Library expansion plans dropped

Board reduces millage; taxpayers to save $1.6M

Westland property owners will see a reduction in the millage that supports the William P. Faust Library as plans for an addition to the building have been dropped.

At a special meeting Friday the library board voted to cancel all contracts relating to a planned 6,500-square-foot expansion of the building. The project was budgeted at $3.2 million and had been expected to be ready to open by the end of the year.

As a result of the project not going forward, the library board also voted to reduce the millage it levies. Specifically, a .99-mill approved by voters for 10 years in 2012 will be reduced to .50-mill — that's 50 cents per $1,000 of taxable value. The library has another mill levied in perpetuity.

"That will save taxpayers $1.6 million over the next five years. We are the fiduciary guardians of the people," Library Board President Mark Neal said. "If the money isn't going toward the addition, it doesn't need to sit in the library bank account."

The expansion floor plan had called for new quiet study areas, a reorganization to improve flow in the library and expansion of the children's area. The library board had indicated the plans were developed with input from a patron survey.

Instead of expanding, Neal said the library will look at some different options within the existing 25,400-square-foot building, which opened in 1996 on Central City Parkway between Ford and Warren.

"We are looking at alternatives for closing the small classroom that we use for programs and going back to like it was when it had cubicles for the job seekers lab," Neal said. "Or we could take furniture from the end of the library near the fireplace to set up cubicles."

The additional millage was sought in 2012 to address a number of capital projects that were needed and have been completed, Neal said, such as heating and cooling and improved parking lot lighting.

Following a staff reorganization in March the library laid off five librarians, which the library anticipated would save $178,000. With over $3 million in fund balance and plans to fund the construction through a five-year bond sale, Neal said the planned expansion and the lay-offs weren't related.

"We said from the beginning that the addition had nothing to do with the librarians. That has to do with sufficient funds for operating the library and we had that," Neal said. "Not building (the addition) has nothing to do with that. We had too many people (on the library staff). We are maxed out on our space and we don't need more staff."

Remaining library staff voted to unionize with representation by the Service Employees International Union. An Unfair Labor Practice was filed alleging the five librarians were fired for protected

Wayne Rouge Rescue event looking for volunteers

There's been lots of good news flowing out of the Rouge Rescue in recent years, especially in the city of Wayne.

Monitoring of the Lower Branch of the Rouge, which is the main artery that flows through Wayne from west to east, has shown significant improvement in water quality since the city began implementing pollution controls over the course of the last couple decades. As a result, fish communities and aquatic insects, which are a great indicator of water quality, have started to return to the river.

At the same time, volunteers have waded into the river and pulled out most of the trash that fouled the Rouge in Wayne. Over the last couple decades this small army of volunteers has pulled out of the river tires, shopping carts, car parts, bathtubs, stoves, barbecue grills, lawn mowers and a pop machine. Working in conjunction with Wayne city officials, the volunteers have really improved the aesthetic of the river and helped change attitudes about the Rouge.

"Over the years, we have had hundreds of people come out and volunteer — from school children to seniors who remember playing in the Rouge when they were kids," said Kurt Kuban, who has helped coordinate Wayne's Rouge Rescue event since 2001. "People really care about the river and want to see it cleaned up. It's really encouraging to see all the hard work paying off."

In addition to cleaning up all the trash, the volunteers have also been busy opening up all the logjams in the Rouge River union organizing activities, which the library board denied.

"I think it's unfortunate (that the addition plans were dropped) but with the way the politics are now, it's probably a wise decision to back off building, although it's needed," Westland City Council President James Godbout said. "Rather than keeping the money (from the millage), the library is doing the right thing and reducing the millage."

While the library board, appointed by the mayor and confirmed by council, approves the operating budget, council approval of the bonding that was expected for the expansion was not likely, Godbout said.

At a recent meeting the majority of council demanded the resignation of Library Director Sheila Collins and removal of the library board members. In response, the library board recently hired an attorney to represent the library instead of the city attorney.

The five-member board had been short one member. The two most recent appointees to the board, Bob Johnson and Delano Hornbuckle, both recently resigned leaving only Neal and Antoinette Martin as board members.

Westland Mayor William Wild couldn't be reached for comment.

Art program students create mural

Wayne-Westland Community Schools offers a variety of fine arts classes. Over 100 students in the multicultural art classes at Stevenson Middle School made a mural using the zentangle method.

Tracy Cosgrove, art teacher at Stevenson, said zentangle is the art of using purposeful lines. The method creates abstract images from repetitive patterns.

Students created their designs on 3.5-inch square tiles. Together the tiles created a 4x5 mural that shows a student's hands making a heart shape. The mural is hanging in the cafeteria.

Cosgrove makes a mural every year with her art students.

Brooklyn Betke, Mackenzie Adamczak and Kennedy Parker are three of the Stevenson students who created tiles for the mural.

John Montes and Richard Drennan who won first place in the championship. Konopka took sixth place and Montes took 10th place.

Team Wayne-Westland took second place overall in the team event.

Drennan will participate the State Driving Championship on June 10 in Mason. Konopka will serve as an alternate driver in case one of the top-five winning drivers cannot compete in the state competition.

Bus drivers from around Wayne County region (11) participated in a variety of events to showcase their skills as a school bus driver. The events include two written exams. The first test is on overall transportation/law knowledge and the second test is on vehicle inspection. Then they drive on a closed skills course with 12 events. These events included parallel parking, diminishing clearance and a serpentine course. The top placing drivers go on to the State Bus Roadeo.

through Wayne so the river can be used for canoeing and kayaking. City officials jumped on board, applying for a couple grants in recent years to help make this recreation opportunity a reality.

First, the city received a million dollar federal grant through the Great Lakes Restoration Initiative to remove the obsolete Wayne Road dam, which impeded passage of both canoes and spawning fish. The project was completed in 2012. The city also received a grant from Wayne County to build a canoe/kayak launch at Goudy Park. The project was completed last year. The Goudy Park launch is now even listed on the Michigan Water Trails website at www.michiganwatertrails.org/location.asp?ait=av&aid=5010.

There is still "plenty of work to do to make the Rouge River a sustainable source of recreation in our community," Kuban said. And the upcoming Rouge Rescue event on Saturday, June 10, will be an opportunity for local residents to lend a hand.

The event will take place at Wayne's Goudy Park. Not only is the launch located there, but there is also a trail and benches situated along the river where anglers can wet a line or people can just sit back and enjoy a great natural setting that is in the heart of downtown Wayne.

Volunteers are needed to pick up trash in and along the river from Goudy Park and the nearby Mill Trail/Dynamite Park areas as well as maintain trails and clean up/refinish some of the benches along the river. Some volunteers will also be in the river opening up logjams for canoeing. So there really will be something to do for people of all physical abilities.

Rouge Rescue T-shirts and work gloves will be provided to all volunteers. There will be refreshments. Sign-up begins at 9 a.m., and work will take place from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

"This is a great event for Scout groups and students who are looking to complete public service projects. Rouge Rescue is great if you are looking for a way to help improve the community," Kuban said. "So come out and give a hand. The Rouge River needs you."

Police: Woman robbed bank, bought crab legs

hometownlife.com

Livonia police say a Detroit woman facing a bank robbery charge spent money she robbed from a bank on items such as Air Jordan shoes, crab legs and paying off a delinquent car loan.

Police say Chloe Adams, 25, of Detroit was arrested and charged with bank robbery after they say she robbed a Livonia bank last month.

Police contend Adams entered the Citizens Bank at 28999 Five Mile, east of Middlebelt, at about 11:30 a.m. May 27. Police say she entered the lobby at first, but left when she saw other people in the lobby. She came back in and went to a teller, police say, and passed a note to them that demanded money or "things would get bloody." Police say she left the bank with an undisclosed amount of cash.

After an investigation, Livonia police were able to identify the suspect as Adams and arrested her at her Detroit residence May 30. Police located other evidence connecting her to the robbery at her home.

She was questioned by police, and told them what she had spent the money on, including a trip to Chicago and a weekend barbecue.

Adams was arraigned June 1 in Livonia's 16th District Court with one count of bank robbery. She was given a $1 million cash or surety bond, and is scheduled to return to court June 8 for a probable cause conference. A preliminary examination is scheduled to take place June 15.

If convicted, she faces up to life in prison.

LIVONIA POLICE BRIEFS

Wrench, cookies taken from store

Livonia police were called May 31 to Menards, 12701 Middlebelt, on the report of retail fraud suspects who had fled the store.

Police were able to locate the suspect vehicle driving on Middlebelt. They pulled it over and detained the passengers. Police also went to the store and spoke to an employee, who said two suspects were seen entering the store that morning. The employee said once was seen going to the tool area and concealing a screwdriver and a wrench. A suspect was later seen approaching a cookie display and concealing a package of cookies in their coat. They allegedly tried to leave without paying but were stopped by an employee. They then allegedly fled the store. Both suspects in the vehicle were arrested and taken to the police station for processing.

Fraud reported

A resident in the 32800 block of Curtis came to the police station June 1 to report someone used her information to file unemployment benefits.

She received an email from her office's human resources department regarding unemployment benefits. She said someone collected two months of benefits under her name. She said she had not filed for unemployment and that someone was using her info without her permission.

Wheels, tires taken

Police were called May 31 to a residence in the 18500 block of Loveland on the report of stolen wheels and tires.

When police arrived, they saw the vehicle missing all four wheels and resting on landscaping blocks. The husband of the vehicle's owner said his wife left the car in the driveway the night before intact. When she came out the next morning, she found the wheels had been taken.

Larceny from auto

Police were dispatched May 31 to a residence in the 33400 block of Vargo on the report of wheels and tires taken from multiple vehicles.

The victim said his son came home the night before and the vehicles were intact. The next morning, the resident came outside and found the wheels missing on both vehicles.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Protect our resources

Based on what I read in recent articles on the Trump administrations budget cuts, I am deeply concerned about what the proposed Trump budget would mean for clean water here in Michigan.

The Great Lakes are vital to our ecology, our health and our way of life here in Michigan. Federal EPA funding has been critical in helping the Great Lakes address major challenges — including the Asian Carp threat and algal blooms. Yet, the Trump administration's budget would drastically cut funding to address these problems, and would mean less environmental cops on the beat to go after polluters.

The budget virtually eliminates funding for the Great Lakes restoration which is vital in maintaining our clean water.

Senators Peters and Stabenow should reject this budget. The Great Lakes comes in dead last in this so-called "America First" budget. Let's get a budget that helps us secure clean water for all Michiganders.

Sincerely,
Misbah Arshad

Keep pension plan as is

An open letter to my state legislators.

A vote for HB 4647 and/or SB 401 would be both a mistake and a breach of faith. For decades the negotiated pay package accepted by teachers included the retirement benefits. The pension is a result of contracts negotiated and signed. This pension is not an entitlement program. It's deferred wages that have been earned.

Now, through fiscal irresponsibility that pension fund is seriously underfunded. Now, the Republican party in Michigan is actively attacking the fund on two fronts. First, by trying to find a way to pass a further tax cut, which the state cannot afford. Second, the passage of these bills would eliminate the only remaining source of revenue for the pension fund.

The state needs revenue to fund its responsibilities. The Legislature needs to fulfill its oath of office and find the money to fulfill this obligation. Even if it means raising taxes.

Presidential support

While President Donald Trump is far from perfect, the nonstop attacks by the left-wing main-stream media, regardless of what he does, are largely unfair. According to a recent Harvard study, 80 percent of the daily reports on Trump by the main-stream media are negative (93 percent negative on CNN and NBC). This is nothing more than a propaganda campaign, mostly devoid of facts.

Here are some positive facts that hopefully will provide a more balanced perspective.

It was Trump who finally had the courage to authorize a missile attack against Syria's use of chemical weapons on innocent civilians (unlike President Barack Obama, who drew red lines but did nothing). It is Trump who is leading a worldwide war against radical Islamic terrorists, including a thoughtful but direct speech to the major Muslim leaders.

It is Trump who is reversing the tsunami of heavy-handed government regulations and endless intrusion by the Obama administration into our daily lives. He has initiated actions to boost our nation's economy for everyone, rebuild our weakened military, secure our borders, deport illegal alien convicted criminals and restore the enforcement of our laws in order to keep our citizens safe and allow them to pursue their individual dreams. Hal-lelujah!

Trump has appointed a top-notch cabinet and an outstanding pro-life judge, Neil Gorsuch, to the Supreme Court.

In addition, lots of new jobs are on the way, based on recent major corporate announcements. Do not believe the negative media propaganda campaign.

Hire private companies

In a recent Northville Record, Matt Jachman reported on some paving coming in July to the Northville area namely Beck Road and Northville roads.

I am objecting to the county crews paving these two projects in the Northville area, the objection is not the actual paving, but the work being done by county DPS forces.

I don't know why the county continues to insist on doing these jobs that should be performed by private industry. There are plenty of available private MDOT and Wayne county prequalified contractors able to perform this work. This work should be performed by contractors who have the experience and skills honed by doing this work every day of the paving season.

The private contractors also have to pay sales and use taxes (and other taxes) on their materials, equipment and profits and still remain in the very competitive construction and paving market. I object to the county forces paving these roads in competition with the private industry. Private industry should not have to compete with government organizations. I suspect the quality will suffer.

Why does the pavement on Beck Road have poor ride quality? It was also paved by Wayne DPS forces approximately 20 years ago.

Make it six straight districts for Spartans

State-ranked Stevenson stops Farmington in district final

Marty Budner

It was a good day for Livonia Stevenson's state-ranked baseball team.

The Spartans defeated host Farmington, 4-2, to capture their sixth straight Division 1 district championship Saturday afternoon. The result gave No. 6 Stevenson its 31st victory of the season, which set a school record.

"Six is the highest we've been (ranked this year) and 31 is the most wins we've ever had in a season," veteran Stevenson head coach Rick Berryman said. "I'm excited. For an old guy like me, that's an accomplishment."

"We don't look at it has having any pressure on us. We talk about it and our philosophy is we just approach it as a game. We don't get too high or too low. We do a lot of focusing on the next pitch. That's been our philosophy all year."

Stevenson, which opened with a 14-0 mercy-rule win over North Farmington in the district semifinal, would score all the runs it would need against the Falcons in a wild three-run

After tough loss in 2016 district final, Franklin savors taste of victory

Tim Smith

Last year's tough loss to Garden City in the district baseball final still resonated around Livonia Franklin's baseball field throughout the week leading up to Saturday's Division 1 districts at Dearborn.

Patriots head coach Matt Fournier said some of the 2016 grads came back and gave a bit of a pep talk to the 2017 seniors.

Their message was do whatever it takes not to face that same heartbreak, both on the baseball diamond and at that night's graduation ceremonies (held without fail the same night as districts each season).

"We had a couple of them that talked to the kids over the

Eight straight district titles for Garden City

Hall of Fame coach Barry Patterson knows a good high school softball team when he sees it. And his Garden City squad is meeting his lofty standard, winning Saturday's Division 1 district title 8-0 over Livonia Churchill.

With the victory at Dearborn, the Cougars made it eight consecutive district championships.

"We are playing solid 'D,' not walking any hitters, getting bunts down and some timely hitting as well," Patterson said. "It feels as though we are playing all facets of the game well and peaking at the right time. I was a great team effort and team win."

Garden City, also the Western Wayne Athletic Conference champions, improved to 26-12 overall and will move on to face Monroe at the Grosse Pointe South-hosted regional. The game is set for noon.

Earning the shutout win over Churchill was April Rudolph, who gave up six hits and struck out five. But Patterson said she had early adversity to overcome when Chargers leadoff hitter Brooke Hanson singled and wound up at third after the ball got past an outfielder.

"April Rudolph then retired the next three hitters in order stranding the runner at third," Patterson said. "I felt that was a really big early

GIRLS SOCCER

Stevenson falls to Novi in district final

First-half penalty kick proves costly for Spartans

Brad Emons
hometownlife.com

You can't give the Novi girls soccer team an inch because it'll take that extra mile.

The Wildcats parlayed a penalty kick with no time left in the first half to break a scoreless deadlock and followed with three straight second-half goals en route to a 4-1 win Saturday over Livonia Stevenson in the MHSAA Division I district final at Northville's Tom Holzer Field.

With the victory, the Wildcats (13-5-2) moved into the regional semifinals, scheduled for Wednesday at Dearborn High against Plymouth (15-3-1) in a rematch of the KLAA Kensington Conference championship. Novi won the first game, 2-0.

"We came out a little hesitant the first half, kind of played a little cautious," Novi coach Todd Pheiffer said of the third meeting this season against the Spartans (17-2-4). "We settled down and started actually possessing our game of soccer, possession and building it up. About the last five minutes of that first half, we started playing our kind of soccer and that's how we were able to get that corner kick."

Only 40 minutes had been played, but the turning point of the match occurred when Novi sophomore Julia Stadtherr converted a penalty kick against Stevenson goalie Haley Demers after a Spartans defender was flagged for a handball in the box with only one second left.

"When you play a team of the ability of Stevenson, which is a very good team, a lot of times it comes down to set pieces," Pheiffer said. "And I give our girls so much credit, because there was only 13 seconds when that ball went out. And Gracie (Backus), one of our captains, hustled over there, set the ball down and puts the ball into the box. If she doesn't do that with only 13 seconds, that PK never course of this week," Fournier said. "They talked about how sitting through graduation after that tough loss was a very difficult for them to do last year, and they could not let that repeat.

"I think this year's group took that to heart, to try and finish up what the last two groups couldn't quite do."

Behind one of this year's seniors, pitcher Kolby Dewhirst, the Patriots went to graduation a very happy bunch having defeated Livonia Churchill 2-0.

It marked Franklin's first district title since 2008.

"Obviously, from the get-go, as soon as our season ended last year ... it was the goal that this group has been out to get," Fournier said. "We were able to accomplish that yesterday with two shutouts."

Pitcher's duel

The hard-luck loser for the Chargers was sophomore southpaw Drew Alsobrooks.

"We knew it was going to be a low-scoring game because both kids throw well," said Fournier, whose 26-14 team will face Detroit Western 10 a.m. Saturday at the Grosse Pointe South regional. "Kolby being a senior and Drew a seasoned sophomore ... he's good now, but he's going to be very, very good in the future."

Dewhirst gave up just five hits (two each by Noah Cross and Connor Burnette) and two walks while striking out seven in a complete-game performance.

Alsobrooks allowed just two runs and three hits in five innings of work before Luke Jaroszewicz finished the final two frames.

The Patriots got on the board in the second inning. Jon Montie doubled, and came around to score following two wild pitches.

Franklin upped the lead in the third. Ryan Celmer singled with two out and scored on Harrison Merrill's clutch base hit.

But Fournier and the Pats had some anxious moments before it was over. With two on and two out in the seventh, Brandon Lowry hit a sharp ball that Dewhirst had to snag quickly and throw to first for the final out.

"He hit it hard," Fournier said. "If it's two feet to the right or left it's up the middle and at least one run scores. But it was right at Kolby."

Make it quick

And finally, the Patriots were district champions. But due to graduation at USA Hockey Arena, the victory celebration had to be short and sweet.

"They presented us with the trophy, we talked very briefly and let parents and seniors take pictures with the trophy," Fournier said. "We had to get them out of there. We told them whatever you need for graduation keep it in your car.

"It's a cool thing for the kids when we do win it to have the opportunity to go right to graduation. That made yesterday a very special day for a lot of those seniors."

In the earlier district semifinals, both Franklin and Churchill enjoyed lopsided victories.

Franklin cruised to an 11-0 five-inning win over Dearborn Heights Crestwood, behind Celmer's shutout pitching.

Franklin had their hitting shoes on from the get-go.

"We had a bunch of key contributors that got hits in that one," Fournier said. "Jon Montie had a double, Ryan Celmer had a double, Ben Raisch, Colin Metzler and Cal Fournier all had (RBI) triples."

The Chargers rolled to an 8-0 win over Dearborn. Going the distance and giving up just three hits and two walks was Madonna University commit Joe Wozniak.

Collecting two hits and two RBIs each for Churchill were Wozniak and Lowry. Noah Cross doubled to clear the bases in the first inning to set the tone.

And the Patriots now will look to make it past the next postseason hurdle.

"We have 16 on the varsity roster, seems like every single game I only had 13 or 14 kids ready to play," Fournier said. "We are finally — knock on wood — healthy."

"Whatever happens next weekend, we're going to go out and compete. It's a very good region that we're going to. No matter what happens, three out of four are going to go home sad.

"But it gives us another week to enjoy these kids, because they are good kids and we as coaches enjoy being around them."

momentum shift in the game."

The Cougars then went to work offensively, with three runs in the fourth fueled by Alicia Ascencio's leadoff triple.

Sparking the cause for Garden City were Ascencio (2-for-2), Shelby Casey (2-for-4) and Natalie Billings (2-for-4).

In the district semifinals, Garden City only needed three innings to take care of Dearborn Heights Crestwood, winning 15-0.

Pitching a 3-hit shutout was Aubrey Boston; leading the offense were Ascencio (3-for-3), Casey (2-for-2) and Alissa Turnbull (2-for-2).

"Aubrey Boston pitched a solid game for us allowing April Rudolph to rest for the championship game," Patterson said. "We hit the ball very well top to bottom and didn't allow a run for the second straight game."

happens."

The Wildcats used their halftime talk to get re-focused and re-energized.

Novi then struck twice during the first 10 minutes of the second half to build a 3-0 advantage, as senior forward Annie Fisher scored on back-to-back goals from fellow senior forward Bailey Baumbick with 37:17 and 31:04 remaining.

Novi's Laine Fenchel, a junior forward, then put the game out of reach on a goal with 19:49 to go, off an assist from sophomore defender Riley Balconi, to make it 4-0.

"All four of our goals came as a result of corner kicks," Phieffer said. "And we worked on that yesterday. We talked about as you get further and further in the tournament, you're going to keep playing teams that are just as good, if not better than you and a lot of times it comes down to we're not going to get the opportunities like we had against (Walled Lake) Western, not going to get the opportunities like we did against South Lyon. We knew that today, so it was important to take advantage of the opportunities when they were there."

With 9:25 left, Stevenson freshman Abby Werthman scored from fellow freshman Meredith Hage to avert the shutout, but it was too little, too late.

The first-half PK by Stadtherr seemed to deflate the Spartans.

"It's a game-changing moment and there's nothing else you could say about it other than it changed our complete vibe at halftime and how the second half went," Stevenson coach Ken Shingledecker said. "There was no way to get it back. It just crushed us."

The Spartans, who lost one of their key players (Megan Verant) to a knee injury midway through the season, were also missing top scorer Audrey Kopitz (25 goals, 15 assists). The junior forward went down with a knee injury May 31 in Stevenson's 2-1 marathon 14-round shootout victory over host Northville.

Both of Stevenson's defeats this season came against the Wildcats, who hope to make another run to the final four.

"Seventeen wins and two losses ... a lot of people would like to have that," Shingledecker said. "But I'm super-proud of the players. The girls are a great group. But it's a little bit of what if and what it might have been. It feels a little unfinished and it's a bummer. The kids put in the work during the off-season and you hope you're going to get a fair chance winning the whole thing and it never really happened."

Clarenceville seizes first district since 2000

Trojans rally from 4-run deficit to beat Panthers for title

Brad Emons
hometownlife.com

The last time Livonia Clarenceville captured a baseball district title was just after the first year of the new millennium.

It was 2000 to be exact and the Trojans find themselves back in the winner's circle after rallying from a four-run deficit Saturday at home to beat Redford Union, 5-4, for the MHSAA Division 2-District 58 crown.

RU had swept Clarenceville earlier in the season in a double-header, but the Trojans pulled off a stirring comeback that coach Craig Cotter described as "unforgettable."

Down 4-0, freshman Tavian Cruz hit a two-run homer in the fifth inning on a blast that cleared the 360-foot sign in right-center field by 20 feet to cut the deficit to 4-2.

Clarenceville then went ahead for keeps scoring three times in the sixth on a one-out, two-run bases loaded double by Cruz, who just missed hitting the top of the fence on the fly while missing a grand slam by inches.

The Trojans' Zack Richards and Matt Drain then executed a perfect suicide squeeze bunt for the go-ahead run.

Clarenceville, which also captured their first league title in 23 years this spring, improved to 14-11 overall.

"At the beginning of the year we set two goals, win the league and win the district," Cotter said. "We were fortunate enough to do both."

Clarenceville starting pitcher Logan Calimazzo, a junior, allowed four runs in 3 2/3 innings before giving way to reliever Nick Bisaro, who ended an RU threat with runners on second and third in the fourth inning with a pivotal strikeout.

"Logan pitched better than the numbers indicated, just had a little problem finding the strike zone consistently and falling behind on batters," Cotter said.

Bisaro then no-hit the Panthers the rest of the way to earn the victory.

The game ended when RU's Tyler Collard, the losing pitcher, bounced out to Bisaro. The two are best friends and play on the same summer league team, according to Cotter.

"Redford Union is only two miles away from Clarenceville and the players on both teams know each other well and played little league together growing up," Cotter said.

It was also the Trojans' first win over RU in five years.

Afterward, RU coach Bob Miller Jr. wished the Trojans the best as they advance to the D2 regional semifinals against Hazel Park beginning at noon

Saturday, June 10 at Madonna University's Ilitch Ballpark

"Clarenceville played a great game and is a deserving champion," Miller Jr. said. "I spoke to the Clarenceville team after and told them congrats and that they beat a good team. They were surprised to see me walk over, as were the coaches. RU stands for class, fair competition and no excuses."

Meanwhile, the feeling was mutual for Cotter.

"I have gone up against Bob in CYO (Catholic Youth Organization) even before he took over the Redford Union job and never beat him," Cotter said. "Coach Miller is a class act, He came over after the game and personally congratulated our boys on the win."

Both teams cruised in the district semifinals earlier in the day as Clarenceville defeated Detroit Mumford, 15-0, scoring five times in the first, six in the second and four in the third to win on a three inning run-rule.

Senior Bobby Jaber pitched two no-hit innings, while Richards threw a scoreless third.

Offensively, Jaber doubled twice, scored three runs and had three RBIs, while Justin Kelley Kam MacIver and Cruz each contributed multiple hits.

"Our boys worked hard all year, very rarely if ever missed practice and came together as a tight unit the last two weeks of the season with laser focus," said Cotter, whose team captured the Red Division of the Western Wayne Athletic Conference this year with a 9-1 record.

In the other district semifinal, RU ousted Detroit Communicate & Media Arts, 11-0, in five innings.

The Panthers finished the year with an 18-9 overall record.

"We won 18 games this year and I'm very proud of my young men," Miller said. "Most are in the honor roll, and coming from six wins last year is a great achievement. All have a plan for next year, too. I'm sorry to see the season end, but could not be more proud of my team and coaches."

first inning when it took advantage of four walks and a pair of hits.

Chris Tanderys, Dan Bos and Bobby Cavin walked to load the bases. One run scored on an fielder's choice and the other two runs came home on a single by Josh Marquedant and a bases-loaded walk to Danny Morris.

Farmington gradually pecked away at the lead, scoring single runs in the second and fourth to make it 3-2.

After base hits by Devin Mahanti and Scott Newhard, Collin Finn's sacrifice fly produced the first Falcons run. Two innings later, base hits by Jack Politowicz, Newhard and Alex Magrum brought home the second run.

Stevenson scored its final run in the bottom of the fourth. Parker Graham and Tanderys smacked consecutive base hits, which put runners on the corners with no outs. Graham eventually came home on a balk.

Farmington had opportunities early, putting runners on base in each of the first four innings against Stevenson starter George Ferguson. However, the Falcons had two runners thrown out on the bases during that time which stalled rallies, including a pick-off at first base when Stevenson catcher Cavin's quick toss down to first baseman Mark Pettersson resulted in the final out of the fourth inning.

Ferguson, a junior southpaw, got the win, allowing six hits in five innings. Stevenson's ace, Oakland University-bound senior Branden Posky, who started against North Farmington but still had plenty of pitches left, came on to shut down the Falcons with just one hit over the final two innings.

The Falcons had a pair of bases runners in their last at-bat, when Finn worked his way on with a one-out walk and pinch hitter Steven Flowers got on with a swinging bunt. However, Posky struck out Matt Lane for the final out.

Farmington outhit Stevenson in the game, 7-6.

"I thought we had a good chance to beat them. If North Farmington could have given them a little bit more of a game in game one, then maybe Posky doesn't go to the hill," Finn said. "I thought we were starting to dial in on Ferguson, who's a good pitcher, but I thought we were close to getting him."

Berryman was proud of the effort his team gave to keep its string of district titles intact.

"It was team effort all the way. Obviously, we had good pitching," Berryman said. "We were lucky to get a lead and save our number one pitcher to close the second game. I was very pleased with the effort as a group."

"The big play is we picked a runner off of first base (in the third inning). We work very hard. We bunt," he added. "We get the bunt down, which creates situations. I'm proud of the little things that they do. It's things that people don't notice, but that we've been successful with all year."

Stevenson now advances to the Division 1 regional June 10 hosted by Novi High School. The Spartans will play at 12:30 p.m. in a semifinal rematch against Hartland. The Spartans were eliminated by the Eagles in last year's regional, 11-0.

In fact, while Stevenson has won six straight districts, it has lost five straight times in the regional semifinal. Stevenson's last regional win came in 2012, when it won the championship before falling to Saline, 5-1, in the state quarterfinal round.

"We're excited to go there and play," Berrymyman said. "That's it."

Farmington opened the district with a 6-3 victory over Farmington Harrison. The Falcons finished the season with a 24-14 record.

The Falcons senior class finished with 73 wins over a three-year period, tied for the second-most wins in program history. The three-year record is 77. This year's senior class consisted of Artie Bentley, Elliot Edsall, Finn, Lane, Magrum, Newhard, Politowicz, Rushil Putumbaka and Brian Turske.

BOYS LACROSSE

Catholic Central books another final four berth

Brad Emons
hometownlife.com

There was no letdown for Novi Detroit Catholic Central's lacrosse team during Friday's MHSAA Division 1 state quarterfinal.

After an emotional and hard-fought 13-10 regional final victory May 31 over rival Northville, the Shamrocks dismantled Troy Athens in a precision-like manner, 14-5, at Birmingham Seaholm.

Junior attack Peter Thompson, who went pointless in the previous match, pumped in four goals and added two assists as the Shamrocks improved to 14-5 while earning their fourth straight trip to the state semifinals.

After nearly squandering a 9-3 halftime lead against Northville, the Shamrocks built a 10-1 advantage at intermission against Athens (13-5) and increased their lead to 13-2 after three quarters before coach Dave Wilson emptied his bench in the fourth.

"Having the ball is a great thing, isn't it?" Wilson said. "You dictate the tempo of the game and, of course, (Jeff) Lining is a threat, so when he doesn't have the ball, it's good for us. It worked out that we were scoring and keeping it away from a very dangerous weapon."

Athens went 25 minutes, 19 seconds without scoring until Andy Filips broke through with a goal late in the third quarter to make it 13-2.

"Yesterday in practice, we were really trying to make sure we were moving off the ball," Thompson said. "When other guys are moving off ball, it makes it easier on you to either pass or score. We did a really good job as a collective team instead of just one guy."

One of Thompson's goals was a nifty behind-the-back effort off a feed from senior Nick Capatina.

"I think a lot of it had to do with the fact the other night we were just kind of stagnate as a team and we tried to play, like, hero ball and not really together," said Thompson, a junior captain. "We let Northville be in the game and they did a good job stopping us. I just think we were kind of watching each other. That was probably the biggest problem in the offense last game, so it was probably good that I didn't score."

Six different players scored for the Shamrocks, including freshman Ryan Sullivan, who finished with three goals. Adding two apiece were senior Brennan Kamish, sophomore Joey Kamish and Capatina, while Ethan Pattinson had the other.

"Northville is really close to CC, so I think we kind of got a little hyped up or nervous," Thompson said. "I just think letting the game come to you was one of our main points. It was great team win and we, obviously, played a lot better than we did (May 31)."

Also adding assists for CC were Mike Molchan, Patrick Brandemuhl and Liam Cunningham.

"The great thing we have, if you check our score book, we consistently have six guys that are chipping in at least one or two goals," Wilson said. "It was a quiet four for Pete, but It's good for him to be on the board."

Senior goalie Hunter Braun also played a pivotal role, making nine saves while allowing just two goals before backup Zack Downey finished in the final quarter.

Athens got a pair of goals from Thomas Kennedy, while Zack Spinek, Tyler Nelson and Filips added one apiece.

The Shamrocks, who have been state runners-up three straight years, were scheduled to face unbeaten Hartland (21-0) in the state semifinals Wednesday at Troy Athens.

D1 BASEBALL DISTRICTS

BATTLE TO THE FINISH

Plymouth survives white-knuckle ride in district final against Canton

hometownlife.com

Saturday's Grand Prix on Belle Isle in Detroit had nothing on the wild, crazy ride that was the Division 1 baseball district final between red-hot Canton and Plymouth.

There were plenty of twists, turns and "wow" moments — such as fence-clearing blasts by Plymouth sophomore Anthony Sharkas and Canton sophomore Aaron Dolney — not to forget about a homer by the Wildcats' Chase Every.

But it was the pesky Wildcats to win 7-6 in eight innings, snapping Canton's 24-game winning streak and moving on to the D1 regional next weekend at Dearborn Edsel Ford.

After a two-out single by Kyle Aniol scored Logan Dziadzio with the lead run, Plymouth senior lefty (and winning pitcher) Josh Janovsky had to escape a bases-loaded jam with only one out in the bottom of the eighth.

He went to 3-0 against Jake Dattilio and was one errant pitch away from walking in the tying run.

Catcher Zach Beadle went out to settle Janovsky, however, and the pitcher came back to get Dattilio out on a pop-up and then struck out Joe Vespaziani for the final out.

"I had Zach and Laco (Brenden Lacorato) come out to the mound, they calmed me down, they're the team captains," Janovsky said. "They've been leading this from the beginning and they just told me 'Josh, it's going to be all right, you can do it.'"

"And so I went back out there, and just like they said, we got it done."

The Chiefs were still sitting in disbelief following the district trophy presentation, their season over instead of moving on to the next round.

"We definitely feel if we could play a couple more games we would beat them, for sure," said Canton senior catcher Justin Mattson, who temporarily kept the game tied earlier in the top of the eighth when he tagged a runner trying to score. "I love these boys, the way we come together. There's not one person that's not crying."

The Chiefs were one out away from getting out of the jam. Then came a balk against relief pitcher Aaron Dolney which set the table for Aniol's winning hit.

"He (umpire) said he (Dolney) turned his shoulders, that he wasn't set yet," Mattson said.

Just crazy

Plymouth head coach Jason Crain was able to laugh after the crazy ending, although he said Janovsky "was trying to give me a heart attack, he doesn't know how old I am. We were at Grosse Pointe last weekend in the exact same situation. Obviously not the same gravity of game, but bases loaded. We were up 2-1 in that game, and he struck the kid out after being down 3-0."

"So I have all the confidence in the world in that kid. He's been with us for four years, he's got ice water in his veins and I'll trust him with the ball any time."

Crain praised the Mark Blomshield-coached Chiefs, who finished with a 33-6 record and KLAAs championship to their credit.

"Canton's a very good team, they're on quite a streak," Crain said. "They're playing great baseball and unfortunately for them, we came up on the better side."

"But they played a great game, a lot of clutch hits on both sides. We had a couple gap shots, one down the line, a few homer runs. If the game kept going who knows how it would have ended up. But I'm glad it ended up where it did."

It was a back-and-forth tussle throughout, with the Chiefs breaking out to a quick 3-0 lead in the first on a three-run double by Dolney — who knocked in five runs, the final two on a moon shot over the right field fence in the fourth to at that point give Canton a 5-3 lead.

The Dolney blast came right after Sharkas connected on a two-run roundtripper to left off Canton junior starting pitcher Seth Marano, which at the time made it a 3-3 contest.

"He (Sharkas) came up half-way through the year, he was playing JV to start the year, and he's stepped in and been incredible," Crain said. "He's been a great asset to our team."

Back and forth

Yet there was plenty more drama to come.

Plymouth (26-14) got to within 5-4 when Avery laced a homer to left off Marano to open the sixth. Blomshield then brought in senior sidearmer Tyler Newsom, although the Wildcats didn't waste time getting to him, either.

Lining a single was Dziadzio (who had three hits in the game) but Newsom struck out the next two batters. Dziadzio went to third on a double by Max Marco and Nik Patel walked to load the bases.

That brought up the hard-hitting Jacob MacBrien who did nothing but hit all day. He had four hits in Plymouth's 10-0 rout of Westland John Glenn and he doubled to left to score two runs and put the Wildcats up 6-5.

Canton showed its championship mettle by coming back to tie the game in the bottom of the frame against Janovsky (who relieved starter Evan Good in the fifth).

A.J. Brazelton's single and bad-luck error against left-fielder Sharkas was enough to plate senior Justin Dolney (who singled) with the equalizer.

Had no doubts

Sharkas atoned for the miscue on the next batter. With Brazelton on second, Ryan Cassidy laced a ball that looked certain to split the gap, but Sharkas flagged it down with a nifty running catch.

The seventh gave fans a respite, as both teams went down 1-2-3.

All that did was get them ready for the frantic finish. One player who remained calm through it all was junior catcher Beadle.

"I told him (Janovsky) there was not another pitcher in the KLAAs that I would have wanted on the mound at that time," Beadle said. "He's a senior, he's been there before and he was perfect for the job."

"I had no questions he was going to get the job done."

PLYMOUTH 10, JOHN GLENN 0 (5 INNINGS): Taking advantage of errors, Plymouth scored runs in every inning to win this Division 1 baseball district contest.

Jacob MacBrien was the big gun for the Wildcats, going 4-for-4 with four runs batted in.

Plymouth got off to a fast 2-0 start against Rockets junior pitcher Brian Martin when Logan Dziadzio singled to left to plate Nik Patel (2-for-4) and Evan Good (2-for-3) in the bottom of the first.

MacBrien singled to score Patel in the second and Anthony Sharkas ripped an RBI single in the third to open up a 5-0 edge.

The Wildcats finished the mercy win with two more runs in the fourth and three in the fifth, with another MacBrien hit (this time a double) scoring two. The 10th run of the game came home on a Good double, a fly ball that the left fielder just missed making a spectacular diving catch on.

Earning the win for Plymouth was starting pitcher Brenden Lacorato, who went all five innings.

CANTON 4, WAYNE 0: The Chiefs opened Saturday's Division 1 baseball district at Salem with a shutout of the Zebras.

Canton senior starting pitcher Dean Dawson went the first six innings for the win, with senior Turner Donlin pitching the seventh for the save.

After scoring a run in the first, the Chiefs added two in the second to go up 3-0 against Wayne sophomore pitcher Malik Lewis, who deserved a better fate.

Singles by Justin Dolney and Aaron Dolney opened the frame, with an error on the latter enabling a run to score. A squeeze bunt by Cole Skasigir resulted in another run.

In the third, Aaron Dolney singled to score Ben Spencer (who walked).

Some good defense by the Zebras kept the game relatively close. In the sixth, Wayne catcher Justin Johnson gunned down a runner trying to steal third and the inning ended on a diving catch by junior center-fielder Jalen Adams.

D1 BOYS TRACK AND FIELD FINALS

Salem impresses on the big stage

Tim Smith
Hometownlife.com

Mason Phillips' first-place finish in the long jump at Saturday's MHSAA Division 1 boys track and field finals at East Kentwood sent a surge of confidence through the rest of Salem's lineup.

"We were really happy about it," Salem head coach Dale Maskill said. "We knew we had a good shot to score some points. When Mason won the long jump everybody just got really excited and it carried over into other events."

The Rocks made an impressive showing, tallying 26 points to finish fifth overall in the team standings. In first place with 78.50 points was East Kentwood.

Phillips set a new state meet record with his jump of 24 feet, 2.75 inches.

But the senior also was part of two other all-state performances (the top eight make the cut). In the 400-meter relay, Salem's quartet of senior VerShawn Patrick, Phillips, senior Trevor Nowaske and junior Andrew Davis placed fourth with a time of 42.53 seconds.

The 800-meter relay tandem of Patrick, Phillips, junior Sharriff Dyer and Davis placed seventh (1:27.81).

Other all-state performances were logged by Dyer in the 300 hurdles (third, 38.69, a Salem record) and Davis in the 100 dash (eighth, 10.99).

In the former event, Dyer nipped Canton senior Jemal Vaunado, also an all-stater with his fifth-place finish of 38.98. For Vaunado, it set a new school record.

Staying focused

Maskill said Phillips qualified for the finals in the long jump after going 23-5 during preliminaries. He then left to run the prelims in the 200, but although qualifying for that event seemed to have his mind on the long jump.

"He gave himself a little time to recover from the 200, and came back and it was a pretty good duel (with East Kentwood's Andre Welch)," Maskill said. "Mason's first jump back went 24-2 and three-quarters and (Welch) really didn't have an answer for him after that so it was very exciting."

"We needed a PR for him to win it. We were kind of nervous there, but he said 'Coach, I got it, I know I got it in me.'"

SALEM ATHLETICS

All season long, Canton's Jemal Vaunado (left) and Salem's Sharriff Dyer were neck-and-neck in the 300-meter hurdles. On Saturday, Dyer finished third at the Division 1 state meet while Vaunado placed fifth. Both earned all-state honors.

Nearly making all-state status was junior thrower Alex Howie. His mark of 50-7.25 in the shot put was ninth, just shy of the 50-11.25 turned in by eighth-place Max Godsil of Portage Central.

Another individual state champion from Plymouth-Canton Educational Park was Plymouth freshman Connor Bush. He won the high jump with a mark of 6-feet, 6-inches.

"Connor was actually calm and confident," Wildcats assistant coach Dean Clemons said. "I think from all his high level AAU basketball. He actually told me he thought he could win the night before."

Livonia Stevenson senior Ian Knoph also was an all-state finisher in the high jump. He placed eighth with a mark off 6-3.

In 16th place overall was Canton, sparked by Vaunado and senior pole vaulter Andrew Koenigsnecht (third with a mark of 14-9). In that same event, teammate Chuck Carey had a PR 13-0.

The Chiefs boasted an all-state quartet in the 1,600-relay as Dirk Thornhill, Caleb Moraw, Srikar Komanduri and Vaunado finished eighth with a time of 3:24.06.

Canton coach Jess Shough added that Vaunado was selected to represent Team Michigan June 10 in the Midwest Meet of Champions against Ohio and Indiana.

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
