Sanders taken off Wayne ballot

Judge orders name removed for filing irregularities

LeAnne Rogers

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Back in May, Wayne voters recalled Christopher Sanders from the city council. Now, a Wayne County Circuit Court judge has ordered his name removed from the Nov. 6 ballot as a mayoral candidate over an invalid candidate filing.

That leaves only Councilman John Rhaesa on the ballot seeking the two-year term as mayor.

"It is what it is. I stand by the judge's ruling," said Sanders, who had no plans to appeal the ruling or attempt to run as a write-in candidate. "People have the right to have a choice. I have a lot of supporters in the community. A small special election (like the May recall vote) is a lot different from this election (in November)."

Sanders was referring to the recall, which drew more than 1,200 voters who approved the recall, 928-359.

Rhaesa and resident Bob Boertje, one of the recall leaders, filed the court challenge to Sanders being allowed to appear on the ballot.

"This may be the first time someone has been recalled and kicked off a ballot in the same year," said Rhaesa, who challenged the filing in court. "We couldn't have asked for a better ruling."

At issue was the required affidavit of identity and receipt of filing form. Candidates for office sign the form to attest that they have filed their campaign finance reports and paid fee/fines as required by state law. Sanders altered the document, adding "no" since he has not

If the shoe fits, don't wear it.

Eat it — especially if it's chocolate.

In her Livonia shop, dessert chef T'Andra Stewart took a high heel made of white chocolate and red chocolate and gently filled it with strawberries dipped in coconut chocolate, milk chocolate and dark chocolate.

Willy Wonka, move over. There's a new chocolatier in town.

T'Andra used the first part of her name and the word "delicious" in naming her new business, Tee'Licious Dessert Creations, in Livonia's Laurel Park Place shopping mall.

Westland teen flies high with stunt pilot

Ed Wright
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Not even the sky was the limit for 13-year-old Westland adventure seeker Buster Wurm, who barrel-rolled through the wild blue yonder Aug. 23 with renowned stunt pilot Sean Tucker.

Never shy when it comes to trying something new — even when it means taking the controls of a high-flying stunt plane thousands of feet above southeast Michigan — Buster's latest breath-taking feat materialized at Willow Run Airport on the eve of the Thunder Over Michigan airshow.

"This is amazing," Buster said 22 minutes into the flight as Tucker talked him through a pair of 360-degree barrel rolls.

Hesitant to attempt the trick during the flight's outset, the fun-loving teenager sported a smile wider than the tips of the red-and-white prop plane's wings as Tucker maneuvered the plane through the tummy-tumbling move.

Tucker was at Willow Run to perform in last weekend's Thunder Over Michigan airshow.

Buster, an eighth-grader-to-be at Westland's Stevenson Middle School, earned the 30-minute flight thanks to the tireless volunteering efforts he contributes to Willow Run's Yankee Air Museum.

Buster's mom Christina wasn't surprised her son seized the opportunity to take to the skies with Tucker.

"He's never been afraid to take chances and opportunities like this and run with it," she said. "He's been this way since he's been young. He's not a daredevil by any means, but he doesn't shy away from things like this."

As the plane her son was strapped into rolled out of the Odyssey Air hangar at approximately 9:30 that morning, Christina said, "I love you," to Buster as they closed the hatch.

"I'm excited and nervous at the same time," she said, echoing Buster's sentiments from an interview a few minutes earlier. "He's such a responsible kid and so focused. He's a straight-A student, a member of the National Honor Society. He volunteers his time to the museum here and he's getting the rewards now."

Tucker is an airshow acrobatics legend known for his 13-minute sky dance performance that includes a three-quarter loop with eight to 10 snap rolls, during which he reaches speeds of 280 mph.

Buster admitted he wasn't sure how fast the Oracle Challenger III was traveling when it soared over practice space near Ann Arbor, but it was fast enough for his liking.

"The last I heard it was 130 (knots)," he said. "I wasn't looking at the gauges too much."

Tucker told his young co-pilot a short time after the wheels left the ground that they could forego the trick moves and just sight-see, but once Buster's adrenaline started getting in sync with his comfort level, he gave the thumbs up to a couple of barrel rolls.

"We rolled it a couple times, looped it and made a roller-coaster in the sky," Tucker said. "Buster did a great job. He was a little quiet the first part of the flight; I think he was just taking it all in. He had the controls, though, when we flew out to the practice area.

"I worked with him on wing overs and got him to roll the airplane. He had the controls."

Back on solid ground, his bearings returned to normal, Buster reflected on the experience that even a ride on the highest roller-coaster at Cedar Point couldn't match.

"It was amazing ... like nothing I've ever experienced before," he said. "My stomach was a little upset at first, but once we were up there a while, I was fine."

Buster's long-term career ambitions are grounded, he admitted.

"I'd like to be an aeronautical engineer someday," he said. "I want to build and fix planes, not fly them. If I do get a pilot's license someday, it will just be for leisure."

Buster earned a Young Eagle certificate from Tucker, who is chairman of the EAA Young Eagles, aviation's flagship program to introduce kids to flight.

Don't put off planning for your inevitable demise

Money Matters
Rick Bloom
USA TODAY NETWORK —
MICHIGAN

Michigan just lost another icon with the death of Aretha Franklin. Amidst all the tributes and stories about Franklin and her career, I read an article that stated she died without a will or a trust. According to her attorney, he advised her to do some estate planning but, for whatever reason, it never got done. Hopefully, her estate can be settled without problems for her family, but who knows if that will happen? When people die without a will or trust, it seems that in many situations problems develop, particularly with someone such as Franklin, with substantial means.

I cannot stress enough how important it is for every adult to have a will and, in many situations, a trust. We live in a complicated world and the less that judges, courts, lawyers and outsiders get involved with our private affairs, the better it will be for our loved ones. When you die without doing any estate planning, the state of Michigan determines who gets your property and who is in charge of your estate. The result of this is that everything becomes more complex. When you couple that with the emotions that surround someone's death, anything can happen.

When someone dies without any estate planning, it doesn't mean that they don't love their families — of course not. When someone dies with an effective estate plan, it does show that they wanted to make the handling of their final affairs as easy as possible on their loved ones. The more you keep judges, courts and lawyers out of family affairs, the easier things will be for your beneficiaries.

We all have to accept the fact that we all are going to eventually die. There is nothing we can do to avoid it. It is important to realize that just because you do a will or trust doesn't mean you think the end is coming anytime soon. It just means that you have accepted the fact that life is unpredictable and you want to be prepared, no matter what happens.

There are some estate planning items that everyone needs to complete to be prepared. In addition to making sure you have a will and maybe a trust that are up to date and current, it is important that your beneficiaries are also current. Whether it is a brokerage account through Fidelity or Schwab, an IRA or an insurance policy, it is important that you have named a primary and a secondary beneficiary. You should go through all your items where you can have a beneficiary and make sure that you have beneficiaries in place and they are up to date and reflect your current views. You should recheck your beneficiaries every couple of years, at a minimum, as well as when there is some change in your family. Whether they are relatives or friends, family dynamics and friendships can change, so it's important that your beneficiary designations are accurate. I cannot tell you how many times I have seen people who die with a divorced spouse or a parent who died years ago still listed as the beneficiary.

Another item that would make managing your final affairs as easy as possible is for your relatives to know what assets, accounts and insurance policies you own and where they are located. Having something in place so that your family knows how to access your online accounts, including passwords and login information, is also important. This will make handling your final affairs much easier on your loved ones. If you have an insurance policy and your loved ones don't know about it, how can they complied with the filing requirements and owes several thousand dollars in fees and fines.

The form, which is notarized, also includes a warning that falsely attesting to being compliant with filing and fees/fines is perjury, a felony which can carry up to a $1,000 fine and jail time. By not attesting to being in compliance, Sanders avoided the perjury issue, but altering the form and being non-compliant made his candidate filing invalid.

That was the argument made by Rhaesa and Boertje at an emergency hearing before Wayne County Circuit Judge Robert Colombo Jr., who issued a writ of mandamus ordering Sanders's name be removed from the ballot. Mandamus is an order to a government official to properly fulfill their official duties or correct an abuse of discretion.

During the hearing, Colombo rejected arguments from attorneys for Wayne County that it was too late to make changes in the ballot due to printing deadlines — which wasn't supported by an affidavit from the printing contractor; that other remedies such as filing a complaint with the state were available; and that it was unclear what Sanders meant when he crossed out the print language on the form and wrote in "no."

Due to time constraints, Colombo said the alternate remedy of filing a complaint with the state attorney general was not adequate. Then the judge addressed the form itself.

"It's clear and unambiguous. No means that Christopher Sanders has not paid the fine and fees, he has not filed the reports," Colombo said. "You can look facially and see the document is defective."

Accepting Wayne County's arguments that Sanders should be allowed to stay on the ballot would create a huge loophole in the statute, Colombo said.

"You argue he could write in 'no' on his affidavit. The whole idea of this law is to make sure a candidate who files for office files their campaign finance reports and pays their fines and fees," Colombo said. "It's hard to understand the position of the defendants (Wayne County). The arguments are unmeritorious and bordering on frivolous."

Based on his affidavit and failure to comply with the statute, Colombo said letting Sanders's name remain on the ballot would abrogate the law approved by the state Legislature.

Sanders, who did not attend the hearing, owes more than $2,500 in fees/fines over failing to file campaign finance reports dating back to 2012, according to the most recent notice sent him in May by the county clerk's office. Rhaesa estimated the unpaid amount at more than $4,000.

A councilman for about 2½ years before being recalled, Sanders represented Ward 1. Before being elected, Sanders had funded the petition effort that put the ward voting system on the ballot for voter approval.

This isn't the first legal trouble for Sanders. He was charged, but not convicted, over allegations that signatures were falsified regarding a ballot question on firefighter minimum staffing. He was also charged with improperly handling funds from a Halloween event he organized through a nonprofit organization he operates, with the charges later dismissed.

Sanders did receive probation in 2011 after entering a guilty plea to a criminal charge that he provided alcohol to underage students from Riverview High School. In 2006, Sanders had been convicted of a felony and two misdemeanors for forging fake identification and furnishing alcohol to minors.

Current Mayor Susan Rowe isn't seeking another two-year term as mayor. A councilman for seven years, Rhaesa has another two years left on council — terms were extended under state law once the ward system was implemented.

"I feel like there are a lot of things moving in the right direction and I want to continue that," Rhaesa said. "We need to get the city on solid ground, so the city can have a future. I felt I needed to do it (run for mayor)."

Volunteers needed for AARP tax program

AARP Foundation Tax-Aide is looking to expand its team of volunteers for the upcoming tax season. Tax-Aide, celebrating its 50th year, offers free in-person preparation and assistance to anyone, especially those ages 50 and older, who can't afford a tax preparation service. Volunteers make a difference in their communities by assisting many older, lower-income taxpayers and their families, who might otherwise miss out on the tax credits and deductions they've earned.

Since its inception, AARP Foundation Tax-Aide has served more than 68 million taxpayers. The program is seeking volunteer tax preparers, client facilitators, those who can provide technical and management assistance and interpreters. Every level of experience is welcome. Volunteer tax preparers complete tax preparation training and IRS certification. Last year, 1,048 AARP Foundation Tax-Aide volunteers helped more than 67,000 people file their federal and state tax returns. The program is offered at approximately 144 sites in Michigan including senior centers, libraries and other convenient locations.

AARP Foundation Tax-Aide has grown since its inaugural team of just four volunteers in 1968. The program now involves 35,000 volunteers and serves more than 2.5 million taxpayers annually at nearly 5,000 sites nationwide. In 2018, taxpayers who used AARP Foundation Tax-Aide received $1.3 billion in income tax refunds and more than $213 million in Earned Income Tax Credits. Taxpayers do not need to be a member of AARP or a retiree to use Tax-Aide.

To learn about our volunteer opportunities and to apply, go to aarpfoundation.org/taxaide or call 888-687-2277 by Oct. 1. AARP Foundation Tax-Aide is offered in coordination with the IRS.

When I first got involved in this business, most people did estate planning to avoid federal estate taxes and the Michigan inheritance tax. The Michigan inheritance tax has been eliminated and most people don't have to worry about federal estate taxes. In today's world, where life is more complex than it's ever been, estate planning is important for everyone to make sure that their loved ones can move on with their lives and avoid family disputes. If you haven't completed an estate plan or if you haven't looked at it in a while, this is a reminder that, as adults, we have adult responsibilities. One of them is to plan for the ultimate, which we know will happen to all of us.

Good luck!

Her slogan: Don't cheat yourself, treat yourself.

It's easy to do in the place she runs with help from her mother, Shurlene "Babycakes" Stewart — a nickname she got from grandson Felton, T'Andra's son.

Mother and daughter smile as they banter back and forth at Tee'Licious, located in Laurel Park's food court.

"I'm the boss," T'Andra said.

"She thinks she is," Shurlene said.

Joking aside, this team is working hard to make Livonia and surrounding communities a sweeter place with chocolate-covered potato chips, grapes, pretzels, strawberries and apples, among other treats. Customers also can find peach cobbler, banana pudding and strawberry, cherry, lemon and raspberry shortcake.

In all, T'Andra has 20 distinct chocolate flavors that she uses for dipping and decorating her deliciously decadent desserts. Her mother's favorite Tee'Licious item blends the flavors of white chocolate, caramel, pecans and pretzels with sea salt.

"It's sweet but, in the end, you get slapped in the face with the sea salt from the pretzel," Shurlene said.

T'Andra, 45, was ready to seek a culinary arts degree at Schoolcraft College when she got a kitchen job offer at the MGM Grand casino in Detroit, where she worked for nine years and honed her skills making desserts. She perfected her creations before striking out on her own.

T'Andra opened her first Tee'Licious shop in Taylor's Southland Center, but she eventually lost her space when a new tenant was brought in. It just so happened Laurel Park Place was looking for a business like hers for its food court.

"It's absolutely amazing," said Melissa Cavanagh, the mall's marketing manager, adding that Tee'Licious "is definitely a gem in the area."

Like most children, T'Andra loved candy as a child. She remembers her sister taking her to an arcade where she could buy penny candy. Now she makes her own sweets.

"Opening my own business is something I always wanted," she said. "My mom helps me and is such a blessing to me."

One recent weekday afternoon, T'Andra had her granddaughter Gia, almost 8 months old, with her. T'Andra said she hopes to grow her business and pass it down to younger generations.

"I want to leave a legacy for my family," she said.

Shurlene's "magic bars" just might help. Made with graham cracker crust, walnuts, coconut and chocolate chips, they are among T'Andra's favorite items sold in her shop. Other decadent items include chocolate-covered bacon and chocolate-covered strawberries decorated to look like wedding dresses or tuxedos.

Tee'Licious uses 20 different chocolate flavors, such as salted caramel, key lime, watermelon, peanut butter, coconut and the usual milk chocolate, white chocolate and dark chocolate, among others.

T'Andra has made chocolate-covered Oreo eyeballs for Halloween and chocolate Santas for Christmas. She also caters for weddings, birthdays and other special events. Coming soon, she plans to start making crepes.

However, she said, "we don't do cakes."

T'Andra made an appearance on WDIV-TV (Channel 4) when she was in Taylor and in 2017 earned one of the television station's Tasty Awards.

Shurlene couldn't be prouder of her daughter and the business.

"I love it," she said. "I've been here to support her since day one."

Some customers from as far away as Canada have followed T'Andra from Taylor to Livonia. She is hopeful of finding success at Laurel Park Place.

"I love it here," she said. "I believe it's a blessing from God, opening another door for me."

For more information, look for Tee'Licious on Facebook and Instagram or call 734-469-4101 or 313-465-4506.

Northville gets another tourney win

Simoncini shares medalist honors for Mustangs

Brad Emons
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Northville wrapped up the month of August in style by winning its fifth straight tournament, posting a four-player total of 333 to capture the Saline Hornet Invitational on Aug. 29 at Travis Pointe Country.

The set-up proved to be difficult, but the Mustangs were able to hold off Brighton and Plymouth, which finished second and third, respectively, with 340 each (based on the fifth-player tiebreaker).

Northville senior captain Mariella Simoncini tied for medalist honors with Ann Arbor Pioneer's Amaya Melendez, both carding 5-over 77.

Simoncini's round was even more impressive because of how her day started.

"I took a quadruple (bogey) on the par-4 second hole," Simoncini said. "I hit my first shot out of bounds, then I three-putted on the steep green."

To her credit, Simoncini didn't lose focus.

"I just considered it my warm-up and learned from my missed shots," she said. "I refocused and carded birdie the next hole."

Northville coach Chris Cronin praised his captain for being able to overcome the early adversity.

"Mariella sets the tone for this team," he said. "She is a tremendous leader, so I wasn't surprised that she remained calm and was able to refocus after a difficult hole. She has become a very resilient player."

Meanwhile, Northville's top player, sophomore Nicole Whatley, finished third with 78 after overcoming a modest 4-over 40 on the front nine. Whatley also was able to regroup and make some mid-round adjustments.

"Finding the fairway was a challenge all day for Nicole, but her wedge game was sharp and it kept her in position to put for birdie on several of holes," Cronin said.

No holding these Tigers

Belleville takes down Churchill with big second half, 48-24

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Livonia Churchill learned quickly in the second half Aug. 30 that Belleville has another gear.

The Chargers led the top-ranked Tigers 24-21 at halftime, but couldn't sustain upset plans against a team loaded with major college talent, falling in the KLAA East Division opener, 48-24.

Belleville scored 27 unanswered points over the final two quarters and took advantage of five Churchill turnovers to improve to 2-0.

The previous week, the Chargers won the takeaway battle in a 35-21 win at Canton, but the tables were turned this time against Belleville.

Races take shape in new KLAA

Three-time defending Class A state champion Novi features new coach

Brad Emons
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

After dominating the Kensington Lakes Activities Association for the past four years, Novi now slides back into the pack.

The three-time defending MHSAA Class A champion, which lost three players to NCAA Division I schools, is off to a 6-3 start this fall under first-year coach Kacy Morin.

Novi's most experienced returnee is 6-foot senior middle hitter Jaeda Porter, along with the Jennings sisters, Shannon, a 5-9 junior setter, and Rachel, a 5-8 sophomore defensive specialist.

The team that got lost in the shadows of the Wildcats (57-3) last season was Northville, which returns 10 players, including seven seniors off a squad that finished 42-8-2.

The Mustangs, who will be tough to beat in the newly configured KLAA West Division, will be led by senior libero and Michigan State commit Hannah Grant, who paced the team last season in digs and aces.

Northville, already off to a 10-1 start, will also rely on junior middle hitter and blocker Clare McNamara, a talented multi-sport athlete who paced the team in kills and blocks.

Joining Northville and Novi in the KLA West this season will be Plymouth, Canton, Salem, Brighton, Howell and Hartland.

Canton, under second-year coach Cricket Hughley, is rebuilding, while Salem has a new coach in Jon Denys.

Plymouth, meanwhile, will be banking on six seniors.

"Our goal this year is to be competitive in the new KLA," second-year Plymouth coach Sheila Weber said. "Our division is tough and we need to raise our level of play to compete. The girls know every game will be a battle, but they have stepped up their preseason training and have the will to win. The team is scrappy and their chemistry is really strong. Throughout the summer our motto has been 'work hard, play hard' and we are ready put those words into action as our season gets underway."

Livonia Stevenson, Livonia Franklin, Westland John Glenn, Wayne Memorial will be joined in the KLA East this fall by newcomers Dearborn, Dearborn Fordson and Belleville.

Churchill, the KLA Black Division champion last fall, also has a strong returning core of players, led by 5-9 junior outside hitter Sarah Dunn, along with Grace Vaeth, Jessica Maladecki and Summer Clark.

The Chargers, Class A regional finalists a year ago, are off to a 6-3 start after beating Canton, going 2-1 in the Legacy Invitational (Aug. 25) at Schoolcraft College and 3-2 in the Portage Central Invitational (Aug. 18).

Stevenson returns eight players off a team that lost to Farmington Hills Mercy in the Class A regional final.

Third-year coach Julian Wargo believes the Spartans, who are off to a 9-3-1 start, have the pieces to contend for the KLA East crown, along with a challenging non-division schedule that will help them prepare for the state tourney. They will be led by the Cleveland sisters, Abby and Libby, both juniors.

John Glenn, 3-5 so far, has three sophomores in the starting lineup: Mya Tarrance, Jessica Florn and Alexa Richardson.

"Both Tarrance and Florn have good volleyball IQ's, the game is instinctive to them, but they're still young," fourth-year Glenn coach Ron Staples said.

Meanwhile, Franklin's top returnee is 5-10 senior middle hitter Abi Atteveld.

Wayne, off to a 0-8-1 start, will lean on junior defensive specialist Megan Blair, while Danielle Robbins assumes the varsity coaching duties from Samantha Dye.

Here is a capsule look of the hometownlife.com area teams in the KLA.

Weber's 2018 take: "Plymouth is looking to improve on last year's performance with six seniors leading the way. Kayla Courtney and Hailey Wasik, our senior captain, have already shown great leadership in the preseason and continue to help us increase our intensity and focus in practice. They also figure heavily into our offense with Kayla playing all-around and giving us a strong back row attack. Annie Tustian will be a second-year starter on varsity. She can shut down teams at the net with her strong blocking and quick attack. Hannah Ramer is also a senior outside that has three years of varsity and one of the hardest hitters in the program. We are expecting her to be our go-to player on the outside."

Canton

Last year's record: 10-3 KLA.

Titles won last year: KLA Black and Class A district.

Players to watch: Sarah Dunn, Jr. 5-9 OH; Jessica Maladecki, 5-5 Jr. libero; Grace Vaeth, 5-7 Sr. setter; Summer Clark, 6-0 Sr. MB; Mary Claire Yost, 5-11 Sr. RSH.

Clutter's 2018 take: "We are obviously returning a core group of kids, so it should be a really strong year. I pretty much expect us to win our division in the KLA and then I also expect to take our district. Sarah Dunn is obviously an explosive part of our offense. She's a really great server for us. She's a six-rotation player and we rely on her offensively even when she's in the back row. She's a solid kid, and even through she's only a junior, she brings a lot of maturity, she brings a lot of court sense and brings a lot of stability to the team."

Livonia Franklin

Head coach: Kelsey Poston, third season.

Last year's finish: tied for fifth, KLA Black; 2-11 KLA.

Poston's 2018 take: "I'm really looking forward to this season. Last year we lost 6 seniors so this year we have a lot of new faces that must fill those critical roles that a few players had been holding for the past 3-4 years. The hard work my girls have put in over the year in their clubs has really shown early into our season. I am really excited to see that translate into our matches this year. Particularly our outside hitters who I am really putting a lot of pressure on. We're definitely still working to figure out our identity as a team, but I would definitely use the word scrappy. We're definitely not the biggest team in the KLA, but we're definitely looking to put up a fight against those big teams in our league."

Livonia Stevenson

Head coach: Julian Wargo, third season.

Last year's record: 26-20.

Players to watch: Abby Cleveland, 5-11 Jr. setter; Eliza Alushi, 5-0 Jr. DS; Libby Cleveland, 6-0 Jr. MH; Sedona

Coon, 5-8 Jr. MH; Erin Pietruszka, 5-3 Jr. DS; Abby Cormier, 5-8 Sr. OH; Koryn Parmenter, 5-11 Jr. OH; Ari Cinque, 5-8 Sr. OH; Hannah Campau, 5-8 Sr. setter-OH; Emma Prowse, 5-5 Jr. setter; Sedona Coon, 5-8 Jr. OH; Katie Rumon, 5-7 Jr. OH; Madison Bennett, 5-6 Jr. OH.

Wargo's 2018 take: "I'll be looking for our three seniors - Cormier, Cinque and Campau - to set a spirited tone on the court. This is a talented and experienced group of players who expect to compete for every point. I'm excited about his team's physicality, whose strengths include the size of their front line and having many capable attackers and blockers. The Spartans look to be quick to the ball on defense and run a multi-attacker offense. Hard work, constant improvement, and selfless play will continue to be the program's hallmarks."

Westland Glenn

Head coach: Ron Staples, fourth season.

Last year's finish: tied for third place, KLA Black; 3-10 KLA.

Players to watch: Mya Tarrance, Soph. OH-MH; Jessica Florn, Soph. OH; Katelyn Blevins, Sr. setter; Brienne Bagwell, Sr. libero; Mya Clark, Sr. setter; Alexis Guajardo, Jr. MH; Alexa Richardson, Soph. RSH; Kianna Parrom, Jr. MH-RSH; Shannon Blevins, Soph. RSH; Karina Vasquez, Soph. RSH.

Staples's 2018 take: "We're young, we're athletic. We have talent, it's just we don't have height and we have to start jelling together. I have to figure out the positions that the girls have to play. Right now we have two or three girls that are playing two or three different positions and I have to decide where they're going to be in the next month. We start three 10th-graders, a senior and another sophomore. It's a work in progress, but we have Jessica (Florn) and Mya (Tarrance), who are very, very good. The core of our team is the young 10th-graders - (Alexa) Richardson, Jessica and Mya. We're young, we'll build a team and keep growing."

Wayne Memorial

Head coach: Danielle Robbins, first season.

Last year's finish: sixth place, KLA Black; 0-13 KLA.

Players to watch: Megan Blair, Sr. DS; Jade Elder, Sr. MH; Nyah Brinson, Sr. MH; Hazelle Williams, Jr. setter; Lindsey Wallace, Soph. OH.

Robbins's 2018 take: "This is like a rebuilding year for us. We have a lot of new freshman and newcomers this year, but they have a lot of potential. We're looking forward to picking up where we left off last year. We did lose from last year a few of our key players, so that's unfortunate. But with the potential that we have we'll do really well and keep pushing forward. Megan Blair is a good leader for us, and then Jade Elder is a good leader for us as well. They're our main players."

Tigers

"It's tough. They're No. 1 for a reason, they have the most talent in the state," said Churchill coach Bill DeFillippo, whose team slipped to 1-1. "I think we played great in the first half, but we still had two turnovers. We missed a couple that we had shots on and didn't convert. We had the penalty on the one we scored down here (83-yard TD pass nullified by an illegal block), which got us to a field goal. And then they got a couple of quick ones early. We kept moving the ball, but then we'd turn the ball over. Offensively, I thought we moved the ball pretty consistent all night ... and then we had the five turnovers, so that didn't help us."

Churchill countered Belleville's first-half blitzing tactics to take a three-point lead into the locker room, but the Tigers tightened things up defensively in the second half.

"I give hats off to Churchill," Belleville coach Jermain Crowell said. "They were prepared for it. We've got a young back end. Outside of Andre Seldon and Marvin Ham, everybody else is new on the defense. So when we get to doing all that blitzing, we leave people open, so it's better to keep it simple early. Tyrece Woods was begging us, 'Coach, if we could just stay base, we can handle it.' And surprisingly, they could."

Helped by a pair of Belleville 15-yard penalties, the Chargers scored when senior quarterback Drew Alsobrooks scored on an 11-yard bootleg with 5:18 to go in the first quarter. Dez Dewberry's 4-yard run on fourth-and-inches kept the drive going for the 7-0 lead.

Belleville was stymied on its first two possessions and Churchill took advantage to go up 14-0 after Alsobrooks connected with a wide open Brendan Lowry over the middle for a 39-yard TD with 2:35 left in the first.

But the Tigers responded quickly, scoring on the first play of the second quarter on a 2-yard run by Khalid Crawford to make it 14-7.

The Tigers' Andre Seldon picked off an Alsobrooks pass and returned it to the Chargers' 39 and, four plays later, Deon Selma scored on a 16-yard run to make it 14-14 with 8:55 left.

Churchill then put together a 13-play, 85-yard drive, capped by Darrell Mason Jr.'s 1-yard TD run, consuming 5:13 of the clock to put the Chargers up 21-14 with 3:35 to go.

Belleville's Julian Barnett then returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards and the Tigers' Christian Dhue-Reid, a sophomore QB, hit Deland McMullen on fourth-and-seven for a clutch 24-yard TD pass with 2:14 left to even the score at 21-21.

"A lot of the problems that we had in the first half of last week's game (win vs. Brighton) ... those problems cropped up here in the first half," Crowell said. "They get over-excited, they get to over-running the play instead of playing in levels. We were able to make some half-time adjustments and just, basically, play our base coverage defense."

The Chargers thought they were up 28-21 when Alsobrooks connected with the speedy Mason for an 83-yard TD pass with just over two minutes left in the first half. But a questionable blind-side block wiped out the TD and it was good instead for a 42-yard gain.

Seven plays later, Alsobrooks booted a 23-yard field goal to put Churchill up 24-21 at the half.

During intermission, Belleville regrouped.

"We have to wake up, because we were losing and we weren't really used to being down," said Seldon, a junior commit to Michigan. "We just wanted to wake up and play like grown men."

Belleville took the second half kickoff and scored in just eight plays, when Dhue-Reid hit Tyrece Woods over the middle for a 14-yard TD with 9:30 left to give the Tigers their first lead of the night, 28-24.

The Chargers then committed their second turnover of the game, when Deshaun Lee recovered a fumble at the Chargers' 33.

It took just five plays for the Tigers to score as Crawford slipped up the middle for a 17-yard TD run with 8:12 remaining in the third to stretch the Belleville lead to 35-24.

The Chargers' Avery Grenier intercepted a Dhue-Reid pass and returned it to the Tigers' 42, but they couldn't capitalize when Alsobrooks's 43-yard pass to Grenier inside the Tigers' 5 was coughed up for a touchback into the end zone with 6:38 remaining.

Belleville then put it away with 3:59 left in the game, on Dhue-Reid's 9-yard keeper, to make it a three-score game, 42-24.

The Tigers got a late score with 3:35 to go, when Dhue-Reid looped a 31-yard TD pass, his third of the night, to Jalen Williams.

Down two scores, Churchill's second-half frustration was culminated when Alsobrooks found Shane Morelli wide open inside the 5 for a 42-yard pass with 6:38 remaining, but junior wide receiver coughed up the ball and it squirted into the end zone for a touchback.

"You can't get down to the 1 and fumble it through the end zone," DeFillippo said. "We got behind them on the one where we dropped it and could have scored on, so the final score is obviously not indicative. They wanted to choose and throw a fade ball over our head with two minutes to go, so that was pretty classy. You can't turn the ball over against talented guys, that's for sure."

Meanwhile, Belleville's offense was clicking on all gears over the final two quarters.

"Being aggressive and we made a few defensive adjustments, that was pretty much it," Seldon said. "Coach Kevin Rogers (offensive coordinator), he's just a G.O.A.T. (greatest of all time), that's all I can say. He's really great at what he does."

Dhue-Reid was 15-of-24 passing for 224 yards and three TDs with an interception, while Alsobrooks was 20-of-30 for 224 with two TDs and three interceptions.

Churchill outgained the Tigers in rushing yardage, 184-174, as Mason Jr. led the way 98 yards on 14 carries. But Belleville won the turnover battle and special teams battle.

"They're way too explosive to give them chances," DeFillippo said. "We talked about being the most disciplined team on the field and, when you turn the ball over five times, it didn't end up being that way."

PREP FOOTBALL

Brighton rolls to 38-0 win over Novi

Wildcats fall to 0-2 in KLA West Division clash

Bill Khan
Livingston Daily
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

After losing to Belleville on a touch-down pass with 12.1 seconds left in the season opener, Brighton made sure its second game wouldn't be nearly as dramatic.

The Bulldogs raced out to a 28-0 half-time lead, scoring on four of their five possessions, on their way to a 38-0 KLA West Division shutout Aug. 30 against Novi.

Following are five takeaways:

SEGUIN BREAKS OUT

Brighton's offense revolved around the running of quarterback Will Jontz against Belleville. Jontz put on a show, running for four touchdowns against a defense loaded with major college prospects.

So naturally, Novi's defense was very much aware of the need to contain the Bulldogs' explosive quarterback.

"Absolutely, we were gearing up to stop Jontz," Novi coach Jeff Burnside said. "They threw a couple wrinkles at us we weren't prepared for."

One of those wrinkles was increasing the workload for senior running back Chris Seguin, who was certainly ready for the increased role.

Seguin ran 17 times for a career-high 179 yards and three touchdowns. He did most of the damage in the first half, running 12 times for 164 yards and three touchdowns. The starting offense left the game after taking a 35-0 lead with 7:29 remaining in the third quarter.

Seguin scored the game's first three touchdowns on runs of 23, 1 and 73 yards.

Seguin is a low-key sort of player, not showing much emotion after any of his touchdowns. He has the same approach to the biggest performance of his three-year varsity career.

"It's always good to have a short memory," said Seguin, who ran 13 times for 72 yards against Belleville. "Every week's a new week. Every game's a new game. You've got to take every game like it's your last one."

Jontz ran only four times for 21 yards.

"The opportunities come based on what they see," Brighton coach Brian Lemons said. "It's Chris or Will. Tonight, it seemed like the big yards went to Chris. It could be that way every week. As long as Will does a good job of running the offense, one of those two guys hopefully are successful."

BULLDOGS AVOID LETDOWN

For the second straight year, Brighton lost a heart-breaker to highly ranked Belleville after leading in the final minute of the fourth quarter.

For the second straight year, the Bulldogs managed to turn the page and come up with a huge effort to even their record at 1-1. Last year, Brighton beat Hartland, 49-21, the week after the loss to Belleville.

"It wasn't hard, necessarily," Brighton defensive tackle Marcus Ford said. "It was more of a mentality that we need to bring that same intensity that we did last week to the game this week. Our coaches do a great job of making sure we're ready to go for the games. We do a good job of amping each other up. We hype off each other's hype."

DEFENSIVE STAR

Linebacker Cole Riddle was probably good enough as a sophomore last season to play on the varsity, but Brighton was loaded with seniors at that position.

As a junior, he's stepped in to become one of the key figures on Brighton's defense. After making eight tackles against Belleville, he made two impact plays against Novi in the third quarter, recovering a fumble and getting a sack.

"I expected to do well," Riddle said. "I don't know how other guys felt, but I expected to adapt pretty quickly, come out and get things done on Friday night."

For his fumble recovery, Riddle was the Bulldog to rock the team's new University of Miami-inspired turnover chain.

"Coach (Brandon) Krugh brought it out of the locker room today in pre-game," Riddle said. "He told us about it. I went out and got it."

NOVI AT A CROSSROADS

The focus for Novi in its postgame huddle was to not allow the season to slip away after starting out 0-2.

The Wildcats started 0-2 last year and wound up 3-6 one year after reaching the second round of the state play-offs.

After Burnside finished talking with his players, a team leader kept the huddle together and implored the players to stick together and battle through this slow start.

"They'll respond," Burnside said. "We've got a good group of kids, great kids."

The Wildcats were shut out for the first time in 32 games, dating to a 17-0 loss to Brighton in the 2015 opener.

"We're young," said Burnside, who rotated senior Drew O'Connor and junior Josh Erno at quarterback. "We're playing three or four underclassmen on offense. Sometimes it's a physical thing. Sometimes it's a mental breakdown. We had a few too many breakdowns tonight."

END ZONE WELCOME

After Seguin scored three straight touchdowns to open the scoring, two Bulldogs scored their first varsity touchdowns.

Zachary Rachfal caught a 38-yard pass from Jontz with 1:06 left in the first half to make it 28-0. Rachfal appeared to catch a touchdown pass three plays earlier, but the play was nullified by a penalty.

With the backups on the field, Noah Piercy scored on a 3-yard run with 7:29 left in the third quarter, making it 35-0 and invoking a running clock. Jacob Moraschinelli kicked his first varsity field goal from 21 yards out to start the fourth quarter.

Western Golf & Country Club to rebuild after fire

Brad Emons

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

After staging the five-day Michigan Women's Amateur Championship, Western Golf & Country Club is now turning its attention to the future following a devastating fire that destroyed the main clubhouse June 1.

Nudell Architects, based in Farmington Hills, has been contracted to do planning and design for the rebuilt facility in Redford Township.

Country Club of Detroit, Meadowbrook Country Club, Whispering Willows, Knollwood CC, and Oakland Hills CC have also partnered with Nudell, which is expected to come up with a conceptual look for the new Western Golf & Country Club building within the next two weeks.

"They've done a lot of clubhouses in the area. They're currently in a project with Orchard Lake (Country Club) right now and worked on some of the bigger venues here in the area," Western Golf & CC general manager Jason Iding said.

Iding said a survey was sent out to the membership and the architectural drawings reveal that it's hoped the new clubhouse will feature the best of both worlds, the future and the past.

"I think what's important to them are that we hold some of the old traditions, some other new and modern amenities that some of the other clubs have," Iding said. "I think the style of it — most are leaning to a more traditional or transitional-type appearance to the club. But again, they want to make sure that we have the latest and greatest of everything."

Demolition is right around the corner, according to Iding.

"As of right now, we're on schedule to be the day after Labor Day (Sept. 4), because we wanted to have as many of the functions available for the members throughout the year," he said. "We wanted to wait for the pool to close ... it's not throwing back any of the timing of the project, so we thought it would be in the best interest of everybody."

The clubhouse was built in 1926 and celebrated its grand opening the following year, according to the club's website.

"A lot of things got to go on track, but the time frame is somewhere between 18 and 24 months for a complete build," Iding said. "The members have been very responsive. We have about nine committees set up, from everything like interior designs, landscaping, layout of the club, things of that nature. Everybody has done their part and pulled together."

Firefighters from four communities battled the blaze in the club's main building, located at Kinloch and Graham roads.

Andrew Arena, vice president of Western's board of directors, said the fire was spotted by golf course employees and that he was told it started in the kitchen. Reports revealed the last employee to leave the building before the fire was reported did so around midnight or 12:30 a.m., Redford Fire Chief Scott Demoff said.

Demoff said at the time he could not confirm where the fire started. There were no preliminary indications that the fire had been deliberately set, he said. (Demoff could not be reached for comment as of Tuesday.)

The 92-year-old Western Golf & CC is "a real family club" with about 400 member families, according to Arena. The club features an 18-hole golf course, a pool, tennis courts and banquet facilities.

Although the fire proved to be devastating, Iding said that Western stayed on course with its summer schedule despite the interruptions.

"We were right up against it," he said. "Once the fire happened, the team pulled together. We had our men's invitational scheduled two weeks after, so we had a couple of temporary facilities up within 10 days. We worked with some really great companies and Belfor, obviously, helped us manage that process, which was great. They've been great to work with."

A temporary pavillion, with a kitchen and dining room, was erected shortly after the blaze.

"Again, the membership has been totally supportive," Iding said. "Beginning on these committees, they continued to use the golf course, use the pool. Now that we have this semi-permanent structure that will be here for quite a while, they've been in here dining and we haven't missed a member event yet. We've continued all our golf events or had the same, with higher numbers than what we've had in the past."

Western, rich in golf history, hosted the 102nd Michigan Women's Amateur (Aug. 13-17) for the third time in the tournament's history and first time since 1963.

Flushing's Kerrigan Parks, who will be a sophomore at Marshall University, defeated Dearborn's Elayna Bowser, who will be a senior at Loyola (Ill.) University, in the match play final on the 19th hole.

"I think it was great," Iding said. "They played some outstanding golf. The ladies, I think, are getting better and better every year. The whole game of golf is getting better, but the golf I saw today, both of them around even par, was outstanding."

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

NOTICE OF HEARING ON SPECIAL ASSESSMENT FOR OPERATIONS AND MAINTENANCE OF EXISTING STREET LIGHTING IN THE CITY OF WESTLAND

TO OWNERS OF LAND ADJACENT TO ALL LOCAL AND MAJOR ROADS IN THE CITY OF WESTLAND THAT CURRENTLY HAVE STREET LIGHTING:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the City Council of the City of Westland has tentatively determined to proceed with an assessment to:

Maintain and operate the existing street lighting systems on local and major roads in the City of Westland and to assess the operation and maintenance costs of the existing systems to lots and parcels in the City of Westland currently so serviced.

The City has undertaken a study of the lighting districts, using the latest technology, and is proposing assessments based on that information. The assessment method for costs will remain the same as it was approved in 2016.

All property owners City-wide will be assessed a portion of the cost of major road street lighting, based on the square footage of the parcel. Local road street lighting will be assessed to subdivision parcels based on the number of lots in that district.

It is also anticipated that all costs may result in annual increases in accordance with cost increases charged by Detroit Edison through 2028. The City has converted all of the mercury vapor light fixtures to LED fixtures which are significantly more energy efficient. The City is also converting any remaining high pressure sodium lights to LED fixtures. After the completion, Westland will be one of two communities in Western Wayne County to change over completely to LED streetlights. By completing the changeover it has enabled Westland to keep the costs the same for the past three years. Going forward the maximum cost increase in a year will be 3%.

An assessment roll of the proposed assessments for the annual costs of the operation and maintenance requirements for the existing street lighting systems has been prepared and is on file in the offices of both the City Assessor and City Clerk for public examination. The proposed assessments will be available for review at the Assessor's Office starting on September 4, 2018 through September 17, 2018 from the hours of 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. during normal work days.

The properties have previously been designated as special assessment districts, against which the cost of said operation and maintenance expenses may be assessed.

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE, that the City Council will meet on the 17th day of September, 2018 at 7:00 p.m. at the Westland City Hall, 36300 Warren Road, Westland, Michigan 48185, for the purpose of hearing any person to be affected by the proposed assessment, and to determine whether to approve and confirm the special assessment roll. The City Assessor will also be available at this location on the date from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. to assist persons in reviewing the assessment roll. If you desire to review the roll, please bring this notice to the meeting.

Pursuant to Public Act 64 of 1989, an owner, party in interest, or his or her agent: (1) may appear in person at the hearing to protest the special assessment; (2) may file an appearance and protest by letter, at the hearing; or (3) may file an appearance and protest by letter prior to the hearing, in the office of the Westland City Clerk, 36300 Warren Road, Westland, Michigan, during regular office hours. A written appeal may be filed with the State Tax Tribunal within thirty (30) days of the confirmation of the special assessment roll, only if that assessment was protested as specified above.
