Police ask stores to stop selling Cloud 9

Wayne-Westland organizes community forum for parents

By LeAnne Rogers
Staff Writer

Following the hospitalization of two Westland John Glenn High School students who had taken a liquid synthetic drug Monday, police are visiting local stores to ask them to remove the product from their shelves and working with the Wayne-Westland Community Schools and Wayne

Police on a public forum planned for Thursday, Oct. 7. "We're going to put pressure on the stores to stop selling the product. Officers will visit every store and request that they take it off the shelf," Westland Deputy Police Chief Todd Adams said. The students, a 16-year-old girl and a 17-year-old boy, were reportedly taken to Garden City Hospital on Monday after ingesting the clear liquid substance sold under the street name Cloud 9 or Hooka Relax. Adams said both were kept under observation and released from the hospital Monday night. A 15-year-old boy, who reportedly provided the synthetic drug to the other students, was taken into custody for marijuana possession and later released to his parents, Adams said. "We recovered a bottle we suspect is Cloud 9. It had no label so we are sending it to the lab," Adams said. "If it is Cloud 9, that is an illegal substance." School Superintendent Michele Harmala is asking parents to talk to their children about drugs. "The safety of our students is always our primary concern," she said in response to the incident. "We want to partner with our parents and guardians to inform our students of the dangers of synthetic drugs like Cloud 9. Please work with us by talking to your children about the dangers of drugs, synthetic or otherwise."

Community forum: The Community Forum: Synthetic Drug Use in Teens will be 7-8 p.m. in the auditorium of John Glenn High School, 36105 Marquette, Westland. The program will include

Ceremony remembers POW/MIAs and Ken Mehl

By LeAnne Rogers
Staff Writer

Westland's annual ceremony remembering POW/MIAs was the first held at the Veterans Memorial Garden of Westland. And, appropriately, the ceremony also remembered Ken Mehl, who served as president of the Westland Veterans Association and was a driving force behind the memorial garden's development. Mehl, 67, died in June. The POW/MIA Remembrance Day ceremony organizer for 24 years, Rick Patrny, had planned to step down after the 2013 program. The traditional location at Westland City Hall would be moving as the new city hall will be opening soon. "I had a request from my good friend Ken Mehl to do this one more time, at the memorial garden," Patrny said. "Before I could answer, Ken passed away. I know he is here with us." A former Westland councilman and Vietnam veteran, Mehl was also instrumental in organizing two visits by the Vietnam Traveling Wall. Patrny recalled members of the Westland Vietnam Veterans of America Chapter 387 — he's a charter member — standing a 24-hour vigil on Nov. 29, 1989, at the memorial to remember Westland POW Refugio Thomas Teran. The memorial will be relocated to the Bova VFW Post on Hix.

Kimberly Bryden and Michael Williams place a wreath at the POW/MIA memorial. Bryden is the daughter of the late Ken Mehl, who was a driving force behind the construction of the Veterans Memorial Garden of Westland.

Wayne man faces felony counts in homicide

By Jay Grossman
Staff Writer

A handyman with an extensive criminal record was charged Tuesday in the Sept. 4 homicide of a Bloomfield Township resident. Bart Mitchell Spencer, 45, of Wayne, faces six felony counts in the suspected murder of 77-year-old William Whitelaw. The warrant was signed Tuesday afternoon by 48th District Judge Kimberly Small, but an arraignment date and time is still pending due to the fact that Spencer is in the custody of federal authorities on a parole violation. Bloomfield Township Police Capt. Scott McCanham said the investigation into Whitelaw's death resulted in the arrest of several people, along with the recovery of stolen goods from Whitelaw's condo on Maple Hills Drive. Spencer is the only individual being charged in the homicide, as police believe he acted alone. He faces the following counts: » Count one: Homicide-open murder, a felony punishable up to life in prison. » Count two: Arson-preparation to burn, a 10-year and/

Repairs to Wayne City Hall moving forward

By LeAnne Rogers
Staff Writer

Insurance will cover repairs of the failed roof trusses at Wayne City Hall. Council members voted last week to move ahead with the repairs, which are estimated to cost less than $10,000 with a $1,000 deductible from the city. "We've been looking at the options about what to do with city hall," Wayne Mayor Al Haidous said. "It should be fixed. If we stay there, it needs to be safe. If we consolidate and need to sell it, it needs to be sold as a safe building."

The decision comes as council is again beginning to discuss consolidation of city buildings as part of addressing the general fund deficit. No decision has been made on moving city hall operations to another city building. The council chambers have been closed since March after firefighters, who were investigating smoke from a burned motor, lifted ceiling tiles and spotted the broken trusses. While council has been meeting at the Wayne Community Center, city offices remain open with the trusses

St. Nicholas Institute awards banquet Oct. 8

Several Detroit-area celebrities will be recognized Wednesday, Oct. 8, in Livonia for their charitable deeds in the true spirit of Christmas.

Former Detroit Tigers and Domino's Pizza owner Tom Monaghan, WJRAM (760) personality Paul W. Smith and former Detroit Red Wings player Joe Kocur will join Livonia's Debra Bonde as honorees at the St. Nicholas Institute's third annual awards banquet at the Sacred Heart Banquet and Conference Center.

Actress Maureen O'Hara, famed for her portrayal of Doris Walker in the 1947 Christmas classic Miracle on 34th Street, and Padre Gerardo Cioffari, considered a historical expert about St. Nicholas, also will be honored.

Monaghan, a long-time philanthropist, will be honored for his decades of support to Catholic higher education, including the formation of the Ave Maria Foundation, Ave Maria University in Florida and the Ave Maria College in Ypsilanti.

Smith, a popular morning radio show host, will be recognized for raising millions of dollars with his charitable golf outings that support more than 11,000 children involved in Detroit Police Athletic League programming. He also supports numerous other charities.

Kocur, along with fellow businessmen Ron Mann and Chris Baker, established the Joe Kocur Foundation for Children, which sponsors events that have raised more than $500,000 to support ailing children.

Bonde founded Seedlings Braille Books for Children in the basement of her Livonia home 30 years ago. Today, Seedlings provide some 23,000 Braille books and articles each year to young people with visual impairments.

The Rev. Joseph Marquis of Sacred Heart Byzantine Church — a professional Santa Claus whose career includes 12 years at the Detroit Thanksgiving Day Parade and at Bronner's CHRISTmas Wonderland in Frankenmuth — founded the St. Nicholas Institute.

O'Hara is known for her legendary portrayal of a single mother whose practicalities are challenged by Santa Claus. Miracle on 34th Street is credited with enhancing the fame of the annual Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade into an American institution.

Cioffari is director of Studies Nicolaiani in Italy, where his knowledge and meticulous work is considered instrumental in achieving a more historically accurate interpretation of the real-life St. Nicholas.

The awards dinner is part of the graduation ceremony of the St. Nicholas Institute, a four-day course teaching the values and history of St. Nicholas (and the modern Santa Claus) for would-be professional Santas and Mrs. Clauses. This "master's class" was created by the Rev. Joseph Marquis of Sacred Heart Byzantine Church, a professional Santa whose 43-year career includes 12 years at the Detroit Thanksgiving Day Parade and at Bronner's CHRISTmas Wonderland in Frankenmuth. He is also a member of the International Santa Claus Hall of Fame.

This year, at least 20 individuals will enhance their Santa skills in the professional, faith-based St. Nicholas course Oct. 6-9 at St. Paul of the Cross Retreat Center in Detroit. Those participants will receive certificates of achievement at the awards banquet.

"This banquet gives metro Detroiters a chance to meet these exceptional people and express our gratitude for their work in bringing Christmas joy to everyday lives," Marquis said.

The Lifetime Achievement Award goes to Monaghan. The Spirit of Christmases Past, Present and Future Award goes to O'Hara.

Each of the other awards presented is each identified by the ideals in the NOEL acronym: Nicholas as our Model, Openness to the Christmas Spirit, Exercising Compassion and Love for Children.

"It is important to recognize people in the broader community who embody the Christmas spirit," Marquis said. "You don't have to have a red suit to live the life of St. Nicholas."

Reservations are available for the Oct. 8 banquet. Several award recipients are scheduled to attend. The program begins at 6 p.m. Sacred Heart Banquet and Conference Center is located on 29125 Six Mile Road, just east of Middlebelt. Admission for banquet, dinner and program is $40 per person. For more information or to register, call Sacred Heart at 734-522-3166 or visit stnicholasinstitute.org.

Man wanted in wife's shooting arrested

By Beth Jachman
Staff Writer

A man wanted in the May shooting of his estranged wife in Redford has been apprehended, Capt. James Turner of the Redford Police said.

Roscoe Smiley was wanted in connection with his wife's shooting, which occurred May 10 in a home in the 9600 block of Grayfield.

He was apprehended in Detroit by the U.S. Marshals Detroit Fugitive Apprehension Team, according to Turner. In August, Redford Police asked for the public's help in locating the man.

A warrant was issued for his arrest on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder and felony firearms. He was arraigned in 17th District Court Monday morning, Turner said.

He is now in custody at the Wayne County Jail, held on $1 million bond, according to Redford Police.

The victim is a 45-year-old female who suffered multiple gunshot wounds. Smiley was hiding in an attic inside the Grayfield home waiting for his wife to come home before she was shot, according to reports.

Police had Kendall blocked at Crosley in Redford on Monday morning after a shooting.

Redford Police say teen, shooter know each other

By Beth Jachman
Staff Writer

Redford Police say the teen who was shot Monday morning on his way to Thurston High School knows the shooter.

"This was not a random event," the police statement said. "It appears as though the parties involved in the shooting this morning know each other and have issues with each other. The victim was targeted because of this."

Some rumors surfaced Tuesday that the teen was carrying a weapon and actually shot himself, but that doesn't appear to be the case, according to Capt. James Turner of the Redford Police Department.

The investigation is still ongoing, according to police.

Police continued to search for the gunman who shot the teen in the abdomen as he was walking to school at about 7:30 a.m. Monday in the area of Kendall at Crosley, east of Beech Daly, north of Schoolcraft.

Investigation continues

Police had Kendall blocked from Arnold to Garfield all morning after the incident.

Information on the victim's condition was not released, but reportedly his injuries were not life-threatening.

The victim was able to describe the shooter's vehicle as a green four-door passenger car with black rims.

Three people were in the car at the time of the incident, according to police reports.

While the shooting did not occur on South Redford school grounds, the district ordered a lockdown and shelter in place for all of the school buildings during the morning hours Monday, according to a statement released by the district.

"First and foremost, we are taking every precaution as a district to ensure the safety of all of our students," the statement said.

Shelter in place

The shelter in place was lifted for the buildings located south of Plymouth Road at the direction of the Redford Township Police Department and stayed in effect until the end of the school day at Thurston High School, Jane Adams Elementary and Shear School as a precautionary measure.

The district is cooperating with the Redford Township Police Department for the investigation, according to a school district statement said.

"There is very little information regarding the incident, and we ask that you please allow for the police to manage this incident accordingly, and know that we are doing everything in our power to keep all South Redford School District students safe," the statement said.

"If your son or daughter seems affected by this incident in any way, and you feel that they would benefit from speaking with one of our social workers, we have this resource available at each of our facilities," the South Redford statement said.

Anyone with information is asked to call 9-1-1 or 313-387-2555.

"It's too close to home," a neighbor leaving for work on Crosley said before driving away Monday morning.

Livonia Hall of Fame induction is Oct. 2

The public is invited to the 10th annual 1835 Livonia City Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony at 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 2, at the Franciscan Center at Madonna University. There is no charge.

Inductees this year include: Dr. Conway Jeffress, president of Schoolcraft College; Sister Rose Marie Kujawa, president of Madonna University; Steve King, founder of the Dittillies; former Livonia City Attorney Harry Tatigian; retired Livonia teacher Dr. Jerry Smith; Hearts of Livonia; and the Livonia Civic Chorus.

Introductions will be made by state Sen. Glenn Anderson, former Livonia mayors Bob Bennett and Jack Engebretson, school Trustee Elaine McDonnell, retired Brigadier General Carol Ann Fausone, Schoolcraft Trustee Gretchen Alanin and Clerk Terry Marecki.

The event includes recognition from the State of Michigan, Wayne County and City of Livonia. The Pledge of Allegiance will be led by school Trustee Colleen Burton, a prayer will be offered by Livonia City Councilman Brandon Kritzman and acceptance of the class will be by Livonia Council President Maureen Brosnan and businessman Bob Hardies. Emcees are Commissioner Laura Cox and Hall of Fame founder Bill Joyner.

Annexation and Values

A few years ago there was an attempt by a developer with the backing of Livonia's Republican dominated city government to have a large portion of Northville Township annexed by Livonia.

My Republican opponent, Terry Marecki, was at that time a member of the Livonia City Council. She voted to support annexation.

I live in Livonia and I was opposed to the annexation. I spoke against it at meetings and in e-mails. I wrote a letter against it that was printed in The Livonia Observer. I even put out signs urging a no vote.

Like most of the Democrats I talked to about the annexation, I saw it as a moral issue. You do not hurt your neighbor to help yourself. The Republicans who supported the annexation took the opposite position. They talked about how it would benefit the citizens of Livonia. They did not seem to care how it would affect Northville Township.

The majority of Livonia's voters rejected the annexation request. They apparently did care how it would affect their neighboring community.

There appears to be a clear difference in values between Democrats and today's Republican elected officials. Democrats tend to treat other people the way they themselves would want to be treated if they were in the other person's shoe. You do not hear Democrats saying "greed is good" because they do not believe it, particularly when the greed results in hurting someone else.

You should consider voting for candidates whose values are the most like your own.

Fall bug hunters collect information about the health of Rouge streams. FOTR

Look for aquatic insects with Friends of Rouge

The Friends of the Rouge group needs volunteers to help look for stoneflies, mayflies and other aquatic insects at the annual Fall Bug Hunt on Oct. 25. Interested volunteers must pre-register by Oct. 10. Children are welcome when accompanied by a participating adult.

The event begins at 9 a.m. at Schoolcraft College in the VisTaTech Center. Volunteers are assigned to teams of four-eight people that each travel to two sites to look for living things in samples collected from the river, under the direction of a trained team leader. The number and type of bugs found is used to assess each site and data are submitted to the state and Rouge communities.

The Fall Bug Hunt is part of a long-term monitoring program created in 1998 to train local residents to collect information about the health of Rouge streams. It is coordinated by Friends of the Rouge and supported by the Alliance of Rouge Communities.

For more information, visit www.therouge.org. Friends of the Rouge is a 501c3 non-profit organization dedicated to promoting restoration and stewardship of the Rouge River ecosystem through education, citizen involvement and other collaborative efforts, for the purpose of improving the quality of life for the people, plants, and animals of the watershed.

The Rouge River covers 466 square miles in three counties and 42 communities in the metropolitan Detroit area.

Football season can only mean one thing — time to grab the best seat in the house, and we're not talking about at the stadium. In fact, 77 percent of Americans think the best seat in the house is at home in front of an HDTV, according to a recent survey by McIlhenny Company, maker of Tabasco brand products. Instead of heading to the stadium, keep the tailgate at home and throw a "homegating" party.

The ultimate homegate is not only about the football game, it's about the food. No matter what's happening on the field, the spread can be the real game-changer. In fact, the survey found the following:

- » 78 percent of American adults think good food can make up for a bad game.
- » Americans spend, on average, 42 percent of the game eating or drinking.
- » More than half of Americans (57 percent) voted the grill as the most important appliance when hosting a homegate.

For a homegate touchdown, banish the boring and serve beer-infused chili, barbecue pulled pork and spicy sides. For other game day recipes, visit www.tabasco.com.

SUPER GOOD CHILI

Servings: 6

1 tablespoon vegetable oil
1 ½ pounds ground beef chuck
1 large onion, chopped
2 garlic cloves, minced
1 tablespoon ground cumin
1 (12 ounce) can diced tomatoes
2 (16 ounce) cans pinto beans, drained and rinsed
1 (16 ounce) can red kidney beans, drained and rinsed
1 (12 ounce) can or bottle beer
1 (4 ounce) can diced green chilies
1 tablespoon Tabasco brand Original Red Sauce
1 ½ teaspoons salt
Shredded cheddar and Monterey Jack cheese, optional

Heat oil in 5-quart saucepot over medium heat. Add beef and cook until well browned on all sides, about 5 minutes. With a slotted spoon, remove to bowl. Add onion and garlic to drippings remaining in skillet; cook over medium heat until tender, about 5 minutes. Return meat to saucepot; stir in cumin. Cook 1 minute. Stir in diced tomatoes with liquid, pinto beans, red kidney beans, beer, green chilies, Tabasco Sauce and salt. Heat to boiling over high heat. Reduce heat to low; cover and simmer 20 minutes to blend flavors, stirring occasionally. Serve with cheese, if desired.

CAJUN CORNBREAD

Makes: 6 servings

¾ cup cornmeal
½ cup all-purpose flour
2 tablespoons sugar (optional)
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon baking soda
¼ teaspoon salt
¾ cup milk
1 tablespoon Tabasco brand Buffalo Style Hot Sauce
1 egg, beaten
2 tablespoons vegetable oil

Combine cornmeal, flour, sugar, baking powder, soda, and salt in a mixing bowl; whisk together and make a well in the center. Combine milk and Tabasco Buffalo Style Sauce in another bowl; stir in egg and oil, then pour into well in cornmeal mixture and whisk just until dry ingredients are moistened. Do not overmix.

Pour batter into a well-greased 8-inch iron skillet or round cake pan. Bake in a 450°F oven for 15 minutes or until bread springs back when gently pressed in center. Let cool 5 minutes; serve hot.

CHIPOTLE BBQ PULLED PORK

Makes: 6 servings

2 tablespoons olive oil
1 (2 ½-pound) boneless pork roast
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup ketchup
¼ cup cider vinegar
2 tablespoons brown sugar
2 tablespoons Tabasco brand Chipotle Pepper Sauce
1 teaspoon paprika
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
6 rolls

Heat oil in large skillet over medium heat. Season pork with salt and pepper and brown on all sides. Combine ketchup, vinegar, sugar, Tabasco Chipotle Sauce, paprika, and Worcestershire sauce in slow cooker. Add pork and 2 teaspoons of the skillet drippings; cover and cook on low for 8 hours.

Or brown meat in oil in an oven-safe Dutch oven or large skillet with cover. Then combine ketchup, vinegar, sugar, Tabasco Chipotle Sauce, paprika, and Worcestershire sauce and add to Dutch oven or skillet. Cover and bake in 350°F oven for 4 hours or until fork tender.

BAYOU POTATO SALAD

Makes: 6-8 servings

2 pounds red potatoes, peeled and quartered
4 hard-cooked eggs
1 cup mayonnaise
½ cup Tabasco brand Buffalo Style Hot Sauce
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
1 stalk celery, finely chopped
½ cup finely chopped green onion

Place potatoes in a large saucepan and cover with water. Bring to a boil, reduce heat, and cook until potatoes are tender, about 20 minutes. Drain and set aside to cool.

Cut eggs in half and place yolks in a large bowl. Mash yolks with a fork. Chop egg whites finely and add to yolks. Stir in mayonnaise, Tabasco Buffalo Style Sauce, mustard, celery, and green onion and mix well. Dice potatoes and stir into mayonnaise mixture until well blended.

ULTIMATE BLOODY MARIA

Makes: 2 servings

3 tablespoons key lime juice
1 tablespoon chopped cilantro
¼ cup chopped celery
½ teaspoon minced garlic
¼ cup clam & tomato juice
¼ teaspoon Tabasco brand Original Red Sauce
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
½ teaspoon salt
1 ¾ cups tomato juice
½ cup tequila reposado
Garnish:
Salt to rim glasses
2 celery sticks
2 key lime wedges

Fill two 12-ounce highball salt-rimmed glasses with ice. Blend ingredients in a blender, then strain into glasses to remove solids. Stir with celery stick. Garnish with lime.
