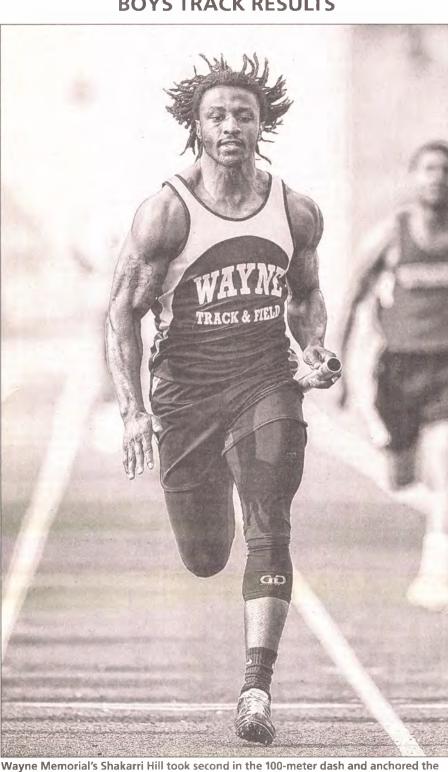

In the semifinal, Ladywood downed Grosse Pointe North, 6-0, as Cusick made one save to post her third shutout of the young season.

Ladywood jumped out to a 3-0 halftime lead on goals by Riga, third minute (from Huddleston); Huddleston, 18th minute (on a PK); and Huggins, 18th minute (from Riga).

The Blazers tacked on three more in the second half Riga, 34th minute (from Huddleston); Urso, 36th minute, from Bullard; and Mykela Hawkins, 43rd minute (from Urso).

"We were very sharp in the first two games," Ladywood coach Ken Shingledecker said. "We started out the championship game kind of slow and DC was able to capitalize. Holly did a nice job all day in goal. Our coaching staff and I know all the players are very proud of the job she did for us.

Daugherty's 2014 outlook: We will have a lot of new faces scoring us this year.

Gone are 10 seniors who scored 75 percent of our points. We do have Elyssa Hofmann back. She led us in scoring and qualified in four events for the state meet. We also have Chanel Gardner, Natalie Spala and Kourtney Strong back, all of which qualified for the state meet last year. It will be interesting to see who steps up as performers and leaders. We have had a great first month of practice and we can see who will be very successful for us. We also have some new faces on the coaching staff as we have added Joe Horka to work with the distance team and Margarita Lazarevska returning after a two-year absence to work with the hurdlers. Returning as the throws coaches are John Eliatraut and Dave Simpson I'm looking forward to see how we develop as individuals and as a team. We should have the opportunity and ability to have a successful season."

Modes, Agnew and O'Brien are big losses because they were integral parts of the lineup in terms of both relays and technical events, and we do not have as many experienced kids to fill those spots yet. This year we welcome our largest freshman class in several years, plus a lot of new sophomores. But that means we are still figuring out what a lot of our athletes are capable of. FIRST TEAM Isaac Everette, Sr., John Glenn: The 6-foot-4 senior guard-forward, who missed Glenn's first six games with a broken finger, averaged 20 points per game for the Rock-

The all-Kensington Lakes Activities Association pick, who could also play the pointguard position, led Glenn to the KLAA Association, Kensington Conference and South Division titles.

Everette is being courted by Wayne State and Grand Valley State.

"Isaac was a three-year starter on teams that won 52 games and three South Division titles, along with a KLAA championship," coach Dan Young said. "He had a tremendous year at Glenn, one of the best I've every coached. He was a leader in every way on-and-off the floor."

Davon Taylor, Sr., Canton: The 6-6 senior forward was a force at both ends of the court this season for the Chiefs, earning all-KLAA accolades in the process.

One of the region's most improved players, Taylor averaged 17 points, 11 rebounds and 1.5 blocks per contest and set a new Canton High School season rebounding record with 244.

'His ability to score inside and rebound for us was outstanding," coach Jimmy Reddy said.

Reddy added that Taylor deserves "all the credit" for the strides he has made as a players since ninth grade to become one of the area's best players.

"I couldn't be more proud of the young man Davon has become in his time here at Canton. He was an absolute pleasure to coach," he said.

Jeron Rogers, Jr., N. Farmington: The 6-foot-6 junior is a three-year starter for the Raiders, who compete in the highest division (Red) of the Oakland Activities Association.

Rogers is a versatile player who can shoot the three, but he does his best work in the paint, scoring on post-up moves and competing for rebounds.

He had many double-double performances while averaging 21 points and 11 rebounds. Rogers also looks for his teammates and had four assists per game, an impressive number for a big man.

"Jeron had a great junior year, proving to be one of the state," coach Todd Negoshian said.

"He is a tremendous competitor with a fierce desire to win and is a great teammate. All the time he has put in really has started to pay off."

Otis Kemutambah, Sr., Thurston: Fueled by an incredible vertical-leaping ability, Kemutambah was a force in the paint for the Eagles, averaging 13.7 points and 8.9 rebounds per contest. In addition to shooting 50 percent from the field, the 6-foot-5 All-Western Wayne Athletic Conference Red Division first-teamer protected the rim on a steady basis.

"Otis had an outstanding senior season," Thurston coach Brian Bates said. "He was one of the best players in our league around the rim and he rebounds everything he

Examples of Cole's stellar play under pressure included 35 points against Novi in a district semifinal win and 24 against Grand Blanc in the Class A regional finals. Cole drained two treys in the first quarter against the Bobcats to stake Salem out to a lead that nearly held up the rest of the Cole led Salem in most categories. He averaged 12 points, five assists and three steals per game and was a dead-eye shooter - hitting nearly 60 percent from the field and 83 percent from the foul line, along with a 31 percent accuracy rate from behind the arc.

'Connor was our go-to guy who always seemed to want the last shot when the game was on the line," coach Bob Brodie said. "He was the most versatile player and made things happen for us both on offense and defense.

SECOND TEAM James Pruitt, Sr., John Glenn: The 6-6 senior forward, who averaged 10 points and eight rebounds per game en route to all-KLAA honors, was high-riser and one of the area's most explosive players and dunkers.

'James was the most improved player in our program," Young said. "He became a leader in effort and attitude. I'm very proud of Noah Campbell, Jr., Stevenson: The 5-10 junior guard averaged 17.5 points, 2.5 asrebound game while shooting 90 percent from the foul line.

The all-KLAA pick had 36 points at South Lyon and 31 at Salem.

"Noah is a natural scorer who has a terrific outside shot," coach Brandon Sinawi said. "He did a better job this season in attacking the basket and getting to the free throw line. He needs to work on becoming a better defender in hopes to be a great all-around player for us next year. He's got the tools to play at the next level." Randall Aikins, Jr., Plymouth: Although the Wildcats had a slightly disappointing season, next year could be a different story because of the continued improvement of Aikins in the backcourt.

Aikins, an All-KLAA selection, collected 13.15 points and 3.55 rebounds per game and was a key player both on offense and defense during his junior season.

"Randall did a nice job of running the point for our team," coach Mike Soukup said. "He has an uncanny knack for getting into the lane and breaking down defenses.

"I am looking forward to seeing him grow as a point guard and as a leader for next season.'

Jacob McKiddie, Sr., Redford Union: McKiddie's relentless style of play mirrors his favorite NBA player, Minnesota Timberwolves forward Kevin Love. With an assortment of effective inside upand-under moves, he can also knock down three-point shots with regularity, which is re-flected in his 14.3 scoring average. A double-double machine, the first team All-WWAC Red Division performer gobbled up 11 rebounds per contest and rose to the occasion in the Panthers' pair of Division 2 district games when he average 21 points.

'In my three years of serving as the head coach at Redford Union, Jacob is definitely one of my favorite players,' RU coach Randall Taylor said. "He's probably the most consistent player I've coached and he brings it every day, to games and practices. Along with being an outstanding player, he's a great character kid who I think can play at the next level."

Donte Jackson, Sr., Churchill: The 6-foot senior pointguard averaged 15.6 points and 6.5 rebounds per game en route to all-KLAA honors.

"Donte worked extremely hard in the summer and fall, and his leadership carried over to the season," coach Jim Solak said. "He led us in scoring and rebounding and carried us until we were able to find ourselves and turn the season around. He kept us together and was great leader on-and-off the court. Just a great kid on and off the court.

Xavier Crofford, Sr., Thurston: The Eagles' senior leader was the epitome of the dual-threat guard, as he could punish opponents with his polished perimeter shots and his elusive drives to the rim. He averaged 10.8 points per game while shooting 37 percent from the field and 68 percent from the charity stripe. He also dished out 2.2 assists per contest and hauled down 3.7 rebounds.

'Xavier is one of those guard who can hurt teams with his scoring and his passing," Bates said. "He's tough to defend because he can hit the jumper and score off the drive. He really had a solid year for us."

CO-COACHES OF YEAR Dan Young, John Glenn: The eighth-year coach, who stepped down following the season, guided the Rockets to a 15-6 record after sweeping the South Division, Kensington Conference and KLAA Association championships.

Glenn captured 14 of its final 16 games after a 1-4 start which included losses to Detroit Pershing, Detroit East English Village, East Kentwood and Class A state champion Muskegon. The Rockets were ousted in the district by defending state champion Romulus.

Young, a Central Michigan University grad, coached previously as an assistant at Detroit Catholic Central and his alma mater Canton High.

"I feel very fortunate to have coached at Glenn for the past eight years," said Young, who posted a career record of 113-60. "It has been a great experience. This past season was very special winning, but I'm most proud and happy with the former players that come back and the great relationships we have built over time.'

Bob Brodie, Salem: The dean of KLAA coaches just completed his 40th season as a coach and 30th season as head coach of the Rocks.

Brodie led his team to the KLAA Central Division championship and a district title. The Rocks finished 17-6 and nearly won the regional final against Grand Blanc, falling in the final seconds (53-52).

As has been the case in recent seasons. Brodie mixed and matched his players to fit tain situations on the floor, relying on a deep rotation. The Rocks also played with spunk to never give up on a play or game.

"This year's team was the type of team that all coaches love," Brodie said. "They played with intensity, competitiveness, unselfishness and gave everything they had in games and practices.

"In our opinion as a staff, they over-achieved our expectations because of this and made our jobs as coaches easier. It was a very exciting team to watch. They had a lot of fun playing the game, which in turn, made our coaching fun.'

Helping Brodie this season were assistant coaches Ryan Nimmerguth (in his first season with the varsity) and Steve Aspinall.

is a 5,000-seat stadium with open hills in the end zones that would enable 8,000 fans to be a part of the USL PRO experience in downtown Detroit.

The stadium could be incorporated into an existing developed area or be a stand-alone project, depending on the neighborhood. Duggan estimates the land needed would be a minimum of 2.5 acres and as much as 7 acres to develop two additional outdoor turf fields to accommodate the massive need for quality fields for youth soccer and adult leagues within the city limits. Duggan plans to host a media conference this spring to roll out additional information about the team's USL PRO franchise plans, its MLS aspirations, international partner, and plans for a youth academy to complete the entire pyramid of soccer within the state of Michigan. Duggan said more information will be released in the coming weeks. You can contact Duggan at dduggan@buckssoccer.com.

Knoph, who replaced Paul Tripp, went 7-15 in her first season (2009-10), but went on to post four straight winning seasons including a 17-6 mark in 2001-12 followed by back-toback Class A district championships the past two seasons.

"A big part of it when I came back to coaching at Stevenson was that I recognized the need for stability," said Knoph, who played high school basketball at Dearborn Divine Child. "And now that we have that, there's seems to be a lot more interest on the girls' part and it's running really well with all three levels together. So that helps to feel comfortable to pass it on to somebody

"I feel like I had a good run, had a lot of success with the girls and had a great time. I'm going miss it, but at the same time I don't want to miss what I have here as close as I am." Hyman said Knoph "did a wonderful job of creating a program atmosphere." She stressed team unity, leadership and a willingness to work and her players responded with complete dedication," Hyman said. Newman, who is a 1975 Livonia Franklin High grad, got a Jim Gibbons. "Jim asked me to consider it and I said OK, with the stipulation that I want to keep (assistant coach) Karen (Anger) on," Newman said. "She will be my associate head coach, if you want to call it that, and she'll take over for me as the JV coach. That's my plan, but it has to be posted (by the Livonia Public Schools) obviously. "We graduate everybody," Newman said. "But it's a nice group coming back. The kids that I had for the last two years ... they're used to my style. I'm not changing anything. I am what you see. Very demanding. We're going to try and push it when we can. We have a little bit of mixture of juniors and seniors for the most part. But it's going to be a work in progress because most of the kids didn't get a lot of playing time. But I got a lot of good kids and they'll play their butts off for me, there's no doubt in my mind."

Newman, meanwhile, thanked Knoph for her efforts during the past five seasons.

"One thing she did was bring stability back to the program," he said. "There was awhile — after I left the first time - that we had five coaches in four years, which was ridiculous. Then Jen came in and solidified it and did a great job. I just want to take that and run with it."

VERSATILE INSTRUMENT

Harp Quartet hits high notes

By Sharon Dargay Staff Writer

Larry Gage promises a rare treat when The Modern Harp Quartet performs Sunday, April 6. at First Presbyterian Church of Farmington.

When you consider the number of strings and chords possible to play with that instrument, it is absolutely remarkable," said Gage, who coordinates the Great Performances in a Sacred Space concert series at the church. "It is a rich sound, and when you get four harps together, all four are unbelievable. The sanctuary will be filled with a sound that most of our audience has never heard.

"One reason I wanted so much to bring in the ensemble is that I always try to program unique kinds of experiences for the audience. We're always trying to enlarge the musical experience of folks."

'Menuet a la mode," will include pieces that incorporate the French minuet along with other similar works in 3/4 time by French and British composers. It starts at 4 p.m. in the church, 26165 Farmington Road, north of 11 Mile, in Farmington Hills. Admission is a donation of $15 per person or $25 per family. For more information call 248-474-6170, Ext. 208, or visit wwsw.farmington-pres.org/performing-

The Modern Harp Quartet, Lydia Cleaver (left), John Wickey, Anne Brege and Maurice Draughn, will perform Sunday, April 6, at First Presbyterian Church of Farmington.

Cass Tech alumni

The Quartet members --Maurice Draughn, Lydia Cleaver, John Wickey and Anne Brege — are Detroit Cass Tech High School alumni who began their harp training as members of the school's harp choir, under the direction of Patricia Terry-Ross.

Wickey lives in Atlanta, Ga., where he teaches, composes and arranges. He received a bachelor of music degree from Boston University and a master of music degree from the University of Michigan and has performed with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Los Angeles Philharmonic, the New World Symphony, and the Eastern Musical Festival Orchestra in North Carolina.

Cleaver, director of the harp program at Cass Tech, earned bachelor's, master's and specialist degrees in harp performance from the University of Michigan. She has performed with Aretha Franklin, Diana Ross, Mannheim Steamroller and orchestras throughout the

Brege, who has master's degrees in music history and in harp performance from Wayne State University, lives in Wisconsin and has performed with the Wayne State Symphony Orchestra, the Wayne State Wind Symphony, and Detroit

Civic Symphony Orchestra, the Dearborn Symphony, Royal Oak Symphony, and Grosse Pointe Symphony.

Draughn, an academic adviser in the Wayne State University School of Music, earned a bachelor of music degree from Wayne State and a master's degree from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky. He has performed with Aretha Franklin, Ray Charles, Robert Sims, the Three Irish Tenors, and Glen Campbell and has appeared as a soloist in several symphony orchestras. He also arranges and composes music for the harp, voice and choir and performs as a studio harpist.

Rare ensemble

"When you see a harpist, they're usually playing solo for a wedding or a reception. Even in an orchestra you might see one or two. A harp ensemble is a rare thing. We use music arranged for two harps and then double it," Draughn said, adding that the group has begun to arrange and commission works for four harps.

Although the group plays some contemporary pieces, including jazz standards, the "modern" in its name refers to the instrument, rather than "The modern harp is comprised of an intricate array of mechanisms controlled by seven pedals," Draughn noted. "The instrument is capable of producing a vast number of sound effects and tones. A large portion of our repertoire consist of pieces composed in the 20th century to showcase the tonal possibilities of the instrument."

The upcoming concert will be a reunion of sorts for Draughn, who served as the church's organist a few years

"There have been several occasions since then where I have either played for a service at the church or ran into members who were in attendance at one of my performances in the area," he said.

GOOD NEWS: METRO DETROIT HOME PRICES SEE AN UPSWING

By Julie Brown Staff Writer

Gary J. Reggish, broker/owner of Remerica United Realty of Novi, wasn't too surprised by a recent report on metro Detroit home prices rebounding

"Good things are happening in Michigan," said Livonia resident Reggish. "It's all of metro Detroit."

Some housing markets are seeing jumps of 20 percent or more in median list prices, according to the website real-

Median list prices are up 7.57 percent over the last year, according to a report from realtor.com, which reflects October data for 146 metro markets.

"Monthly prices fell slightly in October (down 0.25 percent month-overmonth), but remained resilient against the usual seasonal patterns of stabilizing inventory," realtor.com noted in its re-

Detroit has seen the largest year-overyear increase, with median asking prices rising 44 percent in the past year, according to a November 2013 report. Eightyfive percent of the 146 markets that realtor.com tracks reported year-over-year

Realtor.com recently highlighted some of the hottest markets to buy, based on the largest year-over-year median list price gains from February 2013-14. These are the cities that top that list:

1 Stockton, Calif., +38.9 percent yearover-year gain, median home price: $248,600

4 Detroit, +26.3 percent, median home price: $119,900

5 Riverside-San Bernardino, Calif., +24.6 percent, median home price: $292,800

"We're resilient," said Reggish of Detroiters. "We were the first to lead the country out of this crisis.'

Reggish now sees many more metro Detroiters returning to work, as well as a shortage of homes in inventory. "We're just in an awesome, awesome market right now. Every home is selling," he He sees fewer bank-owned homes, more private property sales in his work. "They're selling for top dollar. Every house is selling and selling quickly," Reggish said. Even bank-owned homes in rougher shape and needing more work, if priced correctly, are selling.

Interest rates are low, and he encoures seller clients not to wait too long to put a home on the market.

"What we're experiencing now is a true real estate correction," he said. Prices will at some point level off as the market corrects.

Reggish joked that only the oft-quoted "polar vortex" kept few home shoppers at home. "We haven't missed a beat during these winter months," he said. His work includes a "nice blend" of customers, from young buyers to empty nesters moving often to condos. There isn't just one sector, "which is what we Reggish anticipates the federal government will raise interest rates on mortgages, and work with the industry to avoid another real estate bubble. "We are definitely near stabilization," he said.

He finds it's too early to say just what interest rates will be, but anticipates gradual climbing. Even 1 percent will make a big difference in the monthly payment for a $200,000 home, he said.

"I am not surprised at all," the 15-year

Realtor concluded of the recent report. "I have never been more proud of the state I live in. We are survivors.'

Sharing the views of Reggish is Duane Marsh, CEO of the Greater Metropolitan Association of Realtors, which is completing a move from Farmington to Southfield for its offices.

"The metro area of southeast Michigan continues to show great strength in the housing market," said Wixom resi-dent Marsh. "We anticipate that going forward for the next period of time.

Marsh and GMAR members and lead ership have noticed local home prices on the upswing. "We've been seeing that all over the area," Marsh added.

WiFi install: Check with lawyer first

Q: I live in a subdivision and our homeowner association owns the clubhouse. They are thinking of installing and providing free WiFi in the clubhouse. The board is wondering if they should require that users agree to a terms and conditions policy. Do you think that is necessary and what do you think about the idea of providing free WiFi?

A: The board, if the board is in control of the clubhouse because the association owns it, has the right to run the clubhouse in a reasonably prudent fashion. Providing WiFi is not, in my judgment, unreasonable, but it is important that those persons who agree to use the WiFi must comply with its terms and conditions and that there should be a terms and conditions policy just like the use of any other WiFi when you go into a hotel or other place of accommodation where WiFi is provided. You are best advised to tell the board that they need to get a policy drafted by a lawyer who understands the obligations imposed by the use of the WiFi.

Q: We are getting our tax assessment notice and I am wondering whether it is worthwhile to pursue the matter as the increase was only several thousand dollars. What do you think? A: There will always be a time limit and procedural requirement for you to follow in regard to tax appeals. The resulting increase may or may not be justifiable, and you should talk to a Realtor about the tax assessment and whether it is in excess of what it should be even though the median average of homes in the metropolitan Detroit area has increased approximately 17 percent over the last year or so. Each person must make their own evaluation with whatever assistance they can obtain in determining whether a tax appeal is appropriate. Howe er, it doesn't hurt to learn about the procedure for appealing your assessment so that in the future, should it become necessary again to appeal, you are able to do so and the tax assessor is aware of your presence.

Level: Intermediate

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
