Middel gets national Red Cross award

LeAnne Rogers

A Westland woman recently received a national award from the American Red Cross.

Carol Middel, a Wayne-Westland Schools board member, recently was presented with the Presidential Award of Excellence, a national award given to volunteers by Gail McGovern, American Red Cross president/CEO, annually in Washington, D.C.

For 24 years, Middel has been a volunteer CPR, first aid and Automatic External Defibrillator instructor for the Red Cross. For the last 10 years, she has also been an instructor for other trainers. "I got in-volved in CPR and first aid through Girl Scouts. Once my daughters went to high school and found better things to do than Girl Scouts, I found I wasn't ready to quit Girl Scouts," Middel said. "I wanted to do something where I wouldn't smell like campfire smoke or get a splinter from sitting on a wet log.

Required to take annual CPR and other classes as part of Girl Scouts, Middel said she realized she could teach and contacted the Red Cross. Currently, she usually teaches at least three times per month, usually at the Ann Arbor Red Cross facility. Along with teaching, Middel also volunteered to clean and maintain the CPR training mannequins at the Ann Arbor facility after staff was let go eventually stepping in to make sure the facility was main-tained. The Red Cross was closing facilities, Middel said, so she was worried the Ann Arbor site would shut down.

"I stepped up. See a need, fill a need, is my philosophy. I'd greet people at the desk. I knew it was less likely they would close a building if it was well maintained," Middel said.
"They sold off the Detroit office at Mack and John R, so it worked. I like to think part of it was that I maintained the building. I'd paint a wall. I didn't think anyone was paying attention.

Nominations for the Presidential Award of Excellence are submitted by local Amer ican Red Cross staff members all over the country and then go through a selection process. Along with her Red Cross work and serving on the board of education since 2010, Middel also does volunteer work at the VA Hospital spending time with terminally ill veterans who have no family or no one in "The VA Hospitals have catchment areas depending on the physical problem. Families often need to go home to a job or to take care of other family,' Middel said. "Some (veterans) have been going on a journey for five or seven years. Some Students, parents and volunteers took over big portions of Churchill on Friday and Saturday, cheering — or running — Steamworks matches in the fieldhouse, packing the cafeteria at lunchtime and turning the auxiliary gymnasium, where team members repair, test and fine-tune their robots between matches, into a hive of activity.

"We lost this match, but we've been making steady progress," said David Ganss, a mentor for the Novi Detroit Catholic Central Shambots, upon returning to the "pits" from a Friday match. "We're on pins and needles this week-

The standings can change rapidly, but the Shambots' steady progress paid off, as they stood atop the rankings at the close of the contest. After 12 matches, Catholic Central had a 10-2 record and a 1.66 match score, followed the Livonia Warriors (a combined Livonia Public Schools team) with a 9-3 record and a 1.58 match score, and five teams tied for third place, including the Heavy Duty Eagles from Thurston High School and the Hackbots from the Farmington Public Schools

"It's the biggest, craziest sports event you've ever been to, but with none of the negativity," said Joanna Garrett, the Warriors' lead robot programmer.

If you're watching any of the HGTV home renovation shows, the term "open concept" should be familiar. And it is a strong concept that drives development of Pulte Homes The Enclave, now under con-struction in Northville Township.

"We set up our homes with an open flow," said Jennifer Eckardt, sales consultant.

Pulte is developing The Enclave with four models on Seven Mile — property that had been designated by consent judgment to sport some 200 mobile homes. Pulte purchased the property with plans for 55 single-family homes, just east of the Highland shop ping center.

"This is a home run for us," Northville Township Supervisor Bob Nix said, referring to the new development. "It's a different residential product."

The homes will take on an urban feel with smaller, nar rower lots 45 feet wide and 120 feet deep. Homes on the cul de sac and on corners, however, provide 111 feet in width in the back yard. The new subdivi-sion is marketed as walkable close to downtown Northville – again a nod to urban design and living.

On the west side of the sub division, Pulte will build a park complete with gazebo and scenic overlook. It will also fea-ture walking trails. When Pulte has completed the subdivision, a homeowners association will take over responsibility for the park, as well as snow removal and care of the stone monu-ment entrance to the neighborhood. Homeowner dues are expected to be $750 annually.

The new homes range in size from 2,500-3,000 square feet. The final price paid de pends on the model and options chosen. The newly built model, the Everett, offers four or five

Architect: Don't star in your own home remodeling horror show

've probably all shared that scary movie moment when, helpless in our theater seat with sweating palms, we watch while the heroine innocently reaches for the

"Don't open that door!" we shout inside our heads (or aloud, depending on our inhibitions)

We already know the monster lurks behind. We try to warn. The door is opened.

I've been an architect specializing in residential projects for more than 20 years. I've seen a lot of scary "monsters" appear when I have worked on existing houses. Support beams that were undersized because the homeowner asked the contractor to make the house two feet wider. Sagging roofs that, over time, pushed walls to how outward

The initial fright of uncovering the unexpected secretly crouching in the walls, attic or foundation is often exceeded by the terror of realizing the added time and expense these add to a remodeling project. As an architect, one of my primary goals is to counsel homeowners on what they might find when starting a renovation project. The troubles lurking beneath and behind will still be there, but at least together we can make allowances and prepare strategies to triumph over these villainous contingencies.

What are some of the "boogeymen" that jump out of dark corners when working on older homes?

My story: Living with Asperger's syndrome

and, while many may associate the month with showers and warmer weather, it is also Autism Aware ness Month. "What is autism?" some may ask. Google defines it as "a mental condition, pre-sent from early childhood, characterized by difficulty in communication and forming relationships with other people and in using language and abstract concepts."

An early age, I was diagnosed with Asperg-er's syndrome, a milder form of autism. Life for students with special needs can be hell while you're growing up. There's always a sense of isolation from other people; you're always told that you're "different." Words people use to describe those like me can range from "retard" to "special," but they all mean the same thing: you don't belong and you're different

While adults have good intentions for children with this diag-nosis, they have a hard time putting themselves in our shoes

I'm considered high functioning on the autism spectrum. This means I can communicate effectively and I have an average or above-average cognitive ability.

However, people like me tend to have trouble reading social cues and knowing what's approtioning, I was placed in regular classes in school, the equivalent of throwing me in a lion's den, with teachers and para-professionals my only armor from direct encounters.

Kids with special needs get some of the worst treatment from their peers. It's a struggle to communicate and realize what's acceptable and what's not. Kids with autism are seen as a joke. It can feel like the entire world hates you for just existing — like you're always being pitied, treated like you're stupid or both. I was raised to keep my condition a secret be-cause it carries a stigma, it's considered

I've had people take advantage of my condition and judge me dif-ferently once they found out. I remember in middle school how we would have these things called "Snack Pack," and invite kids who weren't in specialneeds program to hang out with us. Most of the time, these kids were just using it to get free food. Later, we would see some of the same friends, usually by imitating or mocking us. It hurt a lot, but worse vet, it was widely accepted to mistreat people like me. I hear peo-ple use special or retarded as an insult in the hallways all the time. Using someone's race as an insult is short-sighted and no longer tolerated, so why is it OK to use mental disabilities in the same

You can imagine that many kids, including myself, grew bitter from this treatment. I got used to hurtful comments and to different treatment, be it good or bad. I thought I was immune to the things people said, to the things people did, but I really wasn't. I was just detaching from it, which is very different from being immune. I was talking to a teacher at my school one day. When I briefly told him that I was bullied and why, he only had one question for me: "Was there something wrong with them or something wrong with you?

I remember internally smiling, the answer was so obvious. I looked up at him and replied, "There is something wrong with me."

Until then he was not nonchalantly listening, but he quickly turned to face me. "Wrong? There is nothing wrong with you."

I was confused when he said this; what did he

Retail fraud

Livonia police were called Wednesday eve-ning to Walmart, 29555 Plymouth, on the report of a retail fraud suspect in custody at the store.
Police were told by an employee the suspect was seen at the selfcheckout area with sev-eral items. They said she was seen scanning a UPC of an inexpensive item several times as she placed several items on the belt, not registering the full price of the items. She then tried to leave with the items, but was stopped by a store employee. She was detained and several hundreds of dollars worth of merchandise were recovered after she had paid only $12 for them. She was arrested and taken to the police station for processing.

The resident said she was contacted by the human resources depart-ment at her job, who told her someone had filed for unemployment benefits in her name. She said she had not filed for benefits. She checked to see if someone had tampered with any of her accounts.

Tax fraud

A resident in the 13900 block of Cardwell came to the police station Wednesday to report someone fraudulently filed taxes on her behalf.

She said she received a letter last month from the Internal Revenue Service, telling her someone had filed a tax return on her behalf. She said she was not out any mon-ey and was advised to file a police report.

Inadequate insulation

Homes built before the 1980s were built when energy was cheap. They are often under-insulated or possibly not insulated at all because of the price of heating fuel. We now know that it's better to keep our heated and con-ditioned air inside rather than letting it escape through our walls and roofs. Adding insulation is a good intention, but be aware this can change the way that water vapor moves through the walls, which can, in turn, cause mold and mildew to form It's wise to consult an expert before adding barrier materials to as sess how our friend and simultaneously potential – moisture – – will be handled.

Knob and tube wiring, undersized electrical panels

We own a lot more electrical devices now than people did in the early to mid-20th century just think of the number of hair dryers, curling irons, shavers, electric toothbrushes and other devices you probably have in your bathroom. Most older homes that haven't been updated have 60-amp electrical panels with screw-in fuses rather than circuit breakers.

A home today is better served by 150- to 200-amp (or more) service and some insurance companies are refusing to insure homes with outdated electrical panels. Not many things are as frightening as an insur-ance agent saying "no" to issuing a policy on an over-sized risk! When you renovate your home. you should ask your electrician to calculate the estimated loads and size the electric panel accord-

In addition, homes built before the 1940s are likely to have knob and tube wiring, which was not designed to handle the electrical loads we need for all our devices today. If that weren't scary enough on its own. cellulose and spray foam insulation cannot be installed where knob and tube wiring is present because the heat produced by this outdated method of wiring can cause the insulation to catch fire. It's important to plan to replace this obsolete electrical sys tem as part of any renovation project.

Galvanized plumbing pipes

Many homes built before the 1960s have galvanized plumbing supply lines. Supply lines are the pipes that bring water from your water meter to your faucets Galvanized pipes are steel pipes with a zinc coating on the inside. Over time, this zinc coating erodes, which causes the insides of the pipes to corrode, causing low water pressure by block-ing the pipes. Corroded pipes can also leak at the joints. Galvanized pipes are another hiding mon ster you may be required to chase away with PVC or copper replacements when you remodel a kitchen or bathroom.

Orangeburg sewer lines Orangeburg pipe was made of layers of wood fiber and pitch and was used for piping sewage from houses to the main sewer line. During World War II, inexpensive Orangeburg pipe became popular because cast iron the material sewer pipes were typically made from — was subject to a heavy tax. Over time, Orangeburg pipe tends to absorb moisture, deform under pressure and eventually disintegrate. If your home was built between the late 1940s and the mid-1960s. you may have Orangeburg pipe. Sorry, but again, just the architect

Hacked-up structure from old renovations

Homes that are so old that they may have been built without indoor plumbing or that have been renovated a few times may have floor joists or wall studs that have been cut or notched inappropriately. These cuts weaken the struc ture, but can and should be repaired when they are found. Unfortunately, even the best-intended builders can create terrifying problems when disregarding the laws of

Furnace and water heater capacity

If you are building an addition, you should check with a heating and cooling contractor to assess the capacity of your existing furnace Although many older furnaces were over-sized, if yours is nearing the end of its lifespan, it might be time to replace

If you are adding a bathroom or two, you should also consider the size of your water heater. If you run out of hot water when taking a long shower, you're already stretching the capacity of vour water heater. You may want to replace the existing unit with a larger model, add a second water heater to serve only the new bathrooms or replace your water heater with a tank-less water heater.

As you can see, there are a lot of beasts that can jump out and grab you (and your savings) when you remodel your home. I recommend setting aside a contingency fund of 10-25 percent of the cost of construction to cover these potential

Bowing to the needs and likes of today's families, formal dining rooms and large formal living rooms are not a focus. In the Everett, space that can be used as dining and living rooms greet guests when the front door opens into a smaller foyer. "People see (formal areas) as wasted space. You use the formal dining rooms once a year. So it is really up to you what you want to do with the space."

Also gone in the new design is the closed-off kitchen. Today, parents boasts an island facing the cafe, as well as 42 inch cabinets with maple as the standard material.

Each of the four designs also will boast a planning center, which is a desk near the kitchen that can serve as a good spot for kids to do their homework or as a small office for empty-nesters.

And for those empty-nesters, Pulte offers, as an option, a small bed-room and full bathroom on the main level. Otherwise, the main floor bathroom is a powder room.

In the Everett, the flex space, if chosen as an option, is essentially the entry point to the upper floor, with bedrooms off a gathering area. While the secondary bedrooms are smaller, ranging in size from 10 by 12 feet to 11 by 12 feet, the master bedroom runs larger, 14 feet, 6 inches by 20 feet, 10 inches, accompanied by a master bath with double vanity and two walk-in closets. The mas ter suite also provides room for a sitting area. If a buyer does not want the upstairs flex space as a gathering area option, the space is used as a cathedral ceiling for the main floor front foy-

In the Everett, the secondary bedrooms share a Jack and Jill bath. "People really like bath. People really like these, because it gives easy access for the kids," Eckardt said. "The bed-rooms are smaller, but they will fit what you need."

Each of the available models also includes an upstairs laundry, another popular contemporary design. "People like this because this is where their clothes are," Eckardt added. While plenty of op-tions in all the models are available, the one thing Pulte will not do is rede sign the spaces, such as making the upstairs bed-rooms larger. "We have a six-month build, so we don't do custom options," she said. Excited with the new residential offerings, Nix said The Enclave will be a winner for Pulte and for the township, considering that the property was originally scheduled for mobile homes. "That was not compatible with the surrounding area," Nix said. "This is a fill-in parcel. If we can get more families in there, that's great. We know the (Northville) school board said they need more children. A number of other residential areas are planned in Northville Township, including neighborhoods specifically for empty-nesters, a means to keep in the community those residents whose children have flown the nest.

So many can be helped, saved

I attended a new FAN chapter in Canton Township that was attended by (my count) 12 judges, two police chiefs, a town-ship supervisor, several lawyers, other community leaders, family members and individuals who are in recovery or battling with or for someone against addictions to alcohol, methamphet amines, cocaine, heroin, deadly fentanyl and other illegal and prescribed opioids.

So many will be helped and saved by the continuing and ever growing FAN organization.

Last night I was told that 144 Americans die each day as a result of opioid overdoses. I was shocked to my core. We must work together to make our neighborhoods, towns, cities and nation a safe and nurturing place for our children. We need to work with all due diligence and all our strength to this.

We need to reestablish the right of every American to live their lives in safety. All of us should be assured that we may live out those dreams we have of betterment in safety and peace.

The children and adults who have stumbled into addiction need assistance. Quite simply they have been am-bushed and need us to help those who will accept assistance.

The stigma of addiction is only helping to hide it and so this scourge grows stronger. Each day it takes more of our family, friends and neighbors away from us

Too often those seeking help are turned away with tragic results.

If you were in battle, and life can be a battle, and your friend were hit and cried out to you in pain what would you do?

New uses for Livonia strip mails, vacancies

It is apparent that multiple factors from a changing retail landscape resulting in the need for less retail space and the fact that there are simply too many strip malls and vacancies to fill is working against our community in Livonia and communities throughout the country

What is even more apparent is that Livonia residents want more engaging, walkable, and lively developments and the sense of community that they will bring to the city. This is not an effort that any city can accomplish on its own. It is vital to have devel-opers that recognize the forces at play and that are willing to invest their money along with cre-ative and passionate people to find solutions that will establish Livonia's future as an engaging community for all

Too frequently I have sat at red lights through-out Livonia and seen one empty building after another on Plymouth, Five Mile, Six Mile, and Seven Mile. This is not a problem isolated to one section of the city, but rather a problem that should cause us as residents to unite and act. We need to do more and we need to do it now. It's for this reason at the next Livonia City Council meeting I will request that the issue of vacant strip malls and commercial vacancies be placed in to the council committee of the whole so that their future could be reviewed along with residents and devel-opers. It is my hope that this will be the beginning of a conversation with

I am advocating for the transformation of the city's empty retail spaces into many thriving and engaged community centers within walking distance of all neighborhoods that anchor the different sections of the city. Yes, this would require private investment, and the city evaluating and eliminating obstacles that prevent the growth and development that we all want. Imagine Livonia's neighborhoods with their tall trees and sidewalks that lead to restaurants and businesses but also benches, music, festivals, and community gatherings where your neighbors will once again become your friends.

Trump blames Obama

A poison gas attack allegedly perpetrated by pro-Assad government forces in Syria's civil war has prompted a predictably stupid response from President Trump. According to Trump, weakness and a refusal to act by President Oba-ma in 2013 to the use of poison gas by Assad resulted in this week's attack although hypo-critically Trump's tweets reveal that he opposed any U.S. intervention at the time.

Obama's eventual response skillfully ma-neuvered Russia into agreeing to be responsible for the collection and sequestration of these weapons of mass these weapons of mass destruction from Syria to prevent their future use by Assad. This obviously wasn't "Obama doing nothing" as Trump characterized it and the action succeeded since retion succeeded since no such attacks had occurred in the four years since at least until Trump took office.

Trump has only been in office for eleven weeks and the world's bullies and tyrants are emboldened. Not only has Assad broken from a four year hiatus from using chemical weapons on civilians, Kim Jong Un of North Korea has stepped-up testing missiles that will someday be capable of delivering nuclear warheads to American shores and has ramped up the aggres sive rhetoric. Looks as if the weak and feckless

GOP characterization of Obama for all those years far more aptly fits Donald Trump since like Rodney Dangerfield, he is getting no respect, no respect at all.

An enraged Trump was asked whether the gas attack had crossed any lines and his response was "many many lines" especially in light of the many "babies" reported among the casualties. The president however had nothing to say about what he intended to do about the atrocity. It appears that like healthcare, nobody knew how complicated Syria is. In this as in many other cases, it will be difficult to for the U.S. to claim the moral high ground since just last week an American attack resulted in the death of 230 civilians, including many "babies" in Syria. Granted, poison gas wasn't used but incendi ary bombs are no fun either. In addition another ill-fated American attack several weeks ago in Yemen not only cost the life of a Navy Seal but resulted in the deaths of 23 civilians including an eight year old girl who was a U.S. citizen. Where was the rage then in either case Mr. Trump?

Since according to Trump, Obama was to blame for the Assad's poison gas attack 10 weeks after leaving of-fice, I wonder if Trump will blame Obama for the mess" he inherited in the form of great jobs reports for February and March. Certainly not but most economists will view this as an unprecedented trend of Obama iobs creation that has spanned nearly eighty consecutive months lum-bering forward under its own momentum. Understandably Trump is enraged about the tragic deaths of the Syrian victims of this abomination, especially the "babies" but oddly dismissive of the predictions from multiple re-spected sources including Harvard University sands of Americans that will die per year for lack of health care, thousands of whom will be babies, if the GOP repeal/re-place plan he supports becomes law. No rage for American "babies" Mr. President? Trott? GOP?

Liberals are annoying

Liberals are being annoying now like a sink faucet dripping late at night. The ad nauseum rants against congressmen, like Dave Trott, have gotten old a long time ago and it's yester-day's news. You liberals who want to keep Obamacare got a temporary reprieve and now you're mocking Republicans for backing down. In your eyes, Trump and the GOP can do no right in anything they do or say. The liber-als are just going to rail unceasingly against the right — give up all hope ye who long for biparti-sanship. The Democrats only demand bipartisan-ship when they're in

As for the town halls, we get it. You want to yell at reps like a pack of wild animals or out of control school brats. The GOP members shouldn't even subject themselves to this adult version of "Romper Room."

Let me tell you, it takes some real vile creatures to drive for hours through a snow storm and then stand for an hour outside in the

I've noticed that since the Observer papers have adopted a single Wayne County opinion page that we've been "treated" to seeing what the "heavy hitters" from neighboring towns think. For example, big mouths like Gerald Maxey from Farmington Hills and James Huddleston from Canton. I think the read ers of the Livonia Observer know how lucky they've been to have had me for over 15 years and now our neighboring towns know it as well

Ever since the presi-dential election, the liberals have been carrying on like unreasoning mad dogs, railing against anything linked to Trump. These are people who cannot be cooperated with.
They wish nothing but ill-will toward the right. This is nothing short of a full-blown, cultural war for the future of America. The liberals promote a demonic dogma that approves of despicable things like abortion and sodomy. Liberals are scurrilous folk who I have no interest in associating with. I'd rather befriend Fang the fire-breathing dragon on 'The Munsters" old TV show!

Finally, liberals can "get their panties in a bunch" over some fantasy tale about Russia, but you didn't hear a peep from them about Obama when four Americans were killed in Benghazi Libya in 2012 at our embassy. Then Obama had the utter gall and audacity to lie about the incident and publicly claim that it wasn't a terrorist attack, but a spontane ous protest that had erupted in response to an obscure Internet video.

College recruiting myths on docket

Recruiting Realities' Jack Renkens has can't-miss message April 19 for students, parents and coaches

Tim Smith

The college recruiting game some-times is a dirty one, but Livonia student-athletes and their parents have a unique chance to get the clean scoop about what's in it for them.

In his presentation "The Realities of In his presentation "The Realities of College Athletic Recruiting," Jack Renkens, a motivational speaker and author from Recruiting Realities, will break it all down at 7 p.m. Wednesday, April 19, in the Livonia Franklin auditorium.

The free presentation, which will last about 50 minutes, is for student-athletes from Franklin, Livonia Churchill and Livonia Stevenson—as well as parents.

Livonia Stevenson - as well as parents and coaches

Renkens, a former college coach, will tee off on a couple of important trends, including about parents who are unre-alistic and critical of coaches.

"This event has been at Churchill in recent years," Churchill athletic director Marc Hage said. "We have Jack visit us every four or five years. It is beneficial because he gives parents a very realistic perspective about the both the recruiting process and where their child actually fits into it - and if they even do.

"Also, he tells parents how to proceed if it is their child's desire to pursue collegiate opportunities."

According to a press release, Livonia Public Schools made the investment to the community "to provide our studentathletes and parents with information about playing college athletics.

"This event is designed for every high school parent and their student-athlete. If your son or daughter truly has aspirations to play at the college level, this is a 'can't-miss' event."

Two popular myths that Renkens will debunk are that only top athletes should consider college athletics and that they must hold off until junior year of high school to start revving up their communications with recruiters

According to Recruiting Realities,

Jack Renkens, a motivational speaker, author and former college coach, will break down the realities of recruiting April 19 for Livonia district student-athletes those myths are as follows:

» Myth 1: That the time to gear up recruiting efforts is late in the junior year. Reality: The best time to start is freshman year.

» Myth 2: Only the top athletes can expect to get opportunities. Reality: There are great schools all over the country looking for good athletes, good students and good kids right now.

The first five coaches that Renkens

meets April 19 will receive a complimentary copy of his latest book.

NIGHT COURT

Judge Mike Gerou's 'day job' is at 35th District Court, but he relishes coaching Good Counsel softball

Tim Smith

As a judge or softball coach, Mike

Gerou loves holding court.

Not only is Gerou a longtime judge at 35th District Court in Plymouth, but he also guides and directs young people in the property of the court in Plymouth of the court in Plymouth of the court ple in another way — as the new varsity softball coach at Our Lady of Good Counsel.

Whether wearing his black robe inside the courthouse or his green and gold Crusaders garb out on the softball field, he loves to connect and communicate.

"I don't even know if they know, Gerou said when asked in his trophyladen chambers about whether any of his players knows he's a judge in his day job. With a hearty laugh, he jokingly added that "in a few years they might."

All kidding aside, Gerou couldn't wait to get his new team out on the practice field at Farrand Elementary School in Plymouth to practice everything from bunting to sliding.

The Crusaders open the season with games Saturday against Dearborn

ames Saturday against Dearborn Divine Child and Sunday against Livonia's St. Michael Catholic School.
He's no stranger to coaching softball, having founded and coached the successful program at All Saints Catholic School in Canton. In a threeyear span there, his teams went 29-1.

Travel teams have benefited from his coaching over the years, including renowned programs such as the PC Pride and Livonia Storm.

And in 2015, he was the junior varsity coach at OLGC. He had to give it up for a season last spring, because it was his daughter Elaine's final year of college softball at Schoolcraft and " didn't want to miss her games.

Helping the kids

Now that he is the Crusaders varsity coach, does Gerou worry about having enough time what with his duties at 35th District Court? He said he'd find a way to make it all work because he flat-out loves coaching the sport.

Patriots ready to hit ground running

Tim Smith

As far as Livonia Franklin softball coach Brittany Grys is concerned, last season was a mulligan for her and the Patriots.

Grys was hired to take over the team shortly before the 2016 season began, which didn't give her sufficient lead time to work with players. The Patriots finished 9-29, falling in the district finals to Garden City.

But in Year 2, she expects things to be much more settled.
"The team will be more competitional the settled of the settl itive this year especially with league games," Grys said. "Last year's close-to-season hire date didn't leave much time to work in the off-season before tryouts and games.

"The off-season workouts have made a huge impact with the team and leadership already this year."

Franklin will look to make noise in the KLAA South Division with a trio of team captains leading the way. Those include senior catcher and power bat Brooke Garbarino, senior infielder-outfielder Melissa Ferrier and junior pitcher-shortstop Miyah

"Miyah was our starting shortstop last year," Grys said. "We will utilize her glove again this year but she will be our starting pitcher after stepping up and taking on a critical role for

Garden City softball lineup will feature interchangeable parts early in season

Tim Smith

Yes, the Garden City Cougars have some all state-sized holes to fill, thanks to the graduations of shortstop Kaylen Glen-field and outfielder Amber Swisher.

And don't forget that all-conference catcher Mikaela Smolar is now at Schoolcraft College

But veteran head coach Barry Patterson isn't fretting too much because the Cougars also have some pretty good players coming back from the 2016 team that went 23-16 and won a regional title.

'We're going to be competitive," Patterson said. "Depth-wise, I think we're probably as good as anybody in the league if you look at 1-to-10 in the lineup.

The defending Wayne Westland Athletic Conference Red Division champions boast a balanced lineup, as well as strong defense and pitching. Those components usu-ally result in victories. "We have a couple returners coming back to the outfield who are go-ing to catch it well for us," Patterson said. "I feel pretty comfortable about that."

He listed those outfielders as seniors Britta-ny Radtke and Aleea Montgomery and sopho-more Megan Glaser.

Patterson also can call on junior Kamryn Dunham to log time in the outfield, when she isn't helping out at the catcher's position.

On the mound will be iunior starter April Rudolph, who already has two seasons in the circle under her belt.

"(Rudolph) started as a freshman and as a sopho-more, so she has a lot of game experience," Pat-terson said. "Not an overpowering pitcher, she locates the ball well, doesn't walk people, gives us opportunities to be in every game.

"She doesn't get a ton of strikeouts, so that's why it's real important that we catch the ball behind her.

Also ready to share the pitching load are senior Alissa Turnbull and junior Aubrey Boston.
Turnbull will start somewhere in the infield most of the time, al-though Patterson said he is still trying to deter-mine which players will play where.

It's on to semis for U.S. Women's National Team

American top Finland to advance in tourney

Tim Smith

Although the ice was tilted toward the Finland goal Monday night with a wide edge in scor-ing chances — the U.S. Women's National Team found itself in a 3-3 tie with 11 minutes left.

Needing a victory to ensure a spot in the semifinal round of the 2017 IIHF Women's World Championships at USA Hockey Arena in Plymouth, center Han-nah Brandt and her linemates sensed the urgency and opportunity.

"We knew it was going to be a battle going into it and we knew that after they got that third goal that we were going to need another one to win the game," said Brandt, who scored the winning goal in Team USA's 5-3 victory. "So our line looked at each other. We said, 'We got the next one.

"It was pretty soon after that third goal that they got that we came back and were able to put one in. It was nice that we were able to get it back quick and our line was itching for a

To the net

On the deciding goal, U.S. defenseman Gigi Marvin threaded a pass from the left corner to Brandt charging in front of the blue paint.

As Brandt lunged forward, she mustered enough on the re-direct to slip the puck past Finland goalie Noora Raty, who kept her team in it with a 35-save performance.

'I just went to the net and Gigi found my

There were several factors behind the penalty kill.

Goaltender Alex Rigsby (21 saves), who wasn't tested as much as Raty, came up with several timely stops.

On defense, Farming-ton's Megan Keller outmuscled Finland for-wards for possession of the puck behind the net. And players such as forward Kendall Coyne seemingly were everywhere to get in shooting shots off-angle.

"You're going to have to give up something. It's impossible to not give up a shot. So if you're going to, you want it off-angle and you want it off to the outside."

According to Stauber, his team (now 3-0 in the Women's Worlds) was strong on defense and had its best scoring chances so far during the tourney. Yet, for a while, the game was up for grabs.

Group effort

One of the key per-formers for the U.S. was forward Hilary Knight, who scored two of her team's three power-play goals.
"It helps to have a veteran presence when-ever you're a team in a big tournament on a world stage," Knight said. "But I think the beautiful thing about our team is that we can get everyone going. "And when we get everyone going, (we're) tough to stop.

Knight, however, added that although the atmosphere in Plymouth has been "fun," it would be even better with more spectators in the seats.
"I'd like to see more fans," Knight said. "But the fans are fantastic and I'm looking forward to a bigger crowd next time (in the semifinals)."

The U.S. also is assured of playing Friday, either in the bronze medal game (3:30 p.m.) or gold medal game (7:30 p.m.).

Also scoring for the U.S. was Coyne, on a power play at 3:33 of the second period, to snap a 1-1 tie.

Amanda Kessel's shot from the left circle was blocked, but the puck caromed over to Coyne near the right post. She collected it and jammed it home.

A," Gerou said, laughing again. "I'm a driven person. But I'm really passionate about coach ing softball. I like coaching kids, I love the game of softball and it's a great opportunity to impart life's lessons to these kids.

"Not only (about) hard work, but that putting in the extra effort pays off. Also, attention to detail, setting lofty goals, believing in yourself, believing in your teammates, putting a plan in place and every day you work to get better and better."

At any rate, he doesn't have far to travel from the courthouse to adjacent Massey Field, where the Crusaders play home games.

"It's a great opportunity," Gerou said. "The city of Plymouth takes care of Our Lady of Good Counsel. It's a fabulous field to play

Gerou said he was "honored" to be asked to take over the team, composed mostly of seventhand eighth-graders. Last year, the Crusaders had a rough go of it (1-8-1) against Catholic Youth Organization opponents in their initial foray into varsity play.

"Some of the girls were saying they didn't know if they liked soft-ball anymore, that sort of thing," Gerou said. "So I ran into Mike Rior dan (Circuit Court of Appeals judge) and said, 'Hey, if anybody'd be looking for a coach, let me know.

'I'm very excited to do so. I get a chance to coach a lot of the girls I coached two years ago. There's some new ones as well, but I'm excited for the opportunity.'

Community leader: The Canton resident is president of Catholic Youth Organization athletics at All Saints, has coached various community youth sports over two decades (including several nationally ranked fast-pitch softball teams) and was the first president of the Greater Canton Youth Baseball and Softball Association.

Meet the judge: Gerou was elected in November 2002 to serve as a 35th District Court judge in Plymouth. He remains

Meet the coach: He has an extensive background as a travel softball coach, including successful stints with the PC Pride, Livonia Storm, Queens of Diamonds and Michigan Strategy Meet the Crusaders: His first OLGC varsity team include players Sydney Marx, Madeline Stone, Zara Post, Clare Baker, Nikita Moore, Olivia Haass, Sophia Hogan, Rachel Paulin, Sarah Elisworth, Fiona Riordan and Maria Plencner.

Coaching staff: Helping out Gerou will be OLGC main assistant coach Karvn Paulin, along with team manager Karen Baker. Daughter Elaine and son Nolan also will be helping out as assistant coaches. His oldest son is Miles.

Home games: The Crusaders will play home contests at Massey Field, a softball's throw away from Gerou's chambers.

Don't worry

His first goal is for players to get just as excited about playing softball. Gerou intends on making sure they play hard and not be afraid of throwing to the wrong base or dropping a pop fly.

"I've been coaching kids sports for 20 years, fast pitch softball for about a dozen years Gerou said. "I think a mistake a lot of coaches make is they try to teach kids to not make mistakes. What you have is kids freeze. The last thing you want them to do is be afraid of making mistakes.

'I tell them, 'Hey, we're going to make mistakes. We're going to make really aggressive mistakes. We're going to overcome those mistakes by playing an aggressive style of ball.

During early practice sessions, Gerou and his coaching staff — which includes Elaine (a former Plymouth High School softball standout) and son Nolan - worked with the kids on sliding technique.

To help cushion the learning blow, so to speak, players were outfitted in brand new sliding pads.

"One of the biggest problems you have with young players, boys and girls is, come spring and the ground's still hard — and they haven't ever done this before they're afraid to slide," he said. "If you can't slide, you're never going to run the bases aggressively, so they bought some sliding pads. In our indoor practices, we've done extensive work on sliding."

Whether those ses-sions will help the Crusaders rack up wins and victories remains to be

Game of life

But Gerou is more interested in coaching up kids so they can add to a different kind of victory column. He wants them to be respectful and go about their business the right way.

"We have two team mottos," Gerou said. 'One, we respect everybody. We respect our teammates, we respect our opponents, we re-spect the coaches, the umpires, the parents. And we fear no one

"The other team mot-to is every day, in every way, we're getting bet-ter and better. As long as we're seeing im provement every day, things just take care of themselves. We'll be OK." Meanwhile, according to Gerou the judge, there is another underlying reason it is essential for young people to have a purpose and a place to be. "If they don't get anything else out of this,

find something in life you're passionate about," Gerou said. "Just pursue your pas-

Wet weather interrupts Salem's home opener against Wayne, but game resumes and Rocks prevail, 9-2

The baseball bunting decorated the backstop at Salem High School and the hot dog grill was back in business

Mother Nature also had her say in matters as the Rocks hosted Wayne Memorial in a KLAA crossover varsity base ball game, opening up the 2017 season for the home team after a string of rainouts For a while, it looked like Salem would be 0-for-5 against Michigan's unpredict-able spring weather, when lightning and thunder — and then rain — forced the teams to their respective dugouts with the Rocks up 1-0 in the top of the third on a wild pitch (scoring Luke Hindt, who doubled to left in the frame). But instead of another postponement, the bad weather subsided enough for the game to resume. Salem ultimately won 9-2 in six innings, behind home runs by Trevoi Genaw and Danny Diaz and strong pitching from starter and winner Erich Payne. Top performers for Wayne Memorial (2-4 overall) were sophomore Gio Ramirez (two hits) and senior Brandon

Pryzbala (RBI). "I guess that's Michigan though, you got to kind of expect it," said Salem's th year head coach John Wright, during the weather delay. ### Belleville likely will join KLAA

But high school won't join circuit until 2018-19

Brad Emons

It's not quite official just yet, but it appears the Ken-sington Lakes Activities Asso-ciation has found a new member school.

Belleville, currently part of the Western Wayne Athletic Conference, will likely become the 14th member of the KLAA beginning with the 2018-19 school year.

"We're trying to finalize it this week, but I think it's a go," Belleville athletic director Joe Brodie said. "We anticipate getting something out here before or during the (spring) before or during the (spring)

In 2018-19, Belleville would link up with 13 other existing KLAA schools — Canton, Salem, Plymouth, Wayne Memorial, Westland John Glenn, Livonia Franklin, Livonia Churchill, Livonia Stevenson, Northville, Novi, Brighton, Howell and Hartland.

Belleville got the nod over three other schools that reportedly expressed interest in joining the KLAA: Saline of the Southeastern Conference, along with Lapeer and Davi-son of the Saginaw Valley High School Association. "There were a bunch of different factors," Brodie said.

'We looked at it from a competitive standpoint. And we also looked at it from a travel standpoint. And it looked like the teams that are matched up with us divisionally give us a lot of competition with a lot of our sports."

Belleville would replace Grand Blanc, which was voted out of the association by the member schools last month by a 13-1 vote

Blanc will compete in the KLAA for one more school year (2017-18) and has had preliminary discussions with Saginaw Valley High School Association and will make a formal presentation to the league April 26. The Valley includes former Big Nine rivals Flint Carman-Ains worth, Davison and Flint Pow-

St. Cyr and company will try to have the same kind of success. The U18 squad faces Belarus and Russia on Thursday and Saturday, respectively, during the preliminary round. The top four teams in each of two pools will advance to the quarterfinals. Whatever happens in Slovakia, the Northville High School senior will be more than ready to start his collegiate hock-ey career at Notre Dame.

St. Cyr originally committed to the University of Michigan, but earlier this year decided with encouragement from his parents — to change his future ad-

"He's helped me, es pecially mentally and in influencing decisions. I just think it was the right decision for everyone."

The growth St. Cvr has made in his second season with USA Hockey undoubtedly could help lift him to a successful NCAA Division I career.

With the U18 team. which in addition to tournaments faces a demand ing slate of games against college and Unit-ed States Hockey League teams, St. Cyr so far has played 40 games and posted a 2.79 goalsagainst average with .896 save percentage while going 26-11. As an NTDP rookie in 2015-16 with the U17 team, he gave up 3.31 goals per game and won just 13 of 34 decisions. In the NTDP, elite junior players from around the country are procured for a unique, two-year pro-gram with the purpose of winning medals.

"It's a process. You show up here and you're playing against older guys," St. Cyr said. "It's really something you want to experience so you can move and challenge yourself to play against those older guys. "Moving forward, I think it's really going to help in the long run, getting that experience that no other kids our age are getting, playing against college kids

Yet, as any goalie will attest to, the nature of the position itself requires the ability to have a short memory and flick away any bad experiences as though they were beads of sweat.

Maintaining sharp focus as he knocks a shot away with the knob of his goalie stick is Team USA's Dylan St. Cyr.

Thanks, mom

That's where St. Cyr doesn't mind having the first female professional goaltender in history in his family. Rheaume won the silver medal for Canada in the 1998 Winter Olympics in Nagano. "At a younger age, (Rheaume) was more working with me on the ice and working with my team, but that was at a very young age," St. Cyr said. "And now, it's just the mental game, be-cause that's something that's always going to be a part of the game, it's not going to change. "So she's really been there for me a lot. Just know there will be times that you're going to be on your downs and you're going to have to work through it and mentally overcome it, I think that's been a really good help for me this

Who: Dylan St. Cyr, 17, a senior at Northville High School and goaltender for the U.S. National Team Development Program Under-18 team.

What: St. Cyr and his team-mates are finishing their NTDP careers from April 13-23 in Slovakia. They will play in the 2017 International Ice Hockey Federation Under-18 Mens World Championship.

Michigan flavor: In addition to St. Cyr, Michigan products skating in the tourney include defenseman Tommy Miller (West Bloomfield), forwards Logan Cockerill (Brighton) and Josh Norris (Oxford). Openers: Team USA, slotted into the B pool, will open preliminary round play Thurs day against Belerus and will follow up with a Saturday game against Russia. Top four teams in the A and B pools advance to the quarterfinals. Personal: St. Cyr's parents are Manon Rheaume and Gerry St. Cyr, both former minor hockey players. Rheaume, also a goaltender, is the only female to suit up for a National Hockey League team. She played several preseason games in 1992 for the Tampa Bay Lightning. St. Cyr has committed to play college hockey at Notre I'll be upset (about) it, but moving forward from that there's nothing you can do. You got to move forward.

And by the end of April, St. Cyr will be doing just that with his NTDP career coming to a close

Still a Mustang

He'll graduate from Northville High, where during the season he's attended morning classes before finishing up daily schoolwork at the rink

"That was my school for all my life, so I see all the same friends," he said. "It's right down the street, so I can't complain about it, it's about two minutes away from

"I really like Northville. It's a great school, definitely challenges you. I go to three classes out of the four a day and then I come over here." With the Notre Dame chapter of his hockey life waiting for him, St Cyr will never forget the whirlwind two seasons wearing the red, white and blue. "It's been the most exciting two years, but also the quickest two years of my life and I think everybody can tell you that," St. Cyr said.

"It's tough, but it's fun and I enjoyed it a lot.

"But you really don't believe it's going to be that quick of a two years, but when you look now, there's only (several) games left, it's crazy to even think about that.

Not all that crazy is the notion St. Cyr could soon add to his growing pile of hockey gold.

Dearborn Heights Robichaud, Romulus, Redford Union, Redford Thurston and Livonia Clarenceville (the smallest member with 559).

Belleville, mean-while, aligns with most of the KLAA schools in the number of athletic programs it has to offer.

The Tigers field a boys lacrosse program, but do not have girls team. In boys hockey, Belleville and New Bos ton Huron have a unified program.

"I'm sure we have a little less (sports) from what the others have to offer, but the mainstream sports ... yes, we have them," Brodie said.

Brodie, who became Belleville A.D. in 2015, said both Van Buren Schools Superintendent Peter Kudlak and high school Principal Stacy Buhro are on board with the move.

"I just think it's a good conference," Bro-die said of the KLAA. "All the schools are pretty much the same size. The big thing is the competitive aspect for us. I think we match up well with those schools They're close in proximity. We play of lot of them in a lot of our sports anyway. It's just a good fit for us."

"All the schools are pretty much the same size. The big thing is the competitive aspect for us." JOE BRODIE

Belleville athletic directo

Brodie is a graduate of Salem. His father Bob has been the long time varsity boys bas-ketball coach at Salem

"I grew up in that old Western Lakes (Activities Association)," the younger Brodie said. "I know those schools real well over there."

Travel concerns. enrollment discrepancies and issues regard-ing a competitive level playing field have caused several schools to jump or abandon leagues just within the past year.

The KLAA, which had 24 schools this school year, is losing nine of its current members to the Lakes Valley Conference, which will be launched in fall 2017. The LVC includes South Lyon, South Lyon East, Milford, White Lake Lakeland, Walled Lake Central, Walled Lake Western, Walled Lake Northern, Waterford Mott and Waterford

Kettering. Another current KLAA member, Pinckney, will compete next school year in the Southeastern Confer ence.

Pending Belleville's acceptance, realign-ment of divisions will once again take place for the 2018-2019 school year. The KLAA will have two divisions, Black and Gold, featur-ing seven schools each.

If it's done geographically, Belleville fits into a southern pod of KLAA schools that would also include the three Livo-nia, two Wayne-Westland and one of the three Plymouth-Canton schools

Travel and playing weeknight games could still be an issue. In a divisional crossover situation, it's a 100-mile round trip from Belleville to Howell and it's 88 miles between Wayne Memorial and Hartland.

New KLAA president Nicole Carter, principal at Novi, could not be reached for comment Thursday. The KLAA athletic directors, how ever, are expected to meet following spring break.

"Right now, there's a couple of different things out there," one KLAA athletic director said. "They may judge it on geography (on the divisions). We'll get that firmed up the next couple of weeks."

Plymouth Christian The backdrop is one of relative uncertainty for Academy baseball coach

Plymouth Christian

Joe Bottorff and the Eagles.

A handful of players graduated, but Bottorff said there is reason for

"Fortunately, we have several players with significant experience that are hungry for their turn to start," he said. Certain to spark PCA is senior leadoff hitter

Matt Cusumano, who will divide time between shortstop and outfield.

"Matt is a perfect leadoff hitter," Bottorff said. "He always puts the ball in play and his speed puts pressure on the defense." Other seniors are Josh

Mason, power-hitting cleanup hitter Nathan Bishop, Brendan Hess, Adam Albert and Austin Andres The latter is one of PCA's top starting pitchers as well as an allaround talent who will start in centerfield on non-pitching days. "Austin has power and speed and aggressively attacks the defense at the plate and on the bases,' Bottorff said.

PCA's other top start-ing pitcher is versatile junior Phillip Morby (who will play catcher, first base or shortstop when not on the mound).

"Phillip is a very smart player, hits for a high average and is an excellent base runner," Bottorff noted.

Bottorff also can get innings out of Mason,

Norby Fernandez and Elijah Grit, among others.

"With the new MHSAA pitch count
rule," Bottorff said, "pitching will be at a premium and we will use around nine different guys at some point dur-ing our 28-game sched-ule."

A lot of the offense will be set up by Cusamano at the top of the order But Bishop (catcher, first base, pitcher) hopefully will then clear the bases from his cleanup spot in the lineup.
"Nathan was a clutch pinch hitter late in games last season and I am excited to see how he does as a full time player," Bottorff said.

Flexibility will be

PCA's main ingredient. Sophomore Grit and Mason can play third base and the outfield: Albert is ready for second base or outfield duty; sophomore Fernandez can chip in at either middle infield spot; junior Conner Smith is available at second and the outfield and Bottorff can plug Hess and junior Gavin Goerke into the outfield.

Other players set to help the cause include: juniors Caleb Godin and Evan Wright; sophomores Aaron Geisler and Tyler Joseph; and freshmen Aiden Andres and CJ Mangum.

SCARY ADVERSITY

TRIUMPHANT RETURN

Big obstacles don't deter tiny Canton senior Jana Hilditch from reaching individual state finals

When Jana Hilditch wants something — especially in gymnastics — she keeps her eye on the prize and flicks off all surrounding distractions until she gets it. For the 17-year-old Hilditch, a senior at Canton High School, the 2016-17 gymnastics season was her final chance to get the personal goal she wanted the most: to qualify for the MHSAA individual state finals.

But then came the Monday morning after Thanksgiving break, something that turned her world upside down in the same way she catapults through the air during another on-the-money vault routine. Hilditch suffered a seizure in her bedroom, blacking out for a couple of minutes and not being clear-headed for at least 20 minutes. After getting up, she rolled her left foot and broke a toe while trying to make her way to the ambulance.

We don't have any family history of seizures, so it was kind of sudden and we really didn't expect it at all," said Hilditch, a tiny young woman (4-foot-11 and 96 pounds) with a big knack for nimble performance. "It was kind of big, because I was out of school for two days and I then I was out of gymnas-tics for about a month." And during that absence, the daughter of Gina and Jim Hilditch of Canton openly wondered if her quest to reach the finals her senior year was upended.

It was tough for her to cope with at first.
"It made me very upset when I was off," said Hilditch, with her mom during an interview at Grand Traverse Pie Co. in Plymouth. "I kind of had to sit at practice and watch my teammates practice for a month. I just kind of sat there. 'I was so tempted to just get up and go and run and do flips, but I wasn't allowed to because I wasn't cleared yet. There were a few times when I just had to step out into the hall and compose myself." Finally, Hilditch was given the green light to return to the Chiefs and — despite another seizure in January — she was a key contributor to Canton's latest team regional championship

And yes, the Division 1 gymnast was able to qualify for individual finals in the balance beam and floor exercise. But not before an anxious week leading into the individual regional filled her with a rare kind of self-doubt. Not to mention she was dealing with a sore back that hampered her.

"The week up to regionals, it was a very bad practice and I was kind of concerned that I wouldn't make it to states," she said. "I knew the team would make it, but I wasn't sure if I was going to make it to individuals or not. I couldn't get skills consistently.

"I had a lot of thoughts: What would I do if didn't make it to states? It was really hard. But when I made it to states, all the pain was worth it."

Although Hilditch didn't garner all-state honors, she was pleased with how she performed.

"Floor was good and beam was pretty good," Hilditch said. "Except I fell on my mount.'

On her feet

Getting up after slipping is something Jana Hilditch is getting pretty good at though. Her mom definitely is noticing that about her daughter these days.

"I've learned that she's a pretty strong kid," Gina Hilditch said. "I think at first she was embarrassed about (the seizure). But she realizes it's part of life now. ... I think she's overcome it well.

"She's hung in there and she continues to hang in there and bounce back well."
Gina Hilditch said

Jana had an "episode" earlier in 2016, but that "they had not classified it as a seizure. After she had the second one, it was very clear that that's what had happened before

"There's no good ex-planation for what happened to her; all her tests have been normal. She is just classified with a generic epilepsy, because they don't have anything else to call it," Gina add-

But now Jana takes medicine for the condi-tion. She will need to continue taking it for two

"We don't know that there were ever any indicators that it was going to happen," Gina said. "It was just very sudden. And there really was no predictor at all. Í think it's important for people to understand ... vour life is not over. You can be pretty much normal. It doesn't have to label you or control your

OHN KEMSKI | EXPRESS PHOTO When Jana Hilditch is doing a gymnastics routine, she hones in on the task at hand

Ups and downs

So needless to say, Jana Hilditch's senior season was a roller-coast-er ride, to say the least.

Although waiting to hear doctors give her the green light to compete again seemed to take eternity, a strong support system with the Chiefs really buoyed her spirits. "It helped a lot," Hilditch said. "I think gymnastics really helped get me back in the mood and towards the swing of things, because I wanted to go to states and everything and I actually end-ed up going to states this vear and that's always my main goal at the beginning of a season. 'I did, which I was really happy about. It made the season a lot

Of course, once Hilditch was cleared to re-turn to the team, it took some time to sharpen her skills again

"She had to put off starting her skills and practicing for a month," Gina said. "And that's really difficult in gymnastics to take that much time off and be able to go back to where you start-

"You're behind at that point. So it was really hard for her to be able to come back and get where she was

But that didn't take as long as some might have thought, what with her doing the same drills and movements since joining Splitz Gymnastics Academy in Canton when she was about 3 years old.

Hilditch stayed at Splitz until joining Oakland Gymnastics in Walled Lake as an eighthgrader. Two years later, she joined he Chiefs to give high school gymnas tics a try "Usually, if I take time off, I'm better when I come back, it's easier for me to do things," she said. "I feel once you start doing skills, it's in your blood and you know how to do it. So once you how to do it. So once you get back, it's not hard to get your skills back. "You have muscle memory, so you remember how you do it."

Comfort zone

Also big was the love and support from family and friends, not to men-tion teammates and coaches such as John Cunningham.

"He's very suppor-tive," Hilditch said about the longtime Canton coach. "He's probably one of the best coaches I've had, ever.

"But he knows where to push me and he knows what I've been going through. ... He knows how to push me and help me be the best gymnast I can be."

Also important, her mom said, was Jana's "faith in God helped her get through all the hard times.'

Having such a strong and comforting support system undoubtedly wrapped itself around her enough to come back strong.

Yet for a while in the weeks after the late No-vember seizure, Hilditch felt conflicted about whether she should even talk about her situation outside the family home

"I didn't originally tell people," she said. "But sometimes people would ask, 'Why isn't your car in the parking lot?' And I'd say, 'Oh, I can't drive, I haven't driven since

"And they were always wondering why. I just said, 'I had seizures' and they were freaking out about it. ... When a lot of people find out about it, they're supportive and they don't judge me about it.'

Time to chill

Hilditch noted that she needs to wait six months after suffering a seizure to drive. Because she had a subsequent episode in January, she isn't permit-ted to drive until July.

"On my birthday, I can drive. I get to drive again on July 9," she said, add-ing that getting behind the wheel again will be a "very nice 18th birthday

One of her first drives will be to Grand Valley State University, where she will attend school and possibly do club gymnas

Or maybe she'll head over to Starbucks for her favorite beverage, a chai

"They know my order and they know my name," she said, with a beaming grin. After so many unknowns and detours, Jana Hilditch definitely stuck the landing

TRACK AND FIELD PREVIEW

Thurston, Redford Union squads hit the starting line

Brad Emons

As Redford Thurston boys track and field up for his 23rd season, he already likes what he sees as the Eagles plan to defend their Red Divi-sion dual meet crown in the Western Wavne Athletic Conference. Chambo believes his team can improve upon last year's sixth-place finish in the WWAC meet and 14th-place showing at the MHSAA Division 1 regional at North Farmington.

"We are looking forward to the upcoming season," Chambo said. "Despite the weather not cooperating this spring, the athletes have been working very hard. We think our depth will be better this year as we participation. Our strength in the past has been the sprints and that will be the case again this year although we feel our mid-distance and dis-tance runners will be contributing more this

Thurston, which fin-ished 5-0 in the WWAC Red, lost three valuable team members to graduation, including Errol Franklin, who placed third in the 400-meter dash (50.52) at the Division 1 regional, along with Caebryn Crabtree, who was seventh in the 800 at the regional (2;04.55); and Alonzo

Stevenson kickers chalk up 2-0 win

Livonia Stevenson's varsity girls soccer team got on the scoreboard nine minutes into Mondav's KLAA crossover against Howell, and that was all the Spartans needed in a 2-0 victory.

Sharing the shutout for Stevenson were goalies Haley Demers and Mackenzie Fifer, who combined to make four

AN ORDINANCE ADDING CHAPTER 110 (GREENLEAF COMMISSION ON SUSTAINABILITY) OF TITLE 2 OF THE LIVONIA CODE OF ORDINANCES, AS AMENDED.

THE CITY OF LIVONIA ORDAINS

Section 1. Chapter 110 is hereby added to Title 2 of the Livonia Code of Ordinances, as amended, which Chapter shall read as follows:

Section 2.110.010 Established Section 2.110.010 Section 2.110.020 Section 2.110.030 Section 2.110.040 Appointment of members—Compensation Election of officers Meetings—Rules of procedure—Accounts Powers and duties Other commission services Conflicts with other departments Section 2.110.050 Section 2.110.060 Section 2.110.070 Section 2.110.080

Compensation Section 2.110.090 Annual report required

2.110.010 Established. A commission to promote energy efficiency, conservation and environmentally friendly practices is established, to be known as the "Greenleaf Commission on Sustainability'

2.110.020 Appointment of members—Compensation. The Greenleaf Commission on Sustainability ("commission") may consist of up to seven (7) members appointed by the mayor pursuant to the provisions of Section 2, Chapter V of the City Charter, to hold office at the pleasure of the mayor. The director of public works or the director's designee shall be an ex officio member of the commission. The members of the commission shall receive such compensation as may be allowed by resolution of the city council.

2.110.030 Election of officers. The commission shall elect annually a chair, vice chair, and secretary. The commission shall prescribe the duties of such officers.

2.110.040 Meetings—Rules of procedure—Accounts. The commission may hold six (6) meetings per year during odd numbered months, shall designate the time and place thereof, shall adopt its own rules of procedure, and shall keep a record of its proceedings. The chair of the commission may call a special meeting with the approval of the director of the department of public works ("director") or the director's designee. A majority of the members appointed to the commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of official business. Proper record of accounts shall be kept of the receipts and expenditures of all money in accordance with established city procedure.

2.110.050 Powers and duties. The powers and duties of the commission which shall be exercised and performed as herein provided in accordance with the law and ordinances of the city, shall be as follows:

- A. Recommending environmentally friendly policies, practices, and procedures relative to air quality, water management, energy consumption, green buildings, transportation and connectivity, trash and recycling, land use, and neighborhoods;
- B. Assisting in the evaluation of the adequacy of existing services of public and private agencies that are actively engaged in promoting environmentally friendly practices, education and development in the city;
- C. Advising the mayor, city council, and director of public works regarding findings of the
- D. Recommending action to the mayor and city council in the best interests of the
- $E.$  Providing information to the community regarding the commission's aims, functions, findings, and recommendations. 2.110.060 Other commission services. The commission shall, if requested by the mayor or city council, perform any other services that the mayor and/or city council deem advisable for the promotion of environmentally friendly practices.

2.110.070 Conflicts with other departments. Nothing herein contained shall be presumed to infringe upon the powers and duties of the mayor, city council, or any city department or in any way relieve any other city department of its responsibility under the terms of the Charter and ordinances of the city or under the law.

2.110.080 Compensation. The members of the commission shall receive such compensation as may be allowed by resolution of the city council.

Annual report required. On or before March 31 of each year, the commission shall submit in writing to the mayor a summary of the goals and objectives that it seeks to accomplish that year. The commission shall, on or before December 31 of each year, make a written report to the city council and mayor relative to the work of the commission during that year. The report shall be certified by the executive secretary, placed on record with the city clerk, and published in such manner as the city council may direct. The commission shall also make such other reports as the mayor and/or city council may require from time to

All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed only to the extent necessary to give this ordinance full force and effect.

Section 3. Should any portion of this ordinance be held invalid for any reason, such holding shall not be construed as affecting the validity of any of the remaining portions of this regular meeting of the Council of the City Livonia held Monday, March 27, 2017, at 7:00 p.m.

Susan M. Nash, City Clerk

The foregoing ordinance was authenticated by me on this 28th day of March, 2017.
