Recycling success saves $1.5 million over eight years

LeAnne Rogers
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

It's been eight years since Westland kicked off its citywide curbside recycling program and the city reports saving $1.5 million over that time.

"The city made money in the beginning (selling recyclable materials). We don't get paid anymore, but recycling is still cheaper than the landfill (tipping fees)," Westland Mayor William Wild said.

When the curbside recycling program began, the city also provided an incentive program that is no longer offered. The participation in the single-stream recycling — that is, all materials accepted for recycling go into one wheeled cart — remains high.

Across Westland, there is a 78-percent participation rate as recycling is picked up curbside on a bi-weekly basis from 25,000 single-family homes. Over the course of eight years since the curbside recycling program started, Westland residents have recycled more than 5,100 tons — that's 10 million pounds annually.

"Westland's single-stream curbside recycling program has diverted over 80 million pounds of trash away from the landfill in the last eight years," Wild said. "The commodity markets have fluctuated over that time period, but the program continues to save Westland taxpayers money and helps the environment by lowering the city's carbon footprint."

The single-stream recycling accepts a range of paper products, including phone books, magazines, junk mail and glass. Metal accepted for recycling includes aluminum, steel and tin cans, but also metal kitchen cookwares and aerosol cans.

For some other items not accepted curbside, the Westland Department of Public Services Yard, 37137 Marquette,

Buddy Benches promote kindness and inclusion among students

Ten schools in the Wayne-Westland Community Schools district had Buddy Benches installed on their playgrounds this month.

School district officials point out that Buddy Benches are a "place for students to sit when they are looking for a friend." The benches, officials said, promote inclusion in play and are a way for "students to communicate they want a friend to play with during recess."

The rules are simple. If students see a classmate sitting on the Buddy Bench, they walk over and start a conversation and then ask them to play.

The goal of the Buddy Benches is to eliminate bullying and loneliness and encourage kindness and friendships on the playground and beyond.

These benches were made possible by a donation from resident Virginia Attwood. Benches were donated to Edison, Graham, Hicks, Roosevelt, Schweitzer, Taft, Walker-Winter and Wildwood elementary schools and Adams and Marshall upper elementary schools.

Wayne-Westland district officials say Buddy Benches like this one at Walker-Winter Elementary School are a place for kids to make friends. WAYNE-WESTLAND SCHOOLS

Family builds memories thanks to 'Family Feud' appearance

USA TODAY NETWORK —
MICHIGAN

Larry Wildt didn't want to do it.

When members of his family talked about auditioning for the nationally syndicated game show "Family Feud," Wildt was hesitant about being one of the five participating family members.

Funny how taking part in a memorable, bonding experience — not to mention winning more than $20,000 — can change your perspective.

Wildt and his sisters, Carol Bagdady of South Lyon and Bonnie Goodrich of Livonia, teamed with Wildt's daughter Becky and Goodrich's daughter Allie for the audition at Cobo Center, along with hundreds of other families, in November 2016.

After a second audition that day, the family was notified in December they were an "active" family. Show staffers worked with the family through the spring and the Wildt family flew to Atlanta for the taping during Mother's Day weekend.

"I never thought this would happen, so I agreed to be on the team," said the hesitant Wildt, also a South Lyon resident. "Then we made it through the auditions and I thought, 'Oh my God, we're here.'"

The siblings — Wildt, Bagdady and Goodrich — were part of the team from the beginning and they added the younger cousins to build their team of five.

But there was never much doubt about who would captain the squad: Goodrich.

"It was pretty easy that (Goodrich) was the captain," Bagdady said. "She's the oldest and she's the bubbliest. She's the bossy one."

The family spent an entire day in the Atlanta studio — the show has since moved to Los Angeles — taping their three shows. And although it went pretty well — Goodrich and Bagdady teamed to win the $20,000 fast-money segment on the first show — it wasn't about any money they won.

It was about the memorable experience they were having

"It was incredibly fun," Bagdady said. "We're a very close-knit family as it is and this bonded us even more. It was really nice to have the younger generation there, too."

The experience was packed full of memories and the questions provided several examples of what will surely be inside jokes for the family.

For instance, when it was Wildt's turn at the buzzer, the question was, "If I could come back in another life, I would want to be Steve Harvey's (blank)." Wildt got to the buzzer first and said, "wife."

While the answer drew roars from some 60 friends and family on hand Thursday for a family viewing party, Wildt attributed it to a story host Steve Harvey had told some 20 minutes earlier about a lavish trip to which he treated his wife. That part didn't make the airing.

And then there was Goodrich's Fast Money experience. Her first question was "Fill in the blank ... 'Pass the (blank).'" She hesitated and replied, "bacon," drawing chuckles from the host and more roars at the viewing party.

"I'm sure that will be the family joke from now on," Goodrich said. "(But) it's not as easy to come up with something when you're in the moment as it is when you're watching in your living room."

Everyone found the "Family Feud" staff "incredibly gracious" and agreed Harvey is a genuinely nice, funny guy.

"(Harvey) has a real talent for observing something about you and running with it," Bagdady said. "He's a very talented comedian."

Goodrich and Bagdady breezed through Fast Money on the first show. Goodrich went first and earned 130 points (it takes 200 points to win the $20,000), getting 49 of them by answering "apple pie" to the question "Name something you bake that makes the whole house smell good."

Bagdady put the pair over the top by answering "washcloth" to the question, "Name something adults take into the bathtub with them."

The family also reached Fast Money in their second show, though they couldn't come through with another $20,000. The Wildts lost in their third show.

"We wanted the family memory, something special as a time to be together," Goodrich said. "It's a memory of a lifetime."

"It was tremendous fun," Bagdady added. "We're very blessed to have the family we do."

Much of that family gathered at Bagdady's South Lyon home to watch the first show Nov. 8. Missing were Becky Wildt (she's a senior at Michigan State) and Allie Goodrich (Bonnie's daughter, who lives in Chicago). But viewing parties took place all over the country — in Washington, D.C., in Chicago, in the Upper Peninsula. Locally, Goodrich's colleagues at Dodson Elementary, where she teaches, hosted a party of their own.

The success didn't surprise Goodrich's friends.

"I know (Goodrich) is always exciting and animated," said Liz Niessen, a reading intervention teacher at Workman and Bird elementary schools. "I knew she was going to come up with good answers. She's always on top of things."

So with the experience behind them — the shows aired Nov. 8-10 — would the family's most hesitant team member do it again?

"Not that many families get a chance to do this," Larry Wildt said. "I would totally do it again in a second."

Head injuries from winter sports can be prevented

L.J. McCulloch
OUR MENTAL HEALTH

As a youngster growing up in northwest Detroit, wintertime had us building a skating rink. Donning the skates was followed by hours of care-free (or careless) fun. This inevitably led to hockey "pickup" games for the neighborhood, hosted in our own back yard. Our father would rig up a flood light so we could play outside into the night. When winter weather was too severe, we would take the competition indoors and, wearing roller skates, we would re-enact the then popular "Hockey Night in Canada." Hours were spent careening around the cement basement floor with occasional exclamations of "He shoots, he scores!"

The picture

What's wrong with this picture of our past? One thing is that it is amazing we survived, since we wore no helmets, no protective gear of any type and, if someone fell and hit their head, he would shake it off and resume play or go home crying. All the while, none of us knew just how dangerous our winter sport was. Miraculously, no one was seriously injured.

Our winter season is upon us. With it comes an increased participation in winter sports in throughout our communities.

With this participation comes an increased incidence of traumatic brain injuries. Outdoor winter sports include ice skating, sledding, snowmobiling, snowboarding, hockey and skiing. Indoor winter sports include basketball, volleyball and arena soccer. All of these have in common the increase in potential for heads hitting heads or hitting the ground.

In fact, an estimated one million children alone in this country sustain a traumatic brain injury each year. Every 23 seconds, a head injury occurs in the U.S. according to the Brain Injury Association of Michigan. The majority of these are closed head injuries, also called concussions.

Myths dispelled

It was previously thought that the head had to hit something for there to be a concussion-like injury. This myth has been proven wrong. A whiplash-like motion of the head can cause damage to the brain.

Also, a loss of consciousness is not necessary for the brain to be hurt. Technically, a disruption in consciousness, no matter how brief, such as mildly dazed to a full coma, constitutes concussion. And repeated concussions can have a cumulative effect, as often seen in boxing. We are also hearing more reports of professional hockey and football players sustaining concussions, retiring earlier and developing Alzheimer's-like disorders.

Resources

More resources than ever are now available for children, adults, parents, teachers and coaches to learn about these conditions and ways to remedy the consequences of such injuries.

In addition to the natural resource of brain healing, the likelihood of recovery can be increased by working with rehabilitation specialists. Some school districts are now having training for coaches about head trauma or partnering with local physical therapy companies to have a staff member game-side. Help is also available from the field of neuropsychology in making "return to play" decisions. The Brain Injury Association of Michigan is a leader in this area, you can go to its website at www.bia-mi.org.

Prevention

We need to devote more attention to prevention. It is estimated that 90 percent of concussions could be prevented if people took more precautions. In the final analysis, the greatest tool we have against traumatic brain injury is prevention. This is not to discourage participation in winter sports, but to encourage safe participation in all that we do.

So if you are thinking about flooding your backyard for unprotected, unsupervised winter hockey or re-enacting "Hockey Night in Canada" in roller skates on your cement basement floor, think again.

WESTLAND POLICE BRIEFS

License plate stolen

Police were called Oct. 30 to a home in the 1900 block of Cottrill Lane on the report of a stolen license plate.

The victim told police her plate was taken from her vehicle sometime overnight. She said it was on her car when she left the grocery store the previous evening.

Wallet taken from car

A resident who lives in the 6600 block of Lakeview Boulevard came into the Westland police station Nov. 1 on the report of his wallet being taken from his vehicle.

He said his car was parked in the lot at the address, but was not locked. He left his wallet on the front seat and realized it was stolen the day before. He canceled all the credit cards and has not detected any suspicious activity on them. No suspect information was available.

Attempted burglary

Police were dispatched Nov. 5 to a residence in the 600 block of Van Lawn Avenue after a resident reported someone had tried to break into her home.

When police arrived, they spoke to the resident and her sister, who was visiting. The resident said she was in a room on the east side of the residence and saw the suspect standing outside and looking into her home. She said she saw him run to the south side of the home and try to open the door, but it was locked. She said she then heard him running away, jumping over a chain fence, where he fled in an unknown direction. Police checked the area, but could not locate the suspect.

Vehicle strikes fence

Police were called Nov. 5 to a home in the 30000 block of Malvern on the report of some fencing being damaged.

The resident said the fence to his property was damaged sometime in the previous 24 hours. He said it appeared someone used a vehicle to strike the fence on the south side of his property. About 25 feet of chain link fence, along with fence poles and turf, was damaged.

Radio stolen from car at bowling alley

Police were dispatched Nov. 5 to Oak Lanes, 8450 N. Middlebelt, on the report of a larceny from a vehicle.

The victim said he parked his car in the lot and went inside the bowling alley. When he came out, he found a window smashed and the touchscreen control panel to his vehicle had been taken. No witnesses saw the incident, though bowling alley employees told police it is the third time such an incident had taken place at the business this month.

Four fun things happening around town this weekend

David Veselenak
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

So much to do, so little time to do it in.

Time to start getting those Christmas lights out and thinking about the holidays. Several events this weekend across Hometown Life communities will begin to celebrate the cold weather and the upcoming holidays.

Be sure to check out these four events happening in Wayne and Oakland counties this weekend.

Wayne County Lightfest kicks off

You've seen crews installing lights and displays along Hines Drive the past few months. Starting Thursday, those lights will be lit as the Wayne County Lightfest begins that night.

The annual tradition begins at 6 p.m. at Merri-man Hollow Park, located on Hines Drive just west of Merriman in Westland. Fireworks, entertainment and refreshments will be available to kick off the festivities. The Lightfest will then run 7-10 p.m. Monday through Friday and 6-10 p.m. each weekend through Dec. 30. It will be closed Christmas Day.

Santa Claus will also hold court at the end of Lightfest, in the Warrendale shelter at the end of the route. He'll be there from Nov. 17 through Dec. 23 to hear from children. The entrance to Lightfest is on Merriman, between Warren and Ann Arbor Trail. More information can be found on the Wayne County Parks and Recreation website.

Northville's Holiday Lighted Parade begins at 6:30 p.m. Friday. NORTHVILLE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Holiday Lighted Parade in Northville

One of the first parades celebrating the season will take place Friday night in Northville.

The Holiday Lighted Parade will begin at 6:30 p.m. behind the community center on Cady Street and will run north on Wing Street to Main, west on Main to Linden, north on Linden to Dunlap, east on Dunlap to Hutton, Hutton south to Main, west on Main to Center, south on Center to Cady and west on Cady to return to the Community Center.

It will feature floats, the Northville High School marching band and marchers decked out in festive lights and gear. Following the parade, the community sing-along will take place at the Town Square, led by Tina Genitti. After, Mayor Ken Roth and Citizen of the Year Chuck Lapham will greet Santa Claus and light the Town Square tree.

For more information, contact the Chamber of

The International Festival will feature Joyas de Mexico Ballet.

Commerce at northville.org or call 248-349-7640.

International Festival in Canton

If you're looking for a little culture this weekend, the Village Theater in Canton will be the place to be.

Canton's International Festival will take place from 11:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. Saturday at the theater, 50400 Cherry Hill. Come take in the sights and sounds from several countries, including China, India, Ireland, Italy and Mexico, plus Native American cultures. Sweets from various vendors will be available for purchase and admission includes one free item from the sweets table. Other exhibits and vendors will also have tables set up.

Admission is $2 per person. More info can be found at cantonvillagetheater.org.

'To Kill A Mockingbird' performance in Livonia

If a traditional performance of an American classic is what you seek, look no further than St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Livonia this weekend.

Livonia Community Theatre will present an adaptation of Harper Lee's "To Kill A Mockingbird" over the weekend at the church, 27475 Five Mile, Livonia. The play will be performed at 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday and 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. The performance explores "themes of racial equality, justice and integrity as seen through the eyes of Scout Finch, an 8-year old girl growing up in Alabama during the 1930s," according to a release from the theater group.

The performance will feature several local actors, including Plymouth's John Sartor as Atticus Finch and a pair of Wayne county actors portraying Scout: Abby Borsodi of Redford and Jema McCardle of Southgate.

Tickets are $10 for adults, $8 for seniors and $5 for students 18 and under. Tickets can be purchased by calling 248-252-1940 or at livoniacomunitytheatre.org. They will also be available at the door.

HBA announces 2017 Remodelers Design Awards

The Home Builders Association of Southeastern Michigan and its NAHBR Professional Remodelers Council announced the 2017 Remodelers Design Awards honorees. This is the second year the design contest was held. It was open to HBA members, who were invited to submit entries in several categories.

"We are proud to honor these companies who have shown excellence in remodeling," said Mark Renn, council chairperson, of H.J. Oldenkamp Co. "We were pleased to have involved more builders and remodelers in the competition this year and hope to continue this growth next year."

Awards will be presented Dec. 6 at the HBA's awards night and holiday celebration at Suburban Collection Showplace in Novi. More than 300 members and guests are expected to attend the event, which will also feature presentation of HBA's industry awards.

"Remodeling is an essential segment of the residential construction industry," said Michael Stoskopf, CEO of the HBA. "We are pleased to have these companies as active members of our Association and we look forward to honoring their achievements."

The honorees include:

» Basement Remodel: Finished Basements Plus (Wixom) for a home in Franklin.

» Specialty Room: Paulson's Construction (Howell) for a home in Howell.

DDA, Wayne Main Street launch holiday campaign

The Wayne Downtown Development Authority and Wayne Main Street announced the launch of Wayne's second annual holiday marketing campaign. The effort is aimed at promoting the city's downtown district as a holiday shopping destination for residents of Wayne and surrounding communities. The campaign, which runs through the holiday shopping season, includes print, direct mail, online and social media advertising. This year's campaign also features a contest where one lucky individual will win a $1,000 shopping spree in downtown Wayne.

This is the second year the DDA and Wayne Main Street have partnered regarding the campaign. Last year's marketing push was an overwhelming success, generating more than 300,000 Facebook impressions alone. "Due to the traditional feel of our city's commercial district, shopping in downtown Wayne is a really unique experience and we wanted to drive business into our downtown through marketing the district in its entirety," said Lori Gouin, economic development director for the city of Wayne.

This year, the DDA and Main Street have added some additional components to help market downtown Wayne to an even broader audience. Most significantly, this year's organizers are offering a sweepstakes to win a $1,000 shopping spree in downtown Wayne. Individuals over age 18 can enter to win by going to downtown wayne.org/smallbiz saturday or through Wayne Main Street's Facebook Page (facebook.com/wayne mainstreet). The contest runs through Dec. 11.

"We are really excited to host this contest; we anticipate that it will give folks a reason to explore all the amazing retailers and merchants that are based in downtown Wayne," said Maxwell Cameron, executive director of Wayne Main Street. There is no purchase necessary to participate in the shopping spree contest. To enter or for contest rules, go to downtownwayne.org/smallbizsaturday.

Joann C. Kargula

FARMINGTON HILLS

Joann C. Kargula, age 93: A Dedicated Mother. Known for her strong and passionate commitment to her family, Joann C. Kargula, a housewife and beloved wife of the late Raymond Kargula, died Friday, November 10, 2017 at Botsford Commons in Farmington Hills, 12 days before her 94th birthday. "Throughout her life she dedicated herself to taking care of my father and her seven children," said her eldest son, Michael. "She did everything she could and more for each of us. Her family was the source of much of her pleasure and pride," he added. A devout Catholic, she was one of those rare individuals that you meet in life who give more than she gets back. She rarely missed mass on Sunday and when she did, it was only because she was too ill to attend. Mrs. Kargula is survived by her seven children, Michael (Junko) Kargula of Concord, Massachusetts, Susan (Dan) Kargula of Taos, New Mexico, Jan (Mike) Maurer of Tallahassee, Florida, John (Patty) Kargula of Farmington Hills, Michigan, Jay (Kathleen) Kargula of Novi, Michigan, Jeanie (Tony) Kreuch of Albuquerque, New Mexico, and James Kargula of Grosse Pointe, Michigan; 9 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild. Visitation Friday, November 17, 2-8 pm, with a 7 pm Rosary, at the Heeney-Sundquist Funeral Home, 23720 Farmington Road (btw. 9-10 Mile Rds., just N of Grand River), downtown Farmington (248-474-5200). A Funeral Mass will be celebrated Saturday, November 18, 11 am (in state 10:30 am) at St. Gerald Catholic Church, 21300 Farmington Rd., Farmington. Memorial tributes suggested to St. Gerald Catholic Church.

Verner Niva

LIVONIA - Age 87. November 9, 2017. Beloved husband of Helen. Loving father of Richard Niva, Eric Niva (Cyndi), Karen Niva-Gubachy (Ken) and Scott Niva (Michelle). Cherished grandfather of Katie Ebba, Nolan Reino, Norah, Melissa, Kelli-ann, Shaun; and great-grandfather of 7. A celebration of life service will be held at a later date. Arrangements entrusted to Thayer-Rock Funeral Home, Farmington.

May peace be with you in this time of sorrow.

Cole Charles Weaver

WINSTON-SALEM, NC

2010-2017. Cole Charles Weaver, six years old, died on November 5, 2017 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. He is survived by his sister, Ella Elizabeth (10), parents Chris and Kate Weaver of Winston-Salem, grandparents Ginny and Charles (Kirk) Weaver, of Canton and Molly and Mitch Beaver, Springfield, Illinois and many aunts, uncles and cousins. Cole had a big heart, with a sweet, extraordinary, welcoming, fearless spirit. He was an early riser with no need for an alarm, raring to go with passion each day. Cole never met a stranger, was comfortable with all kinds of conversation and loved to make people laugh. He was an old soul; his curious mind was matched by a great capacity for empathy and generosity. Cole loved playing with his big sister, Legos, friends, and was always eager to share. A Celebration of Life Service was held on Friday, November 10, at Green Street United Methodist Church in Winston-Salem. Online condolences can be made at www.twincitycremations.com. In honor of Cole's welcoming spirit, the family would appreciate any memorials to be designated for the new Children's Welcome Center of Green Street UMC which is part of the planned church renovation. Green Street Church, 639 South Green Street, Winston-Salem, NC 27101. www.greenstreetchurch.org

May you find comfort in family and friends

May peace be with you in this time of sorrow.

World-famous architect killed in car crash

Jay Grossman
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK —
MICHIGAN

Tobocman

His work would be classified as modern, but the homes and buildings that Irving Tobocman designed over the years are considered by many to be timeless masterpieces.

The renowned Birmingham architect, recognized around the world for his sleek, contemporary designs, was killed Friday in a car crash. He leaves behind a rich body of work that will surely stand the test of time.

"I would call him a modern master," fellow architect Victor Saroki said Monday. "He grew up in that era of architecture and was quite prominent in the Birmingham/Bloomfield area for a lot of the modern homes he did."

The Nov. 10 crash occurred at the intersection of Telegraph and Lone Pine roads in Bloomfield Township. Initial reports indicate a 2016 Jeep Wrangler, traveling northbound on Telegraph, ran the red light and collided with Tobocman's 2004 Ford Thunderbird that was traveling westbound on Lone Pine on a green light.

Police say the driver of the Jeep, a 16-year-old Bloomfield Hills resident, was taken to a local hospital and listed in stable condition. A female passenger in her vehicle was also taken to the hospital and listed in stable condition.

Both girls attend Bloomfield Hills High School. While the crash remains under investigation, police do not believe alcohol played a role in the accident.

designed stores and restaurants and commercial buildings, synagogues and large apartment complexes."

His parents immigrated to the U.S. from Poland in the 1920s. Growing up in Detroit, Tobocman developed an artistic flair at a young age, along with a love of music and literature. He graduated with a bachelor of architecture degree from the University of Michigan in 1956. His first project was a set of apartments near Six Mile and Greenfield roads in northwest Detroit.

"We actually lived there for several years," Susan Tobocman said. "There were two apartment buildings and my grandmother owned one of them."

Closer to home, he designed the Max Fisher Federation Building on Telegraph Road and the headquarters for the Sandy Corp. on Big Beaver in Troy.

The family then moved to Franklin Village in 1967, where Tobocman built a house on a two-acre wooded parcel. It was one of the first contemporary homes in the area and the two children have memories of passers-by pulling over in their cars to take photos of the uniquely-designed structure.

After his children grew up and moved away, Tobocman moved into a house he designed in downtown Birmingham.

Piece of a puzzle

"He never liked those towering ceilings or open floor plans," David said. "He didn't like to exceed more than 12 feet with his ceilings ... but the hallway going into the room always had a lower ceiling to give you a sense that you were moving into something larger. It was a matter of scale of proportion."

He liked to fill his homes with candlelight and fireplaces, crystal goblets and sterling silver. Susan said his vision was a juxtaposition of modern sensibility, peppered with a mix of antiques, contemporary furnishings and the comforts of home.

"It was much more eclectic than one might expect from the outside of his homes," she said.

A Tobocman-designed home came with certain signature markings — the flat roofs and white painted brick, oak trim, floor-to-ceiling windows and lots of skylights. Tobocman loved the integration of nature with his work and always tried to create a seamless transition from the outdoors to the indoors.

To Tobocman, designing a home was like putting together a puzzle. He started with the land, always allowing the topography and particular flora to suggest the shape and materials of the house. Whether it was a small home or a large one, he always tried to create a sense of continuity in which one room flowed into the other.

"Even with those gargantuan 18,000-square-foot homes, he would insist on creating these small intimate spaces," David said. "He never wanted to make you feel like a mouse inside this gigantic room."

Tobocman's younger brother Alfred was the building contractor on many of his projects.

"They were incredibly close," David said of his father and uncle. "They were best friends throughout their lives. Al helped my father marshal his vision and bring it into the world."

Family man

Rabbi Boruch Cohen, executive director of the Birmingham Jewish Connection, always felt at home with Tobocman.

"We shared, I think, a sensibility — not about modern homes, but about life," Cohen said. "That if it's going to be done, it should be done well. That the feel of a place matters, that details matter, that people matter. That if one cannot laugh, especially at one's self, it's a wonder how that person can get from one end of the day to the other. His Jewishness was not formal in a religious sense, but his pride in being Jewish and identification with the Jewish people seemed, at least to me, rock solid and obvious."

Susan said her dad had a razor-sharp mind, always hungry for knowledge and new experiences. He never rested on his laurels and never planned to stop working.

He was also a staunch supporter of the community, holding fundraisers at his home in Birmingham to help inner-city theater groups, Democratic politicians, local and national and other causes.

"He loved to be around people and he loved jazz - that's what got him out of the house," she said. "He was a pillar of the Detroit jazz scene - all the jazz musicians knew him."

"Both David and I are career musicians," she added. "He always encouraged us to follow our passion instead of following a career just to make money, a strategy that actually worked for both us. He was also a great musician who could play almost anything by ear."

While the two children celebrate the man, they bear the pain of losing their dad - and a close friend.

"He came to New York just a few weeks ago," Susan said. "He and my son were so close ... he loved to visit his grandchildren on both coasts. He loved his family so much."

The two ultimately hope to craft a book that will showcase their dad's legacy. As for the loss to the greater community, Saroki said all one needs to do is look around.

"It's a loss to see Irving gone," he said. "But these buildings, these homes, will be around for a long, long time."

Tobocman is survived by children Susan Tobocman and David (K.C.

Mancebo) Tobocman; grandchildren Caleb, Zoe and Margo Tobocman; and brother Alfred (partner Marsha Weiss) Tobocman. He was preceded in death by his first wife and mother of his children, Lois Maxine Tobocman, and his long-time partner Barbara Joyce Mazer; also survived by his second wife, Laura Tobocman.

Funeral services for Tobocman were Nov. 15, at the Ira Kaufman Chapel in Southfield.

Franklin scores improbable victory

Brad Emons

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

It might go down as the greatest broken play in Livonia Franklin football history.

Down a point after Flushing scored a touchdown on fourth-and-goal from the 1 and following up by successfully converting the two-point conversion with 1:45 left to go up, 29-28, Franklin sophomore quarterback Jacob Kelbert took the first snap from his own 30 after the ensuing kickoff.

It was one last-gasp drive for the Patriots on their final possession on a bitterly cold night.

"Originally, it was a halfback screen and it got blown up," Kelbert said. "I was always taught to throw it out-of-bounds, chuck it out-of-bounds, but I couldn't do that. I just saw a wide-open hole and I took it. I had a great block by Matt Elrod down the field that saved my life and I couldn't be more grateful."

Kelbert scrambled 55 yards down to the Raiders' 15 and, three running plays later, Brad Gibson booted a 27-yard field goal through the heart of the uprights to give the host Patriots an improbable 31-29 win over Flushing for the MHSAA Division 2 regional championship.

"We knew this was our last game on this field and we weren't going home empty-handed," Kelbert said. "And we

One extra point would have sent Friday night's Division 1 regional final to overtime. A successful two-point conversion would have given Canton a ticket to the semifinals.

Veteran Canton head coach Tim Baechler opted to go for the win with 40 seconds to go and the Chiefs down 27-26 to Novi Detroit Catholic Central following a clutch, 3-yard TD pass from quarterback Connor Engel to Noah Brown.

But Labar Morgan of the Shamrocks had other ideas. He plugged the gap in the line of scrimmage, stopping junior running back Luke Jouppi inches short of the goal line and preserving the regional championship.

Mercy stops Stevenson in Class A regional final

Tim Smith

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

With heavy hitters all over the place, Farmington Hills Mercy put the hammer down against Livonia Stevenson during the Class A volleyball regional final Nov. 9.

The Marlins rolled to a 25-9 win in the opening set and continued their relentless attack in the second, prevailing 25-10 despite a nice string of serves by Spartans sophomore Erin Pietruszka.

In the third set, Mercy faced some trials and tribulations — with Pietruszka again serving up a couple of aces to get the Spartans out to a short-lived 3-0 lead — before closing things out with a 25-18 win.

Going up for the clinching block were senior Lauren Hunter and freshman Charli Atiemo, triggering a happy celebration on the court at Farmington High School.

Mercy (49-7-1) advanced to face New Baltimore Anchor Bay in a Class A quarterfinal scheduled for Tuesday at West Bloomfield.

"I thought we really played the ball well," Marlins head coach Loretta Vogel said. "I thought our setter, (freshman) Julia Bishop, ran the offense extremely well tonight."

"Compliments to (Pietruszka), the server, she got us caught a couple times. It allowed them to think they were going to get back in the game."

Bishop registered 40 assists, distributing the ball nicely to hard-hitting attackers such as sophomore Jess Mruzik (12 kills), junior Logan Beyer (10 kills) and Atiemo (seven kills).

Strong up front

Also wreaking havoc on the Spartans with some timely kills and blocks was junior Mallory Conrad.

"I just think we improved so much as a team. We bond so well together and it's so important on the court," Conrad said. "We all have the skill to play, so when we're all out there together, we're just having fun."

"Our defense is really picking it up for these playoff games. Our blocks this game were huge. ... We were stopping their offense. We did a really good job on keeping runs and limiting theirs."

For Stevenson (26-20), top performers included Pietruszka (six aces, five assists), senior Claire Beaudoin (seven digs), senior Audrey Lackey (six

Herrington still alive after win in freezing Linden

Marty Budner

hometownlife.com

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Farmington Hills Harrison is headed to the fourth round of the state playoffs for the 17th time — the first since 2014 — in its storied history.

The Hawks blazed their way to the Division 3 state semifinal with a sizzling 34-21 triumph on a freezing Friday over host Linden. Harrison advanced to play this Saturday against Riverview.

"We got to the semifinals and lost to Muskegon a couple of years ago, so it feels good to get there again," Harrison head coach John Herrington said. "We have to go home and repair some guys and get them ready to play next week."

Senior Divine Filemu was a freshman when Harrison last advanced this far in the post-season. He is eagerly awaiting the semifinal where, with a win, his team will have the opportunity to play for the state championship at Ford Field.

"Ever since our first game, this has been our goal," said Filemu, a bullish back who carried 10 times and gained 58 tough yards against Linden. "We've been trying to make sure we take one game at a time and get it right."

"When we moved up my freshman year, we made it to the semifinals and we lost by one point to make it to Ford Field," he added. "Now we're back at it and we're trying to achieve that goal again."

Here are five takeaways from the regional championship game:

THE BACK HEARD 'ROUND LINDEN

Junior tailback Roderick Heard once again was Harrison's offensive star.

Heard scored three touchdowns — runs of 2, 60 and 20 yards — and rushed for 233 yards on 27 carries. He also had an 84-yard TD run called back because of a holding penalty, although he did finish that drive with his 20-yard run to pay dirt.

"We didn't throw much, but we threw just enough to get the ball down there," Herrington said. "But then Rod Heard and Filemu just ran really hard. Our line is bigger than some of their guys and they opened the holes and they made the most of it."

Heard has rushed for 1,331 yards this season on 191 carries, with 22 touchdowns. The fleet-footed running back also scored three touchdowns the previous week against Warren Woods Tower.

"You know (Heard) started out as a swing back for us. He didn't play tailback in the first game against East Grand Rapids," Herrington said. "He played a little bit and scored a touchdown. I finally wised up and put him in (at tailback) and he's just gotten better and better ever week. And he plays both ways."

Heard and Filemu complement each other nicely in the backfield to give Harrison a strong rushing attack.

"We're a good duo. Rod is a good runner and I'm a good blocker for him," Filemu said. "When we need those first downs, I'll be in there."

MAKING IT A CLOSE GAME

The game was very much in doubt through the first three quarters, although Harrison never trailed.

The Hawks led 7-0, but Linden scored just two plays later, when quarterback George Waterhouse hit Hunter Babcock up the middle of the field for a 70-yard TD pass and just like that the score was tied 7-7.

Harrison marched right down the field to retake the lead, when quarterback Noah Hendricks hit Ovie Oghoufo on a 24-yard touchdown pass. Oghoufo, the Notre Dame commit, leaped over a Linden defender to take the ball away and give his team a 14-7 lead with 5:55 left in the opening quarter.

Neither team scored in the second quarter.

Linden then tied the game at 14-14 after scoring on its first possession of the second half, when Waterhouse connected with Corbin Sines on a 48-yard TD pass. Harrison scored twice on Heard touchdown runs to make it 28-14 after three quarters.

Each team scored once in the fourth quarter to account for all the scoring. Linden's final touchdown came on another long bomb, this time a 53-yard screen pass from Waterhouse to Cade Dickson.

CAGING THE EAGLES' OFFENSE

Linden came into the game averaging 38 points per game. The Eagles had scored a combined 84 points in their first two playoff wins over Bay City Central and Ortonville Brandon.

The Hawks, however, limited Linden's big-play offense and held the Eagles 17 points under their average. Pass-happy Linden did finish with 251 yards through the air, but 171 yards of that was the result of its three long touchdowns.

Linden produced just 34 yards rushing.

"They have a really sound passing attack. (Linden coach) Denny Hopkins does a great job with this team," Herrington said. "We worked against those passes all week, but we didn't stop them. Like that screen pass that went for that last touchdown. We worked like mad on that, but they went right down the field on us."

BANGED UP HAWKS

Harrison won the game, but it did not escape without some tough injuries.

Senior quarterback Noah Hendricks hurt his ankle on a rushing play with two minutes left before halftime. Hendricks did not play the rest of the quarter, but he did return for the second half. By the end of the game, he was limping noticeably.

Also, junior kicker David Hiser apparently injured his shoulder when making what appeared to be a touchdown-saving tackle after Harrison's first touchdown in the opening quarter. He did not kick the rest of the game, with the extra-point duties handed over to senior lineman Chris Rexroth.

RIVERVIEW ON DECK

Riverview advanced to its semifinal date with Harrison after defeating Dearborn Divine Child, 36-31, Friday in a thriller.

The Hawks have not lost to the Pirates in three previous meetings. The teams met three out of four years in the Class B playoffs, starting in 1986. Harrison has outscored Riverview by a 79-21 margin in those games. Their last meeting was a first-round game in 1989, when Harrison won 23-7.

Riverview, which runs the wing-T offense, took first place in the Huron League this year with a 6-1 record. The Pirates are 11-1 overall, with their lone loss to Flat Rock in the season's second game.

Harrison, the OAA White Division tri-champion, enters the semifinal with a 9-3 record.

knew we had to get it done. We knew we had to get the ball down the field and that's exactly what we did."

Franklin (10-2), now moves into its second state semifinal in three years, where it will face unbeaten Grand Rapids Forest Hills Central (12-0) at 1 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 10, at Grand Ledge. Central ousted Traverse City Central in its regional final, 28-10.

Meanwhile, there was no one prouder or happier afterward than Chris Kelbert, Franklin's head coach and dad of the quarterback.

"How about that (kid)?," Chris Kelbert said. "He's a hell of a kid isn't he? I love his dad."

But even a bemused Chris Kelbert, along with everybody else in the stands, were stunned by the sudden turn of events by the improbable 55-yard run.

"It was a scramble," the Franklin coach said. "They flushed him out of the pocket... unbelievable effort on his part. He got those from me (laughing)."

Franklin then milked the clock perfectly during the final minute to set up Gibson's game-winner with only 14 seconds left and it was a no-doubter.

"Great snap by Jacob Mass, great hold by Cal Fournier and I just had to execute the kick," said Gibson, who also had an interception. "When I felt it come off, I knew it was in."

Fournier then made a game-saving tackle on the ensuing kickoff return and Flushing (9-3) had only one final "Hail Mary" play from its own 44 as QB Cal Endicott's pass fell incomplete as the clock struck 0:00.

Both quarterbacks had an amazing night.

The lanky 6-foot-5 Endicott, committed to Grand Valley State, completed his first 11 passes, going 15-of-21 for 241 yards. He also ran for a team-best 52 yards on 15 carries.

"He's a hell of a quarterback," Chris Kelbert said. "Just his ability to extend the play. In the second half, we wrapped him up, limited those extra throws down the field he was hitting. Our DBs... they can cover, but you can't cover forever. And that's what he was able to do."

Jacob Kelbert, meanwhile, ran for a team-best 137 yards on just nine carries, including a 70-yard TD run on a keeper with 0:49 left in the first quarter to give the Patriots a 14-7 lead.

"It was a designated quarterback sweep," Jacob Kelbert said. "I made a move on a kid, I had a really good block by a kid on the safety and I was just gone. It was from my running back, Julius Simmons. From there on, it was open field."

The sophomore was also good in the clutch. He was an efficient 8-of-12 passing for 147 yards.

"Jake Kelbert — he's great," Gibson said. "With 1:30 left, he told me he was going to go down the field and do it for us. He scrambled, ran all the way down the field and did it. It was amazing."

Here are four other takeaways:

FIRST-HALF SHOOTOUT

The two teams went into the locker room at intermission tied at 21-21.

Franklin scored first when Flushing fumbled the opening kickoff, which was recovered by the Patriots' Ethan Cooper, resulting in a 1-yard TD pass on fourth down from Kelbert to Connor Linton.

In addition to Kelbert's 70-yard run, Simmons also scored on a 5-yard run to make it 21-14.

But Flushing answered each time as Endicott threw TD passes of 20 yards to both Tyler Morris and Raylon Roberts, coupled with a 1-yard run by Antonio Ferraro.

"At halftime, I just told them we didn't play a good first half," Chris Kelbert said. "Don't point fingers, don't get angry with each other. Just keep playing and doing what we've done all year long. Keep getting better and play a great second half and win this game."

DEFENSIVE ADJUSTMENTS

Things settled down after the wild first half, with two teams trading interceptions during the third quarter — one by Ferraro and one by Gibson.

"Stay deeper, keep outside leverage and our D-line came out and worked the second half," Gibson said. "It was amazing."

But Endicott seemed to come up with some timely throws on third and fourth downs to keep drives alive.

"He's 6-5, committed to Grand Valley State University," Gibson said. "He's a very good QB."

GAME-CHANGERS

In the final quarter, Franklin went up 28-21 with 6:59 left when Kelbert found Elrod in a middle seam for a 20-yard TD pass set up Marino DiPonio, who blocked Endicott's punt at the Flushing 33.

But the Raiders responded with a 13-play drive, resulting in another 1-yard TD run by Farero with just under two minutes left.

Flushing then decided to go for two and the lead as Endicott, eluding the Franklin rush, hit Roberts near the goal line. The Raiders' back fumbled the ball, but it was recovered by a teammate in the end zone.

"We made the gutsy call," Endicott said. "It was a group decision going for two. We went for two and executed. We gave our defense a chance to end the game and we just came up a little bit short."

Flushing coach Robert Oginsky tried to end the game right there.

"I felt like we had momentum and we wanted to strike when the iron was hot," he said. "We felt much better be up one than being tied or down one at that point. We felt good at that point."

RUNNING GAME

Patriots senior running back Isaac Moore, who averaged more than 200 yards rushing in the three previous games, was held in check by the Flushing defense. He finished with 70 yards on 20 carries.

"They knew Isaac was a dynamic runner and I knew I had to step up this game if we wanted to be successful," Jacob Kelbert said.

Meanwhile, the Franklin defense sacked Endicott four times and held the Raiders to 92 yards rushing on 29 attempts.

"They made good adjustments," Endicott said of the Franklin defense. "Give credit to their coaching staff. They're a very talented coaching staff and very talented team. I give credit to them stopping our offense and making it a closer game in second half."

Franklin had a total of 368 yards total offense, with 221 rushing. Flushing had 333 total.

"It was pretty obvious they ran the ball well and we threw the ball well," Oginsky said. "You're right, at the end it was a good football game to watch."

Defending champ Novi ousts South Lyon in regional

hometownlife.com

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Getting to the quarterfinals is becoming old hat for the Novi volleyball team.

The two-time defending Class A champion Wildcats took down first-time regional finalist South Lyon in three sets Nov. 9 at Dexter, 25-15, 25-16, 25-18, to earn a spot in the elite eight for the fourth straight year.

Novi (54-3) was scheduled face Temperance Bedford, one of only three teams to beat the Wildcats this season, beginning Tuesday at Ann Arbor Huron. (Bedford advanced with a 3-1 win over Livonia Churchill.)

"I think we played pretty well. We did a pretty good job focusing on our side," Novi senior libero Claire Pinkerton said. "We knew a lot about the other team going into practice yesterday. But we wanted to focus on our game and not worry too much about what was going on on the other side."

Pinkerton finished with team-high nine digs, while sophomore Shannon Jennings added eight, along with senior setter Erin O'Leary.

"I think defensively we were pretty scrappy," Pinkerton said. "We knew they were going to come out with a lot of shots and lot more aggressive tips and stuff like that and we did a good job defending and communicating on those."

Pinkerton has been a member of three straight state finals teams and is seeking her fourth trip.

"I'm feeling pretty confident going into (the quarterfinals)," she said. "We kind of had a shaky start to the season with some injuries and stuff, but I finally feel like we got into our groove and playing pretty well recently. I'm feeling confident."

Novi had balanced hitting attack, led by 6-foot-1 senior Abryanna Cannon, who finished with a team-high 15 kills, including the match-point winning kill.

Senior outside hitter Kathryn Ellison chipped in 11 kills and five blocks, while junior Jaeda Porter and O'Leary both had five. O'Leary, who has signed with Michigan, finished with 31 assist-to-kills.

"I thought this was the most intense match and environment with the fans," Novi coach Jen Cottrill said. "South Lyon had a lot of energy and I thought that they came at us pretty well. They're pretty disciplined, dug us and did some things against us that we haven't seen yet this year and we handled it flawlessly."

Here are four other takeaways:

TIMEOUT TIME

The Wildcats found themselves in an unusual 6-3 hole during the second set when Cottrill burned a rare timeout.

"I said we just needed to reduce the errors," she said. "We were just giving them easy points and not making them work for anything, just settle in and trust our system."

The Wildcats responded with an 8-0 run and never looked back.

"I think we played very well tonight and I was very impressed with everybody," said Cannon, who has signed with Northwestern. "We had a little bit of ups and downs throughout the game it and it was really nice to see that we could stay composed. There was a time during the second set when we were down 6-3. It was just really nice to be able to be in that deficit and come out of that."

SAVE OF THE NIGHT

During the second set, Cannon made a sprawling one-handed dig, but South Lyon was able to earn the point.

"It was a pretty gumpy dive. I fell and my body hit the floor and then my head hit the floor," Cannon said. "It didn't feel too good, but it was fine."

TOUGH SLEDDING

South Lyon got six kills from senior Cailey Carlson and five each from Abby Durecki and Chloe Grimes, who also added three blocks.

Junior setter Emily Kalinowski added 18 assists and five digs, while junior libero Stephanie Kalinowski contributed nine digs and four aces.

But it just wasn't enough to oust the defending Class A champs.

"Novi is a good team," first-year South Lyon coach Rebecca Tincknell said. "Novi has the experience. It's the first time we've made it to the regional finals. They're back-to-back state champions, so they know how to play under this pressure. Our girls are still learning. They've never been in this high-intense of a match before."

LIONS' FUTURE

South Lyon finished the season with a 38-10-3 record and won the regular season title in the new Lakes Valley Conference.

The Lions graduate five seniors: Megan Mrocka, Jillian McKenna, Alexis Hauck, Booth and Carlson.

"Luckily, most of them are coming back," Tincknell said. "We have eight juniors, with most of them in the starting lineup. These seniors still did a hell of a job this season. But we're not going anywhere. This team is going to come back ready to go with eight seniors next year. It's going to be huge for us."

off-tackle," Catholic Central head coach Dan Baechler said. "They'd been having a lot of success off-tackle and so we just slanted our end inside to stuff up the hole and it worked."

"It's a battle every time we play them. I was defensive coordinator in '09 when we beat them in overtime. In 2011, it was 21-14 (and) it was back and forth. It's just a battle every time and I don't blame them for going for two there. You're going for the win. I'd probably do the same."

Baechler said he was not going to let an extra point decide matters when he had the chance to run it in for the victory. An apparent injury suffered in the fourth quarter by kicker Chase Meredith had no bearing on his decision, he emphasized.

"Not at all. I was not going to win or lose a game or tie a game based on a bad snap, a bad hold or a bad kick," Baechler said. "I've seen enough bad holds and missed kicks through the last 12 games. I could not live with myself if we screwed this up. I'm going to live with my call and it was the right call. We just missed it."

The Chiefs (who finished with a 10-2 record) outgained Catholic Central (8-4) by a 369-299 margin, yet chased the Shamrocks much of the night after letting an early 7-0 lead slip away.

Workhorse

A big reason for that struggle was the running of Shamrocks senior Cam Ryan. He was tough to bring down, gaining 202 yards on 25 rushes and scoring three touchdowns.

Ryan put Canton in a tough spot when he broke a 59-yard TD run up the middle on the first snap of the second half. That padded a 14-13 halftime lead.

"They were opening up holes," Ryan said about his linemen. "On that long one, honestly, no one touched me. They're a great offensive line, they're really jelling at the right time. It's perfect."

Anderson said Ryan "runs with an attitude. And he doesn't let one guy bring him down, he's going to fight every step of the way. He's been our go-to guy all year."

Meanwhile, with Canton junior running back Steven Walker out of the game in the first half due to an injury and the passing game not clicking, Baechler relied on Jouppe (91 yards rushing) and seniors

Catholic Central's Christian Kipp (bottom) brings down Canton ball carrier Colin Troup. BILL BRESLER | HOMETOWNLIFE.COM

Nick Polydoros and Colin Troup to spark the offense.

Polydoros had a great night, gaining 179 yards on 10 carries and giving the Chiefs hope late in the first half, when he scored on a 41-yard dash with just 17 seconds left. Troup registered 60 yards and scored on two 11-yard touchdown runs (one per half).

"We got caught banged up; we didn't have our best squad out there," Baechler said. "We had to switch around. But the kids played their butts off. That's playoffs — you got to stay healthy and you got to get some breaks."

Canton bounced back on the frigid night, tying the game 20-20 before the end of the third quarter on Troup's second TD and Meredith's extra point.

But Catholic Central came back, taking a 27-20 lead on yet another Ryan score.

That set up the late TD toss to Brown, deep in the end zone. It wasn't enough.

"When you want to win, you'll do anything," Brown said, choking back emotion. "I'd do anything for these guys. I just wish I would have made more plays earlier in the game. I don't know. It's tough."

Following are several takeaways from the game:

CAN'T GET A GRIP

With temperatures in the 20s, Engel and his receivers could not connect. A couple of catchable throws were not reeled in to stall the Chiefs in the first half.

Canton running back Jaquan Frazier fumbled near midfield to keep the Chiefs from building on an early 7-0 lead. The Shamrocks quickly made him pay, with Ryan accounting for all 51 yards of a four-play drive. He scored from the 16 with 11:54 left in the first half to put Catholic Central on the board.

NICK OF TIME

Polydoros had already broken loose for big runs of 53 and 25 yards in the first half, but his third big-gainer of the frigid night was a 41-yard gallop for an important TD. That came with just 26 seconds left before intermission to pull the Chiefs to within 14-13. The extra point was blocked, however.

LET IT ROLL

Early in the second quarter, Catholic Central punter Kevin Korte's boot rolled all the way to the Chiefs' 1-yard line to put Canton in a big hole. Three snaps later, it was CC's turn to receive a punt.

TOUGH SENDOFF

Canton coach Baechler had words of praise for his team's "great senior class. I love them. They're tough kids, they compete their butts off. And a lot of multi-sport athletes, too."

The dream of making it to Ford Field came to a bitter end for that group of seniors, led by linebacker Lou Baechler, lineman Ronald Fenderson, Brown, Troup, Engel, Polydoros and Meredith.

Ladywood, Clarenceville, PCA rule regionals

Junior outside hitter Madison Benoit recorded 20 kills and 18 digs as Livonia Ladywood captured the Class B volleyball regional title Nov. 9 at Jonesville with a 25-19, 25-18, 20-25, 25-23 triumph over Carleton Airport.

Other standouts for the Blazers included senior Natasha Strzelewicz (18 kills), junior Madeline Hudson (14 kills), junior Monique Lamoureux (60 assists, 22 digs) and senior Reese Moschetta (25 digs).

The Blazers (22-5-1) were scheduled to face Livonia Clarenceville (13-14-2) Tuesday in a quarterfinal match-up at New Boston Huron.

"Our serve receive started off a little shaky, but once the girls figured it out, they started to capitalize," second-year Ladywood coach Kathryn Chinavare said. "We knew that Airport played their libero out of middle back (row), so the line shot would be our best option on an offensive approach. But defense-wise, I know I can count in Reese (Moschetta) to pick up just about everything. And when they started to target Monique (Lamoureux), our setter, she didn't let it faze her and picked up everything, so that was huge for us."

It was the Blazers' first regional title since 1997.

"It's a huge win moving on to quarterfinals and it's really a significant thing," Chinavare said. "I just know our coaches and myself couldn't be more proud of these girls

Clarenceville rolls

Livonia Clarenceville came through with flying colors Nov. 9 at home, earning its first Class B regional title since 1997 with a 25-16, 25-20, 25-21 three-set sweep over visiting Detroit Voyageur.

Michelle Marzolo finished with 11 kills and three ace serves as the Trojans (13-14-2) advance to the quarterfinals to face Livonia Ladywood (22-5-1), scheduled for Tuesday at New Boston Huron.

Audrey Owens, Londen Green and Krystal Jones each added six kills for Clarenceville, while setter Erica Bertera dished out 19 assist-to-kills.

Defensively, Bertera led the way with eight digs, while Cassidy Galvin and Marzolo added six apiece. Allie Snage was also strong on serve receive for the Trojans.

"They did a good job controlling the net, both blocking and hitting," Spartans coach Julian Wargo said. "We were swinging well. I thought we were serving well. I thought we did serve-receive well."

"We're a little younger than they are and I thought we brought everything we could."

Beaudoin, one of five Stevenson seniors playing their final game for the squad (along with Lackey, Bice, Monica Weinrauch and Emilie Wassermann) said she didn't think the Marlins "outworked us, but they're definitely bigger than us. They have big hitters."

Following are several takeaways from the contest:

YOUNG GUNS

The Marlins boast a lineup featuring several freshmen and sophomores, without missing a beat.

"It's a good blend. I don't think you could differentiate a senior versus a freshman out there tonight," Vogel said.

Chiming in about Mercy's deep and talented roster was freshman Maddi Malecki: "Each girl does their part and, when we all do our part, it just makes things a lot easier."

STAYING FRESH

Mruzik gave props to Vogel and the rest of the Mercy coaching staff for knowing when to let up on the gas pedal during late-season practices.

"A lot of coaches at the end of the year push their teams to go super-hard preparing for playoffs," Mruzik said. "But our coaches have done a really nice job ... knowing when to take breaks. Some days, we'll have a serve-serve, then a scouting report kind of day. Whereas a lot of other coaches will go full-on, two-hour practices every day."

"It's helped our bodies a lot preparing for this long of a season. Once you're physically worn out, you're not playing at your best. And once you're not playing at your best, your mind kind of goes with it, too."

UNFORCED ERRORS

Although Mercy showed it was the better team throughout the match, there were times when the Spartans appeared ready to cut into the deficit — only to serve a ball into the net or miss the mark on spike attempts, giving freebies to the Marlins.

SERVING IT UP

Pietruszka sparked the Spartans with some nifty serving, but Mercy always limited the damage.

"When I get an ace, I just go crazy and my team does as well," Pietruszka said. "I'm glad I was on point. They're very athletic, high verticals. They're a very good team. But I think we played our best."

LEARNING CURVE

Wargo congratulated the Marlins on their regional title. He also praised his group.

"The way I look at it, we've been preaching all season either we win or we learn," he said. "And we learned a lot tonight about what it means to be competitive and what it means to move on to the next round."

"I'm graduating five and I could be returning nine. I'm very excited about what our future looks like."

BOYS HOCKEY

Seasoned vets back for Spartans

Tim Smith

hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Where there's a Will Tragge, there's definitely a way for the Livonia Stevenson varsity boys hockey team to again be heard in 2017-18.

The senior goaltender is entrenched between the pipes for veteran head coach David Mitchell as the Spartans look to build from last year's strong season (17-10-1), which ended with a tough loss to Hartland in the Division 2 state quarter-finals.

"We have our goaltender Will Tragge back," Mitchell said. "He's one of the best goaltenders in the state. And then you have (Jake) Beaune and (Kevin) Stefanick back on (defense).

"And then Julian Decina's back and his cousin Vinny (at forward). We have a lot of guys back at the right spots."

But there is plenty more to like about the Spartans, who open with games Nov. 18 at Birmingham Brother Rice and 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 22, against Livonia Churchill at Eddie Edgar Arena.

"We've added some depth and we've had some guys do really well in the summer and the fall here," Mitchell said. "We're excited."

Mitchell said the team will be counting on other contributors, including forwards Brenden Preiss and Cole Parkhurst, "a couple guys who could score some goals for us."

The roster is packed with returning seniors on the blue line (Beaune, Stefanick, Connor Jakacki, Kyle Siroky and

Livonia Stevenson goalie Will Tragge, shown from a 2016-17 game, is among several key returning seniors for the Spartans. TOM BEAUDOIN Easton Schlatterbeck), so the Spartans will have experience to help out Tragge.

Sophomore forward Seth Lause could be a player to watch.

"I think (Lause) is ready to break out," Mitchell said. "He had a pretty good freshman year."

Meanwhile, the Thanksgiving eve game against the Chargers notwithstanding, the Stevenson-Churchill rivalry is about to change.

Mitchell said Churchill moved down to Division 3; the Spartans remain in D2. That means one Livonia team won't knock out the other in the postseason. Livonia Franklin also is in D3.

"If anything, it allows us to work a little more cooperatively together, knowing that we're not going to end each other's season," Mitchell said. "Now we can go cheer on Churchill every game and they can do the same for us — and the same with Franklin, too."

MEN'S COLLEGE HOCKEY

Schoolcraft offense revs it up against Alpena

Tim Smith

hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

The Schoolcraft College men's hockey team already enjoyed a hefty lead Saturday against shorthanded Alpena Community College with less than five minutes to go at Redford Arena.

But the Ocelots kept putting pedal to the metal, particularly sophomore forward Vinnie Glenn (Livonia Stevenson), who scored four goals in the team's 10-4 victory. Glenn scored his third and fourth goals in the final seven minutes.

On his fourth goal, he stopped and popped from the left circle — finding and hitting a gap inside the short-side post against Lumberjacks goaltender Myles Grix.

"He had a lot of space, a lot of time, too," Schoolcraft head coach Rob Lindsay said after the American Collegiate Hockey Association contest. "He's a good shooter, he knows how to pick the open spots."

According to Glenn, scoring four goals "always feels good, but it was as good team victory."

Glenn, an assistant captain, noted that the team's game plan was to keep pushing against Alpena. The Lumberjacks only had nine players dressed for the back end of two games against Schoolcraft (the Ocelots won Friday, 5-3).

"They had a good team for having as many guys as they did," Glenn said. "We knew what we had to do, coming into it ... dump and chase, get in there and wear them down. And then the goals will come as we wear them down.

"I think we did a good job of that. It could have been a little bit better, but we'll move it one step at a time."

Eight Ocelots registered multiple points, while enjoying a 53-24 edge in shots on goal.

Scoring two goals and chipping in with an assist was Jacob Stanley, while defenseman and Stevenson alum Zach Finzel garnered a goal and three assists.

Finzel broke a 2-2 tie just 25 seconds into the second period when he skated down the left wing and blasted a high shot off the post and in. That set the tone for a dominant period, with Schoolcraft scoring four times and outshooting Alpena 20-8.

"It really did (set the tone)," Lindsay said about the Finzel goal. "Guys started stepping it up."

Alpena did score two goals early in the third period to cut the Lumberjacks' deficit to 6-4.

The second of those goals was on a penalty shot. Hunter Frazier flicked a backhand high into net behind Ocelots goalie Matt Monendo (Livonia Franklin), who wasn't overworked in the game but had to make a few timely stops.

Schoolcraft (6-6) got those two goals right back, with Livonia Churchill alum Derek Klisz and Scott Pohl (Stevenson) scoring. Klisz finished with a goal and an assist for the game.

Garden City's Owen Hund scored Schoolcraft's other goal, and he added an assist.

COLLEGE WRESTLING

Former Shamrock leads U-M to victory

Brad Kadrich

hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

A standing-room-only crowd turned out Friday at Detroit Catholic Central's Robert Santello Gymnasium to watch the University of Michigan wrestle Arizona State.

The Wolverines and the Sun Devils didn't disappoint.

All-American Kevin Beazley, a former Shamrock standout, turned in a key 7-2 victory at 197 pounds and second-ranked red-shirt sophomore Stevan Micic delivered a 16-5 major decision as the third-ranked Wolverines stopped the No. 7 Sun Devils, 21-18, in the season-opener.

Beazley, ranked sixth at 197, got off to a strong start in his match with true freshman Cade Belsahy, then struggled to score in the last period. Beazley said the atmosphere in the CC gym had him amped up early.

"I got excited early," said Beazley, who last wrestled in this gym in 2012. "I didn't wrestle very well in the third period, so I'm not too happy about that."

Red-shirt sophomore Sal Profaci provided the winning margin with a dominating 11-0 win over ASU's Nikko Villareal at 141 pounds.

"We knew it would be a hard-fought match ... we won some tough matches," Michigan coach Joe McFarland said. "We won the matches we needed to win."

Beazley was one of three former Shamrocks — 174-pounder Myles Amine and 149-pounder Malik Amine were the others — in Michigan's lineup. Myles dropped a tough 4-2 decision to top-ranked Zahid Valencia. Brother Malik was forced to withdraw due to injury after coming down on the top of his head during his match with ASU's Josh Maruca.

The meet got off to a rocky start for U-M red-shirt junior Alec Pantaleo, a junior from Canton, dropped a 4-3 decision to ASU's Josh Shields when Shields scored a take down with about 15 seconds left.

Neither Pantaleo, coming off a red-shirt season where he said he didn't face any competition, nor his coach were happy with the match.

"It's tough getting thrown back into college competition ... I'm still working on my timing," said Pantaleo, who wrestled at Canton High School. "The cool thing is I'll see (Shields) a couple of weeks down the road and I'll wrestle a different match."

McFarland said Pantaleo needed to finish the match more strongly than he did.

"Alec wrestled well, but he had a bad third period," McFarland said. "We needed a better third period there."

U-M got strong matches, though, from Beazley, heavyweight Adam Coon — "That was a key win for us," McFarland said — and third-ranked Logan Massa at 165 pounds.

Those tough wins were the difference in the meeting, according to ASU coach Zeke Jones, an Ann Arbor native and former Olympic silver medalist and U.S. Olympic freestyle head coach.

"It was a really well-fought meet with two really good teams," Jones said. "You have to capitalize on the moments when it gets close and we didn't do that as well as they did."

It was an atmosphere that current CC coach Mitch Hancock enjoyed. It was set up by a scheduling conflict at U-M, forcing the wrestling team to find a new home for the evening.

"We're fortunate that (McFarland) chose to have it here at CC," Hancock said. "We're lucky to have three (former) Shamrocks in the lineup. It's great to see them come back and wrestle in their home gym."

SUDOKU

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
