Driver sent to prison for crash

Wolverine Lake man apologizes to victims' families

Matt Jachman

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Facing at least five years behind bars, a tearful Michael G. Stack spoke publicly for the first time Oct. 11 about causing a head-on freeway collision that killed an engaged couple from Wayne last December.

Stack, 59, was driving south on northbound Interstate 275, near Palmer, in Canton Township the morning of Dec. 12, 2017, when he crashed his GMC Envoy into a Buick LeSabre driven by Shannon McIntyre, who was accompanied by fiance Nicholas Paré.

Although test results later showed no alcohol in his system, according to Michigan State Police, Stack admitted to police that he had been drinking and an open bottle of alcohol was found in the Envoy.

Paré and McIntyre, both 33, had planned to get married this year. He was a mechanic and she was a fast food worker and she was also studying health care management and had earned an associate's degree. Survivors include their daughter Emilie, 8, and Paré's teenage sons, Nick Jr. and Devin.

"I'm deeply sorry to the family, especially the children," Stack said during his sentencing before Judge Margaret van Houten in Wayne County Circuit Court. "There was no intention, there was no malice."

MEET THE GHOST HUNTERS

The investigative group will go on several public ghost hunts this month including in Wayne, Westland and Port Huron

David Veselenak

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

When it comes to being a new member of the Motor City Ghost Hunters, Kelly Hamilton will say the best part is the camaraderie.

That camaraderie, of course, extends to interactions with both the living and the dead.

"The one thing that brought me to this group is in an investigation, there's no provoking," said Hamilton, a Berkley resident. "Some of the shows you watch, people like to provoke things. That's one of the rules, we don't do that."

Hamilton is one of several new members of the group that has a busy fall season planned. The requests for hunting ghosts always ramp up in the fall leading up to Halloween, something the group is well aware of.

Several new members of the group recently discussed how they joined MCGH. And it's a little more intense than one may think.

After turning in an application that's reviewed by the group, perspective candidates are then brought in for an interview before the group.

"It's just like a regular job," Taylor resident Rodney Pedrys said.

From there, members will head out and do both public and private investigations. MCGH has done investigations at homes and historical sites in communities such as Canton, Livonia, Northville, Plymouth, Farmington Hills and Wixom.

Those hunts will see group members split up to investigate several parts of a home.

HHS deputy secretary makes visit to Livonia

David Veselenak

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

U.S. Deputy Secretary of Health and Human Services Eric Hargan said Monday in Livonia the federal government needs to take a look at the opioid crisis and what can be done to curtail it.

"Clearly what we did before did not prevent this from coming. What we were doing before, which, a lot of which was very good, did not stop this from happening," he said. "We are definitely going to have to find something new that deals with the problem."

"From the policies we had before, this broke out."

Hargan was at St. Mary Mercy Hospital in Livonia as a part of a tour across the country dealing with the opioid crisis. Hargan met with several local leaders and organizations in a roundtable discussion to hear about the challenges the region has with opioids.

That closed-door meeting, he said, showed him that metro Detroit is moving forward in a positive way, utilizing organizations such as the Greater Detroit Area Health Council, the Detroit Wayne County Mental Health Authority and others.

"There are a lot of areas where there are a lot of different approaches to how people deal with peer support and services as opposed to the medical side of things," he said. "The ability for people to have more training on how they do peer support is an area which would be something we want to learn more about."

Opioids have become a national torney Randall Lewis, said he would undo his actions if he could. He said he was not asking for forgiveness.

"I'm going to jail. I'm taking responsibility for this. I pray to God this family can find some healing," he said.

Van Houten sentenced Stack to between five and 15 years in prison; the term called for in an agreement in which he pleaded no contest to two charges of reckless driving causing death.

"I hope that you'll find some healing from this point forward," the judge later told the victims' family members.

Stack's remarks came after emotionally wrenching statements from several members of the families, during which Stack, who stood facing the judge, sometimes wept.

"I will no longer feel my daughter's arms around me, giving her bear hugs," said McIntyre's mother, Sheryl McIntyre.

"I was very proud to call her my daughter," she added. She had been looking forward to the couple's wedding, she said. "Now all I have is a wedding dress," she said.

Tom McIntyre, Shannon McIntyre's father, remembered saying goodbye to his daughter for the last time shortly before the crash.

"Next time I saw her was to identify her body at the Wayne County Medical Examiner's office," he said.

"I have many memories," he added later. "I wish I had more. You took that away."

Emilie Paré, who was 7 when her parents were killed, wrote of them in a letter read in court by an aunt, Danielle McIntyre.

"I miss mommy picking me up on half-days because we'd go out to lunch," the letter read, in part. "I miss my daddy because he was so silly."

Paré's father, Greg Paré, said he feels the loss of his son every day. "He was my boy. We always talked on the phone about everything. About everything," he said.

The two used to go fishing together, Greg Paré said. "I still go every Sunday, weather permitting, and think about him," he said.

He added: "I'm a very forgiving person, but I'm never going to be able to forgive that."

"We stand before you a broken family," said Kelsey Bies, Nicholas Paré's sister. Another sister, Jessica Nicholson, called Stack "the devil himself."

Stack, a former village councilman in Wolverine Lake, had about two dozen supporters in the courtroom. He was led away by court officers after the hearing.

Later, outside Detroit's Frank Murphy Hall of Justice, Janice Paré, whose husband Tom is Greg Paré's brother, said her nephew Nicholas was "more loved than anybody knew" and that family meant everything to him.

He was deeply concerned about raising his children properly and protecting them, she said. "He was always asking for advice," she said.

She recalled first hearing about the crash.

"I saw the accident on TV and I said, 'God bless the family.' And I didn't even know I was blessing my own," she said. "There will always be a void," she added.

talking point in recent years as deaths and overdoses continue from potent drugs such as fentanyl. The western suburbs of Detroit have continued to be effected with spikes, including in communities such as Livonia, Milford and others.

The problem has become so bad that several communities have declared emergencies over the epidemic in preparation of joining lawsuits against the drug manufacturers. Livonia, Wayne, Westland and Canton have all declared emergencies in preparation for joining lawsuits to be filed in federal court over the damaging effects the epidemic has held over their communities.

Kate Kohn-Parrott, president and CEO of the Greater Detroit Area Health Council, said her organization has created several gatherings and events designed to battle the crisis and is dedicated to working on the issue across metro Detroit.

policy and education and how do we provide the tools so everybody across the space understands what's available," she said. "There's this real need for education."

Hargan, who has served in the Donald Trump and George W. Bush administrations, said priorities are being made to provide additional funding to help battle the crisis, which is continuing to spread.

Livonia Police Chief Curtis Caid said his officers continue to see increases in the use of the substances across town. Livonia police officers carry Narcan, a drug used routinely by public safety officers to treat overdoses, he said, but there's plenty of times officers need training on identifying opioids, since they come in all different forms.

"We have a bigger picture problem in this nation where fentanyl and carfentanil is being flooded into this country from China and other sources that is instantly killing people," he said. "From a law enforcement perspective, our folks are out there on the street dealing with these substances and we know just a minuscule amount of carfentanil can kill you."

Always re-evaluate before making any changes to Medicare

Money Matters
Rick Bloom
USA TODAY NETWORK —
MICHIGAN

Oct. 15 is an important day for seniors. That day each year, open enrollment begins for Medicare. This is the one time that you can make a change in your Medicare coverage. Whether it's changing from or into a Medicare Advantage Plan or changing your Medicare D Prescription Drug Plan, the open enrollment period began Oct. 15 and ends Dec. 7. Even if you're happy with your Medicare D Prescription Drug Plan, it is important to take the time to re-evaluate your current coverage.

It would be nice if you could select a health care plan and let it go for a number of years, but Medicare beneficiaries cannot afford to do that. It is important for them to re-evaluate their situation year by year. Not only does someone's health situation change (i.e., you're on a new or different medication), but insurance companies can make changes every year to their Medicare plans that not only can impact your bottom line (i.e., such as your monthly premiums, deductibles and out-of-pocket costs), but in addition, the insurance company can make changes in the list of covered drugs. It is important to take the time during the open enrollment period to decide whether you should choose a new Medicare Part D Plan or whether Medicare Advantage is for you. Once again, the Medicare Advantage Plan you used and liked last year could have also made substantial changes that could negatively impact you.

It's important to understand that if you do use the open enrollment period to change your prescription D plan or choose a new Medicare Advantage Program, your new coverage will begin Jan. 1, 2019.

Probably the best way to begin your re-evaluation is to go to www.Medicare.gov. This is a free service and it can help you in narrowing your choices for the best plan for you.

Many times when people do their Medicare searches, they tend to focus on those plans with the lowest premiums. I am always in favor of lower costs, but there's more to the equation than just your premiums. Things such as co-payments and deductibles are also important. In some situations, the lower cost premium plan can actually cost you more in the long run. Cost is just one factor. It's important to somewhat look into the future. Because your health situation can change over the next year, it's important to take that into consideration. If you're an individual with chronic conditions, a more comprehensive plan might cost you more in upfront premiums, but lower overall total costs. Unfortunately, nothing in our society is easy and, for some seniors, it may be a daunting task to do the re-evaluation yourself. There are some reputable companies that can assist you for a fee, but be careful. There are also a fair number of companies that are just crooks. In addition, the state of Michigan does have a free service to assist Medicare recipients. The Michigan Medicare/Medicaid Assistance Program provides a variety of educational and counseling services. It can be reached at 800-803-7174 or go to www.mmmapinc.org.

Remember, for the great majority of people, this is the one time of year where you can make changes to your plan and it's important that you take this opportunity. Keep in mind that, when you do your re-evaluation, husband and wife need to look at their situations independently. In most cases, your health situation is not the same, so the plan that works for the husband may not be suitable for the wife.

I recognize that it can be a pain to re-evaluate your coverage and to make a change. The reality of the situation is, if you want to protect yourself and your pocketbook, you must do a re-evaluation and the time to do it is now.

Good luck!

Hunters

"We go in together. We kind of put ourselves in a couple little groups and go to different parts of the home and do different things," Huntington Woods resident Judy Harbert said. "We all have our own equipment that we're using."

Afterward, they'll write up a report and submit it. Those reports go live on the group's website, documenting the evidence (or sometimes a lack thereof) of spiritual activity.

"It's good to have some of our past experiences on our website, because they can see how we operate and that we're not a joke," Harbert said. "We definitely want to share our experiences."

Rockwood resident Sarah Rupert is a new member of the group, but her history of working with spirits goes to her childhood. She said she was born clairvoyant, an ability that allows her to easily communicate with the dead.

What are ghosts like? She said a lot like how they were when they were alive.

"The only way I can explain to a lot of people is if they were a prankster in real life, they're a prankster as a spirit," she said. "They tend to do the same."

Public hunts

The group is preparing for several public hunts at prominent historical locations. The group will lead a sold-out crowd Oct. 20 at the Fort Gratiot Lighthouse in Port Huron, Oct. 26 at the Westland Historical Museum and Oct. 27 at the Wayne Historical Museum.

These tours will bring perspective ghost-hunting members of the public to try out different methods of searching for spirits using tech such as spirit boxes, recorders and other devices.

These types of events have ramped up in recent years, partially due to the elevated status the hobby has through television shows. Networks such as the Travel Channel air multiple shows featuring ghost hunting troupes, driving plenty of people to be interested in the subject.

"Because of the shows that are on TV, it's making more people aware of the paranormal," Rupert said.

Public hunts aren't the only events the group will do around the spookiest time of the year. More private residents tend to reach out asking for services as the leaves change color, perhaps because of the season.

"It definitely is much busier in September and October," Hamilton said.

While plenty of the group has seen evidence through their tools or with their own eyes, there are those who say ghost hunting isn't a real thing or goes against religious teachings. But plenty are curious and will sometimes be drawn to them.

Hamilton said the group was once delivering equipment to another team member at a nursing home and ended up gathering quite a following as they traversed the hallways.

"Of course, we're going through the hallways and everything on it says

'MCGH' ghost hunting. People were following us," she said. "People stepped in the room and said, 'Are there ghosts here? Are you doing an investigation?'"

PREP WRESTLING

Glenn assistant Cox headed to Hall of Fame

Brad Emons
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Frank Cox's work behind the scenes in the sport of wrestling have not gone unnoticed.

The longtime assistant coach at Westland John Glenn will be among four inductees who will be enshrined into the Michigan Wrestling Association Hall of Fame's class of 2018 during a ceremony Saturday, Nov. 3, in Mt. Pleasant as part of the wrestling coaches fall clinic.

This will be the 40th anniversary of the MWA's inaugural Hall of Fame class of 10. Joining Cox will be Victor McGuire (Dearborn Heights Annapolis) Murray Rose (Allegan) and Chris Wittenbach (Clinton).

"I just got to thank the people that made this possible," Cox said. "After my youngest son Rece graduated — he was born in '86 and graduated in '05 — I said after that I don't know how much longer I'm going to do this. But it seems every year, there's some special that comes in and needs the work and I like to put in a little special attention to the kids that are willing to do that."

During his 27-year career at Glenn, the Rockets have captured four regional titles to go along with a 70-percent winning percentage.

Cox has helped coached eight individual state champions, 12 runners-up and 49 state placers. In 2017, he was named Assistant Coach of the Year and was a four-time Regional Assistant Coach of the Year.

Postseason spots remain on the line

Brad Emons
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

For many area high school football teams, the 2018 season is coming to a close.

But for a select group of others, it's only the beginning, with the state playoffs looming Oct. 26.

One team, however, can separate itself from all the others as South Lyon (8-0), the Lakes Valley Conference champ, can become the only HometownLife.com-area team to go unbeaten during the regular season — if the Lions can get past rival South Lyon East (5-3), which is playing for a state playoff berth as well.

It would be quite a remarkable turnaround for the Lions, who finished 1-8 last season.

Schools already in the postseason with six wins are Birmingham Seaholm (7-1), Livonia Churchill (6-2), Canton (6-2), Plymouth (6-2), Farmington (6-2), Birmingham Groves (6-2), Novi Detroit Catholic Central (6-2) and Garden City (6-2).

Among the 5-3 teams that need to win this week in order to qualify for an automatic berth are Birmingham Brother Rice, Farmington Hills Harrison, White Lake Lakeland, Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook and South Lyon East.

Here's sneak preview of the final week's marquee match-ups.

NEARING PERFECTION

Only one more tournament can separate the Northville girls golf team from perfection.

Placing all five golfers in the top 10, the Mustangs continued their dream season Oct. 11 by capturing the MHSAA Division regional by 21 strokes at Travis Pointe Country Club in Saline.

Northville's four-player total was 326. Plymouth took runner-up honors with 347, while Ann Arbor Pioneer grabbed the third and final qualifying berth for the state finals with 385.

After finishing second a year ago, it was Northville's first regional title since 2009.

"We talk a lot in our program about taking advantage of the opportunities we are presented with," Northville coach Chris Cronin said. "Today, I really liked the way the girls handled the conditions and the course. Travis Pointe is a true test for high school golfers and the wind and cold added something that, frankly, players haven't had to deal with all season. The girls were able to manage the adversity and find success."

Northville, winner of all 10 tournaments and unbeaten in dual matches this season, now takes aim at the coveted state crown Friday and Saturday, Oct. 19-20, at Battle Creek's Bedford Valley G.C.

"Going to states is always a great honor. I'm excited for the girls," Cronin said. "They have worked really hard to

Garden City on cusp of outright WWAC title

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Excuse the Garden City volleyball team for getting a little greedy.

The Cougars sewed up at least a share of the Western Wayne Athletic Conference championship Oct. 11 at home by sweeping Romulus in three sets, 25-15, 25-12, 25-17, to improve to 10-11 overall and 8-0 in the WWAC.

But all Garden City needed was a win either Tuesday at Dearborn Heights Annapolis or Thursday at Livonia Clarenceville to claim the title outright.

"Going away to these two schools is a tough path," Garden City coach John Pace said. "Both gyms are tough to play in."

Individual stat leaders for the Cougars in the three-set win over Romulus included Seaira Updyke (seven kills), Makenzie McMillin (seven aces), Megan Glasser (six aces) and Allysa Sanner (19 assist-to-kills).

The Cougars held leads of 9-6 and 15-11 in the first set before McMillin served a pair of aces to help seal the victory.

In the second set, GC trailed 5-2 early before going on an 18-3 run as Abbi McKinney entered the match and served an ace to extend the lead to 23-10.

Romulus jumped out to a 10-4 lead in the third set, but Garden City would eventually take control as Glasser served four straight aces after a kill from Chassidy Terrill to put the Cougars up for good, 13-10.

On Oct. 4, host Garden City improved to 7-0 in the WWAC with a 25-19, 25-16, 21-25, 25-14, win over second-place Dearborn Heights Annapolis.

who wants to stay after practice and work on anything in particular," said Cox, who plans to return for another winter as Bill Polk's assistant. "There's been a few that have been willing to do that and paid off for them with success. Every year, it seems like I get a couple that I just can't say, 'Sorry, you're going to have to find somebody else.' As long as I feel I can contribute, I'll keep doing it."

Polk took over the head coaching duties at Glenn in 1998-99 and Cox has been there with him every step of the way.

"I don't know what I would have done without him the last 20 years," Polk said. "He's kind of like that head coach behind the scenes. He's kind of been a mentor since I started and I was just a kid when I started. He was around and I knew Rece as a kid and was kind of up-and-coming the next few years. Frank and I would talk a lot just about what direction we would need to move with the program. Obviously, I was just getting started, so it was a huge help to get somebody who had been around as long as him to help me along the way."

Cox's son Rece was a standout wrestler for the Rockets and was a two-time state runner-up.

"When I wrestled there, he had his son Rece was on the team," said Glenn athletic director Eric Chambers, a former grappler for the Rockets who graduated in 2004. "Frank is just an awesome mentor. He's the type of guy that will do anything for the kids that he coaches, including taking them to camps or helping them out in any way that he can. He's just a fantastic person. He's an intense coach, but a great overall role model and he's a huge part of the success that we've had on the wrestling team and program at John Glenn."

Cox was a standout three-sport athlete at Galesburg-Augusta, where he played football and wrestled, along with track and field.

Cox played on back-to-back undefeated football teams his junior and senior years. As a senior captain, Cox earned all-state and honorable mention All-America honors as the Rams averaged 43 points per game while allowing just one touchdown all season.

In track and field, Cox was a state placer (fourth) in the pole vault and mile relay (eighth).

He was also a two-time state runner-up in wrestling and honorable mention All-America at Galesburg-Augusta under his father Al, a 1991 MWA Hall of Fame inductee himself.

"Everything athletically, I owe to my father," Cox said. "He played football at Michigan State. He got interested in wrestling in a class he had in college. In his student teaching, the guy who is in the Hall of Fame wrestling was his supervisor. He's the one who told my dad, 'Hey, look, if you're going to have a successful football program, you've got to have wrestling. My dad was a boxer down in Alabama, where he was born. There was no boxing here up north, so he started to do some wrestling and he goes, 'I like this, this is like a fight.' He was a young hillbilly out of South Lyon (8-0, 7-0) at South Lyon East (5-3, 5-2): In the brief history between the two rivals, South Lyon has dominated with a 9-1 record, but East broke through last year with a 34-27 win. South Lyon is coming off an impressive 29-19 victory over Walled Lake Western, while East kept its playoff hopes afloat with a 36-0 win over Milford as Ayden Oliver was 9-of-13 passing for 130 yards and two TDs. Picks: Emons (South Lyon), Budner (South Lyon), Smith (South Lyon).

Birmingham Seaholm (7-1, 6-0) at Birmingham Groves (6-2, 5-1): Yet another great rivalry match-up to close out the regular season. Seaholm wrapped up the Oakland Activities Association Blue Division crown with an impressive 21-0 win last week over Farmington, while Groves upended OAA rival Farmington Harrison, 25-6, to finish second in the White Division. Picks: Emons (Groves), Budner (Groves), Smith (Seaholm).

Canton (6-2, 6-1) at Dearborn Fordson (7-1, 6-1): This second-place KLAA crossover match-up figures to be a dandy and will feature some speedy running backs, with Steven Walker leading Canton, while Fordson counters with Abraham Jaafar and Hassan Mansour. Canton came from behind last week to beat Hartland, 34-17, while Fordson shut out rival Dearborn, 17-0. The two teams have met only twice, with the series being even at 1-1. Picks: Emons (Canton), Budner (Canton), Smith (Canton).

Plymouth (6-2, 5-2) at Livonia Churchill (6-2, 5-2): This third-place KLAA crossover should have seeding and postseason ramifications. The winner could gain home field advantage at least for the first round. Churchill's Darrell Mason Jr. scored six first-half touchdowns in a 47-7 rout last week of rival Livonia Stevenson, while Mike Mathias returned the opening kickoff 92 yards to propel Plymouth to a 35-13 win over rival Salem. Picks: Emons (Churchill), Budner (Churchill), Smith (Plymouth).

Farmington (6-2, 5-1) at Farmington Harrison (5-3, 4-2): With Harrison closing its doors in June, this will be the final meeting between the rivals. Harrison has dominated the series, 30-5. Farmington missed a chance to sew up the OAA Blue title after getting blanked by Seaholm, 21-0. Harrison, smarting from a 25-6 loss last week to Groves, needs a victory to ensure a 34th playoff appearance. Picks: Emons (Harrison), Budner (Harrison), Smith (Farmington).

Bonus game

(7 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 20, at Detroit's Ford Field)

Novi Detroit Catholic Central (6-2, 2-1) vs. Warren De La Salle (6-2, 2-1): Two state-ranked powers meet for the second week in a row, with CC drawing first blood with a 10-7 Boys Bowl win Sunday over the Pilots, who had trouble running the football. De La Salle won back-to-back eighth- and ninth-week match-ups against the Shamrocks a year ago en route to a Division 2 state title. Picks: Emons (De La Salle), Budner (Catholic Central), Smith (De La Salle).

be in this position. They've earned it. I think there is a real possibility that the girls can improve on last year's fourth-place finish — it's going to be fun."

Medalist honors

Pioneer sophomore Amaya Melendez earned individual medalist honors with 78, while Northville senior Mariella Simoncini was runner-up with 79.

"Conditions were really tough out there today," Simoncini said. "On the first hole, I was wearing five layers of shirts and it was hard to swing. The course played really long today, so we had to make adjustments with our club selections. As the round progressed, I was able to find consistency and strung some pars together and picked up a birdie, so that was good."

Northville's other four scores came from junior Sufna Gill, third (80); sophomore Nicole Whatley, fourth (81); Katelyn Tokarz, seventh (86); and junior Sedona Shipka, 10th (89).

"I'm super proud of our team — all of these girls played so well and I am so proud of them," Simoncini said.

Meanwhile, the Northville girls have developed a tight bond over the season.

"I don't think our team has ever been closer," Gill said. "We all support each other really well and I know that any one of us is capable of stepping up and delivering a great performance. That gives you confidence every time you tee it up."

After finishing fourth a year ago, the No. 1-ranked Mustangs have their eyes on the ultimate prize.

"We want to prove to ourselves how much we've improved over last season," Whatley said. "It's an opportunity to show that at the highest level."

Wildcats runners-up

Plymouth, meanwhile, will be making its 10th straight state finals appearance.

The Wildcats' four scorers were senior Shae Zydeck and freshman Bridget Boczar, tied for fifth with 84 each; freshman Grace Boczar, seventh, 86; and senior Maire Sullivan, 14th, 93. Junior Grace Iacopelli took 16th with 95.

The total yardage at Travis Pointe was close to 5,400 yards, which will be close to the same length this week at Bedford Valley. Conditions changed dramatically from the previous day.

The Plymouth girls golf team, coached by Dan Young, will be making its 10th consecutive state finals appearance after placing second at the Travis Pointe Division regional.

"It was cold, it was windy and Travis Pointe is where they play the LPGA, so it's legit golf, it was tough," Plymouth coach Dan Young said. "Everybody was higher than normal. You just had to gut it out and see if you were good enough to make it. My girls played about what they normally play, but a little higher than normal. They were a little disappointed with some of their scores, but we were pleased to qualify and move on."

Rounding out top eight in the 12-school field were Ann Arbor Skyline, fourth (388); Salem, fifth (398); Temperance Bedford, sixth (416); Saline, seventh (425); and Novi, eighth (442). Salem's Megan Kozlowski, a sophomore, earned an individual qualifying berth with 88, while Skyline's Nikki Lama and Adie Maki also also Battle Creek-bound after shooting 89 and 90, respectively.

Other Salem scorers included Julianne Small, 19th (97); Ava Martin, 24th (104); and Sarah Stec, 32nd (109). Ryleigh Reed added a 110 (33rd overall).

Novi's top four included Gogineni Hrishika, 24th (104); Sarayu Chaparala, 26th (107); Despina Alexander, 35th (111); and Shiya Vallapareddy, 43rd (120). Anna Biberstein was 45th (125).

Canton, which did not figure in the team scoring, was led by Simi Neeluru, 15th (94); Ava Song, 41st (119); and Maddie Block, 46th (130).

South Lyon retains top spot in HTL rankings

Marty Budner
hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

South Lyon indeed proved worthy of its lofty status as Hometownlife Sports' No. 1-ranked team.

The surging Lions took over the top spot last week and maintained that ranking after their 29-19 victory over Walled Lake Western in a showdown for the Lakes Valley Conference championship. Coach Jeff Henson's squad remains the undefeated and undisputed leader of the HTL football network as we head into the final week of the regular season.

In fact, the next three teams — Livonia Churchill, Canton and Catholic Central — all registered a win last week and continue to hold down their respective spots in the HTL weekly rankings.

There is a shakeup among the next six spots as some teams have moved up, some down and some completely out.

As we embark, amazingly, on the regular season's final week, check out the HTL's Top-10 rankings:

1. South Lyon (8-0)

Last week: No. 1. South Lyon completed its worst-to-first dream season in Lakes Valley Conference play last week. The Lions were tied for last place last year with Milford at 1-7. They are now the undefeated LVC champions following last week's 10-point triumph over defending co-champ Walled Lake Western. South Lyon has a chance to wrap up its first undefeated 9-0 regular season since 1991 with a win this week. Next game: Oct. 19 at South Lyon East, 7 p.m.

2. Livonia Churchill (6-2)

Last week: No. 2. Churchill won its fourth straight game last week, blitzing district rival Stevenson, 47-7, thanks to a sensational effort from Darrell Mason Jr. (six first-half touchdowns). The Chargers placed third in the KLAA, with their only two losses to league champ Brighton (by 24 points) and runner-up Fordson (by 11 points). Churchill wrapped up its fourth postseason berth in five years. Next game: Oct. 19 home vs. Plymouth, 7 p.m.

3. Canton (6-2)

Last week: No. 3. Since its Week 5 loss to KLAA East champion Brighton, Canton has averaged 39 points per game. Senior Steven Walker continued his offensive prowess with a whopping 223-yard performance in last week's 34-27 victory over Hartland as the Chiefs wrapped up runners-up honors behind Brighton. The Chiefs will be play post-season football for the 11th straight year and 18th time in 19 seasons. Next game: Oct. 19 at Dearborn Fordson, 7 p.m.

4. Catholic Central (6-2)

Last week: No. 4. Crunch time has come and so has starting quarterback Marco Genrich, who missed three games with a hand injury. After returning on a part-time basis in a loss to St. Mary's, Genrich returned full time last week in a clutch 10-7 victory over Warren De La Salle to tie the Pilots for the Central Division title. It won't take long to renew acquaintances as the Catholic League combatants meet again this week. Next game: Oct. 20 vs. De La Salle at Ford Field, 7 p.m.

5. Birmingham Seaholm (7-1)

Last week: No. 6. Seaholm moved up a spot in the HTL rankings following last week's 21-0 victory over Farmington to claim its first OAA Blue Division championship in five years. The Maples are led by senior quarterback Gray Kinnie, who is exceptionally executing the vaunted veer option. The Maples, who have registered their first winning season since 2013, face a severe road test this week. Next game: Oct. 19 at Birmingham Groves, 7 p.m.

6. Birmingham Groves (6-2)

Last week: No. 10. Groves, after opening the season with tough losses to West Bloomfield and Oak Park, defeated Farmington Harrison last week for its sixth straight victory and secured its sixth straight playoff berth in the process. The Falcons also wrapped up second place in the OAA White behind Oak Park. Groves once again got big performances from Damonte McCurdy and Khalil Dawsey in last week's surprisingly lopsided 19-point triumph. Next game: Oct. 19 home vs. Seaholm, 7 p.m.

7. Farmington Harrison (5-3)

Last week: No. 5. Harrison lost for the fourth straight time to Groves last week and fell down two spots in the HTL standings. The Hawks need a victory this week to guarantee a 34th state playoff berth. Harrison, which will be closing its doors following the 2018-19 academic year, should have plenty of motivation as it plays its final regular-season home game. John Herrington, the state's winningest coach, and players Roderick Heard and Ben Williams will do everything they can to win in what figures to be an emotional evening against Farmington, which graciously gave up its home date to allow Harrison to host the game. Next game: Oct. 19 home vs. Farmington, 7 p.m.

8. Lakeland (5-3)

Last week: No. 8. Lakeland retained its ranking despite falling at home to undefeated Lapeer, 26-14. Head coach Joe Woodruff's Eagles need to get back on track in a hurry to secure a second straight postseason berth. All-state senior running back Robbie Tracy and his teammates aim to extend Lakeland's season this week against Northern, which has won three straight games en route to a 4-4 record. Next game: Oct. 19 home vs. Walled Lake Northern, 7 p.m.

9. Plymouth (6-2)

Last week: Unranked. Plymouth has returned to the HTL rankings after a four-week absence. The Wildcats defeated Park rival Salem last week for their fourth straight victory while wrapping up their first playoff berth in three years and 10th overall. Plymouth is led by quarterback Nick Downs, running back Logan Walkley and receiver Van Riley. Next game: Oct. 19 at Churchill, 7 p.m.

10. South Lyon East (5-3)

Last week: Unranked. South Lyon East has alternated wins and losses since its second game. The Cougars won last week 36-0 over Milford. They hope to change that results pattern in a big way this week. East defeated the Lions for the first in 10 meetings last year. If they can knock off undefeated South Lyon, East will earn second place outright in the final LVC standings and, more importantly, the program's second state playoff berth. Next game: Oct. 19 home vs. Walled Lake Western, 7 p.m.

Minnesota spoils home opener for U-18 team

hometownlife.com
USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

While the U.S. NTDP U-18 team battled Friday against Michigan in Ann Arbor, another distinguished Big Ten hockey team was waiting in Plymouth for Saturday afternoon's tilt.

The Minnesota Gophers, including former NTDP player Scott Reedy, never trailed in a 7-1 victory. It was the home opener for the U-18 squad.

U.S. head coach John Wroblewski, whose team beat Notre Dame 4-1 on Oct. 7 and then registered a 6-3 victory Friday against the Wolverines, said there was no letdown — just another hot goalie.

"We were really good in the first period. I thought their goaltender (Eric Schierhorn) was outstanding in the first and I actually thought we were the quicker, faster team on the line rush," Wroblewski said. "We had all facets of our game clicking right out of the gate. We were riding time in the offensive zone, our line rushes, we had good drives on our line rushes and we started to back them off, playing fast in the neutral zone, got some crossing patterns going."

"Maybe it was a little bit of a deflating nature, with how successful we were (against U-M) in the first 25 minutes scoring. And then we go in this afternoon and couldn't get anything past him."

Both teams had 30 shots on goal, but Schierhorn was more than ready for the high-flying line of Jack Hughes, Cole Caulfield and Trevor Zegras and a number of other top-NHL prospects.

"It's a good lesson for the guys," said Wroblewski, whose team is 4-2-0. "We know it's going to be a theme for the year. We're going to face the other team's best goaltender every time; the kid's going to be on his head."

"Every game, they've got us circled and it's (opposing goalie's) opportunity to showcase in front of 50 NHL scouts at minimum on a nightly basis. We're not going to get a soft performance all season."

Minnesota (2-0-1) led 2-0 after two periods, had that lead sliced to 2-1 early in the third on a U.S. goal by Judd Caulfield and then scored five unanswered goals to win going away at USA Hockey Arena.

Alabama, just out of World War II. He pushed me, he made me tough and he did it all for me."

Cox wrestled for three seasons at Eastern Michigan University before joining the U.S. Army, where he served a two-year commitment in Germany as he continued to wrestle and box. He was an all-services honoree his first year, placing second in freestyle and third in Greco Roman wrestling. Cox was also second in Greco Roman his second year and took a second in boxing as his team won the all-services title.

Cox coached high school wrestling and football while being stationed in Germany. He returned after his commitment and spent a year as a red-shirt at Western Michigan University in 1972. He returned to EMU, but learned his final year of eligibility had been exhausted just prior to the start of the season. He became a graduate assistant at EMU and then spent four years in Ypsilanti as an assistant there from 1974-78.

"Actually, Frank was the reason why I started wrestling, because he was our (Westland) Comets football coach and he told me, 'Hey, you should wrestle,'" Schambers said. "They had just brought middle school sports back. And I was, 'OK, I'll give it a shot.' The football coach told me to do it and that kind of led me into wrestling."

Cox helped Schambers get into coaching, as well.

"Frank was a reason why I was a freshman head football coach at Glenn for about six or seven years," Schambers said. "He's a big reason why that happened. They offered him the position and he declined, but he said, 'I know the guy you should hire for the job.' He came on as my assistant, taught me a lot. So he started off as a coach, became a mentor and now he's a good friend. In my professional career, he's really done a lot for me and continues to be supportive and help out in any way possible. And that's kind of the relationship that most people have had with him. He's heavily involved and will do anything he can for the guys he's coached or currently coaching. It's a great honor and something and I'm happy to see him get. It's a long time coming."

Cox, who got into the convenience store and pizzeria business with a fraternity brother out of EMU, landed as the coach at Wayne-Westland's Stevenson Middle School in 1988-89. In 1991, he found a permanent home at Glenn, first coaching under Dave Hill and then Keith Zimmerman before becoming an assistant under Polk.

Meanwhile, Cox's admiration for Polk as a head coach runs deep.

"He never cuts corners," Cox said. "He takes care of his assistants and credit to him. He's got all these guys who have wrestled for him who have gone on to college and come back, if they have spare time, that come back in the room and help coach, wrestle with the kids. He's been fantastic."

Al Cox, 91, is expected to be in attendance for Frank's induction ceremony, along with his wife Mary Glasgow, stepson Ryan Cretens (Glenn class of 1977), stepdaughter Sarah Cretens (Glenn class of 1978) and son Rece.

But one special thanks will go out to the coach he currently works for.

"I can't say enough about Bill Polk," Cox said. "Bill caught on really quick and, I'm telling you, he's the best coach in the state of Michigan at this point and time. I honestly believe it. The cream rises to the top and he's the best. He's done wonders with the material he has to work with. It's amazing, so it makes it pretty easy for me with a head coach like that. If anybody should be inducted, it should be him."

PREP ATHLETICS

A look at the new C'ville complex

David Veselenak

USA TODAY NETWORK — MICHIGAN

Clarenceville High School athletic director Kevin Murphy had plenty of reason to don his red and gray pinstripe overalls Friday.

Not only was it Clarenceville's homecoming, but Murphy and the rest of the school district celebrated the grand opening of the new athletic complex at David B. McDowell Field at Tim Shaw Stadium.

"It's a relief to have it 99.9 percent done," he said. "It's been a fun process to design and see it through fruition all the way from the beginning to the end."

The complex, located behind Clarenceville Middle School on Middlebelt south of Eight Mile, has an all-new synthetic turf field, a new scoreboard and play clocks, a new archway, a new concession stand and new locker rooms, to name a few. The $3.2 million project, paid for out of the district's sinking fund, also included an expansion of the drop-off area near the middle school and a resurfacing of the parking lot.

The new turf field has hosted several contests, including JV football, JV and varsity soccer, the school's powder puff game and an alumni soccer game for the homecoming festivities. It's expected to host a top-tier football game Oct. 19, when Clarenceville is expected to host Bishop Foley High School in the last contest of the season. The Trojans have had to forfeit several varsity football games this season due to a lack of players after the team suffered a string of injuries. Murphy said the school is expected to field one team against Bishop Foley, which only has a varsity team.

The new field has markings for both football and soccer, as well as marks for adding lacrosse, if the school decides to ever add the sport, Murphy said.

"We put little blue marks out there, just in case we ever added it or wanted to rent for lacrosse," he said. "It has the check marks so we can paint lines."

Also on the field is a subtle tribute to the district's most famous alumnus, former NFL player Tim Shaw. In addition to the stadium bearing his family name, the 8-yard line on both sides of the field is dashed in red, rather than the traditional white.

Superintendent Paul Shepich said plenty of minds came together to make the field happen. It's just another way the small district, which covers parts of Livonia, Farmington Hills and Redford Township, in the forefront of innovation.

"This is a very special occasion as we continue our push to keep Clarenceville on the map as a school district," he said. "We are small, but we are mighty."

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

WAYNE - WESTLAND COMMUNITY SCHOOLS A SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT BOND PROPOSITION
Shall the Wayne-Westland Community Schools, County of Wayne, State of Michigan, borrow the sum of not to exceed One Hundred Fifty-Eight Million ($158,000,000) Dollars and issue its general obligation unlimited tax bonds, in one or more series, for the purpose of paying for the

- cost of the following projects:
*Remodeling, equipping, re-equipping, furnishing, re-furnishing school buildings, athletic fields and other facilities for safety and security, energy conservation and other purposes;
*Acquiring and installing instructional technology equipment and infrastructure in school buildings and other facilities;
*Construction of additions to existing school buildings and athletic field houses at both high school sites; and
*Preparing, developing and improving sites at school buildings, playgrounds, athletic fields and other facilities and the purchase of school buses?

The maximum number of years any series of bonds may be outstanding exclusive of refunding, is not more than twenty-five (25) years; the estimated millage that will be levied to pay the proposed bonds in the first year is 4.48 mills (which is equal to $4.48 per $1,000 of taxable value); and the estimated simple average annual millage that will be required to retire each series of bonds is 4.38 mills annually ($4.38 per $1,000 of taxable value).

If approved by the voters, the bonds will be guaranteed by the State under the School Bond Qualification and Loan program (the "Program"). The School District currently has $6,370,000 of qualified bonds outstanding and $0 of qualified loans outstanding under the Program. The School District does not expect to borrow from the Program to pay debt service on these bonds. The estimated computed millage rate required to be levied to pay the proposed bonds may change in the future based on changes in certain circumstances.

(Pursuant to State law, expenditure of bond proceeds must be audited, and the proceeds cannot be used for teacher, administrator or employee salaries, repair or maintenance costs or other operating expenses.)

Replacement Operating Millage Proposal
