'Haunted' Eloise site sold for $1

Ex-Wayne County hospital buildings to become Westland housing development

Hasan Dudar
Detroit Free Press
USA TODAY NETWORK

The site of one of Michigan's most historic, and possibly haunted, former mental asylums will be sold for $1 and turned into a housing development.

The Wayne County Commission unanimously voted June 21 to sell the Eloise complex in Westland to a developer who will convert the property into a mixed-use residential complex for low-income seniors and families.

The buyer is 30712 Michigan Avenue, LLC, in Southfield, which will acquire 28 acres including the Kay Beard Building, the Commissary Building and several dilapidated structures between Merri-man and Henry Ruff roads. The nearby Potter's Field on Henry Ruff Road also was included in the purchase.

"This was once named as one of the most haunted places in the state of Michigan and to go from that to seeing tens of millions of dollars of investment is another great indication that our county is on the comeback; really, not like we've seen in recent history," Assistant County Executive Khalil Rahal said.

The county is asking the developers to spend a minimum of $20 million and to start the rehabilitation within 18 months and complete it within 42 months. A minimum of 106 units is required at the site, Rahal said.

DOG DAYS OF SUMMER

Seven ideas for enjoying the season with your pet

Sharon Dargay
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Make every day a dog day this summer. Here are seven ideas for spending time with your dog:

Monday: Go for a swim

Leave your bathing suit at home for this dogs-only swim at Orion Oaks in Orion Township. Your canine friend can dive off the dock and paddle around the lake while you watch. When swim time is over, take a walk along the Dog Tail Trail or just let your furry friend mingle with other dogs in the 24-acre enclosed dog park. There's a small dog area, picnic tables, drinking water and restrooms. The park, at 1200 Joslyn Road, is open from 8 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. daily. Dogs must be licensed, up to date on vaccinations and able to follow commands. The daily admission rate is $5 per car for Oakland County residents and $12 for non-residents — or buy an annual pass.

If you want to take a dip with your dog and you're ready for a road trip, pack an overnight bag or your camping gear and head to Kruse Park in Muskegon. A portion of the sandy beach at Lake Michigan is set aside for dogs. Dig in the sand, swim in the lake and relax on the beach. For overnight camping, try nearby Hoffmaster State Park or Muskegon State Park. Dogs are permitted in the campgrounds, but must be leashed at all times.

Tuesday: Cocktails anyone?

Canine to Five, the day care/boarding company with locations in midtown Detroit and Ferndale, presents Drinking with Dogs, 6-9 p.m. select Tuesdays through October at bars and breweries throughout metro Detroit.

"You don't have to be a Canine To Five customer to attend," Colleen Robar, public relations spokesperson, wrote in an email. "No RSVPs are necessary. Just bring your dog (or not) and a thirst for fun."

The events are free and open to the public. Each gathering raises funds for an animal welfare organization.

"The bars and restaurants typically have a signature drink or donate a portion of the proceeds to the animal rescue group that works with us at each venue. The rescue groups bring swag and adoptable animals," Robar said.

The schedule includes June 26, at Red Crown, 15301 Kercheval, Grosse Pointe Park, to benefit Grosse Pointe Adoption Society, and July 24, Old Mi-

Second defendant imprisoned in fatal fentanyl case

Matt Jachman
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

A Detroit man was sentenced last week to 30 years in federal prison in a case that stemmed from the death of a Westland man who used fentanyl-laced heroin.

Alxleotold William Gordon, 46, had pleaded guilty in September to four charges: distribution of a controlled substance resulting in death, possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute, possession of a gun in the furtherance of drug trafficking and possession of a gun and ammunition by a convicted felon. He was sentenced June 19 by U.S. District Judge Robert H. Cleveland.

Gordon

Pangborn

Gordon and co-defendant Lori Ann Pangborn, 59, were arrested by Westland police shortly after the Jan. 21, 2017, death of Richard Deschoff.

Authorities said Deschoff was struggling with a heroin addiction and living in a recovery facility when Pangborn supplied him with heroin she had obtained from Gordon. She had bought heroin from Gordon more than 100 times in the past, at least four times for Deschoff, according to a sentencing memo from U.S. Department of Justice attorneys.

"Persons addicted to opiates face nearly insurmountable challenges in beating their addiction. Those who make it available to users guarantee failure in that fight," Matthew Schneider, a U.S. attorney, said in a prepared statement during Gordon's sentencing.

Deschoff, 36, was found dead on the floor of his bedroom by Westland paramedics, who had responded to a report of a man not breathing, according to cant since October 2016, will accommodate the senior housing unit.

The Kay Beard Building in Westland. The building is virtually all that's left of a complex that once numbered 55 buildings and was known as Eloise. The complex was home to the indigent and mentally ill people.

The Free Press reported in 2015 that the Eloise complex was for sale for $1.5 million. Along with the five-story, 150,000-square-foot Kay Beard Building, the purchase would have included an old fire station, a decommissioned power plant, and two maintenance buildings.

According to a fact sheet from Wayne County, there were no offers on the property, which costs $375,000 per year to maintain.

The sale is part of the Wayne County Recovery Plan, which, according to the county fact sheet, aims to sell underutilized properties in order to streamline county government and increase efficiency and rehabilitate properties.

The Eloise site opened in 1839 as a poorhouse and a farm and grew to span 900 acres and house 76 buildings. It once had its own post office, tobacco field, greenhouse, cannery and piggery. It was also the location of the Wayne County General Hospital, which closed in 1984.

In 1979, psychiatric patients were moved from the facility.

Jim Martinez, communications director for the Wayne County Executive Office, said in an email that the developer will maintain the cemetery located on the site. According to the website Tales of Eloise, more than 7,000 former residents of the Eloise hospital and infirmary are buried there.

HauntedUSA.org says that "many a lost soul is said to haunt the grounds" of Eloise.

"Explorers were rumored to have discovered jars of human body parts, documents outlining strange medical procedures, and creepy snapshots of patients in the abandoned buildings that were torn down in the 1980s," according to the website.

It even was the subject of a horror film — "Eloise" — released in 2017.

Samaritas — the social ministry arm of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America — runs a family service center on the site, which will continue to operate, Rahal said. He said they are going to explore possible senior housing options with Samaritas.

Westland Mayor William Wild said in a June 4 letter of support that the developers have agreed to remove blighted structures that exist on the property and that the addition of new housing will help to "support a nearby commercial center."

Wild wrote: "While the Eloise complex was once a large publicly funded and operated institution, this public use is no longer needed or desired; therefore, as government officials we need to facilitate the redevelopment of this community into new development driven by private investment and sustained by one of the state's largest, diversified, nonprofit agencies, which is Samaritas."

Charles House, the city of Westland's economic development director, said that the Eloise complex throughout its history has always been a place focused on helping people.

"When you think about independent senior living in Wayne County that's going to be affordable, it'll fill a growing need," House said.

Daniel Beard, the grandson of the late Wayne County Commissioner Kay Beard, for whom the Kay Beard Building is named, said that he and his family are excited that to see that building return to productive use and that it will still carry his grandmother's name.

"It was such an honor symbolically for my grandma to know that her service to the county over several decades was important enough that they would honor her in that way," Beard said.

"The fact that it was providing a service to the community that she served and the community that she lived in meant the world to her. So I know that she'd be thrilled to see that it's going to continue to serve the community and provide a good use for the people that live in Westland."

Fireworks closes out annual Spree with a bang

With school out for the summer, large crowds — including kids recently let out of the classrooms — took advantage of the annual Livonia mainstay called Spree.

Livonia Spree returned to Ford Field for the 68th year of celebrating Livonia becoming a city in 1950.

There was plenty of music, with Rock Star headlining the festival Saturday night. In addition to the headliners, plenty of Spree favorites made their return, including Major Woody, 50 Amp Fuse, Earth Angels, the Killer Flamigos and Steve King and the Dittilies.

The event included the biggest grand finale of them all, the annual fireworks show, which returned Sunday night to wrap up the festivities.

court records. His death was later found to have been caused by fentanyl toxicity.

Fentanyl is a synthetic opioid with a high degree of potency and is dangerous even in small amounts, according to the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration.

In the same case, Pangborn pleaded guilty last August to two charges: distribution of a controlled substance resulting in death and possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute. She was sentenced by Cleland in February to 106 months — nearly nine years — in prison.

The DEA and the Westland Police Department investigated the case. "Westland detectives and officers from the special investigations unit conducted a thorough and professional investigation, quickly determined the defendants' identities and orchestrated a seamless undercover operation and search warrant," which resulted in the arrests, Westland Chief Jeff Jedrusik said in the statement. "Their hard work and dedication is a credit to the Westland Police Department."

Federal court records show Gordon had five previous drug-related convictions, dating back to 1992. Pangborn was previously convicted of uttering and publishing, fraudulent use of a financial transaction device and possession of dangerous drugs, among other offenses, the records show.

Wednesday: Learn a new skill

Summer school may be just what your dog needs to help remember basic commands, to learn them for the first time or to try a new sport.

Wolverine Dog Training Club in Farmington Hills offers basic through advanced obedience classes each Wednesday. Beginner training for the family dog starts at 7:45 p.m. and runs 45 minutes. A new six-week session starts July 16.

Michigan Dog Training in Plymouth trains dogs in basic manners each Wednesday and has a new four-week session starting in July.

Obedience classes help lay a foundation for continued learning in other dog sports such as agility or scent work, which both facilities offer.

If your dog needs a little help staying afloat in the pool this summer, consider a Doggy & Me Swim Class at Bark-A-Bout in Shelby Township. The next hour-long, two-week course starts Wednesday, July 25, and will teach dogs, age 6 months and older, swimming pool basics. Owners can be in the water with the swim coach or watch from poolside.

"We teach dogs of all breeds and sizes how to enter and exit the pool confidently," said Crystal Carlton, marketing and events coordinator. "We have a heated indoor pool, an outdoor pool and a wave pool in our bark park."

Bark-A-Bout also teaches dock diving in one-on-one and group settings and holds diving competitions.

Thursday: Bone appetite

Dagwood's Deli & Catering, 33179 Grand River Ave., in Farmington has welcomed customers and their dogs to its outdoor patio since it opened 34 years ago, owner Jerry Burger says.

"We have four (tables) in front. Coldstone next door has three or four, so there's about a total of 16 seats," Burger said. "We've never restricted anyone.

Drinking with Dogs includes canines and their owners. CANINE TO FIVE

It's free-wheeling. The dogs usually just sit next to their people while they eat."

He says the best time to break bread with other dog owners is Saturday, when farmers market shoppers and their furry friends stop by Dagwood's outdoor patio for a quick bite.

Dagwood's sells a wide variety of sandwiches, including the 2-pound Dagwood's, a combination of roast beef, ham, turkey, two kinds of cheese, tomato, lettuce and special sauce on four slices of bread.

There are lots of other dog-friendly restaurants with outdoor patios, from Coratti's on Main in downtown Milford to Crawford's Kitchen in Plymouth's Old Village neighborhood. Some eateries allow dogs to sit at their owner's side outdoors, while some require pets to stay just outside the patio area. Remember to call ahead for details.

Friday: TGIF with ice cream and canines

Meet other dog owners and their pets while snacking on soft-serve or hand-scooped ice cream at the Dairy King, 232 S. Main, in downtown Plymouth. This family-owned ice cream parlor has some outdoor seating, humans-only indoor seating, a walk-up order window and is a magnet for ice cream lovers and their pooches.

Photos and videos of four-pawed customers often end up on the Dairy King Facebook page.

After mingling with other dog lovers at Dairy King, walk to the Music in the Air concert at 7 p.m. Friday at Kellogg Park.

Saturday: Take a hike

You won't go wrong adding these three hiking trails to your list of favorites.

For a shorter walk, start with the trails in the nature preserve at Rotary Park, located on Six Mile at Hubbard, in Livonia. Head to the back of Rotary Park and keep your dog leashed. Trails connect and meander through woods and near a creek.

Looking for something a little longer? Explore Bloomer Park in Rochester Hills with your dog on leash. Park at the Clinton River Trailhead just off East Second Street/Letica Drive, east of Main, in downtown Rochester. Hike the trail until it forks. Take the trail on the right, leading to a bridge over the Clinton River. From there you can stay on the old railroad bed and walk until it dead ends at the river. You'll see a damn, remnants of an old railroad bridge and sometimes men and women fishing for pike, bass or walleye. Off-shoots from the main trail will lead you through forested and hilly areas of the park.

If you want even more space, try Highland Recreation Area, a 5,903-acre state park on Highland Road (M-59) between Bogie Lake Road and Duck Lake Road, in White Lake. You'll have plenty of room to roam with your dog on approximately 17 miles of hiking trails. Dogs must be on maximum 6-foot leashes.

Amanda Lizzet, an employee at the park headquarters, said the Cedar Creek Trail, a 2.75-mile path, is a favorite with walkers and dogs who want to encounter "fewer bugs" on the trail.

Admission to the park is a pass that's good for one year. Buy it for $16 at the park or for $11 when you renew your vehicle license plates.

Sunday: Bow wow your head and pray

End the week with spiritual reflection at the Congregational Church of Birmingham, UCC, 1000 Cranbrook Road, Bloomfield Hills. The congregation's 10 a.m. outdoor Sunday service and its grounds are open to leashed dogs, cats and other "relaxed" pets. Outdoor services run through the first Sunday in September.

The church also is collecting pet food donations for Michigan Animal Rescue League in Pontiac.

Dow Jones keeps changing, but it matters little

Money Matters
Rick Bloom
USA TODAY NETWORK —
MICHIGAN

It was just announced that General Electric, one of the original members of the Dow Jones Industrial Average when it first started in 1896, is going to be replaced in the Dow by Walgreens Boots Alliance, the drug store chain. GE had been a member of the Dow Jones Industrial Average continuously for the last 113 years and, at one time was considered one of the most stable, publicly held U.S. companies. The change is a reflection of not only how GE has changed over the last number of years, but also how the U.S. economy has changed.

The change will make the Dow Jones Industrial Average more representative of the consumer and health care sectors of the U.S. economy. The reality is that consumer, finance, health care and technology companies are more prominent and important today to the U.S.

economy than industrial companies. The bottom line is, the change should make the Dow a better measure of the U.S. economy and the stock market.

As investors, the change in the components of the Dow Jones Industrial Average is nothing to be overly concerned about and does not say anything about the strength or the weakness of the stock market. Over time, we have seen other changes in the Dow. For example, about nine years ago General Motors, which had been a Dow component for more than 80 years, was removed and replaced by Cisco. Five years ago, in one of the biggest shakeups of the Dow, Alcoa, HP and Bank of America were removed and were replaced with Nike, Visa and Goldman Sachs. Changes to the Dow are normal and it's not something to be overly concerned with.

The Dow Jones Industrial Average is probably the most famous stock market index. However, most people don't know what the Dow is and what it represents. Simply, the Dow Jones Industrial Average is a stock market index that shows how stocks of 30 large publicly owned companies based in the United States have performed. The purpose of the Dow is to give an overall general measurement of how the U.S. economy is doing. On the whole, the Dow Jones Industrial Average does not tell you how your portfolio is performing, but it does tell you the general health of the stock market as a whole.

What some investors do is compare the performance of their portfolio to the Dow — that's a mistake. First, it's important to remember that the Dow only represents 30 companies and that is too small a sample to judge your portfolio. In addition, indexes don't take into consideration your risk tolerance level nor your goals and objectives. Remember, if you use the Dow Jones Index to judge your portfolio, it assumes you are 100-percent invested in large company stocks. For the great majority of investors, this would not be an appropriate portfolio. Not only would it exceed someone's risk tolerance level, but it also wouldn't take into consideration that investors need bonds, small and mid-size companies and international-based companies to have a diversified portfolio.

What does leaving the Dow mean to GE? It's hard to know; GE stock has already taken a beating, so I'm not sure that the removal will cause its stock to retreat further. In fact, if you look at some of the recent companies that have been withdrawn from the Dow, their stock did not continue to fall after they left — they rose. For example, Alcoa stock was up 96 percent one year after its exit from the Dow, Bank of America up 17 percent and HP up 73 percent. If you are a GE shareholder, the removal from the Dow is not an automatic sign that you should sell the stock.

Good luck!

Kathleen Elizabeth Phelan Vollmer

PLEASANT RIDGE - Kathleen Elizabeth Phelan Vollmer November 19, 1956 – June 15, 2018 Kathleen Vollmer died at her home in Pleasant Ridge, Michigan, on June 15, 2018. She was born in San Pedro, California, on November 19, 1956, the youngest of four children born to Hubert S. and Katherine R. Phelan. Kathleen and her older siblings grew up in southern California, in Portuguese Bend and Rancho Palos Verdes. The four Phelan children attended Marymount School of Palos Verdes. Kathleen spent 12 years at Marymount, graduating from high school in 1974. She then studied at Kalamazoo College in Kalamazoo, Michigan, and earned a degree in psychology in 1977. While on a Kalamazoo study-abroad program in Spain, Kathleen met Thomas Vollmer. Kathleen and Tom married in 1979. In the early years of their marriage, they lived in New Jersey, Pittsburgh, and San Diego. Kathleen spent several years as a special education teacher. While living in San Diego, she completed a training program for paralegals and then worked as a paralegal. In 1995, Kathleen and Tom made the momentous decision to move to the Detroit, Michigan, area so that Kathleen could begin working for Roura Iron Works, a family-owned business that was founded by Kathleen's grandfather, Joseph J. Roura. The company was owned and operated by three generations of the family for more than 90 years, until it was sold in 2008. Kathleen served as an office manager, vice president, and member of the board of directors of Roura for 15 years. In 2010, she resigned her position at Roura and began working as a teacher's aide in special education for the Ferndale Public Schools, where she continued to work until shortly before her death. Soon after their move to Michigan, Kathleen and Tom purchased and renovated a home in Pleasant Ridge. In 2001, they traveled to Minsk, Belarus, where they adopted their daughter, Anna Christine. Kathleen devoted herself to raising Anna, and on June 4 she proudly watched Anna graduate from Ferndale High School. Kathleen will be remembered for her generous spirit, her quick sense of humor, and her beautiful smile. She will be greatly missed by her family. She is survived by her husband Tom, her daughter Anna, her brother James Phelan, and her sisters Frances Roach and Angelina Woolley. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, and cousins. She was preceded in death by her parents, Hubert and Katherine Phelan. A committal service will be held Friday, June 29, at 11 a.m. at Greenwood Cemetery, Oak Avenue, Birmingham, Michigan.

GIRLS TENNIS

Northville's Kumar named Miss Tennis

Brad Emons
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

During her impressive four-year tennis career at Northville High, where she posted a career singles record of 93-14, Shanoli Kumar brought all the intangibles on and off the court.

Just ask Linda Jones. "She's just the best, a great captain and such a great leader," Jones, the fifth-year Northville coach, said.

Kumar was recently named Miss Tennis, an award given annually to the top senior player in the state by the Michigan High School Tennis Coaches Association.

"I'm excited. It was kind of unexpected and I didn't know that coach Jones had recommended me for Miss Tennis," Kumar said. "I'm really excited, though, and it's a really big honor."

Kumar became the second Northville player in the history of the school to earn the honor, joining Connor Johnston (Michigan), who won the MHSTeCA boys award in 2015. Kumar will receive her award next February.

This season, Kumar compiled a 25-2 record while helping the Mustangs to their third MHSAA Division 1 state title in four years. At No. 1 singles, Kumar made it all the way to the finals before finishing runner-up to Bloomfield Hills' Tia Mukherjee.

As a junior, Kumar reached the state quarterfinals at No. 1 singles. She was a finalist as a sophomore and state champion as a freshman, both at No. 2 singles.

Kumar was regional champion four straight years and Kensington Lakes Activities Association champion three straight years (2015-17).

"She's a class act, from beginning to end," Jones said. "She always worked really, really hard on the court. She was always first on the court to play and last to leave. She ended up being captain as a junior and a senior, so all the girls on the team always looked up to Shanoli."

COLLEGE ATHLETICS

Always 'Hope' for longtime football friends Baechler, Young

Tim Smith
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Lifelong friends Lou Baechler and Ryan Young find themselves watching the summer slip away.

It also means high school is over and college is just in front of them.

But there literally is "hope" that Baechler and Young will keep on keeping on together — as only true friends can.

Baechler and Young are both going to Hope College in Holland, where they will be football teammates once again, this time as Flying Dutchmen. Both age 18, they grew up playing on the same youth grid squads with the Plymouth-Canton Steelers.

That meant the two Steelers captains walking onto the football field in lockstep for the pregame coin toss.

Then came the separation. In ninth grade, Baechler went to Canton High School while Young began attending Salem — thanks to the luck of the lottery all kids going to Plymouth-Canton Educational Park know all too well. Each went on to enjoy a stellar football career with the Chiefs and Rocks, respectively.

"It really stinks, because you grow up with guys," said Young, whose dad Dan is a veteran high school basketball

PREP VOLLEYBALL

Moran heeds call as new Novi coach

Brad Emons
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Kacy Moran has answered the call and will take over one of the state's most successful high school volleyball programs.

The 27-year-old Moran has been named new varsity coach for three-time defending MHSAA Class A state champion Novi.

She replaces Jen Cottrill, who posted a six-year record of 286-24-2, including four straight KLAA division, conference and Association titles, as well as four consecutive district and regional crowns.

After leading Novi to a 57-3 record and its fourth straight state championship finals appearance last fall, Cottrill stepped down in mid-May because of increased family commitments.

It was Cottrill who recommended Moran, a fellow coach at the Legacy Volleyball Club, to Novi athletic director Brian Gordon for the vacant position.

Moran is a 2009 Canton High grad who played four seasons at Western Kentucky University. Recently engaged, she is in her third year of teaching in the family and consumer science department at Berkley High School.

"I really hadn't looked into a job posting yet because I was still teaching, but Brian actually called me and said I was the No. 1 on Jen's list and they were very interested," Moran said. "And he ask me if I was interested and I said, 'Of, course, I'm interested.' I met him, got a tour of the school and got the ball rolling from there."

Moran most recently coached Legacy's 16 West team and will be the club's National 17 coach next year.

"It was really driven by Jen, which was nice," Moran said. "She is so highly thought of and is such an amazing coach. It's really nice that she picked

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Novi's Fenchel wins latest weekly polling

Brad Emons
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Winning the MHSAA Division 1 girls soccer state championship in her sophomore year proved to be special in more ways than one for Novi's Avery Fenchel.

The forward notched a team-high 22 goals this season, but the none was more important or better than her game-winner with only 3:29 remaining in regulation as the Wildcats upset Grand Blanc, 3-1, to bring home the school's sixth girls soccer state title in school history.

Grand Blanc entered the state finals match with a 27-1 record and had beaten Novi (19-5-1) in a previous regular season meeting, 3-1, but the Wildcats turned the tables in the rematch on June 15 in Williamston.

"The best thing about it was that I got to share it with all my teammates," said Fenchel, who was voted Hometown Life Prep Athlete of the Week. "It was the best end to the year. We couldn't have ended in a better way. We were the underdogs going into the game. And the most important thing at the end of the day was all the fans were happy, the players were happy and the coaches were happy ... I got to win a state championship with my sister (Laine) and not many people get to say that."

Fenchel earned a total of 16,876 votes (48.5 percent) to edge Birmingham Brother Rice baseball player Tito Flores, who received 15,047 (43.25 percent), for the weekly final award for the 2017-18 school year.

"It's great, I know I had a lot of support behind me," said Fenchel, who also had goal in the Wildcats' 4-1 state semi-final win June 12 over Troy. "All my friends and family had voted. I know a lot of people voted like time after time again, which I really appreciate and all the votes I got."

Avery, who tallied 13 goals during her freshman year on the varsity before going down with a broken collarbone, had a great role model to follow in her older sister Laine, who was a senior forward for the Wildcats.

"When I first joined the team she included me in a lot of things and she made everybody feel more welcomed," Avery said. "She made everything better and I became really good friends with her friends. She was always encouraging me with stuff on the field. She always helped me out with different things. Especially when I got frustrated on the field, she'd try and pick me back up."

Avery is playing club soccer this summer for the U-17 Novi Jaguars, who were in Westfield, Ind., for U.S. Youth Soccer Association Midwest Regional Championships (June 22-27).

Laine, meanwhile, will be headed off to Michigan State in the fall.

"It was a great experience and I'm so glad I got to do it for two years," Avery said. "I wish we had one more year together, but all things come to an end. It was awesome playing with her on the field. I loved connecting with her. I loved when the announcer said, 'Oh, a goal by Fenchel, a goal by Fenchel.' I loved playing with her."

and golf coach. "Obviously with me and him, but we have a lot of other friends. You get a letter in the mail and all of a sudden you're splitting up."

"We didn't really think it would be that much of a change, we thought we'd stay close," he added. "But it just naturally happens, you don't see each other as much. You used to be on the same team, walking out together as captains, but now you're meeting (against) each other at the 50-yard line. It was just a big change."

Friendship on hold

Nodding in agreement was Baechler, a stellar middle linebacker and tight end for the Chiefs. His dad, Tim Baechler (who retired last November), was Canton's head coach during a two-decade long string of playoff appearances.

"Me and Ryan grew up together, in Plymouth, about two blocks from each other," Lou Baechler said. "Played basketball outside together, dunking on each other and competing with each other."

"We were on the same baseball team and football team for seven years. And you know, coming to high school, having to separate a little bit hurt — losing my best friend for four years."

According to Dan Young, he could sense the disappointment both had to deal with as the reality of ninth grade loomed.

"The thing that I remember the most is how emotional Ryan and Lou were after their last practice together in eighth grade," Dan Young said. "They had been together for seven years and it was over. They were both pretty upset, as were all the kids (in the Young and Baechler households).

"For them to now be back together at Hope is pretty cool. They respect each other a lot and will be lifelong friends."

Hello, pal

They actually "reunited" in painful fashion during the early stages of a 2017 campus rivalry game between Canton and Salem.

Baechler stormed through the line of scrimmage, dove to tackle his friend and enthusiastically sprung up after throwing Young for a loss.

"I was rolling out to my left on a pass play and here comes big old No. 1 (Baechler). He comes and clips me," Young said, sitting next to his past and future teammate in front of the P-CEP football field. "He gets up and starts clapping. I didn't know he was hurt because he got up and he was all energetic."

"But then a couple series later, he wasn't out there anymore. I kind of knew a difference when he wasn't running my butt down in the pocket."

It was a short-lived celebration as far as Baechler was concerned. He sus-me as her predecessor for Novi."

Gordon said Moran checks off all the boxes in becoming Novi's new varsity coach.

"She's played at Canton High School, so she's familiar with our league, which we love," Gordon said. "She's played Division I college volleyball at Western Kentucky. And so she's played at the highest level and has coached with the U17s at Legacy. So she's worked with varsity age student-athletes at the club level and, to me, really understands the direction we're going in in terms of being high school sports, too, as well. She certainly knows the difference between club and what educational athletics look like and keeps that balance. When we can get somebody who understands what we're trying to accomplish in our mission as a department and as a district, we feel very lucky."

Seven players off last year's state championship team roster return, but among the notable losses are four starters: Miss Volleyball and high school All-America setter Erin O'Leary (Michigan), outside hitters Abryanna Cannon (Northwestern) and Kathryn Ellison (Kent State) and libero Claire Pinkerton.

"We lost a really, really strong senior class, but with that, there's new opportunities on the table for players and everyone has a clean slate," Moran said. "And I'm really looking forward to working with Jaeda Porter, who is going to be one of our strongest outsides, and Shannon Jennings, a setter. We have quite a few returning, quite a few I've seen in club and we have a lot of young volleyball players that are up and coming in the Novi program. Yes, it's big shoes to fill, but the Novi girls are up for that challenge."

After meeting with the players, Moran said she has set up her summer itinerary.

"We've gotten to know each other," Moran said. "We've already set up open gyms, U-M team camp, tryout dates. I have my assistant coach ready to go ... so yep, we're on the ball and ready to go and we'll get going as soon as club volleyball is over, which is right after the Detroit Junior Olympics (July 1-4 at Cobo Center)."

Gordon believes Moran will be a perfect fit for the Novi program going forward.

"We're extremely excited on how she will be a role model and mentor for our young ladies at the freshman, JV and varsity level," he said. "She's an educator, first at heart, and truly understands the importance and what educational athletics can do for the culture of a school, for a community and, most of all, our student-athletes."

And she always made sure the younger players felt included on the team. She'd make it a point to talk to them, work with them and make them feel like we're in the club."

Shanoli was born in Ann Arbor. Her father Naren, a mechanical engineer at GM, and mother Sharmini, a medical coder for Henry Ford (Health Systems), are both natives of Sri Lanka.

Her older sister Reeshma, a junior majoring in information systems at University of Michigan, also played tennis at Northville and was a member of the 2016 Division 1 runner-up team and 2015 state championship team. Her younger brother Sachiv, who will be a seventh-grader this fall, also plays tennis.

While maintaining a 3.98 grade-point average in Advanced Placement and International Baccalaureate classes, Kumar was a member of the National Honor Society and served on the Northville High Leadership council.

A three-star recruit according to TennisRecruiting.net, Kumar plans to attend U-M, where she intends to study chemical engineering.

"I'm not going to play college tennis, but their club team is really good, so I think I'm going to join that," Kumar said. "I think they won nationals one year, so I'm excited. I think it's really exciting, so I don't think I'm going to end it."

Earlier this month, Kumar was presented with the 2018 U.S. Tennis Association/Midwest Section Helen Shockley Award, which recognizes the outstanding 16- or 18-and-under age division female player in a five-state region for the highest standards of tennis accomplishments, character, conduct, sportsmanship and amateurism.

Kumar has also been recognized for her sportsmanship, winning eight USTA tournament sponsor awards, including the 2017 USTA Southeastern Michigan District's Jean and Jerry Hoxie Memorial Award for her achievements on and off the court.

Kumar has also been active in her school and community. She was involved in Cheer for Kids Club, which decorates cards for children in hospitals. As a member of Kids Influenced by Noble Deeds, she volunteers at local retirement homes and food banks.

Kumar enjoys traveling each year to Sri Lanka to visit relatives and family. Her family has also scheduled a trip this summer to visit five different countries.

When she's around home or not studying, Kumar is like any other typical teenager.

"I'm really big on spending time with family and friends, playing with my brother," she said. "I'm really into exercise, so I work out a lot, go for runs, go to the gym, stuff like that."

tained a broken forearm and soon was forced out of the game.

"I came off and the doctor felt my arm and said right away it was broken," Baechler said. "He said if you hit it again it would be a compound fracture ... and never be able to play again. I had a little meeting with my mom (Julie) and dad on the sideline, real quick.

"I said, 'Mom, I need to go out there for a couple more series until we get a better lead,'" he said. "She said no, but I went out there. A big-time gamble. I kind of played with my arm behind my back a little bit, just tried to play with one arm as much as possible."

Therapeutic

Baechler had to miss some games and have his arm put into a playing cast. As soon as the season was over, it was time for rehab sessions at ATI Physical Therapy in Plymouth (ironically, where Young also had to do rehab after hip and sternoclavicular injuries during his prep career).

ATI physical therapist Greg Moore worked with Baechler, just as he had with Young.

Baechler said Moore's positive attitude and friendly demeanor worked wonders during two months of painful rehab.

"He always pushes you hard, but he knows what you got to do to get back on the field fast," Baechler said. "He'll crack jokes with you, make fun of you. All with love, though. He's a great guy."

Young chimed in about Moore's role in his own athletic recoveries.

"(Moore) is awesome, day to day he always brings good energy, always knows what's good for you," Young said. "He pushes you, too. He's a great guy, I love him. He's never really down about anything. He really helped me out with both my injuries."

Baechler healed quickly enough to play varsity baseball for the Chiefs. Young also ran for the Rocks track and field team. Then came separate commencements on the same day at Eastern Michigan University, with one friend wearing red and the other blue.

Their next chapter is about to begin, one with a blue and orange scheme as they become Flying Dutchmen.

Coming up fast

The first week of official practice begins in early August, but during July they will get in some gassers (sprints from one sideline to the other and back again) and toss the pigskin around, just like old times.

After that, it's go time, playing as part of a growing Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association program coached by Peter Stuursma and Mike Ricketts.

"I'm just looking forward to coming into a winning program, with such great coaches like coach Stuursma and coach Ricketts," Baechler said. "And there's some great players there already. I'm looking forward to going there and winning some MIAA championships, having fun and getting a great education."

Young said the future is enticing. "It's just a great atmosphere, it's a nice town in Holland. The campus is beautiful, I can't wait."

Family bond endures

That the longtime friends, there for each other's birthday parties and backyard barbecues, now will suit up for the same college football team is something not lost on their parents — Tim and Julie (Tortora) Baechler; Dan and Jacqueline (Merrifield) Young — friends themselves for decades.

Julie, Jacqueline and Dan were friends while student-athletes at Salem, but lost touch during their college years. Tim grew up in a different part of the state.

Their reunion almost was kismet as the Baechlers "unknowingly moved next door to Jacqueline's parents' house on Lake Columbia," Julie said.

Tim Baechler then was football head coach at Hudson and Dan Young coached basketball at Canton. The talks inevitably shifted over to the struggles of the Chiefs football program.

"Long story short, I had resigned (at) Hudson and had become the head football coach at Dexter and Julie's job moved us over to Canton," Baechler said. "The Youngs alerted me to a teaching opening at one of the middle schools in Plymouth-Canton and they put in a good word for me to get an interview."

"Well, I got the teaching job. Then they introduced me to (Canton's then-A.D.) Sue Heinzman and, in one year, the Canton football coaching job had come open and I got that in 1998. We have remained very good friends ever since."

When children came onto the scene, the connection became even stronger. The Youngs' oldest son, Derek, was born just six months before Brocton Baechler. Ryan is a few months older than Lou.

"Lou and Ryan played on the same football and baseball team together since they were 8 years old," Tim Baechler said. "And they became very good friends and it was a blast for both families."

And now, with the slightly uncomfortable high school years over, a new Hope awaits. Let the fun, football and friendship roll on.

Fans hope Red Wings pick USA Hockey faves

Tim Smith
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

There was a hockey buzz inside C.J.'s Brewing Co. at USA Hockey Arena for Friday night's televised first round of the 2018 NHL Entry Draft, with fans arriving to see who the Detroit Red Wings would take with the coveted sixth pick.

Fans also wondered how many players from USA Hockey's National Team Development Program might get the call, with many pre-draft projections listing seven prospects with a solid chance to be called to the podium on the first night of the weekend proceedings in Dallas.

Would the Red Wings perhaps pick Michigan defenseman Quinn Hughes (a former NTDP standout)? Could NTDP sniper Oliver Wahlstrom be selected by Detroit general manager Ken Holland?

Before the proceedings, shown on big-screen TVs inside the restaurant, a handful of fans were asked to answer a very unscientific poll.

They were asked about which NTDP player they would like the Red Wings to select.

Polling the fans

Six respondents took a shot at how many of the projected seven first-rounders might get the call, with a national audience watching on the NBC Sports Network.

■ SEAN NELSON, Garden City (attended 10 NTDP games last season)

Q: NTDP to Wings?
A: Brady Tkachuk, forward (drafted No. 4 by Ottawa)

Q: Sleeper pick?

The aftermath

As it turned out, five NTDP alums were drafted in the first round — none by the Red Wings, unfortunately. Left wing Brady Tkachuk was the fourth pick of the round, taken by Ottawa.

After Detroit surprised everyone inside C.J.'s by calling the name of 18-year-old forward Filip Zadina.

Meanwhile, Hughes and Wahlstrom went seventh and 11th, respectively, to Vancouver and the New York Islanders. Joel Farabee, another talented forward, was selected by the Philadelphia Flyers with the 14th pick.

The fifth NTDP player to be drafted was defenseman K'Andre Miller, taken 22nd overall by the New York Rangers.

Impact on NTDP

Several fans also answered a question about whether USA Hockey's developmental program could get a shot in the arm — in terms of publicity and ticket sales — if the Red Wings picked a player from Team USA?

Nelson: "I'd love to see them draft a USA Hockey player. I'm hoping they trade up or somehow Brady Tkachuk falls to us."

Szczepanik: "Maybe I could come back and see him, like, Larkin (laughs), when he came back and visited. It's fun to watch the evolution of players and to see them here and see them (someday) play at Little Caesars Arena."

Gauthier: "Definitely, I think it's a big impact, not just for the program or for the Red Wings, but for the country itself. It shows all these top players are coming out of this program."

"It's starting just like with Dylan Larkin, you had (Jimmy) Howard as well. Now that it's been established and there's a foundation, I think it's just another piece of the marketing that will help out."

Brendan Stanisz: "It would be very prevalent for them to have a player come from the U.S. development team."

Leah Stanisz (Brendan's cousin): "It just really represents how much Detroit is a hockey town and how people grow up with hockey. ... I would use him (Dylan Larkin) as an example, he's one of the ones I know. I know some from other teams, like Auston Matthews. Those really make a mark."

Plymouth Christian Academy Eagles fly to first regional title

hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

There were two distinctly different flight patterns for the Plymouth Christian Academy Eagles to navigate June 9 during the Division 4 baseball regional at Grosse Pointe Woods University-Liggett. PCA came from behind in the semi-final against Marine City Cardinal Mooney and then took an early lead and held on to capture the regional championship, against Clarkston Everest Collegiate. The Eagles claimed the first regional title in school history thanks to a 3-2 victory over Clarkston Everest. "Our starting lineup for 90 percent of the season consisted of four seniors, one junior and four freshmen," said PCA veteran baseball coach Joe Bottorff, whose team advanced to face Unionville-Sebewaing in the D-4 quarterfinals. "What makes this even more amazing is that all four freshmen were in the infield ... both members of the battery in the second game were freshmen." Ricky Limon was the starting pitcher for the championship game, with Jacob Weertz catching.

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
